

Read I Have A City In An Alternate World Chapter 2461 - 2461 Please take me with you! Your Excellency

2461 Please take me with you! Your Excellency

Tang Zhen's sudden appearance caused the black-clothed cultivator's group to be on guard against a great enemy. They did not expect that they would actually encounter such a thing before they were about to retreat!

After the previous battle, they could no longer use the same attitude to look at Tang Zhen. Their hearts were filled with vigilance and a trace of fear.

It was as if Tang Zhen was a bomb that could explode at any moment and blast him into pieces.

They thought that their strength was not weak, but they were not arrogant to the point that they thought that they would definitely be able to defeat Tang Zhen. After all, the other party had killed dozens of cultivators from Lou city alone.

These were all the elites of the world of Loucheng, and there was definitely no situation where they were just there to make up the numbers. Otherwise, they would not be qualified to participate in the competition.

Out of their instinctive reactions, they subconsciously got into a battle formation and coldly looked at Tang Zhen.

Although they might not be able to defeat them, the black-robed cultivators would definitely do their best as long as the two sides fought.

"Could this native be acquainted with you?"

The black clothed leader smiled slightly. However, he was unusually depressed in his heart. Why was Tang Zhen involved in everything?

"That's right. There are some things between me and him that haven't been resolved yet, so you can't take him away.

Besides, you have a group of native cultivators, so you can get more detailed information. It's useless to bring a mortal with you."

Tang Zhen wasn't unreasonable. Instead, it was easy to discuss. Moreover, this was the truth.

This was a method of courtesy before violence. If the other party didn't know what was good for him, he didn't mind fighting.

Taking advantage of the advantage of his level, Tang Zhen had to intimidate these cultivators in the building and make them fear him.

“What you say makes sense. In that case, I’ll leave this native to you.”

The black clothed leader laughed as he spoke. He would not offend Tang Zhen because of a mortal. That would truly be unwise.

“Many thanks!”

Tang Zhen nodded and cupped his fists at the leader of the black-robed cultivators. Then, he looked at the young man he had met at the inn.

As he looked at the young man who was completely unscathed and only appeared to be in an extremely miserable state, Tang Zhen secretly thought that this fellow had a really good life.

The ghost city was filled with monsters. To be able to survive until now, one needed to be extremely lucky.

The young man was quick-witted as he immediately ran over and hid behind Tang Zhen.

“In that case, we’ll meet again.”

In fact, he was secretly rejoicing in his heart. Tang Zhen didn’t ask him for native cultivators. Otherwise, should he give them or not?

Although he had lost in the city Lord’s mansion, he could definitely obtain more useful information from these native cultivators.

As long as he seized the opportunity, it would not be difficult to surpass Tang Zhen.

“I’m looking forward to it now. If we have the chance to meet again, will you still be as arrogant as you are now?”

This thought flashed through the leader’s mind. An unyielding emotion lingered in his heart.

Even if he didn’t admit it, he couldn’t deny the fact that the hundreds of cultivators in Lou city, including himself, had been intimidated by Tang Zhen.

They were all cultivators from Lou Cheng, but the gap between them was so huge. This made the leader in black, who was meeting cultivators from other battlefields for the first time, feel deeply.

The strong would always be strong. Even if they were at the same starting point, the speed of their rise would definitely be different due to the difference in their own qualities.

The black-clothed cultivator was suspecting that Tang Zhen might have come from one of the top hundred battlefields. Otherwise, it was impossible for him to be so fierce.

If he knew the truth and knew that Tang Zhen came from the top tier battle zone that was ranked fifth, what would he think?

.....

“They’ve already left. Where are you going?”

Tang Zhen watched the black-clothed cultivator and the rest leave. He frowned and thought for a moment before asking in a faint tone.

“Eh?!”

The young man was currently letting his imagination run wild. After hearing Tang Zhen’s question, he didn’t know how to answer for a moment.

What he had encountered tonight was simply beyond his imagination. He was still in shock even now.

Whether it was the ferocious ghosts or the powerful cultivators of Loucheng, they were all existences that he had never had the chance to come into contact with in the past.

“I want to follow you, Sir!”

When the young man thought of the zombie monsters that filled the city, he trembled in fear. Only by following Tang Zhen could he ensure his own safety.

Therefore, after hearing Tang Zhen’s inquiry, he immediately spoke out his thoughts. However, he soon realized that something was wrong and his heart became uneasy.

“You want to follow me, Yingluo?”

Tang Zhen looked at the cowering young man. He seemed to be considering something. This caused a trace of anticipation to appear in the other party’s heart.

If Tang Zhen was willing to bring him along, he would definitely be able to leave ghost city safely by relying on his methods of suppressing everyone.

The scene of Tang Zhen killing dozens of cultivators in Lou Cheng appeared in the young man’s mind. He hoped that Tang Zhen could take him away even more.

“I can take you with me.”

Tang Zhen slowly said. The young man was so excited that he almost jumped up when he heard this. He directly knelt on the ground and kowtowed in thanks.

In fact, other than saving his life, he had another thought hidden in his heart, which was to find an opportunity to find a master and learn.

After seeing the New World, the young man felt that he had finally found his life goal. At this moment, he only wanted to become a cultivator.

Tang Zhen, who had suppressed everyone, naturally became the best choice. If one was able to follow by Tang Zhen's side, they would have a higher chance of successfully acknowledging a master and learning from him.

Tang Zhen smiled as he looked at the young man who was kowtowing. How could he not see through the other party's thoughts?

In fact, he didn't dislike this kind of thing, but what did this native young man do to have a master who was a creator?

If that was the case, wouldn't he reach the heavens in a single step? how would he repay him?

Therefore, there were many things that were destined to be impossible to succeed from the beginning. Even if it was not stated clearly, one had to know one's own limits.

The young man could not see through this, and Tang Zhen would not give any advice because there was no need to.

“I haven't finished. If you are useful to me, I can bring you along.

If it doesn't work, then we'll go our separate ways after we leave the city.”

The young man was slightly stunned when he heard Tang Zhen's words. Soon after, he realized that there was no problem with what Tang Zhen had done.

Bringing him out of the city was a great favor, and the young man had no way to repay him, so what qualifications did he have to ask for more?

At the thought that he was about to miss the greatest opportunity in his life, the young man was so anxious that he was sweating profusely. He was desperately thinking about how to solve the problem.

All of a sudden, an idea flashed through his mind, and he thought of a solution to the problem.

Therefore, he learned from a scholar and bowed to Tang Zhen. After which, he probed, "Your Excellency, please allow me to ask, do you wish to know more about this world?"

Tang Zhen looked at the young man and gently nodded his head.

The young man's heart was filled with joy, but he suppressed the excitement in his heart and continued to speak to Tang Zhen, "I've heard that there are many wise men in the Heaven's Wall city, which is thousands of miles away.

They know the past and the present, and they know the origins of all things in the world. No matter what you want to know, you can get the answer from their mouths!"

Tang Zhen gently nodded. If this was the case, he could go and take a look.

After seeing Tang Zhen nod his head, the young man immediately recommended himself, saying that he could lead the way for Tang Zhen and serve him at all times.

"Since you're so sincere, then come with me. If you perform well, I can teach you some life-saving skills."

Tang Zhen said to the young man. These words caused the other party's heart to madly jump with joy. He wished that he could immediately find an opportunity to perform.

Without further delay, the two immediately followed the street and headed straight for the city gate.

2462 Moving forward (1)

Unknowingly, the first rays of the morning sun had appeared, and the light gradually dispelled all the darkness.

Perhaps it was because the tree Demon City Lord had died, and the ghost city's corpse monsters had lost their restraints, so in the process of leaving the city, they actually did not encounter a single monster.

He didn't need to think to know that they must have left ghost city or were killed by the cultivators in loucheng.

When the two of them reached the city gate, they happened to pass by the entrance of the inn and stopped at the same time.

"How did Yingluo become like this?"

The young man said in a trembling voice. The scene at night and in the morning were completely different.

Looking at the hotel again, it was already in ruins. There were dozens of corpses hanging on the row of trees at the entrance.

The corpse was dried and rotted. It only needed a gentle breeze to start swaying.

On the table in front of the shop, there were rotten and maggot-like dishes, and a few corpses with arrows stuck in their bodies were lying on the mottled table.

The caravan that the young man had followed was nowhere to be seen, leaving only corpses and blood on the ground.

Most of the livestock in the caravan had already been eaten by the corpse monsters. The remaining livestock were also injured and were hiding in the corner.

The young man said that the journey was long and that they should get two livestock as a means of transportation. Tang Zhen did not refuse.

Now that his strength had been sealed, the long journey was not an easy one. It was a good thing to have a carriage.

The young man entered the inn excitedly and began to rummage through the place. From his actions, it was obvious that he was not looking for livestock.

He did not see any monsters along the way, which made the young man let his guard down. The purpose of entering the hotel at this moment was actually to find some valuables.

