

A Killer 3991

Chapter 3991: Stay (1)

Seeing that Zhishu and others didn't mean to do anything, Li Tian couldn't help but feel a little disappointed.

If these ninjas do something, then Li Tian will have reason to fight back. By then, none of these ninjas will be able to leave. Not only that, Li Tian will also be able to take care of others and put pressure on the Iga Ninja Organization, so that he can act on the Iga and Koga Ninja Organizations.

But now these Iga ninjas are fearful, but Li Tian can't do anything casually.

Li Tian saw Zhishu and several other ninjas making eye contact, and their bodies began to recede slowly, seeming to have the intention of retreating at any time.

"I know the four commandments of your ninjas, but before there is a reasonable explanation for this matter, you'd better not act rashly! You have to believe that Li Tian has the ability to kill you in seconds!" Li Tian said in a threatening tone.

The faces of several other ninjas such as Zhishu changed slightly, but they were shocked by Li Tian's aura. Although these ninjas were dissatisfied, they did not dare to act rashly.

On that side, Tang Xiaolong's firepower was full, and he slammed a punch at Shangqiao.

This punch seems simple, but it is Tang Xiaolong's current peak strength. It is conservatively estimated that the power of this punch has exceeded 40,000 catties.

"Boom!" There was a loud noise, only to hear the crackling bone fracture sound from Shangqiao's body again, and then Shangqiao was directly blasted into the sky by Tang Xiaolong's iron fist.

This time it really flew. At this time, Shangqiao's body was at least 100 meters away from the ground.

Shangqiao suffered such a powerful attack from Tang Xiaolong, but Shangqiao did not die. This is like the tree planting just thought, because Shangqiao has the means to save life.

Shangqiao is the line of the puppet in Iga Ninja, and his most powerful thing is to transform his own body into a puppet. So if we look through the skin of the upper bridge, we will find that the bone structure of the upper bridge is completely different from ordinary humans. These bones are not laid out according to the structure of the human body. Most of them look like precision machines, which gives the body of the upper bridge a super resistance to attack.

And if the opponent stabbed with a sword without knowing it, thinking that it hurt the upper bridge, it is likely to be used by the upper bridge, or even be executed by him.

However, it was Tang Xiaolong who met on the bridge today.

Tang Xiaolong's ten-fold refining body has been cultivated to the point where his body is almost indestructible. The ninja sword on the bridge can't hurt Tang Xiaolong at all. On the other hand, every time he takes a punch from Tang Xiaolong on the bridge, his body The puppet will be smashed into pieces.

There are a total of nine puppets in Shangqiao's body, and these nine puppets can give him nine lives.

At this point, it is already the seventh floor!

Shangqiao's face was full of anger and unwillingness!

Shangqiao looked in the direction of Planting Tree. He hoped that Planting Tree could use his abilities again at this time to assist him, so that he would have a chance to take out Tang Xiaolong's magical grasp.

If this time planting trees can control Tang Xiaolong again, even if only for a few seconds, then Shangqiao has decided that he will escape without hesitation.

But when he saw the tree planting, he saw Li Tian standing in front of the tree planting. Li Tian's face was calm, but the expression in his eyes did not fluctuate in the slightest, as if he was walking on the bridge and was already a dead thing in Li Tian's eyes.

Shangqiao's gaze crossed Li Tian and looked towards Zhishu, but there was a trace of shame on Zhishu's face, and his eyes were also deliberately avoiding the gaze of Shangqiao.

Shangqiao felt a little desperate.

"It's better to rely on others than to rely on yourself! It seems that the tree planting and others are going to protect themselves wisely. If we continue like this, I am afraid that it will not take long for my puppet to be destroyed by this black monkey, and I will also be in danger. ."

"Although this black monkey is powerful, it is far from Li Tian's strength. Maybe this is my opportunity. It seems I can only use that trick!" Shangqiao thought.

Thinking of this, Shang Qiao's face was no longer panic, but a trace of viciousness was revealed.

"You forced me! In that case, don't blame me!"

The body on the bridge began to fall rapidly after flying to the highest point.

And below, Tang Xiaolong was ready.

Tang Xiaolong shouted: "The eighth level of ten-fold refining!"

After Tang Xiaolong had practiced in retreat, Tang Xiaolong's ten-fold training had reached the eighth level. Although it was only the initial stage of the eighth level, the strength was no longer what it used to be.

At this time, even if Tang Xiaolong was in a normal state, the power of this punch had reached more than 40,000, and if Tang Xiaolong entered this crazy state, this power would increase again.

"drink!"

With this roar, Tang Xiaolong's already dark skin gradually exuded this black metal-like luster, and the blue veins on this metal luster burst out, like black steel bars.

Tang Xiaolong's iron fist was like a powerful blue dragon, and it seemed that he could shred Shangqiao's body at any time.

Looking at the changes in Tang Xiaolong's body, even Zhishu's face became unnatural, let alone other ninjas.

"What a pervert! This guy is a pervert!"

"How can Li Tian have such a perversion? It seems that he wants to wipe out the ashes of Shangqiao's punch!"

It seems that everyone believes that the bridge is doomed to escape, but at this time Changqiao does not think so!

His body is still falling continuously, and the speed of falling faster and faster.

The distance between the upper bridge and Tang Xiaolong is constantly shortening.

Fifty meters...

Thirty meters...

Twenty meters...

At this moment, Shang Qiao's body suddenly resembled an inflated balloon, and he suddenly became obese, and as this body continued to grow, Shang Qiao suddenly laughed grimly.

"Hahaha, * black monkey! I want you to die with me!" Shangqiao said with a crazy smile.

Seeing the changes on the bridge, Zhishu suddenly realized that he realized something. He yelled strangely and shouted at the other ninjas: "No...no! The bridge is going to expose himself, and you will fall down!"

As soon as Zhishu's words fell, the body on the bridge suddenly exploded.

A ball of fire flew out of the upper bridge, and then a huge shock wave rushed in all directions. This powerful shock wave directly impacted the ninjas who had not yet come to collapse and flew out more than ten meters. And the land under Tang Xiaolong's feet instantly appeared a deep pit with a total area of over tens of square meters.

"boom!"

Chapter 3992: Stay (2)

The flames skyrocketed.

The huge impact not only blasted a deep pit of tens of square meters on the ground, even the steel fence around the building was completely distorted and flew out, and the glass doors and windows on the building also It was completely shattered.

Who would have thought that the explosion of this small body on the bridge would have such a huge power.

Zhi Shu and other ninjas stood up slowly, looking at the ruined building, a shocked expression appeared on their faces.

"Then... Is that black monkey extinguished by the ashes of the explosion?" This is almost the thought of all ninjas.

Of course, Zhishu hopes that the self-detonation on the bridge can wipe out the black monkey's ashes, and it would be great if it could blow up Li Tian to death.

Thinking of Li Tian, Zhishu suddenly looked in the direction where Li Tian was just now, but at this moment there is still Li Tian's figure.

"Where is Li Tian? Could it be that... he was also blown up?"

Li Tian?

How could it be blown up.

At the first moment when the bridge exploded, Li Tian made Void Yasha teleport several times in succession, and collected Tang Xiaolong into the space of Void Yasha.

However, Li Tian had already summoned the mutant crow, turning the mutant crow into a roc state, and then Li Tian jumped onto the body of the mutant crow and flew into the sky.

