

A Killer 4321

Chapter 4321: : The Bear Children Haunt (3)

The shopkeeper turned around and saw the two children.

A hint of joy appeared on the owner's face immediately!

"Then bother the two young masters. I will invite the two young masters to eat sashimi in a while!" said the owner graciously.

Don't underestimate these two bear kids. These two bear kids are very famous in Ruhr Island City and the entire Dongying island country. They should be more than enough to deal with this guy in front of you!

Tang Xiaolong's gaze fell on the woman who had already walked into the store, and he never took another look at the two children.

The woman was also stunned, looking at Tang Xiaolong dumbfounded, unable to believe her eyes!

Eyes can't betray people, and there is a trace of fluctuations in a woman's pupils!

This wave of fluctuation caused a wave in Tang Xiaolong's heart, but for the two bear children beside the woman, what they saw was Tang Xiaolong, the disciple, staring at the woman with a squinted expression.

Both children are boys!

The education that these two boys received from an early age is that they will never allow any harm to the woman they guard, even if this woman is older than them, and stronger than them!

Seeing Tang Xiaolong staring at the woman beside them intently, a trace of anger flashed across the faces of the two bear children.

The two of them felt that they were ignored. They have always been in the spotlight. They, who enjoy the eyes of the tens of millions of residents of the Eastern Island Country, will be ignored by the black monkey in front of them?

Is it tolerable or unbearable!

"Hey, do you know where this place is? Don't dare to be so presumptuous!" The younger brothers who were slightly shorter each were angry, and shouted angrily at Tang Xiaolong.

The sound of the shouting was loud enough, but the sound did not enter Tang Xiaolong's ears at all!

The younger brother was a little angry. He turned to look at his brother and said, "Brother, this guy is so rude, so he stared at Aunt Lily like this! He didn't take us seriously!"

The slightly older brother immediately showed a disdainful expression on his face, and said with a sneer: "A guy who eats a king's meal dare to be so blatant! Brother, we two will clean up him together, so we can just check our recent cultivation! "

Speaking of the cultivation base, the faces of the two brothers showed a trace of pride at the same time!

The two broke free of Lily's hand, their legs touched the ground lightly, and quickly rushed towards Tang Xiaolong!

At this moment, this situation and situation.

Tang Xiaolong felt that only the song of you in my eyes could express his feelings.

That's right, the woman in front of you is the mysterious female lily who had a relationship with Tang Xiaolong ten years ago!

The heavy rain I missed in those years, the love I missed in those years...

Tang Xiaolong's heart began to beat violently!

"She is fine, she is as good as ten years ago!"

"No, she seems more beautiful than ten years ago, and she has never been old at all!"

Tang Xiaolong took a step forward, he wanted to take a closer look at the mysterious female lily!

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong felt that something was constantly attacking his body. Tang Xiaolong's eyes saw that the two bear children that the mysterious female Lily was holding in her hand were punching and kicking him!

But these attacks are tickling to Tang Xiaolong, who is cultivating tenfold body refining!

"Stop it! Let's play!"

Tang Xiaolong stretched out his hand and moved one of the bear children's younger brother back. The bear boy had no idea that Tang Xiaolong's power would be so huge, he staggered back a few steps, and directly hit a dining table!

The child is fine, the dining table is broken!

The diners who were dining in the small shop immediately uttered a few exclamations, and the child hit the front of the table to lift the food on the table and retreated in all directions.

Brother Xiong Haihai saw that his brother could be pushed down by the black monkey at will, his face involuntarily showed a hint of surprise.

Maybe others don't know, but as the older brother Xiongzi still knows his younger brother's strength, regardless of his younger brother's just nine years old this year, but his younger brother's talents for cultivation are outstanding. Opponent.

But, this guy in front of me...?

Brother Xiongzi's eyes were involuntarily fierce!

But at this moment, Tang Xiaolong took a few steps forward, reached out his hand to touch Lily's face, looked at Lily tenderly, and said, "You... thin!"

Lily reached out and grabbed Tang Xiaolong's hand, her cheeks were slightly red, and she whispered, "Stop! The children are watching!"

"No! I miss you!" Tang Xiaolong said.

At this time, the onlookers could understand that this black black monkey seemed to know Master Lily of Ruhr Island City, and it seemed that the two of them should be treacherous... Unforgettable feelings.

However, there are no unforgettable feelings in the bear children's world. What they see is this black hand freely insulting Lily, and even Aunt Lily has already let the shameless black monkey stop. The black monkey is still taking an inch, without the slightest restraint. .

"Looking for death!" The two bear children's mouth made a cold voice at the same time.

Xiongzi's brother had already gotten up from the ground. He looked at Xiongzi's brother. The two eyes intersected, and at the same time they nodded heavily. Both of them saw perseverance and determination in each other's eyes.

"Even if your father is not there, the two of us will protect the family around us!"

This is the true thoughts of these two bear children.

drink!

The younger brother of the bear kid suddenly screamed, his whole body strength instantly improved, his calf slammed on the ground, and several cracks appeared on the tiles under his feet, and then the figure of the bear kid flashed and rushed towards Tang Xiaolong!

Zizi!

There was a shadowy purple arc on the fingers of Xiongzi's brother. If Duanmuying were here, she would be surprised to find that Xiong Haizi's elder brother was using her unique skill to run thunder finger.

Tang Xiaolong was obsessed with the encounter with the mysterious female lily, which is almost the same.

At this moment, a huge force struck Tang Xiaolong's back, Tang Xiaolong blocked it with his hand, and the kid boy's left leg kicked Tang Xiaolong's outstretched hand and his right leg kicked Tang Xiaolong. On Xiaolong's back vest.

This trick seems simple. If it is an ordinary person, at least a few bones will be broken in the ordinary person's body.

As for Tang Xiaolong, when hit by this force, Tang Xiaolong seemed to have no reaction at all, and took a few steps forward, directly holding the mysterious female Lily in his arms.

"Deng's disciple, I am going to kill you today!" A murderous aura flashed across the face of Brother Xiong's child, his strength was rising sharply, but the purple arc on his finger became more and more obvious!

Tang Xiaolong's heart suddenly gave birth to a trace of alertness, and he turned his head abruptly, but saw that the bear kid brother's finger with a purple arc had already hit Tang Xiaolong!

"No! He is..." the mysterious female Lily woke up and shouted.

But all this seems to be too late!

Chapter 4322: : The Bear Children Haunted (4)

Tang Xiaolong narrowed his eyes slightly, and only now did he see the two bear children clearly!

Like!

alike!

The older two bear children look like Li Tian, which is completely a replica of Li Tian. ,

From this bear kid, Tang Xiaolong could see what the little boss Li Tian looked like when he was a child.

The younger bear kid looks more delicate and looks more like Bai Jing. If you look at it, this little guy is pure and white. When he grows up, he will definitely be a handsome guy at the level of disaster to the country and the people.

However, at this time, Tang Xiaolong did not treat these two bear children as ordinary bear children.

Children born to dragons, phoenixes and phoenixes and mice will make holes!

The strength of these two little guys just now has far surpassed that of ordinary adult men, especially now that the Ben Lei fingers that Xiongzi's brother showed can make Tang Xiaolong of the venerable level alert. This shows that His  is already quite threatening.

Duanmuying's housekeeping skills rushed to Leizhi. Although this bear kid has not yet learned home, if this finger is poked on an ordinary person, it will inevitably kill the ordinary person!

At the end of the day, facing the attack of Xiongzi's brother, Tang Xiaolong's mouth unexpectedly showed a trace of satisfaction.

Is Tang Xiaolong an ordinary person?

Naturally not!

Facing the attack of the bear boy, Tang Xiaolong did not advance or retreat, his legs sank slightly, and he squatted into a horse step and roared, "Ten-fold refining!"

Tang Xiaolong's body skin changed color at a speed visible to the naked eye. This color was like the color of alloy metal, but Tang Xiaolong was wearing clothes, so the bear children did not notice.

