

A Killer 3401

Chapter 3401: Batrider

This little Tianyi had swallowed many low-level corpse crystals before. The power of the original corpse contained in these corpse crystals was stored in that little Tianyi's body, plus the little Tianyi swallowed at least several ninth-level corpses this evening. Corpse crystals, the power of the original corpse crystals in these corpse crystals finally assembled, and finally reached a change at this time.

In the middle of the sky, countless blue rays of light burst out of Xiao Tianyi's body. These blue rays completely covered Xiao Tianyi's chubby body, as if a blue chubby baby Kongming lantern suddenly appeared in the sky. .

And what about mutant bats?

After swallowing the power of the pure corpse of the zombie, the power of the pure corpse is flowing in the body of the mutant bat. Now it has swallowed so many zombie crystals, the corpse contained in these zombies. The power of fusion and collision with the power of the original corpse already stored in the mutant bat.

Under the circumstances, this mutant bat unexpectedly started its second promotion within a day.

The power of the pale blue corpse and the earth-yellow corpse collided and merged in the body of the mutant bat.

The wings of the mutant bat seem to have been enlarged, and it is growing almost at a speed visible to the naked eye. The small hairs on the wings have grown into pinky-sized feathers at this moment, and the mutant bat's pair The sharp claws, as if they had been rebuilt in a furnace, turned into a scarlet sickle outfit, which was extremely conspicuous in the darkness.

The bat's head has also become larger, and the long mouth has grown a little longer at this moment. In the mouth, the fangs are sharp, as if one bite can tear the head of the ninth-level zombie.

Of course, it is impossible for a bat's wings to grow feathers, and it is impossible for its claws to be a sickle. There is only one possibility, that is, this mutant bat has mutated at this moment.

This sudden change suddenly attracted the attention of the crow-saving knights in the air. All these crow-saving knights stopped attacking and stayed in the air, watching the abnormality of the little Tianyi and the little bat.

Suddenly, the little bat uttered a scream. The scream was particularly harsh, like a sword that pierced the sky, and the crows began to tremble at this moment.

That's right, the end times are the era of the weak and the strong. The zombies are like this, and the zombies are the same.

These zombies are zombies controlled by the guardian zombies. They dare not disobey the guardian, but the guardian zombies are not here now, and the body shape of the mutated bat is like a big peng bird, with its light appearance and chirping. The voice has made these wandering crows terrified.

And at this moment, Xiao Tianyi was also promoted. The little Tianyi did not seem to have changed much, but countless black hairs grew on the top of Xiao Tianyi's head. At this time, these black hairs stood upside down, which shows that at this time Xiao Tianyi's body is also full of powerful power.

"Haha, Xiao Tianyi's body hasn't grown much, but after he has black hair, he looks a little bigger." Tang Xiaolong said.

"Mutated bats have changed even more. They used to look like vultures, lacking a little bit of heroism. Isn't that good now, like Dapeng! Now mutant bats can be equipped with Xiaotianyi." Manzi said.

The barbarian continued, "They have Raven Riders, and we have Batriders!"

The brigade, Situ Ningbing, and Xue Ji all had smiles on their faces, looking at the little Tianyi with joy.

"kill!"

This was the second word Xiao Tianyi said. The first word was eat, but the soldier was eaten to death for forty. Now it was killing. This little Tianyi immediately burst into power. The fighting spirit.

And the mutant bat sensed the little master's fighting will, and immediately rushed into the group of Raven Crow Knights with Xiao Tianyi.

The Zombie Rider is a ninth-level zombie, and it is simply unable to compete with Xiaotianyi, the latest tenth-level zombie, and that zombie will not mutate the bat's opponent at this time.

With a few strokes of the red sickle's claws, there was not a single piece of feather left on the feathers of a crow's wing. Although the crow was not dead, it had fallen from the air. And what about the Rider on the Raven?

Already caught by Xiao Tianyi's chubby hand, Xiao chubby reached out his hand into the crow knight's head, took out the corpse crystal and stuffed it into his mouth, and then Xiao Tianyi divided the corpse again and again. The crow knight tore into several pieces, these broken corpses were directly thrown out by Xiao Tianyi, and several crow knights crackled down.

"Huh!" A red light flashed, and "Red Slash" flew from the ground into the sky again, beheading a crow-saving knight.

Whether it is "Red Slash" or Batrider, the overall strength is much higher than that of the Raven Rider. In this way, those Raven Riders are like living targets in midair, being "Red Slash" and Xiaotianyi. Beheaded back and forth.

At this time, the crow-saving knights seemed to have gone. The first crow-saving knight began to run away, and the other crow-saving knights immediately followed.

Little Tianyi seemed to be a little bit uncomfortable. With the "Red Slash" hunting all the way, he killed another ten crow knights before flying back.

As soon as Xiao Tianyi returned to the ground, it immediately became the focus of everyone and the zombies.

"Brother Li Tian, this fat boy is not bad. He can be promoted in the battle. This is what many zombies dream of! And this big bird is equally good. If there weren't both of them today, our zombie garden would at least More than half dead." Shen Yunyang said excitedly.

Although Li Tian was happy in his heart, he pretended that this is not the same thing, and said: "This time it is an air battle. The combination of Little Tianyi and Little Bat is more dominant. If it is fighting on the ground, my brothers will let you Even more surprised!"

"Now I'm very surprised. For example, the black black brother, this fist is almost the same as our ten-level zombies! And these two beauties are also women who are not shaved." Shen Yunyang said.

Shen Yunyang's expression was very sincere, Tang Xiaolong and others showed their faces in front of the Zombie Garden, naturally they were also very happy.

"I don't know how much the Zombie Garden lost tonight!" Li Tianyong said heavily.

Soon, statistics came out. Tonight, the Zombie Garden suffered serious losses. Sixteen ninth-level zombies died, 21 were injured, and one tenth-level zombie was injured. The sacrifices of the Raven Riders were even greater. Fifty-three dead crow corpses were found, and 47 of the Raven Rider's corpses were found. In terms of the number of casualties, the Zombie Garden was a complete victory.

"Thank you! If you don't have you today, I'm afraid we will have at least a hundred zombies dead here!" Shen Yunyang said.

Then Shen Yunyang whispered to Li Tian: "Brother Li Tian, as I told you in the evening, if this situation continues for a year or two, our zombie garden may completely disappear. So, I have one. Improper request, please promise me!"

Chapter 3402: Shen Yunyang's request

Other high-level zombies are responsible for starting to clean the battlefield. Little Tianyi and Little Bat have become the favorite VIP guests of those high-level zombies. As long as there are corpse crystals and zombie crystals, they will be handed over to these two foodies, and the captain will soon hang on Xiaotianyi. A small skin sac in front of the neck was bulged by those high-level corpse crystals.

"This is a ninth-level corpse crystal! It was eaten by Xiaotianyi as dry food! What a waste!" Li Tian's heart was bleeding.

Li Tian still remembers the excitement when he first got the nine-color corpse crystal, but now is this nine-level corpse crystal worthless? Is it already rotten cabbage? But when Li Tian saw the ninth-level corpse crystal in Xiao Tianyi's hand, he couldn't help but was stunned. The appearance of the ninth-level corpse crystal and the nine-color corpse crystal on his chest were almost the same, but you have to look carefully. But there are some differences.

But when it comes to the difference between the two, Li Tian can't fully say.

Shen Yunyang looked at Li Tian with a look of embarrassment. He did not expect that what he said would be released by Li Tian like air.

"Brother Li Tian, please be sure to agree to my request!" Shen Yunyang repeated his words again, and at this time, in order to attract Li Tian's attention, he deliberately stretched out Li Tian's sleeve.

"You can tell me what's going on first! You also know that Li Tian is pretty good in the northwest region, but if I get to Beitang, I may not be the strongest. I have limited abilities for some things, I'm afraid I can't help it. And lack of power!" In this apocalyptic era, Li Tian has also learned how to behave and some treacherousness. You can't let Li Tian go to death. Li Tian will go and die!

