

A Father 1731

Chapter 1731: Unprecedented Dual Dao Fruit Quadruple Evolution, Handcrafted Nuclear Explosion in the Underworld—Swapping Birdshot for Cannons

Just as expected, only a few calm breaths passed.

The heart and mind slightly trembled.

Instantly fell into the Dao Tree Space.

At the same time, two Dao Fruits transformed to lv6, meaning they simultaneously retreated in the Dao Tree Space.

Within the Dao Tree, the winds and waves intertwined.

Two Dao Fruits fell from the Dao Tree, dazzling with boundless radiance, seven-colored glaze.

Seemingly piled up by countless Divine Light, the two Dao Fruits hovered in Li Che's gaze, rising gracefully.

Numerous thunderbolts exploded and intertwined, forming an incomparably majestic Thunder God.

Another Dao Fruit exploded, as if projecting an image, in which a terrifying ancient Demon Emperor spread its wings, instantly, ten thousand demons prostrated.

Buzz buzz buzz——

The space rippled, and the viewed image shattered abruptly.

Consciousness trembled, exiting the Dao Tree Space.

Sitting cross-legged atop the Dominator Tower, Li Che's eyes suddenly opened and closed, within the inner scenery of the energy center, the Divine Fetus trembled simultaneously, roaring incessantly.

In his eyes, one had thunder intertwined, while the other emitted demon energy skyward!

As if the two Dao Fruits had transformed into one.

[Dao Fruit lv6, fourth transformation, Divine Skills (Prison Thunder) promoted, Dao Guide (Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure)]

[Dao Fruit lv6, fourth transformation, Divine Skills (Demon Immortal) promoted, Dao Guide (Yin Yang Demon Blade)]

...

The prompt continuously appeared before his eyes, intertwining in his view.

After the fourth transformation of the two Dao Fruits, the promotion of Dao Guide allowed Li Che's foundation to become even deeper.

Sitting cross-legged atop the Dominator Tower.

The ink-dark robe on Li Che's body fluttered, as he began to study the two forms of Dao Guide, among them the Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure Dao Guide, which involves compressing the power of thunder to its utmost, then erupting, the longer the compression time, the stronger the explosive power...

Li Che thought this might be useful for upgrading his long un-upgraded Guanyin Lotus Bullet.

The transformation of the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit, with the Black and White Collapse plus the Great Avalanche, increased the power of the current Guanyin Lotus Bullet significantly, capable of bombarding Martial Saints.

Yet that's all.

The upper limit seemed to stop here, as it lacked the essential explosive force.

The destructive power wasn't strong enough, naturally insufficient for top-notch experts.

But this time, the awakened Dao Guide opened a new portal for Li Che.

"I have mastered Shenxiao Thunder, by compressing Shenxiao Thunder to its utmost, what extent can it reach?"

Li Che raised his hand, and at that moment, the surging Shenxiao Thunder emerged in the palm of his hand.

Sizzle sizzle sizzle— —

Thunder arcs surged, seemingly distorting the space.

Dao Guide: Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure!

A thought, Dao Guide activated!

Instantly, Li Che felt his palm transform into a vortex, causing the thunder to continuously spin and gather towards his palm.

Shenxiao Thunder churned, surging incessantly!

And right before his eyes, a prompt appeared again.

[Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure: Five times]

Five times... ten times... fifteen times...

The multiplier continued to increase.

Li Che's hair drifted uncontrollably, every pore seemingly sprouting electric currents!

And the Shenxiao Thunder on Li Che's palm became increasingly dark.

The colossal Shenxiao Thunder slowly, in Li Che's palm, transformed into a thunder pill the size of a mung bean.

Contained within were rolling thunders, spinning continuously.

[Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure: Hundred times]

Finally.

When Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure reached hundred times, it had reached the current limit Li Che could compress.

No further compression possible, yet the explosive power contained within that tiny thunder pill had already reached a level that made Li Che horrified, with hairs standing on end!

A flick of the finger.

The thunder pill, transformed by the hundred times compressed Shenxiao Thunder, silently drew an arc in the air.

As if the space twisted relentlessly when the thunder pill drifted by, seemingly distorted by an extremely frightening energy!

The thunder pill drifted slowly.

Finally, it landed in the center of Mo City Fengdu.

Li Che's mind sensed the tiny thunder pill, containing terrifying destructive power, falling onto the ground of Mo City Fengdu, where the bricks dissolved automatically, seemingly reduced to powder.

Yet the thunder pill continued to rotate slowly.

Within an inch radius, nearly everything was obliterated into a vacuum field by the pill's energy!

The smile on Li Che's face became more pronounced.

Seemingly concocted a delightful toy.

And seemingly anticipating a major upgrade for the Guanyin Lotus Bullet.

Five fingers slowly clenched together.

Boom——!!!

The hundred times compressed Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pill exploded fiercely!

The entire Mo City Fengdu seemed to shake violently at this moment, as if suffering a terrifying attack fully exerted by a Divine Tribulation Cultivator!

Earth-shattering!

Above Mo City, black clouds piled, Mo Yu eagerly poured down.

And on Mo City Fengdu's ground.

A massive pit with a ten-zhang diameter appeared, the explosion range was not large, yet extraordinarily powerful, and at its center, the space was already shattered!

Indicating that the instantaneous explosive power had already reached the might of the Divine Tribulation level!

Even Li Che's eyes couldn't help but flicker.

This is the destructive power of the Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pill, exploded by a hundred times Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure?

Very strong!

Though the range is only ten zhang...

That's because it's just one Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pill!

Such Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pills, Li Che can continually compress.

Compressing one at a time, ten, hundred, thousand, ten thousand...

Different yields bring different explosive might!

If thousands of hundred-times compressed Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pills are manually made and incorporated into the Guanyin Lotus Bullet.

Would it possess truly nuclear explosion level power?

Manually crafting a real nuclear bomb, is no longer a mere thought!

Such power, can the Second Disaster Rank Black Bull Demon God Venerable withstand it?!

Moreover, this is not even the true limit of the manually crafted Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pill.

Because, a hundred times Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure is Li Che's limit, not the limit of Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure...

With Li Che's rising mental strength, the future may even reach thousand-fold Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure, or ten thousand-fold Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure!

What terror will the explosive power then hold?!

The only pity is, manually crafting Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pills is not an easy task, requiring significant time.

Additionally, the quantity of thunder within Shenxiao Thunder itself is also a concern.

However, with Grandmaster Huang Mei who has reached the Divine Tribulation Realm, having him fully exert one of the Three Calamities' power, the Shenxiao Thunder Tribulation, might just suffice.

Thud thud thud thud——

One by one, Dao Fruits leaped repeatedly.

The power of Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure stirred Li Che's emotions, as Dao Fruits can actually complement each other, forming combinations.

For instance...

The Immortal Craft Dao Fruit now jumped without cease, due to the creation of the Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pill under a hundred times Thunder Magnetic Extreme Pressure.

Immortal Artisan Gatling, Barrett, Guanyin Main Battle Tank, Guanyin Lotus Bullet, etc...

Will all undergo comprehensive upgrades!

The Underworld is soon...

Swap shotguns for cannons!

Firepower... further upgrade!

Chapter 1732: So, Will the Dao Fruit of Bonds Disappear? Racing Against Time to Hunt the Demon God

Regarding the Way of Mechanisms, Li Che never gave up on his research.

Although pursuing a mechanized ascension sounds a bit exaggerated for the future, the Way of Mechanisms is not weak in enhancing and augmenting combat power.

Moreover, with the augmentation and enhancement of the Immortal Craft Dao Fruit, Li Che believes that the Way of Mechanisms can be elevated to a high level by him.

