

A Glitched 661

Chapter 661 Boss Battle

By gathering a part of Heavenly Sun's powers, which had stored Sunlight I was saving for this moment, and by enhancing all of my body's capabilities utilizing an arrangement of several Body Boosting Spells, I was capable of parrying the Fishman King's attack.

Scarlet unleashed a thunderous shockwave of lightning and shining holy light, combining them together to form a new element, [Divine Lightning].

Taking into consideration the Fishmen severe weakness against Lightning, this was the best way to fight their King!

Spark... SPARK!

CRACKLE!

Lightning began to emerge out of Scarlet, as I utilized her newly acquired Skill [Dragon Fang] to negate a part of the Fishman King's trident's total endurance and defenses, making my blow even stronger!

CLAAASH!

"Hoh?! S-Such magnificent power...!" The Fishman King's entire body began to be electrocuted, as his powerful trident started to gain countless cracks. "What sort of little monster are you?! And that endless Mana...!"

"If I were you, I wouldn't be talking right now." I gave him some advice.

FLASH!

Suddenly, a mass of shadows emerged right behind him, stealthily sneaking into the Fishman King's shadows, and then materializing into a beautiful girl made of darkness. With long, tentacle-like black hair, and only two red eyes as her only facial expressions.

The two daggers she held converged with her own body, forming into two massive scythes that immediately unleashed a devastating attack against the Fishman King's back.

"[Abyssal Decapitation]!"

SLAAASH! SLAAASH!

"UNNGH...?!"

The Fishman King felt horror and agony, quickly jumping away from getting hurt more. He tanked a lethal attack like nothing though, his back was covered in blood though, and the wound Aquarina left was cursed too, so it wasn't going to regenerate any time soon either.

"Nnggh...! Oooh, that form...!" He muttered, vomiting blood while seemingly not caring about his deadly wound. "A descendant of the Gods Personal Assassins, the Vampyr, is it not?! To think your accursed slave bloodline still exists! Your death shall be the tastiest!!!"

His blood suddenly began boiling, infusing itself into his trident as it suddenly began overflowing with even more power, growing larger and more powerful, as an icy and electrifying aura erupted from his weapon.

FLAAAASH!

His speed was once more boosted, as he charged straight towards us. However, what greeted him was an enormous storm of winds and lightning, throwing him down into the ground.

"[Thunderous Storm]!"

FLUOOOOSH!

"AAGGH!"

BAAAAMMM!!!

The Fishman King fell into the floor so hard a few of his bones were clearly heard being shattered. Zack showed up right in the last moment, impacting him with one of his strongest spells.

"You've not forgotten about us, haven't you?!" Zack greeted the Fishman King alongside Mist, Celeste, and Celica.

"You nobodies, why should I care about those that are not branded as Heroes?!" The Fishman King arrogantly said. "But if death is what you desire! I shall serve it to you!!!"

He immediately stood up, ignoring all of his wounds, as he unleashed a barrage of thunderous attacks using his trident!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

Zack intercepted a few, but several others impacted him with enormous, magical force, throwing him away.

BAAAM!!!

"D-Damn it, this guy's strong..." Zack's Beast Aura emerged around his body as Mist's healing spell began healing his wounds, he stood up like nothing, his strength only growing larger.

"Amazonian Bloodline, huh? You sure are an annoying race of slaves. Designed exclusively to be able to lift incredibly heavy objects, slaves made to construct and carry things. Gifted with enormous physical strength, yet completely brainless! I can tell!" The Fishman King laughed. "Here, take what you sought and drown in death!"

The Fishman King's Mana gathered at the tip of his trident, rapidly pointing it at Zack to finish him off. Well, I was going to let that happen, nor any of us.

"[Cursed Chains]!"

Curse combined his powers with me and also with Celeste, as the three of us conjured dozens of chains that wrapped around the Fishman King's arms, legs, and the rest of his body, draining away his Mana and Life.

"GUH?! Such a powerful Curse... What is this even?!" He felt completely shocked, right before an enormous Horned Bear made out of Zack's Beast Aura, and his primary Elements of Wind and Lightning smacked his entire body into the walls at his left.

BAAAAAMMMMM...!

"W-WHAT...? That aura...?! How?!"

He finally started to panic. He was really thinking we were small fry? He had it wrong this whole time. He fell to his knees. He was Tier 5 Rank 5, pretty strong. But not unbeatable with all our might. Even less when I've been disrupting his Mana all this time.

I immediately realized he wasn't normal the moment he ignored the Coral Golem's provocations. I cannot use the golem against a foe like him, he's way too intelligent and fast.

So I just went around with my newest Skill, and well, it worked wonders!

"Mister Teddy! Crush him!!!"

"GRUOOOHHHH!"

Celica's golem stepped in rather quickly, jumping straight over the Fishman King and attacking him with everything it had.

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

"NNNGGHH...! Just a pathetic golem dares damage my body?!"

The Fishman King suddenly began glowing with an even stronger Mana, even if disrupted and weakened, he still forced his way into freeing himself from the Cursed Chains!

CRAAASH!

"I won't tolerate this anymore!!!"

His fist unleashed a tremendous quantity of Mana, impacting Mister Teddy and blowing the golem's entire body into pieces.

BOOOOOOMMMM!!!!

"Mister Teddy!!!" Celica panicked.

"Puppet Master Magic is surely something, but you're a mere little demon girl! Your ancestors would surely be disappointed of your powerlessness!" The Fishman King roared furiously, stepping over the floor with such strength he generated a powerful Magic Shockwave, crumbling the entire floor and throwing away Celica into the air!

RUMBLE!

As this happened, I rushed forward as Aquarina sneakily tried to get into his shadows once more. I channeled the power of my spirits rapidly, conjuring Natoria's help and filling the entire floor with tree roots one after the other, and catching Celica with vines before she were to get crushed by the rubble!

"J-Just how many elements can you control?!" The Fishman King asked.

"Maybe all of them, who knows?!" I smiled back.

CLAAASH!

Chapter 662 Overwhelming The Fishmen King!

"Alice! Ignatius! Natoria!"

"GOTCHA!"

All three of my primary Spirits gathered their power, combining Light, Nature, and Fire into my ultimate element, the one I used to beat a Demon Lord before.

FLUOOOSH!

Golden flames emerged from within my entire body, covering it as they fused with my various other skills. My Beast Aura emerged, glowing with golden divine flames as they shaped into a ferocious dragon.

"[Draconic Aura]! [Dragon Claws]!"

TRUUUUUMMMM...!

Enormous dragon claws began falling from the skies, reaching the Fishman King in mere seconds!

"This power... D-Divine Flames?! And how come your power... is that of a dragon?!"

CLAAASH! CLAAAASH! CLAAAAASSSHHHHH!!!

"GRUAAAGGGH...!"

