

A Killer 3621

Chapter 3621: Wrath of the ghoul

Magic City, under a fifty-story skyscraper, is a huge square with an area of nearly 10,000 square meters.

There is a man-made platform on this square. This platform was temporarily set up for the sales promotion activities of the pre-apocalyptic merchants. Behind the platform is a giant spray painting, and the screen is the underwear advertisement endorsed by an international superstar before the apocalypse.

At this time, the inkjet poster painting on this table is already a little run-down, and it is almost impossible to see the original face. On the table in front of the inkjet advertising picture, there is a leather sofa, which is also a bit worn out. .

The ghoul was sitting on this sofa with an angry face, and his gaze scanned the thousands of zombies standing in the square under the stage.

At this time, it is already June.

Under the scorching sun, the temperature in the magic city has reached more than 30 degrees, and the ground temperature will even be close to 40 degrees. These zombies gathered here, filling the entire square with a disgusting smell.

The whole square, no, the whole city is very quiet.

Only flies flew "buzz" and "buzz" and landed on these zombies from time to time. These flies that depend on eating carrion for a living can always find the zombies they like.

Logically speaking, the lowest level of these zombies on the square at this time is also higher than level 15. Even if there are a lot of super zombies in the magic capital, they are already considered to have some strength.

However, they dared not move, letting flies fly around on them.

At this time, another ten super zombies swarmed into the square from the back row, and these zombies appeared on the square.

As soon as these zombies appeared, the other zombies immediately turned their heads. In the entire square, the eyes of thousands of zombies fell on these zombies at the same time.

"Bring here!" On the stage, the ghoul said displeasedly.

This voice was continuously transmitted from the front to the back of the Internet, and the voice became louder and louder.

These zombies were immediately escorted by other zombies to the table in front of the square.

The dozen or so zombies walked up to the stage tremblingly, their whole bodies trembling, and they dared not look at the ghoul.

The ghoul jumped up from the sofa, and quickly flashed in front of the dozen or so zombies, and then returned to the sofa where he was sitting like lightning.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

The dozen or so zombies all fell to the ground, but there were already a dozen more corpse crystals in the hands of the ghoul.

"Kacha!" "Kacha!" The ghoul threw all these corpse crystals to a super zombie in the audience, and the zombie was grateful, and immediately swallowed these corpse crystals like peanuts.

But the ghoul slowly put his hand on a corpse insect in front of his sofa, and began to frantically absorb the power of the corpse.

From the beginning to the end, the ghoul only said a word, but killed a dozen zombies.

All the zombies present could see that the ghouls were angry. In fact, as early as when the ghouls just returned to the Devil City, these super zombies obviously felt that the ghouls were angry.

But none of them dared to touch the mold of the ghoul to understand why the ghoul was angry.

The ghoul's anger stems from Li Tian.

In Kyoto City, although the ghoul successfully wounded Li Tian, Li Tian rescued "Red Slash" from his hand and even snatched an eighteenth-level corpse crystal from his hand. The face thing is absolutely intolerable by ghouls.

But Li Tian hid in the space of Void Yasha, and the ghoul had nothing to do with Li Tian!

"The supreme level, we must cultivate to the supreme level early. Only in this way can we see through the teleportation, can the martial arts break the void, can we crush the * fellow Li Tian under my hands!" The ghoul muttered to himself.

The zombies sent by the ghouls to track Li Tian outside of New Kyoto City have long passed back a message that Li Tian has left Kyoto City.

Later, the ghoul sent some super zombies from Kyoto City to try to intercept Li Tian. Who knew that those zombies were gone forever, and most of them were hunted by the commanders of the top ten legions.

At that time, the Forbes Power Contest was being held in Kyoto City. It might be difficult to send super zombies from Kyoto City. When the ghouls drove back to the Devil City from Kyoto City, they sent some high-level zombies and a few super zombies nearby. Rushing all the way to the north and taking Beitung City first was a lesson for Li Tian.

But this lesson only made the ghoul a little more comfortable in his heart. He knew that with Li Tian's strength, with the strength of the heavens, Li Tian would retake Beitung City sooner or later.

But now the ghoul can only do this.

If you let the ghouls go to kill Li Tian in person, let's not say whether they can kill Li Tian, who will teleport and hide into the space at any time, but if the ghouls leave the devil city, they may go to Beitung City. It was counterattacked by the commanders of the other ten legions, especially the Yin and Yang gate near Beitung City.

Of course, this is not to say that the ghouls are afraid of the commanders of the top ten legions. Even Ouyang Kunpeng is not afraid of the ghouls, let alone other commanders.

However, now the zombies and humans have reached a balance. Once the ghouls rush into Beitung City, this balance will be broken, and the battle between zombies and humans will be triggered in advance. Regardless of the final success or failure, the plan that the three corpses must achieve may be Fell through.

Three corpses, finally escaped from the seal of the gate of the forbidden zone. If they can't reach the supreme realm, they can't return to the nether realm...

The ghoul now needs to select some super zombies he can trust to enter Beitung City, and cause Li Tian a little trouble first. If he can hurt Li Tian, it would be even better.

The ghoul's sight slowly swept across the thousands of super zombies in the square. Seeing that these super zombies were silent, the ghoul involuntarily shook his head.

These guys don't even have the courage to look at themselves, how can they shoulder the heavy task of finding Li Tian trouble? The ghoul didn't want his carefully selected zombies to become Li Tian's corpse crystals.

But at this moment, the ghoul suddenly felt that a corpse worm in the Qinling Mountains suddenly lost contact with him.

"Damn it, how is it possible? There is a fourteenth-level mutant zombie bear as the guardian in that mountain range, and that mutant zombie bear is still the product of a corpse soul. Could it be that the fourteenth-level mutant zombie bear has been taken by Li Tian? Was it killed? Did the corpse worm in the Qinling Mountains be killed by Li Tian's Red Sword?"

The ghoul's face changed drastically, and he patted the sofa angrily, patted the armrest of the sofa he was sitting on into a pile of pieces, and then stood up abruptly.

Seeing the angry expression of the ghoul, the thousands of zombies in the audience involuntarily stepped back. Only the zombie who had just received the corpse crystal thrown by the ghoul and another stupid zombie did not move.

The ghoul said angrily: "You two! Now set off to investigate the cause of my corpse's disappearance in the Qinling Mountains! No human beings you meet will be killed!"

Chapter 3622: Banquet

After Qinling Mountains, Guanloutai, Li Tian and others returned here, they immediately received a warm welcome from the Lost Monkeys.

Although the male lost monkey now has the body of a lost monkey, after all he has a human soul in his body, and he naturally understands the truth of the grace of dripping water as a spring.

Even if he had given the moral truth to Li Tian, he still couldn't resolve his gratitude to Li Tian.

"I don't need to say any extra words of thanks. You know I'm here to ask the secret of the entrance of the Qinling Labyrinth! As long as you tell me the entrance of the Qinling Labyrinth, we will clear them!" Li Tian said.

The male lost monkey knew that Li Tian did not intend to control him and the mother lost monkey. He said with gratitude: "The entrance of the Qinling Labyrinth is far in the Great Qinling Mountains. I will tell you that it is not clear for a while. I will take you there myself."

"Then let's go now!" Li Tian said anxiously.

The mother wandering monkey smiled and said, "Don't worry, don't worry, knowing that you are coming back to find us, I have sent our wandering monkey clan to prepare food and wine, and prepare a banquet for you! By tomorrow, I will be with my boyfriend. Take you to the Qinling Labyrinth!"

It turns out that after the male and female monkeys returned to the viewing platform, the two monkeys discussed and agreed that Li Tian had a lot of benefits for their clan of monkeys, so these two monkeys were Make up his mind to befriend Li Tian.

Therefore, while Li Tian was still on the road, these two wandering monkeys had already sent other wandering monkeys to find food and drinks.

Knowing that Li Tian and other humans could not eat the corpses of other mourners, the wandering monkey clan immediately ordered the mourning monkeys to divide into two groups, and one of them went all the way into the Qinling Mountains to pick fruits.

