

A Demoness 931

Chapter 931: I Wonder If I Can Ask For An Identity Of Someone In The Immortal Sect

Jiang Hao looked at the chicken thigh carefully.

He hadn't seen the chicken, so he couldn't tell what breed it was.

But if it had appeared here, it must have been raised by someone.

He hoped that the person would not come looking for him. Otherwise, it would be troublesome.

It was better to set the spirit beast and Xiao Li free so that he didn't need to deal with things like these.

He needed to let them know not to mention his name if someone came looking for the chicken.

He was finally going to advance. It had been more than ten years.

He returned to his room and began to sort out the news he had received today.

What happened at the Great Thousand God Sect really surprised him.

There was no beef between him and the Great Thousand God Sect. However, Feng Hua belonged to that sect, and the stone tablet was also created by someone from there.

In addition, there was the matter of creating immortals. They were planning to kill people in the Dragon Cave to harness their cultivation.

That might easily create a huge commotion.

If he got too involved, it would affect him and the sect.

As for how long it would last, he did not know.

He had to seize the time to become stronger.

Jiang Hao noticed that Xiao Li and the beast had finished their food, but they still seemed to be hungry.

When the moon rose, Xiao Li went home.

The spirit beast was sleeping in front of the Heavenly Fragrance Dao Flower.

He seemed to be dreaming of a flying chicken.

Late at night, Jiang Hao listened to the chirping of the insects around him, and his mind became calm.

He had already prepared everything and was just waiting for the gathering to begin.

He didn't know what information he could get from the gathering, but he just needed to maintain a good impression at the gathering.

Perhaps in a few years, he would not have to be so cautious all the time.

After becoming powerful, he would not have to worry about many things.

However, it was not that simple.

He had created a very mysterious person of himself. The recent events emphasized it even further.

He had borrowed Hong Yuye's power many times to accomplish many things.

If he wanted to maintain the mysterious and powerful image he had built of himself, he needed to reach Hong Yuye's cultivation realm.

At midnight, Jiang Hao entered the stone tablet.

He wanted to see what these people were doing and whether it would affect him.

Many things were happening overseas, so he had to pay attention to them.

However, nothing had happened in the North so far.

Maybe they just didn't know about the events in the North because no one was from the North in the gathering. There was no way of knowing if something had indeed happened there.

After entering the public space, Jiang Hao took his usual seat.

The others also arrived one after another.

There were five people in total.

Senior Dan Yuan sat in the front as usual. After greeting Senior Dan Yuan, they sat cross-legged on the floor.

Dan Yuan was the first to ask about their cultivation.

No one spoke.

“Then, let’s talk about the matter at hand.” Dan Yuan looked at Gui. “Friend Gui, are you ready? My people should arrive any moment.”

“I’m almost ready,” said Gui. “I can head to the Heavenly Note Sect once I get the Sage’s Pages. I just don’t know if Old Man Corpse Sea will have any effect on me.”

There had been no news from the Heavenly Note Sect lately. Gui did not know what Old Man Corpse Sea had done, and how that would affect the rest of them.

“Old Man Corpse Sea has already entered the Lawless Tower,” Jiang Hao said.

He was surprised that Senior Dan Yuan didn’t have a task this time.

They directly went ahead with the trading phase.

“He is in the Lawless Tower?” Gui was surprised. “He went there willingly?”

Jiang Hao didn’t explain. It would have been extremely difficult to capture him. But Old Man Corpse Sea had chosen to visit the Blood Pool and dug his own grave.

Gu Jin was not mentally stable.

It was surprising that Old Man Corpse Sea had survived after that attack.

“The Sage’s Pages are still with Jing?” Dan Yuan asked.

He didn’t take Old Man Corpse Sea’s matter to heart. He had done his best anyway.

“Yes.” Jiang Hao nodded.

“What price do I have to pay to see them?” Dan Yuan asked.

Jiang Hao knew that it would be his people who would come for the pages.

