The look in his eyes is murderous and it subsides a little when Alpha Mike releases me, but everyone can tell that Deimos has trouble regaining control.

"Twilight, what can I do?" I ask her and she tells me to talk to Goliath, his Lycan. I don't know how she knows the name of his Lycan and in that moment I don't care.

"Goliath, you have to give control back to Deimos. I am fine and I doubt Alpha Mike will be stupid enough to come near me again. Just give control back to Deimos, please." I say as I look into his eyes and after he kisses me on my forehead, he retreats to give control back to Deimos.

Once it is clear that Deimos is in control, I push him to move away from Alpha Mike and I am grateful he doesn't fight me on it, he just allows me to guide us to another spot.

I guide him towards the gardens to have a change to talk about what happened. He needs to know why Alpha Mike responded that way and to thank Goliath for protecting me.

Slater and Eryx follow us but keep their distance, almost as if they understand that we need a few minutes to ourselves.

I tell Deimos what happened with Alpha Mike's Daughter and I can see that neither Deimos nor Goliath is pleased.

"Thank you, Goliath. I can take care of myself, but I appreciate the fact that you don't like it when a male acts like that towards a female." I say..

"Sorry to interrupt, but breakfast is about to be served and King Alwin hopes that today they will all follow protocol." Eryx states and I giggle as I think to myself that I hope someone screws up..

Slater guides me towards Dad as Eryx and Deimos walk towards the King and Queen, before they all make their way into the dining room.

I see a familiar face approach us and I smile as he tells us to follow him, "Thank you, Leander. Did any other Rogue show up after I left?" I ask him and he smiles at me as he guides us towards our table.

"No, it stayed quiet after that. I am here because Eryx asked King Alwin to appoint me as your Guard, he wants to make sure that Alpha Mike stays away from you." He answers.

Leander stays near me during breakfast and it is a good thing he did, because Alpha Mike tried to get close to me every chance he got. Leander would just step in between us every time and I managed to get through breakfast without killing Alpha Mike. Deimos

I was surprised to see Leander walking in with Moon Stone Pack, but when Eryx explained that he asked. Alwin to appoint Leander as Zalia's Guard, I understood he wanted to protect her from Alpha Mike, and knowing what Twilight did at the border this morning, might be more to protect Alpha Mike from losing his life.

I link mom and Eryx, because I need them to do something for me, "Guys, I need you to keep an eye on Donovan and Gibson. I can't explain why but something seems off with the two of them, from hearing the others of Moon Stone Pack talk, I would have suspected them to make known that Zalia is their Gamma."

After we finish breakfast, we head to the meeting room for our first meeting and I hope this morning will pass quickly.

Today we will address a territory dispute between Crescent Fall Pack and Rock Moon Pack, both of them want to purchase a piece of land that is connected to their territory, and both have a different reason for wanting the piece of land.

Rock Moon Pack is a nice, secluded Pack and they want the land to accommodate their Pack-members, to build more buildings for their Pack-members. Crescent Fall Pack wants the land to secure a better perimeter around their territory and to expand their Pack business. "Good morning. I hope everyone has taken the time to read the dispute we are going to be handling this morning. I will give both Alphas a chance to explain what they want to use the property for and then we will discuss who has more claim to the property." King Alwin'says and he calls the Alpha of Crescent Fall Pack to the floor.

He presents a good case, but we still have the Alpha of Rock Moon Pack to argue his case. He argues that they deserve the piece of land because they are a larger Pack than Crescent Fall Pack and I have to agree with the Alpha that as a larger Pack they have more use for it.

One after the other Alpha gets up to give King Alwin their opinion and most of them agree with Rock Moon Pack. When it is the turn of Alpha Brad to give his opinion he turns towards Zalia. She gets out of her seat and asks us if we have even taken a look at the papers in front of us, which I have to admit I hadn't.

"There is only one reason Rock Moon Pack wants that piece of land and it has nothing to do with accommodating their members, but everything to do with being bullies. So far every time Crescent Fall Pack tried to acquire a piece of land to expand their Pack business, Rock Moon Pack has come in claiming they need it for their Pack-members.

*Each time Rock Moon Pack has been allowed to acquire the piece of land and guess what the Royal Family has accomplished by doing so." She says, arms crossed over her chest looking mad as hell at all of us. Even King Alwin feels uncomfortable with her statement and for a few moments it is deadly quiet in the room.