He withdrew his mind from the joy of manually rubbing a nuclear bomb.

Even though he has a general idea and plan, to truly achieve the firepower intensity that can annihilate a Divine Tribulation Cultivator, a large number of Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pills are needed.

One Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pill is certainly not enough to reach this level of intensity.

Additionally, the quantity of Shenxiao Thunder needs to be accumulated.

His mind shifted away from the level of Dao Guide evolved from the Thunder Magnetic Dao Body Dao Fruit, focusing on another Dao Guide evolved from another Dao Fruit.

The Dao Guide [Yin Yang Demon Blade] transformed from the Ten Thousand Demon Emperor Tao Fruit.

After briefly understanding the function of this Dao Guide, in short, it can be considered a type of Divine Weapon.

When he grasped with his five fingers, suddenly a long knife appeared in Li Che's hand, one side black and one side white, filled with pore-like holes.

Each hole can siphon the demon essence blood, and as long as it devours enough essence blood of the Demon Race, the power of the Yin Yang Demon Blade can be enhanced and transformed.

"Very strange... However, since demons are strange creatures, it makes sense that the Dao Fruit derived from them also harbors some strangeness."

Li Che looked at the long knife with a handle like a scorpion's tail, a flicker of unusual color appearing in his eyes.

Siphoning the demon essence blood, very evil.

However, compared to the habit of the Demon Race eating people and devouring flesh and blood at every turn, it's like the minor witch seeing a great sorcerer.

Moreover, this demon blade naturally suppresses the Demon Race, which can be extremely effective when killing demons.

Li Che squinted his eyes slightly, considering the Big Black Bull as an imaginary enemy, wondering if with his current strength, he could kill that Big Black Bull?

Even if wielding the demon blade, it seems there is no possibility.

Second Calamity...

The gap is still significant.

Li Che squinted his eyes, his Qi-blood rolling like a thick fog, a pressure making his body tremble slightly.

It's a pressure, a kind he hasn't felt in a long time.

As he advances in strength and his Dao Fruit transforms, there are few entities in the human world capable of exerting pressure on Li Che.

Threats can exist, but few reach a level of significant pressure.

The Chief Supervisor counts as one; Li Che hasn't been able to discern what level the Chief Supervisor's cultivation truly is.

Aside from that, there's the Big Black Bull of Qi Tian City, which has faced two calamities.

As for the boss and Gou, Li Che feels they do not belong to the human world.

"Didn't the boss and Gou say they opened a restaurant in Qi Tian City?"

"Now that I've entered the city, I can look for them, Xi Xi hasn't tasted the boss's cooking for a long time."

Thinking of the boss and Gou, Li Che couldn't help but lick his lips, missing the boss's culinary delights.

"Within the Strange Que, the Mysterious Temple lies across, with countless strong ones..."

Li Che took a deep breath, then slowly exhaled.

Compared to the human world, there are more strong ones in Strange Que. Long ago, Li Che knew not to mention those powerful and mysterious All Gods Camp, but many Divine Tribulation Cultivators in the human world actually venture in Strange Que as well.

Apart from evading the Calamity of Heaven and Earth Will, it's also due to the mysteries and opportunities within Strange Que.

For those with Divine Tribulation Cultivation, the materials needed to enhance their cultivation are basically not found in the human world. Resources like Dao Yun Divine Crystal and Divinity Crystal are only available in Strange Que.

Completing the consolidation of the newly broken-through cultivation, and the Dao Fruits have also finished their transformation.

Li Che stretched, with his bones and tendons cracking.

Yet, he never relaxed for a moment. After stretching, he moved his mind and entered into the Tao Tribulation Space to begin comprehending and cultivating the Tao Tribulation.

Now Li Che has three Dao Fruits which have completed the Five Sheddings, comprehending three types of Tao Tribulations.

They are Primordial Dragon Elephant Flame, Primordial Sky Slash, and Primordial Heart Cleansing Stream, representing the Primordial Fire Tribulation, Wind Tribulation, and Water Tribulation respectively!

In the Tao Tribulation Space, the three terrifying forces of Calamity intertwine and sweep within!

Purple flames transform into dragon elephants, stretching across, roaring as voids shatter piece by piece.

Then a dreadful storm blows fiercely, seemingly capable of obliterating bones and scraping away souls.

The forces of water, fire, and wind continuously intertwine.

Li Che endures this in the Tao Tribulation Space, filled with both pain and joy.

However, mastering the Tao Tribulation Power is indeed not easy; even Li Che cannot grasp it effortlessly.

When his mind becomes momentarily hazy, Li Che no longer knows how many times he has been extinguished by the Tao Tribulation Power, only to exit and re-enter the Tao Tribulation Space.

Li Che feels his mind, in the process of constant annihilation and restoration, becomes tough and resilient like Thousand-refined Steel!

The growth and strengthening of the mind greatly assist in both Martial Path and Divinity cultivation.

In Mo City Fengdu, Li Che entered a state of cultivation.

Even now that he is quite powerful, he dares not slacken in the slightest.

Because he needs stronger cultivation to protect his small home.

Buzz——

Suddenly, Li Che seemed to perceive something.

It was the Heaven and Earth chessboard left in Qi Tian City, probing and relaying information back.

Hmm?

Chapter 1733: So, Will the Dao Fruit of Bonds Disappear? Racing Against Time to Hunt the Demon Gods

In Mo City Fengdu, Li Che suddenly opened his eyes.

In the depths of his eyes, a trace of solemnity flashed by, along with a hint of surprise.

In the next moment, he took a step, and in an instant, disappeared from Fengdu.

The rain and wind in Mo City remained, as the shattered void caused by the Shenxiao Prison Thunder Pill seemed to have flesh and blood, slowly recovering as it wriggled.

...

...

Qitian City Outer City.

Within a small courtyard of Three-Openings.

A figure, towering like Tower Mountain, wore a Bull Demon mask, and beside him, three figures with scratched masks sat calmly.

Four figures sat solemnly in the courtyard, diligently cultivating.

However, a white chess piece abruptly floated, as if grasped by an invisible hand.

Li Che's Mo Shan robe embroidered with golden lotuses billowed, and in an instant, he had spanned space, from Mo City Fengdu to this courtyard in Qitian City.

The Heaven and Earth chessboard trembled.

Outside the courtyard, the Night Bat Demon God, hidden within the space, suddenly felt his ultrasonic perception jam.

However, it was only a brief pause; scanning over the courtyard, he found no changes inside, and thus paid it no heed.

Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon mask, completed the conversion with the Painting Immortal Avatar.

Connecting his mind to the Heaven and Earth chessboard, images immediately emerged before him.

Those images...

Were precisely the scenes within the City Lord's Mansion of Qitian City's Inner City.

Terrifying demon energy raged, turning the City Lord's Mansion into a sea of demon energy, if not for the strong detection of the Heaven and Earth chessboard, Li Che couldn't have parted the demon energy to see the scenes within.

One after the other, terrifying demon gods with varied appearances and overwhelming qi-blood energy thronged through the mansion.

A gathering of Qitian City's demon host?

This group of demon gods, in a manner that greatly surprised Li Che, surrounded a massive round table inside the City Lord's Mansion, mouthing discussions in a mock-conference style.

The atmosphere was truly filled to the brim.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable sat at the head seat, his potent aura expanding oppressively from his person, and just the spread of his breath alone suppressed the many demon gods present.

However, his words were transmitted through the image, making Li Che's eyes narrow slightly.

"Capture the Daughter of Prison Lotus?"

To capture and seize the Daughter of Prison Lotus, and bring her to the Strange Que Ten Thousand Rivers, delivering her into the Deceit Demon Cave camp.

Li Che never expected to hear such news.

