Chapter 1721: Opening the Martial Saint Heavenly Gate at Qi Tian City, Witnessing the Martial Immortal after the Golden Heavenly Gate

As expected, another Jianghu Guest with a straw hat stepped out from the crowd.

His muscles bulged all over, and even the loose black robe couldn't hide the massive musculature piled up beneath.

The terrifying Qi-blood surged and flowed like a torrent!

Martial Saint Four Transformations, yet another Martial Saint Four Transformations!

Many gazes unanimously fell upon the burly figure that stepped out.

Under everyone's watchful eyes, Li Che smiled faintly and took off his hat.

"Niu San from the Underworld, here to seek guidance."

The soft laughter echoed beneath Qi Tian City.

Yet, no one laughed.

Niu San?

Really?

At this moment, even Lv Taibai, a cultivator who had immense confidence in the Underworld, faintly sensed something amiss.

Does the Underworld have that many Nius?

"Alright, alright, Niu San, is it?!"

The Heavenly Crane Demon God was so angry he laughed, looking at the Black Bear Demon King, who was his strongest demon king.

"Kill him for me!"

"I want you to come to me with his head!"

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's tone was sinister.

The Black Bear Demon King, carrying his giant black axe, laughed upward and stepped forward, descending from the tower, instantly transforming into his true black bear form, standing dozens of feet tall, with an imposing mountain-like pressure!

Demon energy soared and roiled, intertwined with the power of the Witch Demon Calamity.

The Human Race cultivates the Three Calamities and Nine Tribulations, the Dragon Clan cultivates the Ancestor Dragon Tribulation, the Demon Race cultivates the Witch Demon Tribulation...

Li Che calmly observed; indeed, this Black Bear Demon King was much stronger than the previous two demon kings, but...

That's all.

Unless it was a Divine Tribulation, Li Che now found it not difficult at all to deal with.

With a grasp of five-fingered Ji Zhang, instantly, countless streams of air seemed to converge in his palm into an extremely dark axe, as if swallowing countless rays of light.

Only endless darkness remained!

Immortal Guidance!

Ghost Axe!

The Black Bear Demon King also wielded his giant axe, stepping forth with a vast aura of swallowing mountains and rivers, the terrifying streams of air surged like tides!

Nonetheless, Niu San's black axe abruptly swung out silently, and on Niu San's body, countless Qi-blood brilliance flashed brightly, shaking the void like waves!

A clash!

Incredibly terrifying boiling Qi-blood rampaged between heaven and earth.

Li Che didn't intend to fight this Black Bear Demon King to a draw.

After the first clash, within Li Che's heart, the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Dao Fruit slightly trembled.

Prototype of Divine Powers, Demon Suppression!

The Black Bear Demon King only felt his heart sink, shivering all over, exposing his fangs, but unable to hide the horror in his eyes!

He looked towards Niu San in astonishment; at where was he still a human, as if beneath the mask lurked a Demon God!

The overwhelming suppression made the Black Bear Demon King suffer and almost cough blood!

He felt an involuntary urge to kneel!

What kind of method is this?!

He recalled the miserable state of the previous two demon kings.

The Black Bear Demon King, at this moment, also became flustered.

Roar!

The Black Bear Demon King roared angrily, attempting to break free from the power of Demon Suppression, and retreat into the city.

However, Li Che followed closely behind, opening the Victory Over Heaven Dao Domain.

That Black Bear Demon King felt a weakness wash over him, as if having paired with hundreds of female bears simultaneously, his legs softened.

Consequently, his cultivation continuously declined, as the pitch-black axe, akin to a black dragon emerging from the abyss, directly severed his head.

Another strike, forcefully cleaving apart.

Blood spilled like a tide!

The demon core was extracted, the demon body retrieved, every move flowing seamlessly.

The Black Bear Demon King, fallen!

The rich bloody smell drifted in the air, and the sky even echoed with the angry roars of the unwilling souls of the fallen demon king!

Clap, clap, clap, clap, clap—

Above the Heavenly Dome, clouds interweaved, and amidst the crackling thunder, as if the continuous fall of demon kings triggered the change in heaven's color.

Large raindrops swiftly poured down from high above.

As they burst upon the ground, they splashed into misty water vapor.

As if trying to wash away the remaining demon energy from the fallen demon kings in front of Qi Tian City.

Cold rain lashed the face.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God stared blankly at the scene before him.

The three demon kings under his command had all fallen...

He instinctively raised his head to look at the Black Bull Demon God Venerable above Qi Tian City, where demon energy roiled endlessly.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable also fell silent.

His gaze tightened, falling on the three masked Netherworld cultivators.

Is this...

A loophole being exploited?

Yet, that wasn't it...

Because the Underworld genuinely sent out a strong force, forcefully killing demon kings.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable naturally believed in his Heaven and Earth Soul, as he scanned over and saw Niu Yi, Niu Er, and Niu San all alive, performing different martial techniques in the clashes.

You could only say...

The demon kings under the Heavenly Crane Demon God weren't as skilled.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God seemed to understand, his expression showing some frustration.

"Indeed, my demon kings...were somewhat weaker."

"However, Demon God Venerable, there's no top-level demon king under me now to continue taking up the gate-keeping task..."

"Rest assured, I will send the top demon king commanders under South Gate Golden Winged Demon God to guard."

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable said calmly.

His voice boomed and vibrated continuously.

Niu San also entered the city and ascended the tower.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God closed his eyes, his breaths fluctuating, but he wasn't as angry anymore, because now that the matter had happened, anger was useless.

He didn't have a top demon king to send out for rampant slaughter.

Li Che didn't feel regret either.

The demon gods guarding the three gates of Qi Tian City were respectively the Heavenly Crane Demon God at the west gate, Jade Horned Rhinoceros Demon God at the north gate, and Golden Winged Demon God at the south gate...

Chapter 1722: Opening the Martial Saint's Heavenly Gate before Qi Tian City, Witnessing the Martial Immortal after the Golden Heavenly Gate

These three Demon Gods...

Li Che's eyes flickered; perhaps it was time to try to make a move against the Demon Gods.

Atop the city tower, Li Che, wearing the Niu San mask, moved his mind, completing the teleportation. He left behind Niu San's Painting Immortal Avatar on the city tower.

Rumble—

The rain poured down, seemingly washing away the death of top Demon Kings, and the remaining demon energy, although not considered an anomaly, indirectly affected the Heaven and Earth Will.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God sat upright on the city tower, lowering his eyes, not making any effort to block the drizzle washing over him.

The death of his three top Demon King generals was...

An immense blow to the Heavenly Crane Demon God.

He suppressed his rage and killing intent.

Suddenly.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God sensed something, his eyes flew open!

In front of Qi Tian City, the void seemed to slowly shatter, with cube-shaped void cracks interweaving and stacking.

Then, a cold, dark portal appeared, slowly fragmenting the void, with city gates extending on both sides, walls spreading endlessly, appearing to press down from the void.

That is...

Underworld Fengdu!

A black city emerged from a torn crack, opposing Qi Tian City!

Whoosh—

The raging winds swept, waves surged, countless raindrops were shattered by a terrifying force!

Sitting on the city tower, the Heavenly Crane Demon God and the will of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, with demon energy congregated above Qi Tian City, both cast their gaze here.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's hair constantly swirled, his eyes filled with fierce anger.

He stared at the Mo City Fengdu city tower, where a figure as towering as Tower Mountain stood.

The figure wore a cute bull mask, with black vigorous hair swirling and whipping, the black tight clothes hugged the muscular form, accentuating the true physique.

"Underworld!"

"It's the Netherworld Ox Demon!"

"One of the true fiends of the Underworld, the Ox Demon!"

...

Countless Human Clan Cultivators watching the battle were shocked and exclaimed.

After Niu Yi, Niu Er, and Niu San...

Will the Netherworld Ox Demon finally make its appearance?!