In the sky, Li Tian glanced at his feet and saw the ninjas who had slowly stood up, but did not stop them. Li Tian had handed them over to Tang Xiaolong, Xukong Yasha, and Little Hotpot to deal with them. .

Li Tian believed that the three of them were enough to deal with all these ninjas.

Li Tian closed his gaze back and fell forward again.

At this moment, at a distance of less than 100 meters from Li Tian's mutant crow in the sky, a black shadow was quickly gliding forward.

This black shadow is on the bridge.

If it looks like this upper bridge is completely different from the previous upper bridge, probably the only thing in common is the head of the upper bridge.

This black shadow has an upper bridge head, but from underneath it is all black metal objects. And these black metal objects are linked with a gliding device, which allows the body of the upper bridge to glide forward with this gliding device.

It turned out that at the moment of the explosion, the body on the bridge flew out of the puppet, and then used the impact of the explosion to make him fly higher, so as to escape the attention of others and take the opportunity to escape quickly. .

This is the real life-saving means on the bridge.

This is the first time Shangqiao has used this escape method, and now it seems to be quite good.

On the bridge, he even lowered his head to look at the situation on the ground.

"Goodbye  black monkey, no matter how powerful you are, I am afraid it will be difficult to resist the explosion of my bomb with more than three or four tons of powerful explosive!" Shangqiao was still thinking.

But at this time, Shangqiao's eyes suddenly saw a shadow behind him moving quickly towards him. This movement speed was much faster than his gliding speed.

"Is it a bereaved bird? Damn it! If I encounter a bereaved bird at this time, then I would be really a bit troubled!"

Although this gliding device can become a puppet body under the control of the upper bridge, once it becomes a puppet body, then the upper bridge must fall from the sky.

"But even if you are unlucky, I am full of anger when I go to the bridge today. You, a bereaved bird, will become my mount on the bridge!" Shangqiao thought.

Thinking of this, Shangqiao turned his body abruptly, twisting the direction of his gliding, and flew in the direction of the bereaved bird.

But as soon as Shangqiao turned around, a look of horror appeared on his face.

"Li...Li Tian, damn Li Tian, why are you on this bereaved bird..." Shangqiao no longer knew how to express the anger and surprise in his heart.

"Yeah! It's not nice to leave your companions here and escape by yourself!" Li Tian extended his arm as if to greet Shangqiao.

While speaking, the mutant crow had already flown in front of Shangqiao.

Li Tian's feet lightly tapped, and his body flew forward like a flying goose. Li Tian swiftly rotated the Heavenly Qiong Lance in his hand, and then pierced forward. The tip of the spear directly pierced the head of the upper bridge.

When Li Tian's body was falling downward, the mutant crow had already accelerated and dashed forward and appeared at Li Tian's feet.

It has to be said that the mutant crow spoke less and less as Li Tian's strength continued to increase, but the cooperation with Li Tian became more and more tacit, which also laid a good foundation for Li Tianzhuang.

The bridge is not dead yet.

Two of his eyes have protruded, and blood has begun to bleed out of the seven orifices.

"Li...Li Tian, I don't hesitate to explode my two-layer puppet and my body. How did you find me running away?" Shangqiao asked.

Li Tian chuckled and said, "It's my eyes. I looked at it the moment you revealed yourself!"

"Then... what about that black monkey? Don't you save him?" Shangqiao asked.

"First of all, his name is Tang Xiaolong and he is not a black monkey. Second, you completely underestimated his strength and my strength. You can't blow him up even without me!" Li Tian said with a sneer.

"Do not....."

What else Shangqiao wanted to say, Li Tian suddenly raised his hand, and used Xuantian  on the upper bridge's head several times in succession, directly hitting the upper bridge's head into a sieve.

"Just your  shit!"

After being attacked by Li Tian in this way, he immediately died on the bridge and couldn't die anymore.

"Go down, go see Xiaolong and Little Hotpot!"

The mutant crow did not speak, spread its wings and flew towards the building.

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong and Little Hot Pot were already fighting with the dozen ninjas. After Tang Xiaolong's explosion just now, his heart was so angry that he moved his hands completely ruthlessly.

When facing the attacks of those ninjas, Tang Xiaolong didn't mean to evade at all. Once Tang Xiaolong's fists hit the ninjas, the ninjas' bodies would immediately be shattered.

The small hot pot is another way. The body of the small hot pot releases a lot of magma. The magma flows into the canal and instantly evaporates the water in the canal, and then the canal becomes magma. And this magma continued to spread towards the courtyard.

One of the ninjas wanted to escape, but his figure flashed, and when he flew into the air, he was kicked by the little hot pot and fell into the lava.

And the ninja was completely swallowed by magma in an instant.

"Li Tian said to let all of you stay! Who allowed you to escape?" Little Hot Pot said domineeringly.

"Trash! Such a bunch of trash! In vain, I brought so many of you here, and even a little brother beside Li Tian didn't waste it! Trash! It seems that I have to attract more people to deal with this Li Tian! "A few hundred meters above a tall building, an old man shook his head slightly and said.

Chapter 3993: Talking about the future under the month (1)

The incident in Xiaoyantian City seemed to be an episode, which did no harm to Li Tian and others.

However, through this incident, Li Tian already knew that the Iga Ninja Organization was also looking for the blamer, and the ability of the blamer seemed to be stronger than ordinary Shangren.

This made Li Tian's heart gradually more anticipation, looking forward to meeting the blamer as soon as possible, and then playing well with the blamer.

In fact, Li Tian can choose to explain to these ninjas today, saying that this matter has nothing to do with him. Even if the ninjas did it, Li Tian could simply educate the ninjas of Iga, and then let them go back and tell the chief of Iga Ninja's abdomen that this matter was not what Li Tian did, not now. All the lives of these dozen ninjas were left in this small Yantian city.

But when facing these Dongying ninjas, Li Tian couldn't help the anger in his heart anyway. Because Li Tian understood that it was because his strength had enough deterrent to them, so those ninjas did not dare to act rashly.

And if Li Tian was replaced as a zombie three months ago, Li Tian's strength is not enough to form a deterrent to these people, then the situation today will probably be reversed. It was not that Li Tian beheaded them, but they would easily behead all the people who followed Li Tian and then capture Li Tiansheng back to the Iga Ninja headquarters.

Of course, if Li Tian's strength remained the same three months ago, then I am afraid that the culprit would directly take care of Li Tian instead of Li Tian, who is now like this.

Although these ninjas were beheaded, Li Tian still felt a little uncomfortable in his heart, as if he could not release a breath from his chest.

Li Tian knew that the reason why he held such a breath in his chest was because of the blamer.

This feeling is as if you have been misunderstood. Although you beat the person who bullied you because of the misunderstanding, the person who deliberately planted and framed you is still at large, and the feeling that he continues to discredit you is It's the same, but you didn't even plant the wrong person who didn't know the same aggrieved.

"Who is it?" Li Tian muttered to himself while lying on the roof of the small hotel, looking up at the moon in the sky.

At this time, Situ Ningbing and Xueji also turned upside down. Both Situ Ningbing and Xueji were holding some food in their hands. They tiptoedly walked to Li Tian's side, and then passed the food to Li Tian. Tian took it, and the two of them sat next to Li Tian.

Situ Ningbing said gently: "Li, in fact, whoever it is, there is only one result waiting for him, and that is failure! So, Li, why should you bother yourself with mediocrity? I know that your purpose of coming to Dongying is not just to occupy. West Jiuzhou Island, but the entire Dongying!"

