

A Glitched 721

Chapter 721 Sylphy Is Not Greedy!

Ding!

[You Have Completed The [Special Quest]: [Repair the Walls of the Agarthia City and Improve The With Magic!]

[You've done an incredible job! Congratulations for not only reinforcing the walls, but reshaping them, restructuring them, and even synthesizing them as a whole item by themselves, which received even more enhancements through the System's Abilities. A series of bountiful rewards have been prepared for you... and your friends.]

[You Have Received Bonus Rewards For Completing The Quest In Less Than 3 Hours!]

[Completion Rewards: [1500000 EXP] [750000 Shared EXP] [Divine Strengthening Elixir (A Grade)] x8 [Divine Skill Proficiency Potion (A Grade)] x8 [Divine Grade Rune Potion (A Grade)] x8 [Mythical Giant Horned Tempest Bear Tyrant Blood Elixir (A Grade)] x1 [Abyssal Vampiric Bat Blood Elixir (A Grade)] x1 [Angelic Heavenly Swan Blood Elixir (A Grade)] x1 [Phantasmal Puppeteer Ghost Queen Soul Elixir (A Grade)] x1 [Scarlet Shadow Wolf King Blood Elixir (A Grade)] x1]

Checking the items again through the quest window, I was able to read them in depth a bit better. It seemed that they were all made out of the blood of a powerful monster. How is the System even able to materialize the power of a monster like this? No idea, though I believe it might be "fake" monsters that might not exist, and they're named like this because they were made based in the Beast Auras of my friends.

It is rather obvious but... [Mythical Giant Horned Tempest Bear Tyrant Blood Elixir (A Grade)] x1 is for Zack, [Abyssal Vampiric Bat Blood Elixir (A Grade)] x1 is for Celeste, [Angelic Heavenly Swan Blood Elixir (A Grade)] x1 is for Mist, [Phantasmal Puppeteer Ghost Queen Soul Elixir (A Grade)] x1 is for Celica, and [Scarlet Shadow Wolf King Blood Elixir (A Grade)] x1 is for Zephy! Wow even Zephy got one himself, interesting.

I don't think Zephy had even developed a Beast Aura yet, nor Celica, so this might help them awaken theirs. I guess there's no point in not giving it to them, but-

Ding!

[The [Quest System] seems worried about your greediness...]

[A New [Special Quest] Has Been Generated: [Help Your Friends Awaken Their Powers And Grow Stronger!]

[Prove your humbleness and share your spoils with your friends. If you want to face the many challenges and adversities that are coming in the future, you have to grow stronger with your friends and family. Those Elixirs had been specifically created to boost their growth speed, give it to them!]

[Completion Rewards: [250000 EXP] [125000 Shared EXP] [???] x1]

[Time Limit: 24 Hours.]

Yeah, the Quest System seems to have somehow acquired the ability to speak to me through these messages, and is worried about my greediness...

"Look I'm not going to drink them, relax..." I sighed, talking to Alice through telepathy. Perhaps if I spoke to her, it would reach the Quest System.

"Ahaha, the Quest System is worried you may be a bit greedy." Said Alice. "Well, seeing how you always consume all of your spoils, it is hard to say..."

"I-I am not greedy! I'll share these with them, okay? And I'll get some nice rewards out of that, so it's fine... Though it is a question mark reward? I wonder what even it is..." I wondered.

"I always had trust on you." Alice said proudly.

"That's not true you said you were not sure!" I complained.

Like that, we made our way back to Eustace and he and the knights were all shocked.

"And done!" I said. "Oh, it still pretty early in the day... I guess we'll go off our way for now."

"S-Sure young lady, excellent work..." Eustace said in surprise. "H-Have a good day."

"Bye~ Have a good day too!" I said, waving my hand.

"Y-Yeah..." I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"Young lady's... too strong."

"She's... is she even half human? It doesn't feels like."

"I would say she's half goddess at this point."

"Hey, a priest better not hear you say that, hahaha!"

Like that, we made our way back home and decided to spend the rest of the day in my Atelier, where I gathered everyone for a special... err, gifting opportunity? Or whatever.

"So I've gathered you all here because... I've got some gifts for all of you!" I said, slowly retrieving the elixirs from the inside of Glutton, and placing them over the table one by one, lining them up nicely.

"Elixirs?" Wondered Zack. "Oh, did you... made some for us too?!"

"Really Sylphy?!" Asked Mist excited.

"Of course! I felt a bit bad I only gave one to Aquarina. You're all my friends and I love you all, so I want you to grow stronger as well. That time we fought in the Dungeon, I was really afraid of losing any of you... The battles there were so close..." I sighed. "So here! Ave your way. Each Elixir is specifically designed for each one of your affinities, magic auras, beast auras, and even spirits and powers." I said, as I shared each Elixir with the one that benefited the most out of it. "O-Of course, there's none for me or Aquarina, we've already drank our own, right?"

"Yep! I am glad you made some for the rest, I was thinking you were getting greedy for a bit." Aquarina giggled. "But you've always been generous and nice."

"Y-Yeah... I've always have been!" I said with a smile.

Agh, now this makes me feel even worse. Maybe I shouldn't be drinking all the strengthening potions I get... Sharing is caring, right? R-Right? Well, I'll think about it.

"Let's see then!" Zack started drinking his Elixir.

"Hmm, it is sweet~ It tastes like grilled chicken too!" Mist said.

"Wow, I never thought you would make one for the humble little me. Thanks a lot Sylphy, genuinely." Celeste smiled, giving me a kiss in my cheek.

"E-Eh? What with the kiss?" I asked while blushing a bit.

"H-Hey!" Aquarina pouted a bit.

"Fufu, I couldn't resist it, you're so cute." Said Celeste. "Now, let's try this!" She started drinking the elixir as well.

Zephy and Celica also started drinking them slowly.

And after everyone was done...

FLUOOOOOSH!

Enormous and colorful auras surged from everybody, overflowing with enormous strength.

The shapes of several different beasts appeared in each one of my friends, roaring loudly.

pandasnovel.com It was incredible!

Chapter 722 Everyone's Beast Auras

"W-What with this power?! It feels like my Beast Aura evolved to a whole new stage! I-I think I ranked up to a higher Physique Tier too! W-Wait, am I tier 5 already?!" Zack cried in excitement. His aura surged like a giant, green-colored bear with a sharp golden horn. It began glaring at us as if it had a consciousness of its own.

"Hmm, this is certainly nice." Said Celeste. "I probably am very close to Tier 5 Physique now, for sure, hehehe... And my Beast Aura finally developed." Celeste's Beast Aura was represented as a swarm of black and red bats, with a gigantic bat queen controlling them all, menacingly glaring at us from behind her with her sharp fangs and her not so appealing-looking face.

"A swan! I've got a swan as my pet aura!" Said Mist excitedly.

"Squeak! Squeak!" The White Swan within her Beast Spirit began flapping her majestic white wings, until Mist started floating in midair.

"Uwawaaaahhh!" She cried. "Please don't lift me like thissss...!"