"Haha! Damn disciple, are you scared stupid? It's too late to even escape!" Seeing that Tang Xiaolong didn't escape, Xiongzi's brother sneered in his heart.

boom!

Brother Xiongzi's Ben Lei fingers blasted on Tang Xiaolong's abdominal cavity, and Ben Lei's fingers exploded in Tang Xiaolong's abdominal cavity with powerful energy, and his abdominal clothes split into strips in an instant.

The sneer on Xiong's brother's face did not last for half a second. He found that when his Ben Lei fingers hit the black monkey's abdomen in front of him, it was as if his fingers were poking on the diamond, and he couldn't move forward half an inch at all. .

But there was severe pain in his fingers, as if the bones in the fingers were broken!

"How... how is it possible?"

"Who is this black monkey? Can he withstand my attack?"

"By the way, what did this black monkey shout when he was under my attack?"

"Ten...Ten heavy refining? Is this black monkey the legendary Uncle Tang Xiaolong?"

Brother Xiongzi raised his head and looked at the black face, his face full of doubts.

"Uncle Tang Xiaolong, Uncle Tang Xiaolong is back, does that mean...Father..."

There was a trace of excitement on the face of Xiongzi's brother, and a trace of excitement was revealed, tears swirling in his eyes, and the watery tears of excitement were about to be left.

But at this moment, Xiongzi's elder brother hurried until he was grabbed by a pliers-like thug on his back, and was directly clamped under his arm by Tang Xiaolong, making him unable to move at all!

"What a powerful power! This power is definitely not lost to Uncle Ouyang Man!" Brother Xiongzi already had such a trace of admiration for Tang Xiaolong in his heart.

But at this moment, a powerful force bloomed on the bear brother's ass!

Pop!

Pop!

"Two little bastards, dare to do something to me, today I will teach you two for the little boss!" Tang Xiaolong said with a joyful expression on his face.

Will Tang Xiaolong really beat these two children?

of course not!

This is Li Tian's son!

He just wanted to scare the two bear kids!

However, Tang Xiaolong forgot the difference between his strength and the strength of these bear children. Tang Xiaolong felt that he had not slapped hard at all, and landed on the bear boy's buttocks, but it was more painful than drawing a board!

"Wow!"

Brother Xiongzi barely endured the pain twice, and couldn't bear the pain anymore, and suddenly started crying loudly!

The bear child was beaten and cried?

The diners who watched the shop looked at Tang Xiaolong dumbfounded. They were a little afraid of Tang Xiaolong's strength, but this did not prevent them from accusing Tang Xiaolong.

"Huh, such a big person, so shamelessly do something to the child!"

"Yes, yes!"

"Call the police! You must not let this villain escape from Ruhr Island!"

The mysterious female Lily looked at Tang Xiaolong angrily, stretched out her hand to * the bear child from Tang Xiaolong's hand, looked at Tang Xiaolong angrily, and said: "I haven't seen you in ten years. You are so promising. You actually started to deal with the child! "

"not me....."

"Isn't it? Didn't we still wronged you? You see that you didn't take it seriously. If you break the child, see how Duanmuying cleans up you! See how you explain to Li Tian!" said the mysterious female Lily.

"How could it break? I..."

"What am I? You are an adult, don't you have such common sense? You won't tell me you forget that you cultivated the tenfold body training, right? Li Tian? Ask Li Tian to come out, I want to ask today. Ask Li Tian what does it mean? Regardless of the children for ten years, this meeting called his brother to kill!" said the mysterious female Lily.

"I really wronged me!" Tang Xiaolong said with a sad face.

"Aunt Lily, this should be Uncle Tang Xiaolong, right? Don't blame Uncle Tang Xiaolong. Today is the fault of our brothers. We should apologize to Uncle Tang Xiaolong!" Xiongzi said, rubbing his butt.

"See? See if these two children are more sensible than you!" said the mysterious female Lily.

Tang Xiaolong's face is even more embarrassing!

What the * is this?

Little boss, little boss, don't go shopping with this otherworldly girl, come back and see your two evil children!

"Brother, this is the first time we have seen Uncle Tang Xiaolong. We collided with Uncle Tang Xiaolong just now. We should pour tea for Uncle Tang Xiaolong. There should be no good tea here. Go to the store and ask for two glasses of white water. , We use water instead of tea to apologize to Uncle Tang Xiaolong!" Xiongzi's brother winked at Xiongzi's brother who was stunned.

"Haha, no, no need! You are so sensible, I really make me feel ashamed as an uncle! Haha!" Tang Xiaolong said awkwardly.

"I want it! I want it! If you don't wait to see your father, he will blame us for being rude!"

Soon, Xiong's brother brought two boiled water, and gave him a cup of Xiong's brother. Then the two raised their cups above their heads, and said in unison, "How offended we were just now, and I ask Uncle Xiaolong to forgive us for being young and ignorant!"

There was a hint of joy on Tang Xiaolong's face, thinking in his heart that if he could cultivate the lily land well when he left the earth world, his child would be so old!

Tang Xiaolong picked up the water cup, gushing, gushing, and drank upright in two mouthfuls!

"Huh? How can there be a hint of sweetness in the water? Is it because of the effect of the heart?" Tang Xiaolong said with a smile on his face.

When the two bear children saw Tang Xiaolong drank the water clean, there was no smile on their faces just now, and they took a step back and said, "Asshole, we were originally going to deal with Li Tian! Let you now. Try it!"

"what?....."

Tang Xiaolong suddenly felt his head dizzy and his body a little soft!

Is it toxic?

Tang Xiaolong wanted to move, but his body completely lost consciousness in the next second and fell to the ground softly!

Before closing his eyes, Tang Xiaolong saw the bear kid brother walking in front of him and stepping on his face.

It didn't hurt, but Tang Xiaolong felt that his face was burning hot!

"Damn it, it's the words of these two bear kids!"

Then he lost consciousness!

Chapter 4323: : Seen alive

Seeing Tang Xiaolong fell to the ground, the mysterious female Lily's face was almost green!

With a dazed effort, Brother Xiongzi stepped on Tang Xiaolong's face with one foot.

The diners in the small shop immediately began to applaud!

They applauded the two bear kids for being able to subdue this bully who eats the king's meal, and praised the two bear kids as little heroes!

These two bear kids are getting more and more proud!

"The store, today's loss is counted on me...my Aunt Lily's account!" Brother Xiongzi said proudly, then turned to look at Lily again and said, "Aunt Lily! What do you think of our methods?"

"Two bastards, what did you take for Tang Xiaolong? He is your uncle Tang Xiaolong? How can you treat him like this?"

"I knew you were in such trouble, I wouldn't let you come to Ruhr for vacation, and let your mother take care of you!"

Lily's face was a little worried and distressed!

Like Tang Xiaolong, after seeing Tang Xiaolong, Lily, the slutty girl, completely constrained, and she was also single-minded to Tang Xiaolong. In the ten years since Tang Xiaolong and Li Tian disappeared, Duanmuying and others have persuaded Lily to be different. Looking for a good relationship, but the mysterious female Lily chose to tactfully refuse.

Today, seeing Tang Xiaolong here, the mysterious female Lily is both excited and excited.

However, she was extremely happy, but she did not expect that Tang Xiaolong would be tricked by these two little bastards!

The mysterious female Lily took Tang Xiaolong in her arms and patted Tang Xiaolong's face lightly, but Tang Xiaolong did not respond at all.

"...Aunt Lily, we were wrong! We have never seen our father or Uncle Tang Xiaolong since we were young. We love our father, our mother, and you, too."

"But in the past few years, every time I see Mother, Mother Bai Jing, and Aunt Lily stand alone in vacant rooms, I can feel your sadness when I look at them. No matter what the reason, Father Father and Uncle Xiaolong should not leave behind. you guys!"

"I don't hate your father and Uncle Tang Xiaolong, but...I must let them know your pain, or we will always have a lump in our hearts that cannot be solved!"

