

A Father 721

Chapter 721: Father and Daughter Stand United, Clinging Tightly to the Major Support, Bull Demon Takes Revenge without Delay (5)

He shook his head slightly.

"My dear wife is still waiting at home for good news, I need to go back and talk to her, and maybe... celebrate a bit."

Li Che smiled gently.

Hearing this, Gongshu Jingjun burst into laughter: "Good."

"In two days, I will enter the city to find you, and we will join the Divine Sect together. This will give you some time to pack up and move into the Divine Sect."

Li Che stood up and bowed with his hands together.

He thanked Gongshu Jingjun.

Gongshu Jingjun waved his hand, and the young man who had previously delivered messages to Li Che reappeared.

"This is Lu Qingti, a disciple of Divine Carving Ridge, a Jiuyao Woodcarving Master. His talent is decent. He manages our sect's shop in Dao City

"In these two days, A Che, if you have any matters or messages, go and find him."

Lu Qingti's expression was extremely complex, and he hadn't expected that Li Che, who appeared about his age, had become the new Elder of Divine Carving Ridge, it seemed so...

But Lu Qingti adjusted his mindset quickly and respectfully bowed to Li Che.

Li Che nodded, and after the two left the Guest Hall, Lu Qingti brought a very luxurious carriage.

Jiao Ma pulled the carriage, with Li Che sitting upright inside. The carriage he returned in was vastly different from the one he had arrived in.

It represented a change in status.

The carriage jolted and swayed.

Lu Qingti personally drove the carriage, speeding through the snow-covered mountain road, breaking through the wind and snow.

Inside the carriage.

The stove boiled water, bubbling and steaming.

Li Che sat on the soft chair, his eyes slightly closed.

He lifted the curtain and watched the goose-feather-like large snowflakes drifting.

Li Che's eyes flickered.

In a flash, it seemed he traversed tens of miles and saw the Jiao Ma carriage galloping on the official road.

Inside the carriage, Su Huaiming sat stiffly, his face iron-blue with a tumultuous mix of resentment and frustration, cursing continuously.

Li Che slowly let the carriage curtain fall.

The next moment.

He flicked his finger.

The scroll unfolded.

Amidst the shaking of the carriage, Fairy in the Painting Li Che, clad in a Mo Shan, sat quietly.

And Li Che tore through the air using two fingers joined together.

He took out a broad hat and the Bull Demon Mask from the Qiankun Space and covered his face.

With a grasp of his five fingers.

Detecting the towering malice from Su Huaiming, Li Che inconspicuously left a Thunder Chess Piece on him.

"There's no such thing as overnight grudge

"If it's not avenged overnight, it will be."

With a grasp of his five fingers.

Mighty Qi-Blood burst forth from Li Che's body, like a Jiao Dragon, his physical body swelling and the nine large tendons on his back roaring incessantly like angry dragons.

When the five fingers clenched.

A Thunder Chess Piece was instantly held in his palm.

And Li Che, wearing a broad hat and a Cute Bull Mask,

Had already disappeared without a trace.

...

...

The carriage continued to jolt.

Inside the carriage compartment.

Su Huaiming was furious to the extreme, smashing teacups one after another violently to the ground, shattering them!

"Dammit! Dammit!"

"What Li Che! What sort of trash!"

"Who knows from which nook or cranny this thing sprang out of, and yet he managed to snatch away my guaranteed chance!"

"This lucky kid definitely got some opportunity inside the Mysterious Temple, and that piece of Blood Fire Divine Pattern Bodhi Wood! Without that piece of Spiritual Wood, he could never have beaten me!"

"The position of Elder was supposed to be mine!"

Su Huaiming was so angry he was nearly going insane!

In this Divine Eagle Ridge Elder examination, he lost all face, but most importantly, the Divine Sculpture carved by Li Che had utterly crushed him in the clash of God's Intent!

His rage almost drowned his mind.

When had Su Huaiming ever suffered like this?!

He kept punching the table, the boiling tea spilling continuously.

As a treasured Divine Sculpture Master of the Su Family with three thousand years of heritage, he'd been spoiled since childhood, having whatever he wanted, combined with his excellent Divine Sculpture talent, his status was extremely esteemed.

He had never suffered a significant loss, except three years ago during the Divine Eagle Ridge Elder examination, where he narrowly lost to Elder Sun.

But losing to the old man Elder Sun, he could accept.

Losing to Li Che...

He couldn't stand it!

A young man who just got lucky!

"I'll cripple him! I will have the family take action and cripple him!"

Fury rolled in Su Huaiming's eyes.

Suddenly.

His eyes narrowed.

It was as if all the sounds between heaven and earth had vanished.

Inside the carriage.

Suddenly, a powerful, scorching, and mad Qi-Blood filled the space.

Su Huaiming slowly lifted his head.

Opposite him...

At some unknown time, a large figure, almost filling the entire carriage, sat down.

Underneath a Cute Bull Mask, bright eyes stared solemnly at him.

"Who do you want to kill?"

The figure under the mask spoke in a muffled voice.

Su Huaiming jolted.

How did this person appear inside his private carriage?

A trace of fear suddenly spread from his pupils.

The next moment, as he opened his mouth intending to say something.

Inside the Inner Scene of the Energy Center, the divinity of the Golden Body Transformation wanted to burst forth!

However—

Pfft!

A stream of Divine Gang like a spear tearing through the sound barrier, instantly penetrated his brow.

Ripping through his forehead bones and skull.

Exiting from the back of his head.

Chapter 722: Immortal Craft Dao Fruit Transforms Again to LV5, Gaining a Hint of Divine Sculpture Half-Saint Understanding

Tick-tock—

Tick-tock!

Drops of blood dripped down, splashing from the sharp-pointed Divine Gang which had penetrated through the back of Su Huaiming's skull.

There was a loud plop, in the carriage that isolated all sounds, resounding very clearly.

As if thunder exploded in the ear!

Su Huaiming trembled all over, his eyes wide open with disbelief, staring at the figure in front of him.

Conical hats, black robes, Bull Demon Mask!

Underworld!

Su Huaiming, although immersed in the art of Divine Sculpture, had heard of the Underworld.

After all, he was a member of the Su Family, and a prominent figure within the Su Family, an Outer Door Honored Elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect at Fetal Breath Transcendence Realm, had recently died!

Su Huaiming had once wanted to become an Outer Door Honored Elder, but the family had sent him to undergo the Elder assessment at Divine Carving Ridge, wanting him to become an Elder there...

In terms of status, an Elder holds a higher position than an Outer Door Honored Elder!

Therefore, when Su Helian died, Su Huaiming paid much attention.

When he learned that Su Helian's death was caused by a powerful figure of the mysterious force, the Underworld, that was currently causing a stir in the Qianyuan Daoist City,

Su Huaiming started to take note of the Underworld.

But Su Huaiming never imagined...

That he would actually encounter a member of the Underworld, and moreover, the most insidious and vicious Bull Demon among them!

"You... you

Fear flickered in Su Huaiming's eyes.

As a powerful practitioner at the Golden Body Shedding Realm, at this moment, he found himself powerless to resist. His divinity surged out from the Inner Scene of his Energy Center but...

It seemed squashed by a horrifyingly large hand, unable to even ascend.

Su Huaiming's eyes turned in horror.

His Primordial Spirit Golden Body roared, but the next moment, the roar stiffened.

Vaguely, his Primordial Spirit Golden Body saw one Temple God after another...

That's right!

Temple Gods!

Fire-Eye Mystical Awe Spirit Monkey!

Hundred-Turned Worry Dream Gui Ling Rabbit!

And several from his own Su Family, the female immortal Temple God holding a flower basket!

Su Huaiming recognized all these Temple Gods, even the Fire-Eye Mystical Awe Spirit Monkey...

As a gifted Divine Sculpture Master nurtured by the Su Family, he had observed the Mysterious Temple for a period of 60 years, witnessing countless Mysterious Temple Gods.