Situ Ningbing was just a simple sentence, but Li Tian felt a sudden sense of relief in his heart.

Yes, since the goal is the entire Dongying, the final result must be that Li Tian wants to control the entire Dongying four islands and even other nearby islands in his hands, so why is there still a entanglement in who will blame him? What?

No matter who it is, just behead it directly.

As for controlling the four islands of Dongying, this was actually Li Tianlai's idea before Dongying Island.

The current army soul legion has basically controlled the overall situation in the country. Although the old man once hinted that Li Tian, after the end of the world, the country may become the world of the Li family, but Li Tian also knows that because of the things that happened in the country and the domestic The complicated situation may not be easy to achieve in the Li family.

Even if it is achieved, I am afraid that this country will be unstable.

Moreover, Li Tian knew that he would definitely go to the Netherworld in the future, so Li Tian of the Li family dynasty was not very concerned. What Li Tian wanted to think about was to find a place for the brothers in the heavens. The place.

And this Dongying is the best choice.

"Ning Bing, after we have solved the problems of the Dongying Island Kingdom, I will go back and fight the Three Corpses upright. Then all I have to do is look for clues to my mother, and then I will most likely be Go to the Netherworld..."

Before Li Tian finished speaking, Situ Ningbing leaned over, resting her head on Li Tian's shoulder, and said, "Li, wherever you go, I will follow you! Let alone the Netherworld. , Even if it's hell, I have to go through with you."

"There is also me! I am helpless in the earth world, and I am definitely going to follow you to explore!" Xue Ji also said.

Li Tian nodded, stretched out his hand to embrace Situ Ningbing and Xueji's arms, and said softly: "My current strength is already considered the topmost existence in the earth world, but if it is divided according to the strength of the Netherworld, I am only now. It's just a cultivator level, and going to the Netherworld at this level will definitely be full of danger..."

"Li, I know that no matter how dangerous the Netherworld is, it will definitely not be able to stop you, nor can it stop me, so you don't need to consider my side, but you have to consider Duanmuying, Ouyang Shiqing, Bai Jing and others more. And your little Li Tian!" Situ Ningbing said.

This is also a problem that has plagued Li Tian recently.

Duanmuying is pregnant, even if Xiaoli Tian is born, it is impossible for Li Tian to take Xiaolitian to the Netherworld together.

Bai Jing and other people also don't have the strength to go to the Netherworld. If Li Tian is allowed to protect them in the Netherworld as if they are in the earth world, it is also powerless with the current strength of Li Tian.

Of course, Duanmuying seems to enjoy the feeling of being a queen in West Jiuzhou Island very much now, and Duanmuying also intentionally or unintentionally told Li Tian that she did not want to go back to China again when she was chatting with Li Tian. Xiao Li Tian raised an adult in the island country of Dongying, and then let Xiao Litian become the true master of the island country of Dongying in the future.

"Duanmuying will stay in Dongying Island in the future. This is also her idea, so I will respect her idea. As for Ouyang Shiqing, the most urgent thing now is to develop the antidote to the zombie virus as soon as possible, and turn her back into a human first. If Bai Jing wants to go back to China, I will take her back and let her take charge of the domestic Celestial Legion. Then there is Tang Feifei..." Li Tian's mind outlines the way out for these women. Up.

Situ Ningbing and Xue Ji looked at Li Tian.

Although Li Tian was only drawing up the blueprint and was not trying to abandon these women, but Li Tian couldn't help showing some painful expressions on his face.

At this moment, Li Tian thought of Xia Xue and Han Yun, the two women who had been with Li Tian.

Where are they now?

Chapter 3994: Talking about the future under the month (2)

While in China, Li Tian sent people to look for their whereabouts more than once, but Xia Xue and Han Yun had no clues at all.

At first Li Tian thought that his abilities were limited, but as Li Tian's reputation in the country gradually became prominent, Li Tian's Celestial Legion gradually became stronger, especially after Li Tian became the supreme king of the Bounty Hunter Association, Li Tian even used I went to the special department of the Bounty Hunters Association, but they still haven't been found.

But now, don't say Li Tian is in China, even in the entire earth world, he is definitely already famous, but there is no news about these two women.

If they are still alive, they should be able to know the news of Li Tian!

"Li, do you think of them again?" Situ Ningbing asked.

Li Tian nodded without denying it.

For so many years, Situ Ningbing has been with Li Tian, and Situ Ningbing knows everything Li Tian has experienced. Even if Situ Ningbing didn't know, Li Tian would tell Situ Ningbing that Li Tian would not conceal Situ Ningbing because of such things, and Situ Ningbing also understood Li Tian.

"If they can see you, they will definitely come to you, but after such a long time, there is no clue from them, I am afraid that it is an accident in all likelihood."

"Li, some people are destined to not be able to accompany you all the way, and will only become a passer-by in your life. Don't be too sad," Situ Ningbing said.

Li Tian's expression froze for a moment, then nodded helplessly.

At this moment, there was an unspeakable loneliness on Li Tian's face. This loneliness was because Li Tian felt a sense of guilt for them in his heart.

In fact, Li Tian knows in his heart that there will be many visitors in everyone's life.

Just like when we were in school, elementary school, junior high school, high school, university, etc., we may have one or more super best buddies for each age group, but for various reasons, these buddies have disappeared in your life.

Even with such advanced technology, some people may not be able to contact us in our lifetime.

"People always have to look forward, and they can't stand still because of the fetters of the past." Xue Ji said such a sentence intentionally or unintentionally, but it was unanimously approved by Li Tian and Situ Ningbing.

"So, we must cherish the people in front of you. Li Tian, since you have this ability now, don't let the people around you become your guilt."

"I understand! If I want to leave the earth world, I will arrange all these brothers who followed me. They will follow me from birth to death, and I will let them enjoy the glory! If the East China Island is not enough, I will be three dead After the beheading, we will continue to go south and take down several countries around China!" Li Tian said.

Situ Ningbing glanced at Li Tian and said, "Li, whether it's Tang Xiaolong or Barbarian or other people, who do you think is following you for your so-called prosperity and wealth? They recognize you! "

"Yes, Xiaolong has been my brother for many years. After life and death, his cultivation level has also improved very quickly. If there is no accident, I will take Xiaolong to the Netherworld. As for the others, it will depend on the situation. !" Li Tian said.

When he said this, Li Tian suddenly laughed and said: "It's still early to say this. There must be a way for the car to reach the mountain, and the boat to the bridge will naturally be straight. Maybe there may be changes at that time. It is useless to think so far. !"

"Lee, then let's talk about what's in front of us. Now we have reached the island of Honnakashu. The most powerful ones are Iga Ninja, Koga Ninja, and Martial Artist. Now we are already in contact with Iga Ninja. But this Iga Ninja has existed for thousands of years, and it must have their own uniqueness."

Xue Ji also said: "Yes, before we came to Dongying Island Country, we thought that Huangfu Kunpeng was good enough, but when we arrived at Dongying Island Country, we found that the strength of the abdominal sky cluster might have surpassed Huangfu Kunpeng. And Huangfu Kunpeng is not yet. The most powerful existence in the East Coast Island Country, so we can't underestimate this Iga Ninja.

"Yes, and now this culprit intends to bring us together. Obviously he wants to reap the benefits of the fisherman. So my thinking is that if we rushed into the island of Honshu, would it be too much? I'm irrational!" Situ Ningbing said.