The Daughter of Prison Lotus naturally referred to Xi Xi. Originally, Li Che did not believe there was any conflict between the demon race and Xi Xi, but he never expected this Black Bull Demon would target Xi Xi in such a manner.

"So, this is a conflict within the Deceitful Gods Camp, yet it has spread into the human world... Is this Big Black Bull's target Xi Xi?"

Inside the room, Li Che's eyes gradually turned cold.

His one and only weakness is his wife and daughter, and his daughter is especially his utmost priority. Anyone who threatens Li Che's daughter is promptly added to a must-die list in Li Che's ledger.

And now, this Big Black Bull...

Your name is already written in the little notebook, along with those many demon gods.

"It seems the conflicts within the Gods Camp are not small, Black Sumeru, and Deceit Demon Cave are all targeting the Prison Lotus, and Xi Xi, as the Daughter of Prison Lotus... appears to be a substantial target."

Li Che's brows slightly furrowed.

He naturally knew about the consciousness of Da Xi Xi hidden deep within Xi Xi's soul.

Yet actually, Li Che also had doubts, was this consciousness from a past life, or from a future?

Why did it appear within Xi Xi's soul?

Is it the same as the Da Xi Xi he saw through the Dream Heavenly Master Dao Fruit and the Dream Butterfly?

Too many doubts surged like a tide, endlessly bewildering Li Che, meshing his thoughts and leaving him somewhat unable to clear them up.

Because he had encountered too little.

Xi Xi's birth brought unforeseen bonds to Li Che, spawning numerous Dao Fruits, is this related to that Da Xi Xi?

One could say, this bond was the most crucial factor in Li Che's transformation from weakness to his current power.

For Li Che, clarifying this bond was extremely important.

Because, even though Li Che is constantly evolving his Dao Fruits, even reaching a level 7 rank Dao Fruit.

Deep down, Li Che still harbored a fear.

He didn't know whether one day the bond between him and Xi Xi would vanish...

And when the bond disappeared, the Dao Fruits he had gained would vanish alongside it.

This was a fear at the spiritual level, a deep-rooted anxiety within Li Che's heart.

So, will the Dao Fruit disappear?

Li Che didn't know, nor did he want to speculate, because there was no need, nor meaning.

Often, Li Che would use the Dao Fruits to focus on his own cultivation, as a source of strength.

Though many things he accomplishes are utilizing the Divine Skills of the Dao Fruits, guided by the Dao, Li Che has never stopped improving his own cultivation.

After all, only if he himself is strong enough, if the Dao Fruit truly disappears one day, he will still have the power to withstand in this world.

The images captured by the Heaven and Earth chessboard slowly faded away.

These weren't live images, but ones recorded while Li Che cultivated in Mo City, the Heaven and Earth Soul under the chessboard's operation deemed it worthwhile to capture and save.

It could only be said, as the Chess Saint Dao Fruit's transformation level increased, the functions of the Heaven and Earth chessboard became increasingly powerful.

Even as the images disappeared, Li Che's mind was steeped in growing killing intent.

Chapter 1734: So, Will the Dao Fruit of Bonds Disappear? Racing Against Time to Hunt the Demon God

A tremendous pressure abruptly crashed down upon him.

After all, his daughter was entangled with a Two Calamities Demon God Venerable, but... it wasn't just a matter of one Demon God Venerable.

An entire Deceit Demon Cave had its eyes on Xi Xi the moment it learned she was the Daughter of the Prison Lotus.

And the Black Bull Demon God Venerable was merely a dagger that could thrust out from the Strange Que, meddling in the human world.

If the Deceit Demon Cave's target was Li Che, he wouldn't feel so pressured.

But since the objective was his daughter Xi Xi, an inexplicable pressure mounted upon him.

"Black Bull Demon God Venerable..."

Li Che slowly closed his eyes.

In the next moment, they snapped open.

It seems the speed at which his cultivation strengthened needed to accelerate. At the very least, within Qi Tian City, he had to possess the power to confront a Two Calamities Demon God Venerable.

So that when the opponent made a move on Xi Xi, he wouldn't be powerless to resist.

Buzz—

Li Che's gaze shifted towards the void beyond the courtyard, as if he saw the Night Bat Demon God hanging upside down there.

This Night Bat Demon God was the Black Bull Demon God Venerable's spy inserted to surveil the Netherworld Ox Demon.

"First, let's blind your spy."

Li Che stood up, a hint of murderous intent flickering, and in the next moment, the [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit in his chest began to throb intensely.

It was as if he had been completely erased from the world, utilizing the Slumbering Dragon Elephant's Concealing Breath Technique, fully concealing his qi-blood.

Coupled with the isolation of the Heaven and Earth chessboard's aura, he seemed to utterly vanish, akin to becoming invisible.

With a light step, the ground showed no sign of any crack, an invisible ripple spreading outward, as Li Che glided beyond the courtyard.

...

...

The Night Bat Demon God hung upside down in the void, leaving only a thin crack behind. With this crack, he could diffuse his perception from the void, spying on his target undetected.

Because he was hidden within the void, his own aura was completely obscured by it, leaving only a space crack as thin as a hair.

In the vast space, a single strand of hair floated, essentially invisible to anything but a thorough scanned inspection.

His perception, invisible and ring-shaped, continuously expanded from the crack.

This perception was unique, unrelated to the power of the Heaven and Earth Soul, instead emanating from the Night Bat Demon God's own physiological senses.

Extremely mysterious and concealed, it made him a master of espionage.

As one of the reconnaissance officers under the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, the Night Bat Demon God bore significant responsibilities when the Inner City of Qi Tian City opened, as well as when the legacy of the Equal Heaven Temple commenced. His abilities would be paramount in entering the Inner City area first to scout for resources.

Dao Yun Divine Crystals, Divinity Crystals... there was no need to mention these resources, but the Divine Weapons, Elixirs, Secret Techniques, Martial Arts, and Divine Secret Techniques of the Equal Heaven Temple were of utmost importance as well!

He valued this opportunity greatly because... it might be the only chance in his lifetime. Should he succeed, he might earn the opportunity to formally join the All Gods Camp of the Deceit Demon Cave, serving under a god's command!

The Night Bat Demon God was acutely aware of the importance of his role, and thus he was very steady and cautious.

After all, his target was the mysterious Underworld, so naturally, he proceeded with extreme caution, tearing the space open to hide in the void for reconnaissance.

Suddenly.

A deep darkness suddenly enveloped the Night Bat Demon God's world.

His expanding ultrasonic sensing spread out unimpeded, but an inexplicable overwhelming sense of suffocation suddenly swept over him.

Being a Demon God of the One Calamity and Two Tribulations Realm, the Night Bat Demon God's wariness was naturally high.

Buzz—

His glossy black eyes snapped open, his entire bat body bristling suddenly.

His bat wings abruptly spread!

Because right before him, there appeared an incredibly adorable Cute Bull Mask!

Behind that Cute Bull Mask, the eyes were chillingly cold, with an uninhibited, icy murderous intent.

Screech—!!!

A piercing ultrasonic scream erupted from the Night Bat Demon God's mouth in an instant.

His ultrasonic perception surged unchecked, shattering space and rapidly spreading as if signaling to all of Qi Tian City.

He had been discovered?!

The Night Bat Demon God's heart trembled, and upon realizing he'd been detected, his first instinct was to unleash an ultrasonic shockwave to stir the air.

This Netherworld Ox Demon had slain the Heavenly Crane Demon God and was quite formidable.

Even though the Night Bat Demon God belonged to the One Calamity and Two Tribulations Realm, he had no intention of clashing directly with the Bull Demon, as he specialized in reconnaissance, not battles.

Thus, he immediately called upon the Demon God Venerable!

