

A Killer 1051

Chapter 1051: Life and death

Right after Opteron picked up the gun, that Long Yin not only showed a look of admiration in his eyes, but it was more evil.

"I have picked up the gun on the ground now..." Just listen to the words of White Dragon.

That Long Yin suddenly smiled.

"well!"

"Now you use the gun in your hand... to shoot yourself!" A strange word came out of Long Yin's mouth.

When Long Yin said these words, Zhao Long stood there like a rock, motionless.

As for the old Commander Mu, he was stunned. He never expected that the * behind him was so evil that he would let Opteron shoot himself.

Isn't that killing yourself?

Opteron held the gun in his hand and did not move.

"Do you dare?"

"As long as you dare to replace your commander-in-chief with your life...hehe, I will let him go." Just listen to that Long Yin.

Commander Mu shouted there and said, "Oh Long, you idiot... don't believe him!"

"Pick up the gun and kill them! I order you..."

"If you don't listen to my orders, I will shoot you back, Hao Long, have you heard my orders..." Mu Yunlong said with tears in his eyes, looking at his guard Hao Long.

But what about Opteron? There was a bitter smile at the corner of his mouth.

The iron-blooded man's eyes were slightly red at this moment. He knew that he could not protect the Commander-in-Chief today... Now he can only bet on this one. He hoped that the terrifying man in front of him would let the Commander-in-Chief one go. Life.

So he took up the gun decisively and aimed it at his chest!

Without even the slightest hesitation...

"Commander, I'm sorry...I'll go one step ahead!" Steel words came out of his mouth.

Then, with a bang, fingers pulled on the cold trigger.

"Optical Dragon..."

With Mu Yunlong screamed.

Opteron's tall and fierce body fell down with a plop.

He really shot himself.

The blood flowed out from his body, and he struggled to get up from the ground... he looked at that Long Yin with a weak breath.

But what about Long Yin? I was deeply impressed by the true iron-blooded man temperament of Opteron, not only frowned slightly.

"It really deserves to be a soldier of the North China Field Military Region... bold enough! bold enough."

As he said that, the Opteron stood up from the ground with difficulty, and he held the place where he was shot in his chest... raising his face to look at Long Yin in front of him.

"Let it go... let it go... Commander-in-Chief?"

"As long as you let go... my commander... my life... to you!" Opteron seemed to be extremely difficult even to speak at this moment.

It's a pity that Long Yin laughed crazy.

"Haha, are you really stupid or fake?"

"At this point, do you want me to let this old commander go?" Long Yin suddenly laughed wildly.

When Hao Long heard that Long Yin was completely untrustworthy, his entire face turned purple.

"Asshole, I want your life!" Long Yin who screamed wildly, enduring the gunshot wound on his body, rushed towards that Long Yin madly.

A pair of furious fists slammed at that Long Yin.

But the muzzle of the body is bleeding out of the body...

boom! With a bang, before his body reached that Long Yin's side, he saw Long Yin flying and kicking directly on the chest of the dragon.

With a scream, Long Yin was kicked back and fell heavily to the ground.

"Huh, something that doesn't know whether it's alive or dead." Long Yin snorted coldly.

The Opteron who fell on the ground had no strength to get up again... He was just an old commander who was looking at him desperately.

And Mu Yunlong? The inside of his mouth seemed to want to talk, but he was hit on the back of the head by that Long Yin, and then Commander Mu fainted.

"It's time to go." Long Yin suddenly said with an evil smile in his mouth.

He glanced at the unwilling Opteron on the ground... and then grabbed the fainted Mu Yunlong by his side and walked towards the distance.

Opteron was full of blood watching the Commander-in-Chief being taken away... His blood-stained hands clung to the ground unwillingly... Lie forward... It seemed that he still wanted to save his Commander-in-Chief.

However, the two identical monsters behind that had already walked towards him coldly.

Then, slap!

But seeing one of them picked up the Moon Blade in his hand and stabbed it fiercely on the back that was squirming forward on the stomach!

How cruel! !

Blood splashed out of Opteron's body, his body squirmed, and then it seemed that he didn't have any strength.

His body finally reached its limit. At this moment, those resolute eyes began to lose sight...Then the pupils began to shrink and shrink slowly, and finally closed when they became as small as the tip of a needle...

He seems to be dead!

A generation of soldiers just abandoned their bodies in the wilderness.

The surrounding fire is still burning...There is still an explosion in the air, but what about here? But there were a few bombed military vehicles and corpses all over the ground...

The commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army also disappeared at the same time.

Binjiang City.

Brigadier Wang Zhen and his troops, who were waiting for the arrival of the commander-in-chief, had already waited for almost an hour at this moment.

"It's not right, why is the commander-in-chief's team coming so slowly? According to reason, it should be early now." Wang Zhen muttered in his mouth, while looking at the watch on his wrist.

After finally checking the time, he became a little impatient.

Stepped forward and walked forward.

"Is there no news from the commander-in-chief's motorcade?" Wang Zhen asked the correspondent on the side to say.

The correspondent quickly took off his headset and said: "Report to the brigade commander, the commander-in-chief's convoy has not been able to reach it until now."

"What do you mean? What does it mean to be unable to contact?" Wang Zhen asked, his face changed drastically.

Under normal circumstances, such a situation is absolutely impossible... That's why Wang Zhen looks ugly.

"The subordinates don't know! I kept calling just now, but unfortunately the commander-in-chief has always been blind." Only the communication soldier said.

Wang Zhen's face was green and said: "Call me again..."

"Yes!" The correspondent put on the headset and continued the call.

When Wang Zhen was anxious here, Li Tian came over.

"Brigadier Wang, what's wrong? What happened?" Li Tian asked curiously.

Wang Zhen sighed with an ugly expression: "The commander-in-chief's motorcade has not come here yet...so I am a little worried."

Li Tianyi was stunned when he heard the moment: "Why?"

"According to the truth, my grandpa's motorcade should have arrived." Li Tian was depressed.

Wang Zhen also said, "Yes."

Chapter 1052: Horrified scene

"I asked the signal officer just now... but the signal officer said that he couldn't get in touch with the convoy on the commander-in-chief." Wang Zhen hesitated.

When he heard Wang Zhen say this, Li Tian suddenly trembled.

The sixth sense made him feel a little uncomfortable.

"Couldn't it be my grandpa who had something on the road?" Li Tian's expression suddenly changed.

Then Wang Zhen looked at Li Tian's worried situation, haha smiled and said, "Li Tian, you are too worried..."

"How could something happen to the commander-in-chief?"

"I don't believe it, the world is so big, and the * dare to move our North China Field Army's commander in chief..."

"If he dares... Lao Tzu dared to blast their nest with a tank!" Wang Zhen said domineeringly.

Li Tian also thought to himself, it's impossible! Wang Zhen should be right.

Who dares to have such courage? How dare you touch your grandfather?

He is the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army?

Even the people at the gate of hell, do they really dare to have such courage?

Li Tian, who thought about it for a while, thinks maybe he really thinks too much...

So they comforted themselves and waited like this.

But in the next half an hour of waiting, I still didn't see the commander-in-chief's convoy coming.

This time not only Li Tian was anxious, but also Brigadier Wang Zhen felt more and more wrong.

"Haven't you contacted the commander-in-chief's motorcade?" Wang Zhen rushed over and asked the correspondent.

During this half an hour, the signalman had been in contact, but he could not.