The Heavenly Crane Demon God abruptly stood, arms spread, crane robe fluttering, killing intent overwhelming!

He knew, this Ox Demon... was coming for him!

In this moment, the Heavenly Crane Demon God suddenly felt relieved, Niu Yi, Niu Er, and Niu San, were probably indeed the powerful generals under the Ox Demon.

Just like White Mantis, Yuan Bao, and Black Bear were his top Demon Kings.

And now, the top Demon Kings were all dead.

It was time for the leaders to settle things!

If Li Che knew the Heavenly Crane Demon God's thoughts at this moment, he'd likely exclaim, "The Demon Race is truly straightforward."

However...

Li Che's eyes flickered; on the Heavenly Crane Demon God's body, thousands of sword qi surged, as if countless souls were roaring, this Heavenly Crane Demon God had claimed countless lives!

The killing intent was incredibly terrifying and powerful.

"Come!"

"Netherworld Ox Demon!"

The Heavenly Crane Demon God took a step forward; behind him, like a white crane spreading its wings, two swords, black and white, revolved around him.

"If you want to enter Qi Tian City, then defeat me!"

"Your subordinates have killed my three Demon Kings; thus, killing you is reasonable!"

In the Heavenly Crane Demon God's pupils, it seemed as if three flowers were swirling, demon energy seemed to connect to the sky.

Rumble—

Countless Human Clan Cultivators watching the battle felt the majestic flow of qi force; many people's faces changed.

A divine tribulation battle?

Everyone looked at the Netherworld Ox Demon, Lv Taibai, Fang Hanshu, and others with some surprise. Netherworld Ox Demon... dared to confront the divine tribulation?

Lv Taibai and others knew the details of the Netherworld Ox Demon; this Ox Demon had been steadily growing. Now it had grown to a height daring enough to contend with Demon Gods?

"Master Niu Niu! Keep it up!"

Xi Xi was trembling with excitement, her small figure shaking at an extremely high frequency!

Only Yun E and Zhou Peng's faces were peculiar, yet their eyes overflowed with confidence.

The admiration in Yun E's gaze was like the endless waters of Tianhe.

No one anticipated that the rules set by the Demon Race before Qi Tian City would face such massive disruption.

But many people had stirred thoughts, as this was good news for them.

Since the three top Demon Kings under the Heavenly Crane Demon God were killed, the other Demon Gods would likely not send their strong Demon Kings to replace them.

Thus, the gate of the Heavenly Crane Demon God would become a gap, becoming an easy entry into the city.

Mo City Fengdu.

Li Che, wearing a cute bull mask, slowly stretched his body, muscles and bones creaking explosively, slowly, golden qi-blood flowed from his body.

"My Martial Immortal Golden Body has reached 11%, I've entered the Martial Saint Four-Opening Realm, my qi-blood is completely stable... perhaps I can try to open Heaven Gate."

Martial Saint Four Openings, open Heaven Gate!

There are two stages, one is before Heaven Gate opens, the other is after Heaven Gate opens.

The standard of top-level peak is to open Heaven Gate!

And currently, Li Che has not opened the Heaven Gate; it's unknown how his Heaven Gate... will differ from the normal Heaven Gate cultivated by Divine Martial Martial Saints?

Not to mention, Li Che indeed has some anticipation.

His gaze shifted to the Heavenly Crane Demon God ascending to the sky.

Within the range of Qi Tian City, there was mysterious fog swirling; below the second calamity, Divine Tribulation Cultivators could basically act freely.

Thus, Li Che intended to see if the value of this Heavenly Crane Demon God could be completely exhausted.

Give him some pressure, make him open the Martial Arts Heavenly Gate!

Chapter 1723: Opening the Martial Saint's Heavenly Gate Before Qi Tian City, Beholding the Martial Immortal Behind the Golden Heavenly Gate

The sound of muscles and bones rubbing, akin to thunder exploding.

Under the watchful eyes of the masses, the Bull Demon moved.

With a step stomped down, the golden qi-blood roiled like a sea in an instant!

Boom—

The air within a few hundred yards seemed to shake violently, a terrifying force erupted with a roar!

The earth shook, mountains rocked, the ground cracked, and mountains crumbled!

The Bull Demon shot out from Mo City Fengdu, as if stepping forward in mid-air, five fingers clenched, suddenly swinging a punch.

Boom—

The rushing airflow burst out with a wail, on the Bull Demon's robust muscles and bones, golden light seemed to interweave like patterns, instantly detonating the intense Gang Qi airflow!

Directly crossing hundreds of yards, a punch seems to roar with the cries of Dragon Elephants!

Dragon Elephant Furnace!

As if an extremely radiant Fiery Sun rose from behind the Bull Demon, grand and majestic, illuminating and melting all evil spirits!

The Crane Robe on the Heavenly Crane Demon God stuck tightly to his body, countless strands of hair flew up.

"Martial God?"

Such aura!

Such qi-blood!

On the face of the Heavenly Crane Demon God, crane-like brows twitching, his mind slightly trembled:
"Such magnificent qi-blood, golden qi-blood... Pure Martial!"

"Such physical body, even a Demon God couldn't compare!"

The Heavenly Crane Demon God was solemn, his mind stirred, two Crane Swords suddenly raised, an echoing sound accompanied by a piercing crane cry exploded!

Subsequently, two black and white Crane Swords vibed and shot, breaking the sky!

Sword Qi emerged, slicing through the void, cutting the ground, penetrating the earth, the area beneath Qi Tian City, enveloped by mysterious fog, seemed shrouded by Sword Qi!

A terrifying power of tribulation rolled, fused within the Sword Qi.

The dense mysterious fog puffed up!

The Heavenly Crane Demon God showed restraint, not daring to exceed the range of mysterious fog around Qi Tian City, for exceeding this boundary would incite the will of Heaven and Earth.

Zheng Zheng Zheng Zheng—!!!

A series of sword chants exploded, Dragon Elephant Fist Light slammed across, colliding with sword light, black and white Crane Swords, interwoven like tides, resonated endlessly!

In a flash, the Bull Demon and the Heavenly Crane Demon God were already in close quarters.

The Bull Demon's five fingers flickered and grasped, five fingers emitted sharp sonic booms like Divine Spears, yet, in the Heavenly Crane Demon God's cold eyes.

He vaguely sensed something was amiss, as he didn't perceive the power of tribulation from the Bull Demon.

This feels wrong!

Could it be, this Bull Demon isn't a Martial God?

No matter what, just kill!

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's left arm trembled slightly, immediately the Crane Sword shot upward, directly stabbing at the brow beneath the Bull Demon Mask.

This sword, countless demon energy and the power of Witch Demon Tribulation gathered in the Sword Qi, Sword Qi converged into one, concealed yet unsubdued, sword light as elusive as a crane spreading its wings!

In an instant, it touched the brow on the Bull Demon Mask.

Boom—

Dragon Elephant Furnace fell crashing, instantly cleaved by the Heavenly Crane Demon God.

"Bull Demon... nothing more."

The Heavenly Crane Demon God felt confident, this Bull Demon... wasn't as strong as imagined.

The power of tribulation didn't show, the qi-blood was strong, but not strong enough to suppress him.

Even, he could feel the Bull Demon bearing immense pressure under his Demon God's presence.

An inexplicable smile appeared in the eyes of the Heavenly Crane Demon God, the next moment, transformed into unparalleled greed.

Such pure and powerful physical body, if it could be consumed as blood food, would be far more potent than devouring countless common folk of cities!

Beneath the Bull Demon Mask.

Li Che's entire body crackled continuously, an immense pressure brought by the Demon God's oppression.

Because Li Che only detonated seven Divine Seeds, the Eighth Strange Gate Immortal Seed wasn't detonated, and moreover, Li Che intended this sense of oppression.

Whole body muscles and bones trembled!

Strong physical body vibrated, instantly, the blood and flesh torn by Crane Sword Sword Qi healed rapidly, intact and glowing with golden light!

