

A Father 991

Chapter 991: Underworld Yama Shakes Taibai with Fists, Evil Dog Paired with Two-blade Sword—Who Is He? (3)

In his eyes, an unusual color and a hint of anger also flickered!

Su Daoling...

Died?!

Su Daoling, the Divine Talisman Half-Saint, held immense significance for Qianyuan Dao City. He was especially supported to counter Qian Yuan Divine Sect's Lv Taibai, as Su Daoling could rival Lv's dao partner, Xuan Qisha.

To prevent the Qian Yuan Divine Sect from monopolizing the Divine Talisman path within Qianyuan Dao City!

If this is indeed true, he, as the Dao City Master dispatched by the Da Jing Dynasty, would likely be blamed by the Emperor of Dajing and the State Preceptor!

Yue Huanglong recalled that figure in plain attire, sitting beside the golden dragon chair during the court sessions in the Divine Capital, and involuntarily shivered.

Dispatching a Dao City Master to suppress the development of the industries of various Great Divine Sects, was a strategy proposed by this State Preceptor.

The Su Family's previous generation could produce a Divine Talisman Half-Saint because of his methods.

Originally, this Divine Talisman Half-Saint could have given him a satisfactory account with the Divine Capital, but now... there's nothing left to account!

This Flat Peach Victory Meeting, and the Imperial feast... I'm afraid it won't be peaceful.

"Underworld..." .

The immense and dark, ancient city sprawled across the vast webbed chessboard, with a swirling aura of death and mysterious fog, like ominous mist flowing around like water, deep and old, as if thousands of ghosts walked within, and on the solitary city wall, the black-and-white mask reflecting stars, manipulating the cycle of life and death!

Underworld...

Such a presence actually exists?!

Yue Huanglong, though newly breaking through to Four-Open Martial Saint, just ascending to the Absolute Peak, glimpsing the Heavenly Gate...

Though not yet in the ranks of the Heavenly Gate, he was definitely not weak.

Yet at this moment, he felt an extremely strong threat!

"Sir... Who exactly are you?"

Yue Huanglong's corpulent flesh suddenly trembled, hovering in mid-air at three hundred feet, slowly raising his hands, instantly changing the color of heaven and earth, behind him, an anomaly seemed to manifest, a colossal and grandiose gate appeared!

Behind the gate, seemed to be seeing innumerable paths threading through the wispy smoke, like a mirage of pavilions and towers, with a yellow dragon winding amidst, roaring in tremor!

Boom---!!!

In the distance.

Feng Zhiqi stretched out, a mountain rising behind him, towering without sight of the peak, his qi-blood wrapping around that Martial Path mountain, eyes ablaze, momentum overwhelming!

"Underworld... Indeed, everyone overlooked it!"

"Unexpectedly, the Underworld also has Absolute Peak characters!"

Yue Huanglong glanced at Feng Zhiqi, his heart tightened.

This Feng Zhiqi, seems only a step away from entering the Absolute Peak!

Nevertheless.

Feng Zhiqi, though thrilled to the core, at this moment, couldn't act because of Yue Huanglong's overpowering force.

"Governor General Feng, protect the Great Elder of the Su Family, Su Leibao, this villain seems to be coming to annihilate the Su Family."

Yue Huanglong said calmly.

Feng Zhiqi squinted his eyes.

He originally didn't want to heed Yue Huanglong's orders. The Temple Control Bureau and Daoist Master Mansion were two forces; though both official, differences between officials remained. Did you dare to command me?!

Feng Zhiqi wanted to have a good fight with this Unrivaled Physical Body, one which broke through human limitations.

Feng Zhiqi...

Wants to seek the Dao!!!!

However.

Feng Zhiqi looked into the distance.

There...

Void seemed locked, a horsetail whisk like a white Divine Dragon wending over the sky, securing the void.

Supervisor Hong Shifu of Qintian Observatory, wearing a white Daoist robe, ascended laughingly to the sky, hands behind his back, squinting at the figure standing in the blood sea on the black city.

At the same time.

Feng Zhiqi seemed to sense something.

Focusing his gaze, he looked towards Qian Yuan Divine Sect, atop Taibai Peak.

A figure with silver hair cascading like a waterfall, standing with hands behind his back, watching the scene coldly.

"Inescapable!"

"This Underworld's Absolute Peak presence is surrounded by the three Absolute Peaks of Qianyuan Dao City... Absolutely inescapable!"

Feng Zhiqi, originally hot-blooded and full of fighting spirit, suddenly cooled seeing Lv Taibai.

"You killed the Fourth Elder Ji Heshan of Qian Yuan Divine Sect?"

Feng Zhiqi suddenly sensed something, his expression became strange.

In the next moment.

Feng Zhiqi said nothing more.

His whole being like a dragon of qi-blood surged over, appearing before Su Leibao, blocking him.

...

...

Above Mo City.

Li Che wore the Black and White Yama Mask, his Mo Shan robe fluttering; amid heaven and earth, the terrifying oppression continuously descended, incredibly fearful!

That was the rank suppression belonging to a true Absolute Peak presence!

So terrifying!

Yue Huanglong was a Heavenly Gate Martial Saint, and Supervisor Hong Shifu was a Divine Fetus Great God!

The blockade by just these two made Li Che feel suffocation, even the five Strange Sect Divine Seeds had a sensation of being completely suppressed.

The pressure... really overwhelming!

Only after experiencing it firsthand did he realize how far away he was from Absolute Peak experts!

However, Li Che's objective for this move was achieved.

King Yan can still grow...

While you have reached your limits!

"Mister wants to leave?"

"I'm afraid you can't leave."

Supervisor Hong Shifu stood with hands behind his back, the powerful Heaven and Earth Soul descended, sealing all nearby void, the white horsehair whisk was a top-level Divine Weapon; its strands pierced into the void, as if completely freezing and solidifying space.

Under the Yama Mask, Li Che calmly looked at Hong Shifu.

He also sensed the terrifying sword intent from Lv Taibai afar, seemingly ready to unsheathe.

Chapter 992: Underworld Yama Shakes Taibai with Fist, Evil Dog Wielding a Two-blade Sword - Who is He? (4)

It seems like he is locked on from afar.

Li Che chuckled.

Stepping forward, instantly!

In his chest, the Dao Fruit [Dream Master] starts to pulsate.

Dream power releases!

Scenes resembling a mirage unfold behind him!

It's precisely the scene seen in the dream of the Big Black Dog, a terrifying entity flowing with magma, awakening slowly as a monstrous being from the depths of Hell, gradually lifting its body and opening those immense eyes spanning the sky!

Boom—!!!

Yue Huanglong and Hong Shifu's expressions changed, their hair standing on end as they stared at the scene.

Atop Taibai Peak.

Lv Taibai also furrowed his brows, staring intently at this sight...

Even he.

Beneath his eyes, a slight tremor shook!

"An ancient beast behind the Strange Que?!"

"The Underworld... could it be connected to the being behind the Strange Que?!"

Buzz—!

Lv Taibai flicked his fingers, and the Taibai Sword in his hand began to hum.

Buzz—!

Meanwhile, Li Che, after using dream power to evoke the scene of the dog relying on human strength!

In his chest, the Dao Fruit [Chess Saint] jumped forcefully.

In the next moment, he clutched five divine chess pieces of Two-Minded Great Saint's Buddha Light Divinity.

Instantly teleporting to five whirlpools of exploding divine seed Qi and blood of the human body.

Then casting them into it.

As if triggering a cataclysmic chemical reaction!

"Yama Ascending!"

A deep voice emanated from beneath the black and white mask!

Boom—!!!

Countless dazzling blade lights burst forth, the rolling Qi-blood, swelling again and again—!!!

Li Che clenched his left hand into a fist, the Three-point double-edged knife emitted a brilliant blade sound!

In his chest.

The Dao Fruit [Dragon Elephant Vajra] strongly stimulated, seemingly as Li Che channeled its potent aura intensely into the Three-point double-edged knife!

Then!