"It's not very convenient to talk here. Please, Brother Li Tian, please move. Let's go to the small island in the middle of the lake to have a chat!" Shen Yunyang stepped off the fence and walked towards the lake.

Li Tian could only follow the fence and speed up a few steps to keep up with Shen Yunyang's speed.

At the beginning of summer, the temperature is suitable at night, the breeze blows, and there is some water vapor, which gives people an extremely comfortable feeling.

If before the end of the world, in this park, street lights are looming in the shade of the trees, square dance music is curling up, and the grandparents who have had dinner will walk slowly along the road by the lake to exercise, this will be a peaceful picture.

But at this moment, the corpse of a zombie was lying down on the road by the lake, and there was still a zombie's body floating on the lake. Those senior zombies were salvaging by boat. This picture is so beautiful that Li Tian dare not think about it. .

Across the zigzag corridor on the lake, Li Tian followed Shen Yunyang to the pavilion in the middle of the island in the lake.

There are some benches on three sides of the pavilion on the island of Huxin, and there are stone tables and stools in the middle, and there is a chess board from the Chu River and Han circles on the stone table top. Li Tian and Shen Yunyang are left and right, sitting on both sides of the chess board.

Li Tian straightforwardly said, "Please tell me!"

Looking at the boat that was salvaging the corpses, Shen Yunyang said: "There are corpses in Beitang, there are zombies guarding the corpses, and the zombie riders who guard the zombies, and their purpose is to rule Beitang and control Beitang. Become a unified zombie kingdom."

"I think the brothers are people with grandeur, great wisdom, and big ideas. In the future, the heavens will inevitably move from the west to the east and unite the various forces in the east. However, if the situation I just mentioned occurs, the future will be for Brother Li Tian The eastward advance of Tianjie to win the first major city in the northwest region will become a great resistance."

"And if Brother Li Tian can unite with our Zombie Garden to eradicate the corpses in Beitang, eradicate the guardian zombies, and use those zombie knights for their own use, then for the heavens, for you, Li Tian, and eradicate The obstacles to the future, an additional ally, and an additional air combat unit, this is a great advantage without any harm!"

"Moreover, now is our best time. The guardian zombie's mount mutant crow is now seeking a breakthrough in the Tashan Temple. The current guardian zombie without the mount mutant crow is only level 12. As long as we cooperate properly, the Guardian Zombie is not considered unbreakable. But once the Guardian Zombie's Mount Mutant Raven breaks through to level 6, he is really more powerful. By then, our zombie garden will probably not last for a few days. "

"And once the Guardian zombies unify Beitang City, his strength will inevitably increase again at that time, and at that time, even if the zombies in our Zombie Garden escape by chance, I am afraid we can do nothing!"

Li Tian didn't speak, Li Tian would analyze the pros and cons by himself, instead of listening to him Shen Yunyang boasting.

But it is undeniable that many things Shen Yunyang are still talking about.

The vast northwest area is now within Li Tian's control, and Li Tian is now a prince.

But the princes of this party did not go as they wanted. The Bounty Hunters Association was not managed by Li Tian, and people like Liu Jun dared to show off in the heavens.

There are also several ten legions such as the Yin and Yang Gate, although they have not encroached on the heavens and the west, but once the west becomes a paradise for human life, the ten legions will inevitably march westward.

Li Tian didn't want the world he finally built to become a wedding dress for others.

If this Beitang is defeated, the pass will become a natural barrier, allowing advancement and retreat to defend. Just like Qin, he has the qualification to look at the world.

I want to ask if Li Tian has ambitions?

The answer is yes.

But it would be unrealistic for Li Tian to agree to Shen Yunyang in this way.

Among the Li Tian team now, only Li Tian has the strength of the 11th level zombies, and the other people and the zombies are now the strongest, the Batrider, who is only level 10.

This strength is still very obvious.

And the most important point is that near Beitang is the headquarters of Yinyangmen. In case Li Tian takes this Beitang, and Yinyangmen takes advantage of Beitang, Li Tianke can't find a place to cry. .

"If I remember correctly, the headquarters of Yin Yang Gate is nearby. Yin Yang Gate is one of the top ten legions. Why don't you consider Yin Yang Gate and choose me?" Li Tian said.

Shen Yunyang said: "The reason why the Yin-Yang Gate can become one of the top ten legions depends on the undead soldiers of the Yin-Yang Gate. These undead soldiers are against humans, and every zombie is not as powerful as the ninth-level zombie. Existence. However, this undead soldier has a fatal weakness, that is, the physical body on which these undead soldiers depend is not the incorruptible and immortal body. Once they encounter advanced zombies, those undead zombies will become advanced zombies. Our food! This is why in the past three years, the Yin Yang Gate has not expanded eastward except for the branch in the northwest region."

"Of course, in order to reassure the Li Tian brothers, once the Li Tian brothers can kill the guardian zombies, all the senior zombies in our zombie garden will open their brains and let the Li Tian brothers control and become the Li Tian brothers zombie army. !" Shen Yunyang threw another blockbuster and said.

This is what Li Tian waited for. Since Shen Yunyang is so sincere, Li Tian is not  away.

"Okay! I agree! I will go to Tashan Temple tomorrow and kill the mutant wandering crow!"

Chapter 3403: Wat Phnom

In the early morning of the next day, Li Tian and the others were ready to set off as soon as it was light. .

Situ Ningbing, Xue Ji, and Tang Xiaolong followed Li Tian, Xiao Tianyi and the Batrider combination of Batriders and were allowed to set off together, while the half-crippled barbarians were left in the Zombie Garden, and the captain was responsible for caring for the barbarians, and was also left. Down.

At the Zombie Garden, Shen Yunyang personally led the team in order to show his sincerity. Shen Yunyang is an eleventh-level zombie, and his strength should not be underestimated. Shen Yunyang also carries two tenth-level zombies. One of them is a tall and thin zombie wearing a flowered shirt. He is about twenty-seven or twenty-seven years old, and he saw it before Li Tian. The name is Song Zijin. And another short fat zombie who was over 40 years old was named He Hua.

Tashan Temple is located in the Tashan District of Beitang City, about thirty miles away from the center of Beitang. If you set off on foot, it will take a long time. Maybe you won't be able to return to the Zombie Garden before sunset.

Fortunately, there are still a few cars in the Zombie Garden. Li Tian and others took a car, and Shen Yunyang and the zombies drove this other car.

After the departure, everything went smoothly on the road. Occasionally, a few low-level zombies without long eyes would be eaten as appetizers by the Batrider combination, but although they were driving the car, they did not go anywhere.

This street is full of rubbish, scrapped cars, and some trees have been damaged by external forces and collapsed in the middle of the road.

In this situation, you can either choose to detour, or have Tang Xiaolong, the little black monkey, push away the old cars, or move the trees away. In this way, even if everyone wants to be fast, they can't. .

It was almost noon, the sun was already shining, and the crowd arrived near Tashan Temple.

After the lane was here, there was no more way to go, and everyone could only abandon the car and walk.

Tashan Temple, covering an area of more than a few hundred acres, was built in the prosperous Tang Dynasty. It is named because there is a small hill in the temple and there are seven or seven levels of Buddha Pagoda on the mountain. According to legend, in the prosperous Tang Dynasty, the great monks of the Tang Dynasty went to Tianzhu to learn the scriptures. In order to store these retrieved scriptures, the Tang king specially built it.

Before the end times, this Tashan Temple was a famous tourist attraction, so various gardens, parks, and squares were built around this Tashan Temple for tourists to browse. Therefore, although it is the end of the world, it is still picturesque here, but in this picturesque landscape, there will be zombies with cameras hanging around in the garden from time to time.

Those tourist zombies didn't seem to have any intention of attacking Li Tian and others. After seeing Li Tian and others, they hid in the woods instead.

For these poor little zombies, everyone did not intend to do anything.

Passing through a square full of weeds and through a lush forest, the Tashan Temple built around the mountain is already in front of you.

The wall of Tashan Temple is more than two to three feet high. The wall is painted with scarlet paint, and the top of the wall is covered with a dark gray tile hat.