The mysterious female Lily didn't expect these words to be spoken from a child who was less than ten years old. She couldn't help but nodded slightly.

That's right, no matter how lofty Duanmu Ying, Bai Jing and Mysterious Female Lily are in Dongying Island Country, they will never get rid of the fact that they are women.

Women, there will always be lonely, empty and cold times!

The more a strong woman, the more obvious this contrast!

To say that in the past ten years, the mysterious female Lily has not resented Tang Xiaolong in her heart. That is not realistic, but what about resentment? The resentment is over, don't you want to put on a smile and continue living the next day?

Fortunately, when Li Tian left, Duanmuying and Bai Jing already had these two children in their wombs. The birth of these two bear children somewhat filled the void left by Li Tian and others.

"Aunt Lily, these medicinal powders were developed by the sloppy uncle. In addition to allowing the martial artist to sleep for a few more days, it will not have any effect on the martial artist's body and cultivation level!" Little Bear said.

The sloppy uncle is Liu Yihui!

This product now controls the largest pharmaceutical group in Dongying Island, and at the same time assumes the post of director of the Dongying Island State Drug Administration, and also serves as the president of a special research institution in Dongying Island.

But this product is dog meat, and his status is very lofty in the Dongying island country, but he is still a fool, so he will have the reputation of sloppy uncle in the mouth of these two bear children.

"Aunt Lily, don't be angry with us, and don't tell our two mothers, otherwise we will definitely be restrained, and then you will feel sorry for us again!" Big Bear said with a pitiful look on his face.

"Li Mu, Li Bai! You two bastards, when your Uncle Xiaolong wakes up, you must sincerely apologize to Uncle Xiaolong! Otherwise..."

Li Mu, the big bear child, is the child of Li Tian and Duanmuying, whose name is Li Tian's surname and Duanmuying's wooden characters. When the child Hei was not born, Li Tian and Duanmuying decided on the child's name. If it was a son, it would be Li Mu, and if it was a daughter, it would be Li Ying.

Li Bai, cough cough! It's not the poetry fairy Li Bai, this little bear child is the child of Li Tian and Bai Jing. When Li Tian left Dongying Island, he didn't know that Bai Jing was pregnant, but he was as clever as Bai Jing Zhaomaohuahu. He also had two children before they were born. Names, Li Bai and Li Jing!

As a result..., cough, a thousand years ago, Li Bai accidentally lay down his gun and became Li Tian's son.

At this time, Li Tian walked in with Simei from outside the store.

Li Tian wanted to pretend to be forceful, so he went shopping with Simei and let four stunning beauties buy and buy!

It's a pity that Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong made the same mistake. Li Tian did not have the currency issued by Dongying Island. The corpse crystal in his hand before the end of the world and the spiritual source in the battlefield of death are in the eyes of ordinary people in Dongying Island. The slightest value.

Then Li Tian, in the contempt of others, could only escape with Simei.

Then, Li Tian and others entered Xiaoxian and saw Tang Xiaolong lying in Lily's arms. Because the mysterious female Lily had her back to Li Tian, Li Tian did not see Lily's appearance clearly.

"Your sister, Tang Xiaolong has openly asked for a gun in the Dongying Island Country. What are you pretending to be bad? You pretend to be dead. You are a powerful person at the venerable level. Are you embarrassed?" Li Tian thought to himself.

However, when Li Tian's eyes fell on the two bear children, he couldn't help being taken aback.

Li Mu and Li Bai also saw Li Tian's appearance clearly, and the two bear children were also taken aback.

"No...no? Could it be...could it be that Tang Xiaolong actually asked a young woman with a child?" Li Tian, who is out of stock, didn't even notice that Li Mu looked like him.

The two bear children reached into their pockets at the same time, took out two large banknotes, spread their hands to look at Li Tian and the banknotes, and then the two brothers shouted in unison: "Li...Li Tian!"

The actions of the two children stunned the onlookers, and then they followed the actions of the two children, took out the paper money, looked at the pattern on the paper money and looked at Li Tian.

"I rely on, I rely on, I rely on, it won't be true, there are people who look like this..."

"Looking at the expressions of the two young masters, shouldn't you recognize this guy as theirs... daddy?"

"No...No, this guy is like Li Tian, like the * we often worship!"

"Wow, we finally saw alive...get him, don't let him run..."

For a time, the whole shop was all in a mess, and it was so fun!

Chapter 4324: : Animals are not as good as

Li Tian was surrounded by dozens of diners in the small shop.

These diners had the expressions of seeing the dead and resurrected fathers and mothers on their faces. They stretched their arms to Li Tian and shook the coins in their hands, as if to honor Li Tian.

"Don't make a fuss, I'm so embarrassed... Since you are so mindful, then I will accept the money, but don't be ridiculous!" Li Tian smiled close to his face, and quickly collected the paper money in the hands of these diners .

The diners are stupid!

In the daytime... Oh, no, in the evening, grabbing money here grandiosely, is this the legendary Lord Li Tian?

The diners calmed down, and Li Tian also discovered that his head was on the banknotes in his hand!

"I wipe, how come there is my head picture on this banknote?" Li Tian asked in astonishment!

The mysterious female Lily also saw Li Tian and Situ Ningbing and Xueji behind Li Tian!

Tang Xiaolong, who had fainted, was directly left aside by the mysterious female Lily. Regardless of it, Lily rushed into the crowd excitedly and said to Li Tian: "Brother Tian, you...you are really back!"

"lily?"

Lily turned around and pulled the two bear children to Li Tian, and said to the two bear children: "Li Mu, Li Bai, this is your father Li Tian, hurry up and call someone!"

The two bear children stood in front of Li Tian, with tears on their faces already, sobbing excitedly. They didn't know whether it was because of the excitement or the grievance in their hearts. They didn't call Li Tian!

"My son? My Li Tian actually has two sons so old? These two bear children..."

Li Tian squatted in front of the two bear children and looked at the two children carefully, and his heart was full of excitement.

"and many more?"

Li Tian suddenly remembered the joke before the end of the world!

It has been ten years since Lao Li left his hometown. By the time he returned to his hometown, his child would have been more than eight years old to make soy sauce!

Li Tian likes to watch this kind of jokes that hacked himself up and entertained others, but? But if this kind of thing falls on me, then...

Li Tian looked at the two bear children carefully. The older one is a copy of Li Tian, which is almost the same as when Li Tian was a child. The smaller one...

"Is your mother Bai Jing? Hehe...hehe, I didn't expect me to be in the Kirishima Mountains back then...haha..." Li Tian looked at the little guy who looked a little similar to Bai Jing, and there was something in his eyebrows. Similar to himself, Li Tian couldn't help but become excited and happy.

It's so cool to have two sons so old without paying attention!

Li Tian, Situ Ningbing, Xue Ji, Lily, Li Mu, and Li Bai gathered together, and they seemed to have endless words. Liu Jimeng and Ye Meijing were squeezed aside!

"Li Tian actually has two children of this age? And listening to his words, these two children do not seem to be the same mother. Adding Situ Ningbing and Xueji, how many wives and wives do you think Li Tian has? Woman?" Liu Jimeng said to Ye Meijing with a look of loss on his face.

"Beasts are better!" Ye Meijing replied.

"Yes, it's not as good as a beast! There are so many women!" Liu Jimeng grumbled.

"I said that the two of us are on the battlefield of death, and are considered peerless beauties in the Netherworld? But Li Tian, a bastard, doesn't seem to be interested in the two of us. Others treat us as Li Tian's women, but But you and I know in my heart, are we two so unattractive? Animals know how to love men and women, doesn't he understand? Do you think he is inferior to animals?" Ye Meijing said.

Liu Jimeng couldn't keep up with Ye Meijing's thoughts, but after thinking for a moment, she still agreed with Ye Meijing's point of view.

When the refugees were forced to marry, Liu Jimeng had all kinds of explicit hints, but Li Tian was all sorts of licking, but there was no real action at all. How could this make Liu Jimeng not angry.

