

Read I Have A City In An Alternate World Chapter 2491

- 2491 The undercurrent surges (1)

2491 The undercurrent surges (1)

Before entering the city, Tang Zhen and ER Gou had already disguised themselves to avoid being noticed as much as possible.

There were many hidden forces in the Heaven's Wall city, so he had to be careful to avoid unnecessary trouble.

However, with Tang Zhen's current ability, he could only put on a simple disguise and not be as flawless as he was in the past.

Although he couldn't hide it from those who wanted to, if it was just a quick glance, no one would notice him.

It took them two hours to get down the mountain before they found the way into the city and continued on.

On the way, they met a few hunters who looked at Tang Zhen's group with a somewhat unfriendly gaze. That was an expression that one would have after seeing prey.

Tang Zhen acted as if he didn't see it and continued on his way. Er Gou, on the other hand, was a little nervous as he turned his head back to check from time to time.

"Your Excellency, look at Qianqian behind us."

Tang Zhen stopped in his tracks and smiled at er Gou, I know. They want to Rob and kill. They're waiting for an opportunity to strike.

Er Gou was stunned for a moment. It was obvious that he didn't know how to reply. He had wanted to remind Tang Zhen just now, but he had already known about this matter.

"Then what should we do, Yingluo?"

Er Gou asked again. It was obvious that he was following Tang Zhen's orders and not making decisions on his own.

"Strike first, gain the upper hand. Since they want to kill you and me, why don't we kill them?"

"I'm going to give you a task now, and that is to go back and solve the hidden danger. If you can't do it, then there's no need for you to continue cultivating, and there's no point in following me. "

Er Gou was stunned. He looked at Tang Zhen in a daze and finally confirmed that he wasn't joking.

"Alright!"

Out of Tang Zhen's expectations, er Gou simply nodded his head and agreed. Then, he took his knife and left.

Tang Zhen faintly smiled when he saw this. However, he did not follow them. This was because he knew that er Gou would definitely not encounter any danger.

As for the reason ...

Tang Zhen fiddled with a wooden cylinder as thick as a finger. Previously, this place contained an extremely volatile paralyzing poison. When using it, one only needed to scatter it on the ground and it would allow the pursuer to inhale it without any warning.

After that, their reactions would be slow and their consciousness would be blurry. In serious cases, they would even be at the mercy of others.

.....

After he got on the road, Tang Zhen realized that there were many pedestrians on the road, and they were all heading to the Heaven's Wall city.

Buttface asked around curiously and got a piece of shocking news. For some reason, there were traces of demons and ghosts in many places nearby.

These demons and ghosts wreaked havoc everywhere, causing people to live in misery. Many people were harmed because of this.

It didn't take long for these monsters to suddenly disappear, as if they had never appeared.

Later on, people discovered that the monsters had already settled in a fixed location and would not leave easily.

Although the danger had been greatly reduced, it still brought a lot of inconvenience to the villagers, making some places forbidden.

People couldn't stand such a life. They were afraid that monsters would appear at their doorstep one day and harm their lives and their family's.

So after these villagers discussed, they sent people to the Heaven's Wall city one after another. They either spent money to buy items to exorcise evil or spent money to hire adventurers to kill demons and devils.

In addition, there were some villagers who felt that their homes were no longer safe, so they decided to move to the Heaven's Wall city. This way, they would feel more secure.

They dragged their families along and slowly advanced on the long road. It seemed to be quite difficult.

Tang Zhen listened to the conversation between er Gou and the passerby. He was very clear in his heart that the appearance of these monsters was definitely related to the cultivators in loucheng.

If there were no monsters, how could the cultivators in loucheng compete to level up?

This was just the beginning. The situation in the future would be even more brutal, and the monsters would be even more ferocious.

To the natives, this was a world-ending catastrophe!

In fact, they were just like monsters. Although they had flesh and blood, they were essentially just tools to be used.

They had been kept in captivity for thousands of years just to test the strength of the cultivators in Lou city one day.

It sounded cruel, but for the cultivators of loucheng, this was a common thing.

In the eyes of some cultivators in the city, they didn't even care about these mortals, as if they were ants.

Lou Cheng's cultivators were valiant and loyal. They were willing to sacrifice everything for their comrades, but it didn't mean that they would do the same for others.

Kindness was rare among the cultivators in loucheng. They were always more rational in dealing with things that made people feel compassionate.

After walking for a short while, a group of people came from the opposite side. There were more than 30 people in the standard adventurer attire.

They were fully armed and were pulling horned beasts filled with supplies, as if they were going on a long journey.

Tang Zhen observed for a while and found that there were a few adventurers whose strength was higher than his. Among them, there were a few adventurers who were suspected to be cultivators from Lou Cheng.

When Tang Zhen was observing them, the other party had also cast his gaze over. One could see that his perception was quite sharp.

Although they both recognized each other, they didn't make any unnecessary movements and just brushed past each other.

The situation was special now. If it did not involve his own interests, it was naturally better to avoid unnecessary trouble.

The distance between the two parties grew further and further. Tang Zhen was pondering about the other party's plan. Clearly, they were looking for monsters in the wilderness.

When there were not many monsters, this method of increasing strength was not a bad idea.

However, this was only the initial response. As their level increased, the rare monsters would not be able to meet the needs of the cultivators in the building.

Tang Zhen believed that after reaching a certain stage, there would definitely be new situations. At that time, even more monsters would definitely appear.

What he needed to do now was to accumulate as much strength as possible and rise up when the next opportunity came.

Tang Zhen wasn't interested in the cultivator who left. What he was most curious about now was the intention of the cultivator who entered the Heaven's Wall city.

Was he collecting information like him, or did he have a special purpose?

Before they knew it, the two of them had already arrived at the entrance of the Heaven's Wall city. From here, they could see the two Guardian statues, and the visual impact was even stronger.

Especially the eyes of the two Guardian statues, they seemed to come to life, staring at the passing crowd, as if they were examining them.

If it was someone with evil intentions, it was likely that they would not be able to withstand this intimidating gaze and would reveal their flaws in front of the guards of the Heaven's Wall city.

With just a glance, Tang Zhen knew that this pressure came from the "malice detection" formation on The Guardian statue. It was able to detect mental energy and heartbeat. The more flustered one was, the more attention they would attract.

If they really had ill intentions, they would definitely reveal themselves under the strong mental pressure.

"Let's go. There's no need to worry about other things."

Looking at the cowering er Gou, Tang Zhen suddenly stretched out his hand and patted him on the shoulder, waking him up from the mental pressure.

Buttface woke up with a start. After letting out a long breath, he realized that he was covered in cold sweat.

“What the hell is this place?”

Er Gou muttered in a low voice. He sneaked a glance at the soldiers standing at the side and hurriedly followed behind Tang Zhen.

Under the watchful eyes of a group of soldiers, they crossed the building that looked like a bridgehead and stepped onto a stone bridge that was thousands of meters tall.

In fact, only after getting close would one discover that the Heaven’s Wall city was actually surrounded by a huge Lake, including the two mountains beside it.

The lake water was as green as Jade, and fish swam in schools. Dozens of boats of various sizes were slowly floating on the surface of the lake.

The landscape was like a painting, simply too beautiful to take in.

He didn’t know who built the Heaven’s Wall city, but one thing was for sure: this city could be called a miracle.

Unfortunately, it would not be long before the beautiful scenery would no longer exist. Perhaps this clear green Lake would be dyed red by blood.

This thought flashed through his mind and was soon thrown out of his mind.

Having personally experienced the destruction of countless planes, how could Tang Zhen place such a matter in his heart? to him, all of this was merely a fleeting cloud.

Moreover, this world was very special in itself. The life and death of trillions of living beings could actually be decided by a single thought of some existence.

Under the gaze of the two super statues, Tang Zhen and ER Gou strode forward and finally entered a huge city gate that was covered with cylindrical embossed sculptures.

Read I Have A City In An Alternate World Chapter 2492 - 2492 The Heaven's Wall city (1)

2492 The Heaven’s Wall city (1)

The entrance of the Heaven's Wall city was also guarded by soldiers, and there were many of them.

As long as one thought about it, they would know that the Heaven's Wall city was actually a military fortress. Its natural geographical environment made it easy to defend and difficult to attack.

Even though it had become an ordinary city, it could still become a military fortress if needed.

Half of the ships in the lake were warships to prevent enemies from sneaking into the Heaven's Wall city.

The position of the city gate was heavily guarded.

The battlements and muzzles of the arrows were densely packed on the stone wall above their heads. Taking advantage of their height advantage, they firmly blocked the passage into the Heaven's Wall city.

"One man can hold out against ten thousand," it was very appropriate here.

Tang Zhen was clearly able to sense that there were at least a few dozen gazes staring at the city gate. Their gazes were cautious and solemn.

