

A Killer 3301

Chapter 3301: Three Corpses

"Li Tian, hurry up!" Ouyang Shiqing backed Li Tian abruptly, pushed Li Tian away, and shouted.

The transparent silk thread released by the nine-color corpse crystal controlled by Li Tian could not control Ouyang Shiqing at all, but instead fed the corpse insects.

After Ouyang Shiqing pushed Li Tian away, Li Tian had discovered that Ouyang Shiqing had gradually recovered his zombie nature!

"Poetry, waiting for me!" Li Tian didn't stay at all. After a few flying, he ran out of the small building. As soon as he ran out of the small building, Li Tian actually saw Barbarian, Two-dimensional, and Wang Rui running towards him. Come here!

"Barbarian get in the car!" Li Tian didn't want Ouyang Shiqing as an enemy, so he could only give in first, and if the Barbarian and others were involved, then Li Tian would be in a dilemma, because Li Tian was the first time he saw the barbarian. , Shouted to the barbarian and others.

Hearing Li Tian's greeting, the barbarian was stunned for a moment, but Wang Rui had already fully heard what happened to Li Tian in Cai Longquan's residence. Therefore, Wang Rui did not stay at all, pulled a two-dimensional, and the two drilled. Into the car.

Although Barbarian reacted slowly, but not much slower, he followed Li Tian into the car one after another.

The car made a roar and quickly disappeared into the night.

When Li Tian drove the car away from Shouguang Road, Ouyang Shiqing and Ouyang Man also rushed to the side of the road. Looking at the back of the car, Ouyang Shiqing sneered and said: "Li Tian! As long as you are still setting sun You can't escape the fortress of my palm!"

There was no expression on Ouyang Shiqing's face, and she returned to the way she was after being controlled.

"Brother Tian, what happened? Ask Wang Rui, Wang Rui didn't tell me, but said that you were fighting in Cai Longquan's room!" The barbarian was awakened by the two-dimensional in his sleep, and followed in confusion. Two-dimensional and Wang Rui ran to Cai Longquan's residence. They just ran to the building where Cai Longquan lived. They saw Li Tian running out of the building, and Li Tian drove him into the car to escape. After I got the car, I started to ask!

"Manzi, don't ask a few words!" Wei Wei said.

"Hey, my barbarian's big sword and hunger and thirst are impatient, I have long thought of going to a big fight. It is a pity that I missed such a good opportunity today." The barbarian stroked his Qinglong knife and said.

Wang Rui looked at Li Tian's back, wondering if she should say what she had heard, and finally she hesitated for a while, or swallowed the words into her stomach.

"The two who chased me just now, one has the strength of a ninth-level zombie, and the other has the ability to surpass a ninth-level zombie! Are you sure that your big sword and hunger and thirst are unbearable?" Li Tian disliked the barbarian noise, and despised the barbarian. To say.

When the barbarian heard Li Tian's words, he was surprised at first, then through the rearview mirror, he moved his gaze to the outside of the car and looked at the shady outside of the car, and said: "If there was a midnight snack, I would have been hungry and thirsty! "

Li Tian didn't want to tell anyone about Ouyang Shiqing's becoming a zombie. Li Tian knew about this kind of thing, but there was no need to publicize it everywhere.

Now Li Tian only has to kill!

Kyoto City, once the most prosperous cbd, the top floor of a skyscraper, Duanki Sakura stands in front of the huge floor-to-ceiling windows, through the huge floor-to-ceiling windows, watching the city swallowed by darkness.

"Now Li Tian should meet with Ouyang Shiqing! I don't know if Li Tian can accept Ouyang Shiqing's current situation!" Duanmuying seems to be talking to herself, "Although I know that Ouyang Shiqing is like this, But we couldn't help her, I really blame myself!"

"If we could be faster at the beginning, Ouyang Shiqing would not become what it is now..." Duanmuying said with some remorse: "It has been more than three years, although my strength has been improving, my The Legion has also become one of the top ten legions, but we are still helpless against the ghouls far away in the Demon Capital."

"Don't worry! Since Li Tian boy has returned, he will never ignore Ouyang Shiqing's situation."

"Furthermore, everything came too suddenly at the beginning. The three funerals appeared almost at the same time after Li Tian and Situ Ningbing entered the gate of the restricted area. The three funerals were sinister and abnormal and attacked as soon as they appeared. We. And the strength of the three bereaved creatures far exceeded our expectations, which caught us off guard." The old man behind Duanmuying coughed a few times and said slowly.

If Li Tian were here, he would have recognized the old man with white beard behind Duanmuying at a glance, and he was the master of his father Li Kuafu, the old man Wuji.

At this time, the old man Wuji seemed to be recovering from a serious illness, and his face had long lost the energetic expression before, but it seemed that he was a lot older.

"You don't actually need to blame yourself. It's better than the old man of the four elephants. He was caught off guard when he was attacked by the three bereaved, and even suffered heavy injuries. It is not easy for us to escape alive and find a way out "Duanmuying comforted the old man Wuji.

"Now Li Tian has returned, even if Li Tian's skill is lost, as long as Li Tian comes back, he still has the foundation before, and the Three Corpses will not be too long!" Duanmuying said to Li Tian with confidence.

"Yes. The talent of Li Tian kid is far above that of me and Li Kuafu, and regaining his skills won't make us wait too long. But to defeat the ghouls, Li Tian kid not only needs to restore all his skills when he was on the earth. , There is still more progress! After all, the strength of the three zombies that ran out of the crack in the gate of the restricted area, the ghoul, the corpse, and the corpse, should not be underestimated!" said an old man behind Duanmuying.

"The funeral is in power, this world has fallen, but the powers of all parties in today's world are still fighting openly and secretly. I really hope someone can stand up and help Li Tian!" Duanmuying's firm eyes revealed a trace of love for children, and said quietly.

"You said Long Yin would stand up and help Li Tian if he knew that Li Tian was back?" Duanmuying said with some uncertainty.

"Long Yin? Long Yin, the commander of the Longteng Litian Legion? Humph, just from the name he gave to the Legion, he knew that his heart was not on the world." The old man Wuji said calmly.

Long Teng Litian is also one of the ten legions, and the commander of this legion is Long Yin. However, the headquarters of this corps was not located in Kyoto, but far away from the southern border.

"Sneez!" Long Yin, who was far away in southern Xinjiang, sneezed several times before stopping. Long Yin twitched his nose and dropped the piece of paper in his hand with the news that his men had passed back from the sunset fortress. He sneered. He said: "Li Tian! My Long Yin has always been targeting you, even if it is the end of the world, my Long Yin dare not be lazy for half a day. Now you are finally back! But what are you going to do? Go through the gate of the restricted area. It turned out to be waste! What a disappointment!"

Chapter 3302: Ghoul

The Magic City, once one of the largest cities in the world, was full of traffic and people in the daytime. At night, there were thousands of lights and neon shining. .

At this time, the Demon Capital was dead silence, shrouded in endless darkness, and the screams of wild beasts occasionally made the entire Demon seem even more weird.

Since the advent of the end times, this city has become this way, and for the people who live in this city, they have become accustomed to this darkness.

Only this darkness can give them more sense of security.

At the top of the tallest skyscraper in the capital, a young zombie man who looks only in his twenties is standing here. This young zombie man has his mouth slightly upwards, showing a smile but a smile.

At the feet of this zombie man, there are dozens of corpses lying in all directions, and this zombie man is holding a * heart in his hand. At this time, the heart has just been dug out from a person's body, and it is still beating. .

The zombie man opened his mouth and started chewing on this delicious heart. The blood remaining in the heart flowed down the corners of the man's mouth, and even reached the collar of the man's collar, but the man completely ignored him and was completely immersed in it. Among the deliciousness of the heart.

