

NATIONAL TRANSFER: NECROMANCER! I AM A DISASTER

Chapter 17 Shield Badge

[Kill level 10 goblin patrols, experience +300]

[Kill level 11 goblin soldiers, experience +350]

【Obtain Goblin Bones】

Tips flooded in like swiping the screen, and the experience was also rising rapidly.

44 bronze-level skeleton warriors are killing monsters in the forest.

With the improvement of skills, Lin Moyu once again enjoyed the thrill of instant killing.

These bronze-level skeleton warriors killed level 10 and level 11 goblin monsters in one blow.

Efficiency has improved again. Starting from level 10, the experience requirement for upgrading has increased again, and it has increased by nearly 3 times.

Upgrades are getting slower and slower.

According to this calculation, at least 5,000 goblin monsters must be killed for Lin Moyu to advance to a level.

The skeleton warrior was tireless and killed in seconds all the way, but it was still a little bit close.

Until the night falls, Lin Moyu is 30% short of level 11 experience

Lin Moyu built a bonfire in the forest and ate food brought from home.

He didn't plan to go back, time was limited and he couldn't waste it on the road.

"According to the current level-up speed, we can almost reach level 13 tomorrow, but it's not clear whether we can reach level 15 the day after tomorrow."

"After level 15, the upgrade speed will drop further, and I will have to wait a day to go back. So I can upgrade to level 16 at most."

"How did my sister upgrade at that time?"

"Although my sister is a legendary professional sword dancer, she can't upgrade faster than me."

"I must have missed something."

Lin Moyu pondered in his memory, thinking about the knowledge he had learned in school, and combined with Lin Mohan's action path at that time to make a judgment.

Suddenly he realized something.

A copy of the West Sea Mine.

"Could it be that my sister teamed up with Ren to download the dungeon?"

"And at least it's a nightmare level dungeon."

"Nightmare level dungeons are full of enhanced elite monsters, and they must have a lot of experience."

"So my sister was injured when she came back that time, and was treated."

"Yes, it must be so."

Lin Moyu shook his fist, thinking that his guess must be right.

"Go and see tomorrow."

I made up my mind.

The night was getting deeper and deeper, and the monsters in a radius of 500 meters around him had been emptied.

The skeleton warrior hid in the night, and he began to meditate.

There are 44 skeleton warriors for protection, coupled with the existence of passive skills, there is no need to worry about safety issues at all.

The forest at night is not completely quiet, occasionally the howling of wolves can be heard from a distance.

There are also some rustling sounds of leaves being blown by the wind, which is a bit eerie.

The temperature in the place where Lin Moyu is located is lower than other places, and the existence of skeleton warriors makes the night wind turn into a cloudy wind.

In the middle of the night, a skeleton warrior suddenly issued a warning, and Lin Moyu woke up from his meditation.

The skeleton warrior found that someone was approaching where he was.

"Are you a professional who came to level up?"

"There are not many people who come to the forest to level up in the middle of the night. Could it be that they got lost?"

Lin Moyu didn't move, but his heart had raised his vigilance.

Outside, nothing is to be taken lightly.

The fire is the best guiding light at night.

Soon someone appeared in Lin Moyu's sight.

"is her."

Lin Moyu had seen her in the afternoon, the fleeing man in black.

"Is there anything to eat?"

The man in black had a nice voice.

A pair of big eyes are also bright and clear in the firelight.

Lin Moyu took out a piece of sweet potato and handed it over.

The only food he prepared was sweet potatoes and some water.

The man in black didn't feel disgusted. He took off his mask and started eating. It seemed that he was really hungry.

Behind the mask is a very delicate and delicate face, which looks about 18 or 9 years old, exuding a youthful atmosphere.

Lin Moyu did not use the detection technique. Using the detection technique on strangers is very impolite and may even attract hostility.

"Thanks..."

Before he could say a word, he coughed violently.

She choked on talking to Lin Moyu while eating sweet potatoes.

Lin Moyu took out a bottle of water and handed it over.

The man in black took a few sips before he calmed down.

"Thanks."

She finally spoke clearly, Lin Moyu just nodded slightly, expressing his thanks.

The man in black ate sweet potatoes bite by bite, Lin Moyu was fine, and the atmosphere fell into a strange silence.

She doesn't eat fast, her movements are graceful.

While eating, a pair of beautiful eyes looked at Lin Moyu from time to time, with a shimmer in his eyes, and he didn't know what he was thinking.

After eating, she finally said, "What's your name?"

Seeing that Lin Moyu didn't answer, she continued, "Don't you like talking? How about this? Let's use detection techniques on each other."

Lin Moyu thought for a while and nodded in agreement.

The fingertips of the two shimmered at the same time, and they used the detection technique towards each other.

Lin Moyu froze for a moment, the detection technique failed, and he didn't get any information.

The man in black suddenly smiled coquettishly, as if he had succeeded in a trick, "Hee hee, there is nothing there."

"So your name is Lin Moyu, level 10, and your occupation is... Necromancer? I've never heard of this occupation, so strange."

"I saw a skeleton next to you this afternoon. Is that your summon? Undead summons are rare."

She suddenly spoke more, one sentence after another.

"Why don't you speak? Don't tell me you are dumb, it doesn't look like it."

Lin Moyu looked at her and asked lightly, "Why?"

She seemed to have seen a new land, her small face was full of surprise, "So you really can talk."

"Why?" Lin Moyu looked at her and asked again.

She still smiled, "Ask why the detection technique fails, because of this."

She took out a prop that looked like a badge, "This is called a shielding badge. As long as you wear it, people whose level is not higher than your 10th level will be invalid if they use detection on you."

She put away the shielding badge, "I'll try using the detection technique on me now."

Lin Moyu nodded and threw a detection spell.

This time it worked.

[Ning Yiyi, level 19, Shadow Assassin.]

A gust of wind blew, and Ning Yiyi's smile disappeared instantly, and Lin Moyu also looked to the side.
