

A Killer 2021

Chapter 2021: He wants to * blood

When Li Tian's horrifying eyes burst open, Mary suddenly knew that the trouble was.

Because Li Tian really became so fast... She turned into a vampire in just over a day. This was a result she had never expected before.

Mary now only hopes that Li Tian can hold back the bloodthirsty and brutal character that she has just turned into a vampire. She just wants the plane to land safely.

As soon as Li Tian's bloodthirsty pupils exploded and opened, the long fangs in his mouth stretched out, hissing in that hungry mouth.

"Li..." Mary looked at Li Tian who had completely mutated into a vampire at this moment and screamed.

But what about Li Tian? Remember Mary?

Do not! He doesn't know!

The newly changed vampire has no consciousness or thoughts at all. It has to go through a long period of transformation to slowly return to the previous thoughts... To put it bluntly, the current Li Tian's whole mind is completely covered. Blank, he knows almost nothing except cruel instinct

At that moment, Li Tian, who had become a vampire, didn't seem to know Mary before him.

He opened his * eyes there, and roared hard in the twist, and at the same time his tightly bound body began to struggle.

Looking at Li Tian who was struggling hard at this moment, Mary in front of her could only try her best to stop him, after all, the plane had not reached the real location.

Wailing

Wailing

The terrible cry of Li Tian hissed out of Li Tian's throat, and the long pointed fangs in his mouth stretched out, as if he was very hungry.

He wants to * blood!

The vampire who had just embraced must * human blood...otherwise he would become extremely uncomfortable, as if human beings were hungry for a long, long time.

Listening to Li Tian's terrible roar, Mary could only guard him worriedly.

He was struggling constantly, his face twisted, but fortunately he had Li Tian's hands and feet tied with the seat belt, which prevented Li Tian from going crazy.

But does this really stop Li Tian at the moment? No one knows.

...

The two pilots in the cockpit are now driving the plane steadily.

One of them, wearing a white uniform, looked in his 30s, with a Chinese character face and a slightly fat figure. He flew the plane proficiently on one side, and said to the other one: "I will soon arrive at the Italian border..."

The other is a slightly thinner man who should be the co-pilot. He nodded slightly and said, "Yes, captain."

"Pay attention to the flying height." The chubby pilot said slightly there.

Just as the two were flying in the sky safely and steadily, a weird cry came from the cabin.

After hearing the weird call just now, the first officer was startled slightly.

Originally, he was wearing a driving headset, but he slowly took it off at this moment.

"Captain, do you hear any noise?" He frowned and asked while looking at the pilot who was flying the plane.

After the co-pilot asked, the middle-aged man nodded silently.

"I heard it, it seems to be coming from the cabin," he said.

The first officer asked suspiciously, "What strange sound...?"

"do not know."

"Let's go and see... Is there something wrong with our guests?" The main driver suddenly said to the co-pilot in front of him.

After the thin co-pilot heard him say this, he nodded there and said, "Okay, Captain."

The co-pilot who was talking, got up and left the driving seat, then opened the cockpit door, and walked step by step toward the luxurious cockpit where Mary was staying.

The farther you go here, the more you can hear the stern and terrible cry, which resembles an angry roar after a certain beast is trapped, coming from the luxurious cockpit in front.

After the first officer heard such a terrible sound, he was instantly astonished.

Not only did he secretly startled in his heart: "Goodbye, what's in the cabin? Why is it so terrible? What happened in the cabin?"

He didn't know at all.

At this moment, he just walked forward step by step, he wanted to see what happened.

What about here?

I saw that Mary was in front of Li Tian, her expression was extremely worried. Seeing Li Tian became more and more mad, because of excessive "hunger and thirst", Li Tian's eyes are now particularly blood red...His lips have begun to appear black and chapped. .

His face was violently twisted there, and his long fangs stretched out, as if to eat people.

"Li, hold on... we must hold on... we're almost there... almost here." Mary said while looking at Li Tiandao who was struggling hard.

But what about Li Tian? He has lost all his rationality at this moment, he is now hungry and thirsty, he must replenish his blood now...so he just screamed there...a * strange scream.

At this moment, the door of the luxurious cabin suddenly opened with a bang.

I saw a figure stupefied standing at the door of the cabin, stunned, stunned... In that wide-eyed, unbelievably looking Mary in front of her, and her fangs tied tightly all over her body Li Tian.

Co-pilot.

It turned out that the co-pilot of that plane came in.

When the thin co-pilot saw the terrible scene in front of him, he was completely dumbfounded...

Looking at Li Tian's * eyes and the long fangs in his mouth, he was horrified.

"Oh my God... what is this?" the co-pilot said in shock.

What he saw was not a human being, because Li Tian had long inner fangs and those eyes full of evil holes.

What about Mary? When he suddenly looked back and saw the co-pilot who walked in, he was also taken aback for a moment.

She also didn't expect that this human driver would walk in for no reason.

what

At this moment, Li Tian, who had completely mutated into a vampire in front of him, suddenly screamed at the moment he saw the human driver. A terrible voice suddenly came over. At the same time, his body began to struggle violently. The long pointed fangs stretched out there, as if they were about to pounce on the co-pilot in front of him immediately.

This is his prey!

He wants to * blood!

When Li Tian saw the only human appearing in front of him, of course he couldn't wait to wash off the blood of the co-pilot immediately, so he began to struggle there, yelling.

Chapter 2022: Bloodthirsty Kill

When Mary saw that after the co-pilot came in, Li Tian had completely fallen into a violent state. He quickly turned his head and shouted at the co-pilot, "Why did you come in?"

"Quickly, get out! Don't come in again..." Mary said loudly to the first officer.

As Mary said this, the co-pilot suddenly woke up.

He stepped back in fear, nodded there quickly, and then all of a sudden ran out.

...

"Captain, monsters, monsters...in the plane." Here, seeing Li Tian's hideous fangs and his violent co-pilot running madly towards the cab, they shouted.

The captain who was flying the plane, after hearing him say this, immediately said angrily: "What nonsense? What monster?"

"Really, really, captain, one of the guests we are carrying is a monster... he, he, he has long fangs... evil eyes... currently in the cabin,"

"That is, the monster just now screamed terribly." The co-pilot said with a pale face to the captain who was flying the plane in front of him.

The captain who was flying the plane was stunned when he heard him say this.

"Hey, what are you talking about? What monster...?" The pilot in front of him said with an unbelievable expression.

But the first officer said there, "Captain, if you don't believe me, follow me to see... it's in the cabin!"

The pilot in front of him, after hearing the co-pilot say so, nodded suspiciously.

"You kid, don't tell me nonsense... you know we are close to 10,000 meters above the ground!" The captain reminded the co-pilot seriously in front of him.

"Captain, I really didn't talk nonsense, it's true." The first officer said with an anxious blush.

When the pilot in front of him saw his expression like this, his heart suddenly became suspended... After thinking about it at this moment, he set the airplane to the autopilot state, and then said to the co-pilot in front of him: "Okay, take me to the cabin to see... I tell you, if you dare to lie, you will bear all the consequences, huh!"

The first officer bent over there and said, "Captain, don't worry, I assure you that I have never lied. If I lie, I will be responsible for all the consequences."

After he said so, the captain in front of him quickly followed him towards the direction of the cabin.

As they walked towards this side, the captain also heard Li Tian's terrifying cry.

After hearing this shockingly, the captain's heart was stunned, and he said: Is it true that what the co-pilot said? Is there really a monster on your own plane? impossible.....

While thinking like this, he quickly followed the co-pilot to the cabin in front of him.

The first officer in front of him pointed to the cabin door in front of him with an ugly expression: "Captain, that monster... is right inside."

The aircraft captain took a dubious glance at the cabin door before him, then walked over slowly, paused, and then slowly stretched out his hand to open the cabin door in front of him.

