

A Father 191

Chapter 191: 3-Year-Old Xi Xi, Bone Tempering Great Achievement, Temple God Resonance (4)

"After all, this matter involves the Four Royal Mysterious Temples, and the Ganyuan Orthodox Sect won't ignore it, so this is also an opportunity that the Ganyuan Orthodox Sect values,"

Li Qingshan squinted his eyes, his fingers gently tapping on the table, "You love your daughter dearly, and being concerned about her is not wrong, but the child must eventually venture out. This is an opportunity for her, and you can't let your worries about safety stop her from seizing it. She needs this experience."

Upon hearing this, Li Che finally relaxed his furrowed brow.

This was not an isolated incident; many Divine Sects, including branches of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect, had taken action before. Since there were precedents, that was somewhat reassuring.

Indeed, Li Che couldn't keep Xi Xi confined to their home all the time; in this world, powerful Divine Cultivation exists.

Everyone is competing, vying for transcendence.

Li Che needed to be responsible for his daughter's growth.

"Will cultivators from the Divine Sect Ganyuan Orthodox also come to preside? If Xi Xi performs well, is there a chance she could be spotted and admitted into the Ganyuan Orthodox?"

Li Che asked.

Li Qingshan shook his head, "There is a possibility, but entering the Ganyuan Orthodox has its own procedures. If Xi Xi can establish her Divine Foundation before the age of twelve, she will have a chance to enter the Ganyuan Orthodox."

"But this competition is too fierce. Across the entire Lingnan Circuit, how many Spirit Children toil for years, all striving for entry into the orthodox sect!"

"Because only by entering the Ganyuan Orthodox can one have the chance to cultivate the 'Three Pure Laws'!"

The Three Pure Laws!

Li Che's body shuddered, and he immediately understood the difficulty of competing with the Ganyuan Orthodox.

That level of competition was comparable to high school students from a small county in his previous life striving to enter one of the top two universities in the country!

Li Che felt a dryness in his mouth.

He was beginning to feel the educational anxiety of a parent.

"As long as it's safe..." Li Che sighed.

But his mind was already becoming active.

If Xi Xi enters the Four Royal Mysterious Temples, should he follow her?

Perhaps this would be a good opportunity...

To leave offspring in the Mysterious Temple... to set an anchorage for the Flying Thunder Chess Saint.

However, Li Qingshan was unaware of the subtle thoughts in Li Che's mind, he laughed, "There will definitely be safeguards; Spirit Children are the future of the Divine Sect branches, how could they be neglected? Safety is always given top priority, but... there are no absolutes in anything."

Li Qingshan's expression grew solemn.

"You also know, as the Spirit Children are the future of the branch sects, the branches cherish them immensely. But so does the Corpse God Cult, and the Divine Sect isn't guarding against just the Temple Gods, but also groups with ill intentions like the Corpse God Cult!"

The Corpse God Cult?!

Li Che's eyes suddenly turned icy.

"The threat posed by the Corpse God Cult, an emerging power from Jizhou, now nearly destabilizes an entire province of the Dajing Dynasty and occupies three states! The threat is enormous, and even the Divine Sect dares not underestimate it,"

"Their methods are malicious. Spirit Children who perform excellently in the Temple God Resonance can even become targets for their abduction, and if they cannot abduct them... they choose to destroy them."

Li Qingshan exhaled, as the Corpse God Cult also needed geniuses to build up their reserve forces.

One of the ways they acquire geniuses is by abduction!

Although trickery is a method well-employed by the Corpse God Cult, Spirit Children raised from an early age naturally have more loyalty.

Li Che squinted his eyes, a hint of murderous intent flickering within.

Suddenly, he looked at Li Qingshan, "Senior, suddenly shifting the topic to the Corpse God Cult, bringing up hatred, there must be a purpose, right?"

Li Qingshan chuckled, straightening up and rubbing his fingers together, his eyes squinting with a gleam, as the following words were the main reason he had sought out Li Che today.

"To ensure Xi Xi can safely participate in the Temple God Resonance."

"Bull Demon, there's a significantly lucrative collaboration... I wonder if you're interested?"