The Fishman King was completely unable to defend, the flames erupted everywhere, engulfing his entire body, and slashing away at his flesh and bones.

"[Dragon's Jaws]!"

I jumped over the Fishman King and aimed at his neck, my aura shaping as a ferocious dragon made of golden flames, and of course, when combining it with Scarlet's [Dragon Fang], it truly became a fearful combination technique!

CRAAAASSSHHHH!!!

The combined powers of Naturia, Alice, and Ignatius erupted into pure power, biting through the neck of the Fishman King. His enormous stamina somehow maintaining him alive as he furiously punched me away from him.

BAAAAM!

I couldn't evade when I was conjuring such a strong technique, but it was a hit I could take. My entire body broke, my muscles and bones barely not giving up completely. But my stomach was pierced by my ribs, which were all broken.

"Ngh... [Divine Healing Flames]"

FLUOOOSH!

I repurposed the power of the Divine Flames and created a Spell on the moment, combining it with Sapphire's Restoration, my wounds slowly closed, albeit internal damage was still there.

"YOUUUUU...! AGGGH...! T-THESE FLAMES... THEY'RE LIKE A CURSE!"

The Fishman King began rushing towards me, his movements now finally slower and he seemed to be near death's door. These flames were, of course, modified, and not the same as before.

"Heh, of course they're not the same as before." Curse laughed.

"This is the power of Poisonous Flames!" Laughed Beelzebub.

I had more spirits, so why not add them into the mix? Divine Flames had been improved even more as they now acted like a curse that sapped a target's life and mana, while also poisoning them thanks to Curse and Beelzebub. Of course, it was extremely hard to create and keep up, so I couldn't simply utilize this for any foe I encountered.

Nonetheless...

"NOW!"

Furoh emerged out of Aquarina's shadows, as she was right behind the Fishman King. His senses too dull now to realize two assassins sneaked from behind him! Furoh having taken Aquarina's form with his Mimicry, he could only imitate a fragment of her strength, but it was enough to complement her, as the two combined their darkness powers together.

FLAAASH!

"HUH!? You're too naïve if you think you can get behind me again!!!"

The Fishman King felt shocked, even when covered in Divine Flames, he was still horribly strong. He smiled, quickly unleashing a barrage of trident attacks against Aquarina and Furoh before they could even hit him!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

BOOOOMMM!!!

However, his blows barely managed to miss them two, as he suddenly realized something was holding him back. Noticing that Celeste, Celica, and Mist were grabbing his legs utilizing chains made of magic.

"Y-You again and your damn chains...?!"

"[Razzle Dazzle]!!!"

Mist gathered all her Mana as her staff glowed the brightest!

FLAAAASH!

The eyes of the Fishman King couldn't even blink because he was a fish, the light pieced his eyes, blinding him completely!

"GRAAAHHHHH...!"

And as he struggled, Aquarina and Furoh received my Mana in the meantime, overflowing with it, they unleashed their power!

"[Soul Reaping Scythe]!!!"

The two combined their powers, an enormous scythe made of shadows emerged behind the Fishman King, slashing his back and then, tearing apart his soul into pieces.

SLAAAAAASH!

"GRYYYYYAAAAGGGGH...!!!"

His soul began to struggle, but it quickly ended being sliced apart, shattered!

BAAAM!

His enormous body finally fell into the ground, motionlessly.

"W-We did it?" Asked Zack, slowly making his way back here.

"I-I never though blinding him would work this well..." Mist said.

"Yeah, I guess this is over...!" Aquarina sighed in relief.

It all happened really quickly, but I felt relieved. We all sat down over the floor, gasping for air. We started chatting a bit to lift our mood. Now that we were done here, it would be nice to go back home as soon as possible to make the items I promised.

Ding!

[You have completed the Special [Chain Quest]: [Defeat the Guardian of the Dungeon's Floor 3, and the Final Boss, the Fishman King!]

[Congratulations on defeating the Final Boss! It can now be officially said you're the Dungeon Conquerors! You've received special rewards due to your amazing efforts.]

[You have completed the Quest in less than 1 Hour, you've received Bonus rewards!]

[Completion Rewards: [1000000 EXP] [500000 Shared EXP] [Random Rune Potion (C Grade)] x6 [Random Skill Proficiency Potion (C Grade)] x6 [Fishman King's Necklace (C Grade)] x1!]

Nice, with that done...

"Well, we should get going-"

"Over? This isn't over yet, you damn brats."

However, before we could even relax, we heard a tenebrous voice. The corpse of the Fishman King spoke, but with a different, more phantasmal, and terrifying voice than before. I quickly saw into the future...

"Wait...!"

I put everything into my powers, quickly expanding my Mana into a massive mass and catching everyone with it, right before an enormous explosion of Magic power emerged from within the Fishman King's body.

BOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!!!

It was pure, monstrous darkness- no, it was an even more powerful element.

CHAOS!

RUMBLE!

The entire hall began trembling, as I was thrown away harshly. Furoh transformed into Pyuku and Pyuku also helped, encompassing all of our bodies into a combined bubble to resist the enormous impact.

BAAAAMMM!!!

"W-What is that?!" Mist asked in fear.

"I-its...!" Zack couldn't believe it.

"Spi... spiders?!" Celica asked.

From within the corpse of the Fishman King, an enormous swarm of one-meter-big black spiders started to emerge in enormous quantities, all of them glowing with black and purple auras and red eyes. The presence of the Fishman King could be felt. I had not been able to absorb his soul as EXP because he never truly died to begin with.

"This is all thanks to Lady Lolth... My rebirth! Hahaha...! It is so beautiful...! GAHAHAHA!"

The hundreds of spiders converged together into a monstrous, and gargantuan black spider, the voice of the Fishman King echoing from within.

The true identity behind the Fishman King finally made itself clear.

Was this thing always inside of him?!

It was almost as strong as a Demon Lord...

"My name is Sarach the Parasite, the loyal servant of the Demon Lord of Swarms, Arachne, and faithful worshipper of our Evil Goddess, Lady Lolth!"

Chapter 663 Sarach, The Parasite

"I am Sarach the Parasite, the loyal servant of the Demon Lord of Swarms, Arachne, and faithful worshipper of our Evil Goddess, Lady Lolth!"

So that "Lady Lolth" that the Fishman King was talking about was an Evil Goddess?! Evil Gods are Gods that betrayed the others and decided to go on their own, sometimes mutating and transforming into stronger beings, but with also more necessities.

And this guy is the loyal servant of the Demon Lord of Swarms, Arachne... So there's still a few more Demon Lords left behind from the previous war?! Makes sense now that the Fishman King knew about us, he was being parasitized by Sarach this whole time.

But who the heck is this guy?!

My Heavenly Eyes shone brightly as I analyzed his monstrous form.

Ding!

