

A Father 761

Chapter 761: Emperor Xi Xi is astonished by the Great God's talent, Dao Fruit suppresses the Three-point Double-edged Knife (5)

Li Che's physical body is too strong; without close perception, one wouldn't even notice the refinement of the Divine Weapon.

Is this what you call refinement?

This Divine Weapon is too perfunctory.

Li Che's brows furrowed slightly, his mind stirred a little.

Within the Heaven and Earth chessboard.

The face Equaling Heaven suddenly burst into brilliance, as if a Spiritual Ape leaped out, provoking the Three-pointed Two-bladed Knife.

However...

There was no response.

This is just like minced meat, not stimulated at all.

Not like the Purple Flame Serpent Spear in Xi Xi's arm, which ignites at the slightest touch like a prick.

Li Che's mind stirred again, his Sword Qi rampaged wildly, the Prison Lotus Yin God Sword's light surged like an ink dragon.

As if shouting, come on, come and fight!

However...

The Three-pointed Two-bladed Knife still did not move.

Li Che raised his eyebrows, truly disbelieving.

Raised his hand, pointing at his forehead.

Heaven and Earth Spirit Bright True Ape!

Mr. Monkey!

Provoke it for me!

Yell at it for me!

Roar!!!

The Spiritually Bright Real Ape roared ferociously, yet not a ripple emanated from the Three-pointed Two-bladed Knife, utterly like a thoroughly slacking salted fish.

Do you even deserve to be called a knife?!

Might as well call it the Salted Fish of Three-pointed Two-bladed!

It seems... it's time for a mighty move.

"Inhale

"Exhale

Li Che inhales and exhales; Qi-Blood surged wildly, his physical body swelled, muscles like stacked tubers, blood pushed like mercury, his spine's nine major muscles trembled, resonating like thunder in the human world!

Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit!

Boom!!!

A roaring sound, like a heavy drum beating harshly against the ground.

The accumulated snow in the entire courtyard instantly vaporized into countless wild streams of air, raging up to the sky of the courtyard, exploded by the locked Heaven and Earth Chessboard, like a cascading waterfall of heavy fragrance.

Ssssss—

Amid the rolling heat.

Li Che's left hand was like lava, as blood slowly flowed like fire.

His black hair crazily grew, falling to his waist like a fluttering cape, veins densely covering his arms, like Jiao Long roaring incessantly.

Li Che's eyes shone with a golden light, cold and ruthless.

His fingers clenched suddenly.

In an instant, the Three-pointed Two-bladed Knife hidden within his arm, under the impact of the Dao Fruit's aura...

Finally began to tremble!

A rich and pure Divinity burst forth from this unruly Divine Weapon...

Although not much, the torrential influx into Li Che's limbs formed a massive force of Body Refinement.

Even the sound of ringing hammers and chisels echoed from within the bones!

Faintly, countless Divinity spraying out from the Three-pointed Two-bladed Knife slowly began to gather into a blood-colored seed like a vortex!

Divine Seed Martial Arts!

Indeed...

Stimulation is needed, with stimulation, good things come!

If Li Che hadn't felt that wild surging power of body refinement, truly formidable, like countless Sword Qi slashing furiously.

Li Che even planned to arrange the remaining five Dao Fruits to go a round for this slacking Three-pointed Two-bladed Knife.

Feeling the terrifying, Divine Weapon-induced power of body refinement.

Li Che's black hair flying, his eyes brilliant, he raised his right hand, fingers clenched, air currents whirling wildly, the hot air waves expanding outward like a circle from his heart.

Now, fully activating the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit, his right hand as well, countless vein-like muscular ridges like Qiulong crawling across muscles hard as steel, the skin over the blood red like molten lava, mercury-like blood pushed and churned!

Li Che's eyes, dispersing golden smoke, staring at his right hand with intensely calm thoughts.

"I always feel something is missing in the right hand

After pondering for a moment.

A low chuckle from Li Che echoed in the courtyard stirred by air currents.

"It's missing a stick."

Chapter 762: Xi Xi and the Big Black Dog Meet Again, Who Took Away You Liqing's Three Souls and Seven Spirits

Weng weng weng

Powerful currents whirled wildly, like crazed ribbons lashing the air, emitting thudding explosions.

Li Che's body swelled massively with each circle, his substantial muscles piling up like sections of logs, his skin seeming translucent, the blood surging through his flesh like mercury, causing the temperature in the entire courtyard to rapidly escalate.

His robust black hair fluttered about, and as his eyes opened and closed, golden smoke steadily diffused from the depths of his pupils.

This was Li Che's state after fully stimulating the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit.

His stature grew tall and large, reaching two and a half meters, like a small giant, his entire body enveloped in blood-colored smoke, his flesh luminous like glazed porcelain, sinews like gold, his eyes emitting golden smoke swirling like fragrant agarwood.

In his left arm, the clang of metal resonated unceasingly, as if an unparalleled divine weapon, a three-point double-edged knife, was vibrating, as if striving to burst from its sheath and unleash a blazing sword light!

A dazzling sharpness brewed within Li Che's left hand.

Li Che's eyes were bright. Using the Dao Fruit to stimulate this mythical weapon, the three-point double-edged knife... was quite an ingenious idea, and now it seemed, quite effective.

This seemingly unsophisticated three-point double-edged knife remained unresponsive when stimulated by other mythical weapons.

Even the Equal to Heaven's Face, a mythical weapon from Qi Tian City, failed to evoke a reaction from the three-point double-edged knife, leading Li Che to speculate that it was perhaps due to the incompleteness of Equal to Heaven's Face—merely one-third of it.

If all three pieces of Equal to Heaven's Face were assembled, the three-point double-edged knife would certainly not remain inactive.

Hence, Li Che decided to use the Dao Fruit for stimulation.

The Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit, a pinnacle of unparalleled horizontal refinement, pushed his own strength to the extreme to stimulate the mythical weapon!

Weng weng weng

The sound of metal was like thunder exploding.

An utterly pure divinity surged into his limbs and bones, like an electrical current stimulating him, the power of a divine weapon tempering his physique.

However, now Li Che's physical robustness was no longer what it once was.

Not only because of the two transformative leaps brought on by the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit, but also from the nourishment received from becoming a Spiritually Bright Real Ape Divine Minister.

That time, his physique also gained great tempering and improvement!

To bring enhancements to Li Che's body now, ordinary energy would not suffice!

Feeling the divine power of the divine weapon dispersing within his limbs and bones, Li Che's fingers suddenly splayed vehemently, his blood stimulated within, a heatwave churning and roasting the drifting snow above the courtyard.

As if within his body, countless blades concealed within the muscle crevices erupted in an instant!

The tempered to the extreme body was, at that moment, feeling a degree of pain!

Li Che's eyes shone intensely, his body breaking into dense, scorching sweat.

It was as if, in an instant, an unparalleled swordsman enveloped and cut him with full-force sword light, each strand of light like the radiant flow of the sun, filled with fervor and lashings!

The flesh throughout his body made a crackling sound, the skin acting like a drumhead fluctuating continuously. It was the impact of the blade light from the double-edged sword which caused the skin to quiver and twitch like a hidden dragon.

Each tendon resisted the blade's chopping with incredible deformation!

The brow Niwan split, flesh tearing open!

The Star Plucking Pupils in his eyes suddenly blazed like the blazing sun, its brilliant glow dazzlingly shining!

Li Che seemed to see inside himself, within his flesh, a battlefield emerged, where every inch of tissue had Qi and Blood colliding against the sword energy, divinity resisting!

Sinews, bones, marrow, blood, internal organs, skin—every part of the body was undergoing an astonishing transformation!

Li Che would naturally not waste this prime opportunity.

Each transformation of the body was an extremely rare chance!

At this moment, the foundation of a martial artist was being solidified!

