Chapter 731: Dragon Elephant Sky Gang Clashes with Three Flowers Returning to the Origin, Five Elders' Mechanism Beast Decisively Kills You Liqing

Clouds and fog gather as the moon darkens, swiftly rising winds lift the dust into the air.

Rolling dense fog churns, gathering from all directions, obscuring the sight, isolating all sounds.

This provokes a deathly silence across heaven and earth!

All sounds seem as though crushed by an invisible giant hand, utterly still, not stirring the slightest bit!

The sound of the wind, the clatter of thunder, the fluttering of flags...

It's as if transformed into a mute play, movements without sound!

Long Tai clenches the crocodile head axe; on his person, each hair stands on end like steel needles, piercing the air.

Long Tai couldn't help but recall the time he was protecting Su Huaili, the circumstances they faced...

That sense of feeling...

The heavens and earth were sealed, all senses, any momentum, all cries for help suppressed within a tiny area!

It was an utterly despairing feeling, he knew, this was the mysterious power exclusive to the Underworld, capable of sealing everything within a certain area.

Inside this area, no matter how grand the commotion of a killing, it cannot be transmitted out!

Long Tai gave up shouting; he knew his voice could not carry, his cries for help would be suppressed within this boundary.

Even though outside the tent, there were tens of thousands of troops from the West Camp Divine Guard Army, but... there was no way to alert them, those troops have no clue what's happening in the great general's main tent.

Long Tai's heart sank slightly.

Primarily because he had experienced the forcible killing of Su Huaili; hence, his heart truly harbored some shadows.

He looked towards Green Bird, who was extremely nervous.

This was the first time Long Tai saw Green Bird this tense, as though every nerve was stretched to the limit, like a fully drawn bowstring.

"Green Bird, that day an arrow shot from outside seemed to penetrate the blockade; see if you can shoot an arrow outside to notify the outside world of our situation."

Long Tai said solemnly.

Green Bird shook her head; as a Divine Archer, she possessed her intuitive instincts.

She clearly understood that her arrows... could not penetrate this mysterious barrier.

It was as though an invisible Divine Talisman Array power enveloped them.

Shooting from outside was simple, but from inside out was immensely difficult...

Unless her power was strong enough to be ten times or more than that of the cultivator who arranged this mysterious formation, only then could One Force Breaks Ten Thousand Laws and break this mysterious seal!

Green Bird's shake of the head plunged Long Tai's heart into the depths of dismay.

Again, he looked towards the silent general's main tent.

Within the extremely dense fog.

It seemed as though gods in charge of death were quietly lurking.

Inside the tent.

You Liqing sat on the couch.

He slowly raised his head, his gaze piercing through the continuously wind-lifted tent curtain, seeing the rolling dense fog outside that sealed everything.

He also heard Long Tai's roar.

That roar echoed endlessly, as though sound waves were colliding haphazardly within the area.

You Liqing seemed to guess something, his eyes startled, and after being startled, a sneer bloomed on his face.

Then, he suddenly chuckled deeply.

"Underworld..."

"Quite the arrogant Underworld..."

You Liqing's face burst into unconstrained laughter.

It was as if he thought of something extremely amusing, tears involuntarily streaming out.

Hu hu hu—

The sound was steady, undisturbed by the fear of being targeted for assassination, not too high, not too low, a gentle chant like tangible flowing water, flowing inside the tent.

Although severely wounded, although Qi-Blood was weakened, an invisible qi force still released from his gradually straightening spine, filling the entire tent with whistling and raging currents!

As if two extremely radiant suns were slowly rising.

"While the general is severely wounded, only then do these jesters dare to appear, there might not be any top-level cultivators among them..."

"Underworld... Bull Demon? Horse Face? Divine Monkey? Or... the Thunder Dragon that killed Su Helian?"

Even if it were Thunder Dragon...

You Liqing was utterly unafraid, even if all of Earthly Hell's Evil came to kill him, he held no fear whatsoever!

After all, even the most powerful Thunder Dragon struggled to kill a Su Helian, who was just entering the Fetal Breath Transcendence Realm as a Divine Cultivator.

It is easy for You Liqing to kill.

So, this targeting against him, perhaps focused on Thunder Dragon, supported by the Bull Demon, Horse Face, Divine Monkey?

Just this alone.

Nothing more!

His black hair freely flying, bare-chested, his body covered with wounds like myriad creeping worms, his eyes burning bright, even somewhat expectant.

This Underworld, this mysterious Underworld, how strong can it be?

Can it bring him any surprises?!

Are there other mysterious figures hidden?!

Clasping his fingers, he took out a new set of Blazing Gold Color armor from the Qiankun Jade, covering his body, the originally numerous wounds vanished, and a domineering, murderous, ferocious aura surged forth.

The Blazing Gold Color brilliance shined brightly, akin to a gold sun rising at the end of the earth, dazzling and Unparalleled!

Dark hair wildly dancing, fierce scars on the face added a bit of ferocity.

Intense emotions rolled inside him!

Facing this assault from the Underworld, he instead... started looking forward to it.

Boom—!

Standing up from the couch, even such a slight movement seemed like a hurricane was striking the tent, almost as if wanting to blast the tent open.

Between heaven and earth, as though thunder was exploding!

Clasping his fingers, an eight-foot snake spear wrapped in Golden Light was grasped in You Liqing's hands, his body bulking up strong, one vein after another throbbing, as if a Jiao Long lurking.

Chapter 732: Dragon Elephant Sky Gang Clashes with Three Flowers Returning to the Origin, Five Elders' Mechanism Beast Decisively Kills You Liqing (2)

Bang!

With one step, he stepped out of the large tent in an instant.

Landing squarely between Long Tai and Green Bird.

An immensely majestic aura burst forth from the ground, as if wanting to stir and shred the dense fog rolling in front of his eyes, bringing about turbulence in the wind and clouds!

Crack crack crack!

Boom!

The sky was filled with layers of lead clouds, thunder snakes rolling, and electricity interweaving!

Long Tai heard the sound of thunder again.

But it turned out that this sound came from You Liqing's body, not from the thunderclouds above!

"Want to kill me?"

"Come on

"I, the general, am right here

"Come and kill!"

You Liqing held the eight-foot snake spear at an angle, his Golden Armor dazzling to the extreme, his eyes sparking like lightning, dominantly unparalleled.

At this moment, Long Tai and Green Bird were stirred emotionally.

This moment's You Liqing...

Seemed to overlap with the Prince!

...

...

The dense fog rolled, which was the snow around Li Che vaporizing with his Qi-Blood and rising up.

Mainly to block the view of the soldiers in the surrounding tents.

Using the Heaven and Earth chessboard in combination with the rising fog, it was enough to obscure what was happening in the main tent from the soldiers.

They thought it was just a natural fogging.

Ten feet away from You Liqing's main tent.

Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon Mask, stood quietly in the wind and snow, his powerful Qi-Blood rising and drilling into the ground, melting the snow like a writhing snake, and with the stimulation of the heat flow, dense fog began to roll.

His black robe fluttered, murderous intent dense like thick ink, slowly spreading out.

"You Liqing."

Since entering Dao City, this man had posed a great threat to him, even injuring his men.

This made Li Che surge with an unprecedented boiling will to fight.

Of course, this You Liqing would similarly bring a great threat to Li Che.

Additionally, the image of You Liqing selflessly shielding the Princess Consort Dragon Maiden from harm made Li Che understand...

To kill the Dragon Queen Consort, this You Liqing... must die.

Li Che did not want, while killing the Dragon Queen Consort, for this You Liqing to emerge.

