Chapter 961: Sword Opens Heavenly Gate, Taibai Killing Star, Underworld Newcomer King Yan Goes Online

Crash, crash

The overwhelmingly powerful Sword Intent and Sword Qi intertwined and ravaged within the blood and flesh, destroying the terrifying thoughts contained therein.

Countless sounds of wailing, anger, pain, and roaring echoed incessantly.

Death Qi and Corpse Qi drifted up from the shattered white jade-like flesh, only to be shredded clean by the Sword Qi contained above.

Corpse Qi and Death Qi melted away like snow and ice, and evaporated wildly!

The place where countless bits of flesh fell was shrouded in extremely thick mist.

Li Che wore a cute Bull Mask on his face, his jet-black, strong hair whipping wildly, thrashing the void like a whip.

Mo Shan fluttered and sounded, his robust body surrounded by Qi-blood like a Jiao Long.

Maintaining the posture of placing a Chess Piece, he had already teleported to this position through the lock of the Heaven and Earth chessboard.

Originally, the Thunder Chess Piece needed a support point, but now as the Chess Saint's Dao Fruit transformed to Lv5, Li Che no longer needed the anchor point of the Thunder Chess Piece. He could teleport to anywhere sensed by the Heaven and Earth chessboard in the manner of a Thunder Chess Piece.

However, it must be somewhere visible to the naked eye. If it's inside a building or other place where the view cannot reach, even the Heaven and Earth chessboard cannot see the internal structure.

In such cases, the Thunder Chess Piece must be used.

For example, within the Mysterious Temple, Li Che had to use the Thunder Chess Piece as an anchor point to teleport inside.

But Li Che was quite satisfied; the effect was indeed remarkable.

Moreover, with the transformed Chess Saint's Dao Fruit, even in situations where space is locked or limited, it is greatly reduced, allowing quick breaking of the blockade.

For Li Che, it was far more liberating.

Crash, crash, crash, crash

This flesh was extremely heavy, containing terrifying and vast energy, even after being destroyed and dead, it remained incredibly terrifying.

The corrosive power was immense.

Li Che glanced around, his physical body shook, enduring the terrifying oppressive force that rivaled Heavenly Gate experts, performed Lingxu Baqi Step, flickering countless afterimages on-site, evading the raining flesh.

His target was locked onto the Jewel.

At the instant the Jewel fell, he appeared, his five fingers spread open, suddenly reaching out for the Jewel.

Smack—!

He grabbed the Jewel, which contained the Corpse God Realm inside, a transparent Jewel concealing a black whirlpool like a piece of art.

Beneath the Bull Demon Mask, Li Che's eyes sharply focused.

Heavy!

That was Li Che's first thought!

Incredibly heavy, immensely heavy, even with Li Che's current strength, gripping this Jewel felt astonishingly heavy!

Boom—!!!

The ground instantly collapsed, deeply caving in, dirt exploded upward, reaching several meters high, like surging waves!

"So heavy!"

Li Che was shocked within his heart.

Yet, he didn't release his hold on the Jewel!

Divine Skills, Dragon Elephant Sky Gang!

Li Che's physical body soared again, a wildfire of Gang Qi rampaged over his entire body, as if a Dragon Elephant Illusion manifested behind him, with dragons chanting and elephants trumpeting, shaking the heavens and earth!

Muscles quivered, bones reverberated, jewel-like blood pearls collided violently, released enormous power that steadily climbed on Li Che!

Using unmatched explosive power, he forcibly lifted the Jewel!

Li Che's Qi-blood raged crazily, like a scorching sun collapsing, the surrounding dust seemingly cleared in an instant, the burning air waves, along with the rampage of Dragon Elephant Sky Gang, surged in all directions!

Amidst the rampant gale, Li Che's hair wildly danced, bones resounded together, his eyes sparkling with ultimate brilliance!

Lifted it!

Bore it!

So heavy!

Yet... Li Che felt as though his entire body's strength was released at this moment!

With a movement of his heart, the Jewel was instantly torn into Qiankun Space by Li Che and tossed inside.

"Whew"

After storing the Jewel, Li Che only felt that the pressing sensation over his whole body vanished completely.

Relaxed!

The Jewel with the Corpse God Realm was like holding a Small Cave Heaven world inside, although not truly reaching the weight of a world, it was assuredly very heavy.

Bodies fell everywhere, crashed onto the ground creating pits, amidst the uneven terrain, Corpse Qi and Death Qi twisted, spread, and grew, but were vanquished by the Sword Qi within.

Even after death, the Sword Qi and the Four Imperial Lower Rank Corpse God Envoy's Death Qi and Corpse Qi continued to confront.

However, clearly, Lv Taibai's Sword Qi was much stronger, showing a complete overwhelming stance.

"Unfortunately, Qiankun Jade is gone... otherwise, I would've truly secured the loot."

Li Che's eyes behind the mask revealed a touch of regret.

Regarding Qiankun Jade... Li Che harbors an extraordinary obsession.

Yet, he wouldn't demand excessively.

Lv Taibai... must also be a seasoned hand, after all, a Hunter King-level Killer of the Hunting God Pavilion, taking the Qiankun Jade swiftly would undoubtedly be second nature.

Li Che wanting to profit from such habitual killers was just dreaming.

Securing the Jewel containing the Corpse God Realm... was already Li Che's sharp eyes doing him enough credit.

Buzz

Suddenly, Li Che felt his hairs standing on end.

Countless Sword Light rampaged and intertwined, silver hair floated like water grass, invisible Sword Qi rose from the ground, hanging onto the sky.

Lv Taibai's white robe sleeves wildly swept behind him, a silver three-foot Taibai Sword hovered by his side.

Chapter 962: Sword Opens Heavenly Gate Taibai Killing Star, Newcomer in Underworld King Yan Goes Online (2)

The two eyes seemed to be filled with abundant sword energy.

Separated by a distance of about a hundred zhang.

Lv Taibai looked indifferently at the Bull Demon standing amidst the fragments of the Four Imperial Corpse Gods' body that he had exploded.

Silver hair flying, as if a Sword Immortal descending upon the mortal world.

Solidified, frozen, cold sword intent, rampant and overwhelming, sealing every corner.

Li Che, wearing a mask, only felt an oppressive aura more terrifying than when the Four Imperial Corpse Gods emerged from the Corpse God Realm!

That extremely powerful martial dao will, spanning across heaven and earth, was the most intense Heavenly Person Sensing, condensing into the sharpest sword intent, descending from the heavenly dome.

Li Che's brow was 'thudding', as if the Star Plucking Pupil was about to open its eyes and peer.

Vaguely, Li Che seemed to see Lv Taibai glowing, shining extremely!

Compared to the distance, where the mushroom cloud's brilliance was exploding and the brightness had not yet extinguished, it was even more dazzling, and behind that dazzling glow, there seemed to be a gate!

Heavenly Gate!

Heavenly Gate Martial Saint!