[The power of [Heavenly Eyes] is being activated!]

[Sarach, the Parasite.]

A Loyal Servant of the Demon Lord of Swarms, Arachne, and a faithful worshipper of the Evil Goddess, Lolth. His entire body is composed of thousands of smaller insects and utilizes his aberrant form to parasitize them. His true form, however, is a small worm which controls the rest of the swarm, always protected.

He loves to parasitize other beings, and when they're killed, he can absorb their powers for himself. A reason why he has grown this powerful is due to the many monsters he has devoured and assimilated into his own.

His current power varies a lot depending on the amount of insects composing his swarm, or of any being he's currently parasitizing. It can go as high as over Tier 8, but his weakened state might be as weak as Tier 2.

Recommendation: Destroy his swarm and weaken him before finding his real body and destroy it. Be careful of his various skills, especially of his poison and illusion magic.

Extra Information: A Fragment of the Demon King is held by him, generating a powerful Chaos Aura that can weaken or even negate elemental magic.

Amazing, after so many level ups, Heavenly Eyes can show so much info! With this I think... we might be able to destroy him. Though it's going to be hard, really hard. If not almost impossible.

Ding!

[A Special [Chain Quest] has been generated: [Defeat the Loyal Servant of the Demon Lord of Swarms, Sarach the Parasite!]

[In front of you stands the one behind everything. Sarach was controlling the Fishman King all this time! Defeat him before its too late or he'll take you and your friends' lives! Be careful of his powerful swarm of insects!]

[Completion Rewards: [1000000 EXP] [500000 Shared EXP] [Super Strengthening Elixir (B Grade)] x2 [Superior Skill Proficiency Potion (B Grade)] x2 [High Grade Rune Potion (B Grade)] x2 [???] x1 [???] x1!]

[Time Limit: 1 Hour]

[Complete this Quest under half of the Time Limit to obtain a Mysterious Bonus Reward!]

Eh?! Seriously, another quest?!

"He's a servant of a Demon Lord?!" Zack asked in shock.

"We don't stand a chance! We have to run away!" Celeste said.

"But the gates are still closed, and they won't open at all, the material is super tough too!" Aquarina said, she had been hitting the gates with her full power for a while now.

"Are you telling me we have to... fight and kill this thing?!" Asked Celeste.

"Mister Teddy's gone..." Celica cried. "And now... What can we do?"

"Uuugh...!" Mist cried. "My magic is weakening... That Chaos Aura he has... What is it!?"

"Ahahahah! Cower in fear, you damn children! Now that you're weakened after that fight, you're ripe for the taking! Ahhh! I will make sure to parasitize you one by one and eat you all alive!!!" Laughed Sarach. "But don't worry, my swarm shall take the first bites!"

Aside from the one-meter-big black spiders, other insects began to emerge, giant millipedes, large cockroaches, monstrous worms with sharp fangs, large beetles, flies, and more. They were weaker by themselves, but they were hundreds of them, and Sarach had some sort of pocket dimension because he kept summoning them.

"GO! Eat them all! Devour them!!!" Sarach laughed, the power of the Demon King Fragment he held boosting the power of all his swarm, which overflowed with smaller Chaos Auras.

"They're coming...! Stay behind me! I'll open a path!" I said. "My eyes told me that he's actually way weaker once the swarm is gone, we have to slay all of his swarm and get to him!"

"Is it even possible?!" Asked Mist.

"T-This is too much!" Zephy complained.

"Uuuggh..." Celica was also afraid.

"Nephi, protect those three with all you've got!" I said.

"Very well!" Nephilim said, her aura emanating from her beginning to spread out, suddenly clashing against the Chaos Auras! "[Heavenly Chaos Aura]!"

FLAAAAAASH!

"Ngh?! W-What with that aura!?" Sarach felt suddenly surprised, he didn't see that coming.

Analyzing the situation, I suddenly realized what was happening. Nephilim's aura easily weakened the enemy's aura, and she even tweaked her own to boost our own stats. But her Mana was being drained constantly. Thankfully, with my Mana Manipulation, I can transfer her as much Mana as she wants.

"I hope this can help!" Nephilim said, suddenly conjuring a barrier made of light and darkness. "[Limbo Domain]!"

FLAAAASH!

The barrier quickly encapsulated Mist, Celica, and Zephy, while Celeste, Zack, and Aquarina stayed outside. Celeste was slightly frightened too, but she was too old for her to be crying like a baby like the others.

"I guess there's no helping it!" Zack said with a defying smile. "This aura's amazing though! Can Nephilim keep this up for long?"

"I have no idea, but if she hasn't used it before, it must probably exhaust her a lot even if I keep giving her Mana!" I said.

"Well, we've gotta put it to good use then!" Aquarina said. "Celeste, snap out of it!"

Aquarina smacked Celeste's head, as she suddenly opened her eyes wide.

"Ah! R-Right...! I... Sorry! I'll fight too! Even if I die, I don't give a damn!" Celeste roared. She was probably remembering the same fear she felt when she encountered the evil gods, this chaotic aura was really frightening.

"Let's advance together while pushing the swarm back to Sarach then!" I roared, imbuing all the Mana I could into my sword. I still had power accumulated inside of my Heavenly Sun Skill, but I had to save it to destroy Sarach's true body.

Therefore, I will just bring out the power of my Spirits and Scarlet and Sapphire to push back as much as I can... And for that reason, I need to change my Class and Subclass!

[The Effects of the [Subclass]: [Spirit Master] have been activated, all your allied Spirit's Stats have increased by +250%, and their Magic and Skill Damage increases by an additional +150%.]

[Allied Spirits now also include the Spirits of your allies. And also non-spirit Familiars. However, those only receive half of the benefits.]

FLUOSH!

As I changed Classes temporarily, I felt my power overflowing. Powerful Spiritual Auras emerged in all allied Familiars, but not only mine, but also those of my allies! Aquarina's, Zack's, Celeste's, Celica's, and more, all of their Familiars grew temporarily stronger, as long as I keep this subclass active.

"Grant [Swarm Killer] Title!" I said, pointing at all my allies, as powerful black energies flew into all their directions, even those being protected behind us.

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

[All your allies have been granted the [Swarm Killer] Title!]

[All Insect-type monsters they fight will have their stats lowered by -10%, and they will be able to deal an additional 75% damage, ignoring 25% of their total defenses.]

[These debuff can be stacked together for even additional effects.]

Holy shit, I don't remember this being a thing at all, but it is welcome! I think these better and stronger effects only mean one thing, the System, Alice, has been growing way stronger as well. And perhaps also activating Spirit Master boosted her own inner workings too.

These powerful effects also affected my spirits and familiars as I granted the titles to them too... Which means, a total massacre!

"W-What with those auras?! What is going on?!" Asked Sarach, suddenly feeling more and more confused.