If it was You Liqing in his prime, with Three Flowers Atop fully blooming, the threat to Li Che was too significant, even needing great focus to counter.

Li Che exhaled a breath of impure air.

Rumble rumble

His Qi-Blood boiled tumultuously around him, wriggling like magma!

His aura climbed step by step, as if two peerless Martial Artists, separated by the dense fog, though not yet seeing each other, could already feel each other.

"Come on! I, the general, am right here, come and kill!"

The voice vibrated, actually passing through the separation of the Heaven and Earth chessboard, with an extremely faint sound wave, resonating afar.

Li Che's eyes momentarily flourished brightly!

"I'd very much like to fight you fair and square."

"Unfortunately

"I am here to kill you."

Li Che spoke softly.

"Hearing that you were injured... I can't eat well, nor can I sleep peacefully

Fair and square?

As long as I can kill you...

It will be a thoroughly exhilarating battle.

Five fingers suddenly raised.

In an instant.

The Immortal Avatar Horse Face set up the newly upgraded Immortal Blood Fire Bodhi Barrett.

His toes touched down, the snow on the ground seemed to shake like an earth dragon, blasting up clumps of snowflakes.

His entire being, like a straight black line, found an excellent place to snipe in the thick fog!

One after another, the “Blood Fire Bodhi Dragon Tooth Bullets” crafted from Blood Fire Divine Pattern Bodhi Wood floated like tiny stars around him.

Horse Face took a step forward, slowly raising the Immortal Blood Fire Bodhi Barrett, the slender barrel filled with Blood Fire Divine Patterns slowly lighting up...

Humming humming humming

Three blood-colored Wanxiang Divine Seals, danced and rose from the Immortal Blood Fire Bodhi Barrett.

Three Wanxiang Divine Seals, the maximum capacity the Blood Fire Bodhi Barrett could bear!

The swiftly spinning three divine seals, like three rounds of red sun, ascended behind Horse Face, then all the Essence, Qi, and Spirit within Horse Face merged into the Immortal Blood Fire Bodhi Barrett!

Bang!!!

The moment the sound exploded.

Blood Fire Bodhi Dragon Tooth Bullets had already blasted circular waves of air, pulling with extreme speed, sketching out supremely fine white lines.

The sound couldn't even catch up, crossing tens of meters, shooting towards the target within the thick, unclear fog-covered tent!

As Li Che pressed down his hat, under the stretched elastic black cloth, his muscular lines silently squirmed, the nine large tendons on his back like tightened bowstrings suddenly vibrating.

He stepped down, countless piles of snow silently collapsed.

His fierce Qi-Blood burst forth from his body, his spine like a roaring proud dragon.

His organs vibrated, three hundred sixty Five Elements Divine Gang bursting simultaneous from the orifices, his entire being transforming into a night sky studded with endless starlight brilliance!

Bang!!!

The ground collapsed, as if beating a drum on the ground!

As if thunder roared, the air exploded, like compressed clouds suddenly bursting into circular rings!

The Bull Demon actually followed the upgraded Blood Fire Divine Pattern Bodhi Dragon Tooth Bullet and charged out!

Speed reaching extreme levels, momentum also growing continuously fierce during the dive!

Compared to the fine bullet that could easily shatter air resistance.

The Bull Demon wild and dominant, the forward momentum like a dragon emerging from the depths, like a wild bull rampaging!

Everywhere in front of him, the air was violently shattered!

The speed grew faster and faster!

Fierce Qi-Blood spurted out, like a comet with tail flames dragging across the night sky, burning the void!

During the mad charge, Li Che shook his sleeves, clutching Five Elders Divine Crystal Powder refined and ground, hidden within the most unassuming Wood Raven.

Chapter 733: Dragon Elephant Sky Gang Clashes with Three Flowers Returning to the Origin, Five Elders' Mechanism Beast Decisively Kills You Liqing (3)

Gathering strength, ready to strike!

...

...

"Here it comes!"

Within the thick fog.

A covert radiance exploded!

Green Bird's hair stood on end, goosebumps rising on her fair skin, and nearly thirty strands of Innate True Gang rampaged across her body, roaring like dragons!

As a Divine Archer, she was extremely sensitive to changes in the environment...

Far away, the thick fog was swept aside, as if torn apart by an invisible force!

The imposing aura of the Bull Demon as it charged forward was too terrifying, its vigorous Qi-Blood twisting the fog, smashing the airflow into pieces!

It was as brilliant and dazzling as the blazing sun!

The strong Martial Dao Will, like a storm, almost solidified, surged out of the fog like a tidal wave!

So domineering!

So wild!

A streak of light came silently, no! It was too fast, the sound couldn't catch up!

Green Bird fiercely bit her tongue tip, blood blossoming between her lips and teeth, her eyes suddenly focused, her hair fiercely flying backward!

Bang—!!!

With a sonic boom, the Divine Bow was fully drawn and then released sharply!

The air instantly vibrated like a flung fabric!

A fiercely blazing blue arrow, like a Phoenix spreading its wings, accompanied by a crane-like cry, shot towards the terrifying streak of light!

This was...

The full-powered arrow of an Innate Great Grandmaster Divine Archer!

Green Bird dared not hold back at all!

As soon as Underworld heard about You Liqing's injury, they braved to come and kill!

This was enough to prove their confidence; how could she afford to hold back?!

"Underworld...Horse Face!"

At the moment she shot the arrow, Green Bird's slender and compelling legs fiercely stamped on the ground, her body soaring high.

Her hair flew behind her, Innate True Gang continuously swirling around her, the Great Bodily Elixir in her Dantian throbbed violently, her powerful Qi-Blood continuously driven out, infused into the Divine Bow!

"A duel between Divine Archers!"

Green Bird shouted, one arrow after another nocked and the bow drawn tight!

Bang—!!!

Far away, the emitted arrows were about to collide with the swiftly approaching, even faster-than-sound light!

However...

To Green Bird's incredulous focus, the light emitted by Horse Face unexpectedly turned mid-air!

With a heart-stopping trajectory, it twisted past her loosed arrows!

Green Bird cried out; her unique Martial Dao Will, as if ignited, exploded forth with a burst of flames!

It was as if a Phoenix had suddenly spread its wings behind her!

Shoooooot—!!!

She continuously drew the bow, releasing bursts of shots!

Streaks of blue light rampaged out, like a strip of fabric shooting towards the light in the thick fog!

Yet, that light...

Seemed controlled by an invisible will, constantly twisting in the air, dodging her arrows!

Bang—!

When there was no escape, it was finally struck hard by one of her arrows!

Boom!!!

An explosion erupted, dazzling flames emerged in the thick fog, churning violently, Divinity rampaging!

However...

The explosive flames were torn apart, and a dark shadow rolled out from the thick fog!

The speed...

Was too fast!

As fast as lightning, the wind and thunder roared!

"Bull Demon—!!!"

Long Tai exclaimed in shock, his face distorting and turning fierce in the next moment!

It's you?

It's actually you?!

You...dare and qualify to come and kill the Great General?!

What are you, Bull Demon...a mere nothing?!

Long Tai bellowed, stomping down fiercely, the ground suddenly indented and collapsed, countless cracks spreading instantly like a spiderweb.

The terrifying power transmitted from the earth surged into Long Tai's body, the Innate True Gang coiling out like Jiaoshe.

His arm, covered in dragon-like veins, fiercely swung the crocodile-headed great axe, the air being sucked noisily cracking under the strain!

"Retreat—!"

However.

Long Tai only felt a powerful force fiercely pulling at his body, then flinging him back forcefully!