Li Tian nodded, expressing his approval of Situ Ningbing's statement.

Li Tian knows that in fact, in addition to his personal strength, his luck is also very good many times, and it is precisely because of this kind of luck that Li Tian has been here until now.

It is also for this reason that Li Tian is often lazy to plan strategies and methods, and more often handles things savagely.

"If it is in China, or in West Jiuzhou Island, we already have enough foundation, maybe we don't have to fear their conspiracy and tricks, but now we are on Hon Nakashu Island."

"What do you mean?" Li Tian asked.

"There are three aspects. First, does the blamer really exist? If it does exist, then our enemy's enemy may become our friend. Even if we can't become a friend, at least we can use it. But What if the blamer does not exist? Maybe this is a trap!"

"Secondly, the relationship between Iga Ninja, Koga Ninja, and Fierce Warrior! Although we all know that these three organizations are now completely independent organizations, and even because of historical reasons, Koga and Iga still have a sense of immortality, but just Like the first point I just said, it is entirely possible for them to form an alliance at special times. After all, we are outsiders to them!"

"Third, the strength of our two sides is compared! We have Li here. It can be said that we now have enough strength to kill a master of the abdominal sky cluster. Except for you, Xiaolong's current strength should be two worse than the abdominal sky cluster. Level, but much stronger than ordinary Shangren, and a small hot pot, his strength should be basically the same as that of the abdominal sky cluster."

"And the strength of Xue Ji and I is not a little worse than that of Tian Cong in the abdomen. We still have no problem dealing with ordinary Shang Ren! And the strength of this Nakazhou Island? We don't know it very well. Go back to the first One point, if we fall into the tactics of the sea of people, we may only rely on the space of your Void Yaksha to escape!" Situ Ningbing said seriously.

"and so.....?"

"So I suggest that we give up our RVs and stop following the previously planned route. And if possible, we should find our foothold on this island as soon as possible! Find organizations and legions that can give us some support! Situ Ningbing said.

Chapter 3995: Magical Journey (1)

Situ Ningbing said a lot later.

It can be seen that Situ Ningbing was carefully prepared, and even Situ Ningbing took out a map of Dongying Island, and explained the entire Benzongzhou Island to Li Tian, and then proposed several routes and several routes to Li Tian. Let Li Tian make the decision.

It can be said that Situ Ningbing is not just Li Tian's woman in many cases, she also serves as Li Tian's military advisor, translator and other functions.

Therefore, Li Tian was almost obedient to Situ Ningbing.

In the early morning of the next day, after breakfast, only Li Tian walked out of this small hotel. Li Tian gave up the car directly and summoned the mutant crow to sit on the mutant crow and fly.

If Hon Nakashu Island goes from west to east, it will be Yamaguchi Prefecture, Hiroshima Prefecture, Okayama Prefecture, and Hyogo Prefecture. After Hyogo Prefecture, it will be Kyoto Prefecture and Osaka Prefecture.

And there is already the core area controlled by Iga and Koga Ninja.

Therefore, according to Situ Ningbing's plan, Li Tian settled down in Kobe, which is still some distance away from Osaka Prefecture and Kyoto Prefecture. Then, if he has the opportunity, he can develop his own strength here, and if there is no chance, he can also be free in Kobe, Free movement in the three places of Osaka Prefecture and Kyoto Prefecture.

After giving up the car, Situ Ningbing and others could only stay in the space of Void Yasha, which instead made Li Tian's actions more flexible.

Sitting on the mutant crow, Li Tian only told the mutant crow a direction, and let the mutant crow fly freely.

Strangely speaking, although this mutant crow possesses human consciousness and language, he also possesses the instinct of a bird. As long as he tells him the approximate direction and location, he has never made a mistake and lost his way.

This time, Li Tian and the mutant crow did not advance along the coastal road, but went straight over the mountains and chose to leap forward over the steep mountains.

The weather in Dongying in September is not hot anymore, and there is a hint of coolness in the air even in the sky. On sunny days, there will be a feeling of high autumn air. The gentle breeze blowing slowly makes Li Tian and the skin of the mutant crow have a saying Unbelievable pleasure.

Sitting on the mutant crow, Li Tian used his mind and three purposes. While admiring the beauty of the mountains from the sky, he seized the time to practice. At the same time, he used his mind to communicate with Xiao Yasha, and by the way, pointed Tang Xiaolong through Xiao Yasha.

Tang Xiaolong's ten-fold refining body had already cultivated to the eighth level, and there were only two levels left from the tenth-fold refining body completion, and Tang Xiaolong's current strength had not yet reached the realm of cultivators.

Although Li Tian, the "heavy" in the realm of cultivators, demonstrated to Tang Xiaolong, with Tang Xiaolong's savvy, I am afraid that there will be no way to comprehend it for a while.

Therefore, Li Tiancai used Qingyun to guide Tang Xiaolong.

Although Tang Xiaolong had no way to cultivate Qingyun, the whole way of cultivation was the same. After Li Tian deliberately attracted him, Tang Xiaolong also had some new understanding of the ten-fold training body.

Of course, the reason Li Tian did this was because he had decided to take Tang Xiaolong to the Nether Realm, so if he wanted to follow Li Tian to the Nether Realm, then his strength would have to be improved.

But after Tang Xiaolong got Li Tian's guidance, he quickly became immersed in cultivation and couldn't extricate himself.

At this time, Li Tian saw a dark cloud rolling in the distant sky, accompanied by the lightning and thunder in the dark cloud, seeing this rhythm is about to rain.

Although Li Tian's strength is strong, he is not arrogant enough to dare to gallop in the thunder and lightning.

"Mutated crow, let's go down! Find a place to avoid the rain!" Li Tian said.

In fact, Li Tian could completely hide in the space of Void Yaksha at this time and wait for the rain to stop, but Li Tian didn't know why he only wanted to shelter from the rain like an ordinary person this time, instead of using the space of Xiaoyasha.

The mutant crow immediately began to descend.

However, Li Tian's luck didn't seem to be very good. He flew for a few minutes in this vast mountain range, not to mention towns and villages, not even a decent cave.

Fortunately, Li Tian found a very hidden road. This road looks like a dirt road. This kind of road is not common in Dongying Island.

"Along this road, we can definitely find a place to shelter from the rain!" Li Tian said.

The mutant crow flew lower and lower, and he had accelerated the speed of his flight. Fortunately, after a few minutes, the mutant crow finally saw a place that seemed to be a village.

Before it fell to the ground, the gust of wind in the distance had begun to blow, and the dark clouds quickly moved towards Li Tian's direction, and the entire sky dimmed in an instant.

"call!"

"call!"

The strong wind blows, and the branches of the trees on the ground swing back and forth.

"Boom Rumble"

There were bursts of thunder in the dark clouds, and the occasional lightning flashed the entire sky instantly, but then it seemed that the entire world fell into darkness again.

Although Li Tian and the mutant crow found out very quickly, when they were about to land, the pouring rain suddenly began to fall.

Li Tian's whole body was wet, and the mutant crow instantly turned into a chicken.

The mutant crow had no regrets, and he didn't ask Li Tian why he didn't hide in the space of Void Yaksha to avoid the rain, and still flew in the rain.

"Kacha!" A flash of lightning flashed, and the entire valley was illuminated.

Looking through the rain curtain, Li Tian could see the appearance of the small village completely.