Mist seemed to be having fun, albeit it as a tiny bit too chaotic, maybe? Well, she was still happy.

"Uooh... W-What is this?" Celica wondered, her Beast Aura resembled a ghost more than an animal. A tall ghostly lady with long fingers, which was grabbing onto the threads she used to move her golems. "Amazing! I've got a new friend!"

She seemed excited, her own Phantom Aura, as I will call her unique Beast Aura form, was already boosting the power of her golems.

However, unlike everyone else, Zephy had a different reaction.

"Hm? Nothing happened to me..." Zephy said, looking confused.

"Eh? But it should had worked a bit at least?" I wondered.

"Nope, nothing happened big sis..." Zephy felt disappointed.

"I-I'm sorry! I didn't knew it would work with you... But it should at least a bit. Unless... you require even more materials to awaken your own Aura?" I wondered. "Perhaps your potential is so big that one Elixir won't do. But it's not like I can make many more, sorry."

"No, it's fine! I do feel a bit stronger, all my Mana was recovered too so I feel all nice and ready!" He said, acting humbly.

"W-Well, I am glad it at least worked a bit." I sighed in relief, giving him a head pat. "You feel alright?"

"Yeah! No worries!" He said with a cute smile.

My little brother was just too adorable.

I ended hugging him and giving him kisses on his cheek.

"You're way too cute!" I cried.

"Hehehe, that tickles big sis!" He giggled adorably.

"Geez, and then you say you don't spoil your little brother?" Laughed Zack.

"H-Hey this is just normal for siblings!" I said while pouting.

"Yeah!" Zephy said, giving me a kiss in my cheek... And then glancing back at Aquarina with a cocky smile. "Heh..."

"G-Geh..." Aquarina felt slightly jealous but contained herself. "It's her brother... It's her brother..." She was containing herself quite well, I guess.

Meanwhile...

Ding!

[The [Quest System] is happy you're a nice girl.]I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

[You Have Completed The [Special Quest]: [Help Your Friends Awaken Their Powers And Grow Stronger!]

[Well done! You've now made all of your friends much stronger. However, it seems your little brother has so much potential that a simple Elixir won't be enough for the little rascal. Perhaps in your journey to come, trying to find some ingredients to hasten his growth would be ideal.]

[You Have Received Bonus Rewards For Completing The Quest In Less Than 12 Hours!]

[Completion Rewards: [500000 EXP] [250000 Shared EXP] [Divine Essence of Blazing Flames (A Grade)] x1]

Ooh? I got a strange item. It resembled a red colored crystal with a small flame flickering inside. It emanated a divine power, so I swiftly placed it inside of my System's Inventory, directly connected with Glutton's stomach while I checked the information...

[Divine Essence of Blazing Flames (A Grade)]

A Divine concentration of Blazing Flames which had been crystalized. The still blazing flames can be seen within the crystal which is warm and unleashes a powerful aura of divinity.

By absorbing it, it is possible to strengthen all Fire-Attribute Skills, gain thousands of Fire Attribute Runes, and even have the chance to Evolve Fire-Attribute Skills.

Ooh, interesting... This is rather nice, kind of like the Farmer Elixir I drank before. Oh well, for now, I guess I can take it easy and relax for the rest of the day, I am quite tired...

I decided to take it easy as I walked into the garden and rested over the grass. My friends started sparring a bit, some were practicing magic, and a few were practicing their Beast Aura powers.

Zephy in specific was doing the exercise my mother taught him, of consecutively conjuring a low level spell and then transform it into a higher level spell.

I think this training is based in what I did as a kid, but because Zephy lacks a Skill, he cannot do it too instantly, and requires a tiny incantation each time, although it is becoming much faster.

And me? Well Aquarina was spoiling me quite a lot, letting me sit over her thighs while she caressed my head.

Honestly this was really sweet. I couldn't had asked for anything more. Tomorrow my grandma was coming so I was feeling a bit nervous but taking it easy here is good.

While Aquarina was singing a relaxing song from the Amazon Tribe using their own language, I slowly felt a bit sleepy.

The shiny sun, the blue sky decorated by white clouds, the calming breeze, the company of friends and the person I loved...

I'm only twelve but I already have everything I could ever ask for in my life.

"Yawn... I wish moments like these could remain forever." I sighed.

"I wish too." Aquarina smiled.

Her beautiful blue eyes looking at me from above were quite staggering...

pandasnovel.com "I'm grateful for having you at my side."

"S-Sylphy... Me too!"

She quickly gave me a sweet kiss before I ended falling asleep while resting over her thighs... Ahh, they were so soft and warm...

Chapter 723 A Moment That Will Forever Remain In My Heart

When dinner arrived, mom used this opportunity to congratulate us for all of our efforts. And not only to recognize me as an adult, but also all of my friends that cooperated and helped me in these tasks. Not only uncle Arafunn was here, but also Shade, Nepheline, Ninhursag, and the two nuns, Mary, Lucia, and Celica's mother.

"So today I got the message from Eustace, you did it." She sighed, smiling sweetly. "Honestly, when I gave you these five tasks, I didn't had much hope for you, Sylphy..."

"Eh?! So harsh!" I cried.

"But you proved me wrong." She laughed. "You proved me very wrong. I was surprised how you completed each task to perfection, one after the other... After seeing you grow up in here, I noticed how you became slightly conceited, and a bit spoiled by us... Yet at the end, even if you're still quite the spoiled little girl, you've proven that... you're more responsible than you look."

"Mom do you have to be so harsh?" I sighed.

"Fufu, I'm sorry." She giggled. "I am just telling you my honest thoughts. Now, well, you've proven to be much more responsible, strong, and very dependent. You've proven yourself, and your friends too, to be reliable people that not only can help a few, but the entire city as a whole. I am glad, and... proud of you, Sylphy, Zephy, and also of all of you children."

"Mom..." I sighed, feeling slightly emotional.

"Heheh, I made mommy proud!" Zephy said.

"I am also proud too!" Said Nepheline, Aquarina's mother. Her smile was rather radiant. "Well done my princess, you've proven yourself to be a fine warrior for our tribe and also a responsible adult in this city and society. By the way, you have my complete support, so you can feel free to take Sylphy's hand in marriage."

"Yeah, I approve of that too. Well for a while now." Shade laughed. "I want you to be happy, and you've proven yourself to be both strong and responsible. I know you didn't asked us to be her girlfriend yet because you're slightly afraid of our response. We might be a bit strict sometimes, but we aren't parents that would decline our daughter's right to be happy."

"Mom, dad..." Aquarina felt surprised of their words. "T-Thank you! I love you two so much!"

She started crying right there, hugging both of her parents. It was really cute, oh my gosh.

"I am also quite proud of you, Zack." Ninhursag said. "When I first meet you back then, I always thought you would one day become someone incredible. You had the potential; I saw it in your eyes. You're my son, and I love very much. Mom will always be there for you too." She said, hugging Zack. "I am happy you've become someone respected in this city and you also make everyone in your tribe proud when we talk about you. I am very happy to be your mother."