Li Che deeply inhaled, even he felt the oppressive feeling as if the heavens and earth were crushing him.

In his chest, the Dao Fruit of Dragon Elephant Vajra roared and roared, dragon's chant and elephant's cry, vajra hammer strikes!

That terrifying oppression slowly broke the ice and shattered!

"Taibai Sect Master... pleasure to meet you."

Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon Mask, had the Slumbering Dragon Elephant pushed to the extreme, concealing his own aura.

A deep voice echoed amidst the slowly dissipating mushroom cloud behind him.

Too strong!

This was truly the first time facing Lv Taibai who had released his aura.

Lv Taibai hadn't even used his divine cultivation; merely showing his heavenly gate martial dao was terrifying enough!

"Underworld, Bull Demon."

Lv Taibai, with sword energy raging in his eyes, the whole person seemed to transform into a sword.

The three-pointed, two-bladed knife in Li Che's arm trembled slightly.

"Long have I heard the grand reputation, seeing today... truly extraordinary."

"With grandmaster cultivation, facing the aura of a Heavenly Gate Martial Saint, yet still so at ease, not common, extraordinary."

Lv Taibai deeply looked at Bull Demon, his pupils seemed to want to see through the face under the mask.

However, Bull Demon seemed to have a strong and unique force enveloping him, blocking Lv Taibai's gaze, preventing him from seeing through.

Only if Lv Taibai suppressed Bull Demon directly and took off his mask by hand, could he see his true face.

"Sect Master is too kind." Li Che clasped his hands.

"Why has the Underworld arrived, what is the purpose of entering Qianyuan Dao City? Under that Bull Demon Mask... who are you?"

"This mask of yours is not made from Hunting God Pavilion's Star Wood. How can you hide your aura so perfectly? I'm suddenly curious... want to see the face under your mask."

Lv Taibai's clothes fluttered, silver hair stroked, and he smiled lightly.

Li Che's eyes under the mask slightly condensed.

Then shook his head: "Sect Master, sorry, I have no intention of taking off the mask."

"As for the face under the mask..."

"You guess."

After speaking.

Li Che focused his mind, directly within the Heaven and Earth Chessboard, using his primordial spirit to place the Thunder Chess Piece.

Space began to fluctuate, Li Che's whole person was instantaneously enveloped by the power of teleportation, vanishing instantly.

Lv Taibai did not stop him; although curious about the face under the Bull Demon Mask, there was no need to force a stay.

After all, the Underworld seemed to have a good relationship with Xi Xi, and if the relationship were strained, being watched by a force like the Underworld, which is extremely mysterious and with methods highly elusive, would indeed be troublesome.

Even Lv Taibai had to admit.

Until now, although the Underworld hasn't shown any combat power of Heavenly Gate Martial Saint or Great God Cultivator level, its degree of difficulty is indeed not weak.

Like tonight, the Corpse God Cult leveraged the power of the Corpse God Realm, hiding in the space outside Divine Carving Ridge.

That was almost isolated from the outside world, even Lv Taibai found it hard to sense or explore because the Corpse God Realm was entirely detached from this world, left by Divine Tribulation Realm cultivators.

Existing independently, unless a clue or a trace of an entrance is exposed, it is nearly impossible to find it hidden in the chaotic void currents.

Looking at the Bull Demon who disappeared into thin air, sensing the wave fluctuations of the space...

Lv Taibai's sword intent-filled eyes slightly narrowed.

"Such strange means..."

"Silent and soundless teleportation, divine secret technique? But not quite, didn't even have the time for divinity guiding, divine talisman? Not likely, no divine talisman appeared... Underworld... truly intriguing."

Lv Taibai chuckled.

A powerful Heaven and Earth Soul scanned across, and his silver brows slightly arched.

"Oh? The Corpse God Treasure Pearl hidden in the Corpse God Realm is gone?"

"This Bull Demon... couldn't have taken the Corpse God Treasure Pearl, could he?"

Lv Taibai couldn't help but find it amusing.

"That thing... is utterly useless, not only can't be opened, but incredibly heavy, even if opened, it's merely entering a Corpse God Realm where death qi and corpse qi surge, without death qi and corpse qi, not being a Corpse God Cult cultivator, the Dao Yun it contains cannot be captured..."

Otherwise, he wouldn't have only taken the Qiankun Jade of the Four Imperial Corpse Gods and left behind the treasure bead that holds the Corpse God Realm.

To the evil people of the Corpse God Cult, this thing is a treasure.

But to ordinary cultivators, it's garbage.

Lv Taibai didn't quite understand what the Bull Demon was doing picking up a piece of garbage to take back...

"However, after Bull Demon took it away, at least it counted as the Corpse God Realm of the Corpse God Cult lacking one, which is indeed a considerable loss." Lv Taibai nodded.

Chapter 963: Sword Opens Heavenly Gate, Taibai Killing Star, Underworld Newcomer King Yan Goes Online (3)

Then, the tip of his foot touched down, and his entire being transformed into a sharp sword light, whistling skyward.

The mushroom cloud began to collapse and fall inward slowly.

Lv Taibai's gaze swept across the dense forest, glanced lightly, and in the next moment, with a flick of his finger, brilliant silver sword light bloomed in his palm like a silver lotus!

A total of five streams of sword light, howling wildly!

Surging wildly towards the dense forest!

...

...

Divine Carving Ridge, somewhere within the dense forest.

Li Che directly placed a piece on the Heaven and Earth chessboard, and the Flying Thunder Move spanned approximately ten miles.

Buzz

Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon Mask, suddenly landed, stomping down fiercely, the ground caving in, as if surrounded by Lv Taibai's terrifying Heavenly Gate pressure!

"So strong..."

Li Che sighed with emotion.

He had completed the attraction of four Divine Seeds, all drawn into the Eight Extraordinary Meridians.

If he completed the attraction of eight Divine Seeds, planting all Eight Extraordinary Meridians with Divine Seeds...

Could he confront a Heavenly Gate Martial Saint?

Difficult!

Li Che thought he could perhaps confront a Three-Open Martial Saint, and if he detonated the eight Divine Seeds of the Eight Extraordinary Meridians, perhaps he could momentarily gain the level to fight a Heavenly Gate Martial Saint...

However, Lv Taibai was not an ordinary Heavenly Gate Martial Saint!

"Fortunately, the stronger the Taibai Sect Master is, the more secure Xi Xi's safety becomes... As for me, Li Che, just an honest Half-Saint of Divine Sculpture, treating others with kindness, who would want to kill me?"

"Those who want to kill me, all come for my Bull Demon identity... even Ji Moli, if angry, it's toward the Underworld."

Li Che's gaze flickered, he might as well have his Earthly Hell's Evil temporarily cease, to avoid being suppressed.

So there would be no risk of being eliminated.

"The Underworld... ultimately lacks a figure to hold the fort, it's time to bring out the Underworld Yama."

Li Che seemed to laugh at himself.

The Underworld appeared to be feared by various forces, but in reality... those major forces were only wary of the Underworld's strange methods and elusive evasion techniques.