The Dragon Elephant Furnace smashed out once again, Myriad Transformations Dragon Elephant Punch horizontally pushed, Divinity Transformation True Martial Punch, under the arousal of Pure Martial Qi-Blood, tyrannical and unparalleled!

However, the Heavenly Crane Demon God was unfazed, dual swords intertwined, Sword Qi raging.

Boom—

Sword Qi massacred like tidal waves!

The void was sliced into lines of cracks, breaking the sky, for a strong being of the Divine Tribulation Realm, it's not difficult!

Sword Qi resounded and draped down, instantly enveloping the Bull Demon.

The Bull Demon continually swung fists, golden qi-blood stirred like a terrifying tidal wave over the ocean.

But, it was continually subdued by the Sword Qi.

Among the observing crowd, many were surprised yet unsurprised watching this scene.

"The Netherworld Ox Demon has grown quickly, but unfortunately... his opponent is still a Demon God of the Divine Tribulation Level!"

On Qi Tian City's walls, many demons leaped up, voicing cheers.

Three consecutive battles lost, three fallen Demon Kings, for many demons, were blows to their momentum.

And now, the time to overturn has finally arrived.

Rumble—

The innumerable demon energy piled up, looming over Qi Tian City, the two eyes of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable slightly narrowed.

Within the eyes, slight tremors, even a hint of amazement.

A thought unimaginable even for a strong being of his level surged in his heart.

This Bull Demon...

Is using the Heavenly Crane Demon God to hone himself?!

Boom—!!!

Sword Qi resounded down, countless golden qi-blood exploded.

The black shirt on the Bull Demon was already cleaved apart, revealing a terrifying body like golden casting, Martial Immortal Golden Body at this moment manifested between heaven and earth.

Nine great muscles seemed like nine golden dragons clinging to his back.

The spine flickered, like a Divine Dragon roaring to the heavenly dome!

Li Che's golden hair flying, beneath the Bull Demon Mask, eyes seemed to burst with golden lightning!

"Hahahaha—"

"Exhilarating!"

Beneath the Bull Demon Mask, the voice exploded like tides!

Next moment.

Behind the Bull Demon, in the Dragon Elephant Furnace, the Eighth Blazing Sun rose upwards!

Like refining eight blazing suns into one furnace, merging hundreds of Martial Arts!

Myriad Transformations Dragon Elephant, Blood Crocodile Sky Splitting Palm, Demon Python Spear, Tears Blood Divine Phoenix Life and Death Arrow, Six Desires Evil Extermination Pure Yang Sword...

Each Divinity Transformation True Martial, fused into one.

Buzz—!!!

Pure golden qi-blood, soared skywards, akin to a giant golden azure dragon, like a pillar rushing into the sky!

Such qi-blood, seemed to stir the very will of heaven and earth into anxiety.

Vast nature's spiritual energy, seemed to transform into endless mist, surging around the azure dragon of qi-blood.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God with dual swords resonating, his face slightly darkened.

Yet witnessed.

Behind the Netherworld Ox Demon, a massive golden portal appeared!

The Bull Demon's spine like a triangle, muscles like a python dragon, terrifying power smacked firmly against the massive portal...

Cre-aak—

The portal opened a crevice, as if overwhelming scorching qi-blood, incinerating heaven and earth.

Subtly, behind the massive, sky-obscuring portal, a vague golden immortal figure seemed to be seated behind the heavenly gate.

Golden qi-blood like mist, an ethereal aura.

Martial Saint Golden Heavenly Gate...

Open!

As if, opening the heavenly gate, seeing the true Martial Immortal!

The Crane Robe on Heavenly Crane Demon God's body stuck tightly to his figure.

His two Crane Swords trembled vigorously.

Even the power of tribulation, seemed suppressed, unable to shine.

He stared at the pure golden, celestial portal between heaven and earth...

For a moment, somewhat bewildered.

This is...

Martial Arts Heavenly Gate?

Chapter 1724: Slaying 1 Demon God Brings Boundless Fortune, the 2nd Fierce Beast of the Ten Ferocities Is a Black Ox

Boom——!!!

The Heavenly Dome released thunder, the sudden brilliance illuminated Qi Tian City, which was shrouded by black clouds, suddenly lighting up.

Even the gaps between each brick and tile were shone upon by the flashing thunder, extremely bright!

A massive golden portal stood between heaven and earth, not particularly large, just tens of feet, seemingly crafted from an ancient material, displaying a golden hue, extremely bright.

Ancient patterns were engraved upon it, with godly patterns interwoven and spreading, like a gate ascending from ancient myths.

Most importantly, the portal seemed to have been pushed open, reflecting a world behind it, where a figure sat, resembling a supreme Immortal King, seated among the heavens and earth.

Like a Martial Immortal who refined the Martial Path to its utmost, settling within the vast universe.

At this moment, the emergence of the Golden Heavenly Gate showed no concealment, the terrifying aura seemed to leak from within the gate.

Like an exclusive aura from the Upper Realm, descending mightily.

Even the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, with countless demon energies interweaving above Qi Tian City, felt a suppression, not from strength levels, but a suppression from a level of power.

"Pure Martial Open Heaven Gate?!"

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable's eyes narrowed, has the Human Race truly produced such a monster?

In this era where Mysterious Temples emerged like bamboo shoots after rain, and divinity overflowed, someone actually resisted the temptation of divinity, refrained from cultivating Divine Martial, but specifically pursued Pure Martial, and took the Pure Martial Martial Path to the height of opening the Heaven Gate?!

Crack——

The golden gate stood across the universe, black clouds seemed to be torn apart.

Li Che wearing the Bull Demon Mask felt an extreme thrill in his heart, his arms spread open, the golden-cast bones of his body roaring continuously!

With the opening of the Heaven Gate, following the activation of the Golden Heavenly Gate, colossal waves of qi-blood, akin to golden flames, continued to pour out from the gate.

Martial Saint Four Heaven Gates, the opening of the Heaven Gate signified Top-level Peak!

At this moment, Li Che officially stepped into the level of Top-level Peak, not relying on the explosion of the Eight Extraordinary Meridians to reach such heights, but standing at the Top-level Peak realm by his martial cultivation.

Li Che felt his qi-blood constantly climbing, undergoing continuous transformation.

With a long howl, the golden qi-blood soared high like a Great Roc, piercing through the clouds and transforming into an enormous golden Canglong, and a majestic golden Demon Elephant!

The Dragon Elephant stood between heaven and earth, like the birth of ancient supreme fierce beasts.

Li Che's qi-blood soared at an insane speed, a completely mad growth pace.

From the Golden Heavenly Gate, the river of qi-blood trickled down continuously like a golden pillar of light, connecting from his back to the gate.

The Netherworld Ox Demon's golden hair fluttered with aura all around, a scene formed by the explosion of qi-blood like fog.

Behind the mask, the Bull Demon's eyes opened and closed, resembling an absolute Supreme God King corresponding with the supreme Martial Immortal beyond the Heavenly Gate.

Boom——

As five fingers clenched, the spine quaked violently like a Canglong emerging from the abyss. Behind the Heavenly Gate, as if an Immortal aided Li Che, at this moment, Li Che seemed to transform into an Immortal Body.

The Martial Immortal Golden Body seemed to receive an inexplicable empowerment, suddenly boiling up, perfectly mobilized, squeezing even the slightest power within the bones.

With one step forward, a fist was thrown horizontally, the abundant qi-blood within surged with battle intent, making Li Che, at this moment, eager to keep punching, to keep fighting.

Above the dome of heavens, Heaven and Earth Will seemed poised to descend with terrifying tribulation punishment, yet Li Che now was within Qi Tian City's Mysterious Fog envelope, so temporarily the Heaven and Earth Will's impending punishment was shielded.

Li Che felt quite happy, finally more Tribulation Thunder again, which should let his Lei-Ci Dao Body break through again!

Filled with battle intent, Li Che's gaze swept across, locking onto the Heavenly Crane Demon God, whose expression grew increasingly vigilant.