"M-Mom, you're embarrassing me..." Zack said, blushing a bit, although he felt rather emotional as well, just containing his tears.

"Also, you can take Mist's hand in a marriage in the future. I've already spoken with Mary and Lucia, and they seemed happy about your relationship." She whispered to his ear.

"E-Eh?!" Zack was shocked once more. He hadn't answered Mist's question about a marriage for the future yet... I guess I can't blame him, we're still very young, so we won't be sure what'll happen in the future. Though if things continue as we are, it is quite obvious what's going to happen.

"Heheh..." Mist giggled while blushing from afar. Zack wasn't terrified or anything, he was so embarrassed he could barely contain himself. He looked really in love to be honest, and the other day I caught them kissing, so he's just being a meathead like he always is.

"We are also very proud of you girls! Thank you so much for helping Sylphy and her friends in everything!" Mary said with a smile. "You've changed so much as well, Celeste, Mist. You've become so strong and dependable, I-I don't really know what else I can even teach you two..."

"They're good girls." Lucia smiled gently. "Mist, make sure to be a good wife for Zack."

"I will!" Mist said, all excitedly. "I-I will make the Amazon tribe proud too!" I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"Y-You're getting too hasty, we're just thirteen..." Zack sighed.

"S-Sorry..." Mist giggled a bit.

"Well done Celica. I always thought you would do great things! You make your mommy very proud, I love you so much! Come here! My baby princess! Mooch, mooch!" Celica's mom was much more affectionate, hugging her daughter and kissing her all over her face.

"Hehehe, mama that tickles a bit!" Celica giggled.

Zephy was looking at her with a mild smile while blushing.

Gosh, he's really liking her, huh?

I wonder if she'll reciprocate... At this point she seems to only like golems and teddy bears so it'll be hard for him.

Maybe if he gifts her plushies, it could conquer her heart a bit...

"So cute, you kids are growing so fast and becoming so incredible." Arafunn sighed. "Seeing you reminds me of all of us when we were younger, isn't it?"

"Well mostly, Allan and the others, we elves were already old in that time." My mom said.

pandasnovel.com "Faylen we are very young in elven years!" Uncle sighed.

"Hahaha, okay, okay, suuure~" Faylen laughed. "You love to act like you're not an old grandpa at this point."

"G-Grandpa?! Ooh the horror! Don't call me that! Your father is a grandpa, not us!" Arafunn sighed.

It's a bit confusing sometimes because my mother treats him like a brother due to their close age, but Arafunn is actually the King's younger brother, which would make him my mother's uncle!

"Well done Sylphy." My father smiled, patting my head. "For now, let's enjoy the meals here... I am starving to be honest."

"Oh yeah, me too! Let's eat already!" I said, as we quickly started the feast.

The delicious food, the harmonious atmosphere, the laughter, the smiles, the happiness... All of that mixed together into a beautiful moment.

A moment that will always remain in my heart.

Chapter 724 The Queen's Arrival Is Close

"Oh my, oh myyyyy~! We're getting closer already! Uwaaah! I can't wait to see my little Fayleeeeen!"

A beautiful fairy with colorful wings and long, blonde hair reaching to her feet giggled, wearing a wonderful and glamorously colorful dress made out of fine silk, her eyes shone bright rainbow as they changed colors constantly depending in her emotions, an interesting trait Fairies had.

"When are we getting there?! Hurry!" She said, as her servants nodded.

"We are moving as fast as we can, Queen Arlayna." Sighed one of her closest servants, a beautiful young pink-haired Noble Elf lady wearing elven armor and holding a golden spear and a shield.

"But Maryrose, we must hurry! Hurryyyy!" The queen complained.

"We should get there in about an hour, milady." Sighed Maryrose. "Please, let's wait patiently."

"Ugh, so boring... Maybe I should fly there myself and surprise everyone?!" Suggested the queen.

"NO!"

Everyone in the airship cried at the same time, already stressed with her eccentric personality. She often acted like a spoiled little girl, with her mind in the clouds and always suggesting (or doing) crazy things unbefitting of royalty.

"Geez! Do you have to scream?" The Queen sighed.

"A-Ah, we apologize, my queen!" Maryrose kneeled with everyone else. "W-We were simply... rather tired and perhaps afraid."

Arlayna giggled while waving her hands.

"Hehe, do you have to get so scared? We're all friends here, no worries dear." She giggled gently.

The doors to her chambers suddenly opened as Aina, Faylen's older sister, and her little daughter, Susanna, which was just about the same year as Sylphy entered the room.

"Mother what with all the screams again?" She sighed.

"Oh my babies! How are you this morning?" The queen giggled, flying towards the two of them while leaving a trail of rainbow colors behind the flapping of her wings.

"We are good." Aina smiled gently. "Mother, did you eat your breakfast?"

"Oh, not yet! I am so excited about seeing Faylen and her developing country that I am quite nervous to eat something..." The queen giggled.

"Grandma, let's eat cheesecake and... fruit with cream! You like that, right?" Susanna recommended with an innocent smile, as she was carried in her grandmother's arms.

"Hmmm~ Well if I have this adorable little princess at my side I MIGHT get hungry enough for a treat or two!" The queen said. "Such as... you! Nom, nom~!"

The queen began playing with little Susanna, pretending to bite her little neck playfully, making the little elf princess giggle. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"Hehehehe, that tickles grandma!" Susanna had quite a close relationship with her grandmother. If it wasn't because her mother herself held a very high authority in the family, she would have already been bullied since childhood by her aunt and uncles' children.

Due to this protection she grew on, she was very innocent, being a huge contrast from Sylphy and company, as she had never gone through any hardships, living a privileged and easy life since she was born.

"Well, servants, can you bring some breakfast then?" Aina asked.

"Very well, milady." They nodded and flew off, bringing all sorts of desserts and tea for breakfast.

The trio of beautiful elven woman then began their breakfast, talking about Faylen and her daughter and son, Sylph and Zephy the most.

"I heard Zephy is around four or five years old right now." Aina said. "Faylen has already said he has tremendous potential, mother. And he's very, very lovely!"

"Uwaah! I can't wait to see him! I bet he's just as adorable as the little Sylphy!" Said the queen. "That red-haired tomboyish girl is so cute!"

"Y-Yes, she's rather cute but there are many achievements she has done. Did you heard? She and her friends conquered two dungeons and recently defeated a Demon Lord Subject all by themselves!" Said Aina.

"Ooooh! Really?!" Asked Aina. "I did heard something like that, my husband told me so. It seems Sylphy has amazing potential! And she's so cute too! We've never had red-haired children in our family! Zephy's just as adorable!"

"Sigh... Y-Yeah, she's cute." Aina sighed. She was constantly trying to tell her mother how valuable and incredible Faylen's family and her daughter's achievements were, yet the queen, someone that was always judging people by their appearances, could barely recognize it before praising her for her adorable appearance instead.

This was one of the reasons Faylen was very tired of her own mother. She never meant any harm with her words, but she had grown to be such a person due to her own family. The queen instead, was just happy as long as everyone was handsome and beautiful...