On both sides of the city gate, far away from the bridge, there were mottled iron cages hanging, and there were skeletons inside.

They were prisoners who had committed capital crimes and were trapped to death in a cage. They were then put into the lake to feed the fish.

After the fish had eaten all the skin, flesh, and internal organs, the cage was raised again, and the bones were battered by the wind and rain.

If there were new prisoners, the process would be repeated, and it had not changed for many years.

One had to pay a fee to enter the city, which was very common in backward worlds. Although it seemed to be a small amount of money, it was an indispensable income to maintain the operation of the city.

Without Tang Zhen's instructions, er Gou immediately took out a few small coins and threw them into the wooden plate beside him.

The soldier pulled the wooden handle that was already coated with pulp, and the tray immediately flipped over. The coins fell into the box below.

Tang Zhen took a glance and discovered that this was actually a special mechanism that could record the income and number of people entering the city.

The soldier waved his hand, signaling for the two to leave quickly.

Tang Zhen and ergou entered the Heaven's Wall city and looked around.

The city, which was built in the middle of the mountain, wasn't dark at all, because there were a lot of light-emitting plants.

In addition, there were also stone materials similar to fluorite, which were polished and placed on the streets.

But even so, it still gave people a feeling of being in the evening, as if thousands of lights were blooming in the dark.

Er Gou was not very knowledgeable. In the past, he had only heard of the name of the Heaven's Wall city, but he knew nothing else.

Now that he had seen this Fairyland-like scene with his own eyes, the excitement in his heart could not be described with words. He kept sighing that he had lived in vain in the past.

Tang Zhen, on the other hand, had a calm expression. He had seen too many similar scenes. There were many places that were far better than this place.

"Your Excellency, where are we going?"

Er Gou's eyes lit up as he spoke. Everywhere he looked was extremely fresh, especially the women who passed by. Er Gou couldn't take his eyes off them.

Compared to the women outside, the women in the Heaven's Wall city had extremely white skin, which added to their beauty.

Tang Zhen smiled. He did not expect that the natives here also regarded white as beauty. This point was very similar to his hometown.

I'll fill my stomach first, then find the wise ones. At the same time, I'll try to collect as many maps as possible.

In addition, he had to investigate the movements of the cultivators in Lou Cheng and figure out what they were up to. Of course, he didn't have to tell ergou about this because he couldn't help much.

"That's great, I've been hungry for a long time."

Er Gou said to Tang Zhen. He had been eating dry food and drinking cold water for the past two days. He couldn't wait to eat a delicious and warm meal.

After entering the city gate, there was a large square. It was dozens of meters high, and the entrance to the next floor was every five meters.

There were many caves on each level, and each entrance was a Street. They extended into the mountain like ant nests.

There was a Billboard hanging at the entrance, telling people that the most famous shop was here. If they wanted to go there, they just had to follow the steps.

During the process, there would be people who would take the initiative to approach and ask if they needed a guide.

The internal affairs of the Heaven's Wall city were complicated. Sometimes, even the locals would get lost, let alone the newcomers.

A tour guide came into being, and their business was quite good.

"It's obvious that this is your first time in the Heaven's Wall city. Please believe in my advice and find a tour guide so that you won't waste your precious time.

I'll definitely make you feel that it's worth the money. Whether it's food, clothing, housing, transportation, or buying things, I'll give the most reasonable suggestions. I guarantee that you won't spend a single cent in vain!"

Just like the other outsiders, Tang Zhen and ergou had just stepped onto the street of the second floor when they met the guide who was soliciting business.

Unlike the other tour guides, the one who stopped them was a little girl, who was dressed simply.

The other party was not very old, and might even be underage. He was wearing a loose robe that was tied a few times with a grass rope to ensure that the clothes would not fall off.

He was dragging a furry tail behind him and holding a light stick in his hand. He raised his head to look at Tang Zhen and tried his best to introduce himself.

Although he looked young and tender, he deliberately pretended to be mature, obviously not wanting to miss this business.

The corner of Tang Zhen's mouth revealed a smile after sizing up the other party. He gently nodded.

“Sure, I’ve decided to hire you.”

“Ah, Yingluo, thank you. Thank you, Your Excellency!”

The little girl didn’t expect that Tang Zhen would choose her. She excitedly nodded her head and thanked him. After she came to her senses, she hurriedly maintained her demeanour so as not to let her employer feel that she was unprofessional.

Tang Zhen and ergou laughed when they saw his helpless look.

take us to dinner first, and then we’ll go to other places. This is your payment in advance.

As Tang Zhen spoke, he threw a gold coin into the little girl’s hand.

After seeing the gold coin in her hand, the little girl’s eyes widened. She wanted to scream, but she covered her mouth in time.

She repeatedly nodded to Tang Zhen. Her eyes were filled with an uncontrollable excitement. The happiness she felt caused her eyes to slightly narrow.

To the little girl, this was a huge sum of money, enough to buy a lot of food.

“Your Excellency, please follow me.”

After the little girl put away the gold coins, she immediately led the way and began to Jabber on and on.

“The most famous restaurant in tianxu city is naturally located on the 100th floor of the Lakeview Restaurant. The three floors above and below the street outside are where their families live.

The freshest ingredients were available there, and the best chefs were there. The environment was quiet and beautiful.

While eating, you can also enjoy the beautiful scenery of singing and dancing, or take a hanging basket to enter the restaurant in the lake. I guarantee that you will return with satisfaction.

It’s just that the customers who go to Lakeview Restaurant are either rich or noble, and they must make a reservation in advance. If you two want to go, I’m afraid you’ll have to wait for a while.”

Tang Zhen shook his head, indicating that there was no need to go through so much trouble. He only needed to find a place that was similar.

“If that’s the case, I strongly recommend finger-sucking restaurant. It’s full of unique flavors, and you’ll never forget them after a taste.

You won’t regret it if you go there!”

it sounds good. If it’s not too far away, let’s go and try it.

The girl quickly nodded, indicating that it wasn’t far.

The three of them went up the stairs to the top floor and entered a cave. After walking for a while, they saw a device that looked like an elevator by the side of the road.

This thing was like a conveyor belt that kept running. As long as one paid a few coins, they could ride it to higher places.

The little girl took the initiative to hand over the money and let Tang Zhen and the other person stand on the one-meter wide platform. She also requested to hold the handrail.

After waiting for more than ten seconds, the platform began to move slowly and soon reached a higher level.

However, after reaching this floor, the platform suddenly stopped. It was clearly waiting for other passengers.

don’t worry, Sir. The platform will move very soon. Although we have to stop for a while on every floor, it’s still much faster than walking.

Tang Zhen nodded his head. He naturally knew that climbing the stairs was a waste of time. This was especially the case for Mountain City which was over a thousand meters high. Climbing up would probably end up with broken legs.

Read I Have A City In An Alternate World Chapter 2493 - 2493 Finger-sucking small restaurant (1)

2493 Finger-sucking small restaurant (1)

“Let me ask you something. During this period of time, have there been many outsiders in the Heaven’s Wall city?”

On the way to the destination, Tang Zhen asked the little tour guide. In fact, he wanted to know how many cultivators from loucheng had come.

“There are indeed a lot, but most of them are villagers from nearby. In addition, there are many strangers from unknown places.

Most of these people are armed and look very fierce. They never need anyone to lead the way.”

The girl replied in a slightly depressed tone, probably because she didn't earn any money from him. After all, cultivators from Lou Cheng didn't look like they lacked money.

If all of them were financial backers like Tang Zhen, he would simply earn a lot of money. Now that he had met one, he had to satisfy him.

When the girl thought of this, she subconsciously touched the gold coins in her pocket, her heart filled with happiness.

“Where did they all go? could it be that they all live in the Heaven's Wall city? or have they gone to other places?” Tang Zhen asked.

Although the Heaven's Wall city wasn't small, its space was limited. It was impossible to accommodate so many outsiders.

they must have gone to the underground city, ” the girl replied. it's bigger there, and they can live there for a long time.

“Underground city? What's going on?”

Tang Zhen revealed a puzzled expression as he asked the little tour guide, who was only as tall as his chest. Clearly, he did not expect that the Heaven's Wall city, which was surrounded by a Lake, would have an underground space.

The little tour guide said in all seriousness, ” “An underground city isn't a city. It's a ruin left behind by the ancient demons. It's said that it's a cave dug out by a big insect.

Those demon insects were very powerful. They were three to four meters thick and dozens of meters long. The soil that they touched would turn into stone.

Those without money will live in the underground city. The caves there are criss-crossed and there is no end to it. There is never a lack of places to live.”

Through the little tour guide's description, Tang Zhen found out that there was such a huge underground space under the Heaven's Wall city.

