

A Killer 4361

Chapter 4361: : Yuanjialuzhai (3)

The body of the black robe corpse refiner hit the cave wall so hard that his whole body was sunken into the cave wall.

Tang Xiaolong didn't stop his hand, and he fell several consecutive punches on the body of the black-robed corpse refiner. With every punch, the body of the black-robed corpse refiner would dent several inches into the cave wall.

boom!

boom!

Tang Xiaolong's Kong Wu's two powerful fists are like pounding garlic and pestle, and the black robe corpse refiner is like garlic under Tang Xiaolong's fist. A dozen consecutive punches go down. The bones were all shattered, and the flesh and blood of the body except for the limbs were actually shattered into meat.

"Do not....."

"impossible....."

The black robe corpse refiner did not close his eyes when he died.

He couldn't believe that his corpse-refining Taoist priest who had cultivated for a thousand years would be shattered by Tang Xiaolong, a black barbarian.

The black robe corpse refining priest...dead!

His body has turned into pieces of flesh, and he is always with the walls of the caves of the heavens, and will never be separated.

Outside the cave, hundreds of zombies were awakened by the black-robed corpse refiner. These zombies flocked to Li Tian and Situ Ningbing frantically!

"Li, leave it to me!" Situ Ningbing said.

As a powerful pressure fell from the sky, these exposed zombies were quickly pressed back into the water by the powerful pressure.

Situ Ningbing revolved Qingyun Qi Jue, and as the spiritual power in her body began to wander through the veins, a palm-sized purple lotus quickly appeared in Situ Ningbing's left palm.

The purple lotus was spinning quickly in Situ Ningbing's hand. With each rotation, the purple lotus in Situ Ningbing's hand would grow a bit bigger, and the purple arc on the lotus became more and more secretive.

The purple arc shining on Situ Ningbing's cheeks. At this time, Situ Ningbing's face did not fluctuate in the slightest, giving people a cold and glamorous feeling.

With a slight finger on Situ Ningbing's right hand, the lotus petals immediately floated away from the lotus, and dozens of petals carried purple arcs, as if flying into the water instantly.

Zizi!

The purple arc enters the water, like countless little snakes swimming, leading the purple petals to swiftly drill into the bodies of those zombies.

Situ Ningbing's Qingyun Qi Jue was far less domineering than Li Tian's Qingyun Qi Jue, but as a powerhouse at the venerable level, Situ Ningbing's Qingyun Qi Jue purple lotus attack power was not weak.

After the purple arc poured into the bodies of the zombies, it quickly destroyed the zombies' bodily functions. The bones, muscles, and skin were like paper burned with a match, disappearing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

It is necessary to know that this lotus flower of Situ Ningbing can release dozens of petals, and these dozens of petals instantly wiped out dozens of zombies.

For a while, the surface of the water seemed to be boiling, and the zombies that were hit by the lotus petals were quickly swallowed by the purple arc and disappeared into the water.

Situ Ningbing did not stop. Whenever there was only the last lotus petal in her hand, Situ Ningbing stopped attacking and began to continue to run the spiritual power in her body veins, so as to let the lotus petals float away in her hand. Get supplemented, and continue to attack those zombies!

This is a battle without suspense.

There is absolutely no solution in the earth world for a powerful person at the venerable level!

Not to mention these low-level little zombies, even hundreds of corpse refining priests have no resistance in front of the venerable.

A few minutes later, hundreds of zombies were all killed by Situ Ningbing's Qingyun Qi Jue without exception, and only a few dozen corpses that had not been refined into zombies by the black-robed corpse refining priests continued to float in the water.

Although these people died innocently, Li Tian is not a Virgin, and he is not obligated to send all these corpses to the ground. In the future, these matters can be handled by the fire.

Tang Xiaolong's fist was covered with the blood of the black-robed corpse-refining Taoist priest and walked out, and he pulled a piece of rag to wipe the blood clean, throwing it away, and said with ease: "Little boss, we really changed. Strong, the corpse refiner didn't have the power to fight back in my hands, and I was beaten to death with a few punches!"

Since knowing that the corpse had escaped, Li Tian was also worried about the dead. He followed Tang Xiaolong into the cave behind the stone gate of the heavens, and used the heavenly spear to release the purple electric dragon to completely refine the corpse of the black-robed Taoist priest. It's nothing but rest assured.

The last time Li Tian and the others came to the Underground Palace of the Buddha Pagoda in Wangta Temple, their cultivation was still very weak, and in the end they only broke through three stone gates after a life of nine deaths.

Right now, Li Tian and the others still had five stone gates that did not break through. They were: Gandapo, Asura, Garuda, Kinnaruo, and Mahuragya.

Ganda Po: It is a * who does not eat wine or meat, but only seeks fragrance as a nourishment. It is one of the gods of music that serves the emperor. It emits a strong fragrance. "Ganda Po" in Sanskrit means "changeable" "Measured" means.

The aromas and music are vague and elusive.

Asura: It is an existence that has seven emotions and six desires, but is not a human being. This kind of existence is very aggressive and a kind of evil god.

Of course, Li Tian knows that many of the legendary gods on the earth have water. This water may be spontaneously injected by the people in historical legends, or it may be because the legendary time is long and gradually injected.

Take the small hot pot as an example. This guy is regarded as the * of fire from Dongying, but the strength of this guy, Li Tian hahahaha. And now Li Tian is also regarded as a * by some people in Dongying Island Kingdom and China, but Li Tian's strength is also hahahaha.

According to Buddhist legends, Asura and Emperor Shitian are rivals, always fighting each other endlessly. Because it was the highest demon opposed to the gods, he was expelled from the heavens and lived in the caves of Milu Mountain, and he fought fiercely with the gods many times.

From this legend alone, this Asura is already awesome, but Li Tian doesn't know what extent this Emperor Shitian is, and what extent Asura can reach.

If you can't compare all your strengths on the same plane, you can brazenly blow.

Li Tian boldly estimated that this Asura is probably a master of the cultivator level, and it may not have reached the realm of venerable.

Garuda: The golden-winged bird * who lives on the big trees on the four continents. His wings spread out over three million kilometers. In ancient Indian mythology, it is the mount of the great * Vishnu.

For this description, Li Tian hehehe again.

The wings spread over three million square kilometers, and the land area of China before the end of the world was only more than 9.6 million square kilometers, while India's land area was only 2.98 million square kilometers.

what does this mean?

Unless these mythological stories in the mythology did not take place in the earth world, otherwise...this is awesome! Blowed!

"Now that our cultivation base has reached the realm of the venerable, we speeded up and each entered a stone gate. After we got out of the stone gate, we waited here for each other, and the last two stone gates we will come together!" Li Tian said.

"Okay, then I choose Ganda Po!" Situ Ningbing said.

"Hey, I want to see Ashura!" Tang Xiaolong said.

"Then I will choose Garuda!" Li Tian said.

Chapter 4362: : In a fantasy

When Li Tian and others negotiated to enter the eight Tianlong stone gates in the underground palace, Lihuo drove to Wangta Temple.

"Anything to find?"

"Reporter, the person we were in charge of staring at entered Wangta Temple and never came out."

Agni nodded slightly and said, "Did you see what that person looks like?"

The people who were in charge of staring at Tang Xiaolong looked at each other, one of them took a step forward, took out a digital camera, and said to the fire: "Report to the lord, and received the order from the lord. We dare not neglect. This is Although the photos we took are not very clear, we can also tell a general idea."

"For sure... the person we are staring at is not a savage."

Lihuo nodded slightly and took the digital camera. When Lihuo's sight fell on the digital camera, his eyes could no longer move away.

"Even... it turned out to be him!"

At this moment, the fire couldn't contain the joy of his heart, and the hand holding the digital camera trembled slightly.

"My lord, this... who is this person?" Assistant Agni asked suspiciously.

The fire adjusted for five or six minutes, and then gradually calmed down, but did not answer the assistant's question, and said: "Send my order, immediately surround Wangta Temple, no one is allowed to enter Wangta Temple without my order!"

"My lord...Is this too dangerous? My brothers have lost three or four people in this area in the past two months!" Assistant Lihuo said with a worried expression on his face.