"Brother Li Tian, after the end of the world, this Tashan Temple has become a lair for the crows. Those crows occupy the entire Tashan. The mutant crows of the guardian zombie are the leaders of the crows in this lair."

"But all the crow knights are in this Tashan Temple. There are hundreds of them, so we still need some strategic plans. Otherwise, we will deal with so many crows and knights. I am afraid there are still some. Difficult!" Shen Yunyang said.

Li Tian looked at the people and said, "Why don't you take Song Zijin and He Hua along this wall eastward, Shen Yunyang, to the wall on the east side, Barbarian, Situ Ningbing, Xueji, The three of you took Xiao Tianyi and walked in the opposite direction, and walked to the front of the fence on the west side. And I, went straight to the front gate on the south side."

"After half an hour, your two teams attacked at the same time, attracting the attention of the crow-saving knights in the Tashan Temple, and attracting them to these two places. Remember, your purpose is only to attract the attention of the crows. The number of crow-saving knights surging beyond what you can resist, immediately began to retreat."

"After the Crow Knights retreat, you will continue to attack and continue to harass. What we are going to use is the harassment tactics of the enemy chasing me and the enemy retreating me to harass. And I took advantage of the chaos to sneak into the temple gate, Go to the Buddha Pagoda on Tashan Mountain and hit Huanglong!"

"Brother Li Tian, would this be a little dangerous? Like when we are outside, we can still run if we can't beat them. This is brother. You enter the temple gate alone. In case of any accident, you will be Hundreds of zombies and hundreds of zombies besieged. This is too dangerous!" Shen Yunyang said.

The faces of Situ Ningbing and Xue Ji were also full of worry.

Situ Ningbing said: "Li, I will go in with you. The hermit killing technique I practiced may be of some help to you."

Xue Ji also wanted to follow Li Tian in, but Situ Ningbing said it first, so she had to swallow her words into her stomach.

Seeing Situ Ningbing's serious look, Li Tian nodded.

Xiao Tianyi was promoted last night, and some black hair grew on his head. The captain found a red rope to tie up these hairs. A little puller. Now Xiao Tianyi's chubby body and face look like a ginseng doll. Just as lovable.

At this time, Xiao Tianyi's face was full of excitement, and he pointed to the little bat and said, "Wow."

The serious expression seems to say that if there is any accident, I will let the little bat pick you up.

"Thank you, Little Tianyi, I appreciate your kindness. This little bat cooperates with you. Your mobility and combat effectiveness are stronger. If you really want to get rid of your worries and difficulties, you can attract a few more raven knights. Go." Li Tian said, touching Xiao Tianyi's head.

The plan had already been set, and Li Tian arranged to make Xiao Tianyi and Tang Xiaolong obey Xue Ji's arrangement and command. Only then did he take Situ Ningbing and walk towards the gate of Tashan Temple with confidence.

The gate of Wat Phra Kaew sits north and south.

The wooden red lacquered temple door of Wat Phnom is wide open, but the entrances and exits for electronic ticket checking have been built in front of the temple, but these entrances and exits have now been damaged. Looking from the entrance of the temple to the temple, the temple is also overgrown with weeds. However, among the weeds and tree shadows, from time to time you will see the figure of a Raven Crow Knight.

In front of the gate of Tashan Temple, there is a large square of several thousand square meters, and in that square there is a bronze statue of the Buddhist monk in the Sheng Tang Dynasty.

It can be imagined that before the end of the world, especially during the peak tourist season, there must be a lot of people, but now, the huge square is covered with weeds, and the bronze statue is covered with bird droppings. The whole square It is already deserted.

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing were lurking in the grass on the square.

After half an hour, the wall on the west side suddenly made a loud "bang", and the zombies in the temple were taken aback for a moment, and then immediately began to run toward the west side.

"Let's go in!" Li Tian said to Situ Ningbing.

Chapter 3404: Kill the crow (1)

The opportunity was fleeting, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing did not neglect.

Situ Ningbing used the hermit killing technique, and Li Tian couldn't track Situ Ningbing's figure if he didn't pay attention. But Li Tian knew that Situ Ningbing must be not far from his body.

Li Tian held "Red Zhan" in his hand and walked in from the dilapidated gate. At this time, there was also a loud noise from the wall on the east side. It was probably after Shen Yunyang heard the movement made by Tang Xiaolong and others on the south side. There is also something to learn.

As soon as he entered the temple, Li Tian smelled the smell of rotting flesh everywhere in the temple of Tashan Temple. The wing rooms built on the left and right sides of the temple have been destroyed and chaotic. The wooden windows are full of holes, and the walls are stained with blood and blood. Dark mucus, but these blood stains and mucus have dried up, making it particularly horrible.

Li Tian's brows couldn't help but wrinkle. This thousand-year-old ancient temple has been destroyed by the zombies in the apocalyptic crisis.

In this whole country, I don't know how many civilization sites left by ancient humans can be preserved.

But this is not the time for sentimentality.

Li Tian had several ginkgo trees that were more than a few hundred years old and just spit out green sprouts. Suddenly, a ninth-level zombie appeared in front of him. The moment the ninth-level zombie saw Li Tian, his expression was stunned and randomly opened his teeth and claws. Charged to Li Tian.

"Wow!" A black shadow flashed past, and Situ Ningbing suddenly appeared behind the zombie.

A blade of gleaming cold light slashed across the neck of the zombie. The body of the zombie was still in a forward position, and his head was already rolling on the ground.

After Situ Ningbing succeeded, he immediately performed the Hermit Killing Technique again and disappeared from Li Tian's sight, while Li Tian carried "Red Slash" directly into the zombie's head.

A ninth-level corpse crystal was obtained.

In the distance, in the shade of the trees, from time to time zombies flashed toward the wall on both sides of the east and west, and in the forest of Tashan Mountain that was no more than 100 meters high, the zombies suddenly flew up, divided into the left and right sides, and flew toward the wall.

The zombies greeted the zombie one after another, and when the zombie fell, the zombies jumped on the zombie one after another, and a spear grew from their bodies. These zombies immediately turned into zombie knights.

"Crack!"

"Crack!"

Crows bereavement, the knights of crow bereavement roared like crows and flew in the direction of Tang Xiaolong, Shen Yunyang and others.

Li Tian did not dare to be negligent, speeded up his pace and ran towards Tashan.

From Temple Gate Tower Mountain, the straight-line distance is no more than one kilometer, but in this kilometer distance, many buildings have been built. Li Tian had to go around the already somewhat dilapidated buildings and head straight towards Tower Mountain. Run.

From time to time, a ninth-level zombie suddenly rushed out of these buildings. These zombies began to change their shapes as soon as they rushed out, and they spurred Li Tian. At this time, Situ Ningbing also had to Avoiding the edge, and Li Tian used "Red Slash", Broken Soul Palm, and Xuantian Fingering to attack continuously, especially "Red Slash" at this time is absolutely capable of killing one blow.

In front of the wall on the west side of the Tashan Temple, the Batrider combination of Little Tianyi and Little Bat is a big killer. The ninth-level zombies that rushed out first were killed by the Batrider combination before they even had time to transform.

After last night's evolution, Xiao Tianyi can be able to break through to the level of tenth zombie, but this little Tianyi is born with ninth level. It is dozens of times more difficult to break through to level ten than that of the captain. Because of this, the tenth-level Tianyi already possesses the strength close to that of the eleventh-level zombie. Coupled with the cooperation of the little bat, the current little bat rider has the strength of the eleventh-level zombie.

These ninth-level zombies rushed out, isn't that just to deliver food.

You can see how happy his heart is now that Xiao Tianyi has a satisfied smile on his face.

Tang Xiaolong faced a zombie that had already been transformed. The bones of the zombie had pierced Tang Xiaolong's chest, but the bones only pierced a thin shirt that Tang Xiaolong wore outside, and did not pierce Tang Xiaolong's skin. .

This zombie was very surprised, but the corner of Tang Xiaolong's mouth showed a smug mockery.

