Chapter 1201: Little Niu Demon Xi Xi Becomes a Great Grandmaster at Age 6, Li Half-Saint Enters the Game Alone with a Divine Fetus

Upon feeling the weakening of the firepower, a trace of excitement appeared at the corner of Gu Jiang's lips.

He sensed it...

The firepower is starting to weaken!

Li Nuanxi's mechanism reserves are insufficient!

A gleam appeared in Gu Jiang's eyes, and his body began to teleport, attempting to get closer to Xi Xi's vicinity!

As long as he gets close to Xi Xi, with the power of a Great Grandmaster and Elemental Appearance Cultivation!

He can easily crush Li Nuanxi!

The first Chulong of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect...

Too naive!

"Li Nuanxi!"

"It's over!"

Boom—!!!

At the moment when the artillery fire halted.

Gu Jiang stomped heavily, causing the white jade ground to tremble and shake vigorously, as if radiating cracks swiftly spreading!

Gu Jiang swung his cyan long spear, as if a dragon roaring, the blasting gale whistling wildly!

A hundred feet!

Ten feet!

Three feet!

There was a shiny excitement in Gu Jiang's eyes!

Boom—!!

When finally approaching within a few feet, he could even clearly see the panic blossoming on the chubby cute little girl's face.

Gu Jiang abruptly crushed the elixir in his mouth, his Qi-blood erupting like firecrackers, constantly rising amidst crackles!

Suddenly...

Gu Jiang noticed the panic in Xi Xi's eyes disappeared completely.

A trace of cunning flashed by.

Then, Gu Jiang saw a surge of tremendous Divinity emerging from Xi Xi's forehead!

Countless black flames leaped out, spreading wildly behind the little girl, forming a terrifying figure with Eight Arms and Three Faces!

Boom—!!!

The formidable Divine Hierarchy pressure fiercely descended, making Gu Jiang feel as if his body was sinking heavily.

The operation of the Primordial Spirit became sluggish.

He hastily mobilized the Qi-blood of a Master of Divine Gang to break through this hierarchy suppression and restore mobility.

But a streak of golden light shot forth!

Too fast, too fast!

That was—

A Gold Brick!

It slammed fiercely onto the back of Gu Jiang's head...

Gu Jiang's Grandmaster Physique was incredibly tough, so his skull was not smashed open, and the West Queen Mother Divinity was not triggered.

However, Gu Jiang was struck by the force unleashed from the God-beating Gold Brick, his entire brain buzzing, and his Primordial Spirit seemed like it was battered to bits.

That pain was like being pricked by a thousand needles.

Instantly contorted Gu Jiang's handsome face into a twisted grimace, with tears and snot pouring down!

"Ah—!!!"

Gu Jiang let out a painful howl.

Then he was faced with Xi Xi's pink Immortal Artisan Gatling up close.

"Feign weakness to mislead the enemy, strike back when they are off guard!"

"This is Master Niu Niu's way of battle!"

"I, Xi Xi, Little Niu Demon!"

Xi Xi grinned.

The blaze erupted magnificently.

An enormous mushroom cloud instantly exploded, with the terrifying firelight soaring into the sky, blooming into a slowly descending mushroom.

"Ah hahahaha——"

Xi Xi, stepping on the Wind Fire Golden Wheel, shouldering the pink Immortal Artisan Gatling, ran like walking on flat ground!

Meanwhile, Gu Jiang, after a series of miserable howls, fell silent, and the light of the West Queen Mother Divinity healed his injuries completely, then sent him out of the Divine Palace.

A hush fell over the entire Divine Palace's observation platform.

Gu Changqing's face was livid.

"The God-beating Gold Brick, and a Divine Minister of the Three Pure Ranks!"

"Directly broke through Gu Jiang's consciousness, fully tearing his vulnerabilities apart..."

"This little girl... such a cunning, despicable way of fighting!"

Gu Changqing said in a deep voice.

One can only say that his Heavenly Pill Divine Sect Chulong disciple does indeed have a high realm, but it was built up with elixirs, and when it comes to battle experience... this is something that cannot be taught with elixirs.

This little girl is only six years old...

How can she have such a cunning and despicable combat style?!

In the direction of Qian Yuan Divine Sect.

The children brought by Lv Taibai from the Divine Sect and Dao City to watch the battle, all erupted with cheers of excitement.

The screams shattered the silence on the observation platform!

Gu Changqing's face became even gloomier, he abruptly flicked his sleeve and left the observation platform.

After Xi Xi's victory, she descended proudly on the Wind Fire Wheel, arriving at the table, and began to savor the small feast only victors could taste.

Another Flat Peach, but this Flat Peach was luscious red, as if drenched in blood.

Xi Xi didn't mind, directly consuming all the blood-red Flat Peaches on the plate, finishing it off with a steaming cup of clear tea.

Then...

Xi Xi felt an uncontrollable surge in her Qi-blood, as if a streak of silver Divine Gang, like lightning, darting around her!

On the observation platform.

Many strong individuals immediately noticed Xi Xi's state.

All eyes focused intently.

"This little girl ate three 'Chi Long Blood Peaches', about to break through to Great Grandmaster!"

Knowing how difficult she was without breaking through to Great Grandmaster...

After the breakthrough...

How to fight then?

Lv Taibai suddenly laughed: “Xi Xi and Gu Jiang’s battle quality has far exceeded the usual pre-banquets, the West Queen Mother Temple God sensed it... thus upgraded the prepared gourmet food!”

“Unexpectedly, it’s Chi Long Blood Peach! These are the treats usually reserved for the main banquet!”

Lv Taibai’s divinity trembled.

Everyone withdrew from the observation platform, their consciousness returning to their bodies in the courtyard.

In the courtyard, divinity intertwined.

Xi Xi returned, grasping a Peach Branch soaked in five strands of West Queen Mother Divinity.

Her whole body turned extremely crimson, as if fished out from blood!

Lv Taibai instantly appeared beside her, a wisp of sword Qi coiling around his fingers, pointing into Xi Xi’s brow to stabilize her surging Qi-blood.

Starting to guide her to refine Qi-blood, comprehend the Martial Dao Will, and charge towards Master of Divine Gang!

A six-year-old Master of Divine Gang...

Even Lv Taibai couldn’t help but be amazed.

Under the eaves.

Watching Xi Xi enter the breakthrough state.

Li Che slowly stood up, with a harmless smile on his face.

“Since Xi Xi is going to break through to Great Grandmaster, let’s pause her pre-banquet for now.”

“Let me, as her father, continue the performance.”

Li Che pinched his two fingers together.

Tore open the air.

In the next moment, a Peach Branch wrapped with three strands of West Queen Mother Divinity fell into his hand.

Lv Taibai swept his gaze over, eyes slightly grave and worried.

He faintly felt...

He might have accidentally gotten involved.

This bet, seemed... aimed at Li Che, no, it should be said aimed at the Divine Monkey!

He knew Li Che’s Martial Cultivation was formidable...

The Divine Monkey’s strength probably reached the Second Level of Qi Sea Martial Saint.

But...

Li Che’s Divinity Cultivation had just broken through the Divine Fetus.

Without revealing Martial Cultivation...

Relying solely on Divinity...

Can he win?!

As Li Che pondered this.

Li Che gripped the Peach Branch with five fingers.

And his whole person disappeared, matched with an opponent, entering the Divine Palace.

Lv Taibai, in order to protect Xi Xi, did not go to watch the battle.

Amidst his thoughts, as he turned to guide Xi Xi in consolidating her Divine Gang.

His body suddenly trembled.

He spun around abruptly.

Only to see, Li Che's just-disappeared figure...

Had already returned.

About to match with the second opponent...

Lv Taibai was stunned.

How did he...

So fast?!

Chapter 1202: Invincible Law of Heaven and Earth Divine Fetus Crushes All, Defeating 6 Great Divine Sect Champions in 1 Day

The leaden clouds over the Divine Capital's sky seemed to disperse, revealing a hint of a clearer sky.