This young man is exactly the ghoul that Ouyang Shiqing said, the master of the entire corpse kingdom.

"Stupid human beings are trying to control the zombies under the control of my ghoul! I really don't know whether they live or die!" The ghoul said contemptuously.

"However, it is really surprising! The zombies controlled by my ghoul can get rid of my control for a short time. Is this the power of love that humans often call?"

"Love, love, what a wonderful thing, I really want to experience the feeling of love! Hehe!" The ghoul suddenly stretched out his hand at a female bounty hunter who had fainted on the ground and sucked the female bounty hunter directly into his hand. .

Carrying the collar of the female bounty hunter, the ghoul looked at the slightly beating eyelids of the female bounty hunter, and said with a sneer: "Continue to pretend to be dead in front of me, and I will make you really never open your eyes! "

"Don't kill me! Don't kill me!" The female bounty hunter shivered in horror, but she opened her eyes and begged for mercy.

"Kill you? How can my ghouls kill people casually? It's just that my ghouls like to eat people! Haha, but if you want me to let you go, it's not impossible! If you let me experience it The smell of love, once my mood is good, I can choose to let you go!" The ghoul said, looking at the female bounty hunter.

"Love...love?" The female bounty hunter was taken aback for a moment, but in order to survive, the female bounty hunter was still thinking about how to escape from the hands of the ghoul.

The ghoul has a handsome appearance even for the level of human appreciation, but the body of the ghoul is full of the smell of carrion. This is mainly because of the years of killing, devouring the human heart, the body of the ghoul, and the clothes. It was already covered with the smell of carrion.

How can ghouls feel love? The female bounty hunter looked at the blood still remaining at the corner of the ghoul's mouth, closed her eyes, and kissed them.

This female bounty hunter also struggled to survive. Two soft lips sucked the ghoul's lips, and the silky little tongue directly pried open the ghoul's teeth and stuck into the ghoul's mouth. Cold tongues tangled together.

There is a strong smell of blood in the mouth of the ghoul. When kissing the ghoul, the female bounty hunter wants to gag a few times, but when she thinks that if she does gag, she will definitely be killed by the ghoul. Female bounty The hunter still resisted.

"It turns out that this is the taste of love. The soft tongue in this woman's mouth, and the faint temperature on the tip of the tongue, is the taste of love. This feeling really makes me want to..."

With a "tear", the ghoul directly tore open the collar of the female bounty hunter's chest, and two groups of white flesh jumped out of the torn neckline, looking extremely dazzling in the darkness.

The female bounty hunter shuddered, but soon she stopped thinking about whether the person in front of her was a person or a zombie.

The ghoul forcefully grabbed the female bounty hunter with his cold claws to expose the white flesh, and kneaded it vigorously, as if he wanted to crush the white flesh directly.

The female bounty hunter couldn't bear the pain, and kept moaning in a low voice. At this time, the female bounty hunter was shamelessly wet!

The female bounty hunter seems to have seen the dawn of victory, and is even more frantically cooperating with the ghouls' movements. The body of the female bounty hunter was like a soft snake, wrapped around the ghoul, and she was gasping for breath.

At this moment, "Puff!" With a sound, the sharp claws of the ghoul directly pierced the female bounty hunter's chest, and forcefully pulled the female bounty hunter's heart out of her chest.

The female bounty hunter hadn't even had time to make the doctor's screaming sound, and she had crawled softly on the ghoul.

The ghoul gently pushed the female bounty hunter away and began to chew on the steaming heart in his hand.

"This is the taste of love, it is delicious, it is delicious...hahaha!"

The ghoul swallowed a heart clean in a few mouthfuls, wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth with his sleeve, and then said expectantly to a male corpse on the ground: "Come on, you also let me Feel the smell of love!"

The male corpse shuddered, jumped up abruptly, and rushed down from the top of the building almost without hesitation: "I m, you are so perverted"

"Bang!" With a dull sound, the male corpse really became a male corpse.

The ghoul said with a pity: "What a delicious food, he refused the love that had knocked on the door, and just ran away! It seems that love is also a lie! Hahaha!"

After a long period of darkness, the first rays of light shone from the distant skyline, shining on the ghoul, and pulling out a long shadow behind the ghoul.

A golden flying insect slowly flew from a distance with the first ray of sunlight, and finally stopped on the tip of the corpse insect's finger.

Seeing this little golden bug, the ghoul's face was filled with happiness, and he said excitedly: "Finally a bug has transformed, hehe, it seems that my ghoul is one step closer to the way of immortality!"

This little golden bug whirled back and forth on the tips of the ghoul's fingers, and then began to bite the skin on the tips of the ghoul's fingers. After tearing the skin, the little bug went directly into the skin of the ghoul. in.

And the ghoul's face began to be filled with an expression of enjoyment.

Chapter 3303: Go up to Tianshan

In the sunset fortress, the first rays of sunshine came later than the magic.

When the first ray of sunlight entered the Sunset Fortress, the gates of the Sunset Fortress opened wide, and the leaders and leaders of various organizations who attended the banquet last night rushed out with their entourage.

Scarlet Blood squatted on the wall of the city gate of the Sunset Fortress, licked his tongue, and looked back at the Sunset Fortress with a cold smile on his mouth.

"It's a pity that Li Tian can't go to Tianshan, otherwise you will kill you this time! However, if Saiweng loses his horse, it is the same to meet Yang Qingyun and Jia Youlong on Tianshan! Hehe!"

After Scarlet Blood finished speaking, he immediately jumped down from the city wall. At the moment he was about to land, Scarlet Blood's palms of both hands were slapped towards the ground, Scarlet Blood actually slowly landed on the ground, and then strode towards the distance. go with.

After the scarlet blood left, the fat pig woman and the thin monkey man of the Yin and Yang gate also walked out of the city gate.

"Monkey, let's enter Tianshan first. At that time, the sect master will send other masters in the sect to join us. The sect master has said that he must take this task this time!"

The skinny monkey man nodded, touched the bone of a new zombie arm, Bai Sensen, hanging on his waist, and said, "This time I really want to continue to compete with Lily and Li Tian! Try the sect master The hand bones of the ninth-level zombie rewarded!"

In the conference room of Sunset Fortress, all the core cadres in Sunset Fortress except Li Tian and Cai Longquan were seated in the conference room.

The head of the old man of the four elephants appeared on the huge screen. Jia Youlong pointed at the head of the old man of the four elephants, his gaze slowly swept across the faces of the core members in the conference room, and slowly said: "This time the corpse of the kingdom The target is these four old people. According to analysis, the four old people's previous cultivation bases are strong, but they are injured. Our goal is to find these four old people, and we don't need to fight with these four old people."

"But don't think this is just a simple task of tracing people. You must know that our opponent is Scarlet Blood, the core cadres of other organizations, and they are the greatest danger to this task."

"You know, this mission is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for all organizations in the Northwest Region. As long as we seize this opportunity, the Northwest Region will surely have a powerful force comparable to the top ten legions. If we don't want to be dismissed from the Sunset Fortress The organization stepped on our feet, especially if we don't want to be slaughtered by the red blood, then we must succeed! Therefore..."

Jia Youlong paused, his eyes swept across the serious faces of the core cadres in the audience again, and then he said firmly: "So, once you meet them in the Tianshan Mountains, no matter who they are, no matter who they are in the organization, you must have nothing. No mercy, kill without mercy!"

Yang Qingyun was still in a separate isolated glass room. After listening to Jia Youlong's explanation, he coughed several times and said: "This time, an old man will personally lead you to the Tianshan Mountains. It is bound to be an effort to win this. Mission! As long as a few core cadres stay in the fortress!"

