

A Father 244

Chapter 244: Divine Child No Longer Defines My Daughter, Prototype of Divine Powers

Fire Tip Spear?!

Fuck?!

Fuck!

Li Che's eyes narrowed slightly, and he couldn't help but breathe more rapidly.

The myth of two overlapping lifetimes seemed, at this moment, like the dark tides of the deep sea, fiercely crashing over!

This Fire Tip Spear, it's the Divine Weapon of the Third Crown Prince!

How could it be spat out from the Heavenly King Tower?

Li Che was a little stunned, and while alarmed in his heart, he also felt an incredibly thick fog rolling in, obscuring the truth and suffocating people!

His agitated emotions quickly recovered, and after the Thousand Analyzing Hands absorbed the fiery Divinity floating in the air, it provided an analysis.

[Divine Weapon (Supreme Grade of the Four Imperial Classes): Purple Flame Serpentine Spear]

[Craftsmanship: ???]

[Introduction: Mythical Weapon, has only the body, not the treasure soul, a body that's damaged, the flames like a fierce serpent burning heaven and earth, swallowing fog so that the sun has no light]

[Perfect Mastery: Comprehend the fire of the five elements, the water's way, Qi-Blood Martial Saint or above, Divine Fetus or above]

[Subordinate Mastery: Qi-Blood Grandmaster or above, Divine Base Perfection or above]

Li Che looked at the information analyzed by the Thousand Analyzing Hands.

His heart was overcome with shock and awe!

Divine Weapon of the Supreme Grade of the Four Imperial Classes...

What kind of opportunity is this for my daughter?

This is an enormous opportunity...

Li Che took a deep breath, his expression changing uncertainly, joy and shock fading, replaced by a hint of seriousness.

With no crime in being a common man holding a jade, to wield such a Divine Weapon of the Four Imperials for a three-year-old child—how is it different than a three-year-old flaunting a million gold pieces in public?

Interest sways the human heart, let alone a Divine Weapon of the Four Imperials, which is extremely precious in this world!

Can Sect Master Nan Lihuo protect Xi Xi?

Or rather, Nan Lihuo... will he himself be tempted?

It's not that he suspects Nan Lihuo with the malice of a petty person, but that human hearts truly shouldn't be lightly probed!

Besides, if the Corpse God Cult learns that Xi Xi holds a Divine Weapon of the Four Imperials, especially the Third Crown Prince's Divine Weapon, it must involve that Four Royal Third Prince Mysterious Temple; they are likely to go mad...sending wave after wave of powerful beings to come kill and seize Xi Xi, and snatch away the Purple Flame Serpentine Spear! ㄟANÖβEξ

Li Che couldn't help but show a look of worry between his brows.

However, to give up such an opportunity...

It's a bit unbearable.

Four Royal Divine Weapons, even rarer than the Four Royal Mysterious Temples, ordinary cultivators might spend a lifetime without catching a glimpse!

To give up?

Li Che was full of conflicting feelings.

Xi Xi was still in a chaotic state, not yet awake.

As a father, Li Che naturally had the right to make decisions for his three-year-old daughter.

Li Che bit his teeth.

He looked towards the enormous Golden Heavenly King Statue.

The other party was still looking at him with fury and concern.

Li Che stared back!

His eyes flickered with light, and after a long while, he let out a breath.

"Give it up!"

Li Che made the decision to give up the opportunity, to not take this Four Royal Divine Weapon.

To give or to gain is a matter of a single thought!

This Purple Flame Serpentine Spear is not something Xi Xi, or rather the current Li Che family, can handle.

Li Che has the bonds brought by his daughter, needing only for her to grow up safely, one Dao Fruit a year...

In the future, the Four Royal Divine Weapons... will be available!

To live is to have everything!

By giving, we receive!

"Give it up!!!"

Li Che exclaimed in a low voice.

He reached out to embrace Xi Xi, intending to take her away from the statue.

However...

As soon as his palm touched Xi Xi, the Fire Tip Spear trembled and shook, a strand of purple flame suddenly burst forth from it.

It turned into a purple fire snake, spitting its tongue towards Li Che.

Li Che had to release his hand.

And the purple fire snake moved to Xi Xi's front, burrowing into the palm of her hand.

Suddenly, a purple serpentine flame pattern imprinted itself onto the chubby palm of Xi Xi.

Boom—!

Following that, the Purple Flame Serpentine Spear trembled even more violently.

Countless splendid golden glows, flickering and reflecting like thousands of light rays, spreading and splashing in all directions.

So dazzling and bright that Li Che nearly couldn't keep his eyes open!

When the golden glow dissipated,

That Four Royal Divine Weapon... had already disappeared without a trace!

Li Che was startled, then his face changed slightly.

Could it have run into Xi Xi's body?

That purple snake Divine Pattern?

Li Che pulled up Xi Xi's hand, her skin burning hot, slowly cooling down.

But he saw the purple snake pattern still emitting light, changing between red and blue.

After feeling Xi Xi's forehead and making sure she was alright, he finally exhaled.

"Absorbed into Xi Xi's body?"

"According to the analysis of the conditions for mastery by the Thousand Analyzing Hands, Xi Xi right now... certainly can't wield this Divine Weapon, not even achieving [Subordinate Mastery]."

"However, Xi Xi seems to have gained the approval of the Heavenly King Temple God, now... receiving the baptism of the golden light, she must have also gained the approval of the Fire Tip Spear, thus being able to house the Fire Tip Spear within her body."

Li Che held Xi Xi's hand and closed his eyes.

He couldn't sense anything with his Divine Sense.

But...

When the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit palpitated, the next moment, a network of interlocking chessboards enveloped Xi Xi's figure.

Suddenly, Li Che struggled to "see"!

On Xi Xi's arm, an extremely terrifying aura was lying quietly there!

Extremely hidden, not emitting the slightest breath of life, as if cultivating.

It was also like a sword hidden for a hundred years, once unsheathed, the Sword Qi and Sword Intent it burst out could split mountains and rivers!

Li Che was carefully sensing with the capability of the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit.

His main concern was whether the high-grade Divinity seeping from the Fire Tip Spear would harm Xi Xi's flesh.

However, upon sensing it, not only did the Fire Tip Spear not harm Xi Xi, it was instead... subtly improving and strengthening Xi Xi's flesh!