"Anyways, mother, today we're going there not just to say hello. Faylen seems to have something very, very important to tell us." Said Aina. "So please, make sure to hear her, alright?"

"Okaaay~" The queen said, while barely having heard her daughter's words as she was devouring a cheesecake while seeing little Susanna eat cookies and drink some fruit juice.

"Well, I hope everything goes alright." Aina sighed, looking into the window. "Something dark is brewing in the Wild Lands of the continent... Arachne, huh? And the heroes we have yet to find... And to make things worse, a strange prophecy about two Demon Kings. I wonder what all of this means?" Aina thought, sipping some tea.

Just about a month ago, one of the Seers of the Kingdom came out with a prophecy. It terrified the royal family, and because of its implications, it hasn't been released to the public yet.

pandasnovel.com The prophecy was short, yet it brought great fear into the hearts of all those that heard it...

"Two Demon Kings have already been born. One destined to reshape the world, and another destined to destroy it. Amidst their endless battle, a single girl, with blazing eyes like those of a dragon will stand between the two, attempting to slay the gods themselves."

It didn't resolve in anything, and it was utterly chaotic. It implied that something that had never happened before would occur, two Demon Kings being born at the same time. And also, the mysterious girl with blazing dragon eyes attempting to slay the gods themselves...

Everyone was puzzled when they heard it, some even doubtful... yet this Seer's prophecies have always become true.

Chapter 725 A Dark Nightmare...

A nightmare that kept repeating every week, a terrifying nightmare he couldn't forget.

He found himself within an endless sea of darkness, lost. He watched everywhere, trying to find an exit.

Wherever he glanced to, enormous and monstrous figures greeted him, furious demons, giant monsters, savage beasts...

"Oh Great Lord."

"I greet the Great Lord."

"The King."

"The King of All."

"Awaken!"

"Leave behind your husk!"

"Pupate!"

"Rise!"

"Fight!"

"Tear Apart!"

pandasnovel.com "Destroy!"

The monsters, demons, and beasts all spoke with crude words. Asking the little boy to tear apart, to destroy, to kill, to rise, to evolve, to pupate... The more he ran away, the closer they became, their claws reaching for his little body.

Faster, faster. He had to run faster. He knew he couldn't fight them, he knew he couldn't win. The only thing he knew is that he had to run from them, these monsters.

These abominations.

They slowly melted into the floor, merging into a gigantic entity, a demon amongst demons, a giant calamity. A being that stepped over the world, and the bringer of doom.

"Leave me alone! Leave me aloneeee! You're not real! Leave me alone!"

The boy cried constantly, curling into the floor as the monstrous giant glared at him with countless eyes.

"I... Am... Real."

It spoke with a voice that tore through the boy's ears.

"No! No! Leave me alone!"

He cried, but the entity only grew furious.

"You... Are..."

"No! Shut up! I am not...!"

"You... ARE...!"

"No! SHUT UP!!!"

"YOU ARE...!"

"NOOO!"

"YOU ARE ME!"

Darkness and blood engulfed the boy, consuming his entire body. His soul, his life, everything. It tore apart his little body piece by piece, and so also his humanity.

It tore apart everything he was, and remade him anew, like a caterpillar pupating into a butterfly.

"AAAAAGGGGGHHHH!!!"

Agony spread through his transforming body.

Madness spread into his innocent mind.

The desire to destroy it all.

The desire to take everything away.

The desire... to end it all.

"Kill..."

"Destroy..."

"Kill..."

"Destroy..."

The dark landscape became clearer, as a battlefield where millions of corpses spread over the arid lands. The scent of blood and rotten corpses entered his nostrils.

And a single girl stood in front of him, while everybody else was dead.

A girl with blazing red hair, and dragon-like eyes.

A sword was pointed at him.

"How... how could you do this?" She cried, gritting her teeth.

"No... I didn't do this!"

The boy cried, but his voice was not heard.

His body moved on its own, roaring like a beast.

"ROOOOOAAAAAARRRRR!!!"

A gigantic fist that ended it all flew towards her.

"Stop..."

Drawing closer...

"Stop...!" I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

And closer...

"STOP!"

And closer.

"STOOOOOP!!!"

CLAAAAAASSSHHHH!!!!

His fist annihilated the girl, turning her into ashes.

The entire world began to fracture.

The continents fell apart.

The seas turbulently evaporated.

The planet's crust shattered into pieces.

Everything ended.

"The end... Bring the end!"

"Bring it! Quickly! Hurry!"

"You must complete... the purpose!"

"OUR PURPOSE!"

"No... NO! STOP! UUAAAGH!"

And then, he woke up.

(Sylphy's POV)

Due to all the noise I heard coming from the city preparing for my grandmother to come visit us, I had to wake up rather early today. I ended walking to the bathroom and then... hearing my little brother making noises on his room, which was right next to mine.

"Uughh...! No! Uagh!"

He was having a nightmare. Not so long ago he used to sleep with my parents but lately he wanted to have his own room. They weren't able to change his mind at all.

"Zephy?"

I walked inside his room, seeing him struggle to sleep.

He was having a very nasty nightmare, his entire body was emanating a red and black aura, it seemed to be because of the stress he felt.

"Zephy!" I cried. "Wake up, dear! Little brother!" I called for him, quickly using magic to calm his heart.

"Unnggh... Sniff..." He started crying, until he slowly opened his eyes. "A-Ah... Big sis...?"

"Zephy!" I hugged him. It felt so sad he was having such a terrible nightmare when he's such a tiny little boy.

"Are you okay?" I asked. "You were having a very nasty nightmare it seems."

"A-Ahh... Y-Yeah..." He sighed, hugging me back, and rubbing his face on my chest. "Sorry, did I wake you up?"

"Not at all, don't worry." I sighed. "Actually, the noise outside was getting really annoying."

"A-Ah, right..." He nodded faintly, I quickly cleansed his tears and gave him a kiss on his little nose.

"Do you feel better now?" I asked him.

"A bit better..." He said, hugging me. "I want to stay with big sister for a bit..."

"Aw, sure..." I smiled, hugging him back and resting over his bed.

He hugged me tightly, as if we haven't seen each other in years for some reason.

"What kind of nightmare were you having?" I wondered.

Zephy looked worried about telling me the nightmare.

He seemed... rather scared of it, actually.

"N-Nothing... Don't mind it..."

"Come on, tell me. It's not like I'm going to get mad. It is just a nightmare, they're not real things at the end of the day."

Zephy sighed, nodding faintly.

"I-I... I dreamed I became a big monster..." He sighed.

"A-A big monster?" I wondered.

Now that was a unique dream.

"There were... other monsters there, they forced me to become a big monster. And... And... Then I was... destroying everything... And it made me sad because I would never do that... You were there too, big sis." He cried.

"M-Me?" I asked.

"You were there... A-And I... that monster I became it... it killed you." He cried. "I'm sorry!"