Since the Bull Demon discovered him and stood before him, meaning an attack was imminent, it was perfect!

He gave the Demon God Venerable a pretext for action!

However...

The spreading ultrasonic shockwaves suddenly collided with an invisible barrier and rebounded back.

Those ultrasonic waves kept ricocheting back toward him.

In just an instant, the Night Bat Demon God found himself dizzy from his own ultrasonic attack!

Damn...

This Netherworld Ox Demon had set up something in the surrounding space!

So uncomfortable...

His perception was too sensitive, and he was inadvertently injured by his own ultrasonic waves.

But the Night Bat Demon God reacted decisively. As soon as he sensed something amiss, he flapped his wings, intending to smash through the space to escape.

A towering demon aura burst skyward as the Disaster Wheel appeared instantly—the Lich Disaster Wheel!

Boom—

Chapter 1735: So, Will the Dao Fruit of Bonds Disappear? Racing Against Time to Kill the Demon God

The space burst open inch by inch.

However, the Night Bat Demon God suddenly noticed colossal black chains wrapping around from nowhere, binding his hands and feet.

His bat wings flapped fiercely, unleashing the full power of the One Disaster and Two Tribulations, nearly breaking the chains apart.

Yet, the Netherworld Ox Demon appeared before a chain at an unknown time.

Clatter.

A massive hand swept, grabbing the pitch-black chains with its elbow.

A terrifying force erupted from his body.

Boom——

The flapping-winged Night Bat Demon God felt an irresistible force suddenly burst from the Ox Demon.

The Night Bat Demon God's body was suddenly pulled into an ink-black city.

The Night Bat Demon God felt extremely uneasy, unleashing supersonic waves continuously!

Buzzzzz——

Yet, there was no response, not even a trace of response.

This area, undeniably within Qi Tian City, was completely isolated by an invisible power!

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable... had no way of knowing his situation!

A desperate and shrill scream.

The Night Bat Demon God, who favored darkness, was engulfed by it.

...

...

City Lord's Mansion.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable sat at the head of the round table, with rolling demon energy weaving around him like a curtain, making his form appear very blurred.

His massive bull head had eyes that were bright and piercing.

His perception swept over the sky of Qi Tian City, sensing the situation in the three city gate areas.

"Clearly divided, the strong ones of the Western Regions Buddha Land attack the South Gate, the cultivators of Wushen Mountain attack the North Gate, while the powerful forces of the Da Jing Dynasty and many Divine Sects and Ancient Families attack the West Gate..."

"The Human Race indeed is a faction hard to unite. If only they were united like my Demon Race. Although there is a strict hierarchy within the Demon Race, it is this strict hierarchy that created the united Demon Race. As long as I give an order, it is carried out without resistance, no demon dares to backstab!"

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable smiled faintly.

He believed that in the face of such a united Demon Race, the future of this world surely belongs to the Demon Race, and the stage of the entire world will belong to the Demon Race!

No news came from the Night Bat's side. For caution, the Night Bat would report the situation of the Netherworld Ox Demon once every three incense sticks' time.

As it was not yet the time of three incense sticks, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable did not mind, continuing to watch the battle condition of human strongmen challenging Qi Tian City at the three major city gates.

But for some reason, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable inexplicably felt uneasy.

He did not know where this uneasiness came from.

...

...

Mo City Fengdu.

Countless Mo Yu exploded violently.

Clatter, clatter——

That was the sound of chains being forcibly torn asunder, followed by a sonic boom ringing out.

A figure, like a cannonball, was forcibly pulled down from the Cloud Dome of Mo City.

Thunk——!

Li Che, wearing a Bull Demon Mask, arched his body fiercely, every inch of muscle and bone twisting like steel bars, entangling together like a braid.

A terrifying force, like it could destroy heaven and earth, erupted.

Thunk!

Li Che crashed down swiftly, creating a massive deep pit on Mo City's ground!

Yet, under Li Che's arm, four chains were tightly clamped.

The other end of the chains stretched taut, reaching up to the Heavenly Dome, where they connected to the giant bat-headed Night Bat Demon God.

A colossal feline bat, with wings spanning a hundred zhang wide, overshadowing the sky!

Thick rolling demon energy surged into the sky, and the powerful demon god of the One Disaster and Two Tribulations Realm struggled violently at this moment.

A terrifying force constantly surged out, making the space seem to break apart, with countless cracks spreading all over!

The storm of sand and rocks, buildings, and ground within the city were instantly torn and shattered.

"Netherworld Ox Demon——!!!"

A scream burst forth.

The shockwaves wildly spread, rippling through the alleys of Mo City, causing many walls to explode violently.

Even Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon Mask, couldn't help but frown slightly.

Feeling a slight swelling in his head, as if it were about to burst.

Clatter——

Releasing his arms, countless chains snapped inch by inch!

Exploding into a mist of ink, sprinkling across the sky.

The Night Bat Demon God, both furious and enraged!

Li Che, however, had no intention of chatting with the Night Bat Demon God.

After all, it was under the eyes of that Black Bull Demon God Venerable that he had to forcibly kill a demon god of the One Disaster and Two Tribulations, and he needed to act quickly.

Because through the Heaven and Earth chessboard, Li Che knew that every three incense sticks of time, this Night Bat Demon God would report the Ox Demon's situation to the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

If three incense sticks pass without a report, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable would surely sense something amiss.

Now that two incense sticks' time had passed, with only one incense stick's time remaining, Li Che must quickly resolve this Night Bat Demon God and complete the Soul Capturing!

He flicked his finger.

A black chess piece shot towards the gigantic Night Bat Demon God flapping in midair.

The chess piece exploded in midair.

A surge of black mist surged, like the Vast Sea erupting with terrifying waves!

In the next moment.

A surge of immense and terrifying demon energy erupted, its overwhelming pressure crashing down, causing the Night Bat Demon God's heart to palpitate.

A demon god of One Disaster and Three Tribulations Realm!

Sea Flipping Nine Infants!

With nine heads swirling, including two dragon heads, one crane head, and one leopard head!

The instant the Night Bat Demon God saw the crane head and leopard head, he felt his breath halt as if frozen.

"Heavenly Crane Demon God?!"

Had the Heavenly Crane Demon God actually been merged into this formidable demon god's body?!

What kind of evil technique is this?!

Bearing the Netherworld, it was such a sinister Demon Sect?!

The Night Bat Demon God's hair stood on end, the crisis of death erupted with unprecedented strength, he flapped his wings, the Disaster Wheel fully activated!

"Screech——!!!"

The Night Bat Demon God's hair stood on end, but at this moment, he had only one thought.

Delay!

Delay for time!

Just thirty minutes left, as long as the delay lasts...

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable, without his report, would realize something had happened to him!

At that time, he might be saved!

Delay!

A formidable demon god of One Disaster and Three Tribulations Realm...

Very powerful, very bizarre...

But delaying for thirty minutes, he should manage!

Boom——!!!

A terrifying aura exploded dramatically, it was golden qi-blood, like a pillar of light, connecting heaven and earth!

The Netherworld Ox Demon took a step down, like a divine mountain rising from the ground, Qi Gate divine seeds emerged and exploded violently, qi-blood surged like an endless ocean, shattering the divine mountain.

Causing the divine mountain to fall in fragments like an imprint!

Every second counts!

Murderous intent erupted!

...

...

Between heaven and earth, it was like an incense stick was burning quietly.

As if life was counting down.

The Night Bat Demon God, with a thud, blood spurting incessantly, his massive demon body seemed on the verge of explosion.

The Sea Flipping Nine Infants of One Disaster and Three Tribulations was too powerful, the Night Bat Demon God strained all his strength just to defend.