It wasn't natural, but formed by some special monster that almost emptied the entire underground of the Heaven's Wall city.

Although he was a little surprised, he had seen no matter how complicated the terrain was. This situation was nothing at all.

However, the cultivators of the buildings were definitely not going underground to rest. They were going to do something.

“Demon race?”

A thought flashed in Tang Zhen’s mind. If the monsters were related to the devil race, what were the conditions for their formation?

The cultivators of Lou city didn’t go to hunt for monsters, but instead entered the Heaven’s Wall city in large numbers. Was it related to the so-called devil race?

Tang Zhen believed that with the means of Lou Cheng’s cultivators, they must have found some hidden clues. Moreover, it was a secret that he didn’t know yet.

“We’re here. Please follow me, Sir.”

The little tour guide’s voice rang out, waking Tang Zhen from his thoughts. She jumped down from the platform and led the two of them along the street.

Both sides of the street were filled with residential houses and shops. Under the dim light, one could see many people going in and out, making it look very lively.

After walking for about 500 meters, a large tree that glowed with a seven-colored glow appeared on the side of the road. It was very conspicuous in the dark environment.

“This is finger-sucking restaurant. We’ve arrived.”

The little tour guide pointed at the building in front of them and said to Tang Zhen and the other man. There was a trace of excitement in her expression.

hey, what are you so happy about? are there any benefits for bringing us here? ”

Er Gou asked the little tour guide, a trace of doubt flashing in his eyes.

there’s no benefit, just that you can eat leftovers, and the food here is really delicious. If you don’t believe me, you can ask the customers!

The little girl was anxious and quickly explained. Perhaps it was because she was nervous, but her pretty face became bright red.

“Alright, I believe you.”

Tang Zhen smiled and comforted the little tour guide. His gaze swept across the finger-sucking small restaurant and discovered that the owner had intricately carved a stone wall and opened up a courtyard inside.

Over the wall, one could see that the courtyard also had these glowing plants, and the guests were drinking and eating under these trees.

Laughter and conversation could be heard on the street from time to time, adding a bit of liveliness.

There was still space above the courtyard, supported by thick stone pillars, forming a structure similar to the second floor.

There were also guests upstairs. Lights could be seen flashing through the windows, and the outer walls were covered with glowing plants.

“The environment is not bad.”

Tang Zhen nodded and led the two of them in.

The business of this restaurant was quite good. The tables in the courtyard were almost full, and every table was placed with luminous Pearl-like lighting tools. At the same time, some strange dishes were placed on the table.

The waiter at the door was responsible for greeting them. After asking Tang Zhen's requirements, he led them to the private room on the second floor.

The environment of the private room was not bad. Although the decoration was simple, it was clean and refreshing, and there was plenty of light.

Tang Zhen pointed at the dishes on the menu and directly ordered a lot of them. They were all the signature dishes of this restaurant.

After receiving the gold coins from Tang Zhen, the shop assistant turned around and left. At the same time, he beckoned to the little tour guide.

Seeing this, the little girl wanted to leave as well.

“Wait, what are you doing?”

Tang Zhen suddenly opened his mouth and asked the little tour guide.

The girl was shocked and quickly replied, “Your Excellency is about to eat. It's very impolite of me to stay here. I'll wait for you at the door and definitely won't run away.”

The little girl spoke very quickly and explained what she wanted to do. She was afraid that Tang Zhen would misunderstand that she was trying to escape.

“I'm not suspecting you. I just want to know if you've eaten.”

The little girl lowered her head slightly and said "no" in a low voice, but she quickly raised her head again, indicating that she would get a bowl of leftovers, which was the reward for leading the customers to the restaurant.

don't leave. Stay and eat with us. Otherwise, you won't be able to finish the food I ordered.

The little girl revealed a surprised expression after hearing Tang Zhen's words. She seemed to want to reject him, but she did not open her mouth in the end.

"Thank you, Your Excellency."

The little girl thanked him in a very low voice and slowly walked back, but still kept a certain distance from the table.

sit down, there's no need to be so formal. Also, I have some questions for you.

"Alright, Sir."

The little girl sat on the chair and stared at Tang Zhen without blinking. She was extremely like a primary school student waiting for her teacher to ask a question.

Tang Zhen smiled. He felt that this little girl was really interesting. Er Gou, who was beside him, was also smiling. He seemed to have thought of his younger sister.

when you were introducing the buried city, you mentioned the demon race. As far as I know, the demon race's invasion happened a long time ago. How do you know so much about it?"

The little girl did not hesitate when she heard Tang Zhen's question. She immediately gave the answer.

"My neighbor is an orphan. He's a very strange person. He seizes himself in his house all day and refuses to go out.

Every time she spoke to him, she would always act like an old man. It was really annoying.

He doesn't want to cook for himself, but he always likes to come to my house to eat. Of course, he doesn't eat for free, but he pays a certain amount for the meal.

He always says some strange things and tells some inexplicable stories. Among them, there are some legends about the history of the Heaven's Wall city."

The little girl suddenly became embarrassed. She said that the origin of the underground city was because she had heard the nonsense of her neighbor.

“Nonsense? why do I feel like it’s true, Yingluo?”

Tang Zhen shook his head as he picked up a cup of drink that er Gou had just served and took a sip.

The drink was warm and sweet, and it felt especially comfortable and smooth after entering the mouth. It seemed to be some kind of vegetable oil, and the special fragrance made people feel refreshed.

“The taste is not bad.”

Tang Zhen complimented him and turned to look at er Gou. He found that er Gou was holding a cup and drinking it in one gulp, even making a “gulp” sound.

The so-called cow drinking should be like this.

The little girl held the cup with her fair and tender little hands. After taking a light sip, her eyes immediately widened and her face was filled with a happy smile.

2494 Tianxu delicacies (1)

it’s delicious! I’ve never had such a delicious drink before!

The little girl’s face was filled with intoxication and she couldn’t help but groan. Soon after, she realized that something was wrong and her face immediately turned red.

She sneaked a glance at Tang Zhen and discovered that he was looking at her with a smile that was not a smile. The little girl was so embarrassed that she wanted to die. She completely stuck her face onto the table.

“Ah, Yingluo is so embarrassing.”

She was screaming in her heart, thinking that she was indeed inexperienced. How could she lose her composure over a drink?

Unfortunately, he had no choice. Finger-sucking restaurant’s food was too delicious, and he really couldn’t control his emotions!

The drink they were drinking came from a kind of fruit tree in the forest near the Heaven’s Wall city. After the fruit was smashed and settled, a clear, oily-like liquid would appear on the top.

Not only was this drink delicious, but it also had an excellent beautifying effect. Even a dark-skinned person would become white, tender, and lustrous after continuously applying it for a week.

Unfortunately, the women in the Heaven's Wall city didn't need it because they were already fair enough and didn't need this kind of beauty products.

As a result, a sacred beauty product was reduced to a drink on the table. Unexpectedly, it was also very popular.

Although she felt awkward, the little girl couldn't control herself and finished the drink in her cup.

Then, she lowered her head and looked a little guilty.

Fortunately, the food was served, which dissolved the little tour guide's embarrassment. Er Gou, who was beside her, was drooling.

It couldn't be helped, it was indeed too fragrant!

The first dish to be served was placed in a large basin with a shallow bottom, which was polished with crystal-like stones. The large basin was dark green in color and had natural fluorescent patterns on it.

This was a specialty of the Heaven's Wall city. In the past, the Jade mine was discovered when the cave was being excavated, and the craftsmen had made it into all kinds of tools.

However, this type of Jade was now extinct. Although its value had not changed much, it still represented the family background of the owner.

If one wasn't an old resident of the Heaven's Wall city, it was impossible to own this kind of Jade tableware, so it was also a symbol of status.

Of course, no matter how good the utensils were, they couldn't take away the brilliance of the food, especially the top-grade utensils, which naturally had to be matched with top-grade ingredients.

The waiter didn't leave, but introduced the origin of the dishes to avoid embarrassment.

The dish in front of the three of them looked more like a white and fat worm that had been roasted to a brown crisp and revealed the color of bread.

In fact, it was indeed a worm that lived in a big tree that could produce syrup. Only after the big tree was cut down could one find this meat worm that was as thick as a human head but only half a meter long in the center of the tree.

After discovering this kind of insect, it had to be raised in sweet tree sap syrup and left for a month before it could be cooked.

Every day, finger-sucking restaurant would prepare ten of these sweet meat worms. They would empty and wash the already small internal organs, then fill them with various nuts and shelled grass seeds.

After covering it with tree sap syrup and slowly roasting it in a special oven filled with cobblestones for a few hours, a dish of roasted sweet meat worm was ready.

The complicated production process alone was worthy of its price. If one was unlucky, they wouldn't be able to eat it even if they had money.

