

I Stayed At Home For A Century, When I Emerged I Was Invincible

Chapter 26: Truth Realm, Materialization Of Power Into Reality

“This was left behind by my father, so it’s naturally not just any ordinary tea.”

Chu Xuan lied through his teeth.

As long as he said it was left behind by his father, no one would doubt him.

His father was indeed a figure that had suppressed all his peers.

“So it was left behind by third uncle. No wonder!”

Chu Yun was enlightened.

Chu Qiuluo was a legendary figure.

This was why, when most people saw Chu Xuan, their first thought was that a tiger father had begotten a dog son!

After a period of time, the Chu family had become very peaceful.

The cult seemed to have stopped its movements for a while, and most of their forces in Chu County had retreated.

There was still no news of Zhang Kui.

It seemed that he really was dead.

Only Wan Chang was aware that the b*stard Zhang Kui had once appeared briefly.

The experts of Black Moon Tower had not been able to kill him during that brief moment.

He had escaped.

Moreover, he had once again lost track of Zhang Kui.

Fortunately, he had not announced to the public that Zhang Kui was dead!

He had only told that to Chu Tianming once.

Therefore, even if Zhang Kui really reappeared, no one would suspect that Black Moon Tower's intelligence had been wrong.

This was because Black Moon Tower had never officially said that Zhang Kui was dead.

As for Chu Tianming, he had offered to use his quota for Black Moon Tower's intelligence network for his sake to investigate Chu Qiuluo's whereabouts. As such, Chu Tianming would not do anything that would jeopardize the current situation.

"You've been in seclusion for ten months. You've been rewarded with the Mystic Fire Bell."

The mystic fire bell was a low-grade emperor artifact. It contained mystic fire that could burn the sky and boil the earth, and its power was unparalleled.

Chu Xuan had obtained yet another emperor artifact. The longer he remained in seclusion, the more generous the rewards became. The levels of the rewards even became higher as well.

The worst reward he was likely to receive for a year of seclusion was a heaven-level scripture!

Perhaps he might even receive a divine-level scripture or something above it?

Chu Xuan was full of expectation.

During this period of time, Chu Yun often came to the courtyard. Every time she flipped through the books, she would gain a different understanding of the concepts within.

Every time she would sigh, "Third uncle really is a genius!"!

Chu Xuan smiled but would not say anything.

She drank the enlightenment tea everyday. There would basically be no hindrances when Chu Yun attempted to break through to the truth realm.

She had outstanding innate talent and had comprehended the true meaning of Heaven and Earth in advance. It was only a matter of time before she would break through to the truth realm.

After a short period of time passed, Chu Yun was now not far from the fourth level of the profound realm.

Chu Xuan, on the other hand, had already touched upon the threshold of the truth realm. He would definitely break through to the truth realm within half a month at most.

There were a few more potted plants in the courtyard. These had all been brought over by Chu Yun.

She felt that the courtyard was too monotonous. There was only a cat and a strange little tree. It was very uninteresting, so she planted some spiritual flowers in pots here.

"Thirteenth brother, why haven't I seen you leave the courtyard before?"

Chu Yun asked in puzzlement.

Despite having visited him repeatedly, and over a long period of time, Chu Xuan had not left the yard once.

Chu Tianming had only chased him out of the ancestral residence. He had not grounded him, so he was actually allowed to leave the courtyard.

"I'm cultivating."

"Huh?"

Chu Yun said in confusion, "Thirteenth brother, I haven't seen you cultivate, and your strength has not increased."

"You wouldn't understand. I'm cultivating the heart."

Chu Xuan replied with an unfathomable expression, "The higher the state of the heart, the higher the cultivation strength."

"So, thirteenth brother, you're saying that because the state of your heart isn't high, that's why your strength is so weak?"

Chu Yun pondered.

"Is this the cultivation method that third uncle passed down? How strange!"

The corner of Chu Xuan's mouth twitched. In order to prevent her from forcing him to cultivate, he could only lie and say, "Yes, my father passed it down in secret. At the beginning, his strength appeared weak but, once he comprehended it, he soared into the sky."

"Not everyone can cultivate this method. It's very harsh. That's why I didn't return to the ancestral residence!"

With this excuse, Chu Yun would not continue pestering him to return with her to the ancestral residence.

“I understand!”

Chu Yun nodded, and said with a serious face: “I won’t force thirteenth brother to return to the ancestral residence, and I won’t allow anyone to disturb you!”

Ten days passed quickly.

Chu Xuan had already stepped one-foot into the truth realm.

He would break through within the next one or two days.

Chu Yun drank the enlightenment tea and flipped through the cultivation records. Her comprehension of the Great Luo Emperor scripture was getting deeper and deeper, and she had half-a-foot into the fourth level of the profound realm.

On this day, Chu Yun came over to bid farewell. She was going back to the ancestral residence to break through to the fourth level of the profound realm.

Chu Tianming was very happy. He loved his granddaughter Chu Yun more and more.

Even Chu Qing, whom he regarded as his successor to the patriarch position, could not compare to Chu Yun in terms of how much love and affection he displayed.

Chu Tianming’s heart was already moved. He no longer had the intention of marrying Chu Yun out. He directly ignored the Qin royal family’s intention to seek her hand in marriage.

