Chapter 1711: Temple God Resonance of the Qi Tian Mysterious Temple, How to Satisfy the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit

Fighting Prison Lotus Demon Saint Heavenly Mysterious Temple!

The blood and flesh between the brows trembled.

The Star Plucking Pupil reflected a dazzling golden light, as if peering into the mysteries of heaven and earth.

In the flowing light, vaguely, it seemed that there was a figure being suppressed within, constantly struggling, roaring, and howling.

An overwhelming demonic aura swept through, endless divinity surged, vast Dao Yun flowed!

Various divine mysteries erupted forth!

Li Che sat cross-legged on the Flying Sword, his strong hair fluttering like black lightning, clothes rustling, eyes revealing a hint of strangeness.

He was no longer the innocent boy who had just stepped out of Fei Lei City.

Li Che had witnessed the Three Pure Ones Mysterious Temple of The Queen Mother of the West in the Divine Capital, and even ventured into it, obtaining a Ten-thousand-year-old Peach, enjoying great benefits and transforming himself.

However, it was his first time truly seeing a Three Pure Ones Mysterious Temple.

After all, The Queen Mother's Mysterious Temple was obscured by the Imperial Court, making it impossible to find its true location, but Qi Tian Mysterious Temple was different.

It was completely unhidden, just sitting on the vast earth, its demon energy, divinity, and Dao Yun constantly emanating from this ancient city.

"This is Qi Tian City—"

Li Che wasn't the only one surprised on the Flying Sword.

Xi Xi, Yun E, Zhou Peng, and other young ones were also seeing this ancient city for the first time, feeling an incredibly oppressive sense of pressure.

It was as if their hearts were being hit by an unprecedented impact.

The Prison Lotus Divine Pattern on Xi Xi's brow trembled, her eyes growing brighter.

Beside her, Yun E pursed her lips, and Zhou Peng gently sighed while sitting on the Flying Sword.

Though both transformed into Soul Capturings, Li Che didn't manipulate them, letting the two young ones act freely, so Yun E and Zhou Peng, transformed into Soul Capturings, felt more relaxed and free, more human.

If it was before, Zhou Peng wouldn't have been able to control his emotions, and the Temple God's emotions would influence him, even making him reveal his true form uncontrollably.

But now, the lingering influence of the Temple God still stirred ripples in Zhou Peng's heart, but it lacked the Temple God's corruption.

"Qitian..."

Zhou Peng murmured softly.

Lv Qiankun, Lv Taibai, and Fang Hanshu obviously weren't seeing Qi Tian City for the first time.

They all had previously come to train in this renowned city.

"Qi Tian Temple, its full name is Fighting Prison Lotus Demon Saint Qi Tian Mysterious Temple, a Three Pure Ones Mysterious Temple, once gloriously majestic, supporting Equal Heaven Temple, nearly occupying half of the world..."

"Back then, Equal Heaven Temple had more than one Divine Tribulation sitting, rumored to even have a Two Calamities Realm Divine Tribulation Venerable in the temple's Mysterious Que, becoming illustrious for a time."

Lv Qiankun stroked his beard and sighed, having gone through that era, his eyes carried complex hues.

At that time, the Qian Yuan Divine Sect wasn't yet established, and even if founded, it would still be insignificant compared to Equal Heaven Temple.

Li Che couldn't help but look at Lv Qiankun and curiously asked: "Grandmaster, why did Equal Heaven Temple fall into decline?"

"With so many strong individuals residing, why did it suddenly diminish? Logically speaking, with Two Calamities Divine Tribulation sitting, the lifespan of Two Calamities Divine Tribulation should allow for thousands of years..."

Lv Qiankun shook his head: "Not sure, but most strong individuals believe the decline of Equal Heaven Temple is related to the Mysterious Que, that compared to the Mysterious Que... the present world is indeed too weak."

Lv Qiankun exhaled a breath: "Within the Mysterious Que, in the Inner Mysterious Que, some demon creatures corrupted by divinity, some Temple Guardian Cursed Corpses, have reached Divine Tribulation Realm, not to mention some powerful Temple Guardian Curse Corpse Kings..."

"No matter how strong Equal Heaven Temple is, facing the Mysterious Que, it's still weak... Equal Heaven Temple was just built alongside the Fighting Prison Lotus Demon Saint Qi Tian Mysterious Temple, if the Mysterious Que rampages, even the strongest Divine Sect may not withstand."

Lv Qiankun sat on the Flying Sword, his robes flapping in the wind.

"So, many strong individuals, after reaching great strength, enter the Mysterious Que, directly confronting its depth and horror, only then realizing... the strength in the present world isn't true strength, only strength within the Mysterious Que is genuine."

"Of course, the Heaven and Earth Will in the present world is terrifying, even the Two Calamities and Three Calamities Divine Tribulation Supremes dare not defy the Heaven and Earth Will to step within, which serves as the final barrier of the present world."

Li Che's heart slightly stirred upon hearing, raising his head: "The final barrier of the present world?"

In the eyes of many cultivators, the power of Three Calamities and Nine Tribulations is seen as a limitation, many Divine Tribulation Cultivators hate and fear Three Calamities and Nine Tribulations, as if fearing snakes and scorpions.

Yet in the mouth of the Grandmaster, the Three Calamities and Nine Tribulations created by the Heaven and Earth Will is the final barrier of the present world?

Lv Qiankun nodded: "Some see clearly, some do not..."

"Without Three Calamities and Nine Tribulations... the numerous Mysterious Temples appearing in the present would be unrestricted, Temple Gods could freely traverse the human world..."

"Although Temple Gods are fallen deities, truly roaming the earth, how powerful are they to ordinary people?"

"Even Martial Saints, facing a roaming Temple God, would be like ants, wouldn't they?"

Lv Qiankun shook his head.

"The Heaven and Earth Will is protecting this world, limitations sometimes... are a form of protection."

Chapter 1712: Temple God Resonance of Qi Tian Mysterious Temple—How to Sate the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit (2)

Those like Lv Qiankun, long-time Divine Tribulation cultivators, are truly the ones who have glimpsed the mysteries of the world. While they pursue power, they also perceive the world, sensing heaven and earth.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh, whoosh——

A flying sword stretched across the sky.

Li Che's mind slightly stirred, vaguely sensing a vast and majestic aura approaching the Qi Tian City area.

Clearly, some powerful figures had arrived at Qi Tian City earlier than them.

A hundred miles from Qi Tian City, there was a small town situated there.

It was a small town under the jurisdiction of Wenling Prefecture, named Five-finger Town.

Most of the strong were gathering in Five-finger Town. However, just after breaking through the Divine Tribulation, Lv Taibai, with a towering aura, directly rode the flying sword across the sky towards Qi Tian City.

In Five-finger Town, many people also sensed the aura of Lv Taibai and his group.

"Lv Taibai broke through the Divine Tribulation?"

Some were astonished, some were puzzled, and some sighed.

Lv Taibai, the Divine Sect Master of Qian Yuan, once listed on both the Great Jing Divine List and the Heavenly Gate List, now finally stepped into the Divine Tribulation, a step faster than them.

"Interesting, Qian Yuan Divine Sect has two undergoing Divine Tribulation, and both are attending this Qi Tian City event, clearly aiming for Qi Tian's proclamation."

"That's Lv Qiankun, the Qian Yuan Grandmaster, still alive..."

"Earlier, Ji Molie broke through the Divine Tribulation, and now... Lv Taibai has entered the Divine Tribulation."