The other way is to go to nearby areas where humans once lived to find edible food and wine.

The hospitality was unbelievable, and Li Tian and the others had no choice but to accept the hospitality of these lost monkeys.

Soon, there were surviving monkeys jumping from the trees in all directions into the courtyard of the viewing platform, throwing the wild fruits they picked on the square in front of the main hall.

The nature of these monkeys is difficult to change, even if they know that they are already bereaved and cannot eat fruit, these fruits are still bitten by those monkeys.

With embarrassment on the faces of the male and female monkeys, they kept apologizing to Li Tian and others, and kept picking out the fruits that were bitten by the monkeys and throwing them away.

Fortunately, the wandering monkeys who were sent to the human settlement area to look for food were more upbeat. These guys seemed to have swept a supermarket and brought a lot of snacks in a mess. There were even two wandering monkeys carrying a box of white wine.

Needless to say, many of these snacks have expired, but it is already a very happy thing to be able to eat these expired snacks in the last days.

Look at the box of liquor, it turned out to be Xifeng liquor, a famous brand in Beitang.

This Xifeng wine began in the Yin and Shang dynasties and flourished in the Tang and Song dynasties. According to TV commercials before the end of the world, it has been passed down for three thousand years and is one of the country's four famous wines.

These wandering monkeys already think that these wild fruits and snacks are the best food that can be found in this era. If there is white wine, it can be said to be a wealthy night banquet!

Seeing fine wine, how can there be no delicacies, these expired snacks are not enough as side dishes, how can it be said that it is a feast!

Li Tian immediately instructed Tang Xiaolong, Manzi, Goubi, and Bai Jing to act separately. Tang Xiaolong, Goubi and Bai Jing were responsible for hunting. According to Li Tian's request, it was enough to pick up some game, provided that the funeral was not returned.

The barbarians are responsible for cutting down trees and setting up a bonfire in the square.

In less than an hour, Tang Xiaolong, Gou Bi and Bai Jing returned home with a full load. They hit a wild deer, two hares, four pheasants, and also caught a few fish from the stream. Since they have taken all these game meats and washed them by the creek, they can directly burn them for barbecue.

At this time, the barbarian had already chopped a tree with a mouth-thickness into firewood, and several bonfires had been lit in the square of the main hall.

Situ Ningbing, Xueji, and Wei Wei had already set up a few iron pots, and some wild vegetables, mushrooms and other wild vegetables were already in the pot.

After Tang Xiaolong and the others returned their game, they immediately started to make soup, barbecue, or stew.

For a time, the whole square overflowed with fragrance.

The two lost monkeys swallowed their saliva involuntarily, but unfortunately they, like the captain and Xiao Tianyi, could not enjoy this kind of food.

"Bear's paw! Bear's paw!"

Xiao Tianyi didn't forget to remind Li Tian to roast the bear paw next to him. Li Tian told the barbarian to distribute the four bear paws to the captain, Xiao Tianyi and the two monkeys. It was a kilogram meal.

As for the other lost monkeys, after the bonfire in front of the main hall was lit, they immediately dispersed, hiding in the trees and on the roof of the house from a distance, watching Li Tian and others curiously.

In this way, the banquet and entertainment that was originally a group of lost monkeys has become the self-entertainment of Li Tian and the group.

But fortunately, everyone's mood at this time was completely different from when they first entered Qinling, and the whole dinner party was full of laughter.

This night, a box of liquor was drunk cleanly.

The dog's nose was already drunk and unconscious without much drunk, lying on the ground and sleeping, Li Tian could only tell Tang Xiaolong and the barbarian to throw the dog's nose into the tent.

Except for the dog nose, everyone else drinks a lot.

Barbarian and Tang Xiaolong are fighting wine. Both of them are cultivators. Their current achievements in cultivation are comparable to those of martial arts heroes. Although these white scenes are very powerful, they have not been able to make them both. Drunk.

Bai Jing was already a little drunk.

Her cheeks are blushing, and under the shining of the flames, she looks particularly moving. If it weren't for the two beauties, Situ Ningbing and Xueji, who had remained absolutely sober, and looked at Li Tian from time to time, Li Tian would definitely borrow Come to a good show of chaos after drinking.

Li Tian can only sigh: "Sometimes it may not be a good thing to have more women!"

This dinner lasted until midnight before it ended.

Xue Ji helped Bai Jing into the tent to rest. Tang Xiaolong and Manzi hadn't drunk enough, but the wine was gone, and then the two goods began to compare food.

Li Tian didn't care about them either.

After so long, it's rare to relax, so relax once. When the sun comes out, they will start a new adventure and a new journey.

As for safety, Li Tian is absolutely assured now.

Captain, Little Skywing, Mutated Bat, Mutated Crow, and other 360-degree guards.

Li Tian came to Situ Ningbing, took out the moral scriptures and handed them to Situ Ningbing, and said, "This is the moral scriptures given to me by the lost monkeys. See if it is useful for our cultivation!"

After receiving what Li Tian handed over, Situ Ningbing's gaze just glanced over it, and he couldn't help but show joy, and said excitedly: "Li, this...this is not moral truth at all!"

Chapter 3623: fake?

At the beginning, Li Tian actually hoped that this moral scripture was another part of the lost Qingyun, but when he held it in his hand, he found that there was no energy fluctuation in this moral scripture in his hand, and it was not much different from ordinary books. .

However, although this moral scripture is like an ancient book, the material is not paper, nor is it like animal skin. It feels warm and moist in the hand.

Now, when Situ Ningbing said so, Li Tian couldn't help but save a layer of hope in his heart. He couldn't help but asked in doubt: "It's not the moral truth? What is that? Will it be Qingyun?"

"Nine Suns Divine Art" Situ Ningbing said solemnly.

"Nine-sun magic?" Li Tian only felt a buzzing in his head when he heard these four words.

Li Tian stared at Situ Ningbing with a dull gaze, and said with some ambiguity: "You...you said that this is Nine Suns Magic Art? Isn't Nine Suns Magic Art made up in the Golden Heroes and martial arts? Nine Suns Divine Art is a real thing. According to the description of Jin Daxia's martial arts, shouldn't it be written by the monk of Shaolin Temple? How could it exist in the Qinling Mountains?"

Naturally, Situ Ningbing couldn't explain this kind of thing. He just shook his head and said, "I don't know about these things. I will ask the male wandering monkey tomorrow to see how the male wandering monkey got this truth! The characters on this are not Sanskrit, but Xiaozhuan."

With that said, Situ Ningbing opened the cover and continued to look down.

"Wait a minute! This...what is this?"

Situ Ningbing's face suddenly had another layer of light, and his eyes were filled with excitement, and then suddenly he stopped talking, just muttering the words above in a low voice.

Li Tian only saw Situ Ningbing's hand holding the Scriptures trembling slightly, while Situ Ningbing swallowed his saliva involuntarily.

"Guru!" The sound of swallowing saliva was not loud, but in this quiet night, it seemed extra loud.

"Ningbing, what exactly is this...?" Li Tian couldn't help asking, full of curiosity.

"Pop!" Situ Ningbing closed the scriptures together, and then handed them to Li Tian and said: "We will ask the male mourning monkey about the scriptures that he obtained from the place above, and I will explain to you at that time! What I can tell you is that this is both the moral truth and the nine-sun magical technique, and perhaps it is not the moral truth-telling or the nine-sun magical technique!"

What do you mean? Li Tian's heart was full of doubts.

But if Situ Ningbing didn't say anything, Li Tian was not easy to ask.

In fact, it is not that Situ Ningbing is unwilling to say it, but that she has some information, and there is no way to fully explain it to Li Tian. Only after dawn, she asked where he found this thing, and got more. Useful information, and then she can make the most reasonable judgment.

While waiting for time, time suddenly passed slowly.

Li Tian didn't want to waste time like this, so he took the time to start practicing, and Li Tian practiced Qingyun's first article seriously.