Chu Xuan was very clear that the Chu family, Zhao family, He family, and the Qin royal family had always been connected by marriage. The direct descendants of the four families were all married to each other.

Thanks to this, the relationship between the four families was inseparable.

He did not have a fiancée because his father, Chu Qiuluo, had once broken the marriage contract. In addition, his talent was poor, so the other three families did not fancy him as a potential marriage candidate.

Other than him, the other direct descendants basically all had marriage partners.

Even if they had not been confirmed yet, the elders all had the same intention and would look for opportunities for these partners to nurture their feelings for each other.

For example, Old Seventh’s fiancée was He Weiwei.

This pair could be considered to have already taken a liking to each other, and it was unlikely for their relationship to encounter any accidents.

Chu Yun was still young, so naturally, her marriage had not been decided yet. Moreover, Chu Tianming was very fond of her, so he did not have any plans to have her married off for the time being.

What Chu Xuan wanted to do was to allow Chu Yun to gain enough power to control her own future.

After staying in seclusion for 10 months and 15 days, the opportunity to break through to the truth realm finally arrived.

Chu Xuan sat cross-legged on the bed. The minor five elements array formation in the courtyard had been activated.

Although his breakthrough speed was very fast, and he could stabilize his cultivation on the same day as his breakthrough, he activated the minor five elements array formation to guard against any untoward incidents, just in case.

The spiritual power in his body surged and began to undergo a transformation.

Wisps of spiritual will and spiritual power, as well as the comprehension of the truth realm, surfaced in his mind.

The speed of transformation was not slow. Two hours later, Chu Xuan had already broken through to the truth realm.

His spiritual power had been completely sublimated, and each wisp of spiritual power contained a wisp of spiritual will.

After the breakthrough, Chu Xuan's mind moved, and a wisp of spiritual power appeared.

A little rabbit formed from spiritual power appeared beside him.

The little rabbit looked no different from a real rabbit. There were no traces of spiritual power being condensed.

Its eyes were bright and full of life. It opened its mouth and let out a cute little rabbit-like cry.

Every hair on its body was exactly the same as a real one.

Touching it, it felt furry, warm and alive.

Cutting its leg, the little rabbit cried out in pain, jumped about and struggled, and bright red blood flowed out of the wound.

Materialization of power into reality!

This was the mark of a truth realm expert!

For those below the truth realm, it was almost impossible to notice that this rabbit was something created from spiritual power.

Chu Xuan could not help but recall a record he read in a miscellaneous book.

A certain truth realm master created thousands of pills from spiritual power and sold them to a certain sect. The sect master did not realize that they were fake.

It was not until they found out that the pills could only increase spiritual power slightly and did not have any special effects that they discovered that they had been cheated.

Of course, if the pills created from the spiritual power of a truth realm expert were not tampered with, martial artists below the truth realm could consume them to recover their spiritual power and even break through a small realm.

With a thought from Chu Xuan, little rabbits and cute kittens appeared in the courtyard one after the other.

They were bouncing, lively and cute!

Chapter 27: Myriad Spirits Scripture And Myriad Elixirs Scripture

“You have remained in seclusion and have broken through to the truth realm. You have been rewarded with a pet Sky-shaking Golden Roc.”

Another pet?

Chu Xuan examined the information of the Sky-shaking Golden Roc.

“Sky-shaking Golden Roc. An ancient godly beast with extreme speed. It can shake the nine heavens above and split the nine netherworlds below...”

After reading the introduction of Sky-shaking Golden Roc, Chu Xuan could only say that it was awesome!

It was indeed an ancient divine beast.

He took out the Sky-shaking Golden Roc.

It was a valiant little eagle with golden claws, golden wings, and sharp eyes.

Its strength was at the first level of the truth realm.

However, it was only the size of a pigeon.

It was still in its infant stage, and he did not know how many years it would take for it to grow to adulthood.

“Meow.”

The Heavenly Spirit Cat jumped over and stared at the Sky-shaking Golden Roc.

The Sky-shaking Golden Roc spread its wings and raised one of its claws to grab at the neck of the Heavenly Spirit Cat.

The cat’s hair immediately stood on end. It let out a low roar and a surging pressure emerged.

It had activated the power of the White Tiger divine beast.

However, the Sky-shaking Golden Roc was not afraid. It tilted its head and appeared somewhat curious as to why this cat could release such power.

The Heavenly Spirit Cat’s current strength was around the third level of the unity realm. It was weaker than the Sky-shaking Golden Roc, but since it also belonged to Chu Xuan, there would only be friendly fights and scars, but no life-and-death battles.

After breaking through to the truth realm, Chu Xuan’s confidence had increased greatly.

He was one step closer to being invincible in the Southern Region.

The heretic cult was nothing to worry about.

The ordinary experts of the evil imperial court were also nothing to worry about.

There was no emperor-level character in the Southern Region either. As long as he broke through to the emperor realm, he would be invincible in the Southern Region. He could then ignore the evil imperial court.

Of course, the emperor realm was still rather insignificant elsewhere.

He would only be able to dominate the Southern Region.

Outside the Southern Region, on this vast continent, the emperor realm was nothing to shout about.

After breaking through to the truth realm, one's cultivation would increase even more slowly. Chu Xuan was in no hurry and would patiently wait until a year of seclusion had passed.

The reward for remaining in seclusion for a year would undoubtedly be generous.