"Ji Molie is dead."

In Five-finger Town, too many strong individuals were gathered, mostly human strongmen, as Qi Tian City was presently occupied by the Demon Race. To enter Qi Tian City, they would first have to battle the Demon Race, securing the qualification through combat.

Therefore, many human heroes gathered in Five-finger Town outside Qi Tian City, and of course, there were those like Ji Molie who chose a wilderness location to set up camp.

And the news "Ji Molie is dead," almost exploded across the whole of Five-finger Town like a thunderbolt as soon as it was revealed.

"Indeed, it's true, the Peace Chaos Prince Mansion of Ji Molie in Jizhou City was slaughtered, Ji Liqing and Ji Lihong are dead, and the blood pool Ji Molie accumulated in secret collapsed..."

"Moreover, blood clouds gathered above Jizhou, and the phenomenon of Divine Tribulation falling from the sky... Ji Molie truly is dead."

Who killed him?

In an instant, all eyes turned to Lv Taibai's flying sword scuttling across the sky above Five-finger Town, heading towards Qi Tian City.

They fell into silence.

...

...

Lv Taibai's large sleeves fluttered, his clothes swirling without rest, his silver hair whipping through the air.

He stood on the magnified sword tip of the Taibai Sword, sword energy surging like tides, while he stood solitary at the crest of the tide.

His sleeves flapped wildly, draping on his back.

Sword energy soared tens of thousands of feet high, slashing across the sky for millions of miles!

Lv Taibai didn't enter Five-finger Town; he planned to go directly to Qi Tian City!

He also intended to witness how domineering the Demon Race, which occupied Qi Tian City for five hundred years, really was!

Li Che sitting cross-legged on the flying sword, Xi Xi, Yun E, and the other companions doing the same, mimicking Li Che, breathing in and out, siphoning divinity from the heavens and earth.

The place where Qi Tian Temple was located was the boundary between the Inner Mysterious Que and Earth Deceit Que.

The geographic location was extremely special and involved Earth Deceit Que, where the density of divinity was exceedingly vast!

Moreover, the divinity here was extremely pure, as if pulverized from a Divine Crystal, siphoning was even smoother than clasping a Divine Crystal to siphon from.

"Hoo——"

"Sigh——"

With each breath, the aura devoured thousands of miles.

Li Che was unreserved; he had just recently transformed the [Pure Heart] Dao Fruit, and many Divine Fetuses in the Inner Scene of his Energy Center were in a state of extreme hunger!

Now with free divinity, he would not let this opportunity slip.

Rumble—With Li Che's unabashed siphoning, a vortex of divinity even formed above the flying sword, ceaselessly converging.

Lv Qiankun, Lv Taibai, and Fang Hanshu couldn't help but look over.

"Elder Li's Divine Fetus... is quite hungry."

"If there are resources in the sect, you should support more, don't be stingy..."

Lv Qiankun said with a smile.

Lv Taibai and Fang Hanshu fell silent, what were they being stingy about...

Whose family's Divine Fetus cultivates by gulping divinity?

Even with a Divine Crystal of the Three Pure Ones rank, it still requires slow siphoning, right?

Though the divinity near Qi Tian City is somewhat akin to that in a Divine Crystal, this manner of siphoning is unorthodox...

"Elder Li is about to undergo the Four Divine Changes... truly a prodigy on the divine path..." Fang Hanshu admired.

Although surprised in his heart, he wasn't startled.

Li Che's talent had long ceased to surprise him; after all, the first time he saw Li Che... was just two or three years ago, at that time Li Che was merely a novice Grandmaster.

Indeed, compared to Fang Hanshu's age, Li Che was just a young kid in his eyes.

"Qi Tian City... Mysterious Temple revival and reopening, people come mainly for the [Temple God Resonance] of Qi Tian City..."

Fang Hanshu said while watching Li Che cultivating.

"Temple God Resonance?"

Li Che opened his eyes.

The term was certainly not foreign to him.

Back when Xi Xi was at the Golden Light Prefecture, she was tested by the Eight-Armed Prison Lotus Wrathful Third Prince's Sinister Temple through Temple God Resonance, and many children attended then.

"Indeed... Temple God Resonance is not difficult to comprehend, the inheritance of the Mysterious Temple's Temple God is traditionally transferred through Temple God Resonance."

"The Chief Supervisor said that those wielding the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod could ascend the tower of Qi Tian City to obtain the Three Pure Ones Divine Weapon, Primordial Equal to Heaven Staff, which is inseparable from Temple God Resonance, after all, those who wield the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod perfectly align with Qi Tian themselves..."

Chapter 1713: Temple God Resonance of the Qi Tian Mysterious Temple, How to Sate the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit

Fang Hanshu said.

"Why did the Demon Race invade Qi Tian City? Because they are determined to obtain this inheritance, most importantly, the Demon Race has a significant advantage..."

Li Che squinted his eyes upon hearing this: "Qi Tian Temple has a Demon Saint... So, the Demon Race believes their advantage is enormous?"

"Yes." Fang Hanshu nodded.

"Not only that, but also the Western Regions Buddha Land and Little Lingyin Temple, they have extreme confidence in this Temple God Resonance, because within Fighting Prison Lotus Demon Saint Qi Tian, the name denotes Buddhism, so the Western Regions Buddha Land believes Qi Tian belongs to the Buddhist Temple Gods..."

Fang Hanshu, well-read, as a God Hunter Killer of the Hunting God Pavilion, knew too many secrets.

Li Che contemplated and nodded.

"Thus, the heroes of the world gather here for mainly three purposes. One is the Qi Tian Inheritance of the Mysterious Temple, second is the resources of the ancient Divine Sect Qi Tian Temple, and third... is the secret involving the Inner Mysterious Que - Earth Deceit Que junction of Qi Tian City..."

Fang Hanshu explained the primary relations of Qi Tian City to Li Che.

"So, it's Temple God Resonance?" Li Che squinted his eyes.

No wonder so many people want to wield the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod; it greatly aids the Temple God Resonance.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh whoosh —

Suddenly, the Flying Sword halted, no longer speeding.

Li Che's eyes focused, and looking up, he saw below the vast lands and rivers a grand and sprawling city!

The city was incredibly towering, stretching across the heavens and earth, majestic to the extreme, resembling a giant Divine Dragon coiled on the ground.

Its grandeur was enormous, its momentum unmatched, mainly filled with an ancient aura, city walls spanned left and right, extending for countless yards, with no visible end or limit.

"Qi Tian City... has arrived."

Li Che's eyes sparkled.

Seemingly vaguely, countless murderous electric lights intertwined endlessly!

In the chest, the Dao Fruit of the Chess Saint was constantly thumping!

Thud thud thud ——!

The breeze was silent, all sounds in the heavens and earth became tranquil and peaceful in his ears.

The Heaven and Earth chessboard rotated and expanded, suddenly trying to envelop the entire majestic grand Qi Tian City.

From the chessboard, terrifying and vast auras continuously rose.

But his Heaven and Earth chessboard expanded into only half the city and could not proceed.

To know, his current Heaven and Earth chessboard could cover a range of nearly eight hundred miles.

Covering the entire Qi Tian City should be more than enough.

Yet Qi Tian City seemed to possess a power to distort heaven and earth, as if not entirely existing in the present world, causing the Heaven and Earth chessboard unable to fully envelop it.

As the Flying Sword hovered.