Yang Qingyun's gaze slowly swept across the faces of many core cadres in the conference room, and finally fell on He Zhizhuo's face, and slowly said: "When Jia Youlong and I were away, there was He Zhizhuo. The battle squad stayed at the Sunset Fortress, Han Gang, Wei Wu, Shelipuding, Wu Shi and you guys assist He Zhizhuo!"

After the meeting, the man serving in his office appeared beside Yang Qingyun. This man looked unremarkable.

"I still don't worry about He Zhizhuo and Shelipuding, the seven-sword cadres, even if you leave the three of them in the Han Gangwu style, I still don't worry! In this way, during the time I am away, you go to Cai Longquan and tell She, if she can change her mind and continue to support me Yang Qingyun, then I can promise to let them go! If Cai Longquan doesn't agree, then just wait for me to come back, I will * her into a corpse instead of simply The question of drop...huh!"

Yang Qingyun sneered and continued: "Also, if He Zhizhuo and the others do anything extraordinary, you will..."

Said Yang Qingyun made a beheading gesture.

In the murder house, the barbarian carried the Qinglong knife and said to Li Tian: "Brother Tian, you must take me to Tianshan this time. Since the last time I met the white-bearded grandfather near Tianshan, I have been looking forward to it. Can enter Tianshan again!"

Li Tian nodded and said, "Okay! Then it's so decided. Situ Ningbing, Barbarians, and Captain accompany me to the Tianshan Mountains, while you are responsible for staying at the Sunset Fortress."

"Liu Yihui, when I left Tianshan, you let go of your hands and feet to rectify. Those bounty hunters who were bitten by zombies, let go of the experiment, regardless of life or death!" Li Tian said to Liu Yihui with a serious face.

Liu Yihui nodded, and said with a smile: "Don't worry, the second batch of experiments has already begun. When you come back, there will be new results."

Xue Ji looked at Li Tian with an aggrieved expression, and said, "Li Tian, why am I staying at the Sunset Fortress again? You would rather lead the captain instead of me. I feel so sad!"

Seeing Xue Ji's grievances, Li Tian is also very big head. Since returning to Earth, Xue Ji's illusion skills have completely disappeared. Now Xue Ji's fighting method is a sniper rifle, but in the vast Tianshan Mountains, the power of the sniper rifle is far Can't play out, especially when encountering evolving people with supernatural powers like Red Wolf, guns are often restricted.

Li Tian had been thinking about how to improve his own strength and how to restore his skill, but he ignored Xue Ji's growth.

"Xue Ji, when I come back from Tianshan, I will teach you a set of exercises suitable for cultivating on the earth. Then you will not only be a sniper, but also a melee master. Then I can take you to the mission. That's it!" Li Tian knew that there were various exercises in the treasure house of the four elephant elders on the Tianshan Mountains, and as long as the four elephant elders were found and the four elephant elders wanted a set of exercises, they would never refuse.

"It's a deal!" Xue Ji heard that he could practice the earth's exercises, and immediately became excited, holding Li Tian's arm and happily putting her face on Li Tian's thick arm.

"Ahem! Show affection..."

Li Tian didn't blush, he put his arms around Situ Ningbing and Xue Ji and said, "If everything goes well this time, the day when our family reunite is really not far away!"

Situ Ningbing and the goddess Xueji felt Li Tian's true feelings and nodded heavily.

"Go, let's go! Enter Tianshan again, this time I will stain Tianshan with blood..." Li Tian said proudly.

Chapter 3304: Killing decisively (1)

The Tianshan Mountains are full of wind and snow, and dark gray snowflakes cover the Tianshan Mountains. The entire top of the Tianshan Mountains is a dark color, as if it was covered with a blanket.

The heroes of all walks of life have already entered the Tianshan Mountains from different directions, and they have begun a journey to find the four elephant elders, but this is not a simple journey of finding people, but a journey of killing.

At the foot of the world, in the town closest to Tianshan, the streets are full of corpses. There are low-level zombies, corpses of zombies, and human corpses. Judging from the clothing of these human corpses, you can see that these human corpses belong to In different organizations, different teams.

If you examine these corpses up close, you will find that the deadliest attacks on these corpses are basically caused by firearms.

On the tops of several low-rise buildings at both ends of the street, the muzzles of several sniper rifles are facing the center of the street. At the top of these buildings, a dozen men in heavy green military coats are curled up in the corners, and one man is holding them. The telescope was looking at the entrance of the street.

"The boss is really wise. This road to Tianshan is the most remote and the most dangerous, but there are still so many people who want to pass through here these days. As long as they stay here, people will keep coming to the door. , We can not only reduce the number of opponents entering Tianshan, but also rob them of these people. It is really good to kill two birds with one stone..." A man in his forties who was curled up in the corner with a mustache lit one. Yan took two deep breaths, and then said with enjoyment.

This man with a mustache is Hu Tiegang, and he is a core cadre member of the more well-known organization Jian Shen Zhan Ji in the northwest region.

The biggest feature of this organization is that all the core members of the team are expert gunners, especially sniper rifles. They dare not say that they are superb in their hands, but at least they are also proficient.

However, only the leader Zhou Wen and the two deputy heads of the organization, the Gun God Wars, entered Tianshan this time. All the other core cadres led a dozen people to each small town in Tianshan.

The purpose of Gun God War is very simple. They know that their organization has little chance of winning under the two organizations of Scarlet Blood and Sunset Fortress, but if they let them give up, they don't want to give up this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Finally, their head, Zhou Wen, made a decision. The head and two deputy regiments entered Tianshan and lurked, to see if there was a chance. The other core cadres are responsible for killing those who want to enter the Tianshan Mountains. They can kill as many as they can. If they can't, they can shoot some guns and ammunition.

"The commander is a great military strategist, revolutionary, and our life mentor in this long and dark end-time era. The commander Zhou Wen is naturally great!" A man immediately flattered.

"Hey, your flattering sucks, but it's a pity that Chief Zhou Wen is not here. It's useless for you to flatter him in front of Lao Tzu. Since you didn't care about the feelings of Lao Tzu, this tobacco is just No more for you!" Hu Tiegang said with a smile.

"No! Captain Hu has a good leadership. We will only fight in an ambush here. We have hundreds of corpse crystals in the second and third levels! This proves the correctness of Captain Hu from the side. !" The man immediately made up a flattery for Hu Tiegang.

"Hey, you guys still have eyesight!" Hu Tiegang took two puffs of cigarettes, slowly enjoying the spread of the smoke in his mouth, and then took another puff of cigarettes, and then he reluctantly passed the tobacco to his side and flattered him. Man.

After the flattering man next to him took the tobacco, he could only take a puff and had to pass it to the person below. In the last days, all supplies are in short supply. Tobacco is a luxury item, especially high-end cigarettes.

"Captain, another car is coming! One, two, three, four, there are a total of four people in the car, two men, two women, three adults and one child! Visually, these people have no firearms in their hands, and one person has a big knife next to him, but It is not ruled out that these people have guns in their vehicles, and they are basically determined to be a kind of super fat sheep!" The man in charge of the sentry collected the binoculars and squatted beside Hu Tiegang and said.

Hu Tiegang took the binoculars, held the binoculars, held them in his hands, and looked towards the entrance of the street. He really saw a Ford pickup truck dangling towards the streets of the town, and there were two men and two women in the pickup truck. Three of the four have happy smiles on their faces, talking and laughing.

"It's a fat sheep! Tell my brothers, get ready and settle it cleanly!" Hu Tiegang threw the telescope at the man on guard, then curled up in the corner and started smoking.

Li Tian, Situ Ningbing, Barbarian, and the captain after a day and a half of trek, finally returned to the town where they met Bai Jing.

