

A Father 1091

Chapter 1091: Prison Lotus is her father and mother, where is the father willing to sacrifice his life for the child _3

As the Mysterious Temple has been classified as the Four Imperial Upper Rank, there must be Dao Yun Divine Crystals hidden inside, which are essential opportunities for breaking through to the Divine Tribulation Realm!

Although they are only the Four Imperial Taoist Divine Crystals, they will inevitably become resources for conflict among the Absolute Peak Experts!

At this moment.

It's not just Yue Huanglong who thought of these things.

There are also Fang Hanshu, Feng Zhiqi, Hong Shifu, and other strong figures.

This is also why Lv Taibai must leave Fang Hanshu behind; if he cannot break out with Xi Xi from the Prison Lotus in a short time, he will need Fang Hanshu to sit in and be the backbone.

Hoo hoo hoo—

Burnt by the terrifying and scorching power of the Prison Lotus Fire, the raindrops sizzle and fall, turning an area of tens of miles into a land of torrential rain.

The world is hazy, winter mountains are misty with drizzling rain.

The entire Taibai Peak, or perhaps the entire Qianyuan Taoist City, seems to be shrouded in white fog.

...

...

Li Che wasn't in as much of a hurry as Lv Taibai; he transformed directly into sword light and charged into the closed Prison Lotus.

He had left a Thunder Chess Piece on Xi Xi, and as long as the Thunder Chess Piece was there, he could teleport away, so Li Che wasn't worried.

After explaining a sentence to Zhang Ya, at the moment the Prison Lotus Fire completely closed, he left behind an Immortal Avatar in the Painting, then grasped the Thunder Chess Piece with his five fingers and completed the teleportation.

The hand formed by the Prison Lotus Fire burned fiercely, and as it clenched suddenly, it seemed to form a unique Small Cave Heaven.

It isolated the detection of various strong figures, including the Heavenly Person Sensing of Absolute Peak Experts and the Heaven and Earth Soul of Great God level figures.

None could break through the isolation of the Small Cave Heaven to sense what was happening inside.

Lv Taibai's sword light followed closely at the moment of closure and entered within.

Boom——!!!

Silver sword light suddenly exploded, transforming into Lv Taibai's figure, silver hair flying, sword brows like Sword Qi spilling and drifting, his pupils, sword light clangorous, flowing and turning!

One black flame Jiaoshe after another rolled and roared, charging violently towards Lv Taibai.

Lv Taibai's brows furrowed, he seized with his five fingers, and sword light raged out, instantly exploding the flame Jiaoshe he targeted.

Powerful Martial Dao Will spread out, the Heavenly Person Sensing of Martial Saints and the Heaven and Earth Soul of Divine Fetus were unusable here; this was an independently separated Small Cave Heaven by the Prison Lotus Fire, and without achieving a linkage with the Heaven and Earth Will of this Small Cave Heaven, all Divinity belonged to using what's consumed with no replenishment.

In such a Small Cave Heaven, using Martial Dao is the best choice.

Fortunately, Lv Taibai's Martial Dao was not weak.

One Prison Lotus flame dragon after another swept out, countless black flames constructed a huge terrifying figure!

It was a tremendous eight-armed, three-faced colossal entity, completely composed of black flames.

With green face and tusks, spewing Prison Lotus Fire, extremely terrifying!

Lv Taibai was instantly blocked.

His expression was extremely solemn...

"This is..."

Lv Taibai dared not be negligent; the clangor resounded, the Taibai Sword unsheathed, accompanied by closed sword fingers, transforming in a moment into thousands upon thousands of sword lights, hovering and interwoven around him and behind.

Swords like a long river, flying downwards!

"You, who have stood at the peak as a god, why trouble a child? Yet calculate against a child?"

"Isn't it too disgraceful to the face of a god?"

Lv Taibai said in a deep voice.

The colossal eight-armed, three-faced, green-faced tusked figure roared, and from its three heads spewed terrifying black flames.

One flame transformed into a long spear wrapped around like a Jiaoshe, another into a Chaos Silk woven by heavenly pythons, and one more into a ring of fire, rushing high into the sky.

Three streams of light quickly attacked Lv Taibai.

Lv Taibai clenched his five fingers, and the Taibai Sword was instantly seized by him.

Silver hair hung down, he slightly raised his alabaster chin.

The sword's body vibrated, silver light dazzling.

"You refuse the toast only to drink the penalty wine."

...

...

Xi Xi had fallen into a coma.

Her brow emitted a faint glow, a delicate, tiny black lotus, almost thumb-sized, quietly floated, akin to black glass.

And above, the eight-armed three-faced Hell Lotus Unbeaten Divine Image painstakingly sculpted by Xi Xi's Divine Foundation peacefully hovered.

Each face of this Divine Image resembled Xi Xi greatly.

As if all reflected Xi Xi's anger, ferocity, roar.

Prison Lotus Fired burned around Xi Xi, slowly approaching Xi Xi, whose belly still bulged even lying flat.

Just by approaching, fine beads of sweat exuded from Xi Xi's skin, as if about to be melted away.

The ancient and dilapidated Mysterious Temple floated behind Xi Xi.

Broken black tiles, ancient blue bricks covered with moss, vermilion columns appearing as if peeling, and various mortise-like eaves...

The entire Mysterious Temple floated behind Xi Xi, appearing somewhat blurry.

A bit like the projection cast by a mirage.

And Xi Xi levitated upon the White Jade Staircase, on the steps sat a child tied with two sky-reaching braids, wearing a black bib, quietly looking towards a certain place.

The void twisted suddenly.

In an instant.

A swing of Mo Shan robe violently whipped the air as Li Che black hair stiffly billowed, grasping [Equal to Heaven's Face], appeared out of thin air.

A chess piece faintly emitting white brilliance was held in his palm.

Li Che looked at the child in the black bib sitting on the White Jade Staircase.

The child smiled: "We meet again."

Li Che's face was filled with extreme vigilance and gravity.

"Qi... what do you want to do?"

Li Che asked in a deep voice.

However, he did not sense any intent to harm Xi Xi from the other party, and his heart slightly relaxed.

"To help her... return her bones to her father, and her flesh to her mother."

A child wearing a black bellyband spread his hands.

Li Che's gaze turned cold.

Killing intent surged forth.

"My daughter... doesn't need that. I said, even if she offends the most terrifying of beings, as her father, I will do everything to protect her, even if... it costs me my life!"

"Or perhaps..."

"Do you want to... use my daughter's body for reincarnation?"

Li Che placed the Equal to Heaven's Face on his face, and from his eyes, golden smoke slowly dripped like sinking incense.

In his chest, the [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit was suddenly stimulated, as if the majestic power of the Dao Fruit was bursting forth.

Then, from his left arm, sword light clashed and flickered, and vaguely, the three-point double-edged knife hidden in his arm suddenly whistled out.

"Don't overthink, reincarnation is unnecessary, I am saving her."

The Third Crown Prince laughed.

"But... you said you're willing to sacrifice your life for your daughter?"

"Really?"

"It's not just talk?"

"Many parents say they're good to their children, but in reality, when a crisis comes... they may not be able to support the child's sky."

"Can you?"

The Third Crown Prince suddenly turned cold, looking at Li Che.

With the Equal to Heaven's Face on, Li Che's eyes flowed with golden smoke, and from his left hand, the sword light clanged, vaguely forming an illusion of a three-point double-edged knife.

Sword energy crisscrossed, seemingly slicing through the void, twisting time and space.

His right hand was gripping the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod, radiant and luminous.

The Third Crown Prince squinted: "Interesting... True Monarch's knife, Monkey's rod."

"Oh? And Qi's Sword, you... are interesting."

The Third Crown Prince laughed again.

Then, the laughter abruptly stopped.

"Can you?!"

This time, the question was like a thunderclap, as the surrounding Prison Lotus frantically surged, gathering swiftly towards Li Che.