Infused with Temple God Divinity Buddha Light, the peak-breaking Qi-blood, fully unleashed through the power of the divine weapon's...

A punch!

Violently swung out!

Clashing fiercely with the sudden dazzling silver sword light before him.

In an instant, myriad sword lights exploded in the air!

Transforming into a magnificent sword Qi lotus at its zenith.

Dreamlike and illusionary!

Picturistically enchanting in the night sky!

Yue Huanglong and Supervisor Hong Shifu's eyes flashed with a trace of horror.

Lv Taibai...

Such a swift sword!

The two had not even noticed when a sword appeared in front of the Underworld Yama!

The terrifying sword Qi rampantly bloomed into a sword lotus, completely engulfing the Underworld Yama's form into disappearance.

Visible to the naked eye, void shattered everywhere, like a cracked mirror, a harsh web of densely packed fissures spreading out!

As the sword Qi lotus slowly dissipated.

Between heaven and earth, where is the form of the Underworld Yama wearing the black and white mask.

The black city began to vanish like foam, the chessboard also vanished without a trace...

Gone?!

The Underworld Yama...

Has disappeared?!

"Impossible!"

Hong Shifu furrowed his brows, exclaiming in a low voice!

He sealed the void with a divine weapon, which is stronger than the Four Imperial Wind and Wave Calming Talisman!

Yet the Underworld Yama... still managed to escape!

"Bearing the title of King, the Underworld at Absolute Peak... is this an existence akin to a Titled Dragon King of the Dragon God Lineage?!"

A low voice emitted from Yue Huanglong's mouth.

Vaguely sensing something amiss.

However...

Being able to withstand Lv Taibai's sword and escape, even when Hong Shifu utilized divine secret techniques through a divine weapon to seal, unable to confine him.

This Underworld Yama...

The danger level surged linearly!

His eyes flickered with a hint of trepidation.

The Underworld...

Such an Underworld!

Buzz—!!!

A streak of sword light transformed into Lv Taibai's form, silver hair flying, standing with hands behind his back.

A gleaming silver sword Qi godly pattern between his brows!

Lv Taibai's eyes revealed a tint of variance.

Although that sword just now wasn't his strongest, he did not hold back.

After all, this Underworld Yama was rumored to have killed an Inner Sect Elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect. .

Despite earlier hearing about some of Ji Heshan's actions, nonetheless, Ji Heshan had been an Elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect for nearly a century, generated significant benefits for the sect, as long as Ji Heshan's deeds weren't overly excessive, Lv Taibai would turn a blind eye.

The same applies to other elders.

Yet today Ji Heshan effectively brought his own demise.

Lv Taibai originally planned with Fang Hanshu to revoke Ji Heshan's Elder status, considering Ji Heshan's actions had become somewhat excessive.

Never expected, on this very night, Ji Heshan met his end.

The death of an Inner Sect Elder, Lv Taibai naturally couldn't ignore.

"Quite the Underworld Yama."

"Intriguing."

"He didn't die, he left."

Lv Taibai calmly stated.

"We all... underestimated the Underworld."

"Capable of unleashing five Qimen Divine Seeds without harming the physical body, backed by the ancient beast behind the Strange Que..."

"This Underworld... how many more surprises can it offer?"

Lv Taibai remarked with poise.

Yue Huanglong and Hong Shifu exhaled, their eyes deep, yet hardly spoke.

In the distance.

Su Leibao's face bore some fear.

Thankfully he was cautious enough, otherwise, he'd already be a corpse.

That Underworld Yama, turns out to be the Absolute Peak of the Underworld, even surviving Lv Taibai's sword strike without death!

The Su Family is finished.

Suddenly thinking of something, Su Leibao's expression turned pale and unappetizing.

With Su Daoling dead, and he... although being a Second Opening Qi Sea Martial Saint, his time is almost up... won't live for many years, how many more years can he shield the Su Family?!

Chapter 993: Underworld Yama Shakes Taibai with Fists, Evil Dog Paired with Two-blade Sword—Who Is He? (5)

Even the threat from the Underworld made Su Liebau's heart tremble with fear, filled with anxiety.

Who knows when the Underworld Yama would suddenly appear, just like it claimed Su Daoling's life today, and take his Su Liebau's life too!

This is a monster that can withstand a blow from Lv Taibai's sword!

At this thought, Su Liebau's body couldn't help but start to sway and tremble.

A look of desolation appeared in his eyes.

This is the sorrow of a Noble Family without an Absolute Peak to guard it.

Whether it's a thousand-year-old family or a three-thousand-year family, without an Absolute Peak to hold it, they will eventually face such a situation!

The true families that can transform and continue through the ages are those with the power standing at the Absolute Peak!

"The Su Family... is finished."

"The three-thousand-year foundation of the Su Family in Qianyuan Dao City... stands on the brink of peril!"

"The Su Family..."

"Only one road remains."

...

...

Two Hearted Great Saint Mysterious Temple.

The originally calm flame of the candles suddenly flickered violently, as if a sudden strong wind was trying to blow out the burning flame!

Boom——!

Li Che, wearing the Black and White Yama Mask, instantly appeared, sitting cross-legged on the ground, his qi and blood burning intensely like a fierce flame.

The ancient mottled blue stone floor laid by the Mysterious Temple beneath him cracked open, full of menacing intertwining cracks, expanding like a spider web!

"Hoo——"

A long sigh came from beneath the mask.

And the shattered blue stone floor of the Mysterious Temple also began to repair rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye, the cracks closing, everything restored as before.

Li Che raised his hand and removed the Black and White Yama Mask.

His face was slightly pale, and within his brow's Mud Pill, the Divinity was almost entirely exhausted.

His physical body was tense and bulging, covered in fierce blood stains. Li Che focused his mind and looked within himself.

A slight chill ran through his heart.

Within his body, not only the outer skin, but also the muscles, bones, tendons, and viscera were all overwhelmed, full of extremely fine cracks.

Though under Li Che's powerful Primordial Spirit's perception, he could discover that these cracks were slowly healing and recovering under the nourishing power emanated by the [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit.

But this really was the first time Li Che had suffered such severe damage!

It wasn't caused by anyone else.

But by himself!

Even Lv Taibai's sword actually hadn't harmed Li Che in the slightest, as it was completely dissipated by the fully stimulated Sword Energy of the Three-point double-edged knife.

Lv Taibai's power was indeed very strong. This sword wasn't even his full strength, just a casual strike, but it forced Li Che, who had activated the Ascending Stance, exploded five Divine Seeds, and further exploded the Two Hearted Great Saint Temple God Power within the Divine Seed Qimen, to resist with all his might.

Sitting in the seventh position of the Heavenly Gate, even considered the seventh in martial arts under heaven!

Yet Li Che had managed to block such a sword.

Enough to be proud!

However, as Li Che sensed the Three-point double-edged knife that had completely fallen into silence, and the exhausted qi and blood of the Divine Seeds, along with the five Two Hearted Great Saint Divine Chess Pieces he painstakingly gathered over a year...

He lightly sighed.

It was like returning to square one.

However, fortunately, the name and reputation of the Underworld have already been established.

The Underworld Yama would also become a presence standing at the Absolute Peak.

Becoming a foundation for the Underworld.

It's not all lost.

It's just a pity that he didn't manage to kill Su Liebau; this person, after all, has grown shrewd with age, very cautious, not blinded by hatred and anger.

If at that time Su Liebau had charged into the Su Family Mansion, Li Che would have certainly slain him without hesitation.

But it's already enough.

A Martial Saint like Su Liebau, nearing the end of his life, won't live much longer.

Su Liebau's Divine Cultivation never broke into the Divine Fetus, extending his life not much longer, even if he became a Martial Saint, he wouldn't live as long as a Divine Fetus, eventually, he would die.

Therefore, the Su Family...

Can't cause big waves anymore, thoroughly wasted away.

The Zhou Family, the Yun Family, and the Zhong Family, the three great thousand-year-old families of Qianyuan Dao City, if they can't even seize this opportunity placed in front of them like fat meat, they don't deserve the name of thousand-year-old families.