Lihuo smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry! With them here, it is absolutely safe! This time, my brothers and I will watch the Watchtower Temple together. We will wait for them to come out together! When they come out of Watchtower Temple, you will Know whether it is worth waiting here!"

Wangta Temple, Buddha Temple.

Li Tian, Situ Ningbing and Tang Xiaolong were already standing at the entrance of the stone gate of the underground palace they had chosen.

The pattern on the stone gate in front of Situ Ningbing is Ganda Po.

After thousands of years of wind erosion, the pattern on the stone gate remains intact. A barefoot man holding a lute, his eyes blurred, his body is graceful, and he seems to be completely indulged in the rhythm of music.

To the current Situ Ningbing, the Shimen weighing hundreds of kilograms of Eight Heavenly Dragons can be described easily.

Situ Ningbing looked back at Li Tian and saw that Li Tian was also looking back at him. A smile appeared on Situ Ningbing's face, he nodded slightly, and gently pushed Shimen away.

The Shimen had just been pushed away less than an inch away, and a fresh fragrance came from behind the Shimen. As Situ Ningbing pushed the Shimen away, the more the scent behind the Shimen became more obvious.

These fragrances are not as strong as the fragrance of perfumes, to the scent of flowers, giving people a clear and elegant feeling.

Situ Ningbing turned around and entered the cave behind the stone gate.

Situ Ningbing's eyes were covered with a mist. The mist looked like a thin veil, but it completely blocked Situ Ningbing's vision. Even if Situ Ningbing wanted to see more than one meter away, it was completely impossible. .

The scent remains the same, but the scent seems to change with the breeze. One will be the scent of osmanthus, and the other will be jasmine.

Suddenly, there was a soft pipa sound in the ear. This sound was also if there was no such thing. Hearing the ear made Situ Ningbing involuntarily feel a little physically and mentally happy, and even Situ Ningbing had a feeling of wanting to dance.

Situ Ningbing took a few steps forward, the mist in front of him moved backward, and the scene in front of him gradually became clear.

Suddenly, Situ Ningbing felt the sound of the pipa rushing up, as if some danger was constantly approaching, a murderous aura of seemingly non-existent permeating Situ Ningbing's body.

Situ Ningbing pulled out her butcher knife, butcher god, and held it tightly.

However, in the next second, Situ Ningbing suddenly discovered that the butcher knife in her hand had turned into a musical instrument. Situ Ningbing's hand slightly turned into a pile of sawdust. The sawdust followed the wind. Floating, a unique fragrance of wood began to permeate.

"This... what's going on?"

Situ Ningbing's body suddenly couldn't move, she could feel a powerful murderous intent suddenly descend from the sky!

Immediately after Situ Ningbing saw a sudden change in the scenery in front of her, she did not know when she had walked out of the Gandapo cave in the underground maze and appeared among the mountains.

In the distance, on the top of the mountains, a woman with fluttering hair is holding a spear...

"Illusion, this must be an illusion... Why did I appear in Wanshen Mountain...? I... I am a powerful domain master?"

Some memories that did not belong to Situ Ningbing gradually appeared in her mind!

The female domain master of the Nether Realm, there are many domain masters in the Nether Realm, her cultivation is not so outstanding, in the Nether Realm, she only owns a small city and enjoys the respect of thousands of people!

Situ Ningbing suddenly raised his head, and on the hills surrounding the main peak of the mountain peaks, there were domain master level experts in the Nether Realm everywhere, and the weakest cultivation bases of these domain master level experts had reached the domain master level seven or eight peak.

"It's such a powerful pressure. It seems that the mountains are about to collapse under this pressure. Why does my domain master feel a little trembling and want to escape?"

At this moment, the domain masters on the top of the mountains suddenly began to move!

These domain masters did not use teleportation, but rushed to the long-haired woman by flying in the air, and these thousands of domain masters actually wanted to join hands to deal with that woman.

At this moment, the woman suddenly raised her spear, and countless purple electric dragons flew out of the spear.

When the purple electric dragon arrived, those powerful domain owners were like mosquitoes touching the electric mosquito swatter. They were instantly shot down and wiped out in smoke.

This is a massacre!

It's the massacre of the master-level masters in the Netherworld!

"Why not teleport?"

"Why not teleport?"

Venerable-level powerhouses can use teleport, they can appear next to that woman in an instant, there is no need to suicide attack that long-haired woman like moths into the fire!

Suddenly a thought appeared in Situ Ningbing's mind.

area!

It turned out to be a domain!

The biggest difference between a domain master-level powerhouse and a noble-level powerhouse is that the domain master-level master has already mastered the domain. When the domain master-level master uses this skill, her body is surrounded by her domain, this domain She is the rule maker!

These domain masters do not want to use teleport, but in the domain of that long-haired woman, these domain masters simply can't use it!

As for a domain master like Situ Ningbing, in this domain, let alone teleporting, even Yukong flying can't do it!

Situ Ningbing's legs were shaking!

That one invincible powerhouse was completely vulnerable in front of the long-haired woman. The bodies of thousands of domain master-level powerhouses exploded in the air, like fireworks.

"She is irresistible! She is the only  in the Netherworld!"

Suddenly, whoosh! The long-haired woman's spear fell from above the sky like a bolt of lightning, and stuck on the ground in front of Situ Ningbing!

Zheng!

Chapter 4363: : Shura Battlefield

After watching Situ Ningbing enter Shimen, Tang Xiaolong turned his head and looked at Li Tian. After seeing Li Tian's gaze shifted from Situ Ningbing onto his body, Tang Xiaolong's mouth showed a satisfying smile. ,

The heart of this lack of heart is full of excitement!

For a long time, Tang Xiaolong felt that he was the shadow of Li Tian, and his mentality would be at ease when Li Tian was there, and only when he followed Li Tian could Tang Xiaolong exert the most powerful combat power.

Now, Tang Xiaolong finally has to face one of the eight dragons independently, and he is also known for his powerful combat power.

Tang Xiaolong wanted to say something to boost morale to Li Tian, but Tang Xiaolong couldn't think of a suitable vocabulary. Finally, he smiled at Li Tian, stretched out his hand to push the stone gate of Asura, turned and walked in.

Behind this stone gate is a cave. It seems that this place should have been a cave. No surprises!

Tang Xiaolong shook his fists tightly and began to walk slowly along the cave.

The surrounding area was not quiet. The cold wind blew into the cave, and the sound of howling ghosts and wolves came from the cave. Few people with common sense knew that this was the wind.

As Tang Xiaolong walked farther and farther, the temperature in the cave dropped rapidly, and Tang Xiaolong couldn't help but shudder.

Tang Xiaolong felt that the clothes on his body seemed to be too thin, and the skin of his body was unknowingly stiff.

Tang Xiaolong secretly operated the exercises. Tang Xiaolong used the ten-fold refining, and gradually Tang Xiaolong could not feel the cold.

The temperature in the cave did not change at all, but Tang Xiaolong felt that his body had become a piece of steel, a piece of steel that did not know the cold.

Tang Xiaolong lowered his head and saw that a layer of hoarfrost had formed on his arms, and a layer of ice had been hung on the pants of his legs.

"If you want to urinate here at this time, I am afraid you really need to pee while tapping with a stick!" Tang Xiaolong thought disgustingly in his heart.

The cave seemed to have no end. Tang Xiaolong didn't know how long he had been walking. He only knew that the wall of the cave in front of him had completely turned into frost.

call!

call!

The howling of ghosts and wolves blowing into the cave finally turned into a normal wind. Tang Xiaolong stopped and looked up to see the cave. There was an exit in front of him, and he was about to come to an end.

Tang Xiaolong speeded up a few steps and walked out of the cave.

The exit of the cave, as expected by Tang Xiaolong, was halfway up a steep mountain, and there was a huge platform in front of the cave. This platform protruding from halfway up the mountain was at least the size of two standard basketball courts.

Tang Xiaolong was standing slowly on the platform, a gray cloud in the sky, there was a feeling that the city was about to be destroyed.

There were no snowflakes in the sky that Tang Xiaolong had imagined, but the wind was very strong, and the wind blew, like countless sickles slashing on Tang Xiaolong's body, making a crisp sound.