Though the Heavenly Crane Demon God had been suppressing the Bull Demon, at this moment, he noticed something amiss, it seemed the Bull Demon had used him as a grinding stone to hone his Martial Path.

Now, it seemed the Martial Path has made a breakthrough!

Though, the Heavenly Crane Demon God wasn't sure what Bull Demon was honing, was it honing for the Heaven Gate opening?

Impossible...

If Bull Demon were a Martial Saint who hadn't yet opened the Heaven Gate, how could he persist in battling with him, a dignified Demon God, for so long?

Peak Martial Saint battling Demon God?

Impossible!

Absolutely impossible!

Once the Heavenly Crane Demon God thought of that possibility, his entire body felt a chill.

Yet regardless of everything, able to summon such a Heaven Gate, the Heavenly Crane Demon God no longer had any reason to underestimate the Bull Demon, he must go all out, without holding anything back!

With an extremely clear and loud cry, the Disaster Wheel of the Heavenly Crane Demon God manifested behind him, his vast demon energy rolled and surged wildly.

Two beams of sword light intertwined and erupted, dazzlingly brilliant in an instant, like a White Crane inverting Yin and Yang, its wings glittered!

Boom——!!!

Meanwhile, on the other side, the Bull Demon's furnace grew behind him, pouring downward, invisible flames burned across the sky.

Like beyond the Heaven Gate, the vague Martial True Immortal clenching his fist, hammering down with a punch!

Clearly, there was no Power of Tribulation, yet it gave the Heavenly Crane Demon God an ultimate sense of oppression.

As if a mortal confronting a true god!

Chapter 1725: Slaying a Demon God Brings Boundless Fortune, the Second Fiercest of the Ten Fiends Is a Black Bull

Between heaven and earth, it seems there is terrifying and scorching qi-blood, raging across, as if a Qilin is trampling the void, igniting rolling flames, leaping out from the tilted furnace!

Transforming into a punch more brilliant than the starlight!

The surrounding space appears to be frozen at this moment, the Qilin comes trampling, like a mountain spanning eternally, then shattered by the collision with the Qilin, crashing down thunderously, akin to a grand seal descending from above, crushing space with overwhelming force!

Like the backward flow of the Tianhe's torrent, freezing the air around, descending with an unstoppable majestic impact!

Such a seal, akin to a heavenly disaster!

The world is reflected in a crimson glow!

A punch descends, and the space within tens of miles seems to solidify into substance!

Like a marsh dried under the sun in an instant, trapping those within, unable to break free!

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's face changes drastically, transforming into the inverted Yin-Yang White Crane, merging sword light into one, countless sword lights rise thunderously, like a White Crane bound by chains, roaring and howling, the space appears to scream under the pressure!

Countless sword lights, seem to form a circle, centering around the Heavenly Crane Demon God, crashing towards the Qilin Seal that descends like a crumbling Divine Mountain.

Attempting to shatter the frozen and suppressed space!

Boom——!!!

The punch and sword light collide, the Power of Tribulation and pure martial strength clash!

A terrifying explosion erupts!

Clang clang clang—

The sound of gold and iron clashing, like countless shells exploding in succession, cutting through the airflow, creating tsunamis of waves!

As if waves of air like tsunamis spread from the collision point between the two, violently expanding, layering upon layer, covering the sky and earth, dispersing countless Strange Que and Mysterious Fog.

Qi Tian City trembles with roaring, the walls shake violently, the ground dust and sand rise up, exploding into powder!

Countless dust and sand rise, the Power of Tribulation from the Heavenly Crane Demon God is blown open, while the terrifying scorching qi-blood also erupts, like a volcanic eruption, spilling around, igniting everything nearby!

Everyone's gaze is fixed.

Even Lv Taibai, who just broke through, can't help but take a deep breath at this moment, the Taibai Sword hidden in his sleeve rings!

Lv Qiankun, the Grandmaster Qian Yuan, also narrows his eyes slightly: "What a fierce Netherworld Ox Demon!"

"Pure Martial Martial Saint... such a physical body, such qi-blood, no wonder Niu Yi, Niu Er, and Niu San under his command could slay three Demon Kings, there is the Netherworld Ox Demon, a gem in front!"

Xi Xi jumps excitedly in place.

Always belligerent, her little face turns extremely red at this moment.

"Master Niu Niu is so powerful!"

Xi Xi yearns even more, wondering when she can become as strong as Master Niu Niu, confronting the Divine Tribulation head-on!

While the powerful from Da Jing Dynasty, various Great Divine Sects, Ancient Families, Western Regions Buddha Lands, Wushen Mountain, and other forces all slightly focus their gaze.

Boom——!!!

Violent explosion roars suddenly explode on the open ground before Qi Tian City.

Countless clouds of dust roll.

Above Qi Tian City, demon energy surges fiercely, and next moment, a thunderous voice erupts from the massive mouth of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, towering like a mountain.

This Demon God Venerable of the Realm of Two Disasters, at this moment, seems a bit frantic!

"Stop!!!"

Sound waves explode.

However, no one responds to him.

Everyone suddenly raises their heads, seeing above the firmament, the black clouds have unknowingly turned into blood-colored, with dense blood-colored lightning intertwining.

Then, drops of blood-colored rain, like glaze, pour down.

Blood rain descends from the heavens, anomaly in the air!

Divine Tribulation falls!

Divine Tribulation... falls?!

Everyone suddenly looks towards the ruins, where the smoke and dust are suppressed by the fierce winds.

Revealing the scene within the battlefield.

There they see.

A massive deep pit appears before Qi Tian City, deeply sunken.

And a gigantic White Crane corpse, grotesquely twisted, dragged a deep trench hundreds of meters long in the ruins deep pit!

Sizzle sizzle sizzle—

The air and void seem thick with the burnt smell after being scorched by hot power.

Wisps of rolling black mist, like wolf smoke, rise from the ruins.

Where the White Crane's corpse lies, sand and stones are melted by terrifying heat, then rapidly cooled solidifying into liquid crystal.

And the towering Netherworld Ox Demon, presented with a golden hue, golden hair draping to the waist, golden blood and flesh, and golden eyes.

The Heavenly Crane Demon God's body seems to have suffered the impact of terrifying fist strength, with no inch intact, it's not an exaggeration to say it was smashed into smithereens.

And under the gaze of all.

The Netherworld Ox Demon tore open space, stuffing the Heavenly Crane Demon God's corpse into the Qiankun Space in front of numerous Demon Race in Qi Tian City, and the face of the Second Disaster Black Bull Demon God Venerable, as a trophy belonging to him.

At this moment, everyone also understands, turns out the Black Bull Demon God Venerable's shout was to stop the Netherworld Ox Demon, not to kill the Heavenly Crane Demon God.

But clearly, the Netherworld Ox Demon does not wish to give the Black Bull Demon God Venerable face.

Or perhaps.

The Netherworld never gives face to anyone.

Rumble——

Within Qi Tian City, terrifying demon energy suddenly fiercely rolls, massive demon energy pillars, hundreds of meters thick, rise straight up like pillars connecting heaven and earth!

Chapter 1726: Slaying One Demon God Brings Boundless Riches; Of the Ten Demon Gods in Ink, the Second Is a Black Ox

The endless demon energy exploded, mixed with the Strange Que's mysterious fog, transforming Qi Tian City and the surrounding heavens into a sea of demon energy!

Swish, swish——

A torrential blood rain, carrying the mournful wails of the Heavenly Crane Demon God, resounded between heaven and earth with a fierce and desperate sound.

Bang, bang——

The south and north gates of Qi Tian City, guarded by demon gods of the same rank as the Heavenly Crane Demon God, all revealed their true bodies, looking over unbelievably.

The Jade Horned Rhinoceros Demon God and the Golden Winged Demon God, with demon energy soaring to the sky, were shocked in their hearts.

