

A Killer 3931

Chapter 3931: Shot

"This time from China, we only brought over a thousand people. These thousand people are going to take the entire Dongying island nation! With your suicide attack now, let alone taking over Dongying island nation, this is Ruhr Island. I can't hold it! Now, immediately, take your people to me immediately!" Situ Ningbing said angrily.

Liu Guoqiang did not expect that Situ Ningbing would have such an attitude. Liu Guoqiang, who was saddened by the death of his brothers, decided to ask Situ Ningbing to have a good theory. He took a step forward, his eyes were red and moist. He said, "Master Situ Ningbing..."

"Execute! Now!" Situ Ningbing said with eyes widened suddenly.

Liu Guoqiang saw the decision in Situ Ningbing's eyes. This was an unquestionable order.

"Good! Good!" Liu Guoqiang said two good words, then paused for a moment, as if making a particularly difficult decision. After a while, Liu Guoqiang shouted to the soldiers: "Retreat with me!"

Hearing this word withdraw, the eyes of the soldiers of the Cangshan ship were slightly red!

"Master Situ Ningbing, we are not afraid of death, let us continue to fight here!" These soldiers said with red eyes.

But Situ Ningbing was unmoved.

"Brothers, we withdraw, we will have a better chance in the future! This time...this time we really can't help much!" Liu Guoqiang comforted the soldiers.

Soon, the soldiers retreated, and then returned to the Cangshan ship in small boats.

After these soldiers retreated, the fire attack on the West City Wall suddenly stopped, and the zombies became even more crazy.

Only in less than ten minutes, the dozen or so zombies stood up again.

"Let me come!" Silly Man'er put the heavy sword in his hand against his shoulder, and said to Situ Ningbing.

"Can you?"

"I can!" Ouyang nodded heavily and said.

"If you can, then let you come, if you encounter any danger, I will come to rescue you immediately, and then we will abandon the Ruhr Island City and retreat to the Cangshan Ship!" Situ Ningbing said.

"it is good!"

Ouyang Man only said such a good word, and then he jumped and jumped directly off the wall.

Ouyang Man looked like a meteorite, and slammed it down.

There were zombies everywhere under this city wall. Ouyang Man didn't have any attacks. Just jumping off this city wall, he killed four or five zombies.

And Ouyang Man was quickly overwhelmed by the tide of zombies.

"My lord, someone has jumped off the wall again!" The man with glasses immediately said to the sky cluster in his abdomen after seeing Ouyang Man leaping off the wall.

"Idiot! On that city wall, with the city wall as a backing, you may be able to resist for a while, but if you jump down and jump into the tide of zombies, then even if you have great magical powers, then there is only one dead end!" Cong said with a sneer.

But at this moment, the abdominal sky cluster suddenly saw the direction where Ouyang had fallen, and the zombies flew up suddenly.

Immediately afterwards, Tian Cong in the abdomen saw an armored man with a crimson rune all over holding a crimson rune epee, rampaging, and beheading the zombies.

The manpower of this armor is huge, and dozens of zombies attacked at the same time and they were directly hit and flew out.

And that armored man's drunkenness and warmth didn't mean to drink. After killing a large space around his body, he did not intend to continue to kill those zombies, but directly rushed to the corpse ladders of those zombies.

"boom!"

"boom!"

The corpse ladders of those zombies collapsed one after another by the armored man.

"Haha, it's interesting! Send me an order to let those zombies no longer have to build zombie ladders, and instead attack the armored man. I really want to see what this armored man has in the face of my attacks on tens of thousands of zombies. !" said Tian Cong in the abdomen.

With a whistle, the zombies immediately focused their attacks on Ouyang Man.

Hundreds of zombies screamed vaguely and flocked towards Ouyang Man with their teeth and claws. In the process of rushing to Ouyang Man, the hands of these zombies either turned into bone thorns or turned into He lost his sharp claws, and then attacked Ouyang Man's body heavily.

"Chang!"

These attacks hit Ouyang Man like iron, Ouyang Man's armor was fine, but the claws of these zombies were burned by the scarlet rune to varying degrees.

"drink!"

Ouyang Man let out an angry roar, clasp the hilt of the epee in both hands, his body began to rotate suddenly.

Wherever the scarlet rune epee went, the zombies had no signs of resistance, they were directly cut into two parts lazily.

And at the position of the cut marks on the bodies of these zombies, a burnt mark immediately appeared.

That's right, this is exactly the burn effect produced by the high temperature of the rune epee.

Under this city wall, there are more than 40,000 zombies, but those who can really surround Ouyang Man are those hundreds of zombies. The majority of these zombies are from level 6 to level 9. How could it be Ouyang? A brutal opponent.

It's just that these zombies are like ocean waves, and there is no end.

"boom!"

Ouyang Man smashed the zombies again, and then used the heavy sword in his hand to directly blast the zombies into slag.

Ten minutes have passed since Ouyang Man jumped off the city wall, and at least four to five hundred zombies were killed by Ouyang Man, but these zombies did not harm Ouyang Man at all!

"Haha, the strength of this armored man has surpassed Shangren, and he is also wearing armor and holding a long sword. It is somewhat similar to Li Tian in the intelligence. Could it be that this person is Li Tian" abdominal Tian Cong thought.

"No, I heard that Li Tian can use Qi Yujian to kill people in the air. This person should not be Li Tian."

"But it doesn't matter, as long as this person is beheaded and the zombie army can attack this city wall, then Li Tian will definitely take action!"

Thinking of this, Tian Cong suddenly stood up from the car in his abdomen, leaped and flew out of the luxurious car.

Then the body of Tian Cong in the abdomen was like a dragonfly, stomping on those zombies quickly, and in ten seconds, the Tian Cong in the abdomen had already rushed in front of Ouyang Man.

"Boy, take it to death!" Abdomen Tiancong shouted while running, and with this cry from the abdomen Tiancong, the ninja sword in his hand had been released and flew towards Ouyang Man.

Ouyang Man already felt the powerful strength of the abdomen Tiancong, and did not dare to neglect, raising the sword with both hands, leaping forward, and also rushed to the abdomen Tiancong.

Ouyang Man wanted to lift the heavy sword to shake the flying ninja sword, and then attacked the abdomen, but the zombie under his feet was overwhelmed and almost fell over. This made Ouyang Man's heavy sword rubbed the ninja sword. Stabbed out, but the ninja sword hit Ouyang Man's armor directly.

"Chang!" With a loud noise, Ouyang Man was hit by the ninja knife directly from the zombie and flew down, and fell heavily to the ground.

Chapter 3932: Occult

Ouyang landed, and dozens of zombies swarmed up.

Ouyang Man leaped forward with a carp.

"drink!"

Ouyang Man screamed, and with a wave of his heavy sword, he chopped the dozen or so zombies in front of him into several pieces.

Immediately, Ouyang Man's shoulders sank, his whole body forcefully rushed forward, and the dozens of zombies rushing towards him were turned on their backs.

For a moment, no zombies dared to step forward in front of Silly Man'er.

Abdomen Tian Cong suddenly jumped off the zombie, pressing down with the ninja knife in his hand, and slashed towards Ouyang Man's head.

Ouyang Man didn't retreat but moved forward, raising the heavy sword with both hands, and rushing up against the attack from the sky cluster in his abdomen.

The muscles on the arms of the abdomen Tiancong suddenly became knotted, as if there was a dragon around his arm, and his face showed a hideous expression, and the corner of his mouth sneered slightly and said, "You get down. Right!"