He sensed the [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit; the Dao Fruit itself was intact and even releasing Dao Fruit vitality, helping to restore his horizontally refined body, even tempering his physique.

This Dao Fruit... really wants to progress!

"To detonate five Divine Seeds, even with the Dao Fruit's power enhancement, it caused such trauma to the physical body... if six were detonated, it might be a bit dangerous."

Li Che focused his gaze.

"To detonate seven or eight...it would really be fatal."

"But all because my physical body is too weak, my current body, is merely at the level of an Innate Great Grandmaster."

"It's time to improve a bit."

Li Che let out a breath.

Took out a martial arts pill and swallowed it.

"Hoo—"

"Inhale—"

Sitting cross-legged in the Two Hearted Great Saint Mysterious Temple.

Li Che wasn't in a hurry to check the Qiankun Jade he casually took from Su Daoling and Ji Heshan, instead he began to recover from his injuries.

Such severe physical injuries...

Li Che estimated at least by the day after tomorrow to fully recover.

...

...

The turmoil stirred by the Underworld Yama.

Made the night in Qianyuan Dao City destined to be sleepless.

All major families were shaken, all major forces were silent as cicadas in winter, their initial estimates of the Underworld completely overturned now.

The Underworld surprisingly also has an existence comparable to the Absolute Peak!

The Underworld Yama!

Even surrounded by the three Absolute Peak figures: the Divine Sect Master Great God, Dao City Dao Master, and Qintian Observatory Chief Supervisor, it broke out successfully and left.

Moreover, it forcibly endured a sword from the Taibai Sect Master, this harbinger of doom, and left gracefully!

Buzz——

On Taibai Peak.

Lv Taibai returned gracefully, the Taibai Sword clanged and returned to the altar of the Taibai Hall.

Pale snow began to fall gently again, landing on the peak, spreading coldness.

Lv Taibai's silver hair fluttered, casting his gaze upon Fang Hanshu, the Great Elder, who held a volume of Holy Sage Book, dressed in simple Confucian robe, with snowflakes resting on his shoulder and hair.

"You held back."

Fang Hanshu said.

Lv Taibai smiled: "Xi Xi has a good relationship with the Underworld, there's no need to kill without mercy."

"Ji Heshan is dead." Fang Hanshu sighed.

"We knew this would happen to him sooner or later, but didn't expect it to come so quickly."

Lv Taibai shook his head: "He was too involved in petty schemes, his intentions impure, not to mention he received sponsorship from the Su Family, he also seemed to have connections with Ji Mo Li, if he really broke through to the Divine Fetus, it would indeed be a bit troublesome..."

"Forget it, let's not talk about him anymore."

"What do you think about this Underworld Yama?"

Lv Taibai looked at Fang Hanshu.

Fang Hanshu brushed off the Holy Sage Book, stood up, shook off the snow on his body.

His eyes were clear and serene, seeming to have pure, flawless light swirling within.

Crossing over hills, through falling snow.

Staring directly at the brightly lit Divine Sect Disciple City among the high mountains and deep valleys.

"The blade light that blocked your Sword Qi, suspected to be a Mythical Weapon... the Three-pointed Two-bladed knife, and the ominous anomaly of a demon hound appearing behind that Yama, although not strongly oppressive, but just looking at the image, it gave you and me a sense of dread; such a demon hound paired with a Two-blade Sword..."

"Has anyone come to your mind?"

Chapter 994: Qian Yuan Will Be the Next Equal Heaven Temple, Igniting Ultimate Three Flowers to Break Martial Saint

The snowflakes whirled down from high above.

Landed on the skin, the snow crystals seemed to slowly bloom into transparent flowers, resembling exquisite artworks.

Lv Taibai raised his hand and caught a snowflake.

"A dog, a Three-pointed Two-bladed knife..."

"Great Elder thinks this Underworld has something to do with the Miao Dao Xiansheng Three-Eyed True Monarch Strange Temple?"

Lv Taibai said calmly.

Fang Hanshu's scholarly robe fluttered, and his fine beard danced in the wind, exuding an intense scholarly aura.

"It's just a guess, after all... in this world, there aren't many who could wield such a ferocious hound and possess the overwhelming sword energy of a Three-pointed Two-bladed knife."

Fang Hanshu shook his head, lightly chuckling as he spoke.

"In this world, there are Reincarnated Temple Gods, Ancient Gods from beyond, and all sorts of Alien Races... It's said, deep within the Strange Que, the corpse of a Temple God corresponding to the Mysterious Temple is buried..."

"There are too many strange things in this world, although the Miao Dao Xiansheng Three-Eyed True Monarch Temple God has always been under our noses, continuously guarded by our Qian Yuan Divine Sect..."

"But... ancient records left by Divine Tribulation experts have recorded that the Strange Que between Mysterious Temples are connected, and the higher the rank of the Mysterious Temple, the deeper the Strange Que it accesses..."

Fang Hanshu had read too many records, so he spoke out.

Lv Taibai shook his head: "Perhaps it's just a coincidence..."

"The Miao Dao Xiansheng Three-Eyed True Monarch, Eight-Armed Prison Lotus Furious Third Prince, our Qianyuan Taoist City's two Four Imperial Mysterious Temples, didn't the Great Supervising Minister far away in the Divine Capital deduce..."

"He said these two Mysterious Temples both have a chance to ascend to the Three Pure Ranks, just like the Strange Temple in Qi Tian City of the past, which elevated from the Four Imperials to the Three Pure Ranks, leading Qi Tian City to rise."

Fang Hanshu uttered in a deep voice: "We must not underestimate Miao Dao Xiansheng Three-Eyed True Monarch, perhaps..."

"If such a possibility truly exists... the Great Vista would never leave it unchecked."

"In the years when Equal Heaven Temple flourished, it suffocated the then Imperial Court, dominating half of the realm... We cultivators of the Divine Sect were amazed by it, while the Imperial Court could hardly rest easy."

Lv Taibai sat on the steps in front of Taibai Hall, his silver hair cascading like a waterfall, as if a gentle breeze coursed through every strand.

He lifted his gaze, looking towards the distant peak adorned with many blooming plum blossoms even in the harsh winter. .

The wind and snow wailed, and the fragrance of fallen plum blossoms lingered.

"Four Imperials ascend... to the Three Pure Ones?"

"Since the emergence of the Mysterious Temples, this has only happened once, leading to the rise of Equal Heaven Temple..."

"Will Qianyuan be the next Equal Heaven Temple?"

"Fortune indeed."

"Misfortune indeed..."

...

...

The majority of Su Family Mansion had turned into ruins.

The cracks in the ground, like hideous abysses, spread from within the mansion.

Highly conspicuous.

This night was destined to be a sleepless one.

Su Daoling, the trusted Family Head of the Su Family, was forcibly killed within the mansion by the Underworld, without any chance of resistance, mercilessly crushed.

This sent shivers down the spines of all forces in Qianyuan Taoist City.

The powerful figures secretly observing dared not make a move, even though the Su Family now had only a single Martial Saint left, but this Martial Saint was of the Qi Sea Level, not a weakling.

In addition, everyone was also watching for the Underworld's stance.

The Underworld Yama, this fearsome entity, after killing Su Daoling, used the Underworld's Secret Technique of Movement amidst an absolute peak siege to leave with ease.

This made the forces in Qianyuan Taoist City no longer dare underestimate the Underworld, truly viewing it as a force capable of rivaling the Divine Sect, Hunting God Pavilion, Corpse God Cult, Qintian Observatory, and other top factions.

Within the Su Family Mansion.

Su Leibao gripped the dragon-headed staff, his whole body becoming hunched again, his spine bending down, as if all strength had left him, thoroughly crushed.

The snowflakes drifted with melancholy from the night sky, swaying and falling down.

Outside the Su Family Mansion, numerous attentive gazes, divine senses, Primordial Spirits, and so forth made Su Leibao feel as if needles were pricking his body.

"Jingle jingle—"

Suddenly.

The sound of a bell echoed, as if it was a soul-scattering sound.