To enhance his Divine Sculpture skills, he had sculpted nearly all of them except for the Spirit Monkey Temple God.

However...

Now, these seven Temple Gods, emitting a majestic and oppressive Temple God Rank pressure, stared intently at him.

Causing his Shen Yuan Golden Elixir to be unable to be released...

Even the Golden Body Shedding couldn't be displayed!

It was stifled within the Inner Scene of his Energy Center...

What exactly was going on?

Su Huaiming knew he was no match for the Bull Demon, so the moment he saw the Bull Demon, he planned to unleash the power of the Golden Body Shedding and alert the Innate Great Grandmaster dispatched by the clan outside the carriage.

However...

His divinity simply couldn't burst forth!

Temple Gods... as Divine Ministers?!

What kind of monster is this?!

Fear, in Su Huaiming's eyes, continuously dissipated and expanded.

He wanted to scream, but he couldn't shout out at all. The carriage was extremely quiet, outside the sounds of the wind and snow sobbing, snowflakes falling, the turning of the cartwheels...

All vanished cleanly.

The quieter it is, the more unsettling it became!

Su Huaiming couldn't understand why the Underworld sought him?

Why did the Underworld want to kill him!

But...

It seemed like there was no need for a reason.

Because when the Underworld killed Su Helian, there seemed to be no reason either.

These lunatics.

Under the Bull Demon Mask, Li Che's eyes were indifferent and cold, his Qi-Blood trembling once as the True Gang Divine Spear that had penetrated Su Huaiming's Energy Center and skull vibrated.

In an instant, Su HuaiMing's entire head burst with a loud "bang", shattered into pieces.

Completely devoid of the breath of life.

Su Huaiming was strong, but his combat experience was too poor, he was too slow, and his reactions sluggish.

It was much easier than when he had killed Old Xue Du Fu.

The rich scent of blood spread within the carriage.

Suddenly.

Outside the carriage, a fierce gust of wind howled, instantly tearing through the curtains. It was a black Mystic Iron Spear!

The spear was even covered with barbs, True Gang coiled around it, ferociously rampant, like an angry Jiao Dragon roaring!

Bang—!!!

The muscular body, Horizontal Refinement, and strength exploded in an instant, the coiling Gang Qi seeming to possess a soul, thick as a mountain!

From outside the carriage, carrying the black spearhead, it pierced through.

Without a target, but insanely violent!

Clearly, the Charioteer had felt the change in the weight of the carriage immediately and lashed out in anger.

The change in the weight of the carriage, the absence of Su HuaiMing's cursing from within, not a single sound.

These changes alerted the experienced Innate Great Grandmaster!

He released his Divine Sense but couldn't perceive the situation inside the carriage, so, he grabbed the Black Iron Spear, and directly thrust it into the carriage.

Thereafter, the entire person charged into the carriage with an extremely domineering manner.

Bang bang bang—!!!

The luxurious carriage was instantly shattered, the dancing wood splinters, torn fabrics, fluttering snowflakes, continuously flying about!

His robust Qi-Blood blazing like fierce flames!

"Ah!!!"

This Great Grandmaster guard rushed into the carriage, and instantly felt an oppressive suffocation.

With a glance, he saw Su Huaiming with his head burst open.

The family had dispatched him to protect Su Huaiming, but now, Su Huaiming... had already died!

He was too slow!

Chapter 723: Immortal Craft Dao Fruit Advances to LV5, Gaining Insight into a Hint of Divine Sculpture
Half-Saint (2)

"Scoundrel!"

A hoarse roar exploded inside the carriage.

The eyes of this Innate Great Grandmaster instantly turned blood-red, and his Black Iron Spear lashed out towards the locked target!

Under the violent tremor, the air itself ripped open with white shockwaves!

Crack!!!

His Black Iron Spear was actually grasped by someone!

Then, an incredibly supreme horror of force transmitted from the other end of the spear with just a twist.

Rip!

This Innate Great Grandmaster felt an unstoppable power that flicked open his grip on the spear.

A domineering True Gang surged forward like a Jiaoshe, rapidly snaking its way to him!

It exploded into a blaze of gold and crimson, turning the Black Iron Spear that had accompanied him for many years into an absolutely vicious weapon.

It smashed into his chest!

His chest caved in violently, and the bones that were cultivated to extreme toughness cracked as they were forcefully shattered by the terrifying force!

In a trance

This Innate Great Grandmaster seemed to have seen an extremely terrifying Giant Golden Elephant!

The Giant Elephant lifted its trunk as if to tear apart the heavens, its body entwined by a coiling Golden Divine Dragon!

Dragon Elephant Combined Form!

Such True Gang...

Such a terrifying True Gang!

Pfft!!!

A mouthful of blood mist sprayed from his mouth.

The carriage walls suddenly exploded, shattered in all directions, flying away!

Then, the body of the Great Grandmaster, hurled backwards, crashed onto the snowy ground, plowing a vast trench, finally made out the murderer who killed Su Huaiming, the Divine Sculpture Master!

That was a terrifying figure as towering as Tower Mountain.

Immensely big, with Qi-Blood as if made tangible, cascading around him like waterfalls.

A Cute Bull Mask that seemed like the harbinger of death from hell!

Terrifying...

Extremely terrifying!

Bang!

The body was smashed into the snowy field, tumbling upright with a tip of his toes, causing thousands of snowflakes to explode!

This Innate Great Grandmaster turned into a straight black line, rapidly streaking through the snowfields!

He planned to flee for his life, to run back to Qianyuan Dao City, for in this wilderness, he was too powerless.

However.

He only felt a mass of Qi-Blood boiling up like Rosy Clouds.

The enormous Bull Demon, as towering as Tower Mountain, stepped on blood-red clouds, floating to block his path.

This Grandmaster, with hot blood trickling from the corner of his mouth, looked up, his black eyes filled with despair.

Then he saw the Bull Demon's hand grasping, and in an instant, the savagely flying currents of the snowfield seemed to be entirely grabbed by his fist!

Fist imprints converged, Qi-Blood flaring like fire, Dragon Elephant Combined Form!

The Bull Demon stomped down!

Instantly, a terrifying punch, like a mountain tsunami, countless vivid dragon images scattered in an explosion, raging out wildly!

"Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods?!"

This Innate Great Grandmaster's eyesight was, of course, extraordinary; any martial artist reaching this realm was a top-tier powerhouse in Dao City.

Invited by the Su Family to protect Su Huaiming, he was handsomely rewarded!

"And it's... the Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods of the Transformation Realm!"

"You are You Liqing!"

A long howl!

This Innate Great Grandmaster, having condensed ten Innate True Gangs, was uncontrollably furious!

Inescapable!

Facing the punch of the Transformation Realm, a punch that unleashed Ten Thousand Dragons sweeping forth, forming a True Intent Domain and sealing off all directions!

Nowhere to retreat!

He could only take it head-on!

Inside the carriage, one Innate True Gang was shattered; now he only had nine Innate True Gangs left, nearly all of which he released simultaneously!

Clasping into a fist, he had no choice but to collide with the Bull Demon's terrifying punch!

At the moment of fist meeting fist!

Between the two, ripples spread out in rings, with shockwaves tossed and gales rampaging!

The wild snow on the desolate mountains exploded continuously!

The snow on the ground instantly melted, revealing a huge pit sloping out in all directions.

Boom!!!

Then, a delayed roar exploded!

Like a heavy hammer smashing the ground, stars falling!

The horrendous power of the punch poured down, the snow on the ground cleared away, torrents of counter-assault picked up, rocks and earth flew erratically, and the rubble soared!

The ground cracked, and sprawling like a spider web!

Li Che stood with his fist withdrawn, his towering body wrapped in a black robe, untouched by a single flake of snow, unblemished by a speck of blood.

In the distant deep pit.

The martial artist, an Innate Great Grandmaster, lay prostrated, his arms hanging like fluff.

Strong!

Incredibly strong!