The area of the small village is not very large, there are only two streets in total, and the distance between the front and the back streets is not more than two hundred meters. At this time, the rain washed the ground, washing away all the dirt accumulated on the ground for many days.

But there are still some uneven crops and vegetables growing in the farmland before and after. It can be seen that these crops are not wild, but they seem to be planted by half-crop farmers.

"There are still people living in this small village. I have been here today. I will send you into the space of Void Yaksha for a while, and none of you can come out without my permission!" Li Tian's face showed a rare look. Said the joy.

When there were still a few meters away from the ground, Li Tian stretched out his hand and sent the mutant crow into the space of Void Yasha, and then he jumped to the ground.

The heavy rain was heavy and the wind was blowing, and the visibility in the whole world was extremely low. Even if Li Tian fell in a small village, no one would know.

However, the dimness of this rainy day does not seem to be affected by Li Tian.

Li Tian looked up and saw that a house in the village still had some lights. Then Li Tian walked towards the house without walking.

When he walked to the door, Li Tian could hear the sound of weeping in the house. Although the sound was not loud, Li Tian could hear it clearly.

"One...two...three...oh, there are so many children in this room!"

"Fuck!"

Li Tian tapped the door, and the cry of the house disappeared with the sound of Li Tian tapping the door, and the light in the house was also extinguished at this instant.

Chapter 3996: Magical Journey (2)

"Fuck!"

Li Tian patted the door again.

There was still no movement in the house, only the scream of the trees blowing in the wind, the sound of rain hitting the roof of the house, and the rumbling of thunder.

The rain fell on Li Tian's body and kept falling along Li Tian's body.

At this time, the rain poured on him was already a little cold, especially when the strong wind blew, Li Tian's body surface temperature began to drop sharply.

At this time, what Li Tian needs is a dry thick quilt, what he needs is a ball of flame, what he needs is a cup of hot water, Li Tian knows that these things may be in this house.

Of course, Li Tian's Void Yaksha is also in the space, and if Li Tian runs the exercises, the rain will not even fall on him.

However, Li Tian didn't do this, he still slapped the door persistently.

In the house, seven or eight, seven or eight-year-old boys were wrapped in blankets and surrounded with fear on their faces around a boy who seemed to be only ten years old. At this time, there were still tears on their faces, but because The sudden knock on the door made them scared and continued to cry.

"Flap!"

The knock on the door sounded again.

The boy surrounded by the center finally plucked up the courage to stand up, with a firm expression on his face, and said, "You all hide, I will see who is knocking at the door, maybe Otsuka is back!"

"Kun Tsuruta, it is impossible for Otsuka to return! He has been taken away, you know!" the other children said one after another.

The boy named Tsuruta-kun raised his head and looked at the wooden door of the house, and just then there was a knock on the wooden door again, and the other children squeezed in the direction of Tsuruta in fear.

"I have decided, I want to open the door. This person knocks on the door so persistently, I am afraid we need our help!" Tsuruta said firmly.

"Kun Tsuruta, have you forgotten that Otsuka is..."

"Needless to say! You really think this wooden door can block the people outside. People outside are standing in the rain and can break in, or go directly to other buildings to hide from the rain, but he didn't. Breaking in shows that he is not a bad person, and he did not go to hide from the rain elsewhere, which shows that he needs our help!" Tsuruta said firmly.

Tsuruta squeezed out the crowd and walked a few steps forward, then looked back at them and said, "Hide all of you. You are not allowed to come out until you get my signal!"

The faces of the seven or eight children immediately became more confused, but they still began to hide.

It can be seen that although the faces of these children are flustered, their movements are not at all stagnant, indicating that they are already very proficient in this kind of movement, but they seem to be proficient in avoiding earthquakes.

When the children were all hidden, Tsuruta-kun stepped on the crunchy wooden floor and came to the door. Then he glanced out through the crack in the door.

Tsuruta saw a young man standing outside the door, whose whole body was doused by rain. This man looked a little embarrassed at this time, but his eyes were full of power, and his right hand was still flapping the door at a certain rhythm and time interval.

"call!"

Tsuruta adjusted his breathing, then opened the door from inside.

"Crack!"

A flash of lightning flashed behind Li Tian. At this moment, Hetian saw that the man standing at the door seemed to have become extraordinarily stalwart in an instant. At this moment, Hetian even saw the man flashed seven times. Eight purple lightnings.

"I was passing here, and I accidentally encountered heavy rain, which was trapped in my footsteps. It is cold and hungry now. I don't know if I can stay here for the night." Li Tian asked.

Jun Hetian looked back at the black hole house, and then turned his gaze to Li Tian. He saw that Li Tian didn't have any weapons on his body, and he nodded slightly and said, "Come in!"

Li Tian walked in, took off his shoes at the door, and then stepped on the crunchy wooden plank and walked into the room. He walked about four or five steps. When he was one step away from the living room, Li Tian sat directly. He landed on the ground, and said to Tsuruta: "I don't know if there is a clean blanket. I'd better give me another cup of hot water."

Tsuruta seemed to hesitate, but he quickly took out two blankets to Li Tian, and then said, "I'm really sorry, but I can only give you two blankets. There is no hot water in the room. If you don't dislike it. If so, I have some dry food for you!"

"That's okay, then it will be hard work!" Li Tian said.

About ten minutes later, Tsuruta came to Li Tian with two roasted, blackened potatoes in his hand, and handed the two black guys to Li Tian.

At this moment, Li Tian saw a trace of embarrassment on Hetian's face, as if he was guilty for neglecting Li Tian.

Li Tian was not polite, and reached out his hand to pick up the cold baked potatoes, and ate them with big mouthfuls.

Potatoes are not delicious, even because they are a little burnt and have some bitterness, but Li Tian eats very fragrant, as if he hasn't eaten such delicious food for a long time.

Hetian sat cross-legged at a distance of less than two meters from Li Tian, using his body to block the aisle leading to the living room, and then watched eagerly as Li Tian finished eating the two black guys.

When Li Tian finished eating the baked potatoes, and licked his lips with his tongue, he said to Tsuruta: "You are alone here?"

Tsuruta's face immediately showed a nervous expression, his body bowed involuntarily, and stammered: "Yes... That's right!"

Li Tian didn't seem to see Tsuruta's nervousness at all, with a disappointed expression on his face, and said, "It's really frustrating! It seems that you are not Tsuruta-kun anymore. I must hurry up and get Otsuka's news. Brought it to Mr. Tsuruta!"

When he was outside the door, Li Tian had already heard these children's conversations. Although he didn't know what happened, Li Tian knew that a child from Otsuka had been taken away because he didn't know who he was.

In response to the two blankets and two dark baked potatoes that Tsuruta had just given to Li Tian, Li Tian decided to help these children. Because in these children, Li Tian saw the shadows of Barbarians, Bai Jing and others.

"You...you know Otsuka? I'm Tsuruta-kun!" Tsuruta said with an incredible expression on his face.

Li Tian immediately looked at Tsuruta with a wary expression on his face and said, "You are Tsuruta-kun? As far as I know Tsuruta-kun should have seven companions living with him! Don't lie to me! "

"No... I'm not lying to you!" Tsuruta suddenly jumped up and happily shouted into the living room: "Come out, this gentleman knows Otsuka and us!"

Chapter 3997: Magical Journey (3)

With Tsuruta-kun's shouts, several children rolled out of the closet in the living room, and several children squeezed down the stairs leading to the second floor.