But the reporter said: "Report to the brigade commander... we have never been able to contact the commander-in-chief's convoy!"

"But just now we showed through satellite positioning...The commander-in-chief's convoy has been at a standstill a few kilometers away from Binjiang City..." said the signalman.

"What? When did this happen?" Wang Zhen roared.

The correspondent hurriedly reported: "Just ten minutes ago, we turned on the military satellite."

"Asshole, why didn't you tell me just now." Just listen to Wang Zhen roaring.

The signal soldier looked aggrieved, lowered his head and said nothing.

Then Wang Zhen didn't pay any attention to the communication soldier in front of him, and hurried to the place in front.

"Li Tian...I think something bad may have happened." Wang Zhen, who walked quickly over there, pulled Li Tian with an ugly face and said suddenly.

Li Tian asked quickly; "What's wrong? Did something happen to my grandpa and the others?"

Wang Zhen hurriedly said: "It's not clear yet... It's just that the communicators have used military satellites to locate the commander-in-chief's convoy a few kilometers away from Binjiang City..."

"However, the team is always at a standstill."

When Li Tianyi heard this from Brigadier Wang Zhen, the color underneath became extremely ugly.

"How could this be?"

Wang Zhen said, "I don't know."

"What are you waiting for?"

"Let's go and have a look." Li Tiandao.

Wang Zhen also nodded quickly.

"The team prepares for me..."

"Immediately start to leave."

Following Wang Zhen's order, all the Hummer military vehicles and the cross-country military vehicles in front all turned around quickly, and Li Tian quickly followed Wang Zhen in front of him and jumped into a Hummer.

"Give me enough horsepower, hurry up to the commander-in-chief's place to meet them." Wang Zhen ordered.

"Yes!" The soldier in front of the Hummer said.

Then stepped on the gas pedal, and the Hummer made a roar and drove away like a tiger.

The mighty motorcade quickly rushed to Mu Yunlong's motorcade.

Along the way, the entire fleet can be described as swift.

Li Tian, who was sitting in the car, grabbed a heart, and his heart was always chaotic.

He didn't know what happened to his grandpa...In his heart, he only hoped that it was a trivial matter, and only hoped that he was thinking too much.

But just as he was thinking like this in his heart, the soldier driving in front suddenly screamed.

"Report to the brigade commander, there seems to be something wrong..."

As he said this in amazement, Wang Zhen and Li Tian stood up almost at the same time...then their heads quickly stretched out to look.

This look made the two of them almost dumbfounded!

Gosh!

What kind of situation is that.

Looking from a distance, I saw a bombed truck still burning in the raging fire...The black smoke soaring into the sky was blowing black gas like a huge chimney...Although the fire was gone. It was so violent before, but still thick smoke.

"What happened?"

"do not know!"

"It seems that a truck exploded!" Wang Zhen said comforting himself.

"Something's wrong... Look over there..."

"Are there several cars?" a soldier said in astonishment.

"Yes...yes...is it our North China Field Army's convoy?"

Just listen to a soldier who was suddenly unbelievable pointing at a distance of more than ten meters away from the highway, said several Hummer military vehicles that were blown up and fell to the ground.

"Yes... it's our army!"

"It's the commander's troops!"

When they suddenly recognized that it was the army the commander-in-chief was carrying, Li Tian and Wang Zhen's hearts both trembled at the same time.

Then their Hummer caravan stopped in front of the place with a roar...

Wang Zhen and Li Tian almost jumped off before the car stopped completely.

The soldiers behind him also quickly jumped out of the car, and then one after another, holding the cold guns in their hands, betting on all directions.

"Grandpa..."

"Commander in chief!"

Suddenly Li Tian ran towards the cars ten meters away from the highway like crazy.

Wang Zhen from behind also ran over quickly.

Where the smoke billowed, three Hummer military vehicles and a bombed off-road vehicle were all overturned to the ground...

The whole car was broken, and the black smoke coming out of it still smelled of burning corpses.

Looking at the terrible corpses on the ground... and the corpses of the North China Field Army soldiers in the car, Li Tian suddenly felt like a thunderbolt in his heart.

"Grandpa..."

"Where is my grandpa?" Li Tian looked for there like crazy.

What about Wang Zhen and the entire army behind? They were completely stunned.

Gosh?

What happened here?

Why are so many people dead!

How could the commander-in-chief's motorcade be wiped out here? What happened to them?

Could it be said that there are really desperate people who dare to attack their commander-in-chief?

Chapter 1053: Chaos

Fire, ruins, blood, corpses.

The intertwined picture that was horrible completely shocked the people from the 39th Army who arrived there.

They all stared at the tragic scene with wide-eyed eyes, and there was a dark shadow in everyone's heart.

They don't know who the * is going to attack their commander in chief? Who on earth dares to have such courage?

However, facing the dead brother, they were indeed shocked and angry.

The * nature of the soldiers was thoroughly aroused.

What about Li Tian? It was powerless to find the grandpa he had just recognized in the messy corpse.

His eyes were blood red, and he used his blood-stained hands to pick up the corpses of the North China Field Army soldiers in the car one by one... But the commander-in-chief's body was not found.

"Grandpa, grandpa... where is my grandpa?"

A howl that destroyed the world screamed wildly from his mouth, and he looked up at the sky and screamed as best he could.

The sound seemed to pierce the sky.

Suddenly there was a thunder in the gray sky.

Click!

The violent and explosive lightning struck down from the sky, and then the pouring rain fell from the sky like a pouring rain.

As if even the sky was crying for these dead people.

The heavy rain washed away the blood and the corpse.

The cold rain fell on these 39th Army soldiers and also on Li Tian.

"brigadier!"

"brigadier!"

Suddenly several soldiers over there screamed in the heavy rain.

"Brigadier Commander, come here soon... we have discovered the Opteron."

Just as their voices yelled, Wang Zhen ran over quickly in the heavy rain but saw the soaked Wang Zhen crazy.

And Li Tian over there hurried over.

He knew in his heart that this Opteron was the first guard next to his grandfather, and he also knew that this Opteron was the first fierce man in the entire North China Field Army.

Just when they ran over, they saw that some soldiers over there had helped the white dragon in a pool of blood.

died?

Is it dead?

This is the most worrying issue in the hearts of all 39th Army soldiers.

You must know that Opteron's influence in the army is definitely very big. As the first fierce man of the North China Field Army, if he died, it would have an unprecedented major blow to the morale of the entire military area.

So the soldiers in this meeting gathered around.

"Step aside....."

"Get out of me!" After Wang Zhen ran over, he pushed the soldiers away and ran forward.

Then Wang Zhen immediately supported the corpse-like Opteron.

"Optical Dragon..."

"Optical Dragon!"

Wang Zhen called the name of the white dragon in the heavy rain.

It's a pity that Opteron seemed to be dead, closing his eyes tightly... His body was already cold, and there was no movement.

He was shot in the chest...but unexpectedly he was holding a gun in his hand.

It's just that there was a fatal wound on the back. It was a machete-like wound, and it pierced his entire back.

When everyone here was looking at the Opteron's corpse, Li Tian also ran over quickly.

Looking at the white dragon lying in Wang Zhen's arms, which seemed to be dead, Li Tian shook his heart...Two legs softened for no reason, and he knelt on the rainy ground with a thump.

Even Opteron had an accident... Then his grandpa... Isn't grandpa?

Li Tian didn't dare to think about it anymore.