No matter if it was a caravan that came from a long distance, or this large Inn, there would definitely be some property left behind.

However, just as he found a bag of money on the corpse, a corpse monster came out of the water tank and pressed the young man to the ground.

The young man's neck was grabbed, and he couldn't make a sound or get up. Seeing the swollen corpse monster that had been soaked in water bite him, he couldn't help but feel despair.

At this critical moment, Tang Zhen appeared in time and dealt with the corpse monster with a sword.

The young man escaped from death and hurriedly kowtowed in thanks, but was stopped by Tang Zhen's cold voice.

find yourself a weapon for self-defense. It's best if you get a set of armor. I can't appear in time every time!

Tang Zhen coldly said. The young man repeatedly nodded his head. At the same time, he used his sleeve to wipe off the stinky corpse water that had dripped onto his face. His heart was filled with lingering fear.

Running to a corpse in the yard, the young man took off the leather armor, washed it with water, and put it on.

Picking up the machete on the ground, the young man felt more confident and continued his search.

In a short while, he had made more than a dozen money bags, and the rich harvest made him smile.

Tang Zhen didn't stop the young man's actions. As the saying goes, the poor live on the road to wealth. In the future, they would definitely need to spend money in many places.

While the young man was searching around, Tang Zhen also looked around casually and found a box full of gold coins.

Tang Zhen didn't know the specific value of this currency and didn't ask the young man. Instead, he casually put it into the leather bag he had picked up.

Tang had not used this kind of leather bag that looked like a backpack for many years. Now that he could not use storage equipment, he naturally used a backpack to store items.

After another hour or so, the young man brought in three livestock that looked like horses. They were tall and strong, with two long horns on their heads that extended backward.

Because the long horn would delay riding, it was sawed off and only one foot was left, and it was polished until it was smooth and round.

Sir, these are the three horned beasts I found. They were hiding in the vegetable garden, so they were not killed by the monster.

When the young man said this, he recalled the scene he had just seen in the vegetable garden and could not help but feel nauseous.

"Hmm, not bad."

Tang Zhen nodded his head and turned over to ride on the horned beast's back. He felt extremely comfortable and did not need any saddle at all.

He just didn't know how fast this Mount was. If it performed well in all aspects, it could definitely be the main Mount for cavalry.

The young man got a few bags and placed them on the back of one of the horned beasts. Tang Zhen glanced at them and saw that they were things like tents and pots.

There was also a bag filled with rice, flour, and oil, which were obviously used as rations for the journey.

Tang Zhen quietly nodded in his heart when he saw this scene. He did indeed feel a little hungry after being tossed around for an entire night.

By right, an energy-formed body did not need to eat at all. For this to happen, it was clearly affected by some powerful force.

Even Masters of creation had to eat and rest like ordinary people after their cultivation was sealed.

This wasn't meaningless. According to Tang Zhen's guess, it should be helpful for the cultivators in Loucheng to recover their strength.

Tang Zhen also had some guesses about the world he was in. It was just that he currently lacked sufficient evidence.

"Your Excellency, let's go."

The young man asked Tang Zhen after he was done.

After getting permission, he immediately rode his horned beast and led the way. He also dragged the horned beast that was carrying the supplies along.

Tang Zhen followed behind, and the two of them and the three of them officially left the ghost city.

"By the way, what's your name? Is there anyone else in your family?"

Tang Zhen randomly asked as he looked at the young man walking in front. It could be considered as killing the boring time during the journey.

When the young man heard Tang Zhen's question, he quickly and respectfully replied, "Your Excellency, I don't actually have a name, but the people in the village have always called me Er Gou.

I have an elder brother who is married and has a career now. I also have a younger sister at home, living with my elder brother.

Because I'm not the eldest son, I don't have any land, so I can't get a wife.

Only when they had no other choice would they follow the caravan here, hoping to earn money and start a family.”

The young man sighed with emotion. He didn't expect to encounter such a bizarre and exciting thing when he went out to make a living!

“You didn't come in vain this time. At least if you want to get married again, you don't have to worry about money.”

Tang Zhen said in an indifferent tone. The meaning of his words was naturally referring to the amount of money that ergou had picked up.

Er Gou smiled when he heard this, but he didn't feel nervous. This was because he knew that Tang Zhen wasn't interested in money.

If Tang Zhen needed it, he was even willing to take out all of this money in order to obtain the opportunity for Tang Zhen to impart his skills.

“My biggest wish in the past was to build a new house, buy a few pieces of land, then marry a wife and have a few children.

But now, I hope that I can be like you, my Lord, and possess great power.

Even in a place like Ghost city, you can come and go as you please!”

As Buttface spoke, his eyes were filled with a sense of longing. This kind of dream originated from the shock of learning about the existence of a new world, and it might not change for the rest of his life.

Tang Zhen nodded his head. He understood er Gou's dream, but he couldn't give him any promises.

After all, this was a brutal competition. Although he had temporarily gained some advantages, he could not guarantee that he would not be eliminated.

Of course, if there was a chance, Tang Zhen would not mind helping the young man. If the other party was able to provide him with help, he would definitely express his gratitude.

Compared to the cultivators in other battlefields, Tang Zhen was at a disadvantage in many aspects. Therefore, he had to find a way to make up for his weakness.

&Nbsp; borrowing the strength of the natives was a good idea.

However, this was not a long-term plan, because as long as there were enough monsters, the cultivators in Lou Cheng could grow rapidly.

In this aspect, the native cultivators couldn't be compared to them at all. On this land that belonged to them, they were destined to be side characters.

2463 En route (1)

According to Buttface, this world was extremely vast, so vast that it was boundless.

Because of the existence of some special means of communication, the information in this world was not blocked. Even the unemployed er Gou knew many rumors about the outside world.

After a period of time, the strange news that happened in other places would spread through various ways.

As for whether it was true or not, it was impossible to tell. In fact, not many people cared.

It was unlike many underdeveloped dimensions where even two neighboring villages did not know each other.

Before er Gou came to ghost city, he had heard a lot of rumors about this city and knew that it was very rich and prosperous.

Before coming here, it could be said that he had many dreams, hoping that one day he would be able to return home in glory.

However, when they arrived at their destination, they discovered that the city had been reduced to ruins, and hundreds of thousands of people had lost their souls.

Compared to the caravan members and the mortals who were visiting their relatives and friends, er Gou's luck was actually pretty good. At the very least, he managed to walk out of ghost city alive.

After leaving the ghost city, the two of them headed towards ergou's hometown and then to the Heaven's Wall city.

The road they were on was the main road laid between major cities. The road was constantly tamped with loess, and it was about six feet wide.

To put it bluntly, it was more than two meters wide, barely enough for a car to walk on. Both sides of the road were either overgrown grass or forests.

In a world with low productivity, it was normal for such roads to appear. If one wanted a better road, they had to go to a bigger city.

Perhaps it was because of the recent drought, but the road had become very hard. When the horned beasts stepped on some places, there was a clanging sound of metal and stone colliding.

Tang Zhen, who was used to teleporting, was really not used to riding on the horned beast that was not too fast.

However, there was no use in being anxious. He could only be patient and slowly move forward along the long road.

After he got used to this speed, Tang Zhen suddenly realized that this feeling was actually quite good.

Walking slowly among the mountains and rivers, smiling at the changes of the secular world, letting go of fame and fortune temporarily, learning to be a carefree immortal in the mortal world.

After getting used to fighting and killing, one would realize that a peaceful environment was actually very good when they suddenly calmed down.

At the very least, he didn't need to be on edge all the time, worried about an enemy attack, and then constantly hover between life and death because of the mission.

The higher one's strength was, the more obvious this feeling was.

As his super strength was sealed, he always felt that there were many inconveniences, as if he was as weak as a baby.

He no longer had an undying body. Perhaps a ferocious beast from the mountains or a giant venomous snake from the rivers could easily eliminate him.

His originally condescending attitude had suddenly suffered a serious blow, and his reverence for everything in the world slowly reappeared in his heart.

For the powerful cultivators of loucheng, this was a real journey of heart-tempering, allowing them to stabilize their Dao heart again.

Regardless of whether this was the original intention of the cornerstone platform, it did have such an effect. He believed that as long as he persisted, this trip would definitely not be in vain.

On the other hand, Tang Zhen was enjoying himself. However, er Gou was feeling a little uneasy. He would always secretly glance at Tang Zhen with a hint of hesitation on his face.

Tang Zhen clearly knew in his heart that er Gou was eager to learn, but he didn't know how to start.

He had thoughts in his mind but did not know how to hide it. Tang Zhen saw through it with a glance.

Therefore, when night fell again, Tang Zhen called er Gou over and demonstrated a set of knife skills for him. He practiced it three times.

On one hand, it was to teach ergou, and on the other hand, it was to practice again. Who knew when they would fight the enemy again?

To a beginner like ergou, practicing with a saber was the wisest choice.

This set of saber technique was swift and fierce, and it didn't need too many fancy twists and turns. As long as one cultivated it diligently, he could obtain good results in a short time.