This Qingyun first level Li Tian has already practiced several times, but every time Li Tian practices it again, he will have a new experience. It feels like this blue cloud is full of endless mysteries.

Situ Ningbing watched Li Tian practice, closed his eyes, and began to practice.

In the early morning, when the first sunlight shone on Li Tian's face through the woods, the male and female monkeys were already waiting for Li Tian.

Li Tian slowly opened his eyes. After seeing the male wandering monkey, Li Tian immediately jumped up, rushed to the male wandering monkey, and stretched out his arm.

The male wandering monkey was frightened. The female wandering monkey even pointed the steel pipe at Li Tian, looked at Li Tian in horror, and screamed.

Knowing that he was too gaffe, Li Tian hurriedly let go of the monkey, and then said apologetically: "I'm sorry, it's me who was gaffe."

With that said, Li Tian took out the moral scriptures, pointed to the scriptures and asked the mourning monkey, "Where did you get this scriptures?"

At this time, Situ Ningbing also came to Li Tian, his face also full of doubts.

Upon seeing this scene, the mother lost the monkey put away the steel pipe in her hand, and took Li Tian's words and said: "Li Tian, do you remember the question I asked you in the mourning bear cave?"

Li Tian nodded.

The female wandering monkey continued: "I remember that there are mutant crows by your side, and there is also a human soul in the body of that mutant crow. Then I can ask you where did you get your mutant crow?"

"Tashan Temple in Beitang City!" Li Tian said.

A smile appeared on the female monkey's face and said, "What do the Tashan Temple in Beitang City and the Guanloutai in Qinling have in common?"

Li Tian looked helpless and said: "Just tell me, your thinking is too jumping, you let me guess, I can't guess!"

"The first thing in common is that these places have one thing in common, that is, they are all related to ancient myths and stories! And the second thing in common is that you, you all have funerals detained by the soul." Situ Ningbing interrupted.

The female monkey nodded immediately and said, "Yes! Tashan Temple is related to the ancient Journey to the West, and this Guanloutai is related to the ancestor of Taoism. These myths have been passed down for thousands of years and many truths have been lost after dynasties. In the long river of history."

"What are you trying to say? I asked where did this truth come from?" Li Tian said anxiously.

The mother wandering monkey smiled bitterly and said: "Now let's go back to the question I asked you in the bear cave. The corpse soul detains our souls in the body of the bereaved, which is to let us pass the memory of the bereaved. He language seeks the truth of the myth from the memories of these bereaved animals! Therefore, this moral truth was found in a ruin on the back of the mountain, based on the information of other wandering monkeys!"

"According to the memory of these monkeys passed down by word of mouth for thousands of years, the ruins are the real observation towers, and the place where we are now is nothing but a special construction later for the development of tourism!" Interrupted on the side.

"I understand!" Situ Ningbing said with a look at Li Tian.

"This... the moral truth can't be fake, right?" Li Tian asked.

Situ Ningbing shook his head and said to Li Tian: "No, Li! This is what we want to find most, Qingyun second!"

Chapter 3624: Qinling Maze

This time Li Tian didn't understand it at all!

But since Situ Ningbing said so, Li Tian was naturally very happy, and hurriedly asked: "How can this be Qingyun's second chapter? I can't even feel a little energy fluctuation in this scripture!"

Situ Ningbing said: "That's because this is not a translated version!"

"Translated version?"

"Yes, if I guess it's correct, as early as more than two thousand years ago, Lao Tzu went through here even or Qingyun second chapter. The apex."

"At that time, Qingyun should still be in Sanskrit, but Lao Tzu, a man with supreme wisdom, insisted on penetrating the Sanskrit Qingyun, and based on Qingyun's own understanding, he wrote two scriptures, one of which is called Dao De Jing, and the other Said Nine Suns Magic Art.

"Isn't this nonsense? It's also Nine Suns Magic Technique, why don't you say that it is the Eight Divisions of Heavenly Dragons?" said the male mourning monkey a little unconvinced.

If Li Tian hadn't experienced so much, it is estimated that Li Tian would have the same attitude as the mourning monkey, but now Li Tian fully approves of Situ Ningbing.

Then there are eight dragons under the underground palace of Tashan Temple in Beitang City?

Situ Ningbing also expressed any doubts about the male mourning monkey, saying: "In fact, what you said is completely possible! There is also a possibility that the Nine Suns Divine Art was translated from Qingyun's second chapter, and during this translation period, Lao Tzu has gained a lot of heart and wrote the Tao Te Ching. However, the Tao Te Ching now in our hands contains both the Tao Te Ching and the Nine Suns, and the two together is Qingyun."

Did Qingyun wait until Li Tian had time to practice? Now there is no point in arguing about this.

Li Tian collected the scriptures and changed the subject and said: "Stop talking about this, now we are all ready, let's explore the Qinling maze! Maybe there are other things that we should continue to argue about!"

Now that Li Tian has said so, the male bereavement said nothing. When talking about the Qinling Maze, the male bereavement immediately showed a serious expression and said, "You need to be mentally prepared, this Qinling Maze It's far from the viewing platform. If we climb over the mountains, it is conservatively estimated that it will take about two days."

"What if you don't cross the mountains? How about flying over?" Li Tian asked.

"Fly? Do you have wings?" the male mourning monkey asked.

Li Tian directly summoned the mutant crow and said, "We can fly on bereavement! Will it be faster!"

The male mourning monkey looked at the little crow summoned by Li Tian, and said disdainfully: "This little crow is not enough for me to stuff my teeth, how can I sit!"

As soon as the male mourning monkey's voice fell, the mutant crow's body immediately became more than ten times larger, and it was already more than two meters wide with its wings open. The mutant crow slapped the male mourning monkey with its wings and hit the male mourning monkey directly. After a horse, the mutant crow said disdainfully: "Who can't stuff his teeth?"

The male mourning monkey was taken aback, and hurriedly got up from the ground, looked at the mutant crow in surprise, and exclaimed: "This...this... can't sit down with so many of us?"

"Don't sit with so many people, just sit with me!" Li Tian said.

"Then what about us?" the male mourning monkey asked.

Li Tian flipped it over and summoned mutant bats. Each of these mutant bats was more than one meter, two or three meters in size with their wings open. Not to mention sitting a monkey, even an adult is enough.

The male monkey stopped talking immediately.

Qinling Mountains, the top of the mountain.

A row of mourning birds flew past the trees on the top of the mountain, scaring the low-level mourners on the ground hurriedly hiding in the tree cave and not daring to come out. These mourning birds were naturally Li Tian's mutant crows and mutant bat squadrons.

Sitting in front of these mutant bats were Tang Xiaolong, Barbarians and Dog Nose. In the middle were two mourning monkeys, followed by Xiao Tianyi and the captain.

As for the ladies such as Situ Ningbing, they were unwilling to practice in the space of Void Yaksha, while Void Yaksha was nestled on Li Tian's head, enjoying the rare sunshine.

At the beginning, the two bereavement monkeys were a little afraid, and worried that there would be other bereaved birds in the sky. But since the two bereavement birds were killed by Li Tian with the "red behead", they have never Encountered other bereavement attacks.

The other bereaved birds saw Li Tian and the others from a distance, turned around and fled.

In this way, the male and female lost monkeys are now talking and laughing freely, completely treating this Qinling maze expedition as an outing.

It has been flying for more than half a day, and the sun has gradually moved westward.

Looking at the old tree at the foot of the Cangcang, a piece of green that could not be seen, Li Tian only felt that human beings are really small in front of this nature.

"Here! I'll be here soon! Did you see the waterfall on the top of the mountain ahead? The entrance of the Qinling Labyrinth is under the waterfall. We will descend after passing this mountain!" The male wandering monkey pointed to the waterfall on the front mountain and said .

Following the fingers of the male mourning monkey, Li Tian and the others saw a waterfall on the top of the mountain.