An irresistible force made the power that Long Tai had just released into the crocodile-headed great axe directly disperse, causing him to stagger and crash into the tent, collapsing it!

"Great General!"

Long Tai's wildly bearded face flushed red.

Why did you pull me back?!

However, You Liqing did not answer Long Tai's grievances and doubts at the moment.

Because the next moment Long Tai understood...

You Liqing's eyes dazzled, his golden armor vibrated, the brilliant golden eight-foot snake spear in his hand shook violently, thrusting into the ground.

His five fingers clenched into a fist, pulling the airflow into five strip-like forces, fiercely shaking his arm and smashing his fist towards the Bull Demon!

Three hundred and sixty Divine Gangs...

One Innate True Gang!

Yet there was not a hint of underestimation in You Liqing's eyes!

Because, within those three hundred and sixty Heavenly Gangs, he felt a condensing that made even his scalp tingle!

Seeming to sense the essence of the Absolute Skill True Intent!

Even...

Not just one Martial Saint Ultimate Skill!

Vaguely, he felt...four kinds? Five kinds?!

Five kinds of Martial Saint Ultimate Study's True Meaning refined into True Intent Divine Gang?!

What kind of monster?!

Even You Liqing, at this moment, couldn't help but his mind violently fluctuate!

And in the instant of confronting the punch!

You Liqing's eyes...

Instantly narrowed!

He seemed to hear an extremely terrifying Dragon's Chant!

In the next moment, a harmonious domain spread out, within the domain, countless dragon shadows surged tumultuously, one, two, three, four...

Densely packed, ten thousand dragons came forth!

King of Quelling Chaos Ji Molie's Martial Saint Ultimate Study...

Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods!

The Bull Demon...actually also knew Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods?!

Chapter 734: Dragon Elephant Sky Gang Clashes with Three Flowers Returning to the Origin, Five Elders' Mechanism Beast Decisively Kills You Liqing (4)

And it's the Transformation Realm, Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods?!

"Who are you?!"

You Liqing stared intently at the Bull Demon who approached fiercely as a mountain, with qi-blood boiling as if furnaces were toppling over, fingers clenched into fists as if he was a bolt of thunder from the clear sky, ruthlessly charging forward to kill!

But...

Utter silence!

Only the terrifying Dragon's Chant resounded!

You Liqing's fingers suddenly clenched and twisted, and with a forceful step, three "flowers" above his shoulders and head flickered like shaky flames and fiercely ignited!

Although he looked much weaker than when Li Che first met You Liqing, nearly as if his oil was spent and his lamp extinguished!

But in the end... he remains the Supreme Grandmaster with blossoming Three Flowers Atop!

"No matter who you are... Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods, you are no match for me!"

You Liqing let out a long howl, his aura as overwhelming as a collapsing mountain!

Golden Armor trembled, ringing non-stop, black hair hanging down his back in streams!

The True Intent Domain expanded, the Transformation Realm dragon undergone subjugating the divine!

The same punch, the same Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods!

He hurled a fierce punch towards the Bull Demon!

Head-on collision!

The same martial arts, the same True Intent Domain, the same... killing intent!

Boom!!!

Countless dragon shadows collided, the two domains clashed!

It was like the roar of thunder splitting the heavens, rolling and spreading in an instant, as if echoing the rolling winter thunder high above!

The fists of both men collided, skin, tendons, and bones smacking together with a sound as continuous as the popping of fried beans!

One dressed in pitch black, the other in full golden armor!

Like two supremely brilliant radiance viciously clashing!

The mighty Gang Qi parted the engulfing giant waves, and the turbulent ripples from the exploding qi flowed in all directions!

It was like two giant bowls clashing from their bottoms, forming behind the two men!

Boom!!!

Within dozens of yards around them, the air seemed to explode in an instant, thick fog was pushed aside and dissipated!

Both exhibited divine fists and intertwining dragon shadows, each collision producing a deafeningly explosive sound!

Between the whistling airflows, they shot to the sky, within their domains, hundreds of thousands of genesis and extinction collisions occurred!

Rumbling Thunder!

As if thunderbolts were descending, shaking the human world, the blast waves parted!

The ground directly collapsed and exploded, the hard and frozen clay and stones shattered, splattering like rain, fiercely darting like arrows!

Pff!

Long Tai crawled out from the collapsed camp ruins, his eyes contracted, feeling a chill on his spine!

Facing the countless arrow-like flying stones, he roared and slapped down with his hand, his Innate True Gang swirling wildly, pulverizing them all!

But his beard was visibly trembling.

His complexion alternated between pale and flushed, coldness creeping up his spine!

This Bull Demon...

How could this Bull Demon be so terrifying and powerful?!

To be able to exchange blows with the Great General?!

And to master the Transformative Realm Level Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods, could it be... this Bull Demon is also a disciple of the Prince?!

And Long Tai finally understood why You Liqing pulled him away in a rush, because...

If he faced that punch from the Bull Demon!

He...

Would have been beaten to death!

...

...

Rumbling Thunder!

The leaden clouds rolled, stacking high in the sky, countless thunder serpents twisted and roared!

A thick fog rose in the area of the West Camp Divine Guard Army, the fog rolling incessantly and surging!

Inside the tents, many resting soldiers revealed astonished expressions, barely hearing the unusual sound of thunder...

As if it came from the direction of the Great General's tent, and with a breeze that began to waver, stirring the fog to become hazy.

Whiz whiz whiz

Within the army, several Great Grandmaster Level officers frowned, their Divine Sense sweeping towards the main camp, but it was like casting stones into the sea, no response.

Vaguely, they felt unease stirring in their hearts.

Yet the Divine Sense found nothing amiss.

"Could it be that the Great General took a heavy blow for the Princess Consort and caused this unease in our hearts?"

"Yes, currently in Qianyuan Dao City's east, west, south, north, and City Lord's Mansion five Divine Guard Armies, there is competition amongst each other. With our Western Camp General heavily injured... in subsequent military exercises, I'm afraid we'll fall behind the other four Divine Guard Armies."

"Sigh... That Dragon Queen Consort acted rashly on her own whims, why did the Great General stubbornly take the hit?"

"To end up heavily injured, truly not worth it."

"Do not talk nonsense, the Princess Consort is the wife of King Ping Luan, not someone we can discuss lightly. The Princess Consort is also the master's wife of the Great General; it makes sense that he would block a blow at the risk of heavy injury."

...

Many Great Grandmaster Generals, without noticing anything wrong, then started talking amongst themselves.

Finally, someone looked up.

"The sound of thunder tonight is indeed resounding."

...

...

Boom!!!

Fists collided!

Li Che, with his full strength ignited, his body shook violently, his bones making a sound like a machine-gun fire!

The terrifying and powerful force came from You Liqing's fist, as if there were three extremely dazzling flowers blooming before Li Che's eyes.

They were You Liqing's physical body, martial arts, and Martial Dao Will, the three "flowers"!

They represented the martial artist's essence, qi, and spirit, the three "flowers" of the Martial Path!

Essence is the ultimate refinement and conditioning of a Martial Artist's physical body.

Qi is the mastery of Martial Arts and the ultimate operation of Gang Qi.

Spirit is the extreme fervor of the Martial Dao Will!

Three flowers blossom, returning to Yuan at the crown, can give birth to Primordial Gang Qi, the quintessence of a Martial Artist's perseverance to the ultimate Guiyuan Gang Qi!

It is a form of Gang Qi strength that is more condensed and powerful than the Innate True Gang of an Innate Great Grandmaster who has achieved Unity of Heaven and Man!