Su Leibao furrowed his brows, turning to look outside the Su Family Mansion, to the end of the ten-mile long street.

A similarly hunched figure, wearing a Cat Face mask, holding a book, and shaking a copper bell, slowly walked out.

"Underworld... Cat Face!"

Murderous intent surged in Su Leibao's eyes.

He clenched his fist.

A weak, utterly insignificant piece of trash!

Dares to show up at this time?!

In normal times, Su Leibao... could easily smash such trash to death with a single punch.

But now...

Facing this Underworld member, Su Leibao...

Did not dare make a move.

He was fearful from the heart.

If the Underworld Yama struck again to kill this Cat Face in revenge...

The Su Family might not even have its last hope left.

"The Su Family... in Qianyuan Taoist City, has no hope left."

Su Leibao closed his eyes.

As an aged Qi Sea Martial Saint nearing his life's end, he could not save the current Su Family of the Taoist City.

Thus, Su Leibao was very clear that the Su Family had only one path left...

And that is...

Escape!

Escape from Qianyuan Taoist City, head to the Divine Capital!

Take the resources supporting the Third Prince, travel to the Divine Capital, and bet the family's resurgence on the Third Prince; if the Third Prince rises, even attaining the Dajing Crown Prince position...

Moreover, with Su Daoling's daughter, the beloved concubine of the Third Prince, perhaps the Su Family could rise again, continuing the three-thousand-year legacy, even becoming a five-thousand-year noble family!

As long as it's not extinguished, there is always hope.

Chapter 995: Will Qian Yuan Be the Next Equal Heaven Temple, Igniting the Ultimate Three Flowers to Break Through to Martial Saint (2)

But the basic foundation of Qianyuan Taoist City must be painfully abandoned.

Su Leibao looked at the end of the long street, seemingly a show-off from the Underworld's Cat Face, and swallowed this humiliation.

The humiliation of having an ant step on his face and leap around.

Ring ring ring—

The sound of the bell echoed through the long street.

Under the senses of the primordial spirits of various powerful individuals.

Li Qingshan, wearing the Cat Face mask, seemed to have a cannonball exploding in his chest at this moment, his courage was soaring and his confidence was unshakable.

Who says the Underworld has no foundation?!

The real powerhouses of the Underworld appear, and you'll be scared to death!

"King Yan wants you dead by the third watch, who dares to keep you till the fifth..."

"Cat Face of the Underworld, here to deliver you to the grave."

"Hehehe..."

...

...

Inside the Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple.

Li Che sat cross-legged on the ground.

In his chest, the Dao Fruit [Dragon Elephant Vajra] kept pulsating, like a heart held in a hand; with each squeeze and release, a ray of light quickly shot out, merging into his limbs and bones, healing his injuries!

The injuries on Li Che's body were actually caused by the explosion of five Qimen Divine Seeds, the breaking of five human body shackles, which equaled to giving his Qi-blood five times a surge-like increase!

Under such a Qi-blood explosion, the power became extremely terrifying, like a sky-rocketing rocket, continuously gaining five bursts of propulsion speed!

If it were an ordinary person, they could only chase the fleeting thrill of the Qi-blood explosion; after gaining terrifying power, it would fade away like a night's bloom.

But Li Che is different, Li Che has the Dao Fruit.

Even, the Dragon Elephant Vajra is only LV1, unable to sustain such bursts and flourishing for Li Che.

The LV5 level Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit is Li Che's greatest confidence.

"Exhale—"

"Inhale—"

Li Che sat cross-legged on the ground of the Mysterious Temple, the cracks in the ground had already fully recovered, white candles adorned the surroundings, their flames flickering softly, releasing faint light.

Everything seemed extremely tranquil.

Inside the Mysterious Temple, it was the most quiet, undisturbed.

With each breath in and out, the blood vessels within Li Che's body trembled, as if crystalline blood was being propelled, producing a roar like tidal waves.

After a night's time, Li Che's condition had recovered significantly.

Injuries on the skin, muscles, and tendons had completely healed.

Only the internal organs, which were somewhat more fragile than the physical muscles and bones, still had slight cracks.

"This recovery speed... is faster than expected."

"No wonder it's Unmatched Horizontal Refinement, tough skin and muscles."

Li Che smiled.

The Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit's enhancement to blood and flesh was truly terrifying.

Li Che thought, if the rank of the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit was continuously increased, could it achieve regeneration from a single drop of blood!

Being able to recover completely from just a drop of blood would be nearly immortal!

Dao Fruit...

Is Li Che's greatest foundation and confidence.

Tonight he dared to stage such an event because the [Chess Saint] Dao Fruit transformed to LV5, making the Flying Thunder Move even more powerful.

As long as a Thunder Chess Piece anchor point is left somewhere, he can definitely teleport there.

Almost like a conceptual-level power. .

This kind of power...

Not even an Absolute Peak level being can hold him.

When it comes to escaping skills.

The Underworld is always number one!

Buzz buzz buzz—

A strong airflow erupted from his body, five hundred and forty Innate True Gangs released from within, wildly swirling in the air, making a rumbling sound like muffled thunder.

Li Che's body swelled robustly, muscular like tubers stacked together, with skin nearly transparent, resembling a delicate piece of art, visible through which the blood surged like mercury transporting power with a thunderous roar!

His black hair frantically swept, eyes open and close, golden smoke surged.

"Time to start breaking through..."

"Top Three Flowers Grandmaster— for me, it's not even difficult."

Li Che felt the continuously growing power.

His spirit slightly moved.

In his eyes, a stream of light emerged.

[Dao Fruit: Dragon Elephant Vajra (LV5, 40%)]

Tonight, this confrontation.

Facing Lv Taibai, against Yue Huanglong, enduring the pressure of the three Absolute Peak figures, honing himself, actually increased the Dao Fruit's maturity significantly.

Of course, there was also the reason for blocking Lv Taibai's sword Qi in the end.

Although it borrowed the Mythical Weapon Three-pointed Two-bladed Knife...

But facing the direct pressure of sword Qi and Martial Dao Will...

That is experience!

After the Dao Fruit reached LV5 level, gaining further advancement becomes extremely difficult.

This wave of improvement made Li Che feel that staging tonight's event was entirely worthwhile.

Just the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit's 10% maturity improvement, the feedback of Martial Dao Instant Enlightenment power, would allow Li Che to have a full harvest.

Not to mention, tonight's gains were massive.

Su Daoling is dead, Ji Heshan was also killed by him, the only pity was not being able to kill Su Leibao...

After all, Su Leibao is not a fool.

In a situation that felt off, he wasn't blinded by hatred and charged directly.

It made it impossible for Li Che to kill him.

Facing the protection of Yue Huanglong and Feng Zhiqi...

At that time, it wasn't easy for Li Che to kill Su Leibao.

After all...

The current King Yan...

Is not yet a truly mature form.

Therefore, it's not necessary to definitely kill Su Leibao.

But, not a big issue, there will be opportunities later.

The powerful Su Family, indeed a colossal force, possessing intertwined networks of influence in Qianyuan Taoist City, interwoven with various forces, forming a massive interest network, their power is terrifying.

But once the upper echelon is assassinated completely, under the decapitation plan...

Chapter 996: Will Qian Yuan Be the Next Equal Heaven Temple, Igniting Ultimate Three Flowers to Break Martial Saint (3)

With the absence of high-level leadership, the Su Family appears as a coveted prize in the eyes of various forces.

Originally, the Martial Saint and the Divine Fetus were the foundation of the Su Family, but if the Martial Saints and Divine Fetus are all dead...

Then naturally the Su Family will also decline.

Some Three Flowers Grandmasters and Divine Origin Great True Men cannot possibly guard such a vast family estate as the Su Family.

The Zhou Family, the Yun Family, the Zhong Family, the Sang Family, the Zhu Family, and other noble families in Qianyuan Taoist City are not sheepish; when faced with interests, they will transform into wolves and tigers.

In the end, without Li Che's intervention, the entire Su Family would collapse under the forces pulling at them from all sides.

