

A Killer 4391

Chapter 4391: : Incident of missing persons in mines (3)

The battle ended without suspense, Li Tianzhuang forced success!

Li Tian sent several skin bags into the space of the Void Yasha, the Four Mountains Venerable and Meng Guang also into the space of the Qiong Spear of the sky, and cleaned up the traces of the battle in the mine, and then waited with Tang Xiaolong. People pretend to be nonchalant and continue mining.

"One, two, three, four, five, mining is very hard, I dig a pile of sand, others dig spiritual soil..."

Ten minutes ago, in Chen Peng's dilapidated straw shed, Chen Peng sat cross-legged on the ground, closing his eyes and practicing.

But today his heartbeat is so fierce that he can't concentrate on practicing anyway!

More than a dozen team leaders, including Hei Dazou, did not supervise the mining of other miners in the mine today. They all sat cross-legged around the grass shed.

Everyone didn't speak, they were all listening to the situation in the mine of the black team.

It was quiet. There was no sound in the mine except for the slight clanging of mining.

"How long have they been in?" Chen Peng asked without pretending to be forced, opening his eyes.

"Just go in!" said Big Brother Hei.

Chen Peng nodded slightly, glanced across the face of the dozen or so team leaders, and then said with a distressed look: "You know, I Chen Peng has always been the one who protects the calf! As long as I am Chen Peng's. Brother, then I, Chen Peng, will protect my brother even if I sacrifice my life."

"But Li Tian is different. First, he has been here for a short period of time, but he has not yet received my approval in more than ten days! Second, let Li Tian rely on himself to have a noble brother, and dare not see People, forcibly taking the position of captain of Brother Hei Dazuo, he is quite disrespectful to me!"

"I can tolerate all of these. Who told him to be a member of my Chen Peng team? But he should never provoke Captain Gao Liang. For a few old miners who are about to lose their teeth, even his own His life is gone, this is his own death, no wonder others!"

"Of course, I also feel quite regretful. This Li Tian is already a ninth-level master of cultivators, and his brother Tang Xiaolong is a master of the first level. For our brigade, these two guys are still quite important. The two combat powers, especially when there is a conflict between the brigade!"

"But, it's not the right time! You all know that I'm just taking care of things on my behalf. I'm not in the real sense, and I'm not the captain. I might provoke Gao Liang for Li Tian and Li Tian and drag all my brothers into the fire pit. !"

"Brother Peng is right!"

"We cannot put our entire brigade in danger just because he is an outsider!"

"Yes..."

After saying these words, the scene was deserted for a few seconds.

Everyone is a human being. The team leaders in this mine have been alive for at least decades. They also know what kind of person Chen Peng is and what kind of environment the mine is like. Just believe in Chen Peng and become Chen Peng's loyal servant, let alone offend Chen Peng and Gao Liang because of Li Tian, an outsider.

Chen Peng was also a little embarrassed.

Even if he talked about the matter in a high-sounding voice, after all, Gao Liang was the one who sent someone to his mine to clean up him. Of course, this matter was also hitting Chen Peng in the face.

But Chen Peng didn't want to provoke Gao Liang.

Suddenly, several powerful energy fluctuations came from the mine.

"It's started!" Hei Daru said subconsciously.

Chen Peng's expression also became difficult to look at, but soon he became natural again and said, "Take a warning!"

"Hei Dazuo, Li Tian is from our mine after all. Don't throw his body out of the mine to feed the Nether Sand Wolf, dig a hole in the mine and bury it. As for Li Tian's brother Tang Xiaolong, if he is not dead yet, let's be a helper for your brothers in the future!" Chen Peng said.

"Then... what about those old miners?" asked the younger brother Heidachu.

"Those old miners let them live for another month first, and when they go to Tucheng next month, let them fend for themselves!" Chen Peng accepted.

This is also the law of nature.

As these old monks grow older, their cultivation strength does not necessarily increase, and their ability to mine divine earth ore gradually declines, but the mining tasks that are pressed on these old miners will not decrease, so these old miners want it is very difficult to complete their own mining tasks, let alone hand it over to the team leader and his manager.

If the number of these old miners is small, it is fine, but if the number of these old miners is large, it will affect the mining tasks of the entire brigade.

Within a few minutes, the energy fluctuations in the mine stopped.

Although everyone had guessed the result, all the team leaders still poked their heads to take a look at the mine.

"If you want to see it, go in and have a look! Don't tell me what happens. I'm suddenly a little tired now. I'm about to start practicing!" Chen Peng said and closed his eyes again.

Hei Dacu rushed to the mine non-stop with a dozen team leaders. Before they reached the location of Li Tian, they heard the sparse clanging sounds of mining.

"What's the matter? Are there any team leaders who are still interested in digging some spiritual ground for us after killing people?" These team leaders wondered heartily.

When they walked quickly to the mine where Li Tian was located, they saw Li Tian, Tang Xiaolong, and the four old fellow miners digging one after another.

"This... how is this possible?"

"Where are the captains? Did they go to the wrong mine and kill the wrong person?"

"impossible....."

"Could it be that the four venerables that Li Tian summoned him to kill all those small captains? But this is also impossible! Those small captains have two strong second-level venerables!"

"Besides, there doesn't seem to be any traces of fighting here!" Brother Hei Dachu scratched his head and couldn't understand.