The power of Swarm Exterminator started stacking with Swarm Killer of my many allies, as we started slaughtering dozens of bug monsters at once!

"Scarlet! [Dragon Fang]! [Lightning Blade]!"

I imbued Mana into Scarlet as she unleashed a powerful lightning attack, which spread out into countless dragons made of thunder that attacked dozens of insects at once. Because Scarlet was also a familiar, she received these bonuses, even if only half of them.

"I'll call this ability [Lightning Dragon Fang]!"

CRAAAAAASSHHH!!!

An enormous explosion of lightning erupted everywhere, as I saw countless bugs evaporate into nothing or turn into ashes. I also felt a nice rush of EXP reaching my soul, and so my familiars.

The debuff stacking was working wonders on weakening the massive and endless swarm of insects, which would have truly eaten us alive if I hadn't intervened.

Thankfully, I had saved my class changing for later, as I knew it exhausted me and Alice severely.

"Alice!"

"Very well!"

I channeled my Mana into Alice as she conjured her powerful Divine Light Magic, countless magic circles surged at my side...

"Divine Light Magic: [Heavenly Blade Rain]!"

The magic circles conjured hundreds of small blades made of divine light, piercing our foes mercilessly one by one! The bugs kept coming, but they also kept being blasted away!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

"Ignatius!"

"Sure!"

"Blazing Dragon Magic: [Devastating Infernal Breath]!!"

"ROOOAAARRR!"

Ignatius regained a gigantic dragon form as he absorbed my own flames through repeatedly conjuring Ember, his entire body opening his massive draconic jaws as he unleashed a truly devastating, and explosive infernal dragon breath!

BOOOOOOOOMMMMM!!!!

"GRYYYYEEHHH...!!"

The screams of countless insects being roasted alive echoed around the entire dungeon, as the screams of disbelief of Sarach became louder and more noticeable with each second that passed.

"T-This is...! It can't be! How did you grew so strong out of thin air?!" He asked in disbelief, incapable of comprehending the cheat-like power of having a System.

"Beelzebub! Curse!"

I called upon Beelzebub and Curse, ignoring the words of the stupid parasite, as they responded to my call, their auras overflowing with new power thanks to my Subclass Change.

"Combine your Magic! Poison & Curse Magic: [Eternal Poisonous Chains of the Abyss]!"

I channeled my Mana and even my own Curse as well, merging the power together as the two Spirits generated massive chains made of corrosive, weakening poison that started spreading everywhere, chaining down the larger insects and weakening them and everything else nearby!

CRAAAASH!

"Now, Naturia...! [Rose Garden Blossom]!"

Combining Poison and Nature Magic created truly wonderful creations, even more when you put up some spirit power and curse magic in the mix! The chains quickly started blossoming as countless roses of purple and black color emerged, with sharp thorns, trapping and killing dozens of more insects.

Chapter 665 A Desperate Battle!

Although I was able to pull my weight in the frontlines, without everyone's help, I would have still been overwhelmed. Sarah acted panicked but his endless army probably had dozens of millions of insects, they simply kept coming without end!

Thankfully, Aquarina, Zack, and Celeste were here. Although Celeste had gone slightly insane after considering the odds, she quickly began to realize everything wasn't as lost. No, as long as I am here it won't be a lost cause. As long as Alice is here with us, there's always a chance to turn the tables to our favor.

"I won't let you get through! RAAAAHHH!!! Dark Shadow Magic: [Darkness Domain]! [Shadow Chains]! [Cursed Eyes of Demise]! [Endless Bat Swarm]! [Shadow Specters]! [Darkness Bombs]!!!"

Celeste was going insane in the most simplest of words. Her magical spells were coming one after the other. If one thing she benefitted from her contract with the Evil Gods and the True Demon Spirit that was taken away from her which stayed, is her abnormally large Mana Pool.

Indeed, unlike other people at her Rank which would usually have... in numerical terms, around 10k MP, she had like 500k! It was a rather interesting gift left behind which she theorized might be due to the enormous hole left inside her soul after having taken away the divine protections of the evil gods, which then was naturally filled with the Mana of the environment.

BOOOM! CLAAASH! SHAAA! TRUUUM!

Her Spells were devastating the rear left side of the entire hall. Shadow Domains emerged, taking away dozens of bugs into abyssal shadow spaces and then chains weakened them, cursed eyes blasted them with beams of red light, bats began biting them and tearing them down, and spheres of darkness exploded one after the other.

However, her Mana had already ran out even at her current amount, but I was supplying her with plenty of my own Mana constantly anyways, enhancing her ability to conjure as many spells as she wanted.

Thanks to Mana Manipulation reaching Level 100, the pressure I get and the damage I got into my soul from overusing Mana has been completely negated, so that meant I could go all out with sharing my Mana more freely.

Meanwhile, in the other side, Zack was unleashing attacks of his own. His Beast Aura emerged once more, this time boosting his power to become that of the Horned Storm Bear that his Soul Beast was.

"Storm Magic: [Grand Tornado]! [Storming Domain]! [Thunderstorm]! [Twin Lightning Axe]! [Zeus Thunder]!"

FLUOOOSH! TRUUUUMMM! CRAAAAAASH!

Massive attacks of devastating proportions spread out, destroying the swarm of insects constantly. He generated a domain of wind and lightning that constantly grew stronger as it twisted faster and faster the more monsters it killed, exploding into wind and lightning and taking more and more victims with each passing second.

Additionally, massive lightning strikes coming from his axe and then gigantic thunders falling from his fingers constantly punished any insect bold enough to walk closer to him, the boost of my buffs was greatly enchanting both his spirit's powers and his own damage dealt thanks to Swarm Killer.

Aquarina, in the other side, completely devastated dozens of hordes of insect monsters by herself. She moved at super-fast speed with her powerful [Shadow Embodiment] while her body kept shapeshifting into many forms to allow her to evade and devastate her foes. Her long white hair had turned into gigantic tentacles, hitting everything in her way as her hands began firing shadow bullets and then her foot touched the ground, freezing everything else.

Her two daggers resonated with one another, shadow slashes and ice spikes being generated from the water produced by one of her daggers easily pierced everything else. She was also boldly attacking the center of the battlefield where Sarach was, attempting to damage him or find his true body. Her three familiars were helping at that.

Pyuku, Undine, and Leviathan combined their strength to unleash a [Winter Storm Dragon], a gigantic draconic spell that conjured a monstrous dragon-shaped storm of ice that constantly froze and shattered the endless swarms protecting Sarach's true body!

CLAAASH! CRAAASH! BOOOM!

"GGRRRRHHHH...! So annoying! I guess I cannot simply let my children eat you! I'll have to step in...!" Sarach roared furiously, suddenly, a gigantic mass of thousands of insects emerged from where the Fishman King's body used to be, now completely reduced to nothing, not even bones.