Lv Taibai stood at the forefront of the Sword Qi tide, Sword Qi soaring skyward from his body, took a step out, directly left the Flying Sword, Sword Qi reaching the sky, stepping forward!

"Scram——!!!"

A thunderous roar.

A figure suddenly appeared atop Qi Tian City's walls, terrifying and brilliant aura continuously rose to the sky, like a Divine Sword, wanting to slash everything!

That was a gigantic White Crane.

With wings spread, black and white feathers transformed into feather garments covering the body, becoming a thin middle-aged man, equally bursting with extremely sharp Sword Intent.

Lv Taibai frowned, five fingers shot out, instantly transformed into five Divine Swords, collided with that Crane Demon in one strike.

Sword Qi fluctuated like tides, causing the space to ripple in waves.

The Divine Tribulation aura raged chaotically, like tides, like waves, above the sky, seemingly manifesting a calamity, vibrating unceasingly.

"This is a Demon God comparable to the Martial God Realm, his physical body extremely formidable, indeed impressive."

After one collision, Lv Taibai, with cultivation from breaking through the Divine Tribulation Realm via one of the Three Disasters, the Destructive God Wind, could not gain any advantage against this Crane Demon.

"A newly ascended Divine Tribulation, huh? No wonder, the newborn calf isn't afraid of the tiger..."

Atop Qi Tian City's tower, that Crane Demon squinted eyes, hair fluttering, body as sharp as a sword, stared at Lv Taibai, sneered.

Then, the eyes swept through to the few figures on the Flying Sword.

Seeing Lv Qiankun, the Crane Demon's eyes shrank, but upon seeing Fang Hanshu, Li Che, and Xi Xi among others.

The sneer on the Crane Demon's face grew more intense.

"What's Qi Tian City regarded as? Yet bringing family along..."

"Qi Tian City is fully occupied by our Demon Race, wherever you come from, return there!"

"Or else, all will be killed as blood food!"

"Scram!"

The Crane Demon howled, instantly countless Sword lights soared to the sky, like sharp edges turning into Crane feathers.

Overwhelming murderous aura like a torrent, eyes crimson, filled with the craving for blood food.

Lv Taibai frowned, Sword Qi permeating through him, he intended to test the waters of Qi Tian City, it seems... Qi Tian City's waters run far deeper than he imagined.

Completely occupied by the Demon Race, just as others thought, to enter Qi Tian City, the Human Race must join forces and attack.

Otherwise, once the Temple God Resonance begins, they may lose the chance and qualification to enter the city to participate in the Resonance.

Qi Tian City has four gates, east, west, south, north.

Each gate has a Demon God stationed, sealing off Dajing Country and the Human Race's entry into Qi Tian City.

Unless attacked forcefully, and the gates opened, only then can Qi Tian City be entered.

Otherwise, one must wait for the Demon Race to grant entry qualification to the city.

"These Demons come from the Ten Thousand Rivers, not the Inner Mysterious Que All Gods Camp [Deceit Demon Cave]'s Ten Thousand Rivers, but the Ten Thousand Rivers in the present world, beyond the Dajing Border, next to Wushen Mountain, is a Demon Race nation, most Demons, transformed by the Divinity from the Mysterious Temple's corruption."

Chapter 1714: Temple God Resonance of the Qi Tian Mysterious Temple, How to Satisfy the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit (4)

"It is built to resemble the Ten Thousand Rivers of the Deceit Demon Cave..."

"However, since it's an organized force, these demons know they cannot completely seize the opportunity presented by Qi Tian City."

"If it truly incurs the wrath of the Great Vista, Da Li, and Western Regions Buddha Land—a union of human powers already at odds—it would be unwise."

Fang Hanshu stood on his flying sword, watching Lv Taibai's first attempt at entering Qi Tian City, blocked by the Crane Demon.

He was explaining to Li Che, but turned his head and paused slightly.

Because he noticed that Li Che was in a daze.

Sitting cross-legged on the flying sword, his eyes flickered brightly, his breathing even became somewhat rapid.

As if he had seen a desired target.

At this moment, the [Ten Thousand Demon Emperor] Dao Fruit within Li Che's chest was incessantly trembling, frantically throbbing.

The Crane Demon had such abundant demon energy that the [Ten Thousand Demon Emperor] Dao Fruit was nearly drooling.

Li Che's heart slightly stirred.

[Dao Fruit: Ten Thousand Demon Emperor (lvl 5, 50%)]

This Dao Fruit was obtained by Xi Xi at just seven years old, but its enhancement rate was extremely fast, having absorbed a large amount of demon energy after killing the Old Dragon God, thus achieving transformation and elevation.

And this Crane Demon of One Disaster One Tribulation Realm had given Li Che tremendous attraction.

Not just the allure of demon energy, but also the consideration that the second fierce position of the Ten Fierce Brushwork might have a place for it.

However, whether it fits the second fierce position remains uncertain.

"These demon races are exceedingly cruel, viewing the human race as blood food... Outside the human powers of Great Vista, Da Li, and Western Regions Buddha Land, there are only demon race's Ten Thousand Rivers, places overrun by demons where nearly all humans are devoured clean... "

Fang Hanshu's voice was low.

Li Che squinted slightly, demon race... are they really that hateful?

Yet, it can be imagined, it's racial hatred, even between Great Vista and Da Li there is ceaseless slaughter due to differences in human territories and races.

Not to mention the disparity between humans and demons.

The great battle ultimately did not erupt, Lv Taibai merely came to witness the arrogance of demons occupying Qi Tian City.

And having seen it personally, finally understood the degree of their arrogance.

The Crane Demon did not pursue them afterwards because beyond Qi Tian City, without the influence of Mysterious Fog, it would face the Heaven and Earth Will's tribulation; the Crane Demon did not want to go out and be struck by lightning.

So, he watched Lv Taibai and his group leave.

Lv Taibai returned to his flying sword, his eyes glowed continuously.

"That Crane... has eaten many people, his demon energy sword light contains countless human souls, harrowing."

"Kill!"

A fierce look emerged in Lv Taibai's eyes.

Li Che remained silent, but deeply looked at the Crane Demon standing over Qi Tian City, with wings like swords.

"Let's go."

The flying sword turned, ready to leave Qi Tian City, heading first to Five-finger Town to rest.

However.

Just as the flying sword turned around.

Suddenly, a terrifying aura erupted from Qi Tian City, monstrous demon energy, gray-black in color, poured into the sky, causing the Heavenly Dome to change color.

Numerous rolling demon energies gathered above Qi Tian City, slowly forming an enormous and sinister bull head.

The bull head opened its mouth, letting out a deafening sound, tearing through the sky, waves crashing violently, sweeping beyond Qi Tian City.

The space seemed to unravel, presenting fine cracks.

Lv Taibai was startled, not only Lv Taibai, but Lv Qiankun and Fang Hanshu on the flying sword also tightened their pupils!

"That is... a Divine Tribulation Venerable of the Realm of Two Disasters! The Demon God Venerable of the demon race!"

Rumbling——

The terrifying aura surged like a tide, with the enormous bull head, seemingly competing with the heavens and earth in splendor, filled with dreadful demon energy and fierce wrath.

"That black bull from Ten Thousand Rivers?!"

"A Demon God Venerable of the Realm of Two Disasters! Indeed, Qi Tian City houses a Demon God Venerable of the demon race!"

"Damn it, is this meant to block all our pathways into it?"