Fortunately, Tang Xiaolong had cultivated ten levels of body refining, so that his body had more rigidity than steel, otherwise the current Tang Xiaolong might have become a piece of meat.

Looking up from a distance, Tang Xiaolong saw that there was no mountain other than the one he was on. There was an endless plain in front of him, and the plain was also grayish scenery.

No color, no light!

This is more depressing than the battlefield of death.

"How can Ashura's stone gate be a cave leading to such a world?" Tang Xiaolong couldn't help thinking especially disappointed.

Suddenly, Tang Xiaolong saw that the gray ground under his feet suddenly moved.

It was like a gray ocean wave that slowly waved from near to far, and then Tang Xiaolong heard bursts of shouts from the waves!

"This...this is not the ground, nor the waves, could it be...are these people?" Tang Xiaolong could hardly believe what he saw, rubbing his eyes vigorously.

That's right, the endless gloom under his feet is a person!

A human with almost the same skin as Tang Xiaolong.

Seeing Tang Xiaolong's figure appear on the boulder, the crowd below was immediately excited.

Then Tang Xiaolong saw the side he had never seen in his life.

There are tens of millions of people on the endless land in front of Tang Xiaolong. Before they saw Tang Xiaolong, these guys fell to the ground like gray-black ore, but they all came back to life after seeing Tang Xiaolong. Up.

These guys are excited, but the way they express their excitement is: killing!

That's right, it's killing!

The world below the platform is a battlefield that keeps killing. There are tens of millions of humans with skin color similar to Tang Xiaolong. Their bodies can be changed into various weapons and weapons at will, and they can easily pierce into the opponent's body. Among them, cut the human in front of them into... shattered pieces of metal!

Everyone's face was filled with excitement, filled with excitement.

This is a life and death killing, but it is not a life and death battle.

Under the feet, those human beings are like cutting wheat, being brought down one after another, without painful screams, only excited shouts.

"This...what is this place, and what is going on with these people?"

Tang Xiaolong felt that his worldview was a bit messy.

If he had followed Li Tian and Situ Ningbing to enter here, having them two would definitely give Tang Xiaolong a good explanation, but...

Tang Xiaolong felt a fire in his chest. This fire made Tang Xiaolong's arms tremble slightly. This was not a tremor of fear, but excitement!

Tang Xiaolong also wanted to rush into the crowd and kill unscrupulously!

And at this moment, Tang Xiaolong suddenly saw the corpses that had been cut into pieces. Let's call those dark things corpses. They automatically glued together, and then new humans appeared in the original. Ground.

Then these newly-appearing people are thrown into the fight again, and the cycle continues.

"This....."

Tang Xiaolong suddenly stopped.

This is more terrifying than the zombies he has seen!

Although the vitality of those zombies is tenacious, they are definitely not like the guys Tang Xiaolong sees now!

"The Shura battlefield, is this the Shura battlefield?"

Tang Xiaolong suddenly lost interest in this place. He turned around and walked towards the cave. But as soon as he turned around, the fighting under his feet suddenly stopped. The dark people below stared at Tang Xiaolong in amazement, their faces filled Disappointment and fear.

"This... have they been waiting for me? Are they doing this kind of killing for me?" Tang Xiaolong suddenly fell into endless chaos.

Chapter 4364: : Garuda

"who am I?"

"I am Tang Xiaolong!"

"No, Tang Xiaolong is just a code name. You can call it Tang Xiaolong. Others can also be called Tang Xiaolong. Apart from the code name Tang Xiaolong, then who am I?"

"What do I have to do with this Shura battlefield?"

In the past, Tang Xiaolong was like a puppet without a soul. He followed Li Tian. Li Tian was his soul and Li Tian was his direction. He didn't have too many ideas. In his heart, Li Tian was the protagonist of this world. As for him, Tang Xiaolong only needs to play a supporting role.

As for Tang Xiaolong's past, present, and future, these are not topics that others care about, and even this is not a topic that Tang Xiaolong cares about.

But today, now, when Tang Xiaolong chose to enter Ashura's stone gate, all this began to change.

Tang Xiaolong discovered that he was also a person with a story!

At least in the eyes of the thousands of black monkeys at his feet, Tang Xiaolong is the protagonist of this world. These black monkeys are willing to be happy for Tang Xiaolong, willing to be sad for Tang Xiaolong, and willing to fight for Tang Xiaolong!

Did Tang Xiaolong have an epiphany?

No, he was just in chaos. The information came so suddenly that Tang Xiaolong had no time to think.

Tang Xiaolong stopped, turned and walked back to the boulder, then sat down on the boulder, and then the blade of the north-south wind cut his body and cheeks. Tang Xiaolong looked at the endless black monkeys and smiled for himself for the first time. Up!

Tang Xiaolong decided to stay here temporarily, he wanted to explain clearly the doubt in his heart.

This is an explanation for himself!

Everyone chooses a stone gate, then all the fortunes are their own.

Li Tian did not know what happened to Situ Ningbing, nor did he know what happened to Tang Xiaolong, now Li Tian can't take care of himself!

Li Tian didn't expect that after he pushed Jialouluo's stone gate and walked in, the stone gate behind it was not a cave, nor was it a flat ground, but a cliff!

Well, the Wanzhang Cliff is a completely polite description of this place. To be precise, Li Tian has been falling down, and the stone gate behind him disappeared without a trace during Li Tian's continuous fall. .

Li Tian is only a strong person at the first level. He has not learned the ability to fly against the sky. At the beginning of the fall, Li Tian seemed to use teleport to escape back to the underground palace, but Li Tian found that in this place, his teleport Turns out...it failed!

This is outside the Qingyun Temple, Li Tian's first teleportation can't be displayed.

In a hurry, Li Tian quickly summoned the mutant crow, and involuntarily stuffed the mutant crow under his feet, making the mutant crow an honor to be his stepping stone!

When the mutant crow appeared at Li Tian's feet and became Li Tian's mount, the mutant crow finally saw the situation in front of him clearly, and then the mutant crow turned his face and began to curse Li Tian with various vicious words.

There is no reason for the mutant crow not to curse Li Tian, because the mutant crow is the same as Li Tian, where they can see is completely empty, and there is no place to land.

Oh, it can't be said that it is completely empty, at least there is still air, there are clouds, and the stupid bird has been flying, and this stupid bird is dragging a more stupid guy on its back and looking around.

"Li Tian, you bastard, if we don't want us to die without a place to be buried, we should still return to the space of Void Yasha obediently, eat and wait for death!" The mutant crow cursed.

"If you dare to scold me again, do you believe that I will make soup and drink when I enter the space of Void Yasha?" Li Tian said rudely.

"I'm a bereavement, do you still have a bit of humanity? It has been so long since the end of the last days, and you don't want to turn me back into a human..." Mutant Crow said.

"Well, this is my mistake! But now the earth technology is not strong enough to extract the soul of your birdman into a human body. If you don't want to really become a bird, then be If someone uses a shotgun to shoot down and stew the soup, it is actually a good choice to be a mutant crow!" Li Tian said.

Of course what Li Tian said was the truth.

After the end of the apocalypse, the most effective method the earth world takes against all kinds of funerals is to kill

"Asshole, don't change the subject! What should we do now? Do you really want me to die for you?" The mutant crow originally wanted to die with one sentence, but later thought that this sentence might make Li Tian directly To silence him can only change this domineering sentence.

Standing on the back of the mutant crow, Li Tian looked up. He was so dazzling in the earth world, now he was blinded by both eyes.

What does this cat's Garuda mean?

Wouldn't it really let me Li Tian enter the space of Void Yasha, eat and wait for death, right?

At this moment, a gust of wind suddenly hit.

The wind force of this violent wind is definitely over twelve, giving Li Tian a kind of like being fanned by a banana. If it weren't for Li Tian on the mutant crow to use gravity to break the wind, Li Tian and the mutant crow might be directly The wind blows out of balance and flies out.

"Li Tian, look at it, a huge cloud suddenly flew over there? No... it doesn't seem to be a dark cloud, it seems to be a burning cloud!" said the mutant crow.