Perhaps the reward for remaining in seclusion for a year would allow him to directly break through to the emperor realm.

As long as he broke through to the emperor realm, he would truly have nothing to fear in the Southern Region.

The Sky-shaking Golden Roc sat on a branch of the spirit-devouring flower and tilted its head to stare at it. It felt that this small tree was a bit extraordinary.

As an ancient divine beast, it naturally had its pride.

Those that could catch its eye were not ordinary things.

Chu Yun was still in closed-door cultivation. Not everyone was like Chu Xuan, whereby breaking through was like drinking water and happened in an instant.

For others, even breaking through a small realm would take at least a few days.

After breaking through, they would still need to stabilize their cultivation.

Looking at the potted plants in the courtyard, Chu Xuan felt that he had nothing to do. As such, he took out a pair of scissors and trimmed the leaves and branches of the potted plants.

Such a laidback lifestyle was indeed very comfortable.

He just needed a beautiful maid to accompany him!

No matter how beautiful the potted plants and flowers were, they could not compare to having a delicate beauty by his side.

There were many beautiful maids in the Chu family, but none of them were talented.

He did not want an ordinary maid.

As such, he could only stay home alone for now.

“You pruned the potted plants and enjoyed yourself. You’ve been rewarded with the Myriad Spirits scripture and the Myriad Elixirs scripture.”

Chu Xuan paused. He had triggered a random reward again?

Awesome!

After trimming the potted plants, Chu Xuan sat on the reclining chair and checked out the system’s reward.

The Myriad Spirits scripture recorded all the spiritual objects, heavenly materials and earthly treasures in the world.

If one was familiar with the Myriad Spirits scripture, one would be able to recognize any spiritual item in the world, any heavenly material or earthly treasure, even those extinct and extremely rare spiritual items.

The Myriad Spirits scripture recorded the effects and general uses of each spiritual item.

In addition to the Myriad Spirits scripture, he had received an alchemy scripture.

It recorded countless pill formulas, as well as numerous alchemy methods that had been passed down throughout history.

Both the lost pill formulas and the lost pill refinement methods could be found within its pages.

Chu Xuan had received the Myriad Spirits and the Myriad Elixirs scriptures. Both scriptures were not thick, but each page contained an enormous amount of information.

This was a special method of recording information. The contents of each page could be scrolled down continuously. Other than words, there were also images and diagrams on each page.

The pill refinement methods recorded in the Myriad Elixir scripture included not only the text notes, but also a process diagram of the pill refinement.

Chu Xuan did not immediately ask the system to infuse the contents of the two books into his mind. Instead, he flipped through them leisurely.

Reading the Myriad Spirits scripture was like reading a plant encyclopedia.

It was just right to pass time with.

Chu Xuan had read through most of the books in the Chu family, so the Myriad Spirits scripture and the Myriad Elixirs scripture could make up for his current lack of reading materials. It was the best way for him to pass the time.

In any case, he could not utilize the Myriad Spirits and the Myriad Elixirs scriptures for the time being, so he was in no hurry to master them.

He did not lack pills.

He did not lack natural treasures either. Every day that he stayed in seclusion, the system would give him all kinds of rewards.

Chu Xuan placed one of the pill refinement methods and a few pill formulas in the cultivation notes he had prepared for Chu Yun.

Chu Xuan did not care whether Chu Yun was interested in the subject or whether she would learn it.

He only needed to prepare things for her so that she could increase her own influence and voice in the family.

That pill refining method was one of the top pill refining techniques in the Southern Region. After Chu Yun learned it, her status in the Chu family would surpass Chu Qing's and would be no lower than the head of the family.

Moreover, the pill formulas that Chu Xuan had prepared for her included pills that would allow her to break through to the truth realm. Each pill could increase the chance of breaking through by 30 to 70 percent.

Other than pills that could help her break through to the truth realm, there were also pills that could heal injuries, strengthen her spiritual will, and help her recover from mental injuries.

If Chu Yun could refine these pills, the strength of the Chu family would increase by 30% within a short period of time.

Once Chu Yun mastered those pill refining techniques, even if she actually did want to get married, Chu Tianming would beg her not to leave the Chu family.

Three days later, Chu Yun left closed-door cultivation.

The first thing she did after she came out of closed-door cultivation was to come over to the small courtyard.

She flipped through the cultivation notes again and discovered the alchemy technique. She was immediately shocked.

There was actually an alchemy method to refine the profound void pills, which also included the recipe for the profound void pill.

The profound void pill was extremely rare. In the entire Southern Region, there were only a few people who could refine the profound void pill.

The Chu family had once thought of purchasing a profound void pill, but its price at the Black Moon Tower was too expensive. The Chu family would have to spend almost one-third of its reserves in order to purchase it.

It was precisely because of this that they gave up on the idea of purchasing the profound void pill.

If he had the profound void pill, Chu Tianming would have a chance of breaking through to the unity realm!

This pill refinement method had been very casually placed inside a pile of notes, almost as if it held no value.

“Third uncle actually did not pass on this pill refinement technique to the family?”

Chu Yun was puzzled. If someone from the Chu family was in possession of this pill refinement technique, it would be enough to cause the Chu family’s strength to soar.

Moreover, after the Chu family could refine these pills themselves, there was no need for them to buy pills from others. In fact, they could even sell them to the market.