The swarm solidified together somehow, forming a giant made of insects which quickly began conjuring the power of countless monster abilities and magic together, although alone they were very weak, combined by the dozens, it became a truly frightening power!

"Learn your place, trash! I've devoured and parasitized countless monsters and warriors, many heroes have perished against my might! And their powers are mine! Dear, tremble!!!" He started to laugh insanely. "Monster Ability Fusion: [Apocalyptic Chimeric Expansion]!!!"

FLUOOOOSH!

A mass of pure chaos and countless other abilities merged together as a mass of darkness spread out like a shockwave, reaching everywhere and then beginning to mutate into countless other monsters, not only insects anymore! But this wasn't living beings, this was merely an ability!

"[The Jaws of the Lion Tyrant]!"

"ROOOAARRRR!"

A gigantic pair of jaws emerged from within this mass, attempting to bite Aquarina as she parried the attack barely, being thrown away!

CLAAASH!

"[The Deadly Scythes of the Undying Mantis Empress]!"

FLAAAASH!

Two gigantic scythes from a mantis emerged, slashing away against Zack as he unleashed a storm of winds and lightning to intercept, barely managing to remain unscathed!

CRAAAASH!

"[The Fury of the Abyssal Wolves]!"

"GRAAARGGH! ROAAR! WOOF!"

An amorphous mass of hundreds of wolves mixed together appeared, spreading everywhere and attempting to devour us all together! I quickly acted as I unleashed countless attacks utilizing my spirits and Scarlet, walls of flames, dragon breaths, shining light beams, thorny vines, explosive dark chains, and weakening curses!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

"You're not exactly the only one that possess the power of many monsters within you!" I laughed.
"Furoh!"

"On it!"

Furoh, still copying Aquarina quickly emerged out of my shadows, fully restored now, he immediately shapeshifted into his truest form!

"[Ultimate Aberrant Form]!"

FLAAAASH!

Chapter 666 Divine Fusion Magic!

"[Ultimate Aberrant Form]!"

FLAAAAAASH!

Furoh channeled the near endless source of Mana that was coming from my soul as he unleashed the power of the strongest monsters and beings he had ever copied with his mimicry skill, combining them all together into a powerful, chimeric form, an ultimate chimera!

"GROOOOOAAAAARRRRR!!!!"

The roar that combined that of a dragon, a Fenrir, and even the True Demons echoed across the hall, as powerful multi-elemental auras converged together chaotically. He even copied all of Sarach's powers to an extent, the recent abilities as well as the Fishman King.

The aberrant chimera had the body of a gigantic Fenrir with three dragon heads, the tail with the head of a giant snake and a wolf, four dragon wings and six legs of different beasts, all covered in countless, different-colored eyes!

"Sylphy, I cannot keep this form for too long...! At most, five minutes!"

"I get it! Let's go all out then!"

"Alright!"

Sarach's reaction to Furoh was completely priceless! His entire voice echoed in shock as he felt completely flabbergasted.

"W-What?! A Mimic Demon?! And one of such high rank! T-This is impossible! I had... I had made sure that your kin were to be exterminated! How come?!" He roared furiously.

"What?! You exterminated my kin?!" Furoh instantly reacted. "You bastard...!"

Furoh roared furiously, devastating chaos itself as thousands of insects died by his monstrous attacks. Draconic Breaths coming from his mimicry of Ignatius' brother, devastating Elemental Magic from his mimicry of Fenrir, destructive elemental attacks from many other monsters he had encountered, and even Demonic Magic from the True Demons we once fought!

BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOM!

"T-Tch...! Yes, I exterminated them long ago! How come there's one behind? I had absorbed all of your kin's powers, yet there's always... always someone of your damned kin that emerges attempting to throw me away from my throne!" Sarach roared furiously, as he summoned thousands of more insects, countless arms emerged from these swarms of insects stuck together as he started punching Furoh and blowing countless holes over his body!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

"This bastard..." Celeste was surprised. "Don't tell me he got these powers from absorbing them from the Mimic Demon Tribe?!"

"Furoh, beat the shit out of him!!!" Zack roared.

"You can do it!" Aquarina said.

"Here, take all my Mana!" I roared, as I imbued even more Mana into Furoh while everyone else fought against the swarms coming from literally every single corner.

"If what you say is true then...! I won't forgive you! It was your fault that I was unable to ever meet with my tribe! We'll make sure to KILL you! RAAAAAAAHHHH!!! [Primordial Sin: Gluttony]!!!"

TRUUUUUMMMM...!

Furoh activated his strongest Skill, the innate ability he awakened upon evolving and obtaining a System. The power of Gluttony, a Primordial Sin of incredible power. It exhausted him severely to use it, but now he simply didn't seem to care about his own exhaustion, as his entire body shapeshifted into an endless chimeric mass, fighting against the endless mass of insects and chaos that Sarach was!

CLAAAAAASSSHHHH!!!

"Y-You bastard! How come you possess a Primordial Sin?! T-This is impossible!" Sarach roared. "Monster Ability Fusion: [Endless Abyssal Maws]!"

FLAAAASH!

Sarach went all out, conjuring a combination of countless monster abilities as a crack in space itself opened, massive jaws leading to an endless abyss appearing! However, Furoh had a similar power.

"That is merely a cheap imitation!" Furoh roared. "[Primordial Gluttonous Jaws of Demise]!"

FLAAAASH!

His body shapeshifted, gigantic jaws emerged, absorbing and devouring the entire swarm of insects as he was also being bitten and devoured. A fight between two ferocious monsters, a stalemate!

"The swarm stopped expanding here!" Aquarina said.

"This is our chance then!" Zack roared.

"Let's go!" Celeste said.

All four of us quickly jumped over the two monsters fighting. As we evaded and slashed countless tentacles and insects from Sarach that emerged to fight against us, while Furoh's own body shapeshifted to protect us from his attacks, shields made of shells, gigantic claws of wolves, and dragon jaws tearing apart his foe emerged one after the other!

"STOP...! LET GO OF MEEEE!" Sarach cried in fury, as he suddenly noticed all four of us jumping directly into his weak spot, which had opened once he activated his strongest Technique.

"Now, all together! [Mana Combination]!"

I conjured a spell I had created myself, which combined the Mana Sources of many allies together into a single one, and then conjured a gigantic power from our combined elements. We've practiced this before, as Zack, Aquarina, and even Celeste joined into the conjuration. Their elemental auras converging with my own and my many spirits.

FLAAAASH!

Divine Power emerged from Alice to complement this powerful combined spell, as our elemental powers converged with our spirits, which all flew together and combined into a mass of colorful, spiritual power, falling towards Sarach who had revealed an opening to his true body after losing too many insects within his swarm.