"Look, look! This can prove that I am Tsuruta!" Tsuruta stretched out his hand and pulled the children to his side, said with an excited expression on his face.

"This can only prove that you are not living alone, but it does not prove that you are Mr. Tsuruta!" Li Tian said.

He Tian was a little dumbfounded.

At this time, the children around Hetian had completely lost their defense against Li Tian, and they kept talking to Li Tian to prove that Hetian was Hetian.

Li Tian shook his head slightly, and said, "It is very simple to prove that you are Tsuruta. You can tell me some information about you and Otsuka first, and let me judge whether what you said and what Otsuka said. Agree. If you agree, I believe you!"

Although He Tian was more mature in his heart, he was only a child after all. At this time, his caring was chaotic. He did not doubt Li Tian at all.

Tsuruta thought for a moment, and said to Li Tian: "Okay, then I will tell you some information about Otsuka. Otsuka's full name is Otsuka General, and he is 18 years old this year. His father, Otsuka, is from the Eastern Empire. Professors of the School of Life Sciences have been on time many times and are among the few Dongying people who have won the Nobel General in Biology before the end of the world."

The expression on Li Tian's face suddenly became serious. The Otsuka Kuang person mentioned by Tsuruta was such an awesome guy. If he could take this person to South Shikoku Island to study the antidote to the zombie virus, maybe it was right. The current study of zombies on the South Shikoku Island is very helpful.

Although Li Tian's heart was excited, his face was quite calm. He just said indifferently: "It seems that what you said and what I heard are not exactly the same. Can you give a more detailed introduction? "

Tsuruta nodded and said: "After the end of the world, the backbone of the Dongying Empire Institute of Life Sciences were transferred to the secret scientific research base of Xingju Mountain and began to study zombie technology..."

Speaking of this, Tsuruta seemed to have realized something, took the important things in one sentence, and continued: "We, as family members of the research institute, are arranged here, and Otsuka will be our head! In the first two years of the beginning, although we lived through hardships, because of the care of the research institute, our life was still going. But a year ago, the research institute suddenly had no news."

"At any time, we guessed whether the Scientific Research Institute encountered any problems, and Otsuka, the oldest of us children, went to the secret research base alone to check it out, and then brought it back to the research base of the Scientific Research Institute. The news was ruined. In the following year, we lived in this mountain range under the leadership of Otsuka. Only occasionally, Otsuka would leave the mountain to get news or collect some life information. necessity!"

Speaking of this, Li Tian interrupted and asked: "Your consciousness is that the scientific researchers such as Otsuka Kuangren are dead...dead?"

Tsuruta shook his head and said, "I don't know, but we haven't seen them since then!"

"Well, you go on to say, how was Otsuka taken away later? Who was taken away? If this is what you said can match the number, then I will trust you!" Li Tian said.

Tsuruta continued: "Three days ago Otsuka went out again to collect the necessities of life, but on the way Otsuka met an injured ninja and brought the injured ninja back."

Speaking of this, the faces of Tsuruta and the children showed indignant expressions, even Tsuruta's tone of voice became heavier, and his breathing became a little heavy.

"That  Iga Ninja, if we didn't save him, I'm afraid he would have died. But after this guy got out of danger and knew Otsuka's identity, he even threatened Otsuka with our lives and asked Otsuka to take him. That secret research institute, otherwise it will kill us all."

Li Tian can already conclude that there must be something important in the secret research institute, and nine out of ten of these things are related to the antidote to the zombie virus.

This kid named He Tian may have been threatened by the ninja before, but now he has reservations about Li Tian, and he hasn't told them all.

"Damn it, the guy who will avenge revenge, I curse him not to die!"

Tsuruta cursed and continued: "Otsuka didn't want to take that guy to the secret research institute, but the ninja took out a ninja sword and put the knife on our neck to threaten Otsuka. Otsuka wanted to save us. I had to take that ninja with me!"

Speaking of this, Tsuruta paused for a while, looked at Li Tian suspiciously, and said, "How did you meet Otsuka? How is Otsuka now?"

Li Tian slowly squatted up and stretched out his hand to hold Tsuruta's shoulder and said, "Don't worry about how I met Otsuka. I will ask you a word, do you want to save Otsuka!"

Li Tian directly shifted the focus of these children's concerns.

Tsuruta nodded heavily with the children.

One of the children said, "But that guy is Iga's ninja. Even if he is injured, he is also Iga's ninja. He is very powerful! And when he took Otsuka away, he was already facing the Iga Ninja headquarters. After sending the carrier pigeons, many Iga ninjas will join him! We...we are afraid..."

"Don't be afraid! We are more familiar with the terrain in this mountain range, as long as we can rescue Otsuka first!" Tsuruta stretched out his hand to stop the child and continued to talk nonsense, with a firm expression on his face.

But by this time, Tsuruta was full of doubts about Li Tian, and said: "I don't know what conditions you have to help us save Otsuka? Or do you think the same as those ninjas?"

Li Tian immediately took charge and said with an injured look: "How can you doubt me so? If I have such thoughts, why should I come here to tell you about Otsuka? Why don't I go to threaten Otsuka directly? Now I'm asking you, do you want to save Otsuka, if you want, then you take me to the secret research institute, where we can definitely save Otsuka! If you don't want to, then I will leave now! "

Hearing that Li Tian was leaving, Tsuruta immediately stretched out his hand to hold Li Tian's sleeves and said, "Yes! As long as you can rescue Otsuka, no matter what you ask for, we will satisfy you!"

The other children also nodded heavily.

Chapter 3998: Magical Journey (4)

Li Tian looked at the immature and serious faces of these children, and he was even touched.

"I only need one person to show me the way, and your other children are staying here waiting for the good news of our victory!" Li Tian said.

Needless to say, the person who led the way was naturally Tsuruta. Among these children, Tsuruta was the only one who had followed Otsuka to the vicinity of the secret research institute. The other children could not even find the way.

But Tsuruta also had his worries. He plucked up the courage and said, "This lord, you also know that these children are still too young. Although they have no problem living here, but... they are facing danger. There is no other way, I wonder if the adults can bring them all? I promise that they won't cause you trouble!"

"Adults take us, we are definitely not going to cause trouble to the adults. If the adults feel that we have affected the adults to rescue Otsuka-kun, then the adults can throw us away at any time, don't consider our safety!" One of the seven or eight-year-old girl said in a tender voice.

The girl's hair was tied into a small braid, and she was wearing an already small boy pair, which gave people a rather capable feeling. Although she was only seven or eight years old, and there were still some weeping tears on her face, she didn't hesitate when she said this, and she felt like death is precious.

And when this child said this, other children also echoed.

"Are you not afraid of death?" Li Tian asked.

"Fear! We are all afraid of death, but if Otsuka can be rescued, even if all of us are dead, we will be willing!" The answer to Li Tian was He Tian.

This answer was more thorough than the answer just for Otsuka's willingness to agree to any conditions and requirements of Li Tian. Yes, all of them are afraid of death, they are afraid of dying needlessly.

If there are other ninjas in this village after Li Tian and Tsuruta leave, then these children are likely to encounter misfortunes, and then they will die without any value.

However, if they follow Li Tian, although they might die, at least they can watch Li Tian rescue Otsuka. Then they can even use their thin body to hold the ninja to Li Tianhe. Tsuruta, Otsuka and others created better escape opportunities.

So they were afraid of death, but they did not hesitate to choose to follow Li Tian.

