

A Killer 3791

Chapter 3791: Tang Xiaolong vs. Iron Monk (3)

In the eyes of others, Tang Xiaolong and Tie Seng had no fighting skills at all.

The battle between these two guys looks like two steel guys are using the most primitive and barbaric power.

That's right, harmony is the balance between power and strength, body and body!

The Iron Monk slowly got up from the ground. At this moment, he only felt his belly turned upside down, and the extra power of that powerful force seemed to be haunting his body.

"You are very strong! You are an opponent worthy of all my strength!" The iron monk stood up, moving his muscles and bones like a self-masturbation. Suddenly, there was a burst of bean-popping noise from the iron monk.

There was a sneer at the corner of Tang Xiaolong's mouth. He didn't have time to quietly watch the iron monk pretending to be forced, but he rushed towards the iron monk with a loud shout.

You have to choose the right time and the right opponent when you play force.

Faced with a tough opponent like Tang Xiaolong, Iron Monk even dared to pretend to be compelling. How could Tang Xiaolong let him do what he wanted.

Just after the iron monk had done his muscles and bones, Tang Xiaolong's figure flashed past and appeared in front of the iron monk.

I saw Tang Xiaolong's fist blasted towards the iron monk like a storm.

The iron monk roared: "Good coming!" The iron fist in his hand blasted out at Tang Xiaolong.

To be loud and loud, you must have strength.

This iron monk's highest cadre is the most rock-solid, and his strength is not weak, but it is only the strength of a fourteenth and fifth-level zombie.

This level might have a chance to win against the Barbarian, but if against Tang Xiaolong, then the Iron Monk really kicked the steel plate, and it was still on the thick steel plate.

Now Tang Xiaolong's full-strength attack has a punch of more than ten thousand jin. After seeing the iron monk bragging, Tang Xiaolong did not hesitate to take out a full-strength attack.

After seven or eight punches in a row, the iron monk was beaten back seven or eight steps.

This shows the difference in strength between the two parties.

After seven or eight punches in a row, the iron monk blasted hard to tell.

The iron monk has always been known for its steel-like defenses and powerful attacks. Every time he encounters an opponent, the iron monk suppresses the opponent with its powerful and absolute defense, making the opponent unable to attack his defense, but the defense resists. Unstoppable Iron Monk's iron fist made the opponent lose his temper.

But today, Iron Monk finally knows the feeling of bullying.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

Fist to fist, flesh to flesh.

But with every brute force attack from Tang Xiaolong's punch, Iron Monk felt his arm sway slightly unknowingly.

At first, this kind of shaking was not obvious, but after hitting Tang Xiaolong for thirty or forty punches, the iron monk suddenly found that his arm seemed to be completely unable to use any strength, even if he kept punching and attacking. Tang Xiaolong, but that was also a subconscious attack.

The iron monk had already felt a kind of pain in his arm unconsciously.

"How could this happen? Even if my strength is not the black monkey Tang Xiaolong's opponent, but my defense far exceeds the defense of the steel plate. Even a bullet attack can not make a hole in my body. But in the face of Tang Xiaolong's attack, why did I have such a sense of powerlessness?" A trace of fear had already appeared in the iron monk's heart.

Hidden behind the tree trunk, Xin Yu originally hoped that the iron monk would behead Tang Xiaolong, and then take advantage of the victory to pursue the barbarian and others, and he would take advantage of the fisherman's advantage and take the captain and Xue Ji. Waiting for a few beauties and zombies to be collected together, but now, Xin Yu has announced that there is a big gap between reality and his ideals.

The sniper spear of the opposite Xue Ji completely defeated him, making him almost afraid to pop his head, and Tang Xiaolong's strength also suppressed the iron monk.

"It must be the way I watched. Iron Monk is the highest cadre of the dignified Rock Legion. How could it be that Tang Xiaolong in the heavens is not an opponent?" Xin Yu thought in his heart.

At this time, Tang Xiaolong gradually calmed down from his initial excitement.

Although in terms of strength, his power absolutely must surpass this iron monk, but Tang Xiaolong cultivates the ten-fold training body, which is highly respected by the four-xiang elders. This is a kind of body training. The technique of art can be said to be transforming the body, but what about this iron monk?

This kind of defense and power of the Iron Monk comes from the ability, that is to say from his own ability.

Tang Xiaolong thought in his heart: "If I also have the power of the iron monk, then I practice these ten levels of refinement, then when I practice in the first level, my strength will double to achieve If you can cultivate to my level, then the current punch strength is probably above one hundred thousand catties. If it is true, then let alone an eighteenth-level zombie, even if It is a level twentieth zombie, even the three corpses I dare to fight!

"But even though I have this opportunity to practice tenfold body refining, I don't have the awakening ability. My original power is limited. If I can also awaken the ability... Strength is suddenly developed under certain circumstances, instead of stimulating my own potential through cultivation like I am now, that is to say, I also have this ability!"

"It's just that the method of choice is different!" Thinking of this, Tang Xiaolong's heart suddenly opened up, and the corner of his mouth also showed a smile like nothing.

But at this moment, Tang Xiaolong suddenly felt the power in his body begin to surging.

"Are you going to break through?" Tang Xiaolong asked with surprise in his heart.

If you break through again, then Tang Xiaolong's punch will blast a huge force of more than 20,000 catties, what a terrifying number this will be.

Although he hasn't broken through yet, Tang Xiaolong's strength is constantly improving, as if every punch he punches will increase by a few hundred jin.

These hundreds of catties didn't look like much, but to the iron monk who was already on the verge of collapse, it seemed to be the last straw that overwhelmed the camel.

"Kacha!" With a sound, Tie Seng only felt that his arm seemed to break at this moment, and a heart-piercing pain swept over his arm in an instant.

Don't think about it, after countless tens of thousands of kilograms of force, the iron monk's arm was finally overwhelmed and broken by Tang Xiaolong, and the iron monk's arm dropped weakly.

But Tang Xiaolong was completely immersed in the change of power in his body. The surging power seemed to tear Tang Xiaolong into pieces, so Tang Xiaolong had to find a catharsis, and this iron monk was the best. Target of attack.

"boom!"

"boom!"

A dozen consecutive punches banged on the iron monk like raindrops, and the iron monk let out a scream, spouted a mouthful of blood, and flew out directly.

Chapter 3792: Mo Feng

Xin Yu was completely silly.

"No, although your Tang Xiaolong's strength is great, but the iron monk is not bad, how come the situation suddenly reversed?"

But seeing that iron monk's body flew out, hit the ground heavily, and then lay motionless on the ground, Xin Yu knew that this iron monk might have to explain here.

Xin Yu and He Tieseng partnered for a long time. One was good at long-range attacks and the other was good at close combat. The two cooperated with each other and made up for each other, which allowed the two's combat effectiveness to be maximized.

Of course, this is also aimed at ordinary opponents. Even if they encounter opponents that are equal to them, they can completely rely on this to win. After all, there are a lot of people like Iron Monk and Tang Xiaolong who have the incorruptible body. It's too little. As for encountering zombies of the same level, it is more that Xin Yu is using the kite-flying method to attract those zombies, and then the fellow Iron Monk will attack directly.

But now, Iron Monk was already kneeling, how could Xin Yu's long-range attack be Tang Xiaolong's opponent.

When will you not run away at this time?

"I'm sorry, Iron Monk, it seems that your luck is really bad today. Don't worry. Although my brother can't help you collect the body, let alone take revenge, my brother will tell the legion commander of your heroic deeds. Don't blame your brother!" Xin Yu said in his heart, hiding behind the trunk of the big tree.

Taking advantage of Tang Xiaolong's comprehension in the battle with Iron Monk, and no time to care about him, Xin Yumao was about to dive like the grass in the distance.

But at this moment, a voice came from the sky.

"Want to escape? Where to escape? Humph!"