Under his tulle, he wears an armor sewn with the wings of a mutant bat. Although this armor looks ugly, its defense is absolutely strong. Xue Ji has done experiments and used a sniper rifle to attack at close range. Not wearing a vest.

Of course, none of the current Situ Ningbing, Xue Ji, Tang Xiaolong, and Manzi are wearing one.

Tang Xiaolong sneered, his iron fist hit the white bone thorn that pierced his chest, and he threw a few hard punches.

When the first punch went down, the long bone thorns swayed a bit, and when the second punch went down, the long bone thorns were already cracked, and with successive iron fists, the long bone thorns quickly shattered into a pile of fragments. .

The ninth-level zombies were shocked and wanted to retreat, but Tang Xiaolong seemed to be a tarsal maggot, and his fists attacked the ninth-level zombies like a storm.

With every punch, the ninth-level zombie would take a step back, and with each punch, the ninth-level zombie had an ugly expression.

I don't know how many punches Tang Xiaolong blasted. By the time Tang Xiaolong stopped, the ninth-level zombie had been directly beaten into the wall by Tang Xiaolong. There was no complete bone in the chest of the ninth-level zombie. Looking at the heads of the ninth-level zombies, the black brains flowed down the cheeks, and a pale blue corpse crystal was flowing out of that brains.

At this time, Xue Ji was fighting with four or five ninth-level zombies at the same time. Xue Ji's misty swordsmanship has now improved a lot. Xue Ji's figure is misty and uncertain. Although those zombies are ninth-level zombies, but for this misty The uncertain Xue Ji will be able to do it for a while.

With Xue Ji's Dragon Sword in hand, the zombie's bone spurs are no longer as strong as steel, and they can still sneak attacks from time to time.

But after all, Xue Ji's strength is limited, and she fights with four or five ninth-level zombies at the same time. Once she has a chance, if she wants to complete a fatal blow to one of the zombies, the other zombie will immediately make up to attack Xue Ji. Come, although Xue Ji struggled for several minutes, but Xue Ji did not kill a zombie, instead, she was about to lose her head gradually.

"Drink!" After Tang Xiaolong killed the zombie, he immediately rushed over, grabbed the zombie who was fighting with Xue Ji from his back with both hands, and threw the zombie directly into the wall with a loud shout.

As soon as Tang Xiaolong entered the battle circle, the balance of victory in the battle immediately tilted.

But at this moment, Xue Ji discovered that dozens of crows had already flown in the sky of Natashan Temple, and these crows had a crow knight on them.

Once these Raven Riders drove here, Xue Ji and others would fall into a bitter battle.

Xue Ji made a decisive decision and gave an order: "Withdraw!"

Chapter 3405: Kill the crow (2)

The battle situation in the east is almost the same as in the west, but Shen Yunyang in the east is an 11th-level zombie, Song Zijin and He Hua are 10th-level zombies. In terms of strength, they absolutely kill 9th-level zombies. Even the 9th-level zombie rider Shen Yunyang is fearless. , But Song Zijin and He Hua couldn't resist in front of the ninth-level crow knight. .

As a last resort, Shen Yunyang could only retreat.

At this time, Li Tian had already reached the front of the tower.

Pagoda Mountain is a soil mountain. There are pine trees, cypress trees, maple trees, and some miscellaneous trees. On the top of the mountain, a seven-story pagoda is looming in the shadows of the trees. There is no one for more than three years. The original mountain road has long been covered with grass.

The trees are full of leaves, and when you step on it, you will make a slight noise.

In this environment, Situ Ningbing was unable to continue using the hermit killing technique, and followed Li Tian slowly up the mountain.

"Crack!"

"Crack!"

As soon as Li Tian and Situ Ningbing entered the mountain, they immediately stunned dozens of mourning crows on the mountain. These mourning crows stared at Li Tian and Situ Ningbing with scarlet eyes, jumping back and forth on the trees in the mountain.

After fighting with zombie bats in the auditorium, Li Tian has accumulated some experience in fighting with aerial beasts. Now facing these dozens of zombie crows, Li Tian doesn't panic at all.

"Huh!" A red light flew out of Li Tian's hands, and "Red Zhan" flew directly to a bereaved crow, and the bereaved crow was cut down by Li Tian's "Red Crow".

The other crows were shocked and immediately flew up and down, and these crows began to fly towards Li Tian and attack Li Tian.

Xuantian fingering.

I saw that Li Tian released Xuantian  with both hands at the same time, and the air bullets flew towards the lost crow one by one, and the lost crow was only shot down from the midair.

After all, this crow is not a mutant bat, and its defense has not reached the realm of invulnerability.

Situ Ningbing's figure immediately shuttled through the woods, and the blade made up for the fallen crows.

And at this moment, the crow-saving knights who had withdrawn from the east and north-west walls had rode the crows to the upper mouth of the top of the tower. After seeing Li Tian and Situ Ningbing, they immediately removed the bones in their hands. The spear was thrown down.

In order to avoid these bone spears, Li Tian directly threw down Situ Ningbing, holding Situ Ningbing and rolling down from the top of the mountain.

Bone spears pierced behind Li Tian and Situ Ningbing.

After a round of attacks, the Raven Riders began to dive and attack.

At the foot of Mount Tashan, the zombies who had withdrawn gradually surrounded them.

"Ningbing, you can use the hermit killing technique to escape first! Once we are surrounded by zombies under the mountain, then we are in danger!"

"No! I'm not leaving! I want to be with you!" Situ Ningbing said firmly with his eyes.

Seeing Situ Ningbing's firm gaze, Li Tian did not continue to drive Situ Ningbing away, and said calmly: "Okay! Then we will kill together! This tower mountain is not high, and you can get to the top in ten minutes. "

Just now Li Tian and Situ Ningbing were worried about attracting the attention of the crow-saving knights. They walked slowly, but now they can only break the boat and fight with their backs.

"Once we rushed into the buddha tower, no matter how many knights and crows lost, there was no way to rush into the buddha tower. Instead, we had the advantage! After Tang Xiaolong and the others launched the harassment tactics, those crows The Cavaliers will split a part, and we will be safe!" Li Tian said.

Speaking directly, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing had already begun to rush towards the top of the mountain. Before Li Tian's "Red Slash" flashed a red light, there would be a Raven Crow Knight falling from the sky.

At this time, the Raven Crow Crowd was Li Tian's target. As for the Crow Crows that did not have much attack power, they had been ignored by Li Tian and Situ Ningbing.

The zombies under the mountain also gradually rushed up the mountain, and there were zombies everywhere in the forest.

At this moment, there was another "bang" from the east and west of the wall collapsing. Needless to say, Xue Ji and others had already seen the zombie retreat and killed another carbine.

Hearing the sound of the wall collapsing, the zombies who were chasing immediately separated out more than half and ran to the two sides, and the raven knight in the sky also smashed away more than half.

As a result, the pressure on Li Tian and Situ Ningbing was suddenly reduced.

"kill!"

Li Tian used his heart and three uses, and the broken soul palm was shot with a palm, and the zombie in the shot would make a violent explosion, and the zombie riding on the zombie fell from the sky and rolled down the mountain gruntly Go down.

With the addition of Xuantian * and "Red Slash", Li Tian's strength at this time exceeded the level of eleven zombies and reached the level of twelve zombies.

Ten minutes later, there were corpses of zombies and crows everywhere on Tower Mountain, and Li Tian and Situ Ningbing had already rushed into the tower of crows.

When Li Tianyi entered the Crow Tower, the zombies on it and the Raven Riders in the sky had expressions on their faces, and suddenly stopped pursuing them.

"Why don't those zombies come after?" Situ Ningbing asked Li Tiandao with some doubts.

Li Tian shook his head and guessed: "Probably this Buddha Tower is the site of the mutant zombie, and the mutant zombie is the mount of the guardian zombie!"

If the zombies and zombies did not attack, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing could relax.

Li Tian breathed a sigh of relief, before he had time to take a look at the situation inside the tower.