"Chang!"

The swords intersected, Ouyang Man's body was pressed down again in the air, and fell to the ground.

Ouyang Man's power is not unbelievable, especially after the whole body is covered by crimson runes, Ouyang Man's power has reached ten thousand catties, almost comparable to Tang Xiaolong's power.

But under the slash of the sky cluster in the abdomen, Ouyang Man was blasted back to the ground.

The sky cluster in the abdomen was chasing him, and the ninja sword slashed on Ouyangman's epee, his legs volleyed a few times, his body was almost upside down and suppressed Ouyangman. Ouyang Man was suppressed by this force and had no room for counterattack.

Ouyang Man was born with supernatural power, coupled with the rune on his body, was actually suppressed into this, from another aspect can also reflect the strength of the abdominal sky cluster.

The swords intersected, and they kept making "creaking" noises.

In terms of strength, Ouyang Man was completely suppressed by the sky cluster in the abdomen, and the armor pieces all over his body were shaking slightly, making a slight buzzing sound.

"Crack!"

The ground under Ouyang Man's feet suddenly cracked a few cracks, and Ouyang Man's legs were a little bent by the sky cluster in this abdomen.

"Puff!"

Ouyang Man was finally overwhelmed, and his right knee suddenly fell to the ground.

"Hahaha, it's just a little stronger than the ninja-level ninja, so I dare to be so rampant."

"You are the so-called commander of the top ten legions, and there is no way to fight back under my attack, let alone you, an unknown soldier!" Tian Cong said with a wild smile in his abdomen.

Ouyang Man straightened his waist and withdrew the heavy sword abruptly, causing the ninja from the sky in the abdomen to slash his shoulder heavily. This withdrawal force doubled the strength of the abdomen celestial clump, and Ouyang Man's shoulders sank harder, almost falling to the ground by the abdomen celestial clump.

"Wow!"

Ouyang Man, like a beast, let out an unwilling roar.

"What a beast! It's a pity that all this is in vain!"

The abdomen Tiancong exerted force again, trying to directly press Ouyang Man to the ground.

Above the city wall, Situ Ningbing's heart became more and more nervous.

You must know that Ouyang Man is now one of the most powerful beings in the Celestial Legion. If Ouyang Man is defeated so easily, then Ruhr Island City will definitely be unable to defend it!

It was just an empty city, and several soldiers of the Cangshan ship had already been sacrificed. Situ Ningbing didn't want to see Ouyang Man have another accident.

"Flying Yasha, get ready!" Situ Ningbing said.

Although Ouyangman was suppressed, Ouyangman hadn't shown any signs of defeat. Once Ouyangman showed signs of defeat, Situ Ningbing would definitely attack the abdomen Tiancong unreservedly and rescue Ouyangman.

Then let Feitian Yasha deploy the dark cage, make absolute defense, and leave time for everyone to withdraw from Ruhr Island City and escape to Cangshan Ship.

Feitian Yasha was already flying, he was just waiting for a signal from Situ Ningbing.

"Wow!"

Ouyang Man let out an unyielding roar again and slammed his epee into the ground.

"Boom!"

The ground seemed to shake, and thousands of runes continued to flow from the ground to the epee in Ouyang Man's hand like tadpoles, and then to the armor on Ouyang Man's body.

The armor on Ouyang Man's body has turned crimson, like a flame. And because of the high temperature, some white smoke has appeared around Ouyang Man's body.

At this time, Ouyang Man was supporting the epee with his hands and slowly stood up.

"Give me down!" shouted Tian Cong in the abdomen, again trying to bend Ouyang Man's body forcefully, to completely press Ouyang Man in the mud.

But Ouyang Man's body just shook, but he didn't stop his standing up, or even slowed down.

"Get out of here!"

Ouyang roared fiercely, holding the heavy sword in both hands, and smashing the ninja sword on his shoulder and the sky clump in his abdomen with force.

The body of Tian Cong in the abdomen whirled a few times in the air, and fell on top of the head of the group of zombies, squashed a zombie with one foot, and landed on the ground, then stepped back seven or eight steps, and knocked the zombie behind him into flight. It took a few minutes before it stopped.

"Haha, yes! Such brute force, I really underestimate you!" Abdominal Tian Cong said excitedly.

"If I'm not mistaken, your rune ability should come from Lord Three Corpse! Yes, yes, in that case, then I will use the same ability to make gestures with you!" Abdomen Tian Cong said.

As he said, Abdomen Tiancong was learning from Ouyang Man and slammed the ninja knife in his hand into the mud.

"Is he an idiot? Is the silly man's secret technique something he can learn?" Feitian Yasha said disdainfully.

But as soon as Feitian Yasha's words fell, Feitian Yasha saw that hundreds of red runes were actually drilled out of the soil, and these runes continued to move toward the abdomen along the ninja sword in the sky cluster. Tian Cong walked on.

Soon, these runes swam past the ninja sword and reached the bare arms of the sky clump in the abdomen. The temperature of these runes was extremely high. As soon as they reached the skin of the sky clump of the abdomen, they made a "buzz" sound.

And Tian Cong's face in his abdomen was calm, without a trace of pain.

After these runes reached the skin of the abdomen sky clumps, they instantly penetrated into the skin of the abdomen sky clumps, and then began to spread around the entire body of the abdomen sky clumps.

A few runes climbed onto the face of Tian Cong in the abdomen, making it look cold and weird.

"Now, kid! It's time for me to do it!" Tian Cong said with a sneer in his belly.

In the next second, the abdomen Tiancong had already rushed out, and those zombies blocking the abdomen Tiancong had not even had time to escape, they were already beheaded by the ninja knife in the hands of the abdomen Tiancong.

But Ouyang Man was unwilling to show weakness, carrying the heavy sword and rushing towards the sky cluster in the abdomen.

Abdomen Tian Cong and Ouyang Man are like two high-speed trains running opposite each other, directly hitting the zombies in front of them, and then directly hitting each other.

"boom!"

Chapter 3933: Dark cage

The shock wave formed by the violent collision shook the zombies around the two people back.

Within a few hundred meters of their bodies, there is no more standing zombie.

After this violent impact, the armor on Ouyang Man's chest was smashed into a large chunk, and the tip of the heavy sword in his hand was also cut off by the ninja sword in the hands of the abdomen. On the other hand, looking at the sky clusters in the abdomen, he didn't even have the slightest harm except the clothes on his body exploding to reveal the knotted muscles of his body.

"Hey, it seems that you still don't know enough about the secret technique. Do you really think you can be invincible with this secret technique?"

"It's so naive."

"Since the Three Corpses will teach us this secret technique, then this secret technique must have a weakness that they can break through! Hey, unfortunately, I also know this weakness!" Abdominal Tian Cong said with a sneer.

With that said, the ninja sword in the hands of Tiancong in the belly suddenly slid down from the half-epee in Ouyangman's hand, and the tip of the ninja sword had already pierced towards a rune on Ouyangman's chest!

"bass"

The tip of the ninja sword pierced Ouyang Man's armor!

At this moment, Ouyang Man showed a shocked expression in his eyes.

"No...impossible!" Ouyang Man said incredulously.

Although Ouyang Man didn't know what material his armor was made of, it seemed that the strength of this armor had improved with the improvement of Ouyang Man's strength. You know, this armor can't even be cut off by Li Tian's "Red Cut".