"He's dead?" Li Tian suddenly raised those blood-red eyes and looked at Wang Zhen.

Wang Zhen's body was trembling... I don't know if it was because of anger or some other reason, but he nodded in despair...

"Let me see!" Li Tian suddenly ran over without knowing where the strength in his body came from.

Then he grabbed the Opteron in front of him...

But seeing the white dragon lying there quietly like a dead person.

Li Tian probed his nose, but it was a pity that there was no breath in his nose.

Then he quickly reached out to touch his heart.

As he touched his heart, Li Tian didn't seem to feel the beating of the heart, but when his hand was about to leave, the faint beating sound slowly bulged in his heart.

"Heartbeat..." Li Tian exclaimed suddenly.

"What? A heartbeat?"

"Hao Long is not dead?" Wang Zhen in front of him suddenly cried out in shock.

Li Tiandao: "No! No death!"

"Quickly, lift him up to the car." Wang Zhen quickly told his subordinates.

The soldiers hurriedly lifted the icy body of Opteron and ran towards the car quickly.

Opteron still has a hint of breath?

It's not dead yet.

Also, as the first fierce man of the North China Field Army, the Opteron couldn't just die easily.

Although he was indeed shot, and it was a gun in the chest, and a fatal stabbing in the back, he still had a heartbeat...Although the heartbeat was still very weak.

After lifting the white dragon away, Wang Zhen in front of him and his army began to deal with the soldiers' corpses in front of them.

The entire scene was searched, and the commander-in-chief could hardly be found.

Where is Mu Yunlong?

Where did Mu Yunlong go?

The pouring rain was rushing down there. The rain wet all their clothes. Li Tian, Wang Zhen and others were standing in the rain...but they were hesitant.

Especially Li Tian, he clenched his fists tightly, and the rain poured down his face, mixed with his blood...

The commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army disappeared!

The commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, Commander Mu Lao, is now alive or dead!

This sensational event was immediately suppressed by the Central Military Region.

In order to prevent large-scale civil unrest in the country, the news was immediately blocked.

Try to think about it. The convoy of the commander-in-chief of a general military region was exploded, and more than 20 people were killed or injured... Now that the life and death of the commander-in-chief is unclear, what kind of impact will it have on the country once such news spreads?

panic!

It must be a major panic.

Therefore, the Central Military Region immediately blocked the news.

Except for the entire North China Military Region, the Central Military Region is left to know this news, and the outside world does not know it.

Even so, the entire North China Field Army was almost crazy about it.

First, the commander of the 27th Army, stationed in Sichuan, got the terrifying news and flew back by helicopter.

The other two commanders of the 55th Division Group Army, as well as the commanders, also arrived in the North China Field Army in the first time.

In addition, the commanders of the 28th Corps, as well as the commanders of the army, as well as the staff of the Political Department, as well as the two brigadier commanders who were studying abroad, all rushed back.

The entire North China Military Region can be said to have such a serious incident for the first time ever.

Chapter 1054: Roar of the tiger

The North China Field Army, the commander-in-chief command, there was a lot of people arguing and discussing. Although the voices of these disputes are different, they only have one thing in common!

That is, the epaulettes on the shoulders and the military emblems on the chest are all powerful characters above the brigade commander level.

The division commander, as well as the staff officer of the political office, there is also an army commander, and of course there are several brigade commanders at the colonel level.

But the loudest voice I saw was from a fierce man with epaulettes that looked like a lieutenant general.

His face was bronze, not tall, and he looked like he was in his 50s, but he gave a sturdy and domineering atmosphere. He put his hand on his hips and said harshly to a group of officers beside him: "I'm telling you...I can't solve this kind of thing in 3 days... Don't talk about you... Even if it is the hats of your four divisions, I will take them all off!

"What do you guys do? Are you all stupid?"

"Even... the Commander-in-Chief was kidnapped..."

"Asshole! Asshole!"

"Did you lose all the face of the North China Military Region... When did my North China Field Army ever have such a thing? The dignified commander-in-chief was kidnapped dozens of miles away from the headquarters of the Military Region... You still have Does the face live?"

"Say? Are you telling me?"

An angry roar came from his mouth.

The division commander and brigade commander were cursed by him, no one dared to speak out.

A terrifying voice came out of his mouth, how domineering! How sturdy.

Who is he?

He is the commander of the 27th Army who has just returned from the Sichuan-Chongqing area, Fu Zhengguo!

Chief Fu Jun.

An army commander who had a life and death relationship with Mu Yunlong, and a character who was once the first violent army commander beside Mu Yunlong.

His relationship with Commander Mu is no longer a simple relationship between superiors and subordinates, but a relationship between old comrades-in-arms and close friends for many years, so this will be the first time he hears that Commander Mu has an accident, he will sit down quickly. The helicopter rushed back.

Isn't this? As soon as he arrived at the commander-in-chief headquarters, he scolded a group of officers.

Outside are all uniforms, machine guns, and straight soldiers.

But seeing two extremely fast off-road jeep military vehicles coming from far and fast, above the two off-road jeep vehicles coming, I saw a tall and burly man standing with a large string of shining from the man's chest. His outstanding status can be seen from his military rank.

He is also a lieutenant general.

Commander!

Yes, he was the 55th Army who had just returned from abroad, known as the Jagged Army Commander; Lu Yunfeng.

Behind Lu Yunfeng, the commander of the 55th Army, two chiefs of staff, one on the left and the other on the right, were driving towards this side mightily at this moment.

With the roar of five jeeps, after all the command headquarters of the North China Field Army came to a halt, Commander Lu jumped out of the car first.

With a height of one meter and a physique of 185 centimeters, he looks like a living tiger, and his cold and domineering face looks like he wants to eat people.

The moment the army boots touched the ground, he walked directly toward the commander in chief.

The soldiers on both sides had not had time to salute him, but saw that he had stepped into the commander-in-chief command in front of him.

The sturdy momentum and tall body stunned the officers of the commander-in-chief at the first time they walked in.

"Commander Lu..."

"Commander Lu is also back."

Several brigade commanders over there strode in Lu Yunfeng in that low reputation.

The general headquarters also became quiet at this moment, and the silence of silence was placed on Army Commander Na Lu's face.

"Who is in charge of the safety of the commander-in-chief?"

"Who caused the commander-in-chief to suffer this disaster? Stand up for me..." A sudden roar roared out of Lu Yunfeng's mouth, and then he directly drew out the black and cold pistol from his waist... , A gunshot came from inside the headquarters.

However, the guards outside were taken aback when they heard the gunshots, and hurried in, trying to see what happened... But they were directly stopped by the two staff officers behind General Lu.

"Get out!" one of the staff officers behind Army Commander Lu said to the soldier who rushed in.

The few soldiers who ran over heard the scolding and didn't even have a chance to speak. They hurriedly backed away.

The gunfire!

The entire headquarters is quieter and more filled with the smell of death.

Those brigade commanders and teachers never dared to speak one by one. You looked at me and I looked at you.

"What's the matter? No one dared to stand up?"

"I'll ask again, who on earth let the Commander-in-Chief be kidnapped by a bunch of bastards?" Army Commander Lu suddenly roared again.

It seemed that Commander Lu wanted to kill people, and wanted to shoot people at the headquarters.

Just when all the division commanders and brigade commanders were afraid to speak, the commander of the 27th Army, Fu Zhengguo, let out a low growl.

"Old Lu, put down the gun!"