"Is the demon race truly attempting to seize and completely occupy the tremendous opportunity of Qi Tian City?"

...

At the instant the aura erupted.

In Five-finger Town.

Many powerful figures in Five-finger Town who had been watching Lv Taibai and his group, now sensed the situation and rose to the sky, gazing intently.

Lv Taibai's probe of Qi Tian City actually summoned a Demon God Venerable of the Two Disaster Realm from the demon race?

Just such a probe, and the demon race made this kind of move, not giving them an opportunity?

This is too much!

Crack, crack—!!

The sky is boundless, black clouds amassed, hanging low like streams!

Countless lightning bolts rolled and raged quickly among the Cloud Dome, emerging abruptly, causing dazzling brilliance!

As if the Heaven and Earth Will had been provoked, letting out a furious roar!

Accompanied by waves rippling through, an incredibly powerful pressure instantly poured out from Qi Tian City.

A vast oppression intertwined violently.

A surging momentum crashed down, like waves rising and falling, causing space to nearly shatter.

On the flying sword, Lv Taibai, Lv Qiankun stiffened their bodies.

Li Che's eyes also burned brightly, staring at the massive black bull head, like a mountain, wrapped within the endless demon energy!

The [Ten Thousand Demon Emperor] Dao Fruit in his chest was excited enough to almost drool rampantly.

But, Li Che took a deep breath.

Chapter 1715: Temple God Resonance of the Qi Tian Mysterious Temple, How to Satisfy the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit

So powerful!

Is this the strength of a Divine Tribulation Cultivator at the Second Calamity level?

However, at this moment, another name emerged in Li Che's mind.

This ox, how does it compare to the Chief Supervisor?

When the Chief Supervisor first appeared in the Divine Capital, the feeling he gave Li Che was even more terrifying.

The huge head of the Black Bull Demon God was floating above Qi Tian City.

The Crane Demon on the city gate had already clasped its hands respectfully in greeting.

The head of the Black Bull Demon God scanned across, landing on the flying sword, then looking toward the Five-finger Mountain, noticing the dense gathering of strong cultivators from the Great Vista, Da Li, and the Western Regions Buddha Land that had unknowingly gathered.

In those enormous crimson eyes, akin to the size of buildings, a hint of wisdom seemed to shine.

"Esteemed heroes of the human race, gathered from all over the world to Qi Tian City..."

"Although Qi Tian City has long been occupied by my Ten Thousand Rivers, I sensed the God's Intent of the Temple God and under the guidance of the Qitian Temple God, thus, I will open slots to enter Qi Tian City."

"All heroes from the various major forces of the world, as long as you pass the test of rules set by this old bull, you can enter Qi Tian City..."

As soon as the words were spoken.

Immediately, like a wave or a tide, they surged wildly in all directions.

For a moment, even the heavens and earth seemed to quiet down.

Many strong individuals had their minds in a constant tumultuous clash, feeling immensely astonished.

Among them, many had been in Qi Tian City for a while.

They were all stationed in Five-finger Town. Some tried to break into Qi Tian City, but all had failed. After all, the demon race had set up in Qi Tian City for five hundred years. Initially, it was only the Demon King in charge, but as the anomaly in Qi Tian City began, it became the Demon God taking command.

Even a Divine Tribulation Cultivator attempting to enter is not an easy task.

Buzz——

Space fluctuated.

Several Divine Tribulation Cultivators' eyes flashed as they looked toward the terrifying Black Bull Demon God, looming in the sky over Qi Tian City, releasing a tremendous oppressive presence like towering mountains.

The massive eyes of the Black Bull Demon God scanned over.

He burst into laughter.

"Qi Tian City has a total of four city gates facing east, south, west, and north. However, the east gate faces the East Sea, occupied by us, the demon race. The other three gates, the north, west, and south, can be opened and serve as entrances for all of you!"

"Those who wish to enter the city must defeat the gatekeepers of my demon race!"

"Of course, the demon race of my Ten Thousand Rivers, upholding the Heavenly Will, shows understanding. Each city gate has two gatekeepers, one Demon God and one Demon King, corresponding to your human race's different cultivation levels."

"Divine Tribulation cultivators who wish to enter must defeat the Demon God, while those seeking Absolute Peak must defeat the Demon King."

"The conditions have been set by my demon race. If you can't enter the city, don't blame us for not following the rules!"

"The demon race that upholds the Heavenly Will is the most rule-abiding!"

The voice of the Black Bull Demon God boomed, like the sound of a great temple bell at the peak of a snowy mountain, reverberating strongly and chaotically disrupting the mind.

After speaking.

On the flying sword.

Li Che's eyes couldn't help but flicker.

This Black Bull Demon God, could he be intending to deceive the human race cultivators into entering to kill them?

But, it shouldn't be...

After all, this Black Bull Demon God spoke in the name of Qi Tian.

With the Temple God Resonance at the Qi Tian Mysterious Temple about to occur, using Qi Tian's name for deception now would only be detrimental to the resonance...

While pondering in his heart, the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Tao Fruit within his chest began to stir restlessly once again.

Li Che soothed the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Tao Fruit.

While thinking to himself.

This Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Tao Fruit jumping around like this isn't a solution.

Need to think of a way...

To satiate the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Tao Fruit.

Chapter 1716: The Underworld's Elite Bull 1 and Bull 2, Jumping Back and Forth on the Rules to Feed the Dao Fruit

Rumble—

A deafening sound emitted from the gigantic, terrifying Black Bull Demon God, spreading sonic ripples in all directions.

The flying sword hovered above the vast sky.

Lv Taibai stood at the sword's tip, his shiny silver-white hair constantly fluttering, and a serious expression revealed in his eyes.

Beside him, Lv Qiankun and Fang Hanshu both had flickering expressions, eager to make a move.

If they could enter Qi Tian City earlier, it would naturally be greatly beneficial for the Temple God Resonance of Qi Tian Mysterious Temple.

After all, Qi Tian City was once left by the Equal Heaven Temple, and there may be many traces inside that, through clues, might reveal some methods and ways regarding the Temple God Resonance of Qi Tian Mysterious Temple.

In fact, not only Lv Taibai and others, even the strong men from all over the world who rose up in the Five-finger Town also showed some peculiar expressions.

Of course, some people hesitated in their hearts, questioning whether this old black bull truly intended to open Qi Tian City.

Or was it a false pretense, luring them into the city to kill them?

If that were true... one would rather not enter by such a rule, but continue to gather the strong and storm into Qi Tian City together.

However, the various forces themselves were not united, like those from the Dajing side, originally the first person at the Heavenly Gate, Ye Pengju, and experts from the Temple Control Bureau like Wang Kui, as well as a Divine Tribulation ancestor from the Dajing Royal Family.

Their cooperation with the Da Li Royal Court naturally caused friction and made it difficult to truly cooperate for a win-win situation.

Moreover, the Western Regions Buddha Land was in an adversarial relationship with both Dajing and Da Li, because the Western Regions Buddha Land's goal was to transform the entire world into a Buddha Country.

Let the Great Buddha reside forever, billions of people simultaneously believe in Buddha, convert to the Buddha Country!

Both Dajing and Da Li are naturally among the targets of the Western Regions Buddha Land.

In fact, the Western Regions Buddha Land has already begun this endeavor, with an overt goal, causing many regions of Dajing and Da Li to become parts of the Buddha Land.

For example, Dajing's Xiling Road, as well as the bordering areas between Da Li and the Western Regions Buddha Land, etc.