We saw him, a small black worm trying to escape by digging through the many other insects making his swarm!

But it was too late!

"Divine Fusion Magic: [Primordial Elemental Genesis]!"

All the elemental power converged into a sphere of multiple colors, which then fell directly inside of the swarm of endless insects protecting Sarach!

"No...! This can't be...! Stop...!" He cried. "STOOOOOP!"

BOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!!!!

A massive elemental explosion consumed everything.

Furoh extended his body, grabbing all of us and protecting us, flying away from the scene, and generating countless shells to make a shield.

TRUUUUUMMMMM....!

The entire Dungeon started to tremble, countless cracks emerged everywhere, the tremor and the commotion continued for a while, until it all suddenly became silent.

When we looked back, amidst the smoke and destruction, the bastard was still somehow alive...

"Aggh...! No...! T-This... Can't... be...!"

However, he was but a mere little worm crawling towards the carcass of a dead beetle, while holding a tiny purple jewel on his tail.

Chapter 667 Slaying The Parasite!

I quickly walked towards him, looking down, and then stepping over his pathetic body.

"S-Stop! Wait!"

Crack...!

"Gryeeeehhh! You can't do this!"

Crack!

"I can help you...! Defeat... Arach... ne!"

CRACK!

"I don't give a fuck. I'll ask you all the questions I want once you're dead." I smiled back at him, his tiny bug eyes filled with utter despair. "But now, you're getting what you fucking deserve. This is for Furoh and all of the Mimic Demons you've killed!"

"STOOOOP!"

CRAAASH!

And then, his body splattered into pieces, I even received EXP as well.

Sarach... was finally defeated.

I touched his worm corpse and then stored it inside of my Dimensional Bag, looking at his own Magic Crystal.

He seemed to be a monster and not a demon, yet he had a lot of intelligence! Was he tamed and then turned into a familiar or something?

He even had a small fragment of the Demon King...

Just by touching these two items I can feel a lot of power flowing everywhere. I wonder if I should eat them or use them to reinforce something?

[Sarach the Parasite Magic Crystal (B+++ Grade)]

The Magic Crystal of the monstrous Familiar of the Demon Lord of Swarms, Arachne. It contains the power of Sarach, whom was capable of parasitizing his foes and absorb their powers for his own, albeit weakened. He was also capable of merging them together.

It holds a powerful and unique ability within, and it might create truly amazing equipment if used correctly. Main Element Affinities are Poison and Illusion, with a small affinity with Chaos Element.

Ooh, the description sounds rather enticing. There's no way I'm giving this to my parents now that I am grown up! I'll keep it as my souvenir! Heh.

Oh, and there's this too...

[Demon King's Fragment (S Grade)]

A powerful crystalized fragment of the Original Demon King's soul, which grow inside the Abyssal Mines within the Demon Continent. Incredibly rare and hard to handle, these jewels contain but a small fragment of the Original Demon King's powers, granting any Demon that wields it the power of the Element of Chaos, with a varied set of Abilities that can be awakened depending in the fragment type.

This Fragment is of the [Aura] type, and whoever utilizes it can bring out a powerful, all-encompassing Aura of the volatile and highly destructive element of Chaos. Which can be controlled to both defend from magical attacks, boost allies' power (as long as they're monster-type or demon-type), and intimidate foes, weakening them in the process.

A malicious yet very weakened will rests within each fragment, this one is no exception. Utilizing it without caution might cause madness.

I see, so it can only be used by Demons though. I guess this is why my parents never talked about any human or elf using these fragments, and probably this is also the reason why they choose to destroy them instead of keeping them or using them as their own weapons.

Though, its not like I don't have any Demon allies, right? Furoh could use it, and maybe even Curse and Beelzebub... I'll see. For now, this thing seems almost radioactive, so I'll save it inside the Dimensional Bag.

I quickly went to check on everyone, they all seemed fine, just extremely exhausted. Furoh took the most damage and was on his true form, resembling a mass of flesh with tentacles and a few eyes.

"Uuugggh... I've... avenged my people..." He groaned. "I can die... in peace now. Sylphy, thank you for everything- GUH?!"

I stuck an elixir bottle inside his mouth and emptied its contents inside of him, forcing Furoh to drink it all. His health quickly refilled and so did his Mana and energy, his form swiftly changed into that of a Fenrir puppy.

POP!

"Ah! Eh?! I thought I was going to die..." He sighed.

"Don't be so dramatic, geez." I sighed. "Though, good job Furoh, you were amazing there! Without you we wouldn't had been able to win."

"Y-Yeah, that was incredible..." Zack said.

"Amazing even! You stood face to face against that monster..." Aquarina said. "I guess I owe you an apology. Sorry for calling you a coward or an ugly worm back then..."

"Ahahaha, don't worry, I have long forgotten those things! You were only a child, Aquarina." Furoh said.

Although it was hard to tell with his ever-changing form, he was already an adult, and so he was quite mentally mature. He seemed to not have taken anything anybody said to him as a grudge, even less when it was a child.

"Though I wonder if what he said was true or simply to taunt you?" Wondered Celeste.

"Sylphy! Everyone! Are you okay?!" Mist ran towards us, quickly hugging Zack. "You're fine? I'll heal you!"

She quickly began healing her boyfriend while we noticed Celica, Zephy, and Nephilim coming along, everyone was safe.

"Big sis... I was so scared..." Zephy started to cry while I embraced him in a tight hug.

"Don't worry, everything's alright now! See? It was very dangerous to come." I sighed.

"I-I didn't knew it would be THIS dangerous though!" Zephy complained.

"A-Ahahah... Well, yeah, I tend to have terrible luck." I sighed.

I can blame that to the -10 Luck I was born with, I guess.

"Sorry for not being able to help in anything..." Celica apologized. "I was so sad when Mister Teddy died... I couldn't hold myself together... I need to... grow stronger for Mister Teddy."

"Don't worry! I'll repair him right away! Where is he?" I wondered.

Chapter 668 Taking A Break

We quickly gathered every single piece of Mister Teddy, including his Golem Core which was shattered into pieces, and then I used Synthesis to merge it all back together. I even added extra materials, such as the fur of various high ranked monsters, and poured an elixir into the golem core, healing it completely with Synthesis.

FLAAAASH!

The entire teddy bear was reconstructed, but now, it was gigantic and white colored?! He had now become a Polar Bear, it seemed!

"Oooh! Mister Teddy! You're okay now?!" Celica was shocked.

"Gaaao gaao!" Mister Teddy happily hugged her, he seemed to emanate a light aura of healing and protection.

"Oh? It seems his powers evolved... Could it be the new materials I added? And the Elixir too!" I said.

"Eh?! You gained new powers, Mister Teddy?!" Celica was shocked once more.

"Gao gaooo!" Mister Teddy suddenly raised his paws, generating a barrier made of light. And then shining light of healing.