The voice was cold, and there was almost no sense of color, but the end of the voice deliberately added a sneer, this sneer was dry, but it made people shudder.

Xin Yu suddenly raised her head and saw a huge bat over one meter in size hanging upside down on the top of the big tree. The two eyes of the huge bat flashed with red light, and the bat's minions were unusually sharp, as if it's like a cold blade. And on the trunk where the bat is hanging upside down, sits a young man who looks only ten years old. The young man dangles his legs and looks at Xin Yu's direction with no expression on his face.

Needless to say, this voice came from this young man's mouth.

"When did you appear here now? That bat is a funerary bat. I am afraid that the level of this bat alone may have exceeded a level 9 funerary. And this young man can control this bat, so his strength is probably not Weak."

The boy on the tree is naturally Xiao Tianyi.

When Xin Yu faced Xiao Tianyi, he raised his hand with a sniper rifle!

"boom!"

A gunshot sounded, and the bullet whizzed towards Xiao Tianyi's head.

"Hmph, whether you are a zombie or not, as long as the bullet hits your head, even your eighteenth-level zombie will die!" Xin Yu thought in his heart.

Although he thought so in his heart, the moment Xin Yu fired the gun, it was too late to see if the bullet really hit Xiao Tianyi, his body had already rushed towards the distant grass.

Of course the bullet hit Xiao Tianyi's body, Xiao Tianyi didn't even make any evasive actions, but the bullet only made a small hole in Xiao Tianyi's body, even the warhead was stuck on Xiao Tianyi's body. , But such an attack is completely like a tickling to a zombie at the level of Xiaotianyi.

"call!"

Xiao Tianyi suddenly jumped from the tree, and the mutant bat seemed to know Xiao Li Tian's mind completely, flapping its wings and landed at Xiao Tianyi's feet.

Na Xin Yu had already got into the grass, but Xiao Tianyi was riding a mutant bat, always in the sky less than three or four meters away from Xin Yu.

"Are you running? Where are you running?" Xiao Tianyi said with a sneer.

While running away in the grass, Na Xin Yu turned around and fired machine guns at Xiao Tianyi and mutant bats continuously. This time Xin Yu could see clearly that his bullet had indeed hit that Xiao Tianyi's body, but that The bullet didn't work at all.

Seeing this scene, Xin Yu basically had a judgment on the strength of this little Tianyi.

"At least a zombie above level 12!"

Xin Yu is not incapable of dealing with this level of zombies, but for him who is escaping, it is too difficult for him to deal with this level 12 zombies that have been flying in the air.

But at this moment, a gunshot suddenly came from behind Xin Yu. The howling bullet interrupted a few weeds, and took the green juice from the weeds directly into Xin Yu's small retreat. in.

Xin Yu, who was escaping at full speed, felt that her calf was numb, and she fell into the grass directly after eating shit.

Before Xin Yu could get up, another bullet whizzed and flew over.

This bullet directly hit Xin Yu's right ear, flying half of his ear.

"Wow!"

Xin Yu slammed the sniper rifle in his hand and aimed it at the road that he had walked out of the grass when he escaped.

"Bang!" There was another shot, and a bullet popped out of Xin Yu's eyes.

When the gunshot sounded, Xin Yu also pulled the trigger.

But at this moment, the barrel of Xin Yu's gun burst open. It turned out that the bullet that screamed straight into the barrel of the sniper rifle in Xin Yu's hand. The bullets fired by Rain met in his barrel and caused a violent explosion.

This gun definitely has a lot of luck. If it is to hit a target that is not allowed to move, Xin Yu also has absolute confidence that he can hit a target of this size a few hundred meters away, but Xin Yu was not static just now. !

This shot has completely destroyed Xin Yu's confidence to escape.

"Dying in the hands of these people is not considered a death, it is not wrong! The strength of that sniper is probably far beyond me!" Xin Yu slowly closed his eyes.

"Bang!" With a shot, Xin Yu's head blossomed.

Nanzhou City!

Li Tian followed He Tian unhurriedly.

And He Tian ran away in a hurry like a dog in the family.

This He Tian is the highest cadre of the Rock Legion, and has an ordinary position and reputation in Nanzhou City.

On weekdays, the residents of Nanzhou City rarely see the top cadre, but today he can see Hetian, and the street immediately surrounded many people.

Although they have heard the gossip that the Rock Legion is about to go to war with the Celestial Legion, and several top cadres have started fighting outside the city, when they saw He Tian fleeing in waste, they were still full of shock. !

"Go away, don't get in my way!"

He Tian had already felt very embarrassed, but these * people were still watching him, causing him to become angry, and without hesitation, he pointed the knife in his hand at the unarmed residents.

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

After cutting down the two residents of Nanzhou City to the ground with two swords, He Tian turned around and kicked the resident's body at Li Tian.

Li Tian didn't expect He Tian to be so frantic, and his heart suddenly became angry.

Taking the corpse with one hand, his mind controlled "Hong Zhan" and slashed towards He Tian.

"Huh!"

A red light flashed.

At this moment, a person suddenly appeared, reaching out and grabbing Li Tian's "Red Zhan" in his hand, and rescued He Tian from the "Red Zhan" knife!

He Tian, who had escaped from the dead, saw this man and immediately exclaimed, "Captain Mo Feng!"

Chapter 3793: Showdown (1)

Mo Feng seemed to be a gust of wind, suddenly appeared out of thin air.

After seeing Mo Feng, the residents of Nanzhou City immediately became excited. These people squeezed forward frantically, shouting and screaming at Mo Feng, their faces filled with excitement. , Excited expression.

"Captain Mo Feng!"

"Captain Mo Feng, I love you!"

"Kill him, dare to come to our Nanzhou to make trouble! Captain Mo Feng, we support you."

The people in Nanzhou City were shouting at Mo Feng, and they actually pointed all their spears at Li Tian, completely forgetting the panic when He Tian killed someone just now.

This feeling is like the feeling of crazy fans at a superstar concert.

Mo Feng came from Nanzhou, and gradually entered the circle of the core cadres of the Rock Army as a small person, and then became the captain of the highest cadre.

This little-character-like legend is known to women and children in Nanzhou, while Mo Feng in Nanzhou is as popular as Li Tian in the heavens. He loves the house and Wu, so even if He Tian kills two irrelevant People can also be forgiven by these people.

Li Tian, who chased He Tian, became the chief culprit.

He Tian was rescued by Mo Feng from Li Tian's "Red Chop" knife. He Tian saw that Mo Feng was able to grab the blade with his bare hands, and he was able to hold Li Tian's "Red Chop" in his hand, and his eyes immediately brightened. In my heart, I admired Captain Mo Feng even more, and hurriedly said, "Captain Mo Feng! Both Poison Lady and Xie Ji have been killed by Li Tian, you want to avenge them!"

"Li Tian, we finally met!" Mo Feng threw "Hong Zhan" to Li Tian abruptly, and said with an arrogant expression.

As for Li Tian reported by those gossip newspapers in Kyoto City, Li Tian's grandfather was the commander of the Army Soul Corps, and the woman was the commander of the Sakura Army. It can be said that Li Tian is a very rich second generation, but this person hates it. It's very, obviously, it's very moisturizing to live on relationships, but I have to make myself a grassroots image and gradually rise from the northwest.

In addition to the different backgrounds, the rise of Li Tian and the rise of Mo Feng still have many similarities. The biggest difference is that Li Tian has higher achievements and higher reputation. He has become the commander of the Celestial Legion and the Supreme King of the Bounty Hunter Association. As for Mo Feng, he was just the top leader of the Rock Legion.

Therefore, when he heard that there was a man like Li Tian, Captain Mo Feng wanted to meet Li Tian very much, but when Li Tian was in Kyoto City, Mo Feng performed tasks elsewhere, so Li Tian became famous. It has been half a year, but this is the first time Mo Feng has met Li Tian.