When it came to true top combat power, the Underworld... indeed did not make them fearful.

Don't mention the Divine Sect, Temple Control Bureau, Qintian Observatory, Daoist Master Mansion, these are the top powers of Qianyuan Taoist City.

Even just the Su Family, a three-thousand-year-old great family, may not fear the Underworld.

The Su Family has the Qi Sea Martial Saint Su Leibao holding the fort, which is the Su Family's confidence.

The Second Level of Qi Sea Martial Saint is no small gap compared to the First Level Martial Saint.

Otherwise, the Three Great Families of Dao City, the Zhou Family, the Yun Family, and the Zhong Family would not have been suppressed by the Su Family.

"Underworld Yama... Ten Halls Yama? Yama... must at least be of the Heavenly Gate Martial Saint level to have face."

Li Che murmured for a while, then smiled.

He stretched his body, his muscles and bones crackling.

The exposure of the Corpse God Cult's stronghold, the demise of their strongmen, put Li Che in a great mood, as long as everyone killed the Corpse God Cult, then everyone was a good friend.

"It's a pity, that Four Imperial Corpse God Envoy... can't capture souls."

Li Che's brow furrowed slightly.

When he picked up that Corpse God Realm Treasure Bead, he silently tried to capture souls.

Unable to capture.

Because Lv Taibai's Sword Intent and Sword Qi were raging; secondly, on the corpse fragments of that Four Imperial Corpse God Envoy, there was also a strong lingering will.

These wills suppressed the summoning of soul capturing.

Li Che felt a bit regretful but not surprised, mainly because his own strength was still insufficient.

This Four Imperial Corpse God Envoy, even if captured, would surely resist him.

But if it could give those eagerly waiting under his command a hearty meal, it would be good.

With a spot between his brows, the Heaven and Earth chessboard expanded once more.

Li Che began to sense those Corpse God Cult's evil people who had concealed their aura via Corpse God Pearl, escaping within the dense forest.

In the perception of the Heaven and Earth chessboard, it showed that between heaven and earth, silver-white Sword Qi was raging, swiftly chasing after those figures.

Exposing the positions of the Corpse God Cult's evil people completely.

This was the Taibai Sect Master making a move, using a powerful Heaven and Earth Soul, to lock onto the positions of these Corpse God Cult's evil people, and then guiding with Sword Qi, allowing other pursuers from the Divine Sect, Divine Guard Army, as well as the strongmen from the Temple Control Bureau to find them.

Li Che's gaze flickered, locking onto a Two Flower Demigod Corpse of the Corpse God Cult, his eyes dim.

The Primordial Spirit sat at the Heaven and Earth chessboard, placing a chess piece.

The wheels of heaven and earth turned.

The Bull Demon vanished once more.

...

...

Swoosh!

Sword Qi shredded the sky, like a meteor tearing through the night sky, whistling through the dense forest, the whirlwind swept up fallen leaves, slicing them cleanly.

A Corpse God Cult evil person, who had concealed all his aura, was sprinting desperately through the dense forest, stepping down, and the thick branch beneath his foot suddenly snapped and collapsed!

Powerful Death Qi and Corpse Qi surged, with his body as the center, suddenly blooming fiercely like a dark Death Flower!

A Death Qi Flower, a Corpse Qi Flower, this is the Two Flower Demigod Corpse of the Corpse God Cult!

On the black jade-like blood and flesh, patterns entwined, as he clenched his five fingers, the sharp fingers pierced the void like five Divine Spears, fiercely striking at the Sword Qi blasting from Lv Taibai!

Boom!!!

The terrifying explosion roared and resonated!

In the entire dense forest, countless birds were startled, flapping their wings and soaring upwards.

Countless trees snapped and collapsed, and the ground was slashed by Sword Qi into dozens of large sword marks, spreading like a lotus cut by Sword Qi.

While that Two Flower Demigod Corpse of the Corpse God Cult had its chest penetrated with an enormous hole, and the arm that blocked the Sword Qi was already shattered into countless fragments by the Sword Qi...

Chapter 964: Sword Opens Heavenly Gate, Taibai Killing Star, Newcomer in Underworld King Yan Goes Online (4)

He stood dumbfounded on the ground, behind him was a gigantic deep pit of ruins caused by the explosion of Sword Qi.

He gasped heavily, thick and black blood constantly dripped down.

So strong... so strong...

"But... I didn't die! I survived!"

The two-flower demigod corpse laughed, coughing blood.

Though he knew the explosion sound of that Sword Qi would inevitably lead to pursuit from others.

His whereabouts would be exposed.

However, surviving a strike of Sword Qi from Lv Taibai, what more could he ask for?

He turned around, dragged his severed arm and shattered chest, intending to escape this place.

The terrifying Sword Qi and Sword Intent raging in his wounds forced him to mobilize all his Death Qi and Corpse Qi power to resist!

He turned around, his body seemed drained of strength, and he collapsed to the ground.

But soon, he crawled up, coughed out a mouthful of thick blood, and was about to accelerate his escape.

Yet...

His body suddenly stiffened.

He abruptly looked upward.

And saw at the far end of the ruins divided by Sword Qi.

A figure as towering as Tower Mountain, with black long hair wildly dancing behind, his muscles heaped up, filled with terrifying and roaring explosive power.

"Underworld..."

The Corpse God Cult's two-flower demigod corpse squinted his eyes.

"Are you... seeking death?!"

Just a mere Grandmaster's cultivation Bull Demon...

Daring to pursue the Corpse God Cult's two-flower demigod corpse?

Even if he has an arm severed by a Sword Qi from Lv Taibai and is heavily injured, he is no target for a Grandmaster to confront!

At this moment, if he exerted all his strength, not even a One-Open Martial Saint could stop him.

Li Che wore the Bull Demon Mask, with faint golden smoke in his eyes, falling slowly like incense, accumulating.

"You... are injured..."

Beneath the Bull Demon Mask, Li Che's mouth corners slowly rose in an uncontrollable arc.

The voice... gradually brazen.

As the words fell.

Alongside Li Che, shadow after shadow twisted and emerged.

The three who were previously crushed by the Four Imperial Corpse God Envoys manifested from thin air.

The ragged Underworld Wine Sword Immortal Huang Jianjiu carrying a sword box, the armored You Liqing, sticking to You Liqing the Dragon Maiden...

Huang Jianjiu squinted his eyes, slapped the sword box, Sword Qi clashed and hummed.

"You damn gutted me ten times, right?!"

The Corpse God Cult's heavily injured two-flower demigod corpse's blood-red eyes shrank!

Huang Jianjiu?!

And the other two... also Martial Saints!

Three Martial Saints!

Damn—!

Boom—!!!

The two-flower demigod corpse hesitated not, stomped down, the ground exploded, and the powerful reaction force propelled him like an arrow to flee.

Yet...

Between heaven and earth, suddenly a chessboard with interwoven lines crashed down, completely enveloping him!

