Chapter 235: The Four Wheels of Godly Foundation Explode Together in a Sniper Shot, Revealing the King of Hell in a Five-Colored Divine Light (4)

"I also want to kill you."

"This is a mutual rush."

"Immortal Work Barrett is engraved with numerous patterns, which are somewhat similar to the runes on Divine Talismans and can gather and accumulate Divinity!"

"Li Che's improvements on Immortal Work Barrett are the reason the power has escalated substantially."

"Heaven and earth... suddenly fell silent."

"Only the sound of inhaling and exhaling, adjusting the breath, remained."

"In the distance,"

"Li Qingshan and the transformed Cursed Copper Corpse, Shangguan Zhengheng, were chasing and fighting each other."

"Shangguan Zhengheng, with his head covered, was running towards the riverbank, clearly aiming to rush back to Shangguan Mansion, seeking protection from the Diviner Ancestor."

"However, Li Qingshan planned to kill him during this return."

"Therefore..."

"Li Qingshan held nothing back."

"However, the Cursed Copper Corpse was even more challenging and unyielding than the Cursed Iron Corpse, withstanding numerous blows from Li Qingshan as if nothing had happened."

"Regardless, Li Qingshan did not give up easily, swinging the Ram Horn Hammer again, attracting and manipulating expansive thunderbolts, spread out like a spiderweb."

"Swinging down fiercely, like a raging dragon roaring, it struck hard against the body of Shangguan Zhengheng, now a Cursed Copper Corpse."

"Shangguan Zhengheng's body almost showed a bizarre twist, yet due to its incredible hardness and toughness, he didn't die from it."

"He shot out like a cannonball, crashing into the river and creating continuous explosive water plumes."

"When the last water plume burst, Shangguan Zhengheng flipped up, coughed out a mouthful of blood, his copper-colored body shimmering with intense death qi flowing around."

"He prepared to flee again."

"Just as he stood up, regaining his stance,"

"Five hundred yards away, Horse Face's eyes suddenly narrowed."

"Now was the moment!"

"Within the Heaven and Earth chessboard,"

"A dark Temple God Divinity Chess Piece suddenly appeared before Horse Face, and with a bang, it exploded, turning into dense black qi, merging into the bullet 'Dragon Tooth Bodhi,' which then emitted black smoke."

"The momentum climbed steadily!"

"Divine Sense locked onto Shangguan Zhengheng's presence on the chessboard!"

"This bullet..."

"With all Four Wheels of Godly Foundation bursting forth!"

"I'll send you"

"to see King Yama!"

"Li Che inhaled and exhaled, and in an instant, heaven and earth fell silent."

"Burst."

"He suddenly pressed the mechanical trigger!"

"Instantly, the Mud Pill's inner scene behind the mask of Horse Face - Four Wheels of Godly Foundation - almost simultaneously appeared."

"Divinity... overwhelming everything!"

"[Three-Eyed Angry True Monarch], [Angry Cry Town Ghost], [Xuansi Liu Sword], [Heart Shocking and Sturdy]!"

"Anger, sadness, thought, shock!"

"Four Wheels of Godly Foundation, like millstones, bloomed like mandalas from hell behind Horse Face, with a surging wave of Divinity nearly simultaneously pouring into 'Immortal Work Barrett.' らんおげ

"It was as if a charging sound, 'Beep kept accumulating!"

"Shangguan Qinghong's legs collapsed, and he directly slumped on the small boat, eyes wide as if they had lost their divine light, staring blankly at the Four Wheels emerging behind..."

"A man..."

"How could a man possess Four Wheels of Godly Foundation?!"

"Is this a human?"

"Is this a human?!"

"Boom!"

The terrifying blast sounded almost simultaneously, as the crimson Barrett intertwined with five colors, incorporating the hues of the Four Great Godly Foundations and a black divinity from the Temple God within the Dragon Tooth Bodhi!

Like a peacock facing the sunrise, it spread its tail!

An immensely powerful shock wave burst forth from the barrel in an instant, following the anger of the Dragon Tooth Bodhi, enveloping and sweeping everything.

The whole vessel surged violently, nearly exploding from the dreadful recoil shockwave, as countless cracks appeared on its surface.

The vessel seemed to enter speedboat mode, shooting backward hundreds of meters!

Surrounding it, curtains of water blasted up in layers, then swiftly plummeted!

A dazzling flash of golden light appeared abruptly, dimming and then...

The searing red Dragon Tooth Bodhi shot out!

Enveloped in a five-colored divine light!

Tearing through the sonic barrier, it broke through the sky!

...

Shangguan Zhengheng burst into uproarious laughter, his body radiating a coppery glow as he completely shrugged off the thunderous force with his flesh.

Once again, he blocked Li Qingshan's hammer, feeling unbelievably refreshed!

Although he couldn't defeat Li Qingshan,

Li Qingshan also couldn't breach his defense or kill him!

As long as he didn't overextend himself and chose to flee back to the Shangguan Mansion, under the protection of the Ancestor, he wouldn't die!

Suddenly.

A ground-shattering explosion!

Burst forth from the distant vessel!

He vaguely saw the Four Wheels of Godly Foundation rising...

Saw the spurting, gorgeous golden light!

Then...

Goosebumps erupted!

His eyes nearly bursting!

A blanket of deathly crisis enveloped him!

His entire body, powered to the extreme by the Cursed Copper Corpse, burst forth with the splendor of ancient copper-colored light, thick with an aura of death.

With a fierce step, he transformed into a golden bell.

But just as the copper light began to flow...

A sharp pain suddenly pierced his chest!

That five-colored divine light seen in the distance...

In less than a breath's time, it penetrated his Cursed Copper Corpse chest, tearing through the mighty defense with a terrifying penetrative force!

A wail of agony.

Flesh exploded into clouds and clouds of blood mist!

Beads of blood, like tears of the Bodhi, patteringly scattered all over the ground!

It was not until this moment...

That Shangguan Zhengheng heard the air tearing like a thunderstorm!

Wearing a cat-faced mask, Li Qingshan blinked and appeared beside Shangguan Zhengheng, whose Cursed Copper Corpse body had been breached, bursting with clouds of blood mist.

Towards his defenseless head, it was one hammer blow!

Crack—!

Skull exploded, flesh and blood flew, brain matter splattered!

Only then did Li Qingshan, utterly horrified, realize his hammer-holding hand was trembling slightly.

"Fuck!"

"Is this the friend of the Bull Demon... Horse Face?!"

"What a quick shot!"