When used together with a special shield, the power of both attack and defense was amazing. It was definitely a rare and excellent martial technique.

In fact, this was the basic saber technique of the sacred Dragon Warzone. Every young cultivator had to learn it, and they had to practice it to the advanced level.

Tang Zhen didn't teach ergou half-heartedly because it could be considered a rare technique in this world.

After seeing Tang Zhen's demonstration, ergou was overjoyed and hurriedly learned to practice.

Although he was illiterate and had a rather slippery personality, he would never be perfunctory about his goals.

He had actually memorized most of the blade technique that Tang Zhen had demonstrated. Such talent was quite good.

Tang Zhen's interest was piqued. He wanted to see just what kind of person he would be able to learn and kill some time.

This matter was not urgent, so he told ergou to start a fire and cook first. He would talk about other things after he had filled his stomach.

Buttface was obviously too excited. His hands and feet were trembling, and he almost knocked over the pot while cooking.

Tang Zhen shook his head when he saw this. He could tell with a single glance that Ergou was not in the mood to cook.

His mind was probably filled with those saber techniques, trying to figure out how to execute them smoothly.

“You can go and sit at the side. I’ll make dinner.”

Tang Zhen said in a soft voice. He took the bag of rice from Ergou’s hands and opened it to take a look.

It was a kind of starch-like thing. After being wet with water, it would be rolled into a ball and then cooked in hot water.

If the taste wasn’t good, he could add other food to make it taste better.

It was obvious that Ergou’s soul had left his body. He didn’t reject Tang Zhen’s request to cook for him.

After passing the bag to Tang Zhen, he picked up the Battle Sword on the side and kept gesturing with it. From time to time, a surprised and confused expression flashed on his face.

Tang Zhen was not in a hurry to cook. Instead, he walked to the bamboo forest beside him and chopped a thin and long bamboo pole.

After splitting the end of the bamboo pole into a fork, Tang Zhen slowly walked to the river in the distance and quietly watched the river flow.

Like a statue, he didn’t move.

After waiting for a few minutes, Tang Zhen suddenly made a move. The slender bamboo pole pierced the grass by the river like lightning.

The sound of water splashing could be heard as the bamboo pole entered the water. The waves rolled and then, Tang Zhen flicked upwards and a big black fish was directly lifted out of the water.

“Pa da!”

The big fish landed on the grass and kept wriggling its body, looking fierce.

Tang Zhen, however, smiled and walked over. He knocked out this large black fish and extended his hand to touch it a few times.

This should be a carnivorous fish. The meat was firm and thick, and it was definitely an ideal ingredient.

He did not know if it was an illusion, but Tang Zhen actually had a feeling of drooling. He could not wait to taste the deliciousness of this river fish.

However, he was not in a hurry to leave. Instead, he picked up some fresh seaweed with a bamboo stick and found some plants by the river. Then, he slowly returned to his resting place.

When they were about to reach the campsite, they discovered that there was another group of people stopping nearby. It was obvious that they were also going to set up camp.

Tang Zhen took a glance but did not pay too much attention to it.

In the wilderness, if they had a choice, it was best to gather in a place with more people. That way, they would not have to worry about being attacked by wild beasts.

Even some bandits would be wary and would not dare to provoke an attack.

Of course, out of basic vigilance, they would maintain a certain distance from each other, and even deploy some vigilance measures.

After those people saw Tang Zhen, they didn't pay too much attention to him. After all, he and Ergou were just two people.

It was the big fish in his hand that attracted the attention of the tourists, and there was a trace of envy in their eyes.

Buttface was sitting on a rock, holding the saber in his arms and staring straight ahead.

He seemed to be on high alert, but in reality, from the moment those people appeared to the moment Tang Zhen returned from fishing, he had not sensed anything.

When Tang Zhen saw this scene, he was a little surprised in his heart. Could it be that this Ergou was a good seedling for cultivation?

This state of his was a natural talent. If his brain was better, then his advantage in comprehending martial arts techniques was almost unparalleled.

It was a pity that he was not born in the Holy Dragon Warzone. Otherwise, with this learning attitude alone, he was destined to not be unknown.

2464 Tempting and delicious (1)

Tang Zhen didn't pay attention to the others. Instead, he walked to the side of the lit fire and placed the river fish that had been cut and washed on the stone.

The small knife cut across the fish's body, and pieces of fish meat were shaved off. Soon, only a spikless fish head and bones were left.

The whole process was smooth and natural, as if he had practiced it countless times. It was like this when he killed fish, and it was the same when he killed people.

Not long after, the fish meat and bones were separated and placed on the large grass.

Tang Zhen put the fish bones and tender water grass into the pot, along with a few plants picked by the roadside, and added a few pieces of wood to the fire.

The flame grew stronger and stronger, licking the bottom of the pot. A trace of steam floated out of the pot.

A unique fragrance wafted through the air. Not only did it snap Buttface out of his deep thoughts, it also attracted the attention of a group of travelers not far away.

The reason for this was because the taste was too strange and delicious, making it impossible to ignore.

They kept turning their eyes to the pot on the fire, trying to figure out what was cooking inside and why it was so delicious.

This was mainly because the food was indeed delicious. Moreover, everyone had traveled a long distance and had a simple life. When they suddenly smelled this smell, it was natural that the feeling was even stronger.

Er Gou finally came back to his senses. He looked at the busy Tang Zhen and immediately became terrified.

"I'm sorry, my Lord. I just slipped away."

Er Gou moved in front of Tang Zhen and tried to explain, only to see Tang Zhen wave his hand.

He was telling ergou not to mind this matter.

"My Lord, why don't I do it? I'm good at cooking, Yingying."

Tang Zhen stopped and turned to look at er Gou. He said in an indifferent tone, "Are you sure you can do what I want to do?"

"This bi an ..."

Smelling the fragrance from the pot and looking at the fish paste that had just been mashed on the stone, ergou swallowed back the words he wanted to say.

He knew his own limits and understood that he really couldn't do it.

go to the side and think about what I've taught you. You might be able to use it soon.

Buttface could only nod his head in agreement. He ran to the pot to watch the fire, but his heart was full of surprise.

He was really curious. How did Tang Zhen cook it? he could actually cook such a delicious soup?

It smelled so good. If he could have a bite, wouldn't he die of happiness?

Tang Zhen poured the starch-like thing from his pocket into the basin, then poured the mashed fish into it and mixed it with water.

Tang Zhen had mixed some crushed plants into the mix. The red and green colors were very beautiful.

He turned around and looked at the soup in the pot. It was already boiling, and the White soup looked like milk.

Tang Zhen broke two wooden sticks and used them as chopsticks to fish out the fish bones. He gently shook off the fish meat on them.

Buttface found it strange. They used wood chips and wooden forks to eat, and he had never seen anyone use chopsticks.

Looking at the two tree branches in Tang Zhen's hands, er Gou felt that it was extremely wonderful. He tried to break the two tree branches, only to find that he was unable to use them.

Buttface thought that this was the way of an expert. He secretly made up his mind to learn how to use a wooden stick.

This way, not only would he appear powerful, but he would also be able to close the distance between him and Tang Zhen. It was really worth working hard.

"The taste is not bad."

After throwing the fish bones to the side, Tang Zhen used his chopsticks to pick up the dough and casually threw it into the boiling hot soup.

The soup rippled, and traces of oil flashed, the fragrance becoming stronger.

When the dough came into contact with the hot soup, it immediately became translucent. As the boiling time increased, it became more and more transparent.

It looked like a transparent jelly or a lychee that had just been peeled. It was very beautiful just by looking at its appearance.

He pinched it with his chopsticks and found that it was very elastic.

Buttface watched from the side, his eyes a little dazed. He had never seen such a cooking scene before.

Could it be that His Excellency was a chef, or was he a chef in the past? otherwise, how could he cook such a delicious dish?

“Alright, you can eat now!”

Tang Zhen stopped and said to er Gou.

“Okay, I’ll go get the bowl immediately.”

He turned around and ran to the horned beast. He quickly took out two wooden bowls, then washed them with water and grass.

After Tang Zhen filled up the bowl with soup, ergou didn’t care about the heat and immediately gulped down a mouthful of water.

“It smells so good, Yingluo.”

Feeling the delicious taste that filled his mouth, ergou let out a dream-like sigh. Compared to the soup that Tang Zhen had made, what he had drunk in the past was swill.

When he tasted the transparent meatball again, his whole body trembled again. Then, he started chewing with all his might like a hamster.

He chewed so fast that one would worry that he would bite off his tongue.

“It’s delicious, it’s too delicious, Yingying!”

As he ate, he kept praising, as if he only knew this one sentence.

Seeing the way er Gou ate, Tang Zhen smiled and took a bite.

Tang Zhen’s understanding of various plants had already reached the peak. Even though he was in a different plane, he was not affected in the slightest.

Therefore, one only needed to taste it to make a delicious soup, and it was a taste that many people had never tried before.