There was laughter and laughter in the car, especially the barbarian. Seeing the roadside scenery, he kept telling Li Tian about his childhood life.

Listening to the story of the Barbarian General, Situ Ningbing and Li Tian couldn't help laughing. Only the captain, the zombie, didn't have much smile nerves, and didn't feel much about it.

While talking, the barbarian suddenly said to Li Tian gratefully: "My god, thank you very much. If I hadn't met you, now my barbarian would still follow Sister Bai Jing on this street for a little bit of pity. Struggling with food!"

"Speaking of a sincere conscience, it was Brother Tian that you saved all of us, and you also changed the fate of everyone, including my barbaric. I can't control other people, but my barbaric must be utterly insulted in this life. , After death, to repay your heavenly brother's kindness!"

The captain sitting in the passenger seat looked at the barbarian with some contempt.

Li Tian smiled slightly and said, "Barbarian, this is not your style! How come you have been with 2D for a few days and your brains are swelled? I learned to flatter you! I am not trying to repay you by Li Tian saving you. Life is not easy in the last days, and life is even harder. Don't think about death all the time, just drive well!"

Manzi showed a simple and honest smile, holding the steering wheel in one hand and touching his head in the other, and said, "I have been with sister Wang Rui for a long time, and I can't help being infected by her. But Brother Tian, what I said is the truth, but There is no point of flattering!"

Li Tian believes that whether it is Barbarian or Wang Rui, they are all sincerely grateful to Li Tian.

While speaking, a sniper rifle suddenly sounded, and the bullet passed directly through the windshield and hit the captain's chest.

Manzi was startled, and immediately turned the car around and rushed into a house facing the street.

Chapter 3305: Killing decisively (2)

"Idiot, stupid, mentally retarded! I told you the driver who opened the car, how did you hit the child in the co-pilot? That's just a child, why are you willing to kill her in the first place? Are you a pervert?" Hu Tiegang used a binoculars to see a gunman next to him hit the target. Seeing that the girl who was hit turned out to be the most incompetent girl, she couldn't help but get angry, slapped the gunman's head with her hands, and said.

The face of the gunman who was beaten and scolded was a little awkward. He didn't dare to tell Hu Tiegang that he was actually aiming at the driver, but because of the bump of the car, he suddenly turned, and the shot hit the girl in the passenger seat.

The pickup truck rammed into the front house facing the street, the windshield was shattered, and the barbarian's head also hit the windshield. The barbarian turned his head to look back at Li Tian and Situ Ningbing behind him. , Asked anxiously: "Brother Tian, Sister Ningbing, are you all right?"

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing were both sitting in the back row. Although there were varying degrees of trauma on their bodies due to the violent impact, none of them was serious.

Li Tian shook his head, and checked Situ Ningbing's body with concern, and found that Situ Ningbing was fine, and then he said, "We are fine, are you seriously injured?"

When Barbarian heard Li Tian said that he was okay, he felt relieved and said with a simple smile, "I can't die!"

Then the barbarian said angrily: "I just didn't expect that we would end up in our place. It's really a tiger that doesn't show off. They thought we were sick cats and didn't know whose site this was, so they dared to do something to us! , Don't stop me for a while, I must let my Azure Dragon Knife drink enough blood at once!"

"Barbarian, look at the captain, and see if she is seriously injured?" Li Tian asked with some worry when he saw the captain crawling on his body, motionless.

"Brother God, the captain...dead...dead! The  bullet hit the captain's heart! Ooo!" The barbarian lifted up the captain and saw the black hole flowing out of the bullet hole in the captain's chest. Hu Zhuo said with a sad face.

"You are dead! Your whole family is dead!" The captain pushed the barbarian away and said angrily: "I am a zombie, a level six zombie! Normal bullets don't even want to hurt me! This is just one It's just a bullet hole, it didn't even penetrate my skin layer!"

Seeing Manzi's appearance, Li Tian finally felt relieved, that Manzi was still the same as his original second product.

But the barbarians are really angry. In the past, the barbarians adhered to the principle that people don't offend me and I don't.

But in an era of the last days when the weak and the strong eat the strong, the barbarian found that his principle simply didn't work. Even if he returned to his former site, people would shoot straight away without saying hello!

Fortunately, it was the captain who hit this shot. If anyone else was hit, no matter who it was, the consequences would be unacceptable!

Li Tian is also angry.

Since returning to Earth, Li Tian has lost all his power, Li Tian has been very humble and low-key. But Li Tian found that his modest, low-key, was regarded as weakness by others.

From Wang Qiang to Huerle, from Huerle to Sumai, and so on, Li Tianke had tried to treat them badly, but because Li Tian's skill gradually recovered, he wanted to be above them, but they They all wanted to step on Li Tian.

In this apocalyptic era, Li Tian understood more and more that now he can no longer live with the pre-apocalyptic way of thinking.

If you want to survive, you must kill!

"Get out of the car, take our stuff, and kill!" Li Tian said angrily when he mentioned his backpack.

"Kill back! This town is our place!" Manzi said with pride when he got out of the car and waved the Azure Dragon Sword.

"Don't do it with you! They are my prey!" The captain, the little loli zombie, stretched out his hand to stop the barbarian and Li Tian, and said: "Furthermore, the opponent's hand is a powerful sniper rifle! You might get injured when you go out! "

"Hahaha, is my barbarian still afraid of those  sniper rifles?" the barbarian said aggressively.

"Ningbing, you and the barbarians are here for the first time, and I and the captain will kill! I want these  sneakers to know that I will anger Li Tian's end!" Li Tian said with a wave of "Red Cut" .

"Li, the captain is right, they are in the dark, and there are sniper rifles at us, you have to be careful!" Ouyang Ningbing looked at Li Tian affectionately, and said with some worry.

Li Tian nodded.

Hu Tiegang looked at the street facade where the car rushed in with a binoculars, and his sight moved to the silhouettes of the members of the gun  warriors who were slowly approaching this facade. Hu Tiegang said lightly: "All cheer up, I don't believe it. They were all killed in such an instant. The second team has gone down to besiege them, and the second team needs our cover!"

Hu Tiegang hadn't finished speaking yet, suddenly a black shadow rushed out of the front room. The black shadow was short and thin, but the speed of this shadow's transfer was extremely fast, which had completely exceeded the speed of human movement.

"That girl is not dead!" Hu Tiegang was startled, and suddenly he saw the girl's red pupils and glanced in the direction where he was.

"No, that girl is not a human being at all..., it's a zombie! She is about to shoot, the second team members are in danger!" Hu Tiegang shouted anxiously.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

Around Hu Tiegang, the sound of sniper rifles continued to sound, but for moving targets, sniper rifle gunners had difficulty hitting the target, not to mention a single shot.

"tear!"

"It's all rubbish! Look at me!" Hu Tiegang threw the binoculars aside, holding up his sniper rifle and preparing to shoot.

Through the scope, Hu Tiegang saw the little girl zombie, completely ignoring the second team member's machine gun shooting, and after a few longitudinal jumps, he avoided the bullet and directly pounced on one of the members.

"what!"

As a scream sounded, the girl zombie had torn apart the player's chest, and Bai Sensen's bone claws had penetrated the player's chest.

"Calm down! Calm down! A good sniper needs to stay calm even if he encounters any problems, otherwise his shooting percentage will be reduced a lot! I want to stay calm!" Hu Tiegang kept hinting to himself, as he started. Adjusting his breathing, his heartbeat became more and more stable.

"Okay! This gun level will kill you!" Hu Tiegang said calmly, having restored the confidence of a core cadre of the organization.

Chapter 3306: Killing decisively (3)

"Who killed?" Suddenly a cold voice came from behind Hu Tiegang. This voice was cold and full of murderous aura, and the most deadly thing was that it seemed to be close at hand!