“I haven’t thought of it yet. I’ll leave it for later.”

Dan Yuan nodded.

Then, he looked at Gui.

“I’ll give it to him when I meet him.”

“What is the content of the pages?” Liu asked curiously.

Gui looked at Xing.

“It’s strange,” said Xing helplessly.

“I saw the words, “Heaven rewards the diligent...” or something along that line,” said Gui.

“And then?” Zhang was curious.

“I forgot...” Gui was puzzled.

Jiang Hao was surprised. He felt the same way.

It was as if he had forgotten everything he had read in the Sage’s Pages.

According to Hong Yuye, the pages had been taken away.

Everyone was surprised.

Before, they weren't that curious about the pages, but now...

They couldn't remember anything.

However, they didn't stall for long and continued the trade.

"Friend Jing, do you have any other plans for them?" Zhang asked.

She was referring to the two people.

"Are they already at the academy?" Jiang Hao asked.

Zhang nodded. "She's working, and the child is studying in a school. But the injury to their spirit is great. It'll take a lot of time and medicine to cure them."

Jiang Hao nodded. "That's all from my side."

There was no need for him to do more.

They would work hard on their own. He just needed to give them a chance.

If they didn't work hard even after being given the chance, then why bother with something more?

"Then, I'll consider the deal as fulfilled," said Zhang. She looked at him.

She seemed to be waiting for confirmation.

“Alright.” Jiang Hao nodded.

She had done well. This matter was bigger than him just cleaning those graves for her.

“Friend Jing, the things you wanted have been prepared,” Liu said.

With the help of Senior Dan Yuan, Jiang Hao received the information on the stone slab.

He memorized it.

The gathering went on.

Xing looked at Liu.

“I need an overseas identity. It’s best if it’s from the Heavenly Spirit Tribe.”

“When do you want it?” Liu asked.

“In the next two years,” Xing said.

Everyone knew that Xing was going overseas to do something important.

Liu thought for a moment and nodded.

After that, he asked Liu what he needed in exchange.

Liu asked for an unorthodox spell technique of the Bright Moon Sect. It was called the Light of Fireflies.

It was a spell that could accumulate strength.

Once they started accumulating, they couldn't be used.

Only those who wanted to break through would need to accumulate so much strength.

The moment he used it, all the accumulated strength would run out instantly.

It was almost a waste to use it in that way.

Jiang Hao was a little tempted by the prospect of getting a new identity so easily.

He could have asked for a new identity when he went to the West.

Gu Jin's influence had been just too great.

He had the identity of Smiling San Sheng to use overseas. Perhaps he could use the new identity when he went to the East or North someday.

'I wonder if I can ask for the identity of someone in the immortal sect...'

Chapter 932: What Is Inside the Dragon Cave?

Jiang Hao didn't make any further deals.

However, he had even more things to do.

It seemed that the more people he got involved with, the more trouble followed.

He might end up provoking more people too.

After meeting Gu Jin, he encountered a lot more trouble than necessary.

Lou Mantian of the West, for one. Then, there was Gu Changsheng, who was now the backer of the Longevity Race overseas.

They were all people he needed to be cautious of.

As he traded with the people in the gathering, he felt like he was getting closer to whoever was behind the stone tablets.

He was a little worried.

If he found that person one day, would Hong Yuye still keep him around?

He would be of no more value to her.

He needed to advance as soon as possible.

The middle stage of the Immortal Ascension Platform didn't give him a sense of security.

His realm was considered powerful only in the Heavenly Note Sect.

In other places in the South, he would just be ordinary.

It was even more common in the East, West, and the North. There were far more powerful people there. He no longer felt smug when he thought about that.

He needed to be humble and work hard to climb the ladder.

He had to look far and keep going. Only then would he become powerful.

"I want news about the Saint Bandits. If you have a way to contact them, please tell me," said Gui.

The others nodded.

Saint Bandits were the most mysterious and difficult to contact.