The terrifying heat was almost melting Li Che away.

But, Li Che's brows slightly furrowed, his heart slightly trembled.

Because in his chest, the Dao Fruit [Dream Master] was trembling rapidly, eager and longing.

This is...

Li Che suddenly understood.

At this moment, what was happening within the Small Cave Heaven they were in, perhaps... was all the dreamscape of the Temple God?

Or, was it an illusion realm similar to a dreamscape?

Otherwise, the [Dream Master] Dao Fruit would not be so exhilarated.

However, Li Che wasn't focused on this now, his eyes filled with seriousness, earnestly answering the Third Crown Prince.

"I can!"

"Even if I am smashed to pieces, even if I die... what of it? I just want my daughter to live!"

Li Che said with utmost sincerity.

The Third Crown Prince looked at the seriousness on Li Che's face and suddenly burst into hearty laughter.

"Good, good!"

"Then let's give it a try!"

"Have you seen that black glass-like Prison Lotus floating on the little girl's forehead?"

"Of course, this is not the real Prison Lotus; the real one... is in the temple."

"There is a Prison Lotus in the temple."

"This is not the real Prison Lotus, not a Heaven and Earth Divine Object, just a mere projection. Therefore... during the process of the Prison Lotus projection entering the little girl's forehead, her physical body will completely disintegrate."

"Blood and flesh melting, meridians breaking, bones turning to powder, akin to stripping bones and cutting flesh..."

"Ultimately transformed by the power of the Prison Lotus projection into the Prison Lotus Body."

"And the Prison Lotus projection will be deeply implanted in her mind, making her exceedingly cold, becoming the Prisoner of Hell Lotus, unless... she can obtain the true Prison Lotus."

The Third Crown Prince crossed his hands over his chest, smilingly looking at Li Che.

Significantly meaningful.

"Stripping bones and cutting flesh, even if the physical body is remade... you should know, this little girl..."

"She does not carry your blood, there is no bloodline connection, and the Prison Lotus has replaced her soul; the Prison Lotus... is her real father and mother."

"And you..."

"Will no longer be her father."

Li Che's left hand clenched into a fist, the three-point double-edged knife almost fully activated by the Dao Fruit's power!

"So, I give you a test, to prove what you said, that you are willing to be smashed to pieces for your daughter."

"Prove you are a father willing to give everything for his daughter."

The Third Crown Prince's voice suddenly grew low, serious and... hopeful.

"Use your hand to hold this Prison Lotus projection..."

"For ninety-nine breaths."

"If you haven't let go, allowing the Prison Lotus to fall... you prove your words."

"Qi will give this little girl a chance."

The Third Crown Prince's gaze was intensely fixed on Li Che.

"Alright."

However, the Third Crown Prince suddenly froze.

Because Li Che agreed almost without thinking at all.

As if to Li Che, this question, this test... needed no thought, as there was no other option.

Li Che stepped forward, and with each step, the qi-blood in his body instantly roared and burned vigorously, erupting forth.

Boom——!!!

The Dragon Elephant Illusion appeared!

The Dragon Elephant Merged Form!

With each step forward, Li Che's body expanded, becoming robust. The muscles on his back rolled like Qiu Long, fearfully vibrating with qi-blood, shining brilliantly!

When he reached the side of the floating, sweat-drenched, hair-matted Xi Xi, he had completely unleashed the power of the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit, his body towering and growing to two meters and five.

Chapter 1093: Prison Lotus Is Her Father and Mother, Which Father Would Sacrifice His Life for His Child [Requesting Monthly Tickets]_5

Like a palm-leaf fan, the hand suddenly opened, supporting the area beneath the Prison Lotus projection, right above Xi Xi's Mud Pill forehead.

The glass-like, pitch-black Prison Lotus silently rotated, spinning, no bigger than a thumb, appearing like a small grain of sand in Li Che's fan-like hand.

It seemed to carry no weight at all.

"Have you really made up your mind?"

The Third Crown Prince, arms crossed, stood on the White Jade Staircase before the Mysterious Temple, looking at Li Che.

"You—"

"Will die!"

The Third Crown Prince's expression suddenly turned fierce.

His body was suddenly engulfed in black flames of the Prison Lotus Fire.

"Come now, so much nonsense."

Li Che said flatly.

Appearing somewhat impatient, and leaving no room for doubt.

"Hahahahaha——"

The Third Crown Prince suddenly spread his arms wide!

"Then..."

"Fulfill you!"

"Let's see... to what extent you'll go for your child?"

"Let us..."

"Take a good look!"

Boom——!!!

As the words of the Third Crown Prince settled.

The spinning black glass Prison Lotus suddenly fell lightly.

Like a piece of willow fluff blown from a tree!

Li Che's eyes suddenly narrowed.

Because, when the black Prison Lotus landed in Li Che's fan-like hand.

An extremely heavy force made his supporting hand almost unable to hold it up.

Moreover, a scorching heat exploded.

Like boiling hot water, pouring out of the teapot like silk, splashing over the flesh and causing a cooked-meat scent to emanate.

Even with Li Che's immense strength, reaching the Martial Saint realm of the Human Opening Pill, his qi-blood nearly evaporated instantly, unable to withstand even a bit of it!

The Prison Lotus seemed to stick to Li Che's palm.

Buzz buzz buzz——

Wave after wave, black flames, like a tide, slowly spread in all directions.

Like a lit cigarette, the burning paper gradually spread to ash!

Li Che saw the flesh and blood of his palm truly... turning to charcoal!

His eyes slightly contracted, the stabbing pain seeming to come from the palm in an instant.

His forehead veins popped one by one, his eyes wide, even he couldn't help but tremble slightly.

However...

Li Che's hand, holding up the Prison Lotus, did not tremble at all.

"The Dao Essence of the Prison Lotus will slowly release, your current physical body cannot bear it, and you have not cultivated the Eight-Armed Three-Faced Hell Lotus Invincible Technique... you will slowly be burned by the Prison Lotus Dao Essence... finally becoming charcoal!"

"However, as long as you withdraw your hand midway, give up holding the Prison Lotus, letting it fall, burning the girl's flesh, meridians, and bones, once the Prison Lotus Dao Essence recedes, naturally flowing back into this Small Cave Heaven, your physical body will recover as it was, without any harm!"

The Third Crown Prince's voice abruptly echoed in Li Che's ear.

Like a devil's whisper close to the ear, tempting the heart, shaking the will, and corroding the spirit!

"Get lost."

Li Che gritted his teeth, glanced at the Third Crown Prince, and said in a deep voice.

The Third Crown Prince laughed loudly.

"Let's see how long you can bear it..."

"Although it is only a projection of the Prison Lotus, it possesses the power of the Prison Lotus Dao Essence, speaking of burning, but actually, you are hacking bones and cutting flesh right now... I wonder how long you can withstand it!"

"You will definitely give up!"

"Where would there be parents who would sacrifice their own life for the life they created?"

The Third Crown Prince muttered towards the end, his voice becoming incredibly low.

"I don't believe it."

However.

Li Che ignored him.

With each breath, time became extraordinarily long.

The Prison Lotus trembled, constantly spreading, burning Li Che, Li Che watched his hand, from the palm, bit by bit turning to charcoal.

Gradually, the entire fan-like hand turned to charcoal, the flow of qi-blood was blocked, the Vajra Transformation triggered by Dragon Elephant Vajra disappeared.

The whole body stopped swelling.

Thus, the speed of charcoal spreading quickened, the swirling black glass Prison Lotus, resembling a terrifying monster of heaven and earth, just approaching it can turn one to charcoal, resembling a Divine Sculpture carved from charcoal.

Sizzle sizzle sizzle——

A roasted meat scent continuously wafted from Li Che's body.

The Third Crown Prince squinted his eyes, already silent, watching quietly.