Eryx is the first one that gets out of his daze and asks her what she means. "If you look at the territory of Rock Moon Pack, you will notice that every piece of land they acquired in the past decade hasn't been touched and yet their argument for needing it has been the same every time.

You may also notice that Rock Moon Pack has almost closed off Crescent Fall Pack from every road and river surrounding them, something they need for conducting their business and yet none of you have ever looked at the maps closely in all those years. How can any of you make a good and just decision without looking at the big picture?" She asks and her eyes are on King Alwin and my Dad. I have taken a good look at the map during her explanation and I am ashamed to say that she is right, Rock Moon Pack has done anything with the new territories.

I also see that if we allow them to acquire this last piece of land, Crescent Fall Pack will be cur off completely and I get this sickening feeling we might have helped the wrong Pack all these years. me wonder if there have been any other Packs that are or have operated in the same way.

Through the mind-link I inform King Alwin that Zalia is correct and that we need to discuss the other pieces Rock Moon Pack has claimed to need so desperately.

"Rock Moon Pack will provide me a detailed report as to why they have done nothing with their new territory and it will be on my desk tomorrow morning at nine.

If I find any reason for deception from Rock Moon Pack for claiming their need for the pieces of land they acquired over the last decade, I will reclaim them and they will not be receiving a refund of the money they spend. Make sure that your report is detailed and complete, Alpha.

As for the current request in front of us, I side with Crescent Fall Pack, they are allowed to acquire that piece of land and to show them I regret that I didn't do my job thoroughly, I will personally fund half of the amount. I also want to thank Zalia for pointing this but to me, Moon Stone Pack is lucky to have you in their Pack." King Alwin says.

Last night Zalia shocked me when she explained why she hated coming to these meetings, that this wasn't a learning process for her and that I was accommodating Wolves and Lycans to sleep around without holding them responsible. After Moon Stone Pack left our wing to turn in for the night, I had talked to my Gamma about Zalia's statement and he understood where she was coming from, "She is the future Gamma, but no one seems to realize that and no one has pointed it out so far. I am not sure why that is, but because of it she is treated like every other Gamma Daughter.

As a spoiled female that can't take care of herself, a female that needs to watch her diet to maintain her figure even though as a Wolf or a Lycan that is not necessary, she has learned the hard way to keep the peace, if she hadn't, I am sure someone would have died by now." He had answered me and we both chuckled at the thought of that.

Eryx asks me if Zalia has permission to take down a Rogue that is nearing our border and after hearing that Leander is there, I grant her the permission she needs. Leander reports on the Rogue and how Zalia dealt with him half an hour later, we head down to breakfast as Leander makes his way up to the Betal Floor to freshen up.

"Your Majesty, something happened between Zalia and alpha Mike. I will let you listen in on the conversation." Eryx links me and I remember Alpha Mike's Pack was the last Pack they visited, this must have happened during that visit. Leander agrees to keep an eye on Zalia, especially after I tell him what happened with Alpha Mike and I know he will make sure she doesn't have a reason to hurt the Asshole.

Every Alpha has the right to let a Pack-member speak on his behalf and when Zalia gets up to address the issue at hand I know something is up. The more she says the more stunned I am, and even though many Alphas will think she is disrespectful to me she isn't, after all I asked for everyone's opinion.

Now I am even more surprised Donovan hasn't pointed out to anyone that she will be his Gamma, she has proven to every male in this room that she has what it takes to become an excellent Gamma and any Pack that will have her as their Gamma will benefit greatly from it.

She saw that a problem occurred with Rock Moon Pack purchasing those pieces of land and she knew that no one else had seen it before, I remember that Crescent Fall Pack brought it to our attention last time but

Rock Moon Pack had assured them that it would cause problems. Looks like it was done to se problems and I didn't see it coming. Deimos

Okay, it is official. I have lost my fucking mind. This is the first time I am actually sorry the meeting is coming to an end and it has everything to do with the members of Moon Stone Pack, they have made the past few days a whole lot better from any other year. I am not sure what to think about Donovan and Gibson Don't get me wrong they are decent males, but something about them doesn't add up and after I discussed it with Ammon after that first day, he decided to keep an eye on them and even though he couldn't figure it out either, he agrees with me.

Elinor might be an Alpha's Daughter, but she knows how to behave as a grown up and she knows more about an Alpha's job than some future Alphas I met in the past few days. Kali seems to understands a lot more about her Father's job than her Brother does, but she never makes him feel less when she corrects him.