The waterfall seemed to fly out of the mountain suddenly, and in the process of falling, it fell to the middle of the mountain and suddenly disappeared.

Li Tian and the others immediately speeded up their flight, flew over a mountain, and came to the foot of the waterfall. The mutant bat and the mutant crow slowly fell, and Li Tian and the others immediately jumped down.

Looking up at the waterfall from the foot of the mountain is even more spectacular, and under the waterfall, a black cave is very obvious.

"Li Tian, we will send you here. We are waiting outside for the good news of your victory, so we won't accompany you in. The Qinling Labyrinth is said to be dangerous and abnormal. You must be careful!" Said with some fear on his face.

Li Tian didn't reluctantly, after thanking him, he led Manzi, Tang Xiaolong and others to start climbing the cliff.

For ordinary people, wanting to climb these cliffs is no different from climbing to the sky, but for Li Tian and others, this is nothing at all.

Li Tian controlled "Hong Zhan" to directly dig out caves with the thickness of a bowl on the cliffs, while Tang Xiaolong and Manzi cut down trees nearby and stuffed wooden sticks into those caves.

In less than an hour, an artificial plank road appeared from the bottom of the cave to the bottom of the waterfall.

Climbing up the plank road and coming to the foot of the waterfall, Li Tian and others discovered that there is an irregular platform of several hundred square meters at the foot of the waterfall. The water of the waterfall falls on this platform, and then flows along this platform to another. Both sides.

And under this waterfall, there really is a square hole, the waterfall half of the hole, half exposed.

"Ah! It's amazing! I didn't expect that the entrance of the Qinling maze would be in such a beautiful place!" Tang Xiaolong said with some excitement.

With such a beautiful scenery, Li Tian immediately took Situ Ningbing and others out of the space, so that they could also feel the waterfall.

However, as soon as the dog's nose came out, he twitched his nose a few times, and said to Li Tian, "Boss, there are people in this cave!"

Chapter 3625: Qinling Maze (2)

Is there someone in the cave?

Li Tian couldn't help being surprised when he heard the dog nose say this.

The Qinling Mountains are vast. According to the monkey's statement, even if the monkey's actions are so sensitive, it takes three days to get here. Even if Li Tian and others ride on mutant crows and mutant bats, it takes more than half a day. Moreover, this cave is located in a remote place, and there are no traces of human life in a radius of tens of kilometers. How can there be people in this cave?

Could it be that the information about the entrance to the Qinling maze has been known to others? Then the man climbed quickly and entered the Qinling maze ahead of Li Tian and others?

"Huh!" "Huh!" After a few times, Barbarian, Situ Ningbing and others took out their weapons, put their weapons across their chests, made a defensive posture, and looked at the inside of the cave vigilantly.

Li Tian came to the dog nose and asked with some doubts: "Dog nose, you can't smell it wrong, right? This is a cliff! You have also seen the steepness of this cliff. If there is no cultivator, you will be able to climb up. It's hard!"

The dog's nose was asked like this, and worried that he smelled it wrong, so the dog's nose closed his eyes and twitched his nose vigorously.

"Little boss, you can't be wrong! There must be someone in this cave! And there is more than one!" The dog nodded and said seriously.

Li Tian knows that since the dog nose has followed him, the smell of the dog nose has not been wrong. Since the dog nose has been judged twice and has reached a consistent judgment, the probability of possible errors will be greater.

"Then can you tell how many people are there?" Li Tian asked.

The dog nose shook his head this time, and said with some uncertainty: "Little boss, I can be sure that there is at least one human in this cave. As for the others, I don't know whether they are zombies or other creatures, I'm not sure!"

By saying this, the dog nose is basically certain that the bounty hunters in this cave are not the first to climb.

"Goubi, Xiaolong, you two enter with me, and the rest of you are here to guard!" Li Tian said to Goubi and Tang Xiaolong.

Situ Ningbing held a butcher knife and said to Li Tian, "Li, I feel that this cave is full of danger, I will go with you!"

As Situ Ningbing said, Xue Ji and Bai Jing also wanted to go in with Li Tian, while Barbarians and Captain naturally didn't want to fall behind, and Wei Wei and Xiao Tianyi naturally wanted to participate in this kind of adventure together.

Li Tian's team this time is too large. It is obviously unrealistic to enter together, and if the cave is really full of danger, Li Tian alone can't take care of so many people.

Li Tian can only temporarily divide this team into two teams based on the strength and abilities of all members of this team. The first team is Li Tian taking Situ Ningbing, Tang Xiaolong, Goubi, Bai Jing and Xiao Tianyi to the cave. The second team is Xue Ji, Captain, Barbarians, 2D and Mutant Crows. They are in charge of the cave. Guard outside.

For the safety of their respective teams, Li Tianjiang Dixing Yasha and Feitian Yasha were also assigned to the second team.

After this division, Li Tian gave another compulsory order and promised that if the danger in the cave was eliminated, Bai Jing would shoot and give a warning, and then let the second team in, so as to calm everyone's complaints.

Li Tian and the others proceeded in a triangular phalanx, with Li Tian in the front, Goubi and Bai Jing side by side behind Li Tian, followed by Tang Xiaolong, Situ Ningbing and Xiao Tianyi.

As soon as they walked into the cave, Li Tian and others immediately felt that the mountain was full of yin air, and the yin wind blew out from the cave from time to time, making everyone feel a chill.

The entrance to this cave looked like it was formed naturally, but as Li Tian and others kept walking in, they found more and more traces of artificial excavation. This kind of trace has undergone natural weathering for thousands of years, and it is difficult to see if it is not carefully identified.

Moreover, although the entrance of this cave was built under the waterfall, the cave as a whole was very dry, completely different from yesterday's Sangxiong Cave. Li Tian suspected that this was because the cave was halfway up the mountain.

There is no light source in the cave. It is very dark. Dog nose and Bai Jing can't walk in this darkness, they can only turn on the flashlight.

With the faint light source of the flashlight, Li Tian and others can see the situation in the cave more clearly, but there is no special place in the cave, and everyone's mind is not at all looking at the cave building.

The walking speed of Li Tian and others is not too slow, but this cave is like a bottomless cave. After walking for five or six minutes, no one can see any changes in the cave.

And at this moment, the dog nose suddenly said: "Little...little boss, the man seems to have found us, and is constantly thinking about moving in the cave, but the speed of movement is very slow!"

"It doesn't matter, our purpose is to explore this Qinling maze, as long as it doesn't hinder our exploration!" Li Tian said.

At this moment, Li Tian and others saw that the cave was gradually getting taller and wider. When they first entered, the cave was no more than two meters high and two meters wide, and now the cave's ground reaches the top of the cave. The height of at least has exceeded three meters, and the width has also exceeded at least three meters. Of course, this one has become taller and wider without knowing it.

And there are also some more stone carvings on the walls of this cave, but these stone carvings are also due to weathering, and basically you can't see what they are.

"Li, have you noticed that we seem to be walking downhill continuously." Situ Ningbing said suddenly.

When Situ Ningbing said this, everyone felt that it was really like this. It's just that the passage of this cave looks flat with the naked eye. If you don't feel it, it's hard to feel that this is going down.

Just as the width and height of this cave change unconsciously.

"Little...little boss..., what do you think it is?" The dog's nose shone the flashlight into the cave in the distance, his voice trembling.

The flashlight couldn't be seen to the end, and in the dark distance of the cave, there seemed to be a few egg-sized eyes emitting cold light, looking at Li Tian and others.

Because of the dog nose and Bai Jing's flashlight, Li Tian and others couldn't see the distant scene clearly. Li Tian immediately said, "Turn off the flashlight!"

"Pop!" The flashlight was turned off, the cave was plunged into darkness, and the eyes in the cave suddenly disappeared.

The eyes appeared suddenly and disappeared more suddenly, full of weirdness.

The dog's nose didn't have much strength and not much insight. He was so frightened that his whole body was trembling, and he said tremblingly: "No...it's not a ghost, right?"