But the true fury, setting off a sea of demon energy, was still that Black Bull Demon God Venerable!

The enormous black bull head, as if probing out from Qi Tian City, falling down with an extremely terrifying pressure, those house-sized eyes staring intently at the golden figure wearing the Cute Bull Mask.

"I told you to stop, do you not understand?!"

The violent aura of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable continuously erupted, completely different from its previous amiable appearance.

The extremely intense killing intent surged coldly!

The terrifying Heaven and Earth Soul, the Heaven and Earth Soul of the Realm of Two Disasters, made the void emit unbearable wails, merely sweeping through, it threatened to explode.

This is the power mastered by the Two Calamities Divine Tribulation Expert, their destructive power on heaven and earth space far exceeds that of One Disaster Realm experts.

They can shatter the void more easily.

However, Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon Mask, didn't have much concern in his heart, he looked towards the Black Bull Demon God Venerable and said calmly: "If this Heavenly Crane Demon God kills me, would you shout for it to stop?"

"You've never stipulated that gatekeepers cannot kill, nor that challengers cannot die. Since that's the case, why can't I kill a demon god?"

"If you can't bear the price, then don't set such rules, let the many cultivators join forces to take on the demons within Qi Tian City."

Li Che was calm in his heart, not frightened by the pressure of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable at the level of two disasters.

To Li Che, no one's pressure could frighten him, with his Seven-orifice Exquisite Heart, he had the ability to shield against any pressure.

The killing intent of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable was intense to the extreme, almost condensing into substance.

However, to Li Che's surprise.

This Demon God Venerable actually calmed down, finding peace amidst the impulse and anger of a slain demon god.

The countless demon energy subsided, killing intent hidden away.

The swelling and twisted demon energy restored calmness, transforming into the peaceful demeanor of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

"Congratulations, you may enter Qi Tian City."

The low voice emitted from the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, neither happy nor angry.

Li Che adjusted the Bull Demon Mask on his face, the Mo City Fengdu hanging on the heavenly dome disappeared.

Yet, his heart couldn't help but tighten.

This Black Bull Demon God Venerable... What exactly is being schemed?

To even bear such hatred down?

This Heavenly Crane Demon God should be a subordinate under the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, extremely important for the Ten Thousand Rivers.

A demon god died, yet the Black Bull Demon God Venerable could still bear the hatred.

Li Che thought this Demon God Venerable must have an agenda...

There's always something strange about unusual circumstances.

However, Li Che couldn't yet discern the true purpose of this Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

Yet Li Che could ascertain one thing.

The hatred between him and this Demon God Venerable was truly established.

The Bull Demon's towering body like Tower Mountain, the golden color receding, donning a black robe, entered Qi Tian City under the watchful gaze inside and outside the city.

The vast Qi Tian City was larger and grander than Qianyuan Taoist City, certainly the largest city Li Che had ever seen.

Even the Great Vista's Divine Capital seemed lesser.

Though if all Nine Cities of Divine Capital were pieced together, they could rival Qi Tian City.

Whish, whish, whish——

Li Che's black robe flapped, his eyes enigmatic behind the Bull Demon Mask, a gust of black wind swept in.

Following that, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable composed of demon energy appeared before Li Che, its body no longer large, an ordinary size, it was a demon energy avatar.

Only, this avatar was too crude, revealing itself easily, unlike Li Che's Painting Immortal Avatar, no matter the scrutiny it appeared indistinguishable.

"Netherworld Ox Demon..."

The cold voice came from the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

Li Che adjusted the Bull Demon Mask, his eyes flowing with golden smoke, looking at the Black Bull Demon God Venerable: "Does the Demon God Venerable intend to forcibly strike?"

"No..."

"I am here to make a deal with you."

The Demon God Venerable said in a deep voice.

"What deal?" Li Che squinted his eyes.

"Give me the corpse of the Heavenly Crane, name your price..."

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable said.

Upon hearing this, Li Che was momentarily stunned, he thought the Black Bull Demon God Venerable wanted to tear faces, lure him into Qi Tian City, and then kill him.

Li Che was bold and confident, having Mo City and Flying Thunder Move, convinced to enter the city.

If once inside, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable truly tore faces.

Then the rules set by the Demon God Venerable would naturally collapse, leading the human clan cultivators outside Qi Tian City to join forces for an attack.

Although, Li Che's heart still leaned towards the human clan cultivators attacking and breaking the demon clan of Qi Tian City, creating a more chaotic situation.

And chaos also means more opportunities.

But now, it seems, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable endured the death of a demon god and didn't wish for chaos.

What exactly is being planned?

Li Che couldn't see through this Demon God Venerable.

Chapter 1727: Slaying One Demon God Brings Immense Wealth, the Second Fierce Beast in the Ten Fiend Ink Painting Should Be a Black Ox [Monthly Ticket]

However, the problem is not big, the present Li Che... when facing scheming, even if he can't cope, he has the confidence to escape.

Full of life-saving ability, that's how confident he is.

"The Heavenly Crane Demon God...is my son-in-law, just wanting to retrieve his corpse, for the sake of my daughter."

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable said in a deep voice.

Son-in-law?

"If you give me both the demon corpse and the demon core, I will exchange ten Four Imperial Taoist Divine Crystals."

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable said.

"I want the Three Pure Dao Yuns Divine Crystal."

Li Che's eyes flashed under the Bull Demon Mask, raising his hand, he spoke.

"Impossible! You're asking for too much... Don't you know the price of the Three Pure Dao Yuns Divine Crystal? It's not a Divinity Crystal, but a Dao Yun Divine Crystal!"

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable immediately roared, as if the sound of a bull's roar exploded.

Judging by this appearance, he is truly anxious.

It seems that the value of the Three Pure Dao Yuns Divine Crystal is indeed very high.

Li Che thought for a moment, raising the offer: "Fifteen pieces."

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable, coldly staring at the Bull Demon who asked for too much...

But against Li Che's expectations.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable actually agreed: "Alright."

Under the mask, the corner of Li Che's mouth twitched, seemingly the price was still too low.

But it probably wasn't too low, after all, it existed the corpse of a Demon Race Demon God, not a Human Race Divine Tribulation corpse, the value of the two is incomparable.

After all, the Demon Race Demon God...is full of treasures.

However, Li Che only needed the demon energy of the Heavenly Crane Demon God...

With some demon energy, Li Che could choose to engage in Soul Capturing, or Ink Splashing.

The greatest value of the Heavenly Crane Demon God had already been arranged by Li Che, as for the corpse... it could still be exchanged for a wave of Dao Yun Divine Crystals and massive wealth, why not?

When the Qiankun Space was torn open by five fingers, like a spear grasped the Heavenly Crane Demon God corpse at that instant, suddenly within the chest, the [Ten Thousand Demon Emperor] Dao Fruit, already crazily vibrating.

A terrifying suction erupted, siphoning off about ninety percent of the demon energy from the Heavenly Crane Demon God and its demon core, leaving only a thin ten percent to maintain the appearance of demon energy a Demon God should have.

In the eyes of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, the Netherworld Ox Demon seemed to pause for a moment, then the Heavenly Crane Demon God's corpse was taken out.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable suddenly swept his sleeves, demon energy rolled like a storm, fifteen Four Imperial Dao Yun Divine Crystals flew towards Li Che.

Li Che opened the Qiankun Space and took in all these Dao Yun Divine Crystals.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable also put away the Heavenly Crane Demon God's demon-energy-filled corpse, looked deeply at the Bull Demon, and then vanished.

This transaction proceeded so swiftly.

The Demon Race Two Disasters Realm Demon God Venerable was surprisingly very agreeable.

Honestly, Li Che was genuinely a bit surprised.

Which made Li Che's heart instinctively raise some caution, feeling something was off.

Li Che did not continue exploiting loopholes in the rules to kill demons and siphon demon energy.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh—

On the city wall, Niu Yi, Niu Er, and Niu San, also no longer stood there.