Slater and Zalia seem to work as one and I know he will make an excellent Gamma one day, I just hope his Mate is from another Pack with the same rank. Because within Moon Stone Pack he will never get the position, both the Alpha and Beta made that very clear I am waiting not far from the suite they are staying in and I have two Warriors with me to keep unwanted attention away from me. They will stay close even after Moon Stone Pack has shown up. It is not just for my protection, it is also for Zalia as more and more Wolves and Lycans have started to glare at her for spending time with me.

I can't tell if she is my fated Mate or not, I need to be with her during the Full Moon and it is another two weeks until the next Full Moon. All I know is that she is funny, smart and gorgeous, I can talk to her about almost anything and she never shies away from an argument on any subject.

Ammon and Asha like listening to those arguments. It gives them a chance to practice with listening to arguments that can't cause a war if they respond to slowly. According to them, Zalia and I can go at it like Two Alphas. I smile remembering the first time she pointed out that we overlooked something important, the issue between Crescent Fall Pack and Rock Moon Pack.

It wasn't the only time she pointed out things none of us had noticed, and almost every time she did I felt ashamed calling myself a Gamma. It is a Gamma's job to see to the security of a Pack and its Pack- members and as a future Royal Gamma it is my job to make sure every Pack gets protected.

A Gamma is in charge of training their Pack-members of placing the right Warrior at the right station and to make sure that their Pack security is where it should be. A Gamma needs to think at least two steps ahead, to see what might happen in certain situations and I failed at that with Crescent Fall Pack.

My Dad and I had a serious discussion that second night and we started looking at this type of behavior, but luckily so far only Rock Moon Pack had played us like that. The King reclaimed every piece of land they ever acquired, and in addition to the piece of land Crescent Fall Pack asked for this time, they were allowed to pick another piece of land without being charged for it.

I hear the door of their suite open and Kali is the first to walk out.

"Good morning, Kali. Did you sleep well?" I ask her. I found out the first morning that she doesn't sleep well if she is not in her own bed.

"Not really, do you think the King will allow me to bring my own bed next time?" She mumbles as she walks past me.

I tell the King through the mind-link about Kali's request and he closes the link before he has given me an answer.

Elinor and Slater are discussing this morning's meeting as they walk past me.

"Good morning, Deimos. Just a few more hours and you will be able to breathe a little easier again, until Mavka invites you for dinner again." Zalia says as she walks towards me.

I make a gagging sound as she mention Mavka and we both laugh because we both know she won't stop until I find my fated Mate. Goliath has been able to talk to Twilight, Zalia's Lycan, and he told me that Twilight is just like Zalia in her opinions, she also speaks her mind.

It is not common for Lycans or Wolves to talk to one and other, but they are not the first ones that made that connection and I know it has made the past few days easier to deal with for Goliath.

Last night I asked him if I would be able to talk to Twilight, but he couldn't tell me so we are going to test

1. it. Sila was very surprised to hear that Goliath and Twilight were able to communicate. We discussed if this would actually work and Sila asked me to inform her the moment I had an answer. Twilight, can you hear me?" I ask and I see Zalia turning towards me with a confused look in her eyes.

"Sorry, Goliath and I wanted to test something. Maybe I should have warned you up front, but we were both curious if it was just our Lycans that could communicate." I explain.

"We both heard you, Deimos." She says and I smile as ink Sila to let her know the results of my little test and she squeals through the mind-link.

"Yes, Deimos. I can hear you and you already know that Zalia could hear you as well." Twilight says and I stop walking as I look at Zalia with a smile on my face.

"This will make today even better, now we can talk even if we are seated at our own tables. "I say to Zalia as I place my hand on her lower back to guide her down the stairs.

"Zalia, have you seen Donovan and Gibson?" Alpha Brad asks and when she shakes her head I notice that he links them.

We only have to wait a few minutes when they come running up the stairs and as they reach the landing of the floor we are on, I can smell both males smelling of sex. By the look on their faces. I can see that everyone else has smelled it as well and Alpha Brad is growling at both males. "Have the two of you lost your fucking minds?" He asks, but he doesn't allow them to answer.

You both have constantly been talking bad about other males and females that are unwilling to wait for their fated Mate and yet here we are with the two of you smelling of sex." He growls.

"Let's just hope they wrapped it up, Alpha." Zalia replies and Alpha Brad roars as the look on Donovan and Gibson's faces tell us they didn't.

Get those females and their Fathers to our suite, now." He growls and we all walk back to their suite while Donovan and Gibson walk back down the stairs.