"It's not as good as an animal!" Liu Jimeng nodded and said angrily.

At this time, a man from Dongying Island, who looked a little wretched, came around, saluted Liu Jimeng and Ye Meijing, and then handed a business card to Liu Jimeng and said: "Two beauties, I'm the Kyoto Film Production Company. Shinichi Maruno, my star scout, this is my business card! I saw that both of them exuded the temperament of being superstars all over their bodies. With a little training and training..., the two can definitely become the top stars of our Kyoto Film Company, no I know if you two are interested in coming to our company..."

The guy named Maruno Shinichi was mentioned by Li Tian from behind before he could finish his words!

"You...what are you doing?"

"My Li Tian's woman, you * dare to make ideas, I'm so impatient...Get out!" Li Tian picked up this guy to open the shop door and threw this guy out!

This guy was almost smashed to death, got up from the ground, holding his head and his tail before disappearing into the night.

"Damn it, although the zombie virus in Dongying Island has been lifted, this is the virus in the minds of residents of Dongying Island but there is no cure!" Li Tian said.

"And you two, the earth is very dangerous!" Li Tian reprimanded.

Seeing Li Tian's back surrounded by Lily and the two bear children again, Liu Jimeng showed a trace of sweetness on his face and said, "Have you heard? Li Tian said that we are his women."

"Counsel! We have been listening to these words for ten years. We must take advantage of the heat when we hit the iron. We must let Li Tian treat us early..." The two women chatted again and again.

If Li Tian knew that these two guys were actually calculating him and wanted Li Tian to do something to them, Li Tian would definitely not resist, and maybe he would groan happily, "Hurry up, try harder. ...Be stronger!"

Li Mu and Li Bai are full of resentment towards Li Tian in their hearts. This resentment is because they have never enjoyed Li Tian's fatherly love. Although these two bear children are precocious, they still have a childish temper in this matter. .

However, as the time spent with Li Tian increased, the grievances on their faces disappeared.

With tears of excitement in the eyes of the two bear children, they called out Li Tian's father several times.

Li Tian hugged the two bear children tightly with his arms, and these two children got tired of Li Tian's body, let Li Tian hug them two, greedily enjoying the late fatherly love!

Li Tian sent Tang Xiaolong, Li Bai, Li Mu, Liu Jimeng, Lily and others into the space of Void Yasha, and then teleported to Kyoto City with Situ Ningbing.

Through several pointers from Lily, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing teleported to the palace of Her Majesty Queen Duanmu Sakura, located in the center of Jingdong City and now the ruler of Dongying Island Country!

Chapter 4325: : Dongying Predicament (1)

The imperial palace where Duanki Sakura is located was built by Tokugawa Ieyasu, the first general of the Tokugawa shogunate in the history of the Eastern Islands. It is located in the center of Jingdong and covers an area of 23,000 square meters.

The imperial palace is divided into several areas such as the Imperial Palace, Gaien, Toen, and Kitanomaru Park. It is a symbol of the imperial power of the modern Toyoshima country.

In Jingdong City, which has an inch of land and a lot of money, can have such a large area, thinking about Li Tian's heart is still a little excited.

"If I sell this land for money, I can't say that I will become the richest man in Dongying Island, but I should be the richest man in Kyoto City! Then we will also buy luxury houses, play yachts, and be surrounded by beautiful women..."

"Wait, the entire Dongying island nation is now owned by Duanmu Sakura, and the entire China is now in my hands. Why do I still want to sell the palace? Oh, I can't afford to hurt the poor!" Thinking of this, Li Tian suddenly No interest.

Li Tian came to the palace and did not let Lily call Duanmuying, Li Tian wanted to give Duanmuying a surprise!

The Toying Palace is the same as before the end of the world. The Gaien, Toen, and Kitanomaru Park are all open to the public. Tourists from all over the world can enjoy it. However, it is obviously impossible for ordinary tourists to enter the largest regional imperial residence.

The Dongying Palace is heavily guarded, especially the position of the imperial residence. You must know that Li Tian's godson Xiao Tianyi is the commander of the Imperial Palace garrison!

After the end of the apocalypse, Ouyang Man, Ouyang Shiqing and others all received the zombie virus antidote injection. In addition to the gods of the gods, Ouyang Man had already wiped out everyone, and Ouyang Shiqing had also changed back to ordinary people.

Xiao Tianyi, as expected by Li Tian and others at the beginning, the zombie virus had no effect on him, and then Xiao Tianyi became one of the few half-human and half-zombies after the end of the Eastern Ocean Island country!

However, Xiao Tianyi's strength is so powerful that no one dares to underestimate Xiao Tianyi, and Duanmu Ying's cultivation base is not weak, so since the last ten years, no one has been able to enter the imperial residence area without permission.

Except for Li Tian now.

The palace, the banquet hall, and the banquet for the highest delegation of the United States continues.

Minister of Foreign Affairs Ouyang Shiqing toasts frequently and entertains the guests at the banquet!

This is the first time since China imposed sanctions on Dongying Island after the end of the world, Dongying Island has welcomed a US delegation from one of the five major countries.

Five years ago, China imposed sanctions and economic blockades on Dongying Island. Four of the other five countries imposed blockades and economic sanctions on Dongying. As a result, the economic development of Dongying Island has been difficult for the past five years!

Today, a delegation headed by the Vice President of the United States and the East Pacific Island countries to meet on cultural, commercial and other issues arrived in East Pacific Island. The media in East Pacific Island countries generally believe that this is an ice-breaking trip for the United States. In the future, the US and the East Pacific Island Congress will have more Student-level exchanges and communication.

It's just that these media don't know. In fact, the current president of the United States, the Minister of Defense, and the commander-in-chief of the navy and other leaders of the U.S. Army Corps also secretly entered the island country with the visiting group.

Located in the conference room of the imperial palace, on the side of Dongying Island, Duanmu Sakura, the Queen of Dongying Island, Mu Yunlong, the Prime Minister, Bai Jing, the Minister of Defense, and the secretly visiting U.S. officials sat around the round table in the meeting room.

This secret meeting is a secret meeting not held at the request of the U.S. side.

It has been more than half an hour since the meeting, but Duanmuying's face became more and more serious!

Several big bosses from the United States visited secretly, and proposed to restore the relationship between the two countries before the model, and hope that further development can be achieved, such as the United States stationing troops in Dongying Island, building military ports and military airports in the United States, etc.!

The intention of the United States is obvious. After ten years of development, both economic and military strength have gradually recovered to the pre-apocalyptic level. However, in the past ten years, the United States has changed from the only superpower in the world to one of the five superpowers. One, their status as a police officer in the world was replaced by China.

This is totally unacceptable to the proud American people!

Especially ten years ago, China used the antidote to the zombie virus in advance to steal the most advanced technology and military equipment on a global scale. This was an insult to the other five countries, including the United States.

When the man made a knife and I was a fish, the United States was as good as a baby bunny, but after ten years of development, the United States thinks that they have enough strength to wrestle with China.

However, China remains silent for internal fighting and civil strife, which gives the opportunist the United States the best opportunity!

The conference room fell into silence for a while. Although several American tycoons were willing to secretly enter Dongying Island, and they were also willing to have an equal round table meeting with Duanmu Ying and others from Dongying Island. However, the voices of several American tycoons were full of In an aggressive manner.

The demands of the United States are so stark. What they have thrown out to break the blockade of the five major powers against Dongying Island and provide Dongying Island with ten-year development support is also very attractive to Dongying Island. However, Duanmu Ying, Mu Yunlong, The expression on Bai Jing's face is very ugly!

"Our country and your country have a good history of cooperation. In the past half century, our two countries have had a very good foundation for cooperation in the military and economic fields. Now, just by resuming our previous cooperation, we can break the five major China's blockade of your country shouldn't be a difficult requirement, isn't it? I believe the people of your country must welcome us to the United States!" US Defense Minister Wayne said with a hint of arrogance.