Without the suppression and deterrence of powerful individuals, it may not be easy to hold onto wealth and resources.

Just like the once-prosperous Mechanism Clan, the Tang Family.

It was also due to the fall of powerful individuals that the entire noble family collapsed.

Moreover, the Su Family has acted domineeringly over the years, and someone will inevitably settle the score with their downfall.

As for Ji Heshan, the Inner Sect elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect, although he is a Divine Sect elder...

Li Che killed him without a moment's hesitation.

Why not kill?

The intention to kill Ji Heshan had long risen in Li Che's heart, and Ji Heshan had already been marked in his little notebook.

Killing him was without any burden. .

Even if he was a Divine Sect Inner Gate elder, what did it matter?

As long as there was a threat to Xi Xi, Li Che would never hesitate to kill!

When Ji Heshan helped the Su Family, allowing Su Chuyang and Su Li to try to approach Xi Xi, Li Che had already sentenced him to death in his heart.

Although Li Che is also an elder of the Qian Yuan Divine Sect, their relationship was not good enough for Li Che to forgive Ji Heshan's death.

Sitting cross-legged in the Mysterious Temple, his physical injuries have mostly recovered.

Li Che's mind also calmed down.

In the coming days, he might need to immerse himself for a while, and once the physical injuries have completely healed, Li Che plans to use this opportunity to leverage the level 5 [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit with 10% maturity feedback...

To attempt a breakthrough to Martial Saint!

Li Che originally planned to cultivate the Eight Divine Seed Martial Arts, then complete the guidance of eight Divine Seeds into the Qi Gate, achieving the Eight Strange Gates form, and then to break through to Martial Saint...

However, Li Che somewhat underestimated the difficulty of the Eight Strange Gates.

Even with the aid of the [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit, gathering the eight gates posed significant challenges for Li Che.

For even if he cultivated the Divine Seed Martial Arts to the Master Realm, the remaining sixth, seventh, and eighth gates would still present unimaginable difficulties for implanting Divine Seeds.

"Five Divine Seeds... this should already be the limit of the Great Master Realm."

Li Che sighed softly.

His physical body has reached its limit, and now his physical body, igniting the Essence, Qi, and Spirit Three Flowers, lies only a thought away, without much difficulty, and the enhancement to the physical body is also very limited.

"My current reserve of Innate True Gang is too ample, long enough to accumulate Three Flowers Gang Qi."

Li Che shook his head, the Three Flowers Realm is merely to make a Grandmaster's Martial Dao Will more condensed, so that during the Heavenly Person Sensing when challenging the Martial Saint, it would allow further progression.

For the enhancement and amplification to the physical body, it is actually lower than imagined.

"The Martial Saint... is truly difficult."

"And my endeavor to break through to Martial Saint... this is the real hurdle and difficulty!"

"The first attempt is crucial, striking in one go, with the impulsiveness of Martial Dao Will, holds the greatest hope for success!"

Inside the Mysterious Temple, wild winds kicked up, surging gusts roaring.

Li Che's gaze was deep, gravely focused.

Because his physical body was so strong, his Great Bodily Elixir would also greatly surpass ordinary Great Grandmasters!

The firm foundation would result in the body's Great Elixir's resilience, like an eggshell, becoming exceedingly sturdy, and the chick nurturing inside would find it difficult to break through the eggshell barrier!

But once broken...

This chick would also be stronger and mightier than a typical chick!

Within his chest, the [Dragon Elephant Vajra] Dao Fruit pulsed wildly, emitting explosive sounds akin to thunder.

"Strive to breakthrough to Martial Saint before heading to the Divine Capital to attend the [Flat Peach Victory Meeting]!"

Li Che's gaze flickered as he set a small goal.

With two fingers together, Li Che tore open the Qiankun Space, at once, the Qiankun Jade of Ji Heshan and Su Daoling fell into his hand.

Even as King Yan incarnate, the habit of deploying before killing an enemy was still necessary.

Grasping the two Qiankun Jades.

Li Che's finger flickered, releasing two pieces of shattered blood and flesh within the Mysterious Temple.

The pungent smell of blood immediately permeated the air.

His gaze indifferent, he swept over the two pieces of blood and flesh corpses.

Li Che's five fingers spread, remotely pointed.

"Soul Return."

"Soul Capturing, behold me!"

With words falling.

The Mysterious Temple erupted with wild winds again, blowing relentlessly.

Two twisted shadows simultaneously emerged...

A tremendous and powerful Heaven and Earth Soul seemed to solidify the air within the Mysterious Temple!

Slowly, Su Daoling's Soul Capturing form emerged, his body's surface appeared to be outlined with a thick black edge.

Su Daoling's Soul Capturing eyes flickered open and closed, revealing a perplexed look.

Behind him.

Ji Heshan's Soul Capturing also appeared, bewildered, trembling unceasingly under Su Daoling's Heaven and Earth Soul.

Buzzing—

Almost the moment the two's Soul Capturing appeared.

All around Li Che, one by one, black Soul Capturing Chess pieces floated up, transforming into loyal Soul Captured forms.

Yellow Sword Wine, You Liqing, Dragon Maiden, Xue Dufu, Long Tai, Green Bird...

Their eyes all seemed to emit a ghostly glow, staring at the two's Soul Capturing.

The group absorbed the Soul Capturing from the Two Flower Demigod corpse back then, with their cultivation improved considerably, moving them closer to the Second Opening Realm.

Chapter 997: Qian Yuan Will Be the Next Equal Heaven Temple, Igniting the Ultimate Three Flowers to Break Martial Saint (4)

This way of enhancing oneself through devouring souls drove Yellow Sword Wine, You Liqing, and other soul-capturing beings to a state of indulgence and madness!

Su Daoling's captured soul's face twitched, and in an instant, his gaze fell on Li Che.

His pupils quaked, suddenly contracting...

Ji Heshan opened his mouth and let out a terrified scream!

"Ah—Ah—"

Li Che!

Li Che!!!

The Underworld Yama... is actually Li Che?!

Ji Heshan's belief seemed to collapse at this moment.

This Li Che, coming from Golden Light Prefecture City, a mere rustic?!

Ji Heshan trembled all over, his gaze sweeping past Yellow Sword Wine, then quaking as it swept over You Liqing, the Dragon Queen Consort, Long Tai, and Green Bird...

These familiar faces.

They made Ji Heshan collapse directly to the ground.

Long Tai grinned with his big white teeth and gave a faint smile: "Elder Ji... you haven't worked hard enough."

"Not working hard in cultivation, ending up in the Confining God Chessboard with the brothers."

Ji Heshan's mental state was a bit shattered.

"I submit! I submit!"

"Elder Li, I submit!"

Ji Heshan shouted loudly.

However...

Li Che cast a cold glance at Ji Heshan.

"You call me... Elder Li?"

"Consider yourselves rewarded."

As soon as these words fell.

Long Tai, Green Bird, and Xue Dufu, who had now reached the Top Three Flowers Grandmaster Realm, almost instantly appeared behind Ji Heshan's captured soul.

"Elder Ji, how unwise, you dare address the Lord like that?"

"Given the opportunity, you couldn't use it... no more brotherhood."

"Then let me, Long Tai, take good care of you..."

"Raise you in my stomach."

As soon as the words fell.

The terrified scream of Ji Heshan erupted completely.

Crunch, crunch...

The hair-raising sound made even Su Daoling, in his soul-captured form, feel his hairs stand on end.

"Su Daoling, pays respects to the Lord."

Su Daoling submitted without any burden.

He wanted to live, even if it was... in a monstrous way.

Li Che glanced at Su Daoling, a Divine Talisman Half-Saint.

Much more important compared to a worthless person like Ji Heshan.

A person like Ji Heshan, wanting to be Li Che's captured soul, Li Che found quite distasteful.

But someone like Su Daoling, a Divine Talisman Half-Saint, was quite suitable.

Li Che didn't even need to bother the Sect Master's Wife, just directly imprison Su Daoling to make talismans.

Specializing in creating Five Thunder Talismans!