Boom——!!!

In the distance.

Silver sword light swept across, Lv Taibai gasping heavily, having slain countless Jiao Long transformed from Prison Lotus Fire, finally killed his way to this spot. His elegant white clothing was burned to tatters, his whole appearance as if emerging from a fire, with black patches here and there, in utter disarray.

Then, he saw the Mysterious Temple, saw the Temple God Third Prince, and also saw the floating Xi Xi and Li Che, wearing the Divine Monkey Mask.

Lv Taibai knew that Li Che was the Divine Monkey.

He grasped the Taibai Sword, exhaling a long breath.

How come someone enters directly at the end point?!

So, what was the point of his arduous efforts to kill his way here?

However, Lv Taibai's eyes suddenly narrowed, his expression changing dramatically!

"Dao Yun?!"

He transformed into a ray of sword light, landing before the White Jade Staircase.

However, the Third Crown Prince crossed his arms, hovering in mid-air, looking down condescendingly, just glanced at him. That disdainful gaze, even for a top-level peak like Lv Taibai, resounding in both the Great God List and the Heavenly Gate, was like looking at an ant.

The terrifying pressure of the Temple God, like a mountain, crashed down on Lv Taibai.

Lv Taibai's silver hair all crazily swept back, his clothes tightly clinging to his body.

"You are a Four Supremes Temple God, your will has awakened, why make things difficult for this weak father and daughter?!"

Lv Taibai endured the terrifying Temple God pressure, lifted his hand and pointed at the center of his brow, as if revealing a sword mark, a Dao Yun within, clashing like sword artifacts, producing a continuous clanging sound.

"Don't meddle, if you meddle, they will all die."

"This is a trial, unrelated to you."

The Third Crown Prince glanced at Lv Taibai's brow mark, his gaze, as if looking at a slightly plumper ant, still warned.

Lv Taibai's actions suddenly paused.

He realized, this is a trial indeed.

He no longer pressed on.

Staring intently.

Then...

Pressed his lips together.

The Dao Essence power of the Prison Lotus spreading, Li Che now, only had his head remaining, his body already turned to charcoal, vitality obliterated.

Below.

The deeply asleep Xi Xi suddenly frowned, a look of panic on her face.

Perhaps having a nightmare, her mouth pouted, her brows furrowed.

At the corner of her tightly shut eyes, a crystalline tear was brewing.

Li Che, seeing Xi Xi's uncomfortable look, shifted his head slightly, his eyes softening.

"Don't worry, daddy is here, darling sleep in peace, when you wake up... we will go home."

Li Che's voice gentle.

His calmness unbroken, even if his whole body had turned to charcoal, it seemed as if the excruciating pain piercing his soul didn't affect him at all.

Xi Xi's brows relaxed, she changed her sleeping posture, her soul at peace, even a smile on her lips.

Li Che's lips also subconsciously lifted into a smile.

The tear at the corner of the sleeping Xi Xi's eye finally broke, leaving a trail of tears.

With a soft sound, it fell on the White Jade Staircase.

Rippling like a ripple.

Lv Taibai, watching, fell into complete silence, his lips trembling slightly, deeply moved.

He now understood what this trial was.

If it were him, he wouldn't be able to do it.

He was Xi Xi's master, but he couldn't reach the point of sacrificing his life...

Yet for Li Che, as a father...

Could he do this?

Lv Taibai couldn't help but think of his own father, who had thrown him off a cliff at birth...

By comparison.

Li Che, as a father, was simply like a myth.

"Give up, as long as you think about letting go of the Prison Lotus, you can live, otherwise, you'll completely perish, your soul burned to nothing by the Prison Lotus. Is it necessary to do this for a child?"

The Third Crown Prince couldn't help but speak, even a bit envious.

However...

The response he got.

Was just one word.

"Scram."

After Li Che uttered this word.

His whole head, only the remaining lips and teeth...

Took one last breath.

And also turned to charcoal.

[Requesting Monthly Ticket]

Boom boom boom—!!!

Inside the entire Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven, there was a deathly silence, only the sound of flames roaring echoed.

Neither Lv Taibai nor the Third Prince Temple God, with arms folded and eyes dazed, made any sound.

Only Xi Xi's steady breathing rose and fell.

Lv Taibai's gaze was complex as he looked at Li Che, who had turned into charred remains, with the breath of life completely vanished.

Could it be...

Truly dead?

Died for his daughter?

Lv Taibai had seen everything, his eyes slightly fluctuated, but at this moment, he didn't entirely believe Li Che was dead.

Moreover, his Divine Fetus Great God's intuition told him Li Che wasn't dead.

Because he couldn't understand.

The trial set by the Third Prince Temple God, Li Che's heart was firm and his will unwavering, meaning that in this trial, Li Che was actually successful.

Since the trial was successful, why would he die?

Lv Taibai also realized that the appearance of the Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven was actually a Dao essence prematurely left within Xi Xi's body.

It was related to the divine method of [Eight-Armed Three-Faced Hell Lotus Unbeaten] that Xi Xi was cultivating; when Xi Xi reached the Divine Form Realm, she triggered this extremely subtle Dao essence.

This Dao essence, even he hadn't detected.

No, Lv Taibai squinted his eyes, thinking that perhaps this Dao essence... might be hidden in the Divine Weapon!

Purple Flame Serpentine Spear?

Gold Brick?

Or Prison Lotus Wind Fire Golden Light Wheel?

Xi Xi had a Wind Fire Golden Light Wheel, which she obtained from the Strange Que within the Eight-Armed Prison Lotus Furious Third Prince's Sinister Temple, so it was possible it contained a trace of Dao essence.

Even...

Lv Taibai looked at the Third Prince Temple God, perhaps the Third Prince Temple God had already resurrected, this trace of God's Intent was thus hidden in Xi Xi's body along with the Divine Weapon...

Lv Taibai gazed at the Third Prince, only to see the Third Prince with arms folded, head raised, looking at the roiling Prison Lotus Fire in the heavenly dome, a trace of melancholy appearing briefly in his eyes.

However, soon enough, the melancholy disappeared.

"Don't worry, this father... won't die."

"A father who truly loves and protects his daughter, how can he die?"

As if aware of Lv Taibai's gaze, the Third Prince said casually.

"What exists now is just a trace of the divine will. If you use that sword, you can destroy it, but there's no need..."

"The divine will didn't come for rebirth..."

"It came to save this little girl."

"This little girl... before cultivating the method [Eight-Armed Three-Faced Hell Lotus Unbeaten], she cultivated another divine method, called [Extreme Sorrow Wind and Fire Three Princes]."

The Third Prince said, arms folded.

Not sure if it was said for Lv Taibai to hear or for Li Che, who had turned into charred remains.

Upon hearing this, Lv Taibai's eyes slightly narrowed.

As Xi Xi's master, he had naturally investigated this matter.

But after Xi Xi switched to cultivating the Three Purities Divinity Method, it had completely covered this divine method.

"The problem didn't arise from this divine method, but rather... from the place or existence that imparted this divine method to Xi Xi."

The Third Prince smiled.

"This Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven... appeared too early."

The Third Prince floated onto the White Jade Staircase, sat down carelessly, spread his arms behind to support, seemingly in a lazy manner, legs spread.

Lv Taibai couldn't help but focus his gaze.

It truly was...

The information was overwhelming!

What does it mean the Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven appeared too early?

The Third Prince, tied up with his hair in a high bun, dressed in a black undershirt, had a somewhat mischievous appearance.

He still looked like a child, his legs swinging up and down.

The Third Prince looked at Xi Xi.

There was a hint of envy in his eyes.

"This little girl... she cultivates [Eight-Armed Three-Faced Hell Lotus Unbeaten], she must transform into the Prison Lotus Body, indeed, when condensing the Divine Fetus, this Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven would appear."