Wayne's subtext is that in the past half a century, you Dongying Island has always been a dog in our country. Before the end of the world, your prime ministers were like dogs with their faces pressed against us. We are not only In your Dongying island country, our American soldiers have arbitrarily raped the female students of your Dongying island country. Isn't your Dongying island country as good as a dog?

Although these things do not have much to do with Duanmuying, but now the Dongying Island Kingdom is under Duanmuying's control after all. Looking at Wayne's undue beating face, Duanmuying really wanted to step on his face and then fiercely. The ground ravaged a few feet.

But as Wayne said, the current Dongying island country is also very difficult.

This country that relies heavily on imports has almost stagnated during the economic blockade in the past few years, and the country's economy is extremely fragile. If it weren't for the majesty of Duanmuying and others, and the residents of the entire Dongying Island country were still satisfied with their current lives. As long as there are hostile forces fanning the flames, the entire Dongying island nation will fall into chaos.

However, this kind of grievance is also not willing to accept Duanmuying! Compared with the United States, Duanmuying is more inclined to establish a certain relationship with China. There is Mu Yunlong's relationship, Duanmuying's relationship, and more importantly, Duanmuying believes that the person will come back, the one who has the ability to turn the tide. After people come back, you can break the deadlock!

"Let's stop here today! I can't accept your terms!" Duanmuying stretched out and said.

Chapter 4326: : Dongying Predicament (2)

"Your Excellency Duan Muying, I have a document here, maybe you are interested in looking at it." As he said, Wayne handed a document to Duan Muiyin.

Duanmuying furrowed her brows slightly, and took the document questioningly, then Duanmuying began to read the document.

This is a top-secret document. It seems to take into account the situation of Duanmuyin to reduce reading disabilities. This document is written in both Chinese and English.

Seeing the contents of the file, Duanmuying's face gradually became angry.

From the content point of view, this document turned out to be a secret letter sent by China to the United States and Russia. It is hoped that the United States, Russia and China will join forces to target the Dongying island country.

To be precise, this document is more like an agreement between China and the United States and Russia to carve up the East China Islands.

Duanmuying glanced roughly, but several of them were already in view.

The senior leaders of China Huaxia hope that the United States and Russia can help China win the island nation of Dongying. In return, China is willing to return part of the territory that originally belonged to Russia to Russia. For the United States, China is willing to donate several small island countries in the Pacific to the country!

From this agreement, we can see the ugly face of China's senior management.

Blockades, sanctions, and even thinking about dividing up the island nation of Dongying, Duanmuying's heart is full of anger.

But this kind of anger flashed past, and Duanmuying immediately recovered her shrewdness.

Is this a strategy of the US government?

Since Huaxia blocked and sanctioned the Dongying Island State, what Huaxia has done the most is to block the Strait of Malacca and prohibit any exchanges between China and its affiliates and Dongying Island State.

Huaxia hopes to use economic warfare to bring the Dongying government to submission.

Duanmuying looked at Wayne and saw the clues on his face. Unfortunately, Wayne kept smiling all the time.

"Your Majesty Queen Duanmuying, don't you think that this document was fabricated by our government? Over the years, our government has imposed sanctions on your government under pressure from my country, but in fact, only China is the one who really sanctions your country. Our U.S. subject country has never stopped economic exchanges with the East Pacific island country!"

"Your Majesty the Queen is a wise man. There is an old Chinese saying that you cannot allow others to snore on the side of the couch. I believe that Her Majesty the Queen does not want the Chinese family to be the only one."

"Besides, China is closer to the Dongying island country, and China has a stronger threat to the host country. Perhaps you still have difficulty accepting the conditions we have just put forward, but please think from another perspective, build a seaport in your country, and station troops in your country. Our government will consume a lot of currency, and what benefits we can get is only to support your country and allow your country to hold back China!"

"Since the end of the world, only our U.S. government has really helped your country, and only our U.S. government has really dared to help. We are a cooperative relationship, and only a win-win relationship can this relationship continue. As for this document, you would not think that Let's make a false document!" Wayne said.

Duan Muyun could not be sure.

But this does not mean that the US government is innocent.

U.S. President Taylor coughed softly and said: "Your Majesty, the United States is a democratic country. Since the end of the world, our country has made a lot of contributions to the peace of the world. After the end of the end, people will be ruled by zombies. Freed, but China's going to the top of the family has posed a huge threat to the hard-won world peace!"

"As one of the few superpowers on the planet today, our U.S. country must stand up and have the obligation to stand up. You can doubt our US government. But please don't refuse our cooperation."

"Moreover, with all due respect, your country does not seem to have much choice now! If your country does not cooperate with us, even if our country remains neutral, then there will soon be Chinese and Russian warships entering the East Ying waters."

"Don't be too superstitious about these personal forces in your hands. In the future world, these forces can only be used as a supplement to the main forces of war. It is still warships, missiles, and even nuclear bombs that can really determine the outcome of a war! It just so happens that your country doesn't have it!"

This is no longer a peaceful negotiation, but a threatening nature!

Duanmuying handed over the documents to Mu Yunlong. She wanted to ask Mr. Mu Yunlong's opinions!

Whether it is the current high-level Huaxia, or these military forces of the US government, you can't believe them in Duanmu.

The prerequisite for dancing with wolves is that you have the strength that is basically equal to that of wolves.

Today's talk ends here. If you are interested, you can join the dinner together.

Mr. Mu Yunlong glanced roughly, and suddenly tore the document in his hand to pieces, patted it heavily on the desktop, and said with a sneer: "I would rather see if it is broken. Who dared to move the Eastern Island country!"

The old man is an iron-blooded soldier. Although he is old, he still doesn't change his original aspiration and stands proudly. ,

The President of the United States did not have the slightest anger on his face. He calmly watched Mu Yunlong's madness, and said lightly: "Mu's spirit remains the same, but Mr. Mu doesn't seem to understand the actual situation now! You are now the cabinet of Dongying Island. Prime Minister, he is no longer the majestic Mu Lao of China! And now we are talking about the Dongying Island Country, not China! So, should this kind of matter respect Her Majesty's opinion? I believe Her Majesty affirms I don't want to see your hard-won peace be baptized by war again!"

The US President's tone is very calm, but the content of his words seems to be saying: You, who are not dead, are just an old dog who escaped from China!

The expression on Mu Yunlong's face was slightly startled, and she glanced at Duanmuying weakly sitting on the chair, looking weakly at a screen in the chamber.

Mu Yunlong sensed his flowers. It seemed that a figure flashed out from behind the screen just now, and then hid in the screen, and that figure was somewhat similar to Li Tian who he missed all night!

"I can't accept the old. Now I have problems with my eyes. Don't try to behave! It seems that I should also resign from the post of Prime Minister of the Cabinet and concentrate on taking me Li Bai and Li Mu! As for national affairs, this kind of thing is left to Nian. Let the predecessors do it!" Mu Yunlong thought in his heart!

"His Majesty Duanmu Sakura, I hope we can reach some useful agreements tonight. After all, we entered your country secretly. We cannot stay in your country for too long. If there is no accident, we will return to the United States by special plane tomorrow! Seeing Mu Yunlong's appearance, Wayne said a little more confident in his heart, and said aggressively.

Chapter 4327: : Catastrophe (1)

As soon as Wayne's voice fell, a person suddenly appeared behind the screen, it was Li Tian. ,

Seeing Li Tian, everyone present could not help being surprised.

"How is this? Your Majesty, I hope you can give us an explanation!" The President of the United States looked at Duanmuying angrily and said.

This time the secret meeting was extraordinary, and the United States repeatedly emphasized that it must be kept secret. Only then is this negotiation possible.

Explanation? Explain your grandma's legs!

Duanmuying was stunned when she saw Li Tian. After a while, her cheeks were red, and her eyes couldn't help but turn red. At this moment, all the ten years of longing flowed out with the tears in her eyes and could no longer be restrained.

"Li...Li Tian!"