The Buddha Pagoda was built in the prosperous Tang Dynasty with a brick structure. After hundreds of years and thousands of years, the Buddha Pagoda is still strong.

On the first floor of the tower, there are still some decayed leaves on the ground. Occasionally, you can see the feces and fur of some small animals. There is no rotten flesh and unpleasant smell as imagined. This also exceeded Li Tian's expectations.

"According to Shen Yunyang, this mutant crow is on the top of the tower, let's go up here!" As Li Tian had begun to walk along the circling narrow stone steps, "Hong Zhan" was quietly suspended in front of Li Tian. At a distance of about one meter, Li Tian's hand is holding the wall, and the other hand is Xuantian's * posture, ready to attack at any time.

Situ Ningbing held the blade tightly in his hand and followed Li Tian.

Entering the second-story tower, apart from a few dead leaves, there is only some dust in the tower, and there are only traces of small insects crawling on the ground.

"It feels so strange! If there are funerals in this tower, why is it so clean?" Situ Ningbing said in a low voice.

Li Tian nodded, this kind of doubt also hovered in his mind, but Li Tian still had no way to be sure, so he could only continue to go up.

The third, fourth, and fifth floors are almost the same as the second floor.

At this moment, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing looked at each other, and both of them smelled a strong smell of blood and fresh blood.

Chapter 3406: Kill the crow (3)

Entering the sixth floor of the Buddha Pagoda, Li Tian saw that the walls and the ground of the sixth floor were full of blood. The blood flowed down from the top of the Buddha Pagoda and infected the statues of gods and Buddha on the walls of the tower. .

Situ Ningbing reached out and touched it, and found that the blood was cold, but it hadn't completely condensed. He placed it in front of his nose and sniffed Situ Ningbing and said in a low voice: "It's human blood! "

Li Tian nodded, and then whispered to Situ Ningbing: "You wait for me here first, and I will go up and take a look at it by myself! I have killed many mutant bats before, so I shouldn't be able to deal with this mutant crow. what is the problem!"

"Be careful!" Situ Ningbing did not object. Each floor of the Buddha Tower is not very large, and can accommodate up to ten people. If Situ Ningbing rashly follows Li Tian to the seventh floor, then there will be a battle. , Li Tian will inevitably be distracted by Situ Ningbing.

Li Tian controlled "Red Zhan", stepping on the blood-stained stairs, and walking up the seventh-story tower step by step.

As soon as he stretched out his head and entered the seventh-story tower, Li Tian was shocked by the scene inside the tower and couldn't speak.

This Buddha Pagoda is a hexagonal pagoda. At the intersection of the six walls inside, there is nowhere where a person is nailed with bones more than one meter long. These people are male and female, old and young, but these people are naked and naked.

These people are dead, their chests are completely cut open with a sharp weapon, and the abdomen is empty and there is nothing, and the limbs of these people have been cut with a sharp weapon, and the blood is flowing out of the limbs.

After the blood flowed out, it flowed down a blood trough at the foot to the bottom of a platform in the center of the tower, and finally spread to the entire surface of the tower, flowing along the steps of the tower to the sixth floor.

Looking closely at the faces of these dead bodies, without exception, the faces of these dead bodies seemed to have suffered a great deal of pain. Their faces were hideous and distorted, and their eyes were still staring at a platform in the middle of the tower when they died.

And on the platform, there was a mourning crow covered in blood and blood-stained red. The mourning crow was only half the size of an ordinary crow. At this time, the mourning crow seemed to be dead and motionless!

"Is this the mutant crow?" Li Tian wondered in his heart.

How did these people get up to this tower? Who nailed this wall with bones? These questions are in Li Tian's mind.

Li Tian speeded up a few steps, walked up, and walked to the dead bodies. The dead bodies had no temperature. According to this speculation, these bodies should have died before Li Tian arrived at Tashan Temple.

"It would be great if I came a few hours earlier! At least I can rescue you!" Li Tian said with some reproach.

"I don't blame you! Even if you come a few hours earlier, they won't be able to escape from the Tashan Temple!" Situ Ningbing's voice came from behind Li Tian.

After Situ Ningbing saw Li Tian ascend, there was no fighting sound from the tower, so he followed.

"In the last days, it's not easy for people to live, but human lives are like grass and mustards, and they may be lost at any time! These people can survive stubbornly in this dangerous city of Beitang and ruled by zombies. It's been three years, what a great thing. But such a great thing stopped abruptly today." Li Tian said with sadness on his face.

The list that Li Tian gave to Ande, Ande did not give Li Tian back to Li Tian before leaving news of other people, so in all likelihood, these people have already encountered an accident!

"Li, we are here to kill the zombies, and then kill the guardian zombies, at least to give other human beings in Beitang a little more chance to survive! Don't be too sad!" Situ Ningbing comforted.

Li Tian turned around abruptly, staring at the mutant crow covered in blood, and said: "Yes! It's not too late to mend the prison. I will kill the mutant crow!"

And at this moment, the red eyes of the mutant crow rolled around, and the beast moved a little to the side, as if he was a little afraid to avoid Li Tian deliberately.

This stuff turned out to be alive!

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing couldn't help being stunned by this mutant Lost Crow's behavior.

"You did all this?" Li Tian asked angrily.

Li Tianming knew that the mutant crow couldn't understand what he said, but he couldn't help but ask.

But I didn't expect that after Li Tian finished asking, the beak of the mutant crow swayed from side to side, as if to say that this was not his talent.

Li Tian was a little surprised, but at this time he could not tolerate the sophistry of this mutant Crow. He held "Red Zhan" in his hand and slowly walked towards the Crow step by step.

The wandering crow's neck shook slightly, and there was a voice, saying: "Don't kill me, don't kill me!"

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing were both taken aback. Why did this crow speak?

It is said that animals are not allowed to become refined after the founding of the country?

But there is something Li Tian hasn't seen, vampires, blue dragons, zombies, etc., and there is no fuss about seeing a refined zombie again.

"Why don't you kill you? You killed all these people?" Li Tian shouted angrily!

The crow quickly shook his head and said, "Slander! This is absolutely slander! Think about it, how could my little crow kill so many people?"

"You are all refined, why can't you kill these people?" Li Tian said.

"Injustice! This is a great injustice!"

The mutant wandering crow seemed aggrieved, and continued: "I am not a ghost! I turned out to be human too, but since the end of the crisis broke out three years ago, I suddenly became this crow. I thought I was born again."

"Since I became like this, I have neither dared to speak human or bird language, I really have a dead heart. But then suddenly one day, this Beitang is responsible for guarding the ghouls and insects. The guardian zombie suddenly found me and wanted me to be his mount. He told me that I was detained by Master Soul using the Soul Detention Dafa to detain my soul into this mutant crow, so I would say Human!"

Corpse? This is Li Tian hearing this name again.

According to rumors circulating in the kingdom of corpses, the three corpses are ghouls, corpses, and corpses.

Li Tian knew nothing about the abilities of the three corpses except that the ghoul had some bugs.

Now hearing the mutant crow talking about the corpse soul, Li Tian immediately asked, "What ability does the corpse soul have?"

The mutant crow shook his head and said, "I'm just a little crow controlled by Lord Soul using the Soul Detention Method. How can I know Lord Soul's other abilities?"

"In that case, it's useless to keep you. Go and die!" Li Tianjiang waved "Red Slash", preparing to kill the mutant crow.

The mutant crow immediately said in horror: "Don't! Don't kill! I know a huge secret in this Tashan Temple! If you let me go, I will tell you this secret!"

Chapter 3407: Buddha Temple

"Secret?" Li Tian was taken aback again. He didn't expect that this crow could surprise him one after another.

"Let's talk, if the secret you tell is valuable, then maybe I can consider letting you go, but if you are teasing me, I can guarantee that it will make you more uncomfortable alive than dead!" Li Tian threatened.

The mutant crow shuddered when Li Tian said so, and said in a trembling voice: "I can't guarantee that this secret is true or false, because three years ago, my soul appeared in this one. When the crow was on the body, I suddenly had some fragments of the crow in my mind. Because all this is too absurd, and I am just a crow, it has not been verified by me!"