After the waiter finished his introduction, he picked up the long bone knife on the plate and pressed it gently on the sweet meat worm.

"Ka-Chak, ka-Chak!"

There was an obvious crisp breaking sound, and the White and tender meat with a hint of soft and sticky texture was revealed. It looked like white oil, but it had the texture of thin meat.

The indescribable smell of meat and nuts spread in all directions, making people drool.

Er Gou's eyes were wide open, and he wanted to grab it with his hands. The little tour guide was drooling, her eyes full of anticipation.

Tang Zhen was also a little shocked. The taste of the sweet meat worm and the roasted nut was simply a wonderful combination.

Not only was the sweet meatworm exceptionally delicious, but the nuts soaked in oil were even more delicious. They had reached the level of melting in the mouth.

Every bite was the ultimate enjoyment.

"Please enjoy!"

After the sweet roasted worm was cut open, ergou was the first to grab it as the waiter instructed.

However, he quickly came to his senses. He took out a pair of chopsticks from his bag and tried to pick up the food.

eating this kind of food with chopsticks is really ruining the mood. It's better to just grab it with your hands.

Tang Zhen softly said. He extended his hand, grabbed a piece, and placed it in his mouth to taste.

“It’s really good. You two, hurry up and eat!”

The little girl could no longer control herself. She grabbed the large piece of meat in front of her and bit it with a “howl”.

She had never tasted such a delicious taste before, and she couldn’t stop chewing, almost biting off her tongue.

“Is it good?”

Tang Zhen smiled and asked when he saw this.

The little tour guide quickly nodded. Even if her mouth was gagged, she still had to answer, “Oh, it’s delicious!”

“Then eat more. This kind of food won’t taste good if it gets cold.”

Tang Zhen smiled. After eating the remaining pieces of meat, he poured himself a drink and slowly drank it.

He had tasted countless delicacies. Although this roasted sweet meat worm was extremely fresh, it was nothing in Tang Zhen’s eyes.

It was impossible for him to be like ergou and the little girl, who were holding the meat and eating it non-stop while sucking on their fingers.

The finger-sucking restaurant was indeed worthy of its name.

A new dish was served immediately before the roasted sweet worm meat was finished. It was a fish from the lake that had been shaved into thin slices of meat.

It only needed to be dipped in a little purple fruit juice and could be used directly, and the taste was also fresh and tender.

Next, there was fresh soup, barbecued meat, and shellfish from the lake, which were basically cooked through barbecue and raw food.

This was a bit of a pity. If the chefs in the Heaven’s Wall city could master the means of frying, cooking, and frying, these delicacies would definitely be famous all over the world.

By the time they were full, both ergou and the little girl had collapsed in their chairs, unable to move.

It couldn’t be helped. The two of them had eaten too much, far more than their normal appetites.

But even so, the two of them still felt that it was not enough, and their eyes were still on the remaining food.

“What a pity, there’s still more than half of it left!”

Buttface sighed softly, his face full of regret.

The little girl was the same. She stared at the food on the table, as if she regretted not eating more.

She knew very well that this might be the only chance for her to have a good meal in her life. After all, her poor family could not afford this kind of consumption at all. Otherwise, she would not have learned to be a tour guide at such a young age.

It was fine if they met a good person, but if they met a bad person, it was not impossible for them to encounter mishaps.

Tang Zhen was naturally clear about this. Hence, he helped the little girl once. In the end, he obtained an unexpected harvest.

If he was not wrong, the neighbor that the little girl hated was most likely a legendary Sage, or someone who had the memories of his previous life.

It was just that this wise man didn’t reveal his identity. Instead, he hid all day long to do something. It was obvious that he didn’t want more people to notice him.

However, he did not expect that he would be able to obtain such a short amount of information from the little girl and determine his identity.

Tang Zhen already had a plan for the following journey.

He didn’t go to look for those wise men. Instead, he went to look for the little girl’s neighbor. Compared to those famous wise men, this neighbor who was deliberately hiding her might know something that would interest Tang Zhen.

2495 Ellie’s house (1)

“Your Excellency, do you really want to go to my house?”

The little girl was carrying a bag. There was a trace of excitement on her face, but her tone was a little hesitant.

Wouldn’t he be laughed at if he was seen with bare walls?

that’s right. Of course, the main reason is to Meet Your Neighbor.

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, the little girl did not say anything more. Instead, she lowered her head and led the way.

The little girl's home was at the center of the Heaven's Wall city. Tang Zhen's group of three walked for half a day before they arrived at their destination.

In a special place like tianxu city, the houses on the edge and near the roof were the most valuable. The central area was where the civilians lived.

These places were even more chaotic and dark, and the air circulation was not very good. There was a strange smell all day long.

By the time they reached the area where the little girl's house was, there were almost no fluorescent plants on the roadside. Some places were even piled with a large amount of domestic garbage, and the smell of excrement permeated the air.

The little girl's face was a little red. She sneaked a glance at Tang Zhen and only quietly heaved a sigh of relief after discovering that there was no change in his expression.

"Your Excellency, this is my home."

The little girl pointed at the one-meter-high cave on the side of the road and said softly. She then walked over and knocked on the door.

"Mom, open the door, I'm Allie."

As the little girl knocked, the wooden door opened, and a woman in plain clothes peeked out.

When she saw the little girl standing at the door with a package, she frowned slightly, as if she had thought of something bad.

"Allie, why are you back so early?"

what's that? " the woman asked. She saw the items in the little girl's hand and smelled the delicious food.

Only then did she feel that something was wrong.

"Allie, what's going on?"

A trace of panic flashed across the woman's face, and then she asked in a stern tone, as if she was protecting her daughter from doing something wrong.

Looking at her mother's confused face, the little girl replied in a serious tone, "You hired me to lead the way and even gave me a gold coin as a reward. At the same time, you took me to finger-sucking restaurant for a meal.

This is your leftover food. Give it to me and I'll take it home. There won't be any problems eating it. "

The woman glanced at Tang Zhen and ergou. She felt that he had an extraordinary bearing and quickly bowed.

"I'm sorry, Sir, I've embarrassed myself."

Although she was dressed very simply, the woman's words and actions were very polite. Although she did not deliberately take care of herself, her appearance was still very delicate.

you don't have to be nervous. I just heard about your neighbors from your daughter, so I came over to take a look.

Tang Zhen spoke to the woman, telling her not to be too worried.

"Neighbors?"

The woman looked at Allie. She really wanted to know what her daughter said, but it was clearly not a good time to ask.

However, ever since the neighbor's husband and wife had passed away, she had watched their child grow up. He would always eat at her house and was not much different from her own child.

Therefore, after hearing Tang Zhen's intention for coming, the woman's heart still had a trace of vigilance. She was afraid that Tang Zhen was a bad person and was trying to harm that child.

However, on second thought, he felt that it was a little ridiculous.

One look at Tang Zhen's clothes and the extent of his spendiousness and one would know that he was definitely not an ordinary person.

Under normal circumstances, living in the same world, they would never have had any interactions.

Now that he had suddenly come to his door, there must be something wrong. If he was so careful, he would inevitably be laughed at.

Allie's mother had worked as a maid for a few years in a rich family, so she was not an ignorant person. She knew that since things had come to a head, she could only face it positively and not make things worse.

Just as he was thinking about this, two small figures walked out of the dark room. They looked exactly the same, and were obviously twin brothers.

After the brothers came out, they immediately surrounded Allie and called her " Sister, Sister ". However, their attention was attracted by the bag in her hand and they kept swallowing their saliva.

these are my two younger brothers. They only know how to eat and cause trouble all day long. They're so annoying ...

Allie explained to monk Tang, then took out two cakes from her pocket and gave one to each of her brothers.

From the beginning to the end, he was smiling.

After the two little fellows received the food, they immediately puffed up their cheeks and ate. Their appearance was surprisingly similar to the way the little girl ate.

"Eat slowly, don't choke."

After seeing her child, the woman smiled, and her expression softened.

you're looking for litt, Sir. I'll call him over right now. He should be at home now.

As the woman spoke, she walked to a nearby cave. She took out a stone from the pit in the rock wall and knocked it a few times.

The function of this thing was similar to a doorbell. If the resident's cave was very deep, it could inform the owner through this method.

"Wait a moment, he should come out for a walk."

The woman's tone was a little uncertain. It was obvious that the owner of the house, litt, would not open the door every time she knocked on it with a stone.

Allie said, " that guy's really weird. He never lets anyone into his house. He's always sneaky. I wonder what he's doing.

brother litt is drawing. He's drawing all over the room. The drawings are bright and look very good!

A little boy who was eating suddenly opened his mouth and said with a very serious expression.

"He has a knife and armor in his room, and he won't let us touch them."