This was still due to the limited conditions. Otherwise, the food that Tang Zhen cooked would definitely be even more precious than natural treasures.

While the two were eating, an old man walked out of the group of travelers.

He had a smile on his face, giving off a kind and harmless feeling, making it difficult to raise any hostility.

“My two friends, what are you eating? why is it so delicious?”

He cupped his hands together and bowed to Tang Zhen and the other man. However, his gaze landed on the pot and was filled with an intent to investigate.

Buttface glanced at the other party vigilantly and subconsciously moved closer to the iron pot, as if he was afraid that the other party would snatch the soup pot away.

“Who are you and why are you asking this?”

In this world, every profession had its own secret impartation, and people consciously guarded it, never letting others know easily.

From er Gou’s point of view, Tang Zhen’s cooking method was a secret. He definitely couldn’t let others know about it.

The old man was a little embarrassed. He could tell that er Gou was just a follower, so he turned his gaze to Tang Zhen.

it’s just some ordinary food, and there’s not much. It’s only enough for the two of us.

Tang Zhen said in a faint tone. He naturally saw through the other party’s intention. It was none other than wanting to know the cooking method or to ask for a bowl to try.

To put it bluntly, they wanted to take advantage of Tang Zhen. If they could analyze the materials used by Tang Zhen and peek at the production process, they could try to replicate it.

Just from the aroma and taste of the food, he knew that if he were to sell it, he would definitely make a lot of money.

It was not unreasonable for ergou to be vigilant.

The old man opened his mouth after hearing Tang Zhen’s words. In the end, he only laughed softly.

“The two of you are too vigilant. In that case, I won’t talk nonsense. Do you sell the cooking method of your food?”

If you’re willing to sell it, I’ll definitely give you a satisfactory price!”

The old man seemed to be determined to win as he continued to speak to Tang Zhen, “This kind of thing can only satisfy your own desire for food in your hands, but if you sell it, not only can you earn a sum of money, but you can also let more people taste this delicious food.

Once you do this, it’s definitely beneficial to others and yourself, so why not?”

The old man tried to persuade him, but he chose the wrong target and used the wrong method.

As a creator, what could Tang Zhen not get?

However, if the other party had something that he wanted, Tang Zhen would not mind making a deal. After all, the formula that the old man desired was something that he had casually prepared.

2465 Formula in exchange for information (1)

“What you said does make sense. Why don’t you tell me how much you can offer first?”

Tang Zhen looked at the old man and spoke in an indifferent tone.

The old man was delighted when he heard this. He immediately extended three withered fingers and waved them in front of Tang Zhen.

I’ll pay three gold coins. It’s a fair price!

When he gave the price, the old man’s mouth had a trace of pride, probably because he felt that his price was sincere enough.

“Hehe, you’d better go as far away as you can. We really don’t lack those gold coins!”

Before Tang Zhen could speak, er Gou suddenly interrupted him with a hint of ridicule in his tone.

If it had been before they went to ghost city, perhaps one gold coin would have been enough to make ergou work for him.

In this world, the purchasing power of a gold coin was very strong, and the total wealth of many families added up was not even worth a gold coin.

The old man's offer was very sincere. After an ordinary person had three gold coins, they could live a good life for a while.

However, before leaving ghost city, he had made a fortune. He had at least ten gold coins in his pocket.

With money in his pocket, his vision naturally became higher, and he would not be easily tempted by a few gold coins.

At the same time, he also had a feeling that Tang Zhen's cooking method was very valuable. It was definitely not something that could be bought with a few gold coins.

Therefore, when the old man offered three gold coins, Er Gou immediately jumped out and rejected it, lest Tang Zhen be deceived by the old man.

However, he immediately regretted his words the moment they left his mouth. He felt that he should have listened to Tang Zhen's opinion first and not made his own decision.

He secretly turned his head to take a look, only to see Tang Zhen also shaking his head. Er Gou's heart that was hanging in mid-air immediately calmed down.

Good, good, I didn't seem to have done anything wrong, but I still have to be careful next time.

The old man's expression was a little surprised, obviously not expecting to be rejected. He quickly asked again, "Are you not satisfied with the price? If that's the case, we can still discuss it.

Of course, what I want to say is that the price of 3 gold coins is already very sincere. If it were someone else, they might not have offered such a high price!"

Tang Zhen looked at the old man and gently shook his head. I'm not short of money, but if you can answer some of the questions I want to know, I can give you the formula for free.

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, the old man was slightly stunned. He felt that it was somewhat unbelievable.

"Ask away. If it's something I know, I'll tell you as much as I can!"

Of course, I hope that you will keep your promise and tell me the formula after I answer your questions."

"Don't worry, I'll do what I say,"

Tang Zhen looked at ergou and asked him to get another wooden bowl and scoop a bowl of soup for the old man to taste.

Er Gou was a little unwilling. He felt that this wasn't enough for the two of them to eat. However, he definitely didn't dare to disobey Tang Zhen's orders.

After filling a bowl with soup with a spoon, ergou handed it to the old man. The old man thanked him and immediately took a sip.

He was not worried about poisoning them. After all, Tang Zhen and his companion had already eaten it. Moreover, his companion was just beside him. There was basically no need for him to worry.

After finishing the food in one go, the old man was full of praise, saying that he had never tasted such delicious food even though he had traveled all over the world.

"Your Excellency, please ask your questions now."

After eating Tang Zhen's food, the old man's desire to obtain the recipe grew, and his attitude became more proactive.

I want to know about the strange things about evil spirits, such as where there are monsters entrenched, where there are rumors of ghosts. The more detailed, the better.

The old man's expression stiffened when he heard this. He really did not expect that Tang Zhen would actually raise such a question.

"Your Excellency, your question is a little awkward."

The old man shook his head. Earlier, he had guessed the question that Tang Zhen might ask. At the same time, he was also pondering how he should answer.

It was just that he never imagined that Tang Zhen's question would be so strange, causing him to not know how to answer.

However, after thinking for a moment, the old man still slowly opened his mouth and told Tang Zhen what he knew.

"About three hundred li from here, there's a place called the severed head Ridge. It's said that a war broke out here in the past, and countless soldiers were trapped in the valley.

The two sides confronted each other for more than a month. In the end, the trapped side lost, and all the captives were beheaded and abandoned.

Ever since this incident, the valley had been shrouded in gray fog. Wails and howls were often heard from the valley, day and night.

There were even people who saw headless soldiers appear and kill passers-by. They didn't ask for money, only the heads!

At first, I thought that it was just a rumor, but a while ago, a caravan passed by there, and more than a hundred people were all killed. They didn't lose anything, but their heads were all gone."

When the old man said this, a trace of fear appeared on his face. He had happened to pass by severed head Ridge at that time, so he had personally witnessed that tragic scene.

Initially, he did not believe the rumors on severed head Ridge. However, after seeing the headless corpses, he felt that the rumors might not be false.

After another half a month, the old man once again returned to severed head Ridge. This time, he encountered something that he would never forget.

When they were about to reach the entrance of the mountain, the old man had seen with his own eyes that a large number of armored soldiers had appeared out of thin air in the gray fog.

They were holding rusty swords and Spears in their hands, and most of the soldiers had nothing on their shoulders, only their bare necks. No one knew where their heads had gone.

Some of the soldiers had heads, but they looked crooked. There were even men with women's heads.

This was obviously someone who had chopped off someone else's head and attached it to his own body, so it looked extremely strange.

Some of the officers had more than one head on their shoulders. Some of the heads were completely rotten, while some looked very fresh. They were obviously from some unlucky people.

The old man and the others who saw this scene were all trembling in fear. They all kept their mouths shut to avoid attracting the monster's attention.

It was only after the monsters had left that they dared to come out of their hiding place. They then ran all the way out of the severed head Ridge. Even if their shoes had run away, they did not dare to pick them up.

“If you don’t believe me, you can ask a few of my companions. They were also there at the time, and they were all scared out of their wits.”

The old man was afraid that Tang Zhen would not believe him and hurriedly added a sentence to prove that he was not speaking nonsense.

Tang Zhen nodded his head. He felt that the headless soldiers in the severed head Ridge were actually similar to the zombie monsters in ghost city.

They were formed by a special power. After Lou Cheng’s cultivators killed them, their strength would increase.

“Apart from severed head Ridge, are there any other places that have similar legends?”

Tang Zhen remembered the severed head Ridge and decided to go there to take a look. If there was really a large number of monsters there, he would definitely be able to earn a huge sum.

Moreover, this kind of thing could not be delayed. If other cultivators from Lou Cheng got there before him, it would be the most depressing thing.

“I’ve heard a few similar rumors in the past few years, but most of them are based on hearsay, and it’s impossible to distinguish between the truth and the lies.

The only place that I can confirm is the severed head Ridge, because I saw it with my own eyes!”

Tang Zhen decided to take action immediately after obtaining the information he wanted. He had to race against time in the face of countless competitors.

“This is how it’s made. You’d better remember the Kasaya.”