But endure, delay...

Just thirty minutes!

Just endure for thirty minutes!

...

...

In Qi Tian City.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable inexplicably sensed a feeling of unease, unique to his demon soul intuition!

This intuition grew stronger, the sense of unease became more intense.

However, he couldn't analyze where this unease originated from.

Was it from the demon gods guarding the three city gates?

Had another demon god appeared in the same situation as the Heavenly Crane, beaten to death alive?

It shouldn't be, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable had specifically reminded those demon gods to surrender immediately if they couldn't win, upon choosing to surrender, he would intervene at once.

"So... where exactly did the unease come from?"

Suddenly.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable squinted his eyes.

"Night Bat Demon God!"

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable sprang up.

Boom——

Immense demon energy surged violently, the void seemed to shatter.

The time for Three Incense Sticks...

Approaching fast!

Night Bat...

The unease grew fiercely, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable moved, terrifying demon energy detonated within the city.

Instantly transforming into a straight black wave.

Appearing before the Bull Demon Courtyard.

His powerful demon soul swept through, discovering within the courtyard, Niu Yi, Niu Er, and other Netherworld Evil Ones, quietly sitting in cultivation.

He appeared at the location where the Night Bat was hidden.

There, a crack opened in the space.

Gradually, the crack widened.

Revealing the smiling face of the Night Bat Demon God.

"Venerable, why have you come?"

"The three incense sticks' time just ended, I was about to report to you."

Chapter 1736: The 12 Demon Gods' Recruitment Plan, Lord Dog Long Time No See in Qi Tian City

Whoosh—

Demon energy surged violently, intertwining with ferocity, as the terrifying aura of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable leaked out, seemingly warping the very space around.

This time it was his true form that appeared. When he sensed something was amiss, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable decided to rush over in his true body, the unease in his heart stemming from his demon soul's intuition.

He trusted his intuition. However, upon arriving outside the courtyard where the Bull Demon resided, and after finding the Night Bat Demon God, the unease in his heart vanished instantly.

Surrounded by surging demon energy, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable revealed only a black bull head, with blood-red eyes, frowning as he looked at the Night Bat Demon God before him.

"Night Bat, did something happen?"

"Did that Bull Demon attack you?"

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable couldn't help but ask.

However, the Night Bat Demon God remained very respectful, clasping fists and bowing: "I have been monitoring the Netherworld Ox Demon's situation at all times and have not detected any abnormalities."

Upon hearing this, the Black Bull Demon God Venerable's suspicions slowly faded away. He glanced at the Night Bat and, seeing that the latter was unharmed and showed no signs of serious injury, he ceased to think further.

The Night Bat was one of his most trusted confidants. With the impending opening of the Qitian Temple's legacy, the Night Bat was needed to explore and gather resources, an exceedingly important task.

Due to the Strange Temple God Divinity's influence, many demon races have emerged in the human world. So far, even within countries like Great Vista and Da Li Royal Court, numerous demons have been born.

Outside these countries, the demon race mimicked the Strange Que's Deceit Demon Cave to create the Ten Thousand Rivers, gathering countless demons. As the number of demons increased, their hunger for resources naturally intensified.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable encouraged the Night Bat for a while.

The Night Bat seemed to sense something, and after taking his leave, he remerged into the void, leaving only a tiny crack as thin as a hair.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable turned his head and met the gaze of the extraordinarily towering Bull Demon in the courtyard, whose eyes were coldly watching.

A black bull and a cute cow stood there, seemingly gazing at each other across space.

The Black Bull Demon God Venerable smiled lightly — unfortunately, he was the real bull.

But the Bull Demon... was just a masked fake.

Rumble—

A black wind rolled, demon energy surged, as the Black Bull Demon God Venerable retreated directly, returning to the City Lord's Mansion. He seated himself in the City Lord's Mansion, extending his senses to cover the three city gates, identifying all the human strongholds entering the city.

As the challenge continued, more and more strong individuals stepped into the city.

Because the demon gods guarding the three city gates were all in the One Disaster One Tribulation Realm, while many of the strong individuals from the human side who arrived were in the One Disaster Two Tribulations Realm.

Moreover, due to the prior death of the Heavenly Crane Demon God, many demon gods were wary, unwilling to fight to the death recklessly, fearing an outcome like that of the Heavenly Crane Demon God's fall, which would be unwise.

After all, the Qitian Temple God's resonance was about to start, and being part of the demon race, they inherently possessed a great advantage in the Qitian Demon Saint's Temple God resonance.

If they were to battle human cultivators and get injured, it would be inconsequential, but if they were to fall and miss the Qitian Temple God resonance, losing the opportunity to advance further, it would be truly unwise.

The resonance of a temple god from a Three Pure Bizarre Temple brought enormous benefits!

If one truly inherited the resonance legacy of the Qitian Temple God, they might even be invited into the Deceit Demon Cave in the future and become a member of the All Gods Camp!

In the courtyard of Qitian City's Outer City.

Li Che, wearing a Bull Demon mask, watched the Big Black Bull leave, letting out a slow sigh of relief.

Yet, the hidden murderous intent in his eyes was undisguised.

Since this Big Black Bull started plotting against Xi Xi, attempting to capture her to be sent into the Deceit Demon Cave of Strange Que, Li Che had developed a determination to kill this Big Black Bull.

After all, this was a Black Bull Demon God Venerable in the Realm of Two Disasters.

The divine tribulation of the Realm of Two Disasters is called Venerable. Why Venerable? In cultivation, being regarded with esteem is what makes one a Venerable.

How could Li Che remain calm when such a powerful being set his sights on his daughter?

Moreover, the Big Black Bull represented not just himself but countless demon races of the Ten Thousand Rivers and the Deceit Demon Cave, a major faction of the All Gods Camp!

Li Che's eyes drooped down. Xi Xi's involvement with the Prison Lotus Camp was inevitable.

Starting from when Xi Xi accepted the resonance legacy of the Third Prince Temple God, her future connection with the Prison Lotus Camp was essentially set.

She even became the Daughter of Prison Lotus...

Li Che didn't know the significance of being the Daughter of Prison Lotus or her status and what it represented within the Prison Lotus Camp...

However, being so valued by the Deceit Demon Cave, the Daughter of Prison Lotus must possess an extraordinary status within the Prison Lotus Camp!

"Fortunately... Xi Xi is in the human world, where the All Gods Camp cannot yet interfere."

Li Che pressed the Bull Demon mask on his face.

There is a limitation of Heaven and Earth Will in the human world, a form of protection that safeguards both human cultivators and Xi Xi as well.

Buzz—

With a shift of mind, he entered Mo City Fengdu once again.

Inside Fengdu.

A gigantic bat corpse lay sprawled on the rugged ground of Mo City, with cold ink-colored rain pouring down mercilessly, continuously washing its body, while crooked, dark blood oozed forth.

This wasn't the original color of its blood; it had transformed after being poisoned.

A poison so potent that even a Demon God in the One Disaster Two Tribulations Realm couldn't withstand it.

Beside the gigantic bat corpse, a slender figure stood, clad in a black hood and appearing like a researcher, extracting essence blood and venom from the deceased bat's body.

Chapter 1737: The Recruitment Plan of 12 Demon Gods, Lord Dog Long Time No See in Qi Tian City

"My Lord."

Upon seeing Li Che's arrival, Gu Yinxuan immediately stopped extracting the essence blood and venom.

As the Poison Saint, he had an intense curiosity for toxins of any kind, especially that of a Demon God from the First Disaster Second Tribulation Realm.

Li Che glanced at Gu Yinxuan, his face bearing a gentle smile.

To race against time and swiftly resolve the matter with Night Bat Demon God, Li Che had no choice but to utilize his secret weapon, which was Gu Yinxuan.