With his five fingers clenched, a roar of the Thunder Dragon echoed throughout the courtyard as the Eight Treasure Mysterious Gold Thunder Dragon Stick fell into Li Che's hand, the Qi-Blood Rosy Clouds steaming up and enveloping the divine weapon, elevating the divine weapon's grade.

The vault of the sky bounced, the accumulated snow evaporating!

Li Che's Five Martial Saint Techniques, the self-created Myriad Transformations Dragon Elephant, had already reached the Transformation Realm, and even after obtaining Divine Seed Martial Arts, it even tended toward evolving into Divine Seed Martial Arts.

Another Martial Saint Ultimate Study that had reached the Transformation Realm was the Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods.

As for the remaining Primordial Equal to Heaven Staff, Lone Mountain Walk Blade and Lingxu Baqi Step, Li Che had only cultivated these three Martial Saint Ultimate Studies to complete the Master Realm.

There was still some gap from the Transformation Realm.

Once a martial art is cultivated to the Transformation Realm, it can be integrated into every action, even forming an Absolute Skill True Intent Domain, within which one's power is greatly enhanced, and the lethality becomes even more terrifying!

Li Che, gripping the Thunder Dragon Treasure Stick, with electric currents interweaving and twitching, burst into countless splendid webs of electricity as he moved!

Whoosh whoosh whoosh

The staff whipped through the air, countless shadowy figures shattering and bursting across the courtyard as Li Che, gripping the Treasure Stick, tempered his physique with the divine power from within and practiced his martial arts.

As he tempered and practiced, the divine power of the mythical weapon depleted rapidly.

Mix Yuan One Stick!

Heavenly Equal Kill!

Li Che repeatedly practiced the killing moves of the two Chaos Heaven-Matching Staff techniques.

Every inch of muscle vibrated, the sinews, bones, and flesh undergoing intense refinement, as if they had suddenly undergone drastic changes at that moment!

Entering into a critical moment!

The flesh propelled, blood roared like mercury, sinews tensed as if divine bows within the myths were forcibly drawn apart, the bursting sound setting off rippling waves!

Chapter 763: Xi Xi and the Big Black Dog Meet Again, Who Took Away You Liqing's Three Souls and Seven Spirits (2)

Divine Gang whirls wildly; Innate True Gang surges forth, lashing out at the void!

Hum!!!

In an instant, Li Che stands still, holding the Eight Treasure Mysterious Gold Thunder Dragon Stick with one hand, undergoing a transformation as if one with his surroundings, perceiving every minute change within dozens of feet.

As if with a mere thought, the staff in his hand can strike anywhere unobstructed, tyrannical and unparalleled!

This means that Li Che has cultivated the extremely difficult Martial Saint Ultimate Study of the Chaos Heaven-Matching Staff to the Transformation Realm, giving birth to the True Intent Domain, evoking a sense of unparalleled sovereignty within.

Martial Saint Ultimate Study, suited for those in the Great Master Realm—even for the Innate Great Grandmaster, united with the Unity of Heaven and Man or the Supreme Grandmaster with Three Flowers Upon The Crown—is but a power level transformation, whereas in terms of technique, the gap isn't too great.

Take You Liqing, for example, even as a Great Grandmaster in the Three Flowers Upon The Crown Realm, his main tactic in battle is still the Martial Saint Ultimate Study of Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods.

Divine Seed Martial Arts are indeed potent, but once invoked, they drain not only Gang Qi but also strenuously consume Essence, Qi, and Spirit, being an ace in the hole.

Only after stepping into the realm of Martial Saint, when Essence, Qi, and Spirit form a perfect cycle, when one's physical body is passable and connected with Heaven and Earth unhindered, able to use the power of Heaven and Earth for oneself, can one unreservedly unleash Divine Seed Martial Arts.

That's why top-tier Grandmasters like You Liqing fall, succumbing to death due to overstimulation of Divine Seed, leading to an overload.

"The third Martial Saint Ultimate Study has reached the Transformation Realm!"

Li Che's eyes sparkle brilliantly; once a Martial Art reaches the Transformation Realm, wielding it in battle becomes second nature. This means that Li Che can bring more Martial Arts variations into battle, naturally enhancing his overall strength.

"Besides, there's also that Lone Mountain Walk Blade

Li Che closes his eyes and in a moment feels as if all of Heaven and Earth have fallen silent, as if treading across the vast universe, walking amidst the howling winds and snow.

In the blink of an eye, at the moment his eyes open.

From within his left arm, muscles and bones harmonize, bursting forth with brilliant and resplendent sword light!

Like thunder exploding in the void, the air roars, and sword energy runs rampant!

It is the power of the Righteous Thunder Evil Extermination Three-pointed Two-blade Sword hidden within his arm, the vortex-like blood-colored Divine Seed within the Qi Gate of his spine, seems to be stimulated by the Sword Technique at this very moment!

Suddenly, the sky above the entire courtyard seems to darken.

Li Che takes a fierce step forward; with just that one step, it as if he has traversed thousands of mountains and rivers, shrinking the world beneath his feet!

Then, his five fingers come together like a blade.

Stepping forward!

Swinging the arm!

Twisting the waist!

Drawing the blade!

Like slicing open the wind and snow, a subtle sword cry erupts instantly, creating a resonant sound!

Countless streams of air, snowflakes, Gang Qi, Divinity...

All seem to be cleaved apart by this single blade!

Clang, clang, clang, clang!

A resplendent sword chant as if a silver moon explodes in Li Che's left hand!

The terrifying sword light rages and whirls, as if breaking through a cage, its chilling Sword Energy splitting the air within the small courtyard, rolling as if a dragon turning over!

On Li Che's left arm, faintly, there seems to be the phantom of a Three-pointed Two-blade Knife.

As if hidden, yet visible!

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh, whoosh

"Lone Mountain Walk Blade, also reached the Transformation Realm! Melding with the Two-blade Sword God Seed!"

Li Che's jet-black hair whips wildly, while the lingering Golden Smoke in his pupils remains concentrated and unyielding.

At this moment, the last trace of Divinity squeezed from within his Mythical Weapon is completely consumed, tempering his body.

Assisting two Martial Saint Ultimate Studies to reach the Transformation Realm!

With a flick of the fingers, the airflow is slashed apart, the invisible Sword Intent rolling out as if forming a unique and tyrannically sharp domain around him!

Hum hum

The cyan Innate True Gang coiling around the Great Bodily Elixir in his Dantian billows out from his body like a Jiao Mang.

After Divine Gang comes True Gang; in terms of grade and strength, True Gang is superior to Divine Gang.

Above True Gang is the Three Flowers Gang Qi condensed by the Supreme Grandmaster, a formidable power that blends the Essence Qi and Spirit of Martial Path.

"Ten... Innate True Gang has reached ten strands."

Li Che exhales a turbid breath, shooting out like a swift arrow.

His gaze flickers.

[Dao Fruit: Dragon Elephant Vajra (lv5, 10%)]

"An unexpected gain."

Li Che raises an eyebrow; after advancing the Dao Fruit to level 5, further maturation becomes exceedingly challenging.

Even the battle with You Liqing only slightly increased the maturity of the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit.

Now, stimulating the Divine Weapon Divinity within the Three-point double-edged knife to refine the body has remarkably increased the maturity by a full 4%.

Of course, Li Che is also aware that one reason is the elevation of the two Martial Saint Ultimate Studies to the Transformation Realm, even making up a significant portion of the increase.

As expected, a brief sensing reveals that the enigmatic feeling from Instant Enlightenment Feedback isn't strong.

Breaking one's own Martial Arts realm and gaining Dao Fruit maturity does not reciprocate the enigma of Instant Enlightenment.

He feels it's a bit of a pity.

However, Li Che is content in his heart.