It can even be said, it's not a force on the same level at all!

Boom boom boom!!!

Almost instantaneously, Li Che felt his three hundred and sixty pathways of Five Elements Divine Gang endure for only two breaths before being suppressed!

The Five Elements Divine Gang, comparable to the Innate True Gang of an Innate Great Grandmaster like Long Tai, was ultimately no match for Guiyuan Gang Qi!

Chapter 735: Dragon Elephant Sky Gang Clashes with Three Flowers Returning to the Origin, Five Elders' Mechanism Beast Decisively Kills You Liqing (5)

However, Li Che had anticipated this...

You Liqing's eyes blazed willfully; his black hair danced wildly, his armor clanked.

When he discovered that the Bull Demon's Gang Qi, containing the true meaning of five types of Martial Saint ultimate teachings, was being suppressed by his Three Flowers Guiyuan Gang Qi that he ignited,

You Liqing couldn't help but burst into laughter!

He looked towards the Bull Demon, however...

Underneath the Bull Demon Mask, his eyes were as still as an ancient well, calm as water!

The next instant.

Thud!

The Bull Demon stomped down hard with the tip of his foot!

His step on the ground boomed like a hammer on a drum!

The entire earth tremored!

The next instant, the Bull Demon's already towering figure swelled even larger!

Two Wood Ravens shot out, bursting in midair, and in an instant... a fluttering shower of Five Elders Divine Crystal Powder scattered in the air.

You Liqing's expression changed slightly, Five Elders Divine Crystal Powder...

Although it couldn't completely suppress his Divinity from the Fetal Breath Transformation, it was enough to cause a momentary delay in the activation of his Divine Cultivation!

Damn it!

The look of satisfaction on You Liqing's face vanished instantly!

This Bull Demon...

Is the most cunning, the most deceitful, the most despicable among the Earthly Hell's Evils!

In Su Huaili's dying records about Earthly Hell's Evils, he frantically warned time and again, never to engage in a fair and square bout with the Bull Demon!

You Liqing had just seen the Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods and was hooked by the lip corner!

He wanted a fair duel of Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods!

Now, he was suddenly startled!

But he saw.

From the Bull Demon's body, a burst of ten thousand rays of light erupted!

In an instant, the sounds of dragons' chants and elephants' roars emanated from the Bull Demon's robust physique, resonating out of his body!

The blast resounded within thirty feet!

One could see, behind the Bull Demon, a colossal blood-colored divine elephant raising its trunk and trumpeting wildly, with Divine Dragons coiling around the mighty elephant's form, emitting deafening dragon roars!

Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit!

Divine Power Second Layer Heaven!

Dragon Elephant Merged Form!

Dragon Elephant Sky Gang!

Hiss-hiss-hiss!!!

The black clothes on the Bull Demon's body suddenly exploded, revealing a bronze-colored body with bulging muscles, like the release of numerous streams from an exploded pressure cooker, humming and vibrating.

Tangible Gang Qi burst forth from every pore on the Bull Demon's body, as firm as mercury!

The majestic and towering Dragon Elephant, the Combined Form cuts across the sky!

A powerful surge of Dragon Elephant Sky Gang wrapped around Li Che's arms, like a strip of celestial qi, booming like thunder on the ground as Li Che clenched his fists fiercely, the thunderous sounds reverberating to the heavens!

Behind him.

Nine revolving divine seals spread out and appeared.

Finally, they combined into two divine seals.

"Myriad Forms"!

You Liqing's golden armor resonated, his black hair was swept back continuously by the wild wind's eddies!

Just as You Liqing tried to see what those two divine seals were,

The Bull Demon clenched a fist, as if a Dragon Elephant was on the move!

The scorching qi and blood surged!

As if forming a unique True Intent Domain!

Myriad Transformations Dragon Elephant!

A fist hammered down thunderously, as if conjuring myriad illusions in an instant.

Divine Dragons and Giant Elephants seem to smash down with all their might!

You Liqing's eyes blazed, equally unrelenting, the Three Flowers ignited, Guiyuan Gang Qi fiercely smashed down!

The clash of Dragon Elephant Sky Gang collided with Guiyuan Gang Qi!

Boom!!!

An explosion erupted, and the ground they were standing on instantly caved in and collapsed into an enormous deep pit, dust and debris billowed high into the air!

Then crazily plummeting!

However...

You Liqing was stunned...

His Guiyuan Gang Qi as a Top Three Flowers Grandmaster, was actually blocked by the Bull Demon!

Equal in strength!

The overbearing Gang Qi of the Bull Demon, blocked the Guiyuan Gang Qi!

All of a sudden.

A strong alarm exploded in You Liqing's heart!

The next moment.

An overwhelming shadow instantly covered his vision!

But he saw, between the two blood-colored divine seals behind the Bull Demon,

They then spiraled like blood-colored electricity shooting forth.

Exploding in mid-air!

At the moment of the explosion, a terrifyingly colossal creature appeared out of nowhere above his head!

Covering the sky and sun!

One after another, the Five Elders' Divinity Crystals were quickly consumed and expelled from within the body of the Mechanism Beast!

The Mechanism Beast activated!

Click-click-click-click

The sound of Spiritual Wood mechanism collisions echoed, densely packed, countless Mechanism Seals lit up almost simultaneously!

Blood God Nine Yang Vajra Ape!

Like nine rounds of blood-red suns, at this moment, rising from behind an immensely terrifying Mechanical Demon Ape!

You Liqing's rage was uncontrollable!

Then a chill rose from under his feet!

"Six Bureaus? No! Five Elders' Mechanism Beast?!"

"Bull Demon... despicable!"

Long-range sniping, Divinity Crystal Powder, Five Elders Mechanism Beast...

Indeed despicable and venomous!

This is the Lower Five Elders Mechanism Beast!

A terror to the extreme, a war meat grinder!

Comparable to a Martial Saint First Realm's terrifying Mechanism Beast...

Actually appeared out of nowhere over You Liqing's head at this moment!

A sense of death enveloped him!

Each move calculated!

Every link interlocking!

This is... a deathblow!

Boom!!!

The next instant.

Like a heavy hammer ruthlessly striking a drum!

The entire earth in an instant, seemed as if it turned into a carpet being shaken, ripples spreading out in waves!

You Liqing, already severely injured, had his golden armor burst apart in an instant, and blood mist exploded from all his pores.

His nine-foot-long frame!

At this moment...

As if nailed down!

Between blurred blood and flesh!

Was smashed into the ground!

Chapter 736: Qimen Divine Seed 2 Explodes to the Ultimate Refinement, Such Excellence Deserves Entering the Underworld

Boom!!!

A terrifying punch, as if to overturn heaven and earth!

The scorching, scalding energy bursts forth in an instant, tens of thousands of Mechanism Seals flashing simultaneously, emitting an extraordinarily blinding light.

As if to cast molten gold, the fearsome high-temperature energy erupts from within the terrifying beast towering over five meters tall, like the roaring of the ocean, as if a volcano is exploding!

Surging forth from the dreadful shell pieced together by countless precision parts!

Like nine blood-red suns, hanging high, scorching the sky!

The ground collapsed thunderously, and the frozen ground where the main general's camp is located seemed to boil over like a turbulent river at this moment, churning ceaselessly!

The dreadful heatwave spreads in rippling patterns, hurricanes howl, the earth cracks and mountains crumble!

The layer of snow and ice accumulated on the ground melted in a flash, then vaporized and turned into clouds, swirling like a Jiao Long incessantly!

Blood God Nine Yang Vajra Ape!