With one hand wielding the Nine Revolutions Rising Dragon Pill and the other holding the Three-legged Golden Toad Pendant, Gu Yinxuan instantly rendered Night Bat Demon God defenseless, allowing Li Che, paired with the explosive power of the Sea Flipping Nine Infants, to overpower and kill him.

Buzz——

A twisted black smoke formed, revealing Night Bat Demon God's soul-capturing figure that immediately manifested, his wings folding as he transformed into a humanoid form, albeit slightly grotesque, with two snarling fangs.

Li Che chose not to feed Night Bat Demon God to the Ten Fierce Brushwork to nourish the Nine Infants, but instead chose to capture his soul.

After all, Night Bat Demon God still served a significant purpose, to be planted by Black Bull Demon God Venerable's side either as a spy or a backstab plot, both quite useful.

Originally, Night Bat Demon God was the Big Black Bull's spy placed by the Netherworld Ox Demon, yet Li Che opted for a simple and direct approach to turn him, ensuring absolute loyalty.

The means of the Underworld indeed surpassed these demons' imaginations.

Even Night Bat Demon God himself felt stunned.

The Underworld is no legitimate force, one glance says demon sect!

Li Che instructed Night Bat Demon God on some matters, and under the influence of soul capture, he was absolutely loyal, naturally following Li Che's commands completely, which was a suppression beyond the rank brought by the Demon Race.

"My Lord, once the inheritance of Equal Heaven Temple opens, my subordinate's ultrasonic sensing can rapidly explore resources, search for Dao Yun Divine Crystal, Divinity Crystal, and other resources, and if we enter Strange Que, we can even locate and track Divine Attribute Crystal Mines!"

Night Bat Demon God spoke proudly of his abilities, offering them as treasures.

Li Che heard this, his eyes immediately brightened upon understanding the enormous role Night Bat Demon God had under Big Black Bull, stirring his heart.

Suffice it to say, Big Black Bull is truly generous, such an invaluable demon talent was fed directly to him.

Li Che let Night Bat Demon God return to continue undercover exploration, while Gu Yinxuan on the side bowed and reported the recent research progress: "Reporting to My Lord, after subordinate's three hundred sixty-seven deaths, significant progress has been made on the [Thousand Bone Centipede Powder] listed eighth in the Heavenly Poison Divine Pill Scripture."

"Subordinate estimates that another one hundred eighty deaths might lead to the completion of the Thousand Bone Centipede Powder."

Gu Yinxuan spoke with some excitement.

Li Che heard this, and his lips twitched, somewhat taken aback.

Quietly, you've died so many times already?

"Old Gu, thank you for your hard work..."

Li Che couldn't help but say.

Upon hearing this, a slight smile appeared on Gu Yinxuan's meticulous face: "My Lord is too kind, it is my duty to die."

Gu Yinxuan withdrew, taking Night Bat Demon God's essence blood and venom to research new toxins.

Li Che, however, did not hesitate, extracting Night Bat Demon God's demon core and began siphoning its demon energy to enhance the [Ten Thousand Demons Emperor] Dao Fruit.

The siphoning speed of the Ten Thousand Demons Emperor Dao Fruit was remarkably swift, completing the process almost unconsciously.

Playing with the demon core that resembled a luminous pearl, radiance flickered in Li Che's eyes.

His mind was contemplating the scheme against Big Black Bull.

For this Demon God Venerable, who threatened his daughter's safety, Li Che dared not underestimate him.

Suddenly, Li Che recalled the round table meeting of numerous demon gods orchestrated by Big Black Bull, the corners of his lips lightly curving into a smile.

"There are twelve Demon Gods in total, surely that cannot be the entire demon god count of the Demon Race within the Ten Thousand Rivers of the human world... Perhaps only the volume under Black Bull Demon God Venerable's command."

Li Che pondered.

Too little did Li Che know about the Demon Race within the Ten Thousand Rivers of the human world, his heart stirred.

Night Bat Demon God, who had already left, returned once again.

"My Lord wishes to know the overall strength of the Demon Race in the human world?"

Night Bat Demon God, upon hearing this, withheld nothing: "The Demon Race in the human world receives support from the Gui Que Demon Clan within the All Gods Camp [Deceit Demon Cave], among Ten Thousand Rivers in the human world, there are two Demon God Supremes and six Demon God Venerables... As for the quantity of Demon Gods, it's greater."

"Five hundred years ago, the volume of Demon Race Demon Gods was not so numerous; it was only after occupying Qi Tian City and communicating with [Deceit Demon Cave], that the Demon Race expanded and thrived."

Night Bat Demon God whispered.

Li Che was slightly shaken upon hearing this.

Is the Demon Race... truly this formidable?!

Yet, it was merely Li Che's perception of their strength.

After all, this was the formidable power count of all Demon Race within the human world, correlating to the Human Race...

And the Human Race has the Great Vista, Da Li, Wushen Mountain, Western Regions Buddha Land, and other forces.

Aggregating the numerous powerful forces, it shouldn't be much weaker than the Demon Race.

Supreme is called so after reaching the rank of Three Calamities Divine Tribulation, while Venerable is a respectful title for those of the Two Calamities Divine Tribulation.

Like Big Black Bull, he is a Demon God Venerable of the Second Calamity.

On the Human Race's side, is there anyone of the Three Calamities Divine Tribulation rank?

There must be, without a doubt; just that currently Li Che has not yet encountered, plus the Heaven and Earth Will heavily restricts the Three Calamities and Two Calamities Realm superpowers, they rarely appear regularly, naturally limiting Li Che's understanding channels.

"My Lord, rest assured, in the human world, Demon God Supremes cannot take action; even within Qi Tian City, it's impossible... Therefore, within Ten Thousand Rivers, the Demon God Supremes consistently operate within Strange Que."

Chapter 1738: The Recruitment Plan for 12 Demon Gods, Long Time No See Lord Dog in Qi Tian City

"[Deceit Demon Cave] is truly full of Demon God Supremes within the All Gods Camp, perhaps even true deities..."

The Night Bat Demon God said in a deep voice, having already aligned himself with the Underworld camp, his tone had become heavy.

"Unfortunately, in the Demon Race, the hierarchy is clear, and I haven't seen the Supremes of the Ten Thousand Rivers, but I've heard the Demon God Venerable mention that the Divine Tide is rising, the era of great contention is coming, and strong beings will emerge like bamboo shoots after rain, the human world will face upheaval!"

The Night Bat Demon God said.

Divine Tide...

Li Che's heart trembled; this wasn't the first time he'd heard of the Divine Tide.

However, he didn't know much about the so-called Divine Tide.

As for the era of great contention mentioned by the Night Bat, Li Che indeed had a perceptual resonance.

With the coming of the era of great contention, those stuck at bottlenecks will choose to Breakthrough Realm, and breaking through will become easier, like Lv Taibai and Ji Moli, both stepping into the Divine Tribulation.

And there's the Governor of Divine Capital Temple Supervisor, Ye Pengju, and others...

The original Great God List and the peerless existences on the Heavenly Gate are all moving forward, starting to compete.

After asking the Night Bat some other things, Li Che let the Night Bat Demon God return, as he had to report to the Big Black Bull every Three Incense Sticks, otherwise, missing the time might arouse the Big Black Bull's suspicion.

"Twelve Demon Gods left..."

Li Che's eyes flickered slightly, his fingers tapping lightly, and the next moment, his lips could not help but slowly curl up.

Qi Tian City is divided into Inner and Outer City, with the Inner City being the place of inheritance, which has not yet opened, even the Demon Race cannot enter it.