Appearing behind the Bull Demon, finding an enclosed courtyard, Li Che entered it.

And after Li Che entered the courtyard.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable withdrew his perception, his cold killing intent undisguised, within rolling demon energy, the Heavenly Crane Demon God's corpse floated up and down.

"Humph!"

A cold snort, a slight shift of focus.

In an instant, a figure resembling unfolded bat wings wreaked havoc from within the demon energy.

This is the Night Bat Demon God, the demon race of Ten Thousand Rivers occupied Qi Tian City for five hundred years, surely it wasn't just three gatekeeper Demon Gods.

Confident in facing the Grand Prospect Dynasty, Divine Sect, Ancient Family, and the Western Regions Buddha Land, Wushen Mountain and other human forces' joint siege, surely it wasn't just three Demon Gods stationed at Qi Tian City.

"Keep an eye on the Netherworld Ox Demon..."

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable said coldly.

Upon hearing this, the Night Bat Demon God didn't say much, tearing open the void, disappearing into it.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable's vast demon energy rolled like black fire, resuming the massive black bull phantom, speaking of continued regulations.

And with the fall of the Heavenly Crane Demon God, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable arranged a new Demon God stationed at Qitian West Gate, that was the Sword Antelope Demon God, not much weaker compared to the Heavenly Crane Demon God.

And outside Qi Tian City.

After the Netherworld Ox Demon successfully entered the city by slaying a Demon God and the exciting experience.

All parties of powerful beings finally relaxed, each taking action to challenge the demon gods and demon kings guarding the gates of Qi Tian City.

Outside Qi Tian City, battles erupted incessantly.

However, these had nothing to do with Li Che.

In the outer city of Qi Tian City, inside a small courtyard.

Li Che entered the courtyard, and the Heaven and Earth chessboard instantly expanded. He squinted his eyes, sensing a tremendously overwhelming piece of demon energy on the chessboard.

"Ah, such a Black Bull Demon God Venerable, actually placed a Second Disaster Two Tribulations Realm demon god to keep watch..."

"Such attention is indeed heavy, but understandable, given it's exchanged with the life of the Heavenly Crane Demon God."

Li Che smiled gently.

"The Black Bull Demon God Venerable, a Two Disasters Demon God... Currently, I should be no match for him."

At present, Li Che, though immensely profound in his foundation, would struggle greatly against a One Disaster Three Tribulations Realm's divine tribulation.

Not to mention the demon gods of the Second Disaster Realm, which is an existence that spans a significant realm!

From the moment Li Che entered Qi Tian City, he was always ready to teleport and escape.

He had no intention of contending with a Two Disasters Demon God.

Though Li Che, with the help of the Immaculate Heart Taoist Fruit, could ignore any oppression, he still felt the pressure from the Two Disasters Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

It was very terrifying, just perceiving it made him realize his inferiority.

"A strong force, yet who knows what this Black Bull Demon God Venerable is plotting?"

"Everything must be done cautiously."

Li Che's eyes sparkled.

Thump thump thump thump—

Within his chest, the Dao Fruit of the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor was continuously bouncing.

Li Che's mind moved, leaving only the Painting Immortal Avatar of the Bull Demon in the courtyard.

And his whole person, had already appeared in the Mo City Fengdu.

Perhaps because the current Mo City has been completely repaired, there was no more ink-black rain falling within the city, and countless drifting black mist was surging.

After Li Che appeared, he suddenly slapped his palm onto his chest.

Instantly, from within the Dao Fruit of the Ten Thousand Demons Emperor, he pulled out a strand of the Heavenly Crane Demon God's demon energy, which immediately transformed into the form of the Heavenly Crane Demon God. Subsequently, Li Che spread his five fingers wide.

In addition, there were also the corpses of three top demon kings: White Mantis, Yuan Bao, and Black Bear.

Rumbling rumbling...

Behind him, the Ten Fierce Beasts Ink Painting slowly unfolded.

"Splash ink."

Li Che gently waved his sleeve.

The next moment.

In the painting of the Ten Fierce Beasts.

The image of the Sea Flipping Nine Infants, transformed from the Old Dragon God, let out a furious roar!

Chains formed by ink marks shot out, binding the Heavenly Crane Demon God formed by demon energy and the corpses of the three demon kings, and then extracted the demon souls of the Heavenly Crane Demon God and the three demon kings!

Terrifying screams and cries of terror erupted between heaven and earth.

The Ten Fierce Beasts Ink Painting immediately devoured the demon souls.

[Ten Fierce Beasts Ink Painting: Sea Flipping Nine Infants (40%)]

Boom——

The nine heads of the Sea Flipping Nine Infants, originally only two were lit, but now, four were lit!

Two were dragon heads, one was a crane head, and the last one constantly morphed among the three demon king's visages, ultimately taking on the form of the Primordial Leopard Demon King, becoming a leopard head.

Rumble!

The ink mist continuously surged, rising incessantly, like a mighty tide!

Black lightning seemed to interweave and crackle, surging without pause!

The ink color surged like a vast sea, raising terrifying massive waves, and within these waves, the Sea Flipping Nine Infants roared furiously, its presence awe-inspiring!

In Li Che's delighted gaze, the aura of the Sea Flipping Nine Infants firmly stepped into the realm of One Disaster Three Tribulations!

Feeling the amplified aura of the Sea Flipping Nine Infants.

Li Che's eyes shimmered brilliantly, he couldn't help but glance at the second painting of the Ten Fierce Beasts Ink Painting...

Though it was clear and blank there.

Li Che somehow felt his eyesight was somewhat faulty.

It felt like that spot...

Should have a Black Bull.

Chapter 1728: Unprecedented Dual Dao Fruit and Fourfold Metamorphosis, Handcrafted Nuclear Blast in the Underworld—Trading a Birdshot for a Cannon

Upon seeing the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

A thought arose in Li Che's mind: to give this Black Bull a position among the Ten Fiends in the Ten Fiends Ink Painting.

A Two Calamities Demon God Venerable indeed deserves this qualification.

At least, after having the Sea Flipping Nine Nether transformed by the First Fierce Old Dragon God, Li Che no longer considered the one disaster one tribulation realm of the Demon Race impressive. The position of the second fierce required at least a one disaster three tribulations realm.

However, this wasn't a big problem, as the Ten Fiends could still enhance their power by devouring demon souls.

Therefore, Li Che typically only selected those he favored, and whose combat power wasn't too weak.

To Li Che, the Ten Fiends Ink Painting was similar to Soul Capturing, but when combined with the Divine Skill "Demon Immortal Nine Revolutions" from the [Emperor of Ten Thousand Demons] Dao Fruit, it could bring unexpected surprises.

As one of his trump cards, the Ten Fiends Ink Painting together with Demon Immortal Nine Revolutions might bring a huge boost to Li Che's combat power.

In the courtyard, the airflow slowly surged.

Qi Tian City had been occupied by the Demon Race for five hundred years, so it seemed completely shrouded in a sea of demon energy. Besides that, there was also a faint mysterious fog rolling within.

This mysterious fog emanated from within the Strange Que; although it was not truly Strange Que, it had the power to shield from the will of heaven and earth.

Sitting cross-legged in the courtyard, Li Che's mind was solemn, and the Heaven and Earth chessboard arose above him, isolating all prying.

Outside the courtyard, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable had arranged for a Demon God to spy on him, but for Li Che, this had little impact.

Even a Demon God in the one disaster two tribulations realm couldn't tear open the Heaven and Earth chessboard to glimpse his situation; even if the Black Bull Demon God Venerable came in person, it would yield the same result.

Currently, the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit had reached lv6 rank, and its capability was becoming more formidable, allowing Li Che to spy on others, but making it extremely difficult for others to spy on him.

Rumble—

In his chest, a wisp of demon energy extracted from the Heavenly Crane Demon God did not affect the transformation of the [Emperor of Ten Thousand Demons] Dao Fruit.