Another boy said. He had already finished the pastry in his hand, and his face was covered with jam and other things.

"Don't talk nonsense. How do you two know?"

Allie's mother scolded. From her expression, it was obvious that she was angry at her child for lying.

we're not lying. Brother litt didn't lock the door when he went out a while ago, so we sneaked in and saw his things.

Two small boys stood together. They raised their heads and looked at Tang Zhen and the others. They used a very serious tone and said, "Later, when brother litt came back and saw us in the house, he immediately showed a very fierce expression, as if he wanted to eat us.

My brother and I were very scared, and then we heard him say that if we told others what we saw, he would spank our butts.

After that, he made us swear that we wouldn't say anything. Only then did he let me and my brother leave, Yingluo."

The two young men poured out their experiences like beans from a bamboo tube.

Ai Li and her daughter looked at each other. They didn't expect such a thing to happen. If it wasn't because of Tang Zhen's arrival, they would never have known about this.

However, it was also certain that ritterken was secretly doing something and hiding it from all of them.

Then, they suddenly thought that Tang Zhen had personally called them over. Was it related to this matter?

Just as he was letting his thoughts run wild, the wooden door suddenly opened, and a pale-faced youth poked his head out.

2496 Litt_1

As the voice rang out, everyone's attention was focused on the person who spoke.

It was a teenager in a short gray robe. He had a loose appearance and many places were damaged and patched.

Other than that, there were also some dark-colored dyes that were firmly stuck to the clothes, like animal scales.

He wasn't very tall, and his skin was as pale as the other residents of the Heaven's Wall city. His fluffy and messy hair was tied up with a leather rope, which showed that he hadn't had a haircut for a long time.

He was different from his neighbor. He was a human, but not a pure human.

Humans were one of the human races, but the human race was not limited to humans. Many races in the great thousand world actually belonged to the human race.

"I was sleeping soundly, why did you wake me up?"

A lazy voice sounded, as if he had not woken up yet. There was a trace of impatience in his tone.

"Litt, this gentleman wants to see you!"

Allie said in a bad mood when she saw the lazy young man. The two of them had quarreled more than once, so their relationship was not good.

This was especially the case after he heard that his younger brother was being threatened. He became even more unhappy. If Tang Zhen wasn't here, he might have already gone to find the other party to judge.

"Yingluo?"

The young man named litt looked at Tang Zhen and yawned at the same time. He had a drowsy appearance.

The gaze he used to look at Tang Zhen was no different from the others.

However, Tang Zhen had already noticed that when li te saw him clearly, his pupils slightly contracted. This was a conditioned reflex when he was surprised.

If it was an energy life form, this would not happen. But a body of flesh and blood?

Some of his instinctive reactions were simply uncontrollable and could only be concealed as much as possible.

Litt concealed it very well, but his opponent was Tang Zhen. No change could escape his eyes.

“There’s indeed a problem!”

Tang Zhen discovered the abnormality of the young man and a trace of excitement flashed across his heart.

Competing with countless cultivators in the city had aroused a strong desire for battle in his heart. As his cultivation level continued to improve, he had not felt this feeling for a long time.

Only opponents of the same level could truly stimulate the desire to fight and try to prove that they were not weaker than others.

He believed that every cultivator from Lou Cheng who participated in the competition had the same idea. Obviously, in their eyes, only cultivator Lou Cheng was worthy of being their opponent.

Tang Zhen had discovered the abnormality of the young man. The other party had also clearly sensed that something was wrong with Tang Zhen. However, in such an environment, no one would take the initiative to open their mouths and expose him.

Hence, the young man turned around and complained to Allie’s mother, ” “I don’t even know them. Why would they see me? they’re disturbing my sleep, Yingluo.”

When Ritt spoke, he had already shrunk back and threw out a sentence in the dark.

“In the future, if such a situation occurs again, remember not to disturb me. You Must Remember This!”

Clang! Clang!

The sound of the door closing was very clear on the quiet street. It could be heard from far away.

“This bastard!”

Allie’s expression was very bad. She felt like she had been slapped in the face.

He had brought the honored guest here, but litt had turned him away like this. It was simply impolite.

now you know why I hate him. This guy is so annoying. He has done similar things more than once and doesn’t care about other people’s feelings at all!

Ellie said in a hateful tone, but there was a trace of guilt in her eyes, as if she had failed in her duty.

“Why don’t I go and call him again? let’s see if he dares to refuse to open the door!”

Allie’s fists were clenched tightly as she spoke, and she had the urge to punch out.

“It doesn’t matter,”

Tang Zhen smiled. He appeared to be unconcerned, but he had already made up his mind in his heart.

There was a secret on this kid, and he had to figure it out later.

Of course, there was no need to rush this matter. They had to wait for a while. After all, this was the territory of the Heaven’s Wall city, and there would be patrols passing by from time to time.

If the matter was blown up, Tang Zhen could forget about having a foothold in the Heaven’s Wall city. He could only think of ways to escape from this place so as to avoid the fate of being hunted down by the entire city.

Although the process was a little troublesome, it was also limited by the conditions. Thinking about it from another perspective, it was even more fun.

“Sir, why don’t I take you to other places first, such as finding a place to stay?”

Allie asked in a low voice, fulfilling her duty as a tour guide.

that’s good too. After you help us find a place to stay, you can go home.

Tang Zhen nodded and bid farewell to Allie’s mother. Then, Allie led him into the distance.

Although he didn’t turn around, Tang Zhen could clearly feel that there seemed to be a pair of eyes peeking at him from behind Allie’s neighbor’s door.

This time, the three of them didn’t take the ‘elevator’. Instead, they walked along the street until they reached the end.

Suddenly, a cool breeze blew over, making people feel refreshed. Then, they saw the front suddenly open up.

The street had stopped at this point, and a wide platform had been opened up, covering an area of several acres.

Many residents of the Heaven’s Wall city were here. Some were enjoying the sun and the breeze, while others were selling goods at stalls. There were shops all around the cliff.

this is the most prosperous area in the entire Street, and the same goes for the other streets. As long as it's close to the edge, it's basically a place where merchants gather.

While Allie introduced them, she also led Tang Zhen and the other two to a shop, saying that this was the best hotel on the entire Street.

Since Tang Zhen wasn't lacking in money, he naturally had to pick the best place.

Tang Zhen did not have any place to choose. Regardless of whether it was in the wilderness or other places, it did not affect his rest.

After rewarding Ai Li with a few small coins and telling her to come again tomorrow, Tang Zhen and ER Gou entered the hotel room.

"Your Excellency, are we just going to sit here and do nothing?"

Er Gou asked Tang Zhen. He could tell that Tang Zhen was very interested in him and suspected that the other party was a wise man who hid his name.

Of course not. I'm going to wait until night time to find out what Chuliet is doing.

Although his primary task was to kill monsters and level up, Tang Zhen felt that it was better to collect more information than to look for monsters everywhere.

At the same time, he had a feeling that it might not take long for the monsters to be so numerous that they would be endless.

Otherwise, why would he ask Lou Cheng to do it? Playing puzzle games, traveling in a group, and fighting with the air?

The monster would come out sooner or later, but before it did, he still had to work hard to accumulate his strength.

After Tang Zhen thought for a moment, he instructed Ergou, "Here are 20 gold coins. Take them and walk around the Sky Market City. See if you can find any information about the map and monsters.

If you come across a map for sale, just buy it. If you don't have enough money, come back and find me. "

Ergou nodded. He kept the money bag close to his body and left the inn quietly.

Er Gou was actually very satisfied with the task that Tang Zhen had arranged. Not only could he help Tang Zhen, but he could also tour the Heaven's Wall city. It was simply killing two birds with one stone.

Although he had experienced some soul-shaking things with Tang Zhen, er Gou still hadn't adapted to this kind of life. He was very eager for fame and fortune.

If he had to choose, he would still prefer to live in the market, rather than the boring cultivation.

This was the difficulty of cultivation. To embark on the path of cultivation, one needed enough perseverance and perseverance. 90% of the Dao-seekers would eventually be eliminated.

Tang Zhen didn't mind er Gou's attitude. How many people could resist it when they first saw the world of flowers?

2497 The hidden secret room (1)

Not long after er Gou left, Tang Zhen simply packed up and left the hotel.

He wanted to go to lithe's house and meet this guy who seemed to be a wise man.

The sky had already darkened when he came out. Tang Zhen admired the scenery for a while before walking towards the dark cave.

The streets, which were already sparsely populated, became even quieter. From time to time, glowing creatures resembling dandelions would float over their heads.

This kind of thing liked to float above people's heads, following them wherever they went. From a distance, it looked like a ball of light above their heads, and the lighting effect was quite good.

It was also easy to drive them away. As long as they clapped their hands above their heads, these things would run away.

