

A Father 231

Chapter 231: I Have a Friend Named Horse Face, Xi Xi's Divinity is Pure and Flawless (4)

This person actually dares to covet Yaya!

Whoever dares to touch my Li Che's family must die!

He was waiting for Lin Xiu and Li Qingshan to make their move, as for him... he would follow up with a fatal blow, ensuring that Shangguan Zhengheng would be thoroughly killed.

When it comes to killing, the Bull Demon is serious.

Hmm?

However, Li Che didn't wait for Lin Xiu and Li Qingshan to act.

Lin Xiu and Li Qingshan, hidden in the shadows, also hesitated.

Beneath their masks, their eyes were deep and tranquil. Looking up, they saw the solitary boat swaying on the riverside and the Divine Crossbow set up on it, aimed at Shangguan Zhengheng.

An immense killing intent and hatred erupted from the boat.

As it turned out.

They were not the only ones who wanted to kill Shangguan Zhengheng.

Others were planning an assassination as well!

Li Che sensed the familiar aura emanating within the spreading Heaven and Earth chessboard, his expression becoming slightly strange.

"This aura..."

Lin Xiu's eyes beneath the peacock mask suddenly sharpened, as she sighed softly, "This girl..."

...

The Divine Crossbow, crafted from Spiritual Wood and wrapped with Divine Talismans, was an extremely lethal Divine Talisman Crossbow.

Placed among the Divine Guard Army, the Divine Crossbow was categorized as a massive killer weapon, specifically used to shoot Grandmaster Warriors.

But now, with Divine Talismans further wrapped around the Divine Crossbow and special Crossbow Arrows being used, the power of the Divine Crossbow had been elevated by several levels, transforming it into a Divine Talisman Crossbow.

The graceful figure, wearing a squirrel mask with dark eyes beneath, full of hatred, glared at Shangguan Zhengheng standing at the window of the Yunfang Boat's private room!

"You dog! Die!"

A low growl filled with hatred came from beneath the mask!

Fingers spread, Divinity erupted, violently slapped onto the Divine Crossbow, as if awakening a ferocious dragon in the river!

In an instant, the Divine Crossbow on the boat let out a sky-shattering, earth-shattering crack.

Screech!

The sound wave burst!

The Crossbow Arrow roared, cutting through the airflow, violently bursting out in a whirlwind.

The calm river surface suddenly raised waves, as if split in the center by the Divine Crossbow Arrow, flinging white froth and water splashes to both sides!

Divine Talismans burned, Divinity surged, and the speed of the Crossbow Arrow increased ever faster!

In the sky, it left behind a hundred zhang long trail of qi, as if it split the river in half!

Almost in an instant, it approached three feet in front of Shangguan Zhengheng.

The surging Divinity of the Divine Talismans continuously bolstered the eruption and penetration power of the Divine Crossbow.

This was a premeditated assassination!

Yet, Shangguan Zhengheng's eyes sharpened, and his body standing at the pavilion window suddenly flickered with a copper hue!

"Assassination? Do you think why I dared to venture out alone at night?"

Vast qi and blood erupted from his body, his fingers like hooks tearing through the chilly wind, ferociously slapping forward.

Clang!

The terrifying sound wave exploded, as if an ancient bell had been struck with force!

The Divine Crossbow, augmented by Divine Talismans, would really have a chance to pierce through the body of an ordinary Illusory Phase Cultivator, inflicting heavy damage!

But then, a flash of Corpse Qi's dark mark passed across Shangguan Zhengheng's brow, with one step, he used his arms, built like steel-coiled dragon muscles, to fiercely grasp the dragon-like Crossbow Arrow!

The force of the erupting Divine Talismans was completely suppressed by the Void Aspect's might on his body!

The entire pavilion burst apart in several places, and under the impact of the raging qi, wood splinters flew and stones shot out.

Shangguan Zhengheng's hair whipped about, his eyes full of malicious sneers and rage.

"A woman?"

Looking at the boat, the graceful figure beneath the squirrel mask, Shangguan Zhengheng gave a greedy howl.

Boom!

Pushing off from his stance, grasping the Divine Talisman-burnt, energy-spent Crossbow Arrow like a spear, his body gleamed with a copper color as he ferociously charged forward, creating pillars of water on the river, violently leaping hundreds of zhang across the great river, heading towards the boat.

To him, the river's surface was as if it were flat ground.

On the boat.

The female assassin in the squirrel mask was clearly taken aback.

"Cursed Copper Corpse?!"

Without any hesitation, the female assassin slapped the edge of the boat, triggering the Divine Talismans to make the boat shoot out like a speedboat with an explosive burst of water.

The Divine Talisman Crossbow couldn't kill Shangguan Zhengheng.

She had to find another opportunity!

"Trying to escape?"

Shangguan Zhengheng's eyes glittered with red light, his coppery body circulated, his muscles roared, and with a clench of his fingers and a twist of his waist, he hurled the spear-like Crossbow Arrow.

It shot towards the boat at high speed.

However...

Just after throwing the Crossbow Arrow, Shangguan Zhengheng's pupils suddenly contracted; he found his wildly dancing hair suddenly falling, unable to rise by the slightest degree.

As if the terrifying oppression of a collapsing mountain...

Struck him mightily.

High-handed and fierce, striding across the waves, Shangguan Zhengheng suddenly froze in his motion, as if he had become a statue, stiffened upon the river surface!

"Perfect, he came out on his own."

Shangguan Zhengheng felt his inner Void Aspect congealing as if stuck, unable to move, unable to unleash!

That was Divine Hierarchy's might!

Coming from a Divine Minister!

Sweat dripped from Shangguan Zhengheng's forehead.

"Divine Minister... Divine Minister!"

"Which Divine Minister wants to kill me?!"