Tang Zhen did not waste any time and directly told the old man the formula. He did not hide anything.

The old man had provided the information that Tang Zhen wanted. Naturally, he would abide by the agreement and complete the transaction between the two of them.

The old man was very surprised. He didn’t expect Tang Zhen to be so forthright. He hurriedly listened carefully and remembered it in his heart.

“Let’s go. We’ll go to the severed head Ridge now!”

Tang Zhen said to ergou. Without any hesitation, he turned around and walked towards the horned beast not far away.

Er Gou didn't waste any time. He pocketed the items he took out and then gobbled up the rest of the food.

Under the old man's shocked gaze, the two of them mounted the horned beasts and disappeared into the night in the blink of an eye.

2466 The entire village mobiliation_1

Tang Zhen estimated the time and realized that it would not be an easy task to get to the severed head Ridge in a short period of time.

The road was hundreds of miles long. Even if he traveled day and night, he would need a long time to reach it.

In an environment that was close to its primitive form, it was completely crazy to travel a thousand miles. The high mountains were enough to swallow countless travelers.

Tang Zhen also didn't know if there were cultivators from Lou Cheng descending near severed head Ridge. If that was the case, wouldn't he have made a wasted trip?

He could appear directly in ghost city, a monster's lair, so why couldn't the other cultivators teleport to severed head Ridge?

However, Tang Zhen did not have a choice. Regardless of the outcome, Tang Zhen would definitely not give up as long as there was a trace of possibility!

Buttface didn't have any complaints. Perhaps he had already been prepared to suffer from the very beginning.

It was not an easy task to travel at night. Even if there was a ready-made road, it was still uneven when they walked.

In order to make it easier to travel at night, ergou lit a special oil lamp and hung it on the horn of the horned beast.

Although it wasn't very bright, it was enough to travel at night.

Tang Zhen sat on the back of the swaying horned beast. However, he was continuously pondering in his heart on how he could arrive at severed head mountain ridge as soon as possible.

After thinking for a while, Tang Zhen looked at ergou.

I remember you once said that the village you lived in was close to the mountains. Is that true? ”

Hearing Tang Zhen's question, er Gou immediately nodded his head, indicating that it was indeed the case.

"Let's follow this path. Is it closer to your village or is it closer to severed head Ridge?"

Hearing Tang Zhen's question, er Gou said that the village was closer, while the severed head Ridge was even further away.

sharpening a knife will not delay the work of cutting wood. Let's go to your village first. I have something to do.

After hearing Tang Zhen's instructions, although er Gou was suspicious, he still nodded and agreed.

For the following time, they naturally traveled day and night.

A few days later, a huge mountain appeared in front of them.

The mountain peaks in this world were very unique. They were scattered randomly like islands on the sea, and there were no mountain ranges connecting them.

They suddenly appeared and disappeared without any pattern.

There were three villages built around this majestic mountain, and ergou lived in one of them.

When he arrived at the village entrance riding on his horned beast, the children and villagers immediately gathered around to watch ergou return home.

"Ergou, didn't you go out to get a wife? why did you come back so soon?"

you're dressed so impressively. You're carrying a saber and riding a horned beast. Did you make a fortune? " who's with you? he looks like a noble. Is he your master? "

The villagers who hadn't gone up the mountain or down the field would occasionally draw er Gou's side to ask about him, secretly inquiring about Tang Zhen.

They were extremely envious. They had never thought that the most useless er Gou would actually be attached to a noble person!

One had to know that just three horned beasts was a considerable amount of wealth, and ordinary families could not afford to raise them at all.

Buttface had never enjoyed such treatment before, so he was naturally very happy. He recalled the noble people he had seen before and subconsciously imitated them.

“All of you move aside, don’t block my way!”

After pretending to roar at the surrounding villagers, ergou looked at Tang Zhen and led the way with a face full of smiles.

“Quickly go and tell my brother that there is an important guest at the door. Quickly clean up the house!”

As Buttface spoke, he took out a few small coins from his pocket and threw them to the child beside him.

Although he felt a little pained, he felt extremely excited when he saw the respectful eyes of the villagers around him.

In a poor village like theirs, the villagers basically had not seen much money. Most of the time, they bartered.

Now that he had casually given away money and driven people to do things, he would definitely become a legend in the mouths of the villagers. When they talked about it, their faces would be full of envy, jealousy, and hatred.

Er Gou, who was illiterate, didn’t know the idiom ‘return home in glory’, but he still felt a great sense of satisfaction in his heart.

Tang Zhen didn’t say anything. He only followed behind er Gou and advanced along the narrow path that was filled with feces.

In such a backward and closed place, one should not expect to see any beautiful scenery. There were only broken houses and villagers in ragged clothes that emitted a strange smell. They looked at you with awe and rejection.

Tang Zhen did not care about the gazes of the villagers. He was only concerned about what he wanted. Ever since he entered the village, he had been constantly looking for it.

Just as he was thinking, he heard ergou call him big brother. Then, he dragged a man with a face full of vicissitudes and bowed respectfully to Tang Zhen.

Tang Zhen nodded his head. Er Gou’s big brother was different from him. He should be a true farmer.

The name was also very simple. It was called big dog.

There were two women standing behind him. One of them was the big dog's wife. She was a very simple and shy woman. She didn't even dare to raise her head when she saw Tang Zhen.

The other was Er Gou's younger sister. Her character was very similar to her second brother. At this time, she was staring with her big eyes, secretly sizing up Tang Zhen, this noble.

Behind the house not far away, there were three small heads peeking out. They seemed to have not washed their faces for a long time, so their faces and necks were black and shiny.

"Your Excellency, this is my big brother's house. How about we rest here first?"

Er Gou looked at Tang Zhen and asked in a questioning tone.

there's no hurry to rest. Do you still remember what I said on the way? if possible, I hope that you can execute it immediately.

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, Er Gou nodded his head. Then, he found a man in the crowd. He was the village chief.

After hearing Er Gou's introduction, the village chief looked at Tang Zhen with even more respect. Compared to the other villagers, this village chief, who had a bit of knowledge, could see that Tang Zhen was extraordinary.

don't worry, Sir. I'll definitely do your bidding well!

The village chief came in front of Tang Zhen and spoke in a respectful tone. It was obvious that he wanted to leave a good impression in front of the noble.

"Do it well, I won't mistreat you."

As Tang Zhen spoke, he took out a gold coin from his pocket and then showed the village chief more gold coins.

Then, under the village chief's shocked gaze, he split the gold coin in half, giving one half to the village chief and the other half to the big dog.

"Take it, this is your meeting gift!"

The village head was so excited that his entire body was trembling. He quickly thanked Tang Zhen because with this half a gold coin, his youngest son would have enough money to start a family.

The big dog was confused. It didn't know what Tang Zhen had given it. After hearing the value of the gold coins from er Gou, it was so excited that it wanted to kneel down and kowtow to Tang Zhen.

alright, I don't want to waste any more time. If you can complete the mission as soon as possible, I will give you more rewards.

After Tang Zhen finished speaking, he walked into the courtyard. He asked ergou to find someone to build a pergola and start preparing for the next work.

It was easy to do things with money. All the men, women, old, and young in the village were mobilized. Some were responsible for chopping wood to build a pergola, while others searched for the materials Tang Zhen needed and sent them to the big dog's house continuously.

They would get paid after being busy, which made the villagers even more excited and full of energy.

After everything was ready, Tang Zhen began to work. He ordered people to get wood and cut it according to the drawings.

The villagers had never done such work before. At first, they were very slow, but after getting used to it, they slowly became faster.

Some people were in charge of carving the wood, while others were in charge of collecting the plants and animal skins that Tang Zhen needed. They then placed them into the stone pot that Tang Zhen had chopped with his long sword and continuously boiled them. The entire village was filled with a strange smell.

After the entire village was mobilized, they were busy for nearly ten days before a strange object appeared in front of everyone.

2467 Runic airship _1

Looking at the behemoth that they had participated in the creation of, other than being shocked, the villagers could not suppress their curiosity.

In their eyes, Tang Zhen was a rich and capable person. He was different from them in all aspects.

The things that he had spent so much money to make would naturally not be simple.

They had many speculations about the item in the big dog's yard, and they were trying to figure out what it could be used for.

It could be a house, a car, or just a toy.

With their shallow knowledge, they could not figure out what it was at all, and they did not know what it meant for them to be involved.

If they could remember the entire manufacturing process and study it seriously, they might be able to change their fate of digging for food in the soil.

Even if the manufacturing process could not be replicated, as long as one remembered one of the items, one could still benefit greatly.

It was just that if Tang Zhen didn't mention this, the villagers wouldn't know at all. Perhaps one day, they would realize how precious the knowledge they had learned was!

After all the basic work was completed, Tang Zhen ordered the villagers to collect all kinds of oil from all over the mountains and fields according to his requirements.

Animal fat, vegetable fat, and some special stones were all on the list.