After the cabin door in front of him was opened for a moment, the pilot heard a terrifying roar from Li Tian's mouth first.

The captain of the plane took a sharp look, but saw that a man with long pointed fangs was tied with his hands and feet at a distance of 67 meters in front of him...

His pupils have bloodthirsty cruel eyes, his entire face is twisted in anger, long fangs are stretched out, and his body is struggling violently.

Li Tian mutated into a vampire.

When the aircraft captain saw Li Tian, he also stayed there for an instant.

"My god... there really are monsters?" He was so frightened that his legs were soft and he was startled.

And here?

When Mary saw these drivers coming in again, she turned her head and shouted at them: "Didn't I say...Don't come in...Why are you still coming in?" Mary shouted angrily. .

It's a pity that everything is too late!

hiss

There was a sound, but the seat belt tied to Li Tian's hands was suddenly broken free by Li Tian who was completely violent.

After Mary heard the cracking sound of the seat belt being torn apart, she saw a cold hand suddenly ramming her.

Mary didn't pay attention, she was directly hit by Li Tian and flew out with a bang!

His strength is so terrifying! ! !

How could Li Tian, who mutated into a vampire, possess more terrifying power than a normal vampire?

However, it was said that after Li Tian suddenly knocked Mary into the air, the seat belts on his feet were also completely released by him.

He is free!

Li Tian completely got rid of the restraint of the seat belt.

Just after Li Tian broke away from all control, Mary, who was hit on the side, shouted at the captain of the plane who was still stupefied at the door of the cabin, "Run...Run..."

Unfortunately, everything is too late!

Because Li Tian's speed was too fast, when Mary called out, the captain of the plane had not had time to make any reaction, but he saw Li Tian's entire violent body reached the captain of the plane. before.

Then the captain of the plane didn't even react, and Li Tian's long fangs suddenly pierced his neck.

The blood began to be slowly sucked into the body by Li Tian!

The body of the aircraft captain began to twitch and convulse.

The first officer was shocked when he saw that the captain of the plane was bitten by Li Tian's neck for an instant. He exclaimed, "Help..."

While shouting, he ran towards the cabin of the cab.

But can he hide it?

I saw Li Tian  up the blood in the aircraft captain's body instantly... With a bang, the fat aircraft captain's body fell to the ground with a thump, his neck was snapped by Li Tian alive. , The blood of the body was completely absorbed by Li Tian.

Look at Li Tian again? The corners of his mouth were stained with blood, and the twisted face showed a slightly contented smile... Then he walked to the other only human in horror, and he had to * the blood of another co-pilot.

When Mary saw Li Tian's * massacre, she sighed in despair: "It's over..."

What about the co-pilot? The whole person was shocked.

After he ran to the cockpit alone, he quickly closed the door of the cab. After the hard aluminum alloy titanium alloy door was tightly closed by him, he could finally breathe a sigh of relief. .

His body was frightened and weakened. At this moment, his whole person leaned against the hard aluminum alloy titanium cabin door, and couldn't stop gasping.

But at this moment, there was a click.

I saw that the co-pilot's entire face instantly distorted due to excessive pain... Then his eyes began to bulge out, his body choked violently, and he stared at the pair that was almost protruding in disbelief My eyes started to look at my chest...

A * and cruel hand pierced his entire chest, passed in from the hard door of aluminum alloy and titanium, and plunged into his body at once.

Then the hard aluminum alloy titanium cabin door was knocked open all at once, and the vampire Li Tian violently broke in, then grabbed the copilot's neck, and bit by bit.

what

A scream came out, and that fellow was soaked up the blood in his body by Li Tian alive.

Chapter 2023: Jump

died!

In this way, the two human pilots flying the plane were soaked up by Li Tian. .

After Li Tian absorbed their blood, his mouth was full of blood, with a satisfied smile.

He finally sucked blood!

And Mary?

She can no longer stop Li Tian in front of her now.

Because Li Tian had sucked up the blood of the two pilots, the two guys who flew the plane died like this.

Looking at the two human pilots who were killed alive in this way, Mary was stunned for an instant.

"They're all dead...Who will control the plane?" Mary mumbled desperately there.

In front of her, she and Li Tian were in the sky at an altitude of 10,000 feet. No one was flying the plane in front of her...what should I do? How to live?

After absorbing the blood of the two pilots, Li Tian was extremely satisfied, staying alone in the cockpit.

His pupils were twisted open, the whole person sitting on the cold ground like a monster, his eyes staring straight ahead, no one knew what Li Tian was looking at at this moment.

Where's Mary?

At this moment, she stood up desperately, looking at the sky outside the cabin window, her heart kept falling.

Fortunately, the aircraft at this moment is set to autopilot.

But this autopilot can't last too long, because the captain didn't set too long time, only set it for about half an hour.

Although the plane is still flying steadily now, what about half an hour later?

Mary knew that everything was too late.

Now I can only wait for destruction.

Because this plane is destined to be destroyed by an explosion... Then she and Li Tian will definitely become torn apart because of the explosion.

Although the blood race has immortal bodies, once the plane crashes and explodes, it is estimated that even vampires will not escape death. After all, the fire will ruthlessly burn their bodies.

Mary and Li Tian will definitely be burned to ashes alive.

As time passed by, Mary slumped on the ground in despair.

Suddenly the alarm sound of Didi Didi came from the cabin...

The sound is obviously that the automatic flight of the aircraft has been cancelled.

After Mary heard the sound of the death knell, she quickly stood up... She was unwilling, unwilling to die like this.

I saw Mary rushing to the cabin room. Inside the cabin room, Li Tianzheng sat motionless on the ground, his mouth was full of blood, and the whole person sat there blankly, as if stupid, without anything. awareness.

It seemed that as long as Li Tian was full of blood, he would be like an ordinary person.

As for Mary, she glanced at Li Tian, but ignored him, so she walked quickly to the cockpit in front of him.

In front of her is the driving position of the plane, the console above is a different button, and in the middle is the red light that screams.

Looking at so many buttons, Mary instantly felt like she was going crazy.

"Should you press that? How to control the plane?" She didn't know.

She just looked at the  button in front of her, and she was in a state of irritability.

Suddenly the aircraft's automatic flight time came, and the entire fuselage suddenly became tilted because it lost its proper control.

Mary's body shook violently, and she almost fell to the ground...

The mess in the cockpit and the dead co-pilot's body slammed into the controller.

The corpse happened to hit the button of one of the controllers, and the whole plane suddenly began to descend sharply.

It turned out that the body of the co-pilot hit the plane's elevator control rod after the violent turbulence just now, and it also hit a sharp downward position.

This is bad.

However, the whole plane started to descend straight down toward the ground at a terrible speed.

When Mary felt the entire plane rush towards the ground at a distance of 10,000 meters at an incredible speed, she was desperate at the moment.

The terrifying descent speed has completely lost the balance of the aircraft.

Moreover, the biplanes of the plane couldn't withstand the huge air resistance, so they burned all of a sudden... Thick black smoke began to rise from the biplanes on both sides.

Through the window of the plane, Mary saw that the wings of the plane were on fire, and she was completely stunned.

"How can this be done? How can this work?"

With a bang, accompanied by a loud noise, the right wing of the plane suddenly broke off... and the left wing of the plane also began to falter.

Seeing that the plane is completely unsafe, what should Mary do?

The plane was still descending rapidly.

Ten thousand feet.

Eight thousand feet.

Five thousand...

Three thousand...

When the plane's descent distance reached a thousand feet on the ground, the entire plane's biplanes had already broken, and even all the facilities in the cabin were completely damaged.

About to fall.

This plane is really going to crash like this.

But once it crashes, doesn't Mary and Li Tian mean death?

At this critical moment, Mary suddenly made a terrible decision.

"Since we have reached this field, we can only fight for it now." Not only did she think in her mind.