It can only be said that the Human Race is not united in heart, at least, not unless faced with an existential crisis.

Just like now, when the Second Disaster Black Bull Demon God Venerable in Qi Tian City spoke, Five-finger Town became chaotic, with many hearts moved.

Fang Hanshu stood on the flying sword and with a glance realized that this coalition organized to attack Qi Tian City together was falling apart before the battle even began.

But this was normal, as it wasn't a solid alliance to begin with.

Fang Hanshu sighed softly, the Human Race... is always like this.

Everyone has thoughts, their own little schemes, and are always seeking benefits and avoiding harm.

In a united attack, no one knows how many will die, how many experts will fall, or even if they can enter Qi Tian City.

Now, the Demon God Venerable proposed a method to enter Qi Tian City without a fight, naturally gaining the support of most of the strong.

Unable to enter Qi Tian City, it can only be said to be one's own inadequacy.

After all, as long as you defeat the gatekeeping demon race, you can enter the city... if you can't defeat them, it's naturally due to your own inadequacy.

"Hahaha, rest assured, everyone, with the will of Equaling Heaven, since I have spoken, I will keep my word... If you all can enter the city, you may find a place to reside within Qi Tian City, and my Demon Race will absolutely not harm a hair on your heads!"

The massive old black bull, surging with vast demon energy, laughed heartily.

Then, its huge, copper-like eyes burst with brilliance, releasing a terrifying aura that shook the entirety of Qi Tian City.

"Where are the Demons of the Ten Thousand Rivers?!"

Supported by countless demon energy, the old bull seemed to charge towards the sky.

"At the West Gate of Qi Tian City, the Heavenly Crane Demon God and the top demon kings under its command are stationed! Human Divine Tribulations who wish to enter the city must defeat the Thousand Crane Demon God! Those below Divine Tribulation who wish to enter must surpass the top demon kings at the gate!"

Explosive sounds echoed.

At the city gate where Lv Taibai had just knocked, the middle-aged man transformed from a White Crane, holding a radiant long sword, unleashed terrifying Power of Tribulation, with the Disaster Wheel appearing behind, and Sword Qi soaring to the heavens!

"At the North Gate of Qi Tian City, the Jade Horned Rhinoceros Demon God and its top demon kings are stationed!"

"At the South Gate of Qi Tian City, the Golden Winged Demon God and its top demon kings are stationed!"

...

Rumble—

The demon energy soared to the sky and surged incessantly, as the voice of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable rolled like heavenly thunder.

Then, in all three directions of Qi Tian City, there were three demon energy pillars rising to the sky!

The demon energy was so dense, it seemed tangible, charging into the sky, dispersing the black clouds above, forming demon energy clouds!

Strong winds roared, shaking the heavens and earth!

Such a display was truly terrifying!

Within Qi Tian City, the side of the Demon Race of the Ten Thousand Rivers, immediately deployed such a formation, with three demon gods stationed at the three city gates!

To enter the city, one has to defeat the Demon God!

Above Qi Tian City, Great Demons rose into the sky, joining the demon race, stirring up a terrifying tide of demon energy!

They gazed teasingly at the human cultivators outside Qi Tian City.

Occupying Qi Tian City in advance meant taking the initiative, allowing them to advance and retreat freely.

Buzz——

Lv Taibai's heart stirred.

Immediately, the Taibai Sword carried everyone back to the ground.

Li Che led Xi Xi and the little ones out of the flying sword, while Fang Hanshu, Lv Qiankun, and Lv Taibai stood firm on the ground.

Chapter 1717: The Underworld's Master Experts—Niu 1 and Niu 2—Jumping Back and Forth Through the Rules to Feed the Dao Fruit

Behind them, the sound of one breaking the sky after another echoed.

Li Che held Xi Xi's hand, turned back, and saw figures rushing from the direction of Five-finger Town.

At a glance, he even saw many familiar faces.

For instance, the Sect Master of Xuanfu Divine Sect, who is Lv Taibai's brother-in-law, Xuan Jiu Zhuan!

However, Xuan Jiu Zhuan came alone, without bringing the Grandmaster of Xuanfu Divine Sect, which was actually quite unreasonable.

Besides, there was also the Sect Master of Purple Mansion Divine Sect, Zhang Wuji, the Purple Moon Sect Master of the Purple Bamboo Forest, and others...

Li Che's eyes swept across them, his heart slightly moved.

It must be said, the opening of Qi Tian City attracted powerful figures from all around the world, even in Da Jing's side, they came in droves.

The five Ancient Families of Da Jing, the three Ancient Noble Families of Divine Capital, Ji Family, Yue Family, and Gongshu Family, as well as the Huang Family, an Ancient Family on Xiling Road, and the Fang Family, an Ancient Family on Jiangnan Dao.

They all dispatched several strong individuals, including some extremely aged Divine Tribulation Cultivators, wishing to seize one last chance at life.

Naturally, the Great Divine Sects within Da Jing also sent potent figures.

In addition, there were figures Li Che wasn't familiar with, whom he could only deduce from their attire that they were not from the Central Plains but from the Western Regions Buddha Land, Da Li Royal Court, and Wushen Mountain.

They had initially stayed in Five-finger Town but rushed in after hearing the Black Bull Demon God Venerable speak.

All forces took positions according to camps, evidently, the words of the Old Black Bull directly shattered the unstable alliance within the Human Race.

Li Che merely cast a rough glance before withdrawing his gaze.

These arrivals should be the top echelon in the world as of now.

Of course, in Li Che's view, the Great Supervising Minister, Great Witch God of Wushen Mountain, and the Pavilion Master of Hunting God Pavilion, along with the founder of the Da Jing Dynasty's Imperial Court, should be the strongest of several.

Today, such powerful figures did not appear.

Their absence was probably due to restrictions from the will of Heaven and Earth.

Outside Qi Tian City, formidable figures from all sides gathered, and after exchanging glances, they tacitly stood according to camps.

Xuan Jiu Zhuan flew towards the direction where Lv Taibai and others were standing.

In truth, only Xuan Jiu Zhuan chose to stand with the Qian Yuan Divine Sect.

Xuan Jiu Zhuan looked complexly at the flamboyantly dressed Lv Taibai who had broken through to Divine Tribulation: "I should congratulate you, you kid, finally stepping into Divine Tribulation."

Xuan Jiu Zhuan said sincerely.

Although he had always looked down on Lv Taibai, he had to admit, the judgment of his sister, Xuan Qisha, was indeed better than his.

Lv Taibai smiled broadly: "This also proves that letting Qisha follow me was not wrong, right..."

Xuan Jiu Zhuan chuckled lightly.

Though he usually cursed because of this, this time he didn't dwell too much on the matter, and didn't bicker with Lv Taibai.

He turned to look at Qi Tian City, at the towering Demon Energy Pillar, and the intimidating Demon God pressure made his body slightly tremble.

"Lv Taibai, Xuanfu Divine Sect received Qisha's request for help... The Grandmaster encountered some trouble, and you are aware of it. Now within Xuanfu Divine Sect, I don't have a say, so I left Xuanfu Divine Sect on Qingyun Road to have peace of mind..."

"When I received the message, I initially intended to aid Qian Yuan, but I was late, so upon hearing of your victory, I changed course."

Xuan Jiu Zhuan lightly explained.

He regarded his sister's affairs highly.

Lv Taibai's eyes narrowed, Xuanfu Divine Sect's situation... is it that severe?