"It's okay, go ahead!"

"You have to make sure you don't kill me, I just said!" The crow lifted Li Tian's appetite, but he knew how to bargain.

"Well, I promise not to kill you, now you can talk!" Li Tian said.

If the secret the crow said was true, then Li Tian would naturally not kill this mutant crow.

But if the crow was cheating Li Tian to survive, then Li Tian promised not to kill the mutant crow, but Li Tian did not guarantee that Situ Ningbing would not kill him.

"Yes, this Tashan Temple was built in the heyday of the Tang Dynasty. But do you know why this Tashan Temple was built?" The crow stared at his round eyes and asked Li Tiandao.

Situ Ningbing smiled. As long as he had gone to school, he basically knew this knowledge. Even if he didn't know it, Shen Yunyang told Li Tian and the others on the way.

Therefore, Situ Ningbing said: "The eminent monks of the Tang Dynasty went to Tianzhu to learn the scriptures. This tower is for storing the scriptures that were retrieved!"

The crow moved his gaze to Li Tian again, which seemed to be saying, "Let's talk about it!"

Li Tian glared at the crow, and the crow immediately became well-behaved, and said quickly, "This beautiful woman with a humiliated moon and flowers is right, but not all right. The monk brought back hundreds of scriptures, but other than that There are also Buddha bone relics, and even a Tianzhu artifact, the name is: butcher knife!"

"Butcher knife? Butcher knife or bull knife?" Li Tian sneered and said disdainfully.

"The Buddhist saying goes: put down the butcher knife and become a Buddha on the ground. Now everyone regards this sentence as a word to persuade people to be good, but you must know that this butcher knife is real, and this butcher knife is a * of war. An artifact used before becoming a Buddha!" the crow continued.

"Enough of you! It's time to come out to fight the God of War. Later, are you going to bring Marshal Canopy and General of Roller Blind? Besides, isn't the weapon used by the Holy Buddha of Fighting the Golden Cudgel? That's it!" Li Tian can now completely dismiss what the crow said as nonsense.

"Let me correct it first. It is a butcher knife, not a bull knife. And it is the God of Fighting Buddha, not the Holy Buddha of Fighting. What I want to say is that you all know that the Buddha's bone relics are Where is the butcher knife stored? Is it also this Pagoda? The secret I want to tell you is related to this." The mutant crow said.

"Go on!" Li Tian thought about it carefully. The words the crow said and the legends that have been handed down have something that coincides with each other.

"You promise not to kill me?" The crow brought up the topic again.

"You come here now, I promise not to kill you!" Li Tian said.

The crow immediately stopped talking nonsense, and continued: "These memories originate from this crow, and the memory of this crow is passed down from mouth to mouth by the ancestors of the crow in the Tashan Temple."

"You must know that the scriptures stored on this buddha pagoda are only later hand-copied versions, which are equivalent to photocopies. And under the buddha pagoda, there used to be a huge underground palace, and the original scriptures, the artifact butcher knife and the Buddha bone relic are here. In the underground palace."

"This underground palace was built in the prosperous Tang Dynasty, because the entrance of this underground palace has already become a secret no one knows due to the loss of time, but the crows of the Tashan Temple just happen to know this secret! Guess the entrance of this underground palace! Where is it?" the mutant crow asked after selling it.

"Where?" Li Tian and Situ Bingning asked simultaneously.

"The entrance of the underground palace is in this Tashan Temple!" said the mutant crow.

"In the Tashan Temple?" Li Tian and Situ Ningbing were a little surprised.

"Yes, there are nine wells in this Tashan Temple, eight of which are dead wells without water, and only one well is a living well, and the entrance is in that living well! Passed through. Living well, you can reach the underground palace." Crow said.

"Okay! I have the right to trust you once, you take us there!" Li Tian said.

The crow immediately lowered his head, pulled his paws on the ground, and said, "I can't go anywhere right now. I have to wait until the blood coagulates and solidifies me completely in the blood. I stay in the coagulation for seven to seven forty-nine days. , Can be reborn like a phoenix nirvana. Then I will also evolve! And if I leave here halfway, I will be burned to ashes by the blood!

Li Tian sneered and said, "Then you still said that you didn't kill these people?"

The crow quickly explained, "These are all arranged by the host zombies of the Tashan Temple in accordance with the orders of the guardian zombies. I am also a victim!"

"Ningbing! Kill it!" As soon as the crow's words fell, Li Tian said directly to Situ Ningbing.

Seeing that Situ Ningbing had already walked over with the blade, the crow quickly begged for mercy: "You promised not to kill me! How can you go back and say nothing?"

Li Tian smiled and said: "Yes, I promised not to kill you, but I did not promise that she would not kill you either!"

"Besides all the things you are saying now, I can't judge the truth or not. Why do I keep you? Do you keep you as a mount for the Guardian zombies, against me, Li Tian?"

The mutant crow said in a winning streak: "Okay, I will follow you to find the underground palace! It's a pity that you are not a high-level zombie, otherwise you can control me, so you don't have to worry about me betraying you!"

"Don't you worry about being burned to ashes by the flame? Also, haven't you been controlled by the guardian zombies?" Li Tian said with a sneer.

"Haha, don't care about these details! This is just a secret technique for me to advance to the ranks. If I don't advance, my level won't increase, but if I am in the ink, I might be killed by you!"

"And when using this secret technique of promotion, guarding the zombies will release the control over me! Hmm...? You...how could you control me?" The mutant crow was surprised to find that he was actually caught by Li Tian Under control! "

Chapter 3408: Buddha Temple (2)

When the mutant crow said that the guardian zombie would release his control when using the secret technique of promotion, Li Tian used the nine-color corpse crystal to release a transparent thread, which entered the small brain of the mutant crow, immediately It entangled the lost crystal in the skull of the mutant crow.

After controlling the mutant crow, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing didn't delay for a while, they immediately retreated from the Buddha Pagoda, got off the tower mountain, and returned to the tower mountain temple.

Among the nine wells in the Tashan Temple, seven dry wells are distributed according to the Big Dipper and distributed in the courtyard of the Tashan Temple. Now the seven dry wells have been separated by steel fences and become towers. The mountain temple is a legendary scenic spot.

The other two wells are located in the backyard of Wat Phnom.

The dry well has also been separated by a steel fence, but the dry well has been covered with weeds. The other living water well, before the end of the world, provided water for the Tashan Temple, so there are still rollers, wire ropes, buckets, etc. on the well.

Only after the end of the world, this well has lost its original purpose. The moss on the well platform has dried up, and the underside of the well platform is also covered with weeds. On the side of the well platform, there are some dried crow dung.

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing killed a few zombies before they came to the side of the well.

"It's here! The place in the memory is here!" said the mutant crow.

When I came to the well, I saw that the reel and wire rope were rusty, and there was a hole in the bucket. The diameter of this well is only a little over half a meter. It is not easy to go down, and it may be even harder to go up!

"Lee, what should we do? If we proceed rashly, I am afraid that there will be a certain degree of danger, and until now, we are not sure whether there is a underground palace in this well! Should we leave here first and go back and discuss with everyone. , Make another decision?" Situ Ningbing asked worriedly.

The mutant crow immediately agreed: "Yes, that's right! Or we'd better come here first! Those Raven Ravens will be here soon!"

Li Tian did not speak, but controlled the nine-color corpse crystal, and at the same time released eight transparent silk threads into the well. The transparent silk threads had no vision, but they were connected to Li Tian's senses.

After these threads had entered the well, it immediately seemed to be surrounded by endless darkness.

The transparent silk thread continued to dig down for nearly a hundred meters before reaching the surface of the water.

"This well is really deep enough!" Li Tian was still thinking in his heart.

After the transparent silk thread drilled into the well water, the water was bitterly cold, and Li Tian felt that he was surrounded by ice. But Li Tian did not back down and continued to control the transparent silk thread to go under the well water.