Feeling the Three-pointed Two-blade Knife entering a tranquil state as if in a sage's time, Li Che suppresses the impulse to stimulate the Two-blade Knife with other queued Dao Fruits.

He isn't in a hurry to continue the stimulation as he hasn't fully integrated today's refinements yet.

But squeezing the Divinity out of the Divine Weapon to refine his body has indeed opened a new door to the world for Li Che, providing a clear direction for his future advancement in Martial Path.

Raising his hand, he looks at his left arm gleaming with a lucent glaze.

"I wonder... when I can summon this Divine Weapon to grasp it firmly in my hands."

Chapter 764: Xi Xi and the Big Black Dog Meet Again, Who Took Away You Liqing's Three Souls and Seven Spirits (3)

Li Che couldn't help but yearn in his heart.

That was a Supreme Grade of the Four Imperial Classes' Divine Weapon, its might extremely formidable, truly extraordinary.

Li Che reined in the power of the Dao Fruit, his Qi-Blood settled down, and he returned to being slender and unadorned.

Sitting quietly under the eaves, the wind and snow roared down, piling up on the black-tiled roof, slowly accumulating.

The charcoal stove heated water, and the emerald green tea leaves rolled continuously in the pot.

Li Che's eyelids drooped, sinking into reflection and contemplation.

"In terms of the Martial Path, my progress has been colossal, accumulating six Divine Seed Martial Arts, even the 'Blood Crocodile Sky Splitting Palm' was gathered completely from You Liqing's collection."

"However, the human body's Eight Extraordinary Meridians require eight Divine Seeds to be planted... I'm still missing two."

"The Three-pointed Two-bladed Knife, a Mythical Weapon, provided one Divine Seed, merging with the 'Lone Mountain Walk Blade,' a Martial Saint Ultimate Study, turning it into a Divine Seed Martial Art. However, it's still in the process of condensing and has yet to take shape

"No rush, I will first refine the six obtained Divine Seed Martial Arts into Divine Seeds and plant them into the Qi Gate."

After obtaining the Divine Seeds, the speed of cultivating Innate True Gang will greatly increase.

If truly eight Divine Seeds were condensing Innate True Gang at the same time, it wouldn't take long for Li Che to amass a full one hundred and eight paths of Innate True Gang.

"My path in the Martial Dao is clear, but in terms of Divinity, my current Divine Cultivation is still only at the Divine Phase Realm

"While I have the Divine Likeness of the Spiritual Monkey Divine Appearance, a Three Pure Ranks appearance that allows me to ignore most Divine Majesties

"Ultimately, my Divine Cultivation is still too low."

"Seven Emotions and Six Desires... Seven Emotions to condense Divine Likeness, Six Desires all cast a Divine Foundation, yet lack the Divine Likeness

Li Che's eyes narrowed, cultivating the Six Desires God Phase was no simple matter.

"If there was a Divine Phase that could directly gather the Six Desires, that would be good."

Upon this thought, Li Che's eyes suddenly brightened.

"It seems... not non-existent

"Qianyuan Dao City has three Mysterious Temples of Five Elders Rank, one at Divine Sect, one at Divine Carving Ridge, and one at the Temple Control Bureau!"

"The Mysterious Temple managed by the Temple Control Bureau, seems to be called 'Six Desires Evil Extermination Lu Xuan Sword Immortal' Mysterious Temple

"It's one of the few Mysterious Temples that integrates the Six Desires... perhaps

Li Che began to reckon in his heart.

"Perhaps, I could try to take a trip and see if I can condense the Six Desires God Phase all at once."

This thought grew, and it could not be swept away anymore.

"Mainly because, the Six Desires Divinity Method obtained from the evil people of the Corpse God Cult, to condense the Divine Phase, all that would condense is the Corpse God Divine Image

"This is not suitable for me."

"Therefore, this 'Six Desires Evil Extermination Lu Xuan Sword Immortal' Mysterious Temple might help me break through."

Li Che nodded slightly.

"However, breaking through is one thing, but if I want to condense a Shen Yuan Golden Elixir, I'll need to amass the required amount of Divinity for each of the Seven Emotions God Phase."

"My Divine Path talent is ultimately mediocre, but fortunately with the help of the 'Fairy in the Painting' avatars, I can barely keep up."

"Looking forward to completing the accumulation of Divinity this year

Li Che shook his head.

With a flick of his finger, a ray of light burst out.

The next moment, it turned into a Vajra Ape that had undergone a transformation and been promoted to a Lower Mechanism Beast of the Five Elders with the aid of Qi and Blood Rosy Clouds.

If it were not for this Vajra Ape, facing Yu Liqing who was ferocious and fearless in directly exploding two Divine Seeds would indeed be somewhat strained.

"The arm was damaged mainly because the materials were not good enough... The Vajra Ape, after all, was originally a Six Department Upper Mechanism Beast, and was upgraded to a Five Elders Lower-ranking with the properties of Qi and Blood Rosy Clouds

"But in terms of the strength of materials, it's not as good as a true Five Elders Lower Mechanism Beast

"Just right, now that I've become an Elder of Divine Eagle Ridge, I have the privilege to search for higher rank Spiritual Wood."

Li Che began to smile, spread out the scroll, and one by one, avatars of Li Che, the 'Fairy in the Painting,' emerged diligently from the scroll, surrounding the Vajra Ape and getting to work.

Li Che took out a Five Elders Divinity Crystal and absorbed it for a while.

Then he got up and walked into the study room, beginning to depict the Locking God Talisman that he had stealthily learned from the Divine Talisman Tower of the Sect Master's Wife.

"After all, the Locking God Talisman is a Five Elders rank Divine Talisman. Although there's no more detailed rank distinction, the difficulty of drawing it is still not small."

"If divided by the title of Divine Sculpture Master

"A Divine Sculpture Master capable of producing a middle and upper Five Elders' Divine Sculpture is called a Divine Sculpture Half-Saint, and one who carves out a Divine Sculpture with the charm of Four Imperials... is known as a Divine Sculpture Saint Hand! That's a rarity akin to Martial Saint and Divine Fetus, the pinnacle for a technical flow cultivator!"

"The same applies to the Divine Talisman."

"One who can draw a Four Imperials Level Divine Talisman is called a Divine Talisman Saint

Li Che exhaled slowly.

The robes swirled as he rolled up his sleeves, grasped the Wolf Brush, and dipped it in thick ink, painting the symbolic routes of the Locking God Talisman on fine paper.

Outside the house, snow silently fluttered down.

Inside the house, the brush in hand.

Humming, humming, humming—

[Fairy in the Painting (lv3, 90%)]

In the chest.

The Dao Fruit of the Fairy in the Painting vibrated, obtaining enhancement methodically.

...

...

Time, like sand slipping through fingers, unknowingly five days had stealthily passed through the crevices.

Li Che gradually adapted to his identity as the Divine Eagle Ridge Elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect.

His daily life became orderly, even following a routine.

Early in the morning, Grandmaster Li Che would rise early, sit cross-legged under the eaves, and siphon the clear Divinity between Heaven and Earth.

Within the Divine Sect Mountain Gate, Divinity was extremely rich, and Li Che, beside siphoning Divinity from the Divinity Crystals, would also draw from the environment.

It is also a process for one's own Martial Dao Will to sense Heaven and Earth.

A Great Martial Arts Master who has achieved Unity of Heaven and Man needs to constantly sense Heaven and Earth. When they sense the Power of Heaven and Earth, the Martial Dao Will becomes more condensed, and even flourishing with the blossom of the Martial Spirit, that's the time to strive towards the Three Flowers Atop.

Chapter 765: Xi Xi and the Big Black Dog Meet Again, Who Took Away You Liqing's Three Souls and Seven Spirits (4)

So, Li Che would take advantage of the moment when dawn's light made the world clear and bright, to sense the universe and awaken his spirit.

After getting up, he would go to the boss's restaurant to pack breakfast, preparing it for Xi Xi and Zhang Ya.