Without a word from the mutant crow to remind him, Li Tian had already seen a vast expanse of black clouds overwhelming the sky, which instantly blocked the sun, as if the whole world had become dark.

What surprised Li Tian was that this dark cloud seemed to be completely different from the dark cloud he had seen in the earth world. Although it was rolling, it was turning over the whole piece!

Moreover, as the mutant crow said, this dark cloud is actually burning!

Do not!

wrong!

Li Tian suddenly realized what!

"This is not a dark cloud, but Garuda!"

Li Tian suddenly thought of a Buddhist legend about Garuda.

According to the Lotus Sutra and other Buddhist scriptures, Garuda is one of the eight dragons that protect the Buddha. There are various majestic statues, a golden body, a first-born wishful bead, and a sorrowful sound. He devours one dragon king and 500 poisonous dragons every day. As the poisonous gas gathered in his body, Jialouluo finally couldn't eat. After flying up and down seven times, he flew to Jinganglun Mountain. The poisonous gas exploded, and his whole body burned, leaving only a pure blue glass heart.

Isn't the endless burning cloud in front of me the Garuda burning himself?

If that legend is true, then Garuda will be left with a pure blue glass heart after self-immolation. Although I don't know what this pure blue glass heart is, according to Hindu myths and legends, Garuda is the great  Vish. The slave's mount is a secondary god, and that pure blue glass heart is definitely not a simple thing!

"Mutated Crow, you must follow Garuda, even if you die, you have to follow me!" Li Tian said.

Chapter 4365: : Pure blue glass heart

The mutant crows are almost vomiting blood.

After hearing Li Tian's words, Mutant Crow knew that this might be the best chance in his life.

Dapeng gold-winged bird, that is the existence of the second  level.

Although the mutant crow had a chance in the underground palace before, he can now reach more than three meters in size, but compared to this real Dapeng Golden Winged bird, he is not even a chicken.

The mutant crow even felt blushing for the former known as the Dapeng Bird.

If you can get a little blood on this Dapeng Golden Winged bird, even if it is just a drop, it will be enough for the mutant crow to take a warm blood bath, and then let his plumage, bones and skin birds please change the gun, even if the mutant crow does not. The way is really to become a Dapeng gold-winged bird, but at least it is much more powerful than it is now, and it has to be more exciting!

Maybe, hehe, in the future, he can ride on Li Tian's head to do the best, and even urinate.

Haha, I feel a little excited thinking about it!

However, the mutant crow also knew the difficulties in front of him.

Even if the Roc garuda has started to spontaneously ignite all over its body now, its speed is greatly reduced, but that speed is just right. If it weren't for the size of the roc garuda, it's probably now that the mutant crow has already been thrown away. It's gone.

"Haha, mutant crow, come on! I finally know why we see the surroundings empty, because this is Garuda's site, in front of this giant garuda, we are too small." Li Tian said excitedly.

In fact, this is very easy to understand. When Li Tian and the mutant crow are flying in the air, the volume of any cloud is far more than tens of thousands of times their volume, and these clouds appear in different directions and different heights in the sky. Li Tian and the others could see the clouds.

At this time, the Dapeng Golden Winged bird was constantly flashing its wings, accelerating towards the direction of King Konglun Mountain, but in the eyes of Li Tian and the mutant crow, the flapping wings of the Dapeng Golden Winged bird were nothing more than the dark clouds. That's awesome.

After flying for about five or six minutes, the big basin of gold-winged bird suddenly wailed continuously, and the words are good for people to die. When the big-peng gold-winged bird was about to die, the wailing sound was full of unwillingness. , As if telling him that he was reluctant to leave this world.

However, in Li Tian's ears, the whining sound was like the sound of lightning from Nine Heavens, but the mutant crow could feel the feeling of a Dapeng gold-winged bird.

Soon, the Dapeng Golden Winged Bird began to fall.

The Dapeng Golden Winged Bird with black flames fell so fast, and in a flash, it was already on the heads of Li Tian and the mutant crow. Li Tian quickly took the mutant crow and hid in the space of the void Yaksha.

Li Tian didn't know how thick this Dapeng Golden Winged Bird was. He didn't dare to rush out of the space of the Void Yaksha. It took about five or six minutes before he took the mutant crow out of the space. Went out.

Above the head, the dark clouds of the roc raptor have disappeared, and beneath his feet, the endless raptor raptor is constantly falling. Li Tian let the mutant crow catch up, but always keep a certain distance to avoid the raptor The spontaneous flame on the body hit the fish pond.

Li Tian didn't know how high the sky was, or how long it took. Li Tian suddenly heard a loud noise from below, and countless black flames rushed up into the sky. It was just a moment, Li Tian looked at The cloudiness under my feet instantly vanished.

And the mutant crow and Li Tian are also inevitably shocked. If Li Tian took the mutant crow to hide in the space of the void Yasha again, perhaps the mutant crow might really be cooked by the black flame.

The moment he hid in the void of Yasha, Li Tian had seen an endless mountain at his feet, and the body of the Dapeng Golden Winged bird fell on the mountain, which seemed to be just the tip of an iceberg.

After about half an hour, Li Tian took the mutant crow and flew out from the space of Void Yasha.

Under my feet, the spontaneous flame of the Dapeng Golden-winged bird has not been extinguished, but it is far from the previous flame burning as high, so vigorous, and some black feathers that seem to be charred are constantly floating in the sky.

"Li Tian, my Dapeng Golden Winged Bird's blood! This has been burned to ashes, and it seems that my hope will also become despair!" The mutant crow said with a sad face.

"Second goods, don't you know that legend? After this Garuda burns clean, it will leave a pure blue glaze heart. This shows that this glaze heart is the most important and precious thing of the Dapeng Golden Winged Bird!" Li Tian said.

Although the mutant crow is clean, if there is such a thing, it is probably not his turn, but there is still some expectation in his heart.

As time flew by, Li Tian felt that the flame had been burning for at least three days and three nights. Except for the burning range of the flame, Li Tian couldn't see when the Dapeng Golden Wing Bird would finish burning.

Fortunately, Li Tian can do three things with one heart, even when waiting for the Dapeng Golden Winged Bird to spontaneously ignite, he can also practice, and even because of the empty Yaksha space, Li Tian can also hide in the space and drink some red wine to cultivate his sentiment. And morals!

About ten days and nights later, the spontaneous flames of the golden winged bird gradually extinguished, and there was less black area on the diamond wheel, but the golden winged bird was burned. clean.

In this dark area, even a shiny gem would be exceptionally dazzling, and the pure blue glass heart is the most dazzling gem.

Li Tian is excited!

The mutant crow is excited!

"Where! I didn't expect to be really pure Qingli heart! Haha, we have grown up!" Li Tian said excitedly.

The mutant crow brought Li Tian down continuously, and soon landed on the Diamond Wheel Mountain.

This Jinganglun Mountain is an endless bare mountain range, without any tourist conditions at all. Of course, Li Tian's attention at this time is all on the pure blue glass heart, who can care about this bare mountain!

Chunqing Liuli's heart fell into Li Tian's hands.

What Li Tian didn't expect was that, despite the huge figure of the Dapeng Golden Winged Bird, the pure blue glass heart left after it was burnt was not large, at most it was the size of a palm.

Starting with things, Li Tian could feel that there seemed to be two powerful energy fluctuations in this pure blue glass.

"Li Tian... Master Li Tian... This thing was obtained by the two of us desperately. Isn't this thing... supposed to be half of mine?" The mutant crow looked at the pure blue glass heart that had fallen into Li Tian's hands. Still can't wait to say.

Chapter 4366: : Crow Evolution

Li Tian turned a deaf ear to the words of the mutant crow, and now Li Tian felt the energy fluctuations in Chun Qing Liuli's heart.

This energy is completely different from the energy in Li Tian's spiritual source. Li Tian tried to absorb the energy in Chun Qing Liuli's heart, but after that energy entered Li Tian's body veins, it immediately started with the original spiritual power and black flames in Li Tian's veins. Pinching, completely out of Li Tian's control, finally escaped from the acupoints of Li Tian's veins, and was absorbed by Chun Qing Liuli Xin.