In the next instant, a dark city appeared on the chessboard.

Black and profound, dark and still.

Like a Fengdu Ancient City rising from the Netherworld!

Grit, grit...

The gate slowly opened.

This Corpse God Cult's two-flower demigod corpse was pulled into it.

"No—!!!"

...

...

Qianyuan Dao City.

Eight-cornered eaves Qintian Observatory Treasure Building.

Supervisor Hong Shifu leaned against the rail listening to the wind, under the Sword Qi-cut moonlight, made a move on the chessboard.

"What a Taibai Swordsmanship move, one sword cleaving a quasi-Corpse God of the Corpse God Cult..."

"Lv Taibai, has grown stronger again."

Hong Shifu shook his head, full of emotions.

"Corpse God Cult... did not anticipate sending so many strong individuals to Qianyuan Dao City, even moving a Corpse God Realm here, but... encountered the Underworld."

"Hiding in chaotic void flows... all dug out."

"Corpse God Cult... why has it provoked the Underworld? So relentless..."

Hong Shifu smiled, placed a piece on the chessboard.

Five chess pieces formed a line, his smile abundant.

Daoist Master Mansion.

Buildings stand in rows, noble like an umbrella canopy, the black tile orderly laid idle pavilion tops.

The rotund and honest Daoist Master Yue Huanglong stood arms crossed, his face full of fat stacked up, eyes squinting, almost no lines visible.

"A truly stunning sword."

"With the sword opens the Heavenly Gate, in the human world Taibai Star!"

Yue Huanglong exhaled.

Being sent by the Imperial Court here, truly put him under a lot of pressure.

Qian Yuan Divine Sect's overall strength, although not ranking near the top among the Divine Sect, that's due to its overall level.

The quality of Divine Sect's disciples, and its proud industries and such, are suppressed by other Divine Sects.

However, in terms of top combat power, Lv Taibai... is enough to stand proud amongst the Divine Sect Masters.

"However, Qian Yuan Divine Sect now has a Divine Sculpture Half-Saint, its dormant Divine Sculpture industry perhaps will slowly revive, Qian Yuan Divine Sect was once renowned for its Divine Sculpture... if it regains its previous business, plus Lv Taibai, Qian Yuan Divine Sect... perhaps truly reaching peak splendor!"

Yue Huanglong muttered.

And this... all happens during his tenure.

The Great Vista arranges Dao Masters of Dao City to suppress Divine Sect, to counter Divine Sect, preventing another incident like Equal Heaven Temple...

Not letting Divine Sect grow strong locally, but Yue Huanglong hasn't suppressed Divine Sect, instead let Qian Yuan Divine Sect grow...

It's really... annoying!

Qianyuan Dao City.

A multi-eaves rooftop.

Wearing Star Constellation Killer Masks, Ji Lishou and Dragon Son Ao Lie, dressed in black robes, donned wide-brimmed hats, fluttering in the night wind.

Both fell silent.

They were awestruck by Lv Taibai's stunning sword.

"Fifth on the Great God List Taibai Killing Star Lv Taibai... indeed extraordinary."

Chapter 965: Sword Opens Heavenly Gate, Taibai Killing Star, Newcomer in Underworld King Yan Goes Online (5)

"Perhaps only Father can suppress him."

Ji Lishou said solemnly.

Dragon Son Ao Lie nodded: "Indeed powerful... Even among our Dragon God Lineage... only the top-level Titled Dragon King can match him."

"Deserving of being a pinnacle figure listed on both the Great God List and the Heavenly Gate!"

"Emperor Jing's fear and suppression of these Divine Sects... is quite understandable."

Dragon Son Ao Lie exhaled deeply, speaking in a heavy voice.

"Is the plan to assassinate Li Che still proceeding?" Ji Lishou asked lightly.

Dragon Son Ao Lie squinted, gazing at the distant mushroom cloud expanding, and slowly exhaled.

"For Brother Lishou, for the prince's plan, I can endure."

"A dragon's revenge is never too late, even after ten years..."

...

...

As dawn breaks over the east with the first light of day.

The mushroom cloud that rumbled all night begins to disperse slowly into the heavens and earth.

The clear sunlight from high above scatters down, awakening the entire human world.

Thunder Alley.

Independent workshop courtyard.

Li Che returned from Mo City, his five fingers clutching the Thunder Chess Piece.

His hand gripping the disintegrated body of a Two Flower Demigod Corpse.

As expected, comparable to the Second Level of Qi Sea Martial Saint, the Two Flower Demigod Corpse.

Despite being heavily damaged by Lv Taibai's Sword Qi, continuously eroded by the Sword Qi, even at the end of the road, it still erupted with extremely formidable combat power.

Under the siege of the three Martial Saints—Yellow Sword Wine, You Liqing, and Dragon Maiden, they stood stalemated for a full night.

Finally, upon seeing this Two Flower Demigod Corpse utterly spent, thoroughly robbed of fight by the torment of Sword Qi, Li Che, wearing the Bull Demon Mask, struck like lightning.

He unleashed full firepower, detonating four Qimen Divine Seeds!

With an unmatched stance, he took control of the battlefield.

Rich death qi and corpse qi spread, as Li Che threw the body of the Demigod Corpse onto the ground.

In his heart, he couldn't help but feel nostalgic; if the Two Flower Demigod Corpse were in a full prosperous state...

Li Che truly wasn't confident in taking it down; Lv Taibai's Sword Qi substantially hindered this Demigod Corpse, and even a half-crippled Demigod Corpse took a whole night to subdue.

In his hand, he tossed the Qiankun Jade from the body of this Demigod Corpse.

The curve of his lips was simply undeniable.

Indeed, only upon touching the Qiankun Jade does the heart feel beautiful, making tonight's operation seem perfect.

His five fingers spread open as he scanned the demigod corpse turned into shredded flesh.

"Soul Capturing!"

Bzzt bzzt bzzt bzzt—

As if an invisible wave swayed, the sound of wailing souls resounded without ceasing.

Gradually, the shredded flesh of the Demigod Corpse on the ground began to squirm...

An entity embodying Soul Capturing seemed to step forth from the Netherworld, rebuilding the fleshly body.

On its ebony-colored flesh, a faint luminescence emitted, revealing two floral patterns.

The fully restored Two Flower Demigod Corpse abruptly opened its scarlet eyes, and a boundless ferocity unraveled wildly!

"Bull Demon!!!"

He began to struggle vehemently!

He had died so tragically!

He didn't resent Lv Taibai because that was someone he couldn't dare to hate; he only loathed the Bull Demon for the sinister and despicable tactic of surrounding warfare that wore down and killed his deeply wounded self.

Indeed, when the Bull Demon struck last, he was wary enough to explode four Divine Seeds!

Could this be calculated?!

Surrendering is impossible; surrendering is impossible in this lifetime!

"Roar!!!"

However, as soon as this entity of Soul Capturing finished roaring.

Li Che sighed: "Indeed, the gap is too big; the probability of subservience is indeed somewhat low."

