

A Father 55

Chapter 55: Immortal Craftsman·Namo Gatling·Mutuya

Killed, searched the body, and immediately fled.

Li Che's series of actions were smooth and extremely practiced.

The speed had reached its ultimate, from launching an attack to killing Si Mubai, it took about ten breaths.

But the brief exchange was very perilous, had Li Che not been able to withstand Si Mubai's Divine Method's attack on his spirit, he might have been the one lying dead.

The only thing Li Che regretted was that Si Mubai's body didn't have much of value.

He had imagined finding Divine Cultivation Methods, Superior Internal Strength Techniques, and so on, but there were none, not even a Gold Leaf!

Illogical!

This wasn't how a proud descendant of a Noble Family should appear when out and about!

Boom!!!

Li Che retracted his Essence, Qi, and Spirit, his foot stomped fiercely on the ground, and the accumulated water exploded like a wall of rain, while his body had already shot out like a bullet.

The "Slumbering Dragon Elephant" was also pushed to the limit, as if he had entirely erased his existence from the human world.

"Stop!!!"

The explosive roar erupted from the Golden Splendor Pavilion!

Three figures, shocked and furious, split the curtain of rain and chased after him at high speed, shredding the curtain of rain instantly!

Powerful Divine Intent swept over, engulfing the heavens and the earth, stirring the wind and rain!

They were each wearing masks of a tiger, a leopard, and a goat...

Under the rain, they appeared extremely ferocious!

Mighty Divine Intent intertwined around them, as if forming a riverlike awe-inspiring presence around their bodies!

Li Che pulled down his hat, not responding with even half a word.

Like a shadow, he moved quickly along the corner of the wall in the violent storm.

Tap tap tap tap...

His steps were incredibly light, so much so that each step that landed didn't even ripple the water.

Yet despite this, Li Che still felt the three figures were drawing closer!

And not just that, from the direction of the Outer City... a searing and terrifying Divine aura was also pressing down.

He was like a conspicuous beacon that couldn't be hidden.

Even if he pushed the Slumbering Dragon Elephant to the ultimate limit...

"I've always been exposed... even the Slumbering Dragon Elephant's Breath Concealment can't get me out..."

Li Che immediately thought of the Jade Pendant he had acquired from the body.

It must be that Jade Pendant...

That had exposed his whereabouts!

And these people had actually abandoned Si Mubai's body and came straight for him...

This undoubtedly sent a signal.

The Jade Pendant...

Must be valuable!

...

...

The entire rainy sky at that moment seemed completely distorted!

Thud!

With a step, his body forcefully circled a large arc in the curtain of rain.

The accumulated water in front of him splashed out a wall of water, everything seemed to freeze.

"Ha ha ha ha... it's the Bull Demon, huh... ha ha ha... not bad..."

A figure wearing a laughing girl mask, carrying a long spear on her back, parted the curtain of rain above her head as if it were an umbrella.

The intense Divine Intent permeating the surroundings strangely brought a joyful emotion; every raindrop seemed filled with happiness and joy, compelling one... to burst into hearty laughter.

Li Che frowned, his eyes ice-cold, but under the influence of Divinity, he couldn't help but want to burst into laughter.

The rain seemed to have frozen in place.

The torrential rain suddenly hung motionless in the air, manipulated by the powerful Divinity.

Apart from the girl with the mask, there were two other figures, one on each side, left and right, blocking his escape route.

The other two, each carrying a side knife, one's body as burly as a bear, with fierce glaring eyes, their Divinity seemed to ignite the rain itself!

Li Che had already recognized this man...

One of the three Divine Catchers... Wrathful Maitreya, Zhao Xuanhai!

The other two...

Under the Cute Bull Mask, Li Che's eyes shifted, glancing at the two of them.

These two must be the other two of the three Divine Catchers.

Terrifying Trace of Light, Zhang Xiangyang; Chaotic Joyful Bewilderment Divine, Zhou Ruoguan!

Xu You had briefed Li Che about the Divine Foundation that the three Divine Catchers harnessed, because their characteristics were too distinct, they were easily recognizable.

Wrathful Maitreya, Terrifying Trace of Light, Chaotic Joyful Bewilderment Divine!

The sequence of three Divine Foundations was taught by the Imperial Court's Divine Methods!

Now they were erupting with Divinity, clearly no longer caring to conceal it.

"The three Divine Catchers... all with identities from the Spirit Infant Sect, this Spirit Infant Sect..." Li Che's expression under the mask was extremely dark.

This city... is rotten to the core!

Heaven and earth without wind or rain, divided by Divinity.

As if there were three raging rivers lying in front of him, blocking his path.

"Bull Demon, Bull Demon..."

"Really didn't expect Si Mubai would die by your hand..."