Chapter 3626: Qinling Maze (3)

When the dog nose said these words, a stray wind came out from the cave again, making everyone shudder.

"Dog nose, turn on the flashlight again!" Li Tian said.

Although the dog's nose was frightened, he turned on the flashlight according to Li Tian's request. The flashlight shone, and several egg-sized eyes appeared in the darkness.

"Little... Boss, look!" Dog nose was so frightened this time that his words were uncomfortable.

Li Tian took the flashlight from the dog's nose and shone the light of the flashlight on the ground, and then he thought about looking far away, there are still eyes in the darkness.

When Li Tian raised the flashlight, those eyes appeared again.

"I'm afraid it's not the eyes, it should be something in front of it, that thing won't shine by itself, it will only shine when it is illuminated by the cogwheel flashlight!" Situ Ningbing said.

Situ Ningbing's words gradually calmed down the dog's nose. The dog's nose twitched vigorously, and as expected, there was no sign of biological activity in front of him.

The dog's nose will inevitably be a little embarrassing if he is nervous to make such a mistake.

Everyone speeded up their pace and continued to move forward. They walked less than five hundred meters. Suddenly two vermilion wooden doors appeared in the cave. The two wooden doors were half open at this time. On the door, there are many egg-sized gems. These gems are shining under the light of the flashlight, making them particularly dazzling.

"Little boss, so many gems, we are rich!" Dog nose looked at these gems and said with some excitement.

"Although this gem is precious, what surprised me is that this wooden door, after thousands of years of weathering, is still intact, without any trace of damage!" Situ Ningbing said.

When Situ Ningbing said so, the others immediately discovered the weirdness.

How can ordinary wood experience thousands of years of immortality?

Li Tian stretched his hand to these two wooden doors. Suddenly, a bolt of lightning-like energy came from the wooden door, "Om!" This energy was transmitted into Li Tian's arm, making Li Tian's entire arm It seemed to have been electrocuted, and she felt a little numb.

And Li Tian immediately backed away and said to everyone vigilantly: "Beware of danger. There is electricity on this wooden door, don't touch it with your hands!"

Tang Xiaolong and Goubi had already prepared to pry the jewel off the door with their blades, but when Li Tian said so, they immediately returned.

"Little boss, how come there is electricity on this door? This cave can never be built after the founding of the People's Republic of China?" Tang Xiaolong asked incredulously.

Dog nose and Bai Jing also had this doubt.

Li Tian did not answer Tang Xiaolong's question, but lowered his head and looked at his fingers.

Although Li Tian's hand had left the wooden door, Li Tian still felt some tingling on his fingers.

Li Tian discovered that his  were stained with the red on the wooden door. It was this red that kept releasing energy like an electric arc, which made Li Tian feel as if his fingers were still touching the low-voltage electricity. same.

Looking at Li Tian's fingers, Situ Ningbing's nose also twitched twice, frowning and saying, "Li, how can I smell a  smell on your fingers!"

The smell of blood!

When Situ Ningbing said so, Li Tian, Goubisi and others immediately smelled the smell.

Li Tian quickly wiped the red from his fingers with a piece of cloth, and then took out a flashlight and shone it on the two wooden doors.

This photo doesn't matter, Li Tian and others saw that the two wooden doors just changed their appearance under their noses.

"This...this...what is this?" Bai Jing said in horror.

This Nima was not a wooden door at all. Suddenly a few cracks broke open on the door, and some red-red mucus was constantly flowing down the door.

And after these mucus flowed on the ground, it turned out to be slowly creeping towards Li Tian and the others as if there was life.

Looking at the gem on the wooden door, it is not a gem either. Among the transparent crystals, there suddenly appeared round and round black light spheres, as if they were turning like eyeballs, as if they were looking for Li Tian and others.

Li Tian immediately greeted everyone back.

However, Li Tian found that except for the fact that he was constantly retreating, the others said that they didn't listen to him at all, and they took out their weapons and attacked the two doors.

"Don't do it! Go back!" Li Tian shouted anxiously.

But neither Tang Xiaolong nor Situ Ningbing seemed to hear Li Tian at all.

Li Tian saw Tang Xiaolong's fist banging on the door, he was immediately stuck with scarlet mucus. The more Tang Xiaolong struggled, the more he was stuck.

Dog nose stretched out his hand to pull Tang Xiaolong, but he and Tang Xiaolong were swallowed by the red mucus.

"Little Dragon!"

Li Tian suddenly had a heartache.

When Li Tian wanted to reach out to pull Situ Ningbing, trying to stop Situ Ningbing, Li Tian's hand unexpectedly grabbed a hole.

Situ Ningbing rushed forward, but his steps were caught in the red slime, and Situ Ningbing continued to sink in the red slime as if he was drowning.

"Ningbing!"

Next came Bai Jing, who raised the sniper rifle in his hand and shot frantically at the door.

The bullet hit the door, and the red slime splashed all over. The slime seemed to be alive, unexpectedly flying to Bai Jing's body automatically.

"How could this be?"

Li Tian knelt down on the ground with a bang, allowing the scarlet slime to crawl on him, swallowing him all over.

"Om!"

At this moment, the "Red Zhan" in Li Tian's hand trembled suddenly, and Li Tian suddenly awoke from his panic.

Li Tian didn't know when he saw the flashlight dropped to the ground. The light of the flashlight was already weak, and the battery was about to run out.

The two wooden doors remained the same, and there was no mucus flowing out, and the gems on the wooden doors lost their luster, and there was no eye movement.

Li Tian found that the eyes of Situ Ningbing, Goubi, Bai Jing, and Tang Xiaolong had no gleam in their eyes, standing motionless in front of the wooden door.

"Could it be an illusion just now? But when did we fall into the illusion?" Li Tian thought with some confusion.

Li Tian came to Situ Ningbing's side, first patted Situ Ningbing to wake up, and then patted Tang Xiaolong and Dog Nose.

"I... what happened to us just now?" Situ Ningbing shook his head abruptly and asked in a somewhat confused manner.

"It should be in a hallucination!" Li Tian said while waking up Bai Jing.

After waking up Bai Jing, Li Tian suddenly discovered that Xiao Tianyi was missing, and couldn't help asking: "Huh? Why is Xiao Tianyi missing?"

Chapter 3627: Qinling Maze (4)

Li Tian remembered clearly that when his hand touched the wooden door, Xiao Tianyi was still standing behind Bai Jing, but now Xiao Tianyi was gone.

"Xiao Tianyi shouldn't suffer any accidents, right?" Situ Ningbing and Bai Jing said in unison.

Li Tian shook his head and said, "It shouldn't be possible, but Xiao Tianyi has level 15 zombie strength!"

"Little boss, what shall we do now? Should we continue to walk inside the maze or go outside first?" Tang Xiaolong asked anxiously.

Although Xiao Tianyi is only a zombie, after nearly two months of fighting and living together, Tang Xiaolong, Li Tian and others have a very deep relationship with Xiao Tianyi.

To use a sentence that is not very appropriate, Xiao Tianyi was grown up by Li Tian and others, and Xiao Tianyi kept calling Li Tian as Li Tian's father and several other women as mothers. A kind of non-blood relationship.

"Doggy nose, it's up to you now!" Li Tian couldn't tell where Xiao Tianyi went, so he could only look at dog nose and said.

The dog's nose twitched vigorously, and then said to Li Tian with a puzzled expression: "Little boss, Xiao Tianyi should have gone into the cave, and he is still walking inward now!"

"How could this happen? It stands to reason that Xiao Tianyi will not leave us alone!" Bai Jing said.

"Yes, we are all hallucinated, and Xiao Tianyi is a zombie, so it should not be in this illusion. If we have any accidents, then Xiao Tianyi should be guarding us and will never leave us." Situ Ningbing Also said.

Now, everything is just speculation. Only when we find Xiao Tianyi can we know what happened when Li Tian and others fell into the illusion.

Li Tian and the others immediately passed through the wooden door, accelerated their speed, and moved in the direction of Xiao Tianyi. The dog nose reports Xiao Tianyi's movements at any time.