"How do you feel that this well seems to be a bottomless hole? The end of the well can't be found!" After the penetration of the water surface, the depth of the well has exceeded Li Tian's expectation, and the transparent silk thread continued to go forward a few more times under the water. Ten meters, still did not feel the end of this well.

At this moment, Li Tian felt that the smooth wall of the well suddenly disappeared. It seemed that after the well arrived here, it suddenly became clear. There was no rock and soil around, and the temperature of the well water had dropped a bit when it arrived here. .

Li Tian even suspected that the well water was about to freeze.

"There really is a space under this well, but this space is completely covered with water, how can it be the underground palace?" Li Tian thought with some doubts.

Li Tian immediately controlled the eight transparent silk threads and divided them into eight positions and continued to look around.

About a few more seconds later, soon, six of the eight transparent threads touched the rock again, only the two transparent threads that were detected in the southeast were still being detected in the water.

"Huh? What is that?" Suddenly Li Tian seemed to feel a ray of light in the water surrounded by darkness.

Li Tian speeded up the control of the transparent thread to detect the light source. After a few seconds, there was a distance of about ten meters in the middle. The transparent thread finally emerged to reach the place where the light source was, and emerged from the water. Li Tian immediately felt There really is a huge underground space above the water.

At this time, the eastern wall where Tang Xiaolong, Xue Ji and Xiao Tianyi were located and the western wall where Shen Yunyang and other zombies were located were simultaneously repelled by the numerous zombie knights. There have been more zombies around the well.

"Li, how did you decide?" Situ Ningbing had already killed a ninth-level zombie and put away the ninth-level zombies, but at this time, dozens of zombie knights appeared in the sky. On the ground, dozens of ninth-level zombies slowly surrounded them.

Li Tian has collected all the remaining six transparent silk threads, leaving only two transparent silk threads as guide signs.

The corners of Li Tian's mouth rose slightly, revealing a smile, and said: "Since I have come here, there is no reason not to go down and take a look! Let's go down here!"

Speaking of Li Tian directly threw the mutant crow into the well, the mutant crow let out a scream and wanted to spread his wings out of the well, but his wings were covered with slimy blood, and at this time the blood had solidified. , Can only fall into the water.

Seeing Li Tian's confident expression, Situ Ningbing quickly asked, "Is the underground palace found below?"

Li Tian nodded happily.

Dozens of zombies and the raven knights in the sky have discovered Li Tian and Situ Ningbing. The raven knights have begun to throw bone spears at Li Tian and Situ Ningbing, and the relief zombies have quickly turned towards Li Tian and Ning. Bing pounced over.

"Hold me tight!" Li Tian hugged Situ Ningbing directly in his arms, holding Situ Ningbing in one hand, and clenching the steel wire on the wheel with the other hand, and jumped directly into the well.

The wheel began to spin quickly, while Li Tian hugged Situ Ningbing and fell quickly.

Even in the process of falling, Li Tian still used his heart and soul, "Red Slash" still cut down all the white bone spears that were about to plunge into the well.

"Boom!" With a sound, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing fell into the well, and smashed the mutant crow that had finally flopped on the water into the water.

A icy chill swept through Li Tian and Situ Ningbing, but Li Tian held Situ Ningbing with one hand, and with the other hand, he released the wire, pulled the mutant crow, and quickly continued to dive down, swimming tens of meters, Dived out of the well channel, and then swam towards the underground palace.

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing are both cultivators. The cold water of this well and the extraordinary distance diving is not a problem. During the diving process, Li Tian gave Situ Ningbing a breath. By the way "Red Cut" was withdrawn again.

When Li Tian and Situ Ningbing got out of the water and saw the situation outside the water, they immediately felt dizzy and dazzling.

Chapter 3409: Eight Dragons

"This...this..." Situ Ningbing said two words, but in the end he didn't say anything else.

This underground palace is not as dark as imagined. On the top of the underground palace, a basin-sized night pearl is cleverly inlaid in the center of the top, just like the sun in the sky. And around the Ye Mingzhu, there are ninety-nine eighty-one night pearls inlaid according to certain rules.

It is with these night pearls that will shine by themselves in the darkness, there will be some light in this underground palace.

With the help of the less intense light of these night pearls, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing saw that the huge top was actually a lifelike portrait of a fairy Buddha. These portraits have different shapes. If you stare at the top for a few more seconds, You will feel these fairy Buddhas as if they had come to life, slowly rotating around the biggest Ye Mingzhu.

As for the water surface drilled by Li Tian and Situ Ningbing, although the undercurrent surging below, the water surface is as calm as a mirror surface. The mirror surface reflects the image of the top of the underground palace. Li Tian and Situ Ningbing seem to be These fairy Buddhas surrounded the sky.

Involuntarily a little light and fluttering, it feels as if they are also flying with these fairy Buddhas.

"Don't look at these portraits, the top portrait is weird!" The mutant crow suddenly said.

Looking at these lifelike fairy Buddha portraits for a long time, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing will have a dizzy feeling, as if the first fairy Buddha is flying up, and is constantly collecting from Li Tian and Situ Ningbing. Same strength.

As he said, the mutant crow flapped its wings vigorously, and made waves on the calm water.

And the feeling of the sky full of fairy Buddha soaring disappeared immediately with the shaking of the water.

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing woke up in shock.

Li Tian felt scared for a while. The design of this underground palace is absolutely brilliant. If it weren't for the mutant crow to be a bereavement, and would not be fascinated by this design, I'm afraid Li Tian and Situ Ningbing would fall into this unconsciously. Unable to extricate himself from this illusion.

"Listen! It's the sound of water!" After Situ Ningbing woke up, he immediately returned to his killer qualities.

Li Tian couldn't wait to help Situ Ningbing out of the water, while the mutant crow was allowed to squat on Li Tian's shoulders.

Walking out of the water, Li Tian found that this huge underground palace had a door on all sides, and at the bottom of each door, there was a statue of a dragon head, and the water was constantly flowing out of the mouth of the dragon head. This dragon head was just a few centimeters away from the ground. , So the sound of water is not loud.

These eight waters fell into the ground, and then meandered on the ground according to a certain rule, and finally merged into the water surface drilled by Li Tian and Situ Ningbing.

Looking at the eight stone doors, each door is engraved with different patterns. These patterns appear to be looming because they are not illuminated by the night pearl, but for Li Tian and Situ Ningbing, they will not be affected by the darkness. .

"There is a pattern on each door. They are the heavens, the dragon god, the Yaksha, the Gandapo, the Asura, the Garuda, the Kinnara, and the Mahuraga, collectively called the Eight Heavenly Dragons." Ningbing looked at the patterns on these doors and said.

This underground palace was built after the eminent monks of the prosperous Tang Dynasty came back from Tianzhu. It is no wonder that the eight doors in this underground palace have these patterns.

But what needs to be explained is that the dragon  inside is not a blue dragon, but a naga.

Each of these doors should have a certain meaning, but Li Tian and Situ Ningbing didn't understand this. They asked the little crow, the little crow was also confused, saying that he only knew the entrance of the underground palace, as for the inside of the underground palace. He is also not clear about the situation.

"Li, do we go in through that door?" Situ Ningbing asked.

Li Tian sneered and said: "We have already arrived in the legendary underground palace, so the legendary scriptures, relics, and weapons must also exist. Since I don't know what is behind each door, then We pass through door by door. There is always something behind the door that will surprise us!"

"Let's go through the doors one by one in the order of the eight dragons!" Li Tian said.

Situ Ningbing had no opinion, and even if Little Crow had an opinion, it was completely ignored by Li Tian and Situ Ningbing.

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing slowly came to the stone gate with portraits of the heavens. Li Tian let out a sigh of relief and held "Red Zhan" firmly in his hands, pushing hard towards the stone gate.

When Li Tian's arm touched the stone gate, Li Tian seemed to feel that "Red Zhan" was trembling. This feeling was so familiar to Li Tian. In the previous battles, "Hong Zhan" "This kind of excitement quivered before.

Could there be zombies in this underground palace? Immediately Li Tian rejected his idea.

During the prosperous Tang Dynasty in this underground palace, how could there be zombies at that time.