The life and death of the Heaven's Wall city's residents were the same as the outside world. When night fell, they would all go to sleep.

The streets would become even more deserted, and there would be almost no signs of activity. What else could the residents of the Heaven's Wall city do besides sleep?

Tang Zhen quietly walked on the street like a wandering ghost. No one had discovered his existence.

When he arrived at lithe's house, the door was still closed and there was no sound around.

Allie's family had already fallen asleep. Tang Zhen could even hear faint snores. Obviously, the sound insulation effect of this stone cave was not very good.

Tang Zhen stood at the door of Litt's house and wanted to hear the movements inside, but it was quiet.

Tang Zhen's hearing was extremely good. Regardless of whether it was the sound of breathing or heartbeat, he was able to hear it clearly.

It was impossible for there to be no movement in a room with someone in it, so the situation was not right.

He pulled out the long sword in his hand and gently flicked it along the crack of the door. The hardwood door bolt was directly cut off.

After pushing the door open, a simple and crude house appeared in front of them. It could be described as a house with only four walls.

The young man who lived here, Litt, had already disappeared without a trace. This proved that Tang Zhen's previous judgment was not wrong.

There was indeed no one in the room, so there was no movement.

Tang Zhen's eyes narrowed as he swept his gaze across the entire room. On the surface, there did not seem to be any problems.

However, Allie's two younger brothers had said that they saw weapons and armor in the room, and there were many glowing lines on the walls.

The room in front of him did not have those things at all. Therefore, Tang Zhen had reason to believe that there was still a hidden space here.

What's going on? Are those two kids talking nonsense? "

Tang Zhen shook his head and felt that the possibility of Allie's brother lying wasn't high. After all, with their age, they wouldn't be able to make up such a lie.

Not to mention that the door was locked from the inside, but there was no one inside the house. This in itself was very strange.

When Tang Zhen thought up to this point, he once again seriously sized up the house, not wanting to miss any details.

"This Litt is very cunning. If he's not at home, he definitely won't open the secret door.

The fact that the two children were able to find the secret door means that the mechanism wasn't difficult to open. Otherwise, the children wouldn't have been able to reach Yingluo."

Tang Zhen, who had walked to the front of the stone bed, suddenly squatted down and seriously sized it up.

“So it’s like this, no wonder Zhenzhen”

A trace of a smile appeared on the corner of Tang Zhen’s mouth. He curled his body and directly crawled under the bed.

The seemingly flat and empty bottom of the bed was actually a smokescreen. A mirror-like object was used to create an illusion, but in fact, there was a long entrance.

Such a simple method had managed to hide from Tang Zhen, causing him to not discover it at the first moment.

After getting used to the methods of cultivators, this kind of mechanism without any energy fluctuations had a better concealing effect.

After entering from the entrance under the bed, a narrow passage appeared in front of them, suitable for small people to walk through.

Tang Zhen twisted his body. Soon after, he appeared to be deflating as his height rapidly shrunk to around 1.4 meters.

The outer clothes were kept away, and the armor on his body shrank automatically, so it was very fitting.

Such a petite figure was very suitable for digging holes.

He sensed the path ahead. Although it was winding, it was a smooth path without any traps.

It was normal to think about it, if there was really a trap, Allie’s two brothers might not be able to come back alive.

From this, it could be confirmed that Ritt was not as evil as Allie had described, or his two brothers would not have been able to live until now.

As for his style of doing things, perhaps it was related to the memories of his previous life. After seeing through the vicissitudes of the world, it was inevitable that his words and actions would carry a trace of laziness and indifference.

Although the young man was deliberately hiding it, his eyes had already betrayed him. Without experiencing a hundred years of ups and downs, it was impossible to have that kind of gaze.

During the process of advancing, Tang Zhen discovered one thing. This passageway had definitely existed for a long time. It was very likely to have a history of over a thousand years.

The narrow passage was definitely not meant to make things difficult for the people who wanted to enter, but because the builder was very small.

Ritt had the memories of his previous life, so he must have known about the existence of this passage. As for why it was under his bed, perhaps only he could answer.

Surprisingly, the tunnel was very long, at least a hundred meters.

As for why this happened, it was obvious that they were avoiding the residential buildings and looking for more spacious spaces.

It was not an easy task to find a spacious and hidden space in a mountain that had almost been hollowed out.

After walking for a while, Tang Zhen saw an even brighter light. They had already reached the end of the passage.

After passing through a small door, a space appeared in front of them. It was about a hundred square meters in size, with many cabinets and boxes.

The cabinet was filled with books made of different materials, and the time of writing was different.

On the surrounding stone walls, there were indeed dense fluorescent lines, forming a runic magic circle with a shielding effect.

The young man named Li Te was standing by the table, drawing something with a Quill.

He seemed to be worried about something.

Tang Zhen did not say anything. He merely stood with his hands behind his back and seriously observed the details of this space.

From the appearance and style of those items, he could confirm that they did not belong to this era. They also belonged to a small race.

As he looked at Li Te who was still deep in thought, Tang Zhen had a guess in his heart. This fellow was very likely related to the race that built this place.

It was even possible that the other party was from that race in his previous life and was now reincarnated as a human.

This strange silence lasted for nearly ten minutes.

Lithe seemed to have figured something out, and a smile appeared on his face. He put down the pen and tried to stretch his stiff body.

After which, he saw Tang Zhen. His pleased expression immediately froze as a trace of fear flashed across his eyes.

He jumped up from the ground like a frightened rat, as if to vent the fear in his heart.

People often said that they were shocked, and litt was one of them.

However, as he jumped, he reached for his waist and grabbed a cylinder-shaped thing.

Just as li te aimed it at Tang Zhen, he saw Tang Zhen appear beside him like a leopard.

"If I were you, I wouldn't do such a stupid thing to avoid losing my life."

Hearing Tang Zhen's warning and feeling the cold chill on his neck, litt's face was a little distorted. His eyes were filled with a struggle.

A few seconds later, like a deflated ball, liter helplessly put down his weapon.

"Speak, cultivator Lou Cheng, what do you want?"

2498 Litt's aggro (1)

"Interesting, you actually know my background?"

Tang Zhen's expression became serious. He carefully sized up litt with a very interested look.

It was indeed out of Tang Zhen's expectations that li te directly called out his identity. This situation could only mean that the other party had come into contact with Lou Cheng's cultivators.

However, li te didn't say anything. He only quietly looked at Tang Zhen like a silent and oppressive volcano.

if you choose not to cooperate, I will kill you. There is no use in keeping you alive anyway.

Tang Zhen's tone was calm, but the content made li te slightly moved. Based on his understanding of Lou Cheng's cultivators, Tang Zhen would definitely be able to do what he said.

So, Ritt decided to speak up, but his tone carried a trace of grievance, like a child who had been wronged, " "Fine, I'll talk. The question is, what do you want to do? why are you making things difficult for a child?"

After hearing li TE's words, Tang Zhen sneered. This fellow was really funny.

An old monster who had lived for God knows how many years actually called himself a child. Was he trying to make people laugh to death?

"You're just a kid. Hehe, what an interesting joke.

However, if you really think of yourself as a child, I might change my way of communicating with you. What do you think?"

Tang Zhen's words carried a hint of ridicule. When it fell into li TE's ears, it caused his expression to become even colder.

The childishness that was used as a disguise had been swept away.

"What do you want?"

His tone became stiff and cold. When he looked at Tang Zhen, his eyes became very complicated.

"I just want to know what the hell you're doing here."

As Tang Zhen spoke, he took the cylinder from litt's hand and realized that it was an exquisite weapon similar to a sleeve dart.

As long as he pressed the firing device, he could shoot out a poisonous needle, the kind that could kill the enemy immediately.

It wasn't very powerful, but if used well, it could indeed kill in one blow!

you're not necessarily a good person to carry such a sinister thing with you. Otherwise, why do you have to be so sneaky? "

Tang Zhen threw the cylinder to the side and spoke to li te in a cold voice. In fact, he was deliberately provoking him.

The corner of Ritt's mouth twitched, and he said with a hint of anger, " hehe, anyone can say that I'm not a good person, but you cultivators from loucheng don't have the right to say that!

As if he knew that he could no longer hide it, litt simply gave up and continued to speak to Tang Zhen,"I know that you have doubts about my identity, so I came to investigate.

The truth is as you thought, I am indeed a wise man with the memories of my previous life.

Moreover, my memories are very long, and some of them are related to you. It was because of the arrival of you evil demons that my race was eventually destroyed!"

Litt's expression was twisted. It was obvious that even after countless years, the hatred buried in his heart had not dissipated.

Tang Zhen became even more interested. The content of litt's words clearly hid more stories.

if you don't mind, you can tell me about it. I'm actually very interested in your past.