Even this genius of Divine Talismans, Xuan Jiu Zhuan, was driven out, unwilling to return to the sect.

Lv Taibai sighed softly, saying no more.

The atmosphere gradually grew somber, outside Qi Tian City's three gates, three Demon Gods sat, with demon energy soaring into pillars.

Below the city, forces from all sides stood by their camp.

No one took the initiative to challenge the Demon Gods guarding Qi Tian City's gates.

It seemed none wished to be the first to take a risk.

After all, it was too dangerous.

No one was sure, even if they truly defeated the Demon Gods and set foot within Qi Tian City...

Whether they would be besieged by the Demon Race, or even have the Demon God Venerable personally strike them down.

Those who have cultivated to the Divine Tribulation Realm are essentially immortal figures, the longer they live, the more they cherish their lives.

Thus, after the Black Bull Demon God Venerable declared the rules, many strong figures who originally clamored to break into Qi Tian City suddenly fell silent.

Li Che held Xi Xi's hand, standing behind Lv Qiankun and others' shelter.

His gaze flickered slightly, a bold idea emerged in his mind, this idea... might possibly fulfill

In his chest, the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit was constantly trembling.

A strong desire spread from Li Che's heart.

"I can't hold back anymore..."

Li Che muttered softly.

Xi Xi looked up in doubt, gazing at Li Che: "Daddy, can't hold back what?"

Li Che gently smiled, tousling Xi Xi's hair, messing up the little girl's hairstyle.

"Nothing."

Li Che finished tousling Xi Xi's hair.

What remained in place was the Painting Immortal Avatar.

And Xi Xi was completely oblivious, clueless about the transition.

Just excitedly raising her head, staring at the gates of Qi Tian City, muttering discontentedly: "What is everyone afraid of, fight! Strike!"

"How can there be a battle and not fight?"

"Let's get high!"

Xi Xi muttered without stopping.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh—

The wind of Heaven and Earth suddenly blew.

Outside the oppressive Qi Tian City, those numerous strong figures contemplating, waiting for the first brave soul, suddenly opened their eyes.

Chapter 1718: The Underworld Has Experts Niu 1 and Niu 2, Skipping Rules to Feed Dao Fruit

A group of strong entities with Heaven and Earth Soul surged and swept, quickly noticing the many Jianghu guests who came to watch.

Among them, there was a sturdy figure wrapped in a black robe, wearing a bamboo hat, slowly emerging from the onlookers, walking step by step.

The black robe flapped in the wind, sweeping fiercely.

The face was obscured under the hat, making it hard to see.

But the solitary figure marched towards the majestic and towering Qi Tian City, where Demon Gods erupted with demon energy pillars, ravaging the world.

Many people's minds were slightly disturbed.

"Who is it?"

Curiosity churned in the minds of many.

Jianghu guest?

In the martial world, how many fools are there?

Numerous Divine Tribulation cultivators were waiting, waiting to see who couldn't hold back, and in the end... a Jianghu guest ran out to meet death?

In such an event, is it something a Jianghu guest can meddle with?

Many were cold-eyed, with even a trace of mockery in their gaze.

The strong entities present hailed from various Great Divine Sects, the Da Jing Dynasty, the Da Li Royal Court, Ancient Family, and other major powers.

Naturally, they did not think much of the Jianghu guest.

Just watching an amusing spectacle.

The figure wrapped in a black robe, wearing a bamboo hat, slowly advanced to the base of the West City Tower.

Heavenly Crane Demon God, seated atop the city gate, cast a gaze sharp as a sword, icy to the utmost, seemingly cleaving through the air.

The terrifying calamity pressure unique to Divine Tribulation cultivators descended like a mountain.

However, the Jianghu guest cloaked and hooded in black, showed no signs of trembling.

Utterly calm.

Boom—!!!

Next moment, the overwhelming sensing of a Martial Saint surged forth!

Atop the tower.

Heavenly Crane Demon God squinted: "Four-Open Martial Saint... Ha."

"White Mantis Demon King, you're up."

"This is your food."

With those words, a streak of white knife light burst forth from behind him, with turbulent sword energy raging, roiling endlessly!

White Mantis Demon King... a formidable demon king rivaling top-level peak Martial Saints, one of the five demon kings that first claimed Qi Tian City.

However, with the arrival of numerous powerful demon gods from Ten Thousand Rivers, these demon kings gradually retreated to secondary roles.

White Mantis Demon King landed on the ground, and the earth before Qi Tian City seemed to be cleaved by invisible sword energy.

Though humanoid, his hands lacked palms, instead with two elongated sharp white blades fused with the bones.

The twin blades gently swung, and even the air felt like it was being sliced apart.

Top-level peak versus Four-Open Martial Saint...

No suspense whatsoever.

Yet, the Jianghu guest lightly smiled, his voice carrying a deep, resonant timbre.

"Can it be killed?"

A faint voice emanated from the Jianghu guest, seemingly directed at the Black Bull Demon God Venerable above Qi Tian City, shrouded in stacked demon energy.

The massive eyes of Black Bull Demon God Venerable slightly squinted.

"Of course it can."

"Killing the opponent also counts as a victory."

"If you can kill my demon race's demon king, go ahead. But if you lack the ability and are killed by my demon race's demon king... then it's merely because you're not strong enough, yet insist on being the one to stand out."

Black Bull Demon God Venerable's voice resounded like a grand bell.

Upon hearing Black Bull Demon God Venerable's words, White Mantis Demon King's bulbous eyes suddenly lit up.

"Die—!!!"

Bang—!

As his foot landed firmly, the surrounding air currents and metallic atmosphere churned, white waves billowed, air blasted away, countless sword energies sliced all directions densely!

The moment White Mantis Demon King made his move.

Everyone's gaze tightened, their sights fixating.

Boom—!!!

Countless sword energies mixed with demon energy exploded instantly.

The Jianghu guest's hat was sliced by the sword energy, revealing hair dark and strong like black lightning, thrashing furiously in the air, exploding in countless white waves.

Beneath the dark hair was a face covered with a Cute Bull Mask, with an engraving knife etched into it the word "One."

Boom—

Sword energy exploded open!

The top-level peak White Mantis Demon King suddenly sensed a horrible pressure!

Countless sword energies swung fiercely down!

And the observing crowd, suddenly animated.

Hmm?!

"Bull Demon?!"

Many were suddenly struck by the thought of this name.

Netherworld Ox Demon!

Truly too famous, or rather, in today's world, the name of Netherworld has already earned great renown, no longer the obscure figure just out of Flying Thunder.

Netherworld!

Initially thought to be a mindless act of suicide by a Jianghu guest, the cultivators of various major powers suddenly exuded scintillating glints from their eyes!

Even Divine Tribulation cultivators seemed unsettled, their powerful Heaven and Earth Soul swiftly scanning.

"I, am from Netherworld... Niu Yi."

A hoarse voice echoed from beneath the Cute Bull Mask with a scratch mark.

Boom—

The figure's body suddenly expanded, muscles akin to coiling dragons stacked together, five fingers clenched, nine grim tendons of Angry Dragon almost bulged the black robe!

The White Mantis Demon King who released sword energy, suddenly felt his hackles rise, sensing a colossal pressure like a mountain bearing down.

Within, his demon energy felt like it was targeted by a terrifying Demon God, an insurmountable pressure paralyzed him on the spot.

"Ah—!!!"

The threat of death poured down, making White Mantis Demon King scream angrily.