"If that's the case..."

"Kneel."

His five fingers clenched fiercely!

Pow!

The head of the Soul Capturing entity exploded thunderously!

"Now, start the feast, little ones."

He snapped his fingers.

Next, one after another, Soul Capturing entities emerged from behind Li Che, densely packed, piling up the courtyard.

Xue Dufu, Shadow Guard True Person, Long Tai, Green Bird...

Yellow Sword Wine, You Liqing, and Dragon Maiden's eyes also sparkled brightly.

"Thank you, Lord!"

Numerous Soul Capturing entities respectfully cupped their fists.

Thereafter, they frantically charged towards the Two Flower Demigod Corpse's Soul Capturing entity, beginning to tear, devour, and feast!

Of course, the major share would inevitably be for Yellow Sword Wine, You Liqing, and Dragon Maiden; others might eat a little until they're full, but whether they could transform into Martial Saint-level Soul Capturing entities was somewhat challenging.

The Soul Capturing entities were in revelry, in festivity.

Li Che sat down in the courtyard with an anticipatory face, taking out the Qiankun Jade from the Two Flower Demigod Corpse.

His mind penetrated into it.

Began cataloging.

"This is... a Fifth-Order Upper Divine Crystal! It is... Fifth-Order Upper!"

Li Che couldn't help but celebrate, although there was only one, its significance was extraordinary!

"Five Fifth-Order Middle-Level Divine Attribute Crystals; the number is not many, but the quality is high!"

"In terms of elixirs, they're all Death Qi Condensing Martial Elixirs, where the death qi and corpse qi in these elixirs are far richer than those in lower-stage elixirs, making them not easy to ingest."

Li Che continued cataloging; martial arts and divine attribute aspects had no surprises.

However, some unique materials greatly surprised Li Che.

A piece of wood, shimmering with a starry glow, fell into Li Che's hand.

"Fifth-Order Upper Spirit Wood, Star Wood!"

At the same time, Li Che also retrieved a mask made from Star Wood, engraved with various line textures!

"Star Wood..."

"Alongside the Star Constellation Assassin's mask..."

Li Che's eyes dimly flickered, the corners of his mouth spreading into a radiant smile.

"King Yan from the Underworld... has arrived, hasn't he?"

Chapter 966: Divine Skills Ascending the Tower Summoning Gods Inviting King Yan, Warm as Morning Xi My Daughter is 6 Years Old

"Underworld Yama..."

"Star Wood..."

"Star Constellation Mask."

The smile at the corner of Li Che's lips slowly bloomed, gradually rising, and a hint of unusual color appeared in his eyes.

When he grasped this piece of Star Wood, it stirred his heart quite a bit. The Star Wood, a Fifth-Order Upper Spirit Wood, naturally possesses the ability to conceal aura and bewilder qi mechanisms.

"Ten Halls Yama."

Li Che's fingers gently tapped on the Star Constellation Mask, producing a crisp sound like striking fine iron.

And Li Che fell into deep thought.

Nowadays, the Underworld appeared extremely magnificent, shaking the forces of the entire Qian Yuan Dao City with awe and fear. But in reality, there were only two living people in the whole Underworld.

One was Li Che, and the other was Cat Face.

Cat Face...

Could be ignored.

The high-tier strength of the Underworld was indeed lacking. Even with Huang Jianjiu, You Liqing and others devouring a Two Flower Demigod Corpse, they found it hard to truly transform and advance to the Qi Sea Realm.

And even reaching the Qi Sea Realm, with Qi Sea Realm combat power, it was difficult to uphold the top-tier high strength of the Underworld.

At least, reaching the Four-Open Martial Saint level was truly the Sea-crossing Purple Gold Beam of the Underworld.

"The combat power of the Four-Open Martial Saint level... difficult indeed."

Li Che shook his head, feeling the challenge.

Actually, once reaching the Martial Saint and Divine Fetus Realm, every breakthrough in level becomes extremely challenging, not as easy as imagined.

Whether it's from Human Pill to Qi Sea for a Martial Saint, or from "Fetal Five Organs" to "Fetal Hundred Bones" for the Divine Fetus, the difficulty is exceedingly high.

In a strict sense, it can be viewed as crossing a great realm.

Across the whole Qian Yuan Dao City, there are only a few people who have truly reached the second realm.

For instance, in the Qian Yuan Divine Sect, the strength of Great Elder Fang Hanshu is unclear. Second Elder Zhao Fangzhou is a Martial Artist at the Qi Sea Perfection stage, just a bit away from opening the Mountain Path, but even a bit becomes a Heavenly Chasm.

As for other Martial Saints and Divine Fetuses in the Divine Sect, including Gongshu Jingjun and Tang Xiejia of Divine Carving Ridge... they are only at the first realm level.

There is also the Sect Master's Wife, Xuan Qisha, whose cultivation is intertwined with Divine Talismans... like Great Elder Fang Hanshu, her strength is unreadable and mysterious.

Overall, second realm Martial Saints and Divine Fetuses can be said to stand at the peak.

But for the Underworld, it's not enough.

To hold up the Underworld, two realms are definitely not sufficient, four realms are needed.

"Four realms..." Li Che exhaled softly.

However...

Li Che's mind stirred.

Within the Heaven and Earth chessboard.

A divine chess piece suffused with Buddha Light sat quietly on the chessboard, seemingly pressing the chessboard's lines down to collapse.

"The Divine Chess Piece of the Five Elders Upper Rank Mysterious Temple God..."

"With my current physical body, if I ascend the tower, I should be able to bear such mysterious temple god divine power, right?"

Li Che's eyes sparkled.

During his time at Fei Lei City and Golden Light Prefecture, Li Che mostly relied on the power of the Temple God to open up the Underworld's reputation.

Yet, as Li Che's own strength grew, the divine chess piece gradually became less useful.

Of course, it's also because, although the Temple God is known to be invincible at the same rank, Li Che couldn't bear the power of a high-tier temple god divine chess piece.

Now, Li Che's body has carried four Divine Seeds through the Qi Gate, and his body has been refined to the utmost of a Great Grandmaster, with four hundred and thirty-two Innate True Gang, facing an ordinary First Level Martial Saint, he feels no pressure.

Unless it's a First Level Martial Saint with six cracks on their Human Pill, in which case, Li Che might feel some pressure.

"So... by ascending the tower and summoning gods, leveraging the temple god's divine force... perhaps it is the key to the Underworld Yama."

Li Che's eyes admired the Buddha Light chess piece that compressed the chessboard's lines.

His eyes couldn't help but shine brightly.

"However, even with a prototype of Divine Powers to ascend the tower, bearing high-tier temple god divine power is still extremely dangerous..."

"It would be best to have some bond power related to the temple god... in that case, I can have a buffer, for example... a Divine Weapon?"

Li Che raised his hand, looking at his left arm, within which lay the Three-pointed Two-bladed knife of the Three-Eyed True Monarch Temple God.