"The divine will was also set in this way, this trace of divine will should awaken at that time..."

"However, the Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven appeared prematurely, was prematurely triggered."

"The little girl was only just attempting to channel the divine form into her inner scene at the energy center, but it appeared early..."

"With the little girl's current physical body, during the process of channeling such a divine form into her body, her physical body would definitely explode; if it's not the Prison Lotus Body, it can't bear such a divine form..."

The Third Prince's words fell.

Lv Taibai couldn't help but exhale.

So that's how it is...

No wonder Xi Xi started pulling the divine form into the inner scene and anomalies occurred.

But, who was it that prematurely made the Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven appear?

And for what reason?

What was the purpose?

Connecting the previous words of the Third Prince, Lv Taibai... vaguely seemed to have guessed some.

"When she accepted the divine inheritance, this moment was already destined to come."

"However, when the little girl reaches the Divine Fetus Realm, she is able to compensate through the martial path... So, the divine will was set to trigger the Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven when the little girl was in the Divine Fetus Realm, unfortunately, it was premature..."

"Therefore, unless the little girl obtains the Prison Lotus Dao essence to merge into her divine form, substituting the extraction of bones and flesh, there is no other path, otherwise... she is left with being destroyed by the power of Prison Lotus Dao essence, bursting her body apart to die."

The Third Prince crossed his legs, wearing only a black undershirt, upon which a bloody lotus was printed.

He tilted his head, hands behind his head.

Lying on the White Jade Staircase, gazing at the roiling Prison Lotus Fire above the Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven.

As if watching clouds flow by, the ebb and flow of clouds.

There was a sense of relaxed release of everything.

Chapter 1095: Qi Gate Fully Open – You Dare to Be a Father, Killing Your Son in a Scheme [Request for Monthly Ticket]_2

"So there really are parents in this world willing to sacrifice for their children, rather than using external forces to suppress them..."

“Quite an eye-opener.”

“A little envious.”

The Third Crown Prince felt like he was missing a blade of grass from his mouth.

If he had a blade of grass in his mouth, watching the clouds roll by in the sky, and envying other people’s parents, it would be so pleasant.

“That person prematurely activated the Prison Lotus Dao Essence in the little girl’s body, this is... directed towards the consciousness.”

“To completely kill off this thread of conscious will.”

“Only I can control the power of the Prison Lotus.”

“Because.”

“I... am a Prison Lotus!”

...

...

Crack, crack, crack—

The charcoal began to fall off, rustling as dark charcoal scattered down, moving with the wind stirred by the Prison Lotus Fire.

Then large chunks of charcoal slid off Li Che's face, covered over with [Equal to Heaven's Face], dropping to the ground with a loud thud, shattering into pieces.

The sound in the silent space was incredibly loud, like thunder!

Lv Taibai's gaze suddenly turned, looking towards Li Che's direction, and he saw the charcoal falling off Li Che's face.

Revealing the normal, fair skin underneath.

As one piece of charcoal fell, it was like an avalanche, completely unstoppable, other fragments of charcoal successively slid off, collapsing and shattering.

Lv Taibai breathed a sigh of relief.

Although his intuition told him that Li Che was not dead and wouldn't die.

But actually seeing Li Che recover from beneath the charcoal, he couldn't help but feel a sense of relief.

Li Che still maintained the posture of holding up the black glazed Prison Lotus, the Dao Yun of the Prison Lotus retracted, not entering the Inner Scene of Xi Xi's Energy Center.

However, the diffused Prison Lotus Dao Yun no longer harmed Li Che's body.

"Eh?"

The Third Crown Prince's lazy posture changed, he suddenly sat up, a glint of strange color in his eyes.

His lips curled into a smile.

“Done fighting so quickly?”

But a look of doubt also appeared in his eyes.

If done fighting... why hasn't he awakened?

The Third Crown Prince looked towards Lv Taibai and shrugged.

“If he doesn't awaken, it has nothing to do with the trial of the consciousness.”

“The consciousness uses this rare thread of clear will, even... possibly the only clear will it has to save this little girl.”

“Setting a trial, is there a problem?”

Lv Taibai also understood the meaning behind the Third Crown Prince's words.

His eyes showed some complexity, and his emotions slightly fluctuated.

He couldn't help but think back to when he went to the Golden Light Prefecture, intending to reclaim the incomplete Mysterious Temple on Golden Light Peak, but failed.

It was just a Six Divisions Strange Temple, yet he failed to reclaim it.

Back then, he couldn't find a reason or explanation, but now...

He seemed to understand.

“The Temple God... has two kinds of will, huh?”

The Third Crown Prince glanced at Lv Taibai, perhaps it was because this master, daring to risk everything for his apprentice, rushing into the Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven, reminded him of his own master.

The way he looked at the fat ant became much gentler, turning into a gaze that saw the fat, yet cute ant.

“The will born from death, and a trace of will from life that remains.”

The soft words came from the Third Crown Prince’s mouth.

“The will born from death can be manipulated by some kind of power...”

“You may not have a way to distinguish which will is born from death, and which will... remains from life.”

“Because... they... can’t tell either.”

“They can’t tell anymore...”

The Third Crown Prince’s voice had a hint of melancholy.

Boom—!!!

Lv Taibai opened his mouth.

He wanted to ask something.

But he inevitably looked in Li Che’s direction.

Because...

Seated in a meditative posture with closed eyes, seemingly completely silent like a living corpse, Li Che slowly opened his eyes.

...

...

Li Che felt the [Dream Master's] Dao Fruit in his chest pounding intensely.

However, he couldn't bother with that right now.

When he completely turned into charcoal, his heart remained only calm.

When he saw his daughter calming down under his comfort, he felt a sense of relief.

Perhaps, this was his last time comforting his daughter as a father.

Scenes passed before his eyes like a slideshow.

He saw himself in the icy snow, carrying a frozen fish back to a shabby little house in Fei Lei City, nervously holding the freshly born, rosy little girl.

At that time, the connection of bloodlines felt like a bolt of lightning, intertwining and striking through his body, giving him an inexplicable sense of emotion and responsibility.

Then, witnessing his daughter grow up bit by bit under his protection, safe and sound.

Li Che's heart was filled with happiness, joy, and a sense of accomplishment.

One year old, two years old, three years old...

Until she turned six now.

Unconsciously, the little girl was already six years old.

Li Che's lips unconsciously curved into a smile.

Seeing the solid, healthy six-year-old, Li Che couldn't help but feel proud and accomplished.

My daughter, I've raised her so well!

Growing up safe and sound, healthy, plump, and full of energy.

Raising such a cute little darling.

How could any parent not be proud?

Just as Li Che was immersed in the slideshow of images before him.

The scene suddenly changed.

What appeared before him...

Was a golden Divine Temple!

Hmm?!

Li Che was slightly taken aback, this temple...

It seemed familiar!

Memories from either a long time ago or recently flooded his mind.

The Strange Temple emitting thousands of golden rays stood amidst a vast world.

Chapter 1096: Qi Gate Fully Open – You Dare to Be a Father, Killing Your Son in a Scheme [Request for Monthly Ticket]_3

Li Che couldn't help but recall the time when he brought his daughter Xi Xi to Golden Light Prefecture City to participate in the Qian Yuan Divine Sect branch disciple examination.

Xi Xi was accepted as the Sect Master's true successor by Nan Lihuo, thus obtaining the opportunity to enter the Golden Heavenly King Divine Temple atop the branch's Golden Light Peak to select her fate.

At that time, the chance was too great for his daughter to handle, and Li Che secretly benefited a little from it.

“The Seven Treasures Relic Ruyi Golden Tower!”

Li Che squinted his eyes, a little puzzled at heart.

Why...

would he see this Seven Treasures Relic Ruyi Golden Tower?

“In my current state... the Dream Heavenly Master Dao Fruit is thumping, as if absorbing some kind of energy.”