The winter sun shone gently, bringing a touch of warmth and comfort, slowly melting the thin layer of snow on the ground.

Li Che re-grasped the peach branch, and within the Inner Scene of the Energy Center at his brow Niwan, the majestic and incredibly powerful divine aura that hung down was gradually dissipating, flowing down like a column of condensed smoke.

He held a juicy flat peach in one hand, took a bite, and the juice splattered, spreading a rich peach fragrance.

Lv Taibai looked somewhat baffled at Li Che, who had just entered and now returned.

Not...

Did you go at all, how come you've returned?

However, he saw that the divine aura on the peach branch in Li Che's hand had increased from three strands to four, indicating that Li Che did indeed enter the West Queen Mother's Mysterious Temple for the feast.

And he defeated the person set up for him by the Six Great Divine Sects during the feast.

Fast!

So fast!

How long has it been, even with his top-level peak reflexes, it felt too fast.

Did the Six Great Divine Sects prepare a Grandmaster Warrior to deal with Li Che during this heroic pre-feast?

Li Che, having just broken through to the Divine Embryo Realm relying only on divine cultivation, could he really crush an opponent so easily?

Even if Grandmaster Huang Mei underestimated him, or there was a sense of probing, the first hero they dispatched was only a Great Grandmaster targeting the Three Flowers, but it couldn't have been this fast, could it?

Lv Taibai's heart revealed a curious expression.

Perhaps Li Che's speed was simply too fast, the other Sect Masters and heroes of the Six Great Divine Sects did not react in time.

They didn't dispatch any heroes from the sect to attend the banquet.

Thus, for a moment, Li Che was unable to find a match.

Lv Taibai's expression turned peculiar.

He didn't ask what exactly had happened to Li Che; those who used his golden peach branch to enter the Divine Palace for observation hadn't returned yet, or rather, their attached souls hadn't even warmed up.

"Sect Master, you continue."

Li Che smiled, sitting under the eaves, basking in the winter sun that broke through the leaden clouds, beginning to continue matching opponents.

Suddenly, Lv Taibai seemed to have realized something and smiled.

A heart, thoroughly relaxed.

He seems to have...

Slightly underestimated Elder Li of the sect.

Of course, how could a monster able to achieve the status of a Divine Sculpture Half-Saint in such a short time and breakthrough from nurturing nature to Divine Embryo Realm in six years, lack depth and methods?

Who said the Underworld Divine Monkey was only strong in martial arts?

Lv Taibai's heart began to itch, yearning to see how exactly Li Che defeated his opponent.

He glanced at Xi Xi, whose Qi-blood was accumulating, her face flushed, the whole person seemingly turning into a red-hearted dragon fruit. Lv Taibai moved his mind, flicked a finger, and sword qi rolled up, forming a sword ball, which hovered around Xi Xi, helping guide her martial dao will to gather.

Originally, the breakthrough from Grandmaster to Great Grandmaster mainly relied on Xi Xi herself, Lv Taibai only responsible for guidance, as an insurance, in case Xi Xi made a mistake during the breakthrough, he could promptly save her.

Mainly because Xi Xi is too young, at such a young age, even after experiencing martial arts opening of veins, bone tempering, blood exchange, and other foundational stages, once she impacts the Great Grandmaster realm, her physical body, meridians, and fundamental bones might not withstand the soaring Qi-blood and divine gang.

There might even be a physical body collapse, hence the need for vigilance.

However, Xi Xi is different from others, perhaps only the first Chulong of the Seven Treasures Divine Sect can match the divine weapon quantity hidden within Xi Xi's body.

But there's not much comparability.

Because what Xi Xi possesses has never been ordinary divine weapons, but true mythical weapons, moreover, it's a whole complete set of weapons!

Nurtured and feedbacked by the divine weapon's divinity, Xi Xi's physical body is far more resilient than that of a typical six-year-old.

Thus, impacting the Great Grandmaster realm poses little danger.

Lv Taibai is merely cautious.

Flicking the sword ball, the sword ball hovered around, sensing Xi Xi's condition. Should any imbalance in Xi Xi's Qi-blood arise, the sword ball would immediately seal Xi Xi's breakthrough process.

Subsequently, Lv Taibai glanced at Li Che sitting under the eaves, nibbling on the flat peach brought back from the pre-feast, his mind stirred, establishing a connection with the golden peach branch, entering the Divine Palace to observe the banquet return.

A stream of light appeared before Lv Taibai's eyes.

After watching, Lv Taibai fell silent.

Because...

It turned out to be so simple.

Li Che entered the Divine Palace arena, his opponent was likewise a cultivator in the Divine Embryo Realm, the same as Xi Xi's opponent, both from the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect, it seemed these Great Divine Sects had agreed upon it.

At the moment the battle erupted, within the arena of the Divine Palace, the hero from the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect and Li Che both had terrifying divine aura erupting from the brow Niwan.

Then...

It ended.

The divine aura pouring out from Li Che's Niwan Inner Scenery Space was terrifying, majestic, and vast. It surged like river torrents, transforming into a gigantic figure of terrifying deity-like presence. That figure bore a resemblance to Li Che himself, towering ten feet tall, formed entirely of divinity, presenting a semi-transparent golden state, enveloping Li Che within.

Chapter 1203: Invincible Divine Fetus of Law of Heaven and Earth Crushes All, Defeating 6 Great Divine Sect Champions in One Day

The heroic Divine Fetus of the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect couldn't even move under the divine hierarchy's pressure, yet that gigantic figure merely threw a fierce punch.

As if the heavens collapsed and the earth shattered, mountains and rivers reversed!

It annihilated the heroic figure of the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect!

Simple...

Brutal!

Direct!

No flowery divine secret techniques, just a straightforward punch blasting through!

"Is that... a divine secret technique?"

"The massive phantom seemed somewhat akin to an ape, could it be the summoning of the Temple God to assist, invoking the Temple God's image, borrowing divine strength to fight!"

"Li Che, in the Two Hearted Great Saint Mysterious Temple, depicted the semi-saint Divine Sculpture with perfect triple intent, making him the one who understands the Two Hearted Great Saint's state the best among the half-saint Divine Sculptures, so, is this Temple God's image... the Two Hearted Great Saint's Divine Minister?"

Lv Taibai's eyes couldn't help but shine.

As a Great God in the Divine Fetus realm, he naturally recognized the foundational theory of Li Che's divine secret technique at a glance.

"It resembles the Buddhist Vajra Dharma's divine secret technique but transforms the Vajra Dharma into the Temple God's image!"

"And combined with the divine intensity of the Three Pure Ranks, it greatly restricts Divine Fetus practitioners of the same realm..."

Lv Taibai couldn't help but laugh heartily.

Truly, Elder Li, straightforward and genuine, if one punch can solve it, he absolutely won't throw a second!

Six Great Divine Sects' Sect Masters...

This wager, perhaps the Qian Yuan Divine Sect just might win!

...

...

Little Spirit Sound Institute.

An atmosphere of tranquility.

The hero of the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect, also the top of the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect True Inheritor List, had just broken through to the Divine Fetus realm, and the direct disciple of Sect Master Gu Changqing, Liu Qing was utterly bewildered at this moment.

He collapsed on the ground, face ashen, his divinity shattered almost instantly.

Facing Li Che's Law of Heaven and Earth's divine secret technique, he felt as if confronting an ancient deity, as if a true Temple God was resurrected from the Netherworld, feeling powerless facing the undefeated of the same rank!

Despite being in the same Divine Embryo Realm of One God Transformation, his Divine Fetus even condensed a second Divine Organ.

However, it was futile. It was an overwhelming oppression, crushing him to the point he couldn't breathe.

A punch...