With only one Innate True Gang, it was supremely dominant, condensed to the extreme, tough beyond imagination!

It even gave the illusion... that the opponent could've shattered him with just his Divine Gang.

Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods is the Martial Saint's Ultimate Study.

Yet he had cultivated it to the Transformation Realm.

What he practiced was only a Master's Ultimate Study...

This Grandmaster strained his eyes to stare at Li Che, coughing up scalding fresh blood, mixed with shattered internal organs.

"Such a strong punch

"Such an exhilarating punch."

"A punch I've never achieved in my life; I'm convinced."

He then lowered his head and completely lost his vitality.

Li Che looked on indifferently, his heart as still as an ancient well.

With a familiar flick of his finger, a stroke of Divine Gang, he hooked the Qiankun Jade from the waist of the martial artist, along with the Qiankun Jade from Su Huaiming — which he had taken the moment Su Huaiming was killed.

"A real man deserves a chance."

Li Che snapped his fingers.

Soul Capturing!

In an instant...

From Su Huaiming's corpse and from the corpse of the dead Innate Great Grandmaster...

Two shadowy figures twisted and ascended!

"Lord!"

The recently deceased Innate Great Grandmaster was first bewildered, then overjoyed, as he cupped his fists in salute.

The Soul Capturing Su Huaiming gave no response to Li Che, who even noticed the struggle and unwillingness in Su Huaiming's eyes...

Chapter 724: Immortal Craft Dao Fruit Transforms Again to LV5, Gaining a Hint of Divine Sculpture Half-Saint Understanding (3)

Clumsy and dim-witted...

"Alright, from now on you shall be Niu Shisan."

"This fool, I bestow upon you."

Li Che spoke indifferently.

The Innate Great Grandmaster, who would henceforth be known as the Soul Capturing Niu Shisan, was instantly overjoyed, devoid of an employer's sentiments, and fiercely pounced towards Su Huaiming's Soul Capturing.

He glanced at the shattered carriage, Su Huaiming's headless corpse, and the Grandmaster who knelt in the deep pit, his body covered by the drifting snow.

He flicked his finger.

In an instant...

A black chess piece tumbled to the ground.

The moment it landed, the chess piece exploded!

The dense Death Qi and Corpse Qi, extracted from the Corpse God Seal, wrapped around the bodies of Su Huaiming and the Grandmaster like poisonous snakes in a frenzied coil.

After all was done, Li Che retracted the Soul Capturing of Niu Shisan who had filled its belly with just three taels, and with a tip of his toe, his body shot away.

With a clench of his hand,

He returned to the carriage compartment.

Overlap with the Immortal Avatar of the Fairy in the Painting.

Outside the compartment, the coachman, Lu Qingti, continued to chat with Li Che, who went along with it, chatting with him sporadically.

...

...

The carriage gradually came to a halt.

"Xi Lü~"

Lu Qingti abruptly pulled on the reins, his eyes slightly concentrated. In the distance, the carriages of the many Divine Sculpture Masters who left Divine Carving Ridge were stopping one after another.

"Master Li, it seems something has happened."

Lu Qingti's heart skipped a beat.

Upon hearing this, Li Che also lifted the curtain, with a puzzled look: "What happened?"

Lu Qingti briefly explained, and Li Che hurriedly exited the compartment.

Together with Lu Qingti, they approached through the snow.

"Elder Li has arrived?"

"Alas... how tragic"

"The Corpse God Cult is too hateful, too malicious! It's simply

"Such audacity, must be punished, must be!"

...

Each Divine Sculpture Master expressed their heartfelt grief.

Zhou Tianshui and Yun Haiyang, two Masters, hurriedly greeted Li Che and then briefed him on the situation.

Su Huai inside and the deceased Grandmaster looked miserable, their bodies eroded by Corpse Qi and Death Qi beyond recognition.

"Elder Li, let us share a chariot, so we can look out for each other. If we encounter the scoundrels of the Corpse God Cult, we can join forces against the enemy."

Zhou Tianshui said solemnly.

The death of Su Huaiming truly shocked these masters who only focused on Divine Sculpture Skill.

The maliciousness of the world came crashing down for the first time, causing them to shudder and wishing they could immediately carve a Divine Sculpture to calm their nerves.

Li Che too showed a shocked expression, feeling the aftermath, and after chatting with a few Divine Sculpture Masters, they shared a chariot and headed towards Dao City.

By the time everyone returned to Dao City, the sky had completely darkened.

Lu Qingti sent someone to the Su Family to explain the situation with Su Huaiming.

The Su Family was immediately shaken!

Terrifying auras churned and raged endlessly!

"Ahh—!!!"

The Su Family mobilized two Great True Men undergoing Fetal Breath Transformation, their divinity rolling violently.

In the night, like two Great Suns, they dashed out of Dao City!

In the wilderness.

Divine Carving Ridge also received the news. Gongshu Jingjun himself rushed over and currently stood with hands behind his back, frowning deeply.

Looking at the dead Su Huaiming and the Innate Great Grandmaster, his eyes filled with a grave and intense look.

"Corpse God Cult

Gongshu Jingjun's face was stern, his intent to kill overwhelming.

Today they killed Su Huaiming; in the future...

Could it be that they would target the Divine Sculpture Masters of Divine Carving Ridge?!

Boom boom boom—

The powerhouses of the Su Family arrived, and upon seeing Su Huaiming's corpse, the Great True Man's body swayed, his complexion pale.

Su Huaiming was after all a Divine Sculpture Master of the Su Family's Five Elders Middle Rank that they painstakingly raised!

So many resources spent!

He also provided the younger generation of the Su Family with many valuable Divine Sculptures for cultivation!

Now, to die such a tragic death in the wilderness!

"It is indeed the Corpse God Cult that made the move, and moreover, it's one of the High-level members! It is even the Corpse God Will at work! With an unmatched power, they forcibly strangled the two."

"Su Huaiming was virtually unable to resist; this Innate Great Grandmaster struggled a bit, but facing the Corpse God Will, unable to hold off

Gongshu Jingjun solemnly analyzed and explained to the two.

"Corpse God Cult!"

"We, the Su Family, will not rest until the Corpse God Cult is dead!"

The two Su Family powerhouses wouldn't doubt Gongshu Jingjun and naturally believed his judgment.

So, with blood-red eyes, their roars echoed, blasting through the desolate snowy ridges!

Causing flocks of cold crows to flap their wings.

...

...

Li Che was escorted all the way back to Liuxiang Lane by Lu Qingti.

Back in the courtyard.

His wife, Zhang Ya, was earnestly and diligently practicing martial arts in the courtyard, striving to improve her strength. The martial arts pill that Li Che gave her, she didn't save it; the Divinity Crystal he gave her, she didn't hoard.

She used them all up, rapidly enhancing her strength.

Drenched in sweat, yet her Qi-Blood roiled ceaselessly.

Clearly, under Li Che's continual refinement, Zhang Ya's physique grew much stronger.

"Husband!"

When Zhang Ya saw Li Che in his black Mo Shan outfit returning gracefully, her eyes immediately brightened.

She ran over with the same carved expression as Xi Xi, excited and looking forward to Li Che.

"Husband, how did it go? Did you succeed?"

"If you failed, it's okay, we have three years to come around, we'll surely make it in three years!"

Zhang Ya clenched her little fists, with sweat beads still lingering on her forehead from practicing martial arts.

Li Che purposefully teased her by drooping his face.

Zhang Ya's expression changed slightly, her heart a bit downcast, but she still quickly braced herself to comfort Li Che.

"Don't be discouraged, husband. Today, I also saw Xi Xi! Our Xi Xi was so imposing, and she's taken a very domineering teacher!"

Chapter 725: Immortal Craft Dao Fruit Transforms Again to LV5, Gaining a Hint of Divine Sculpture Half-Saint Understanding (4)

"Today's actions at Spring Pavilion were absolutely earth-shattering and moved gods and ghosts!"