If used as a vessel by the Three-pointed Two-bladed knife... can the temple god's power be leveraged?

Li Che's eyes slightly lit up.

"The face of the Underworld..."

Li Che clenched his left hand into a fist, instantly resounding with a continuous buzzing of sword energy, as if there was an ancient and magnificent treasured blade clashing endlessly.

"Wonderful Way Manifest Saint Three-Eyed True Monarch... it's not impossible to also serve as one of the Ten Halls Yama of the Underworld."

"Besides that, there is the Nine-Toothed Demon Extermination Heavenly Peng... also a Four Supremes Temple God, who makes a substantial face for the Underworld Yama."

"However, with the Nine-Toothed Demon Extermination Heavenly Peng... I have no bonds connecting to it, seeking the aid of the Peng's power seems very difficult."

"After all, the Wonderful Way Manifest Saint Three-Eyed True Monarch has the Three-pointed Two-bladed knife as a bond vessel."

"Additionally, there are the Golden Heavenly King, Sword Immortal Lu, and Two-Minded Great Sage... these three strange temples at the Five Elders Rank."

"Oh, and Golden Light Prefecture also has the Eight-Armed Prison Lotus Wrathful Third Prince's Sinister Temple."

These are his connections... oh no, Divine Veins!

Li Che's gaze gradually brightened.

Perhaps with uncontrollable excitement, this thought, once born, could no longer be stopped.

Leverage the power of the temple god.

Ascend the tower, invite the god!

Summon the god, god descends!

"With my current body refinement, I should be able to bear the divine chess piece power of Five Elders Temple Gods, but bearing... the power of the Four Supremes Temple Gods, might be quite strenuous."

Chapter 967: Divine Skills Ascending the Tower to Summon Gods and Invite King Yan, Warm Like Morning Xi My Daughter is 6 Years Old (2)

"But it might be worth trying."

"It's a pity that now there's only one Temple God Divinity Chess Piece of the Two-Minded Great Saint..."

Li Che couldn't easily waste it.

"First, focus on refining and enhancing the physique."

Li Che was not in a hurry, as after tonight's battle, the Underworld had made a name for itself, so there shouldn't be any matters requiring the Underworld's intervention anytime soon.

And Lv Taibai, with his lightning-fast action tonight, had already slain a Four Imperial Corpse God Envoy dispatched by the Corpse God Cult at great expense, likely with the aim of intimidating various other forces eager to act.

Due to the emergence of the Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple and the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod, the forces within Qianyuan Dao City were eager to move. Lv Taibai's sword strike also strengthened the deterrence and confidence of the rules he established.

"Hoo—"

The air in the courtyard stirred violently.

Li Che finished examining the Qiankun Jade of the Two Flower Demigod Corpse, which was indeed a substantial harvest.

"Oh right... there's one more significant gain."

Li Che glanced behind him at the numerous Soul Capturing entities feasting away.

Then he got up and approached the corpse of the Two Flower Demigod, now reduced to a mass of ruptured flesh.

He raised his hand, touched the Brow Niwan, and gently slid down.

The flesh ripped apart, revealing the Star Plucking Pupil bursting through the flesh.

Endless Analysis, Peering into Illusion and Returning to Truth!

Instantly, from the myriad flowing markings on the corpse, he saw a mark quietly suspended there.

That mark was constantly leaking energy as if trying to escape into the void.

"The Corpse God Seal..."

Li Che's gaze slightly focused.

"Two Flower Corpse God Seal."

This Demigod Corpse, through sacrificial refining, had reached the Two Flower Realm with the Corpse God Seal...

The markings entwining the corpse radiated out from the Corpse God Seal.

Li Che's eyes brightened slightly; if he could extract this Corpse God Seal, perhaps... he could cultivate a Soul Capturing entity comparable to a Second Level Martial Saint!

Thousand Analyzing Hands!

Li Che's arm, concealing the Three-point double-edged knife, suddenly transformed into jade color and fiercely descended into the Demigod corpse.

Moments later.

A Corpse God Seal was extracted by Li Che.

Buzz buzz buzz—

The once silent and lifeless Corpse God Seal, now withdrawn from the corpse, seemed to awaken, as if countless faces formed purely from death qi and black qi began to roar with open mouths.

Li Che already had a familiar and complete chain of handling the Corpse God Seal.

The Heaven and Earth chessboard enveloped and instantly suppressed the struggling Two Flower Corpse God Seal within.

Equal to Heaven's Face, Heavenly Earth Spirit True Ape God Yuan Golden Core, Six Desires Evil Extermination Sword Immortal Pure Yang Golden Core, all were summoned, with Immaculate Heart Divinity like a tsunami, instantly surrounding the Two Flower Corpse God Seal and achieving suppression!

Feeling the intense resistance of the Two Flower Corpse God Seal gradually subside, Li Che's Brow Star Plucking Pupil slowly closed.

"Need to find an opportunity to seek out Lord Dog, it's again time for dog-backed cleanup."

"I wonder if Lord Dog's deterrence affects the Two Flower Corpse God Seal... At least it's Lord Dog, otherwise it would only be the dog."

Li Che smiled and stretched, his entire body cracking with a thunderous pop, causing a gale to sweep across the courtyard.

In the next moment.

Li Che took a deep breath.

Two fingers pinched together, and tearing through the air fiercely.

Five fingers clenched, like five Divine Spears piercing the void, reaching into the Qiankun Space...

Extracting the Treasure Bead concealing the Corpse God Realm, grasping it firmly in hand.

Boom—!!!

At the moment the Treasure Bead was removed, the ground of the courtyard trembled fiercely, as though thousands of specks of dust exploded into the air several feet high!

"Corpse God Realm..."

...

...

Rumble—!!!

Sound like muffled thunder cascaded continuously.

That towering energy mushroom cloud, rising hundreds of meters, began gradually dissipating, while the overwhelming and rampant divine radiation continued to spread like shockwaves.

Created by Divine Yuan Divinity Chess Pieces as the Great Avalanche Guanyin Lotus Bullet.

The explosive power indeed was impressive.

The mushroom smoke cloud rolled, collapsing, yet lingered without dissipating quickly.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh—!!

The sound of whistling echoed, gusts of wind rose in the dense forest, cloaked with powerful Martial Dao Will and the majestic pressure of Yuan Spirit.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh—

Several figures rapidly shot forward, landing with a thunderous crash, their terrifying presence seeming to thicken the very air.

"Dead... shattered corpse, slain with a single sword! Only fragments remain!"

"What terrifying sword qi... this Quasi Corpse God was cut down directly!"

"The evil beings of the Corpse God Cult, it's like they ran into trouble in the dark, even hiding in the Corpse God Realm didn't prevent them from being hunted by the Underworld."

"Though, blame them for hiding so many experts in the Corpse God Realm... a Quasi Corpse God, no wonder the Taibai Sect Master had to act."

"The other two Two Flower Demigod Corpses didn't escape either. Taibai Sect Master released sword qi, severely wounding them, one was fatally injured, then killed by Zhao Fangzhou of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect with three punches."