Anyway, staying on the plane that is about to crash will have to die sooner or later. If you don't take Li Tian to jump off the plane like this, you can prevent them from being burned to death due to the explosion of the plane. , Maybe still alive.

After thinking like this in Mary's mind, she started to act.

She really wanted to take Li Tian, who had turned into a vampire, to jump from such a high sky.

Can you live?

Nobody knows.

At this moment, after Mary had made this decision, she suddenly ran to the bloodless Li Tian who was still sitting on the ground, and then suddenly grabbed Li Tian's cold hand.

"Li, although I know you don't have any consciousness now, and I don't know what I'm talking about, I still want to tell you that we're over this time. I can choose to take you to fight, so whether it's life or death this time, we can't help but... we can only watch our fate."

"I hope you don't blame me."

After Mary said these words to Li Tian who was in a daze, she suddenly grabbed Li Tian's cold hand, and then ran towards the cabin with Li Tian. After arriving in the cabin, they found the escape door of the plane.

After taking a look at the escape door, Mary grasped Li Tian's hand tightly, and then took a last look at Li Tian with her beautiful eyes. A smile slowly appeared on the corner of her mouth...

Then the escape door was suddenly opened!

The terrifying hurricane blew violently towards Mary and Li Tian in front of her. Mary grabbed Li Tian's hand in this way, and the bodies of the two were drawn into the air.

They jumped.

They really jumped the plane in front of them.

The plane that had been completely damaged was still descending continuously.

What about Mary and Li Tian?

They were caught in the air, and then began to descend slowly, landing...

During this period, Mary held Li Tian's hand tightly from beginning to end, and never let go.

The cold wind blew their faces, Mary saw the vast sky, the small rivers of green trees with ants below... She closed her eyes in relief, waiting for the upcoming destiny.

Is it dead? Still alive?

What would it look like when jumping from a distance of several thousand feet?

Who knows?

Chapter 2024: Where is my elder brother?

The plane on which Li Tian and Mary were travelling fell.

Are they dead or alive? No one currently knows.

What about Binjiang City in China?

Ever since Li Tian and the others parted, the brothers felt as if there was something missing in their hearts. They were anxious and worried about Li Tian who was far away at the end of the world.

Women like Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying, Ouyang Shiqing, and Tang Feifei were even more frowning all day long, and their hearts ached.

Only Cthulhu maintained a passion.

He felt that his son would definitely not have an accident.

In the world, there is nothing rare to live with his evil god's son.

On this day, I saw that the evil  called out the brothers.

Inside the room were recovered Tang Xiaolong, Chen Qiaozhi, and Xue Wuhen.

After a large group of brothers had gone through that  battle, only three were left.

At this moment, the three people were all sitting in the room, waiting for the Cthulhu's command.

I saw the Cthulhu in the middle, with a long dangling hair hanging down, and that resolute and domineering face glanced at the three brothers present, and suddenly said: "Tian'er has gone...now we are the only ones left. I will take you the rest of the way."

"At present, everything is the most important thing. We are looking for my second brother, third sister, and fourth child." Cthulhu said.

Who are the second brother, third sister, and fourth son of the evil god?

There is no doubt that it is Duguxie, Baihua Fairy, and Ghost Servant.

After hearing what Cthulhu said, then Chen Qiaozhi suddenly said there: "Senior Cthulhu, there is something you may not know..."

"What's the matter?" Cthulhu asked.

But when Chen Qiaozhi said there, "Senior Dugu and the ghost servants are poisoned."

Hearing what Chen Qiaozhi said, the evil  suddenly laughed.

"Dugu and they are poisoned?" The Cthulhu laughed loudly, with an expression of disbelief in his laughter.

Chen Qiaozhi said again: "Yes, seniors, Dugu and the ghost servants have been poisoned by a poison called Puppet Poison. This poison was administered by the   gate master before."

When the Cthulhu in front of him heard that Chen Qiaozhi said the sect master of the  gate, and then said the words Puppet Poison, the Cthulhu instantly disappeared.

"The poison of the puppet?" The Cthulhu muttered suddenly.

Does he know the poison of puppets? Cthulhu certainly knows.

Once this extremely evil poison enters a person's body, the whole person will no longer be under any control from now on, and is like a walking dead body without any thought or consciousness.

The most frightening thing is that this kind of extremely weird poison can only be saved by the person who put it.

When the Cthulhu thought this in his mind, a terrifying hostility suddenly poured out of his body.

"Damn guy, he used such evil poison on my brother..." the evil  said angrily.

Tang Xiaolong on one side came over and looked at the Cthulhu: "Senior, can my master and Dugu and their poison be cured?" Tang Xiaolong looked at the Cthulhu before him expectantly and asked.

But what about Cthulhu? He frowned deeply there, and then sighed: "The poison of puppet poison is the extremely evil and domineering poison of the rivers and lakes... Basically different from Miao Jiang's Gu investigation, once it is poisoned, it is difficult to solve it. Under normal circumstances, only the poisoned person can save it." Cthulhu said helplessly.

Hearing what Cthulhu said, Tang Xiaolong in front of him was instantly dumbfounded.

"Senior, you mean my master... and Dugu and they can't be cured. Only the * gate master can save them?" Tang Xiaolong in front of him asked in shock.

But seeing the Cthulhu's face revealing a deep helplessness, he was silent there.

"For now, it's only so..."

Hearing this evil * said, Tang Xiaolong and Chen Qiaozhi were all desperate.

Are Duguxie and ghost servants really incurable like this? Will he lie down like a dead body for a lifetime?

"Although the poison of puppets is extremely overbearing, don't worry, I will do everything possible to cure them." The evil * vowed.

Hearing Cthulhu's words, the brothers all calmed down.

"Senior, when will we leave for the North China Field Army?" Xue Wuhen asked at this moment.

The Cthulhu looked at the clear sky outside, and suddenly said slowly there, "As soon as possible..."

"Yep!"

After they made this decision, they prepared to return to the North China Field Army.

Brothers started to pack things early in the morning, but what about Cthulhu? Just staying in the room, his face was a little ugly, and no one knew why he was worried about things.

"Wanqiu, where are you?"

"Twenty years... Twenty years... Where are you?" The evil god's painful voice came from the empty room.

"Wanqiu, our Tian'er has grown up... and it's the same as I was back then, except that I didn't take care of him, making him suffer now, but you can rest assured, I swear to you, I will protect us in this life Child, protect Tianer."

"Wanqiu, now I'm back... and I'm going to my father-in-law soon... I don't know if my father-in-law still hates me... but I promise you this time I will ask my father-in-law to forgive me... Ask him to restore relations with you."

I saw him sitting blankly in the room, holding a green bracelet in one hand, and his eyes were red.

Wanqiu?

Mu Wanqiu?

Could it be Li Tian's mother, the eldest daughter of the North China Field Army Mu Lao Commander, Mu Wanqiu!

Yes, the Wanqiu that Cthulhu was talking about was Li Tian's mother, and the emerald green bracelet in his hand was also the token of love between him and Mu Wanqiu.

But how could Mu Wanqiu disappear? Is she dead? Still alive? No one knows at present.

No one knows how much pain the Cthulhu has endured. Although his life is brilliant, it is also scarred.

Now that he is back out of the arena and is going to return to the North China Field Army back then, seeing the old commander Mu, and seeing his former relatives, of course the Cthulhu can't help but become emotional.

Cthulhu stayed alone in that room like this.

The brothers outside have already packed their things together, even Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying have packed up at this moment. The silly man on one side carried the big and small bags in his hands and carried them on the broad shoulders. With.

With silly eyes, he looked around, then looked at the place in front...Suddenly he said, "Sister, where is my eldest brother? Where is my eldest brother?"

Silly Man'er asked stupidly.

The big brother in his mouth is obviously that Li Tian!