As for Tang Zhen himself, he was busy all day long as he carved runes and magic circles on the items.

The purpose of drawing runic magic circles was to make items stronger and lighter, and to make them as strong as metal.

This was a very precise job that required high enough rune attainments, and no mistakes were allowed during the process.

Due to his strength being sealed, Tang Zhen was unable to complete the work with a single thought. He could only slowly complete all the steps.

While he was drawing the runic magic circle, Tang Zhen also built a special engine for power.

This work could only be completed by Tang Zhen himself. First, other people didn't know how to do it, and second, he didn't feel at ease leaving it to others.

During the process of Tang Zhen's work, er Gou had been listening to his orders from the side. Seeing the pile of materials turn into a huge object in front of him, the shock in his heart was almost indescribable.

To Buttface, this kind of shock was far more intense than seeing the superhuman strength of a cultivator. Without enough knowledge, it was impossible to create such a great thing out of thin air.

Tang Zhen's position in his heart had once again been elevated. He was practically on par with a God.

.....

The days passed one by one. Counting the days since Tang Zhen entered this world, a month had already passed.

For such a long time, Tang Zhen had not killed any monsters and his level was maintained at around level five.

After a month of stagnation, he might no longer have the advantage in level compared to the other cultivators in Lou Cheng.

According to his guess, after finding out that killing monsters could quickly increase their strength, the cultivators in Loucheng would definitely look for clues everywhere and work hard to kill monsters to level up.

Perhaps the cultivators of other Loucheng had already found out about the location of the severed head Ridge and were now constantly clearing the monsters there.

It was very likely that by the time Tang Zhen arrived, the entire severed head Ridge would have been cleaned up and he would have made a wasted trip.

However, Tang Zhen didn't care about it because he clearly knew that what he did would definitely bring him more benefits.

Even if it would waste some time and delay the progress of leveling up, it was definitely worth it.

His continuous efforts finally paid off. After inspection, Tang Zhen confirmed that the runic airship that he designed and manufactured had completed all the assembly work.

The oil extracted by the villagers was also mixed by Tang Zhen with a special method, turning into a black-red sticky paste that was sealed in bamboo tubes.

In addition, there were some other items that were carefully kept after mixing. No one was allowed to touch them.

After instructing the villagers to put the ointment into the cabin, Tang Zhen let Er Gou say goodbye to his family because he was going to head to severed head Ridge next.

Er Gou had been waiting for this day for a long time. He gave the money he had picked up to his brother and told his sister to find a good family. Then, he turned around and walked to Tang Zhen.

The shed above the runic airship had already been removed, completely exposing the runic airship that was more than ten meters long. It looked like a crouching monster.

Under the gazes of a group of villagers, Tang Zhen and his partner boarded the runic airship and closed the wooden hatch.

Following Tang Zhen's instructions, ergou threw the boiled oil into the fuel cabin to provide the power to start the runic airship.

The huge spindle-shaped airbag was filled with a large amount of hot air in an instant. Under the effect of the runic magic circle, the process was more than ten times faster than normal.

"It moved, that thing actually moved!"

Some villagers cried out in surprise. Their faces were full of surprise, and they subconsciously retreated to the distance to watch.

They had participated in the manufacturing of the runic airships and had also guessed its use, but they had never thought that this thing could fly.

To these villagers, the sky was a forbidden zone. How could a creature without wings fly up?

However, at this moment, they saw with their own eyes that this object made of wood and various materials was slowly floating into the sky above their heads, getting further and further away from their position.

"This is a God!"

The village chief finally recovered from his shock. He knelt on the ground and shouted loudly, his eyes full of excitement and respect.

The other villagers were the same. They knelt on the ground one after another, their hearts full of fear. They thought back to whether they had neglected the gods in the past.

It was not strange for the villagers to have such a reaction, because for them, it seemed that only the gods could create a runic airship that could fly in the sky.

.....

Buttface was very excited, but his body was weak. As the runic dirigible rose, his legs kept shaking.

He forced himself not to look at the scene outside, in case he peed his pants because he was too scared.

don't worry, the runic airship is very safe. It definitely won't fall.

Seeing the pained expression on er Gou's face, Tang Zhen smiled and casually reminded him.

"I know it's fine, but I can't help but be afraid of Yingluo."

Buttface revealed a smile that was uglier than crying. He closed his eyes and adjusted his breathing to get used to the bumpiness of the runic dirigible.

Tang Zhen smiled without saying anything. He knew that it wouldn't take long for er Gou to get used to the turbulence of flying in the sky. He might even be deeply infatuated with this feeling.

Tang Zhen had brought along er Gou before he left because he needed someone to do some chores. After all, he still had other things to do.

Compared to the villagers, er Gou was naturally the best choice, and it was only natural that he would be chosen.

After estimating the height of the airship, Tang Zhen pulled a lever and the wings on both sides of the runic airship slowly extended.

The two wings were more than 50 meters long and were mainly made of wood and animal skin. Because the villagers participated in the construction, the craftsmanship could only be considered average.

The runic magic circle carved on it ensured that the wings were insanely sturdy and would not break easily.

After the wings spread out, the runic airship immediately became more stable. It was like a huge strange bird gliding in the clear sky.

After feeling the change, the trembling of Buttface's body became much less intense, and his pale face slowly regained its color.

Due to the limited conditions, the layout of the pilot cabin was very simple, and there was a constant cold wind blowing.

To Tang Zhen, all of this was nothing. Only er Gou, who was not used to it, could only wrap a piece of animal skin around his body.

Tang Zhen stood on the platform of the runic airship and looked down at the wilderness that was constantly passing by, looking for an area where monsters might be present.

This was one of Tang Zhen's main goals in building the runic airship. Not only could it allow him to travel faster and more conveniently, but it could also allow him to observe the surrounding situation from a high vantage point.

With this method that was equivalent to mental energy detection, Tang Zhen's advantage would increase by several times. The cultivators in Loucheng who couldn't fly simply couldn't compare.

In addition, he also had the right to control the air and could launch attacks from above. If he was paired with bombs and other weapons, he was almost no different from a bomber.

A trace of anticipation flashed across Tang Zhen's eyes as he looked at the horizon. He did not know if his hard work would be able to obtain the desired effect.

2468 The difficult to fight Mt. Decapitation (1)

In the open space in front of the severed head Ridge, a group of cultivators from Lou city in different attires were standing at the foot of the mountain and looking into the distance.

They had been here for a long time. During this time, they had entered the severed head mountain ridge several times, but were eventually forced to retreat.

Because there were too many monsters here and they were extremely fierce, a small number of cultivators in Loucheng city were no match for the monsters.

After many attempts and casualties, these cultivators could only retreat temporarily and seek a more secure method.

As a result, while they were researching and waiting, more and more cultivators from Lou Cheng gathered. The severed head Ridge, which even merchants would take a detour to, suddenly became lively.

Just as Tang Zhen had guessed, after the cultivators in Loucheng discovered that they could level up by killing monsters, they began to find ways to obtain similar information.

After some investigation, he found out that in this world, such strange rumors often appeared.

There were many rumors about the strange incident at severed head Ridge. More than one group of people had seen the headless soldiers and were scared witless.

At the same time, there were also many caravans who passed by here and lost their heads in confusion. No one even collected their corpses.

Therefore, as long as he inquired a little, he would be able to collect the rumors about severed head Ridge. After carefully verifying them, he would be able to confirm that the rumors were not groundless.

The cultivators in Loucheng who were eager to level up naturally swarmed over and tried to fight for this piece of fat meat.

However, the cultivators in Lou city were facing the same problem, which was that the journey was long and difficult, and they had to travel with great difficulty.

The cultivators of Lou city had no choice but to travel all the way here.

They had finally arrived at Severed Head Ridge, but in the end, they saw someone beat them to it. The people who came later could not help but feel depressed and disappointed.

However, the latecomer soon discovered that the first comer didn't get any benefits. Instead, he had a worried look.

The latecomers heaved a sigh of relief, as if a heavy burden had been lifted off their shoulders. Then, they immediately realized that things might be far more difficult than they had imagined.

However, this was also good. The harder the monster was to fight, the better the reward.

They each occupied a territory and entered the mountains to test the waters. They all came to the same conclusion.

The Severed Head Ridge was a dangerous place with many monsters. He definitely could not enter rashly.

As time passed, more and more cultivators from Lou Cheng gathered and stopped at the entrance of the mountain.

Because of their large numbers, they had already attracted the attention of various forces. In the past two days, there had been a constant stream of spies appearing.

"We can't continue like this. We must act immediately. The longer we delay, the more likely it will be for something to happen."

His companion nodded. Everyone knew that this was inappropriate, but what could they do?

"We're alone and weak. If we enter rashly, we'll most likely be trapped by the monsters.

Without any reinforcements, it will be as difficult as ascending to heaven to escape."

This was a difficult problem that every team faced. If they could not solve it, they would not dare to go deep into the Severed Head Ridge.

so we have to unite, not think of monopolizing it all. Otherwise, we will get nothing in the end!