No matter how she looked at it, this pill refinement technique was extremely important to the Chu family.

Chu Yun could not understand why third uncle did not pass on this pill refinement technique to grandfather?

Could it be that this pill refinement technique had unique origins?

It had to be so.

Chu Yun was conflicted. Should she learn it then?

If this pill refinement technique were to be leaked, would it bring disaster to the Chu family?

After hesitating for a long time, Chu Yun finally decided to learn it secretly. When she wanted to refine pills, she would do so secretly.

As long as she did not refine pills on a large scale, and as long as it could be kept a secret, there would not be any trouble.

After making up her mind, Chu Yun began to seriously study it.

Chapter 28: Sending Someone To His Door?

Chu Yun's actions naturally could not be concealed from Chu Xuan.

After seeing Chu Yun's cautious appearance, Chu Xuan could not help but feel puzzled. Why was she being so secretive?

After thinking about it for a moment, he immediately understood the reason and did not know whether to laugh or cry.

That pill refinement technique was extremely extraordinary in the Southern Region. If it had really been left behind by Chu Qiuluo, why was it not handed over to the Chu family?

It had to be because there was something wrong with the origins of this pill refinement technique.

Chu Xuan did not say anything. Her being more cautious was also a good thing.

If news of it were to leak out, it would be troublesome if some of the major forces in the Southern Region targeted and attacked the Chu family because of it.

He was only at the first level of the truth realm now.

Once an expert attacked and revealed his cultivation level, how would he be able to keep a low profile and stay at home in peace?

Over the next few days, Chu Yun fervently studied the pill refinement technique.

Finally, after mastering both the pill formula and the pill refinement method, she decided to practice the pill refinement technique.

In order to be cautious, she did not choose to refine pills inside the small courtyard.

Instead, she planned to go out and temper herself. She wanted to leave the Chu family's territory and find a quiet place to practice it secretly.

Before leaving, Chu Yun told Chu Xuan about the pill refinement method and asked him to hide it well.

Chu Xuan did not know whether to laugh or cry. Seeing how cautious she was acting, he could only lie and say that he was already aware of the pill refinement technique. He told her that his father asked him to learn it, but he did not do so because he felt lazy. There was no problem with where the pill refinement technique came from.

Although Chu Xuan claimed that there were no problems with the origins of the pill refinement technique, Chu Yun still remained cautious. If news of it were to leak out, it would end up being coveted by the powerful forces of the Southern Region, which would land the Chu family in hot soup.

Especially if she was targeted by the evil imperial court, the consequences would be unimaginable.

If Chu Yun were to go out to temper herself, there would be experts from the Chu family protecting her in the dark. If she wanted to secretly refine pills, then she would have to send away the experts from the Chu family who were protecting her in the dark.

Chu Xuan gave her a few jade talismans.

His excuse was once again that they had been left behind by his father and, since he did not need to go out and temper himself, he did not need them.

Besides that, Chu Xuan also used the soul seed seal to transmit his will to Zhang Kui, asking him to protect Chu Yun in the dark.

Zhang Kui's strength was at the ninth level of the void realm and, under the control of the soul seed seal, he was absolutely loyal. In order to complete the mission of protecting Chu Yun's safety, he would not hesitate to sacrifice his own life.

However, Zhang Kui was the first vice sect leader of the heretic cult after all, and he had to pay attention to the matters of the cult at all times, and he might not be able to protect Chu Yun all the time.

Dong Qian's strength was not weak, and so he was tasked with secretly protecting Chu Yun together with Zhang Kui.

Combined, they would be able to ensure that nothing went wrong.

In the Qin Kingdom, other than the cult, no other forces dared to attack the direct descendants of the three aristocratic families.

Chu Yun went out to train, and Chu Xuan continued to stay in the courtyard.

In this generation of direct descendants of the Chu family, apart from Chu Xuan, no one else stayed in the family's territory.

Old Seventh had gone to the He family.

Chu Qing continued to chase after the cult while managing the affairs of Chu County.

..

In an underground palace in the Purple Moon Kingdom, more than ten heretic experts had gathered.

The cult's vice sect leader of the Purple Moon Kingdom, Yuan Chong, said with a gloomy face, "The right protector fell in the Chu County of the Qin Kingdom. This matter is inextricably related to the Chu family. Who will seek revenge for our Purple Moon Kingdom's heretic cult?"

"Didn't the right protector fall in the internal strife of the cult in the Qin Kingdom?" An expert of the heretic cult asked doubtfully.

"Even so, who knows what truly happened then? Besides, were it not for the Chu family, would our cult have been reduced to this state?"

Yuan Chong said coldly.

The Purple Moon Kingdom's cult had suffered heavy losses, with more than ten elders falling in battle.

Even the sect leader had suffered heavy injuries and had almost died.

The source of this whole disaster was the Chu family's interference with the cult's plans.

Naturally, they placed the blame squarely on the shoulders of the Chu family.

"Although the Chu family's overall strength is inferior to the Purple Moon Kingdom, it is not weak either. Moreover, the Qin Kingdom is not part of our territory. If we were to rashly head over there, I'm afraid that we might encounter some mishaps."

An elder said with a frown.

"That's right. Our main target is still the Purple Moon Kingdom."