Is it an illusion?

No, not an illusion!

On the second-opened armor, some black mucus had begun to flow out, which indicated that the ninja sword from the sky cluster in the abdomen had pierced Ouyang Man's body.

The abdomen Tiancong suddenly pulled the ninja sword from Ouyangman's body, and then turned around, flew up and kicked Ouyangman's chest a few more times, and Ouyangman's body was directly kicked back seven times. Eight steps. But at this time, the armor on Ouyang Man's chest was more dented.

Abdomen Tian Cong looked at the dark slime on the ninja knife in his hand, and said unexpectedly: "Oh? It turns out that there is a zombie hidden in this armor. I didn't expect it!"

"You... how did you do it?" Ouyang Man asked inexplicably, holding the half-epee in one hand and holding his chest with the other.

"Hehe, do you want to know? I will tell you before you die!" Tian Cong said with a sneer on his belly.

Speaking of the abdomen, Tian Cong's legs were a little on the ground, his body was like lightning, and the ninja sword in his hand slammed into that Ouyang Man's head again.

This head is the weakness of the zombie. Before, Ouyang Man was surrounded by armor. No matter it was a zombie or other enemies, he could not break through the defense of this armor, which made Ouyang Man feel confident.

But now, the abdomen Tian Cong didn't know why, it could already pierce the armor easily, Ouyang Man didn't dare to show any carelessness and flinched.

The strength of this abdominal clump is stronger than Ouyang Man, and after the rune appeared on the abdominal clump, his speed, strength, explosive power, etc. have been greatly improved, and now the abdominal clump has completely suppressed Ouyang Man. Up.

Even if Ouyang Man resisted with all his might, he was completely unable to resolve the abdominal sky cluster's attack.

The figure of Tian Cong in the abdomen kept flashing around Ouyang Man's body, and every time the figure in Tian Cong in the abdomen flashed, the ninja sword in his hand would pierce Ouyang Man's armor.

In less than two minutes of confrontation, Ouyang Man was completely defeated. The armor on his body has been pierced at least in more than 20 places, and even four or five pieces of the armor of Ouyang Man's armor have been picked off by the abdominal sky cluster, revealing the dark skin of Ouyang Man's body!

Looking at the pieces of armor that fell from Ouyang Man, Tian Cong's face in his abdomen showed a dazed expression, and said, "It turns out that's what happened! What a poor guy, I don't even know that he has become a three-corpse guinea pig! "

It turned out that the armor on Ouyang Man's body was not worn on, but rather grew out of Ouyang Man's body like fish scales. And the scales of these armors became unusually hard because of the bones of the zombie Ouyang Man.

Coupled with Ouyangman's rune secret technique, Ouyangman's armor and epee in his hand have more powerful power.

"How could this be? How could this be?" Ouyang Man muttered to himself.

Although Ouyang Man is a zombie, he is an eighteenth-level zombie. He possesses human consciousness and wisdom, and he immediately understands his current situation.

It's true that Ouyang Man is a zombie, but he is a freak zombie, a test product of the three zombie research on zombies!

Ouyang Man never wanted to take off this armor, unless he could pick out the armor piece by piece.

However, from the time Ouyang Man became a zombie, this abdominal sky cluster was the first person to pick off his armor pieces. Apart from this person, Ouyang Man didn't know who else could help him.

"Do not!"

Ouyang Man roared, holding the half-epee in his hand, rushing towards the other zombies, and beheading those zombies continuously, in order to release the unwillingness and anger in his heart.

"Hey! If you follow me and be willing to be the dog in the sky cluster of my abdomen, maybe the sky cluster in my abdomen can help you remove the armor on your body!" The abdominal sky cluster suddenly appeared behind Ouyang Man, facing Ouyang Man Said.

At this moment, the abdomen Tiancong suddenly felt something falling from the sky. He had not had time to look up and see that thing clearly. The thing had fallen off, completely covering his wheels. The sky cluster in the abdomen felt that he had entered the viscous liquid, and it became a little difficult for his body to move.

And he wanted to see exactly what this substance was, but he couldn't do it at all, because this thing seemed to have been stained with ink, and the sky in the abdomen was completely black.

The same as the sky cluster in the abdomen, there are more than 40,000 zombies and Ouyang Man under the city wall!

Looking down from the city wall, it seems that there is an ink-colored jelly with a diameter of more than two kilometers in front of the city wall, and those zombies, Ouyang Man, and the abdomen sky clusters seem to be the flesh of this jelly.

Since it is the pulp in the jelly, it is naturally fixed in it and cannot be moved at all.

Unless Feitian Yasha allows it!

This is the dark cage! Feitian Yasha's natal skill dark cage!

Seeing this kind of madness, Situ Ningbing's heart relaxed a little, and he immediately ordered Two-dimensional to take the mutant bat squadron from the air to rescue Ouyang Man from the dark cage under the wall. Then these dozen mutant bats took Ouyang Man directly to the Cangshan Ship.

"Master Ningbing! Hurry up and retreat. I feel that the sky cluster in the abdomen may break this dark cage at any time!" Feitian Yasha said anxiously.

Chapter 3934: Hundred lotus

Feitian Yasha was right. Although the abdominal sky cluster was trapped in a dark cage, the abdominal sky cluster was not completely unable to move like other zombies.

Looking down from the city wall, you can see that the sky clump in the abdomen is like an ant falling into the honey, slowly swimming back and forth in the dark cage.

However, this abdomen sky cluster is not ants, the real ants are those zombies, this dark cage is not honey, nor can it stop the movement of the abdomen sky cluster.

There is darkness everywhere, without any light.

The belly sky felt like he had fallen into the deep sea. In this dark cage, there was no light and no gravity. Although the belly sky cluster could swim, it didn't even know where the sky was or where the earth was.

But the abdomen Tian Cong didn't panic at all, but a sneer appeared at the corners of his mouth, and said disdainfully: "Huh! It's just a small bug, it's like trapping me, it's so naive!"

Belly Tian Cong believes that the night that Lun covers him is not the end of the world, as long as he moves in one direction, sooner or later he will walk out of the darkness.

Thinking of this, the abdomen Tian Cong had already settled his attention, and began to swim in a target direction in his heart.

At this moment, if you look down from the city wall, you will see that the abdominal sky cluster is gradually swimming towards the ground in the dark cage.

Feitian Yasha was already a little worried.

Feitian Yasha's dark cage is considered preliminary completion, and when he uses this skill, it will not cause any harm to his body.

However, precisely because this is the preliminary completion, this dark cage is temporarily unable to trap a strong man like the abdominal sky cluster, and if you want to trap such a strong man, the only way is to continuously reduce the size of the dark cage. .

Feitian Yasha said: "Huh, let me make you more difficult!"

Speaking of Feitian Yasha, he flew directly, flying right above the dark cage, and then violently performed several movements that seemed to be seals.

With these few actions, the dark cage instantly became smaller.

"Huh? Why do you suddenly feel that it is more difficult to move?"

The sky cluster in the abdomen instantly felt the inconsistency before and after the movement.

"Yes, they must be afraid of me moving in this direction, that's why they made this change!"

Abdomen Tiancong thought in his heart, and this change strengthened his abdomen Tiancong's judgment.

At this time, the distance between the abdomen sky cluster and the ground in this dark cage is no more than two meters. If he continues to move the abdomen sky cluster down, he will soon find the ground and can determine the direction.