"I just asked, the commander-in-chief was kidnapped by a group of * on the road... it has nothing to do with their group army." Fu Zhengguo walked towards Lu Yunfeng and said.

Although Fu Zhengguo was also an army commander, he was also a little surprised at the iron-blooded army commander Lu Yunfeng in front of him.

You must know that this Lu Yunfeng is a bull-tempered, but in the army he has the title of "Donkey".

If he is aggressive, I'm afraid no one can resist it.

In addition to the commander-in-chief Mu Yunlong.

Mu Yunlong can be said to be Lu Yunfeng's teacher and his benefactor.

In private, most people in the army believed that the relationship between Commander Mu and Commander Lu was like a father and son.

This Lu Yunfeng's stubborn temper is exactly the same as that of Commander Mu, and he also has a special commanding ability. Therefore, he has always been the person Mu Yunlong admired the most. Now Lu Yunfeng is hearing that he is kidnapped by the old commander like his father. Can you not get angry? How can you not get angry?

Having said that, after Lu Yunfeng heard the words of Commander Fu Zhengguo next to him, his murderous eyes glanced coldly at every officer in the headquarters, and then coldly dropped a word.

"From now on, the entire army will give me the first level of security! Including all the army groups, check it out for me... Even if you turn over the entire Binjiang City for me, you must bring the commander back to me as soon as possible!"

"Otherwise... the whole army, none of you can escape responsibility for me."

After dropping this sentence fiercely, Lu Yunfeng didn't even say hello to Fu Zhengguo. He walked directly outside, and the two chiefs of staff behind him also walked out quickly.

Chapter 1055: Find clues

The kidnapping of Commander Mu caused a sensation in the entire North China Field Army.

Up to the general level of officers, down to soldiers.

What was even more shocking was that even the Central Military Region issued orders again and again.

The communication room of the North China Field Army in the past seemed to be exploded at this moment.

Didi Didi's communications came from the Central Military Region, one phone after another.

Just for a while in the morning, even the two senior leaders of the Central Military Region have called to ask about the situation, and they also sternly explained that if the commander-in-chief can't be found in the shortest time... it's North China. The designation of the field military command may be revoked.

Not only that, even the Politburo Standing Committee and the two mayors of Binjiang City personally called to inquire about the situation, and said that Binjiang City police should strictly cooperate with the army to search for the trace of Commander Mu.

In a word, the entire North China Field Army is chaotic and busy now.

In a room where Commander Mu once stayed.

But I saw a platoon of soldiers standing motionless.

Inside the room was Mu Shuiyao, who was extremely worried.

After she knew the news of her father's murder for the first time, she fainted, and now she just woke up with a little pale on her pretty face.

He was supported by Nini over there.

In the middle is Li Tian, who is fidgeting.

Since returning, he has not been quiet for a moment.

He was worried and anxious, but he had no choice.

"Who on earth was Grandpa kidnapped?"

"If you look at the world, only  gate people have the courage?"

"Could it be that the man at the gate of  did it?"

When he thought of this, Li Tian felt a sense of fear in his heart, and then another wave of anger.

What's scared is that he doesn't know what the enemies of the  gate are doing to take his grandfather away? Angrily, they didn't even think that they would not let go of the first relative they had just recognized.

"Tianer..." Suddenly Mu Shuiyao looked at Li Tian with red eyes.

Li Tian looked at his sad aunt, walked over, and supported her delicate body.

"Do you know who took your grandfather away?" Mu Shuiyao asked tearfully.

Li Tian nodded with his eyes red.

"I think I should know!"

"If I guessed right, it should be those bastards."

Listening to what Li Tian said, Mu Shuiyao looked at Li Tiandao with tears in his eyes: "Tian'er, you must rescue your grandfather... You must!"

"Auntie, don't worry! As long as Li Tian is still alive, my grandfather will be rescued."

After speaking, Li Tian quickly went out of the house in front of him.

He strode towards the outside.

"Brigadier Wang is there now?" Li Tian asked a soldier after he walked out of the barracks.

The soldier replied: "Brigade Commander Wang is in the command center now."

"Take me to see him!" Li Tiandao.

The soldier said: "Yes!"

Then he led Li Tian in front of him and quickly walked towards the Brigade Command of the 39th Army.

After arriving at the Brigade Headquarters of the 39th Army, but seeing Wang Zhenzheng sitting there with a sad face...

"Brigadier Wang." Li Tian greeted him when he walked in.

Wang Zhen saw that Li Tian was here, and quickly stood up.

"You are here." Wang Zhen said in greeting.

Then he asked: "Li Tian, how is the second lady? Is she okay?"

"My aunt is fine."

"It's just that I'm still worried about my grandpa's disappearance." Li Tiandao.

Then Li Tian said again: "Brigadier Wang, I am here to ask you something." After Li Tian walked in, he asked straightforwardly.

Wang Zhen said in a daze, "Please tell me."

Li Tian then opened his mouth and said: "The * gatekeepers you captured are now being held there. I want to meet them."

When Li Tian suddenly said this, Wang Zhen was taken aback.

Now for the whole army, the most important thing is to find the old commander Mu, but why would Li Tian suddenly care about the guys who were caught back from the gate of hell?

Wang Zhen frowned and looked at Li Tianwen in front of him and said, "Li Tian, don't you think that the commander-in-chief's abduction has something to do with those bastards?"

Li Tiandao: "Although I don't know yet! But I can guess it with 80% certainty. Please definitely have something to do with the people at the gate of hell."

"Because looking at the whole world, now maybe only the people at the gate of * have the courage and strength."

Hearing what Li Tian said, Wang Zhen suddenly became energetic.

"Go, then I will take you to meet those two * now."

Following Wang Zhen's words, he quickly led Li Tian towards the place where Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy were imprisoned.

The place where Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy were detained was in the empty warehouse on the right side of the military area.

There are many soldiers guarding there, and all around the warehouse are soldiers with real guns.

After Wang Zhen and Li Tian came here quickly, the soldier at the door hurriedly saluted.

"Where is the prisoner inside?" Wang Zhen asked.

The soldier at the door said: "Report to the brigade commander, it's still inside."

Wang Zhen took a look and said, "Open the door of the room."

"Yes!"

Then the soldier in front of him obeyed Wang Zhen's instructions and opened the door.

And Wang Zhen and Li Tian also walked in the moment the door opened.

The warehouse in front of me was the place where military equipment was stored...but later because the warehouse was too old, it was approved to be taken away by military equipment, leaving behind this old warehouse.

At this moment, after Li Tian and Wang Zhen walked in, they smelled a rotten rust.

Walking along the lobby in front of him, he saw Ouyang Longyan who was locked by the iron chain and two people with Ecstasy.

The hands of the two of them were originally handcuffed, but because they were flying and waiting for their leisure, the 39th Army guy put iron chains on their hands and feet.

At this moment, watching Ouyang Longyan and the ecstasy caused both hands and feet to be buckled with iron chains, they would probably not be able to run even if they were great.

Li Tian and Wang Zhen were taken aback when they saw Ouyang Longyan still having an Evil Envoy.

Because the two of them don't seem to have any energy... and their faces are surprisingly pale... Even their eyes have no idea why there is so much blood.

After seeing the ecstasy in the gate of  and the look of Ouyang Longyan, Li Tian was not only stunned.

Secretly: Why are their expressions so ugly? It seems to have followed some serious illness.

Chapter 1056: Mad beast

After seeing the faces of the two of them, Li Tian was very strange in his heart.