The only explanation is that there is a treasure behind this door, and this treasure is the culprit that caused the excitement and tremor of "Red Slash".

The weight of this stone gate is more than several hundred. As Li Tian continued to increase Li Tian, the stone gate was slowly pushed open by Li Tian, and a light stronger than the Ye Mingzhu in the main hall came from the stone gate. Shine out.

This kind of glare flashed, and when Li Tian and Situ Ningbing completely pushed open the stone gate, there was darkness behind the stones.

Fortunately, this darkness had no effect on Li Tian and Situ Ningbing.

Li Tian saw that behind this stone gate was a huge passage about two meters high and more than three meters wide. This huge passage was like a black dragon winding into the distance. Li Tian couldn't even see the end of the passage at a glance.

After the Shimen opened, the "Red Zhan" in Li Tian's hand trembled even more.

The mutant crow said a little nervously: "Why don't I guard you outside this gate, I always feel that there is a powerful murderous intent behind this stone gate!"

"Don't you feel that the murderous aura on me is heavier?" Li Tian said to the mutant crow.

"Haha, I saw that the atmosphere was too nervous, so I just joked and laughed." The mutant crow quickly changed his words.

Ignoring the mutant crow, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing looked at each other and walked directly into the passage.

Entering the passage, Li Tian found that there were also some carvings on both sides of the passage. Everything was normal when he first walked tens of meters, but as Li Tian and Situ Ningbing went deeper and deeper, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing It seemed to hear those carved paintings actually speak.

No, it's not that these carvings are talking, but something is whistling in the passage.

A strong light suddenly burst out from the passage, and that strong light came toward Li Tian and Situ Ningbing like a meteor.

Chapter 3410: Butcher

As the bright light got closer, the "Red Zhan" in Li Tian's hand became completely irritable, trembling constantly, trying to break free from Li Tian's restraint on him.

The passage was completely illuminated by that group of strong light, and the powerful combat intent released by that group of strong light made the mutant crow squatting on Li Tian's shoulders tremble.

And Situ Ningbing could also feel the killing intent released by the strong light, and he lifted the blade in his hand, ready to fight at any time.

Li Tian understood that the powerful force released by that group of strong light had surpassed the current Situ Ningbing. If Situ Ningbing rashly collided with the group of strong light, Situ Ningbing was very likely to be directly dissipated by the "boom" smoke.

And the blade of the "Red Sword" turned red all over, like a hot red soldering iron, and it seemed to be covered with blood.

"Hong Zhan" began to become frantic, and Li Tian clenched "Hong Zhan"'s arm and began to move forward involuntarily.

Li Tian could already guess that the group of strong light must be the artifact that the mutant crow said: "Butcher Knife", otherwise, how could this "Red Slash" be so manic, and how could it be so uncontrollable.

But Li Tian still didn't let go of "Red Zhan", still clinging to "Red Zhan" firmly.

The group of strong light was getting closer and closer, and the distance between Li Tian and Situ Ningbing was no more than one thousand meters and five hundred meters away.

At this time, the group of strong light broke out with a stronger fighting spirit, and the light became more dazzling.

The harsh whistling sound of the strong light was heard throughout the cave.

And what about "Red Cut"?

On the red blade, sharp thorns grew out of it, just like the fangs released by "Red Slash", and a looming shadow appeared on the front end of "Red Slash"'s blade.

This shadow is really too vague, and "Red Zhan" is already steaming at this time. Looking at this shadow is like looking at an illusory mirage in the mist, completely unclear.

Therefore, Li Tian couldn't determine what the shadow was.

But "Red Zhan" was roaring, really roaring.

This "Red Cut" seemed to be dissatisfied with Li Tian's control over him, as if he wanted to rush out and chop the so-called butcher knife into several segments.

One thousand meters...

Five hundred meters...

Three hundred meters...

Li Tian could already see what was in that group of strong light, it was indeed a weapon, a straight blade with a length of no more than two feet.

Butcher knife!

This is the butcher knife, this butcher knife is not lost on the legendary God of Fighting God's artifact, after thousands of years, it can release such a powerful strength.

Feeling Li Tian's praise for the butcher knife, Li Tian's "Red Zhan" was even more furious. The shadow at the tip of the blade was instantly exploded, and a violent force swept Li Tian's entire arm.

Li Tian almost couldn't hold "Red Zhan".

At this moment, Li Tian felt the anger of "Red Zhan".

"Want to fight?" Li Tian asked "Hong Zhan" in his heart.

"Hong Zhan" didn't answer, but the force that hit Li Tian's arm was getting stronger and stronger.

Li Tiansi didn't care about "Hong Zhan" being angry.

The strong light is only two hundred meters away from Li Tian. The mutant crow has been frightened with its wings flapping, and has the urge to turn around and run away at any time, but Li Tian's complexion does not change, and he calmly looks at the strong light. Getting closer.

"Want to fight? Then win and show me!" Li Tian continued to say to "Red Zhan" in his heart.

At this moment, "Hong Zhan" shook abruptly, as if he was nodding hard.

At this time, the butcher knife was less than a hundred meters away from Li Tian.

Li Tian didn't forcefully suppress "Red Zhan"'s fighting intent, letting "Red Zhan" release to his heart's content.

"Wow!"

"Red Slash" is like a roaring dragon making a sound of shaking the mountain.

"Go!"

Li Tian suddenly raised his arm, opened his palm and shouted.

"Hong Zhan" carried a red tail and galloped out toward the butcher knife.

A strong light and a red light collided less than 50 meters away from Li Tian.

"boom!"

The butcher knife and the "Red Cutter" released huge energy at the same time. Li Tian and Situ Ningbing, who had hit by the energy wave, slowly retreated, and the entire passage began to shake violently. The exquisite carvings on the passage wall With this energy fluctuation, cracks began to appear, and the cracks continued to expand.

With a "click", a piece of exquisite carved painting fell from the wall of the passage, and with this drop, the carved paintings on both sides of the passage crackled and all exploded.

The entire passage was immediately flooded with crushed gravel.

"call!"

Two huge energies collided, and just below the collision, a whirlwind the size of the mouth of a bowl was formed. This was the result of the constant wrestling between the butcher knife and the "red cut".

The whirlwind was spinning in place and was still expanding. The gravel in the passage was sucked by the whirlpool, and the entire whirlpool formed a gravel whirlpool. ,

The gravel on the ground began to sway slightly, and there was a possibility of being sucked in by the vortex at any time.

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing barely stopped two to three hundred meters away.

"I... let's get out! This is about to explode!" The mutant crow said in horror.

But at this time, Li Tian showed a smile on his nervous face.

Do it all at once, second time tired, third time exhausted.

Although the butcher knife showed a very powerful fighting intent, it was a long-distance flying attack, while the "Red Slash" waited for work at ease, and had been suppressed by Li Tian.

By the time the two met, "Red Slash"'s fighting spirit had reached its peak, and naturally it would not be easy to lose.

The whirlwind is getting bigger and bigger, and the broken rocks on the ground have been sucked in by the whirlwind, but the whirlwind is still accelerating.

With the powerful suction force, the mutant crow's body has been sucked into the whirlwind, and the mutant crow's two paws are firmly grasping the clothes on Li Tian's shoulders, flapping wings, and screaming instinctively.

At this moment, "Boom!" The whirlwind suddenly exploded. The huge explosion produced huge energy, and a powerful air current swept the flying sand and rocks towards the ends of the passage.

The mutant crow that was still holding Li Tian's shoulders just now loosened its paws and was rushed out of the channel by the energy wave.

Li Tian embraced Situ Ningbing with one hand, and kept using the broken soul palm with one hand, smashing the flying gravel with one palm.

After a few seconds, calm in the passage was restored, but at this time the passage was in a mess.

Li Tian looked towards "Hong Zhan" and saw that "Hong Zhan" was spinning round and round in the passage, but the butcher knife was stuck directly into the ground of the passage, and the butcher knife flashed lightly. The yellow light is looming.

The outcome is determined!