Zhang Ya said exaggeratedly,

Trying to lighten Li Che's somber mood.

Today's incident at Spring Pavilion was so significant, virtually everyone in the Inner City witnessed it clearly.

Upon hearing this, Li Che looked astonished, listening to Zhang Ya's description, nodding continuously.

Eventually, Zhang Ya still couldn't completely hide her gloomy feelings.

However, Li Che just smiled and pinched Zhang Ya's nose.

"Just kidding, when your husband makes a move, how could he possibly fail?"

"I, your husband, have successfully been promoted and have become one of the Fifth Elders of Divine Sculpture Ridge! Pack up well, in two days, we will move!"

Li Che said, smiling.

Zhang Ya was stunned and then screamed in excitement!

She jumped into Li Che's arms and hugged him like an octopus.

"My husband is the best!"

Under the eaves,

Nurse Momo sat in the rocking chair, her legs covered with a blanket, her face bearing a gentle smile as she watched the joyful young couple.

...

...

Qian Yuan Dao City.

Thunder Alley.

An independent workshop courtyard.

Snowflakes fluttering, instantly evaporated by the scorching Qi-Blood, clearing up the environment, making the night crystal clear.

Li Che sat cross-legged in the center of the courtyard.

His Qi-Blood swirling around him like a Jiao dragon, forging his physical body, making his strength increasingly terrifying.

Opening and closing his eyes, Li Che squeezed out the last bit of medicinal effect from the martial arts pill.

Slowly exhaling a breath of scorching air, the steam heated up the chilly courtyard, instantly causing waves of white mist.

"Exhale

"Inhale

Between each breath, a gale howled, sweeping the lingering white mist clean.

Li Che sat crossed-legged, calming his thoughts.

He took out Su Huaiming's and Niu Shisan's Qiankun Jade, beginning to inventory.

Just one check, and Li Che couldn't help but gasp.

It seemed he had underestimated the wealth accumulated by a Middle-Ranked Divine Sculptor of the Five Elders!

"Fifty pieces of Fifth-Order Divine Crystals! Three hundred from the Six Ministries Divine Crystals!"

"This is... too wealthy?!"

"Unfortunately, absorbing Divine Crystals is not easy, otherwise, Su Huaiming could have even piled up to the level of Embryonic Breathing Transformation relying solely on Divine Crystals."

Li Che was truly shocked.

But soon, he was overcome with joy, as his cultivation devoured resources like a Swallowing Gold Beast.

Whether it was the Spiritually Bright Real Ape, the various Temple God Avatars, or the Immaculate Heart Taoist Fruit, all required Fifth-Order Divine Crystals to progress.

Moreover, for Immaculate Heart Taoist Fruit, only the first Divine Crystal had the best effect...

Subsequent ones had mediocre effects, and the absorption speed also slowed, yet, it was possible to amass a quantity.

"The elixir reserves are also extraordinary, the person may be lacking, but the equipment is complete!"

Li Che's eyes dazzled.

There were even five Fifth-Order martial arts pills!

Given Su Huaiming's physical strength, he couldn't consume these pills as they would cause his body to explode, yet he still prepared them in advance...

That's typical of someone weak but well-equipped.

In the end, Li Che benefitted.

"This is

Suddenly.

Li Che's eyes sharpened and almost seemed to freeze!

"Is this... Fifth-Order Upper Spirit Wood?!"

"Phoenix Blood Phoenix Nest Nirvana Wood?!"

Li Che took a deep breath, even his composure fluctuating violently.

Great wealth, an immense fortune!

The only piece of Fifth-Order Upper Spirit Wood, its divinity was overly intense.

Even through the Qiankun Space, Li Che could feel the fierce heat and the vigorous life force!

Fifth-Order Upper Spirit Wood!

Even Su Huaiming would have a hard time carving it.

For Su Huaiming, this wood was but a collectible!

Besides this piece of Fifth-Order Upper Spirit Wood...

There were also two pieces of Lower Fifth-Order Spirit Wood!

Among them, one was the Blood Fire Divine Pattern Bodhi Wood that Li Che obtained in Strange Que.

The other was the Lower Fifth Order [Wind and Thunder Dragon Chi Wood]!

Undoubtedly, these were preparations made by Su Huaiming, intending to aim for the rank of Upper-Level Divine Sculptor of the Fifth Order!

Now...

They belonged to Li Che!

Fifth-Order Spirit Wood... was not something easy to obtain.

Even as a newly appointed elder of Qian Yuan Divine Sect at the Divine Sculpture Ridge, acquiring Fifth-Order Spirit Wood...

Relied on waiting for an allocation, and only when there was a vacancy, he might obtain a piece!

Only such important assessments for Divine Sculpture Ridge Elders warranted the secret preparation of a piece of Fifth-Order Spirit Wood.

Li Che couldn't help but smile broadly.

Given Su Huaiming's prestigious position within the Su Family, these were obviously helped acquired by the Su Family.

The Su Family, with a foundation of three thousand years, naturally is not ordinary, acquiring Spiritual Wood is not too difficult for them.

"Unimaginable... A great family like the Su Family, experiencing ups and downs over three thousand years, how beautiful their treasure vault must be."

Li Che couldn't help but start fantasizing.

It's just regrettable that Su Huaiming seems to have no interest in Martial Arts; among his collection, there are no Divine Seed Martial Arts.

After checking Su Huaiming's collection, and then examining Niu Shisan's Qiankun Jade...

Even as an Innate Great Grandmaster, he made Li Che feel like nothing more than a beggar.

Certainly, Niu Shisan also collected a treasure of the Fifth Order Martial Pill...

It's just that without comparison, there is no hurt.

Subduing his restless emotions which surged from the wealth struck down.

Li Che's mind moved, and he took out two wood carvings.

One was blood-red, covered with Blood Fire Divine Patterns, the very one he carved during the Divine Carving Ridge evaluation, the Heavenly Earth Spirit True Ape Divine Statue!

According to rank, it should be at the Lower Five Elders level.

This also indicates that Li Che's level as a Divine Sculpture Master has reached the Lower Five Elders realm.

Although this Divine Sculpture was not easy to carve, the improvement it brought to Li Che was tremendous!

Li Che exhaled a breath of turbid air.

Then he took out another statue.

That was the Divine Sculpture Half-Saint's insight that Elder Sun had stored within this wood carving before his passing, intending to pass it on to Li Che!

Just a few strokes away from completion.

But for Li Che, how to carve, and whether he dares to carve, had become an extremely challenging impact.

Inside his chest, the Immortal Craft Dao Fruit throbbed!

In his eyes.

Light flickered.

[Dao Fruit: Immortal Craft (LV4, 96%)]

Carving a Lower Fifth Order Divine Sculpture, brought the Heavenly Earth Spirit True Ape into existence.

It really brought a significant increase in the maturity of Li Che's Immortal Craft Dao Fruit!

And now, only 4% maturity was left.

Li Che looked down, his gaze falling on the statue Elder Sun had gifted.

He took out Su Huaiming's Divine Sculpture Master tool kit.

The quality of the carving knife was extremely high, reaching the level of the Upper Six Divisions!

And after Li Che enhanced it with the Qi-Blood Rosy Clouds, this carving knife directly upgraded to the Lower Five Elders level!

However, Li Che didn't focus on the carving knife, his eyes were fixed on the silently placed statue of the Six-Eared Prison Lotus Divine Monkey Two-Minded Great Sage in the center of the courtyard.

He kept watching, observing, pondering.

In his mind, he simulated various ways of carving, the intensity, the angle, and the thickness of the wood being split...

His mind seemed to be experiencing a storm.

Simulating again and again!

But each simulation of making a cut would drastically reduce the Divine Intent of the sculpture.

Unable to reach perfection, unable to continue Elder Sun's Divine Intent.

This feeling made Li Che extremely uncomfortable.

As if choking, his face turned pale involuntarily.

On his forehead...

Unconsciously, a very fine bead of sweat rolled down.