At that time, this dark cage had lost its meaning to the abdominal sky cluster.

Feitian Yasha tried his best to control the dark cage, in order to continuously increase the density of the dark cage to slow down the movement speed of the sky cluster in the abdomen.

At this time, the overall volume of the dark cage had been reduced by one third.

Because of the reduction in size, a large number of zombies escaped from this dark cage.

After these zombies had just escaped from the dark cage, they were like drowning people fished out of the water, without the slightest energy, one by one fell weakly to the ground.

This should be the real ultimate move of the Dark Prison! Not only can trap the zombies, but also make them weak!

At this time, there was a whistle in the sky, but it was from those Zhongren who were not trapped in the dark cage.

After hearing these whistles, the zombies that had become weak and weak, they slowly got up, turning around like headless flies. Some zombies even fell into the dark cage again. in.

However, more zombies began to rush toward the wall of Ruhr Island City frantically. These zombies started to build corpses in a familiar way, and kept rushing towards the wall.

Seeing this situation, Feitian Yasha was also extremely anxious, but he had nothing to do.

Although Feitian Yasha was already trying his best to control the dark cage, the sky cluster in the abdomen still touched the ground.

"Hahaha, it turned out to be the ground here! Let me break your cage!" Tian Cong thought in his stomach, with his feet on the ground.

Suddenly, the body of the abdomen Tiancong began to twist wildly, as if something was about to come out of the body of the abdomen Tiancong.

As the body of Tian Cong in the abdomen twisted, Feitian Yasha, who had reached the end of the crossbow, could no longer control the dark cage at all!

The dark cage is like the vast ocean in the storm, swaying back and forth.

Soon, the dark cage was like a frustrated balloon, and it began to shrink crazily. In almost an instant, the total volume of the dark cage was less than one-tenth of its original size.

More and more zombies escaped from this dark cage, and after a brief panic, these zombies also began to attack the walls of Ruhr Island City!

At this time, the corpse ladders of those zombies were about to reach the city wall, and there was no point in continuing to defend like this.

"Feitian Yacha, retreat!" Situ Ningbing said to Feitian Yacha.

And when she said this, Situ Ningbing had already started to control the Qingyun Qi Jue fish in her body and began to swim.

After swimming a few times in Situ Ningbing's body, the little fish rushed out of Situ Ningbing's right arm and turned into a purple lotus. The lotus flower kept turning in Situ Ningbing's hands, and the petals were unusually dazzling.

"Hundred lotus!" Situ Ningbing shouted angrily.

The lotus flower in Situ Ningbing's hand flew directly toward the sky cluster in the abdomen. When the lotus was flying into the air, it instantly changed into nearly a hundred fist-sized lotus flowers. The petals of these lotus flowers began to rotate. Thousands of petals of hundreds of lotus flowers flew out toward the abdomen sky cluster.

These petals gathered together when in mid-air, forming a lotus petal sword, and then slashed heavily towards the abdomen sky cluster.

Bai Lianpo, this is the scenery Situ Ningbing saw when he was practicing Qingyun Qi Jue, and he realized the move.

The crimson rune on Tiancong's belly instantly turned into a burning flame, and the ninja knife in his hand had been burned red, even the ninja knife could not bear the high temperature, and began to keep ticking down the molten iron. Then Tian Cong in his abdomen fiercely waved the ninja sword in his hand, blocking the attack of the lotus petal sword.

"boom!"

The flame on the ninja sword swallowed the lotus petal sword instantly.

"Haha, hahaha! Tell Li Tian to come out, otherwise I will kill you all!" Abdominal Tian Cong said with a wild smile.

The lotus petal sword was transformed by Situ Ningbing's internal strength, and how could it be burned by the flames. The petal sword exploded in an instant, and thousands of petals flew out in all directions.

Chapter 3935: You lied to me

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

These petals are like flying knives, instantly beheading hundreds of zombies surrounding the body of the abdomen Tiancong. This feeling is like a mass killing function in online games, giving people a very shocking feeling. .

However, these hundreds of zombies are just a drop in the bucket.

From the faint light of the day to the current sunrise, the east is red as fire, and the battle has lasted for several hours, but fewer than five thousand zombies have been killed. There are more than 40,000 zombies attacking the city wall of Ruhr Island.

The only thing that made Situ Ningbing feel relieved was that two petals passed directly through the body of the abdomen, and finally hurt the abdomen.

"Goooo!"

"Goooo!"

The blood continuously flowed out from the wound of the sky cluster in the abdomen, but after the blood flowed out, it turned into a black fire and burned.

As the black fire burned, the runes on the abdomen Tiancong gradually disappeared, and at this moment, there were seven or eight large packets on the abdomen Tiancong's body. These big bags seem to be sarcomas, and there seems to be something squirming in the sarcomas.

"No...no, Master Tiancong in the abdomen is going to be angry!"

"Damn it, these guys can provoke Master Tiancong in the abdomen to such an extent!"

"This is a lot of trouble. When Master Tiancong in the abdomen is furious, it doesn't matter whether we are the enemy or the enemy! What should we do?"

Seeing this change in the abdomen Tiancong, the first people who felt the fear turned out to be the ninjas. These ninjas were shaking and trembling all over their bodies, and they had already begun to sweat non-stop on their foreheads.

"boom!"

A wave of coercion fell from the sky.

"Huh!" "Huh!"

There was a strong wind around the body of Tiancong in the abdomen, and this gust of wind convolved the mud and dust on the ground, forming a tornado around the body of Tiancong in the abdomen.

The zombies around the sky clump in the abdomen all retreated to both sides, and the zombies in front of the sky clump in the abdomen began to fight their names and began to surge towards the wall, as if there was something extremely dangerous behind them.

Seeing the changes here, Tang Xiaolong, who had already begun to retreat, came to Situ Ningbing.

"Guru!"

Feeling the strength released from the abdomen Tiancong, Tang Xiaolong involuntarily swallowed his saliva and muttered: "Is the abdomen Tiancong going to deform? Is he a supernatural person?"

"The strength of the sky cluster in the abdomen is far better than us, let's go!" Situ Ningbing said.

"Haha, this is West Jiuzhou Island, the site of the sky cluster in my abdomen, none of you can walk!" A wild laugh from the sky cluster in the abdomen came from a distance.

...

Mount Kirishima, Kirishima Shrine.

Vulcan crawled on the ground, turned his head boringly, glanced at Li Tian and shook his head slightly.

There is no sun or moon in the mountains, and Vulcan doesn't know how long it has been since Li Tian has entered the cultivation realm of this kind of thing.

It may be a day or a year.

For Vulcan, who has been trapped here for thousands of years, it doesn't seem to make much difference.

Vulcan's heart only hopes that he can wake up before Li Tian's death, and it is best to pull out the Heavenly Jade Spear from him. Even if it can't be removed, at least chat with Vulcan to solve the boredom is good!

Thinking of this, Vulcan turned his head and looked at Li Tian again.

Watching Li Tian is more interesting than watching those magma!

But at this moment, Vulcan saw that Li Tian's hand holding the Qiong Spear of the sky moved slightly.

Vulcan thought he was wrong and rubbed his eyes abruptly, but he saw that Li Tian's arm moved slightly.

And above the slightly moving arm, Vulcan faintly felt a powerful force.

"Is it an illusion? How could this kid possess such a powerful force?" Vulcan thought in his heart.

"call!"

Li Tianchang let out a suffocating breath and slowly opened his eyes.