It is difficult for Li Tian to imagine how these children spent the last four years in these last days, and what kind of things they have experienced to have such feelings.

At this time, Li Tian couldn't help but think of the animation film Firefly Tomb that he had ever watched in Dongying Island Kingdom. Although the relationship between these teenagers and the protagonist and sister in the animation movie is not consistent, the emotion between them is the same.

Of course, Li Tian could still see the figures of Bai Jing, Manzi and others from them.

Although it is the end of the world, there will always be something warm in any country at any time touching your heart, making your heart feel warm.

Tsuruta carefully watched the fluctuations in the expression on Li Tian's face. He has too many things to worry about, and the more so he can appreciate the role Otsuka plays in their small team. .

For at least two years, Otsuka was carrying all the pressures and difficulties alone, leading these children to live hard after the end of the world.

"My lord..." Tsuruta said cautiously.

Li Tian stretched out his hand and pressed it on Tsuruta's small head, and said to Tsuruta: "I can help you rescue Otsuka, or take you away from here, so that you will never live like this anymore. !"

With that said, Li Tian brought Situ Ningbing, Xue Ji, Windsor and Tang Xiaolong out of the space of Void Yasha.

Seeing four people suddenly appeared out of thin air in this room, these little children were very frightened, but fortunately, except for the black monkey, which was a little scary, the other three women were all extraordinarily gentle and beautiful. As for being frightened twice.

"Ningbing, Xiaolong, please protect these children here, and Hetian and I will go back!" Li Tian said to Situ Ningbing and Tang Xiaolong.

Situ Ningbing, Tang Xiaolong, and others are protecting these children. Even if there are a few more Shangren, Li Tian is not worried at all. The only thing that makes Li Tian feel confused is probably because of language barriers. They may be difficult to talk to. These children communicated.

Although Situ Ningbing and others had just come out, they already knew the situation Li Tian is facing now through the description of Void Yasha, so they both nodded.

"Little boss, don't worry, just leave them to us!" Tang Xiaolong said.

Li Tian said to Windsor again: "These little children have been living here for a long time. I'm afraid they will inevitably have some minor diseases. You can check these children during this time!"

Windsor also nodded.

The children's faces still looked at these people who suddenly appeared with horror. After all, Tsuruta was a little older. He quickly woke up from this kind of horror. Instead, he woke up with admiration. His expression looked at Li Tian.

Although Tsuruta trusted Li Tian before, he still murmured in his heart. I don't know what Li Tian's strength is. Even if he took so many people to save Otsuka, he didn't expect Li Tian to rescue Otsuka. Big.

But now, the skill displayed by Li Tian alone makes Tsuruta completely convinced of Li Tian. In Tsuruta's heart, he has already believed that Li Tian's strength should far exceed that of the injured ninja. .

"This lord, I'm relieved now! Let's go!" said Tsuruta.

"it is good!"

Saying that the two said goodbye, the others had put on their clothes and shoes, opened the door and walked out.

After about half an hour of violent storms, the squally wind outside the house had stopped and the raindrops had become much smaller, but the raindrops had become denser.

Tsuruta wore a poncho with holes in it. The poncho was a bit too big, and it was already dragged to the ground. In order not to drag the poncho to the ground, Tsuruta used a rope to tie the poncho lazily.

"My lord, let's go from here. It's raining and the road is slippery. The adults have to take their feet!" Hetian reminded Li Tian like a little adult!

"We are going to hurry up, Otsuka has been taken away by that guy for a short while!" Tsuruta said with a look at Li Tian again.

Chapter 3999: Secret Research Institute (1)

The corner of Li Tian's mouth showed a trace of satisfaction, and he summoned the mutant crow from the space of Void Yaksha, picked up Hetian and jumped on the back of the mutant crow.

The mutant crow flapped its wings and flew.

Tsuruta was taken aback, he closed his eyes subconsciously, but soon Tsuruta felt the sound of wind coming from his ears, and the power of the raindrops falling on him was slightly stronger.

"Could this be flying?"

Hetian's twins trembled slightly, and he stretched out his hand to firmly grasp Li Tian's arm, and he opened his eyes slightly, wanting to see what happened.

As soon as he opened his eyes, Tsuruta saw that there was a super big bird at his feet. The big bird carried him and Li Tian slowly upwards.

At this time, the houses in the village below are getting smaller and smaller, almost the size of a toy car.

Tsuruta's thought of the first time his father took him on a plane vacation when he was five and a half years old, and the fear in his heart gradually dissipated.

Hetian raised his head and glanced at Li Tian.

"Hold me tight if you are scared!" Li Tian stretched out his hand to touch Tsuruta's head and said softly.

The temperament of a mature man exuding from Li Tian and Li Tian's care for Hetian made Hetian feel warm.

"If my father is still alive now, my father will definitely treat me like this!" He Tian thought in his heart.

Soon Tsuruta dispelled the thought in his head.

"Now is not the time to think about this kind of problem, let's save Otsuka first!"

Thinking of this, Tsuruta's trembling body gradually calmed down, and then focused his attention on the rugged mountain road.

As the oldest child in this village other than Otsuka, Tsuruta has walked through the secret research institute several times with Otsuka, but now the storm is precarious, and Tsuruta is on the mutant crow. This is not so good. Recognized.

"That's the bottom road! My lord, follow that path!" Tsuruta said, pointing to one of the rugged paths in the mountain.

It is possible to settle against the mutant crow without Li Tian. The mutant crow has already seen the road pointed by Tsuruta, and then the mutant crow reduced its flying speed and started flying quickly along the rugged mountain road.

The mountain road is rugged, and if they are walking, Hetian and Li Tian don't know how long they will go, but the mutant crow flies much faster.

However, because the mountain path is rugged and not a straight path, and the path is hidden among the woods and dense weeds, the height of the mutant crow's flight should not be too high, otherwise Tsuruta would not be able to judge whether the path is correct. .

Fortunately, the rain was getting smaller and lighter at this time. After ten minutes, the rain had turned into a patter and almost stopped.

And in these ten minutes, the mutant crow flew over a big mountain along the path.

In the mountains that are more than tens of miles away from the village where Hetian is located, this is also a lofty mountain, but in the valley here there is a mountain road that can be passed by a large truck.

This road is very ordinary. The road is different from ordinary roads. Ordinary roads are urban asphalt roads or concrete roads, but the appearance of this road is a grid of small grids and small grids, and these small grids are planted. There are some specially cultivated grasses, so it is difficult to find this road from the sky.

Even satellite maps before the end of the world can't show the existence of this highway at all.

And because of the end of the world, although this road has not been repaired for four or five years, the road surface is very good, even if an overweight truck passes through this appearance, there will be no problem.

This road was built remotely, with high mountains and gorges on both sides of the road, so there is no human living area near this road, and there will be no signposts on the road, so this road is quite hidden.

It can be seen that this road must be an extremely confidential matter in Dongying Island.

At this moment, two men were walking on the road limpingly. Although one of them was a little thin, he did not look weak. This man was only seventeen or eighteen years old, and his face There is a maturity and calmness that does not match his actual age.

And this boy also supported a ninja wearing a black ninja suit. The ninja walked with one punch and one crut. The ninja's right leg was already leaking some blood, and the blood stuck to his clothes. It can be seen that his leg injury is not minor.

And this ninja was holding a cold shimmering ninja sword in his hand. The ninja sword was facing the boy, seeming to warn the boy not to play tricks, otherwise he might do it at any time.

