Chapter 289: The Furnace Grandmaster Ascends the Tower to Kill You, I, the Bull Demon, Don't Care About the Overall Situation! (3)

...

Then this Divine Minister can't make a breakthrough.

Furthermore...

Li Che inexplicably felt that if Li Qingshan were to come...

Not only would he not be of any help against Xu Jiuqing, but on the contrary, he might be a bit... of a drag.

After all, Li Qingshan couldn't, like Li Che, make use of the Thunder Chess Piece to move freely at will, to kill as he pleased, to come and go as he wished.

Eminently carefree!

So...

Li Qingshan isn't needed!

Raising his hand and pointing at his brow Niwan, divinity was extracted in an instant, his blood qi thundered explosively, intertwining in front of him into Divine Ink.

Then, with a flick of his finger, Immaculate Heart Divinity transformed into unblemished white paper.

With fingers spread, he fiercely swept them before his body, and instantly five sheets of Immaculate Heart Drawing Paper appeared.

Dao Fruit [Fairy in the Painting]!

The ink color suffused, bursting forth like fireworks upon the spotless drawing paper!

In an instant, each of the five sheets of paper displayed a "Dragon Tooth Bodhi."

Five Dragon Tooth Bodhis floated out from the paper, suspending in front of Horse Face.

He grasped a Dragon Tooth Bodhi and loaded it into the "Immortal Work Barrett."

The remaining four hovered in front of Horse Face.

He slowly raised the Immortal Work Barrett.

His eyes suddenly transformed, and in an instant, the pervasive chessboard spread from within the whites of his eyes...

The Heaven and Earth chessboard, I stand as the Stellar Position!

Enveloping!

In an instant.

The whole Flowing Sword Peak was enveloped within Li Che's Heaven and Earth chessboard.

Li Che's essence, qi, and spirit almost instantly condensed to the ultimate degree, locking onto the seated Xu Jiuqing!

"It's time..."

"to depart."

In an instant!

A splendid extreme golden light, like the roar of a dragon, burst forth.

A golden dragon spanned across, tearing through the air, warping space, with the blast of air shooting out, and all the snowflakes in its path exploded and evaporated in an instant!

This one snipe!

Sniping the Divine Minister!

...

...

Bang!

At the moment the sound exploded, everyone within the Divine Sect Mountain Gate seemed to hear an echo.

Flowing Sword Peak.

Seated within the palace, Xu Jiuqing, who carried a repressed flowing Sword Qi, was closing his eyes in sword cultivation.

Suddenly, a throb transmitted to his heart!

It was a... palpitation of death!

His eyes flew open violently, and countless strands of Sword Qi raged and roared from his pupils, appearing fierce and ferocious!

Then, Xu Jiuqing saw it!

He saw an extremely elusive streak of light, resembling the color of blood, like an angry dragon baring its myriad sharp and savage teeth!

Coming soundlessly!

The straight and penetrating light that spanned from east to west arrived with terrifying speed, swiftly sweeping past, followed by the sound of successive explosions!

"This is..."

"What on earth?!"

It was dangerous and terrifying, giving Xu Jiuqing a fear that made the hairs stand on end!

Bear in mind, he was a powerhouse in the Middle God Phase Realm, one of the formidable figures in the entire Golden Light Prefecture City.

"Ambush!"

"Someone is trying to ambush and assassinate me?!"

"Who is it?"

Xu Jiuqing's mind raced through numerous thoughts in an instant.

But in the end, all his thoughts congealed into the palm that he fiercely thrust forward, as countless sword qi surged from the Essence Cultivation treasured sword on his back.

The sword qi shone with flowing light, gathering incessantly in front of him, weaving into a net, barely managing to form a vague shield of sword qi.

The streaming light shot towards him, arriving without sound!

Because it was too fast, even the tremendous sonic boom that would tear through the air didn't keep up.

Boom!

Like a giant stone thrown into a lake, it stirred up a terrifyingly extreme wind and ripples!

A horrifying sonic boom erupted at that moment!

The expanding concentric rings of air ripples surged wildly, instantly covering the entire room's floor with interlacing, ripped apart cracks!

Xu Jiuqing sat cross-legged on the ground; he didn't have the time to get up and could only stack sword qi in front of him!

He pushed forward with one palm, his eyes gleaming brilliantly as the roaring stream of qi tousled his neat and meticulous hair!

However, his pupils suddenly constricted.

He saw...

At the center of the sword qi shield, accompanied by numerous resonant and shattering sounds!

A terrifying penetration power was venting from the streaming light that shot from afar!

Countless sword qi shattered resoundingly!

And then, what followed was a blood-red, eerily patterned mechanism resembling a dragon tooth!

"A mechanism?!"

Xu Jiuqing only had time to think this.

The next moment, the sword qi shield twisted, revealing a void!

The Dragon Tooth Bullet tore through his sword qi shield!

It was too fast!

Xu Jiuqing could only watch as the palm of his hand, which wielded the sword qi shield before him, suddenly exploded into a mist of blood, with a gaping hole torn through its center!

However, the power of the Dragon Tooth was greatly reduced as a result, striking his shoulder and raising a puff of blood mist.

But what was truly terrifying...

Was the power of the Dragon Tooth exploding upon entering his shoulder!

The Dragon Tooth instantaneously disintegrated, seemingly turning into thousands of light beams that rapidly traveled through his body's meridians, reaching his limbs and bones.

Creak, creak...

The disintegrating Dragon Tooth Bodhi Silk abruptly coiled, intending to gouge out his flesh, carving out beads of blood that seemed to weep!

"How malicious!"

"How ruthless!"

"Horse Face!"

Xu Jiuqing immediately thought of him.

That hidden Divine Archer who once assassinated Shangguan Zhengheng, the Family Head of the Shangguan Family!

Horse Face!

A Bull Demon, a Horse Face...

Now the two mysterious existences in the Golden Light Prefecture City!

Truly a cause for fear.

The Bull Demon picked a fight with the Fishing Gang.

And Horse Face all but killed Shangguan Zhengheng, the Family Head of the Noble Family who had turned to the Corpse God Cult!

But now...

Horse Face was actually trying to kill him!

Xu Jiuqing felt the Bodhi Silk penetrating his limbs and bones, intending to gouge out all his flesh.

A glint of coldness flashed in his eyes.