Li Tian was a little disappointed in his heart. He could only give the pure blue glaze heart to the mutant crow. As soon as the mutant crow's claws took over the pure blue glaze heart, a layer of cyan light and golden light flashed across the mutant crow's body.

The cyan light spread from the left foot of the mutant crow, instantly turning the left half of the mutant crow's body into cyan, and even the feathers on his body turned cyan.

The golden light spread from the right foot of the mutant crow, and in the blink of an eye, the right half of the mutant crow's body and feathers all turned golden.

The mutant crow was taken aback.

Well, it wasn't actually a shock, but the guy flapped his wings and flew, and his claws directly threw the pure Qingli Liuxin down.

Fortunately, Li Tian quickly grasped Chun Qing Liu Li Xin in his hands, otherwise Chun Qing Liu Li Xin would definitely be thrown on the ground, and the final result would be impossible to guess.

Although Chunqing Liuli's heart has been lost, a small part of the two energies in Chunqing Liuli's heart have entered the body of the mutant crow. The mutant crow screams and  its wings continuously, and the gray-black feathers on his body are constantly moving towards Drop down.

And as these gray-black feathers fell, the mutant crow's body continued to grow some cyan and gold feathers, but these cyan and gold were not pure colors. The cyan would be mixed with some black or gold. The golden feathers are also mixed with black and cyan.

At the same time, the body bones of the mutant crow are making a bean-like noise, and his figure has unknowingly increased several times.

If the mutant crow in the normal state before was the size of a turkey, and the state after the transformation can reach the size of a roc bird, the body of the mutant crow in the normal state now has reached his body shape after transformation.

The spread of wings has almost reached seven or eight meters!

Soon, a circle of golden feathers appeared on the head of the mutant crow, as if it were a golden crown, but his tail feathers were all blue.

Moreover, this cyan feather has grown several times invisibly. Judging from the current appearance of the mutant crow, it looks a bit better than before, but it gives Li Tian the feeling that this product has become like a pheasant. .

On the gray-black claws and beaks of the mutant crow, there are also a few more golden threads, which are much more noble than the pheasants.

This state lasted for about half an hour before the body of the mutant crow gradually changed to completion.

"Damn, fuck, let me go, you are going against the sky? You tell me how you did it? If it weren't for the transformation you completed right in front of you, I'm afraid I wouldn't even recognize it. Here comes you! Mutant Crow, I feel that you really have the potential to be a beast, and your potential to be a beast is so scary!" Li Tian asked.

The mutant crow gradually adapted to his new body and new feathers, looking down at the feathers on his wings.

Although this guy is still a birdman now, this new outfit is much more pleasing to the eye and noble than the previous gray and black feathers.

The mutant crow is in an extremely beautiful mood, ignoring the sarcasm in Li Tian's tone, spreading its wings and flying in various postures in the sky, soaring freely!

Li Tian knew that the mutant crow had even completed an evolution under the circumstances of a blunder, and Li Tian was also very happy.

After all, if you enter the Netherworld with the strength of the mutant crow in the past, it may not help Li Tian at all. After all, Li Tian can fly in the air as long as he reaches the second level of the Venerable, and there is less chance of using the mutant crow. a lot of.

Now that the mutant crow has completed an evolutionary transformation, maybe it has gone to the Netherworld, it can really give Li Tian some help.

But being ignored by this bird, Li Tian's face was somewhat embarrassed.

"Ahem... the * dare to ignore me, this pure Qingli Liuxin is in my hands now!" Li Tian said.

The mutant crow flew in midair for a while before it fell.

This product still wanted to fall on Li Tian's shoulder, but when he fell, he found that his body was already much larger than Li Tian, and it was no longer realistic to fall on Li Tian's shoulder.

"Li Tian, what about Chunqing Liulixin? Hey, that thing is really great, it's useless if you keep it, why don't you give it to me!" said the mutant crow.

"Fuck! Say good one and half, your half has been absorbed by you, and the rest is mine! Even if I am useless, I will grab a few birds at will and let them absorb a little bit of this pure blue glaze. I can make some money even if I take it out and do exhibitions in the earth world!" Li Tian said.

"Your sister, do you still have humanity..." The mutant crow didn't finish speaking, and immediately shut up, changing the subject and saying: "Hey, Li Tian, you said this is King Kong Wheel Mountain, this is the cemetery of Dapeng Golden Wing Bird , Will there be other pure Qingli Liuxin?"

Li Tian once had such thoughts. This person, one bird, and two eyes, immediately saw a trace of greed in the eyes of the other person, one person and one bird hit it off, and began to hunt for treasure on the King Kong Mountain.

But soon, Li Tian and mutant crow gave up.

How big is King Kong Mountain?

It was far beyond Li Tian's imagination. Li Tian on King Kong Mountain was like an ant on the peak. It was completely impossible to find other treasures.

It has been half a month since Li Tian and the mutant crow entered Garuda, and Li Tian has not found a way out yet, Li Tian can't help but feel a little anxious!

"If you come, you will be safe! Li Tian, your luck has always been good against the sky. Since we can't find a way out, why don't we take you out for a drive, let's take a look at the world together! Maybe we will find an exit?" The mutant crow said.

In the world behind Gandapo's Shimen, Situ Ningbing finally retrieved all her memories in the Netherworld.

However, the hallucinations continued.

Situ Ningbing saw the long-haired woman beheading thousands of domain masters, and the few remaining domain masters finally realized that they were not the opponents of this long-haired woman at all, and began to flee.

The long-haired woman did not rush to kill, she suddenly moved to Situ Ningbing's side, pointed at the spear in front of her and said: "This is called the Qiong Spear of the Sky. Take her away and take care of someone for me..."

The tone was cold, but Situ Ningbing couldn't have any doubts.

Situ Ningbing felt that her body was trembling, she wanted to refuse the domineering and unreasonable request of this long-haired woman, but she couldn't say anything.

The long-haired woman stretched out her right index finger and pointed it at the center of Situ Ningbing's eyebrows. Then a dazzling white light appeared in front of Situ Ningbing's eyes, which made Situ Ningbing unable to open his eyes at all, and could not see exactly what happened. What happened.

Soon, Situ Ningbing felt a heart-piercing pain in her eyebrows, as if part of her body had been pulled out of her body.

"My divine power is consumed too much, I can only make so many arrangements..."

"As long as you follow my plan..."

"Be nice to him for me..."

Chapter 4367: : King Asura

Situ Ningbing felt her body split in two.

One is Situ Ningbing, and the other is the female domain master.

Situ Ningbing was standing in front of the female domain master, but the female domain master seemed to be unable to see or feel her existence.

The female domain master suddenly woke up. When she saw the blood on the Ten Thousand Gods Mountain, the bodies of the domain master-level powerhouses were everywhere, the female domain master's expression suddenly became a little trance, and then the female domain master turned around and left. Wanshenshan.

Situ Ningbing shouted loudly, but her voice could not reach the female domain master's ears.

Only Situ Ningbing was left in the world.

Situ Ningbing felt that her body was gradually getting cold, and her heart was full of loneliness!

"leave here....."

"find him....."

"Take care of him for me..."

A voice repeatedly appeared in Situ Ningbing's mind.

"Is this fate?"

Situ Ningbing saw that her body was completely uncontrollable and reached out and grabbed the Qiong Spear of the Sky, and dragged the Qiong Spear of the Sky to the distance without turning back!

I don't know how long it has been, maybe a few years, maybe hundreds of years, or even thousands of years.

Situ Ningbing felt like she was a lonely wild ghost, looking for that person in the underworld.

By now, Situ Ningbing certainly knew that the person she was looking for was Li Tian. She wanted to tell herself to leave the Netherworld and go to the earth world, but this body was still beyond her control.

It wasn't until Situ Ningbing came to the gate of the forbidden zone of the nether world that he left the nether world through the gate of the forbidden zone.

Gradually, some strange information appeared in Situ Ningbing's mind.

But Situ Ningbing still looked like a ghost.

Mount Kirishima confines the small hot pot with the spear of heaven...

Under the sea, build an ancient city under the sea with the Ethereal Race...

To build a timeline on the Shiraito Island in Dongying Island Country...

Situ Ningbing seemed to be completing a grand task, constantly turning the strange information in his mind into miracles.