We must know that such masters as Ouyang Longyan and Ecstasy, just being imprisoned here for one day, how could there be such a weak and weak performance?

Even if people from the North China Field Army didn't feed them, and beat them severely, it was impossible for them to be so depressed!

Could it be that they pretended it?

Do not!

It's definitely not like it!

Even if a person can pretend to be collapsed, his eyes can never pretend!

Moreover, these two people are masters in the gate of hell!

Normal masters will burst out an invisible breath in the subconscious body, but now Ouyang Longyan still has a ecstasy, but there is no breath at all!

Just like an ordinary normal person!

That's why Li Tian felt very confused.

Of course, Li Tian would not know what Ouyang Longyan in front of him and the ecstasy caused such a sluggish situation... It turned out that the poison in their bodies was about to break out! Every time at this time of the day, the poisons on Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy would appear... That poison is the poison used by the master of the gate of  to control these masters! And now that Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy hasn't gotten the antidote for a long time... So their chests are already beginning to ache... The tingling pain like a needle stick, if the two of them do it again in the remaining ten days If they can't get the antidote, their liver, intestines and internal organs will start to fester slowly... and then the whole body will slowly decay and die. The death is ugly and painful, which can be said to be more than any other way of death in the world. Pain, this is also the real reason why the people at the gate of * can firmly control those masters...It's not that those masters who are controlled under the gate of * are afraid of death, but because many masters can't bear that kind of death.

Having said that, after Li Tian was surprised, he looked at the two people deeply.

At this moment, Ouyang Longyan and the ecstasy in front of him also saw Li Tian in front of him, but their expressions were extremely haggard.

"Hey, bastard... wake me up!" Wang Zhen suddenly said angrily when he saw Ouyang Longyan's eyes closed slightly.

Hearing the roar, Ouyang Longyan slowly opened his tired eyes, and his eyes looked at Wang Zhen with hatred.

Wang Zhen was about to ask questions, but Li Tian suddenly turned his head to look at Wang Zhen in front of him: "Brigadier Wang, do you mind if I speak to them alone?"

When Wang Zhen heard Li Tian say this, his brow furrowed and he looked very unhappy, but he still snorted, "Okay!"

"Then ask first... I'll be waiting for you outside!"

Li Tian smiled and said, "Thank you!"

Wang Zhenguo who was talking really went out.

After Wang Zhen went out, the only two people in the door of * in front of him and Li Tian were left in the old and gloomy warehouse at the moment.

"I want to ask you something... I hope you can answer me truthfully!" Li Tian looked at the ecstasy in front of him and Ouyang Longyan suddenly said.

After hearing Li Tian say this, the ecstasy suddenly let out a sneer.

"We are already your prisoners...just ask if you have anything! It's just that we don't say...that's another matter." Just listen to the ecstasy.

Then Li Tian glanced at him, and then slowly said, "Tell me...Does your * gate plan to capture the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army?"

When Li Tian suddenly asked this sentence, his tired eyes suddenly opened, and even Ouyang Longyan over there seemed to be startled.

"what?"

"You are talking about the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army?" Ecstasy said.

Li Tian looked at the two people deeply and nodded.

"Haha..."

"It's ridiculous... why are we all right to live with a commander-in-chief?"

"Do you think our * gate will be so boring?"

"Tell you, our goal is you!" Ecstasy said.

When the ecstasy in front of him suddenly said that their Hell Gate had no plans to capture the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, Li Tian suddenly became suspicious.

"Are you saying true or false?" Li Tian asked coldly.

The ecstasy said: "Do I have to lie to you?"

"Huh...what are we doing to catch him?"

Listening to the ecstasy said this again, Li Tian felt more and more depressed.

Does the disappearance of his grandpa really have nothing to do with the gate of hell? Did you guess wrong?

"The commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army has disappeared? Or what? Why do you suddenly ask us these questions?" The ecstasy asked Li Tiandao abruptly, looking at him.

Just listen to Li Tian telling them truthfully: "You are right!"

"He was taken away!"

As Li Tian said this, the ecstasy made his eyes suddenly become weird. At the same time, his eyes suddenly turned, but he didn't say much.

Ouyang Longyan was also indifferent and did not speak.

"I'll ask you again, does my grandpa's disappearance really have nothing to do with you?" Li Tian suddenly asked again.

"Grandpa?"

"You said that the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army is your grandfather?" The ecstasy said suddenly as if he had heard a shocking news.

And Ouyang Longyan, who was tightly fastened with an iron chain, looked at Li Tian with the same expression.

Li Tian nodded.

"Yes!"

"He is my grandpa."

After Li Tian admitted all of a sudden, the ecstasy and Ouyang Longyan were stunned at the same time.

"how is this possible?"

"How could you be the grandson of the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army?" The Ecstasy suddenly moved his eyes and muttered in his mouth.

Suddenly he seemed to remember something...then his pupils dilated.

"My God! Yours is Mu Yunlong's grandson... I remember..."

"I remembered the name of Mu Yunlong's daughter... She was Mu Wanqiu!" The seductive envoy suddenly said.

When he suddenly said his mother's name, Li Tian's blood seemed to be boiling.

"Do you know my mother?" Li Tian suddenly looked at the ecstasy and asked murderously.

But seeing the ecstasy suddenly laughed wildly.

"Of course I know. Twenty-five years ago, your mother didn't know anyone in the world...Haha!"

"She is the famous first beauty in the North China Field Army, how can we not know her!" The Ecstasy laughed loudly.

Just as the ecstasy was laughing wildly, Li Tian suddenly lied to his side and grabbed his neckline... His eyes became blood-red and he said, "Tell me... Tell me, my mother. Are they dead or alive? Tell me...Why did you * gate murder my parents back then?"

He clung to the ecstasy in front of him like a mad beast and roared.

Chapter 1057: The truth told

Li Tian, who knew his mother's whereabouts for the first time, was undoubtedly excited.

He clutched the neckline of the ecstasy tightly, and the horrible gaze revealed in his eyes seemed to eat the ecstasy alive.

What about the ecstasy who was clutching his neckline tightly? At this moment, the whole face was even more pale, as if he couldn't resist Li Tian's hard work, he even gasped in his mouth.

Seeing this ecstasy, Li Tian not only wondered in his heart, he didn't use much strength at all, why he became so weak!

Is he pretending?

Do not!

It doesn't seem to be pretending at all, it seems to be really painful.

Then Li Tian slowly let go of his angry hands, looking at the ecstasy in front of him, but after he let go, the ecstasy took a breath.

"What's wrong with you?" Li Tian asked, looking at the ecstasy coldly.

The ecstasy made a bitter smile at the corner of his mouth, looking at Li Tian in front of him.

"I'm dying."

about to die?

After Li Tian heard the ecstasy say so, he was taken aback.

"What do you mean?"

But seeing the ecstasy makes a look of despair in his eyes.

"It's nothing... Even if I tell you, you won't understand."

"If you don't tell me, how do you know I don't understand?" Li Tiandao.

Ecstatic made a helpless smile at the corner of his mouth, and then a pair of eyes stared at Li Tian in front of him.

"What do you want to hear..." The Ecstasy said suddenly.

Li Tiandao: "I want to know the whereabouts of my mother... and what kind of organization your * gate is, and who is the master behind the scenes? Who killed my family more than 20 years ago... and there are This time my grandfather was taken away..."

After Li Tian said these questions in a series, the ecstasy sneered.

