

A Father 245

Chapter 245: My Daughter Can No Longer Be Defined as a Divine Child, Prototype of Divine Powers (2)

Li Che immediately felt relieved and dissolved the Heaven and Earth chessboard.

Looking at Xi Xi fast asleep, the corners of his lips couldn't help but curl into a smile.

"With the Four Royal Divine Weapons hidden in her body, Xi Xi's training is like hitting the accelerator. Her talent now must be even more terrifying than before!"

"Divine Child? Ordinary Divine Children can no longer define my daughter, Li Che."

Li Che couldn't help but burst into joyful laughter.

He was already looking forward to seeing the difference between Xi Xi and the other Spirit Children during the Temple God Resonance assessment...

While other Spirit Children are role-playing, striving to resonate with the Third Crown Prince...

Xi Xi is directly wielding the Divine Weapons the Third Crown Prince has played with!

It's simply a dimension-reducing strike!

Li Che chuckled, unable to suppress his smile.

He touched Xi Xi's sweaty head, her messy bangs soaked with sweat and sticking to her scalp.

Li Che's gaze fell on a butterfly perched on Xi Xi's shoulder, with its wings tucked in, daring not to move.

That butterfly seemed to be sneaking a look at him.

Li Che "huh" in surprise, wanted to capture it to take a look, but then thought better of it, as this world had Divine Weapons, Spiritual Wood, and naturally also Divine Beasts and Spiritual Beasts, not to mention the monsters tainted by the divinity from the Mysterious Temple.

A sentient butterfly was thus not something to be shockingly surprised about.

Xi Xi was lying on the ground, fast asleep.

Li Che stood up and his gaze traveled to the unattainable, immensely large Heavenly King Golden Statue.

The statue held a Treasure Pagoda in its hand, which was faintly emitting light.

"One of the three Heavenly King Towers..."

"If the three Heavenly King Towers are unified, they may enter the sequence of the Three Pure Ones Divine Weapon."

Li Che's gaze grew somewhat covetous.

"If Xi Xi can pass the test and obtain the Fire Tip Spear, then can I... possibly obtain the Heavenly King Tower?"

Li Che's gaze flickered, his heart inevitably filled with anticipation and speculation.

"Xi Xi bathed in the golden light cast by the Treasure Pagoda, because she is a Spirit Child. Through the 'Pure Heart Divinity' I transferred into her, she obtained a great opportunity with Divine Weapons..."

"Could I give it a try as well?"

"Spirit Child... who isn't one?"

"Twenty-two... can also be a Spirit Child."

Li Che sat down cross-legged, tore through the air, and took out a Divine Crystal.

After gripping it, the Pure Heart Divine Foundation inside the Inner Scene of the Energy Center immediately began spinning wildly, emitting a tremendous suction force. ҔaᄂÓbÈš

It absorbed all the Divinity from within the Divine Crystal!

Li Che's Immaculate Heart Divinity began to slowly recover.

"Daddy..."

Xi Xi, slowly waking up nearby, saw Li Che and immediately widened her eyes in surprise!

Sitting on the ground, her eyes couldn't help but mist up.

"Daddy... Xi Xi isn't dreaming, right?"

"Why would I see Daddy here?"

Xi Xi vigorously rubbed her eyes, trying to determine whether it was a hallucination.

Once she was sure it wasn't a hallucination, Xi Xi burst into tears and ran wildly towards Li Che, crashing into his arms with such speed... it even startled Li Che a bit!

And the force unleashed upon crashing into his arms...

Almost caused her old father's back to give out!

To know, Li Che had received the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit, and his physical body was extremely strong, even when unstimulated, even if caught off guard, it was still very hard for him to experience sudden back pain.

One can only say...

Xi Xi's strength had increased!

It had increased a great deal!

Xixi originally had great strength, but now... it seemed she truly possessed innate divine strength.

Xi Xi, small and delicate, burrowed into Li Che's arms, constantly pushing her head against him, wiping her tears and snot on Li Che's black robe over and over again.

"Daddy, wuuu... Daddy... Xi Xi missed you!"

Xi Xi sobbed.

These days staying on Golden Light Peak, it had been several days since she saw her parents, Xi Xi was heartbroken.

Li Che's heart instantly softened, becoming much gentler, gently stroking Xi Xi's small head, patting her little back.

"Daddy's here, Daddy has always been here..."

"Daddy has always been protecting Xi Xi."

Xi Xi's small head emerged from Li Che's embrace, her messy hair, her eyes wide with trust and expectation, said, "Really?"

"Is what daddy said true?"

Li Che used his sleeve to wipe Xi Xi's tears clean, and then re-tied her hair into two lumps.

"What daddy said is, of course, true."

"Daddy, let's pinky promise!"

Xi Xi extended her chubby little pinky.

Li Che laughed and hooked his pinky with hers.

"Pinky promise, hang on a hook, a hundred years, no change, he who changes is a puppy!"

Xi Xi, in a milky voice, recited seriously.

"Stamp it!"

Li Che touched his thumb to Xi Xi's thumb.

Xi Xi immediately cheered and started bouncing on the spot, causing the butterfly on her shoulder to quickly flap its wings.

Xi Xi and the butterfly then started chasing each other again.

While Li Che stood up, feeling the perfection of Pure Heart Divinity within his Divine Foundation, and then looked toward the immensely tall Heavenly King Statue.

Imitating Xi Xi, he stretched out his hand to touch the foot of the Heavenly King Statue.

Li Che clearly felt a warm flow coursing through his body, taking a tour before it disappeared.

Li Che was all ready to transmit the Immaculate Heart Divinity.

But result...

"Bone age exceeded, divinity pure, eligible for reward..."

It seemed as though a voice resonant as a great bell echoed by his ear.

And then.

A golden orb, suspended right in front of him.

Compared to the giant orb previously conjured by Xi Xi that contained the Fire Tip Spear, it simply didn't compare...

It was like comparing the size of a ping-pong ball to a basketball.

Li Che: "..."

Felt somewhat insulted.

Still hoping for the Heavenly King Tower, he was indeed delusional.

But... at least test his Pure Heart Divinity, won't you?!