Hu Tiegang turned around abruptly, but saw that the man sitting in the car had appeared on the roof of this low-rise building, a distance of ten meters away!

Like Hu Tiegang, the other snipers ambushing here turned around vigilantly at almost the same time.

"Wow!"

Almost at the same time, the sniper rifles in these people's hands were aimed at Li Tian at the same time, and there was a sneer at the corner of Li Tian's mouth.

When Li Tian said that sentence, "Hong Zhan" had already floated above a certain team member's head. The moment that team member had just turned around, Li Tian controlled "Red Zhan" and launched an attack!

"puff!"

A red light flashed, and a big head flew up and fell to the ground, rolling a few times before stopping.

The moment the blood dropped from his head, it sprayed from the neck of the hapless boy who dropped his head and splashed the people on his left and right.

After seeing Li Tian harvesting a player's head with a strange blade controlled by the Qi Yujian, Hu Tiegang finally realized who the man in front of him was?

Now, Li Tian's name has resounded through the real sunset fortress. Even in the northwest region, Li Tian, who uses Qi to defend his sword, is also a resounding character.

It's just that in the last days, unlike before the last days, the television network is developed. Even if it is a grassroots, as long as it is hyped, it can let the bottom of the country know him.

Although Li Tian is the only sixth-level bounty hunter in the Sunset Fortress, and even one of the tridents in the Sunset Fortress, his name is only loud in the Sunset Fortress, and not everyone knows Li Tian.

Not to mention other organizations in the northwest region. However, Hu Tiegang is the core cadre of the Gunshen Fighting History. Although he does not know Li Tian, he still heard the name of Li Tian, especially knowing Li Tian's standard moves: using Qi to fight the sword. !

"He is Li Tian! Kill him!" Hu Tiegang roared hissing.

In fact, there is no need for Hu Tiegang to issue orders. After "Red Zhan" chopped off the player's head, the other players had already launched an attack simultaneously.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

Several sniper rifle gunshots sounded, but they did not hit Li Tian. When the gunfire sounded, Li Tian's figure flashed, moving left and right to zigzag towards Hu Tiegang and the others.

"Red Zhan" drew a knife shadow in the air and flew back to Li Tian's hands. Li Tian smiled slightly and put "Red Zhan" away.

The current Li Tian is overly dependent on the Ten Jue Sword Qi, or on the "Red Slash", but this is also impossible. After all, Li Tian's skill has not fully recovered.

However, against a few ordinary people, Li Tian's "Red Slash" is just to give these sneak attackers who don't know the heights of the sky and earth to give them power!

Li Tian had already approached Hu Tiegang and the others in a few steps. Li Tian did not stop attacking when the broken line moved.

Xuantian fingering.

Li Tian had put away "Red Zhan" and opened his bow with both hands.

"Snapped!"

"Snapped!"

"Snapped!"

Continuous air bomb attacks attacked those players.

When Xuantian  was at close range, it was even more powerful than a pistol. Following Li Tian's Xuantian fingering, these team members were shot and fell to the ground.

"Damn! Fight with him!" Hu Tiegang threw the sniper rifle in his hand to the ground, and took out a mini submachine gun from the green army coat.

"Da da da!"

"Da da da!"

The machine gun bullet whizzed in Li Tian's ear, but Li Tian smiled more intensely! Because at this time Li Tian was only less than three meters away from Hu Tiegang in a straight line.

"drink!"

Li Tian let out a loud shout, his legs were like springs, and they burst out and ran towards Hu Tiegang.

"Da da da!"

The bullet of the miniature reunion gun in Hu Tiegang's hand "Whoo!" "Whoo!" rushed towards Li Tian, Li Tian shot down with both hands, and his body made the same incredible movement in the air, as if With the help of a second time in the air, he flew up a few inches.

These few inches just perfectly escaped the bullet fired by Hu Tiegang.

"Plap!" A cry!

Li Tian's body floated in midair for less than a second before he reached Hu Tiegang's front, stretched out his right palm, and slapped Hu Tiegang's head heavily.

After being shot, Li Tian took advantage of his force and flew directly backwards, a gorgeous twist in the air, landing steadily.

Broken soul palm!

Even if it is shot on the head of a fourth-level zombie, the soul palm can be killed by a single blow, not to mention ordinary human Hu Tiegang!

And what about Hu Tiegang?

I saw Hu Tiegang knelt to the ground softly, half of his body leaning on the micro submachine gun, not completely falling to the ground.

This is not over yet!

"Boom!" A sound.

Hu Tiegang's head seemed to be planted with a time bomb, and there was a violent explosion. With the violent explosion, the brain, skin, bones, and hair of Hu Tiegang's head were exploded in all directions.

Shocked, completely shocked.

Everyone present was stunned by Li Tian's attack and lost their consciousness of action.

"Patter!" After a few times, all the guns in their hands fell to the ground, looking at Li Tian in horror and surprise.

Quiet, deadly quiet.

They seemed to see that the man in front of them was the  of death, the  of murder. Against such a person, they may not even win the slightest.

"Guru!" I don't know who swallowed the saliva. The sound of swallowing saliva appeared extremely loud in the silence.

These people's legs were weak and almost fell to the ground.

And what about Li Tian?

kill!

kill!

kill!

Li Tian didn't mean to stop in the slightest, Xuantian's  once again exerted its power, and one by one gas bullets blasted into the heads of these dumbfounded people who had lost their sense of resistance.

But Li Tian didn't deliberately want to kill him, but left alive!

"Say!" Li Tian suddenly widened his eyes, stared at the man, and said a word.

"I said..., I said! We... are members of the Gun God War of the Years Organization. Our team leader is called Zhou Wen and has entered the Tianshan Mountains! We received his order to sniper here, and intend to kill. People who entered other organizations in Tianshan through here! Just now you have a palm...The one who was slapped to death is called Hu Tiegang, our captain! This...the corpse crystal in this skin is our harvest! I give it all to you! Please don't kill me!" The team member knelt on the ground, already frightened.

Li Tian frowned slightly, and said coldly: "It's too dirty to kill you! I want you to leave here alive. As long as you meet people, you will promote my Li Tian's strength. Sturdy, my Li Tian's killing is bold!"

Chapter 3307: Killing Tianshan (1)

Hidden in the room, the barbarian heard the sound of fighting outside, and could not bear it.

"No, I can't just hide like this. Even if I get hit by a bullet, I don't want to hide here like this. I want to be a strong man like Tiange!" Manzi yelled to persuade himself, and then raised Qinglong. The knife rushed out.

"Fuck me, no!" When Manzi rushed out with a knife, he saw the captain squatting in front of a pile of corpses, chewing on the broken limbs of these corpses.

The barbarian felt nauseated for a while, and started to retching when he bent over.

The captain saw the retching barbarian, as if he was still not disgusting enough, he even opened his * mouth to give the barbarian a kind smile, then stretched out his hand and handed a stump in his palm to the barbarian, very friendly. Asked: "It tastes great, do you want some more!"

"Wow!" The barbarian was already nauseous enough, but now he couldn't help but vomited out all of a sudden.

"Captain, you shouldn't deliberately punish the barbarians! Now it is estimated that he even spit out the morning meal!" Situ Ningbing also walked out and said to the captain.

The captain nodded, then smiled, and said, "But it's really delicious. I haven't eaten for a long time! Would you like to have some?"

Situ Ningbing frowned slightly, she had seen too many killings, and cannibalism happened in ancient history, but let her experience it in person, but it was another feeling.

"I don't know what happened to Brother Tian?" He just said that he was vomiting, but he finally calmed down. The barbarian who said such a caring about Li Tian saw that the captain handed the stump to Situ Ningbing again. , And couldn't help but began to vomit.