“Maybe I’m currently in some kind of dream state?”

“The Third Crown Prince’s trial, I managed to hold off the Hell Lotus from entering Xi Xi’s forehead, turning to charcoal, could it be... merely a big dream?”

Li Che’s eyes flickered; it seemed as if he had vaguely grasped something in his heart.

The Third Crown Prince said that the Dharma Xi Xi had been cultivating, the divine appearance it carved, given Xi Xi’s current physical realm, could not be borne at all; it was a mismatch of the physical body.

Thus, it attracted the power of the Hell Lotus Dao Yun, and if it couldn’t bear the Hell Lotus Dao Yun, Xi Xi’s physical body would explode and shatter, reducing to a state like being flayed alive, even if finally reshaped by the Dao Yun, her soul would be impacted, no longer being his daughter, Li Che.

Li Che’s heart trembled slightly; he couldn’t help but remember that time when he first obtained the [Dream Heavenly Master] Dao Fruit, stepping into the dream of a restaurant owner, where he saw the grown-up Xi Xi...

The same cool indifference, devoid of emotions, akin to a burning fire lotus.

Li Che let out a breath.

His eyes settled on the large doors of the Golden Divine Palace.

“Back then, in this Golden Divine Palace, Xi Xi obtained the [Purple Flame Serpentine Spear], and also acquired a divine method [Extreme Sorrow Wind and Fire Three Princes]...”

“At that time, I still wondered why the [Purple Flame Serpentine Spear], such a Four Royal Divine Weapon, would appear in the [Seven Treasures Relic Ruyi Heavenly King Tower]...”

Li Che felt like he might have understood something.

His expression turned slightly solemn.

He stepped forward and pushed the door of the Golden Celestial Tower open abruptly.

With a roar—

The door suddenly swung open.

Before his eyes, he saw Xi Xi enveloped by a group of golden light.

At this time, Xi Xi was still very tender, small and floating in mid-air, wearing an expression of enjoyment and carefreeness.

At her age, she seemed to have no worries.

So cute that one would want to pinch her chubby little cheeks relentlessly.

Li Che's eyes softened.

Then, his gaze lifted to the huge golden divine sculpture that almost reached the ceiling of the Golden Palace before him!

The statue was unparalleled, wearing golden armor, each piece like a gold leaf, donned with a cloud fan helmet, showing a wrathful expression, holding a halberd in its left hand and a tower in its right, the tower was golden in color, had seven layers, with numerous Buddha statues carved above, possessing dignified treasures, radiant treasure lights, and Buddha lights illuminating all!

Li Che stared at the divine statue, finally locking his sights on the seven-layered pagoda above.

This pagoda...

is the Temple God!

The Seven Treasures Relic Ruyi Tower!

It was exuding boundless Buddha light, and faintly, it seemed as if the Buddha statues carved above the pagoda came to life, walking out from the pagoda in golden Buddha light, standing still unceasingly.

Buddha light illuminated all.

But from within these Buddha lights...

Li Che didn't feel any warmth.

He slowly closed his eyes, as if the Heaven and Earth chessboard emerged from within his brow.

The Flying Thunder chess piece left on Xi Xi faintly transmitted the outside scene to Li Che.

Even though he was currently in some kind of dream state, the dialogue between Lv Taibai and the Third Crown Prince was heard clearly by him.

"So that's how it is..."

Li Che slowly let out a breath.

Turns out...

the real culprit was here.

Why the Hell Lotus Dao Yun was prematurely triggered...

It turns out... it was here!

Li Che suddenly opened his eyes!

This was a plot against the Temple God of [Eight-Armed Prison Lotus Furious Third Prince]!

This was a plot among the Temple Gods!

The Heavenly King Tower atop Golden Light Peak had always existed, waiting for someone destined to bear the [Purple Flame Serpentine Spear], it turns out...

Everything was for this moment!

To extinguish the rare awakened conscious will of the Third Prince Temple God!

Xi Xi having obtained the Purple Flame Serpentine Spear became a part of the plot, or rather, a very crucial part!

Having obtained the Purple Flame Serpentine Spear, the power stimulating the Hell Lotus Dao Yun was hidden within it.

Such a high-level power as Dao Yun, even Li Che would not be able to detect it.

And when Xi Xi was breaking through the divine aspect... this power got triggered, inciting the Hell Lotus Dao Yun, pushing Xi Xi to the brink of life-and-death decisions, and evoking the awakened conscious will of the Third Prince.

Li Che clenched his five fingers, his forehead covered with veins.

If Xi Xi were to accept the Hell Lotus Dao Yun, her physical body would be obliterated, and the awakened will of the Third Prince would resink into slumber, possibly even be usurped by the dead Temple God's will.

And if Xi Xi chose not to accept, and the Third Prince were to aid Xi Xi...

The awakened Temple God's will, wielding the power of the Hell Lotus, would guide Xi Xi through the divine aspect...

In the end, this will would exhaust the power of the Hell Lotus and completely obliterate.

"So ruthless..."

"Do you even deserve... to be a father?"

Li Che suddenly understood why the Third Prince's obsession was so deep.

The Third Prince Temple God already knew during the Temple God Resonance trial that Li Che's love for Xi Xi, so the trial he set had already had its answer long ago.

Chapter 1097: Qi Gate Fully Opened - You Also Deserve to Be a Father, A Scheme to Kill His Son
[Requesting Monthly Ticket]_4

He only wanted to witness a fatherly love he could never attain.

Li Che didn't know if the Third Crown Prince of this world was the same as the Third Crown Prince from the myths of his past life.

But no matter what, what he saw and experienced...

Made him suddenly feel a pang of sympathy and pity for this child.

And the Third Crown Prince had already made his choice, not choosing the first option to let Xi Xi's physical body be destroyed and remolded with the help of the Prison Lotus Dao Essence with his soul imprinted by it.

Instead, he chose the second option.

He chose...

To kill himself.

Li Che pressed his lips together.

He thought of the shout "Get out..."

And couldn't help but feel a sense of "I truly deserve to die" in his heart.

"No..."

Li Che immediately denied himself.

Ignorance is not a sin.

The ones who truly deserve to die... are this Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower and the Golden Heavenly King before him.

Li Che suddenly understood.

Why he appeared here within the dreamscape created by the Third Prince Temple God.

But how could the Third Crown Prince create this dreamscape?

Is this truly a dream?

But...

It doesn't matter anymore.

Li Che frowned slightly.

He took a step and instantly appeared beside Xi Xi.

Extending his five fingers, he fiercely gripped towards the Golden Light Group...

Bang—!!!

The Golden Light Group was instantly crushed into fragments by him!

And the Statue of the Golden Heavenly King, holding the Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Tower, slowly opened its eyes.

The many pagodas floating around reflected various postures amidst the Buddha Light, also casting glances.

All eyes were on Li Che.

...

...

Golden Light Prefecture.

Snowflakes flew, countless white frosty air circling like smoky ribbons among the many peaks, resembling a massive ink wash landscape painting.

Golden Light Peak, Golden Temple.

Nan Lihuo sat cross-legged in the temple, seated on a meditation cushion.

His eyes closed, his full head of white hair flying.

Boom—

Sudiaunddenly.

Nan Lihuo's skin twitched, abruptly opening his eyes, his pupils showing a hint of surprise, looking towards the quietly placed [Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower] on the altar.

This Golden Temple was transformed from a Mysterious Temple, and Strange Que condensed into the Godly Que.

The Godly Que usually couldn't be opened without the active trigger by Nan Lihuo.

This, although a residual Mysterious Temple, truly belonged to a Divine Sect Branch that could be controlled.

But today...

Nan Lihuo felt an intense chill.

That was a bone-chilling coldness.

As if incessantly exuded from that tower statue, boundless and immense divinity surged forth like a tidal wave.

Nan Lihuo suddenly stood up from his cushion.