After breakfast, Li Che would take Xi Xi with him, have Nie Yang drive, and head to the Divine Talisman Tower with Xi Xi and Li Chengzhou.

After delivering Xi Xi into the hands of the Sect Master's wife at the Divine Talisman Tower, Li Chengzhou would stay there.

Nie Yang would then drive Li Che, galloping out of Qianyuan Dao City towards Divine Carving Ridge.

Within Divine Carving Ridge, Li Che had obtained his own workshop.

It was a massively large elder's residence prepared for Li Che by Gongshu Jingjun.

The land on Divine Carving Ridge was not valuable, and the elder's residence was exceedingly vast, occupying over ten acres.

Li Che would then start working at the Divine Eagle Ridge Elder Court, carving Divine Sculptures, and perfecting his skills.

Although he had perceived some Semi-Saint charm from the Two-Mind Great Saint Divine Sculpture gifted by Elder Sun, there was still a big gap before he could truly step into the realm of Divine Sculpture Half-Saint using this charm.

Even with the help of Immortal Craft Dao Fruit, he still needed time to accumulate.

The hallmark of a Divine Sculpture Half-Saint is to carve a statue of a Temple God at the middle rank of the Five Elders!

To achieve this level, one must meet the standards in Martial Path, Divine Cultivation, and Divine Sculpture Skill, where lacking in any one aspect is unacceptable.

After finishing work, Li Che would return home with Nie Yang.

The handsome Flood Dragon Horse pulled the luxurious carriage, dashing along the official road, breaking through the snow and howling as it sped.

The journey was quite stable, just as Li Che said, in his life he's been kind to others, just a diligent, honest and down-to-earth Divine Sculpture Master.

Who would think of killing him?

However, Nie Yang didn't dare to relax, mainly because he was worried about the Corpse God Cult.

After all, the Corpse God Cult was crazed and ruthless, even daring to kill the Divine Sculpture Master of the Su Family!

The night was hazy, and the wind and snow whined.

Li Che, holding Xi Xi, arrived at the restaurant deep in Thunder Alley through the Thunder Chess Piece.

Having promised the boss to bring Xi Xi along, Li Che naturally would not go back on his word.

Now, he was finally bringing Xi Xi to the restaurant.

As if knowing that Xi Xi would come, the bluestone ground of Thunder Alley, covered with thick snow, was swept very clean, with the snow melting away, dry and refreshing.

The Big Black Dog was not lying at the door of the shop as in the past, but held its head high, its dark eyes rolling, looking forward expectantly into the dark alley.

When it saw Li Che holding Xi Xi coming, a brilliant radiance burst out from the dog's eyes.

It excitedly bounced around, then sprinted towards Xi Xi beside Li Che...

"Gou!"

Xi Xi wriggled out from Li Che's arms, stepping on the clean ground, pitter-pattering her small, short legs!

"Daddy, it's Gou!"

On Xi Xi's tiny face, there was a flush of excitement!

Xi Xi and the Big Black Dog collided into a hug, then she deftly climbed onto the dog's back, frolicking together with the Big Black Dog.

In the hazy night, the sounds of Xi Xi and Gou playing echoed through Thunder Alley like the tinkling of silver bells.

Before the restaurant.

The boss, dressed in white, was smoking a cigarette. Seeing Xi Xi arrive, he immediately pinched out the smoke and waved away the scent.

Even his usually stern face couldn't help but reveal a rare, lively smile.

"Come in, it's cold outside."

"Get ready for dinner."

The boss's voice softened by several degrees.

Li Che stretched languidly, "I didn't break my promise, did I? I brought Xi Xi for some good food. Got any fine wine to serve?"

The warmth on the boss's face withdrew as he said indifferently, "It's been half a month since you last said you'd bring Xi Xi to the restaurant."

Li Che looked slightly awkward, “Xi Xi’s been busy.”

The boss curled his lip.

Then, his gaze shifted, landing on Li Che’s left forearm just for a moment before emotionlessly moving away.

...

...

Whoosh whoosh whoosh—

In Qianyuan Taoist City, a dark and deep alley.

The night wind was icy cold, freezing everything in its path.

A figure in a flapping black robe braved the cold wind, pushing through the snow, moving slowly.

The hooded black cloak completely concealed their form.

Standing in the dark, secluded alley for an unknown amount of time, the already dark ground turned even darker, as though rich Death Qi and Corpse Qi were rolling in like dense, fragrant smoke.

The smoke transformed, eventually taking on a pitch-black jade hue.

Gradually, it outlined three shadowy figures, wrapped in black robes, standing deep within the alley.

The hooded figure in the black cloak watched those three figures with eyes of azure blue that held a tinge of madness.

"Curse Jade Corpse?"

"Three Upper Curse Jade Corpses?"

A cold and somewhat crazed voice came from the stunningly delicate face revealed after the hood was lifted.

"Why not dispatch a Demigod Corpse?"

Removing the hood to reveal two sharp horns, jet-black hair swirling wildly like a waterfall, her radiant skin emitted strong, vigorous Qi-Blood energy.

"Princess Consort, please calm your anger

"It's not that the Five Elders' Corpse God Envoy is unwilling to come... but... Dao City is too dangerous, with reports that the Sect Master of the Divine Sect has concluded his seclusion. At such a critical time, the Five Elders' Corpse God Envoy does not dare to step into Dao City lightly, unless he can achieve a decisive kill. So... please understand, Princess Consort."

A Curse Jade Corpse's voice was hoarse and deep.

For the Corpse God Cult, a Demigod Corpse was a loss they couldn't afford.

"The Princess Consort wants to eliminate the Underworld, and our Corpse God Cult shares this intention. We are eager to cooperate as the Underworld acts viciously, targeting our cultivators and slandering our cult... truly despicable and venomous

Chapter 766: Xi Xi and the Big Black Dog Meet Again, Who Took Away You Liqing's Three Souls and Seven Spirits (5)

Ao Yuxin's deep blue eyes reflected a ruthless light: "This palace only wishes to eradicate the Underworld, wanting everyone in the Underworld to die. You of the Corpse God Cult... wouldn't you be even more vile and despicable?"

Three Curse Jade Corpse Envoy:

They felt somewhat unfamiliar with these remarks; it was the first time the Corpse God Cult had been accused of not being vile and despicable enough, which left them at a loss for words.

"The Underworld is not weak, capable even of killing You Liqing... tsk tsk tsk, General You was a Three Flowers Gathering at the Top, Taoist breathing Grandmaster, and yet he met his end at the hands of the Underworld. What a pity for that perfect body."

Boom!!!

As the words fell, a surging stream of Qi-Blood transformed into a dragon-shaped whip that fiercely lashed out, instantly illuminating the entire alley!

"Say that again, I dare you?!" Murder was written all over Ao Yuxin's eyes.

"Princess Consort, please calm your anger. We are simply accustomed to it. Upon seeing a fine corpse, we can't help ourselves

The alley's surroundings had already been set up with a Formation, ensuring no breath could escape.

Ao Yuxin's stunningly beautiful face was filled with the silent coldness of despair.

"Corpse God Cult... I've heard that your Corpse God Arts can forcibly gather the Three Souls and Seven Spirits, gathering a trace of one's pre-mortem wisdom. If You Liqing's body were to be refined into a Cursed Corpse, could you restore some of his spirit?"

Ao Yuxin inquired.

Hmm?

Even the three Curse Jade Corpse Envoys of the Corpse God Cult were taken aback.

What the heck!

This Princess Consort... is she serious?!

With a mere wave of her bare hand, the mangled, unrecognizable corpse of You Liqing was suddenly brought to light.

"I just want him to live, even if... he is no longer himself

Pain was evident in Ao Yuxin's eyes.

"Princess Consort... how ruthless."