"Hong Zhan" cast off quickly, and it was almost in front of Li Tian in the blink of an eye, and the faces of those onlookers immediately showed excitement, almost everyone was looking forward to Li Tian's The scene where the head was chopped off by the blade. Unfortunately, this "Red Zhan" was Li Tian's "Red Zhan". Even if Mo Feng was caught in his hands for a short while, he still belonged to Li Tian.

Li Tian's mind controlled "Hong Zhan" and let "Hong Zhan" fall into his hands lightly. However, from the three actions of Mo Feng's appearance, grabbing the knife, and throwing back, Li Tian found that Mo Feng was indeed not simple.

First appeared, that Mo Feng seemed to be a gust of wind, and suddenly appeared in front of Li Tian. From this point of analysis, Mo Feng's speed has far surpassed that of the highest cadres of other Rocks Li Tian encountered, even Li Tian suspected that Mo Feng might be a power awakener.

Second, watching Mo Feng suddenly grabbed Li Tian's "Red Slash", and truly staged a good show of "empty hands". Since Li Tian used his Ten Jue Sword Qi, this "Red Zhan" has never been caught. The layman watched the excitement and the insider watched the doorway. Those people in Nanzhou would be excited that Mo Feng grabbed Li Tian's "Red Slash" with his qi sword with his bare hands, but Li Tian clearly saw that Mo Feng's hand did not hold. "Red Cut", between Mo Feng's hand and "Red Cut", there was a layer of gas flowing. However, this also illustrates Mo Feng's brilliance.

Third, looking at Mo Feng's throwback, it seemed that Mo Feng seemed to be an understatement, but Li Tian controlled "Red Zhan" with his mind but knew that he was really capable of this one. The "Red Zhan" was released by Mo Feng. For an instant, he was still completely in Mo Feng's hands, and behind the handle of the "Red Slash", a small wind circle formed unexpectedly. This wind circle spiraled, but accelerated the speed of the "Red Slash". , If it were not for Li Tian to control "Red Slash" with his mind, for ordinary people, just a throw of Mo Feng would be enough for them.

This Mo Feng is a strong opponent.

"Mo Feng, you really are not easy! No wonder you have such a high reputation in this Nanzhou, you can become the highest officer of the rock. But... you are not my opponent, if you really consider it for the people of Nanzhou , It's better to follow me to Beitang!" Li Tian already has the heart to attract Mo Feng.

Seeing "Hong Zhan" lightly falling on Li Tian's hand, Mo Feng's arrogant face also showed a hint of surprise. After hearing Li Tian's solicitation, Mo Fenggo shook his head slightly.

"Li Tian, I admire you very much. You are like a comet in the sky. You appear in the sight of everyone in an instant. It is so dazzling. But comets are comets. They are not destined to be as eternal as stars. The Legion is already dominated by one family. If nothing happens, within three to five years, the entire country will be a rock."

"Your idea is so naive. The Rock Legion is taking advantage of the difficulties of the Hajj and the Holy Legion. The Rock Legion uses the excuses and reasons of their alliance with the Hajj and the Holy Legion to quickly annex it. Otherwise, how could the Rock develop like this? Quickly. What kind of future a legion can develop and grow by annexing its allies, I advise you not to be obsessed with it!"

"Haha, history is often written by victors. The process is not important. The most important thing is the result. Since we cannot convince each other, and we are our own masters, let us use force to solve the problem! Well, let us do our best to show respect for each other!" Mo Feng said.

"Okay!" Li Tian roared, and took the "Red Cut" casually, and shot Mo Feng with seven or eight pieces of soul palms.

This broken soul palm is majestic, and every time a broken soul palm blasts out, there will be a strong pressure between Li Tian and Mo Feng. The people who were onlookers just couldn't stand it for an instant, and they couldn't help holding it. Head back.

"Good coming!"

Na Mofeng suddenly opened his arms, his left and right hands were in the shape of eagle claws, and he roared at Li Tian.

And with this roar, an air current fell from the sky, and it directly hit Li Tian's broken soul palm.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

Chapter 3794: Showdown (2)

Li Tian and Mo Feng were only a dozen meters apart, and this series of continuous explosions directly destroyed the road between them.

Crushed rocks and dirt splashed, dust was flying, and even the ground began to shake violently.

"Oh? Interesting!"

Li Tian was a little puzzled, his eyes narrowed slightly. He hadn't seen the moves that Mo Feng had used yet, the air mass exploded from his broken soul palm as if it was being guided to the ground.

Li Tian changed his palm to finger and immediately began to use Xuantian fingering.

The air bombs were like bullets, whizzing towards Mo Feng.

Seeing this Xuantian fingering, Mo Feng's expression didn't change at all. He roared in a low voice, and his two eagle claws suddenly intertwined, his arms folded in front of his chest, and the Xuantian  energy that Li Tian ejected. The bullet unexpectedly followed Mo Feng's movement, staggering left and right from a distance of seven or eight meters from Mo Feng's body, and flew out into the sky.

Li Tian's two consecutive offensives failed, and the residents of Nanzhou City who were hiding hundreds of meters or even thousands of meters away immediately burst into cheers.

"Master Mo Feng is mighty!"

"Master Mo Feng is domineering!"

"Kill Li Tian this dog son!"

He Tian, hiding in the crowd, immediately became the captain of these cheerleading squads, constantly directing the ignorant residents to cheer on Mo Feng, following the neat shouts of cheering, even under He Tian's leadership, those people He started throwing stones at Li Tian constantly, but because they were too far apart, the stones finally fell down a few hundred meters away from Li Tian in the game.

"It's really noisy, if you don't suggest it, I want to kill the guy who took the lead!" Li Tian said lightly.

The so-called leader of the noise is He Tian Wudi.

"Then it depends on whether you have that ability!" Mo Feng said with a sneer.

The ability to speak is not based on the mouth.

Since Li Tian can do three things with one heart, then while dealing with Mo Feng, killing a He Tian at the same time is not disrespectful to Mo Feng!

With a wave of Li Tian's arm, the "Red Zhan" that had been placed in the space of the Void Yasha flew out again, and the "Red Zhan" flashed a red light and flew towards He Tian.

Then He Tian saw "Hong Zhan" flying towards him, and was shocked in reality, but seeing Li Tian not even look at him, he continued to face Mo Feng, He Tian couldn't help but furious.

"Too much deception! Even if your strength is sturdy, you are too deceitful!"

He Tian carried the knife and greeted the "Red Chop".

"Captain Mo Feng is unwilling to join forces with me to deal with you. You dare to deal with both of us at the same time. You don't know how high the earth is! If this is the case, don't blame us for bullying you with too many people!"

"Qiang! Qiang!"

The weapons in He Tian's hands are not ordinary products. Coupled with He Tian's internal power control, he deliberately did not face the "Red Slash" blade to resist. This He Tian was able to use the weapon in his hand to attack the "Red" several times. Cut" pick flying.

However, even if he was picked to fly, "Hong Zhan" quickly flew towards him again.

After all, He Tian and Li Tian are far apart, and only passive defense.

He Tian also saw this clearly. If he wanted to deal with the flying "Red Slash", then the best way was to attack Li Tian.

Therefore, He Tian has already charged towards Li Tian after several consecutive flying "Red Zhan".

On this side, Mo Feng was equally angry.

He didn't expect Li Tian to say that he would do it, and he really wanted to deal with him and He Tian at the same time. This made Mo Feng suddenly feel that he was greatly humiliated.

"So courageous!"

Mo Feng roared and charged towards Li Tian.

But Li Tian completely ignored He Tian and continued to deal with He Tian with his mind. After seeing Mo Feng rushing over, he did not evade and rushed up against Mo Feng.

"boom!"

"boom!"

And Li Tian's left and right hands kept showing the broken soul palm at the same time, blasting towards Mo Feng, and then being guided by Mo Feng to blast towards the ground on both sides.

The explosion sounded endlessly, and the distance between the two of them kept getting closer.