"Hurry up, hurry up! We've been out for so long and haven't seen the * secret research institute yet!" the ninja said with some dissatisfaction.

The boy frowned slightly, and said, "Just after the rain stopped showing up and your face was slippery and your leg hurts again, this speed is not slow anymore. Now that we are on this highway, the road below is much easier to walk. Yes, we must be able to reach the institute before dark!"

Needless to say, the boy is Otsuka, and the ninja is the Iga ninja rescued by Otsuka.

"Huh! This is not far from the headquarters of our Iga Ninja. I am afraid that the message I sent has already reached the headquarters of Iga Ninja. Maybe they have already started sending people here, so I suggest you the most Don't play tricks, for your own good, and also for the other children in your village!" The ninja said with a sneer.

A cold light flashed in Otsuka's eyes, but he concealed it well and was not discovered by the ninja.

"We are just ordinary children, so how dare we be an enemy of Iga Ninjas? I also hope that the things in this secret research institute will be useful to Iga Ninjas, the Toyo Islands, and the entire earth world. In this way, we children will also There is no need to survive in the deep mountains!" Otsuka said.

A smile appeared on the ninja's face and said, "I'm very pleased that you can think so! That's right, if the scientific research results in this secret research institute can be seen again, then our Dongying island nation will no longer be threatened by zombies from now on. At that time, with this as the basis, we can re-enact the world order in the East China Island country, and you can all enjoy this kind of welfare!

Otsuka was not talking.

Otsuka's psychology couldn't be clearer. If that thing falls into the hands of this Iga ninja, then I'm afraid that the Toyo Island will not be what the ninja said. Instead, they may use it to make the entire East of the Island. Falling into chaos, this is what Otsuka will always worry about.

Chapter 4000: Secret Research Institute (2)

"Want that thing? It depends on whether you have that kind of fate!" Otsukasama thought in his heart.

Otsuka looked up at the sky, thinking of Tsuruta and others in the distant mountain village.

"The rain has stopped, I wonder if Tsuruta and the others escaped from that village? They must escape. Don't believe what these ninjas said. It must be unsafe to stay in the village there!"

"If you can escape, then it will be worth my death!" Otsuka thought in his heart.

The two faltered, but the speed was not slow.

After walking along this highway for more than an hour, a tunnel suddenly appeared in front of the highway, and the highway led into the dark tunnel.

"Here! The Secret Research Institute is in this tunnel, can I go now?" Otsuka said.

At this time, the ninja had a crazy smile on his face. He didn't know what the scientific research results of this research institute meant for the entire Dongying and the whole world, but he knew that the findings of this institute would be useful. What does it mean for him.

Wealth, power, women, these are certainly not missing.

"Why are you in a hurry? Now that you are here, let's go in and take a look! After all, this is the place where your father Kuangren Otsuka worked!" The ninja sneered.

I haven't seen the research institute yet. How could this ninja just let Otsuka go, and even if he saw the research institute, this ninja didn't know anything about the situation inside the research institute, so he would not let it go. Mound.

And only other ninjas rushed here, and other professionals could find what they needed from this research. When Otsuka had lost its use value, this ninja might consider releasing Otsuka at the meeting.

Otsuka just said that. He also knew that this ninja could not easily let him go. Otsuka took the ninja into the tunnel and continued to walk inside.

There is natural light at the entrance of the tunnel, which is not too dark, but I walked about less than 50 meters inside, and I was completely plunged into darkness. In addition to seeing the fluorescent signs on the wall, I can't even see anything.

As soon as he entered this dark tunnel, Otsuka's heart gradually became alive. Although his vision was also blocked in this darkness, Otsuka faced the ground in the tunnel very much. Clear.

Otsuka knew that if he walked about fifty meters further forward, there would be a large spare passage for the ventilation passage. As long as he can get rid of the ninja now, he can hide in the spare passage for the ventilation passage, and then pass through the ventilation passage. The top of this tunnel escaped to the top of the mountain.

The ninja seemed to feel the strangeness of Otsuka. He moved the ninja sword in his hand in front of Otsuka again, directly pointed the tip of the ninja sword at Otsuka's abdomen, and then sneered and said: " Boy, I advise you not to act rashly. In the darkness, your vision is blocked. If you accidentally bump into my blade, you can't blame me then!"

"Don't dare! Don't dare! It's just too dark here, I can't even see the ground!" Otsuka quickly explained.

The ninja laughed a few times and said, "This is easy!"

Speaking of Otsuka, he saw the ninja's mouth suddenly burst out with flames. The flames were like a fireball, floating in the air, illuminating the surroundings of Otsuka and the ninja.

At this time, the ninja quickly took out a metal rod that was less than a foot long from the baggage, and then pressed a button on the metal rod. One end of the metal rod immediately shrank down a few inches, revealing A torch head inside the metal rod.

The ninja lit the torch, then handed it to Otsuka's hand, and said, "This torch can last for more than half an hour, enough for us to enter the institute!"

Seeing this torch, Otsuka knew that his desire to hide in the ventilation duct was probably going to fail, but Otsuka was not discouraged. He took the torch and left the ninja with the light of the torch and continued walking into the tunnel. .

"It doesn't matter, even if I enter the research institute, I can get rid of this  ninja and keep him trapped in the research institute!" Otsuka thought in his heart.

I walked into the tunnel for about fifty meters, and the road ahead was blocked by a huge door.

This is an electronic door made of heavy alloy. The height of this door is the height of the tunnel, which is more than seven or eight meters high, and the width is more than ten meters wide.

Otsuka knew that this alloy electronic door was more than one foot thick and weighed more than tens of tons. If there was no electronic code, even these ninjas would not be able to get in here.

And Otsuka knows that this is the first gate of the research institute. You must know that there are five gates in this research institute, and in the beginning of the end times, there are people between each gate. Guarded by weapons such as firearms.

The ninja was also shocked by the thick electronic door.

"This... how do you open this? You should have a way, right?" The ninja reached out his hand to avoid the torch in Otsuka's hand and put the ninja knife on Otsuka's neck.

While speaking, the ninja kicked Otsuka's  with his injured leg, beckoning Otsuka to open the door as soon as possible.

Otsuka staggered and was kicked to the ground by the ninja.

Even if this ninja is injured, he is a master with the strength of Shangnin after all, and the strength between raising his hands and feet far exceeds Otsuka's ability to withstand it.

"Boy, if you don't want to suffer the pain of flesh and blood, then you should open this door as soon as possible!" The ninja threatened Otsuka.

Otsuka cursed in his heart, and obediently came to the alloy door.

From the perspective of Otsuka, you can see that this alloy door is composed of thousands of book-sized metal blocks horizontally and vertically. These metal blocks look exactly the same from the outside, and this door seems to be impossible to open at all. local.

But Otsuka knew that under the metal sheet between the seventeenth vertical row from left to right and the eleventh horizontal row from bottom to top of the alloy door was the position of the spare electronic lock for this door.

After Otsuka determined the position, he stretched out his hand and pressed it on the metal block. A blue light flashed under the metal block. Then the surface of the metal block turned into a touch screen, with Arabic numerals from zero to nine on it, and Some mathematical symbols look like calculator panels.

As soon as Otsuka was about to enter the password, the ninja had already approached Otsuka, staring at Otsuka with a sneer, and said, "I knew that your kid was not honest. If I didn't bring you here, I would have to It was blocked outside this door!"