...

The information in Situ Ningbing's mind gradually dissipated, but she had not found the person she was looking for!

Situ Ningbing felt that she was tired, and she wanted to lie down and rest.

After Situ Ningbing lay down to rest, she saw her body gradually become transparent, gradually dissipated, and finally turned into a white mist.

In this white mist, it seemed that there was Situ Ningbing's divine sense, and it carried Situ Ningbing and scattered everywhere in the earth world.

Situ Ningbing knew that the white mist was looking for someone, and gradually the white mist began to drift away. The memory belonging to Situ Ningbing became more and more blurred and blurred...

Situ Ningbing cried!

She felt the consciousness in the white mist crying.

There are grievances, unwillingness, and anger.

This feeling is like planting flowers deliberately but not blooming, unintentionally planting willows and willows.

For tens of thousands of years, Situ Ningbing has been searching for Li Tian. In the end, Situ Ningbing lost the memory of her previous life, lost all the memories of the Netherworld, was reborn in the earth world, and became a cold assassin. At this time, she and Li Tian met.

"Everything is destined!"

Situ Ningbing knew that this fate was more or less suspected of being manipulated by that long-haired woman, but now Situ Ningbing's heart was full of happiness.

Before losing his memory, Situ Ningbing wanted to find Li Tian for the long-haired woman and take care of Li Tian, but now, Situ Ningbing's heart is all Li Tian.

Li Tian was found by Situ Ningbing himself, and Situ Ningbing had to take care of Li Tian.

"Li, do you know how long I have been looking for you?"

"Ten thousand years!"

"No matter how many women there are around me, I believe that in the entire world and the entire universe, only Situ Ningbing will look for you for so long!"

Thinking of this, the scene in front of Situ Ningbing's eyes suddenly changed. Situ Ningbing was still in Gandapo's cave, the surrounding mist still hadn't cleared, the elegant fragrance still surrounded Situ Ningbing's body, and the moving rhythm remained. It reverberated in Situ Ningbing's ear, but this illusion could no longer cover Situ Ningbing's heart.

Gradually the mist dissipated, those rhythms turned into thousands of plants, and the aromas turned into flowers on these plants.

These plants and flowers turned into clouds of smoke again, and were completely dissipated by the cold wind.

"This life is so long!"

Situ Ningbing wiped away the tears from the corners of his eyes, a satisfied smile appeared on the corners of his mouth, and turned and walked towards the stone gate of Gandapo Cave.

Tang Xiaolong sat quietly for three days. During these three days, he recalled most of his life and wanted to find a little bit of memory related to the Shura battlefield in front of him, but he could not find it.

Under the boulder, those humans who had almost imagined Tang Xiaolong were completely caught up in a carnival. They were killing them indifferently. It seemed that only this kind of killing could express their joy and their respect and love for Tang Xiaolong.

Tang Xiaolong decided to get down from the boulder, to be with the guys who were constantly killing, and asked them: "Who am I!"

Tang Xiaolong jumped, his body completely stretched out in mid-air, like a bungee jumping, allowing his body to fall freely and continuously.

Tang Xiaolong felt that his actions were extremely chic.

However, the guys who were fighting against each other under the boulder, saw Tang Xiaolong jump, everyone stopped, their eyes were full of surprise, they looked at Tang Xiaolong dumbfounded.

call!

call!

The cold wind blew in Tang Xiaolong's ears.

Then, Tang Xiaolong heard a sharp noise from the crowd.

This sound image is the command.

The bodies of these dark guys changed instantly, all the weapons and blades were retracted into their bodies, and then these guys rushed directly under the boulder like a tide.

Tang Xiaolong fell very fast, but those dark guys were able to reach Arhat faster.

Tang Xiaolong fell down, and those guys used their bodies to build a high tower of human flesh within a few seconds.

boom!

Tang Xiaolong's body fell on the high tower, and the high tower began to fall apart like building blocks. It kept falling down in circles, and some people even flew out directly.

Tang Xiaolong knew that under him, at least dozens of guys were smashed into meatloaf by his body, to be precise, steel-like meatloaf.

But it was these dark guys who used their bodies to form a human-shaped tower so that Tang Xiaolong would not suffer any harm when he jumped off the boulder!

Tang Xiaolong knew that these dark guys seemed immortal!

But Tang Xiaolong didn't know that these dark guys would be in pain.

But what if he can hold Tang Xiaolong up close, no matter how great the pain is.

The crowd gradually receded, Tang Xiaolong was placed on the ground steadily, and Tang Xiaolong saw a happy smile on each of these guys' faces.

This kind of smile is familiar to Tang Xiaolong, because every time he sees Li Tian, he will show this smile.

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong felt a little uncomfortable in his heart.

"You guys... why bother?" Tang Xiaolong said in a choked voice.

As soon as Tang Xiaolong made a sound, the whole world became quiet.

Everyone was looking at Tang Xiaolong, and then everyone stepped back and knelt before Tang Xiaolong.

Shouted loudly: "King Asura!"

Chapter 4368: : Time to go back

"King Asura?"

Throughout the ages, how many people want to become emperors.

For this reason, do not hesitate to rebel against each other, brothers cannibalize each other!

Lying on the knees of a drunk beauty, awakening the power of the world, this temptation is not something ordinary people can resist!

But what the * is King Asura?

Tang Xiaolong didn't think of being an Asura king!

It feels like you, who never thought about being a father, were suddenly told one day that you have children. Moreover, these children look dark and seem to have nothing to do with you.

Then these dark little guys ran over, hugged your thighs, and called you: "Dad, dad, where are we going?"

Can you be happy?

Tang Xiaolong froze in place.

This message is too exciting, Tang Xiaolong needs to stroke it.

"King Ashura! King Ashura!" Tang Xiaolong muttered to himself.

There are more than one Asura Kings in the Buddhist scriptures, among which are the four most famous Asura Kings, namely:

Po Ya, meaning Yong Jian, was the former army commander of Asura and Di Shitian;

Luo Qiantuo, which means roar like thunder, is also known as broad shoulders. Because of its broad shoulders, it can make the sea turbulent and roar like thunder;

Vimozhidara, meaning garland, has nine heads, each with a thousand eyes, nine hundred and ninety hands, eight legs, and spit fire in the mouth;

Luohu means to obstruct, because he can obstruct the light of the sun and the moon with his giant hand.

Every Asura king commanded thousands of Asuras, called the Asuras, or the Asura family members.

The Buddhist scriptures also say: Asura males are ugly, and asura females are beautiful.

Tang Xiaolong made a comparison. The thousands of asuras who had fallen on his knees were all men. Except for the fact that they were black and ugly, they seemed to be consistent with the Buddhist scriptures. There is no trace of contact.

For example, there is no Ashura woman here!

"King Asura!"

Thousands of people knelt down in front of Tang Xiaolong and continued to shout!

Tang Xiaolong hadn't figured it out yet, he just wanted to know what he had to do with this Shura battlefield, he still couldn't accept this name.

The king is not only status and rights, but also responsibilities and obligations!

Tang Xiaolong is not afraid of responsibility, but Tang Xiaolong knows that he is just following the little boss Li Tianlai to venture through the underground maze!

He doesn't want to stay here as the Asura King!

Tang Xiaolong picked up the guy closest to him and asked, "Where is this place? Why do you call me King Asura?"

The captured Asura male had an excited expression on his face, and said, "Go back to the king, this is the Asura illusion. Back then, the king led us to fight against the emperor..."

This guy is very excited, and his ability to tell stories is also very poor, probably because he hasn't spoken for too long.

Tang Xiaolong summed it up. It probably meant that the Asura King Tang Xiaolong in front of them led tens of millions of Asuras to conquer Emperor Shaotian. As a result, the Asura King in front of them, like Tang Xiaolong, was impulsive and seduced. Fall into a trap and stray into this illusion!

The Asura King in front of him wanted to bring these Asuras out of this illusion, but he didn't succeed.

If these asuras can die, maybe they have already been turned into ashes, and there will be no pain, but in this illusion, these asuras have immortality, even if they kill each other. death.

In the beginning, King Asura was not desperate. He insisted on letting the Asuras fight against each other, keeping the flame of hope in his heart.

