

A Father 106

Chapter 106: Divine Weapon Mask Angry Horse Face, Plus a Hero

Crack!

Above the densely clouded sky, lightning snakes broke through the air, and winter thunder exploded with a loud bang.

The spilling storm of wind, snow, and heavy rain pattered down into the human world.

On the brim of a torn straw hat, raindrops fell relentlessly, only to be evaporated cleanly by his vigorous Qi and blood!

Cao He only felt that the divinity within him couldn't even circulate, it was a suppression of divinity on a rank level!

This Divine Foundation exceeded his rank by far too much!

Nine Luminaries level, or perhaps Eight Extremes level?!

Boom!!!

Cao He only felt a buzzing explosion in his brain.

Although Cao He was initially surprised when Bull Demon appeared before him, he wasn't worried at all, even feeling that the Bull Demon was ignorantly courting death.

After all, he, Cao He, was very different from Yang Jing, who had his will swallowed by the divinity in the Divine Foundation and lacked any combat consciousness, which led him to fall victim to the Bull Demon's hidden weapons.

Cao He's consciousness was clear, his divinity vibrant, and though he was slightly injured by Li Qingshan, causing a slight drop in his Qi and blood cultivation, his divinity was still overpowering!

A mere Bull Demon, as long as he could dodge the Bull Demon's hidden weapons, what other means could this Bull Demon possibly have?

However...

Sensing the Bull Demon's aura from so close by.

That burning heat, like a raging fire, made the [Wrathful Maitreya] divinity within him unable to surge!

"Divine... Divine Foundation?!"

With an expression close to splitting his eyes, Cao He's face under the mask of Horse Face was extremely stirred.

Not possible...

How could the Bull Demon be a Divine Foundation?

How could it possibly be a Divine Base Cultivator?!

Hasn't he always been a Qi and Blood Martial Artist?!

Looking at the Bull Demon's head, and the divinity behind it emitting a powerful suppressing aura, Cao He seemed to hear countless roars of fury.

His divine sense seemed to perceive a grand being, seated high, with a third eye open on his forehead, extremely furious!

"Your divinity...[Three-Eyed Fierce True Lord]?!"

"No... no! This can't be possible!"

Cao He nearly screamed in madness!

Three-Eyed Fierce True Lord...

In the entirety of Fei Lei City, wasn't only Cao Guang known to have successfully cultivated it?

Cao Guang, who had performed numerous sacrifices outside the Spirit Infant Strange Temple, had just obtained the Divine Foundation Technique to forge the Nine Luminaries Superior Three-Eyed Fierce True Lord Divine Foundation!

How could this Bull Demon before him possess such a Divine Foundation?

At this moment, Cao He's mind raced frantically, even thinking that perhaps the Bull Demon before him might be Cao Guang in disguise.

But this ridiculous thought was quickly dismissed by him.

A cold killing intent spilled from the Bull Demon.

Cao He snapped back to reality; his hairs stood on end, and he suddenly bit down on the tip of his tongue. The sharp pain blossoming from his tongue-tip brought him instantly back to his senses.

With a fierce screech, the [Wrathful Maitreya] divinity on his body converged and intertwined into [Maitreya Gold Armor].

The Bull Demon, clutching the Shocking Spear, had already fiercely struck!

With a loud crack!

Terrifying force swept through, and air currents whirled about!

The defense formed by the divine secret technique of Maitreya Gold Armor was instantly pierced with ease, and the Divine Weapon, Liu Blood Shock Spear, fiercely penetrated Cao He's body, shredding his shoulder directly!

"Not good!"

Cao He's heart raced wildly!

Excruciating pain almost made him lose his mind, and surges of Inner Qi along with Divinity flowed out from the blood-colored long spear.

His Divine Sense manipulated Divinity, and in an instant, the long spears behind him roared into action, like reverse spikes, thrusting toward the Bull Demon!

Although the Bull Demon's Divine Foundation exerted a suppression on his Divine Foundation, it wasn't the kind of pure rank suppression that Divine Foundation has over Nurturing Nature.

Therefore, Cao He could still resist a bit!

But also...

Only a bit.

Li Che's eyes flickered, and the next moment, he activated the second stage of the "Dragon Elephant Vajra" for the first time after reaching lv3 level, the Angry Vajra State!

In an instant, Li Che's body shook, and the sound of metal clashing boomed within his muscles and bones, like thunder exploding!

His already burly body swelled even further, bulging impressively in a full circle!

His eyes shone even more brilliantly, like the brightest stars in the sky!

The skin exposed outside looked like molten iron, with muscles thick as pythons trembling, and his fingers like hooks, gripping the enlarged Shocking Spear that matched his size!

Horizontal Refinement Unparalleled, ultimate physique!

Angry Vajra!

It better matched the Divine Foundation of the "Three-Eyed Fierce True Lord"!

Angry Vajra matched with Fury!

Like a volcano roaring furiously under extreme suppression!

Bang—!

The air waves rolled out, and the Shocking Spear piercing through Cao He's body vibrated thunderously, erupting with immense force!

The surging airflow roiled, mixed with a strong scent of shattered flesh and blood!

Cao He groaned, as the spear's force exploded continuously within him.

Eight Consecutive Bone-Breaking Spears!

Superior Martial Arts Technique!

Culminating in the Transformation Realm!

The eight successive explosions of Inner Qi within his body turned even the Qi and Blood Cultivation of Cao He, with his Mysterious Vein, feel as if his insides were stirred into muddy waters!

His organs, muscles, and iron bones were all smashed to pieces!

Unstoppable...

Is this the Bull Demon?!

Immense fear, the urge to kill, and unwillingness all exploded within Cao He's chest!

Divinity was driven to its limit, coiling like a venomous snake on the long spear lunging toward the Bull Demon.

But it was casually flicked away by the Bull Demon with a flex of his finger.

Draw the spear.

Slash it down!

In a flash, like a peacock spreading its tail and opening its feathers, countless spear shadows swallowed Cao He.

Cao He bellowed in rage, but with no power to resist, was instantly slammed down harshly onto the rooftop, hurtling toward the bluestone ground at high speed.

In midair, his muscles and bones had already turned into mush.

With a loud thud...

A sky-high mist of blood erupted!

When Cao He hit the ground, he was already dead, the Divinity within his Divine Foundation lost control, frenziedly devouring his flesh, causing his smashed remains on the ground to still weirdly twitch.