This feeling is like the scene of the confrontation between two masters in the costume film in the TV series.

In a flash, Mo Feng came to Li Tian, and Li Tian's broken soul palm did not hit Mo Feng's body.

"Huh!"

Na Mo Feng's eagle claws came with a wind towards Li Tian's face.

It is really windy, but it is the wind blade. The eagle claw has not caught Li Tian, and Li Tian has already felt a strong wind blade attack.

Li Tian didn't dare to neglect, he slapped a palm against Mo Feng's eagle claws.

At such a close distance, Li Tian didn't believe that Mo Feng could still control the Broken Soul Palm to blast to other places.

However, Li Tian saw that the blast of Soul Broken Palm Qi wave was turned by Mo Feng's Wind Blade, and then Mo Feng was directly caught in his hand.

With a "porch", the aura of Broken Soul Palm was directly caught by Mo Fengfei.

This time Li Tian could not see clearly, that Mo Feng's palm skin did not touch the Qi wave, but that Mo Feng was like wearing a glove, and there was a layer between the palm and the Qi wave. .

It was this layer that completely isolated the explosion of Li Tian's Broken Soul Palm, making the explosion futile.

And that huge explosion actually produced a strong wind at this moment, this strong wind changed into a wind blade in an instant, and directly slashed towards Li Tian.

The distance was close, and the wind blade was still fast, Li Tian couldn't make any other reactions, and he hurriedly teleported it.

The wind blade flew to a two-story small building behind Li Tian, and directly cut the wall of that small building into two. After cutting through the small building, the wind blade cut to the one behind the small building. After leaving the house, there was a violent explosion.

"boom!"

The masonry house was as if a gas tank exploded, torn apart.

Among the residents of Nanzhou who were very excited just now, there was a wailing. In addition to reluctant to bear the house, there may be their relatives in the house!

After all this had happened, there was no slight change in the expression on Mo Feng's face, feeling that everything could not be more normal.

"Li Tian, you got a thousand swords! Why are you here to bully our Nanzhou!"

"Captain Mo Feng, you must kill this guy!"

Li Tian did not expect that after a short wailing, the residents would shirk all the responsibilities on Li Tian.

In fact, this is also difficult. For the people in Nanzhou City, they were originally alive and happy. If it were not for the appearance of Li Tian, then Mo Feng would not be able to destroy the house for no reason, and He Tian could not be left out Killing for no reason.

Li Tian couldn't help but shook his head slightly. Since casualties are unavoidable, there is only a quick fight.

"Mo Feng! Let's fight fast!" Li Tian

Chapter 3795: Quick fix

"It's in my heart," Na Mofeng said.

Li Tian raised his hands abruptly, as if he was exhausting his energy, he slammed upwards and roared, "Get up!"

With this roar of Li Tian, the area of Nanzhou City where Li Tian and Mo Feng were located was immediately shaken, as if a severe earthquake had occurred.

"what happened?"

"Is it an earthquake?"

"No...No, it's Li Tian. Have you seen Li Tian's actions? Is this Li Tian's ability?"

The faces of the residents of Nanzhou City immediately showed shock and fear.

"Boom!"

A series of loud noises were transmitted from below the ground, as if there was a wild beast roaring under the ground, and as if there were thousands of horses running under the ground.

But at this moment, the onlookers found that the ground under their feet was shaking more severely, and these people involuntarily flinched back while frightened. Even those faint-hearted people started to flee, turning around and fleeing.

"boom!"

The ground less than a hundred meters in front of those onlookers suddenly cracked, and there was something to burrow out of the cracks in the ground.

"What could it be? Is it a behemoth?"

But what disappointed them was that it was not a giant beast that emerged from the ground, but an earth wall, yes, it was a wall made of dirt and sand.

However, these walls are also unusual. These soil walls are like plants, still growing upwards.

One meter, two meters, three meters...

Soon this wall grew to a height of more than 8 meters and 9 meters, which is much higher than many buildings in Nanzhou City. This wall completely separated Li Tian, Mo Feng, He Tian and those in Nanzhou City.

Looking at the surrounding walls, Li Tian nodded with satisfaction.

Li Tian's hand is of course the strength of the Dixing Yasha, Li Tian is just playing a double role with the Dixing Yasha.

However, Li Tian's movements were extremely realistic, and the 13-pieces couldn't be more like them.

However, in the eyes of Mo Feng and He Tian, the shaking of the earth was like Li Tian showing his powerful strength, but when they saw Li Tian's thunder and the rain, it turned out to be just a few blocks of soil. Wall, the hearts of the two of them were filled with contempt for Li Tian involuntarily.

Mo Feng sneered and said, "Li Tian, do you think that a mud wall made of these sands can trap me? Could it be that you look down on me too much!"

Even He Tian's mouth showed a sneer, and said, "These mud walls can be easily shattered with a little bit of force! I really underestimate the highest cadre of our Rock Legion!"

Li Tian shook his head slightly and said, "It doesn't matter whether you can surround you, I just don't want other innocents to get involved in our battle! This wall can more or less protect them. "

Hearing what Li Tian said, Mo Feng couldn't help showing a trace of shame.

The lives of the residents of Nanzhou City, he, the highest cadre of the Rock Legion, didn't care at all, and Li Tian, an outsider in the heavens, would still care so much, and he could even think of using this wall to protect those residents.

From this point alone, Li Tian is better than him.

But how can this be?

Mo Feng's face quickly returned to coldness.

As Mo Feng said before, history is often written by victors.

The so-called one general became famous, and the warriors of that dynasty were not cast from the bodies of countless ants.

If the Rock Legion can really become the ruler of this country and this world, then what about the people who die?

Moreover, in just a few days, the Rock Legion has brought tens of thousands of people into this Nanzhou City, so what if a few people die?

"Women's benevolence, how can it be a big deal?" Mo Feng sneered and leaped forward suddenly, with his left and right hands in eagle claw outfits, and grabbed a few claws at Li Tian from the air.

"call!"

Several wind blades immediately flew out of Mo Feng's palm, cutting out seven or eight trenches one meter wide on the ground, rushing towards Li Tian with majestic aura and lingering power.

Li Tian snorted coldly, and slapped a few broken soul palms at the wind blade.

"boom!"

Before Broken Soul Palm flew to Feng Blade, it was already controlled by Na Mo Feng and blasted on the ground, causing a violent explosion.

And the wind blade cut through the smoke and dust generated by the explosion, cut the smoke and dust out of a gap more than one meter wide, and then headed towards Li Tian.

Li Tian was not surprised that the broken soul palm was broken, but it was broken several times in a row, which made Li Tian's face a little embarrassed!

"Humph!"

Li Tian performed several teleports in a row, evading the slash of the wind blade, and instantly appeared in front of He Tian.

He Tian was already a little tired of dealing with a "Red Slash", and Li Tian's sudden appearance immediately made He Tian rushed.

He Tian still knows the power of Li Tian's broken soul palm, and he doesn't have the power of Mo Feng, so he puts more thoughts on Li Tian, but in this way, the blade in his hand has not passed for a few seconds. , Has been cut into several paragraphs by "Red Zhan".

"Captain Mo Feng, save me!" He Tian was shocked.

But at this moment, a cold voice suddenly appeared behind He Tian.

"dead!"

He Tian only felt a strong force forming behind him instantly. Before he could evade in a hurry, Li Tian's palm hit his back heavily. He Tian flew out directly.

"boom!"

In the midair, He Tian suddenly exploded and was blown into a cloud of blood.

"How can such strength enter the highest cadre? If the strength of the highest cadre is so weak, then Rock is nothing more than that!" Li Tian sneered in his heart.

How did Li Tian know that he now has the strength of more than eighteenth level zombies, and the strength of the top ten army commanders is almost the same.

Moreover, how abnormal his teleportation is, how can these top cadres be able to deal with it.