"Eh? You don't have to be sorry." I sighed. "It was just a bad nightmare. Maybe I annoyed you or something and you just had something like that as a dream, haha."

"N-No, you never annoy me... I love you very much big sis..." He cried. "I-I will never hurt you... never!"

"Geez, calm down, it's okay." I laughed. "Well! It was quite the dream but, now's time to just face our reality. Our annoying grandma's coming, remember?"

"A-Ah, right... Ugh." He sighed.

"Yeah, hahaha..." I laughed nervously.

Chapter 726 A Big Sister That Spoils Her Little Brother

I felt worried about my little brother's mental wellbeing, so while he stuck to me in his bed wanting to be cuddled and spoiled, I asked some help from Alice to scan his mind and soul a little bit, and to soothe it using magic.

"Hmmm, he seems to be healthy." Said Alice. "Though... further scanning has shown that his soul presents tremendously high quantities of Mana sealed within."

"Sealed?" I asked through telepathy.

"It does seem that your brother's primary elements, Darkness, Shadow, Poison, and Blood are amassed into a gigantic cloud of Mana, perhaps worth several billions of units. However, they're tightly sealed... It seems this might be the reason he has nightmares." Alice inspected.

"So the reason why he wasn't able to awaken a power with that Elixir...?" I wondered.

"It could very well be because of that Dark-Aligned Elemental Mana inside his soul. Though his soul doesn't seem in danger. It is as if his own body and soul have compacted his immense power naturally. I assume he will slowly release it until fully mastering in the next years as he grows up." Said Alice.

"Though, he could perhaps get sick, so improving his physique is vital, thankfully he had been improving at a steady pace with your help."

"Yeah, I guess." I felt relieved at that. "I'll give him an Elixir just in case."

I quickly took out an Elixir to soothe minds and heal wounds and sicknesses, and gave it to my little brother while he cuddled over my belly.

"Zephy, we can't sleep much longer, we've gotta wake up, okay?" I asked.

"Muhh..." He sighed, rubbing his face on my chest. "I wanna stay with big sis..."

"Awww... but we can't just sit down all day. Here, I've got you an elixir so you'll feel much better and healthier." I said, giving it to him. "It tastes like strawberry so go ahead!"

"Oh..." Zephy looked at the elixir and then slowly drank it. "Hmmm! Sweet!"

He quickly ended drinking it all, his aura stabilized and he seemed much healthier and awake now. It seems the mental and physical exhaustion he felt due to his nightmare and lack of sleep because of that has been finally healed.

"How do you feel now?"

"Much better! Thank you big sis! I love you!"

Zephy gave me a kiss in my cheek.

"I love you too, Zephy! I'll always be there for you, okay?" I gave him one last hug and a kiss on his forehead. "You're my precious little brother. If you ever feel sad about a nightmare or something, just tell me, alright? You can trust me."

"You won't tell mommy and daddy? I don't want to make them worried... They're so busy all the time..." He said.

"W-Well... If it is not too bad, I won't. Alright?" I asked with a smile.

"Oway!" Zephy nodded adorably, as I gave him a head pat.

"Alright, now how about we go take a bath together to get out faster?" I asked.

"Okay! I'll wash your back big sis!" Zephy said.

Like that, we walked into the bathroom and had a relaxing warm bath, where Zephy finally felt much more at ease. A warm bath always soothes the mind and the body, and while we took a bath, I asked him about Celica a little bit.

"So what do you think of Celica? Are you two good friends?" I wondered. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

"E-Eh? C-Celica? Yeah... She sometimes invites me to her room and we play with plushies... S-She likes to play pretend a lot." Zephy said while blushing a bit.

"Ooh? What type of pretend play?" I asked while giggling.

"L-Like... I am her... husband and she the wife, a-and the plushies are... our kids." He said. "I-Is it weird? She likes it a lot, but the other kids in the orphanage near her house doesn't like her that much, they call her weird... it makes me angry whenever I see them calling her like that."

"Huh? They call her weird?" I asked. "Do Mary and the other nun don't do anything about it?"

"They try but they say they're just kids... B-But I am their same age and I find it wrong..." Said Zephy.

"I-Is that so?" I sighed. "Well, it seems she doesn't really get affected by that at all, she's always happy and cheerful. And she's our friend so she sticks with us all the time, the orphanage kids are a bit different, that's all."

"Yeah!" Zephy said. "But one day I remember she was crying..."

pandasnovel.com "C-Celica was crying?!" I asked.

"But she's fine now!" Zephy said. "She was sad because the other demon kids called her weird for... liking her plushies and golems a lot. But I told her it was fine to like them and that there wasn't anything wrong, a-and that she was a very pretty and nice girl!"

"Oh my!" I giggled a bit. "I never thought of you of such a gallant!"

Zephy blushed a bit while covered in soap bubbles.

"And what did she said after that?" I asked.

"S-She was very happy..." Zephy sighed. "And she stopped crying... and hugged me."

"She hugged you!?" I gasped.

It seems my little brother has a whole story with Celica I was not aware of! Well, he goes to play to her house quite commonly. Usually a maidservant or manservant accompany him.

"I guess you really like her, huh?" I sighed.

"L-Like?!" Zephy got all embarrassed, but it was very obvious as I saw his embarrassed face.

"Hehehe, I bet you want to kiss her or something, don't you?" I teased him.

"T-That's..." Zephy got embarrassed. "S-Shut up! I don't want to do gross things..."

"So cute!" I laughed, giving him a head pat. "Okay, just keep being nice with her, I'm sure she'll fancy you once you two grow up a little more, you're still too young after all."

"Ugh, shut up! Y-You're saying embarrassing things, big sis!" Zephy got angrier, splashing water at me.

SPLASH!

"Hahaha! Don't get so mad! You're so grumpy." I giggled. "Just like mom!"

Chapter 727 A New Spirit

Once we were ready, Zephy went downstairs to have breakfast, but I stayed on my bedroom for a few more minutes, as I had a few items I needed to get down before anything else. And these were these items:

[Spirit Tree Crystalized Sap (B Grade)] x8

[Earth Spirit Essence Potion (B Grade)] x10

[Mole King's Soul Sphere (B Grade)] x1

[Spirit Tree Crystalized Branch (B Grade)] x4

[Greater Strengthening Elixir (B Grade)] x6

[Greater Skill Proficiency Potion (B Grade)] x6

[Greater Rune Potion (B Grade)] x6

[Divine Strengthening Elixir (A Grade)] x8

[Divine Skill Proficiency Potion (A Grade)] x8

[Divine Grade Rune Potion (A Grade)] x8

[Divine Essence of Blazing Flames (A Grade)] x1

There are some interesting items I've accumulated lately, the Spirit Tree Crystalized Sap and the Branches, what are they even for? Just some random material I got? But Spirit Trees of this quality are incredible. Maybe they're meant for me to do something more with this... Maybe to somehow make them into a potion? Or perhaps to use them on Naturia's next evolution.

And then there's the Mole King Soul Sphere, which has the soul of the Mole King. With this and the Earth Spirit Potions, maybe... I could try them out. I think if I consume them all together, something interesting could happen.