"Patter!"

"Patter!"

Because Li Tian and others accelerated their running speed, the flashlight light became shaking up and down. Under the faint flashlight light, there were only their footsteps and gasping sounds in the cave.

At this time, apart from the dog nose saying a word from time to time to report Xiao Tianyi's situation, no one else was talking.

The passage of this maze seems to have no bottom. It is conservatively estimated that Li Tian and others have been chasing Xiao Tianyi for ten minutes, but they still haven't got out of this passage.

Just as Li Tian was thinking of this question in his mind, a faint light suddenly appeared in front of the passage.

"Little boss, it seems that the exit has arrived!" Tang Xiaolong said excitedly.

"No, it's not an exit. Look at the light, it's not natural light at all, it's more like...fluorescence!" Situ Ningbing said.

This fluorescence is light green, and it looks very strange in the dark passage.

Dog nose shuddered involuntarily. Dog nose really wanted Li Tian to throw him directly into the space of Void Yasha, but at this time he couldn't say such a thing anyway.

At this time, there was no retreat, unless Li Tian said to give up looking for Xiao Tianyi, but this was completely impossible.

Let Li Tian never give up his brothers, his friends, or his relatives.

Li Tian and others speeded up their pace and rushed over.

Everyone's eyes lit up and came to this fluorescent light source.

Sure enough, this is not an exit, but only a part of this passage.

Li Tian and others discovered that they had entered a square stone room about 15 meters in length, width and height. There was still a passage about two meters wide and high on the wall facing straight ahead, and that passage was still there. Darkness.

"Little boss, you see there are some sarcophagi here! Is the Qinling Labyrinth a tomb?" Tang Xiaolong said curiously when he saw two sarcophagi on the left and right sides of the stone chamber.

Li Tian shook his head and said: "Don't worry about things here, we will continue to chase Xiao Tianyi!"

Speaking that Li Tian had already passed through the stone room, he continued to run forward with Tang Xiaolong and others.

After running less than a hundred meters away, the dog's nose suddenly grabbed a handful of Li Tian, and said in horror: "There seems to be something coming out of the sarcophagus behind..."

Li Tian and the others stopped immediately. Li Tian looked at the dog's nose and asked anxiously: "What do you mean? What do you mean by something coming out?"

As soon as Li Tian's words fell, four black shadows jumped in in front of the passageway of the stone room.

Seeing these four black shadows, Dog Nose could no longer bear the fear in his heart, and exclaimed loudly: "Zombie...Zombie!"

That's right, the four black shadows turned out to be zombies, just like the zombies that appeared in TV movies, they were dressed in the official clothes of the Qing Dynasty, and they were wearing flower lings on their heads.

If in the past, Li Tian would definitely be surprised, but now it is the end of the world, and there are zombies, it is not surprising that zombie horses appear.

The four zombies, their bodies are stiff, and their arms are also stiff. They act in exactly the same way as the zombies in the zombie movie. They lined up in a vertical row and jumped towards Li Tian and others.

Bai Jing was about to raise his sniper rifle, but was stopped by Li Tian and said, "The guns are probably useless to these zombies!"

Before Li Tian moved, Tang Xiaolong laughed wildly and rushed to the four zombies.

Tang Xiaolong's figure was like black lightning in the passage. He rushed in front of the zombie in an instant, and punched the head of the zombie in the front.

"boom!"

The imaginary scene where the zombies were smashed into flesh by Tang Xiaolong's punch did not appear. The zombies seemed to be dominoes, one by one fell to the ground, and then the zombies bounced up again.

Tang Xiaolong was taken aback. His fist had a power of eight thousand jin, and he didn't even smash these zombies to pieces, but this zombie was like a tumbler, and immediately bounced after falling.

Tang Xiaolong didn't believe in this evil, and punched again.

"Huh!"

The zombie's claws grabbed Tang Xiaolong's body and tore Tang Xiaolong's clothes to pieces, but fortunately, they did not scratch the wound on Tang Xiaolong's body.

Tang Xiaolong's current body, as long as he uses ten-fold refining, even ordinary swords can't hurt him. The fourteenth-level mutant bear is very difficult to damage Tang Xiaolong's vitals, let alone these four zombies.

The corner of Tang Xiaolong's mouth showed a trace of complacency, and his fist had already hit the zombie's chest.

"boom!"

The huge force blasted the zombie directly, and the three zombies behind were blasted into the stone chamber with a punch by Tang Xiaolong.

However, the bodies of the four zombies fell on the floor of the stone chamber lightly, without any feeling of injury on their bodies, jumping again towards Tang Xiaolong.

Chapter 3628: Taoist Refining Corpse (1)

In the face of these aggressive zombies, Tang Xiaolong did his best and hit these zombies with more than a dozen punches, but with each punch Tang Xiaolong felt like he was hitting a tumbler, these zombies would float lightly. Go out, and then jump towards him again.

The more Tang Xiaolong fought, the more frightened he became, and the more he fought, the less emboldened.

Although these zombies don't seem to have any life traits, they seem to be more difficult to deal with than zombies. It's like these zombies know how to handle a thousand jins, or they know the truth of Tai Chi with softness.

On the other side, Li Tian did not help Tang Xiaolong and organized Situ Ningbing and Bai Jing to help. Instead, he asked: "Dog nose, before we entered this stone room, why didn't you smell these zombies? "

Dog nose said with a grieved expression: "Little boss, these zombies do not smell of zombies or carrion, and they are lying motionless in the sarcophagus, completely integrated with the sarcophagus. I have no way to judge. They exist!"

Li Tian didn't mean to hold Dog Nose accountable, and he encouraged Dog Nose again.

Situ Ningbing said to Li Tian, "Li, have you found anything unusual?"

"Abnormal?" Li Tian asked suspiciously.

"That's right! The Qinling maze is just from the excavation of the cave, and it has a history of thousands of years, but why are there zombies in the Qing Dynasty here?" Situ Ningbing said.

"Yes!" Bai Jing nodded and said.

Li Tian thought of this question and said, "Is this zombie brought here from another place later?"

"Very likely!" Situ Ningbing nodded and said.

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong was entangled by these zombies without the slightest temper, and he couldn't help but said to Li Tian and others: "Little boss, these zombies can't be beaten to death, they can't be beaten back, they just pester me like this, what should I do now? "

"Huh!"

Li Tian directly controlled "Red Zhan" and flew towards the four zombies. A red light flashed, and "Red Slash" directly split the head of a zombie.

There was no dark slime, no corpse crystals, and the zombie actually raised his head and glanced at Li Tian, and continued to attack Tang Xiaolong.

Li Tian couldn't help being taken aback.

This zombie is not a zombie, and there is no corpse crystal in his head. How can these zombies be killed?

If Captain and Xiao Tianyi were here, they might be able to eat this zombie directly as a snack. Uh, the corpse of the zombie had already lost moisture in a dry manner. If you want to come to Captain and Xiao Tianyi, they wouldn't like it.

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

Li Tian continuously controlled the "Red Slash" to split the zombie into several pieces. Fortunately, this zombie was not like a zombie. After being split into several pieces, it collapsed and would not die again without being stiff and continuing to attack.

The other three zombies showed horrified expressions on their faces when they saw this scene. They backed up, jumped and fled into the sarcophagus, and even covered the lid of the sarcophagus.

Li Tianke didn't kindly say to let these zombies go, and directly controlled the "Red Slash" with the sarcophagus and the zombies, and split these things into several pieces together.

"I didn't expect that there would be zombies in this Qinling Labyrinth." The dog said with a long nose.

"Will the person you smell at the entrance is also a zombie?" Li Tian asked.

The dog nose immediately shook his head and vowed to say: "Impossible! That is definitely a human being, as long as it is a human, no matter how long he gets along with zombies and zombies, he will always have a human scent."