Just like playing an online game, when you are at level 20, you will find that monsters at level 25 are difficult to deal with, but when you reach level 35, you can deal with monsters at level 25. You will feel why it was so difficult in the first place.

Seeing He Tian was dead, Mo Feng suddenly became angry.

This time, Gao Gang, commander of the Rock Army, trusted him and asked him to take the other seven top cadres back to Nanzhou to deal with the heavens, but in just one day, the three top cadres of Poison Lady, Xie Ji and He Tian were all dead. Now, how can Mo Feng not be angry.

At this time, Mo Feng no longer thought about how to explain to Gao Gang. He only thought about beheading Li Tian. Only in this way could he redeem his merits.

"Li Tian! Take it to death!"

Chapter 3796: Disappointed

Li Tian felt that he was dazzled. ,

The clothes on Mo Feng's body swelled up completely, as if being blown by a violent wind, and he kept hunting.

And that Mo Feng's whole person has floated, his hands are like eagle claws, and he keeps facing Li Tian's direction and intersects left and right, as if he wants to directly tear Li Tian into pieces.

"Wow!"

"Wow!"

"Wow!"

Countless wind blades flew out of Mo Feng's arms, flying towards Li Tian continuously.

Those wind blades fell on the ground and immediately chopped up a ravine on the ground. In an instant, the flat ground became a crisscrossed deep groove. Li Tian believed that, let alone these concrete floors, even steel plates would be too early. Was cut open by these wind blades.

The power of this wind blade is so powerful that it makes Li Tian such a mortal love, so Li Tian continuously used several teleports to avoid several wind blade slashes.

However, the wind blade continued to be chopped down from Mo Feng's hand. When Li Tian was using the teleport, he almost hit the wind blade directly. The wind blade had already stretched a strand of Li Tian's forehead. The hair was cut off.

If it weren't for the spiritual connection between Void Yasha and Li Tian, knowing that Li Tian is dangerous, and Void Yasha directly dragging Li Tian into the void, I am afraid that Li Tian can only be regarded as a hero in twenty years.

"Li Tian, why are you so embarrassed?" In the space of Void Yasha, Huangfu Kunpeng asked with some care on his face when he saw Li Tian's whole body enter the space with mud. Of course, this issue of his is also of concern to Mu Yunlong.

"I met Mo Feng in Nanzhou City! We are fighting with Mo Feng!"

"Mo Feng? Isn't he the captain of the highest cadre of the Rock Legion? How could he appear here?" Mu Yunlong asked with some confusion.

"I am afraid that the Rock Legion has swelled a bit after annexing most of the pilgrimage and holy legion, and wants to do something to our heaven!" Li Tian said.

Huangfu Kunpeng did not think about this kind of thing, but said to Li Tian: "Li Tian, although Mo Feng is only the captain of the highest cadre, his strength is not weak. According to his strength, his strength is more than enough to serve as the deputy commander of the Rock Legion!"

Li Tian didn't expect Huangfu Kunpeng to give Mo Feng such a high evaluation, and couldn't help but want to know more about Mo Feng.

Huangfu Kunpeng saw Li Tian's thoughts, and then said: "This Mo Feng originally came from Nanzhou, and he was only living at the bottom of the society. But when Mo Feng was hunting a low-level zombie, he was caught by the zombie. A bite made him infected with the zombie virus. At some point, the serum of the low-level zombie virus has been developed. As long as the serum is injected, Mo Feng will definitely be safe."

"But the serum of the zombie virus is beyond expectation for Mo Feng, who lives at the lowest level of society. Mo Feng was abandoned by his companions, making Mo Feng a zombie to fend for himself. But this Mo Feng is also Good fortune, after being bitten by a zombie, when Mo Feng was about to become a zombie, the cells of his body were mutated under the stimulation of the zombie virus, and his ability was awakened!"

"Not only did Mo Feng not become a zombie, but he also awakened his abilities?" Li Tian asked?

"Yes! This is definitely a small probability event, even if there is no one among 10 million people. And after Mo Feng awakened his ability, he participated in the Forbes Power Tournament that year. That was the second time. In the Forbes Power Tournament, many talented players were born in the Forbes Power Tournament that year. However, Mo Feng passed through all the way and entered the final with the first result in the group."

"At that time, many legions, including the army soul, threw an olive branch to Mo Feng, but they were all rejected by Mo Feng. In the end, Mo Feng chose to join the Rock Legion."

"Later I heard that he was basically responsible for some assassinations and spy work in the Rock Army, and there were at least a dozen second- and third-rate army commanders who died under him. And among those talented players in the second session, there were a few. Half of them died in the duel with him!" Huangfu Kunpeng said.

"Tough!" Li Tian could only comment on Mo Feng.

From the perspective of scripture alone, the experiences of Mo Feng and Li Tian are really similar.

"I see!" Li Tian stood up and walked out of the space of Void Yasha.

...

In Nanzhou, Mo Feng stopped attacking after seeing Li Tian disappear.

He turned the surroundings of the earthen wall upside down, but still did not find Li Tian's figure.

"Li Tian, get out of here!" Mo Feng yelled into the empty surroundings.

"Get out...come out...come!" This voice reflected through the surrounding walls and turned into an echo, appearing in Mo Feng's ear.

This echo was like a ruthless mockery, which made Mo Feng feel unusually ashamed.

"Li Tian, are you playing me like this? Isn't it worth your full fight for me, Mo Feng?"

The more he thought about it, the more angry Mo Feng's heart became. At this time, his fists had been squeezed rattling, but Mo Feng's anger had not been alleviated, instead, he was getting closer and closer to breaking out.

"Li Tian, don't you like to protect the innocent? I see how long you can hide!"

With a wave of Mo Feng's hand, a strong wind flew out of Mo Feng's hand. The strong wind blew Mo Feng's clothes and hunted, and Mo Feng flew again like a kite.

"Wow!"

"Wow!"

"Wow!"

This time, Mo Feng continuously released the wind blade towards the surrounding walls. After the powerful wind blade slashed on the wall made of clay, it immediately cut out traces one meter long.

However, this wall was made by Dixing Yasha. Although the wind blade can cut the steel plate open, it is not easy to cut the wall facing the soil.

"Damn, Li Tian, did you deliberately use this wall to mock me?"

Mo Feng became even more angry in an instant, and his hands snapped together.

At this moment, the wind around him seemed to stop suddenly, and Na Mo Feng quickly fell down from the midair.

At a distance of less than seven or eight meters from the ground, Na Mo Feng suddenly tilted his arm towards the wall in front of him, with his left hand facing upwards and his right hand facing downwards. At the moment when his left and right palms were separated, his body shape The wind blade over ten meters in size flew out of his hand.

The huge force of the wind blade actually bounced Mo Feng's body backwards. Mo Feng wiped the bloodshot from the corner of his mouth, and said with a sneer: "Li Tian, I see how long your hypocrisy can last!"

After the huge wind hit the ground, it immediately cut a crack on the ground with a width of more than four or five meters. The wind blade pulled a cracked tail over a hundred meters in length and slashed heavily on the wall.

"boom!"

The wall collapsed suddenly, crushing and wounding countless people in Nanzhou City who were hiding behind the wall.

Chapter 3797: Tucheng

The wall collapsed, but the wind blade did not stop, the remaining power of the wind blade was still strong, and it continued to rush forward.

The screams around the collapsed wall continued, and people kept crawling out of the gravel. Most of these people had either their heads or bodies injured, and everyone looked terrible.

Farther away, a dozen residents who stood watching from afar managed to escape the disaster of the collapse of the wall, but they stood in the direction of the wind blade's attack. At this time, these people only felt a wind swirling in front of them. The mud rushed over, and before they had time to escape, they were chopped to pieces by the wind blade, splashed a pool of blood on the ground, and disappeared.

Wherever the wind blade went, roads cracked, houses collapsed, and people and animals died. This shows the power of this wind blade.