"Alright, ugh, let's chug them down quickly." I nodded.

I quickly began popping open the Earth Spirit Potions, one by one, as I felt a powerful Earth Attribute Spiritual Essence gathering inside of my Soul Scape. And then, I looked at the small little orb... and swallowed it.

What? The description said I could!

"Gulp... Ugh... Ah?!"

As I began to consider my life choices, something happened. The soul of the Mole King gathered into my Soul Scape, fusing together with the large quantities of Earth Spirit Essence and then condensing into the shape of a... tiny and adorable mole, with big black claws and a star-shaped nose, oh my gosh!

FLAAAASH!

Ding!

[Your Soul Scape has materialized the [Baby Earth Mole Spirit (E Rank)]]

"Oh my gosh, you're so small!" I cried, as the tiny spirit shaped into a mole appeared in my hands.

"Chuuu! Chuuu!" The Mole panicked a bit upon his birth. It seemed it was probably the Mole King reincarnated... Just like it happened to Ignatius and Beelzebub.

"Hahah, calm down now, everything's alright." I said with a giggle. "You've been reborn as a tiny earth spirit, congrats!"

"Chuuu..." The mole sighed, quickly giving up on escaping, or something.

"Amazing! It seems those items were intended for you to get yourself a new Familiar of the Earth Attribute, which you've lacked." Said Alice. "None of your friends can control earth either that well, so I think it will be a good asset."

"Yeah, I will name you... Err... Chocolate." I said. "Because your fur is like chocolate!"

"Nom!" However, the mole bit my finger! "CHUUU!"

"Ouch! Okay, I guess you don't like it!" I sighed. "T-Then what name can I give to a mole?"

"How about Brownie? It's cute." Alice suggested.

παΠdasNovel.com "C-Chuuu..." He didn't seemed as annoyed.

"Brownie it is!" I decided.

"CHUU?!" Brownie panicked, but it was too late.

"Here! I've made a System Seed just for this tiny little guy." Said Alice.

Ding!

[You've exchanged 1000000 EXP! You've created a System Seed.]

[The System Seed has been fused into the target; a new System Status has been created.]

[The System Status has been connected with the System Main Frame.]I think you should take a look at pa1dasnovel.com

<Status System>

[System Owner]: [Brownie]

[Race]: [Baby Earth Mole Spirit]

[Rank]: [E]

[Level]: [0/20]

[Class]: [Young Star-Nosed Mole]

[HP]: [230/230]

[MP]: [120/120]

[Strength]: [250]

[Defense]: [180]

[Magic]: [100]

[Resistance]: [100]

[Agility]: [120]

[Luck]: [50]

[Charm]: [100]

[Skills]: [Digging: Lv1] [Sharp Claws: Lv1] [Soil Manipulation: Lv1] [Sharp Senses: Lv1] [Roll: Lv1]

Oooh, now I can see Brownie's Status. Well, that was quick. He seems to have the most basic Skills a tiny baby spirit like him should have, and he comes at E Rank, so I guess I'll be raising him for now without exposing him to any battle for the moment.

His stats compared to everyone else are... very low, he's the weakest Familiar I have at the moment, even Violet and Glutton were strong from the start, but that's because their base bodies were already high quality items, I suppose.

"Welcome to the team!" Said Alice.

"Yeah, little guy. I am your senior by the way! Call me Ignatius, THE RED!" Said Ignatius.

"Chuu? Chuu!" However, Brownie ignored him and glanced elsewhere.

"O-Oi you bastard!" Ignatius cried.

"Hahaha! He ignored you." Beelzebub mocked him. "Oi mole, if you want to know what's good, you better stay with me. You can become my lackey and in the future you could even become one of my first Demon Servants! Just be loyal to be and give me your desserts every day."

"Chuu?!" The mole seemed shocked, and then began to droll, opening his little jaws and trying to bite off a piece from Beelzebub. "Nom! Nom!"

"Uaagh! W-What are you doing?! You can't eat me!" Beelzebub cried.

"Hahaha, well, Moles do eat insects." Laughed Furoh. "Welcome to the team, little guy. Were you like this back then?" Furoh suddenly transformed into the Mole King form.

The little Brownie reacted with shock.

"C-CHUUU?! CHUUU!" He began pointing it was indeed him.

I guess he really remembers and is quite smart.

"You're smarter than back then, you just fell off a single blow." Said Curse. "Were you under a curse? I could sense something."

"C-Chuuu..." Brownie nodded. "Chuu, chuu, chuuu!" It began making little noises again.

Furoh, having turned into a mole, somehow could understand his mole language to an extent.

"He's... saying there was something that infected him, some sort of liquid darkness, and a phantom of sorts. A voice saying: "Destroy Agarthia at all costs"..." Furoh said.

"Huh..." I began rubbing my chin.

"Maybe the baddies?" Wondered Naturia behind me.

"Perhaps Arachne herself set this whole thing up and maybe more monsters cursed with this berserk-like state might appear in the future." I sighed. "This is slowly getting worse, I should tell mom and dad later."

Chapter 728 Growing Stronger

After having created Brownie and learning a bit of what happened to the Moles that attacked the farmlands of our country, I quickly decided to get down the enhancement potions before the big desserts.

Ding!

[You've consumed [Greater Strengthening Elixir (B Grade)] x6 and [Divine Strengthening Elixir (A Grade)] x8!]

[Your [Physique]: [Tier 5: Rank 6: Divine Yggdragon Princess Physique] has increased to Tier 5: Rank 7!]

[Your Physical capabilities have developed tremendously.]

[As a result of the Physique growing stronger, related Skills to the Physique have gained additional power.]

[Your senses have been sharpened even further.]

[You've consumed [Greater Rune Potion (B Grade)] x6 and [Divine Grade Rune Potion (A Grade)] x8!]

[Your [Magic Circle]: [Tier 5: Rank 6: Spiritual Princess Magic Circle] has increased to Tier 5: Rank 7!]

[Your Magic Circle has developed thousands of new Elemental Runes of many types.]

[Your Elemental Magic has grown much stronger.]

[You can feel the Mana in your surroundings much better.]

"Wow, only one Rank?" I asked in surprise. "I guess I've really hit quite the wall..." I was a bit surprised.

"Well, these potions are more effective when you're below Tier 5! Now that you've reached this stage, you're so strong you'll need higher quality elixirs... Maybe you should had kept them and made a stronger Elixir by adding extra materials." Alice giggled.

"Ugh, why didn't I think about it?" I sighed. "Maybe because I am in a hurry... Wait, perhaps I should had used the sap and the branches for that?"

"Well, I am sure in a future quest you'll be able to secure more, so don't get so frustrated over it." Alice said.

Ding!

[The [Quest System] agrees with Alice.]

[Be more patient, and think before desperately drinking your Potions.]

[Don't be greedy.]

"Is the Quest System reprimanding me or something?" I sighed. "Well, even if its just a Rank, at Tier 5 it really feels like a big difference with each Rank... Though it kind of sucks my stats can't be reflected in that yet."