This transformation required a bit of time, which for Li Che, was entirely within an acceptable range.

Thus, while waiting for the Dao Fruit's transformation.

Li Che also stood up and combed through his Martial Path.

In this battle with the Heavenly Crane Demon God, Li Che did not use the Tao Tribulation Power, relying solely on the Martial Path, and under pressure, he finally opened the Martial Arts Heavenly Gate of the Martial Saint Four Transformations.

However, unlike other Martial Saints practicing Divine Martial.

For those practicing Divine Martial, upon opening the Heavenly Gate, only an immense divinity would pour down from the gate...

This divinity could be used to wash and transform the physical body, achieving transcendence and transformation.

Thereby accomplishing the transformation into a true top-level peak, preparing to assault the Divine Tribulation Realm.

In contrast, when Li Che's Golden Heavenly Gate opened, what poured out was qi-blood, pure martial immortal qi-blood to the extreme!

It seemed that behind the Golden Heavenly Gate, a Martial Immortal sat cross-legged.

The qi-blood was pure to the extreme, constantly enhancing Li Che's progress on the Martial Path, causing Li Che's qi-blood to surge rampantly.

The degree of that surge was such that opening a heavenly gate directly elevated Li Che's qi-blood strength to the level of detonating seven Qimen Divine Seeds.

Admittedly, it was still a bit less than detonating eight Qimen Divine Seeds.

However, that was merely the initial qi-blood, with Li Che having not detonated a single divine seed, he achieved such strength. One could imagine that if divine seeds were also detonated, Li Che's qi-blood would expand to an unimaginable degree!

This powerful qi-blood was constantly refining the Martial Immortal Golden Body, giving Li Che's Martial Immortal Golden Body yet another upgrade.

[Dragon Elephant Furnace: Martial Immortal Golden Body (12%)]

Rumble——

Li Che raised his five fingers, gently grasping, the sound of muscles and bones resonated throughout.

Perception flowed throughout his body, and he could detect in the meridians of his arms, more and more spots of golden light, becoming wider in coverage.

The toughness and strength of his physical body had increased significantly, of course, that was also because Li Che's body was inherently strong enough to withstand the overwhelming qi-blood surging out after the full opening of the Heavenly Gate, eroding the body with a sense of oppression, and leveraging this oppression to refine himself.

Li Che exhaled a breath, and instantly in the courtyard, a raging wind intertwined, roaring like a torrent.

Others opened their heavenly gates cautiously, opening them slightly to carefully channel the divinity.

Whereas Li Che, with unmatched dominance, directly opened the Heavenly Gate wide open, channeling the Martial Immortal qi-blood to surge downward.

If it were anyone else, they would have likely already been overwhelmed by this qi-blood, their bodies exploding apart.

With a thought, a stream of light slowly flowed before his eyes.

[Dao Fruit: Dragon Elephant Vajra (lv7,18%)]

In his ears, the sound of dragon and elephant roaring resounded, reaching lv7 in the Dao Fruit, attempting another promotion would become extremely difficult.

Nevertheless, this time, opening the Heavenly Gate and slaying a Demon God only granted him a 3% increase in maturity, making Li Che frown slightly.

"It is becoming increasingly difficult to improve."

"If the Nine Transitions of the Dao Fruit were to prove even more difficult... it would be quite a challenge."

Li Che gently shook his head, inevitably recalling when the Dao Fruit had transformed, those powerful figures who previously wielded the Dao Fruit lamenting the difficulty of the Nine Dao Fruit Transformations.

With a slight closing of his eyes, the increase in the maturity of the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit brought Instant Enlightenment Feedback.

Li Che had been accumulating these insights related to the Martial Path when utilizing Instant Enlightenment Feedback.

Now, employing this Instant Enlightenment Feedback could help him surge ahead, possibly allowing him to complete the transformation of the Thousand Mountains Solo Sky-cutting Blade from Divinity Transformation True Martial to Immortal Seed Martial Arts.

Chapter 1729: Unprecedented Dual Dao Fruits and Four Moltings, Hand-Rubbed Nuclear Blast in the Underworld, Trading Bird Gun for Cannon

Immortal SeedQilin Suppression Seal, now Li Che has cultivated to the level of a Minor Accomplishment.

Attempting to go further becomes increasingly difficult.

However, a single Immortal Seed is not enough. Li Che wants to transform all Eight Strange Sect Divine Seeds into Eight Wonders Gate Immortal Seeds, and also needs to advance other martial arts.

Rumble—

Vaguely, his mind slightly moves, and there are still tribulation thunders being incited.

This is the wrath of Heaven and Earth Will summoned by the Martial Arts Heaven Opening Sect.

Li Che glanced at the courtyard.

Standing up, his black robe fluttered, and the Bull Demon Mask on his face remained untouched.

He stepped forward, as if surrounded by countless ink mists, and as Li Che moved forward, in his original spot, there was left behind a Bull Demon wearing a Cute Bull Mask.

This was the Painting Immortal Avatar Bull Demon.

With five fingers clutching a Thunder Chess Piece, Li Che left only the Bull Demon and other Painting Immortal Avatars in the courtyard, while he himself vanished completely.

Qi Tian City Outer City, outside the courtyard.

The void vaguely cracked open, a figure wrapped in a black robe seemed to hang upside down from the void, with eyes deep and endless, as if countless circles were rotating.

"Finally found... this underworld... indeed has mysterious methods."

"However, it still can't escape my Night Bat Demon God's ultrasonic perception!"

Previously, he investigated the small courtyard and felt the whole courtyard engulfed by a misty force, and his ultrasonic perception seemed to be spinning endlessly in a huge maze.

And now, at last, he felt a sense of clearing and clarity.

He also saw inside the courtyard, Bull Demon, Niu Yi, Niu Er, and Niu Sansi, all meditating and cultivating.

"Heh heh heh——"

Night Bat Demon God chuckled lowly, as the void crack completely closed.

Only an invisible transparent ripple continuously spread out.

Constantly on the lookout for the situation in the courtyard.

...

...

Whispering wind——

Outside Qi Tian City.

Demon energy rampantly surging skyward, bloody rain carrying the wailing intent of the Demon God, wildly pouring down from the heavenly dome.

A suffocating oppressive aura, spreading endlessly.

Li Che exited from the courtyard, first returning to Xi Xi's side.

The little girl blinked her big eyes, excitedly watching the continuous outbreak of battles in front of Qi Tian City, her face flushed crimson, exclaiming with thrill.

After all, the battles in front of Qi Tian City were extremely fierce.

The weakest were top-level peak demon kings, of course, Xi Xi still looked forward to the confrontation of Divine Tribulation level experts.

Indeed, such level of battles are rare to see on ordinary days.

Born naturally combative, Xi Xi naturally hopes to enjoy such a competition.

And the fall of the Heavenly Crane Demon God seemed to greatly impact the morale of the many demon race experts occupying Qi Tian City.

The Sword Antelope Demon God replaced the fallen Heavenly Crane Demon God, holding Qi Tian West Gate.

However, until now, there has been no challenge from Divine Tribulation Realm cultivators, mostly top-level peak, Great God level cultivators challenging the top-level demon kings under Sword Antelope Demon God.

Due to Li Che having killed off a wave of demon kings, compared to the demon kings under Heavenly Crane Demon God, those under Sword Antelope Demon God are indeed slightly weaker.

Several intense confrontations, there indeed were some top-level peak who defeated demon kings, entering Qi Tian City.

And compared to the opening of the Underworld, these top-level peak entering Qi Tian City further stimulated others.

Challenges became increasingly fervent, even the South Gate and North Gate of Qi Tian City had cultivators going to challenge.

However, such challenges naturally are not without risk, just as the Netherworld Ox Demon killed a Demon God, although the demon race in Qi Tian City is weaker in momentum, their killing intent became stronger.

During confrontations, there were cultivators killed by them, devouring their blood and flesh alive, making the tense atmosphere between the two factions even more severe.