Utilizing divine power, condensing into a divine phantom different from the illusion of a god, a true condensation of divinity affecting reality, not illusionary but genuine, existing in real material form!

"I lost..."

Liu Qing murmured.

It took only one breath, and he was defeated.

How... can the gap be this vast?

Though Li Che is an elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect, he is only twenty-five years old this year...

The age limit stipulated by the Heroic Victory Conference is between fifteen and fifty years.

Liu Qing, at forty-eight this year, breaking through to the Divine Fetus...really considered quite young.

But Li Che is even younger!

Six years from Nurturing Nature to Divine Fetus, Liu Qing was deeply wary, knowing well he was the first to appear, to intercept Li Che's invitation to the conference, and actually, there wasn't any disdain or relaxation in his heart.

He was too aware of the horrors of a genius!

Hence, he almost exerted all his effort...

Yet Liu Qing would rather believe he hadn't gone all out, or he wouldn't have been shattered by Li Che with one punch, unable to even give himself the excuse of underestimating the enemy in just one breath's defeat.

Within the courtyard, silence reigned.

The Heavenly Pill Divine Sect's Sect Master Gu Changqing, withdrawing from the Divine Palace Observation Platform, wore a grim expression. As powerful as he was, a top-level peak, even he couldn't keep his emotions from fluctuating at this moment.

The first Chulong and the first True Successor of the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect were both eliminated!

The battle between Gu Jiang and Xi Xi was understandable, as Xi Xi used an insidious, cunning fighting style to trick and defeat him.

Gu Changqing could still accept that, but... Liu Qing, on whom he placed high hopes, personally cultivating, spending numerous divine and heavenly pills on...

Was defeated by Li Che in just one breath!

Gu Changqing couldn't help but doubt himself, if all these years of divine and heavenly pill investment were all fed to dogs!

However, Gu Changqing, being a sect leader, quickly adjusted himself, having the insight to understand, it wasn't his disciple being too useless, but this Li Elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect...

Was truly too monstrous!

"The divinity is vast, the rank extremely high, coupled with this divine secret technique similar to the Buddhist Vajra Dharma... indeed fearfully strong, even just entering the Divine Fetus realm, the combat power is certainly not to be underestimated."

Gu Changqing comforted his disciple.

Ultimately, it distilled into one sentence: "Primarily, our Heavenly Pill Divine Sect's disciples excel in alchemy, not combat."

Sitting in the luxurious Buddha's carriage under the eaves, Grandmaster Huang Mei's long eyebrows couldn't help but rise.

Glancing at the torn leaden clouds, the sunlight was exceptionally bright.

He squinted his eyes and said, "This young man... is indeed quite strong."

"After defeating the hero of the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect, he immediately entered matching mode again... it seems he has hardly any consumption."

"For the second banquet, among you benefactors, I wonder which sect intends to try this youngest elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect?"

Grandmaster Huang Mei's voice was low.

Indeed, Lv Taibai dared to accept his wager, still having some confidence and assurance.

In the current situation, it became somewhat risky for the Six Great Divine Sects instead.

After Li Nuanxi defeated Gu Jiang and devoured the Chi Long Blood Peach, it seemed like she began breaking through to the Grandmaster level. Once this girl completes her breakthrough, condensing Martial Dao Will, condensing Divine Gang, her shortcoming will be completely compensated.

Chapter 1204: Invincible Divine Fetus of Law of Heaven and Earth Crushes All, Defeating 6 Great Divine Sect Champions in One Day

The combination of Mechanical Techniques and Great Grandmaster-level cultivation, who among the dragon offspring of various sects can restrain her?

Huang Mei slightly closed his eyes, his heart sinking into contemplation.

"For the second feast, let the disciple go."

A clear voice came from a corner of the courtyard.

Huang Mei opened his eyes and looked over. Not only him but Gu Changqing, Ning Caisen, Gu Cheng, and other Divine Sect Masters also looked over.

The Seven Treasures Divine Sect Master Ning Caisen frowned involuntarily.

“Ning Cai?”

Ning Caisen did not expect the one to speak would be his genius granddaughter, Ning Cai.

“Sect Master, for the second feast, let me go... This person is really strong, very strong... The disciple wants to give it a try, the disciple has just mastered the Divine Weapon Introduction!”

Ning Cai had a rather comely appearance, her black hair fluttering, shimmering under the sunlight like glass.

She tilted her head upwards, her bright eyes shining, and at the center of her brows, the Divine Fetus was slightly vibrating.

“Just right, let this person refine my Divine Weapon Introduction a bit!”

Ning Cai smiled, her dimples blooming.

Ning Caisen sighed, he actually didn't want to be the one to stand out, but since his granddaughter spoke up, then give it a try, challenging a strong opponent is a good thing.

“The disciple might not necessarily lose.”

Ning Cai gave a playful smile.

Ning Caisen shook his head: “This Li Che's Divine Hierarchy is at the level of The Three Pure Ones, the pressure from his divinity alone is very strong... Additionally, the Divine Secret Technique he mastered is somewhat similar to the Buddhist Vajra Dharma image, able to attack and defend. To hurt him, you must first break through his Divine Dharma image.”

“The disciple has mastered the Divine Weapon Introduction...”

Ning Cai gently laughed, raising her five fingers, a peach branch suddenly appearing in her fair palm, she clenched it fiercely, the divinity intertwining, transmitted into the Divine Palace.

Ning Caisen sighed: “Everyone, let’s go watch this feast... Perhaps, the girl who mastered the Divine Weapon Introduction... still has a few chances to win.”

With those words, a golden peach branch floated out from his palm, sweeping gently, spreading divinity.

Everyone’s spirits attached to the Immortals.

...

...

In the Divine Palace.

Li Che, wearing a Mo Shan with golden lotus embroideries, billowed, being transmitted once more into this Divine Palace.

Somewhat different from Lv Taibai’s attaching gods carried by the golden peach branch.

After the feast, even the physical body appeared in this Divine Palace, which should be located within the West Queen Mother’s Mysterious Temple.

Li Che could feel an extremely powerful sense of oppression, even his Divine Fetus at The Three Pure Ranks was pounding, seeming subdued.

In front of him, the divinity fluctuated, and a graceful figure emerged.

Li Che knew that was his next opponent.

It's actually a woman?

"From the Seven Treasures Divine Sect, Ning Cai! Elder Li, nice to meet you!"

Ning Cai, with a somewhat solemn look on her comely face, clasped her fists and said.

The other party's polite opening led Li Che to reply with courtesy: "From the Qian Yuan Divine Sect, Li Che."

Ning Cai's long eyelashes slightly trembled, her watery eyes fixed on Li Che, observing this straightforward Divine Sculpture Half-Saint who returned from the Qianyuan Taoist City.

Around the observation platform, one Listed Immortal Divine Sculpture after another was being lit, indicating they were all here to watch the battle.

Moreover, this time the number of spectators was much greater than in the first feast, as if previously unaware viewers now swarmed in, wanting to see how Li Che managed to do it so quickly!

"Elder Li, please forgive me."

Ning Cai looked at Li Che, raising her hand to her brow, and the next moment, strands of divine essence were extracted.

Her whole body stepped down, leaping upwards, floating high in the air.

Her white hands continuously formed seal formulas in front of her, chanting, with divine fluctuations, then her hands suddenly waved and pushed forward!

Countless divine lights burst forth.

Li Che's jet-black, vigorous hair fluttered, and in his deep dark eyes, countless divine lights were inevitably reflected.

When the lights dissipated.

Li Che stared in amazement.

Suspended in mid-air were countless divine weapons!

The number of those divine weapons... it was indeed too many!

Dense, covering the sky, at least several hundred!

Moreover, the grade of divine weapons was uniformly Six Bureaus Upper!

Rumble!

The dense divine weapons, at Ning Cai's command, crashed down towards Li Che!

Li Che seemed, in an instant, to turn into a massive magnet, attracting all these divine weapons!