Yellow Sword Wine, You Liqing, and the Dragon Maiden looked at Su Daoling's capture soul with a bit of pity.

However, they also understood that a captured soul like Su Daoling, a Divine Talisman Half-Saint, was immensely valuable.

Not something to be consumed...

So, they could only become brothers on the chessboard.

After choosing allegiance, Su Daoling felt an immediate sense of relief.

Safe at last.

Li Che glanced at Su Daoling: "Do you know the Thunder Talisman?"

"Lord, I do!"

"Do you know the Little Divine Sky Five Thunders Shocking Killing Talisman?"

"That is a divine talisman of the Xuanfu Divine Sect, I don't know it." Su Daoling replied with fear and trepidation.

"But I can learn it!" Su Daoling adopted a very earnest attitude.

Upon hearing this, Li Che wasn't too bothered.

After all, it cannot be blamed on Su Daoling.

Li Che took out the Divine Talisman Record previously replicated with the Dao Fruit of the Fairy in the Painting from the Divine Talisman Tower and directly tossed it to Su Daoling.

Letting him dive into studying and striving to draw Thunder Talismans as soon as possible.

Such technical talents...

Using them for killing is a waste.

There's Yellow Sword Wine, You Liqing, and the Dragon Maiden for the killing.

Li Che broke open the Qiankun Jade and began to inventory it, which slightly surprised him.

"Why... are there so many good things?"

"These resources were supposed to aid the Third Prince of the Divine Capital in his struggle for the throne."

"This was the last batch, actually, it is quite little."

Su Daoling said respectfully.

Li Che took a deep breath.

Not to mention anything else, just the five Divinity Crystals of the Five Elders Upper Rank, made Li Che utterly satisfied.

And regarding martial arts pills, two bottles of martial arts pills produced by the Heavenly Pill Divine Sect of the Five Elders Upper Rank caught Li Che's eye.

Just when he was worrying about resources for breaking through to Martial Saint, didn't this just come right in time?

Li Che didn't think even having a Dao Fruit like [Dragon Elephant Vajra] made martial arts pills any less needed.

Suddenly.

Li Che frowned slightly.

Clenching five fingers.

A piece of gold foil paper as thin as a cicada's wings yet filled with Buddha Light fell into Li Che's hand.

"Lord, this is a secret technique obtained inadvertently by the Su Family ancestors from the extraterrestrial Buddha Land."

Li Che's eyes revealed a hint of disgust.

"Joyful Zen Buddha Girl Spirit Absorption Swallowing Technique..."

"Truly disgusting."

Clenching his five fingers, this secret technique gold foil was immediately crushed by Li Che.

"Ah—!!!"

A scream resounded.

Suddenly, a burst of golden light erupted from the gold foil paper.

Manifesting as an infant illuminated by Buddha Light, leaping up, the infant had a ferocious face with green visage and fangs, letting out a low roar.

Despite emitting Buddha Light, it was filled with an eerie and terrifying atmosphere.

"This is the Buddha Infant!"

Su Daoling said respectfully.

Li Che let out a snort of disgust.

Clenching five fingers, Dragon Elephant Merged Form, Dragon's Chant and Elephant's Scream!

Instantly smashing this ferocious Buddha Infant amid a horrific scream.

The Buddha Infant was crushed and dissipated by Li Che's terrifying qi-blood power.

...

...

In the following days, Yuan Dao City was engulfed in the fear dominated by the Underworld Yama.

Of course, the undertaker of the Underworld, Cat Face, also sparked a wave of discussion.

This guy was truly bold and arrogant, directly conducting Su Daoling's funeral in front of the old head of the Su Family, Su Leibao...

Was he not afraid of being beaten to death?

However, the Underworld's mysterious and mystical Art of Teleportation really gave people headaches.

For various forces, the Underworld... was an existence extremely hard to kill.

The threat level skyrocketed!

Even though many clearly knew who the Underworld Cat Face was, without confidently dealing with the Underworld Yama, no one dared to lay hands on Cat Face.

Chapter 998: Qian Yuan Will Be the Next Equal Heaven Temple, Igniting the Ultimate Three Flowers to Break Martial Saint (5)

An absolute peak expert hidden in the shadows...

Who wouldn't be afraid?!

A strong existence like the first family of Qianyuan Dao City, which has had a Martial Saint Divine Embryo preside over it for three thousand years, such is their fate...

And Su Leibao put up with the humiliation, and in the following days began selling off the Su Family's assets in Qianyuan Dao City.

The major noble families had anticipated this for some time.

It was guessed that the Su Family... would likely abandon Qianyuan Dao City.

The news of the Su Family's planning in Divine Capital was already no secret.

The Su Family has two daughters, one became the noble consort of the Emperor of Dajing, and the other became the beloved concubine of the Third Prince, these two women upheld the Su Family's foundation in Divine Capital.

Su Leibao was decisive, realizing the Su Family in Qianyuan Dao City... would only be slowly eroded away, so choosing to abandon Qianyuan Dao City, a legacy of three thousand years, leaving only the ancestral land, watched over by some idle members of the Su Family.

Other important members of the Su Family fully migrated to Divine Capital.

Very resolute, facing threats from the Underworld, this might be the Su Family's only respite.

However, Su Leibao also understood...

Whether he could escape alive with the assets sold by the Su Family from the region of Qianyuan Dao City was key!

"Why does the Underworld target Su Family?"

Su Leibao once pondered this question in the dead of night.

He hunched his body and looked towards the Qian Yuan Divine Sect's continuous mountain range deep within Dao City, spotting the Taibai Peak.

The only entanglement between Su Family and the Underworld...

It seems... could only be Li Nuanxi, right?

The Su Family initially intended to treat little Li Nuanxi just like other girls they harmed and Siphon her Talent, to make her a puppet for cultivating talented heirs of the family.

Even when Li Nuanxi became a direct disciple of the sect master, and her father Li Che even became a Divine Sculpture Half-Saint, the Su Family hadn't given up this thought.

Perhaps...

This was what angered the Underworld?

This Li Nuanxi...

Is she the daughter of the Underworld?!

Su Leibao sighed deeply.

It's too late to say anything now, who would've thought... the Su Family, with a legacy of three thousand years, witnessing the ups and downs of the Qiankun River, would end up ruined by a little girl.

"That Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple... Su Family can't compete for it."

Su Leibao's eyes flickered.

Originally, if Su Daoling were alive, according to the rules set by Lv Taibai, Su Daoling might have entered Strange Que to compete for the Heart-following Gold Iron Divine Rod.

But now, Su Daoling is dead, leaving him, a Qi Sea Martial Saint not fitting Lv Taibai's rules, in the Su Family.

Naturally, no chance to compete.

"But..."

Su Leibao's breath slightly fluctuated.

"When the Mysterious Fog in the Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple calms down, and the Strange Que opens... everyone focuses on this Mysterious Temple, it's the best timing for my family's migration."

"Daoist Master Yue Huanglong will cover my retreat, the Underworld Yama may not be able to kill me..."

"Moreover, I've sent messages to the Dao Master of Guangling Dao, this Dao Master of Guangling Dao City is a follower of the Third Prince and will meet me at the junction of the two Daos..."

Though it's said to be the Su family's migration.

In fact, it's really Su Leibao's escape.

All the sold resources are on him, Su Leibao, these resources...

Enough to make others envious.

Those hidden identity part-time assassins of the Hunting God Pavilion...

Will certainly be eager to act.

...

...

Three days and another three days, in the blink of an eye, six days had passed.

Li Che spent these six days inside the Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple, nursing his injuries, cultivating Essence, Qi, and Spirit, accumulating a sense of vigor!

Preparing to impact the Top Three Flowers Realm.

Li Che doesn't plan to use the 10% Instant Enlightenment feedback accumulated from the Dragon Elephant Vajra Dao Fruit.

During his days in the Mysterious Temple.

Li Che's Fairy in the Painting avatar was outside, exposed to the eyes of the world.

Not even Lv Taibai could discern the truth behind the Fairy in the Painting avatar.

Inside the Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple.