Suddenly.

The entire courtyard fell silent.

Snow softly sprinkled, covering the courtyard floor with a thick layer.

Even accumulating a layer on Li Che.

Unknown how much time had passed.

Perhaps a hundred breaths, or maybe a thousand breaths.

Li Che slowly opened his eyes, his pupils void of emotional fluctuations.

No longer agitated, no longer choking, no longer entangled...

Clear-minded like water.

As if washed away from the lead dust, his heart became calm and strong.

Li Che's robust Qi-Blood quietly surged, shaking off the snow from his body.

The entire yard's snow instantly evaporated, turning into innumerable steaming currents rushing into the sky above the courtyard.

Li Che gripped the Divine Weapon carving knife and slowly swung it towards the Divine Sculpture left by Elder Sun.

Understanding the insight of the Divine Sculpture Half-Saint!

His cut was firm, his heart unshaken.

Rustle, rustle, rustle.

Lingering at his fingertips.

Wood shavings flew.

The sound of the silent carving knife splitting the wood echoed in the quiet courtyard.

Great paths are silent.

The knife falls without sound.

"Hu."

When he exhaled a breath, blowing all the wood shavings off the carving.

It was as if a streak of golden light flowed and twinkled from the most ordinary wood carved Divine Sculpture!

On the Two-Minded Great Saint's wood carving.

It seemed like a teardrop fell.

Li Che remained silent.

Before him, light flowed like water.

[Dao Fruit: Immortal Craft (LV5, 0%)]

Chapter 726: The Immortal Artisan's Third Transformation Mechanical Beast is Complete, Blood and Flesh Weak, the Immortal Mechanism Ascends

The falling snow is silent, gently floating onto the ground, the eaves, the roof tiles.

Adding a layer of pure white to the entire silent world.

Li Che's eyes open, his black hair dynamic and flying without a breeze, extremely striking amid the white world.

The soft, tranquil radiance flows from his pupils like two threads of sinking, serene aloeswood.

Very different from the wild and overwhelming change when Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit was enhanced to LV5.

The transformation of Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit made Li Che feel a change in his muscles, bones, blood, and internal organs.

His surging blood was almost scalding hot, like flowing magma.

That was a transformation in line with Horizontal Refinement.

This time, the transformation of Immortal Artisan Dao Fruit took place at Divine Carving Ridge, where the difficult creation of Heaven and Earth Spirit Bright True Ape sculpture was completed, and just now, followed by the carving that contains a wisp of the will left behind by Elder Sun, the Divine Sculpture Half-Saint.

Thus, Immortal Artisan Dao Fruit was elevated in one fell swoop, jumping directly to the LV5 level.

Li Che was in high spirits.

In fact, he didn't anticipate the transformation of Immortal Craft Dao Fruit, but after completing the sculpture at Divine Carving Ridge, he had a vague feeling.

Sure enough, even without following the divine statue Elder Sun left behind, Li Che could slowly transform the Immortal Craft.

Now, it was just a matter of accelerating the process.

Compared to the transformation of Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit, the transformation of Immortal Craft Dao Fruit was not as exciting as imagined, and even Li Che felt somewhat nonchalant.

Perhaps, it was a sense of natural accomplishment.

Of course, there were expectations and joys, but it did not have the intensity of the first LV5 transformation of Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit.

Indeed...

Only the first time is the most wonderful.

The first transformation of Immortal Craft Dao Fruit provided the Prototype of Divine Powers [Thousand Analyzing Hands], greatly enhancing his wood carving skills, even able to analyze the essence of things and glimpse the truth.

The second transformation allowed him to obtain Divine Skills [Star Plucking Pupil], which on a functional level, perfectly inherited the abilities of [Thousand Analyzing Hands], being able to Endlessly Analyze and Peer into Illusion and Return to Truth.

Both brought Li Che tremendous help.

Allowing him to recognize this world, to feel this world.

Now, the third transformation...

What changes will there be?

Li Che sits quietly in the courtyard, the breeze stirring, the snow fluttering.

The world is serene and quiet, giving a feeling of stillness washing over the soul.

After a long while.

Li Che slowly exhales a breath.

"Huh

"Inhale

Each inhale and exhale, the airflow swirls slightly.

The sound of all airflow in the world, the sound of breathing, the sound of falling snow, all become tranquil.

Leaving only the sound of the Dao Fruit pulsating like thunder within the chest.

Li Che closes his eyes.

As if standing on the ancient temple atop a lofty mountain, an ancient bell that has weathered the sands of time hangs at the edge of the tides, with the soundwaves from the bell's strike spreading and shaking the soul.

Hum...

A familiar sensation arrives.

By the time Li Che opens his eyes, after experiencing a whirlwind, it's as if he has crossed the barriers of heaven and earth.

Arriving in the vast Vast Heaven and Earth.

Each Dao Fruit enters this space in a different way and with a different feeling, with Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit's entry being an irresistible pull.

Immortal Artisan Dao Fruit, on the other hand, brings a feeling of dizziness as if the heavens and earth are spinning.

His gaze sweeps over.

The heaven and earth are vast and unfathomable.

Mysterious, vast, the age of times pressing in on one makes the soul peaceful.

As far as the eye can see, an ancient tree with boundless roots spreads out like entwining dragons.

Li Che's Brow Niwan splits open, revealing the radiant Star Plucking Pupils.

His hands transform into a jade color, Thousand Analyzing Hands in motion, as if entering the foundational state for invoking both the Prototype of Divine Powers and the Divine Skills.

The Divine Tree soars into the sky, breaking through the clouds, stirring up ripples of scattered clouds.

Dangling from it are Dao Fruits gleaming with seven-colored lights.

The Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit is incredibly robust, and now the Immortal Craft Dao Fruit has also swollen to the same immense size.

The significant weight seems to bend the branches, creating notable bends.

Li Che stares at the Dao Fruit that seems to pulsate with life in each inhale and exhale.

Within the Dao Fruit, lights flow and spill.

Li Che feels his Brow Star Plucking Pupil burning with endless heat, as if emanating the ultimate light and warmth, ready to evaporate everything!

Like under the energy of a billion watts, a burning incandescent filament is shining with a brilliance that reaches the pinnacle of dazzle!

Li Che, involuntarily, raises his hands which turn into a jade color, as if sculpted from pure jade essence.

His fingers spread open, and slowly reach out towards that Divine Tree.

As if to pluck that Dao Fruit from the Dao Tree that pierces the heavens, standing tall and supporting the whole heaven and earth.

A hand that can pluck stars!

Boom!!!

In an instant, a tremendous force of impact expands from the Dao Tree, shaking Li Che's spirit.

His consciousness then returns to his own body.

The light flows silently like trickling water.

[Dao Fruit: Immortal Artisan (lv5,0%)]

[Dao Fruit lv5, Third Transformation, Divine Skills (Star Plucking) transformed, acquired Divine Power Second Layer Heaven (Immortal Artisan · All Things Seal)]

In front of him, the flowing light gradually fades away.

Li Che's hair flies, his eyes seem to be surrounded by layers of misty aloeswood.

Dao Fruit's Third Transformation!

Divine Skills Star Plucking, on top of the first awakened Star Plucking Pupil at the First Layer of Heaven, a new Divine Skill is awakened.

All Things Seal!

Chapter 727: The Immortal Artisan's Third Transformation Mechanical Beast is Complete, Blood and Flesh Weak, the Immortal Mechanism Ascends (2)

Divine Power Second Layer Heaven, All Things Seal!

A flicker in his eyes.

The prompts slowly emerged.

[Star Plucking (Divine Power): Plucking stars with hands, absorbing them into my godly essence, embracing the unblemished self, and summoning all spirits to pay homage]

[First Layer of Heaven: Star Plucking Pupil]

[Second Layer of Heaven: All Things Seal]

[Heavenly Art, Imprint to Spirit, Blood and Flesh are weak, Divine Machine ascends]

...