παΠδαςNovel.com "They would be quite high by now, although by leveling up, you could also enhance your stats even further for free, like your Familiars." Said Alice.

"I know... Well, it's fine at the end, it is a fair exchange for having infinite Mana, one of the greatest resources that has saved my life countless times by now. Also being able to edit my Class whenever I want, and everything else must probably not be normal for a conventional system, right?" I asked.

"Indeed, the System Magic we developed is unique because my core is glitched, giving birth to new bizarre spells." Alice said. "Although there are things such as not being able to increase your stats and obtain bonus stats on top of your base strength, having all these abilities, Infinite Mana, Near-Immortality, Immunity to All Status Effects, and many other abilities is a fair exchange. Though, maybe in the far future, we might find a way to restructure the main frame enough to allow you for leveling up, but we'll have to do some sort of work around... I am still working on it, for years now."

"Don't worry about it, I am honestly fine as I am! And if I begin leveling up again I might just end up getting normal Mana and my endless Mana would disappear, that's not something I want..." I sighed. "More or less, there's always Skills too." I drank the last potions quickly.

Ding!

[You've consumed the [Greater Skill Proficiency Potion (B Grade)] x6 and [Divine Skill Proficiency Potion (A Grade)] x8!]

[All the earned Skill Proficiency Points have been randomly distributed across all of your Skills that can still level up.]I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com

[The [Steady Fighter: Lv6] Skill Level has increased to Level 7!]

[The [Reaper: Lv1] Skill Level has increased to Level 2!]

[The [Cooking: Lv1] Skill Level has increased to Level 2!]

[The [Divine Fruit of Knowledge: Lv10] Skill has reached Max Level!]

[As a Bonus for reaching Max Level, you've received 10000 Nature, Spirit, and Life Attribute Runes into your Magic Circle]

[Your Nature, Spirit, and Life Attribute Magic Spells have become much stronger.]

[You can now further evolve the Skill Tree and acquire a Brand-New Skill!]

[Divine Fruit of Knowledge: Lv10]

Skill Proficiency: --/--

Your knowledge over magic and spirits is greatly enhanced. You might be capable of creating Magic Circles more easily and without the requirement for complicated runes through repeated use of the Skill. You acquire the ability to merge magic of various elements without the negative side effects. You can learn Magic Spells more easily and store them inside of your mind through your great knowledge. Additionally, you're able to share such knowledge and talent through special [Fruits of Knowledge].

Passive Effect (10): Mana Regeneration Speed, Mana, Intelligence, and Resistance by +200%

Active Effect (10): By spending a large quantity of Mana, you can create a [Fruit of Knowledge] that can share 70% of your earned knowledge and experience with magic (and only magic, personal memories and secrets are not shared) with anybody that consumes the fruit.

By consuming the fruit, Mana and Health is restored by 80% of their maximum value and grants a temporary enhancement to Mana Regeneration Speed, Total Mana Capacity, Intelligence, and Resistance by +60% for 8 hours. Cooldown: 8 Hours.

Additionally, it grants a large amount of Nature, Spirit, and Life Attribute Runes distributed to the Magic Circle.

Level Bonus (10): Enhances Nature, Spirit, and Life Magic Spell Power and Effects by +50%. Additionally, any Nature and Life Attribute Spirit the user has Contracted as a Familiar will receive a +25% Bonus to their Skills Damage and Effects.

"Oh! Max Level! Finally." I said with a smile. "It seems it gained a lot of new effects, alongside the new Runes, it can boost Naturia's Skill Power and Effects y 25%! I assume that's a lot..."

"Indeed, the more advanced skills are, the more advanced their bonuses and abilities will become." Alice said.

"I see..." I nodded. "Then let's quickly get the Plant Army Skill! I am sure it has gotten some buffs since the last time we saw it, right?"

"Indeed, older Skills you don't pick up tend to receive buffs after you pick them later, alongside being able to level up faster as a compensation too." Alice nodded. "Here!"

[You've learned the [Great Harvest Familiar Summon: Lv1] Skill!]

Chapter 729 Creating Great Harvest Familiars!

Ding!

[You've learned the [Great Harvest Familiar Summon: Lv1] Skill!]

[The [Great Harvest Familiar: Lv1] Skill has been modified and powered up to match the user's current strongest Skills of this Rank!]

[The Skill Proficiency required to Level Up the Skill have been decreased, and the user can earn double the normal amount of Skill Proficiency of this Skill in specific.]

[Additionally, all available and future available [Harvest Familiars] have been powered up.]

[Great Harvest Familiar Summon: Lv1]

Skill Proficiency: 0/8000

Thanks to your great talent as a farmer and with your great connection with nature, you're capable of harboring the power of nature into the seeds you nourish and plant, creating powerful minions from seeds you've previously placed in the ground. Great Harvest allows for the quick creation of [Harvest Familiars] that are strengthened versions of such monsters, possessing unique traits and abilities that distinguish each one.

[Harvest Familiars] can be created beforehand by modifying existing seeds or creating their seeds, which can be stored inside the [Seed Pouch], which has a limited amount of storage that can be increased with the Skill level.

Each [Harvest Familiar] will be summoned immediately by the command of the user as long as the seeds are lay over the floor, the necessity of using Mana is only required when creating [Harvest Familiars Seeds].

Familiars' strength is not only based in Skill Level but also in the growth of the user, therefore, they can keep growing stronger outside of Skill Level, and become much stronger than anything the user could ever make otherwise.

Passive Effect (1): Enhances All Stats of Summoned [Harvest Familiars] by +30% and grants new types of Familiars with each Level. [Harvest Familiars] can [Awaken] to acquire Bonus Stats and new Skills by spending additional Seeds and Materials.

Active Effect (1): Grants the Ability to create [Harvest Familiar Seeds] of varied types of [Harvest Familiars] and to be able to summon them at any time as long as their seeds are placed in the ground. Additionally, the [Seed Pouch] allows for the storage of such seeds and easy retrieval. Current Storage Capacity: 0/30. Seed Creation Cooldown: 30 Minutes. Enhances [Harvest Familiars] Skill Power by +30%.

Level Bonus (1): Enhances all of the Harvest Familiars Stats, their Skill and Magic Power by +25%.

Available [Harvest Familiars]:

Level 1: [Dashing Radish] [Potato Guardian]

Level 2: ???

"E-Eh?! It really grew much stronger than before!" I said in shock. "Back then I thought I could make my own Plant Monsters like I've done before, or that with Naturia it was fine but this is insane... Also the Cooldown is just 30 minutes now, much more doable than the hour it had before. Also the Running Radish became Dashing Radish and the Explosive Potato became... Potato Guardian? Let's try it out then."

I quickly concentrated Mana into the palm of my hands and used the Harvest Familiar Seed Creation Ability. At the same time, a small seed pouch popped up out of thin air at my side, which showed me the count of how many seeds I could have at the same time...

FLUOOSH!

Ding!