Candlelight flickered softly.

Li Che sat cross-legged on the ground, air currents surging around him, the mist-like blood fog formed by his Qi Blood entwined with heaven and earth.

After sitting for six days, Li Che sorted through his Martial Arts.

Five Divine Seeds floated out from the five qi gate meridian nodes within his spine.

Swish swish...

Qi Blood surged like tides, continually coalescing, as if forming a lifelike Divine Dragon, winding and coiling, Dragon Horns, Dragon Beard, Dragon Scales, all appeared in True Form, lifelike!

Besides this Qi Blood Divine Dragon, behind Li Che, a Giant Elephant rose ominously, this Giant Elephant was so huge it filled the Mysterious Temple, with the Divine Dragon encircling its vast body like a mountain.

The fan-like ears suddenly flapped, whirlwind howling, the raised trunk resembling a Divine Whip lashing the void!

Thunderous sounds erupted!

Suddenly, Li Che slowly opened his eyes.

He stood up, gripping his five fingers tightly, and thrust out a punch!

Suddenly spreading his arms, black hair wildly whipped about!

Li Che raised his head, his face pointed high towards the beams of the Mysterious Temple.

His eyes were bright as if small flames danced within them.

Then, like a spark, igniting the entire Qi Blood Dragon!

The Qi Blood Dragon Elephant, burning with a blazing fire!

And the blazing fire slowly compressed and compressed, eventually forming a lotus-like flame.

Suspended above Li Che's Heavenly Spirit Cover!

The firelight twisted the void, creating layers of ripples!

"Qi Blood Flower!"

Li Che's eyes shone brightly.

The powerful Martial Dao Will suddenly spread out, impacting every corner of the Mysterious Temple!

The flames on numerous white candles danced without cease!

Martial Dao Will, Dragon Elephant Merged Form!

The Dao Fruit of his chest, Dragon Elephant Vajra, pulsed without pause!

The compressed Martial Dao Will seemed to twist the air into a black hole, light and heat compressed to the extreme, forming a lotus, suspended over Li Che's left shoulder!

Regarding the Top Three Flowers, the Third Flower...

Li Che stood up, his entire body seemingly becoming crystalline and transparent, the Dantian location of the Furnace Physique like blazing fire burning fiercely!

Refining a Treasure Elixir!

This belonged to Li Che's Great Bodily Elixir as a Great Grandmaster!

Boom!

The Great Bodily Elixir leaped up, after multiple leaps, suddenly releasing fierce Essence!

In the furnace's firelight, it ignited in an instant!

Finally, it also formed a lotus-like flame!

Li Che faintly sensed the three floating flames...

Essence, Qi Blood, Martial Dao Will...

Five hundred and forty Innate True Gang whirled crazily, amidst the three flower fires raging, forming Three Flowers Gang Qi!

Like tidal waves of Gang Qi surging endlessly! .

In just a moment.

The Three Flowers bloomed together!

Amidst the tide of Three Flowers Gang Qi.

Li Che slowly stood up, head and shoulders, the ultimate human three flowers, dazzling and radiant!

...

...

Boom——

Six-Eared Prison Lotus Divine Monkey Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple.

Outside the Strange Que.

The originally surging Mysterious Fog began to slowly descend and calm.

The wind and snow were torn apart.

Two figures floated and fell outside the Strange Que.

Gongshu Jingjun and Tang Xiejia, two experts of Divine Carving Ridge, stood outside.

Gazing at the now fully calmed Mysterious Fog.

Slowly exhaled a breath.

However...

The next moment.

Their eyes couldn't help but condense.

They saw...

Inside the Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple.

Three extremely brilliant flames of lotus flowers, as if breaking free from the constraints of heaven and earth.

Leap up!

Astonishing the world!

Chapter 999: The Ultimate Supreme Grandmaster of Mortal Extremity, Choose 1 Blessed Land to Assist Me in Ascending to Martial Saint

Crack crack——!

Above the heavenly dome, leaden clouds pile up, countless snowflakes swirling out, within the cloud layer, like electric dragons rolling within.

Winter thunder is rare, a sudden winter thunderstorm, as if the celestial phenomena have been altered.

Before the Two Hearted Great Saint Mysterious Temple.

Gongshu Jingjun and Tang Xiejia stand outside the Strange Que, looking at the now tranquil Strange Que; within, the Mysterious Fog still churns, but compared to when the Temple Guardian Curse Corpse King Demon Ape awakened, it's much calmer.

However...

Their eyes narrow, surprised at the three flaming lotus flowers rising from the Mysterious Temple.

Extremely splendid, magnificently vast!

Like three glass-like blossoms burning on a deity, continuously spiraling, akin to a Golden Crow soaring high from strong ocean currents, screeching crisply, spreading its wings to ascend!

Gongshu Jingjun is better; after all, he is a Divine Fetus Practitioner, and his martial path is slightly average.

But Tang Xiejia is a genuine Martial Saint, even though merely a First Level Human Core Martial Saint; how could he not sense something about the Martial Arts Three Flowers?

Such three flowers...

Simply beyond his imagination!

Are these flowers conjurable by a person?

In human martial path cultivation, training Essence, Qi, and Spirit, stepping into the Great Grandmaster realm essentially prepares for the blooming of the Human Body Three Flowers.

Grandmaster Warriors condense Human Pills, refine Essence, and can step into the Great Grandmaster realm.

Within five viscera, distill human Essence, solidify Human Body Great Pill. Divine Gang is the refinement of Qi-Blood; Innate Great Grandmasters cultivate Heavenly Person Sensing, cultivating the human

"God". Innate True Gang is like nourishment, gradually materializing the ethereal god caught by Unity of Heaven and Man.

Then, stepping into the Supreme Great Grandmaster realm involves Essence flowing out from the Human Body Great Pill, refining and polishing, blooming the Essence Flower process.

Essence, Qi, and Spirit Three Flowers are fundamental to a Martial Artist, even the root of a Martial Artist.

Martial path cultivation cannot be separated from these three points.

Three Flowers Atop, Essence, Qi, and Spirit, Humanity, Earth, Heaven!

Essence is the Essence extracted from the Human Body Great Pill, the human origin, hence Humanity.

Qi drifts between the earth, capturing majestic Spiritual Energy into the human body, propelling Qi-Blood like tides, rising and falling, stirring power as if to overturn mountains and seas; hence Earth.

Spirit arises from Unity of Heaven and Man, thus Heaven!

Essence, Qi, and Spirit Three Flowers, therefore, are the Three Flowers of Heaven, Earth, and Humanity...

When the Three Flowers gather, there's a chance for Five Qi Toward Primordial, condensing Martial Saint Yuan Gang!

Every Great Grandmaster aspiring to Martial Saint must experience this stage!

But, this stage can be directly crossed!

Like Nie Yang, nourishing the sword meant nourishing one's own god; achieving understanding of Sword Intent within Divine Force Realm, casting one sword into the Supreme Great Grandmaster realm, using Sword Qi as fire, igniting Essence, Qi, and Spirit Three Flowers!

However, wanting to cross the Three Flowers in one step is extremely challenging, even harder than steady breakthroughs.

Any carelessness could result in long-lasting stagnation.

If so, an entire life could be ruined.

Tang Xiejia is utterly shocked; such exquisite Three Flowers are terrifying! So unbelievable!

Are these flowers conjurable by a person?

Human Essence, Qi, and Spirit... can indeed become so mighty?!

This kind of Supreme Great Grandmaster likely could directly cross Martial Arts Barrier, and battle Martial Saints?!

"Ultimate Qi-Blood, ultimate Unity of Heaven and Man, ultimate Human Body Great Pill Essence!"

"Ultimately splendid Three Flowers, like the Vast Sun in the sky!"

Tang Xiejia takes a deep breath, then slowly exhales.

"Who is it?!"

"In the Two Hearted Great Saint Mysterious Temple... is someone having a breakthrough?!"

"I suspect, this person gathering such ultimate Three Flowers—is he pushing forward to strike as a Martial Saint?!"

