

A Father 285

Chapter 285: Sect Master Tested by Seven Elements Corpse Curse, Divine Being Patrols the Mountain to Find You (3)

Suddenly, Li Qingshan's eyes brightened. Asking this question meant Li Che must have already completed the refinement of the Seven Elemental Corpse Curse Seal!

"Have you done it?"

Li Qingshan became excited.

Upon hearing this, Li Che smiled, and without denying it, nodded.

"Good."

Li Qingshan clapped his hands, then stood up and glanced at the kids playing in the courtyard.

"The two of us... will make a covert visit."

As unmoving as a mountain, Li Che asked, "To where?"

"To Golden Light Peak, to test the Sect Master."

Li Qingshan rubbed his hands together, excitedly speaking rebellious words.

Li Che remained silent for a long time before finally speaking.

"Are you really so eager to upset the heavenly balance?"

Li Qingshan then grew solemn, "It's just that I want an answer. This speculation has troubled me too long, making my heart tremble, causing me fear, fury, powerlessness, and chills..."

"Besides, don't you want to know who orchestrated the assassination attempt on Xi Xi?"

"This is a lurking danger, and with your temperament... you can't tolerate it, can you?"

Li Qingshan leaned back in his chair, squinting at Li Che.

After finishing the last sip of his hot tea, Li Che patted his ink robe and stood up, "You read people very accurately."

"As for dangers lurking around Xi Xi, I always advocate..."

"...to strangle them all, leaving none behind."

"Whoever they are."

...

...

Li Qingshan bade farewell to return to continue Divine Observation.

Nurse Momo and Lu Chi were staying at Li Che's small courtyard tonight, and Gong Yuanliang and Gongyang Xiu also stayed over, planning to return to their cultivation peaks the next day.

Late at night.

Li Che entered the study, lit a lamp, then summoned a duplicate of the Fairy in the Painting, who quietly and diligently carved wood carvings in the study.

His original body left the study, transforming into a shadow to depart.

Li Qingshan, wearing a cat-faced mask and stooping, had been waiting outside the courtyard early for Li Che.

When Li Che appeared wearing the Bull Demon Mask, the duo under the guise of a green ox met in the darkness, nodded slightly to each other, and then transformed into streaks of light, disappearing into the night.

Beneath Golden Light Peak.

The two "whooshed" down, landing on a towering tree, looking at Golden Light Peak.

"The Sect Master is, after all, a Yuan Phase Cultivator, just one step away from achieving the Primordial Spirit. Once the Primordial Spirit is achieved, he can leave his physical body and roam the universe, quietly... Perhaps the Primordial Spirit is near you, and you haven't even noticed it."

Li Qingshan said in a muffled voice through the cat-faced mask.

This remark startled Li Che, causing the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit in his chest to tremble and the Heaven and Earth chessboard to expand and envelop.

Feeling his surroundings to make sure there was no snooping by any Primordial Spirit, he then breathed a sigh of relief.

"The Heaven and Earth chessboard of the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit should be able to detect a Primordial Spirit, right?"

Li Che thought to himself.

"Right here... can it detect it? Any closer and it might be noticed."

Li Qingshan exhaled.

Li Che nodded but did not act immediately, "Can you now tell me... why you suspect the Sect Master?"

Li Qingshan remained silent for a moment.

His eyes under the cat face mask eerily looked up at Golden Light Peak.

"Because... the clue I found, the death of Zhou Daoyuan... actually involved Nan Lihuo."

As the words fell, Li Che suddenly squinted his eyes.

The next moment, Li Che was silent, closing his eyes as his mind descended into the chessboard.

Within the chessboard.

Several Pure Heart Divine Chess Pieces encircled the black-as-ink, black hole-like Seven Elemental Corpse Curse Seal floating in the chessboard.

And now, the Seven Elemental Corpse Curse Seal had been completely refined and was exceedingly obedient.

Li Che's phantom floated in the middle of the chessboard, his hands behind his back, snapping his fingers.

One Pure Heart Divine Chess Piece immediately shot out and was explosively detonated by Li Che.

The avalanche-like shock wave formed by the explosion of the Divine Chess Piece fiercely struck the Seven Elemental Corpse Curse Seal...

In an instant!

It was as if a calm vast sea suddenly surged with waves of anger and shock!

The Seven Elemental Corpse Curse Seal trembled, and invisible concentric ripples spread out, forming a fan-shaped front rushing towards Golden Light Peak.

Li Che stood tall on top of the tree, his eyes intensely focused.

The shock wave burst forth from the Seven Elemental Corpse Curse Seal, revealing anyone marked by the Corpse Curse to his sight.

It seemed he had some method of countering the Corpse God Cult's stealth tactics. No, it should be said that the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit naturally counters the Corpse Curse Seal.

The black shock waves, one after another, continued to burst forth.

Li Che's eyes, deep and piercing, saw everything.

The Heaven and Earth chessboard had already expanded, enveloping the entirety of Golden Light Peak within it.

He also saw Nan Lihuo meditating in the Divine Palace.

Nan Lihuo sat on a cushion, his body emanating dense, substantial Divinity flowing and streaming.

The shock wave of the Corpse Curse swept over his body.

Nan Lihuo suddenly opened his eyes, and a powerful Divine Sense explosively spread out.

However, he was unable to detect any abnormalities.

Nan Lihuo felt someone was probing him, but could not locate the source.

Li Che did not dare to let the Heaven and Earth chessboard envelop for too long, and after confirming there was no trace of the Seven Elements Corpse Curse on Nan Lihuo.

Li Che then withdrew the probing of the Heaven and Earth chessboard.

Inside the Divine Palace.

Nan Lihuo's eyes blazed like two golden flames, and his divinity seemed to be forged of gold, incessantly flowing.

"Who is spying on me? To do so silently and unnoticed... is it a Primordial Spirit?"

"Has Su Huaili... advanced to Primordial Spirit?"

Nan Lihuo's eyes narrowed, a sudden sense of urgency bursting from every inch of his muscles and bones.

An extreme urge to kill flickered through the depths of his eyes.

Then, a trace of sorrow and pain silently concealed itself.