"Are these questions you asked definitely have something to do with our * gate?" Just listen to the ecstasy.

"of course!"

"In the world, besides you, who else would dare to do this!" Li Tianan said.

The ecstasy suddenly sighed.

"In fact, you don't understand many things..." The Ecstasy suddenly sighed.

Li Tianan said, "Then you say, is there anything I don't understand?"

The Ecstatic Envoy looked at Li Tian in front of him, his mouth moved as if he wanted to say something... But there was a trace of fear in his eyes... Then he closed his eyes slightly and fell silent... As if reluctant to say it.

"Say it? Why don't you say it." Li Tian said angrily.

But the Ecstasy pretended not to hear anything.

"If you don't say any more, don't blame my ruthless men!" Li Tian suddenly pinched the ecstasy's neck with one hand, the blood all over his body seemed to be boiling, and the scarlet blood in his eyes looked like a demon.

In order to take revenge and for his loved ones, Li Tian dares to do all the things that make people scared!

Like now.

His eyes had already told the Ecstasy before him that he could threaten him with the most vicious means.

But what about the ecstasy? He closed his eyes tightly.

Just when Li Tian was about to brutally force the ecstasy to tell the truth, a cold voice suddenly rang.

"Don't do it... I said!"

The voice came from his mouth.

Ouyang Longyan.

His indifferent face looked paler... even his lips became chapped, and the deep sword marks on his face revealed a vicious look.

When Li Tian heard that Ouyang Longyan was about to tell the truth, suddenly a pair of cold eyes fell on his face.

"Okay, then tell me!" Li Tian walked towards Ouyang Longyan.

When the Ecstasy heard that Ouyang Longyan was about to tell the truth, he suddenly cried out in shock: "Ouyang Longyan, you are crazy...Aren't you afraid of death?"

"Aren't they afraid of torture you?"

Just as the ecstasy said it, Ouyang Longyan gave a bitter smile.

"Do you think there is still hope for us both to live?"

"Do you think we can survive the poison in our body?"

Ouyang Longyan asked suddenly.

poison!

When the word "poisonous" was mentioned, the ecstasy made his whole body tremble violently...then he went silent, a dead gray color appeared on his face.

As for Li Tian, he was also slightly puzzled.

What do they mean by poison? Could it be said that the two of them were poisoned?

Looking at Ouyang Longyan at the moment: "What poison did you just say?"

Ouyang Longyan slowly lifted her cold face and said, "The poison of the heartbreaking!"

"What do you mean?" Li Tian asked puzzled.

"It's a poison that slowly makes the heart fester, and then the limbs begin to slowly become rotten." Ouyang Longyan said.

When Li Tian heard that there was such a poisonous under the world, he was not only shocked.

Tao said: "You mean you two are poisoned by the poison of the heart?"

"Hmm!" Ouyang Longyan nodded there, a deep look of helplessness appeared in his eyes.

"Is it the poison of the gate of hell?" Li Tian suddenly guessed it wisely.

Ouyang Longyan said: "You are right!"

"Do you know... Why do we have so many masters working for the master at the gate of hell? Do you know what method the gate of * uses to control us?"

Ouyang Longyan who was in front of the auscultation said so suddenly, and Li Tian shook his heart.

My heart lining secretly: Could it be said that Ouyang Longyan and the ecstasy caused these masters in the gate of * to be forced into this way with poison? Are they all being poisoned by the master behind the door of hell?

When thinking of this in his heart, Li Tian frowned slightly and said: "So you still can't help it?"

"Huh..." Ouyang Longyan snorted coldly, tacitly acquiescing.

"But even if you are controlled, shouldn't you do so many hurtful things? Can you start with my parents?" Li Tian said suddenly and angry.

Then Ouyang Longyan said: "It's no fault of us, but the evil * is too arrogant!"

"That's why he will die! He will be hunted down!"

"You nonsense!"

"court death!"

With a roar, Li Tianhong kicked Ouyang Longyan's chest fiercely... His fierce kick directly caused a mouthful of blood from Ouyang Longyan's mouth... His body spasm violently. After a moment, the face that was as gray as death was ugly and pale... There was still scarlet blood on the corner of his mouth, and his legs fell to the ground with a plop.

"You are not qualified to speak of my father!" Li Tian clenched his fists tightly, his eyes red with blood.

Then Ouyang Longyan was lying on the ground, after spitting out a mouthful of blood, he slowly wiped the corners of his mouth with a hand with a chain, and then supported the ground with one hand and slowly got up...

Chapter 1058: More and more mystery

"Tell me, who is the master behind your * gate?" Li Tianan asked harshly.

After standing up hard, Ouyang Longyan shook his body twice, wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, sneered and said, "You will never know."

"You refuse to say so?" Li Tian suddenly said with a murderous spirit.

Ouyang Longyan is not afraid of death.

He just raised his eyes slightly and said, "It's not that I refuse to say... It's just that I don't even know who he is!"

When Ouyang Longyan suddenly said such a word in despair, Li Tian was not only taken aback.

"You are talking nonsense... how can you not know who is behind the scenes?"

"If you don't know, how can you listen to his orders?" Li Tianan asked.

But listening to Ouyang Longyan said: "Whether you believe it or not... All I can tell you is who he is? I really don't know."

Listening to Ouyang Longyan saying this, Li Tian was suddenly depressed.

how is this possible? How could this be?

Even the people at the gates of * don't know who is behind the scenes?

"Tell you...Although I am at the gate of hell, I still don't know how many people are in the gate of hell... Who is behind the scenes? I only know the names of a few people...but those people You also know that those are the alcoholics, and the golden-handed white dragons...I don't know all the rest."

"Every time we act, it is a task assigned to us by a woman sent by the master... That woman is dressed in black and has an ugly face. It is said to be one of the maidservants next to the master... As for the other things, I am nothing. I don't know anymore."

Listening to Ouyang Longyan saying this, Li Tian didn't know whether he should believe his words.

Is the gate of * really so mysterious? Is it really that terrifying?

If that's the case, will it be more difficult if you want revenge in the future?

Thinking of this, Li Tian asked, "Then tell me, why do you keep chasing me?"

Then Ouyang Longyan suddenly sneered, and the corners of his mouth trembled and said, "Because you are the son of the evil god."

"Twenty years ago, the evil * became famous in the world and offended a lot of people... These people all wanted him to die, and we did this."

Listening to Ouyang Longyan telling the truth so frankly, Li Tian hated to kill him in front of him.

"Did you see this sword scar on my face? This is what your father left behind with a sword back then!" Ouyang Longyan suddenly said with a trembling sword scar on his face.

The image of the Battle of the Blood Sea more than 20 years ago reappeared in Ouyang Longyan's mind. In the image, he remembered that the man with a bloodthirsty sword in one hand and a baby in one hand suddenly rose and fell...No one can describe the power of that sword, no one has ever seen a sword with such power that a living person can wield... Then all the masters who besieged him were hit and fell to the ground, and a masked man was seen covering him in a pool of blood. Screaming in a sea of blood...and that person is now Ouyang Longyan.

"Although we died and injured a lot of people that night, your father was finally caught by us, and his feet and hands were broken by us. The famous evil * was on that night. He became a useless person, but what we didn't expect at all was that he escaped on the fifth day after being held by us."

"Hey, the Cthulhu is worthy of being a Cthulhu, and he can escape with his hands and feet.