At the moment this colossal figure appears, it hammers down fiercely with a punch, as if turning the entire camp upside down.

From afar.

Long Tai stands dumbfounded, his body trembling uncontrollably, the raging windstorm sweeping across, waves rolling, countless earth and rocks splattering, making Long Tai stagger!

"Mechanical Beast!"

"This is a Mechanical Beast!"

"Tang Clan Mechanism Beast!"

A deep and hoarse voice explodes from Long Tai's throat.

His throat is parched, and his blood feels as if it's frozen.

With a feeling like a thorn in his back, his hairs stand on end!

Six blood-red Mechanism Seals rotate endlessly at the core of the Mechanical Beast...

Oppressive, suffocating, it makes one gasp for air – a dreadful Rank pressure, like a flash flood, Long Tai couldn't even muster the strength to move a finger.

This Underworld...

This Bull Demon!

A Six-Seal Mechanism Beast!

That's equivalent to the terrifying weapon of war at the Five Elders Rank!

Just one seal away from the Supreme Mechanism Beast!

Even a Lower Five Elders Mechanism Beast has the fearsome explosive power of Martial Saint First Realm!

The Underworld...

Actually brought out such a terrifying existence to kill the Great General!

Long Tai's eyes suddenly turn blood red...

This is a devastating attack!

How is one supposed to survive this?!

Netherworld Ox Demon, too cautious, too vile, too cunning!

If the Ox Demon had unleashed this lower-ranked Five Elders Mechanism Beast from the beginning, You Liqing wouldn't have thought about counterattacking, only about how to escape!

If it were You Liqing before sustaining severe injuries, he might have been able to struggle through by unleashing the Divine Seed and then escape.

But You Liqing has been seriously injured by the Locking God Talisman of Sect Master's wife Xuan Qisha, and now he has encountered the assassination of a Six-Seal Mechanism Beast...

That's right!

It's an assassination!

The Ox Demon actually used a Six-Seal Five Elders Rank Mechanism Beast for a sneak attack!

How could there be such shameless people in this world!

Long Tai's eyes are bloodshot, his whole body working against the fierce and rampant hurricane, his Innate True Gang raging and coiling like a roaring Jiao Long, clenching the Crocodile Head Axe, his stature suddenly erect, hair and beard spreading out, looking at You Liqing who has been punched into the ground by the Mechanical Giant Ape.

He lets out a long howl!

The axe suddenly slashes through the air, his body trembling, copious amounts of Qi-Blood spurting out, his Innate True Gang coiling around like a roaring Jiao Long!

Long Tai does not retreat, but at this moment, instead moves against the flow, dragging the Crocodile Head Axe, stomping heavily, the ground trembles like ripples, charging upward against the gale!

His wild Qi-Blood shines forth like the Great Sun!

This Innate Great Grandmaster, who has achieved Unity of Heaven and Man, at this moment, pushes his power to the limit!

"Kill!!!"

A long cry!

The Crocodile Head Axe fiercely sweeps, striking at the Mechanical Giant Ape!

However, those eyes emitting red light, with six large seals rotating at the core, the Mechanical Giant Ape with its hair flying wildly, and Five Elders Rank Divine Crystals on its back being frantically siphoned for their Divinity!

Amid the clashing sounds, the Mechanical Giant Ape, under the control of Li Che's heart and mind, suddenly thrusts out a punch horizontally.

As if to swat a fly.

Long Tai, the Innate Great Grandmaster, his Innate True Gang instantly explodes under the flat punch, shattering into countless raging currents!

Pfft!!!

Blood bursts forth from every pore on his body!

Unable to resist, unable to block...

This is a Five Elders Rank Mechanism Beast, touching the Combat Power of Martial Saint Level!

Irresistible, completely unstoppable!

"General ah!!!"

Bang!

Long Tai only feels every bone in his body cracking and shattering, his skeleton breaking, veins collapsing, flesh splitting!

His face twists weirdly, as if crushed by a collapsing, irresistible mountain...

Everything about him is deformed!

Behind him, Power violently pours out, airwaves ripple, spreading more than a dozen meters!

After an extreme moment of stillness, a powerful recoil force erupts.

In an instant!

Long Tai's Crocodile Head Axe flies out of his hand, and he is smashed and sent flying, creating ripples and waves in the air.

With a thud, he traverses dozens of meters, crashing against the barrier created by the Heaven and Earth chessboard.

Thick fog tumbles, Long Tai spurts blood from his nose and mouth, sliding and kneeling on the ground.

His still bleeding eyes stubbornly fix on the Ox Demon, stubbornly staring at that vast, towering Mechanism Beast emitting bright light!

Scalding blood spills from his mouth and nose, dripping onto the ground.

"Great General ah

Long Tai's heart is filled with desolation, knowing today...the situation is likely dire.

The Underworld's schemes are endless, one after another, almost sealing off all of You Liqing's paths of life.

A Six-Seal Mechanism Beast has even been brought forth!

Chapter 737: Qimen Divine Seed 2 Explodes to the Ultimate Refinement, Such Excellence Deserves Entering the Underworld (2)

It must be known that even in the heyday of the Tang Family, a Six-Seal Mechanism Beast was an extremely precious object.

Not to mention the difficulty of its creation, just the enormous amount of Divinity Crystals required to activate a Six-Seal Mechanism Beast was colossal!

Without the backing of a significant power, one simply couldn't use a Mechanism Beast!

Terrifying!

At this moment, Long Tai already felt a fear of the Underworld rising in his heart!

But...

Long Tai staggered to his feet, his eyes bloodshot.

"Great General!"

Long Tai, without his Crocodile Head Axe, clenched his fists, his beard flying wildly, and let out a low growl.

Even covered in blood, he roared as he charged forward!

The death of Su Huaili, Long Tai could face with calm.

But, You Liqing... This Great General he had followed for so many years, he couldn't bear to witness You Liqing's death!

The Underworld...

Perhaps, You Liqing had been targeted by the Underworld from the moment he started making moves against them.

Ji Haihui is dead, Su Huaili is dead...

Now, You Liqing is going to die!

Long Tai, crazed and bleeding profusely, charged toward You Liqing's direction!

...

...

Green Bird's heart had already sunk to the bottom.

When that terrifying Mechanical Beast appeared, she had already despaired.

When You Liqing was hammered into the ground with a punch, Green Bird's heart was completely dead.

"Underworld..."

Green Bird's eyes were like a pool of dead water, unrippled.

She gripped her Longbow, and with her long and straight legs, moved swiftly through the dense fog.

Her long fingers were calloused from drawing the bow.

With a creak, the bow was drawn to full moon!

A multitude of blue streams of light flowed out from above the Longbow!

Shoo!!!

The Qingluan cried out, spreading its wings, and swiftly collided with the incoming streams of light!

"Horse Face!"

Tears kept rolling down from Green Bird's deathly still eyes!

In her mind, memory after memory flashed, with scenes of You Liqing pulling her out from a pile of corpses in a small city of Jizhou.

Back then, she was naive, with nothing but corpses as far as eyes could see.

You Liqing, in his Golden Armor, pulled her back from death, and at that time, he was like the sunlight that dispelled all darkness in her life.

He gave her hope and faith.

Later, she followed You Liqing to practice martial arts and spiritual cultivation.

She displayed the talent of a Divine Archer and received special training. Gradually, she became his right-hand...

Even though Green Bird admired You Liqing, even though she knew that You Liqing's heart already belonged to someone unattainable to him,

She didn't care, nor did she have the desire to compete.

What right did she, someone who crawled out from a heap of corpses, have to love her own sun?

She had no right.