"Oops!" Dog nose suddenly shouted: "Little boss, you... punish me! Just watched you and the zombies fight, but forgot Xiao Tianyi. Now Xiao Tianyi doesn't know if he has gone far or what The reason, I can't smell Little Tianyi now!"

Li Tian and Situ Ningbing were extremely anxious when they heard the words of the dog nose, but now is not the time to blame the dog nose.

"Don't blame yourself, let's keep going forward, maybe go a little further, you can smell Xiaotianyi again!" Li Tian could only relieve the dog's nose like this.

Having said that, the speed at the feet of Li Tian and others did not stop at all, speeding up and continuing to rush forward.

After passing this stone chamber, the * of the passage in front is getting steeper and steeper, even with the naked eye you can clearly see that the * continues to go down.

I walked down about 500 meters, and the ramp in front suddenly turned into stone steps. Each of these stone steps was about one meter in width, and there were some strange words on the stone steps.

Li Tian asked Situ Ningbing, but Situ Ningbing shook his head, saying that she didn't recognize these words, and that these words looked more like some kind of totem.

Did not continue to entangle this issue.

Li Tian and others continued to walk down these stone steps. Upon reaching these stone steps, Li Tian found that the passage had already had some curvature. As he kept walking under the net, Li Tian found that the passage was like a circular staircase. The same, spinning down continuously.

It's just that the arc is not large, and you won't feel that kind of dizziness when you walk.

"Where does this stone step lead? It feels like it's gone!" Tang Xiaolong said to himself.

"Little boss, I can smell Xiao Tianyi again, right below, and... and Xiao Tianyi has stopped!" Dog nose said a little excitedly.

Li Tian immediately speeded up again, rushing down almost at the speed of crossing two or three stone steps with every step.

A minute later, the stone steps have come to an end.

What appeared in front of Li Tian and others was a huge space with a total area of more than 10,000 square meters. The top of the entire space was covered by a layer of faint fluorescence. Therefore, although the light in this huge space is unnatural, it is not It's not pitch black.

In this huge space, there are a total of nine, ninety and eighty-one stone pillars. The diameter of these stone pillars is about five meters or more. At the bottom of these stone pillars, there is a giant beast carved under each one, as if the top of this space Being carried by these ninety-nine-eighty-one giant beasts.

"This...what kind of giant beasts are these? I have never seen these creatures in history books!" Tang Xiaolong said in surprise.

Yes, these creatures are definitely not the creatures that there should be on earth!

But at this time, Li Tian, Situ Ningbing and others were no longer paying attention to these stone pillars or the giant beasts under the stone pillars.

Li Tian looked at Xiao Tianyi in the center of the space, as well as two Taoist priests wearing black and white robes standing left and right.

"Taoist? There are Taoist priests here? Is it the Maoshan Taoist who came to catch zombies?" Tang Xiaolong looked at the two Taoist priests suspiciously.

"No! They are not Taoist Maoshan, but Taoist refining corpses!" Situ Ningbing said.

Chapter 3629: Taoist Refining Corpse (2)

"Jie Jie! I thought the reputation of our corpse refining priests had long been buried in the dust of history, but I didn't expect that someone would know of our existence... Hey, this little girl doll is not easy!" The one wearing white The Taoist priest said.

Taoist priest?

What the * is this?

Li Tian, Bai Jing, Tang Xiaolong and Dog Nose were all confused.

"I also saw the record of corpse refiners in an ancient document by chance. These corpse refiners are different from those who seek the way of longevity through cultivating, alchemy, and refining, but they are different. Use the corpse to cultivate one's body, cultivate oneself through the corpse, and finally achieve immortality." Situ Ningbing said.

"Hey, I like you little girl doll more and more. I really want to make you into a corpse to accompany us!"

The Taoist priest in black robes continued: "Yes, we are the corpse refiners who steal the longevity through corpse refinement. Our corpse refiners are not tolerated by the righteous ways of the rivers and lakes. From ancient times to the present, we can only hide in the mountains for a living. In order to reinforce the life of a favorite zombie, we even had to do those tomb-robbing corpses!"

"Jie Jie, we had already used illusion at the entrance of this maze to prevent you from coming in, but you guys who do not live or die are still chasing here. Jie Jie, if you don't want to die and it's ugly, just roll over. , Let grandpa I make you into zombies, grandpa will leave you a whole body!" The white robe Taoist said with a strange smile.

"Huh!"

Situ Ningbing had already blocked the butcher knife in his hands, but Bai Jing had already held up the sniper rifle, and the black hole pointed its muzzle at the two Taoist priests.

Li Tian moved his gaze on Xiao Tianyi's face, and found that Xiao Tianyi's eyes had turned scarlet red, and he did not speak or walk around, standing beside two Taoist priests like puppets.

The Taoist priest in a white robe saw Li Tian looking at Xiao Tianyi, and said with a strange smile: "Jiejie, kid, are you also a fellow of the same Tao? But looking at the little zombie you cultivated, it's really a waste of an excellent one. The corpse refining materials. But don't worry, now this little zombie is in our hands, we will cultivate this little zombie into a thousand-year-old zombie!"

"Hey, that's right, so you can die without regrets!" The black-robed Taoist priest continued.

"Death? I never thought about it! But what I need to remind you is that it is not a zombie, but my partner, my son..."

Before Li Tian finished speaking, he was interrupted by the white-robed Taoist priest.

"Jiejie, son? Haha, it seems you are a fellow man. The corpse refining priest has long lost the opportunity to have offspring because he went against the law of heaven. But we also like this little zombie. I can't satisfy you!"

"Hey, what nonsense with this kid, quickly solve it, let's hurry up and train this little zombie!" The black robe Taoist said impatiently.

"Jie Jie, I haven't spoken to outsiders for a long time. I can't help it, I can't help it!" said the white-robed Taoist priest violently waved the whisk in his hand, and a few zombies immediately jumped out from behind the giant stone pillar.

These zombies are completely different from the zombies in the passage. Judging from the clothes they wear, these zombies seem to have a longer dynasty, but they don't know how strong they are than the zombies outside.

"puff!"

"puff!"

As soon as these zombies popped out, the nails of the two palms immediately stretched out a lot, like sharp claws.

"Jiejie, boy, let you feel the power of the zombies that the corpse refiner spent thousands of years to cultivate!" The white-robed Taoist said with a wild smile.

After saying this, the two black-and-white robed Taoists placed one hand on Xiao Tianyi's body, carried Xiao Tianyi and jumped back ten meters, then watched with interest the zombies rushing towards Li Tian and others .

Seeing these zombies jumping and rushing over, Li Tian directly sent Bai Jing, Situ Ningbing, and Dog Nose into the space of Void Yasha.

"Huh? Why did the female doll next to this kid suddenly disappear?" The white-robed Taoist priest looked at Li Tian questioningly.

And the black-robed Taoist priest beside him also looked puzzled, and said, "Could it be...could it be that this kid is not capable of immortality?"

"Impossible! How can the corpse-refining Taoist practice immortal arts at the same time!" said the white-robed Taoist priest.

At this time, Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong were already fighting with those zombies.

Tang Xiaolong's iron fist constantly bombarded the three zombies surrounding him, and every time he threw a punch, there was a metal-like crash in the huge space.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

Tang Xiaolong discovered that these zombies didn't want to be the same as the zombies outside. They fell to the ground with a bang and backed up when they touched them, and they were completely head-on with Tang Xiaolong.

Head-to-head, who is Tang Xiaolong afraid of, even if these zombies are real steel, Tang Xiaolong is confident to beat these zombies into discus.

And those zombies' attacks on Tang Xiaolong, Tang Xiaolong can basically be ignored.

"This... these two boys don't seem to be messy. Look at that black monkey, it seems that they have already cultivated the incorruptible body of the Vajra!" said the white-robed Taoist priest with some surprise.

"Hey, King Kong is not bad, isn't this the best material for corpse refining we dream of? This material is even better than the little zombie we have now! This time we two are lucky!" Black-robed Taoist priest Said with a smile of ecstasy.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

Tang Xiaolong stretched out his left arm to clamp a zombie under his armpit, firmly held down the zombie, and then stretched out his right fist to constantly bombard the zombie's back.