Many elders of the heretic cult agreed with his words.

"Hmph, how can we let the matter of the Chu family slide? Don't forget that the Chu family has sabotaged our many years of planning and preparation. Once the evil imperial court is free to act, they will not let the Chu family off either. Do we have to wait for the evil imperial court's orders before taking action?"

Yuan Chong snorted unhappily and said, "Moreover, we don't have to fight with the Chu family directly."

"I heard that Chu Qiuluo's son has been expelled from their ancestral residence. Since we can't do anything to the Chu family for the time being, we can still vent our anger by capturing Chu Qiuluo's son."

An elder questioned, "Chu Qiuluo's son has already been expelled from the ancestral residence. What's the point of capturing him?"

"Idiot!"

Yuan Chong angrily rebuked the elder, "He is Chu Qiuluo's son, not some random person's son. Even if he is trash, as long as he is Chu Qiuluo's son, then his existence holds value!"

"That's right, Chu Qiuluo might not be dead. If one day Chu Qiuluo returns, we will send his son over to the evil imperial court as a hostage. We can definitely restrain him from taking action that way."

An elder agreed.

"In that case, I will make the trip."

A skinny cult elder stood up and said.

Yuan Chong and the other leaders present did not have any objections. Among the people present, the elder who volunteered was not the strongest, but he was definitely the best at escaping and stealth.

Chu Xuan was still in the courtyard, waiting patiently for the year of seclusion to arrive.

The cult had not made any moves, and they did not continue to send their experts to infiltrate the Chu family's territory to kill and destroy.

After breaking through to the truth realm, Chu Xuan was much more confident. As long as he did not encounter an attack from the evil imperial court's experts, he would not be the slightest bit afraid.

Given the overall level of strength in the Qin Kingdom, even if the evil imperial court sent experts over, it was unlikely that they would send over anyone who exceeded the unity realm.

As such, Chu Xuan was not worried at all.

However, he still had to remain steadfast.

Just when he thought that he could peacefully seclude himself for a year, another person sneaked into the Chu family's territory.

It was another expert from the cult.

His strength was at the third level of the void realm, and he seemed like a senior figure among their elders.

Chu Xuan frowned. Why did Zhang Kui not send a message to him?

The soul seed seal was able to transmit his spiritual will and, similarly, it possessed a certain ability to transmit messages.

Sending over a simple warning was definitely possible.

What surprised Chu Xuan even more was that the cult elder that had concealed himself seemed to have come specifically for him.

He did not seem to have any intention of infiltrating the core area of the Chu family. After identifying his surroundings, he made his way straight toward Chu Xuan's courtyard.

He directly entered the courtyard.

Did he specifically come to deliver his head to the chopping board?

When he saw Chu Xuan, he asked, "Are you Chu Qiuluo's son?"

Chu Xuan had a helpless look on his face. What was going on with that father of his?

Why did everyone want to capture him just because he was Chu Qiuluo's son?

"That's right!"

Chu Xuan admitted it openly.

"Then I've got the right person."

Lou Yuan did not say anything further and raised his hand to grab Chu Xuan.

He was not a talkative person. Once he had confirmed his target, he would immediately make a move to prevent any accidents from happening.

A mere mortal realm warrior would easily be captured by him. Before the Chu family could realize it, he would have long escaped Chu County and would be on his way back to the Purple Moon Kingdom.

As long as he returned to Purple Moon Kingdom safely, it would be impossible for the Chu family to rescue him.

However, the moment he made his move, he felt his shoulder weighed down.

He suffered a blow from a paw on his head and fell to the ground.

Not good!

Lou Yuan was shocked. His first thought was that Chu Qiuluo's son was bait!

Just as he was about to resist desperately, a python suddenly appeared and wrapped itself around his body.

He did not realize how or when the giant python had appeared.

It seemed to have appeared out of thin air.

How could the Chu family possess a void realm demonic beast?

Lou Yuan's heart sank to the bottom. He was filled with regret. He should not have volunteered for this task.

Chapter 29: Counterattack From Ten Thousand Miles Away

Chu Xuan looked down at Lou Yuan and asked, "Who are you? Are you from the cult? I'm curious, is the identity of Chu Qiuluo's son such a popular one?"

Lou Yuan calmed down slightly at this moment. There were no other experts of the Chu family in the courtyard, just Chu Qiuluo's son and the demonic python that was wrapped around his body.

Therefore, it was not bait laid out by the Chu family, but rather that Chu Qiuluo's son was protected by a void realm demonic beast.

Had the beast been left behind by Chu Qiuluo for his son?

Could it be that Chu Qiuluo had long broken through to the unity realm and had tamed a void realm demonic beast?

Lou Yuan did not answer. Since he was not being ambushed, he felt that he still had a chance to escape.

Secretly circulating his spiritual power, he looked for the weaknesses of the python, preparing to free himself from the python's entanglement and capture Chu Xuan in an instant. In that way, his mission would also be completed.

"You don't want to talk, right? It doesn't matter."

Chu Xuan smiled indifferently.

The python suddenly opened its huge mouth and swallowed him whole as Lou Yuan stared transfixed.

After swallowing Lou Yuan, the python gradually melted away and Lou Yuan's body slowly reappeared. The python had already merged itself into his body.

The python had been formed from Chu Xuan's spiritual power.

