

A Father 220

Chapter 220: To Become the Unbeatable Emperor Xi Xi, the Temple God was actually taken home?

To express gratitude for the nurturing of a Divine Child!

The nurturing of a Divine Child!

The grace—!

The noise surged like tides, undulating and echoing as if it had traveled from distant mountains, resonating beside everyone's eardrums!

Like thunder after clouds!

A stir of shock, envy, jealousy...

Almost all sorts of emotions burst forth in an instant, so much so that many cultivators could not even control the Seven Emotions Divinity of their own cultivation.

Resulting in various kinds of divinity, stirring and intertwining to form a storm that permeated in front of the Divine Sect Mountain Gate!

Parents honored through their daughter indeed!

This truly can be said to be parents gaining unparalleled wealth and honor through their daughter!

Because they had raised Xi Xi, a True Successor of the Sect Master, they had received the reward of the Nine Luminaries Divine Weapon, an Eighth Grade Martial Pill, and the permits for entering and exiting the Divine Sect!

What did this signify?

It meant that Li Che and Zhang Ya, this couple, even had a Death Exemption Token.

Even if they committed offenses in Mansion City, by using the Divine Sect's entrance permit, and taking refuge within the Divine Sect, they could receive protection!

As for the ten thousand taels of gold and the three shops in Mansion City, these were not trivial either, enough to elevate Li Che's family to a wealthy and honorable family in Mansion City.

Sect Master Nan Li Huo wore a gentle smile, his sleeves billowing as a breeze fluttered through them.

Li Che was slightly startled, then a smile appeared on his lips, and he pulled over Zhang Ya, who was somewhat dazed by the sudden shower of wealth and honor.

Zhang Ya was unlike Li Che. Li Che had even developed the Qiankun Jade of an Illusory Phase Cultivator, so he could still maintain his composure in the face of such wealth and honor.

But Zhang Ya was not like that; it was her first time being smashed on the head with such wealth and honor.

Unfamiliar concepts like the Nine Luminaries Divine Weapon, the Eight Extremes Martial Pill...

Just the ten thousand taels of gold and the three shops in Mansion City alone completely overwhelmed her.

"Many thanks to the Sect Master for these gifts."

Li Che bowed with clasped hands, bending forward as he thanked.

Zhang Ya hastily mimicked the gesture, also bowing in response.

Nan Li Huo looked at the honest and upright couple, his eyes brimming with an even richer gentleness and appreciation.

"The rest of the gifts are commonplace; however, this permit for entering and exiting the sect gates should be particularly useful to you. If you miss Xi Xi, you may use this permit to enter Divine Sect's Golden Light Peak."

Nan Li Huo said gently.

Li Che once again thanked the Sect Master; indeed, this entrance permit was immensely important.

Though for him it was quite ordinary, since Li Che had placed a Thunder Chess Piece on Xi Xi, if he wanted to see Xi Xi, a single teleportation would suffice.

But for Zhang Ya, the mother, without this entrance permit, she might have to be separated from her daughter for a very long time...

For a cultivator who cultivates without regard to days or months, how much must Zhang Ya, as a mother, miss Xi Xi.

Thus, Li Che was truly grateful to Sect Master Nan Li Huo.

Nan Li Huo returned Xi Xi to Li Che and Zhang Ya: "In three days, someone will come to take Xi Xi to the mountain; you may also follow and send her up the mountain."

"Afterward, each month, with the Divine Sect entrance permit, you may ascend Golden Light Peak twice to accompany Xi Xi."

Zhang Ya hugged Xi Xi, and the family of three together thanked Sect Master Nan Li Huo.

Nan Li Huo glanced absently at the sweet family of three, then snapped back to reality, his eyes unconsciously flickering with envy and sorrow.

"Xi Xi, in three days, we will prepare for your initiation ceremony; remember to call me Master then."

"Okay, Sect Master Master!"

Xi Xi called out with a smile.

Nan Li Huo was rendered speechless, soon breaking into a light chuckle, really a clever and astute little sprite.

Nan Li Huo gently tapped Xi Xi's head three times, then with a swirl of his sleeves, he drew them behind him, his robes hanging upside down, turning into a streak of light that vanished in a flash.

"Lingnan Qianyuan Divine Sect, Golden Light Sub-sect, entry examination..."

"Continue!"

...

...

Li Che's family completely became the focus, attracting the gaze and envy of countless people.

However, the attention did not last long, as the focus of everyone still returned to the Divine Sect entry exams.

Though the selection of the fifteen Supreme Spiritual Children as true successors had ended, the assessments for the hundreds of Upper Class Spiritual Children, along with even more Mid-grade and Low Grade Spiritual children, had just begun.

For many parents who had brought their Spirit Child children from distant places to participate in the Divine Sect exams, this was the most important matter.

If they could be admitted into the Divine Sect, that would mean their future cultivation was guaranteed, as the resources within Divine Sect were innumerable, and the growth would definitely be much better than outside in towns and cities.

Uncle Li Liang put away his dry tobacco pipe and came over to Li Che's side, first heartily congratulating him, then somewhat sheepishly asking for help.

Li Che, holding Xi Xi, immediately smiled upon seeing Uncle Li Liang: "Uncle, don't worry, I've already arranged everything for Chengzhou's entry into the Divine Sect."

Xi Xi's entry into the Divine Sect was as sure as a nail in board, but Li Chengzhou was different; Li Chengzhou's Divine Talent... was just that of a Lower Spirit Child.

Even entering the Outer Sect would be somewhat challenging.

However, for Li Che now, getting Li Chengzhou into the Outer Sect wasn't a difficult task at all.

Getting him into the Inner Sect might be challenging, indeed, since the talent of a Lower Spirit Child really wasn't enough.

But getting him into the Outer Sect wasn't much of an issue; he just needed to mention it to Li Qingshan, and Li Qingshan would arrange it directly.

As the Peak Master of Zheng Lei Peak who could wield Void Aspect combat power, Li Qingshan had Outer Sect disciple quotas under his command and directly accepted Li Chengzhou.

After hearing Li Che's words, Uncle was incredibly excited, grabbing Li Che's hand and continuously expressing his feelings.

"Uncle, don't worry, I will also enter Senior Qingshan's Zheng Lei Peak, and I'll take good care of Chengzhou. He won't be bullied on the mountain."

Li Che said, reassuringly smiling.