"Another Two Flower Demigod Corpse... surely took the hit as well, that's the sword qi of the Taibai Killing Star, never missing its mark!"

"However, it mysteriously vanished without a trace."

The conversation of the surrounding strong individuals echoed continuously.

The ones who arrived were led by Wenlong Yuwen, Governor's Office Supervisor of the Temple Control Bureau, a Martial Saint of the Qi Sea Realm, with an extremely terrifying presence, followed by several Governors of the Temple Control Bureau at the Top Three Flowers Grandmaster Realm.

Each wore the Temple Guardian robe, their expressions solemn.

In addition, there were armored Divine Guard Army experts.

At the forefront was one carrying a Great Halberd, the Grand Marshal of Qianyuan Dao City's Divine Guard Army, under Dao Master Yue Huanglong's direct command, Qi Sea Realm, Yan Jing.

Chapter 968: Divine Skills Ascending the Tower Summoning Gods Inviting King Yan, Warm as Morning Xi My Daughter is 6 Years Old (3)

Behind Yan Jing, accompanied by two Great Generals of the Divine Guard Army, were the East Camp General Yuan Wuji and South Camp General She Longdao.

They landed beneath the rolling mushroom cloud.

Looking at the ground littered with shattered corpses, sensing the terrifying Corpse Qi and Death Qi contained within these bodies, alongside the Sword Qi suppressing the rampant Death Qi.

Each of them wore a shocked expression, their hearts filled with awe and reverence.

When not taking action, it's fine, but once action is taken... it is truly astonishing.

Fifth on the Great God List, Taibai Killing Star... truly domineering and strong!

"How did the Underworld discover the evil people of the Corpse God Cult hidden in the Corpse God Realm?"

"This wave of the Corpse God Cult... has suffered a huge loss of vitality. They hid around the Divine Carving Ridge, obviously targeting the Two-Minded Great Sage Mysterious Temple, for the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod."

"Now, they are completely exposed, a total failure..."

The Divine Guard Marshal carrying a Great Halberd, wearing a brilliant gold-plated locking armor, his great red cloak wildly flaring behind him, glanced at the remains of the Quasi Corpse God on the ground, his eyes narrowing.

Suddenly.

He lifted his head, tilting it slightly.

Turning to look into the dense forest.

But saw.

In the dense forest, at some unknown time, stood a hunched figure clothed in black, wearing a smiling cat-faced mask.

One hand holding a black tome, the other gripping a wolf brush.

Standing amidst the night wind.

"Jie jie jie jie jie"

A low laughter emanated from the cat face, echoing continuously in the dense forest.

"The Underworld decides death by the third watch, who dares keep you till the fifth... "

"Leave your name on the Book of Life and Death, journey together down the Yellow Springs."

Beside the cat face, stood several Soul Capturings transformed by the Hunting God Pavilion assassin, appearing endlessly bizarre in the dark forest.

"Underworld Cat Face?!"

Wenlong Yuwen and Yan Jing immediately recognized it.

Glorious light burst from their eyes.

Wearing a gold-plated chain armor, the Divine Guard Marshal lightly smiled: "I'm curious to see what kind of miraculous underworld this Underworld has."

"Cat Face, stay and chat with this Marshal!"

Boom—!

The Great Halberd suddenly shook, then swung, terrifying spear light pierced through the ground, instantly exploding the dense forest, countless dust swirling, violent airflow surging endlessly.

Heavenly Person Sensing!

As if a vast sea of Essence Qi surged, Yuan Gang trembled!

Yan Jing's toes tapped the ground, instantly causing the dust to explode into a rolling dust wave, his whole being reached Cat Face's side in almost less than half a breath.

Bang bang bang

The Soul Capturings standing around Cat Face, fearlessly surged forward, using their bodies to block Yan Jing.

Swept by Yan Jing's powerful force, they exploded into black mist.

However, as the black mist dispersed, the Underworld Cat Face had long disappeared, with no trace remaining.

Only the "jie jie jie" laughter still echoed between heaven and earth.

"Indeed, a miraculous Art of Teleportation."

The young Marshal Yan Jing, holding the fierce long spear, tilted his head, speaking in a deep voice.

In the distance.

Wenlong Yuwen crossed his arms, squinting his eyes.

Cat Face's identity wasn't really a secret; after the Temple Control Bureau's investigation, there had long been speculation.

Cat Face should be Li Qingshan of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect.

"Just a Master of Divine Gang, yet able to escape the Marshal's hand... truly remarkable."

Wenlong Yuwen said faintly.

Yan Jing waved the Great Halberd dismissively: "Just testing, but the Underworld is just this... "

"So far, the strongest combat power displayed is only at the Human Pill Martial Saint level..."

"Even that Bull Demon is just at the Great Master Realm, and this Cat Face... needn't even be mentioned, wearing a cat-faced mask, doing sneaky deeds."

He tilted his head, looking at Wenlong Yuwen, breaking into a smile.

"I'm really curious..."

"What is the top combat power of the Underworld?"

"Or perhaps the Underworld..."

"Has no top combat power at all."

...

...

Sword light swiftly traveled through the night sky, fast as lightning, quickly returning within the gates of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect Mountain.

Landing in the Elder Court of Han Shu Peak, where the Great Elder was located.

Lv Taibai stood with hands clasped behind, silver hair gently fluttering, the rampant Sword Qi and Sword Intent in his eyes gradually dissipating, his entire terrifying aura and presence vanished.

Just as he reached the courtyard doorway, he heard the boyish yet despondent sound of reading from within the courtyard.

Lv Taibai was stunned, his face immediately turning peculiar.

Pushing open the door to enter, the courtyard was brightly lit, illuminated like daytime.

A small desk was neatly spread out, with a stack of books and stationery neatly arranged on it.

Emperor Xi Xi, with a twisted expression, clutching a book, unhappily reading there.

After reading aloud once, he had to transcribe it on paper once; if he made a mistake in any place, he would be punished by writing his name ten times.

Just in the time Lv Taibai was gone, Xi Xi had already made eleven mistakes.

That means, he had to write his name one hundred and ten times as a punishment.

"Wuwuwu"

"This is definitely a Demon Cave! Wuwuwu, Emperor Xi Xi wants to change his name, Emperor Xi Xi wants to be called Li Yiyi! The child once said..."

Xi Xi was wiping tears while reading aloud.

The Great Elder Fang Hanshu sat on a chair, drinking tea while calmly flipping through the Holy Sage Book.

When Lv Taibai returned, Fang Hanshu finally closed the Holy Sage Book.

And Xi Xi, at some unknown point, had already latched onto Lv Taibai's leg.

"Sect Master, Master! You finally returned! If you don't come back, you'll never see Xi Xi again!"

Lv Taibai's face instantly softened: "Exaggerated, exaggerated..."

"The Great Elder is elegant and amiable, a Tenth-Rank Scholar of Great Vista, not a demon, rest assured."

