

A Father 295

Chapter 295: Ox Demon and Horse Face Establish the Underworld, Golden Heavenly King Ascends the Tower as a Great Grandmaster

"Ox Demon fellow daoist!"

"Please hold on for a moment."

Nan Lihuo turned to the tall and burly Ox Demon, who stood like a Treasure Pagoda, raising his hand with a gentle expression emerging on his face, he called out.

Li Che was originally planning to leave.

He had urgent matters to attend to, and he was also worried that Nan Lihuo wanted to keep him by force.

Nan Lihuo is an existence of the Yuanxiang Realm; within the Divine Facade Realm, the Void Aspect is considered half-baked, so the Yuanxiang is then referred to as a Complete Divine Facade Expert.

Rank suppression is the ultimate intensity in the Divine Facade.

Li Che naturally has to be on guard, with no relaxation whatsoever, his spirit is highly tense, ready to wield the Thunder Chess Piece at any moment to achieve displacement and escape.

The Ox Demon, wearing a mask, fixed his gaze on Nan Lihuo.

The Ascending Stance had receded, but the red-hot furnace-like blood and qi were still roaring, distorting the space around him.

Nan Lihuo also stood far away, showing he meant no harm, and he communicated his attitude via Divine Sense.

"Ox Demon fellow daoist, you and Horse Face should come from the same organization, right?"

Nan Lihuo transmitted through Divine Sense.

"I wonder, to ask the two of you to make a move... what kind of price needs to be paid?"

Nan Lihuo knew that the Ox Demon was on guard against him.

According to the information he had, this Ox Demon was extremely cautious and rarely let himself fall into a dangerous situation.

Hence, Nan Lihuo went straight to the point, stating directly the reason he had asked the other to stay.

Li Che was taken aback, is it another cultivator who wants to hire Ox Demon and Horse Face?

After Li Qingshan, does Nan Lihuo also intend to hire Ox Demon and Horse Face?

Do these people consider Ox Demon and Horse Face part of an assassination organization?

All kinds of hiring...

Quite enticing!

Li Che was even somewhat tempted...

Otherwise, what if he really started an assassination organization?

Horse Face sniping, isn't that professional assassination?

And he, as the Ox Demon... walking silently in the dark, killing and leaving, no traces left behind.

That's professional too!

Earning a portion from looting corpses and another from assassination commissions.

Li Che's heart stirred, and the thought of starting an organization truly began to grow.

Ox Demon and Horse Face...

If he were to create an assassination organization, it might be called...

The Underworld?

"It depends on your needs."

Li Che temporarily snapped back to reality, lowering his voice and responding via Divine Sense as well.

Nan Lihuo's eyes flickered slightly.

There's a chance!

It seems that Ox Demon and Horse Face really do belong to the same organization.

However, the actual nature of this organization and the overall strength of it remain unknown.

Does the organization have any Divine Embryo Realm Great God Cultivators in charge?

In the Divine Capital of the Grand Prospect Dynasty, there's a top-tier assassin organization known as Hunting God Pavilion, which is extremely mysterious. It's said that they can even hunt down Divine Embryo Realm Great God Cultivators!

However, the Hunting God Pavilion's lowest range of operation restricts them to Dao Cities, with activities in State Cities being very rare.

Therefore, Nan Lihuo had no direct dealings with them.

Besides, the cost of hiring an assassin from Hunting God Pavilion is extremely high, the markup is indeed quite severe...

Could Ox Demon and Horse Face be from Hunting God Pavilion?

Most likely not...

But sincerity... Nan Lihuo still had to show it.

"Master of the Leaving Fire Sect seeks to hire us... for what purpose?"

Li Che, seeing Nan Lihuo deep in thought, asked again.

Nan Lihuo raised his head, responding through the fluctuation of Divine Sense.

"To kill."

"Kill who?"

"Divine Archer Colonel, Wen Longshan."

"..."

"And the Prefecture Master of the Golden Light Prefecture City, Su Huaili."

"..."

Li Che fell silent.

He was a bit stunned.

Was this the warm-faced, genteel acting Sect Master of the Divine Sect Branch, Nan Lihuo?

Just earlier, Li Che was close enough to see everything clearly.

If it weren't for Mansion Lord Su Huaili ordering Divine Archer Wen Longshan to make a move, Xu Jiuqing's Corpse Curse Mark would have definitely been left behind today, unable to be taken away by the experts of the Corpse God Cult.

And Nan Lihuo, although humiliated by Su Huaili, didn't react on the spot, bearing it instead.

Li Che had felt at the time that Nan Lihuo was very capable of restraint.

But being patient is one thing, and getting angry is another.

Li Che had heard from Li Qingshan that Nan Lihuo had always wanted to kill Mansion Lord Su Huaili; the two seemed to have a deep grudge.

Su Huaili's public humiliation of Nan Lihuo was practically forcing him into action.

Yet Nan Lihuo endured it.

Su Huaili, as a Prefecture Master appointed by the Da Jing Dynasty, and Nan Lihuo from the Divine Sect Branch, as a Sect Master.

The two, in terms of status in the Golden Light Prefecture City, strictly speaking, Mansion Lord Su Huaili should be a bit higher.

After all, although the Da Jing Dynasty has declined somewhat from its heyday.

The Imperial Court... is still the number one force within the territory of the Da Jing Dynasty.

However...

Su Huaili, acting as the Prefecture Master, is actually aiding the Corpse God Cult...

From this aspect alone, Li Che has a reason to kill him.

A Prefecture Master who aids a cult that rebels against the Da Jing Dynasty... is that really alright?

Regardless of whether there is a problem or an inside story.

Li Che finds it repugnant.

This kind of observer who suddenly intervenes is exactly what incites murderous intent.

"The Sect Master must be joking... What strength does Mansion Lord Su Huaili possess?"

Li Che thought for a moment and asked through Divine Sense.

"Peak of Yuanxiang, it's highly possible that he has cultivated a Primordial Spirit, and as for whether he has stepped into the Divine Primordial Realm, there's most likely not..."

"Don't you have an intelligence department in your organization? You don't know the identity of Su Huaili?"

Nan Lihuo frowned slightly and asked.

"We didn't plan to kill Su Huaili, therefore we did not inquire... and a high-level Yuanxiang expert, that mission... is not easy to accept."

Li Che shook his head.

No wonder Nan Lihuo had to endure; Su Huaili's strength... was actually higher than he imagined!

Nan Lihuo's eyes twinkled, he laughed softly, not finding it peculiar.

Assassins perform tasks one at a time.

His additional query without prior intelligence gathering could make sense as well.