With the awakening of Divine Power Second Layer Heaven, the introduction emerged spontaneously in his mind, flowing like water.

Li Che's eyes narrowed sharply, revealing a hint of astonishment.

Heavenly Art, Imprint to Spirit!

It seemed somewhat similar to the Soul Absorption and Spirit Awakening within the Star Plucking Pupil, but it must be a higher upgraded version.

As for the latter part, Blood and Flesh are weak, Divine Machine ascends...

It left Li Che somewhat taken aback.

Shaking his head, he did not ponder deeply.

Sitting in the courtyard, with snow quietly falling, Li Che's eyes subtly closed, his mind stirred, stimulating the freshly transformed Immortal Craft Dao Fruit.

Activating the Divine Power of the Second Layer Heaven!

All Things Seal!

Boom!!!

When his eyes opened again, his pupils seemed to be rolling with golden seals one after another!

All Forms Invisible!

The All Things Seal is also invisible!

But deep within Li Che's mind, a long-lost secret technique, almost forgotten, gradually surfaced.

"Nine Seals of Mechanism"!

Tang Family's paramount skill!

Li Che stood up from the courtyard, his incredibly strong Qi-Blood burst forth unstoppably!

The Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit seemed to resonate and be stimulated at this moment.

Roar!!!

The deafening roar of the dragon's chant and the elephant's shriek exploded between heaven and earth!

Li Che's body suddenly enlarged, massive muscles channeling qi-blood so dense it seemed coagulated, every sinew emerging from the flesh, muscles twitching like tightly drawn bowstrings!

Ascending the Tower!

Qi and Blood Rosy Clouds!

Dragon Elephant Heavenly Gang!

Li Che stimulated his Dao Fruit to the extreme!

From the Prototype Divine Powers, to the Divine Power First Layer Heaven and Second Layer Heaven, all were displayed by Li Che at this moment!

The powerful qi-blood, like a bomb compressed to its limits, exploded violently, the terrifying heatwave raging and evaporating all the snow in the courtyard, blowing gusts that scattered to the edges, causing the enveloping Heaven and Earth Chessboard to tremble slightly!

Rich Qi-Blood, point by point, was unleashed by Li Che!

His hands rapidly formed seals!

Nine Seals of Mechanism, at this moment, all were cast by him, and even...

Under the aid of the Divine Power Second Layer Heaven, All Things Seal, they underwent a subtle change!

Advance, Soldier, Fight, Those, All, Array, Group, Front, March!

Boom!

In an instant, Li Che felt his Divine Gang, Qi-Blood, and Divinity all being extracted from his body!

As if nine seals coalesced around his stimulated and hulking body, resembling a miniature mountain, the Dragon Elephant Heavenly Gang's physique!

Li Che's eyes sparkled like lightning, scrutinizing the nine blood-colored divine seals.

Each of these nine divine seals possessed unique and remarkable effects, and moreover, if the nine seals were infused into the Mechanism Seal, if the Nine Seals bore at the same time...

It might be even more terrifying than the original Nine Seals of Mechanism!

Li Che's eyes shimmered, as the grade of the Nine Seals of Mechanism seemed to be elevated by the Divine Power All Things Seal!

Besides that.

Li Che suddenly formed seals with his hands.

The nine blood-colored seals then slowly merged together.

As if with some divine craftsmanship, the unification of the nine Mechanical Divine Seals was achieved!

Once the nine divine seals were fully integrated!

Finally, they transformed into two shining golden seals, emitting the most splendid radiance.

"Myriad Forms"!

Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals!

Li Che's eyes dazzled!

Divine Seed Martial Arts!

And...

A top-grade Divine Seed Martial Arts!

The Heavenly Mechanism Nine Seals, now enhanced into Divine Seed Martial Arts by the Divine Power All Things Seal.

Its grade was also one of the finest among the Divine Seed Martial Arts!

At the very least, the [Blood Crocodile Sky Splitting Palm] received from Long Tai paled in comparison to this enhanced Seal Technique!

"Like the Heavenly Mechanism Nine Seals, is it both a martial arts technique and imbued with the spiritual attributes of Mechanism creation?"

Li Che's eyes flickered, recalling the properties of the Nine Seals of Mechanism.

Now, with the assistance of Divine Power, not only did he fully master the Nine Seals of Mechanism, but also obtained a higher-quality Seal Technique based on it. Thus, it shall be called "Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals."

"In other words... the Mechanical Beasts that are infused with Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals might... be stronger?"

Li Che's Horizontal Refinement was fully stimulated, his physique burly and sturdy, resembling a god demon.

At this moment, his heart was eager with the desire to cultivate this Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals.

For Li Che, a Divine Seed Martial Arts technique was genuinely a solution to an urgent need.

After all, the "Blood Crocodile Sky Splitting Palm" was still an incomplete Divine Seed Martial Arts, and he didn't know how long it would take to complete it.

Now, with a Divine Seed Martial Arts technique appearing, it naturally excited Li Che.

Thus, the corners of his lips couldn't help but curl into a slight smile, in a great mood.

Of course...

Mastering it is one thing; fully developing the Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals into a Divine Seed and integrating it into the Eight Extraordinary Meridians is by no means an easy task and still requires effort.

Li Che stood up, joined his two fingers together, and tore open the air, taking out the previously crafted Divine Mechanisms from the Qiankun Space.

Immortal Fire God Gatling, Immortal Fire God Barrett, Fire God Organ Cannon!

As for the Electromagnetic Gun planned to be created based on the Lei-Ci Dao Body as the foundation, he was still researching it, but the recently obtained Lower Fifth-Order Spiritual Wood, [Wind and Thunder Dragon Chi Wood], served as a suitable material carrier to promote Li Che's research achievements.

The Guanyin Lotus Main Battle Tank and the Great Avalanche Guanyin Lotus Bullet, as well as the Black and White Extreme Snow Avalanche Guanyin being researched, were also taken out by Li Che.

Chapter 728: The Immortal Artisan's Third Transformation Mechanical Beast is Complete, Blood and Flesh Weak, the Immortal Mechanism Ascends (3)

This is Li Che's current creation, relying on the Immortal Artisan Dao Fruit, all the lethality-oriented mechanisms he has studied.

"Now, with the Immortal Artisan Dao Fruit having undergone the Third Transformation, my understanding and insight into mechanisms have climbed to an extremely high level. As of now... I'm afraid I possess the true capability of a Half-Saint's comprehension."

Li Che gave a light smile.

And this Half-Saint is not limited to Divine Sculpture Half-Saint, it even encompasses Divine Weapon Half-Saint, Mechanical Half-Saint, and so forth. Anything related to Immortal Artisan, Li Che could gain an enhancement in realization!

"Hu

"Xi

Between Li Che's breaths, his robust physique slowly returned to its normal size.

With a flick of his fingers, merging Qi-Blood, Divine Gang, and Divinity, the Mechanism Nine Divine Seals intertwined and floated around him.

Nowadays, with the overall standard of Immortal Artisan improved, Li Che naturally planned to upgrade all his Fairy Mechanisms!

To endow all mechanisms with the Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals!

However, before that, the material of the Spiritual Wood in the mechanisms needed to be changed, because only higher-Rank Spiritual Woods could carry more Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals, and even carry the "Myriad Forms" Seal!

With the snap of a finger.

The Lower Fifth-Order Spiritual Wood, Blood Fire Divine Pattern Bodhi Wood, which Su Huaiming generously sponsored, suddenly appeared before Li Che.

This huge chunk of Spiritual Wood was more than enough for Li Che to carry out the material replacement and upgrade of his mechanisms!

...

...

In a world of ice and snow, like glittering crystal.

The night air is clear and fresh.

In Thunder Alley, an independent workshop courtyard.

The Divine Weapon Engraving Knife Set in Li Che's hand switched skillfully, flipping and dancing between his nimble fingers.

Spirit Wood shavings fell like flakes of burning wood, drifting endlessly!