Boom boom boom boom—!

The explosions resounded continuously, and the white jade paved ground seemed to undergo a high-frequency vibration, dust swirling and rolling up!

In the next moment, the enormous Divine Dharma image emerged!

Standing ten zhang high, its arms spread open fiercely, and all the divine weapons were bounced off.

Ning Cai's eyes lit up, her body floating in mid-air, a strong breeze blew, and her figure instantly vanished.

As the yellow skirt on her body fluttered, the air seemed to crack into web-like patterns.

Using her foot for leverage, she shot out fiercely like a powerful battering ram, the momentum resembling the roar of huge waves!

This seemingly sweet girl with big eyes turned out to be a Martial Saint hiding full-trained blood and flesh under her skirt!

The geniuses dispatched by each Great Divine Sect to participate in the Hero Banquet were actually talents cultivated with the deep foundations of each Great Divine Sect, at least at the Martial Saint, Divine Fetus realm.

However, most were at most at the first level of Martial Saint, Divine Embryo One Divine Transformation realm.

After all, age restrictions were inevitably there!

Chapter 1205: Invincible Divine Fetus of Law of Heaven and Earth Crushes All, Defeating 6 Great Divine Sect Champions in One Day

"Hiss—!"

Ning Cai's eyes suddenly became brilliantly bright, her blood and energy seemed to burn, establishing a connection with the divine weapons flying across the sky.

Then, these divine weapons stacked together with a clanging sound.

Before Li Che's summoned Law of Heaven and Earth, they transformed into a gigantic divine weapon blade!

Compared to that enormous divine weapon blade, Ning Cai's body appeared somewhat insignificant.

She placed her palm at the bottom handle of the giant blade and fiercely thrust it towards Li Che, who was hidden within the Law of Heaven and Earth!

Thud—!!!

The divine weapon's giant sword thrust harshly onto the body of the Law of Heaven and Earth, ripples of invisible waves spreading out!

Ning Cai's expression instantly changed slightly!

It actually... did not pierce through?!

This was a combination of three consecutive killing moves!

Divinity, Martial Path, combined with the divine weapon!

The trifecta of a killing strike, yet it couldn't penetrate this Dharma Image?!

"So hard..."

Ning Cai took a deep breath, a look of seriousness flashed through her eyes.

However, her mood became much more relaxed: "At least, I've forced Elder Li Che to reveal a bit more... this Dharma Image is not fragile!"

Li Che's black hair flew, his Mo Shan clothes fluttering, standing quietly within the body of the Law of Heaven and Earth, receiving protection.

His gaze fell on the means by which a myriad of divine weapons stacked like a mechanism into a giant sword.

"You also learned mechanical techniques... and integrated them into this move?"

Li Che praised.

"This is a secret technique of my Seven Treasures Divine Sect, Divine Weapon Introduction... Right now, I can only summon Upper rank divine weapons of the Six Bureaus, otherwise... it should be able to break Elder Li's defense," Ning Cai replied.

Ning Cai's eyes were bright, she knew that Elder Li Che had extremely strong divinity, but his martial arts was average, only at the level of a Great Grandmaster.

Li Che's Dharma Image was too difficult to handle, as it was of the Three Pure Ones Rank, its pressure extremely strong, and combined with something akin to the Buddhist Vajra Dharma, its defense was indeed hard and its attack fierce...

Too difficult to deal with!

Therefore, Ning Cai could only choose one method!

To blast open the Dharma Image, break through a gap, and enter inside the Dharma Image to engage in close combat with Li Che!

"Explode!"

A flash of excitement burst forth in Ning Cai's big eyes!

This light resembled somewhat that of Xi Xi seeing fireworks bloom.

Then, her five fingers suddenly clenched!

Divinity fluctuated intensely, like a fuse being ignited!

With a hissing sound!

On the surface of the giant sword forged by countless Six Ministries' divine weapons, dense web-like cracks appeared, from which countless dazzling beams shot out!

Boom—!!!

A terrifying explosion was transmitted downward from the divine weapon sword!

Countless plumes of smoke billowed, the terrifying shockwaves and tearing force seemed to make Li Che's Law of Heaven and Earth start to tremble violently.

"It's done!"

Ning Cai's eyes were bright, her figure that was suspended mid-air, upon landing, stomped the ground fiercely.

The white jade-paved ground was instantly covered with spider web-like black cracks, and though the cracks were rapidly healing, their momentary ferocity was now in full view.

Ning Cai's blood and energy surged, and her Martial Saint Yuan Gang immediately rebounded out, propelling her body like a javelin towards the position of the exploded divine weapon sword!

Judging by the way the Law of Heaven and Earth was shaking!

She believed that she should have blasted open a breach there!

She could leap in through that breach, appearing in front of Li Che, and with the physique of a Martial Saint, engage in hand-to-hand combat with Li Che, then... defeat him!

Ning Cai's body moved faster and faster, nearly turning into an arrow, she leaped up, tearing through the smoke of the divine weapon explosion, smashing through the scalding hot falling divine weapon fragments!

Then...

She met the gaze of Li Che, who was quietly standing within the Law of Heaven and Earth.

Calm, unruffled, with even a hint of appreciation...

Appreciation for what?

Appreciation for the romance and artistry of her explosive display just now?

All of a sudden.

Ning Cai's pupils shrank, her figure crashed into the spot where the divine weapon sword had exploded against the Law of Heaven and Earth.

She felt as if she crashed into an incredibly resilient wall, an instant release of cold and terrifying pressure from the divine hierarchy, freezing her divinity, causing her blood and Yuan Gang to stagnate.

"No... it didn't break?!"

Impossible!

If it didn't break, why did Li Che's Dharma Image tremble?

Boom!

Ejected into the air, Ning Cai, just breaking free from Li Che's Three Pure Ones divinity that froze and suppressed her body.

Suddenly felt a looming shadow bear down.

She saw Li Che within the Dharma Image, slowly crossing his arms in front of his chest.

And that Dharma Image seemed to let out a long howl, originally a height of ten zhang... it rose again, higher and higher.

Rose to twenty zhang, directly doubling in size!

A terrifying fist suddenly came crashing down!

Accompanied by a terrifying wave of divinity!

Ning Cai was instantly engulfed by the fist of the Dharma Image.

...

...

Defeated.

Defeated again.

On the observation platform, everyone fell silent.

Ning Caisen sighed, shaking his head, harboring a shred of hope, after all, Ning Cai had mastered the Divine Weapon Introduction, capable of summoning eight hundred Six Ministries divine weapons simultaneously.

Her combat strategy was flawless, near perfect, and her execution was without fault.

But the only variable was...

The opponent was too strong!

"What is this Divine Embryo Secret Skill... never seen it before!"

Ning Caisen frowned.

"Invincible defense, violent offense!

Li Che within that Dharma Image, as steady as a mountain, didn't even need much movement, just a thought, and he could easily suppress the opponent.

As long as his divinity does not deplete, he can continue to maintain the Dharma Image, and he remains undefeated!"

Chapter 1206: Invincible Divine Fetus of the Law of Heaven and Earth Sweeps All, One Day Defeats All 6 Divine Sect Heroes

Simply... too monstrous!

Buzz, buzz, buzz...

The crowd withdrew from the Observation Platform, unwilling to watch Li Che savor the victory feast.

The sect masters of the Six Great Divine Sects were even more reluctant to watch, because every victory of Li Che meant they were one step closer to losing their bets!

Inside the Little Lingyin Institute.

A moment of silence.

Ning Caisen looked at Ning Cai, who was holding a Peach Branch and appeared dazed and lost, and sighed softly: "Gentlemen, our sect's heroes have done their best..."

"Next, we'll leave it to you."

"This Li Che... the Divine Embryo Secret Skill he practiced is indeed quite formidable."