It turned out that when Li Tian left, Ouyang Shiqing didn't tell the silly brother. At that time, the silly man was also healing, so the silly man didn't know that Li Tian had already left... and was far away from them now. Very far, almost on the other side of the earth.

After Ouyang Shiqing and the people around them heard the silly man's question all of a sudden, they all felt sentimental.

I saw Ouyang Shiqing resisting the sadness in her heart, squeezing a smile from her face with that effort, and then looking at Man'er and said: "Man'er, listen to my sister...Your eldest brother is not here now... It's a very far place...it will take a while to come back."

Chapter 2025: Is your skill good?

When Silly Man'er heard Ouyang Shiqing say this, his entire face suddenly changed.

He was originally carrying a large bag and a small bag on his body, but at this moment when he heard Ouyang Shiqing say this, the whole person suddenly became angry.

With a bang, all the packages on his body were thrown out.

"Sister... Where did the big brother go?"

"I'm looking for eldest brother! I want to be with him." The silly man was anxiously about to jump up and said.

He was full of anger, as if he was very angry at Li Tian's disappearance of innocence.

Seeing Man'er so excited, Ouyang Shiqing quickly walked over and grabbed the silly Man'er's arm and said: "Man'er, don't worry, listen to my sister..."

Silly Man'er still listened to Ouyang Shiqing's words very much. After hearing Ouyang Shiqing's words, he immediately calmed down, staring at the Ouyang Shiqing in front of him with a pair of huge eyes.

I saw Ouyang Shiqing looking at the silly Man'er and said, "Man'er, do you really like being with Li Tian?"

Silly Man'er nodded vigorously, and said in that silly mouth: "Yes, yeah, I like Big Brother... I like fighting with him."

When Ouyang Shiqing heard Man'er say this, a smile of relief appeared at the corner of her mouth, and she continued to look at Man'er there and said: "But, if your elder brother has to go to a place...and if your elder brother doesn't go to that place, He will be life-threatening. Tell your sister, will you let your elder brother go?"

Silly Man'er thought for a while and then nodded again.

"That's right, Man'er, now your eldest brother went to that place..." Ouyang Shiqing said.

After listening to the silly man, he said: "Then...then...I will follow the big brother, and I will go with him."

Ouyang Shiqing said: "Man'er, there are some places you can't go...you know? For example, you can't go where your eldest brother is going this time... Have you seen it? There are little dragons over there, or I didn't even go... because only your elder brother can go to that place."

After Silly Man'er heard what Ouyang Shiqing said, he blinked and looked at Xue Wuhen and Tang Xiaolong who were standing over there, frowning deeply.

"That... that... that... when will the elder brother come back? When will we fight with me?" Silly Man'er said there like a child.

Ouyang Shiqing smiled slightly, and took her stupid brother's hand and said, "Soon, your eldest brother will be back soon, and then you can accompany him to fight and enter the world..."

When Silly Man'er heard Ouyang Shiqing's words like this, he suddenly laughed happily.

The anger and impatient mood on his face just now disappeared.

Looking at the stupid man in front of him, Chen Qiaozhi in front of him sighed silently: "Hey, how good would someone become a stupid sometimes?"

He sighed.

Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen all understood Chen Qiaozhi's implication, and they couldn't help sighing, and then everyone fell silent together.

The brothers were waiting outside for the evil god.

But what about Cthulhu? I stayed alone in that room for so long and couldn't come out.

After waiting for almost an hour, Tang Xiaolong finally couldn't help but asked Chen Qiaozhi next to him: "What happened to Senior Cthulhu? Why have you been alone in the room for so long?"

Following Tang Xiaolong's question, then Chen Qiaozhi suddenly replied, "I'm afraid that the unspeakable hiddenness of Senior Cthulhu is not what you and I know."

Tang Xiaolong stared at Chen Qiaozhi in front of him for a moment: "What do you mean?"

Chen Qiaozhi turned his head and said, "You may not know some things, right?"

"What's the matter?" Tang Xiaolong asked with his eyes wide open.

Just listen to Chen Qiao's way: "Tell me, where are we going this time?"

Hearing what Chen Qiaozhi said, Tang Xiaolong became depressed and said: "Nonsense, of course it is the North China Field Army."

Chen Qiao smiled and said: "Since you know the North China Field Army, you should know that the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army is Li Tian's grandfather, right?"

After hearing this, Tang Xiaolong said, "Sick ghost, aren't you  nonsense...what are you trying to say?"

Just listen to Chen Qiao's way: "What I want to say is that the place where Cthulhu Senior will go with us this time is a very embarrassing place for Cthulhu."

"Have you forgotten? Li Tian once told us that his father was at odds with his grandfather, and it was precisely because of the evil  back then that Commander Mu severed the father-daughter relationship with his eldest daughter... After that, Cthulhu suffered a catastrophe, and after that catastrophe, Commander Mu never saw his eldest daughter again, nor did he see Cthulhu again... Hey, more than twenty years have passed in a blink of an eye. ...This time the Cthulhu is back out of the arena, and now he is going to follow us back to the North China Field Army, to meet Old Commander Na Mu... What do you think the Cthulhu feels at this moment?"

After hearing Chen Qiaozhi's words, Tang Xiaolong instantly understood.

"Oh, that's how it is!"

"Sick ghost, what do you mean is that if Senior Cthulhu followed us to take the North China Field Army, it would be quite embarrassing, right? And if you see Commander Mu, what will happen between them? No one knows. ..."

Chen Qiaozhi nodded and said, "Hey, this may be what the evil  is worried about right now."

After hearing Chen Qiaozhi's words, the brothers never complained anymore, and continued to stay outside waiting for the only evil god.

Time passed by every minute.

Finally, after another fifteen minutes or so, the evil  finally opened the door and appeared in front of the brothers.

After the Cthulhu came out, he looked at the brothers in front of him and said: "I'm sorry, I have kept you waiting for a long time... Let's go, let's go to the North China Field Army."

Cthulhu said such a sentence.

After he said this sentence, he then walked towards the car here.

The brothers looked at the weird evil  and wanted to ask him, but the brothers thought about it and didn't ask too much. Just like that, they all got in the car in front of them, and then started with the car. , The group began to drive towards the North China Field Army.

In the car, basically no one spoke, everyone was silent there.

The Cthulhu was sitting alone at the back of the car, and the Cthulhu was wiping the sword in his hand at the moment.

The sword in his hand is sharp and sharp.

When it was unsheathed, the cold light was radiant, and after it was pulled out, the extremely fierce sword aura could be felt throughout the car.

This sword is the Dragon Sword of the Cthulhu.

He held a white handkerchief and gently wiped the sharp blade, but saw that there were a lot of gaps on the blade...These gaps should be created by the evil * when he was fighting the enemy.

The brothers looked at the Dragon Sword in the hands of the evil god, not only watching there.

At this moment, the stupid Man'er suddenly turned his head and spoke. He said to Cthulhu Dao, "Hey, who are you? Are your skills very good?"

Chapter 2026: Weird shadow

This silly guy just exported like this.

Cthulhu heard Silly Man'er say this, and looked at his silly face and his huge body, Cthulhu smiled slightly.

He knows Shaman'er, and he knows Shaman'er is his son's good brother.

At the moment, he smiled and said, "My name is Li Kuafu...my skill is OK."

When the silly man heard the evil * say this, he suddenly smiled and said, "Then since you have a great skill, when we get out of the car, can you fight with me?"

Upon hearing the words of the servant, Ouyang Shiqing quickly grabbed her stupid brother, stared at the stupid man there, and then awkwardly said to Cthulhu: "Senior Cthulhu... sorry, my brother's mind is not That's great... Stupid. If there is something offending, please ask Senior Cthulhu not to be familiar with him."

The evil * laughed and said, "It doesn't matter..."