At this moment, this spiritual power was hidden in Lou Yuan's body, providing him with an endless stream of spiritual power and increasing his strength.

Lou Yuan was shocked. Why did the Python suddenly disappear?

He did not have time to think about the reason, so he immediately raised his hand and tried to grab Chu Xuan.

However, something that terrified him happened.

A huge turtle suddenly appeared in front of Chu Xuan, using its shell to block his attack.

Similarly, he did not see how this huge turtle appeared.

Lou Yuan had a shocking revelation in his heart.

Materializing power into reality!

The sign of a truth realm expert!

The huge turtle in front of him and the huge python from before were both real demonic beasts no matter how he looked at them. Whether it was through his eyes, or through his spiritual will, they were both flesh and blood demonic beasts.

However, their appearance had been too sudden.

Even if they were taken out of a beast sack, they would not have appeared so suddenly. There would have been traces that he could detect.

Lou Yuan's scalp went numb and his face turned pale!

A truth realm expert!

The Chu family actually had a truth realm expert, and he was even this young?

He looked at Chu Xuan's handsome appearance and vaguely saw Chu Qiuluo's shadow in it.

"You, are you Chu Qiuluo?"

His heart was in turmoil. The news of Chu Qiuluo and his wife going missing while exploring the mystic realm must have been fake!

Chu Qiuluo had broken through to the truth realm, and the Chu family had created this elaborate lie in order to hide it.

If Chu Qiuluo had broken through to the truth realm in such a short period of time, could he possibly break through to the emperor realm in the future?

Perhaps Chu Qiuluo had obtained a great opportunity and, to avoid being targeted by the major forces of the Southern Region, he had devised this plan. He lied about going missing, but had in fact been hiding within the Chu family.

He had even changed his appearance!

The more he thought about it, the more Lou Yuan felt that such a scenario was possible. Cold sweat unconsciously broke out over his forehead.

He had discovered such a big secret and was going to be killed and silenced!

"My name is Chu Xuan, the son of Chu Qiuluo. Don't be afraid, I won't kill you."

Chu Xuan said with a smile.

"Come on, tell me which branch of the cult you are from."

Lou Yuan was covered in cold sweat and did not dare to disobey. He said with a trembling voice, "I... I am not from the cult in the Qin Kingdom. I am Lou Yuan, an elder of the cult from the Purple Moon Kingdom."

Chu Xuan was stunned. Did he just say the Purple Moon Kingdom?

The Purple Moon Kingdom was adjacent to the Qin Kingdom. The Chu County of the Chu family was adjacent to one of the Purple Moon Kingdom's counties.

In terms of strength, the Purple Moon Kingdom was stronger than any of the four families in the Qin Kingdom. However, the four families were united. Therefore, the overall strength of the Qin Kingdom country was no weaker than that of the Purple Moon Kingdom.

"You came from the Purple Moon Kingdom... Why did you come all the way to the territory of the Qin Kingdom to capture me?"

Chu Xuan cursed in his heart. These guys from the heretic cult... did they train in evil techniques so much that they damaged their brains?

The heretic cult of the Purple Moon Kingdom had always been active in the Purple Moon Kingdom.

After all, although the heretic cult of each country belonged to the evil imperial court, they also had their own factions and territories.

The heretic cult of the Purple Moon Kingdom coming to the Qin Kingdom would have been equivalent to crossing the line, unless the two branches of the heretic cult had already discussed and agreed upon a joint action.

Lou Yuan did not dare to hide anything and directly sold out Yuan Chong.

Chu Xuan was speechless. So that was the reason. Apparently Zhu Qiang's counterattack last time was exceptionally successful, to the point where even one of the cult's protectors from the Purple Moon Kingdom had been slain.

Looking at Lou Yuan, Chu Xuan's heart was moved.

The Purple Moon Kingdom's cult actually targeted him. If that was the case, then they could only blame themselves.

Although I will not leave the house, I can still manage a counterattack.

Moreover, Lou Yuan was already here to give his head away, traveling from a thousand miles just to do so. Would it not be a waste if I did not make use of his sacrifice?

Instantly, Chu Xuan planted a soul seed seal on Lou Yuan.

At the same time, he sent a strand of spiritual power into his body.

This would guarantee that Lou Yuan would be able to continuously use his ultimate moves and remain in his peak combat state. The spiritual power he poured in would not be easily exhausted, and even a ninth level void realm martial artist would not be able to easily kill him.

Moreover, once he approached a ninth-level void realm martial artist and self-destructed, he would absolutely be able to blow up that ninth-level void realm martial artist to death.

This counterattack would surely create more results and prove to be more deadly than Zhu Qiang's.

The strength of the heretic cult in the Purple Moon Kingdom might even suffer heavy losses because of this.

As long as the Purple Moon Kingdom was slightly stronger, while they might not be able to completely annihilate the heretic cult within their territory, it would still be possible to deliver the cult a crippling blow.

As a result, the evil imperial court would pay more attention to the Purple Moon Kingdom, and the pressure the Chu family would face would decrease.

This would allow the situation around him to remain peaceful for a period of time. As long as he broke through to the emperor realm during that period, then he would not have to fear the evil imperial court.

He would kill anyone who came, and he would not fear any reprisals!

Lou Yuan received Chu Xuan's spiritual will and order to kill the others back in the Purple Moon Kingdom.