Grandmaster Huang Mei chanted the Buddha's name, his eyes bright: "Amitabha Buddha, the Divine Embryo Secret Skill practiced by this child is somewhat similar to our Buddhist Vajra Dharma Image... Truly, this child has a connection with our Buddhist Sect."

Ning Caisen rolled his eyes, right, everyone has a connection with your Buddhist Sect, don't they?

Originally, Ning Caisen had only planned to send a True Successor to give Li Che a taste of water, but he did not expect Ning Cai to opt for a head-on confrontation. However, it's also good, experiencing the taste of failure can be beneficial for mental and physical health.

Ning Cai quickly recovered his spirit, although his face was pale, his eyes shone with excitement, then a hint of desolation: "Grandpa, Li Half-Saint is really strong..."

"I heard... Li Half-Saint is already married and even has a daughter?"

Ning Caisen looked at his granddaughter speechlessly.

"Alas, I was born but you were not, and when you were born, I was already old..."

Ning Cai sighed softly.

Ning Caisen's mouth twitched.

Ning Cai seemed to think of something, and the big eyes of the adorable girl brightened again: "I seem to still have a chance, Li Half-Saint's wife doesn't seem to have great cultivation talent, she might not live long!"

"I can outlive her!"

Ning Caisen no longer wanted to pay attention to his crazy granddaughter.

White Buxi from Haoran Academy furrowed his brows and interrupted the babbling Ning Cai.

"I once read in the handbooks of Confucian Saints... The Divine Embryo Secret Skill this child practices seems to be the rumored [Law of Heaven and Earth], a Three Pure Ranks Divine Embryo Secret Skill!"

“This divine secret technique... should come from the Miao Dao Xiansheng Erlang Zhenjun Strange Temple, as recorded in the books of the Confucian Saints, that Erlang Xiansheng controls this secret technique.”

“Coincidentally... there is exactly one Miao Dao Xiansheng Erlang Zhenjun Strange Temple in the Qian Yuan Divine Sect.”

White Buxi, well-read and insightful, revealed the origins of Li Che’s secret technique.

“A Three Pure Ranks Divine Embryo Secret Skill... This child’s divine talent is indeed terrifying!”

Grandmaster Huang Mei of the Little Lingyin Temple praised: “Amitabha Buddha, truly has a great connection with our Buddhist Sect...”

Suddenly.

Grandmaster Huang Mei’s brow furrowed again.

“This child, has gone to the banquet again...”

This remark immediately caused an uproar among the disciples of the Six Great Divine Sects gathered in the Little Lingyin Institute.

Many heroic disciples also wore very serious expressions.

“Does he need no rest at all? After the battle with Miss Ning Cai, doesn’t he even need a break?”

“Is he planning to... win against all of our six great divine sects’ heroes in one day?! To achieve a seven consecutive victory?!”

“How arrogant!”

...

Many of the divine sect heroes were indignant, feeling that Li Che's actions seemed to disregard them.

But, one could not deny, mastering the Three Pure Divine Embryo Secret Technique, Li Che truly had the capital for such arrogance!

"Amitabha Buddha, Grandmaster, please allow this little monk to go..."

In the courtyard, a voice chanting the Buddha's name was heard.

Everyone turned their gaze over and saw a frail novice monk quietly standing there, with almost no presence. If he hadn't spoken up voluntarily...

Everyone might not have perceived his existence.

Grandmaster Huang Mei's gaze fell on the novice monk, his eyes showing no joy or sorrow: "Wukong, do you have confidence?"

The novice monk slowly raised his head, and the nine scars on his forehead seemed to shimmer with brilliance.

"This little monk... will do his utmost, willing to sacrifice himself for the Buddha and dedicate to Li Half-Saint."

Grandmaster Huang Mei clasped his hands together and nodded happily: "Good."

But just when Grandmaster Huang Mei was about to agree to let this monk named "Wukong" go to the banquet to face Li Che.

Huang Mei, Gu Changqing, Ning Caisen, and other divine sect masters all turned their heads toward the entrance of the Little Lingyin Institute.

The sound of armor clattering resounded continuously, and a strong and domineering aura surged in like a sea breach, causing the entire courtyard to fall into oppression.

The ground vibrated slightly.

Then, a robust figure clad in Mysterious Black Armor strode into the courtyard.

And following that robust figure was another one as hefty as a small mountain, with a lute hanging from the waist.

After entering the small courtyard, that towering figure resembling a small mountain removed his armor. His form shrank, transforming into a stout young man, his eyes flowing with a glazed crimson hue.

“Huang Mei, for this round, let my disciple take the stage.”

Ji Moli stepped into the yard, his strong physique as upright as a mountain, a black cape fluttering, his gaze sweeping across the scene with dominance and ferocity.

Finally, his eyes landed on Grandmaster Huang Mei.

There was no room for doubt.

...

...

Lotus Pavilion.

National Master Xie Yushen, dressed in plain clothes, climbed a bamboo ladder step by step to a bronze cauldron where three lotus flowers were nurtured, looking at the reflection on the water's surface.

He watched with great interest.

Seeing Li Che elevate by twenty zhang using the Law of Heaven and Earth and crushing Ning Cai with one punch, a hint of confusion flashed in his eyes.

"The Divine Secret Technique of Miao Dao Xiansheng Erlang True Monarch Temple God... Law of Heaven and Earth?"

"Could it be that the Divine Monkey... truly isn't this person?"

Xie Yushen squinted his eyes, raised his hand to manipulate a lotus in the cauldron, causing ripples on the water surface.

Suddenly, the image re-formed.

Xie Yushen raised an eyebrow, leisurely stepping on the bamboo ladder, leaning on the cauldron's edge, continuing to watch.

"Ji Moli's third disciple... Zhou Chiguo?"

"Ha... this Zhou Chiguo seems to come from the Golden Light Prefecture. He was originally the senior disciple of the Qian Yuan Branch Sect's Nan Lihuo, and for the Temple God Resonance, Ji Moli changed his name..."

"What was his original name again?"

"Old age seems to have momentarily clouded my memory."

...

...

Qianyuan Institute.

A gentle breeze.

Li Che secured another victory, making it two consecutive wins. Within the small courtyard, everyone's eyes on Li Che burned with fervor.

So strong!

Elder Li is incredibly powerful!

He crushed his opponents with two swift victories!

Zhang Ya's eyes shone even brighter; her daughter and husband were so formidable, it filled her with pride!

Our family is terrifyingly strong!

Lv Taibai did not expect this battle to end so quickly either.

He gathered his thoughts, as Xi Xi's breakthrough was just beginning.

Li Che, grasping a Peach Branch, let his Divinity surge forth once more. Having just claimed a victory, he intended to continue attending the banquet.

Lv Taibai raised a silver eyebrow, saying: "Don't you need a rest? To recover your Divinity?"

Li Che smiled: "During the time they attacked me... I've almost recovered any Divinity I used by deploying the Divine Secret Technique."

Lv Taibai: "..."

"I aim to finish today, so I can head to the Qintian Observatory with Hong Jianzheng to complete the Special Class Guest Minister assessment. I've heard that completing the assessment at Qintian Observatory grants a piece of Four Imperial Rank Spiritual Wood..."

Li Che smiled gently.

Then, wrapping his five fingers around the Peach Branch, he vanished once more.

In the Divine Palace.

The White Jade Arena, previously lined with cracks from the last battle, was once again immaculate.

After the match, Li Che, infused with Divinity, appeared on the arena platform.

Hmm?!

Li Che could already sense an aura and pressure quite different from his previous formidable opponents.

On the White Jade Arena.

A young man with glazed crimson eyes slowly stood up, a palm-sized White Jade Pipa in his hand suddenly swelling against the wind.

The young man grasped the top of the Pipa, softly tapping it against the White Jade floor.

Looking at Li Che.

Slowly, he grinned, revealing a menacing mouthful of teeth.

“Formerly Zhou Daoyuan of Golden Light Prefecture, now of Peace Chaos Prince Mansion... Zhou Chiguo.”