Tang Xiejia's stature grows tall and robust, his clothes bulging, battle spirit surging, and Qi-Blood involuntarily stirs, his veins like Jiao Long roaring and pulsing!

Beside him, Gongshu Jingjun also snaps back from the splendid Three Flowers.

At this moment, his expression subtly changes.

"This Mysterious Fog... was just now slowly settling down! How did someone enter the Mysterious Temple before? How did he enter?!"

Gongshu Jingjun's hair stands on end.

This Two Hearted Great Saint Mysterious Temple, why has it become somewhat unfamiliar to him?

The Two Hearted Great Saint Mysterious Temple was struck by lightning every day before.

Now there's someone in the Mysterious Temple gathering Three Flowers Atop, aiming for Martial Saint Realm!

Who is it? .

Taking this Mysterious Temple as home?!

The temple deity's divinity doesn't affect him at all?!

Gongshu Jingjun and Tang Xiejia exchange a glance, the next moment their energies rise rapidly.

Gongshu Jingjun flips out a jade sword within his hand, crushing it instantly, then a surge of Sword Qi abruptly shoots into the clouds.

Change in Mysterious Temple!

Notify Sect Master Lv Taibai!

...

...

Qian Yuan Divine Sect.

Taibai Peak.

Snowflakes swirl down, drifting from high above, falling onto the Daping, onto the black tiles, forming icicles like stalagmites in a grotto, reflecting various lights, extremely splendid.

And on the Daping.

Lv Taibai is guiding Xi Xi's cultivation.

Xi Xi clenches her five fingers into a fist, and a magnificent gold-plated brick appears in her grasp; she bends her arm, holding the brick, giving off a gangster-like vibe.

Lv Taibai watches, a silent laugh escapes him.

"This is the God Beating Brick. You now... have finally summoned this God Beating Brick, indicating that your divine sense has improved considerably, enough to attack the Divine Phase Realm."

Chapter 1000: The Utmost Supreme Grandmaster of Mortal Extremity, Choosing a Sacred Site to Help My Ascent to Martial Saint (2)

Lv Taibai's silver hair fluttered as he smiled gently.

"You need to try using your Divine Sense to connect. A Divine Weapon has its own spiritual nature. By communicating with this spirituality and using your Divine Foundation to connect... In your Divine Foundation, you have pre-etched the form of [Eight-Armed Three-Faced Hell Lotus Undamaged Third Prince], and the Temple God of the Divine Weapon belongs to Him..."

"When you guide the spirituality within the Divine Weapon with your Divine Foundation, in due time, breaking through to the Divine Minister stage will be a natural progression."

Lv Taibai rubbed Xi Xi's head and said.

"Originally, I wanted you to arouse that Purple Flame Serpentine Spear, but... since you haven't birthed your Primordial Spirit, it's difficult to activate it. This God Beating Brick, you can only draw out its form, not control it with your Primordial Spirit..."

"Using it as a weapon to smash people isn't too bad either."

Lv Taibai introduced with a smile while Xi Xi tilted her head and blinked her big eyes.

"Swing the brick to hit people?"

"This God Beating Brick is a very powerful Divine Weapon, possessing strong divinity. Even if you don't activate it, a solid hit can make even a Divine Element True Person with Primordial Spirit Metamorphosis feel dizzy."

"It creates an irresistible dizziness."

"Of course, you have to hit them first... Therefore, this brick is most suitable for sneak attacks."

"But when your cultivation is strong enough to manipulate this Gold Brick with your Primordial Spirit, then the true power of the God Beating Brick can be unleashed."

Lv Taibai had visited the Third Prince's Mysterious Temple, and even took the Prison Lotus Yang Divine Sword from it, having researched many of the Third Prince's Divine Weapons.

In fact...

Lv Taibai also found it quite ridiculous. This Third Prince's Mysterious Temple... was akin to a treasure vault, overflowing with Mythical Weapons, innumerable.

The only pity was that the iconic [Mystic Thunder Vajra Qiankun Ring] had ended up in the Three Pure Bizarre Temples of Dragon Abyss Path.

In the future, if there is a chance, bring Xi Xi to take a trip and retrieve this Divine Weapon.

Xi Xi's Third Prince set might then be completed...

With Xi Xi's talent, leveraging this Third Prince's Divine Equipment, perhaps there'll be a chance to break into the top three of the Great God List!

Just when Lv Taibai wanted to continue his guidance.

He felt a slight movement in his heart, lifted his head, looked into the distance, eyes ablaze with Sword Qi, and immediately saw the sword light that ascended to the heavens!

"Direction of Divine Carving Ridge..."

Lv Taibai frowned slightly.

Although he was a Divine Fetus Great God, he did not have the Heaven and Earth chessboard, unable to maintain long-distance sensing at all times.

Thus, many times, he needed a signal to notify him of any incidents at Divine Carving Ridge.

"Xi Xi, go to the Great Elder and study this God Beating Brick? Master has some matters to attend to."

Lv Taibai said gently.

However, Xi Xi looked up in panic, her Sect Master Master's smile... was like a devil's!

He was sending her to the Demon Cave again!

"I won't go!"

"I want to find Mistress to paint talismans!"

Xi Xi hurriedly shouted.

Just as she turned to run, she was swiftly picked up by Lv Taibai, and in a single stride, they arrived at the Great Elder's courtyard.

The Great Elder sat on a rocking chair under the eaves, with a beautiful beard spread like silk, silently reading a Holy Sage Book in his hand.

When he saw Xi Xi brought over.

And Lv Taibai had already turned into a shaft of sword light, soaring into the clouds, traversing the void.

Fang Hanshu smoothed his beautiful beard and said with a scholarly smile, "Xi Xi, you're here?"

"Come, let's review last time's lesson. Well, you're now a year older, let's be mature and write any wrong character ten more times, okay?"

Xi Xi held the Gold Brick in her hand, pouted.

Devil!

The Great Elder is a devil!

What does growing up have to do with writing her name ten more times?!

She really wanted to use the brick to knock out this devil Great Elder!

...

...

Inside the Two-Minded Great Saint Mysterious Temple.

Buzzing—

Three magnificent Essence, Qi, and Spirit Three Flowers blossomed, supremely splendid, blazing like the sun.

Burning and twisting, bursting with fierce light, it instantly shattered the gloom within the Mysterious Temple, exceptionally brilliant!

And Li Che stood tall, above his head, and both shoulders, the blazing three flowers spun, like a gold-plated lotus flower!

Li Che suddenly opened his eyes, exhaled a long breath, and in his eyes, an endless blaze, like a rolling burning vast sun, enough to repel any evil spirits!

Crackling——

Extending both arms, the muscles and bones pulsed and exploded like thunder, blood and flesh seemed to glow, Thunder Magnetism Dao Body operated, countless thunders roared around him as if at this moment, perfectly fused with the martial path of the physique!

Boom boom boom!

Thunder exploded in the Mysterious Temple, Li Che's black and vigorous strands of hair wildly danced, continuously lashing at the void, cracking with brilliance!

The unmatched horizontally refined body created through cultivation, seemed at this moment to reach the pinnacle of the physical mortal body!

Within the body, starry lights entangled with thunder, exquisitely brilliant!

Every acupoint contained vast amounts of Gang Qi!

Five Divine Seeds hovered like five stars, invisibly guiding the flow of blood and power through the meridians!

This was Li Che's Horizontal Refinement, tempered to the extreme with the Dao Fruit of [Dragon Elephant Vajra]!

Within the Mysterious Temple.

Li Che initiated his fist techniques, even with extremely simple fists, the raging Gang Qi surged and impacted, the five hundred and forty strands of Innate True Gang transformed into five hundred and forty strands of Three Flowers Gang Qi!

Fused with the thunder power of the Thunder Magnetism Dao Body, extremely righteous, Slay Evil and Suppress Demons!

"Top Three Flowers Grandmaster..."

"I finally achieved it!"

Li Che's eyes flowed with blazing flames, exhaled a long breath of qi, a sound like a low murmur exploded within the Mysterious Temple.