His cloth shoes rubbed against the ground as he was pounded by an invisible force, ultimately slamming into the temple doors.

Be it known that Nan Lihuo had successfully entered the Realm of Divine Origin.

As a Divine Primordial expert, he was actually pushed to the doorway by divinity.

What... is the situation?

Boom boom boom—

And the immense divinity suddenly spread from Golden Light Peak, rippling circularly and sweeping in all directions of Golden Light Prefecture.

Even the Nine Dragons River, which never froze with a thick layer of ice in winter, abruptly exploded as the river roared wildly!

Towering waves continued to rise, as if gods in extreme fury!

Within the temple.

Nan Lihuo felt as if his Shen Yuan Golden Elixir was completely grasped and suppressed.

Impossible to activate, it was terrifying rank oppression!

Unresistable, unquestionable rank oppression.

Then...

He saw that on the Heavenly King Tower burst forth immeasurable Buddha Light.

The statues of Buddha on each pagoda's divine sculpture seemed to come alive, chanting, almost causing Nan Lihuo's mind to explode with sutras!

And the Godly Que entrance that hadn't been activated by Nan Lihuo...

Unexpectedly manifested outright!

The Godly Que entrance continued to expand, eventually seeming to engulf the entire Golden Light Peak.

Nan Lihuo was perplexed.

"This... is...?"

"A Strange Que riot?!?"

...

...

"Turns out it's not over yet..."

Within the Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven.

The Prison Lotus Fire rolled tumultuously in mid-air like a jiaoshe, extremely fiery, burning and distorting the void.

The Third Crown Prince glanced at Li Che, whose eyes slowly opened, and in those eyes, as if the scene was reflected, knowing that Li Che should also have understood his situation.

This is...

Giving him feedback!

The Third Crown Prince smiled, yet he did not watch the scene through Li Che's eyes, those eyes resembling a chessboard with black and white lines crisscrossing.

He didn't want to see.

He stretched lazily.

He brushed off non-existent dust from his body, as if, many years ago, when no one cared for him, he did the same.

Back then, he loved holding a blade of grass in his mouth as he walked across the lawn, even though there was always a butterfly following him. Every time he drove it away impatiently, it never left, but it didn't affect his carefree mood.

His body was scorching, so he liked to play in places with water.

He enjoyed holding a blade of grass in his mouth and jumping into the river, calming the fiery heat within him.

But later, when he was playing in the water, a dragon appeared, looking at him and saying it would gain great fortune by consuming his True Dragon Bone.

He had no choice but to kill the dragon in return, sprinkling some salt in the process.

Delicious.

And then...

It became unstoppable.

Those were memories of the dead attacking him; he didn't want to recall them.

The corner of his mouth curled up, pretending to hold a blade of grass.

He slowly approached Xi Xi.

The black glass-like Prison Lotus still floated above Li Che's palm.

He seemed to be holding a blade of grass.

Lazy, like Huang Mao.

He glanced at Xi Xi and laughed: "Little girl... you have a good father."

"Remember, in the future, help me give that useless father a beating."

The Third Crown Prince squinted his eyes, reached out his hand, and covered the black glass-like Prison Lotus.

Gently pressed down.

"Awakened will... cannot be kept."

"Monkey, True Monarch... sigh."

"Can only let this little girl see you."

"Tired, tired..."

"Release."

Boom!

The Prison Lotus trembled violently, as if boundless flames were spreading.

But this flame essence was completely siphoned by the awakened will of the Third Crown Prince.

Then, the Third Prince Temple God was like a paper figure...

Like cigarette paper ignited by the boss.

Burning little by little amidst the golden sparks.

When the Prison Lotus was completely pressed into Xi Xi's brow...

The Third Prince Temple God also drew the unbeatable divine image of Eight-Armed Three-Faced Hell Lotus carved by Xi Xi into her brow.

After finishing this...

The Third Prince Temple God had completely turned into sparks.

Between heaven and earth, countless ashes and sparks seemed to be blown by the wind.

Turned into a swaying black lotus, beside it, segments of black lotus roots resembled human figures.

When the ashes were blown by the wind.

Completely disappeared from between heaven and earth.

Lv Taibai watched blankly from afar.

After a long time.

Sighed deeply.

Made a fist and bowed.

...

...

After Li Che crushed the golden light group.

The Seven Treasures Relic Ruyi Heavenly King Tower seemed to be stimulated into awakening.

The Golden Heavenly King also angrily lowered his gaze.

Boom—!!!

In the Golden Palace, countless golden divinity showered down.

The golden light group became more and more intense, even containing countless sounds of Buddha's chants.

"Western Regions Buddha Land? Evil Buddha?"

Li Che felt it illuminating all directions, but without temperature, giving a chill that made one's hair stand on end.

But at this moment, Li Che slightly closed his eyes.

The Golden Heavenly King glared, his hundred-zhang-tall body seemed to reach the top of the palace, massive like a mountain, taking a step forward!

Boom—!!!

The terrifying divinity showered down like a waterfall, exploding!

"Rascal..."

And the always closing-eyed Li Che suddenly opened his eyes.

Buzz boom—

His physical body suddenly exploded with a circle, countless Qiu Long-like muscles piling up, the inverted triangle back muscles trembling, each tendon bouncing, the whole body starting to expand dramatically!

Black and strong hair draped down to the waist.

His eyes flowed with golden smoke, coldly staring at the ten-thousand-zhang Golden Heavenly King.

His spine behind violently bounced, five Divine Seed Qimen mountain intent suddenly transformed into qi-blood vortices and exploded!

Like five turbine impacts!

Wrapping his body, like a god demon, soaring skywards!

Like the thunderous anger striking the sky.

Rolling echoes!

"I!"

"Inferior!"

"You!"

"Maa!!!!"

Chapter 1098: You saved my daughter, I vent your anger; seek the immortality method and quietly watch your longevity

The sound was like thunder, exploding within the Golden Palace!

The howling wind raged, chaotic currents surged, and countless golden rays of light cascade down like waves of Buddha light!

Bringing with them a terrifying oppressive force from the tier level!

However, Li Che, wearing the Equalling Heaven's Face, was now in an extreme state of fury.

In fact.

This Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower on the Golden Light Peak was nothing more than a remnant temple, its rank merely at the upper level of the Six Bureaus, much lower than the Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower of the Five Elders Upper Rank within the authentic Qian Yuan Divine Sect's Mountain Gate.

With Li Che having now stepped onto the martial cultivation level of a Martial Saint, facing a Temple God of the Six Divisions' rank was akin to a Martial Saint confronting a Grandmaster.

Even if the Temple God claimed invincibility at the same tier, there was not much pressure at all.

Moreover, with fury churning in Li Che's heart, in the midst of his wrath, he unleashed not just the simple first-level Human Core Martial Saint cultivation.

Instead, he directly detonated the five Qimen Divine Seeds on his spinal Qi Gate!

The five Qimen Divine Seeds revolved rapidly like five vortices of qi and blood, bursting with terrifying impact like turbos!

Li Che's skin and flesh abruptly swelled!

Golden light flowed in his eyes!

Ascending Stance!

Even without borrowing the divine force of the Temple God, at this moment, Li Che's combat power rose to a level comparable to the second-tier peak!

Full firepower unleashed!

In the process of surging skywards, Li Che's entire body flickered with intertwining thunder, countless thunder arcs burst forth, forming thunder magnetism armor on his body!

Plus, with the blood and qi behind him swirling like rosy clouds, he resembled a deity clad in thunder armor.

Even if the Temple God's force of the Golden Heavenly King, carrying the pagoda, pressed down fiercely, seemingly plunging the world into darkness.

Li Che was still utterly fearless, like a razor-sharp steel knife, forcibly tearing through the oppressive force of the Temple God's rank!

Boom——!!!

A gigantic golden hand suddenly slapped down from high above.