"There are still half a month until Qi Tian Inner City is about to open, and at that time the Temple God Resonance will occur, and the twelve Demon Gods... Can I subdue them all before the Inner City opens?"

Saying subdue is actually Soul Capturing.

In Li Che's view, his Soul Capturing is the most perfect subjugation.

Mo Yu poured down with a rumble, crashing onto the ground and splattering explosively.

Li Che, however, seemed to form an invisible field around him, isolating countless raindrops, creating a vacuum-like space.

"The difficulty is somewhat high, but it's not impossible to try..."

Thinking of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable, with a single command, being backstabbed by the twelve Demon Gods into a sieve-like state, inexplicably felt interesting.

"First, need to ascertain the specific strength of these twelve Demon Gods, First Disaster One Tribulation, First Disaster Second Rank... and even those in the One Disaster Three Tribulations Realm..."

"As long as they're not of the Second Calamity level Demon God... they can all be dealt with." Li Che pondered.

Moreover, Li Che still had a bold idea in his heart.

His perspective had broadened quite a bit nowadays; he knew that the true threat to his daughter wasn't from the human world's Demon Race but from the Supremes or even deities of the Strange Que's Deceit Demon Cave!

Therefore, subduing many in the Demon Race by Li Che could even serve as a future countermeasure against the Deceit Demon Cave.

Buzz—

With a thought.

Li Che exited Mo City.

The entire person instantly returned to the yard of Qi Tian City.

Slowly standing up, his jet-black vigorous hair, like black lightning whipping through the air, made crackling sounds, the robust body seeming almost about to burst through his clothes, muscles constantly stacking.

Under the Bull Demon Mask, his pupils burned like golden flames.

"Twelve Demon Gods, congratulations... you've been surrounded by me."

...

...

Hunting the twelve Demon Gods is a grand plan.

Moreover, it must be conducted without drawing the Black Bull Demon God Venerable's attention, which is no easy task.

Firstly, not all Demon Gods, like the Night Bat Demon God, have hidden their aura and demon energy for surveillance, concealed in the void, thereby becoming a loophole.

Being directly drawn into Mo City Fengdu by Li Che, they were unaware.

The other Demon Gods constantly emit terrifying demon energy, once drawn into Fengdu, it would surely lead to the disappearance of their demon energy.

The entire Qi Tian City is enveloped by massive fog-like demon energy, and this energy is not something the Black Bull Demon God Venerable alone could achieve; it is the concerted effort of the fourteen Demon Gods under the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

After the fall of the Heavenly Crane Demon God and the Night Bat Demon God, only the twelve Demon Gods remain to maintain the demon energy of Qi Tian City.

Li Che did not act immediately, but as usual.

Outside Qi Tian City.

After days of observation, Lv Qiankun made his move.

With the First Disaster and Second Tribulations Realm cultivation, he easily defeated the Sword Antelope Demon God guarding the city, and Fang Hanshu, although possessing Divine Tribulation Cultivation, somehow concealed his aura, acted as a top Great God, naturally entering the city with ease.

Only Lv Taibai was left.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh—

The demon-energy-invoked gusts bellowed continuously.

Lv Taibai's silvery hair fluttered, the Taibai Sword hidden within his sleeve hummed in resonance, he looked at Li Che and Xi Xi, whom he was holding.

"I'm about to make my move."

Lv Taibai said.

"Are you taking Xi Xi and the others into Qi Tian City?"

Lv Taibai's questioning gaze turned to Li Che.

As for Li Che being able to enter the city, Lv Taibai naturally wasn't worried; Li Che had too many hidden aces.

"Let's enter the city, there's no way to leave the little girl and them outside? It's even more dangerous outside. Enter the city, they don't need to participate in any Temple God Resonance, just gaining some insight is good."

Li Che's Mo Shan clothes fluttered, his face carrying a gentle smile.

Upon hearing this, Lv Taibai nodded, and rubbed Xi Xi's head: "Master's going too!"

The next moment, the Taibai Sword hidden within his sleeve resonated with a dazzling clang, releasing resplendent sword light, and soared toward the Sword Antelope Demon God on the walls of West City.

Lv Taibai entered the Divine Tribulation with the Destructive God Wind as his Dao Position, his combat power exceptional.

Chapter 1739: The Recruitment Plan of 12 Demon Gods, Lord Dog Long Time No See in Qi Tian City

The Sword Antelope Demon God had long lost the will to fight fiercely. After exchanging a few blows, he allowed Lv Taibai to enter the city.

His main purpose in guarding the West Gate was to stop the various human cultivators who wanted to intrude into Qi Tian City.

Not enough cultivation, yet daring to covet the Qitian Demon Saint's inheritance—are you even worthy?

After Lv Taibai entered the city, he quickly met up with Lv Qiankun and Fang Hanshu.

The three appeared on the city wall.

Li Che led Xi Xi, with Yun E and Zhou Peng following behind her, along with Jin Taixui, who was like a tail.

The four little ones obediently followed Li Che.

The group arrived beneath the city wall.

The Sword Antelope Demon God was just about to say something.

Rumble—

Demonic energy surged as the vast demonic energy of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable shrouded Qitian City, gradually revealing his form, with terrifying energy intertwining wildly.

Li Che calmly watched the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

"Can the children enter the city if they want to broaden their horizons?"

Xi Xi's face involuntarily showed tension; even with Li Che's aura shielding them, the horrifying pressure of facing a Two Disasters Demon God made the four little ones swallow hard.

Especially Jin Taixui, who, possessing some demonic bloodline, almost trembled on his legs.

"Defeat your opponent, and you can enter the city."

The voice of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable was as loud as a thunderous bell.

In fact, his gaze was already fixed on Xi Xi, confirming that she was the Daughter of Prison Lotus.

His goal was to capture the Daughter of Prison Lotus; whether Xi Xi entered the city mattered little to the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

However, entering the city would be best, as he wouldn't need to leave Qi Tian City.

Li Che smiled gently upon hearing this. He understood the look in the Black Bull Demon God Venerable's eyes, and his smile carried a hint of coldness.

On the city tower, Fang Hanshu's expression also changed slightly, as if sensing something was amiss.

"A Che, don't bring Xi Xi into Qi Tian City."

Fang Hanshu thought for a moment and discreetly transmitted a message to Li Che.

Li Che glanced at Fang Hanshu and nodded kindly, giving him a reassuring look.

As someone who knew Old Fang inside out, Li Che also sensed Fang Hanshu's concern for Xi Xi.

Fang Hanshu was stunned and immediately understood... Li Che had also noticed something was wrong with the Black Bull Demon God Venerable. Since that was the case, he said no more.

Roar——

A top demon king under the command of the Sword Antelope Demon God guarding the West Gate emerged.

Faced with a top demon king, Li Che opted for a straightforward and forceful approach. With a flick of his finger, a stream of light shot out, accompanied by a resonating sound.

The Divine Machine Armored Heavenly Armor appeared instantly!

Li Che, along with the four children, settled inside the control room within the head of the Heavenly Armor, where flashing Mechanism Seals intertwined continuously, shining brilliantly!

"Wow——"

Xi Xi exclaimed, her eyes sparkling.

"Papa, can Xi Xi operate this big Mr. Monkey?!"

Xi Xi was almost drooling.

Li Che ruffled Xi Xi's hair: "Xi Xi needs to become a bit stronger first..."

To operate the Divine Machine, one needs a God Level Heaven and Earth Soul; currently, Xi Xi... is still somewhat lacking.

Boom——

With a thought, Li Che controlled the Heavenly Armor to clench its fist.

The emergence of such a Divine Machine immediately shocked all the cultivators from various factions, including Great Vista and Divine Sect, who were utterly astonished!