She was forever doomed to live in darkness.

And now...

The man she liked seemed to be dying!

So she...

Wouldn't live either!

Shoo shoo shoo!!!

Dragon-like arrows crazily shot out in rapid succession, blocking all paths of those Bodhi Dragon Tooth Bombs, finally exploding mid-air!

Fireworks rollicked, and the shockwaves erupted!

Green Bird felt an unprecedented immense pressure.

The opponent's Divine Archery Art...

No, rather, it should be said that the Mechanical Arrow Technique, was putting pressure even on her, an Innate Great Grandmaster Level Divine Archer!

She even felt a sense of despair!

It made her doubt the Divine Archery Art she had painstakingly practised for so many years.

What was the point...

After all!

Bang!!!

However, at this moment, Green Bird's heart was already numb; she had given up on the shootout with Horse Face.

Because she knew, she could not kill Horse Face.

Horse Face was nearly a hundred feet away, shrouded in thick fog. Although she could lock onto Horse Face's position based on the direction from which the Bodhi Dragon Tooth Bombs were shot,

Killing Horse Face was too difficult!

Now Green Bird...

Had a clearer goal!

Bang!!!

Innate True Gang ran wild, sweeping behind her like Qingluan spreading its wings.

Her slender legs constantly touched down in the mist as she quickly made her way back.

"General!"

Green Bird bit her lip!

Five fingers clenched, and a bloodstained arrow was grasped and fiercely notched on the Divine Bow, her entire Essence, Qi, and Spirit rapidly poured into that single arrow.

She plowed through the dense fog, against the cascading hurricane, and sprinted towards the direction where You Liqing was smashed into the ground!

...

...

Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon Mask, had his elastic Mo Shan shirt burst open, revealing his extremely fit and muscular Physical Body.

Muscles vibrated like roaring dragons.

His Lei-Ci Dao Body operated, and he floated up in the air silently, without stirring any Qi-Blood or Divinity.

The five-meter-tall Blood God Nine Yang Vajra Ape, like a colossal being, emanated a brutish and terrifying aura.

Regarding the terrifying power of this Six-Seal Mechanism Beast, Li Che was quite satisfied.

It was even stronger than he had anticipated.

A single punch had directly smashed You Liqing into the ground, that punch... could directly declare You Liqing's death.

Although the consumption of the Mechanism Beast was also much larger than he had imagined.

Activating this Six-Seal Mechanism Beast required the use of five Five Elders Rank Divinity Crystals, and once the Divinity in the crystals was exhausted,

The Mechanism Beast would stop moving, hard to be activated again unless the Five Elders Divinity Crystals were swiftly replaced.

But indeed, the burst of power reached the Martial Saint Level, even if it was just the Martial Saint First Realm...

It was still a Martial Saint!

You Liqing, at present, was only at the Top Three Flowers Realm, moreover, he had been severely wounded by the Xuan Qisha, the Master of Qianyuan Divine Sect and Xi Xi's teacher...

Chapter 738: Qimen Divine Seed 2 Explodes to the Ultimate Refinement, Such Excellence Deserves Entering the Underworld (3)

This is Li Che's best opportunity!

Li Che floated in the air, beneath the Bull Demon Mask, his pupils intertwined with faint Thunder Arcs.

Around him gathered the Dragon Elephant Sky Gang Ring; although there was only one Dragon Elephant Sky Gang, it endowed Li Che with a power comparable to the Supreme Grandmaster of the Top Three Flowers Realm.

The Three Flowers Returning to Yuan Gang Qi was immensely powerful.

But the Dragon Elephant Sky Gang could withstand it hard.

It gave Li Che quite a pleasant surprise.

Most importantly, the Dragon Elephant Sky Gang... could become even more terrifying as Li Che grew stronger!

His gaze swept across.

He looked at Long Tai, who was bloodied all over, and also bracing against the hurricane step by step.

He also saw the Green Bird, who had gathered all Essence, Qi, and Spirit into a single arrow against the reverse hurricane.

"True loyalty."

Li Che said softly.

The next moment, his gaze fell on the ground which suddenly caved in, exploding into a giant wave of mud in the deep pit.

The Vajra Ape smashed the ground to pieces, with soil and rocks undulating incessantly!

Suddenly.

Li Che's eyes narrowed.

But he saw, blood Qi of a horrifying level, like a breached river, violently surging out, roiling tumultuously!

Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang!!!

The ground exploded altogether!

As if a scorching golden sun had arisen, bursting forth with a grand blood Qi luminance!

And from the shattered ground, a boiling blood Qi surged like tumbling smoke!

A streak of blood light exploded, rapidly darting out from the earth.

You Liqing!

Half of You Liqing, whose body was smashed into pieces, at this moment, seemed to ignite, and within his spine, appeared two blood-colored vortexes, with two bizarre seeds within them, like porcelain filled with cracks ready to burst at any moment!

Li Che stood suspended in the air, his Lei-Ci Dao Body concentrated.

"Qimen Divine Seed among the Eight Extraordinary Meridians

"But at this moment, You Liqing has completely Burst Seed, burning the Divine Seed planted in one of the Eight Extraordinary Meridians

Now Li Che also began to explore Divine Seed Martial Arts, naturally having some understanding.

You Liqing...

Had actually cultivated two Divine Seed Martial Arts, even opened two of the human body's Eight Extraordinary Meridians, planting two seeds within.

Last time, facing Xuan Qisha's Locking God Talisman, You Liqing had only burst one seed.

But this time...

You Liqing apparently sees himself as certainly doomed, thus, he didn't hold back at all.

Directly detonated two Qimen Divine Seeds!

Obtaining a power surpassing human limits, he completely squeezed out the essence of his Great Bodily Elixir in his Dantian, almost entirely by You Liqing!

Crimson firelight continuously surged skyward.

You Liqing's entire appearance was now indiscernible, his eyes turned white, twirling under the ferocious assault of the blood Qi!

From afar.

Long Tai, covered in blood, and Green Bird, who had drained all blood Qi and fused it into one arrow, both were stunned.

At last, their eyes were filled with sorrow.

Both were Innate Great Grandmasters and had dealt with Divine Seed Martial Arts, naturally understanding...

What You Liqing's state signified at this moment.

Although he gained extraordinary power, it was exchanged with his life force.

"Bull Demon

You Liqing was surrounded by endless blood light.

He floated up, numerous shattered stones were washed by his powerful blood Qi force into floating debris which then shattered into dust.

His white-edged eyes stared at Li Che wearing the Bull Demon Mask.

Even Li Che, at this moment, felt a strong sense of threat.

At this moment, You Liqing seemed to have touched the threshold of Martial Saint.

"Great... Great General

Green Bird turned pale, her lips continuously trembling.

You Liqing turned his head, his white-edged eyes flashed with a complex look: "Flee."

"No!"

Green Bird bit her lip, vigorously shaking her head.

"I know what you're thinking

"You are grateful I saved you from the pile of corpses, but silly girl

"Have you never thought, why were you in the pile of corpses?"

You Liqing spoke indifferently.

Green Bird's body shook violently.

"That city, the slaughtering of the city was done by me, the killing was by me, annihilating your family was also me... You, merely caught my eye due to your talent."

"I raised you to grow up, just aiming to forge you into a true killing instrument."

You Liqing spoke with absolute indifference, every second after bursting the two seeds was precious.

Yet he still explained to Green Bird.

"So, I'm not worth your risking your life for."

"Scram."

You Liqing turned around, directly facing Li Che silently floating in the air.

Green Bird felt struck by lightning, impossible!