That gigantic hand, almost reaching the top of the Divine Palace, was the hand of the Heavenly King Statue, incomparably colossal compared to Li Che, lifelike, with palm lines seemingly visible in detail!

Countless golden streams of light, resembling rushing rivers, roiled ceaselessly, making the descending hand seem to grow even larger in-between!

At the center of the palm, a strong burst of light and heat exploded!

Golden smoke flowed in Li Che's eyes, and after the explosion of the five Qimen Divine Seeds, his speed became even faster. Clenching his five fingers, the raised muscles on his back trembled continuously, and his blood surged powerfully like mercury, with the Human Pill within vibrating violently, releasing vast Martial Saint Yuan Gang!

It exploded suddenly, intertwining countless flowing lights!

As if, simultaneously, hundreds of giant bows released their taut bowstrings, vibrating and bursting!

Roar——!!

Li Che fully stimulated the [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit!

Instantly!

Nearly substantial dragon elephant illusions materialized within the Golden Divine Temple, almost filling it completely!

Myriad Transformations Dragon Elephant!

With a sweeping punch, divine dragon and giant elephant manifested, merging in form!

The divine dragon coiled around the elephant's body, suddenly swinging its nose, raising gigantic hooves like pillars of heaven, crashing down fiercely!

Dong——!!!

The majestic Martial Saint Yuan Gang, combined with the terrifying power gained from detonating the five Qimen Divine Seeds breaking the human shackles nearly five times in succession, was catastrophic!

Almost transforming into the mythical advent of the Dragon Elephant!

Roaring, bellowing, colliding, slaughtering!

Ravaging across the barbaric land!

The omnipresent air currents in front shattered violently like massive stones tossed into a lake, blasting up thousands of waves, with irresolvable rippling vibrations!

Boom——!!!

A terrifying collision exploded in mid-air within the Divine Temple!

Magnificent golden light exploded instantaneously, then shattered apart, as Li Che, fully entwined in lightning, had qi and blood surging like tides, piercing through the descending palm of the Golden Heavenly King with unmatched posture!

Li Che leapt onto the gigantic hand of the Golden Heavenly King Divine Sculpture, muscles taut all over, his skin, muscles, and bones operating like a frighteningly fearsome machine!

With a heavy stomp, the huge hand of the Heavenly King, punched through with a massive hole, collapsed directly upon impact, revealing countless fine cracks.

Along with a roaring sound!

The entire Heavenly King's hand shattered into pieces!

"Impudent——!!!"

The Golden Heavenly King glared angrily, his helmed face showing rage!

The other hand, holding the Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower, immediately radiated with Buddha light, transforming like a golden Jiao Long, spitting its tongue like a venomous serpent.

Countless golden Jiao Long whipped towards Li Che like silken ribbons, attempting to entangle and bind, restricting Li Che's movement!

Li Che spread his five fingers wide, swung fiercely, then clenched into a fist, compressing the air into an explosion.

Ten Thousand Dragons Subdue the Divine!

In an instant, the mighty Yuan Gang displaced oceanic waves, bursting endless ripples, with thousands of dragon shadows rising around Li Che, dragon chants piercing the sky!

Colliding with the golden Jiao Long descending from the Heavenly King Tower, blasting these golden Jiao Long into explosive fragments!

Countless golden fireworks splendidly burst in the sky.

If Xi Xi saw this moment, she would undoubtedly be delighted, as she loved watching fireworks and setting them off.

Li Che hovered in mid-air, intertwined with thunder, loftily soaring, the giant red cloak formed by the qi and blood rosy clouds streaming for miles behind him!

Chapter 1099: You saved my daughter, I vent your anger; seek the immortality method and quietly watch your longevity _2

The air currents within dozens of feet around him exploded in an instant!

Li Che ascended against the current, and even though he seemed insignificant at this moment, in terms of aura, he was in no way inferior to the Golden Heavenly King!

Countless sounds of Buddha chants resonated, and following that one Buddha figure after another, emanating from the Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower, transformed into streams of light, swiftly attacking Li Che.

Under the face of Equaling Heaven, Li Che's eyes were exceptionally fierce.

He lifted his hand, and his five fingers abruptly stretched open.

Instantly——

Black smoke-emitting Confining God Chess Pieces floated around him.

After appearing, the black chess pieces began to twist and expand wildly.

Then transformed into the figures of Confining Gods.

With a sword box on his back and a wine gourd covered with sword marks hanging at his waist, stood the Underworld Wine Sword Immortal, Yellow Sword Wine.

Wearing golden armor and holding an eight-foot snake spear sideways, with a cape flapping behind, and wearing a masked golden helmet, You Liqing's eyes emitted black smoke, exuding fierce energy.

The Dragon Queen Consort suddenly transformed into a Bone Armor Divine Dragon, her body winding, dragon claws sharp!

Besides them, there was also Su Leibao, the Qi Sea Martial Saint holding a golden slaying dragon blade, appearing in the void.

Long Tai, Green Bird, Xue Dufu, Shadow Guard True Person...

Even Su Daoling, whom Li Che regarded as a technical-type Confining God talent specifically for technology, appeared, with thunder talismans he recently studied, floating all around him.

"Lord!"

The instant numerous Confining Gods appeared, terrifying auras rampaged within the Golden Heavenly King Temple.

Yellow Sword Wine and You Liqing, having transformed into Confining Gods earlier, and having consumed Huang Tuo's Confining God, had now completed their refinement, this being the first time Li Che summoned them after their consumption of Huang Tuo's Confining God.

And they did not disappoint Li Che.

Their energy reached the Second Opening Martial Saint Level!

Xue Dufu, carrying his Azure Dragon Crescent Blade, stared with fierce eyes. Although he hadn't yet reached the Martial Saint Level by drinking broth, his aura was already extraordinary, reaching the Top Three Flowers Grandmaster Level!

He simply sought to perform well to ensure that his Lord would grant him more broth to drink afterwards.

Long Tai and Green Bird shared similar sentiments.

They never imagined that breakthrough in cultivation could be so simple.

It turned out that after death, the peak of life arrived!

Li Che didn't pay attention to the attitude of these Confining Gods behind him, facing numerous speeding Buddha figure phantoms.

Li Che gripped his five fingers, and the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod abruptly appeared in his hand.

With a sudden grip, an invisible airwave spread outward in circles!

"Fight to the death."

Whoosh.

The Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod swung violently.

Li Che's body instantly soared into the sky, with copper-colored, knotted muscular skin membranes erupting like a high-pressure cooker, releasing torrents of heat!

A ferocious Buddha came killing, Yellow Sword Wine's sword light swept, instantaneously suppressing the Buddha, resting his long sword atop the Buddha's head.

With a "smack," the Buddha was slammed harshly onto the floor of the Divine Palace!

The floor's blue bricks instantly sunk and collapsed, numerous cracks interweaving and spreading like a spiderweb, blooming instantly on the ground!

On another side.

You Liqing, fully armored, pointed out his eight-foot snake spear, and at that moment, the Demon Python Spear roared out fiercely, with a colossal golden massive python ruthlessly striking a Buddha phantom figure!

These Buddha phantoms merely possessed battle power at a Great Grandmaster level.

How could they withstand the opponent of You Liqing, who now reached the Qi Sea Martial Saint Level?

They were directly shattered to pieces!

Elsewhere, Su Leibao, Su Daoling, Long Tai, Xue Dufu, and others also made their moves, while Green Bird, the Divine Archer, bent his bow and shot arrows, piercing through each Buddha phantom!

Li Che, slanting the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod, performed the Lingxu Baqi Step, rising to the sky, ascending heaven with Eight Steps, gathering terrifying aura step by step!

Boldly ascending, as if rushing straight into the clouds!

In his eyes, fury was majestic.

Even though what he was experiencing might merely be a dream, so what?