"I really like the temper of this young man! Besides, he is not a fool! I can see that he is actually very smart...very smart, but his expression is a little different from normal people. ." Not only did the Cthulhu not be angry with Man'er, he also praised the foolish Man'er in front of him.

After hearing this Cthulhu said, Ouyang Shiqing was not only moved.

I have never said that Man'er is smart. This is the first time I have heard of him being smart... No, it's the second time!

Because the first time, Li Tian said that Man'er is actually very smart.

Ouyang Shiqing didn't expect even Cthulhu to praise Man'er this time.

After the Cthulhu praised the silly man, the silly man seemed to stand up and others were complimenting him, and now he laughed... a row of white teeth appeared.

Cthulhu also looked at him and smiled.

After some silly words from that silly man along the way, the dull atmosphere finally improved.

The car drove fast all the way, and now they have reached the outskirts of Binjiang City, and within 20 minutes, they should be able to reach the stationed North China Field Military District.

This time, what kind of reaction will the return of the evil  cause?

No one knows how Fairy Baihua and Commander Mu will react after seeing the evil  that has disappeared for more than 20 years.

...

The North China Field Army is still as calm as ever.

Commander Mu and Baihua Fairy didn't know the disaster Li Tian suffered, nor did they know the sacrifices of Brigadier Wang Zhen and Jiang Dashan and others, and of course the evil  had already returned to the world.

At this moment, the field army in North China is calm.

I saw that Baihua Fairy came to the ward of Duguxie and the ghost servant as before.

The two of them have been lying there like dead bodies for so many days without breathing or moving...just lie there blankly.

After Baihua Fairy came here, he first took a pot of hot water, then put the towel in the hot water, then wet it, and began to wipe the faces of Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him...

Their faces were green, and after wiping them with a hot towel, their complexions eased a little.

For so many days, Fairy Baihua always wiped the body of Duguxie and Ghost Servant sooner or later...nothing else, because the doctors of the North China Field Army said that this can regulate the blood circulation of patients.

While wiping the Duguxie in front of him, Fairy Baihua murmured in his mouth: "Second brother...When will you wake up?"

"Hey...Have you forgotten? You promised me that we are looking for Big Brother together?"

"Now you have been lying down like this...When will we find Big Brother!!!" Fairy Baihua said as she said, a trace of tears gradually appeared in her beautiful eyes.

This peerless woman has caused many men to bend their waists, but she has never put the world's men in her eyes.

In her beautiful eyes, there is only the evil god, only Duguxie and the ghost servants and their good brothers.

Today, there are four characters who were once almost invincible in the world, but now one is missing. There are still two dead people like Duguxie and ghost servants lying in front of them...

Thinking of this, an indescribable sense of grief rose in the heart of the fairy Baihua.

However, this did not affect Fairy Baihua's confidence.

She felt that Duguxie and the ghost servants would definitely wake up. Although they were poisoned by the most venomous poison in the world, the poison of puppets, Fairy Baihua held firm faith.

At this moment, Baihua Fairy wiped the faces of Duguxie and the ghost servant little by little.

...

The quiet North China Field Army, the army is extremely tightly armed, and every place is guarded by full-service soldiers.

In the front barracks, there are tens of thousands of soldiers and horses training there.

Such a North China Field Army, it is no exaggeration to say that even if a fly wants to fly in, it is extremely difficult.

But at the moment?

Suddenly, on the side of the command headquarters of the 46th Army Brigade directly in front, a terrifying black shadow suddenly passed by. The soldiers who had stood guard suddenly seemed stiff, and there was no movement in an instant... ..

The speed of the black shadow was extremely terrifying, like a shadow, it turned so weirdly in front of the soldiers, and then the moments of the soldiers seemed to be petrified, and they couldn't move.

In such a tightly guarded place by the North China Field Army, gangsters broke in?

Who the * is it?

What is this dark figure doing here?

Moreover, the black shadow at this moment has passed through the 46th Legion in front of him in a flash, flying directly to the building on the left, and has reached there in a blink of an eye.

The direction of the building where the black shadow flies is exactly where Baihua Fairy stayed. Because this is where Li Tian and his brothers stayed before, there are very few garrisons, only two guards at the gate. The soldiers are guarding there.

At this moment, the black shadow swept over from the front gate at an alarming speed. When the two soldiers at the gate did not even react, the black figure suddenly rotated around them. The two of them suddenly stiffened... as if they were sealed in the acupoint.

And the figure at this moment flew towards the building so weirdly.

What is he doing?

In one of the rooms in the building, Fairy Baihua was wiping the hands and feet of Duguxie and the ghost servant.

Just as it was being wiped, a surge of vigor suddenly surged from the front doorway.

Master?

What strength is Baihua Fairy? When I felt turbulent energy rushing from the front doorway, for a moment, my body turned sharply, and then my body floated to the door like a butterfly, and said angrily: "Who?"

Chapter 2027: Ghost Claw

When Baihua Fairy arrived at the door, but the corridor outside was empty, how could there be a figure?

Fairy Baihua frowned and looked around carefully... But what was puzzled was that the surging energy just disappeared inexplicably!

"How could it disappear so quickly? Did I feel wrong?" Fairy Baihua said in shock.

Before she could react, suddenly a ghastly strong wind slapped the glass windows here.

Fairy Baihua was taken aback at the moment, but he was behind him!

She hurriedly turned around and looked back... she was stunned at the moment, and saw a thin, dark figure holding a person in one hand, Duguxie and a ghost servant!

The top of his head is bald, and his whole body exudes a rotten weird aura. The whole person looks like a zombie with sallow skin, but because he is facing Baihua Fairy, Baihua Fairy can't see his true face clearly.

In this way, he picked up the Duguxie and the ghost servant with both hands, and suddenly his body jumped out to the window very quickly.

Take away Duguxie and ghost servants?

What the * is this dark and skinny old man doing?

When Fairy Baihua took a look, he roared immediately: "Evil thief, let go of my second brother and fourth brother!"

Accompanied by Baihua Fairy's roar, her hands instantly used her trick, the goddess scattered flowers!

This move was the deadly and poisonous move Baihua Fairy used to break through the world. It was the most overbearing hidden weapon among the hidden weapons. It followed it out, but I saw that from her sleeves a fast and densely packed silver flew out. needle.....

The silver needles were thin and dense, shooting like raindrops toward the back of the dark old man.

But seeing the weird old man with Duguxie in one hand and ghost servant in the other, he didn't even turn his head when he heard the hidden weapon behind him. He shook his body and suddenly a golden "卍" character burst into the air. Around his body.

Ding Ding Ding...

When the densely packed silver needles touched the golden "卍"-shaped qi burst out of the old man's back, all of them were blocked and fell down.

Then looking at the old man, the two ups and downs of his body suddenly flew out of the window in front of him.

Ran away?

He took Duguxie and the ghost servant and left like this.

Fairy Baihua saw that the weird old man had such terrifying skills. He was stunned and flew out to chase after him... But how could Fairy Baihua catch up?

I saw that the old black shadow man seemed to be not a human being, his body rose and fell two times, and instantly turned into a black shadow and disappeared into the entire North China field army!

It's too fast!

Fast is almost rare in the world... I am afraid that even the Cthulhu back then could not achieve such a terrifying and extremely terrifying speed.

Fairy Baihua stared blankly at the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of her. She was robbed by the dark old man in front of her. She was speechless right now...

"Second brother, fourth brother..." Baihua Fairy screamed helplessly, and her entire body collapsed there instantly.

Duguxie and the ghost servant were taken away.

Who is the old man in the shadow who robbed them two? Fairy Baihua didn't know, she just hated, just angry.

On a barren uphill behind the North China Field Army Military District, there are tall trees, overgrown weeds, and thick trees.

And at this moment, I saw a black shadow that was so fast and swiftly shooting towards this side from the distant sky.

Then, quickly arrived in this deserted dense forest.