After Immortal Craft Dao Fruit's Third Transformation, Li Che felt his mind becoming incredibly clear—a change on the level of Talent, as if someone with 800 degrees myopia had put on a pair of glasses.

Great Dao is edgeless, falling blade without a sound!

The essence of the Divine Sculpture Half-Saint grasped from Elder Sun's Wood Carving, at this moment, was fully mastered by Li Che.

All mechanisms, including the Guanyin Lotus Main Battle Tank, were fully upgraded in terms of material by Li Che!

For some insignificant parts, the original Spiritual Wood was still used, but for crucial parts, such as the chamber and barrel that needed to withstand powerful energy, the materials were upgraded.

What hinders the Immortal Artisan is never the technique, but the materials!

After integrating the Blood Fire Divine Pattern Bodhi Wood into these mechanisms.

Li Che spent the whole night and finally completed the overall enhancement of the Fairy Mechanisms!

As night slowly retreated, a pale dawn crept across the east sky, somewhat dull as if obscured by leaden clouds.

Li Che exhaled, and a crackling sound emanated from his body.

In the courtyard, piece after piece of newly reshaped and upgraded Immortal Mechanisms were laid out.

Li Che's eyes swept across the first one.

That was the Blood Fire Bodhi Barrett, infused with Blood Fire Divine Pattern Bodhi Wood. Six Bodhi barrels wrapped in Blood Fire Divine Patterns radiated crimson glow, their menacing presence terrifying just at a glance.

Immortal Mechanism·Blood Fire Bodhi Gatling, Immortal Mechanism·Blood Fire Bodhi Barrett, Immortal Mechanism·Blood Fire Bodhi Cannon!

The Firepower Mechanism Three Great Pieces, have now been upgraded to become the Firepower Immortal Machine Three Great Pieces!

"Flesh is weak, Immortal Machines ascend... it's not just a dream."

Li Che's lips and teeth shone as he lightly smiled.

The Firepower Immortal Machine Three Great Pieces, having accompanied Li Che from weakness to strength, he naturally wouldn't give up and planned to keep upgrading them.

Li Che tried to imbue the three pieces with the Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals, but for the time being, could only embed two Wanxiang Divine Seals each.

However, this brought a tremendous overall enhancement to their power.

Li Che picked up the Immortal Blood Fire Bodhi Gatling and felt a sensation as if flesh merged with it, akin to the realm of Unity of Heaven and Man.

Even without aiming, just firing in sweeping motions could accurately hit the target!

Such is the enhancement brought by the Wanxiang Divine Seal!

In reality, the true function of the Wanxiang Divine Seal...

Actually synergizes with Mechanism Beasts!

Li Che's eyes flickered, snapping his fingers.

The Six Divisions Upper Mechanism Beast, Blood-Yang Nine-God King Kong Ape, constructed according to Tang Sanjia's Tang Family's Puppet Beast Chronicles, had all its parts float out suddenly.

Numerous parts scattered all over the ground.

With a sweeping motion, as if riding the wind by levitation.

Scrolls unraveled in mid-air.

Instantly, his Fairy in the Painting avatars emerged from the scrolls.

With twinkling eyes, each clone of Li Che warmly smiled and then dove into the assembly endeavor.

Although the parts were intricate and numerous, and any slight mistake could cause the Mechanical Beast to fail to operate,

These Fairy in the Painting avatars shared Li Che's intentions.

Coupled with the now level 5 Immortal Craft Dao Fruit and Li Che's Half-Saint level Talent, assembling a Mechanical Beast was... effortless.

Perhaps when Immortal Craft Dao Fruit was at level 4, Li Che might still feel strained.

But at that time, it was merely effort, not impossibility.

Now, the feeling of strain disappeared entirely, everything working... smoothly!

Two Hours.

With the help of ten Fairy in the Painting avatars, a five-meter-tall Vajra Ape slowly rose to stand in the courtyard.

Li Che snapped his fingers.

Instantly his Fairy in the Painting avatars exploded into black ink mist and disappeared.

Li Che, with his Lei-Ci Dao Body, easily floated off the ground.

Chapter 729: The Immortal Artisan's Third Transformation Mechanical Beast is Complete, Blood and Flesh Weak, the Immortal Mechanism Ascends (4)

His gaze fell on the Blood-Yang Nine-God King Kong Ape.

He raised his hand and quickly tapped on his Brow Niwan!

The Star Plucking Pupil abruptly opened!

His physical body also instantaneously grew larger, his Qi-Blood, Divinity, and Divine Gang surged crazily, rushing towards the body of the Mechanism Beast.

On the Mechanism Beast, various Mechanism Seals began to light up.

Absorbing Qi-Blood, Divinity, and Divine Gang!

Li Che's eyes seemed to ignite golden flames.

With both hands, he fiercely struck out the Wanxiang Nine Divine Seals!

"Dealing, the soldiers, fight, these, all

Boom—!!!

Li Che's entire Qi-Blood burst open, condensing into five divine seals, his five fingers clasped, and he fiercely slammed down!

Bang—!!!

The first divine seal struck into the Brow Niwan of the Mechanism Beast.

In an instant, an invisible airwave exploded!

Rippling outward!

However, Li Che did not stop, the second divine seal, "Soldier", held in his grasp, his five fingers spread open, and he fiercely pressed down!

Bang bang bang—

It was as if deities stood above the heavens, wildly hammering the earth with heavy mallets!

The ripples of airwaves exploded continuously in concentric circles!

Five consecutive Wanxiang Divine Seals were all implanted by Li Che into the core of the Mechanism Beast.

Li Che's Qi-Blood surged wildly, condensing the sixth divine seal.

"Count" seal!

A Mechanism Beast carrying six seals is a Five Elders Rank Mechanism Beast!

A Mechanism Beast carrying seven divine seals is a Supreme Mechanism Beast!

Li Che now, naturally, still lacks quite a bit to create a Supreme Mechanism Beast!

This Vajra Ape from the Six Divisions actually couldn't carry the six seals.

However, as Li Che's Divine Skills Qi and Blood Rosy Clouds surged out, permeating into the body of the Mechanism Beast Vajra Ape, it shrouded the Vajra Ape with a blood mist, elevating its limit!

The sixth seal, the "Count" seal, was only slowly implanted into the Mechanism Beast by Li Che!

"Activate it

Li Che's eyes blazed with intensity.

Watching the big fellow in front of him!

His spirit slightly shook!

The tips of his toes touched the air, the airwave exploded into ripples, and Li Che's body suddenly shot backward, the Thunder Magnetism Dao Body controlling the domain, allowing him to float up, free as a fish in water!

And as Li Che retreated ten meters.

The dormant Vajra Ape, its eyes suddenly lit up with a gleam of light, gradually...

Growing brighter and more dazzling!

Kacha kacha kacha kacha—

It sounded like the noise of mechanisms colliding.

Terrifying light instantly burst forth from the eyes of the Blood God Nine Yang Vajra Ape!

"Roar—!!!!"

The Blood God Nine Yang Vajra Ape fiercely raised its head.

Opening its mouth, the teeth carved from Spiritual Wood and bearing mechanism seals were revealed!

The terrifying roar, like a shockwave, poured into the heavens!

It seemed to clear the clouds in the sky!

Kacha kacha!

High up in the heavens, dark clouds rolled, as if responding to the roar of the coming Blood God Nine Yang Vajra Ape.

Thunder rolled, electric snakes slithered!

Immortal Artisan Lv5, a Lower Five Elders Mechanism Beast... was finally successfully created!

Li Che hovered mid-air, his black robe fluttered.

His floating body slowly turned towards the direction of the west side of Dao City...

"You Liqing."

Li Che slowly crossed his arms, black hair wildly dancing under the thunderclouds, his robe fluttering in the night.

Electric arcs darted through his eyes, as if images flowed continuously before him like water.

Still remembering when he first arrived in Dao City...

At that time, he was bombarding the Demon Child of the Corpse God Cult outside the city.