"Spit it! Spit it! Just get used to it!" The captain gnawed the stump in his hand like a chicken paw, and looked at the barbarian unscrupulously.

At this time, Li Tian had already walked back and said calmly: "There are a dozen people hidden on the roof. These people are from the Gunshenshi. They kill people who pass by here, not deliberately targeting us. . So I didn't rush to kill them all!"

"Brother Tian? They want to kill us, how can you let them go? You don't kill, let me kill! My Azure Dragon Sword is already hungry and thirsty!" The Manzi said a little angrily.

"Are you eating?" The captain picked up another stump, handed it to the barbarian, and asked.

"Wow!" The barbarian began to vomit again.

Situ Ningbing walked to Li Tian and said with some worry: "Li, I know that you are kind and kind, and don't want to attack innocent people. But they are not included. Fortunately, the shot was shot at the captain. If it hits the rest of us, the consequences will be really disastrous!"

The person who had just followed Li Tian tremblingly, prepared to follow Li Tian, and prepared to let Li Tian let him escape from the gun * warrior. When he heard Li Tian said that he had not rushed to kill him, his heart was cold and he almost sat on the ground. , When Situ Ningbing said that Li Tian was kind and kind in his heart, this team member really wanted to crawl on the ground and cry.

"A liar, a liar, what kind of means did Li Tian, the big demon and liar, use to convince this beautiful woman that he is a kind person!"

"I was wrong!" Li Tian behaved like a child, with a smile on his face and said: "The husband is very difficult to chase after a word. I have promised to let him go. I can't let me break my promise! Hahaha! "

Manzi thought in his heart: "Your heavenly brother has broken his promise a lot!"

"In that case, let him go! But I promise from now on, I will never let an enemy go, hehe, gods block and kill gods, Buddha blocks and kill Buddhas, we kill all the way up to the Tianshan Mountains and make a  road! "No matter what Manzi thinks, Li Tiancai clenched his hands and said loudly.

"Okay!" Barbarian and Captain replied in unison.

Halfway up the Tianshan Mountains, here is almost covered by snow, without any vegetation attached. On the gray snow, a series of blood was particularly eye-catching.

One person was wounded, half bent over, and moved slowly in front, but less than tens of meters behind this person, with a smile on the face of Scarlet Blood, he was not in a hurry to chase this person, and walked slowly along the blood stain With.

"Red Tiger! We have no grievances and no grudges against you, why do you want to kill them all!" the man who ran away in front said angrily as he ran.

But this kind of anger has no strength, like the bitter pleading of a dying person. As soon as he said it, it was blown away by the north wind.

Chihu, the No. 2 person in the blood, is also from prison. Chihu is not a criminal in essence, but because of unjust, false and wrong cases, he was charged with murder.

His family has been redressing grievances continuously, but unfortunately his parents also died on the road of redressing grievances.

Therefore, after the apocalyptic crisis broke out, Chihu directly joined the Crimson team without hesitation.

If you think that Red Tiger became the second in command of Red Blood because of the first team to join Red Blood, then you are making a mistake.

The strength of Chihu is a bit worse than that of Chixue and Chiwolf, but this person naturally has his advantages, that is, in addition to his good combat power, he is also a very powerful mutant, a lurker. . It is precisely because of this ability that he was able to lurch on the Tianshan Mountains and kill the entire team of fugitives one by one.

Chihu still heard this man's pleading, or rather angry, and said with a sneer: "All are smart people, why do you have to pretend to be stupid? If your strength is stronger than mine, Chihu should be the one running away now. At that time, will you let me go with kindness"

The wounded person felt the wound on his body coagulated several times and broke open several times as a result of escaping. If he continues to run like this, he will definitely die from excessive blood loss.

To run is to die, and to not run is to die. It is better to change the angle to beg for mercy, and it may have effect.

Thinking of this, the runaway stopped and turned to face the red tiger who had already caught up, panting heavily.

"Oh, have you given up running away? Yes, you should have had such a dead consciousness long ago. Instead of running away like this, it is better to die happily, so you can live more comfortably!" Chihu said with a sneer.

The escaper gritted his teeth and said, "Red Tiger, I know I shouldn't come here. As long as you let me go, I will go down the mountain immediately, and immortality will not be half a step into the Tianshan Mountains. If your Red Blood Organization competes with the Sunset Fortress In Tianshan, support is needed, and our organization can support you unconditionally!"

Chapter 3308: Kill Tianshan (2)

"Yeah, this condition sounds quite tempting! The condition of unconditionally supporting Scarlet Blood is to let me let you go? Now I am thinking about a question, what if the person chasing you right now is from Sunset Fortress? You? What would you say? Do you mean to support Sunset Fortress unconditionally?" Chihu said with a mocking smile on his lips.

Hearing what Chihu said, the escaper's heart was chilled, knowing that no matter how much he begs for mercy, Chihu might not be able to let him go.

"Red Tiger, don't push people too much, the rabbit bites when you are anxious! Do you really think I'm afraid you won't make it?" The escaper sneaked his hand into his arms, and he held a grenade in his arms. In the hands, ready to die with Chihu at any time!

"Since you are not afraid of me, then you go to die!" Chihu said with a frantic smile, and suddenly raised his hand to draw the escaper towards himself.

"Boom!" With a sound, the grenade exploded, and the hot air created by the explosion stopped the wind and snow nearby for a while, and then the violent snow storm came even more violently.

The explosion happened, but it was not the escaper who triggered the grenade.

The red tiger slid back several meters continuously, avoiding the explosion, and looking up at the snow-capped mountain slopes, several figures suddenly appeared.

And the escaper? Although he did not detonate the grenade, he was attacked by a bazooka shell. As the shell exploded, the escaper was also blown apart.

"It's a pity that we didn't hit it! But fortunately, at least we hit a bloodless guy who intended to take refuge in red blood!" The smoke dissipated, and a strong man carried an m72 bazooka and said indifferently.

"Yes, the boss said, we can kill anyone in the Tianshan Mountains as long as they are not from the Sunset Fortress, let alone a guy who wants to take refuge in the blood!" said a sharp voice beside the strong man.

"You Lao San, didn't you despise Jia Youlong for not being able to defeat the Scarlet Wolf, now your chance has come. Although the person in front of you is not the Scarlet Wolf, he is also the number two character of Scarlet Blood, the resounding Scarlet Tiger! , Your chance to show is here!" said an extremely charming female voice.

The owner of that sharp voice was You Lao San, the second person in the Assassination Department of the Sunset Fortress, and the only strong player in the Assassination Department than Cai Longquan.

You Lao San sneered a few times, and said with some contempt: "Little Red Tiger, that's not something that can be captured by hand, but the opponent is not Red Wolf and Red Blood, I really can't beat myself!"

Chihu was ill without the provocation of You Lao San and others, and lost his mind. After ten years of surviving in prison, Chihu learned how to survive forbearingly.

With the wind and snow, the Red Tiger kept retreating, and suddenly the Red Tiger climbed on the snow, and then disappeared from the sight of everyone.

"You Lao San, let you brag again, now you are blown away by you!" Seeing that the red tiger suddenly disappeared, the strong man carrying the rocket launcher immediately laughed.

"Stop his nonsense, I don't want where he can escape first! Use your cannon to blast me out!" You Lao San said to the strong man.

"Yours is a cannon, I am a serious bazooka!" The strong man was dissatisfied with the fact that you didn't know the goods, but he reloaded quickly and fired several cannonballs at the place where the red tiger just disappeared.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

After several shells were shot out, apart from a few snow pits, there was no Red Tiger in the snow.

"Impossible! This Scarlet Tiger is a bit too evil, right!" How long has he been able to escape from under our nose? "The strong man touched his head and said in disbelief.