King Asura believes that he can definitely take these tens of millions of Asuras out of the illusion and return to the Asura Realm. The thousands of Asuras who have dug up are also full of confidence in their king.

However, as time went by, over thousands of years, the Asura King and the Asuras gradually sent out that they thought the problem was too simple.

They can't go out or die, they can only live and suffer here.

This is the * of the Asuras!

Those Asuras gradually lost their confidence, and one fell to the ground like mud.

King Asura's heart was full of pain and self-blame. At this time, King Asura chose to escape and hid in the cave on the mountainside, thinking in retreat.

What happened later, this Asura man didn't know, and his story could only go to here.

The story was over, but Tang Xiaolong's doubts were not solved.

"Am I King Asura?" Tang Xiaolong asked, pointing to himself.

"Yes! Of all the Asura men, the King is the most handsome and the most powerful! You are the idol and dream lover in the hearts of all Asura women!" said the Asura man.

Ok!

Finally, he told the truth that Tang Xiaolong loved to hear.

Although Tang Xiaolong thought that he had undergone a lot of changes in his appearance after he had cultivated the tenfold body training. It can be said that he has gone further and further down the road of ugliness, but Tang Xiaolong has to admit that in these ugly asura men In front of him, Tang Xiaolong was absolutely handsome in a mess.

"My lord, we believe in you, you can definitely think of a way to get us out of this * Asura illusion, so... my lord, please cheer up!" The Asura man said with determination in his eyes.

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong finally understood why when he walked out of the cave, these guys would suddenly jump up and start killing each other frantically.

"It turns out... it turns out that they were trying to cheer me up! These guys, your hearts are obviously desperate, but...but..." Tang Xiaolong's heart was slightly moved.

Responsibility, obligation!

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong's heart could not help but an urge to take these guys out of the cave!

"You wait for me, I can definitely take you out of here!" Tang Xiaolong said suggestively with his eyes.

"We believe in the king! We believe in the king no matter what time it is!" the Asura men said firmly.

Tang Xiaolong stayed with these Asura men for ten days and ten nights. During these ten days and ten nights, Tang Xiaolong knew a lot about the Asura realm, and also a lot about him.

The doubt in Tang Xiaolong's heart has not been completely resolved, but Tang Xiaolong has already begun to accept that he is the new identity of King Asura!

He Tang Xiaolong is the King of Asura. There are tens of millions of Asura men in the Asura illusion, waiting for him to take them out of here. In the Asura State, there are tens of millions of asura women waiting for them to return .

Tang Xiaolong must leave here!

Behind this Ashura's stone gate, there is a little boss waiting for him!

Tang Xiaolong already knew that Li Tian was definitely not an ordinary person!

"As long as the little boss keeps getting stronger, my Tang Xiaolong and my Asura King can definitely take them back!"

Tang Xiaolong stood on the boulder again, and the Asura men at his feet began to fight each other again. This was the best gift they gave Tang Xiaolong.

"It's time to go back... We will definitely go back..." Tang Xiaolong turned and walked into the cave behind the Ashura stone gate!

Chapter 4369: : Jinnaruo's Long Song

When they came out of Ashura's stone gate, Situ Ningbing and Li Tian were already waiting for Tang Xiaolong. ,

Not long after Li Tian came out of Garuda, the golden-winged roc bird spontaneously ignited. After Li Tian obtained the pure blue glaze heart, Li Tian rode the mutant crow around in the sky of that world. The stone gate of Garuda appeared.

Li Tian didn't dare to continue staying in that world, so he walked out of the stone gate.

"Little...little boss, can you come into Ashura's stone gate with me again?" Tang Xiaolong said.

It is not a simple matter to bring many Asura people back. Tang Xiaolong's first thought was to use the space of Li Tian's Qiqiong Spear.

"Did something happen?" Li Tian asked.

Tang Xiaolong shook his head and said, "Little boss, I beg you once!"

Li Tian stretched out his hand and patted Tang Xiaolong on the shoulder, and said, "My brother, even if it is a sword mountain and a sea of flames, we must go through together. No matter what is behind the stone gate, Li Tian will go through with you! I don't have to say the word beg to me in the future!"

After speaking, Li Tian, Situ Ningbing and Tang Xiaolong pushed open the Ashura stone door again.

But after pushing open the stone gate, Tang Xiaolong found that the long cave behind the stone gate was gone, replaced by a huge mural.

The murals are densely painted with ugly asuras.

This mural is written with a few large characters of Shura Hell, and the characters on the mural are vivid. Standing in front of this mural, you will feel like you are on the scene.

You can see clearly their skin, their pores.

However, since it is called the Shura Hell Picture, this picture does not have a bird's voice.

On the mural, these Shura people were fighting each other, and Li Tian felt surprised that on these Shura's faces, Li Tian had no hatred or pain, but a smile on his face.

Extremely weird.

"Really exquisite murals, Xiaolong, do you want to take these murals back? If there is no responsive science and technology to maintain these murals, these murals will be quickly oxidized and destroyed when they are brought out of the underground maze." Li Tian said.

Tang Xiaolong's face was full of shock.

When I entered the stone gate of Asura just now, it was clearly a cave, and I had to go through the cave to see the Asura illusion, but why did it become a mural when I entered and exited?

Could it be that I have hallucinations?

Tang Xiaolong shook his head and told Li Tian what happened after he entered the Ashura Stone Gate just now.

After listening to Tang Xiaolong's words, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing were full of shock.

Tang Xiaolong turned out to be King Asura?

If Tang Xiaolong's words were told to others, others would think that Tang Xiaolong had a problem with his head, and they might even take Tang Xiaolong to a mental hospital.

But Li Tian and others who have not experienced a few things that are difficult to explain by the current science and technology of the earth world, they firmly believe in what Tang Xiaolong said.

Li Tian felt that he was awesome, and even faintly Li Tian felt that he was the pig's feet in this world. He should have an important mission. But what Li Tian didn't expect was that Situ Ningbing was also very awesome. The predecessor of the female domain master, and now, Li Tian feels that he and Situ Ningbing are really weak compared to Tang Xiaolong.

King Asura!

Haha, Li Tian has such an awesome little brother.

Li Tian put away the joy in his heart, making his expression look more solemn, and said to Tang Xiaolong: "Xiaolong, you are King Asura, they are all waiting for you to take them home, this matter I can't help you, I believe you don't want me to help you! Be stronger with me, and then take them home!"

Tang Xiaolong nodded slightly!

Coming out of Ashura's stone gate, Li Tian, Situ Ningbing and Tang Xiaolong came to Jinnaruo's stone gate.

Kinnaruo: God of Song, a subordinate of Emperor Shi, who resembles a person but has a big head. According to Ramayana, it is the head of the human body, or the head of the horse body, or the head of the human body and the bird.

Jinnaruo's stone gate is carved with a human figure, Jinnaruo, but this Kinnaruo is holding a musical instrument in his arms, which looks somewhat similar to the ancient Chinese pipa.

Pushing Shimen, Li Tian, Situ Ningbing and Tang Xiaolong walked in.

...

Kinnaro!

A white light flashed in front of Li Tian's eyes. After a while, Li Tian gradually adjusted to the light in front of him!

There is milky white light everywhere here, holy white light!

In the distance, on a small hill a few hundred meters away, a big milky white tree stood upright with luxuriant branches. Thousands of birds were standing on the branches. Under the tree, there were various magical animals that Li Tian and others had never seen before. Sitting around the rock is a beautiful...Jinnaruo.

This is a snake with the head of Naluo, just look at the head, you will marvel at the beauty of this snake monster!

Even more beautiful than the legendary White Lady!

Holding the harp tightly in Na Luo's arms, his slender fingers slowly plucked the harp, and the beautiful sound of the piano sounded!

The melodious singing sounded, Jinnaruo's singing is not the tradition of the earth world, popular, bel canto, nor popular song, but the singing is beautiful and the tune is melodious!

Li Tian and others climbed the hillside and stood in front of Jinnaruo!

Whether it was the bird on the tree or the beast under the tree, they ignored the existence of Li Tian and others, closed their eyes and lowered their heads to listen to the song seriously.