You Liqing sensed the pursuit and came like a Heavenly God descending, with Three Flowers burning bright, his aura so strong it almost suffocated Li Che.

Afterward, when Li Che killed Su Huaili, You Liqing also descended like a Heavenly God, throwing a punch that injured Li Che.

The stable Li Che was rarely injured.

That was the first time.

He slowly exhaled.

"They say you've been injured

"I really am

"Too concerned."

Whoom bang—

As his words fell.

Li Che popped a Fifth Order Martial Pill into his mouth, instantly like a large stone dropping into his stomach with a thud.

His arms crossed, suspended under the thunderclouds, his body suddenly swelled larger and larger.

Qi-Blood rapidly recovered and grew stronger!

Divine Gang wildly danced, the first Innate True Gang also swept around like a knife!

When his robust body expanded to 2.3 meters, black hair growing down to his waist.

Behind Li Che, as the Fruit of the Heavenly Dao from Within the Painting thumped rhythmically.

One after another, clone-like figures appeared.

Each one with arms crossed, suspended in the air.

Li Che's eyes sparkled as he slowly took out the cute Cute Bull Mask and placed it on his face...

Laughing, cute, endearingly soft Niu Niu...

The cuter the mask.

The fiercer the killing.

Five fingers clenched.

...

...

The chill of the aftermath, shocking the secluded veil dreams.

Wind shakes the heavy curtain of the Cute Cow, ice tendrils on the painted eaves like flowing mercury.

Qianyuan Taoist City, West Camp.

The ignited black oil torches, burning and releasing black smoke, wildly dancing in the fierce wind.

Inside the Great General's main tent.

The stove heated water, releasing steam, making the tent's interior as warm as spring.

Li Qing with slender legs tensed, kneeling on the ground, wiping the wounds for You Liqing who was sitting on the couch...

Long Tai carried the Crocodile Head Axe, a gigantic figure, guarding in front of the tent.

Rumbling—!!!

Thunder rolled, amidst the leaden clouds, electric snakes roamed!

Amidst the fierce wind, the snowflakes in the sky dissolved in the electric light, accumulating in the clouds, ready to transform into a flood pouring down to the human world.

"Heaven is not showing favor... this winter thunder is rolling, seems like a downpour is coming."

Long Tai looked up, squinting, murmuring a word.

He ducked back inside the tent, exhaling.

His gaze fell on You Liqing, sitting upright on the couch.

Seeing You Liqing's body covered in wounds, his Qi-Blood weak and listless, Long Tai couldn't help but shake his head.

"Great General... why bother

"The trouble caused by the Princess Consort herself, why should you Burst Seed to take it on? Bursting the Divine Seed, your path as a Martial Saint is practically halved!"

Chapter 730: The Immortal Artisan's Third Transformation Mechanical Beast is Complete, Blood and Flesh Weak, the Immortal Mechanism Ascends (5)

Long Tai was somewhat unwilling to accept it, feeling that You Liqing didn't deserve this.

Green Bird was quietly wiping on the side without speaking.

"That Dragon Queen Consort... damn it, up until now she hasn't even shown any intention of visiting you, if you hadn't withstood that Locking God Talisman from Xuan Qisha, the Princess Consort wouldn't have died but she would've certainly had her skin peeled off!"

"That Dragon Maiden... as indifferent as ever! Dragons and snakes, they're all the same, cold-blooded!"

"Fuck!"

Long Tai cursed incessantly.

He was truly annoyed!

"She is my master's wife, it's only right that I save her

You Liqing said indifferently.

"Master's wife my ass, Great General, don't think I don't know what's on your mind!" Long Tai was a straightforward guy, but this time he was really furious.

"Great General, all you're after is the Princess Consort's body!"

Inside the tent, the atmosphere suddenly turned cold and solemn.

The Green Bird who was wiping You Liqing's body paused her movements.

You Liqing coughed once, and glanced indifferently at Long Tai.

"Shut up."

"Stop talking nonsense."

You Liqing's voice was cold and stern.

Long Tai seemed to be stared at by two people with a menacing gaze, feeling a frigid chill running down his back, and he shrank his head.

"I just think, ha, Great General, you met the Princess Consort even before the Prince did... actually

"Enough!"

You Liqing interrupted angrily.

Green Bird stood up, her long legs captivating, and she threw the wet towel directly onto Long Tai's face.

"You do the wiping."

After saying that,

Green Bird picked up the Divine Bow that was lying beside her, and walked out of the tent with her long legs.

Long Tai held the towel and was somewhat speechless.

"This woman... is she sick or what? She asks to be wiped but also refuses, why didn't she just let me do it from the start?"

Long Tai kept complaining.

You Liqing took a deep breath, and rejected Long Tai who was inching closer.

"Enough."

"I'm fine now."

You Liqing said coldly.

Long Tai paused for a moment, his eyes filled with a complex look.

"Where did the Princess Consort go?"

You Liqing exhaled a breath, saying.

"The City Lord's Mansion had people take the Princess Consort away, her injuries weren't serious, mainly because the Semi-Saint Xuan Qisha didn't intend to kill her, and then, there was also your Burst Seed defense... The Princess Consort just suffered some minor injuries."

You Liqing nodded slightly, his gaze showing a slight ripple.

Yu Xin...

Princess Consort...

The wounds crisscrossing his body, with the aftertaste of the Divine Talisman's stimulation, made him faintly feel the pain.

You Liqing slowly closed his eyes, his resolute face showed a trace of sadness and loneliness.

Seeing this, Long Tai didn't say anything more.

He was not good with words, it was better to say less.

But he truly felt that You Liqing didn't deserve this.

That Princess Consort... she went to Divine Sect causing trouble, cursing and wailing, saying that she would arrange for the deceased Young Prince to have a ghost marriage with Xuan Qisha's disciple...

Who wouldn't be angry at that?

She truly had a foul mouth; if Long Tai were in that position, if someone spoke about his disciple like that, he would fight to the death, too!

"You can leave."

"I can heal in peace, such injuries, a little over half a month and I'll be fine."

You Liqing spoke lightly.

Long Tai rolled his eyes upon hearing this: "When Green Bird was wiping you, you didn't tell anyone to leave, but you're chasing me away!"

However, Long Tai didn't dawdle, he put the towel down, and walked towards the outside of the tent.

Stepping out of the tent, the chilly wind blew.

Green Bird stood in the distance, arms crossed, carrying the Divine Bow on her back, her long legs captivating, her face cold as ice.

Long Tai shrunk his neck, holding the Crocodile Head Axe, and took a couple of steps at the entrance of the tent.

Suddenly.

His step abruptly halted, the ground packed with snow was extremely solid, but it suddenly collapsed under his uncontrollable footstep.

He suddenly looked up.

His beard and black hair flying wildly.

His eyes narrowed...

Only to see, around the tent, at some unknown time... a thick fog rolled and surged.

Like the fog that arose from the melting snow by the burning Qi-Blood, the dense fog enveloped the main general's tent.

Snap!

Green Bird had already taken off the Divine Bow she carried, with a creaking sound, powerful Innate True Gang wrapped around the arrow, pulling the bow to full moon!

Qi-Blood entwined around her body like Jiaoshe, her lean yet powerful body already tensed.

Her eyes burst forth with unmatched vigilance.

Long Tai's whole body bristled, goosebumps rising.

He gripped the Crocodile Head Axe with one hand, his eyes widening with veins, a smear of horror emerging as if from the rolling fog in his eyes.

He stared tensely at the rising dense fog around the tent!

"Enemy attack

"Fuck!"

"Enemy attack—!!!!"

However...

His voice exploded like rolling thunder, colliding with the dense fog around the tent.

But it was like hitting an invisible barrier, reflected back and unable to spread the slightest bit.

The sound of wind, thunder, and the crackling of the bonfire, all disappeared without a trace.

The world grew silent, all sound ceased!

Long Tai's body suddenly stiffened.

"This feeling

"This feeling!"

"Underworld!"