"Oh, he became a paladin! He can use protection and healing magic." Mist said surprised. "We need to make him some armor then!"

"Gaoo!" The Teddy Bear seemed happy.

"Uwaah! So cool! You can now support us even better, Mister Teddy!" Celica seemed finally relieved.

And me? Well, not only Zephy was stuck to me but also Aquarina. The two of them didn't wanted to let go of me!

"It was so scary..." Zephy wanted me to spoil him.

"I need some hugs to recover from this experience..." Aquarina sighed, hugging me tightly. Also wanting me to spoil her

"Geez you two..." I sighed. "Well, how about we have a meal and discuss what just happened now?"

Like that, as we made sure everything was now safe, we made a camp. Sadly there was no leftover Fishman King meat, or not even bones at that, the damn parasite and his swarm ate it all.

However, we still had tons of other meat from all the sea monsters we fought to come to the boss room anyways! So I used Cooking Magic to cook tons of shellfish, crabs, crayfish, and several types of fishes we caught.

The aroma was relaxing, and while enjoying the fish soup that I warmed from our previous meal, we sat around the bonfire to warm ourselves and calm down, finally discussing what happened.

"Sarach... So he's a servant of the Demon Lord of Swarms..." Aquarina said. "Just how many are there?" She wondered.

"It would be better if we ask one, right?" I said with a sigh. "Beelzebub, come out."

FLASH!

"Ugh..." Beelzebub sighed, looking back at everyone else.

"Wait, that cocoon thing you have... is a demon lord?!" Zack wondered.

I had only told Aquarina the truth about this and Ignatius, my parents' kind of knew a bit, but not totally, and didn't asked either so they seemed to not really mind my powers, as bizarre as they could be seen.

"Well..."

Like that, I explained them I am somehow capable of absorbing souls of beings defeated nearby, and that's how I made Ignatius and Beelzebub into spirits after incubating their own souls inside my Soul Scape. I didn't went into details, leaving it really vague.

"S-So this guy is really Beelzebub..." Zack was shocked.

"You're Beelzebub?! The Lord of the Flies?!" Celeste was shocked.

"I-I don't know who he is..." Mist said.

"Me neither..." Celica shrugged.

"Well, what's important is the info he can bring to us. I've tamed him and he's an obedient spirit." I nodded. "So, Beelze, how many Demon Lords are out there? Also did you know of Sarach?"

"I did know about him, but barely anything..." Sighed Beelzebub. "Well, to sum things up, there were Seven Demon Lords that served the previous Demon King." He said while munching on a strawberry pie slice I gave to him to convince him to spill the beans.

"Leviathan was the Demon Lord of the Seas, Death was the Demon Lord of... well, Death. Beelzebub, me! Was the Demon Lord of Flies... And well, the former Demon Lord of Swarms. There were four others. The Demon Lord of Destruction, Ashura, the Demon Lord of Temptation, Lilith, the Demon Lord of Illusions, Illusia, and the Demon Lord of the Void, Null. All four of those were also killed by your parents, they're gone." Beelzebub said.

"So Arachne wasn't even one?" I wondered.

"No, she was actually a Demon General, right below us. It seems the spider woman decided to get that title for herself after my death and now calls herself the Demon Lord of Swarms, tch! I was way stronger than her anyways!" Beelzebub said angrily. "So anyways, the heroes didn't really destroyed everything left behind, once the demon king we served was slain, they just disappeared and decided to live on their own. So that gave room for many survivors to take on! And well, lo and behold! We've got that damn Arachne taking my place. She's probably way stronger than before, a lot of years have happened since the demon king's death."

"Yikes..." I sighed. "So because our parents didn't wanted to commit mass genocide we're now going to get attacked by these people filled with resentment, ugh."

"I remember Sarach, he was a little baby parasite worm that Arachne picked up when she was a younger. She tamed him and taught him speech. But now seeing the monster he became, he really just deserved to get killed! I had no idea he hunted down the Mimic Demons either! This is not something our Demon King would agreed upon! He never liked the idea of demons hunting other demons." Sighed Beelzebub.

"That damn Arachne must have become just as tyrannical! If she's truly chasing you guys, she might already be in this continent. Just let your parents kill her, she's probably a bitch. Nom..."

"Huh, so that's that I guess." I sighed. "Arachne... What sort of powers does she has? And who the heck is Lolth though?"

"Hmmm... For that you'll have to give me another slice." Beelzebub laughed.

BONK!

I bonked his head.

"Don't get cocky now, I might give you another later but just be nice and answer the questions!"

"Ouch! You're so mean! Tyrannical slaver!" Cried Beelzebub. "But fine, fine!"

Chapter 669 Lolth

"Arachne had similar powers than me. She's a member of the Arachspider Demon Tribe, it is a tribe of people with their halves being those of giant and ugly spiders." Beelzebub laughed.

"She was a nutjob since I know her. She had her entire tribe destroyed by the war and just wanted to slaughter all humans since then, she loves to torture them and stuff. But she lacked any sort of righteousness as well, she also tortured other demons, and lacked any sense of companionship with others. She only worshipped those stronger than her while secretly plotting to overcome them eventually."

"Huh, sounds like a guy I know." Furoh said, giving a glance to Beelzebub.

"H-Hey! I am no longer like that! I am a reborn fly!" Beelzebub said.

"Hahh... Sounds like a lot of the Demon Lords had similar pasts, didn't they?" Aquarina sighed, feeling slightly depressed. "It really feels like war doesn't really get to anything, it always... just an endless cycle of suffering, just like Sarach said while possessing the Fishman King."

"Yeah, well nobody here had have it easy." Celeste said. "But things are different now, we've got one another and... stuff. Just, let's get over this topic."

"I agree. Let's be pragmatic and not let emotions in the way." Beelzebub said. "So anyways... You want to know about Lolth, don't you?"

"Yeah just tell us already!" Zack said.

"Ahem! Like many other Evil Gods that took over the Demon Continent and used us Demons for their own benefit, Lolth is one of them. She's one of the most vicious of them though." Said Beelzebub. "I heard from some other demons back then that she used to be an Elven Goddess, one of the goddess that created the elves. But she was betrayed by her lover, and since then her heart became bitter. She ended killing her former lover and the gods attempted to seal her, but she escaped. Due to the Miasma of the Demon Continent, she ended mutating, and took the form of a giant spider woman... or something."

"Her divinity transformed, I remember it was something related with nature? But it became something different and twisted. She gained power over Fate itself, the Webs of Fate, and also poison and insects and arachnids. I don't know when this started but the Arachspider Tribe have been worshipping her since I know about them." He said. "I believe she might be plotting something as well and is using Arachne to reach that. That's all I know."

"Huh, well, that's way more info than I expected!" I sighed. "We need to tell our parents about this asap."