"Chaos King is confronting our Corpse God Cult followers in Jizhou, while you, Princess Consort, are doing such things in Qianyuan Daoist City

"If Chaos King learns of this

"Hee hee hee

"Let us try."

One of the Curse Jade Corpse experts stepped forward and instantly appeared before You Liqing's body, his eyes blazing with passion.

The body of You Liqing...

A Three Flowers at the Top Supreme Grandmaster!

Through his eyes, it was a top-notch work of art!

The next moment, his finger resembling black jade vibrated, and dense Death Qi and Corpse Qi rolled out. A Corpse Curse Mark emitting a twisted power immediately emerged.

The black jade finger finished Sealing and violently pressed the mark out.

Landing it upon the Brow Niwan of You Liqing's body.

However.

This Corpse God Cult practitioner, comparable to a Top Three Flowers Grandmaster, had a slight change in his eyes.

...

...

Qian Yuan Divine Sect.

Disciple City.

Elder Court.

Inside a study, the candlelight flickered.

Li Che sat upright in the study, pinching a plain piece of Wood Carving, devoid of any Divinity, just like the ordinary wood used for carving at Xu Family Wood Carving Shop in Fei Lei City.

A simple engraving knife was grasped by his five fingers, moving agilely.

With his left hand holding the knife as if divinely assisted, Li Che found his carving skills increasingly exquisite.

Could it be related to the three-pointed two-bladed knife contained within his left arm?

Shasha shasha

The delicate sound of the blade tearing through the raw wood echoed faintly, like the hum of a mosquito.

And upon the statues carved from ordinary wood, there was an uncanny charm as if they had come to life.

Divinity from all around uncontrollably converged into this ordinary piece of wood, transforming the quality of the material.

It was as if turning the mundane into the divine!

Just as Li Che's mind and spirit were immersed in comprehending the essence of the Divine Sculpture Half-Saint,

Li Che furrowed his brows.

"Seeking death."

The Heaven and Earth chessboard vibrated.

Li Che flicked his finger.

The Confining God Chess Piece transformed by You Liqing shot out, the dark light flashing as it turned into a tall figure with golden Armor edged in black.

As soon as You Liqing appeared, his Armor clanked, and he forcefully clasped his fists.

"Lord."

"Do you feel it?"

"I do, someone is attempting to capture and imprison my Three Souls and Seven Spirits, and then... take control of me."

"It must be the doing of the Corpse God Cult

"But how did the Corpse God Cult obtain your corpse?"

Li Che's eyes twinkled.

"Never mind, no need to concern ourselves with that for now."

"You are now my Confining God, and I will naturally avenge you."

"To confine your Three Souls and Seven Spirits, such methods are indeed despicable and malicious

"The Lord will help you."

Li Che gave a slight smile.

You Liqing respectfully clasped his fists: "Thank you, Lord."

Li Che flicked his finger again.

In an instant.

The Confining God of You Liqing merged with the Corpse God Seal.

...

...

In the pitch-black alleyway,

The Curse Jade Corpse who unleashed the Six Department Upper Rank Corpse Curse Seal was enveloped in a steam of Death Qi, rolling Corpse Qi, and its powerful Divine Sense continuously spread out, causing ripples to emanate through the air.

Yet it was utterly unable to locate the Three Souls and Seven Spirits within You Liqing's corpse.

This instantly filled the previously enthusiastic Curse Jade Corpse with immense disappointment.

"This... this

The Curse Jade Corpse couldn't comprehend, feeling extremely regretful in its heart.

After a person dies, the Three Souls and Seven Spirits will shatter and scatter, integrating into the limbs and flesh, and with the dissolution of the body, merge into heaven and earth.

In any corpse, the deceased's Three Souls and Seven Spirits exist.

Unless...

Unless they were extracted in advance!

Its eyes suddenly narrowed, and cold sweat began to stream down unceasingly.

A sense of pressure as imposing as a mountain, leaving it without the strength to even move a finger, instantly descended upon its entire body.

Upon its dark jade-like body, flower-like Cursed Seals bloomed open.

One could see.

You Liqing's bloodied and indistinct corpse, with closed eyes, suddenly opened them.

Within its pupils,

The Corpse God Seal spun ceaselessly!

Chapter 767: The Underworld Starts to Create the Corpse God, Two Dao Fruits Shedding Divine Power
Bai Yujing

Hum, hum, hum, hum!

The Corpse God Seal began to emerge from the blurred, bloodied corpse of You Liqing, and his pallid pupils with two dark Corpse God Seals expanded, radiating an immense and terrifying oppressive force!

The Curse Jade Corpse who was a Divine Envoy and stood extremely close to You Liqing's corpse could only feel an irresistible coldness enveloping his heart.

"Corpse God?!"

Horror and terror spread from the depths of his eyes!

Within the Corpse God Cult, the hierarchy among cultivators is extremely strict.

A difference of just one rank can create an insurmountable chasm as vast as heaven and earth, a kind of absolute suppression!

For example, a Curse Jade Corpse can exert total suppression over a Cursed Golden Corpse, to the point where the latter cannot even resist.

And the domination of a Cursed Golden Corpse over a Cursed Silver Corpse is similarly absolute; if a Cursed Golden Corpse wishes to kill a Cursed Silver Corpse, the latter wouldn't even have the strength to flee.

All of this is because of the Corpse Curse Mark!

It is a mysterious seal that binds one's Three Souls and Seven Spirits, tethering one's very soul; once the seal is imprinted, it's like being branded with an indelible class distinction.

Unless one can cross ranks through cultivation, there will always be a higher existence oppressing you.

Exerting an unparalleled oppressive force.

At this moment, this is exactly the situation of the Curse Jade Corpse; even with the cultivation of a Curse Jade Corpse, even though the might emanating from You Liqing's corpse at this moment is merely that of a Divine Envoy of a middle position within the Six Bureaus.

Yet, the feeling of oppression was to an extremely horrific degree.

Because the rotation within You Liqing's pupils at this moment, was the Corpse God Seal!

Within that Corpse God Seal...

This Curse Jade Corpse also sensed an irresistible, extremely majestic Corpse God Will!

The terrifying oppressive force made this Curse Jade Corpse, no, even the two distant Curse Jade Corpses, break out in cold sweat, feeling immense pressure!

Even though at this moment, the three Curse Jade Corpses are comparable to three Supreme Grandmasters at the Top Three Flowers Level, they didn't even dare to muster the courage to release Death Qi or Corpse Qi.

Thump, thump, thump—

The three Curse Jade Corpses knelt on the ground, shattering the greenstone floor of the dark alley with their prostration!

Web-like cracks instantly expanded from the impact!

The Dragon Queen Consort's black robe fluttered, her dark green hair wildly dancing over her stunning face, and her eyes were somewhat lost as she looked at You Liqing with the Corpse God Seal in his eyes, her heart trembling incessantly as if struck by a heavy hammer!

But in the next moment, a limitless frenzy emerged in her eyes!

"Ah—!!!"

You Liqing's Three Souls and Seven Spirits... have they been devoured?!

Devoured by the Corpse God?!

Doesn't this mean You Liqing is thoroughly dead? Completely vanished from this world?!

His soul scattered to the winds!

This world... still has Ao Yuxin.

But You Liqing exists no more!

Boom—!!!

The brilliant azure light in the Dragon Queen Consort's eyes burst forth as she took a step forward; her Qi-Blood surged like flowing fire, and it seemed as if countless tangible bloodstreams whirl around her body, Blood Qi, Dragon Energy, and Three Flowers Gang Qi merged into a tumultuous wave!

In the pitch-black alley, she suppressed the Death Qi and Corpse Qi of the three Curse Jade Corpses!

"Who are you?!"

"Who exactly are you?!"

The Dragon Queen Consort suddenly appeared in front of You Liqing, facing You Liqing whose pupils showed the rotating Corpse God Seal, her eyes filled with sorrow, despair, emotion, and grief!