Seeing this moment, Vulcan's heart was about to cry.

"Woo, you finally moved, do you know how long I have been waiting? It's almost three years!" Vulcan said exaggeratedly.

"Three years...what? Three years?" Li Tian suddenly woke up.

As Li Tian woke up suddenly, the powerful force on Li Tian erupted instantly, and the force went straight into the sky.

"Om!"

The Heavenly Qiong Spear inserted into Vulcan's body shook suddenly, and Vulcan, the former Venerable Nether Realm, only felt his head suddenly dizzy.

"Impossible! Impossible! Even if my strength is damaged, I will not have one cultivation base, but after all, I am a former venerable, how can I not bear the energy released from this kid?" Thinking in horror.

But at this moment, Vulcan saw that Li Tian's body turned out to be an electric dragon snake, like countless purple lightning rushing out of Li Tian's body.

That's right, that's the purple lightning dragon, the purple lightning python.

At this moment, Vulcan had the illusion that Li Tian and Li Tian had reached the strength of the venerable.

"Impossible! I have never heard of anyone who can continuously break through and reach the venerable level in just a few days of cultivation!" Vulcan said, shaking his head.

As far as Vulcan knows, the strength cultivation base of the current Netherworld is divided into three levels from low to high, namely, cultivator, venerable, and domain master.

Under the cultivator, there are actually more levels of cultivation, but to the venerable, those are already like ants. And the domain master is already the existence that the venerables look up to. As for whether there are other powerful existences above the domain master, this can only be answered in the legend of the underworld.

Therefore, Vulcan felt shocked.

If Vulcan knows that the current earth world is not a venerable one, even a cultivator of this level will probably not be found in the earth world. Vulcan does not know how shocked it will be.

Li Tian felt the electric dragon snake on his body to his heart's content!

"Is this the scenery that Qingyun Qi Jue saw when all forty-nine roads reached the summit? This feeling is really wonderful!" Li Tian slowly loosened his hands holding the Qiong Spear of the sky, exerting force Clenched the ground into a fist and said excitedly.

In three days, Li Tian only used three days to comprehend all the changes in the Qingyun Qi Jue, and then deliberately controlled the seven or seventy-nine fish to reach the top at the same time.

What Li Tian didn't expect was that it was not a small fish climbing up to the top at all, but a carp jumping into the dragon gate!

After the seven forty-nine small fishes reached the top, Li Tian saw a heavenly gate, saw the colorful clouds, and also saw a round of red sun. At that moment, Li Tian thought that what he saw was the God Realm, that's it. The pinnacle of existence in the world.

After all the little fishes jumped over the heaven gate, the little fishes fell back to the top of the mountain, but at this time these little fishes were no longer little fish, all became dragons and snakes!

Seven seven forty-nine purple lightning dragons!

Li Tian felt that at that moment, his strength seemed to have reached the peak, even far surpassing him when he was in another world.

But that feeling flashed past, Li Tian wanted to catch but couldn't catch it anymore.

"It doesn't matter, Li Tian will definitely reach that level again!" Li Tian said.

"Woo, I finally waited until this day!"

"I am finally free!"

"Woo, don't just watch me cry, you will soon pull the spear of heaven from me!"

"Hold it!" Li Tian whispered.

"Hold it? I'm the Venerable..."

Before Vulcan's words were finished, Li Tian had reached out and grabbed the Qiong Lance of the Sky. The countless lightning dragons and snakes walked away from the Qiong Lance of the Sky and hit directly on the Vulcan. The lightning crackled. , And Vulcan screamed in pain.

With a slight effort from Li Tian, the Qiong Lance that day had been pulled out from the Vulcan and the black rock, and landed on Li Tian.

But at this moment, Vulcan suddenly let out an unwilling roar: "No...you lie to me..."

Chapter 3936: Small hot pot

The moment Vulcan's body was pierced and the Qiong Spear of the sky was pulled out, the Vulcan stood up from the black rock before he came. The black rock split into two with Vulcan as its heart, and the rock The lava flowed directly into Vulcan's body, and then Vulcan's body fell into a crack in the black rock.

When Vulcan uttered that unwilling scream, Li Tian Kuairuo Ben Lei's arm grabbed a hole, and the Vulcan had already merged with the magma.

But Vulcan did not die, but turned into a little fire monster with only adult arms!

That's right, it's a little fire monster whose whole body is tumbling magma.

This little fire monster quickly absorbed all the flames of the magma in the entire cave, and the cave became dim after a few minutes. The original hot lava turned into rocks, but only sporadic fires were still burning on the rock faces.

"Why lie to me? Why lie to me!" The little fire monster jumped out of the crack in the rock and roared at Li Tian.

Li Tian's heart felt good, so why did this Vulcan become a little fire monster, but Li Tian did not ask, but raised his head and looked around, preparing to bring the mutant crow out of the space of Void Yasha , Flew out of the cave and walked out of this Kirishima Shrine.

"Why lie to me? Why are you lie to me!" The little fire monster still roared at Li Tian.

In fact, Fire God knew that for their Yanhuo Clan, once their strength fell from the venerable to the realm of cultivator, their appearance would change back to their original appearance.

It's just that Vulcan has been quietly a beautiful man of the venerable level for thousands of years, and suddenly his strength has fallen from a powerful venerable to a master cultivator, and his appearance has changed from a human to a small monster like the Rock Fire clan. This huge psychological gap made him unacceptable for a while.

Moreover, from the monk to the venerable, this is not something that everyone can easily do.

It is necessary to know that there may be thousands of cultivators that can produce a Venerable, and there are countless fellows who are close to the Venerable but not the Venerable like the Three Corpses.

"Why deceive me?" The little fire monster said to Li Tian with a very unfounded expression.

"Wow!"

Li Tian's wrist flicked, and the spear blade of the Qiong Lance that day had already pointed to the little fire monster's abdomen. Li Tian slightly stabbed forward and said, "What? Do you still want to be nailed here by me? ?"

At this time, Li Tian's body exuded the aura of a strong man. Although he was still far from the strength of the venerable level, but the spear of the sky was in hand, which made Li Tian a little more airy. A bit more domineering!

The little fire monster was stabbed by the Qiong Spear of the sky, and the monster screamed and jumped to the side, then looked at Li Tian resentfully and said, "Big Brother, do you have any sympathy? I changed from being a venerable man. Cultivator, you have changed from a beautiful man to a little guy. Can't you allow me to vent? Can't you comfort me gently?"

"Then do you want to become a beautiful man nailed to this rock or do you want to follow me as a little fire monster?" Li Tian said unceremoniously.

At this time, Li Tian had already passed through the Void Yasha and Dixing Yachagou. Now Li Tian already knew that he had entered this Kirishima Temple for almost three days.

These three days are enough for many things to happen.

Li Tian didn't know if he had attacked the abdomen Tiancong during the three days of his cultivation, and whether Situ Ningbing and the others were safe during the three days of his cultivation. So Li Tian is now anxious to get out of here and return to Ruhr City soon.

As for the Vulcan Little Fire Monster, if he can listen to the female domain master and follow Li Tian obediently, then Li Tian welcomes him, and if Vulcan has other ideas, then I'm sorry, Li Tian will not take him to play.

Anyway, during this trip to the Kirishima Mountain Temple, Li Tian's cultivation level has been greatly improved, and he has a magical weapon like the Qiong Spear of the sky in his hand. It can be said that his strength has greatly increased. The current strength of Li Tian has become The fire  of the little fire monster is even stronger, and one little fire monster is not much as a helper, and one less is a lot of him.

