

SHE MADE A COMEBACK AS A RENOWNED DOCTOR

Capítulo 1042: Chapter 1042: Forcing My Way In

Evelyn Sinclair, of course, couldn't just let it go like this. She knew these people were cold-blooded and heartless. With Olivia in their hands, if she were to cry and become a nuisance, Evelyn Sinclair couldn't even imagine what they might do to her.

At night, it was especially necessary for Evelyn to soothe Olivia to sleep. Olivia being away from her for a long time was definitely not feasible.

So Evelyn Sinclair must bring Olivia back.

"Could you please tell him again and let me in? There are some things I need to speak to him face-to-face. If he has any anger, he can direct it at me, okay?"

Evelyn Sinclair's voice had softened a lot, genuinely worried about the child.

Eliana Shaw felt she was putting on a show.

If she really cared that much, how could she bear to send the child here?

"No, our Big Boss said he won't meet you. Please leave, Miss Sinclair."

Eliana Shaw didn't want to say anything more to her, turning away coldly to leave.

Evelyn Sinclair wanted to stop her, but was quickly blocked forcefully by the two guards beside her.

This obviously wasn't a place Evelyn Sinclair could force her way into, but concerned for her daughter, she couldn't care about much else now.

A guard extended his hand to block her, but her eyes sharpened, and she swiftly struck an elbow at the guard's neck.

The guard didn't expect her to suddenly attack and was caught off guard, losing the ability to respond.

The other guard, seeing this, attacked Evelyn Sinclair without hesitating.

The guards here were naturally highly skilled. Evelyn Sinclair, trying to force her way in, was immediately grabbed by the shoulders and thrown back outside the door.

Evelyn Sinclair stumbled back a few steps, struggling to maintain her balance.

Hearing the sudden sounds of fighting behind her, Eliana Shaw stopped, turned around, and saw Evelyn Sinclair recklessly trying to force her way in.

Eliana Shaw's expression turned completely cold, "You're looking to die trying to force your way in here?"

Anyone attempting to force their way into Liam Cloud's territory had better consider if they have the ability and how many lives they're willing to risk.

"Give me Olivia, and I'll leave immediately." Evelyn Sinclair's attitude was firm.

Eliana Shaw didn't bother being polite anymore, "Is this interesting to you? The Sinclair Family has done so much just to make our Big Boss keep the child. Now that he's doing what you wanted, you start to disagree again. You treat this place like a daycare?"

"That wasn't my intention. I just found out about it, so I came to get Olivia." Evelyn Sinclair said sternly.

"Oh, even if it wasn't you, so what? It was still the Sinclair Family. I'm telling you, whether it's you or George Sinclair, save your tricks. In our Big Boss's eyes, they don't count for much, and the more you struggle, the more ridiculous you seem."

"Evelyn Sinclair." George Sinclair hurriedly got out of the car, stepped forward, and grabbed Evelyn Sinclair's hand, "What are you causing a scene for? Come back with me quickly."

"Let go." Evelyn Sinclair shook off his hand directly.

Seeing Evelyn Sinclair like this, it was clear she hadn't gotten Olivia. Could it be that Liam Cloud didn't want to release Olivia?

That's great, isn't it? Doesn't this prove that he has already accepted Olivia?

George Sinclair's eyes held a smile, making him even less willing to let Evelyn Sinclair ruin everything.

"Come back with me. We'll discuss this once we're back."

"Get lost!" Evelyn Sinclair was utterly enraged, "If anything happens to Olivia, I'll fight you to the death."

"You..." George Sinclair frowned tightly, startled by Evelyn Sinclair's furious demeanor, and argued, "What could happen to her? Does Liam Cloud really harm his own daughter?"

"You can, can't you? Wouldn't his ruthlessness surpass yours? How many times must I tell you he doesn't even acknowledge this child as his."

"Enough, shut your mouth." George Sinclair was also enraged, "Whether he acknowledges it or not, the child is his. Let's wait for the results of the paternity test."

"Someone, take the young lady back." George Sinclair shouted angrily.

The Family Guard that came with them immediately stepped forward and pulled Evelyn Sinclair back. Evelyn Sinclair was infuriated to the extreme by George Sinclair's actions, but George Sinclair was the head of the family; she had no ability to resist.

Watching this scene, Eliana Shaw seemed to understand something, frowned deeply, and mocked, "Patriarch Sinclair is truly eye-opening."

To manipulate his granddaughter like this, how selfish and heartless.

Compared to George Sinclair, Evelyn Sinclair seemed more reasonable. Eliana Shaw couldn't help but feel some pity for this woman.

But even with pity, she wouldn't meddle in others' affairs, and turned around to walk back.

From the floor-to-ceiling window on the second floor, the man squinted his eyes, taking in the entire scene at the door.

"Go call Roman Frost over, and tell him I have something to ask him," Liam Cloud said lazily, lighting up a cigarette.