[You've created a [Harvest Familiar Seed: Dashing Radish (D Rank)] x1!]

[Your Seed Pouch has been Created!]

[Harvest Familiar Seeds: 1/30]

A small, green-colored seed with a tiny radish icon on top of it appeared in the palm of my hands. It was just as easy as that. And I can summon every 30 Minutes, meaning I can make tons ever day... Like 48? I guess there's a limit, so the most I can do is 30, but I guess I can replenish their numbers through a single day, which is nice.

"Let's see... Do I just drop it into the floor even if there's no soil?" I wondered.

"Yeah, as long as you give it a command, it will quickly be born into a plant." Said Alice. "They have status as well, so once you check on them, you'll realize how they actually work."

"Alright..." I dropped the seed and then summoned it. "Summon!"

FLAAAASH!

The seed quickly transformed, turning into a 50 centimeters tall, white-colored radish with tiny arms and legs made out of roots. It looked... kind of adorable.

"Gyuuuh!" It said, waving its head and then... it started dashing around, running everywhere. It was so fast it could even run around the walls and the ceiling. I think you should take a look at pandasnovel.com pandasNovel.com "W-Wait! Don't run around like that, you're making a fuss!" I cried, trying to calm down the rapidly dashing radish, it was quite the challenge.

"Gyuh..." The radish then quickly stayed still, looking around.

They seemed like they were something similar to golems rather than familiars. They have some sort of intelligence, but it is quite automated and at the same time, it also feels natural. They obey my orders to an extent too, but they cannot really give me any word or opinion of their part.

And their status were also... quite interesting, compared to my Familiars, they were designed much different, and also, to be disposable summons.

<Status System>

[Name]: [Dashy]

"Interesting, it can't level up? Can't I give it a system seed to level up?" I wondered.

"No, the familiar was already designed by the system so it is a part of it." Alice said. "Nonetheless, each individual cannot grow stronger themselves, and are disposable. However, their consciousness can be passed on each of their copies, and the Growth Status will allow their entire kind to permanently Rank Up as well, although Harvest Familiars can only Rank Up a single Rank."

"Interesting..." I said, finding a whole new world of Summons to use. "How does it grow though?"

"By simply "Absorbing" the Seeds of this certain type of Familiar, you can slowly add up to the Growth Number, when it reaches 100, it will Rank Up and become a Rank C Harvest Familiar!" Said Alice. "Also~ Did you notice? Check your status..."

"My Status- Eh?!"

[Agility]: [6] (+50)

"Bonus +50 Agility?!"

Chapter 730 The Potential Of Summons

Just as I was wondering how I could ever rise my stats somehow, something that could perhaps work similarly happened...

[Agility]: [6] (+50)

By summoning the little Dashy, my Agility gained a +50 Bonus! It made me feel a lot nimbler, although not as much as when I change stats through Status Manipulation. Perhaps these bonuses might seem big, but their total enhancement is not as huge as the tiny stats I can manipulate, which according to Alice contain a lot of power even if they're lower.

Nonetheless, with this fifty more Agility, the difference in speed was really obvious, and if I boosted my stats much more, I could attain brand new levels of strength.

"I do feel faster... So these Summons give me buffs too?" I asked in shock.

"Yep! As long as their seeds exists, you receive their buffs!" Alice celebrated.

"Wait, and if I make 30 of these guys... I'll get +1500 Agility?!" I asked.

"Yeah, in theory!" Alice said.

This was crazy, radishes might become my new favorite veggie... Though only Agility as the buff wasn't the best, I would also wish for more defense or strength. I bet other types of Harvest Familiars will be able to give more of these buffs.

"But wait, what are the limits?" I wondered.

"Well, the limit right now is 30. You can keep summoned 30 at the same time and within your pouch." Said Alice. "Also the buff works the same... However, every 30 minutes, you can make more seeds and simply store them inside your inventory. Whenever one of them dies, you can replace them. I recommend you to not keep them saved because they'll be very useful, their Skills in specific... Well, I bet you'll probably want to eat this radish after reading it."

[Nutritious Flavor]

Sacrifices the Dashing Radish to transform it into a [Nutritious Radish] which can be consumed or used as a cooking ingredient. Once consumed, it will give a temporary enhancement to Agility of +50 and enhances Reaction Speed and Casting Speed by up to +30% for 3 Hour. The Agility Buff can be stacked up to 4 times for a maximum of +200 Additional Agility.

"I guess I'll be eating radishes from now on..." I sighed. "I wonder if the Guardian Potato has the same effect..."

"Yeah it has, but this one boosts defenses and vitality." Alice said, checking on the potato's status, and showing it to me. Even if I haven't summoned it yet, it seemed possible to showcase me the new summons stats.

"This is awesome... It sucks I have a cooldown though..." I sighed.

"If you didn't had one you could just create them infinitely..." Alice sighed. "Well, in a couple of years you'll probably have as many as you wish."

"True, I guess I've gotta be patient." I nodded. "In the future I'll make some crazy good stews using these vegetables, and buff everybody's stats."

"That's the spirit of a true farmer!" Alice celebrated.

"Anyways, how can I make the Awakened Harvest Familiars?" I wondered. "It said that I could use more materials?"

"Yes, Awakened Harvest Familiars receive bonus stats, new skills, and enhancement to old skills as well. You'll need nine more seeds to make the one you have into an Awakened form, but don't worry, as long as it doesn't die it will stay on its awakened form." Said Alice.

"I see... Wait, I need ten seeds?! That's a bit too much, don't you think?" I sighed. "Also I need a hundred to make them reach the next rank..."

"Sylphy I think you're complaining a bit too much now, you could technically make 48 seeds in a single day..." Said Alice.

"Yeah, but I don't have time to just be doing that constantly." I sighed.

"I can do it for you if you want, I'll set it up automatically." Said Alice.

"Oh, that would be a huge help! Then... Should I show this little guy to my family?" I wondered. "Ah, I think they might go crazy again over it... How about you go back to the Seed Pouch, Dashy?"

"Gyuh, gyuh!" Dashy nodded, suddenly exploding into tiny particles of light and going back to his seed form, which was quickly stored into the Seed Pouch.

POOF!

The Seed Pouch then disappeared, and whenever I wanted to call it, I just had to think about it and it would emerge out of thin air once more, it was a really... fantastical power, even in this magic world.

"Sometimes I wonder how these Skills even work, even in this world filled with magic, they feel a bit out of place." I sighed in surprise.

"Well that's the essence of the system, to have world-defying powers based on video games, which the humans from Earth are so fond of..." Said Alice. "It could be said most Skills are god-like powers that can slowly grow stronger too."

"So Gods can do crazy things like these easily, huh?" I sighed. "I'll have to get much stronger if I ever want to slap them in the face to leave this world in peace..."

"I'll be rooting for you, Sylphy!" Alice cheered. "Now, how about you absorb the last thing in the menu?"

Alice quickly gave to me a glowing red jewel with a small flame inside, it was the [Divine Essence of Blazing Flames].

"Right, I guess this should had been a priority..."