"Three Young Masters of Fei Lei, hahaha, died so miserably... chopped into pieces, divided into countless chunks of flesh... hahaha, well done!"

The figure wearing a laughing girl's mask stared at Li Che.

"Bull Demon... specialized in killing members of the Spirit Infant Sect? We are the three Incense Masters of the Spirit Infant Sect, you..."

"And come kill us."

The burly figure wearing an angry boy's mask, Zhao Xuanhai, coldly sneered and provocatively scoffed.

Another figure, wearing a fearful boy's mask, remained silent, tilting his head upward and looking into the distance.

Tigers, leopards, and goats... all arrived.

Six Divine Cultivators, all of the cultivation as riverlike stature, suddenly seemed like six long rivers had blocked off the surroundings.

They faced each other, and at this moment, the Bull Demon... seemed out of their concern.

For the six Divine Cultivators, a mere martial artist like the Bull Demon... could be wiped out with a flip of the hand.

The reason Si Mubai died was probably because he was already injured, and in addition to trying to escape in a hurry, he suffered a midway ambush and was injured by hidden weapons...

And was directly killed by the Bull Demon.

But they would not be, such was their absolute confidence in themselves.

"Xuansi Liu Sword, Heart Shocking and Sturdy, Hundred Turns of Worried Dreams... Xu Family, Yang Family, and An Family..."

"Xu Heli, An Ruosu, you and Si Mubai are all Three Young Masters of Fei Lei; so eager to strike against your good brother, don't you feel ashamed?"

...

Although Li Che had unleashed "Dragon Elephant Vajra," his aura nearing that of a Meridian Martial Artist, under the overpowering divine presences of the six, it appeared insubstantial.

At this moment, he was being ignored...

Although he was the notoriously fearsome Bull Demon.

But evidently, these people did not regard him highly.

That was...

Great.

Li Che enjoyed their disregard of him, as they seemingly were in a standoff, and whoever made a move against him first to snatch the jade pendant of Si Mubai in his hand would surely break the current balance of the standoff.

However, he did not like this feeling of being restrained.

He clenched his fingers, grasping the jade pendant.

In his mind, he hesitated whether to abandon this jade pendant because as long as he carried this jade pendant, he would definitely be discovered and unable to escape.

Just as Li Che was contemplating hard.

Inside his chest...

The "Pure Heart" Dao Fruit suddenly started throbbing abruptly, as if it wanted to burst forth from his chest.

Li Che was startled, then felt the Essence, Qi, and Spirit that had been nurtured for so long in the "Pure Heart" burst forth powerfully, and forced its way into the jade pendant.

The divine aura within the jade pendant instantly vanished.

And the entire jade pendant also directly disappeared from Li Che's hand...

Huh?

At this moment.

Not just Li Che.

Even the six people standing off were greatly shocked.

Their gazes, at the same time, locked onto the Bull Demon, yet they were completely unable to sense the aura of Si Mubai's jade pendant.

"Qiankun Jade is gone, the aura of the Divine Foundation Fragment from Old Master Si... also vanished into thin air!"

The expressions under the masks of several people changed dramatically!

"Bull Demon... what have you done?"

At this moment, they finally shifted their attention back to Li Che.

A Divine Base Cultivator's Divine Foundation Fragment, that was a key for them to comprehend the Divine Foundation, to touch the Divine Foundation!

This was a tremendous opportunity, and also the goal for various families targeting the Si Family this time.

Old Master Si, with a damaged Divine Foundation, would surely distribute fragments of the Divine Foundation before dying, to continue the Si Family's legacy.

And the one to obtain a Divine Foundation Fragment... would be Si Mubai from the Si Family, the most promising young descendant to forge a Divine Foundation.

Under Li Che's Cute Cow Mask, the corners of his lips couldn't help but slightly curl up.

The aura of the Divine Foundation Fragment disappeared?

Meaning... the location disappeared?

He suddenly slammed down the big thing he was carrying heavily on the ground, causing the murky accumulated water to splash up.

The burly body, vitality raging like a Jiao Dragon, great tendons vibrating and thundering...

Li Che glanced around at the Divine Cultivators who clearly did not take him seriously...

"Gentlemen, allow me to give you a big surprise!"

"Feel the art... of explosion."

Li Che lowered his voice, deep and filled with madness.

Black cloth unfolded, Li Che single-handedly carrying that enhanced version of "Mutuya"...

But saw its round barrel made of superior black wood, towering with five dark metal tubes, its belly stuffed full with thumb-sized "Mutuya," neatly arranged.

The Bull Demon's arms' great tendons vibrated, his entire body overflowing with vitality and Inner Strength, crazily infused into that raised, bizarre contraption aimed at them...

You have Divinity...

I, have firepower!

"Immortal Craftsman·Namo Gatling·Mutuya!"

"Gentlemen..."

"Please enjoy a display of fireworks!"