With his mantis blades, he defiantly swung rapidly, escaping the inexplicable pressure, countless sword energies mixing with demon energy, slicing furiously!

Chapter 1719: The Underworld's Experts Niu 1 and Niu 2—Feeding the Dao Fruit by Exploiting the Rules

Boom—!!!

A clash between fists and blades with no embellishments!

The fist strength surged like a vast sea, erupting like a flood!

Countless sword qi exploded, shattering like mirrors, the air trembling like cloth, waves radiating outward, continually expanding in all directions!

Just one punch.

The explosion was like a clap of thunder!

The terrifying power shattered the sword qi, shattered the White Mantis Demon King's twin blades, and struck its chest.

The explosion spread, instantly like thunder!

The White Mantis Demon King suddenly fell into endless confusion.

Is this a human?

Is this the physique that humans can possess?!

It must be fake!

Under this person's black robe, is there not a terrifying ancient demon elephant hidden?

Its physique as a demon king couldn't even withstand it!

The fist struck the White Mantis Demon King's chest, feeling the terrifying power pouring out from the fist, like mountains collapsing and seas overturning.

The White Mantis Demon King suddenly screamed to the sky!

Boom——

The air behind exploded instantly, compressed to the extreme, exploding into a column-like shockwave, crashing into the city gate of Qi Tian City.

A sound of explosion resounded.

The White Mantis Demon King's physical body was instantly torn apart!

Countless green demon blood rained down like a torrential rain, continuously pouring.

Woo woo woo woo——

The wind blew, demon energy permeated like a thick incense.

Inside and outside Qi Tian City seemed to fall into silence.

On the city tower, the eyes of the Heavenly Crane Demon God suddenly narrowed sharply.

One... one punch?!

The White Mantis Demon King was under his command as a top demon king, even mastering the Witch Demon Tribulation, exploding forcefully, could reach the half-step Demon God level with the help of the Witch Demon Tribulation power!

Yet...

The White Mantis Demon King... couldn't even withstand a single punch, directly blown up!

On the other side.

Cultivators from various major forces around the world were also silently speechless.

Indeed, the style of the Underworld, truly domineering and unreasonable.

"Isn't it the Bull Demon, but Niu Yi?"

"Isn't this the Bull Demon?!"

"Even the strong from the Underworld under the Bull Demon can be this strong?"

...

Voices of discussion echoed endlessly.

Xi Xi excitedly swung Li Che's arm: "Daddy! Is this one of Master Niu Niu's mighty warriors?!"

Li Che's mouth held a gentle smile, nodding slightly.

Lv Taibai, Fang Hanshu, Lv Qiankun and others all had curious looks.

However, they quickly focused, beginning to pay attention to the demeanor the demon race occupying Qi Tian City would show, whether to allow Niu Yi into the city or become embarrassed and go back on their word.

A multitude of gazes, with surprise, all looked at that five-fingered Ji Zhang, who collected the exploded blood and flesh and demon core of the White Mantis Demon King, from the Underworld Niu Yi.

"Leave the demon core behind!"

A voice like grit teeth echoed, the sword qi raging fiercely, as if the heavens and earth emitted the sound of knives sharpening on glass.

Li Che, wearing a mask with a horizontal line indicating Niu Yi's identity, grasped the White Mantis Demon King's demon core with five fingers.

In the chest cavity.

The [Emperor of Ten Thousand Demons] Dao Fruit seemed to transform into a bottomless pit, siphoning the demon energy from the demon core entirely.

In just a moment, a demon king's demon core was completely absorbed.

Li Che, still unsated, stored away the demon core.

"Why should I leave the demon core that I busted out with my skills?"

"If I were defeated, would you still not take my Qiankun Jade?"

A hoarse voice resounded.

Then, Li Che looked at the Black Bull Demon God Venerable and said, "Or could it be... that the rules you've set are but a joke?"

"You've passed, Qi Tian City... you may enter."

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable, with an immensely terrifying huge bull face lowered, stared at the cute bull mask with scratches as if letting out a gentle laugh.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God was somewhat unwilling: "Demon God Venerable..."

"Open the city gate!"

However, just as the Heavenly Crane Demon God began to speak, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable's voice, like a mighty bell and thunder, exploded loudly!

The Heavenly Crane Demon God didn't dare say anything more.

In the demon race, hierarchy is extremely strict, the oppressive force between demon energy not much inferior to Divine Majesty.

Since the Black Bull Demon God Venerable spoke, as a Demon God in the One Disaster One Tribulation Realm, he naturally dared not contradict.

Creaaak creaaak...

The West Gate, accompanied by a heavy and distant sound, resounded instantly.

Then slowly opened.

Li Che glanced around, giving a slight smile.

Adjusting the mask, he stepped forward towards the city.

"To show that our demon race will not arbitrarily kill you, you may first choose a house within Qi Tian City, and then..e to the city tower."

Black Bull Demon God Venerable spoke.

"Good."

Li Che responded indifferently.

His entire being then slipped into the black tunnel of the city gate.

Passing through the dark doorway, the overwhelming demon energy nearly saturated every corner of the city, even seeping into the crevices of the walls.

For five hundred years, the Demon Race had truly thoroughly studied the whole Qi Tian City.

Once inside the city, Li Che encountered densely packed demons, some not resembling human form, some still exuding wildness, and some with eyes full of sinister killing intent...

Standing on both sides of the streets, the intense mysterious fog mixed with demon energy wafted within the city.

The entire Qi Tian City seemed to have transformed into a Small Cave Heaven, with the sense of Heaven and Earth Will significantly blocked.

Under the scrutiny of countless demons, Li Che chose a courtyard.

He then left the courtyard and appeared on the city wall, not far from the Heavenly Crane Demon God.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God had lost a capable subordinate, his face extremely ugly, filled with rage and murder intent.

However, the orders of Black Bull Demon God Venerable, he dared not disobey.

"Primordial Leopard Demon King! You replace White Mantis Demon King!"

"Kill! Kill them hard! Show no mercy! Tear apart all the humans who dare challenge!"

"I want them dead!"

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's voice was extremely icy, filled with boiling, seething killing intent.

Having lost a subordinate was not the point.

The point was that the West Gate he was guarding had been breached!

This would make him the laughingstock among the great Demon Gods, a humiliation!

If it's humiliation, it can only be cleansed with slaughter!

"Who else dares to storm Qi Tian City!"

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's hair flew wildly, the strands like swords, his Crane Robe fluttered relentlessly, clanging loudly, as if cutting through the air.

Yet, standing on the city tower, Li Che's lips curled slightly beneath his mask.

His heart stirred.

Silently, the transformation of the Painting Immortal Avatar was completed.

Amidst the dense crowd of Jianghu Guests watching the spectacle.

Suddenly.

Another figure emerged, slowly stepping forward, pushing through the crowd of Jianghu Guests, walking step by step.

In his chest, the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit throbbed, altering his form.

The Jianghu Guests instantly buzzed with astonishment.

Is our Great Scenery Jianghu so full of talents?

Buzz—

On that city tower, Primordial Leopard Demon King immediately landed on the ground, the leopard head with sharp eyes, extremely solemn, daring not to underestimate.

His aura erupted, immediately the half-step Demon God aura rampaged, a trace of Witch Demon Tribulation Power unleashed, forming Dao Yun Demon Tribulation Power!

The lesson of White Mantis Demon King was right before him, how could Primordial Leopard Demon King take it lightly?