His thoughts and mind remained clear. However, he could not resist the will that was hidden in his mind. Other than the inner turmoil that was wracking his mind, there was nothing abnormal on his face or in his behavior.

It was precisely because of this that Lou Yuan was feeling even more desperate.

He was even more terrified.

He would rather be completely controlled, turning into a mindless puppet, than suffer such torture.

Chu Xuan would patiently await the results of Lou Yuan's counterattack. After he completed the counterattack, he would naturally be notified by the system's reward.

He hoped that the reward would be an increase in his cultivation level, which would allow him to increase his strength even faster.

Although the Purple Moon Kingdom was adjacent to Chu County, the distance from the Chu family's territory to the Purple Moon Kingdom was not that close.

This time, it could be said to be a counterattack from ten thousand miles away.

In the underground palace, a group of elders from the Purple Moon Kingdom's cult were gathered.

Other than vice sect leader Yuan Chong, most of the elders were all present.

Lou Yuan observed silently. This time, almost all the elders from the Purple Moon Kingdom, except for a few, were present.

After killing everyone present, the Purple Moon Kingdom's heretic cult would definitely suffer a great loss.

This would complete the counterattack request of the will in his unseen mind.

There had been no request to kill Yuan Chong.

Therefore, Yuan Chong's absence did not matter.

He could freely make his move.

"Where is he? Did you not capture him?"

An elder looked at Lou Yuan and frowned.

Could it be that he had failed?

"Hmph, you have no right to order me around. Who Does Yuan Chong think he is? From today onward, I will take the position of sect leader!"

Lou Yuan snorted coldly.

All the elders were stunned.

Was Lou Yuan's brain damaged?

His strength, among all the elders, was only middling, if not lower. He was far inferior to Yuan Chong.

He actually dared to covet the position of sect leader. Who gave him the courage to say such a thing?

“I, Lou Yuan, have encountered a great opportunity. My breakthrough to the unity realm is just around the corner. The position of sect leader shall belong to me. Who will support me and who will oppose me?”

Lou Yuan was acting very arrogantly and looked down on everyone present.

Chapter 30: Those Who Follow Me Will Live, While Those Who Defy Me Will Die

Lou Yuan followed the instructions of Chu Xuan's will and kept everyone from suspecting the Chu family.

Therefore, he stated that he had obtained an opportunity and now wanted to become the sect leader. This was a very legitimate reason.

When the battle started later, the other elders of the cult would not doubt Lou Yuan's strength when they found out that his strength had skyrocketed.

They would only feel that Lou Yuan had gotten lucky and that his strength had increased greatly by chance, inflating his ego to the point where he actually coveted the position of sect leader.

The faces of the elders all darkened.

Especially the elders who were stronger. Lou Yuan actually dared to be presumptuous. He was simply courting death.

The cultists were not good people.

“Lou Yuan, what are you talking about? We are all brothers, but some jokes just shouldn't be made!”

Zheng Tu hurriedly said.

He had a good relationship with Lou Yuan and belonged to the same faction. It could also be said that they were on the same side, which strengthened their right to speak in the cult.

Who knew that Lou Yuan would directly glare back at him.

“Zheng Tu, you are trash. It’s insulting that I even worked together with you back then!”

What the f*ck?

Zheng Tu was so angry that his face turned green.

Lou Yuan, this son of a b*tch, had really gone overboard!

“Speak up now. Who opposes it and who supports it?”

Lou Yuan looked down on everyone present.

“Those who support me will live, while those who oppose me will die!”

F*ck!

The cult elders were furious.

Even the sect leader did not dare to say such arrogant words.

What right did Lou Yuan have to do so?

Do you think you are a big shot of the evil imperial court?

“I object! What are you going to do about that?”

Zheng Tu was the first to stand up and speak angrily.

He decided that, after today, he would no longer work together with Lou Yuan. This was a guy that clearly suffered from a mental illness. If he stayed close to Lou Yuan, he might one day be tricked to death by him.

“Very well, then you can go to hell!”

Lou Yuan directly made his move.

Boom!

A blade slashed out.

He used a powerful attack the moment he made his move.

Zheng Tu never thought that Lou Yuan would actually make a move.

Caught off guard, he only had time to hurriedly block the attack.

Puff!

An arm left his body, and flesh and blood scattered on the ground where the light of the blade had passed through!

“Ah!”

Zheng Tu and Lou Yuan had been equal in strength, so there was no way a haphazard block would have been sufficient to defend against his attack.

Zheng Tu suffered a heavy injury in an instant!

“Lou Yuan, are you crazy?”

Fortunately, an elder beside him had made a move, so Zheng Tu was not killed off directly.

“Good, you dare to go against me and stop me from killing him? Then die!”

Lou Yuan was furious and initiated another powerful attack.

F*ck!

That Elder was furious and hurriedly blocked.

Lou Yuan had really gone mad.

“Lou Yuan, stop now, or don’t blame us for not being polite!”

The other elders were all shocked and furious.

“How dare you!”

Lou Yuan was furious.

“Those who obey me will live, while those who defy me will die. Since you all dare to defy me, you should all die!”

He kept using powerful attacks one and the other and fought the elders single-handedly.

The elders of the cult were about to vomit blood. Lou Yuan had really gone mad. His speech and mannerisms were so crazy. Did he think that he was the evil king?