At the moment he fell down, he saw that he was not alone, but a person was sandwiched between each of his hands, and the two people were motionless, as if they were dead.

Look carefully, this dark shadow is just the old man.

And the two people between his hands were of course the Duguxie and the Ghost Servant.

Besides, after the weird old man brought Duguxie and the ghost servant to such a place, he suddenly sent his hands away, and the Duguxie and the ghost servant plopped and fell to the ground.

Then the black shadow old man slowly turned his body, revealing his face.

It was a skinless face, only a pair of extremely sharp Long Jiong eyes gleamed with exquisite light, his cheekbones were extraordinarily protruding, and his hands, like zombies, had black nails. , Pointed long and sharp, with thin hands like branches.

He is, Kui!

It is the supreme demon who has lived for hundreds of years, Kui.

It turns out that Kui brought this Duguxie and the ghost servant here... No wonder that Baihua Fairy's trick "Tiannu Scattering Flowers" when it was used, had no effect on Kui, and it was still holding Kui with both hands. In the case of Duguxie and Ghost Servant.

Having said that, let's just talk about why Kui brought Duguxie and the ghost servant here?

I saw that Kui looked at the two people in front of him coldly after putting Duguxie and the ghost servant on the ground, and then said in that weird way: "These two little dolls are really troublesome..."

"Poisoned by that bad boy's puppet, now it seems that only the old man can save them." Kui sighed as he said.

"Forget it, since you are the relatives of the little baby named Li, I will save you."

Kui seemed to be talking to himself there, but it seemed to be talking to the air again.

"Hey, if it wasn't for the old man to succeed in my longevity, if it wasn't for the little baby named Li...I really don't want to mix up the mess in the world."

"Trouble, trouble, so troublesome..." Kui Zai said irritably.

But even though Kui said so, he was still ready to help the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him.

The poison in both of them was the poison of the puppet that the master of the gate of * put.

How should Kui save them at this moment?

I saw Kui slowly lifted their bodies up, and then let them both sit down...

Then Kui walked behind Du Guxie and the ghost servant, both hands suddenly became like dragon claws, floating above the heads of Duguxie and the ghost servant.

After his two claws hovered above the heads of the two of them, a weird force of suction suddenly burst from the palm of his hand...

"Netherclaw!"

It turns out that this Kui is using the kung fu nether claws of the supreme demon.

This Nether Yin Catch is an extremely domineering martial art in the Demon Sect. But the difference is that the magic-absorption Dafa is to absorb the internal power of other people's bodies, and this nether-yin grasping can be controlled.

At this moment, Kui used this ghostly Yin grasp to absorb the poison of the Duguxie and the puppet inside the ghost servant.

Chapter 2028: Special cases

With the extremely overbearing breath of energy entering the heads of Duguxie and the ghost servant, I saw that the original corpse-like Duguxie and the ghost servant suddenly moved...

They actually moved. For more than two months, both of them looked like dead people. Unexpectedly, under the skill of Kui's Nether Yin grasping, less than half a cup of tea, their bodies began to move.

It's just that their bodies seemed to be convulsing violently, and they were constantly convulsing and shaking.

What about Kui?

It didn't care about Duguxie and the movement of the ghost servant's body, but the two hands were suspended above the heads of the two, and then they used the ghost claws to suck.

After nearly half an hour, suddenly I saw that Duguxie and the ghost servant's head suddenly drilled a weird worm like a mosquito silk!

But seeing that the worm was black, it was sucked out of their scalps in disgust.

At the moment when he saw the black worm coming out, Kui sneered: "It's you two little things..."

"Come out to the old man."

Suddenly with a cold drink from Kui, the two black worms were suddenly caught by Kui's Nether Yin and sucked into the palm of his hand. At the moment when they were sucked into the palm of his hand, Kui's hands suddenly burst into a cloud of air, with a bang. , Two tiny black worms were instantly shattered to death.

The so-called poison of the puppet is the black blood worm planted on the body of Duguxie and the ghost servant. This black blood worm is a weird creature in the Western Regions. It is artificially raised and is extremely vicious. After invading the brain, it will instantly devour people's consciousness, and it will make the whole person stiff and numb... But the one that controls the black blood worm is a bell, a single bell from the Western Regions, once the bell is shaken, the black blood worm begins wriggling in his mind, and then Duguxie and the ghost servant began to move around like a walking corpse... This is also the real reason why the previous Duguxie and the ghost servant can move.

However, after Kui helped the Duguxie and the ghost servant to catch and * out the black blood worm with the ghostly Yin, but seeing that the Duguxie and the ghost servant did not immediately wake up, but the same as before.

It's just that the complexions of the two have obviously recovered a lot.

"Well, now the old man has saved your two little babies... There is no place worthy of me to come forward in the world..."

"Hey... I'll go to Tianshan to find him."

Kui who said a few words to himself, then didn't even look at the Duguxie in the dense forest and the ghost servant again... The body stretched, turned into a black shadow, and disappeared instantly. In the endless world.

This demon's supreme elder is doing things that are difficult for others to understand without a trace.

What is the real reason why he rescued the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him?

Maybe it's because of Li Tian, as he said!

After all, this Duguxie and the ghost servant have always followed Li Tian, and their skills are considered to be of the highest level in the current arena... Now, the Cthulhu is back out of the arena... Although he has Tang Xiaolong and snow around him Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi, but the strength of those three people is really too weak, and the opposite side of Hell Gate is different!

The master of the gate of * is now cultivating the demon sect.

That is the Supreme Book of the Demon Dao that has been passed down for hundreds of years. As for whether the master of the gate of * has been practiced, no one knows at present.

Now, no matter what, Na Kui had already rescued Duguxie and the ghost servant.

As for when the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him will wake up? So far, I don't know.

The two of them seemed to have been abandoned, being still in this wilderness...

The icy wind is blowing on this deserted place, ooh!

...

"Senior Cthulhu, he will be in the North China Field Army immediately."

On the wide highway, I saw two off-road SUVs flying fast there. In these two cars were Cthulhu and the coming back Tang Xiaolong and other brothers.

At this moment, I saw in the car, that Tang Xiaolong said to Cthulhu.

Hearing Tang Xiaolong's words, the evil * raised his eyes slightly, then glanced at the military area stationed not far away, his thick eyebrows wrinkled slightly, and he didn't speak...

Tang Xiaolong saw that Cthulhu didn't speak, and he couldn't help saying more.

The car sprinted fast, and finally they arrived.

The two off-road SUVs finally stopped at the east gate of the North China Field Army.

The east gate is heavily guarded, and all the soldiers are wearing camouflage uniforms, brave and brave, and they are holding black and bright fully automatic rifles.

After they arrived, the brothers opened the door and jumped out of the car one by one.

And only Cthulhu? After sitting in the car for a while, his eyes full of vicissitudes glanced at the North China Field Military Command.

changed!

It is completely different from the North China Field Military Region more than 20 years ago.

I think that when Cthulhu brought Mu Wanqiu to the North China Field Military Region, there was no such luxury here, but now? Everything has changed.

The infinite past sentimentality emerged in the heart of Cthulhu, and his heart twitched slightly, and then he slowly walked out of the car.

"Senior Cthulhu, this is the North China Field Army." Tang Xiaolong in front of him thought that Cthulhu didn't know where it was, and said there.

But Chen Qiaozhi gave him a stern look.

The Cthulhu didn't speak, but his eyes carefully watched everything in front of him.

After the brothers, Cthulhu, Situ Ningbing and other beauties all walked down, I saw Xue Wuhen walk quickly to the soldier in front of the east gate and smiled and said, "Comrade, hello... ..Please open the door and let us in."

Xue Wuhen just exited, but the soldier at the door said directly, "Retreat!"

"There is an order from the upper peak. From now on, no one is allowed to get closer to the North China Field Army, otherwise, they will be engaged in military law."