After accompanying Xi Xi for a while, Li Che decided to teleport away.

When he reappeared, he was already over the Grand Canal in Jiangnan Dao.

Above the river, Li Che sat cross-legged, the river water started to churn, as if waves were rising, beneath the river, there was a terrifying Jiao Long, rolling its body, stirring up waves!

Above the heavenly dome, thunder continuously erupted, interwoven lightning almost illuminated the entire heavenly dome, causing the black clouds to lose their oppression.

Li Che's embroidered golden lotus-patterned black robe flapped wildly in the wind, the whole person like sitting cross-legged on a leaf of duckweed, rising and falling with the waves on the river.

Boom——!!!

Suddenly, a flash of thunder burst forth, tearing through the clouds, roaring, seemingly transforming into a form of thunder, interwoven with terrifying Qi Blood Power, crashing down heavily.

Li Che looked a little surprised at this thunder containing Qi Blood Power.

However, he didn't linger in astonishment for long, as the Dao Fruit of the Lei-Ci Dao Body in his chest cavity jumped frantically.

This Dao Fruit had already reached lv5 rank, with maturity at 95%, just lacking an opportunity to transform.

Now, after opening the Heaven Gate, the guided Heavenly Thunder can complete this change.

Li Che lifted his head, watching the swiftly descending Thunder Dragon become lifelike under the interweaving of Qi Blood.

Hum—bang—

A buzzing sound, Li Che's whole body suddenly turned into dazzling gold, golden hair wildly fluttering, the aura on his body rising rapidly.

Underneath him, the river instantly exploded into a massive depression.

The whole person leapt into the sky, battling the Thunder Dragon!

After finishing the tribulation crossing, it was calm and unremarkable; with his current Martial Immortal Golden Body strength, the Heavenly Tribulation could not affect him at all.

Chapter 1730: Unprecedented Dual Dao Fruit and Quadruple Shedding, Handcrafted Nuclear Explosion for the Underworld—Upgrading from Birdshot to Cannons

Li Che stepped forward, and Mo City Fengdu stretched over the great river, the whole person had already entered Mo City.

To cross the tribulation, it must be outside, there is no choice, only the will of heaven and earth can trigger the tribulation thunder.

But for cultivation in the martial path, Li Che feels it's more suitable within Mo City. After all, even if Mo City is damaged, it's helping it become more resilient—killing two birds with one stone.

Therefore, for daily cultivation, Li Che always chooses to practice within Mo City.

...

...

Qi Tian City.

The gigantic Qi Tian City is shrouded in overwhelming demon energy.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable no longer manifests overwhelming demon energy across the city but has gathered with many demon gods within the City Lord's Mansion of Qi Tian City.

Qi Tian City is divided into the Outer City and Inner City.

The Inner City of Qi Tian is actually the area where the Equal Heaven Temple is located, which is also the main body of the Qi Tian Mysterious Temple.

Even those like the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, who have been laying out plans in Qi Tian City for five hundred years, have never stepped inside.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable sits within the City Lord's Mansion of Qi Tian City, entirely shrouded in overwhelming demon energy, with eyes like two scarlet branding irons.

"The Netherworld Ox Demon... is now being watched by the Night Bat Demon God on my orders."

"The Netherworld, this force, is way too mysterious, comparable to the Hunting God Pavilion, but compared to the Hunting God Pavilion, the Netherworld is still inferior."

Black Bull Demon God Venerable said in a deep voice.

Below.

A demon god couldn't help but ask: "Your Excellency, are we really going to share this opportunity in Qi Tian City with the Human Race?"

"We are guarding Qi Tian City; even if the strong from the Human Race want to attack the city, it's not that easy. At the very least, it will come at a great cost, with many divine tribulations paying the price to break into the city."

"Moreover, we've occupied Qi Tian City for five hundred years; why should the Human Race cultivators come in and share our treasures?"

A demon god felt quite aggrieved.

"And about that Netherworld Ox Demon... Your Excellency! The Heavenly Crane Demon God was killed by him; we shouldn't hold back, we should just kill that Netherworld Ox Demon too!"

Demon gods, shrouded in intense demon energy, stood in the City Lord's Mansion, extreme killing intent rampant and intertwined.

However, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable just shook his head: "Our goal is the Temple God Resonance... Fighting Prison Lotus Demon Saint Heavenly Temple God, he is ours, and yet not ours completely. When his Temple God Resonance activates, if only our Demon Race participates, it may not trigger a complete Demon God Resonance."

"Therefore, we must let the Human Race in, partake in the Temple God Resonance, diversify it, only then can it stimulate the Temple God Resonance enough for us to gain greater benefits."

Black Bull Demon God Venerable spoke lightly.

As a Two Disasters Demon God when he spoke, there was a tone of irrefutability, causing many demon gods to stop speaking.

"But what if... the Qi Tian inheritance from the Temple God Resonance isn't ours?"

A demon god asked, puzzled.

Yet, Black Bull Demon God Venerable was supremely confident: "It won't be..."

"The main part of the Qi Tian inheritance is definitely ours, because Qi Tian is a Demon Saint, only the Demon Race can obtain the greatest transmission, the Human Race... unless transformed into half-demon, how could they possess demon energy?"

"Enough now, don't speak more of this matter, Qi Tian Demon Saint's inheritance... we, the Demon Race of the Ten Thousand Rivers, will never give it up, the Human Race... can't compete with us for the opportunity."

"Furthermore, regarding the death of the Heavenly Crane Demon God, this Venerable will not easily let it slide, the Human Race... will pay for their arrogance, even the Netherworld, so what?"

"Our Demon Race, never fears trouble!"

"Now we need the Human Race to balance the Temple God Resonance..."

"But when we turn against them, that will be their end!"

"The Netherworld Ox Demon... Divine Monkey... none shall escape!"

"And the little girl from Qian Yuan Divine Sect... rumored to be the reincarnation of the Daughter of Prison Lotus, Daughter of Prison Lotus... future Sovereign of the All Gods Camp Prison Lotus; such a girl, capturing her and sending her into the Strange Que among the Ten Thousand Rivers, into our Deceit Demon Cave's All Gods Camp... could become our biggest achievement in breaking the Prison Lotus in the future! We will surely gain tremendous rewards from the Supremes!"

As Black Bull Demon God Venerable's words fell, the entire City Lord's Mansion, filled with many gathered demon gods, howled like ghosts and wolves.

Demon energy surged like tides, boiling like water being heated, roaring with unrest.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable sits in a high position.

Drinking blood wine, his gaze was inexplicable yet fierce.

...

...

Within Mo City Fengdu.

Dark fog wafted around, as Mo City was no longer broken, the restorative Mo Rain no longer fell.

Zizizi——

Around Li Che, lightning continuously intertwined.

That was the remaining thunder stored from just crossing the tribulation.

Within his chest, the Thunder Magnetic Dao Body Dao Fruit continuously vibrated, as if a heavenly god were fiercely beating war drums.

And not just that, the Ten Thousand Demons Emperor Dao Fruit was also violently trembling, as if a Kunpeng was hissing, a roc soaring high.

Like the sound of the Great Dao resonating, vibrating without rest, only dispersing after a while.

[Dao Fruit: Thunder Magnetic Dao Body (lv6,0%)]

[Dao Fruit: Ten Thousand Demons Emperor (lv6,0%)]

...

Swirling lights slowly rotated.

Both Dao Fruits, simultaneously undergo the fourth transformation!

For Li Che, it was an unprecedented experience.

The corners of his lips gently lifted in a curve.

"Inhale—"

"Exhale—"

Seated at the top of the Dominator Tower of Mo City, overlooking the entire scenery of Mo City.

Wind waves billowed, violently intertwining.

Accompanying Li Che's every breath, the entire Mo City seemed to collect its breath, slowly returning to silence.

In Li Che's mind, distracting thoughts disappeared completely, leaving only Mo City's heaven and earth, the gentle floating sound of Mo Rain.