Seeing that Li Tian had already summoned the mutant crow and jumped into the body of the mutant crow, the little fire monster quickly jumped into the body of the mutant crow.

"We Yanhuo clan are people who believe in what we say. Since we have promised the female domain lord to follow you, how can we go back and forth!" The little fire monster said righteously.

Although the whole body of this little fire monster is made of magma, the surface of the little fire monster does not have a hot temperature. And the flame that he keeps burning is also cold. This feeling seems to be a special effect decoration of fifty cents. Under normal conditions, there is no use for eggs, but it is better than pulling the wind, but it can be used to force it!

"Since you will follow me in the future, you must know my name! My name is Li Tian, and you will learn about me slowly in the future. Your name with the life of the earth or the Lord of Fire is really too confusing. Call you a small hot pot!" Li Tian said.

"Small hot pot? This name sounds good, it's much better to call me Little Huoguai! From now on, this will be my name, no one is allowed to * me!" Little Huoguai said.

Who knows that a name that Li Tianwuxin gave will reverberate throughout the Netherworld in the future. When it comes to Venerable Hotpot, the domain masters of the Netherworld must be polite to three points!

Of course, this is all after a long, long time. The little hot pot now is just a little fire monster that has fallen from the venerable level to the realm of cultivators.

After the mutant crow flew over the cliff, it quickly flew out of this passage.

Just after flying out of the Kirishima Temple, the main hall collapsed instantly and turned into some flame rocks, as if this Kirishima Temple had never existed before.

The first time he flew out of the Kirishima Temple, Li Tian contacted Feitian Yasha through his mind.

At this time, Li Tian and Feitian Yacha were hundreds of miles away. Li Tian and Feitian Yacha had psychological feelings, but they could not communicate normally.

This is psychological induction, not satellite phone after all.

After getting in touch with Feitian Yacha, Li Tian could feel the excitement that Feitian Yacha showed. This is probably because he didn't get in touch with Li Tian for three days, and now I am happy to finally contact. Why can I feel a kind of irritability and anger from Feitian Yasha's body?

"Something must have happened! Could it be that the sky cluster in the abdomen has begun to attack the city of Ruhr?"

"Situ Ningbing, Xueji, Duanmuying, they should be safe, right?"

"Tang Xiaolong and Ouyang Man will be fine, right?"

"No, I must rush back as soon as possible."

The mutant crows and Li Tianxin are eloquent, they spread their huge wings, flapping constantly, and their flight speed has reached the fastest.

In just ten minutes, the mutant crow had already flown out of Kirishima Mountain.

If you want to know that Kirishima Mountain has high mountains, nine winding roads and eighteen bends, if you want to walk out of the mountain, you don't have to think about it in a day and a half.

When approaching Kirishima City, Li Tian found that there were hundreds of colorful tents of various sizes near the urban area of Kirishima City. Many people had gathered in front of these tents, and they were in the body of the mutant crow. What people are talking about, but they can also see these people surrounded by a man, the group is excited, and they are almost ready to do something with this man.

"Master Li Tian, it's Beiyuan!" said the mutant crow.

Li Tian had already seen that the man surrounded at the center was Beiyuan!

"I didn't expect Kitahara to bring out so many people in these three days. It seems that the revival of Kirishima City is promising!" Li Tian thought.

"Go down and take a look!" Li Tian said.

Chapter 3937: Okami

"Kitahara! We all followed you to Kirishima City because we believed you, but what about your master now? Where did he hide?"

"We have been here for one night. Although this night is relatively safe, there has been no zombie attack, but we can't live in this tent forever." A dozen men and women surrounded Beiyuan Qizui. Said eight tongues. 800

Kitahara was impatient and sweating profusely, shouting to the people surrounding him, "Listen to me, you can already see the walls of Kirishima City. There are absolutely no zombies inside the walls! If you trust me If so, we will find a way to climb the city wall, from now on we will never be attacked by zombies!"

"I still believe you? I won't wait for us to exhaust all our efforts and finally climb the city wall. What changes will happen?"

"Yes, it's better if we live on this hillside temporarily. If your master returns, we will follow you inside the city wall. If your master does not return, if something happens again, we can be together Return to the mountain in a moment!"

Beiyuan's voice was hoarse, his lips were chapped, and he continued to shout, "The mountain volcano erupted, and the volcanic ash has already destroyed the crops. What are you doing to destroy the mountain? I believe Master Li Tian will definitely come back!"

"Then you continue to believe, anyway, after the end of the world, I only believe in myself!" someone said disdainfully.

At this time, the crowd in the distance suddenly had a commotion, followed by several gunshots.

Someone yelled in horror, "No...it's not good, there is a bereaved attack!"

Everyone looked up and saw that there was a huge mourning bird with its wings spread over four or five meters in the sky.

"Quick...Run! Even firearms and bullets can't hurt this bereavement at all!" someone called out.

"It's over, it's over, let's play now! Looking at the size of the bereavement, the level of the bereavement is at least tenth level!" Someone sat on the ground and said blankly.

"They are all pretending to be dead, and the bereaved birds prefer to eat fresh food, maybe pretending to be dead can deceive the bereaved!" Someone suggested.

Soon the people who were still noisy just now fell to the ground and started playing the game of pretending to be dead.

Only Beiyuan stood alone, looking at the sky with tears in his eyes.

"Kitahara, you don't want to live anymore? Pretend to be dead!"

A man who still had something to do with Kitahara whispered to Kitahara.

"Don't pretend! Don't pretend to die, my master is here!" Kitahara said excitedly as he walked past a corpse.

"Your master is the bereavement bird?" the man asked.

Beiyuan shook his head and said, "No, my master is the man standing on the dead bird!"

After hearing Beiyuan's words, other people nearby who fell to the ground pretending to be dead also stood up. At this time, they also saw a man standing beside the mutant crow. The man was dressed in white and was holding a silver gun. , Looked up from the ground, and suddenly felt that the man was so extraordinary and magnificent.

And that strong breath of contempt for everything makes those men obsessed with respecting women.

"Kitahara, your master really seems to be a  descending from the earth!"

"The gods descended to the earth? Yes, my master is descended from the heavens! And the  Amaterasu descended to the earth!" Beiyuan thought.

At this time, Kitahara was full of pride after being excited.

Beiyuan is not an idiot. At this time, he immediately learned how to use tiger skins as a banner. He said proudly, "You see that huge bereavement. It is my master's mount. I was fortunate to ride this with my master. Mount!"

The people around immediately showed envious expressions, and the look in Beiyuan's eyes was already a little wrong.

At this time, his son who ran to Beiyuan's side also showed a proud expression on his face after hearing Beiyuan's words.

Beiyuan watched the mutant crow hovering in mid-air for a few times, and slowly landed. Before Li Tian jumped off the surface, he walked a few steps and walked to the mutant crow in a very pleasing tone. The crow said a few words to prove that his relationship with the mutant crow is indeed close.

Seeing that the mutant crow didn't even tear and eat Beiyuan, and seemed to understand Beiyuan's words, nodded frequently, and everyone believed Beiyuan's words even more.

Li Tian and Little Hotpot jumped down from the mutant crow.

"Master Li Tian, fortunately not insulting your life!" Beiyuan directly bowed to the ground, knocking his brain heavily on the ground and said.