Bai Jing looked at Li Tian dumbfounded, and for a while, he didn't know what language to use to express her excitement at this time.

"My god, my god! You are finally back, you are finally back!"

At this point, Mu Yunlong couldn't believe his eyes immediately, and rubbed his eyes vigorously. After confirming that Li Tian had not disappeared, he knew in his heart that he hadn't seen much just now.

"Good! Good! Good!" Mr. Mu shouted three good words repeatedly, his palms trembled slightly, tears on his face.

Mu Yunlong has waited for Li Tian for three years, and now he has waited for another ten years. He doesn't know how many days he can wait for this old bone.

Grandson Li Tian can be said to be Mu Yunlong's only relative. Now that Li Tian is back, this is not just a continuation of the family relationship, but more importantly, Mu Yunlong knows that what he once lost can be robbed back through Li Tian.

No way, strength is so domineering, it's so capricious.

Li Tian nodded slightly to Duanmuying, Bai Jing and the old man, and used his eyes to signal them to be safe and not irritable. Then he set his gaze on the president of the United States, and the corner of his mouth slightly cocked. He sneered and said: , I'm passing by!"

The American president's eyebrows twitched slightly. He had never seen such a bad excuse.

As the current ruler of the United States, one of the five powers of the earth, his body is free and domineering. He moved his eyes from Li Tian to Duanmuying with disdain, and said with a sneer: "Your Majesty, you are Shouldn't it be something to say? We came to Dongying Island in secret this time. We don't want anyone except these people here to know. You have to understand that once we meet, no matter what the outcome of our negotiations today is, Will cause great harm to our country!"

Duanmuying looked at the US president coldly, without any intention to explain.

Wayne slapped the table abruptly, and said with a sneer: "It seems that we really don't have to talk anymore today. Since this is the case, then we should also leave."

"Want to go?"

Li Tian pressed his leg on the ground lightly, and a shadow flashed across his body, and he immediately reached the US president and others.

A wicked smile appeared at the corner of Li Tian's mouth. He stretched out his hand to press the US President and Wayne who had stood up firmly on the chair, and said, "I'm really sorry, what you said just now fell into my ears by accident. If you don't want the content of the conversation to spread, shouldn't you kill me?"

Wayne's face was hurt and the muscles couldn't help beating slightly.

Li Tian's simple movement just now made Wayne feel that Li Tian is a master.

Now that Li Tian's arm rests on their shoulders, Wayne and the US president are completely immobile!

"Your Majesty, what do you mean?" The face of the President of the United States was ugly. He had never seen anyone dare to treat them like this.

"What do you mean? It's meaningless! Don't you want to talk about the carve-up of Dongying island nation? Since we want to talk, should we invite all the high-level China and Russian presidents here to talk about it together?"

There was an angry expression on Wayne's face. He thought that Li Tian knew that the content of today's conversation could not be revealed but said so deliberately. He couldn't help but laugh at Li Tian's idiot.

Wayne said with a sneer: "Please come here! Okay, if you have this ability, then please invite the senior Chinese and the Russian president to come here! As long as you can invite here, we promise to stand here. On the side of the Dongying island country, the previous promises to you are still valid, and all the conditions we put forward are invalid!"

"I'm afraid you can't do it. By then, will Dongying Island Country promise us the conditions of the US?"

Li Tian smiled and said: "There are some things you have to try to do. If you don't do it, how do you know if you can succeed? Now you can wait a few minutes patiently. I believe they will come to Dongying Island soon as a guest. At that time, you will discuss what happened today in person, and I would like to see who dares to make the island country."

With that, Li Tian couldn't help using a bit more power in his hands.

Wayne's strength is not weak in the United States, especially its body has been genetically modified in the last days, and it already has the strength of nearly fourteen and five-level zombies.

But under Li Tian's palm, Wayne found that he couldn't move at all.

"Damn it, I knew that the Dongying Island Congress was so shameless. We should arrange people's words behind the screen, so we should take the dead with us first!" Wayne thought in his heart.

The President of the United States is weaker than Wayne. Li Tianyi used his force. He immediately felt overwhelmed by his shoulders. A few drops of cold sweat broke out on his face involuntarily: "Your Majesty, I don't think we need to talk anymore. Since you don't Willing to accept our terms, then we will bother you today, we can leave here!"

As president, he is not as strong as Wayne.

After the initial excitement, Duanmuying's heart has gradually calmed down. Seeing Li Tian's full confidence, Duanmuying became more calm, and said with a smile: "Since Li Tian said they can come, then we will be patient. Wait a minute."

A few seconds later, the door of the chamber was pushed in, and it was Tang Xiaolong and the little lady who walked in from outside.

The US President's eyes burst, and there was a look of fear in his eyes.

"This... how is this possible? Does China really have a relationship with Dongying Island State?"

The little lady of Huaxia Huaxia's high-level executives is not as well-known as Liu Feng, but the little lady is also a spoiler of the top ranking in the world today. At various conferences around the world, the president of the United States and the little lady have had Then several talks.

Soon, the door of the chamber was pushed open again. This time it was Situ Ningbing and the current Russian President Blovic who appeared in the chamber.

Chapter 4328: : Catastrophe (2)

Brovic looked a little ugly, his face was blue and purple. ,

"How does it feel that he has just been beaten?"

"What seems to be, it was originally! I went to Russia to invite him to Dongying Island. Who knows that he is dead and alive, and the guards around him have to act on me, so...haha" Situ Ningbing said with a slight smile.

Situ Ningbing said simple, but for Brović, it was a great shame.

Just now, just now Blovic was in a meeting with the prime minister and cabinet officials to discuss matters. Suddenly, the woman in front of her broke into the house with a security guard held hostage.

Blovic didn't expect the strength of the woman in front of him to be so powerful. In a flash, all the important members of Russia were attacked by her.

The President is also a human being, and the President is afraid of death. Blovic wanted to resist, but he was beaten by this woman with a bruised nose and swollen face.

Seeing the little lady and the president of the United States, Blovic seemed to realize something.

Li Tian smiled slightly.

Li Tian originally wanted to give Duanmuying a surprise. After knowing where Duanmuying was, Li Tian teleported to the chamber and hid behind the screen. Inadvertently he had heard Duanmuying's conversation with the American president and others. .

He didn't have a good impression of Li Tian from the United States. After listening to the conversation, he teleported out and rushed to China and Russia respectively. It took only two or three minutes to bring the Russian president and the little lady to the imperial palace of Dongying Island. Then Li Tian teleported to the chamber again.

"Okay, now everyone is here, can we talk about the things you want to carve up the island nation of Dongying!"

"I protest!" The President of the United States seemed to think he had been insulted and shouted angrily.

"Protest to your sister!" Li Tian sneered and slapped the US president directly.

Snapped!

The crisp slap in the ears echoed in the chamber, which made Li Tian memorable.

Li Tian wanted to smoke again, but when he saw the dignified US president's face, it was as swollen as a pig's head. If he smoked it again, it might be the same as Long Yin's smoke.

Li Tian could only stop helplessly.

Russian President Blovic saw Li Tian's attack more hate than Situ Ningbing, and immediately acted obediently, as if he was a child who made a mistake, he did not dare to look up at Li Tian.

"Should I consider my proposal now?" Li Tian said.

"You...what do you want?"

"It's not what I want? But what do you want? China, the United States, and Russia, as the five great nations of the earth, can you do such a thing. Can anyone with the big fists do whatever they want?"

"Don't you want to carve up the island nation of Dongying? Very good. If you think you can do whatever you want with a big fist, then I, Li Tian, don't mind you playing?"

"What do you...what do you want? Do you really think that you can do whatever you want by yourself? Don't forget that outside of this chamber, there are also many strong men in our American entourage. Don't forget that you are kidnapped now They are the heads of the world's five largest countries!" Wayne said angrily.

"Because what you have done has deeply hurt the feelings between the people of Dongying Island and the United States, Russia and China. Shouldn't you say something?" Li Tian said with a smile.