"Now do you know why we left you with your life in the first place? That's because we wanted to use you to lure the Cthulhu out. It's a pity that the Cthulhu has not appeared again for so many years. We thought you would never know the truth. So at the beginning, I didn't act on you, but I didn't expect you to find Duguxie and the ghost servant, and even know your identity, so you must die now, keep you alive, the master of the gate of * will never sleep well. ."

When Ouyang Longyan finally told the truth, Li Tian just stood there numbly.

His hands were clenched tightly, and the blood of hatred was flowing unscrupulously in his heart.

"Tell me, more than twenty years ago, where was my mother that night? My mother...has been...killed?" Li Tian asked suddenly.

Then Ouyang Longyan thought for a while and said, "I don't know."

"I only know that there was a lot of blood that night, and there were a lot of people... As for whether your mother is alive or dead, no one knows."

Hearing Ouyang Longyan's words, Li Tian not only fell into despair.

He now knows that his father may not be dead... but what about his mother? Whether it's dead or alive, he still doesn't know.

After Li Tianli knew the source of all the hatred, he looked at Ouyang Longyan and asked, "Then tell me now...Aside from you people who participated in the murder of my father, who else?"

"I don't know." Ouyang Longyan said.

"You lied to me?" Li Tianan said.

"At this time, am I going to lie to you?" Ouyang Longyan suddenly said with a trembling face.

Just when they said that, the ecstasy next to him suddenly said slightly: "He didn't lie to you..."

"Because even I don't know."

Listening to the ecstasy said the same, Li Tian was at a loss.

Are they true or false?

Why do they all say they know, is the organization of Hell Gate really so mysterious? Is it so scary?

He didn't expect that the people who had caught the gate of * would not be able to find any clues!

"But I can tell you something else." The ecstasy suddenly spoke at this moment.

His breathing was heavy, and there was a heavy gasping sound... The whole person looked like a dead person about to die.

Maybe it's because the Ecstasy knew he was going to die... Maybe it was because he knew that people were about to die, and his words were good, and he suddenly said to Li Tian there.

Li Tian looked at the ecstasy in front of him and asked, "What's the matter?"

"About the gate of hell."

Li Tianyi stunned: "What's the matter?"

"That is, there are actually two gates in the gate of hell... one of them is the underworld, which is our organization, and the other is called the black gate."

Underworld? Black door?

Li Tian had never heard of these things about the gate of hell. At this moment, hearing the ecstasy in front of him said so, he began to feel more and more the mysterious

In the past, he only knew that there were many martial arts masters in the gates of hell, but now suddenly two gates appeared, the underworld and the black gate...how many terrifying things are still behind the scenes, I am afraid Li Tian really has a little bit Dig a little bit.

Chapter 1059: Can't enter

"Under normal circumstances, we are only responsible for outside intelligence work... seldom come into contact with real assassination missions, but the black door is different, the people in the black door are specialized in assassination work! I can tell you responsibly, When you dealt with your father more than 20 years ago, it was the black door that dealt with it... At that time, the black door lost a lot of masters, but some of them survived. And now these people continue to stay in black In the gate, serve for the gate of hell!"

"They are much more cruel than us, and they are much more cold-blooded... Killing is as fierce as a beast, and now the people of the Black Gate have already penetrated the entire Binjiang City."

After the Ecstasy suddenly said this, Li Tian was suddenly shocked.

"What did you say? You said the people from Heimen have arrived in Binjiang City?" Li Tiandao.

"Yes!"

"Two days ago, their people had already arrived in Binjiang City... and they also found us." The Ecstasy explained the previous situation to the One Fifty One.

After Li Tian listened, he was not only shocked in his heart.

It turned out that there were still two terrible organizations at the gate of hell, but now another organization arrived in Binjiang City early.

Was the grandpa kidnapped related to the people of the black door?

A series of weird questions all came to Li Tian's heart now.

"Who are they? Who are the people from the Black Gate?" Li Tianan asked.

"I don't know them!"

"The people among them are just like us, and they don't know anyone... but I know the name of one of them!"

"His name is Long Yin!"

"A terrifying killer who shocked the country more than 30 years ago...a bloodthirsty, cold-blooded killer who is not recognized by his six relatives, Long Yin."

When Li Tian heard the name of Long Yin, his heart suddenly shook. Even he himself didn't know why his people would react so much when he heard the name.

"The Long Yin you just mentioned is a member of the Black Clan?" Li Tiandao asked.

"Yes." Ecstasy said.

"After he came to Binjiang City, did he find you? Did he tell you anything?" Li Tian continued to ask, he wanted to ask for some clues.

But the ecstasy was slowly shook his head.

"After they found us, they left... As for what they are doing in Binjiang City, I'm afraid no one knows."

As the Ecstasy talked about the black door, Li Tian felt that the black door had something to do with his grandpa's disappearance.

In Binjiang City, in addition to the people at the gate of * who have the courage to attack their grandpa, to be honest, looking at the world, it seems that no second person has the courage!

Long Yin, Long Yin!

Li Tian remembered this name deeply in his mind at this moment, because this name is likely to have a huge relationship with his grandfather's disappearance.

As Li Tian was about to continue to ask about the Black Gate, suddenly the door of the old warehouse squeaked open.

"Li Tian...come here soon." Wang Zhen yelled in excitement over there.

Li Tian was taken aback, then turned around and looked at Wang Zhendao at the gate and asked, "What's wrong?"

"Optical Dragon is awake!" A shocked word came out of Wang Zhen's mouth.

When Wang Zhen said that the Opteron was sober, Li Tian in front of him suddenly ran towards Wang Zhen.

"He is there now?"

"It's in the hospital of the military region!"

"Quick, come with me!" Wang Zhen, who was talking, quickly ran outside with Li Tian in front of him.

Opteron woke up!

The Opteron who was almost dead was sober!

He was with the Commander-in-Chief at the time, and he had a gunshot wound on his body and was stabbed in the back. It was certain that Opteron knew that the Commander-in-Chief was taken away.

Therefore, after Li Tian and Wang Zhen heard the sober news of Hao Long, they immediately ran to the hospital of that military area.

And here, Ouyang Longyan and the Ecstasy looked at Li Tian who was walking away, and suddenly there was an extremely strange look on their faces.

"Ouyang Longyan... do you regret it?"

Suddenly the ecstasy slowly spit out a word from his mouth and looked at Ouyang Longyan and asked.

Ouyang Longyan sneered: "Regret?"

"I don't remember this word in the world... Since the day I left the family 26 years ago... I don't know what regret is."

"I regret it!" The Ecstasy suddenly paled and gasped.

The pain in the chest has penetrated into the heart... The current Ecstasy is only using his own internal force to stop the poison from spreading.

If you keep going like this, the ecstasy knows that you can't last for fifteen days at most!

Even if the enemy Li Tian won't kill him by himself, it is estimated that he will suffer a horrible death due to poisonous intestines.

When the Ecstasy said his regret, a trace of regret could be seen in his eyes.

"Hey... I want to go back in time... In that case, I can return to my family!"

"My father doesn't know what's going on!" Ecstasy suddenly muttered in a low voice.

He seemed to be talking to others, and he seemed to be talking to himself... Finally a bitter and helpless smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and then the whole person fell silent.

On one side, Ouyang Longyan was indifferent to his face from beginning to end.

Does he really have no feelings? Still what happened?

Maybe only he knows it.

This was once the proudest fourth son of the Ouyang family, but now he has fallen to this point. If he were to let the old man Ouyang know his current situation, I'm afraid he would be sorry for him.