“Elder Li, my teacher has instructed me...”

“To kill you.”

Chapter 1207: With the Seven-Aperture Linglong Heart and Law of Heaven and Earth, the Heavenly King Divine Weapon Bears the Surname Li Today

“Teacher, let me kill you.”

There was a hint of madness, a hint of recklessness.

Zhou Chiguo, or rather Zhou Daoyuan, had eyes of glassy crimson, bursting with extreme fighting intent and obsession.

It was as if, if his teacher said to kill Li Che, he would go to all lengths to kill Li Che, even at the cost of his life, he wouldn't hesitate!

Such arrogant and fierce words.

Li Che's brow slightly furrowed, looking at the person in front of him, hailing from Golden Light Prefecture... Zhou Daoyuan.

This name felt inexplicably familiar.

“Zhou Daoyuan...”

“Are you called Zhou Daoyuan?”

Li Che raised an eyebrow, seemingly recalling where he had heard this name before.

“Are you a disciple of Nan Lihuo?”

Li Che looked at the young man with glassy crimson eyes in front of him and asked.

He finally remembered this name; it was Xi Xi’s senior brother at the Qian Yuan Divine Sect branch in Golden Light Prefecture...

Nan Lihuo’s disciple, who repeatedly wanted to speak but refrained.

“Master Li Huo...”

The youth’s crimson eyes seemed to display a trace of nostalgia, a trace of confusion, and a trace of wavering...

But soon, the crimson color flourished, suppressing all these emotions of confusion and wavering.

He became as calm as a still pond, turning into a cold sneer.

“Just a waste.”

“With cultivation no more than Elemental Appearance, how could he be worthy of being my master, Zhou Daoyuan?”

“No, this world no longer has Zhou Daoyuan, only... Zhou Chiguo.”

The young man, resting the White Jade Pipa on the ground, said calmly, his voice growing colder.

He abandoned his past identity and embraced the current name.

This name, like a belief, was etched deep in his soul, driving him to embrace and cultivate it with his life!

Li Che, looking at Zhou Chiguo, couldn't help but also turn cold.

“Nan Lihuo told me you were dead.”

“Now it seems... you're not dead, but pretty much the same.”

“Some people are alive, but they are more dead than dead, and that's you.”

Li Che's black, vigorous hair rustled loudly.

Zhou Chiguo, hearing this, laughed heartily, shaking his head indifferently.

Around the Divine Palace.

The Immortal Divine Sculptures all began to shimmer with brilliance!

It was as if endless starlight was cascading down, like the stars shifting, all taking their positions.

The intentions contained within these Immortal Temples came from cultivators of the various Great Divine Sects.

They specifically came to witness the spectacle.

Li Che easily defeated the foremost hero of the Seven Treasures Divine Sect, effortlessly claiming two consecutive victories, with that nearly invincible Divine Embryo Dharma Form...

This had already shocked many people, as no one expected a newly advanced Divine Embryo Realm elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect to possess such powerful combat power.

And the widely discussed wager seemed to be growing more complicated following the display of Li Che's unparalleled combat prowess.

Perhaps...

The bet between the Qian Yuan Divine Sect Master Lv Taibai and the Six Great Divine Sects' Sect Masters might not be a losing gamble at all!

However, the crowd that came to watch the spectacle mainly focused on the combatants.

Because facing Li Che of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect this time was none other than Ji Moli's disciple...

Zhou Chiguo, one of Ji Moli's four disciples!

This made many anticipate the battle eagerly.

The conflict between Ji Moli and the Qian Yuan Divine Sect was not unknown to many.

Ji Moli's youngest son, Ji Haihui, died on the Lingnan Circuit, and the Dragon Queen Consort he married from the Dragon God Clan also died in Qianyuan Taoist City...

Upon investigation, many found that these incidents seem vaguely connected to the Qian Yuan Divine Sect.

Therefore, this battle... is not just about a wager; it even involves personal emotion!

It's a pity for the honest and forthright Li Half-Saint.

With Li Che's consecutive victories, defeating the two foremost heroes of the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect and the Seven Treasures Divine Sect, Li Che's reputation was gradually rising.

This half-saint from a small city, rising to such heights...

His achievements shook the entire Divine Capital!

Especially in the Lower Three Cities of the Divine Capital, the Ninth City, the Eighth City, and the Seventh City, the cultivators and commoners aspiring and striving all received great encouragement.

Although they could not enter the Divine Palace to witness the clash, they could look forward to the recounts of this battle in various teahouses.

Lv Taibai, descended by an attached god, had a touch of solemnity in his eyes.

"Zhou Chiguo... Ji Moli's third disciple, similar to You Liqing, is a very focused disciple, quite different from Su Huaili."

"Ji Moli had five disciples, with the youngest disciple being Su Huaili, who died in Dao City, and the fourth being You Liqing, who also died in Dao City..."

"But You Liqing was the Top Three Flowers Grandmaster, and Ji Moli had high hopes for him, planning to recall him after he broke through as a Martial Saint... unfortunately, he was killed by the Underworld."

Lv Taibai explained with narrowed eyes to those around him.

“Zhou Chiguo is different, having long broken through as a Martial Saint and Divine Fetus, cultivated with great cost by Ji Moli... now, he has even received Ji Moli’s bloodline baptism!”

“After Ji Lishou’s death, he was cultivated as the fourth son.”

Lv Taibai said solemnly.

“The current Zhou Chiguo... after receiving Ji Moli’s bloodline baptism, should be stronger than before.”

“This will be a tough battle!”

The members of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect felt a slight heaviness in their hearts.

Especially Zhang Ya, who could not help but feel nervous, knowing that her opponent this time was associated with Ji Moli.

Zhang Ya actually had a shadow regarding Ji Moli, the King Ping Luan.

Chapter 1208: With the Seven-Aperture Linglong Heart and Law of Heaven and Earth, the Heavenly King Divine Weapon Bears the Surname Li Today

After all, back when they were at the Golden Light Prefecture, the Young Prince Ji Haihui made an appearance, bringing immense pressure to their family. Xi Xi almost became Ji Haihui’s servant.

And now, the disciple and son of Ji Moli is about to engage in a battle with her husband...

Zhang Ya’s pretty face was flushed red, and a rush of anger surged up to her chest.

...

...

Around the observation platform surrounding the Divine Palace, the attaching gods and immortals at the banquet had unpredictable changes in mood.

However, none of this affected Li Che and Zhou Chiguo on the White Jade Arena of the Divine Palace.

Li Che looked at Zhou Chiguo indifferently.

Something seemed to have changed in the opponent's body, especially those scarlet eyes that resembled glazed glass, as if holding some unavoidable predicament, forcibly controlled.

But for Li Che, no matter what predicament you have, since you stand before him, then... let's just defeat you first.

Hoo hoo hoo—

On the White Jade Arena, a sudden gust of strong wind soared, and the airflow rampaged turbulent.

It was the rampaging Qi-Blood from Zhou Chiguo's body, surging as if an endless ocean wave!

Zhou Chiguo clenched his five fingers, the friction of muscles and bone, causing a tooth-aching sound, exploded from the instant of clenching!

He looked towards the observation platform.

In one glance, he locked onto Ji Moli's position.

Vaguely, as if seeing Ji Moli slightly nodding toward him.

Zhou Chiguo understood the great responsibility on his shoulders, Ji Moli asked him to make a move... to force out that hidden rascal!

His scarlet eyes locked onto Li Che.

Li Che is the Underworld rascal, isn't he?!

Zhou Chiguo didn't know, nor did it matter... just put all efforts, forcing the opponent to reveal, that's enough.

The Underworld Divine Monkey is a Martial Saint!

In the Divine Palace duel, protected by the West Queen Mother divinity, death... will not descend.

Thus, it's not easy to truly test whether Li Che is the Underworld Divine Monkey, as Li Che can simply surrender if he can't win.