They hid in the dark and waited for an opportunity to strike.

Jiang Hao could have helped, but the one who was a part of Saint Bandits had left the Lawless Tower.

"I want to find a dragon that I can communicate with. I want to ask about the Dragon Race," said Zhang.

"Chaos Stone Island does have a dragon, but I'm not sure if you can communicate with them," Liu said.

Everyone knew that there were dragons on Chaos Stone Island.

"You can't," Dan Yuan said.

Everyone was surprised. It seemed that Senior Dan Yuan had been there.

Jiang Hao was a little disappointed. He couldn't communicate with that dragon either.

He also wanted to find a dragon and ask them some things.

But there were none like that.

Xiao Li did not mention anything about dragons.

The one with the Xuanyuan word had yet to appear. He hadn't even met Liu Xingchen lately.

From the looks of it, communicating with the Dragon Clan was more difficult than expected.

That was about the end of the trading session. After that, they talked about recent events.

"Has anything happened overseas recently?" Xing asked.

"Other than the matter of the Twelve Heavenly Kings, nothing strange has happened. There were some rumors related to the Dragon Clan, but they seem baseless," said Liu.

"It seems that there are many things related to dragons overseas," said Gui.

Jiang Hao was silent for a moment. "Something big might happen overseas soon."

Everyone was puzzled.

Jiang Hao didn't keep them in suspense. "I heard that a Dragon Cave is going to appear overseas. Only those with primordial spirits will be able to enter the cave."

"Dragon Cave?" Gui was curious. "What's in the Dragon Cave?"

She had been to the Dragon Nest before, so she felt that there was a similar treasure in the Dragon Cave.

Jiang Hao raised his eyebrows at Gui.

"There's a trap in the Dragon Cave."

Everyone was shocked.

What did he mean?

What trap was there in the Dragon Cave?

“This news is from the Great Thousand God Sect,” said Jiang Hao.

“The Great Thousand God Sect?” Liu frowned. “Primordial Spirit Realm... The Great Thousand God Sect wants the primordial spirits of people overseas?”

“They want to set the trap in the Dragon Cave? Many experts can detect if there are dragons inside or not,” said Gui.

Zhang calmly said, “The Great Thousand God Sect must have thought of that as well. If the Dragon Cave is really a trap, there’s a high chance that the Dragon Cave is the real deal.”

“I don’t think it’s true,” Xing said. “I think we’ll get some real benefits from it. Besides, the Great Thousand God Sect can’t kill us all. Most powerful people could obtain the benefits, while others just became stepping stones for the strong. The Great Thousand God Sect is planning something big. They might even enter first and then pretend to have suffered heavy losses.”

Jiang Hao was surprised. These people thought about every possibility.

Gui liked to ask many questions. She never shied away from asking important questions.

Many times, she was needed to solve issues that others couldn’t.

The gathering would not be useful without her.

She always asked questions and got an answer.

“What does the Great Thousand God Sect want?” Gui asked.

Everyone knew about the Great Thousand God Sect, but they didn’t know what they were up to.

Jiang Hao didn’t respond. The matter of creating immortals was of great importance, so it was better not to mention it for the time being.

Seeing that no one responded, Gui talked about other matters. “I received news that the Heavenly Note Sect and the Heavenly Saint Sect are cooperating. It’s very strange. The Heavenly Saint Sect wants to help attack Azure Mountain, while the Heavenly Note Sect will help to suppress the Heavenly Spirit Tribe in exchange.”

Jiang Hao was baffled.

What benefits were there in doing so?

“The Grand Earth Emperor has brought quite a lot of benefits to the Blackheaven Sect. Perhaps in a few years, the Blackheaven Sect will rise to great heights. It’s possible that it can become a great sect,” said Xing.

“Many things have been happening in the West. It’s possible that the one with the Heavenly Dao Foundation Establishment is there, and she is getting closer to the one with great fortune,” said Zhang. “I heard that there’s another senior in the backyard of the Astronomical Academy. His name is Jin.”