Li Tian hurriedly lifted Kitahara, without talking nonsense, and said, "Kitahara, you immediately organize people to go to the corresponding wall, I will arrange for someone to send you into the wall of Kirishima City. From now on, Kirishima City will be yours. Managed!"

Beiyuan was touched by the shock, nodded heavily, and vowed to Li Tian, as if he wanted to be a cow and horse for Li Tian.

Li Tian spent less than an hour in Kirishima City, and in less than an hour, Li Tian brought a small hot pot to blow up all the leaking zombies in other areas except the Tiandi Herringbone area. Beheaded.

Standing on the city wall, I saw Li Tian show his strength with his own eyes. These residents admired Li Tian even more. Some people even secretly decided to build a temple of Amaterasu in the appearance of Li Tian to worship Li Tian.

In this hour, these residents even saw the pontics that suddenly appeared out of thin air in the ten areas.

These bridges are like viaducts, and they will be a perfect connection of areas, so that the ten areas are no longer absolutely independent.

And seeing the appearance of these bridge bodies, the island residents knelt to the ground, and they now really treat Li Tian as a god.

Of course, in this hour, the little hot pot also showed his ability.

To tell the truth, the strength of the current small hot pot definitely exceeds that of any of the top ten legion commanders. If the level of the zombie is more than 20, then the strength of the small hot pot is definitely more than 20.

However, the strength of the performance of the small hot pot is more on the killing side, and this kind of visual impact does not have the bridge body built by the Dixing Yasha come to be stronger.

Therefore, the small hot pot is very hurt.

The little hot pot originally thought that he, the Lord of Fire, was considered a cultivator in strength, and he could definitely be Li Tian's right-hand man, and he might even be able to give some pointers to Li Tian's cultivation. But when Little Hot Pot learned that Li Tian had four Xiaoyachas to help, Little Hot Pot knew how ridiculous his thoughts were.

Chapter 3938: Yang Guo shot

Cangshan ship in Ruhr Bay, Ruhr Island City.

Situ Ningbing, Xue Ji, Tang Xiaolong and others all returned to the Cangshan ship.

After Situ Ningbing and others retreated, the sky cluster in the abdomen did not complete the changes and easily destroyed a corner of the city wall of Ruhr Island. Those zombies swarmed in, and now the entire Ruhr Island City has become the world of those zombies. , There are zombies everywhere.

And the sky cluster in the abdomen is the king of this zombie army.

Fortunately, those zombies don't know how to water. Although they are all immortal, those zombies seem to be naturally afraid of the ocean, and they retreat when they chase to the coast.

This also made Situ Ningbing and the others slightly relieved.

At this time, Feitian Yasha told Situ Ningbing that Li Tian finally had news, which made Situ Ningbing and others who had lost the city of Ruhr a little calmer, or Situ Ningbing and Liu Guoqiang did not know what the next step should be. How to deal with it.

The fact that those zombies can't enter the water does not mean that the ninjas can't enter the water.

Abdomen Tian Cong immediately ordered the ninjas to take the fishing boats docked on the coast to attack the Cangshan Ship, and Abdomen Tian Cong also personally had a fishing boat, and must completely destroy the Cangshan Ship.

However, not long after these fishing boats left the coast and before they reached the Cangshan ship, there was no wind and waves on the sea surface, and the waves were surging to the sky. The fishing boats were overturned and destroyed, and the sky in the abdomen was exhausted. Escaped from and swam back to shore.

But the other ninjas were not as lucky as the abdominal sky clusters. After falling into the sea, those ninjas never swam out of the water and were swallowed by the sea.

Of course, this is all due to Haiyacha's secretly showing his might.

"Asshole! Where did this  take my ninjas? Damn, didn't I tell him to bypass the city wall and attack from behind? Why can Li Tian's people easily retreat and return to the warship?" Tian Cong said angrily.

No one can answer this question of the abdomen Tiancong, perhaps only Haiyasha can answer this question.

That's right, the commander of the Korean army was ordered by the sky cluster in the abdomen to take the ninjas around the city wall of Ruhr Island, and then take a boat to detour to the coastline of Ruhr Island, and then attack Situ Ning from behind. Bing et al.

But not long after their ship went out to sea, Hai Yasha stared at them. They hadn't circled the coastline yet, and Hai Yasha shot their ship and destroyed it.

Most of those ninjas were left on the bottom of the sea by Haiyasha and became rare food for the lost fish, but the commander of the army and a few ninjas escaped.

The commander of the Chao Corps and other ninjas escaped, and they knew that there seemed to be something in the ocean that could easily create waves, and even drag them to the ocean. They knew that this time they might not be able to complete the task set by the abdominal sky cluster. Up.

With the character of Tiancong in the abdomen, if they go back, they will definitely be severely punished, and they may even lose their lives.

At this time, the commander of the Chao Corps began to take out his identity as Dongying, the Three Corpse Special Agent, and fudge these forbearances, so under the agitation of the commander of the Chao Corps, they betrayed the abdomen, and they had quietly detoured towards Fukuoka Prefecture. Then they will leave West Jiuzhou Island by boat at the northernmost section of West Jiuzhou Island and go to Honshu!

The abdomen Tian Cong did not wait for the commander of the army, looking at the Cangshan ship on the sea, couldn't help getting more angry.

Even the abdomen Tian Cong directly took the zombies next to him to relieve his anger!

"Big... adults don't actually need to be angry. Li Tian's subordinates have already fled back to the ship, but they didn't drive the ship away. Then it means that they have not given up on this place, or they are still waiting. who!"

"Since they won't leave, everything is easy to say. As long as the army of Takuya Kurokawa and Hideo Miyazaki arrives here, then the gunship can be launched to counterattack the ship!"

"Master Hideo Miyazaki used to be a general of the Dongying Self-Defense Force, and Master Hideo Miyazaki, the military base of the entire Dongying Island Kingdom, must know it! At that time, the adults can order Hideo Miyazaki to lead people to drive out our own fleet, like this Can't they easily destroy their ships?" The man with glasses said to the abdomen Tian Cong.

"Yo Xi!" Tian Cong's face in the belly finally showed a relieved expression.

But Abdomen Tian Cong suddenly realized something and said, "No, Kurokawa Takuya and Miyazaki Hideo are far away, but their team is a mechanized team. Why haven't they reached Ruhr Island yet? Did they encounter any accidents? "

This bad premonition of Tiancong in the abdomen was quickly confirmed. A few minutes later, two ninjas covered in blood in ragged clothes came to Tiancong in the abdomen.

"Puff!" The two ninjas knelt down in front of the abdomen Tian Cong, and said miserably, "My lord, emergency rescue, emergency rescue!"

Tian Cong suddenly stood up in his abdomen, reached out his hand to grasp the ninja's clothes, shook it vigorously, and said angrily, "What happened?"

"Back... If you are my lord, in the evening, under the leadership of two adults, Takuya Kurokawa and Hideo Miyazaki, we were on the coastal road at full speed to Ruhr Island City. But when we arrived in Hyuga City, Many funerals met, and those funerals were completely out of the control of our ninja organization and began to attack us without any explanation!"

"These zombies are powerful, and they suddenly launched an attack. We suffered heavy losses, and even our tanks and locomotives were basically destroyed! The fifty thousand teams were quickly dispersed after being attacked by these zombies. Now Miyazaki Hide and Hei The two adults, Chuan Takuya, are organizing personnel to counterattack the zombies. The two adults sent us to ask the adults for help!" the ninja said.