"Yeah, I agree. We can't handle this by ourselves either." Aquarina said.

"Though, Sylphy, weren't there some heroes in this continent too?" Zack wondered.

"Yeah..." I said while nodding. "Could it be? What's chasing them down might even be Arachne's forces themselves... We need to find them then! We cannot delay this."

"I agree." Celeste nodded. "But for now, we should eat, I am starving..."

"Right!" Aquarina agreed as well.

"Very well then! Let's have our feast before going back to the surface!" Like that, I started serving everyone their big portions.

The food was tasty and we had a good time eating and relaxing. We spent a lot more time talking than I thought though.

"We'll have to grow way stronger than we are now if we want to stand a chance though!" Zack said. "I don't want to let the heroes do everything again, I want to help too!"

"Me too, let's keep growing stronger then." Aquarina smiled.

"Yeah, sure." I nodded.

Even more now that I have so many valuable materials, hehehe...

"So anyways, I-"

"Sylphy?" Suddenly, Celeste called for me.

"Huh? What is it?" I wondered.

Celeste then showed me something in her hands.

It was... Huh? The Monolith of the three Nymph Goddess?!

What is doing there? Did it move out of my own dimensional bag by itself?

But how?

"It's empty..." I said, sensing the monolith had no power inside.

"Hey! Something's wrong..." Furoh said. "The egg... It hatched!"

"Wait, what?!" Aquarina reacted shocked.

We glanced at the dragon egg, it was only eggshells left and nothing else more.

And then, we heard them.

"Ahahaha... HAHAAHAH!"

The laughter of three mischievous women.

"We made it! The crystal is here! The Ocean Heart!"

And when we noticed that a small three-headed sea dragon crawled all the way into the throne at the end of the hall, grabbing a blue-colored jewel, it was too late.

What sort of stealth they used to get out of our senses?!

I need to activate my heavenly eyes, so I couldn't predict this either!

"Stop them! They're those evil goddesses wills!" Roared Celeste.

"Whatever they're trying to do, I bet its nothing good!" Zack said.

"You three! Stop right there!" I roared, jumping into action with everybody else.

We were literally only seconds before reaching them yet...

"Hahahaha... AHAHAHAHA! It is too late! You insolent slaves, know your place!"

FLAAAAASH!

The little three headed sea dragon touched the crystal, which we had also not noticed, mostly because we were too exhausted to inspect everywhere in the hall after killing Sarach.

TRUUUUUMMMM...!

An enormous amount of magical and divine power emerged from behind the throne, blowing it away and everything else on its surroundings.

The dragon slowly began growing larger, and larger, and larger as it swallowed the crystal, its three heads glaring down at us with fury!

"Having to possess this pathetic monster is truly an annoyance, but there's no helping it now...!"

"Indeed, sister, we can't help it!"

"It has been so long since we've been sealed in that damned monolith. Finally, we are free!"

"And what's better for our first meal than some slaves filled with selfishness and arrogance?"

"Ohhh, I can't wait~!"

These are really the Nymph's Real Personalities that ended being trapped inside that monolith... Was this their plan all along?! Even when they failed at controlling Aquarina, the bitches managed to get this far!

"I was rather hungry for some high-quality dragon meat, to be honest." I sighed. "I guess I can't help it, we'll have you three for dinner!"

"HAH?! You impertinent little rat!"

"How dare you say that in front of our divine selves?!"

"ROOOOAAAARRRR! KILL HER!"

Chapter 670 Divinely Possessed Three-Headed Sea Dragon

When we finally thought we could take a break and then go back home, things happened, very fast. The wills of the three Nymph Goddess which was trapped within the Artifact we found on the first floor ended awakening once more. Somehow, perhaps using their last spark of power, they managed to drag themselves out of my Dimensional Bag and then reach the Sea Dragon Egg.

To make things worse, they possessed the soulless dragon with their wills as a single soul and then hatched, moving to the crystal we didn't noticed behind the throne of the room, which seemed completely devoid of any power... until they touched it.

The gray crystal suddenly gained a powerful bright blue color, revealing itself to be the actual "Ocean Core Crystal" or whatever it was called, and the tiny dragon swallowed it completely, gaining incredible powers and then evolving into its adult form right away!

Certainly, they're not as strong as when they were in their original bodies, but this is still an adult ocean dragon we're talking about! With the intelligence of three cunning and evil goddesses mixed into the mix, and to make things worse, it now contained an explosive amount of divine power...

And as if the A.I. in charge of giving me quest couldn't even let me take a break, a new and incredibly rewarding quest emerged in front of my eyes. It was filled with A Grade rewards, and even three question mark rewards? Usually those are equipment items!

But I cannot get excited right now, I already provoked them, but it was mostly all part of my plan. If they remain cunning and intelligent, it is going to be hard to fight them. I wanted to provoke them so they would go absolutely mad at me, losing their focus and becoming more monstrous, mostly being taken over by the will within their new vessel.

"RAAAAHHHHH!!!"

The three-headed Sea Dragon started moving, the wills of the goddess within its body seemed unstable to say the least, as they started moving around while not being able to control their new body correctly, suddenly tripping over the floor!

BAAAAAMMM!!!

"UNNGGH...!"

"RAAAHH!"

"T-THIS DAMN BODY...!"

As they bought us time being absolute clowns, I did several things at the same time. Utilizing my Heavenly Eyes, I checked on their status and information to find any sort of weakness, while I quickly changed classes and, at the same time, commanded my friends to get into a fighting position. As ridiculous as this situation was, it was reality, and we had to slay these bitches if we didn't wanted to die now.

Ding!

[The power of the [Heavenly Eyes] Skill has granted you access into the target's information!]

[Divinely Possessed Three-Headed Sea Dragon (Tier 7)]

The hatchling of a Sea Dragon that has been possessed by the wills of three Nymph Goddesses that were once sealed inside an artifact by their own doing. Now furious and without the ability to think well due to not being able to adapt to the brains of the Sea Dragon, they're going berserk and will eat anything on their way.

After having swallowed the Sea Crystal Core, it contains an immense amount of Water Attribute Magic and Divine Power, however, due to their atrophied minds, they are incapable of bringing its full strength.

Important Info: Due to their atrophied minds and their inability to adapt to their new vessel, the three goddesses' wills will struggle to fight well and will attack furiously and recklessly instead, evade their predictable attacks and aim at the Sea Dragon's eyes and then their heart, situated directly in their chest.

Extra Information: Its scales can reflect most magical damage, but lightning damage will ignore the monster's defenses and deal the most damage. It is recommended to splash them with water beforehand to make this deadlier.

I see, it seems to have the same weaknesses as the Sea Snake we fought previously! Maybe this battle is not as hard as I would have imagined, but I won't lower my guard. I better prepare.