And the wind blade didn't know how many houses had been destroyed, how many people and animals had been killed, at least it had been cut out for thousands of meters, only gradually weakening, and finally disappeared.

When Li Tian appeared inside the collapsed wall, he happened to see the wind blade disappear.

"Mo Feng, I really didn't expect you to be so cruel. They are all residents of your Rock, but they are all from your Nanzhou. How can you bear to deal with them? I really misunderstood the person, and even wanted to recruit you. Join Heaven!" Li Tian said angrily.

"Hahaha, Li Tian, are you finally able to give up? Seen, these people died because of your cowardice, you are the culprit. If you didn't hide, how could they become a scapegoat!" Mo Feng said with a sneer.

"Because of me?" Li Tian didn't expect that Mo Feng had no guilt at all, and that he would put all the blame on him.

"Master Mo Feng, take revenge for us!"

"Master Mo Feng, kill the * Li Tian!"

"Master Mo Feng..." People kept squeezing in from the collapsed wall, holding their arms high and shouting to Mo Feng.

Some of these people were lucky enough to escape the wind-blade slash, and some were smashed by the collapse of the wall, but without exception, these people were all passionate, holding their arms high, and responsible for Li Tian, as if they were I want to eat Li Tian's meat and drink Li Tian's blood!

"How is it? Li Tian, are you still insisting on your point of view now? The eyes of the masses are sharp. If it weren't for you, how would they suffer this innocent disaster?" Mo Feng sneered and said.

It's shameless, who the * is to use the wind blade, don't you have any brains?

Li Tian's gaze was constantly scanning the angry crowd, but among the hundreds of thousands of these people, all of them pointed the finger at Li Tian.

"kill him!"

"kill him!"

"Li Tian get out of Nanzhou!"

Li Tian shook his head involuntarily!

There is no cure, are these people brainwashed? Even the most basic good and evil are not distinguished from right and wrong?

What Li Tian didn't know was that people living in a certain environment would have a blind worship of certain people.

Just like the post-80s leader of a certain country before the end of the world, the people of that country will think that everything this person said is right and correct. Every time they see this person, they will be moved and weep bitterly. A word of this person, the whole country will die without hesitation.

"Incurable!" Li Tian said disappointedly.

"Li Tian, don't you feel that you should be responsible for this matter? Leave your head!" Mo Feng's legs slammed into force, and his body hit Li Tian like a gust of wind.

When Mo Feng rushed towards Li Tian, Mo Feng's clothes seemed to have turned into the sails of a sailboat, fully bulging, and around Mo Feng's body, Li Tian clearly saw a strong wind blade. .

The wind blade is no more than two meters high, but the wind blade exudes tremendous power. That's right, the ground that Mo Feng rushed through completely exploded to both sides.

"Oh, Captain Mo Feng!"

"Captain Mo Feng!"

Behind Li Tian, the residents who were watching were all excited and shouted loudly.

"Huh! It seems that at this time, only violence is controlled by violence. Since you have all imposed this guilt on me, I am ashamed of my love for you if I continue to defend and dodge like this!" Li Tian sneered, directly Shouted: "Knot!"

That "Red Slash" immediately combined with the nine-color corpse crystal on Li Tian's chest, forming a layer of gray bone armor.

"call!"

Li Tian let out a sigh of relief, and with force on his legs, he rushed forward, facing the wind blade. With "Hong Zhan" in his hand, Li Tian clasped "Hong Zhan" with both hands and cut it down at the wind blade.

"Bah!"

The intersection of Feng Ren and Li Tian's "Red Slash" turned out to be evenly matched.

However, the strength of the wind blade was so powerful that Li Tian, who was unprepared, felt that the "red cut" in his hand seemed to be cut on a high-speed train, and that strong recoil force seemed to He upsets me.

"Drink!" Li Tian screamed, his legs stepped heavily on the ground, and the ground was sunk by Li Tian.

As Li Tian's legs exerted force, a more powerful force was released from Li Tian's gray armor, and the force bounced back to the wind blade.

Mo Feng's body just shook slightly, and he stood firm.

Then, Li Tian and Mo Feng stood together in the middle of the street, and no one could push anyone back!

"Hehe!" Mo Feng sneered at this moment. With a wave of his hands, two wind blades flew out of his hands and slashed heavily on Li Tian's bone armor.

"Chang!"

The wind blade slashed on the bone armor, but it didn't even leave a trace.

"How is it possible? This armor..." Mo Feng's face was full of panic.

"Huh! Something that lives and lives!"

Li Tian was already completely furious, and he saw Li Tian suddenly cast a teleport and disappeared. This made Mo Feng, who had already hit Li Tian with all his strength, rushed forward.

Seeing Li Tian suddenly disappeared, Captain Mo Feng's Wind Blade rushed over quickly. The Nanzhou residents who had just held their arms finally showed horror on their faces, and they turned around and began to flee back.

In the next second, Li Tian had already appeared behind Mo Feng.

With a sneer on the corner of Li Tian's mouth, he turned around and cut.

The "Hong Zhan" in Li Tian's hand was cut behind Mo Feng, and a wound was cut laterally on Mo Feng's back.

This wound almost cut Mo Feng's body in half, and Mo Feng dropped his head weakly!

Wind Blade couldn't get any successor strength, and it began to weaken gradually, but it still slashed directly among those fleeing residents who hadn't come.

"Huh!"

Feng Blade flashed past, and I don't know how many people died, but Mo Feng's body also plunged into the ground.

Li Tian gathered the "Red Slash" and said to the ground Xingyacha: "Slaying the city! Cast a quicksand storm and slaughter this Nanzhou city for me!"

Chapter 3798: Massacre (2)

It seemed cruel and cruel to let Dixing Yasha use his natal skills to slaughter such a city with little resistance, but this was exactly what Li Tian interrupted.

When a mad dog bites a person, if you don't hurt or scare the mad dog once, the next time the mad dog sees you, it will bite you.

And if you hurt this mad dog all at once and get scared, the mad dog will only hide away from you in the future. Naturally, other mad dogs will stay away from you.

The current Pan Shi is such a mad dog. Li Tian must make Pan Shi, no, all other legions, including Pan Shi, are afraid of the heavens and dare not look for trouble in the heavens.

"Boom!"

The ground began to shake suddenly, as if it were an earthquake.

The cement floor over a foot thick has cracked numerous gaps in all directions. The widest of these gaps is more than two meters and the length is more than a hundred meters, and the shortest ones are like dry and cracked rice fields.

And in these crevices, there is constantly flowing sand.

"Wow!"

"Wow!"

After these quicksands gush out from under the ground, it flows quickly to the nearby streets and houses like a wave.

The sand waves swept across the entire street in an instant, but the quicksand below the ground was like a fountain, still surging outwards. The quicksand in the back pushed the quicksand in front like a scourge, and continued to move forward towards the heights. Advance.

In just a few breaths, the site where Li Tian and Mo Feng fought just now became a ruin, stretching for thousands of meters.

Li Tian was standing on the ruins, the quicksand was still flowing forward slowly under his feet, and the Di Xing Yasha had already emerged from the ground and sat on Li Tian's shoulders.

"Master Li Tian, don't you do it yet? If you don't let me do it, I'm afraid the people in this city will be over!" Dixing Yasha pointed to the residents who were fleeing in the distance.

"If these people are all killed by us, who will give us propaganda? Without the fear of these people, how can other people appreciate the power of your quicksand storm?" Li Tian said.

Dixing Yasha is no longer talking.

Very often, Dixing Yasha also feels that Li Tian has some kindness of women.

Li Tian stood on the top of a four-story building, looking at the residents who were constantly fleeing in the distance.

Although it was a four-story building, the quicksand was almost buried on the roof.

The scorching sun was in the sky, the fiery sun was scorching the earth, and the temperature of the quicksand rose a lot in an instant.

"call!"

A wind blew across the quicksand, blowing a layer of sand waves.