She sharply turned to look at Long Tai, who was drenched in blood, heavily gasping for air.

At this moment, caught under Green Bird's intense gaze, he somewhat guiltily turned his head away.

"It was the King

"Alright."

You Liqing coldly started, interrupting Long Tai.

"Both of you scram, a pair of wastes."

As You Liqing's words ended.

His gaze locked onto Li Che: "Netherworld Ox Demon... the General has underestimated you."

"No, the General underestimated your despicability and venomousness."

Attracting his attention with the mighty Ten Thousand Dragons Subjugating Gods, stirring up his competitive spirit, to clash fists with the Bull Demon.

Then, in the fist technique, hiding the Five Elders Divine Crystal Powder, the powder flying about, preventing his Embryonic Breathing Transformation's Divine Power from mobilizing...

Lastly, hiding a Mechanical Beast possessing Strength of Martial Saint First Realm from the Lower Five Elders for a sneak kill!

Indeed, sinister and vicious...

Such is the Bull Demon.

Based on the information from Su Huaili, the Bull Demon... has always been so.

It was him, You Liqing, who assumed things too simply.

If that's the case, a deathly price must be paid.

"Unfortunately, your strength is too weak, if you could reach the Top Three Flowers Realm, or even activate the Qimen Divine Seed, perhaps, our Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods could have a thoroughly exhilarating bout of fisticuffs."

Chapter 739: The Second Explosion of the Qimen Divine Seed Reaches its Ultimate Perfection, Such Excellence Belongs in the Underworld (4)

"Such a pity, such a pity

"Not quick enough."

You Liqing's flesh and blood begin to fall off his body, piece by piece.

Underneath the Bull Demon Mask, Li Che's eyes remain as still as an ancient well.

"To be able to kill you, that is quick enough."

The Bull Demon's voice is deep and hoarse.

What quickness is there to pursue?

He, the Bull Demon, is here to kill...

If he doesn't kill You Liqing, he will eventually be killed by You Liqing. In the choice between killing and being killed, Li Che chooses to kill.

Once upon a time, You Liqing descended like a Heavenly God outside Qianyuan Dao City, unleashing a terrifying murderous intent.

Li Che can never forget.

A clean fight...

Wait until I've killed you...

Then capturing your soul will suffice.

"Netherworld Ox Demon... so shameless."

You Liqing is stunned for a moment, then bursts into laughter.

His Shen Yuan Golden Elixir explodes with a bang, and the immense Divinity merges into his body.

Maintaining the vital spark of his Burst Seed state, and the extreme Martial Dao Will.

He feels the countdown of life.

He clearly feels life slipping away.

"So this is the realm of a Martial Saint

You Liqing raises his hand, feeling the state of this moment.

There's an unprecedented ease...

The next moment, he twists his body—

And instantly transforms into a blood-red whip, moving at extreme speed, creating a shockwave that expands in ripples, too fast to follow!

His five fingers clench into a fist, as if capturing all the endless rays of light!

Countless raging Qi-Blood turns into powerful Qi-Blood Divine Dragons rampaging wildly!

This punch!

Even Li Che's eyes involuntarily sharpen!

Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods!

Roar—!!!

Endless sounds of Dragon's Chants continuously explode!

Terrifying, extremely terrifying!

Li Che raises his hand, touches his brow, and the Star Plucking Pupil bursts forth with dazzling brilliance.

In an instant, he controls the Lower Five Elders Mechanism Beast and fiercely throws a punch!

You Liqing locks his target onto the Bull Demon; he wants to kill the Bull Demon!

To drag the Bull Demon down into Hell with him!

But!

This Lower Mechanism Beast of the Five Elders Rank is entirely under the control of the Bull Demon!

Boom—!!!

You Liqing's punch, at its ultimate pinnacle, collides with the terrifying and gigantic fist of the Vajra Ape!

Above the long sky, the substantial shockwave spreads out in concentric circles!

Countless shockwaves disperse in all directions!

Numerous fogs are torn apart!

At the same time.

Inside the West Camp, many Great Grandmasters of the Unity of Heaven and Man Realm finally sense something amiss, feeling the scorching Qi-Blood and terrifying Martial Dao Will between heaven and earth!

Realize something big has happened at the main camp!

Whiz whiz whiz whiz—

Sounds of breaking through the sky echo, and billows of Qi-Blood rise like beacon fires!

The entire Divine Guard Army Western Camp boils over in an instant!

...

...

The Green Bird feels like it's about to fall from the sky, distraught and soul-shattered.

It was You Liqing who devastated the city, You Liqing who killed...

It was also You Liqing who slaughtered her entire family...

That man who stirred her heart?

The Green Bird only feels numerous sharp blades piercing her already battered heart, and blood-colored tears continuously slide down her cheeks.

Why...

Why must it be so?!

With her mouth open, Green Bird feels greater sorrow than death, unable to utter any roar.

She looks at the man who exploded two Divine Seeds, burning his life.

She looks at the man of her dreams, You Liqing, who charges madly towards the terrifying and immense Mechanism Beast.

After the clash between Heaven and Human.

She closes her eyes and suddenly lets go of the Longbow in her hand.

Inside her spine.

A blood-colored Divine Seed, like a heart wrapped in green veins, beats violently.

It explodes with a bang!

Divine Seed, Blood Tears Divine Phoenix Life and Death Arrow!

In an instant, a blood-colored arrow, like a blood-colored Phoenix rising from the ashes in flame, flaps its wings, bringing endless terrifying lethality, shooting fiercely towards the Bull Demon!

Netherworld Ox Demon!

For killing my man...

Go to hell!

And after Green Bird fired her all-out arrow.

A streak of light rapidly pierces through her brow, the Blood Fire Divine Pattern Bodhi Dragon Tooth Bullet silently assassinate her.

That was an assassination from Horse Face, ruthless and cold.

It pierced through her brow.

Rent asunder the Shen Yuan Golden Elixir within her brow's Mud Pill.

Shattering her vitality!

Blood light exploded from the back of her head.

The Green Bird opened its eyes, but before her, all that was left was a blur of blood.

Thud—

The Green Bird fell to the ground, the Longbow sliding away into the distance.

Blood blurred her vision, just like that year, in the midst of the city that was massacred.

Everywhere was blood.

...

...

Boom—!!!

The Vajra Ape and You Liqing's terrifying punch collided!

Bang bang bang—

The Vajra Ape's arm, engraved with countless Mechanism Seals, exploded violently, the Spirit Wood shavings instantly seeming as if they were consumed by fire!

It was like a massive amount of thunderous fireballs detonating at once, the whole earth seemed to overturn like a waking dragon!

The ground under the Vajra Ape crumbled again and again!

Dust and sand shot up, rising to form curtains dozens of feet high!

And after delivering that punch, You Liqing saw the Vajra Ape's blasted arm and a smile crept at the corner of his lips.

Then his vitality, completely extinguished...

The hurricane, fell apart in pieces!

His body's Qi-Blood silenced!

His iron-hard flesh suddenly collapsed, all tendons and bones shattered...

Exploded into a cloud of blood mist.

The Vajra Ape's extremely fierce Fist Strength penetrated You Liqing's body, exploding a large mist and air currents from behind him!

You Liqing's lifeless body, like a cannonball, shot towards the ground.

Long Tai's long beard danced wildly, he roared and bellowed!

"Ah—!!!"

He sprinted violently for several steps, trying to catch You Liqing's corpse.

Even though he knew, the corpse of You Liqing at this moment was beyond his capacity to catch.

For it still contained the terrifying power of a Martial Saint Level.

But Long Tai still charged forward without looking back.