"Besides, Xi Xi, don't you know how to write your name? Your wife tested you before, didn't you perform well?"

Chapter 969: Divine Skills Ascending the Tower to Summon Gods and Invite King Yan, Warm Like Morning Xi My Daughter is 6 Years Old (4)

Xi Xi wiped her tears and snot on Lv Taibai's clothes: "One hundred and ten times... one hundred and ten times..."

"Xi Xi can no longer recognize her own name."

Xi Xi's eyes were filled with despair.

Indeed, fighting and setting off fireworks is much more fun, reading and writing... it's simply a nightmare!

"Master, please hurry and save Xi Xi from this Demon Cave."

Xi Xi said longingly.

Fang Hanshu at a distance couldn't help but chuckle, shaking his head.

"This little girl... has good talent, her cultivation grows quickly, but her temperament is a bit wild; reading the Holy Sage Book to cultivate character is also good. According to the grandmaster's records, training a Young Sect Master has always required character cultivation."

Upon hearing this, Xi Xi shook her head like a rattle: "No, Xi Xi doesn't want it!"

She quickly got up from the ground, pulling Lv Taibai, and was about to walk outside the courtyard.

"Master Sect Leader, Master Mistress misses you, let's hurry back!"

Xi Xi vowed never to return to this Demon Cave!

Lv Taibai rubbed Xi Xi's head, smiling indulgently: "Alright, let's go, let's go back."

Fang Hanshu shook his head with a wry smile: "This girl..."

"Remember to finish writing 'Li Nuanxi' one hundred and ten times, the elder will check it tomorrow."

Fang Hanshu shouted.

Just as they walked out of the courtyard, Xi Xi heard this, and her hair stood on end, she stomped her foot, sparks flew, metal clashed, and suddenly two Prison Lotus Wind Fire Golden Light Wheels spun rapidly under her feet, lifting her body and soaring into the sky.

Not a moment longer could be spent in this Demon Cave!

Watching the departing pair of master and disciple.

Fang Hanshu's smile slowly faded, his brow slightly furrowed: "This girl..."

"The Purple Flame Serpentine Spear and the God-beating Gold Brick... two divine weapons merged into her body, not sure if it's good or bad, the Eight-Armed Wrathful Third Prince is not someone to be trifled with."

"Does the Sect Master know?"

"Probably knows..."

"The Sect Master rarely receives a seemingly normal disciple..."

"Hopefully, nothing goes wrong again."

...

...

Qianyuan Dao City.

Thunder Alley.

Inside a standalone workshop courtyard.

As a fist-sized Treasure Bead from the Corpse God Realm was taken out, the entire courtyard's magnetic field seemed to change, as if it was sinking a bit.

And that incomparable heavy force directly made the surrounding air seem to press down at once onto the ground.

The courtyard's ground almost instantly seemed to be crushed and collapsed.

Fortunately, Li Che moved the Lei-Ci Dao Body, altering his own domain, floating up while lifting the Treasure Bead with immense power.

Heavy... incomparably heavy...

While lifting this Treasure Bead, Li Che's entire body seemed to be undergoing tempering, his bones made creaking friction sounds, blood and flesh roared, qi-blood surged!

"It's quite good for body refinement; I must keep the qi-blood running at high intensity! This can even slowly enhance the maturity of the [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit!"

Li Che lifted the Treasure Bead, slowly exhaling.

As for the Corpse God Realm contained within the bead...

That rolling death qi and corpse qi... seemed like a Netherworld.

Li Che's mind turned, the Heaven and Earth chessboard unfolded, and a black city fell with a roar.

The whole person appeared in Mo City.

Boom!

The Treasure Bead instantly crashed to the ground, causing Mo City's ground to explode open, a circle sinking in, web-like cracks continually spreading!

The pouring Mo Rain fell endlessly.

"Huh?"

Li Che's eyes suddenly lit up.

In his chest.

[Fairy in the Painting] Dao Fruit thumped, every thump seemed to have invisible waves spreading out like ripples...

Looking down at the Treasure Bead embedded in the ground, he saw streams of death qi and corpse qi spreading out, being siphoned by Mo City!

The Corpse God Realm within the Treasure Bead seemed to be merging with Mo City!

No, it should be said that Mo City... is devouring this Corpse God Realm!

Li Che was extremely surprised.

"Mo City, devouring the Corpse God Realm? Actually... Mo City can be considered my Small Cave Heaven, just presented as divine skills, Corpse God Realm can also be considered Small Cave Heaven... can Small Cave Heaven devour each other?"

Li Che's breath became rapid.

If Mo City really devours the entire Corpse God Realm, the city's sealing and defensive capabilities might be greatly increased; perhaps even a Heavenly Gate Martial Saint could be trapped?

What a surprise...

A pleasant surprise indeed!

Those death qi and corpse qi that spilled from the Treasure Bead seemed to turn into ink color, assimilated into ink-colored fog floating within Mo City.

The conversion speed wasn't very fast; at this rate, Li Che didn't know how long it would take to complete the transformation.

But...

Slowly, Li Che wasn't in a hurry.

He exited Mo City, returning to the courtyard.

However, to Li Che's surprise, his entire body was still extremely heavy, as if the Treasure Bead containing the Corpse God Realm was pressing on him.

Boom

Boom

Li Che lifted his foot, took two steps in the courtyard, and the ground immediately seemed to be cracked and shattered.

He quickly mobilized the tough qi-blood within him, his muscles twitched, his spine roared, unleashing strength to support the pressure from the Treasure Bead.

Li Che's expression became peculiar.

"This body refinement method..."

Already made Li Che think about the future confrontation with enemies.

Take out the Treasure Bead, throw it on the ground, the ground blasted into a deep pit, would be a splendid spectacle.

Are those cracks on the ground? That's his overwhelming aura!

Carrying the weight pressure from the Cave Heaven Treasure Bead, Li Che adapted within the courtyard.

Chapter 970: Divine Skills Ascending the Tower to Summon Gods and Invite King Yan, Warm Like Morning Xi My Daughter is 6 Years Old (5)

After adapting, he also began cultivating Divine Seed Martial Arts.

...

...

The last rain of late spring dripped like ancient bronze leaky bells, shattering as if crushing the years.

Since that day when Lv Taibai displayed his divine power and split the Heaven Gate with his sword, slaying a quasi-Corpse God master of the Corpse God Cult.

And after completely clearing the layout and forces of the Corpse God Cult in Qianyuan Dao City.

The entire Qianyuan Dao City fell silent, and major forces all became low-key.

Even some Martial Saint Divine Embryo practitioners who rushed from Dragon Abyss Path, Qingyun Road, Guangling Dao, and other Dao cities, after hearing about that night of the Taibai Killing Star,

All became low-key, daring not to display arrogance or make any moves.

The mystery of the Underworld also became renowned again because of that night.

Time passed quietly like sand slipping in an hourglass, tinged by the spring breeze and summer rain.