In the distance, at the end of the street, hundreds of soldiers from Nanzhou finally poured out.

After seeing Li Tian, these soldiers did not choose to attack Li Tian, but skillfully evacuated the residents who were running for their lives.

"It's almost done, you can do it!" Li Tian said to Dixing Yasha.

"Why now? I don't see any difference between being there and just now, nor have I seen how many people have escaped from Nanzhou City!" Dixing Yasha said with some dissatisfaction.

Li Tian pointed to the distance. A man carrying a camera and hiding behind the wall was secretly taking pictures of Li Tian, said: "I see it, that camera does not, as long as there is this camera, you will show off the quicksand storm after death. It will definitely be filmed by him, and then the pictures and content of this videotape will naturally flow into the hands of the ten major legions and the two major associations."

"Maybe Kyoto TV will broadcast this picture. Hey, the effect of this propaganda is the most direct and effective! However, you can be careful. You will avoid that man when you are casting a quicksand storm. Kill him!" Li Tian said with a slight smile.

"Don't worry!" Dixing Yasha jumped directly from Li Tian's shoulder and dived into the ground.

And after Dixing Yasha burrowed into the ground, the quicksand suddenly began to wriggle like a resurrected giant.

And as the quicksand squirmed, a whirlpool appeared on the quicksand.

This vortex is not spinning underground, but constantly spinning up the sky.

One meter, three meters, five meters...

The diameter of this vortex keeps expanding, and as the diameter of this vortex keeps expanding, the speed at which quicksand flows out from the cracks under the ground is getting faster and faster.

Two meters, four meters, eight meters...

In just a few breaths, the vortex actually rushed up to the sky nearly two hundred meters high, and as the vortex continued to rotate, the quicksand on the ground was no longer sufficient to create the vortex. Those houses, The trees were destroyed in an instant, and they all became part of the whirlpool.

"How... how is it possible?" In the distance, the man holding the camera to sneak a photo of Li Tian witnessed the formation of this whirlpool with his own eyes. Seeing such a majestic whirlpool, the photographer only felt his legs feel weak and his feet sweaty. , In this hot summer, he actually felt the coolness of his whole body as if he had fallen into an ice cave.

Those who fled also saw this whirlpool, and at this moment they forgot to escape and stopped to look at the whirlpool. Many people have such a doubt in their hearts: "What the * is this? This Nanzhou city is not on the coast, how can such a large vortex be formed?"

swirl?

Do not make jokes.

This is the life skill of the Earth Travel Yaksha, Quicksand Storm.

"call!"

"call!"

The diameter of the flow salon formed by this quicksand storm exceeds tens of meters, and the height has reached more than two hundred meters. With the continuous rotation of this quicksand storm, sand and dust have kept flying up. The sky above Nanzhou City seemed to have experienced a sandstorm, and it was completely gray.

And at this moment the huge quicksand storm suddenly began to move!

In the final analysis, this quicksand storm is also a storm, just a storm controlled by the Earth Xing Yasha.

This movement rushed out twenty to thirty meters in an instant.

"Guru!" The photographer involuntarily swallowed his saliva and muttered to himself: "...I...I have seen nothing!"

In the camera's picture, there were still several buildings and a small house within the range of 20 to 30 meters just now, but in a moment, that area had become ruins.

The building completely collapsed into a pile of rubble, and the small piece of house had become level ground.

If this is the case in this house, what about the storm on people?

"Quick...Run!"

I don't know who yelled this in the crowd. Some people who were reluctant to pack their belongings and fled just now threw everything in their hands on the ground, and quickly escaped in the opposite direction of the quicksand storm.

The photographer man also wanted to escape, but he found that he didn't know when his two feet had fallen into the quicksand, no matter how he moved, he couldn't move.

"Woo...who will help me!"

Chapter 3799: Destroy the city

These residents of Nanzhou City gave up the wealth accumulated in the last three years. Except for the clothes they were wearing, it could be said that they fled outside the city with nothing. ...And then they witnessed how the quicksand storm that lasted only half an hour destroyed the entire Nanzhou City.

The quicksand storm has disappeared, but the entire Nanzhou city is still shrouded in heavy sand and dust, and the original prosperous Nanzhou city has been completely razed to the ground by the quicksand storm.

"You ran out too?"

"En! It's great that we are all alive!"

In Nanzhou City, people from other associations and organizations counted and found that none of their members had died, not even injured people. Although their lives were saved, the material materials they depended on for survival were completely destroyed.

However, these things are completely foreign to these bounty hunters and the people who are stationed in Nanzhou City by other legions, and what is more important than fate.

Soon, these people gathered together in twos and threes and began to discuss the cause of the storm.

"Have you heard? I heard that this storm was formed by the battle between Captain Mo Feng of the Rock Legion and Li Tian!"

"Then Mo Feng's ability is the art of defending the wind, but I heard that his ability to defend the wind is only to change the shape of the wind and control the direction of the wind, but his ability to form such a powerful storm is probably a bit far-fetched? "

"But if it weren't for Mo Feng, could it be Li Tian? Although Li Tian is also very powerful, he may not have this ability!"

At this moment, a person slowly walked out of the ruins of Nanzhou City.

The dust wheel covers the figure of this person, this person is staggering, and there seems to be something in his hand.

"Not Li Tian?"

A sharp-eyed person saw that this person was a member of the Rock Legion who was in charge of the camera in the chaos just now, but no one thought that he would survive the storm.

"It's Li Tian... it's Li Tian who destroyed the entire Nanzhou..." The man's face was numb, and finally he kept mumbling to himself.

Immediately a few members of the Rock Army rushed forward and helped the cameraman to the temporary self-help committee area of the Rock Army.

"Take me to meet the senior officer here now, I have important things to give him!" The man just held the camera in his hand and said.

Soon this person was sent to the former Nanzhou City Lord and now the Director of the Rock Legion Self-Saving Committee.

"My lord, this... all of this is done by Li Tian! I have filmed it! Hurry... send someone to the Kyoto City headquarters!" This man took the videotape out of the camera and delivered it to the city lord. .

...

At this time, the joy of the rest of the life did not last for a few minutes, and those who survived outside Nanzhou City were gradually shrouded in an atmosphere of despair.

Among the crowd, I don't know who started crying first, the crying sound was still intermittent, but soon more and more people started crying.

The whole Nanzhou city suddenly howled.

"This Li Tian, who has suffered thousands of swords, is so cruel, you not only killed our Captain Mo Feng, but also destroyed our home!" A woman slumped on the ground, crying in the direction of Nanzhou City.

"Woo! I used to feel that Nanzhou City was too shabby, and I yearned for life in Kyoto, but... But now we don't even have a place to shelter, what should we do now!"

"Don't howl, as long as our Rock Legion is there, you will definitely protect your safety! Let me get up now and follow the Rock Legion..." a Rock Legion cadre who was in charge of counting casualties and losses snapped accusingly.

But before he finished speaking, he was roughly interrupted by an obese woman.

"Safety? How to protect our safety? The sun is about to set, and the zombies will come out at night. How do you protect our safety? Also, how many days can this kind of safety be maintained? All the surplus food at home is under pressure It's under the ruins, do we want to drink northwest wind?"

The negative emotions of this obese woman immediately spread to the people nearby who were already discouraged. Just now, a few people who had just stood up and were about to go digging for food in the ruins sat down again decadently.

"Huh!"

The city lord who had just walked out of the Temporary Self-Rescue Committee heard what the obese woman said, and directly drew the knife out and slashed the woman.

"Who else has an opinion about our Rock Legion, you can say it now!"

Everyone was shrinking, and no one dared to vent their dissatisfaction.

"Huh! Our Rock Legion uses your lives to protect your safety. What qualifications do you have to take responsibility for us? If our Rock Legion is not organized properly, how many of you can escape?"