Therefore, Ji Moli specially prepared a means to test the Underworld Divine Monkey for him!

Zhou Chiguo...

Eager to try!

Ka ka ka ka ka ka——

The White Jade Pipa smashed on the ground, suddenly shrouded by magnificent divinity, followed by radiant glow!

Each string of the pipa was plucked!

Waves of agitating divinity and Primordial Spirit sound waves, rippling continuously as if tempting people into madness!

And within the White Jade Pipa, as if some will awakened, making the White Jade Pipa float up.

Vaguely, as if a Temple God phantom slowly emerged.

Pounding Temple God Divinity surged out from the White Jade Pipa.

This White Jade Pipa...

It was actually a Four Imperial Lower Rank Divine Weapon!

Inherent with pounding Temple God Divinity!

And after activating the White Jade Pipa, Zhou Chiguo's eyes suddenly brightened, revealing sinister teeth, as one foot landed, a white spear crafted from white jade instantly fell into his hand.

Great Bodily Elixir seemed to leap from the Dantian, fiercely pulsing, forming shock waves, rolling outward like tides!

Tremendous Martial Saint Yuan Gang, exploding and leaking nearby!

As if forming tangible color, surging like ocean waves!

Twisting the air, burning fervently!

Brimming with destructive terrifying power!

Martial Saint Second Opening, Qi Sea Realm!

Zhou Chiguo's black hair wildly swirling, scarlet eyes blazing fiercely, as if a Martial Saint Qi Sea anomaly emerged!

Unexpectedly...

Second Level Martial Saint!

Li Che's eyes also revealed a hint of surprise.

But, not too surprised.

Because Ji Lishou himself was also a Second Level Martial Saint, while Zhou Chiguo was originally found by Ji Moli to replace the deceased Ji Lishou, naturally, he must elevate his cultivation to the Second Level Martial Saint!

Li Che vaguely sensed that Ji Moli might be playing at something quite new!

Perhaps he intends to gather the power of four Temple Gods, assembling them for his own defense, achieving a transformation!

Li Che's black sturdy hair flying, Brow Niwan instantly flesh and blood breaking open, tearing towards the sides!

Dazzling Golden Light suddenly burst forth!

As if a True Ape roared!

Divine Fetus violently pulsating!

Subsequently, divine energy, vast as rivers, storm-like, spread from Li Che's body, inflating like an air balloon.

Instantly growing as large as an inflating hot air balloon!

Divine Embryo Secret Skill!

Law of Heaven and Earth!

Zhou Chiguo just stepped two strides, his Qi-Blood rampaging like dragons and snakes wandering around him, muscles stacked like tubers, blue veins roaring on the arm clutching the white jade spear.

The spear swept, countless airflows shattered in explosion!

"Your Divine Embryo Secret Skill is indeed powerful, but you... ultimately just broke through the Divine Fetus!"

"I am a Second Level Martial Saint!"

"How can you block?!"

Countless Qi-Blood stacked on the white jade spear, spear tip seemingly condensed into a terrifying Yuan Gang force with gathered collapsing light!

Dazzling light exploded, Yuan Gang crackled open, surging like mist.

Law of Heaven and Earth pounded a fierce punch, violently colliding with Zhou Chiguo's Second Level Martial Saint spear falling with force!

Position of collision...

The White Jade brick-paved arena ground, almost instantly interlaced with criss-crossing cracks like lightning!

Divinity and Qi-Blood collision!

The shock wave spread like concentric circles, lifting rolling dust!

"Hmm?!"

"So tough?! Can't break?!"

Chapter 1209: With the Seven-Aperture Linglong Heart and Law of Heaven and Earth, the Heavenly King Divine Weapon Bears the Surname Li Today

In Zhou Chiguo's crimson eyes, there was an unmasked look of astonishment and gravity.

What is this... Divine Embryo Secret Skill?!

How could it be this powerful?

The eruption is the power of a Second Level Martial Saint!

By rights, a Second Level Martial Saint crushing a Divine Fetus Practitioner deep in One God Transformation should not be difficult, as long as they get close...

"Break open his Law of Heaven and Earth!"

“No matter how strong this Divine Embryo Secret Skill is, it’s ultimately just One God Transformation!”

Zhou Chiguo sprang back, stamping his foot fiercely on the ground. Along with web-like fissures, he then blasted away the air current, shattering the turbulent waves, as the spear in his hand swung out, stabbing towards Li Che under the protection of the Law of Heaven and Earth!

Accompanied by the resonant clanging echoing through the air!

Zhou Chiguo roared deeply, the pieces of mystic black armor spinning at high speed, with clattering sounds covering his entire body!

Then, Zhou Chiguo’s physique enlarged like an inflated balloon!

Finally, he soared to three meters tall, majestic like a small mountain!

Though incomparable to the twenty-zhang height of the Law of Heaven and Earth, it no longer resembled a tiny ant-like figure!

BOOM—!

Once again collided fiercely with Li Che’s Law of Heaven and Earth!

With immense momentum, the exploding impact, Zhou Chiguo’s Second Level Martial Saint’s Qi-Blood, surged wildly, enveloped within the spear, fiercely smashing onto the Law of Heaven and Earth.

Yet it only caused the Law of Heaven and Earth to display ceramic-like cracks.

However, these cracks were immediately repaired back to their original state with the divine power surging from Li Che’s brow!

This defense—

This repair speed—

It's simply a monster!

BOOM!

A fist came crashing down!

Zhou Chiguo's spear spanned across to block, and his three-meter-tall body was also staggeringly driven backward by the blow!

As Zhou Chiguo landed, under the helmet, there was only the heavy breathing like that of a dragon.

Then, the crimson eyes burst forth!

On the other side, the white jade pipa under Zhou Chiguo's divine impact, continued to pluck the strings, strumming out music, the pipa sound stopped as if hesitated to speak!

"Shatter for me!"

Zhou Chiguo's spear pointed afar, aiming at the head of Li Che's colossal Law of Heaven and Earth!

Buzzing—buzzing—buzzing—

The numerous pipa sound waves scattered in all directions seemed to transform into tangible musical notes at this moment, jumping up, and lengthened into chains, at the moment Zhou Chiguo's spear pointed, they tightened forcefully!

BOOM—!!!

Like a sonic wave chain, sealing Li Che's Law of Heaven and Earth!

"It's over!"

Zhou Chiguo's cold voice resounded!

The divine fetus at his brow leaped out, emitting a sharp scream, astonishingly also clutching a pipa, it tugged violently, tearing off the pipa strings!

The ear-piercing sound burst forth!

Those sonic wave chains encircling Li Che's Law of Heaven and Earth also exploded with the harsh sound waves!

The terrifying explosion incessantly impacted and spread across the Law of Heaven and Earth!

In an instant, Li Che's storied Divine Embryo Secret Skill, the surface resembling the Buddhist Sect's indestructible vajra, was covered with cracks!

As if it had found a weak point, hit relentlessly like glass, the cracks seemed contagious, spreading across the entire surface!

Shattered!

Finally shattered!

At this moment, not only were Zhou Chiguo's crimson eyes radiant!

Even those on the observation platform surrounding them, the numerous spectators watching the battle, were moved to tears!

Damn it...

Li Che's Law of Heaven and Earth was truly too hard, unlike the Divine Secret Technique wielded by a Divine Fetus Practitioner in One God Transformation!

He's only just broken through to divine fetus!

Using the Law of Heaven and Earth, the Divine Secret Technique of the Three Pure Ranks...

He even has the ability to clash with Divine Fetus Practitioners in the Second God Transformation Realm!

Remember, the rank suppression of divinity itself is extraordinarily terrifying, nearly impossible to cross, but... Li Che, leveraging the Divine Secret Technique of the Three Pure Ranks, seems to truly achieve rank transcendence!

Inside the crack-filled Law of Heaven and Earth.