What he said made sense, and more than one person had thought this way.

The problem was that the cultivators in the city of loucheng came from different battle zones and were competitors, so it was difficult for them to cooperate with each other sincerely.

However, the current situation was special. Even if they were on guard against each other, they had to try.

After making up their mind, the group of cultivators from Lou Cheng immediately took action. They entered the camps of other cultivators from Lou Cheng, looking for partners to cooperate with.

What they didn't expect was that the negotiation process would go so smoothly, because everyone was looking for a solution to the problem.

Someone had broken the deadlock and taken the initiative to ask for cooperation, which was naturally what the cultivators were looking for.

It didn't take long before the number of teams participating in the cooperation increased to dozens, and the total number of people reached hundreds.

After they chose to cooperate, they didn't rush to act. Instead, they gathered together to discuss the plan of action.

Although the number of players had increased after working together, it was still insignificant compared to the monsters on skull Ridge.

If they weren't careful, they could be completely annihilated.

The leaders of dozens of teams gathered together and gathered all the information they had, analyzing and studying it again.

At the same time, they also drew a map. On the map, other than the terrain, there was also the distribution of various monsters, as well as related information on their weaknesses.

The cultivators in loucheng had to set a route to ensure that they could safely evacuate in the event of danger while minimizing casualties.

If there were too many casualties, the cultivators of loucheng would rather give up on this place to ensure the completeness of the team.

After a simple discussion, the cultivators of Lou Cheng immediately began to move, moving closer and closer to the severed head Ridge.

They were arranged in two horizontal rows, coordinating with each other. Once the front row was in danger, the back row could immediately provide assistance.

After the cultivators in the front row were injured, they could retreat to the back row and let their companions take care of them.

Not long after they entered the mountain, they heard the sound of orderly footsteps from the dense forest. A group of soldiers wearing tattered armor appeared in front of them.

Their steps were uniform, but their movements were stiff and strange, as if they were puppets controlled by ropes.

Their shoulders were bare, and their heads were nowhere to be seen. Black and red smoke-like things were constantly spurting out of their bare necks.

When the black smoke came into contact with the air, it immediately turned into a large amount of gray mist as if it was boiling.

The originally bad field of vision had now become even worse, and he could not see anything more than ten meters away.

“Everyone, listen up! We must gather together and don’t fall behind!”

The moment the headless soldiers appeared, the battle had officially begun. The sounds of killing lingered in their ears.

Lou Cheng’s cultivators were good at fighting on the battlefield, and those who participated in this competition were all elites, so their combat power was not ordinary.

After the encounter with the monster, the Lou Cheng cultivators clearly had the upper hand as they continued to push deeper into the valley.

However, there were countless monsters in the mountain. After killing one wave of monsters, a new wave would immediately appear.

The cultivators in Lou Cheng were not machines. In the absence of support, the longer the battle lasted, the more dangerous it would be.

It was a good thing that when they came up with the plan, they did not have any plans to sweep through the ridge. Thus, when they realized that the situation was not right, they immediately retreated from the ridge.

After they recovered, the cultivators of Lou Cheng once again charged into the severed head Ridge and continued to push forward.

After trying it a few times, the cultivators in Lou Cheng found that this method worked, but they lacked high-level monsters.

If the cultivators in Lou city wanted to improve their strength quickly, they had to go deeper or their gains would be smaller and smaller.

After a few operations, the cultivators in Loucheng city had also gained a lot. Their levels had been upgraded, and they had also accumulated a batch of urgently needed materials.

After some discussion, the cultivators of Lou Cheng decided to go straight into the depths of severed head Ridge.

Of course, this was not a decisive battle. Instead, it was to collect intelligence for the decisive battle, and then launch a general attack on severed head Ridge at the appropriate time.

Just as the cultivators of Lou city were rubbing their palms and getting ready for a big fight, a black dot suddenly appeared on the horizon in the distance and was getting closer and closer to the severed head Ridge.

If one observed it carefully, one would find that the black dot was actually a runic airship with a strange shape. A figure stood on it, looking down at the huge Valley full of monsters.

2469 Taking full advantage _1

The scene of the severed head Ridge was completely displayed in front of Tang Zhen's eyes at this moment. There was almost nothing that he missed.

In the fog-filled Valley, countless headless soldiers could be seen wandering around, occupying all the empty space in the inner part of the ridge.

They weren't scattered and disorderly, but like a real Army, they guarded their respective positions.

Although their bodies died in battle, their Army's spirit would not be destroyed!

Such monsters were extremely difficult to deal with because they had the instincts of when they were alive, and they had the undying attribute of not being afraid of pain.

Advance and retreat as one, orders and prohibitions.

On the battlefield, they were the nightmare of all enemies. Their fearsome charge was enough to break down all the enemy's defenses.

In addition to being brave and fierce, the headless soldiers, who were spirit bodies, also had some strange natural abilities.

Because they carried a strong yin energy, they were in between the real and the virtual. They could enter different dimensions at certain times and suddenly appear beside the enemy.

Many of the caravans who were killed at the mountain just happened to encounter the headless soldiers who suddenly appeared and were killed by these monsters.

As for the reason why they were beheaded, one reason was that on the battlefield, military merits were determined by the number of heads, so the headless soldiers were used to beheading people to claim their merits.

As for the second reason, it was because their heads had disappeared. Now, they wanted to restore their bodies, so they placed their severed heads on their own bodies.

Hence, it was not that the headless soldiers were actively searching for prey, but that the victims were really unlucky. Otherwise, the road to skull Ridge would have been destroyed, and most of the merchants would not be able to pass through safely.

These headless soldiers were more powerful than the ghost city's defenders.

The Army never lacked powerhouses, and the headless Army was no exception. There were more powerhouses than there were less powerhouses.

From Tang Zhen's point of view, he could easily see some heavily armored military officers appearing in the military camp. They were guarding different areas.

Other than being larger in size and better equipped, these officers all had several heads on their shoulders, but none of them belonged to them.

Tang Zhen only heaved a sigh of relief after looking at the situation in the valley. He was afraid that he would only end up making a wasted trip after rushing over with a travel-worn appearance.

However, looking at the current situation, even though some cultivators had arrived, they were only active in the outer periphery.

In addition, this situation also showed that the level of the cultivators in this group of buildings was not high. Otherwise, they would not have been delayed in the periphery.

He glanced at the Lou Cheng cultivators who had gathered outside and were slowly entering the severed head Ridge. Then, he turned to look at Ergou, who was in charge of controlling the runic airship.

begin to slow down the distance of five thousand meters ahead. At the same time, turn the floating array to second gear and wait for new orders.

yes! Buttface replied immediately. At the same time, he pulled the control lever on the operating table according to Zhen Tang's request.

The strange bird-like runic airship made the sound of gears, and a few dim runic magic circles were activated, slowing down its speed.

The moment they arrived at the headless Army's camp, the runic dirigible's speed was reduced to its lowest, and it floated in the air like a strange bird.

"Look, what the hell is that?"

When the runic airship stopped in mid-air, the cultivators of Loucheng city on the ground naturally noticed this unusual scene. They immediately became very vigilant.

They were well aware of the importance of air control. If the runic airship in the sky belonged to the enemy, it would be a disaster.

At this time, their strength was too low to fly in the sky. Otherwise, they would have sent people up to investigate.

If possible, he would naturally seize the runic airship and use it as his own weapon.

But now it seemed that this was clearly a fool's dream.

Just as the cultivators in Loucheng were secretly worried, they saw the runic airship in the sky drop the black dot and fall into the valley.

"Not good!"

Seeing this scene, the cultivators of Loucheng looked terrible. They could even guess what would happen next.

This unknown fellow controlling the runic airship was obviously trying to steal their kill.

Of course, they were snatching it with their own strength because the target of the attack was the inner part of the valley, which was a forbidden zone that they had not touched so far.

It was a bit shameless to say that they were stealing monsters. After all, this skull Ridge was an ownerless land, and everyone was stealing monsters with their own abilities.

Some of the cultivators in loucheng city secretly regretted not thinking of such a method. Otherwise, they would have been the ones in the limelight.

In the valley, the battle had officially begun!

The black dot fell at a seemingly slow speed, but it was actually fast. In the blink of an eye, a violent explosion was heard from the ground.

The sound of explosions rang out continuously. As the headless monster was sent flying and torn to pieces, flames rose from the valley.

Seeing this scene, the cultivators of Lou Cheng gritted their teeth in anger. If they did that, they wouldn't even be able to get a monster.

What was worse was that as the mountain Fire ignited, they would also be implicated. If they didn't Dodge in time, they might be completely roasted by the raging flames.

In fact, there were cultivators from Lou Cheng who wanted to set fire to the mountain, but after some research, they gave up on the plan.

If he set fire to the mountain, he would only be able to set the trees on the outer area of Broken Head Ridge on fire. He would not be able to reach the inner area of Broken Head Ridge.