"Over there!" After all, you are the core figure of the assassination department. Although the wind and snow are precarious, his eyes are still very sharp. After several cannonballs are fired, you have keenly discovered a cloud of gray shadow. Move quickly on the ground.

Seeing the dull shadow moving, You Lao San rushed out without hesitation.

You Lao San's weapon is also the most common three-row army stab. The biggest feature of this army stab is that it has a blood tank. As long as it is stabbed by this army stab, the wound is difficult to heal without special first aid, and the injured will lose blood. More and die.

And as You Lao San rushed out of the team, several people in the team followed You Lao San in order, and came towards the gray shadow.

"Huh!" With a sound, the army thorn in your hand pierced a falling snowflake and first reached the group of gray shadows.

"Puff!" You Old San made a hit.

But the face of You Lao San showed horror, because although the blow was successful, the assassination felt clearly not that it stabbed a person, it was more like a sack!

"That's bad!" You Lao San was startled, turned around abruptly, and looked back.

The north wind was blowing with snowflakes and charming eyes. The moment You Old San turned around, he heard a scream from the strong man in the snow.

"Ah! Chi... Chihu..."

The brawny man's eyes widened, and he looked at the red tiger who suddenly appeared in front of him in disbelief, while the brawny man's abdomen was constantly flowing out of the brawny man's intestines with a one-foot-wide blade.

Chihu succeeded with a single blow and immediately disappeared in the wind and snow.

It took another half a day for Li Tian, Situ Ningbing, Barbarian and the captain to reach the halfway point of the Tianshan Mountains. The road was not peaceful.

Just as Li Tian said, Li Tian and the others killed the Tianshan all the way.

Everyone who entered the Tianshan Mountains had red eyes, as long as they were in sight, they would attack without hesitation.

The Barbarian's Azure Dragon Sabre finally no longer hunger and thirst, the Azure Dragon Saber drank a lot of blood, and the Barbarian's face was a bit more murderous.

What made the Manzi even more satisfied was that the Azure Dragon Sword could actually drink blood. After killing, the blood stains on the Azure Dragon Sword would only be absorbed for a few seconds.

And on the Qinglong knife after absorbing the blood, the two Qinglong swords are more lifelike, and the blade is sharper.

Sure enough, it is the heirloom of the Cai Longquan family of weapons.

"Brother Tian, there is an explosion in front of you! Let's kill it!" With the support of the Qinglong Sword, the barbarian said with some pride.

"Kill it!" Li Tian replied directly without any hesitation.

Seeing Li Tian's changes, whether it was Situ Ningbing or Barbarian, they felt a strong sense of security in their hearts. This is the Li Tian they want to see.

Since I said that I would kill the Tianshan Mountains, then Li Tian must do what I said. There is no one who has entered the Tianshan Mountains this time to make Li Tian worthy of mercy!

"Kill!" The barbarian also shouted excitedly.

As soon as Manzi finished speaking, there was another loud noise from above not far away.

"boom!"

With this loud noise, a black figure floated down from the snowy mountain and was smashing towards Li Tian and others!

Chapter 3309: Children will not lie

The person who floated down was not someone else, it was the youngest member of the sunset fortress. Although youngest member of You was not injured at this time, his appearance was also very embarrassed, his hair was messy, and his clothes were cut a few times. But his face was full of horror.

Yes, it was panic.

It was the fear of Chihu, the fear of death.

You Lao San, a brawny man, a charming woman and a five-person combat team, were looking for a target on the mid-levels of the Tianshan Mountains. Their target was not the old four elephants, but people from other organizations.

As long as they find people, without exception, they become their dead souls. In this short day, at least dozens of corpses have been completely frozen on the Tianshan Mountain under their knife.

Their killing along the way went smoothly. At first, they were still cautious and relaxed. As long as they saw a figure, they would not hesitate to catch up and kill his life.

Who knew they were in trouble when they met Chihu.

The red tiger is good at hiding, especially in the snowy area of Tianshan Mountain, in the wind and snow environment, the red tiger's hiding technology has been brought into full play.

Chihu was out of sight, even the five people like You Lao San weren't Chihu's opponents at all. In just a few rounds, the brawny man who struck first was cut through his stomach by the red tiger. He looked at the brawny man in pain, desperately trying to stuff the intestines that had flowed into his stomach. You Lao San and others It was also red eyes, desperately looking for the red tiger in the snow.

However, this happened to hit the trap of Chihu. As soon as You Lao San and the others separated, they gave Chihu a chance to break through. Starting from the strong man, the other team members fell one after another.

If it weren't for the assassination department's background, the youngest of you is extremely keen on danger, I am afraid that at this time you can only escape or have become the dead soul of the red tiger.

You Lao San detonated a grenade and fled down the mountain in the smoke from the grenade. But Chihu didn't panic, slowly chasing behind, just as he chased the escaper at first.

Chihu is strolling in a leisurely courtyard, and the entire Tianshan Mountain is like his back garden.

With horror on the face of Oldest You, he naturally panicked when he escaped. He jumped directly off a cliff that was more than two long high, and just floated above Li Tian and the others.

You Lao San is not without skills, since he can be the second person in the Assassination Department of the Sunset Fortress, his skills are naturally good.

It's just that when fighting against Chihu, he couldn't locate Chihu at all. Most of the time, Chihu was in the position of a sneak attacker, while the assassin You Laosan was in a position to be beaten.

Leaping off the cliff, You Laosan saw Li Tian and others under the cliff slowly walking on the net. The moment you saw Li Tian, You Laosan felt joy from the heart!

"Li Tian! It's Li Tian!"

Li Tian's sturdy strength is one of the tridents of the Sunset Fortress, and it is the No. 3 mission of the Sunset Fortress. As long as Li Tian is by his side, even the Scarlet Tiger must be carefully weighed.

But You Lao San also knew in his heart that since Li Tian joined the Sunset Fortress, Li Tian has shown a non-cooperative attitude, and his attitude towards Yang Qingyun's boss is not very friendly.

Therefore, before entering Tianshan this time, Boss Yang Qingyun had secretly issued an order. Once Li Tian violated his order and left the Sunset Fortress and entered the Tianshan Mountains, all the core cadres in the Sunset Fortress could kill Li Tian on the spot.

But the current Oldest You didn't want to kill Li Tian, and Li Tian didn't know the order issued by Yang Qingyun. In this case, Li Tianlai prevented the red tiger from pursuing it, which was more conducive to You Lao San's escape.

The moment You Laosan saw Li Tian, Li Tian also saw You Laosan.

Unlike You Laosan when he saw Li Tian's surprise, Li Tian pulled out "Red Zhan" in a flash after seeing You Laosan, and controlled the "Red Zhan" to attack You Laosan who had not yet landed.

"No!" You Laosan's face suddenly became more frightened. He wanted to flee desperately, but he could not change the fact that his body was still falling.

"Li Tian! I'm my own..." You Laosan's words were swept away by the north wind and blew cleanly.

"Huh!"

A red light flashed, and "Red Slash" brushed across You Old San's neck cleanly, and the sharpness of "Red Slash" was vividly displayed at this moment.

"Puff!" With a sound, Oldest You was cut in two with a single knife.

The blood splattered all over, and when it first splashed out, it was swept up by the cold wind and turned into a flower of learning, slowly falling. After You Lao San's head fell to the ground, he kept rolling down the Tianshan Mountain, but his body hit the ground heavily.

"Brother Tian, you seem to have killed the wrong person! This person, it seems that this person is from Sunset Fortress!" The Barbarian said with some uncertainty.

"I also seem to hear him calling your name, as if it is my own!" Situ Ningbing also said.