Primordial Leopard Demon King stared at the figure emerging from the Jianghu Guests, the black robe fluttering, the hat soaring.

Most Jianghu Guests dressed like this, yet it gave Primordial Leopard Demon King a chill down his spine.

But, since the Heavenly Crane Demon God ordered him to act, he could only comply.

Moreover, behind the battle of guarding the city, lay the rules set by Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

How could he dare to defy?

"Kill—!!!"

Primordial Leopard Demon King let out a fierce roar, the leopard's roar exploded, endless currents shattered!

The demon energy on his body surged up continuously!

A gigantic Leopard appeared, baring its sharp fangs with savagery!

With no reservations, all firepower unleashed!

However.

The Jianghu Guest slowly drew out a long sword, the blade shook, and suddenly endless, resonant Sword Intent, vast and desolate.

As if a lone figure, walking alone through thousands of mountains!

Blade raised, the sword light like a dragon!

In fierce combat, merely three strikes.

Half-step ahead of Heaven, Hundred Feet Dao Domain!

Power abruptly dissipated, Primordial Leopard Demon King roared in panic!

Then was cleaved in two, then swept into endless sword light, shredded into countless pieces.

Blood fell like flowers in rain...

Yet, this second challenger to the rules set by Black Bull Demon God Venerable, held Primordial Leopard Demon King's demon core in one hand, strands of demon energy siphoned by Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit...

Slowly taking off his hat.

Under the hat.

Revealed another Cute Bull Mask.

Except, on this Cute Bull Mask, there were no longer just one scratch, but two!

Beneath the mask, Li Che's lips curled slightly.

Using the rules, mastering the rules, repeatedly jumping, only then can feed the Dao Fruit!

If you dare to send out Demon Kings... then the Underworld, won't hesitate to collect them!

Under the mask, a pair of eyes gleamed with intensity.

Directly staring at the seated Heavenly Crane Demon God on the city tower.

Laughter lightly rose.

"Underworld Niu Er, thanks for the concession."

Chapter 1720: Opening the Martial Saint Heavenly Gate Before Qi Tian City, Witnessing the Martial Immortal After the Golden Heavenly Gate

Underworld...

Again, it's the Underworld!

Moreover, it's that familiar Cute Bull Mask, even though it bears two engraved marks, it's still the same Cute Bull Mask.

Niu Yi, Niu Er...

Continuously slaughtered two Top Demon Kings!

In an instant, the atmosphere turned murderous and chilling, the terrifying killing intent roared violently, pouring down from the city tower.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God, seated atop the city tower, looked extremely grim. These were Top Demon Kings, which were extremely important top combat power even under his command!

As a result, two of them fell at once, a huge loss for the Heavenly Crane Demon King, directly causing his status among the Ten Thousand Rivers in the human world to plummet.

He lost the qualification to compare his status with other Demon Gods.

In the Demon Race, one's subordinates are extremely important, how many Demon Kings, and the number of Great and Little Demons, all matters greatly.

"Underworld!!!"

The Heavenly Crane Demon God was furious beyond restraint, his crane-like eyes almost seemed to burst from their sockets, his roar seemed to pierce through the long sky!

He stood up suddenly, countless Sword Qi raged and intertwined, and his Crane Robe fluttered incessantly.

He turned his head towards Niu Yi not far from the city tower.

Are Niu Yi and Niu Er... the same person?

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's face was extremely cold.

However, Li Che down below, after killing the Primordial Leopard Demon King, leisurely siphoned the Demon Core, feeling very pleased.

Before his eyes, a flash of light passed by.

[Dao Fruit: Ten Thousand Demon Emperor (LV5, 70%)]

The demon energy of a Demon King directly increased the maturity of the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit by 10%. With a few more, the Dao Fruit might directly rise to Level 6.

Thus, the smile on Li Che's lips was unstoppable, and he felt great.

Continuously nurturing the maturity of a Dao Fruit was extremely important and rare for Li Che.

The atmosphere in the world became very eerie.

Even the massive black bull head formed by countless demon energy above Qi Tian City had a faintly angry expression.

After all, Niu Yi and Niu Er truly... are too suggestive, possibly being the same person causing trouble.

But...

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable's terrifying Heaven and Earth Soul, capable of freezing space, swept over, passing through Niu Yi's body, his brows furrowing.

Because Niu Yi stood on the city tower, flesh and blood, unable to discern the truth.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's body was full of clanging Sword Qi.

Yet, under the pressure of the Black Bull Demon God, he dared not move in the slightest. Rank prevails over rank, especially in the Demon Race, where higher ranks have absolute dominance over lower ones.

"Enter the city."

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable said calmly.

Li Che, wearing the Niu Er mask, was unfazed and entered the city directly.

After selecting a house within the city, he went up the city tower, standing shoulder to shoulder with Niu Er.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God, sitting on the city tower, swept his sharp gaze harshly over the masked figures of Niu Yi and Niu Er.

However, Niu Yi and Niu Er remained calm, after all, they were just Fairy in the Painting avatars.

Beneath Qi Tian City.

Among the many cultivator onlookers, someone suddenly couldn't help but chuckle softly.

The actions of the Demon Race indeed seemed like hoisting a rock only to drop it on one's own foot.

The strong certainly have the privilege to set rules.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable, wishing to uphold the Heavenly Will, perhaps intended to establish such rules to use them to have the fierce Demon Race strong slaughter some human clan cultivators attempting to enter the city, to intimidate the human race.

In preventing the human race from uniting to besiege the Qi Tian City Demon Race, they could also dampen the human race's spirit.

As a result...

Instead, two Demon Kings were killed.

Qi Tian City's Demon Race's spirit was rather diminished.

The human clan cultivators gathered beneath Qi Tian City actually felt relieved; they had been quite subdued for many days.

Clearly, Qi Tian City ought to belong to the human race's territory, yet these human clan cultivators couldn't even set foot in it, being turned away by the Demon Race.

"Hahahaha! Refreshing!"

Lv Taibai laughed aloud.

His silver hair danced wildly, his eyes shining brightly.

The Taibai Sword in his sleeve was already clanking with impatience to unsheathe, to confront the Demon God.

However, Lv Taibai was not in a hurry, for he knew... the Underworld had made a move.

Since the Underworld had acted, let's observe for now.

The Underworld handling matters is the most reassuring.

And not only Lv Taibai, but cultivators from nearly all factions were more or less of the same mind.

See how many more tricks the Underworld has.

In the Western Regions Buddha Land, many Buddhist Monk wearing bamboo hats had flickering eyes.

The Wushen Mountain's Witch God Cultivators, also clad in bamboo hats and black robes, had deep eyes.

Truly, the number of strong ones gathered in Qi Tian City this time was many. If everyone united and attacked Qi Tian City, there would be a great possibility to break the Demon Race's dominance and blockade of Qi Tian City.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable intentionally established a rule for entering the city, perhaps just for this purpose.

But under this rule now...

Already two Top Demon Kings have died.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God looked extremely displeased, yet couldn't lightly disregard the rule set by the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

Thus, he could only move his heart, summoning his last Top Demon King under his command.

It was a robust human-shaped hulk, a Black Bear Demon King, shirtless, wielding a black axe, with brutal and fierce eyes.

"Black Bear Demon King, assist me in defense."

The Heavenly Crane Demon God said in a deep voice.

However, after he spoke, his gaze suddenly shifted, looking towards the bustling Da Chuan where many curious Jianghu Guests had gathered.