Thump—!!!

Long Tai knelt on the ground.

Both knees shattered, the ground exploded with countless spiderweb-like cracks.

Long Tai, with his back turned, propped up You Liqing's corpse.

He grinned and laughed.

"Told you long ago... to not protect that Dragon Maiden, didn't I? Yet you wouldn't listen

"And about the city's massacre, it was the Prince's order

"You saved so many people... and yet you were punished by the Prince, why didn't you speak of it?"

"Chasing a girl, you don't do it like this... you idiot."

"The Green Bird is nice, pretty and has long legs, just the breasts a bit small... but... where is she worse than that Dragon Maiden

"To die together

"It's fine

"Finally liberated."

Long Tai slowly lowered his head.

He swallowed his last breath.

...

You Liqing's bloodied and mangled corpse, propped by the kneeling Long Tai, stood upright amidst the dusty and chaotic ground.

Buzz—

Blood-colored light surged.

The wounded Vajra Ape transformed into the "Myriad Forms" seal, collected by Li Che.

Li Che floated over, landing in front of the deceased You Liqing.

Beneath the Bull Demon Mask, his eyes were deep and still.

He sensed the approaching figures from the Western Camp, one after another, raging close.

Strong Qi-Blood, and the overwhelming army formations turned Qi-Blood, distorted the void.

Had You Liqing truly commanded the army, even with the Vajra Ape in hand, Li Che wasn't sure he could kill You Liqing.

However, it must be said, You Liqing...

Was a real man.

Even in the final moments, detonating two Divine Seeds, achieving the ultimate vitality ascendancy, delivered a punch to his Five Elders Rank Vajra Ape, and smashed one of the Vajra Ape's arms!

Very domineering...

He was the strongest opponent he had encountered so far.

With intricate calculations, he finally conquered.

The victory was hard-earned.

And moreover, there seemed to be many stories on You Liqing...

He took You Liqing's Qiankun Jade, full of cracks.

Then Li Che quietly watched You Liqing.

So outstanding.

Earthly Hell's Evil should have a place for you.

His Five Fingers extended,

Pressing down upon You Liqing's head.

"Soul Capturing."

Chapter 740: Summoning a Heavenly Thunder to Transform the Physical Body, the Underworld's True Nature Turns Out to Be a Person

Crack, crack!

Boom!

Lead-heavy clouds are layered, lightning tears through the night, moving through the black clouds.

A sudden burst of heatwave, as if melting the snow, winter thunder brewed all night, finally could not be contained.

Like a floodgate opening, turning into droplets of rain, pelting down from the high sky.

The pouring rain, like a flood released!

Electric light intertwining, serpents tumbling!

West City, the continuous camp of the Divine Guard Army.

The place where the chief commander's camp was located has already become a ruin, a deep pit with a diameter of several dozen meters, like a blooming flower of death, adorning the ground.

The main tent of the commander had vanished, the hard-frozen soil layers were violently upturned, time and again.

Hot and scalding smoke, slowly rising from the ruins.

Li Che, wearing the Cute Bull Mask, his body robust, muscles stacked like blocks, merely lifting his hand feels like the muscles could explode.

Horizontal Refinement condensed to the extreme, every movement contains terrifying power inside.

With his fingers spread wide, under Li Che's mask, his eyes calm, serenely watching the lifeless body of You Liqing.

An Upper Three Flowers, at the Fetal Breath Transformation Realm, a top contender even in Qianyuan Dao City, belonging to the highest class of fighters.

If it weren't for the Five Elders' Mechanism Beast, the Blood God Nine Yang Vajra Ape, bestowed with six Wanxiang Divine Seals, relying on Li Che's own strength alone, no matter how tactically he planned, it would have been very difficult to kill You Liqing.

The power of Dragon Elephant Sky Gang is indeed very strong, but since Li Che has only just stepped into the Innate Great Grandmaster realm, he was barely able to counter the Guiyuan Gang Qi of the formidable You Liqing.

But, You Liqing's Guiyuan Gang Qi was immensely powerful; in a prolonged combat, Li Che would inevitably be at a disadvantage.

If You Liqing had not been seriously injured...

Li Che wouldn't have had a chance.

"But, in this world... there are no 'ifs'."

Li Che murmured softly.

Li Che believes, if the news of his own serious Bull Demon injury leaks out, along with his exposed position, You Liqing would certainly try to kill him immediately, taking his bull life!

Moreover, with You Liqing's immense strength, Li Che really could not feel at ease.

Therefore, killing You Liqing was imperative for Li Che.

If Li Che's identity as the Bull Demon was revealed, Li Che believes that even with the risk of offending the Qian Yuan Divine Sect, You Liqing would come to kill his entire family!

If Li Che wants to live a peaceful life in this world, he needs to actively eliminate all potential risks.

Like You Liqing, like the Dragon Queen Consort...

Especially the Dragon Queen Consort!

The murderous intent in Li Che's eyes grew even stronger, this Dragon Maiden who shouted about letting her daughter marry the deceased Ji Haihui in a ghost marriage... simply unforgivable!

Crazy woman!

I'll kill you sooner or later!

This time... consider yourself lucky!

If this time, You Liqing hadn't blocked the Divine Talisman for the Dragon Queen Consort, even if she possessed the Half-step Martial Saint Level strength, she would have suffered serious injuries!

And Li Che...

He enjoys others being seriously injured.

Like a shark sensing the smell of blood, he would immediately follow, finding the right moment, to kill!

Li Che never admits he is a good person.

When in Fei Lei City, hidden weapons, poison tempering, lime, Sudden Green Powder, and other vile things, he used whatever nasty means necessary, why should he care about a lowly name?

He, as a Bull Demon, is no hero!

Buzzing...

As the sound of breaking the sky continuously echoed, Li Che remained unhurried.

Bit by bit, a dense black fog seemed to spread out from the body of You Liqing, continuously leaking from his mouth, nose, eyes, and ears.

Thick as could be, like an extremely thick ink fog.

Slowly, it coalesced and outlined the form of You Liqing!

As if forcibly pulling back the deceased from the Netherworld!

The captured soul of You Liqing, slowly taking shape...

Eyes closed, floating in front of Li Che like a Yin God, gradually descending to the ground.

Then, You Liqing's closed eyes suddenly opened, as if two brilliant golden lamps burst forth with dazzling light!

Boom!

As if a group of thunders fell together, their rumbling sound resonating inside and outside the city walls!

Even though it's just a captured soul, one could still feel a fierce Qi-Blood like flowing gold, brilliant and dazzling!

Like the ocean waves roaring angrily!

The captured soul of You Liqing... in its prime state!

Unharmmed by the Divine Talisman, his Essence, Qi, and Spirit all reached a state of perfection!

At this moment, the injuries on You Liqing's body all faded away, the armor wrapped in a dim layer of golden light clanged loudly.

The pouring rain from the Heavenly Dome, before it could hit him, dissipated and vaporized into swirling mists.

Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon Mask, calmly watched You Liqing, who returned from death.

His black hair wildly tossing, his eyes fierce!

You Liqing stared at Li Che, staring fixedly; he seemed...to retain the memory from before his death, confused at first, but as memories permeated like ink, he understood what transpired.

A tremendous presence stirred in the ruins, whipping up fierce winds.

"I died."

"I'm alive again?"

You Liqing murmured.

He saw his own body, also saw the lifeless Long Tai supporting his body, his facial skin twitched, a trace of pain appearing on his face.

"I

You Liqing opened his mouth.

He looked toward Li Che, surprisingly without the struggle and resistance Li Che had imagined.