Li Tian followed Wang Zhen to the hospital of the military region quickly.

From a distance, you can see many officers of the North China Field Army standing at the door of the Military Region Hospital.

From the epaulettes on their chests, it can be known that these people are senior officers above the brigade commander level.

It turned out that these generals came to inquire about the situation and the commander-in-chief after knowing that Wang Zhen was sober for the first time.

And Li Tian also ran over at this time.

But as soon as he arrived at the door of the military area hospital, he was immediately stopped by the soldiers at the door.

"The commander has an order, no one is allowed to enter!" The soldier standing at the door said with a cold face.

"Asshole, don't even let me in?" Wang Zhen roared.

Of course the soldier knew the brigade commander of the 39th Brigade, but he shook his head persistently there.

"Brigade Commander Wang, I'm sorry! This is what Commander Lu meant!"

When he heard the name of Army Commander Lu, Wang Zhen was slightly taken aback.

The commander of the 27th Army? Lu Yunfeng?

Is it that Commander Lu is back?

"Commander Lu? Commander Lu rushed back from abroad??" Wang Zhen asked incredulously.

The soldier in front of him said: "Yes, Army Commander Lu has been back for more than an hour...Now people up and down dare not provoke Commander Lu!"

"Brigade Commander Wang... you'd better go back first... I heard that Commander Lu personally drew his gun at the command of the commander-in-chief just now, saying that he would shoot someone!" The soldier kindly reminded Wang Zhen.

Chapter 1060: Ask about the situation

Hearing what the soldier in front of him said, Wang Zhen hesitated. Obviously, because of his status as a brigade commander, he didn't dare to offend the hot Army Commander Lu.

But Li Tiancai ignored that much. The most important thing for him now was to go in quickly and ask that Opteron about his grandpa's kidnapping situation, so he didn't care about that much, he just had to break in.

But the soldier stretched out his hand to stop Li Tian, and said, "No entry!"

As soon as he stretched out his hand to stop Li Tian, Li Tian was angry, and immediately shot, grabbing the opponent's wrist with a counter-attack, and then a feeling of pain came to the soldier's body, the soldier A cry of pain came from his mouth.

Just after Li Tian stretched out his hand to stop the soldier who stopped him, another soldier at the door directly raised his gun to withstand Li Tian's head.

"Don't move... I'll shoot if you want to move again!"

Looking at the soldier who pointed the gun at Li Tiantou, Wang Zhen in front of him rushed over.

"Asshole, put down the gun to Lao Tzu!"

"Do you know who he is?"

"Dare to point a gun at his head?" Wang Zhen shouted at the soldier.

The soldier was the soldier brought back by Lu Yunfeng who had just returned from the 27th Army. Naturally, he didn't know who Li Tian was. He was taken aback for a moment, looked at Li Tian in front of him, and then looked at the man who scolded him. The commander of the 39th Army,

"Our commander has an order, no one can enter without his order!" Although the soldier was scolded by Wang Zhen, he still persisted there.

"You..." Wang Zhengang wanted to scold again.

Suddenly, there was a low hum from the hospital.

"What's the noise? What's going on outside?"

After the voice came out, I saw a tall and burly man coming out from inside, and two senior colonel-level staff officers followed him.

"Commander!"

"Commander Lu!"

The soldier at the door and Wang Zhen not only saluted after seeing this tall and burly man.

At this moment, Li Tian also raised his eyes to see this sturdy and burly tall man, and he said to himself: Is he the commander of the 27th Army mentioned by these soldiers? Lu Yunfeng?

After Commander Lu came out, he glanced at the situation in front of him coldly, and after a two-second pause on Li Tian's face, he asked coldly, "What's going on?"

The soldier hurriedly said: "Report to the commander, this guy wants to forcefully break into the military hospital."

He said while pointing at Li Tian in front of him.

Commander Na Lu immediately put his cold eyes on Li Tian's face.

"Who is he?" Commander Lu asked with an ugly face while looking at Li Tian in front of him.

Wang Zhen said quickly, "Commander Lu, I'm afraid you don't know...this is Li Tian, he is the grandson of our commander-in-chief."

"The grandson of the commander-in-chief?" When Army Commander Lu heard the truth, he was not only stunned for a moment, but even the two soldiers who had blocked Li Tian from there just now were stunned.

Then Lu Yunfeng's eyes looked at Li Tian carefully.

He said: "Why have I never heard the commander-in-chief say that he has a grandson...?"

Then Wang Zhen quickly explained: "This incident also happened recently! Li Tian and the commander-in-chief just recognized each other, so..."

Li Tiancai ignored the commander in front of him, and immediately said: "I want to go in and ask Opteron about my grandpa... don't stop me!"

As he said, he was ready to go inside.

The two soldiers at the door stood there... embarrassed.

One is their army commander, and the other is said to be the grandson of the commander-in-chief, so none of them dare to offend.

While they were hesitating, Commander Lu thought for a while, nodded, and then Li Tian strode in, and as expected, no one dared to stop here anymore.

After Li Tian walked in, Army Commander Lu gave Wang Zhen a ugly look.

"Is this person really the grandson of the commander-in-chief?" he asked coldly.

Wang Zhen replied: "Of course it is!"

"The commander-in-chief admitted that there will be no fakes."

Commander Lu glanced at the back of Li Tian who had already walked in and said, "This kid is so murderous!"

After Li Tian walked in quickly, he hurriedly asked the nurse in the military hospital and asked the ward where Wang Long lived.

The nurse in front of me pointed to the place in front and said, "Just in front."

Then Li Tian quickly walked forward.

When I reached the door, I saw 4 guards guarding there.

This guard is a soldier of the guard company next to the commander-in-chief. Of course, they all know Li Tian. At this moment when they saw Li Tian coming, they all looked at him respectfully.

"Where is Opteron?" Li Tian asked when he arrived at the door.

"Inside!" The soldier quickly replied.

Then Li Tian quickly opened the door and went in.

Inside the ward full of medicine, but the sound of the heartbeat device was ringing.

Then Li Tian saw a mummy-like figure lying on the hospital bed wrapped in white gauze, Opteron.

There was also a white tray beside him. Inside the tray was a bullet stained with blood. Obviously, this bullet should have been taken out of Opteron's body.

After Li Tian took a look, he quickly walked over to the hospital bed over there.

What about Opteron? He opened his eyes.

There were scarlet bloodshot eyes in his eyes, and a pair of terrifying eyes stared straight at the white ceiling above him like that...looked.

"Optical Dragon!" Li Tian whispered softly after reaching his side.

Opteron didn't move...nor did he answer his words, still staring at the ceiling above with those bloodshot eyes.

"Optical Dragon, tell me, who the * is taking my grandpa... who are those people?" Li Tian asked.

But what about Opteron? But it seemed that he hadn't heard it, and continued to froze there as if silly.

While Li Tian was curious, Hao Long suddenly turned his bloodshot eyes around, and then stared at Li Tian in front of him.

"Optical Dragon, I'm sorry Commander!"

"I didn't protect the commander-in-chief...I * it!" Suddenly, Opteron said word by word with red eyes.

His teeth were clenched tightly, as if he was about to bite into bleeding, a fist wrapped in white gauze was clenched tightly, and his pale face was flushed in shock.

"Optical Dragon, calm down!"

"Tell me, who is it that kidnapped my grandpa?"

"What happened to you?" Li Tian asked.