The Third Crown Prince brought him into this dreamscape...

Wasn't it just to give him a good chance to hit the Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower?

Unfortunately, this was merely the remnant temple of the Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower.

There was another one inside the Qian Yuan Divine Sect, in addition... in the Divine Capital there was one more...

And the one in the Divine Capital had even reached the Four Imperial Ranks.

In simple terms, the only Heavenly King Tower that Li Che could strike for now was the one in the Golden Light Prefecture.

With the Confining Gods making a move, blocking the seven Buddha figures projected downward from the Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower, Li Che successfully appeared before the Golden Heavenly King, whose hand was severed and was supporting the Heavenly King Tower.

The Heavenly King was too massive, with Li Che floating in front of the Heavenly King's head, it was as if he was sitting in an elevator slowly ascending hundreds of meters in a skyscraper.

And as he continued to ascend.

The aura on Li Che's body continued to enhance!

Boom——

When the Lingxu Baqi Step reached its peak, he already leaped above the Golden Heavenly King.

The Golden Heavenly King glared angrily, yet could feel the immense power of Li Che.

The Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower in his hand glowed brightly, with countless buddha lights radiating widely, fiercely throwing out, pressing horizontally toward Li Che.

The pagoda whirled in midair, and the lower part of the pagoda presented a hollow stance, with a brilliant buddha light shining down from beneath the pagoda.

Like the waters of Tianhe, it enveloped Li Che's body, and a magnificent siphoning power exploded instantly!

It seemed as though it wanted to absorb Li Che into the pagoda!

Chapter 1100: You Save My Daughter, I'll Take Revenge for You, Seeking the Immortality Method to Watch Your Longevity _3

Then it was enveloped and refined by the Buddha Light!

Li Che clenched the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod with his five fingers, a slight flick, and countless stick shadows exploded mid-air, countless streams of energy cascaded, overwhelming like a deluge!

Facing the suction of the Treasure Pagoda, Li Che did not resist, allowing it to draw him in.

And during the process of being drawn in.

The Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit trembled, Divine Skills Second Heaven, Dragon Elephant Sky Gang!

Power... doubled, then doubled again!

Five divine seed vortices, like accelerating turbines, thunderously roared!

Boom—!

As if a group of thunders encircled his whole body, a rumbling sound tore through the cosmos!

Bloody Qi as scorching as molten jade poured forth, like a raging ocean overwhelming all, as if the earth cracked open, with scalding hot geysers blasting forth from deep within the earth's veins!

Dragon Elephant Sky Gang!

Divine power erupted!

Li Che's jet-black, muscular hair wildly danced, as he suddenly raised his head.

A single swipe of the rod!

Divinity Transformation True Martial!

Shattering Southern Heaven!

Boom!

Just one strike, as if shattering slow streams of air, shattering time and space, traversing across time and space, fiercely struck the Treasure Pagoda!

It was as if the ancient bell of an old temple in the world had been struck with utmost force!

Two divine weapons clashed violently together!

Crack crack——

The Buddha Light on the Treasure Pagoda was obliterated, the Divine Light began to dim, and countless tiny cracks slowly appeared on the Pagoda!

Finally.

The Heavenly King Statue towering hundreds of meters, and the Golden Celestial Tower.

Exploded violently!

Countless shattered debris plummeted down.

Like a pouring waterfall!

Clouds of dust roiling!

Rising up a thousand fathoms, ten thousand fathoms!

A figure covered in Thunder Armor, with a flowing red cloak cascading a thousand miles, hovered in the high sky.

Li Che held the divine rod slantwise, his eyes sparkled with golden thunder arcs.

He seemed to gaze into the distance.

"You saved my daughter, I returned the favor for you."

Li Che gracefully descended onto the Divine Palace floor.

Behind him, various postured soul-capturing figures, who had crushed the shadows of the Buddha statue, stood.

With King Yan at their head.

Li Che looked at the shattered relics of the deity statue scattered across the ground.

Slowly raised his hand...

"Pure Heart Divine Power..."

"Summoning Gods."

...

...

Nan Lihuo felt an extremely intense sense of suffocation.

Strange Que riot?!

No... how could this be?

This Golden Heavenly King Divine Temple has been a mysterious temple looted for so many years.

The Strange Que had already transformed into a Godly Que... becoming the treasure ground for nurturing sect true successors at the Golden Light Sub-sect, how could there be such an... entirely unfamiliar term as a Strange Que riot?

Nan Lihuo was blown by a powerful force to stick firmly to the doorway, his clothes fluttering, hair swept back.

He saw the Godly Que entrance expanding and expanding, finally enveloping him completely.

He only felt the world spinning, as if traversing between two realms, brought from the Divine Palace into the Godly Que.

Nan Lihuo naturally wasn't unfamiliar with the Godly Que, he had also obtained great benefits in the Godly Que before.

However...

Now, the inside of the Godly Que had completely changed in appearance.

The entire Golden Temple erupted with countless brilliant glows, shattering explosively, blasting into fragments.

Nan Lihuo almost felt his heart being clenched by an invisible force, nearly crushed to pieces!

He watched fixedly, as the temple's roof was lifted off, countless glazed golden tiles slid and shattered continuously.

Saw the Heavenly King Statue that emerged in wrath and the Heavenly King Tower inside the temple!

Buddha light shone universally, murderous intent rampaged!

However...

What left Nan Lihuo even more stunned was that familiar figure, entirely enveloped in Thunder Armor, holding the divine rod slantwise, as if both a god and devil...

"Underworld... Divine Monkey?!"

Nan Lihuo's hair stood on end!

Yes, this was definitely the Underworld Divine Monkey!

Back then in Golden Light Prefecture City, the Underworld's three most famous existences, one was the Bull Demon, one was Horse Face, and the other was the Underworld Divine Monkey!

After all, the Underworld Divine Monkey personally killed the Young Prince Ji Haihui's subordinate, the Great Grandmaster Xue Dufu, shocking countless powerful figures on the street?!

But...

The present Divine Monkey!

Such a force...

Nan Lihuo simply couldn't imagine how strong this aura was!

Immensely, incomprehensibly powerful, extremely terrifying!

Vast and mighty energy, filled the entire Godly Que.

Then, Nan Lihuo witnessed a scene he would never forget in his life.

That Golden Heavenly King Statue and the Heavenly King Tower it held up...

Were actually smashed to pieces with a single rod by the Divine Monkey...

Smashed to pieces?!

Boom boom boom boom——!!!

Nan Lihuo was instantly ejected from the Godly Que, and the Godly Que entrance completely sealed up, that Seven Treasures Relics Ruyi Heavenly King Tower Divine Sculpture on the altar of the Golden Temple, amidst the crackling sound.

The entire temple god statue...

Was abruptly shattered apart!

Blasting into pieces, leaving only endless debris scattering.

Whistling wind roared, turbulent currents surged, and finally, the air flow in the Divine Palace returned to calm.

Leaving only Nan Lihuo, who had clearly endured a tremendous shock.

Dazedly watching.

For a long while...

Nan Lihuo finally felt his extremely sore and bitter mouth corner.

"Something big... is about to happen!"

...

...

Prison Lotus Small Cave Heaven.

Li Che slowly opened his eyes.

The interwoven Heaven and Earth chessboard in his eyes disappeared.

His eyes became clear.

He slowly exhaled a breath, moved his body, and looked toward Xi Xi, where a Prison Lotus Divine Pattern on her brow flashed with a flowing light.

One could feel Xi Xi's aura rising rapidly, besides that, the surge of divine minister power, was frantically feeding back into Xi Xi's physical body, baptizing, transforming, and strengthening Xi Xi's physique.

Within the divine minister power, there contained a force of the Prison Lotus.

Li Che's eyes were deeply complex.

He raised his hand to gently smooth the strands of hair matted with sweat on the sleeping Xi Xi's scalp.