Jinnaruo naturally saw the appearance of Li Tian and others, but she did not stop the music she was playing, nor the song she was singing.

"Li, listen to the lyrics!" Situ Ningbing said!

Li Tian first thought that Situ Ningbing was afraid that he would be confused by Jinnaruo's beauty, but when he started listening to the song seriously, he was immediately attracted by the song!

Singing is not the point, the point is the lyrics!

This is a long song similar to the Tibetan King Gesar of the Earth World. The lyrics tell a story of revenge. The story is mixed with love, revenge, adventure, and pretending to be a face!

Li Tian was completely stuck as soon as he heard it.

Just like the Internet before the end of the world, you can't stop it!

This long song has a magnificent structure, a voluminous volume, and rich content. In fact, it is fat and fat. It fully shows the heroism and tenderness of the protagonist in the story. More importantly, the content of this long song is interlocking, even if it is a long song No matter how long the lyrics are, you will not fight back to be impatient.

Kinnaluo is worthy of being the imperial song * of Emperor Shitian. Through the long song performed by Kinnaluo, Li Tian and others are completely plunged into this long song story!

Li Tian just listened as a story, and didn't pay too much attention.

When telling that the home of the heroine in the long song was destroyed and the heroine traveled through time and space to return to the place where she was born, Li Tian's ears stood up involuntarily.

However, the strong men in the place where the heroine was born did not open their arms to welcome her back. Instead, they united countless strong men to kill the heroine. In a rage, the heroine beheaded thousands of besieged. Her strong.

Upon hearing this story, Li Tian's eyes were already shocked.

"Yes... it's her! It turned out to be her!"

Chapter 4370: :Out

Situ Ningbing's eyes flickered. Like Li Tian, she also heard who the heroine was!

Jinnaruo's long song continued, and the lyrics part of the following long song was somewhat similar to what Situ Ningbing saw when he was in the illusion. Soon, the long song was tuned and turned to the battlefield of death!

The perspective of this long song is the long-haired woman, telling the various arrangements of the long-haired woman in the death battlefield, including the construction of the Qingyun Temple, including using her divine power to open the passage of the death battlefield to the earth world.

Li Tian's heart became more tense, and if he continued singing, Li Tian might be able to hear his appearance with Situ Ningbing, Tang Xiaolong and others, and he could also know his relationship with the long-haired woman.

But at this moment, Jinnaruo's harp string broke with a bang!

The sound was so harsh that thousands of birds on the tree were startled and flew up suddenly, and the beasts holding around Nara's body began to flee in panic.

Jinnaruo stood up, and the big tree behind her was blown by the wind, and instantly turned into crumbly white light, floating in the wind. And Jinnaruo's body also began to appear a hollow from the position of the heart, and disappeared completely after a few seconds.

The white light in front of him disappeared and gradually turned black. After a few seconds, Li Tian gradually adjusted to the darkness in front of him.

Here is a cave that has not been fully excavated. The cave is not deep, but five meters, the cave is not high, but two meters, the white light is dissipated, it turns out that Li Tian and others did not go too deep, and there is a dark cave wall in front of them. , Behind him is Jinnaruo's Shimen.

It looked like an illusion, but it was not an illusion, as if Kinnaruo had never appeared before.

"Let's go out!" Li Tian said.

Li Tian, Situ Ningbing, and Tang Xiaolong came out of Jinnaruo's stone gate.

Now in this underground palace, only the stone gate of Mohulaka has not yet entered. The four stone gates in front of Gandapo, Asura, Jialulu and Jinnaruo, only Jialulu Litian and Mutant Crow have gained something. , Get a pure blue glaze heart, the other three stone gates all get some identity-related information.

This is much smaller than Li Tian's previous visit to the underground palace.

That time, Li Tian got the water bead, Situ Ningbing got the butcher knife but the god, and Li Tian also got three powerful Xiaoyasha.

"Little boss, shall we go in?"

Mahuragya: The * who owns snakes in Buddhist legends is the big mang snake god, the head of the human body snake, also known as the earth dragon, is one of the eight dragons of the Buddhist gods.

A statue with a snake head and a snake tail is carved on the stone gate of Mahuraga.

This Mahuraja looks like a large snake that took a human body from the seven-inch position. It only had two more arms for no reason. At this time, the two arms held a steel spear tightly. There was a chill in his pupils, giving people a shuddering feeling.

The last stone gate among the eight heavenly dragons in the underground palace, I don't know what it will be until Li Tian and others are waiting.

The three of them looked at each other, then stretched out their hands and pushed open the stone gate and entered the Mahulaka stone gate.

...

Beitang, Wangta Temple.

It has been more than a month since Li Tian and others entered Wangta Temple, and the raging fire has settled down near Wangta Temple, waiting for Li Tian and others to come out of Wangta Temple every day.

Agni had also wanted to enter Wangta Temple to find Li Tian and others, but after thinking about it, he gave up this idea.

Li Tian is now a lofty figure. SLRs are big people and have big ideas. Since they didn't find Beitang City Lord Agni when they came to Beitang, it means that they might not want Agni to know something.

As far as Agni Huo is concerned, since Li Tian and others entered Wangta Temple, there have been no missing persons in the vicinity. This is enough!

"Master Agni, there have been no missing persons incident for more than a month. Is this...could this be the credit of several adults?" Agni's assistant looked at the Buddha Pagoda in Wangta Temple and said.

The corners of Li Huo's mouth twitched slightly, and he said disdainfully, "Isn't this nonsense? They are Master Li Tian and Master Tang Xiaolong, do you know the Three Corpses?"

"Ten years ago, the end of the earth was due to the three corpses. The three corpses had almost ruled the entire earth world, but Lord Li Tian suddenly appeared and grew into the most powerful man on the earth in just one year. The corpses are all dead in the hands of Master Li Tian!"

"What do you say can be more powerful than the Three Corpses, how could it be the opponents of Master Li Tian and Master Tang Xiaolong! Don't worry, don't you see me living here in Wangta Temple?"

"That is, although I didn't meet Master Li Tian with my own eyes at the beginning, my admiration for Master Li Tian can be as unstoppable as the surging river, and like the Yellow River overflowing out of control!" Assistant Agnes said.

Li Huo smiled very happily. This flattery was not worn. Although this flattery was taken by Li Tian, as a person of the Celestial Realm, praise Li Tian is equivalent to praise him.

"My lord, recently the people in Beitang know that you are stationed at Wangta Temple personally, the Lord of the Fire City, to slay demons and demons. The residents of Beitang are so moved that even the TV station wants to do an exclusive interview for adults... "

"The TV interview is unnecessary. After all, the credit is for Master Li Tian and Master Tang Xiaolong. If I can be fortunate to give them an interview and mention my name by the way, I will be satisfied!"

"By the way, don't announce that the danger is relieved for the time being. We have to wait until Master Li Tian and Master Tang Xiaolong come out of this Wangta Temple, and make an announcement after confirmation! At that time, we can reduce or exempt taxes appropriately in the Watchta area and strive for an early date. Let the watchtower area return to normal!" Agni said.

Assistant Agni immediately recorded the words of Agni in his notebook.

"Time is fast," said the fire.

Assistant Agni immediately agreed: "It is true, especially in the past few months, the whole world has changed very fast."

"Take the global news from this morning, China and the Dongying Island Country have jointly announced their merger. Although the Dongying Island Country will temporarily be included in China's territory as a subsidiary of China and will implement autonomy for five years, everyone knows this Dongying Island Country. It's already part of Huaxia!"

"Actually, this is inevitable. The highest authority of China is now Lord Mu Yunlong, the grandfather of Lord Li Tian, and the highest authority of Dongying Island is Her Majesty Queen Duanmuying, and Duanmuying is Li Tian's fiancée. Of course, the family will not be divided into two!" Agni said.

"After all, Mr. Mu Yunlong is very old, do you say that in the future China will be led by Mr. Li Tian? If so, we will definitely usher in new development..."

Li Huo hadn't finished speaking yet, suddenly a soldier stumbled over and said to the fire as he ran: "Big...sir, Li Tian and the others... they came out, but Li Tian was seriously injured..."