"The house is destroyed, we can rebuild it! The city is gone, we can rebuild, but you must have faith in the Rock Legion!"

"Food? We are here in Central Plains Province. Don't you know how much food the Central Plains Agriculture and Commerce Association pays to us every year? Not to mention that the people in Nanzhou City can't finish the food. Even the Rock Army is almost enough to eat. !"

The residents of Nanzhou City were speechless in a few words from the city lord, and many people gradually restored their confidence in the Rock Legion.

That's right, isn't it the city?

When the end of the world came, wasn't this Nanzhou city also created from scratch?

"Don't worry, our Bai Qiang and Master Lin Lan have gone to take the people from the Agricultural and Commercial Association to harvest grain. If nothing happens, tomorrow will continue to send grain to our Rock Army!"

"Bai...Bai mighty man?" At this moment, a soldier behind the city lord pointed to a man who walked slowly from a distance and said.

That's right, this person was Bai Qiang who had escaped from Silly Man'er.

"Bai Qiang, why are you here?" After seeing Bai Qiang, the city lord immediately greeted him, looked at Bai Qiang's embarrassed appearance, and continued to ask suspiciously: "What about food? I heard Master Mo Feng say you I went to investigate the defection of the agricultural industry with Master Lin Lan, why did you come back alone?"

There was a trace of embarrassment on Bai Qiang's face, but this embarrassment flashed past, and he asked, "Why don't you stay in Nanzhou City? What are you doing here?"

"Nan...Nanzhou City?" The city owner couldn't help but looked in the direction of Nanzhou City.

"This...what's going on? What about our Nanzhou City? This Nanzhou City is the root of our Rock Legion, how could it become like this!" Bai Qiang asked in surprise.

"Destroyed by...by Li Tian!"

Chapter 3800: Response from all parties (1)

Nanzhou was destroyed, and seven of the eight top cadres of the Rock Legion were killed in battle. No one in Nanzhou City dared to attack the Celestial Legion or the 100,000 people who came from Donghai City.

Not only that, because Tang Feifei controlled the zombie farmer to bring more than 90% of the Central Plains Province's grain to Beitang City, which immediately plunged the Rock Legion in the Central Plains into a panic.

The Rock Legion fell into a panic, and the residents of Nanzhou City who depended on the Rock Legion suddenly lost their backbone.

In all likelihood, these people fled Nanzhou and fled Central Plains Province. Some people went all the way north to try their luck in Kyoto City, while more people followed those people in Donghai City, like beggars. The same as those in Donghaicheng begging for food.

For these people, Tianjiefao accepted them all with the most tolerant attitude. Even those people who were bewitched by the Rock Legion and entered Nanzhou City were all accepted by Heaven.

As a result, when this huge team left Nanzhou City, the number of the entire team exceeded 200,000.

The news of Nanzhou City's destruction, as if it had lost its wings, quickly spread to Kyoto City by those chambers of commerce and wandering bounty hunters who had mixed up in major cities.

At first, when the news reached Kyoto City, the people from the Rock Legion were listening as a joke, but as the news spread more and more, after all, the people from the Rock Legion couldn't sit still anymore. The news was reported to Gao Gang, the commander of the Rock Corps.

"Huh! Are you kidding me, don't you know how many catties are in the heavens? Except for Li Tian who has some ability, no one else is worth mentioning! This time we are not only the eight top cadres dispatched," Captain Mo Feng was also dispatched! With the strength of Captain Mo Feng, it would not be a problem to kill Li Tian in seconds!"

"Now, Li Tian tried his best to bring the 150,000 people from Donghai City to Nanzhou. I am afraid that at least half of them. No, at least one hundred thousand people have settled in Nanzhou! And this Nanzhou has been The news of the ruin must be Li Tian's atmosphere but a rumors!" Gao Gang, sitting on a large piece of shafang, said with a sneer.

"The fly in the ointment is that we can only plunder some people from the heavens right now, and it's not the time to take action against the heavenly legion! After all, there are giants like the cherry blossom legion and the army soul behind Li Tian. But all this is about to end. , The current Flamingo Legion and the Hall of Heroes have agreed to formally form an alliance with us and will re-form a new Big Mac Legion."

"At that time, the first thing we have to eradicate is the Sakura Legion. Tsk tsk, it's a pity. The commander of the Flamingo Legion, Agai Huo, has been coveting Duanki Sakura for a long time. I have promised to win over the head of the Agni Legion. As long as the Sakura Legion is destroyed, Duanmu Sakura will leave it to him."

Having said this, Gao Gang seemed to have thought of something, paused, and then said: "Oh, yes, I heard that Li Tian also received a regiment called the Fire Corps in East Sea City, and their legion commander was also called Fire? Hahaha, this is the gathering of people in groups. You should see the difference. The raging fire of our Rock Legion is the commander of the Flamingo Legion of the Ten Legions, and the raging fire that Li Tian associates is just an East Sea City. The commander of the third-rate corps that is not influential in the fire!"

"Agni and Agni! Gao Gang and Gao Gang! It's interesting..."

...

It's been a few days since Takagang, the commander of the Black Dragon Corps, came to Kyoto. In these few days, except for an interview with Kyoto TV, he stayed at the office of the Black Dragon Corps in Kyoto. .

As for his son Gao Shuai, oh, now this guy has been renamed Gao Bi.

After taking part in the Forbes Power Contest, Kobe seemed to have suddenly become aware of his cultivation base. The cultivation base continued to improve. At this point, even Gao Gang felt surprised.

The current strength of Gao Bi and even reached the strength of the 15th level zombie.

A few months ago, Gao Gang was absolutely unimaginable.

For all this, Gao Gang needs to thank a person, and this person is Li Tian.

It was after participating in the Forbes strength competition that Kobe had an understanding of Li Tian's strength and knew that in addition to his father Gao Gang, there are people in this world who have such a strong strength that will change.

At this time, Kobi was teasing a twelfth-level female zombie in the courtyard.

Kobi kept knocking out the clothes on the female zombie one by one with the refined steel chain rebuilt in his hand. After hitting so many times, Kobi didn't even hurt the female zombie's body.

This also reflects from the side that Kobi's current cultivation base is controlled.

But Gao Gang was not happy at all.

This Gao Bi's cultivation base has increased, but Gao Bi's fascination with senior female zombies has become more obvious.

At this moment, someone in the courtyard knocked on the door to enter, and coming in was the head of the Black Dragon Army stationed in Kyoto City.

"Legion commander, just received the news that Li Tian's trouble in Nanzhou is true. This Li Tian single-handedly killed the four highest cadres of the Rock Legion, Poison Lady, Xie Ji, He Tian and Mo Feng. , And then destroyed the entire Nanzhou City! Now Li Tian is coming to Kyoto City, and the person you are waiting for does not seem to be with Li Tian." The person in charge said with his head lowered.

"Li Tian, when I first saw him at the time, I felt that this son was not a waiting person, as expected. If Li Tian can single-handedly kill the four highest cadres of the Rock Legion including Mo Feng , Then Li Tian's strength is probably already in the top 100, and may even be even higher!"

"When did Li Tian reach this level of strength? If his strength has already reached this level, then what happened in East Sea City can be reasonably explained!" Gao Gang seemed to say to himself Said to himself generally.

After a while, Gao Gang shouted at Kobi, who was looking at the naked twelfth-level female zombie in the kennel: "Kobi! Come here!"

Gao Bi smirked and came to Gao Gang and said, "Dad, Dad, the body of that female zombie is so strange, there is a bottomless hole below!"

After the person in charge heard Gao Fang's words, he wanted to laugh but didn't dare to laugh, his body trembling constantly.

Gao Gang didn't get angry because of the responsible person's rudeness, but said to Gao Bi: "Ko Bi, if your father asks you to follow Li Tian after you leave your father, would you like it?"

"Lee... Captain Li Tian? Yes, I do!" Kobi said with an excited expression on his face just after thinking for a moment.