Accompanied by the cold voice of the soldier, all the soldiers here raised their guns and pointed them at Xue Wuhen in front of him, with an extremely cold attitude.

Xue Wuhen was suddenly depressed.

Looking at the soldier in front of him, he said, "Hey...what's the matter with you?"

"I can tell you that we are friends of your brigade commander Wang Zhen... and we also know your commander-in-chief, Commander Mu..." Xue Wuhen explained there.

But seeing the soldiers here, he didn't even listen to Xue Wuhen's words in front of him.

With a click, the automatic rifle was loaded directly.

"I said to retreat... If I don't retreat, I will shoot." The soldier in front of him was absolutely not joking. His eyes were cold and full of murderous aura, and he said to Xue Wuhen in front of him.

Xue Wuhen was stunned when he saw that the soldier turned out to be true. He couldn't help taking two steps back. He was really afraid that the soldier in front of him would suddenly shoot...

Seeing that Xue Wuhen was depressed, she thought to herself, how can the soldiers of the North China Field Army be like crazy dogs? So fierce?

At this moment, Chen Qiaozhi saw something wrong here, and walked over quickly.

He glanced at Xue Wuhen, and then looked at again. The murderous soldier over there asked Xue Wuhen in a low voice, "What's the matter?"

I saw Xue Wuhen frowning there and said: "Who knows what happened to the soldiers of the North China Field Army today... one by one was as if they had eaten gunpowder... Tell him to let us in, not let us in, and also said to come back. If you do, shoot!"

When Chen Qiao heard this, he frowned.

"Is there such a thing? Wuhen, you tell them, do we know about their brigade commander and commander-in-chief?" Chen Qiaozhi.

Xue Wuhen said, "I told you... But these soldiers don't listen at all!"

When Chen Qiao heard this, he was slightly startled, and thought to himself: something is wrong, it is impossible for the North China Field Army to have such an unreasonable situation? Unless it is a special situation!

Could it be that what happened to the North China Field Army?

Chen Qiaozhi was very clever thinking there.

Chapter 2029: Was robbed?

At this moment, Chen Qiaozhi thought for a while, and then slowly approached the soldiers who were full of strong hostility in front of him, and then said: "This comrade, hello, I don't know where your North China Field Military Command is. Something has happened, but I still want to trouble you, and help us convey to your 39th brigade political commissar, his surname is Zhou, and he said that Li Tian's brothers are back, ok?"

As Chen Qiaozhi lowered his tone and said to the soldier's ease, the soldier holding the gun in front of him gave Chen Qiaozhi a cold look, and then looked at the brothers behind.

He was silent for a moment, and then said: "Okay, you are waiting here..."

"But, you must never approach the gate!"

Chen Qiaozhi laughed and said, "Okay, okay, okay, thanks a lot."

After Chen Qiaozhi finished speaking, he quickly retreated. Although he did not know what happened to the North China Field Army, he felt that as long as the Political Commissar Zhou of the 39th Brigade could come out, everything would be much easier. After all, they all knew the political commissar that week.

The soldier also heard Chen Qiaozhi call out the name of their brigade political commissar, and he secretly said: It seems that these guys really know the political commissar Zhou, otherwise it is impossible to directly call the political commissar Zhou, so I finally thought After thinking about it, the soldier decided to report it.

During the briefing of the soldiers, Chen Qiaozhi and his brothers and Cthulhu were waiting here at the gate.

The soldiers at the door were full of serious faces, and they didn't mean to relax at all.

When the time passed for about ten minutes, suddenly I saw a man with the rank of ensign in military uniform and the two guards under his hand came quickly from a distance.

Upon seeing the figure, he immediately recognized him as the political commissar of the 39th Brigade, Political Commissar Zhou.

At this moment, the political commissar Zhou was rushing towards this side.

"Political commissar Zhou has finally come out." At the moment when he saw the political commissar coming out that week, Xue Wuhen said excitedly.

Then he ran towards the gate, shouting from a distance: "Political Commissar Zhou...I am Xue Wuhen...We are back."

When Xue Wuhen rushed in, the soldiers at the door pointed their guns at him for an instant.

That week, the political commissar had already rushed over at this time, and saw his subordinates holding guns at the brothers in front of him, and shouted at the moment, "Give me all the guns..."

"You guys... don't you know they are guests of our North China Field Army?"

"Give me all back."

After Zhou's political commissar rebuked, the soldiers in front of him quickly put away all the cold guns in their hands, and then immediately said, "Yes!" Then they all retreated quickly. Down.

Political commissar Zhou had already walked over quickly at this time, looking at Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi in front of him and said excitedly: "You are finally back...you are all back...great."

Chen Qiaozhi in front of him walked up and said, "Political Commissar Zhou, is something wrong with the military region?"

After Chen Qiaozhi asked, Political Commissar Zhou not only sighed deeply: "Yes!"

"Just an hour ago... something terrible happened in our military area."

Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen finally understood why these soldiers were so hostile. It turned out that something really happened in the North China Field Military Region.

"Political Commissar Zhou, what happened?" Chen Qiaozhi asked suspiciously.

But when I saw the political commissar Zhou in front of me, he sighed: "This matter...it's a bit troublesome...Let's go to the military area with me first, and I'll tell you about it later." Political commissar Zhou didn't. Directly.

After Chen Qiaozhi heard this from Political Commissar Zhou, he nodded and said, "Okay."

Then he walked towards the back.

"Senior Cthulhu... let's go in." Chen Qiaozhi looked at Cthulhu Dao.

The Cthulhu glanced at the North China Field Military Region in front of him, and then did not answer his words, but walked forward silently by himself.

That week, the political commissar couldn't help frowning when he saw the man in front of him who was full of arrogance.

Although he knew the brothers in front of him, he did not know the evil  in front of him.

So at this moment, I walked quickly to the front of Chen Qiaozhi and asked curiously: "Qiaozhi, who is he?"

Following the question of Political Commissar Zhou, Chen Qiaozhi in front of him said in a low voice, "He is Li Tian's father, senior Cthulhu."

After Chen Qiao spoke for a moment, the political commissar Zhou in front of him was shocked there.

what?

"He is Li Tian's father? Cthulhu?" The shocked words suddenly came out of Zhou's political commissar.

With an unbelievable expression in his eyes, he stared at the evil  in front of him in shock.

Chen Qiaozhi next to him nodded slightly.

The political commissar of that week was momentarily speechless...just raised those extremely horrified eyes and looked at the evil  who was walking in front of him.

Obviously this week the political commissar had also heard about the evil god.

So he was completely speechless at this moment.

At the moment? As the Cthulhu walked lonely toward the military area of the North China Field Army, all the brothers here followed one by one.

The political commissar followed that week at a quick pace.

When I walked into the North China Field Military Region, I saw that the army was tightly guarded, and everyone's faces were extremely serious, as if something major had happened.

Looking at the weird situation in this military area, Tang Xiaolong finally asked, "Political Commissar Zhou, is there something wrong with the military area? How come everyone's expressions seem to be facing an enemy.?"

Following Tang Xiaolong's question, he saw that the political commissar of that week sighed and said, "Hey!"

"Let me tell you..."

"An hour ago, something serious happened in the Military Region." Political Commissar Zhou in front of him sighed.

Hearing what Political Commissar Zhou said, the brothers in front of them were not only curiously asking, "Commissar Zhou, what happened?"

After the brothers asked, Zhou Political Commissar finally told the truth this time.

He glanced at the brothers in front of him, and then said helplessly: "Well, let me tell you, an hour ago, someone from our military zone broke in..."

what!

Brothers heard this from Political Commissar Zhou, they were speechless at the moment!

Someone rushed in in the dignified North China Field Military Command? what's the situation, I saw the brothers asking with extremely shocked expressions one by one, "Political Commissar Zhou, it's impossible, right? The North China Field Army is so tightly guarded that someone dared to break in? Don't want to live..."