As Tang Zhen spoke, he slowly retracted his longsword and sat on the chair beside him.

Litt snorted and stared at Tang Zhen for a while. Then, he said with a slightly mocking tone, "If you want to know what your ancestors have done, no problem. I can tell you everything."

"Correction, those are not my ancestors, but other cultivators from loucheng. We have no relationship."

Tang Zhen shook his head. The actions of the other cultivators in the city had nothing to do with him.

What's the Difference? aren't you guys on the same side? "

"We're on the same side, but we're not on the same side. Can you understand?"

Tang Zhen casually said. He was actually too lazy to explain.

I know that. The cultivators of loucheng are divided into many battlefields, and there are many cultivators of loucheng in each battlefield.

Litt indeed knew Lou Cheng's cultivators well, and what he said was correct.

"You do know a lot about cultivators in loucheng, but how much do you know about this world?"

Tang Zhen said in a casual tone. In fact, he was very concerned about li TE's answer.

"Our world, hehe, is just a playground for you Lou Cheng cultivators!

You guys can do whatever you want here, and countless living beings will die because of you. After you've destroyed the entire world, you can just leave."

There was a hint of sorrow in lithur's voice. Although many years had passed, the pain still hadn't disappeared.

"I thought it was an accident, but when I came back to life with my memories, I realized that it wasn't the case.

This is because the evidence we've gathered shows that the cultivators of loucheng don't come by chance, but rather, they come at a fixed cycle, starting once every few thousand years."

As he spoke, he pointed at a stone slab. There were many twisted words and pictures carved on it.

"That's the earliest evidence I've collected. It's from tens of thousands of years ago, and it records the process of you wreaking havoc on the entire world.

This bone came from thousands of years ago and recorded the same content. At that time, the entire world was almost completely destroyed, and only a few races survived.

As for the author of this book, it's actually my previous life. At that time, I was a resident of the Heaven's Wall city and personally witnessed the entire process of the demon invasion!"

When Tang Zhen heard this, he interrupted litt's venting and said in a puzzled tone, The devil race should be referring to monsters. What does this thing's invasion of the Heaven's Wall city have to do with the cultivators in the building?"

Ritt sneered and clenched his fist as he growled, "How can it not be related? because the cultivators of Lou city are more ferocious and cunning than the demons. After we finally blocked the Attack of the Monsters, the cultivators of Lou city seized the Heaven's Wall city.

The remaining residents were either killed or driven to the wilderness, and eventually died for various reasons!"

Tang Zhen's spirit rose. This kind of information couldn't be collected outside because after every competition ended, the memories of the cultivators in Lou city would be erased.

This could not only prevent the competition content from being leaked, but it could also prevent the escalation of conflicts. Even if there was enmity in the competition, it would all disappear after the competition was over.

now that you've reappeared, this means that the disaster is coming again. Perhaps it won't be long before a new disaster befalls the Heaven's Wall city.

At that time, you demons will do what you did in the past and reoccupy the Heaven's Wall city, and the residents will all die."

Ritt's face was full of disappointment. He knew that danger was coming, but he had no way to stop it. This was the saddest thing.

Especially when he had the memories of his previous life, that feeling of powerlessness would become even more intense. It was simply a painful torture.

When Tang Zhen heard this, he had basically understood the reason.

To put it bluntly, when the cultivators in loucheng city were fighting against monsters, they had seized the Heaven's Wall city in order to have a base to rest and replenish their supplies.

A city's capacity and supplies were limited. The cultivators in loucheng definitely wouldn't allow those people to stay, so it was natural to expel them.

However, to the natives, this was a disaster, especially for the powerless natives. After being expelled, they would basically die.

2499 Asking a Tiger for its skin?(1)

Litt's hatred for Lou Cheng's cultivators was very deep. Even after going through life and death, it was not erased.

Back then, he had personally seen his friend being killed by a monster. After defeating the monster with great difficulty, the cultivators of the tower City took advantage of the situation and forcibly occupied the Heaven's Wall city.

After a fierce battle, litt's family died in the hands of the Lou Cheng cultivators. He and the surviving residents of his race were directly driven to the wilderness.

In the end, they were surrounded and hunted by monsters in less than a night, and no one was spared.

Before litt died, he swore that if he had the chance, he would make the cultivators of loucheng pay with their blood.

In the end, for some reason, Ritt reincarnated with his memories, and there was nothing missing from his previous life.

The oath he made back then had become an obsession. If he had the chance, he would definitely find a way to avenge his people!

Currently, he did not hide the hatred in his heart when he faced Tang Zhen. In fact, he did not even care about what kind of consequences he would face.

To a person like him, living was a form of torture. Only death was a true release.

It was a pity that every new student carried the memories of the past. As the memories accumulated from generation to generation, the invisible pressure almost drove litt crazy.

He had been suffering this kind of torture until one day he suddenly came to a realization and understood what he should do.

Perhaps the reason why he kept reincarnating and carrying the memories of his previous life was to wait for the cultivators of Lou Cheng to come again and give them a fatal blow.

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that this was the case. Thus, he began to use his advantage of being constantly reincarnated to quietly manage and set up his plans.

This secret room had been built by three generations of builders, and all of them were actually litt himself.

After the secret room was built, litt began to collect information about the cultivators in loucheng and study a plan to deal with them.

In order to prevent himself from being unable to reincarnate again, every time Ritt died, he would leave behind the corresponding information so that others would have the chance to discover the hidden secret chamber.

As a result, he was born in the Heaven's Wall city and continued to inherit the legacy of his previous life.

Such a strange and coincidental situation made litt more convinced of his guess that he was alive to deal with the cultivators of Lou Cheng.

What made litt feel helpless was that for some unknown reason, he could not have the talent to cultivate.

After several lifetimes, he still couldn't find a solution and could only give up helplessly.

This was lithe's biggest regret. If he could become a cultivator and had the means to destroy the world, he could totally fight to the death when the cultivators in Lou Cheng appeared.

At that time, he would be fearless and kill Lou Cheng's cultivators until his last drop of blood was drained!

It was a pity that this was only a dream, and there was no chance of realizing it.

In desperation, LIRT could only look for other ways while constantly encouraging himself.

As long as he gave it his all, even if he was just a mortal, he could still send the cultivators of Lou Cheng to the ground!

Poor litt still didn't know that Lou Cheng wouldn't really die in this world. He would just be teleported away.

Fortunately, he didn't know about it, or he would've suffered an even greater blow, and might've even gone mad.

.....

Although Tang Zhen didn't know li TE's specific thoughts, he could tell from his words and actions that this guy's hatred for Lou Cheng's cultivators was deep.

If given the chance and given a choice, Ritt would definitely take down Lou Cheng with him!

Those who were already numb to death would definitely not care about the fear of death and would sacrifice themselves without hesitation.

"According to what you said, it won't be long before countless monsters appear and attack the Heaven's Wall city?" Tang Zhen asked.

Litt nodded. There was no need to hide this. that's right. Monsters will suddenly appear. No one knows where these monsters come from.

"After the monsters appeared, they would attack humans, animals, and cultivators of Lou Cheng everywhere. Then, cultivators of Lou Cheng would have to seize the city as their base." Tang Zhen asked again.

"Yes!"

so, it's not just the Heaven's Wall city, but other cities were also attacked by the cultivators in the tower City and were taken over? "

that's how it is. Of course, there are some cities that have been occupied by monsters and completely become their lairs.

Tang Zhen walked around twice and suddenly said, "If I help you deal with cultivators of Lou Cheng, do you think you can get what you want and help your people get revenge?"

Lithur was stunned for a moment and his eyes widened. However, he quickly regained his senses and said in a mocking tone, "Your Excellency, do you think I'm a fool?"

"Why do you say that?"

you Lou Cheng cultivators are from the same line. You will help me beat them up. I'm afraid you don't even believe it, do you? "

"Why not? who told you that Lou Cheng's cultivators are in cahoots? If that's really what you think, then I can only say that you've lived your life in vain."

After hearing Tang Zhen's words, litt became a little confused. He had never thought of cooperating with the enemy. Moreover, the other party had taken the initiative to come to his door.

"Can we really work together?"

this is ... Ritt mumbled to himself and fell into a daze, completely forgetting his surroundings.

Tang Zhen's words had touched him too much. If he could really cooperate with Lou Cheng, then the success rate of his plan would indeed be higher.

However, this method was extremely dangerous. It was like asking a Tiger for its skin, and it was very likely that it would get itself killed.

When li te thought of this, his heart suddenly jolted. He secretly wondered if Tang Zhen was trying to trick him and figure out his trump card.

If that's the case then

Unconsciously, cold sweat flowed down his cheeks, and his body couldn't help but tremble.