This was because there were very few trees in the inner part of the mountain. Most of the area was covered in strange rocks and there was no burning material at all.

The surroundings of the headless Army's campsite were even cleaner. This was to prevent the enemy from using fire attacks.

However, at this moment, an unknown person was using a method that they had given up on to attack the headless Army's main camp.

The cultivators of Lou Cheng could only stand guard at the periphery of severed head Ridge. They listened to the violent explosions, looked at the flames that soared into the sky, and watched as the others killed the monsters.

damn it, this must be the work of the Lou Cheng cultivators. It's definitely not the means of native cultivators.

From the runic airship, cultivator Lou Cheng saw many familiar things. Now he was 100% sure that the owner of the runic airship was cultivator Lou Cheng.

It was a pity that they couldn't fly and didn't have any anti-air weapons in their hands. Otherwise, they would have to see who the other party was.

Just as the group of cultivators were envious and jealous, Tang Zhen had already adjusted his angle and launched a new round of attacks on the ground.

When he was making runic airships in the small mountain village, he had been thinking about what kind of weapons to use. The first thing he considered was naturally bombs.

This type of weapon was easy to operate and extremely destructive, especially when attacking from a high position.

However, the problem was that the runic airship had a limited carrying capacity. If normal means were used to make bombs, the runic airship probably wouldn't be able to hold two at all.

After Tang Zhen carefully studied it, he finally created a type of miniature rune bomb. It relied on the catalyst of the runic magic circle and could produce a rather terrifying destructive power.

Fortunately, in this competition, the strength of Lou Cheng was limited, but his past memories were not sealed.

Otherwise, Tang Zhen wouldn't be able to make runic airships or runic bombs. He could only travel a long distance like the other cultivators in Loucheng to reach Severed Head Mountain.

Following the sound of an intense explosion, the bodies of the headless soldiers were violently torn to pieces. Traces of energy floated into the sky and surged into Tang Zhen's body.

He was not far from the next level up!

2470 Breaking into the enemy camp alone (1)

Due to the limited materials and space, Tang Zhen didn't make too many bombs. After dozens of loud sounds, his ammunition reserve was exhausted.

At this moment, the ground had already turned into a sea of fire. The monsters were in a mess and had achieved the result that Tang Zhen wanted.

He wanted to throw the headless Army's camp into chaos so that he could take advantage of the chaos to lower the difficulty of the operation.

There was still fuel in the runic airships that could be used to deal with monsters, but it was the raw material to power the runic airships, so it must not be wasted.

Without the means to attack the ground, the value of the runic airships was greatly reduced, and they only had the advantage of high-altitude reconnaissance.

In the end, it was just a means of transportation. Although it could provide some convenience to Tang Zhen, it still had many restrictions.

The limited space limited its potential, and it could only serve as a transitional equipment. If it was really developed in this direction, this model of runic airship would definitely be eliminated.

Of course, these weren't things that Tang Zhen had to consider. At this moment, he was wearing a special set of clothes that looked as if flesh membranes had grown on his arms and legs.

This set of clothes was more like a winged flight suit, and there were some runes on the surface, revealing a trace of mysterious aura.

From a distance, Tang Zhen looked like a strange bird that was making preparations to fly.

"My Lord, what are you doing?"

Seeing this scene, er Gou couldn't help but feel curious as he asked Tang Zhen.

"I'm going to jump down and enter the camp at the bottom of the mountain. I'm going to kill those high level monsters directly.

You will continue to stay in the runic airship and wait for my orders. If you see any red smoke rising, control the runic airship to descend and meet me."

After hearing Zhen Tang's order, er Gou was shocked. He subconsciously looked out of the window of the airship and his body trembled in fear.

Oh my God! Wouldn't he die if he jumped from such a height? "

Even though he knew that Tang Zhen wasn't weak, er Gou still had a feeling that he would die if he were to jump from this height.

He knew that Tang Zhen would definitely not treat his life as a joke. This meant that he had a method to solve this problem. Perhaps, it was related to his special clothes.

Buttface was curious, so he subconsciously took a few more glances, trying to figure out what was going on.

However, at this moment, he saw Tang Zhen directly jump onto the fence and slowly spread his arms.

In the next moment, Tang Zhen left the runic airship and landed in the sky.

Buttface was so scared that he almost screamed out loud. However, he held his breath and didn't dare to make a sound in the end. His heart, however, was beating wildly.

In the end, curiosity prevailed. It urged Buttface to go to the window and carefully stick his head out to take a look.

Tang Zhen was like a large bird as he rapidly flew above the severed head Ridge. Two long "sticks" appeared in his hands, and the skin on them had turned into wings.

He continued to circle around the sky above severed head Ridge, and his altitude was getting lower and lower. He estimated that he would soon land in the enemy's camp.

Since the appearance of the runic airship, the cultivators in loucheng city had been observing the scene in the sky. Naturally, they saw Tang Zhen descending from the sky.

he actually jumped down. Does he not want to live anymore? ”

To the cultivators of Lou city, the interior of the mountain was a forbidden area. If they entered before they were strong enough, it was no different from courting death.

Under such circumstances, there was still someone who dared to enter alone. He was simply courting death.

Unless the other party had astonishing strength and was completely unafraid of the threat of those monsters, allowing them to enter and leave freely, otherwise, they would be courting death.

the other party's strength can't be very strong. Otherwise, he wouldn't have descended in such a way, but directly flew into the valley!

When a cultivator from Lou Cheng guessed that Tang Zhen was an expert, he was immediately refuted by his companion, who said that it was impossible.

If Tang Zhen had the strength of a Lord, he would definitely be able to sweep through the entire severed head Ridge and not launch an attack from the air like he did earlier.

Not to mention, everyone had completed the teleportation at the same time. Although they had encountered different things, the difference in level couldn't be that big.

Therefore, the cultivators in loucheng city were very puzzled by Tang Zhen's actions. They didn't understand what he was trying to do.

.....

The wings on his back were retracted as Tang Zhen landed on the ground. He was surrounded by headless soldiers.

After discovering Tang Zhen, the monster did not hesitate and attacked him.

Tang Zhen hid behind a huge rock and dodged the spear that was aimed at him. After that, he raised his arm and aimed at the headless soldier in front of him.

“Bang!”

With a muffled sound, the headless soldier’s body was torn to pieces, and broken bones and remains flew everywhere.

“Whoosh, whoosh, Whoosh!”

A series of air-piercing sounds were heard as dozens of sharp arrows were shot at Tang Zhen. All of them came from the guards of the camp.

These guards were all archers. When Tang Zhen descended from the sky, he had already attracted their attention.

Although they didn’t have heads, they could use unknown positioning methods to lock onto the location of their enemies.

Although there was no problem with the direction, the accuracy was really not something to be complimented about. Among the large pile of arrows that were shot at Tang Zhen, only three of them could possibly hit his body.

He waved his long sword and swept it gently. The arrows that were shot at him were swept to the ground. After that, Tang Zhen was like an agile leopard as he rushed into the headless Army’s camp.

Tang Zhen was very clear about his own situation. He knew that it was impossible for him to be a match for tens of thousands of headless soldiers alone.

Therefore, he chose another way of fighting, which was the decapitation strike, which was specifically targeted at high-level monsters.

Kill the target in the shortest amount of time, then use your own advantages to move around and Dodge, while looking for a new target to continue moving.

As long as Zhen Tang was given enough time, he would definitely be able to kill more high-level monsters and increase his level again.

When he reached a certain level, he would be able to challenge higher level monsters and level up faster. After that, he would be able to find more powerful monsters.

Although the plan was very simple, it carried a huge risk. If they were not careful, they would die Here.

There was a saying that wealth was obtained from danger. If Tang Zhen wanted to achieve some results, then he must bear this risk.

Tang Zhen charged into the headless Army's main camp at an extremely fast speed but immediately became the target of many arrows. As he advanced, sharp arrows continuously flew down.

Tang Zhen was not afraid at all. He ran quickly through the headless Army's camp and headed straight for a tent in front.

When he was in the sky earlier, he had been constantly looking for the location of high-level monsters, and then he had memorized it.

At this moment, Tang Zhen was heavily surrounded. If he could not kill his target in time, his situation would become even more dangerous.

Fortunately, the headless soldiers were slow to react. Otherwise, it was impossible for Tang Zhen to run around the camp. He was actually taking advantage of the monster's weakness.

In the blink of an eye, Tang Zhen had already rushed in front of a high-ranking officer and launched an attack first.

“BOOM!”

He fired his spear at the monster, and the longsword in his hand drew an arc of light, sweeping across the monster's armor.

Clang! Clang!

The monster's armor fell to the ground, and the weapon flew out of his hand while it was still in mid-air. Tang Zhen turned his sword and slashed the officer monster into four pieces.

The entire process took less than three seconds, and the speed was shocking.

He reached out and gently touched the officer monster's body. Tang Zhen immediately shifted his position to avoid being surrounded by the headless soldiers that followed closely.