

A Killer 31

Chapter 31: Was found

Two black cars were driving fast on the streets of Kyoto City.

The front car is a black BenZ, and the rear car is a Passat.

The man sitting in the black Mercedes-Benz car, wearing a full suit, took a closer look, isn't it the man who asked Feifei to go back yesterday? Another guy who suffered a fracture yesterday did not come this time, but there was a gentleman with glasses behind the car.

Desperately Saburo, Xiao Zhou.

Yes, it is him. This fierce man who made a military order in front of the president of the Tang company yesterday.

At this moment, Xiao Zhou wore a pair of gold wire glasses and looked out the window quietly, with two white hands firmly placed on his legs.

"Brother Zhou, the eldest lady and the boy disappeared here yesterday..." The man in the suit said, pointing to the street not far in front of him.

Xiao Zhou, who was called Brother Zhou, took a faint look at that, then took out a cell phone from the gray suit and dialed a call.

The call was soon answered by the other party.

"Hey, Brother Zhou."

"How did you find it?" Xiao Zhou asked quietly.

A rough voice came from the other party's phone, and said in a very respectful tone: "Brother Zhou, we have checked all the hotels in Kyoto City, and there is no registration for Miss Tang."

"Oh, isn't it?" Xiao Zhou said with a slight frown.

"Yes, Brother Zhou, we are also wondering, did Miss Tang stay in these hotels?" the other party asked.

"Are you sure you checked it all?" The voice was flat and powerful.

When the other party heard what Xiao Zhou said, he suddenly felt an unnatural pressure, and said quickly: "Brother Zhou, we promised with one hand, we really checked it."

"You'd better check them all..." Xiao Zhou pressed the phone after he finished speaking.

"Brother Zhou, how's it going?" Just listen to the man in the suit who was driving in front ask.

Xiao Zhou didn't speak, and looked at the outside of the car. It was a long time before he said, "How about the guy who was with Missy yesterday?"

After Xiao Zhou asked this, the man in the suit who drove in front was taken aback for a moment, then recalled carefully, and hurriedly said: "Wearing? It's quite rustic, like a guy from the countryside, with a broken bag on his back. "

After Xiao Zhou finished listening: "Turn around and go to an ordinary residential area... it's best to rent a place more often."

"Huh?" The man in the suit who was driving in front was taken aback for a moment, thinking he had heard him wrong.

Xiao Zhou didn't speak any more, thinking about his thoughts quietly.

Missy now does not live in luxury hotels, nor hotels, nor with her classmates or friends, where can she go? I must be with the stranger yesterday. Since the kid yesterday dressed so ordinary, the eldest lady does not have a wallet now, and of course she will live in a normal residential area...

Xiao Zhou thought about it this way, the car had already turned around quickly and drove quickly towards the ordinary residential area.

Then Li Tian and Feifei, not far from the house where they lived, saw a small restaurant buying breakfast.

It's just that the two of them got up early, just in time for the morning rush hour. Those office workers who live in ordinary residential communities are lining up there to buy a simple breakfast.

Li Tian and Feifei were also waiting in line there.

"The surname is Li, you can't go back on what you promised me." Feifei smiled and said with a slender finger poking Li Tian's spine behind.

Li Tian turned his head and said, "Do you think I'm like you? The big man talks so much, how am I like that."

"Hey, that's good." Feifei smiled.

Feifei, who was queuing here waiting to buy breakfast, glanced at random, and saw two cars slowly approaching the ordinary residential area here.

"So familiar." Feifei said depressed.

Then I took a closer look and saw a guy in a suit not far from the car, who was questioning the surrounding residents, and he yelled.

Li Tian, who had just bought breakfast, was shocked: "What are you doing? Crazy, what's your name."

The young working people next to him turned their heads to look at this big beauty.

And Feifei? There was no time to explain to Li Tian, he stretched out his hand to pull Li Tian's arm and started to run: "Come on, they are coming."

"What?" Before the gloomy Li Tian didn't realize what was going on, he was pulled by Feifei and ran to the side.

Feifei ran and looked back, as if some bad guy was chasing her behind.

After Feifei and the others ran, the two cars that were already very close to them and the man in the suit who asked someone next to the car suddenly saw Feifei.

"Over there."

"Miss is over there."

The man in the suit who was questioning turned around and chased Feifei and the others.

At this moment, the two cars swiftly chased forward with full throttle one after another.

Then Li Tian hadn't understood what was going on. At this moment, Feifei was dragged by Feifei and turned to look, but he was also taken aback when he saw the two cars chasing him quickly.

Could it be those men who chased Feifei yesterday?

"What's wrong?" Li Tian asked, being dragged by Na Feifei.

There is still time for Feifei to explain to him, panting and saying, "Don't ask, just run away."

But they can run away.

Isn't this? The two people who had not had time to run away were suddenly squeezed into an alley.

That Mercedes-Benz and another Passat also blocked the two ends of the alley.

At this moment, Feifei was immediately depressed, and Li Tian blinked his eyes to look at the men in suits who came out of the car, and suddenly screamed: These people are indeed the group of people who caught Feifei yesterday. Got here.

Where is Feifei? It was extremely depressed and cursed secretly that these dead bodyguards had found themselves so quickly.

Hiding behind Li Tian, whispered to Li Tian: "You have to protect me."

"Don't worry." Li Tian said bravely.

In fact, he really didn't understand who these people were, nor did he understand what kind of identity Feifei was behind.

Several men in suits who came out of the car came slowly towards them.