Jiang Hao was speechless.

Zhang felt that it had something to do with him.

“The immortal seed of the Fallen Immortal Clan is about to bloom. They are preparing near the sea,” Dan Yuan said. “It might not happen for many years.”

Jiang Hao frowned.

If the Fallen Immortal Clan returned, they would rise over other races.

Xing lowered his head in thought.

At the Blackheaven Sect, Xu Bai walked out of a room in the VIP area.

He sighed and looked at the sky. "Looks like I have to speed up the process."

At that moment, pages appeared in his hand.

They were the Sage's Pages.

Unlike Gui, he had used the sect's treasure to pry into the Sage's Pages.

He did not see the words on it at all.

It gave him a feeling of emptiness and nothingness. It was difficult to describe. He had clearly grasped it, but it had disappeared right after.

It seemed he had gotten his hands on the Sage's Pages too late.

In the end, he decided to give them away.

"What does the heavens reward those who work hard?"

Xu Bai didn't think too much about it. He wasn't there to find out the secret behind the Sage's pages, he just wanted to read what was in it.

He looked in the direction of the Heavenly Note Sect and laughed at himself.

"I'm finally leaving, but I feel so calm. That thing is giving me a lot of stress. It is no wonder people there are always so bitter."

Chapter 933: I Thought You Were A Three-Hundred-Year-Old Woman

When Jiang Hao woke up, the sky was covered with dark clouds.

It was going to rain.

It rarely rained in the Heavenly Note Sect. Spiritual energy gathered here, and normal weather did not affect people coming in.

It did not even snow in winter.

Even if it did, it was only a little.

Jiang Hao sat on a chair on the balcony and looked up at the sky.

The wind was howling.

Without hesitation, he took out a book and began to write the information he had gotten about the Shangguan family.

Compared to what he had learned from the Lawless Tower, Liu's information was more comprehensive.

It had everything about their origin, the famous people in their clan, their current leaders, and their names.

There were names of people who were supposed to be their allies.

There was also information about the difficulties faced by the Shangguan family.

He even provided an identity of the Shangguan family.

Jiang Hao hadn't expected that.

Other than that, there wasn't much news from the gathering.

The rise of the Blackheaven Sect was almost inevitable, and everyone anticipated it.

In addition, Xing was going overseas to look for the Heavenly Spirit Tribe's treasure to suppress the Fallen Immortal Clan and become an immortal race again.

Jiang Hao would help with such matters.

The Heavenly Spirit Tribe, the Heavenly Saint Sect, and the Fallen Immortal Clan were not ordinary clans.

Their rise to power would shake the world.

Once their influence was too great, it would be easy to start a fight.

In addition, the Fallen Immortal Clan might come looking for him or Xiao Li.

He couldn't handle it, so he tried not to get involved as much as possible.

Next was the Dragon Clan.

The dragons that were currently known were unable to communicate with humans.

In fact, there was quite a lot of information about the dragons.

Unfortunately, all of it was useless.

Xiao Li was the most communicative dragon he had ever seen. Unfortunately, she had lost her memory.

He had already told them about the Great Thousand God Sect, but he didn't know what Liu would do.

They couldn't let the Great Thousand God Sect succeed.

It would not benefit the Heavenly Tower in any way.

He thought about it briefly.

Jiang Hao felt that he should pay more attention to Gui and see what she would do next.

The West wasn't worth paying attention to. At most, he would only be able to find out what realm the one with Heavenly Fragrance Dao Flower had reached.

He finally understood how far Chu Chuan was from reaching her level.

A moment later, he finished writing the Shangguan family's information in his notebook.

Although the Shangguan family had been overseas for a long time, they were not from anywhere overseas. They came from a place called the Eastern Pole Island.

Their clan had no choice but to move away.

It was also at that time that the curse began to appear.

Jiang Hao was surprised when he read what he had written.

The Shangguan family's origin was a little strange. Furthermore, they were unable to integrate with the locals even after going overseas.