"Seek help? That is the sharpest fifty thousand legionnaire in the sky cluster in my abdomen, so he still has the face to ask for help?"

"The entire West Jiuzhou Island has been controlled by the sky cluster in my abdomen, and the vast majority of high-level zombies are within my control. Where are the zombies attacked? Could it be that you are greedy for life, afraid of death, and deliberately teasing me like this? ?" Tian Cong said angrily.

The ninja hurriedly shook his head and said, "No... I dare not, my subordinates dare not tease adults! By the way, those zombies are controlled by someone! And his control method is completely unaffected by our ninja's control method!"

"That guy said his name was Yang Guo, and he also said that whoever is the enemy of Li Tian is his enemy!" Another ninja added.

Chapter 3940: Li Tian is back

The white spray splashed, and the spray splashed was as high as a mountain.

After a while, the water splash fell on the surface of the sea, revealing the big eight snake behind the water splash.

The Yaqi Orochi was safe and sound.

However, after the dark cage was subjected to such a fierce bombardment, it became torn apart, and even the effect of stopping the movement of the Ochi Orochi was lost.

At this time, the Cangshan ship was already fully equipped and moving towards the direction of Kirishima City.

"Want to escape? Can you escape? This is West Kyushu Island, the site of the sky in my abdomen! No one has ever escaped from my Yaqi Orochi illusion!" That Oki Orochi's belly sky Cong's head said with a wild smile.

Like other snakes, the Orochi Orochi can swim on the surface much faster than at 6th place. It can be regarded as the speed of the Cangshan Ship, but it can't get rid of Orochi Orochi at all.

Seeing that Yaqi Orochi was getting closer and closer to the Cangshan ship, Haiyacha's heart was also very anxious.

"Master Li Tian asked me to be responsible for the safety of this Cangshan ship. If there is an accident with this Cangshan ship, then how do I want Master Li Tian to explain it!"

"No, I definitely don't allow the Cangshan ship to be destroyed by this monster in my hand! It seems that I must use my natal skill, Mirage..."

The so-called mirage is a multi-mirror produced by the refraction of light and shadow of water vapor on the sea surface.

But this is Haiyacha's life skill, naturally it will not be an ordinary image.

It's just a pity that Hai Yacha has limited talents and abilities. He only comprehended the natal skills of this mirage more than three hundred years ago. After three hundred years of cultivation, Hai Yacha was only the initial success of cultivation. 800

However, at this time, I can't take care of that much.

Haiyasha's body was dotted with the Yaqi Orochi and began to swim in the enclave.

At this moment, the sea suddenly calmed down, as if it were a mirror.

There is no wind in the sky and no waves on the sea.

Everything in the sky and earth is still at this moment, as if it were photos.

Tian Cong felt the sky as if a cloud drifting across his belly. He looked up at the top of his head, but saw that a mirror suddenly appeared on the top of his head.

Yes, it is a mirror.

This mirror is like the surface of the sea, with endless blue waters, a stationary Cangshan ship, and another big snake looking down at him.

In an instant, Tian Cong's body in the abdomen raised a mirror on the front, back, left and right.

Just like the mirror just now, Yaqi Orochi is still looking at him in this mirror.

"Huh! I'm the top ninjas of the Iga Ninja Organization. If I don't exist, can I still be deceived by your little illusion?" Abdomen Tian Cong said with a cold snort.

After saying this, there was a violent gust of wind around the body of the Yaqi Orochi that was transformed into the sky cluster in the abdomen, and a water dragon flew up from the sea instantly and swept into the mirror surface of the sky.

Sea tornado!

The sea tornado instantly shattered the mirror surface of the sky, the mirror surface was broken into gravel, and it began to fall continuously.

And as the mirror shattered, there were Cangshan Ship and Yaqi Orochi!

"Boom!"

The Cangshan ship in the sky smashed the Cangshan ship on the sea, and there was a loud noise, and the Cangshan ship was instantly hit and broke, and it quickly sank to the bottom of the sea and disappeared.

But the eight heads of the Yaqi Orochi that fell from the sky opened their mouths and bit towards the sky cluster in the abdomen.

"hiss!"

How could the Yachi Orochi that turned into Tiancong's abdomen be provoked like this? It was also the Ochi Orochi that opened its mouth and bit towards the sky.

Flesh and flesh fly, blood splatters everywhere.

It can be said that there is no suspense, the big snake that fell from the sky was instantly torn into pieces by the sky cluster in the abdomen.

After the big snake was bitten into pieces, it turned into sea water and disappeared completely.

"Is there only such a little strength?" Abdomen Tian Cong said disdainfully.

At this time, the waterspout that was set up by the sky cluster in the abdomen had shattered all the mirrors on the front, rear, left, and right sides.

The four big eight snakes flocked to the abdomen sky clump like crazy, but these big eight big snakes were nothing but mirrored flowers after all, but they were completely destroyed by the abdomen sky clump a few times.

"puff!"

The mirage was broken, Haiyasha spouted a mouthful of blood, directly out of the sea.

At this time, Haiyasha was already weak, like a dead fish, motionless.

Hai Yacha watched that the Cangshan ship had already traveled farther, and for the time being, the Yaqi Orochi could not chase him, and he finally felt relieved.

Feitian Yasha flew down from the sky abruptly, like an osprey catching a fish, suddenly picked up Haiyacha from the sea, and then flew to the Cangshan ship.

Feitian Yasha's flight speed was far faster than Cangshan ship, and soon chased Cangshan ship, and landed on the shoulder of Situ Ningbing.

"How is Haiyasha?"

Everyone looked at Hai Yacha who was lying on Situ Ningbing's shoulder with some worry and said.

"I...I'm fine, just a little tired!" Haiyacha said weakly.

"You can't die! You still have to marry me!" Feitian Yasha said emotionally.

The performance of these two little things relieved everyone's nervousness a little.

However, there was no contact with this crisis.

After breaking the mirage, the sky cluster in the abdomen speeded up its swimming speed, and chased after the Cangshan ship.

"You can't escape! Any hidden tricks are futile in front of absolute strength!" Abdominal Tian Congxin said with a sneer.

At this time, the abdomen sky cluster is swimming faster, and the degree just now is much faster.

The distance between the Baqi Great Snake and the Cangshan ship was constantly shortening, and even the abdomen sky cluster could already have the faces of Li Tian's subordinates at the stern of the Cangshan ship.

No matter what the Cangshan ship's shells or torpedoes are, they are constantly falling around the body of the abdomen, but these attacks have no effect on the current Yaqi Orochi.

"What to do? The monster that the sky clump in the abdomen has turned into is completely invincible!"

At this time, this was the thought of everyone on Cangshan Ship.

"Master Li Tian... is coming back!" Feitian Yasha suddenly raised his head and looked at the sky excitedly.

"Brother Tian? Brother Tian is coming back?"

"Lee, where is he?"

"Is the little boss coming back?"

Everyone's faces were full of excitement, and they all looked at the distant sky.

Li Tian is now everyone's belief. As long as Li Tian is there, they feel that there are no difficulties that cannot be solved, and there is no opponent that Li Tian cannot defeat.

But at this time, the distant sky seemed to have nothing, only a few white clouds.

And at this moment, a small black spot flew out from which white cloud.

"It's a mutant crow! It's Master Li Tian!!" Feitian Yacha said excitedly.

"Li Tian is back!"