The chamber fell silent for a while.

"Your Majesty, we still look down on you too much. We didn't expect that your Dongying island nation would dare to do anything against the world and offend all three of us at the same time! Good, good!" Wayne said.

Snapped!

Another loud slap in the ears rang in the chamber, it was still Li Tian, the difference was that this time Li Tian drew Wayne this time.

Even if Wayne's strength is strong, his cheeks are obviously the same as the American president. In an instant, Wayne's face swelled up like a bun with yeast powder.

"Hehe, I was scared!" Li Tian said with a sneer.

"Asshole, is this what the royal family of Dongying Island should do? This...this is clearly a terrorist, clearly a gangster!" Wayne cried in his heart.

From beginning to end, the little lady and Blovic did not speak.

The little lady knows the whole story, and today the senior management of Huaxia has completely changed. The little lady will definitely not recognize the * things that Liu Feng did when he was there!

Brovic was the one who saw Situ Ningbing and Li Tian, and his heart was full of fear.

Not to mention that Li Tian and Situ Ningbing have not yet demonstrated their strength. It only takes a few seconds to reach the distance from the capital of Russia to the capital of the Dongying island country. This makes Blovic feel that To despair.

Blovic is also a fraud. He clearly knows that Li Tian and others have this ability, but he just didn't speak, just let the Americans offend Li Tian here, and then watched Li Tian pump their cheeks, Blovic's. My mind gradually became balanced.

"Please accept my most sincere apology. On behalf of the United States, I apologize to you for my rudeness just now!" The President of the United States said reluctantly.

What he was thinking in his heart was to escape from here temporarily, as long as they escaped, they would retaliate against Dongying Island!

apologize?

However, this is not what Li Tian wanted!

Li Tian smiled and said, "You are all adults. You shouldn't naively think that an apology is enough?"

"If an apology is useful, why should you fist?"

"What on earth do you want to do?"

"I believe that Her Majesty's heart is broken at this time! She must be hurt in her heart because of your threats. In that case, as the five major countries, should you take something practical as compensation!"

"Compensation? What kind of compensation do you want? Wishful thinking! Don't think that if you have a little strength, you can do whatever you want, and you can coerce our five big countries." The president of the United States still doesn't know who holds the initiative, and said with a sneer.

Hahahaha!

Li Tian suddenly laughed: "What is the reason for this? Because your fists are hard and big, you can carve up the island nation of Dongying for whatever you want, and can't we ask for some compensation?"

"Our requirements are not high. The U.S. country will hand over the Hawaiian Islands to the Dongying Island country. Russia will hand over the British Isles that do not belong to you as compensation. As for China, this is simple. Just include the area around the Strait of Malacca. All the islands of Indonesia will be handed over to the hands of the Dongying Island Country!"

"wishful thinking!"

Li Tian was interrupted as soon as he finished speaking!

"All I can do is to apologize to Her Majesty the Queen. Your request is too rude. Please forgive me. I can't agree to it. And I believe that Dongying Island should not have the strength to take these areas into its own hands." US President Said with a sneer.

Chapter 4329: : Catastrophe (3)

"Well, it seems that you won't cry without seeing the coffin. If that's the case, then I need to show you the strength of Dongying Island Country." Li Tian said.

"What do you want to do?"

"Nothing! You can wait patiently for a while! At most half an hour later, you can make international long-distance calls to the United States through the phone here, then you will know what happened in the United States, and you will know that we are in Dongying Island. There is no such strength!"

Although the words were released, but Li Tian thought about how to target the United States if he didn't fight!

"Let me think about it, what are the iconic buildings in the United States? Do you want me to destroy a few iconic buildings like a terrorist? By the way, I don't know what the Statue of Liberty looks like after the end of the world, hehe, then Move the Statue of Liberty to the palace and have fun!"

Thinking of this, Li Tian's heart was a little excited!

"Ningbing, you look at these * in the US, Xiaolong and I will come and go!" Li Tian said.

The President of the United States looked at Li Tian suspiciously. From Li Tian's cold language, they seemed to realize that Li Tian might not simply say it.

However, as the president of the five largest countries in the world, the president of the United States will not be intimidated by Li Tian's words.

Before the end of the world, terrorists attacked the Empire State Building in the United States, which plunged the United States into panic, but even the most powerful terrorists could not compete with a powerful country like the United States.

Li Tian's current strength is good, but in any of the five major countries, no one has anything to look at at the bottom of the box, and no one has a few powerful men.

"Your Majesty, don't you feel it, don't you feel that it feels so funny? Do you think that if you control us, you can make other mistakes yield? It's so naive.

"Our arrival in the Dongying island country is not secret to the United States. Here, as long as we have any problems, then I believe that at this time tomorrow, several aircraft carrier formations will enter the Dongying waters, countless missiles, Intercontinental missiles will be aimed at the entire Dongying island nation. Can you afford such a responsibility?"

Intimidation, this is naked intimidation!

But what Li Tian likes the most is to use the other way to return the body.

"Idiot, aren't you intimidating me? Then I will let you see the strength of Li Tian against the sky!" Li Tian left such a sentence and turned Tang Xiaolong out of the chamber.

The United States across the ocean.

The morning sun shone on the Statue of Liberty in New York, and suddenly a black man appeared at the foot of the Statue of Liberty.

The two police officers patrolling around the Statue of Liberty sat in a car and breathed boringly. The sudden appearance of Tang Xiaolong still aroused their alarm.

"Man, someone came here to play so early? It seems something is wrong!"

"It's just a poor tramp, don't make a fuss! Hurry up and eat breakfast, and we will be busy when there are more tourists!"

The two police officers were eating burgers and drinking Coke.

"It's rare to encounter such good weather, let's have some music!"

The two police officers ate and drank fast food and listened to black music, shaking constantly in the police car.

Without paying attention, the black man slowly came to the pedestal of the Statue of Liberty, looking up at the Statue of Liberty.

"Hi, Paul, how did you say that guy climbed up? Isn't he trying to steal the Statue of Liberty?"

"Don't be kidding me, this thing can't be stolen by anyone, unless he is a Tyrannosaurus rex! Hahaha" The black police officer felt funny for his joke.

Yes, the Statue of Liberty is an alloy of steel and copper. It is 46 meters high and weighs 225 tons. How could it be stolen?

"But I always feel that he doesn't seem right, so let's ask if we should go out."

"Brother, we are in America now!"

"Well, this music is really good, I just like this feeling!"

The two American policemen shook their buttocks while listening to the music, and the car shook up and down with them, as if it were shaking.

One of the black police officers looked up and inadvertently looked in the direction of the Statue of Liberty, only to find that the Statue of Liberty was missing.

Damn it, it's gone!

The hamburger he had just bitten into his mouth fell off, and the police officer was dumbfounded, not knowing how to describe the shock in his heart!

"What's the matter? Did you see a beautiful woman? You should find another wife!" Although the other police officer said this, he couldn't help but look at the Statue of Liberty.

Soon, his mouth also opened, completely unable to merge.

"Statue of Liberty, * it, how could it be gone!"

The Statue of Liberty was gone, leaving only a bare pedestal, as if mocking them.

"How is this possible! It must be the * just now! Bastard, his blatant declaration of war on America?"

"It's the black monkey just now, it's him, hurry up and call the police!"

"We... aren't we the police?"

The disappearance of the Statue of Liberty quickly attracted the attention of many people, and the news spread throughout New York in the shortest possible time.

The TV station is like a mad dog that smells poop. It is fast from all over the country and rushed here immediately.

Then this is just the beginning.

Five minutes later, in a certain US military port in Washington State, an aircraft carrier formation was parked at the same time, but for some reason it sank at the same time.

Three or four minutes later, the US Pentagon in Arlington County, Virginia, in Washington, D.C., was attacked by an unknown substance, and the entire Pentagon was wiped out in an instant.

In less than half an hour, the phone calls of U.S. government officials who were attending the royal banquet in Eastern China were almost blown. These government officials hurriedly rushed to the outside of the chamber and strongly demanded that the phone be handed over to the U.S. President.