Perhaps it was the curse that made them reject the outside world.

"The Shangguan family controls the edge of the sea realm. Although they have spirit veins, they are relatively ordinary. They have no interest in the major powers of the world, and no one fights with them. The ones who want to fight for the veins aren't their enemies..."

The strength of the Shangguan family wasn't bad. However, their experts slowly died away. They used to have immortals but not anymore.

Their clan's experts were slowly diminishing in number. The curse not only prevented them from growing but also made it difficult for them to recover from their injuries.

Although they had tried to nurture death warriors, it was a pity that when their cultivation surpassed them, the backlash was immense.

Jiang Hao felt that the Shangguan family was really tough.

It was a powerful clan that had suffered a disaster.

"I wonder if Gu Changsheng is related to them." Jiang Hao was curious.

Or rather, he was curious if Gu Changsheng was also a member of the Longevity Clan.

Jiang Hao realized that the Shangguan family had thought of a way.

However, no matter what they did, they could not escape the curse.

They didn't even know what the curse really was.

They fell into despair.

The clan started attacking their surroundings but ended up retreating.

However, just as everyone felt that their clan was about to be exterminated, there was a clan member who had figured out a way to the path of immortality.

He had given hope to his clan that there was still a possibility for them to reach the immortal realm.

They still had hope.

He had died, but the clan stopped destroying themselves.

They began to think of solutions for their problem and waited.

Jiang Hao closed the book before daybreak.

The Shangguan family was rather ordinary overseas. Although everyone knew about them, no one was intimidated by them.

The information Liu gave him had the scope of their influence and details about their leaders.

Shangguan Qingsu was the most outstanding member of the Shangguan family. She had entered the Great Thousand God Sect with her own strength to seek new hope.

She had two immortal avatars and didn't have a good relationship with the clan.

According to the information he had, the reason the Shangguan Clan was quiet and approachable was that they were helpless.

However, they had pride in their hearts and were definitely not a race that lived under others.

Apart from that, Jiang Hao found out something else. The elites of the Shangguan family were at rock bottom.

That was enough for Jiang Hao.

As long as they could trade normally, it was fine.

"Alright." Looking at the sunrise, Jiang Hao sighed. "I can try to get in touch with Shangguan Qingsu now."

Early the next morning, Bi Zhu received the Sage's Pages.

She took a look at it but forgot the contents right after.

In fact, she had secretly shown it to Qiao Yi, but Qiao Yi couldn't understand it at all. She couldn't even read it.

"Princess, where are we going now?" Qiao Yi asked.

She wanted to make a trip back to Imperial City.

After all, what they had encountered on this trip had exceeded her expectations.

The two princes were unaware that their little sister had been through so much.

"I'll meet up with a senior before heading to the Heavenly Note Sect." Bi Zhu forced a smile.

This was a big matter, and it concerned her life.

She had no choice but to go. Otherwise, she might not be able to negotiate with the powerful person behind her.

That would be bad.

In the afternoon, Bi Zhu walked along a small village road. Some villagers were farming nearby. "Auntie Qiao, I'm still so young. Why do you think my life is so hard?"

"You are more than three hundred years old," said Qiao Yi.

"That's right... I'm indeed not a child anymore. I have to carry my own burden. I'm eighteen." Bi Zhu nodded.

Qiao Yi looked helpless and could only nod.

"Eighteen?" said a voice from behind. "Are you that young? I thought you were a three-hundred-year-old woman." Bi Zhu and Qiao Yi were shocked. They turned to see a young man landing on the ground.

Bi Zhu couldn't tell what his cultivation realm was, but he was definitely not an ordinary cultivator.

"Do I know you, Senior?" Bi Zhu asked.

"I'm Kendo. Are you going to the Heavenly Note Sect, little girl? We might be going the same way." He smiled.

Bi Zhu was stunned.

The person Senior Dan Yuan had found for her had arrived.