Li Che remained with arms crossed over his chest, his robust black hair fluttering wildly in the storm like black lightning continuously whipping.

Gazing at the cracked Law of Heaven and Earth, Li Che couldn't help but smile.

"There's some strength..."

"Leveraged the power of the Divine Weapon to break my Law of Heaven and Earth."

"Not bad..."

Li Che praised.

In the next moment, he lifted his hand, from his brow, overwhelmingly divine power surged out violently.

The Law of Heaven and Earth riddled with fine cracks was shockingly repaired at lightning speed, fixing the fissure of Qi Mountain!

In about three breaths time, this cracked Law of Heaven and Earth was able to return to its perfect, indestructible state!

At the same time, Li Che's arms that had been crossed over his chest since the start of the battle finally slowly dropped down.

Gazing indifferently at Zhou Chiguo.

Almost there...

Indeed, it should end now.

Li Che now understood that Ji Moli should already be suspecting that he, honest and genuine, might really be the Underworld Divine Monkey.

If he is the Underworld Divine Monkey, it implies that the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod should be in his possession.

However...

For a Zhou Chiguo to probe him, it's not enough!

With two fingers together, he forcefully tore open the Qiankun Space.

A Half-Saint Divine Eagle instantly landed into Li Che's hand, held up by him, more over the eagle surface, endlessly sparking thunder!

Exactly the same Half-Saint Divine Eagle from when Li Che broke through divine fetus, devouring heavenly thunder!

Right now, as this eagle appeared, the unstoppable thunder ceaselessly interwove and spread out!

Crack—crack—crack—

Thunder emitting heat and brilliance, constantly erupting from the divine eagle, like force accumulated to the extreme, hard to suppress flooding unleashed!

Chapter 1210: With the Seven-Aperture Linglong Heart and Law of Heaven and Earth, the Heavenly King Divine Weapon Bears the Surname Li Today

Zhou Chiguo's body was shrouded in mysterious black armor, and his scarlet eyes suddenly condensed!

Upon seeing the Law of Heaven and Earth that he had painstakingly cracked begin to mend at an unbelievable speed...

Zhou Chiguo was both shocked and furious!

"Is this... a turtle?!"

"So stubborn and tough!"

Though the Divine Fetus Practitioner was indeed weak in the physical body, with the Law of Heaven and Earth set there, even breaking the defense was impossible, so how could he approach Li Che's physical body, forcing him to reveal his Martial Saint cultivation?!

How infuriating!

Zhou Chiguo's divine fetus was stimulated again, and his five fingers clenched, with the divine seed spiraling behind him, directly detonating a divine seed!

The detonation of a divine seed was still within what he could bear.

Exceeding two would result in severe injuries!

Although there was the protection of the West Queen Mother's divine power in this pre-battle feast, it was also specific in its protection.

Forcibly unleashing power by detonating divine power...

Even with the protection of the West Queen Mother's divinity, serious aftereffects would remain!

Hence, Zhou Chiguo dared to explode just one divine seed!

His qi-blood surged, countless blood-colored Jiao Mangs coiled around him, as his spear trembled, filling the sky with spear shadows, smashing towards Li Che as if a peacock spread its tail!

He wanted to break it open before Li Che's Law of Heaven and Earth completely healed and reach Li Che's side!

However—

Boom—!!!

Within the Law of Heaven and Earth, Li Che glanced at him casually.

In his chest.

The Dao Fruit of [Lei-Ci Dao Body] began to pulse violently!

The Tribulation Thunder contained in that Half-Saint Divine Eagle...

Was instantly manipulated by Li Che...

Surging densely into the sky!

Beginning to circulate around the Law of Heaven and Earth, merging perfectly with the divinity!

Faintly, an armor woven out of thunder covered the Law of Heaven and Earth!

Li Che did not hesitate to unleash the divinity!

The Law of Heaven and Earth roared, unexpectedly growing taller, and taller!

After twenty zhang, it grew taller again, thirty zhang, forty zhang, fifty zhang!

At fifty zhang tall, it was as majestic as a mountain, although much smaller than the One Hundred Zhang high statue of the West Queen Mother Temple God.

But on the arena, reaching such a height.

The impact was indeed too intense!

Along with countless Thunder Dragons coiling, transforming into armor clanging!

The Law of Heaven and Earth clenched its five fingers, the airflow exploded instantly, and the vast divine storm intertwined with thunder crashed down fiercely on Zhou Chiguo, who had detonated a divine seed!

A taunt flashed in Li Che's eyes.

"So stingy, only daring to detonate one divine seed..."

"Train more if you're weak!"

The fifty-zhang Law of Heaven and Earth, entwined by thunder, was like a Heavenly God!

The ultimate brilliant radiance erupted!

Countless thunderbolts danced amidst the Divine Palace!

All the strong spectators on the viewing platforms were astonished...

Li Che... actually had another trump card?!

Many had witnessed Li Che at the Ninth City wharf using the Half-Saint Divine Eagle to attract Heavenly Thunder to undergo the Divine Embryo Tribulation.

Yet, they never thought that the Heavenly Thunder... could be used in this way!

The entire mysterious black armor of Zhou Chiguo seemed to emit a dazzling blue radiance under the illumination of the thunder!

A terrifying massive fist descended from the sky!

Crashing heavily onto his body!

The divine power of the Three Pure Ranks, combined with the power of Heavenly Thunder, and the horrific might of the Law of Heaven and Earth!

Almost instantly, Zhou Chiguo's entire mysterious black armor exploded!

Countless blood mists spewed from his pores, vaporized into black airflow by the thunder power in a hiss and crackle!

Zhou Chiguo was in such a miserable state!

Seized by the thundering hand of the Law of Heaven and Earth, like a rat caught in a palm.

Meanwhile.

Within the Law of Heaven and Earth, Li Che lifted his five fingers, gathering divinity in his hand, a thunderbolt intertwining with a hiss and forming into a Thunder God Spear!

The Law of Heaven and Earth, as if in sync, coalesced into a terrifying Thunder God Spear!

Twisting his waist!

The Law of Heaven and Earth twisted in sync!

Then...

The Thunder God Spear blasted forth!

At the explosion of sound, still lingering in place, in the distance...

Zhou Chiguo's divine fetus clutching the white jade lute was pierced by the Thunder Spear, directly annihilated and exploded—

Whoosh!

Zhou Chiguo's brow niwan exploded, with blood gushing down.

His scarlet, glassy eyes fell into endless bewilderment...

"I... I..."

Suddenly.

Zhou Chiguo felt his blood boiling as if igniting.

An overwhelming will descended with a crash!

Zhou Chiguo felt his physical body was no longer his own.

This is...

Master!

On the platform, Ji Moli's eyes were dark.

As bloodlines boiled, he chose to seize control of Zhou Chiguo's body!

He wanted to personally verify!

What Zhou Chiguo couldn't achieve, he, Ji Moli... could achieve!

Shatter the Law of Heaven and Earth, approach Li Che's physical body, strike and fight, if Li Che truly had the physical power of a Martial Saint, he would surely have an instinctive reaction.

That was a martial artist's irresistible instinct.

Even if Li Che didn't resist, the strength of a Martial Saint's physical body... no matter how well Li Che disguised, it couldn't be fake!

"Let go!"

Zhou Chiguo raised his head, his scarlet eyes turning extremely cold and tyrannical!

Muscles bulged, countless blood-colored marks clung to the surface of Zhou Chiguo's body like cursed seals... those were Ji Moli's bloodline marks hidden within Zhou Chiguo's body after bloodline baptism!

Qi-blood surged, Ji Moli, controlling Zhou Chiguo's body, struck the giant hand of the Law of Heaven and Earth with both palms, gradually prying open the hand.

Almost prying it open completely, then breaking free!

And Li Che laughed.

"Interesting..."

"The Prince has personally entered the fray, does this count as heroic?"