“Kill! He has gone mad. Kill him!”

Zheng Tu said in exasperation.

“I’ll kill you first!”

Lou Yuan roared, and a powerful force emerged from his body.

His attack swept out instantly. Even though someone tried to help him block it, Zheng Tu still died!

The first kill was completed!

The other elders were shocked.

The force emanating from Lou Yuan’s body was extremely powerful, and it gave them a very dangerous feeling.

He really did have a fortuitous encounter!

No wonder he was acting so crazy!

No, it was very likely that Lou Yuan was affected by this power and had lost his mind.

A big battle broke out.

Lou Yuan fought against many heretic cult elders alone.

Among the elders, his strength was not considered too strong.

However, relying on the spiritual power that Chu Xuan had instilled in his body, he was very fierce.

Within a short period of time, he had already killed two elders.

The other elders were all mad. Even if they joined hands to deal with him, they still felt immense pressure and were at danger of dying at any time.

The mysterious power inside Lou Yuan’s body gave them the feeling of fear and trepidation.

They wanted to escape, but Lou Yuan was blocking the entrance and refused to let them leave.

The battle became more and more intense.

After all, Chu Xuan had imbued him with truth realm spiritual power. Even a wisp of that power was enough to kill a void realm expert.

One elder after another fell under Lou Yuan’s ferocious attacks.

Cracks gradually appeared on Lou Yuan's body.

His body could not withstand the continuous use of truth realm spiritual power.

As the end of the battle neared, only four of the strongest elders were left.

Lou Yuan was also at the end of his rope.

The four elders heaved a sigh of relief in their hearts, but when they thought about how many elders had fallen, and how the cult would have suffered a great loss after this battle, they could not help but feel distressed in their hearts.

D*mn Lou Yuan! Why did he not self-destruct and die?

Why did he have to return and harm others!

“Die! Let's die together!”

Unexpectedly, Lou Yuan actually pounced on them directly, his body expanding. He was actually going to self-destruct!

Not good!

The four cult elders were terrified in their hearts. Lou Yuan, that b*stard, was actually going to self-destruct and take them with him!

Boom!

Spiritual power raged, the underground palace collapsed, and smoke and dust billowed in the air.

After an unknown amount of time, a bloody hand reached out from beneath the smoke and dust. A person covered in blood and wounds crawled out. He had lost an arm and a leg.

Among all the elders, he was the only one alive.

Moreover, he had suffered heavy injuries. It could even be said that he was crippled!

Yuan Chong rushed inside with a frantic expression on his face. He had just arrived when the underground palace exploded. He thought that the Purple Moon Kingdom's experts were attacking, so he had hurried over to try and rescue the cult elders.

In the end, he saw the great elder lying half-dead on the ground.

“Who did it? Where are the others?”

Yuan Chong asked angrily when he did not manage to find the enemy.

“That son of a b*tch Lou Yuan did it!”

The great elder spat out blood. He was really about to explode in anger.

The gaze he gave Yuan Chong was not a very friendly one either.

Had it not been for Yuan Chong’s suggestion to capture Chu Qiuluo’s son, Lou Yuan would not have volunteered, and this kind of thing would never have happened in the first place.

“Lou Yuan?”

Yuan Chong was stunned.

Lou Yuan had the ability to do this?

“Where are the others?”

“They’re all dead. I’m the only one left.”

The great elder spat out blood as he spoke those words.

Yuan Chong’s brain immediately froze. They are all dead?

At least 70% of the elders had been wiped out?

This was a great loss to the Purple Moon Kingdom’s cult!

After suffering such a heavy loss, how could he compete with his fellow sect leaders?

The imperial court would also be dissatisfied with him and feel that he was incompetent!

The great elder continued to vomit blood. Looking at the dazed Yuan Chong, he gnashed his teeth in anger.

D*mn it, hurry up and save me! Why are you still in a daze?

After a long while, Yuan Chong finally came back to his senses. He took out a pill to save the great elder and asked him for the reason behind Lou Yuan’s actions.

..

“You did not leave the house, but killed your enemies from thousands of miles away. You have been rewarded with ten years worth’ of cultivation plus one box of lightning bombs.”

The system’s voice sounded, and Chu Xuan instantly felt energized.

The rewards for the counterattack this time were quite good.

After receiving ten years’ worth of cultivation, a wave of power and comprehension filled his mind and body.

His strength gradually increased from the first level of the truth realm to the third level of the truth realm.

As expected, the higher the realm, the slower the increase in strength.

Ten years’ worth of cultivation only increased his strength by two small realms.

Chu Xuan looked at the lightning bombs.

They were single-use spiritual artifacts that contained a trace of the power of lightning. They were very effective against evil cultivators.

Once a lightning bomb was detonated, the power of the resulting explosion would be sufficient to severely injure a first-level truth realm expert.

Below the truth realm, unless one had a powerful defensive artifact, one would almost certainly die.

When used against evil cultivators, its power was even greater. It could severely injure a second-level truth realm evil cultivator.

Chu Xuan understood. This was the fantasy world’s version of a grenade.

He decided that if any more evil cultists came to disturb him, he would send a few lightning bombs their way to deal with them.

Perhaps he could even go to the evil imperial court and detonate a few of them!