The demon king guarding the city was nearly blown apart with a single punch!

The Sword Antelope Demon God tried to intervene with an unpleasant look, realizing that a Four Divine Changes Divine Fetus could, by operating a mechanism, unleash Martial God-level combat power!

This is truly astonishing...

The human race has managed to develop such a terrifying mechanical technique!

It's like a monster!

The gigantic Heavenly Armor rumbled and vibrated, and with every step it took, it seemed to make the earth tremble.

After entering the city, Li Che retracted the Heavenly Armor and, leading the four children by the hand, carried on with a normal expression as they entered the courtyard where Lv Qiankun and others gathered, all under the watchful gaze of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable's eyes like bronze bells.

In Qi Tian City, everyone naturally chose to stick together.

"Finally entered the city... Daughter of Prison Lotus!"

Above Qi Tian City.

The eyes of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable glowed darkly.

There was even an extreme excitement flashing beneath his eyes. If he could capture the Daughter of Prison Lotus and send her to the Deceit Demon Cave, it would be a great achievement, and he might have a chance...

To break through to the Three Calamities and attain the Supreme!

In the courtyard.

After settling Xi Xi, Jin Taixui, and the others, Li Che seemed to catch the low muttering of the Black Bull Demon God Venerable.

A cold curve slightly lifted on the corners of his lips.

Those who covet his daughter must die.

Even if you're a Two Disasters Realm Demon God Venerable, you'll face the same fate.

Li Che placed the latest version of the Thunder Chess Piece on Xi Xi and the others.

If Xi Xi encountered an unbeatable danger, the Thunder Chess Piece would automatically activate, teleporting them to Mo City Fengdu.

Once in Mo City, they would be safe.

Mo City Fengdu...

Any enemy daring to step foot there would not be able to leave.

Outside Qi Tian City, the battle continued, with numerous strong ones also wanting to step into Qi Tian City.

As time marched on, the day when the Qitian Inheritance would open drew ever closer.

In the courtyard of Qi Tian City.

Li Che wore the Bull Demon Mask, his breathing drawing in a flow of great wind.

Just as he was about to enact the demon god solicitation plan.

A tremendously powerful force, seemingly causing the space to tremble and warp, suddenly erupted from outside the door.

As if an immense terror was slowly approaching.

His eyes suddenly opened.

Heart stirred.

The courtyard door burst open.

Seen outside...

A large black dog with an elegant stride and a wagging tail ambled slowly towards them.

A glint shone in Li Che's eyes beneath the Bull Demon Mask.

Lord Dog?!

Chapter 1740: Eight Qimen Immortal Seeds Achieve Body Sanctification, the Underworld Welcomes a Newcomer: The Monster Diting

A long, slender black figure leisurely walked out from beyond the portal.

With four dog paws gently pressing on the ground in a cross-legged gait, a shiny black dog strode in an elegant cat-like walk usually reserved for felines, exuding an irresistible air of audacity.

In its black eyes, reminiscent of dark jujubes, shone a bright spark—a playful tease, as if reunited after a long separation.

As if saying, Little Li, long time no see!

Wearing the Netherworld Ox Demon mask, Li Che's eyes lit up instantly, the seriousness and gravity on his face vanishing at once.

Initially, Li Che thought that the big black bull from the City Lord's Mansion had predicted his plan to recruit the Twelve Demon Gods and was planning to act first!

Unexpectedly, it was Lord Dog who had disappeared for a long time!

Previously, on the way back from the Divine Capital to Qianyuan Taoist City, he was escorted by the boss and Lord Dog. The boss said he would open a restaurant in Qi Tian City, and now Li Che had arrived there.

However, since entering Qi Tian City, he had used the Heaven and Earth chessboard to search for a while, but saw neither the boss nor Lord Dog.

Feeling somewhat disappointed, he hadn't expected Lord Dog would come here personally.

As Lord Dog entered the courtyard, the portal immediately closed.

Li Che took off the Bull Demon mask, revealing a broad smile, took two steps toward Lord Dog, and spread his arms as if to give a hug.

But Lord Dog rolled its eyes in disdain.

What's with the hug?

Do you think you're Xi Xi?

"Where's the boss? The boss said he would open a restaurant in Qi Tian City. Where is it?"

Li Che curiously asked.

Lord Dog could definitely understand his words, though whether it was willing to speak was another matter.

As for whether Lord Dog could talk... Li Che didn't think such a being, one that could slap a Temple God to death, would be unable to speak.

Lord Dog wandered around the courtyard and immediately pouted its dog mouth in dissatisfaction.

It looked at Li Che and rolled its eyes again, as if to say, Where's Xi Xi?

Why look at you, Lord Dog wants to see Xi Xi!

Li Che's outstretched arms crackled with energy, his Martial Immortal Golden Body erupted with explosive roars, and strong Qi-Blood erupted like mist.

Lord Dog rolled its eyes, as if to say, You've undergone a little transformation and you're showing off, but once my true body appears, it'll scare you senseless!

Li Che thought for a moment, then clenched his Five Fingers to teleport Xi Xi, who was training with Jin Taixui, Yun E, and others in the courtyard, over from Mo City Fengdu.

Xi Xi appeared dazed, her adorable big eyes spinning like a little ball in dazed confusion.

"Daddy?"

Xi Xi looked at Li Che in bewilderment, as if unsure how she was no longer training in the courtyard.

"Woof—!"

A bark of excitement from Lord Dog awakened Xi Xi from her confusion!

"Wow—Gou!"

Seeing Lord Dog, Xi Xi and Lord Dog's jujube-like eyes exploded with joy.

They darted at each other, colliding together.

Xi Xi spun around hugging Lord Dog, her two feet happily stomping the ground as if doing high steps.

Li Che stood nearby, watching with delight, his mood soaring.

Why?

Because Lord Dog and the boss had finally appeared; this assured Xi Xi's safety in Qi Tian City immensely.

Even that Black Bull Demon God Venerable couldn't threaten Xi Xi's safety.

Though he didn't know exactly why, the boss and Lord Dog gave Li Che this confidence.

At least, Xi Xi's safety was definitely assured...

Li Che even considered just leaving Xi Xi at the boss's restaurant in Qi Tian City; it should be very safe there.

As he thought about this, it seemed Xi Xi's chat with Lord Dog concluded.

It was mostly Xi Xi asking questions, to which Lord Dog merrily wagged its tail and replied with barking, somehow matching each other's frequency despite the speech not being human.

Li Che found it intriguing, thinking his daughter understood dog language!

The portal swung open, Lord Dog happily trotted forth with its dog legs.

"Daddy, let's follow up! Gou said he would take us to the boss's restaurant! Let's go eat something delicious!"

Xi Xi was so excited drool was uncontrollably streaming down.

She hadn't had the boss's cooking in a long time, and indeed she missed it!

Seeing this, Li Che didn't stop her and followed Lord Dog out of the courtyard with Xi Xi in tow.

The Heaven and Earth chessboard encompassed them, preventing any detection.

After all, being in Qi Tian City, Li Che needed to remain cautious.

However, thankfully, the Night Bat Demon God had become his trusted aide, and wouldn't leak their whereabouts, even given a Three Incense Sticks moment to report.

Still, Qi Tian City was vast, and encountering the Black Bull Demon God Venerable by chance could cause unnecessary trouble.

As they went forth, Li Che soon realized his concerns were extra.

In the alley behind his courtyard, about a hundred or so steps inward, Li Che finally saw the long-missed restaurant.

Under dim orange lights, it emitted a glow as if basked in sunset hues.

In front of the restaurant, a white-clad figure sat on a rocking chair, legs crossed, a cigarette dangling from his mouth, blue smoke spiraling up and dispersing into the air.