Li Tian didn't care, he laughed and said, "You must be auditory hallucinations, how is this possible? If he is really from the sunset fortress, he will not suddenly jump off the cliff and prepare to attack us!"

The subtext in Li Tian's heart is, "Even if I kill the wrong person, Li Tian will tell you? What if I kill the wrong person? I would rather kill a thousand by mistake than let one go, this can blame him. Unfortunately, I rushed into the range of Li Tian's attack for no reason."

"It should be correct! I'm afraid Brother Tian, you really killed the wrong person!" The barbarian was still struggling with this problem. He walked to the corpse of Oldest You, found a badge of the sunset fortress, and passed the badge. Said to Li Tian.

"Brother Tian definitely didn't kill the wrong person. I clearly heard that that person was talking about Li Tian, who took his life! As for the badge, it is entirely possible that someone faked it. For example, we killed him and then put the badge on It's like this on us." Li Tian, the sinister guy, immediately controlled the captain and said.

"Hahaha, look, I didn't kill the wrong person as expected, the captain is still a child, and children will not deceive!" Li Tian stroked the captain's head and said with an embarrassing smile.

"But Brother Tian..." Manzi still wanted to entangle this question, but was suddenly interrupted by Situ Ningbing.

"Li, there are other people on the cliff, let's leave here quickly!" Situ Ningbing said hastily.

Li Tian and the others looked at the direction of Situ Ningbing's fingers at the same time, but saw a dark shadow standing in the direction of the cliff top in the violent storm and snow.

Chapter 3310: Zhan Chihu

Chihu stood on the cliff, carrying on his shoulders the bazooka that the brawny had just dropped. The original purpose of Chihu was to come to You San, but when he stood on the edge of the cliff, he happened to see Li Tian controlling With "Red Cut", You Old San was cut off.

"It turned out to be Li Tian! I didn't expect that today's luck was so good! Hahaha, I just killed a few core cadres of the Sunset Fortress, and met Li Tian, one of the sunset Fortress's tridents. It seems that today is destined to be When I became famous for the Red Tiger!" The Red Tiger fought the bazooka with a wild smile and pulled the trigger.

"Wow!" A rocket pierced the howling north wind and flew towards Li Tian and others!

If this rocket strikes down, even if Li Tian and the others are not dead, they will at least evade in a hurry, and they will inevitably be harmed.

Hearing the sound of the roaring rockets, Situ Ningbing, the barbarians, including the captain, all had a cold face, and rushed to the side.

"Red cut!"

Li Tian burst out loudly, "Red Zhan" with this burst of burst to the rocket that came galloping!

"Hong Zhan" passed the rocket that had been launched in mid-air, and directly split the rocket into two, "Boom! "With a sound, the broken rocket exploded in midair.

In the midair, the fire was everywhere. The monoliths fell slowly like snow, but they were all shot down by the weapons in the hands of the Barbarian and others.

"Humph! I'm not wrong! I must have killed the wrong person!" Li Tian said with a cold snort.

Li Tian didn't stay at all, and continued to control the "Red Zhan" attack to the dark shadow. At this time, Li Tian quickly rushed to the cliff.

The red tiger on the cliff saw that the rocket was chopped in half by the "Red Cut" controlled by Li Tian, he couldn't help but was taken aback, and then laughed hard, "Sure enough, it is one of the tridents of Sunset Fortress, the third The number one, the strength really should not be underestimated!"

The words fell, Chihu threw the bazooka aside and disappeared in the wind and snow.

Li Tian first arrived at the top of the cliff, but found that apart from a few corpses not far away, leaving some traces of explosive fighting, there was no trace of the attacker on the top of the cliff, and even the trace of the attacker was not seen. To.

Li Tian immediately became alert. In this case, the assailant must have been hiding, and the assailant was hiding so concealed. Once an attack is launched, it will inevitably cause fatal injuries to Li Tian and others.

"Red Zhan" slowly rotated around Li Tian's body, and Li Tian swept his surroundings vigilantly.

"Brother Tian! What about people? Why did you run away in a blink of an eye?" Manzi also climbed up, holding the Qinglong knife, and asked vigilantly.

Situ Ningbing followed Li Tian and the others as he looked at the corpse lying stumblingly not far in front, and carefully checked the wound on the corpse.

Seeing these wounds, Situ Ningbing's brows wrinkled slightly, and his face was a bit serious and said to Li Tian: "Li, among these dead bodies, there are four with the badges of the sunset fortress, and the other one is already disabled. Limb, I don't know who is in that organization."

Situ Ningbing used a military thorn to move the frozen intestines of the strong man aside, pointed at the wound with a military thorn, and continued: "Li, you all look at this wound."

"Judging from these wounds, the attacker was able to use the knife. Once the knife was cut, the corpse's abdomen was completely cut. The wound was flat and smooth, and there were no traces of secondary force. The bottom-to-top incision can be judged. Out, this attacker succeeded in a sudden attack directly from below."

Situ Ningbing gestured the military thorn in his hand, and then said: "If the attacker is standing up and attacking, then the wound should be inclined, and the wound of this corpse is basically stable, combining with several other corpses. I can basically tell that this assailant is a good at concealing a sneak attack. Using concealment, he suddenly launched an attack, slashing the abdomen of the assailant, achieving a fatal effect."

It is undeniable that Situ Ningbing as the killer, based on the analysis of the dead body, reached a conclusion that is very close to the truth.

Li Tian approves of Situ Ningbing's analysis.

This cliff is only two feet high, and Li Tian's skill, rushing from the cliff to the top of the cliff, is only a few seconds, but when Li Tian came up, and the person had disappeared, and The person didn't even leave any traces, which confirmed Situ Ningbing's judgment from the side.

"Barbarian, Captain, both of you get closer to me, don't get too far away. Captain, on the right, you follow the Captain Barbarian, Situ Ningbing follows the Captain, and I will follow Behind the Manzi. We must maintain the word formation, so that we can take care of each other." Li Tian said to the Manzi and the captain.

At the beginning, you and the others were so far apart that they gave the Red Tiger a chance to attack. If you and the five of them hugged each other to support each other for attack and defense, they would at least not be attacked so quickly. Chihu beheaded.

Li Tian made this arrangement because the team leader is a zombie. As long as the corpse crystal in his head is not broken, even if the arm or leg is broken, the team leader is still vigorous. Such a formation can maximize the ability of the team leader.

And Li Tian has "Red Zhan" beside him, and "Red Zhan" keeps rotating around Li Tian's body. Once something unexpected happens, Li Tian can control "Red Zhan" to give the attacker a fatal blow at the first time. .

But Barbarian and Situ Ningbing can move forward with confidence under the protection of Captain and Li Tian.

Li Tian and others did not dare to stay in this place. Although the speed of movement was much slower, they did not stop for a moment and kept crawling up the Tianshan Mountains.

In the snow not far from Li Tian and the others, a gray shadow has been following Li Tian and the others. And this dull shadow is Chihu.

Chihu saw Li Tian and their formation with an unconscious smile on the corner of his mouth, and sneered in his heart: "Hey, did you think you could avoid my sneak attack and assassination? It's really naive!"

The dark shadow followed Li Tian and others unhurriedly, while Chihu kept calculating the time and distance required for Li Tian's "Red Zhan" to hover in a circle.

"Fifteen seconds!"

After more than half an hour of tracking, Chihu calculated the time required for Li Tian to control the "Red Zhan" centered on him and make a circle over the bodies of Situ Ningbing, Captain, and Barbarian.

"It's fifteen seconds! In this way, if you sneak attack on that woman, Li Tian controls Hong Zhan to come back from the far end to rescue this woman. It will take nearly five seconds. This time is enough for my Red Tiger to launch an attack and Hidden and escaped quickly!" But Chihu began to move slowly towards Situ Ningbing.