His eyes were bloodshot as he spoke to Tang Zhen in a hoarse voice, you want to know the method of my arrangement, right? if that's the case, then give up as soon as possible. I will never tell you!

Tang Zhen shook his head as he looked at li te, who had a death-like expression. His eyes were filled with ridicule.

"If I'm not wrong, your so-called arrangement is actually a method to deal with the cultivators of Lou Cheng.

You're definitely the only one who knows about such a secret.

If I was really afraid of these arrangements, I wouldn't even need to take the initiative to look for you. I would just need to kill you, don't you think so?"

"Uh, hehe."

Ritt was suddenly stunned. That was the truth. Why didn't he think of it just now?

It seemed that he was indeed panicking. He didn't even think of such a simple thing.

Litt felt a little embarrassed and wanted to lie. He said that without him, those arrangements would have been activated.

However, that was only deceiving himself and others. It similarly did not affect Tang Zhen from killing him. After all, whether he was Dead or Alive did not affect the activation of those arranged methods.

"If I had used these years to build a force loyal to me, I might not be in such a difficult situation now."

Litt suddenly felt a little regretful. He had been a loner for so many years. Although it seemed like he had done a lot of things, in reality, his strength was limited.

Especially in the face of such a crisis, he would become extremely passive, and the slightest carelessness would cause all his previous efforts to go to waste.

Even if he could be resurrected, the existence of the Heaven's Wall city would be a problem. What was the point of being resurrected?

After a moment of silence, Li Te looked at Tang Zhen and asked in a hoarse voice, "Are you really going to work with me to deal with the cultivators of Lou Cheng?"

That's right. They're my competitors. It's only natural to get rid of them!

Tang Zhen looked at Li Te with an extremely sincere attitude. If he could get Ding Li Te, it would definitely be like adding wings to a Tiger.

Not only could they kill monsters to level up, but they could also eliminate other cultivators. They could even build a base that belonged to the fifth battle area and attract all the cultivators there.

At that time, this area would be controlled by the fifth battle area. At that time, even if the major battle areas fought each other, he would have enough strength to compete.

2500 Unexpected gain (1)

After thinking about it, Li Te decided to cooperate with Tang Zhen, but he was not very comfortable in his heart.

He had never thought that such a situation would occur. The problem was that the situation forced him to make such a choice.

It was only natural for him to feel humiliated.

If he didn't do this, Tang Zhen would kill him. Death wasn't scary, but the problem was that he would miss the opportunity he had waited for a thousand years.

Litt couldn't afford to take the risk. If that was the case, he would not be able to die in peace and would not be able to forgive himself even as a ghost.

Fortunately, he was good at persuading himself. If he looked at it from a different perspective, things could become completely different.

In fact, after thinking about it carefully, there were only benefits to cooperating with Tang Zhen. He could even obtain better results.

After all, he was a cultivator of Lou Cheng, so he knew more about them. This was also the reason why many people hated traitors.

In Li Te's eyes, he had already regarded Tang Zhen as a traitor among the cultivators in Lou Cheng. However, this was better. After all, the enemy of an enemy was a friend.

With such a thought, Li Te felt that Tang Zhen was more pleasing to the eye and was no longer as fierce as before.

Thinking of the terrible losses suffered by the cultivators in Lou Cheng, Litt felt extremely comfortable, and the suffocation in his chest seemed to have disappeared.

Thanks to the omnipotent God of creation, there was such a black sheep among the cultivators in Lou City, so that he could get his revenge.

Tang Zhen saw the corner of Li Te's mouth curl up and faintly guessed his thoughts. However, he scoffed at this.

A traitor? It all depended on the situation. This kind of internal competition among the cultivators in Lou Cheng had nothing to do with rebellion.

After the two sides decided to cooperate, they had to show their sincerity by revealing some of their “secrets.”

Tang Zhen told litt some unimportant information, but he didn't reveal any information about the competition ranking.

Even so, it still made litt exclaim in shock. He had never dreamed that so many cultivators would descend in Lou city.

The cultivators who had taken over the Heaven's Wall city were only one of the waves, but even so, they had easily defeated the guards of the Heaven's Wall city.

When he thought about his promise to annihilate all the cultivators in loucheng, liter felt guilty.

This goal was too big, so big that it was impossible to achieve. It was better to change to a goal that could be achieved.

In fact, after listening to Tang Zhen's introduction of Lou Cheng's cultivators, litt's heart was already filled with a sense of powerlessness. He always felt that everything he did was in vain.

It was like a giant beast made of paper. It looked powerful and fierce, but it could be easily destroyed by water bubbles or fire.

Right now, li te placed his hopes on Tang Zhen, hoping that he could become the skin and bones of this paper paste giant beast, allowing it to possess a corresponding destructive power.

Tang Zhen found out from litt that he had accumulated a considerable amount of wealth in the past in order to use it one day.

He had also left behind some backup plans in the Heaven's Wall city. His goal was to die together with the cultivators in the tower City after the Heaven's Wall city fell.

There might be other arrangements, but he didn't need to tell Tang Zhen everything. The relationship between the two sides was still unstable. How could li te reveal the secret?

by the way, I see that you have a lot of books here. I wonder if you've ever collected a map? ”

Tang Zhen casually asked after listening to litt's story. However, he did not have much hope in his heart.

The written information that Litt had collected was basically related to the cultivators of Lou Cheng, so there was no need to collect a map.

Unexpectedly, Litt nodded, indicating that he did have a map, and more than one.

It turned out that when he was collecting all kinds of information back then, he had also collected some maps. His goal was to find some information related to cultivators and monsters in Lou Cheng through the information on the maps.

He walked to an iron box and opened it, revealing a pile of items.

There were ancient-looking scrolls, beast skins with worn edges, and huge bone pieces of unknown material.

Tang Zhen picked up a map that was made of animal skin. The surface was filled with branded patterns and painted with a special dye, giving it an ancient look.

There are maps inside. If you need them, you can take them all. Consider them my gift to you.

Litt had a generous expression on his face. He would not hesitate to use these useless items as a favor.

In fact, these maps were not junk, but very valuable, because they recorded the location of many ancient villages and towns, which were priceless to adventurers.

With these maps, they could find ancient ruins and excavate all kinds of lost treasures.

It was no exaggeration to say that as long as this box of maps was brought to the market, it could be sold for a large sum of money.

It was just that this seemingly poor young man actually didn't lack money. It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that he was the richest man in the Heaven's Wall city.

He didn't indulge in pleasure like ordinary people because he had had enough of that kind of life. He even lost his life twice because of his rich identity.

What made him feel the most depressed was that when he was ready to take revenge after his rebirth, his enemies had died for various reasons, leaving him with no chance to take revenge.

After experiencing such a life, the life of a rich man was no longer attractive to Litt. He would rather live the rest of his life as an ordinary person.

The life of an ordinary person who did not need to worry about money was actually far more comfortable than that of a rich man. They were free and unfettered.

“I can’t accept your gift for nothing. Since that’s the case, I’ll give you a gift as well,”

Tang Zhen took out a bone plate from his pocket. There was a fine runic magic circle engraved on it. At the same time, a crystal was embedded on it, emitting a faint energy fluctuation.

In a situation where his cultivation was sealed, he naturally had to think of other ways to increase his combat strength. Fortunately, Tang Zhen was multi-talented and could easily solve this problem.

The bone plate that he gave to lithe was a piece of protective equipment that he had tried to make in his spare time while making runic airships.

Similar things were sold in bulk in Holy Dragon City, and they had many functions. They could be casually thrown out in battle.

Some cultivators in loucheng who were not short of money would stuff their storage equipment with such things and throw them everywhere during battle as if they didn’t need money.

Don’t underestimate this kind of rich fighting style. Not many enemies could withstand this kind of attack. In many cases, they would not even have a corpse.

Although lithe did not have the talent for cultivation, his eyes were not weak. He could see the use of this bone pendant.

He had something similar, but it was not as good as the dominoes. He knew the value of the dominoes.

For ordinary people, the items of cultivators were treasures that could only be found by luck. Most of the time, they couldn’t be measured with money.

hehe, I didn’t expect that one day, I would use the items of Lou Cheng’s cultivators to save my life.

Ritt sighed, his tone full of emotion.

“As long as I can achieve my goal, this is nothing.”

Tang Zhen shook his head. The world of loucheng had become stronger by absorbing the gains from the war.

There was nothing shameful about learning to use the enemy’s methods. If one could not understand this, then one could forget about becoming truly powerful.

Since these maps already belonged to him, Tang Zhen was no longer polite as he directly pressed his hand on the map.

As expected, in the next moment, the picture on the map disappeared into thin air. In Tang Zhen's consciousness space, the blank map also began to change.

Tang Zhen looked at the blank map. There was a trace of anticipation in his heart. He wanted to see just what kind of change would occur after absorbing this map.