However, facing the Dragon Queen Consort, You Liqing's corpse clenched its fists calmly.

The Death Qi and Corpse Qi in the alley whirled up in shock, and the Three Flowers Gang Qi burst out from the blurred, bloodied corpse of You Liqing, merging with the Death Qi and Corpse Qi!

A punch zoomed straight towards the Dragon Queen Consort!

Without a shred of compassion or emotional fluctuation, cold as if facing a stranger turned foe, with only the parting between life and death!

Under the baptism of the Corpse God Seal, You Liqing's corpse saw its energy continuously climbing, seemingly even surpassing the strength from when he was alive, stimulating the Three Flowers Gang Qi, with rolling momentum, his five fingers clenched, tearing through the air, forming a fist, and slamming down fiercely!

Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods!

Striking the Dragon!

Rumble, rumble, rumble, rumble!

Within the alley, terrible sounds of air blasting erupted, nearly vacating all the air in the entire alley, and the three Curse Jade Corpses who were kneeling on the ground felt almost suffocated, struggling to breathe!

You should know that these three, as Upper Curse Jade Corpses, possess formidable combat power, comparable to the flourishing Three Flowers Supreme Grandmasters, but at this moment, due to the Corpse God Seal, they possess nothing but repression and horror!

"Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods?!"

"How could a dead corpse know how to perform Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods?"

Faced with the punch that You Liqing suddenly threw, the Dragon Queen Consort became utterly shocked, her body rippling with dragon scales!

Yet, facing this punch, she felt a tremendous threat; the angle of the punch and the mastery of the force were so potent that even she didn't dare to suffer it lightly!

But the distance was too close!

The Dragon Queen Consort could only resist with all her might, as if there was an enormous blue Dragon Shadow coiling behind her!

Dang—!

You Liqing's cold, merciless punch fiercely collided with the Dragon Shadow sparked by the Dragon Queen Consort!

Like a massive bronzed bell atop a towering peak being struck hard, the alley's ground instantly shattered, like solid soundwaves spreading in concentric circles.

The walls of the alley smashed to smithereens, the greenstone bricks of the pavement were directly flung off a layer!

Countless currents of air tumultuously stirred, deathly Qi rising, dust and debris flying high!

The entire alley became ruins, and if it weren't for the Divine Sect's experts having set up a formation in advance, the commotion at this moment could have completely exposed their location and identities!

Chapter 768: Underworld Begins Creating Corpse God, Dao Fruit Second Transformation Divine Skills Bai Yujing (2)

"Run!"

While the Dragon Queen Consort and You Liqing's corpse were attacking each other.

The three Curse Jade Corpses finally broke free from the irresistible suppression of the Corpse God Seal!

The leading Curse Jade Corpse tapped the ground with his toes, and his whole body shot up, turning into a black dragon of Death Qi.

With a flick of his finger, a black sphere shot toward the Dragon Queen Consort!

"Princess Consort, our Corpse God Cult accepts the operation to annihilate the Underworld together! Our Corpse God Cult's sincerity... you should consider it as well!"

After throwing the black sphere filled with Death Qi and Corpse Qi,

He immediately left with the other two Curse Jade Corpses without looking back.

Corpse God Seal!

Inside You Liqing's corpse, there was actually a Corpse God Seal?

Could it be...

Something is about to happen in Qianyuan Taoist City, significant enough for the Corpse God to intervene?

Is it because of the recently rumored appearance of the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod at the Six-Eared Prison Lotus Divine Monkey Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple on Divine Carving Ridge?

It's said that anyone who obtains this Divine Weapon of the Two-Minded Great Saint could ascend the fortifications of Qi Tian City and find that Qitian Mixed Yuan Ruyi Stick on the fortifications!

The Dragon Queen Consort gathered the bead with a swirl of her Blood Qi, then threw another punch, attacking You Liqing's corpse!

With each punch, the Dragon Queen Consort felt endless heartache!

Hum—!!!

The blurred body of You Liqing, holding a fist horizontally, became covered in cracks like porcelain, showing a tendency unable to bear this power.

After all, You Liqing was dead, his body had lost vitality; the sudden burst of this power hinted at a possible shattering obliteration.

But still, she did not hold back!

Roar!!!

Dragon roars resounded, numerous black lights and blood vessels appeared like a red moon descending, dark and profound, causing You Liqing's corpse to suddenly explode, countless shattered glimmers as if mediated by the Corpse God Seal, remotely transmitted!

Ten Thousand Dragons Subduing Gods, a punch mighty as a dragon!

The Dragon Queen Consort, heart in agony, her eyes already drowned in sorrow.

"You Liqing

She knew, from today onward, she would lose even the corpse of You Liqing.

That meant You Liqing was completely erased from this world!

Two intensely dramatic forces collided!

In an instant, dragon shadows intertwined with fist shadows, like a waterfall cascading upside down, the already shattered blue bricks completely exploded into dust.

How much time passed was unknown.

The storm in the entire alley finally calmed down, the Dragon Queen Consort's black hair wildly unraveled, her slender and graceful figure standing dumbfoundedly in place.

Only to see, at You Liqing's corpse's location, only a mass of blood mist that couldn't bear the terrifying power remained, crumbling apart; a breeze brushed over.

The blood mist drifted with the wind, dispersing into the world like ashes.

As if sucking up the last trace of belief in the heart of the Dragon Queen Consort.

...

...

Night snow quietly drifting in the breeze.

Qian Yuan Divine Sect.

Disciple City, Elder Court.

Inside the study room, the candlelight flickered dimly.

On You Liqing's Soul Capturing body, the Corpse God Seal emerged and returned to the Heaven and Earth chessboard, suppressed by the Pure Heart Divinity.

Although Li Che had already used formidable power to refine the Corpse God Seal, to be cautious, he still continually suppressed it with the Pure Heart Divinity.

You Liqing's Soul Capturing eyes regained clarity, his expression somewhat complex.

"Many thanks, Lord."

You Liqing cupped his fists, bowing deeply.

Li Che waved his hand: "No regrets? Damaging your own physical body

"If that body was not destroyed and fell into the hands of the Corpse God Cult, being refined into a Cursed Corpse, I'd rather completely destroy it." You Liqing solemnly stated.

"Moreover, having undergone this ordeal with the Corpse God Seal, I seem to have adapted to the power of the Corpse God Seal and might be able to control the Corpse God Seal to ultimately obtain power at the level of the Corpse God Seal." You Liqing stated, bowing with cupped fists.

Li Che's eyebrows slightly raised: "Oh?"

This was somewhat an unexpected joy.

For Li Che, the Corpse God Seal didn't have much use, it was merely a means to sense and detect the actions of Evil People from the Corpse God Cult.

If the Corpse God Seal could be transformed into combat power, it would indeed be an unexpected joy.

Li Che looked at You Liqing, the engraving knife spinning on his fingertips.

Through this Corpse God Seal, cultivating You Liqing into a Corpse God?

That might not be a bad idea.

When facing the Corpse God Cult in the future, if the enemy summons a Corpse God, our side can also summon a Corpse God.

If six Corpse God Seals can be gathered, he could cultivate six Corpse Gods, and the Underworld could truly be considered genuine and valid.

"Since that's the case, this Corpse God Seal... I shall reward you with it."

Li Che smiled lightly.

"Mastering the Corpse God Seal, can you sense the situation of the surrounding Corpse Curse Marks?"

Li Che enquired, thinking of something.

Upon hearing this, You Liqing's eyes twinkled, recalling the integration with the Corpse God Seal, the clear and thorough feeling of suppressing the three Curse Jade Corpses of the Corpse God Cult, he nodded unconsciously.

"Very good."