"Kacha!" After a thousand years of refining, this zombie had already possessed the body of King Kong, but it still couldn't withstand Tang Xiaolong's bombardment of more than eight thousand catties with each punch.

The back cervical vertebra of this zombie was completely broken by Tang Xiaolong. When Tang Xiaolong released the zombie, although the zombie was not dead, it could only stiffen its body and slap it on the ground, as if it had no power. Twitching like a mechanical doll.

Tang Xiaolong sneered and rushed to the next zombie.

Looking at the two corpse refining priests, Tang Xiaolong's spine was interrupted by the zombies they had refined for thousands of years. There was no trace of distress or reluctance on their faces, instead they were full of excitement. The ground shone with light.

"Hey! Good luck this time! There are such good corpse refining materials automatically delivered to the door!"

"Jie Jie! With such a good corpse refining material, not only can we two increase our skills, maybe we can also peek into the secret!"

The white-robed Taoist suddenly felt anxious, and said in surprise, "No, what about the other kid..."

Chapter 3630: Taoist Refining Corpse (3)

Under the eyes of the white-robed Taoist priest and the black-robed Taoist priest, Li Tian had already cast a teleport and appeared behind them.

The white-robed Taoist priests and the black-robed Taoist priests have been corpse-refining priests for thousands of years, but in terms of age, they are almost at the same level as the Sixiang old man.

Although the two Taoist priests practiced through the dark magic of corpse refining, they were not weak after thousands of years of cultivation.

As soon as Li Tian appeared behind the two Taoist priests, the two Taoist priests immediately noticed it.

"Huh!"

With a flash of red light, "Hong Zhan" directly slashed at the white-robed Taoist priest, but "Hong Zhan" cut a gap. The "Red Zhan" just cut the white-robed Taoist robe and cut the robe away Mouth.

The bodies of the white-robed Taoist priest and the black-robed Taoist priest turned into two figures, one white and one black. In a flash, they had flown more than ten meters.

However, these two Taoist priests only took care of their own escape, but left Xiao Tianyi beside Li Tian, and Li Tian's first step was to retake Xiao Tianyi. They didn't really think about this first move. Two corpse refining priests were injured.

"Little Tianyi!"

"Little Tianyi!"

Li Tian called out Xiao Tianyi's name several times, but Xiao Tianyi was like a puppet, without any response at all.

His eyes were dull, he could not hear Li Tian's call, and his body was motionless.

"Hey, don't waste your time, this little zombie has been controlled by our brothers, unless our brothers personally release the control, or you can kill our brothers, otherwise you will be wishful thinking!" Black robe Taoist priest Said with a smile.

The white-robed Taoist looked at Li Tian with a strange smile and said, "Jie Jie, such a sinister kid, he would appear behind us in an instant to attack us! Said sneak attack..."

When the white-robed Taoist was speaking, he deliberately stretched his voice, and then suddenly said with a strange cry: "Our corpse refiner is the ancestor of the sneak attack."

Li Tian suddenly felt that the ground was shaking.

"Snapped!"

"Snapped!"

Suddenly two scrawny claws stretched out from under the ground. These two claws grabbed Li Tian's legs from left to right, and controlled Li Tian to the ground.

At the same time, a gloomy wind blew Li Tian, the white-robed Taoist screamed strangely, his body moved suddenly, and he stretched out a palm that was whiter and tenderer than a woman, and slammed Li Tian's face.

"Humph!"

Faced with the attack of this white-robed Taoist priest, Li Tiansi didn't care, and with a cold snort, he controlled "Red Zhan" and immediately slashed towards these two claws.

"Kacha!" "Kacha!" With two sounds, the two paws protruding from the ground were immediately cut off by Li Tian's "Red Cut".

But Li Tian reached out and grabbed Xiao Tianyi, and instantly disappeared in place. Li Tian directly entered the space of Void Yaksha, brought Xiao Tianyi to this space first, and then Li Tian returned to the place again.

Seeing Li Tian suddenly disappearing with Xiao Tianyi, and seeing Li Tian suddenly appearing, the white-robed Taoist stranger yelled at Li Tian again.

Seeing the white and tender palms of the white-robed Taoist priest, Li Tian directly put the "Red Zhan" away, sneered, and used the broken soul palm, wanting to compete with the white-robed Taoist palm.

However, the palm of the white-robed Taoist priest stretched out halfway, and suddenly changed his strokes, turning his palms into claws, and the white and tender palms immediately turned into pickled chicken claws.

The palm turned into claws, seemingly plain, but Li Tian saw the black smoke wrapped around the pickled chicken claws, and a cold breath came to his face.

"Jiejie! Boy, feel the power of my Jiuyou ghost claws!" The white-robed Taoist sneered when he saw Li Tian didn't disappear instantly.

Li Tian didn't dare to be careless, but he didn't want to use teleportation or flee.

Li Tian changed his palm to finger, and suddenly two Xuantian fingerings popped out in succession. Two powerful air masses blasted out of Li Tian's palm and flew straight to the white-robed Taoist priest.

Now Li Tian's Xuantian * power has also been greatly improved, even if a ninth-level zombie is hit by Li Tian's Xuantian fingering, it will be killed by this powerful fingering.

However, after these two powerful air masses came out of Li Tian's fingers, they were caught by the white-robed Taoist priest's left and right hands at the same time.

The white-robed Taoist sneered, his left and right hands vigorously smashed the air mass.

"boom!"

"boom!"

A strong air current exploded between the nine ghost claws of the white-robed Taoist priest, and the white-robed Taoist priest and the nine ghost claws did not change at all.

"So strong!" Li Tian secretly surprised.

But Li Tian did not flinch.

If Xuantian's * fails, then change the soul palm.

As Li Tian retreated, both his left and right palms opened his bow at the same time, and he bombarded the white-robed Taoist priest in a frenzy. But the white-robed Taoist did not want to be outdone, and changed his claws into his palms again.

The powerful Soul Broken Palm encountered the nameless palm of the white-robed Taoist priest, and the powerful attack power collided between Li Tian and the white-robed Taoist, causing a violent explosion.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

Li Tian only felt the air temperature around him suddenly whispered, and plumes of white smoke spread out in the gloomy space, and the smooth ground was exploded with potholes because of the powerful explosion.

The rubble was everywhere, and it was quite painful to hit people.

"Jie Jie! The kid's skill is good, if it can become our corpse refining material I would like it very much!" The white-robed Taoist said with a wild smile.

"Materials for refining the corpse? Go dreaming!" Li Tian thought with a sneer in his heart.

"Jiejie, the kid's arrogance will cost you a terrible price! Just like the black monkey who came with you, he fisted against the black-robed Taoist priest uncontrollably!" The white-robed Taoist sneered.

Li Tian suddenly raised his head and looked at Tang Xiaolong.

After Tang Xiaolong killed several zombies in succession, he was attacked by a black-robed Taoist priest.

Before Li Tian saw that the black-robed Daoist and the white-robed Daoist had completely different cold and cold skills, he actually liked to head-to-head, and kept banging against Tang Xiaolong.

The two of them seemed to be playing a turn-based game. You punch me and I punch you.

With Tang Xiaolong's fist and defense, Li Tian is full of confidence in Tang Xiaolong.

Now the white-robed Taoist reminded that Li Tiancai discovered that Tang Xiaolong's whole body skin was unknowingly like a crab put in a steamer, turned red, and his hair turned red. Blowing white smoke.

And Tang Xiaolong didn't seem to feel the change in his condition at all, and there was a wave of excitement on his face, as if he was completely silent in this kind of confrontation with the black-robed Taoist priest.

"Little Dragon!"

Li Tian called out Tang Xiaolong, Tang Xiaolong looked at Li Tian, did not speak, but showed a weird smile at Li Tian, and began to blast his fists at the black-robed Taoist priest.