After hearing about what happened in the United States, the president of the United States collapsed in a chair weakly.

A few minutes later, Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong walked in again from outside the chamber.

At this time, the US President's body was still trembling, and his mouth kept repeating: "Impossible, impossible, how is this possible!"

Seeing the performance of the US president, Duan Muyun was relieved, and Mr. Mu Yunlong was also relieved.

Although the little lady and Blovic don't know what happened in the United States, they can already guess that this matter is probably not small.

"Deserve it!" Blovic thought to himself.

As if nothing happened, Li Tian smiled at the President of the United States and said: "Now, are you willing to sit down and talk to me calmly? If you don't want to, I can go out to play again!"

"No...no, I do, I do!" the US president said feebly.

Chapter 4330: : The heroine spares her life (1)

The next thing is much simpler. According to what Li Tian said before, the U.S. gave the Hawaiian Islands to Dongying Island, and Russia and the British Isles to Dongying Island.

As for China, ha ha ha! Little lady, this is just a scene with Li Tian.

The grand banquet did not stop and continued.

Li Tian frequently toasts against the guests.

The President of the United States, the President of Russia, the two most powerful people at the time had their faces black and forced a smile. Then he kept cursing Li Tian in his heart: "Animal, animal."

Stealing chickens can't eclipse the rice. The evil old rice originally wanted to establish a foothold in the eastern island country, but instead of having a foothold, he lost the Hawaiian Islands.

As for the President of the United States and the Russian President, how to explain to their citizens after returning to the country, he is not something that Li Tian can pay attention to.

At the banquet that day, this guy drunk Lao Mi and the Russian president again. Poor Laomi was frightened and fled back to the United States by special plane overnight.

As for the Russian president, this cargo was captured by Li Tian and Situ Ningbing. Without a special plane, they had to buy a flight ticket for civil aviation and return to the Russian capital.

Li Tian paid for the ticket.

However, before the Russian president left, he signed an IOU to Li Tian. The high interest on this IOU was so scary that Li Tian was embarrassed.

But if Li Tian didn't want this IOU, then Blovic would absolutely not dare to leave Dongying Island.

There is no way, the hospitality is difficult, Li Tian can only accept it reluctantly.

In the next few days, Li Tian was very busy!

News of what happened in the United States quickly spread to the world.

Old Mi and Blovic said what they had to say. After returning to their country, they did not know what operations they had undergone, and they soon included the Hawaiian Islands and the British Isles into the Eastern Islands.

This kind of feeling is like the price kid playing home, but if there is research on the modern history of China, when the western powers occupied the colony in China, they would transfer the colony from a certain western power country to the Dongying island country. event.

The Hawaiian Islands and the British Isles are nominally owned by the Dongying Islands, but they are actually owned by Li Tian's private person. All these matters must be solved by Li Tian and his people.

Li Tian is very busy every day, constantly teleporting back and forth between these islands and the Dongying island country. Fortunately, Li Tian will teleport, otherwise the air ticket alone would be an expensive expense.

After ten years of absence, Li Tian still feels a little guilty in his heart. Whenever he has time, Li Tian will teleport to Dongying Island to accompany Duanmuying, Bai Jing, Ouyang Shiqing, the old man and the two bear children.

Li Tian still has to teleport directly back and forth between Dongying Island Country and China to solve some of China's difficult things.

Fortunately, there are Little Lady and Kobi in China, and the transition of China's affairs is also very smooth, and it has not caused too many waves.

As for the comrades of Liu Feng and others, after learning that Liu Feng was under house arrest, these comrades either committed suicide in despair, escaped abroad secretly, or turned to Li Tian one after another.

Li Tian didn't plan to investigate these people in detail, but just removed those people from key positions and let the little lady pay more attention.

Among all the people, the most miserable one should be Su Lao.

Su's old age is very high. After being under house arrest, he was frightened and horrified. He couldn't eat and couldn't sleep. He lived in extreme fear every day and died in fear every few days.

As the former elder of the highest-level elders in China, Li Tian did not continue to pursue him, and burying Su Lao thickly was regarded as a face to Su Lao.

As for Liu Feng, Lan Lin, and Yin Yang, they were extremely sinful. Although Li Tian didn't kill them, he probably didn't see the sun for a few days in his entire life.

During this period, Li Tian took the time to release all the ninjas who had been controlled by Li Tian's soul-detention Dafa in Dongying Island.

These ninjas have performed well in the 10 years since Li Tian left, and they deserve to be free.

Of course, because they followed Li Tian, they are now considered to be decent figures in the East Island country.

After Li Tian was busy with these things, all kinds of banquets greeted Li Tian.

For China, Li Tian, the original Celestial Legion's banquet, must attend. The banquet organized by Mo Jianyuan, Gu Lianghongtu, and others, who originally met in the Bounty Hunter Association, will naturally also participate. The Legion's banquet...

The same is true on the island country of Dongying. Li Tian found that he was drunk and dreaming almost every day.

Ten days later, entertainment gradually decreased. Li Tian invited the real high-level officials of China and Dongying island nations such as Little Lady, Gao Bi, Old Man, Duan Muying, Situ Ningbing, Ouyang Shiqing, Bai Jing, Tang Xiaolong to the Hawaiian Islands to hold the highest level. At the meeting, the issue of China and the East China Islands was discussed!

Because everyone present has a China story, the merger of China and the East China Islands was put on the agenda.

Of course, Li Tian hopes that Duanmuying, the old man, and others can enter the space of the Sky of Sky Spear, so that Li Tian can take care of them at any time. As for Huaxia and Dongying Island Kingdom, he plans to temporarily give it to the little lady and Gao. Come to take care of it recently.

But who Duanmuying didn't want to abandon the earth world, she was more willing to stay in China and teach her children.

With regard to Ouyang, Bai Jing had the same attitude. They didn't know the reason, and they were unwilling to leave the earth event.

In this regard, Li Tian had no choice but to temporarily shelve this idea.

On the beach, Li Mu and Li Bai were playing on the beach. Looking at such a cute child, Li Tian was a little hard to give up!

But Li Tian knew that he would definitely have to leave the earth world and enter the Netherworld, and continue to embark on his path of being strong.

After spending half a month in Hawaii, Li Tian felt that his skin was getting tanned. This kind of exclusive meeting was unanimously approved by everyone, but there was no result.

Huaxia completely returned to normal, and after discussions with Li Tian and others, Huaxia welcomed back Mr. Mu Yunlong and Duan Muying.

The highly anticipated old man had to come out again, temporarily serving as the head of China, with Duanmuying, Little Lady, Kobi and others assisting him.

According to the plan, in one to two years, Father Mu Yunlong will hand over the entire Huaxia and Dongying Islands to Duanmuying, and the father will gradually withdraw from the core management authority.

At that time, Dongying Island Country will become the real Dongying Province, and Ouyang Shiqing and Bai Jing will become the highest officials of the province!

As for Li Tian's private property, the Hawaiian Islands and the British Isles will not be included in the scope of China.

Li Tian directly digs the corner of Huaxia, let Dog Nose take charge of the British Isles, Shelipuding and He Zhizhuo assist Dog Nose, and Weiwei and Ouyang Man take charge of the Hawaiian Islands.

In the future, these islands will become permanently neutral areas and become tourist cities in the true sense.

Think of Li Tian still a little excited.

Facing the sea, spring flowers bloom, this kind of day will not be far away.

Because of Li Tian, Huaxia has become the well-deserved sole hegemon of the earth world. A meeting of global heads of state will be held in Kyoto in a month. In fact, this is more or less a dignified meaning for Huaxia to let all parties come to congratulate.

Everything was arranged properly, Li Tian decided to go to the remaining four caves of the eight dragons in Wangta Temple to find out. However, at this moment, something happened that Li Tian did not expect!

Ye Meijing and Liu Jimeng, who stayed in Dongying Island, are missing!