"Once you have refined this Corpse God Seal, help me find the undercover Evil People of the Corpse God Cult hidden within Qian Yuan Divine Sect." Li Che said calmly.

The next moment, with a flick of his finger, the Corpse God Seal turned into a streak of light and shot out, merging into the body of You Liqing's Soul Capturing.

This integration was different from before.

You Liqing's Soul Capturing only felt an intense and unparalleled pain.

Li Che unfolded the Heaven and Earth chessboard to isolate probing, allowing You Liqing to slowly refine the Corpse God Seal amid the agony.

Meanwhile, he quietly continued carving in the study room.

After completing the daily carving practice,

He spread out the Mysterious Yellow Paper on the desk.

Chapter 769: Underworld Begins Creating Corpse God, Dao Fruit Second Transformation Divine Skills Bai Yujing (3)

Five fingers clenched, the wolf brush fell into his hands, dipped heavily in cinnabar ink.

Of course, the Divine Talisman that Li Che intended to draw was naturally not the Locking God Talisman, for his current level of Divine Cultivation was still insufficient; the difficulty of drawing the Locking God Talisman was immense.

The Way of Divine Talismans, although somewhat similar to the Divine Sculpture Path,

Is, after all, one is a Divine Talisman and the other a Divine Sculpture.

Divine Talismans do not demand a high Martial Cultivation from a Divine Talisman Master, but they do require a significantly high level of Divine Cultivation.

To draw a Divine Talisman of the Five Elders Rank, even a Lower Five Elders Rank Locking God Talisman like that of the Sect Master's Wife, one must have at least reached the Perfection of Divine Origin Fetal Breath Transformation, even unto Divine Embryo One Divine Transformation.

Currently, Li Che's level of Divine Cultivation is merely at the Divine Phase Realm, and even though his Seven Emotions and Six Desires Divine Forms are extremely extraordinary, they are similar in rank to the Corpse Curse of the Corpse God Cult; Li Che's Seven Emotions and Six Desires Divine Forms are not yet perfected, and if perfected, might compare with the Golden Body Transformation.

Therefore, although Li Che's Divine Power is not lacking at present, it is still insufficient to draw a Divine Talisman of the Five Elders Rank.

The main issue is that the maturity of his Fruit of the Heavenly Dao from Within the Painting is not high enough.

"The Six Lower Divine Talismans could potentially be tried."

Li Che opened the "Da Jing Qingyun Taoist Xuanfu Divine Talisman Sect's Talisman Record" and found a Six Lower Divine Talisman within it.

[Mysterious Thunder Charming God and Spirit Talisman]

An offensive type Divine Talisman!

In fact, Li Che's understanding of Divine Talismans was not profound, but with the Fruit of the Heavenly Dao from Within the Painting, tracing it was effortless and convenient.

In his chest, the Fruit of the Heavenly Dao from Within the Painting throbbed intensely.

The next moment, Li Che opened his eyes, and his pupils seemed to spill a thick ink color like smoke.

Clutching the wolf brush dipped in cinnabar ink, he began to draw the [Mysterious Thunder Charming God and Spirit Talisman].

Rustle, rustle, rustle...

The wolf brush gently grazed the rough and uneven talisman paper, and the cinnabar ink was immediately absorbed by the paper.

The Brow Niwan opened, revealing the Star Plucking Pupil.

Endless Analysis, Peering into Illusion and Returning to Truth!

Li Che did not know how long he had been drawing; anyway, with every stroke of rich ink that fell, his Divinity was crazily drawn into the talisman paper.

Fortunately, Li Che cultivated the Seven Emotions Divinity, which was not picky about the type of Divinity, capable of handling any type of Talismans.

Boom!!!

The Six Lower Divine Talisman, Li Che was able to bear it with his Divine Phase Realm's level of Divinity.

If it came down to it, he could also summon the support of the Heaven and Earth Form of Spirit True Ape, a Three Pure Ranks Divine Image known for its majestic Divinity.

Even more majestic than the Divinity of Divine Origin Primordial Spirit Metamorphosis!

Boom boom boom

When a deep thunderous sound rumbled within the study,

Li Che's black hair billowed, and he took a step back, his eyes shining brightly.

Thunder snakes seemed to roam inside the study, illuminating the dimness.

"It's done!"

Li Che's Mo Shan rustled, and he put away the wolf brush with his other hand.

This was his first official attempt at drawing a Divine Talisman, using Xuanhuang Talisman Paper and Divine Ink he had acquired last time, without personally preparing them.

However, Li Che was very satisfied with the result.

Pinching the Xuanhuang Talisman, the un-dry cinnabar ink marks on it sizzled, as if the electric current was infiltrating into Li Che's body through the talisman.

The Thunder Magnetism Dao Body was spontaneously activated.

"This Talisman... happens to be perfect for cultivating the Thunder Magnetism Dao Body!"

Li Che's eyes brightened, as if he had discovered a new cultivation path.

Draw Divine Talismans, and have lightning strike oneself!

To achieve true self-sufficiency.

According to the records in the Mysterious Talisman Divine Sect Talisman Book, there are a total of eight types of Six Department Divine Talismans, and today's [Mysterious Thunder Charming God and Spirit Talisman] is one of them.

As for the Five Elders Rank Divine Talismans, there is also one called [Small Divine Sky Five Thunder Shocking Killing Talisman], but there is no detailed step-by-step drawing guide provided.

Not a chance for outsiders!

Suddenly,

Li Che held the Mystic Thunder Talisman, sitting upright in the study.

It felt as though everything in the world had fallen silent, devoid of noise.

All was still, the mind and spirit tranquil.

The only thing left was the thunderous throbbing of the Fruit of the Heavenly Dao from Within the Painting in his chest, growing louder and louder as if even the heartbeat was being drawn by it.

Then, before his eyes, a streak of light slowly emerged.

[Dao Fruit: Fairy in the Painting (lv4,0%)]

The Fruit of the Heavenly Dao from Within the Painting!

Finally ascended to lv4!

Li Che pinched the Divine Talisman, his Mo Shan robe billowing dramatically, the corner of his lips slightly curled up into a smile, brimming with mirth, in excellent spirits.

Towards the promotion of this Dao Fruit, Li Che had always maintained a calm and unhurried attitude.

Originally, it was through the actions of the Immortal Avatar within the painting that he increased its maturity.

But as time passed, this increase in maturity became increasingly difficult.

Now, having come into contact with the Way of Divine Talismans, he had found a rapid path to enhance the maturity of the [Fairy in the Painting] Dao Fruit.

Li Che's eyes condensed and in a flash, his pupils seemed to transform into dense ink that cannot be diluted, suddenly stirred and spread, sweeping across like a vortex!

The vortex unleashed a powerful force, pulling him into the familiar, boundless Vast Heaven and Earth.

The earth was vast, a Dao Tree rising from the ground, its roots like earth dragons turning over, spread across the land, majestic and boundless!

The Dao Tree soared into the clouds, as if piercing through them, forming a ring-like embrace.

The canopy spread wide, enormously vast, as if enveloping the entire Vast Heaven and Earth!

Branches stretched, green leaves clear and translucent, countless leaves lush and dense, with distinct veins on them, and the pathways on them like a network of rivers crisscrossing the land and sky.

Li Che exhaled a breath.

No matter how many times, every time Li Che felt that his own strength had gained a considerable increase, directly facing this vast world, he would still be shocked, his soul subjected to a strong impact, realizing his own insignificance, like an ephemeral bug contemplating Heaven and Earth!

His gaze swept over, and there hung the Dao Fruits.

Those that reached lv5 maturity hung aloft, radiant like the proud sun.

In comparison, the freshly attained lv4 Fairy in the Painting Dao Fruit, didn't seem so dazzling.

But at this moment, the Fairy in the Painting Dao Fruit was the protagonist, still attracting Li Che's attention in an instant!