Political commissar Zhou said: "Hey, but in fact, some experts actually broke in."

After hearing the words of Political Commissar Zhou in front of him, the brothers here not only asked: "Commissar Zhou, what does he want to break into the North China Field Army? Are you caught now?"

Political commissar Zhou said, "That...that...that guy hijacked Duguxie and the ghost servant."

Suddenly, when I heard Political Commissar Zhou say that the man who broke into the North China Field Military Command had robbed Duguxie and the ghost servants, the brothers in front of me were suddenly stunned...and dumbfounded!

what? ? ?

"Taking my master and Dugu?" Tang Xiaolong almost jumped up.

Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen's eyes widened for an instant, completely stunned.

At this moment, the political commissar Zhou said, "Hey, yes."

"At that time, the Dugu and the ghost servants were on the floor on the eastern side. There were people from our military area guarding them, but they never thought that our soldiers were all frozen... All their bodies were stiff and they stood alone There, when we arrived in the room, we heard from Fairy Baihua that it turned out that Duguxie and the ghost servant were all taken away by the  guy."

After hearing what Political Commissar Zhou said, the brothers in front of him were truly speechless.

Chapter 2030: Warmth

No one thought it would be such a result.

In broad daylight, Duguxie and the ghost servant were taken away!

"Who, who did it?"

"Who robbed my master?" Tang Xiaolong said furiously at the moment.

Political commissar Zhou said: "I don't know yet, but I heard from Fairy Baihua that it was a strange old man who took away the Dugu and the ghost servant. The old man has a very high martial arts skill and is alone. The three-level security state, and within 5 kilometers, a carpet search..."

"Don't worry, we will definitely find Dugu and ghost servants." Political Commissar Zhou in front of them said comforting the brothers in front of them.

After hearing this from Political Commissar Zhou, the brothers began to feel uneasy in their hearts.

Old man?

A weird old man who robbed the Duguxie and the ghost servant in broad daylight?

They didn't immediately tell the horrible news to the evil * who was walking in front of them, but walked behind them with ugly expressions.

At this moment, they are all worried about the Duguxie and the ghost servant in their hearts. What happened to them?

What does the guy who hijacked them both want to do?

With this in my mind, I saw that they were already inside the barracks of the North China Field Army.

Political commissar Zhou led them and said, "Everyone, let's take a break in the reception room... I'll tell Fairy Baihua."

Then the brothers all nodded, and then Political Commissar Zhou left.

The brothers followed the evil * into the reception room in front of them, and sat down slightly inside.

The Cthulhu didn't speak much from beginning to end, and was silent.

What about brothers? After hearing about the kidnapping of Duguxie and the ghost servant, he was worried at the moment and did not speak.

Everyone is waiting here, waiting for the arrival of the Baihua Fairy.

"Political Commissar Zhou, what are you talking about? You said...My big brother? Big brother...coming?" In an exquisite room, but seeing that Baihua Fairy with beautiful eyes of shocked look in front of Zhou talking The political commissar was completely confused.

But seeing political commissar Zhou said: "I heard Chen Qiaozhi and the others said that the man was called a Cthulhu... and his whole body gave people a mighty aura that looked down upon the world. As for whether he was your big brother, I really don't know."

Fairy Baihua was stunned when he heard the political commissar Zhou say so.

"Impossible, impossible!"

"My eldest brother has disappeared for more than 20 years... There has never been a rumor of him in the rivers and lakes... How could he suddenly appear? And also following Chen Qiaozhi and the others?" Baihua Fairy said in disbelief.

After all, the appearance of Cthulhu was too abrupt, and no one could believe it.

I saw the political commissar Zhou here with a wry smile: "As for the true and false, to be honest, I really don't know..."

"Well, Miss Baihua, why don't you go take a look... to see if that person is a real evil god?" Political Commissar Zhou said.

Fairy Baihua asked immediately: "Are they there?"

"It's in the reception room of the military area." Political commissar Zhou said.

As Political Commissar Zhou said just now, the fairy Baihua in front of him swept out like a gust of wind.

Her body is so big, so anxious, as if she couldn't help it for a moment, she hurriedly flew towards the reception room of the military area.

While flying towards the reception room of the military area, Fairy Baihua was thinking excitedly.

Is it true?

Are you really big brother?

Day and night looking forward to the Cthulhu's reappearance of the Fairy Baihua, how could he not be excited?

For more than 20 years, Fairy Baihua has been searching for the Cthulhu for more than 20 years. Now that she suddenly heard the Cthulhu coming to her, how could she not be so excited?

I saw Fairy Baihua quickly arrived at the reception room of the North China Field Army.

After arriving, she quickly walked towards there.

When seeing her figure coming in, the brothers here immediately saw her, and couldn't help shouting there, "Auntie Hua?"

But what about Fairy Baihua? As if not hearing their voices, a pair of beautiful eyes trembled at the burly man with long hair sitting in the middle.

His figure is still so tall, his face is still so full of pride, the dragon sword inserted in the scabbard on his back is exactly the same as it was carried on his back more than 20 years ago.

At the moment when she saw him, Baihua Fairy's eyes burst into tears of incredible excitement.

"Big brother?"

"It's really you..."

"I...I...I didn't dream, did I?" The Fairy Baihua in front of her eyes filled with excitement and tears as she looked at the Cthulhu Dao in disbelief.

After more than 20 years, for more than 20 years, Fairy Baihua finally saw the evil  he once worshiped.

What about Cthulhu? The moment I saw Fairy Baihua, the whole person stood up instantly.

"Sanmei..."

A familiar voice from more than 20 years ago came into Baihua Fairy's ears.

Yes, this voice belongs to the evil god, her elder brother.

After Baihua Fairy heard the true voice of the Heretic God, she could no longer contain the excitement in her heart, and the whole body rushed towards the Heretic God for an instant.

"Big Brother!" She cried out in tears, and her whole body instantly fell into the broad embrace of the evil god.

What about Cthulhu? At this moment, he opened his arms and hugged the Baihua Fairy.

Brother and sister affection is fully manifested at this moment.

"Brother, are you really born? Really appear? Oh my God, I'm not dreaming of all this, am I?" Fairy Baihua said with excitement and trembling.

"It's not a dream, Sanmei, it's real." Cthulhu Dao in front of him.

"Big Brother, it's been more than 20 years, and it's been more than 20 years. My second and fourth brothers and I are thinking of you all the time...for so many years, we have been looking for you..."

"There are rumors in the arena that you are dead, and there are rumors that you are trapped... But my second brother and I have never given up. We believed from the beginning to the end that the eldest brother must be alive and will be born. Unexpectedly, everything will change. Became true." The vernacular said in an excited voice now incoherently.

But seeing Cthulhu said: "Stupid brothers!"

"How can I die? The world is so big, who can make me die?" The Cthulhu said there boldly.

His voice is still so mad and so domineering.

After hearing this, Fairy Baihua suddenly understood that everything turned out to be true, and the evil  really appeared.

"I know that there will be no accidents, big brother...it will definitely not happen, you will definitely be back." Fairy Baihua said, wiping her tears.

"Don't worry, Sanmei, from today, my father Li Kua will definitely not be separated from you anymore, even if I die." Cthulhu said.

After the Baihua Fairy in front of her listened, her entire body was holding the evil  in front of her tightly, and at the same time she said uncontrollably, "Great, great, we The siblings can get together again."

Once dominating the world, the evil  brought the evil sword Dugu, Baihua Fairy, and the Shadow Ghost Servant, these three brothers were all in control.

What will happen after twenty years?

The sentimental scene was seen in the brothers' eyes. After the brothers saw the Cthulhu and Fairy Baihua recognize each other, they not only thought of Li Tian in their hearts, but also felt sad.

No way, brothers miss Li Tian too!