Li Che raised his hand, as if plucking stars, desiring to pick the Dao Fruit!

Boom!!!

In an instant, Li Che felt everything before his eyes begin to shake.

Like a scroll of painting shaken by someone, the vast land, the towering Dao Tree, the hanging Dao Fruits...

Everything seemed unreal, trembling violently.

Li Che's eyes focused, as if flowing with countless dense black ink.

Looking up, he saw beyond the scroll, a vague figure holding a pen.

This familiar feeling, just like when the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit reached lv4, the hazy figure standing outside the Heaven and Earth chessboard, brought about a sense of ethereality and transcendence!

At this moment, this figure holding a pen seemed to be painting with ink outside the scroll.

In an instant!

Countless ink splashes scattered downwards.

The sky and earth shook, sounds of thunder followed!

A shower of ink rained down upon the entire Vast Earth.

Everything turned into monochrome!

Li Che's consciousness was almost instantly engulfed by the blackness, then, he exited the Vast Heaven and Earth.

Everything disappeared.

Li Che took a breath in and out, his heart slightly trembling.

However, at this moment, his heart was without a ripple.

Whether it was the green finger in the Strange Que, the mysterious figure making a move outside the Heaven and Earth chessboard, or the person splashing ink with a pen this time.

Li Che faced too many mysteries.

He had long accepted calmness.

Not concerning or speculating.

Because, as he is now, unable to comprehend or guess, he does not bother to add to his troubles unnecessarily.

Once his strength improves enough, reaches a high enough level, he will naturally be able to come in contact with so-called mysteries and strengths.

Eyes narrowed.

The light slowly unfolded, ink flowing.

[Dao Fruit lv4, Second Transformation, Prototype of Divine Powers (Mo Sha) advanced, obtained Divine Powers (Fairy in the Painting·Bai Yujing)]

The Dao Fruit receded.

Divine Powers.

Bai Yujing.

Chapter 770: Dao Fruit Level 4 Fairy in the Painting within Bai Yujing, First Mission Strike of Cat Face in the Underworld

Rustle, rustle, rustle!

Scattered snow falls, landing on the roof, with rustling sounds accompanied by the brushing of the wind, all very quiet.

Inside the study.

Li Che's eyes open and shut, the ink-like darkness too dense to dissipate, swirling like a vortex in his pupils!

His emotions slightly fluctuate, accompanied by the sound of his heart thumping loudly in his chest, a non-stop booming!

"Fruit of the Heavenly Dao from Within the Painting... Second Transformation!"

Li Che's lips slightly curve upwards.

Second Transformation Dao Fruit.

Divine Skills, Fairy in the Painting · Bai Yujing!

Bai Yujing?

The Heavenly Bai Yujing, with Twelve-story Five Cities?!

Is this the thing?

But, what use does this Divine Skill have?

With just a name, Li Che is completely clueless, but now he understands that the effects of Divine Skills may be more varied than the Prototype of Divine Powers, but not necessarily as practical as the Prototype of Divine Powers.

Similarly, it requires one's efforts to carefully develop and study.

A single breath in and out.

Long like a dragon's breath.

Li Che's gaze sharpens, the prompt in front of him suddenly undergoes an ink-colored transformation.

[Bai Yujing (Divine Skill): Within the painting resides a fairy, Bai Yujing inked, listed among immortals, mythically ascending]

[First Layer of Heaven: Mo City]

[Watercolor Painting City, separated from heaven and earth, isolated from the world]

[Second Heaven: ???]

...

A new Divine Skill!

Li Che's gaze flickers, now he has quite a few Divine Skills obtained, not the first time acquiring a Divine Skill transformed from a Dao Fruit.

Star Plucking, Rosy Cloud Lift, God Drawing, Limitless, plus the current Bai Yujing.

Moreover, both Star Plucking and Rosy Cloud Lift have ascended to the Second Heaven!

Overall, there has been a remarkable improvement.

Yet, Li Che has a feeling, that this time the Divine Skill obtained seems to be somewhat extraordinary.

"First Layer Heaven Divine Power... Mo City."

"Watercolor Painting City, separated from heaven and earth, isolated from the world?"

Li Che murmurs to himself about the introduction of the Divine Skill, his heart slightly trembling.

He closes his eyes; the Dao Fruit vibrates, Divine Sense flows, seemingly slowly conveying the information Li Che wants to know, bit by bit to him.

After a long while, Li Che slowly opens his eyes.

"So that's how it is."

"A type of territory-like Divine Skill, capable of isolating senses, isolating probes, more powerful than the Heaven and Earth chessboard effect of the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit."

"Mo City can pull people into it, as if entering a unique Grotto Heaven."

"The most important thing is

"Inside Mo City, it blocks Divinity!"

Li Che's black hair flies about, his eyes suddenly brighten, shining intensely.

Divine Cultivators pulled into Mo City can only use the Divinity they brought with themselves; once their Divinity is exhausted, they cannot Siphon Divinity from the heavens and earth to replenish.

Perhaps they can use Divinity Crystals, but, the Divinity absorption efficiency of Divinity Crystals is not high, suitable for cultivation, using Divinity Crystals in battle...

That is courting death.

"If a Divine Embryo Realm Cultivator is enveloped by me within Mo City

"As long as I grind and exhaust his Divinity, I can engage in a fair and just duel with him using the Martial Path!"

Li Che's eyes sparkle.

Of course, the most important is...

Being able to envelop the enemy within the unique Mo City, combined with the Fruit of the Heavenly Dao from Within the Painting, killing can be even more undetectable, and the noise caused will not be as huge as before.

Previously, in order to kill You Liqing, various methods had to be used, starting with raising a dense fog to obstruct vision and Divine Sense probing, only under such circumstances, could he envelop and isolate with the Heaven and Earth chessboard.

And the noise caused by killing You Liqing was also tremendous.

But now, if Li Che makes a move again, the noise will inevitably not be that great.

He raises his hand, his five fingers clenched.

"Divine Skill, Mo City."

Whoosh!

It's as if dense ink-colored dragons are rolling up around him, like thick ink poured into a water tank, spreading into the form of dragons, continuously writhing and coiling.

Slowly, the watercolor-like dragon shapes dissolve before his eyes.

Li Che finds himself surrounded by a thickly dense ink-colored high wall, swirling like black mist.

Looking down, he steps on a piece of bluestone.

It's an extremely common bluestone in the Ancient City, Li Che's Mo Shan flies about, slowly squatting down, his five fingers spread out, pressing on the bluestone beneath his feet.

Suddenly, invisible ink-colored waves slowly expand outwards in all directions, like a giant wave starting a tide, rolling and rising, then the thick ink explodes.

Transforming into city walls, city moats, high buildings with flying eaves and upturned corners, crisscrossing major streets within the city!

The entire city, enveloped in a faint ink color!

Silent and peaceful, completely isolated from the outside world, separated from heaven and earth.

Li Che stands up, his black hair flying, scanning the entire Mo City, the city is dead silent, akin to a city of the dead, devoid of any signs of life, with a faint ink fragrance drifting in the air.

Walking slowly through Mo City, walking by foot, every location in the entire city is engraved in his heart.

Once an opponent enters Mo City, they will have nowhere to hide in his perception, because the entire city is under his control, like he has activated a God's perspective, able to see everything within the city at a glance.

Even more clearly and conveniently than the probing of the Heaven and Earth chessboard.

However, it is limited to the opponents within Mo City.

There are limitations, but if used well, it is indeed more convenient for handling matters of the Underworld.

"However, if the opponent pulled into the city is too strong, they might be able to forcibly break through and leave the city."

Li Che frowns.

But he soon relaxes again.

"Mo City... it seems, the stronghold of the Underworld has been established."

He snaps his fingers, the thick ink explodes like mist.

Li Che's figure returns to reality, sitting in the chair in the study, everything around him is quiet and peaceful.