Seeing that Li Tian and the others are okay, the brother Hei Dachu can't wait to say: "Li Tian, have you seen Gao Liang's team leader in charge of them? There are seven people in total!"

Li Tian's face immediately showed a trace of horror, he jumped up from the ground and said to Hei Dazu: "He... are they here? Brother Hei Dazu, you must take me to see Chen Peng Brother, let me beg him to save us, we are his subordinates, he can't die without saving!"

Li Tian's acting skills leveraged, and he acted a man's fear of death to life.

This **** brother and many small captains actually believed in Li Tian.

"That's weird, where did those small captains go? It's always missing, right?" these small captains thought.

Chapter 4392: : Incident of missing persons in the mine (4)

Chen Peng could hardly believe his ears when he heard the disappearance of the pit population reported by Hei Dachu. .

"What? You said that all the captains sent by Gao Liang are missing? This...how is this possible?" Chen Peng said.

"I just disappeared. Our brother and the other team leaders saw it with their own eyes!" said Big Brother Hei.

"What do you mean? Did you see them disappearing with your own eyes?" Chen Peng said.

"No...no, when we entered the mine, we saw Li Tian was digging with a few old guys. There was no trace of fighting in the mine. Brother Peng, you said those Gao Liang's people are not missing. What?" Brother Hei Dazu hurriedly explained.

wrong!

For thousands of years in this mine, some people will always disappear out of thin air, but as an agent, Chen Peng knows that these disappearances are almost all because they offended some people, were beheaded, and then stuffed into a mine to bury them. Woke up.

If Li Tian, Tang Xiaolong and those old guys were beheaded by Gao Liang's team leaders today, Chen Peng would probably also report the missing persons to the two skeleton tribe's great gods, but Chen Peng would wait a month before the miners. After going to Tucheng, report missing again.

But now it is not Li Tian and others who are missing, but the team leaders of Gao Liang.

"Seven venerables, among them are two strong veterans in the early second stage. Could it be said that Li Tian has the ability to kill them and silently let these people disappear?"

At this moment, Li Tian came to Chen Peng with a half-skinned spiritual soil.

Li Tian directly placed the half-skinned spiritual soil in Chen Peng's straw shed, and said to Chen Peng who was closing his eyes and making a fake decoration: "I won't say anything else. Thank you, Brother Peng! I will definitely bring mine in the future. People dig well!"

Chen Peng did not open his eyes, nor did he bother to look at the spiritual soil in Li Tian's skin.

"Huh! What's the use of saying these words now? If you came to me a few days ago, maybe..."

Chen Peng hadn't finished speaking, and this guy quickly smelled a hint of danger.

"What does Li Tian mean when he speaks? Why does he want to thank me? Could it be...could it be..."

Thinking of this, Chen Peng immediately became a little uneasy!

"No, I have to give Gao Liang an explanation, otherwise..., no, I can't explain to Gao Liang, otherwise it will really become a place without silver three hundred taels!" Chen Peng fell into a dilemma for a while.

Chen Peng quickly called all the team leaders together.

"Which of you have seen Gao Liang's seven team leaders enter our mine?" Chen Peng asked.

These team leaders didn't know what medicine Chen Peng's gourd sold, and looked at each other and didn't know how to answer Chen Peng's question.

Brother Hei Dazu rolled his eyes and whispered to Chen Peng, "Brother Peng, we haven't seen Gao Liang's team leader. How do we know how many team leaders they have?"

Chen Peng immediately showed a gratified expression on his face, and said to these team leaders: "You all remember that everything is normal in our mine today. No team leader or team leader from any other mine has come to our mine, understand? "

Now these team leaders finally understood what Chen Peng meant!

"Understood! I have been supervising the work today! Those old fritter miners have been lazy again recently, no, I must go back now, or the mission this month will be dangerous again!"

"I have a stomach full of toothache today, oh, now it's starting to hurt again, I have to go back to sleep!"

"I....."

Gao Liang was waiting for his seven team captains to return.

This named squad leader can be said to be a relatively sophisticated cadre under Gao Liang, especially the two early second-level squad leaders of the Venerable. Among all the squad leaders in the mine, not many can vote for this strength!

Gao Liang thought of Li Tian again. When he thought of Li Tian, Gao Liang felt a fiery pain on his face.

"Damn it, this is the end of offending me! After today, as long as today, there will be no more your name and your figure in the Laika Desert in the future!" Gao Liang said with some pride.

Thinking of this, Gao Liang couldn't help humming a little tune.

Gao Liang is now the leader of the squadron. In his mine, there is a cave covering an area of more than 50 square meters, which was dug out in sand with excavation tools.

Gao Liang is a person who knows how to enjoy. The cave of this mine is divided into two parts deliberately by him. In the front part, there are a few stone tables and a few rows of stone benches. On weekdays, he tells the lagging leaders. At the time, it was carried out in this area.

Behind this area is a stone wall. The stone gate was cut open by someone. After opening the rag curtain is Gao Liang's practice site. At this time, the ground is covered with soft yellow sand and another layer of yellow sand. Thatch, Gao Liang lay on the thatch, holding a pot of water and wine, drinking with relish.

Unknowingly, more than an hour has passed, and the team leaders have not yet returned.

"These **** must have gone with Chen Peng's team captains again. Damn it, didn't Lao Tzu teach them how to deal with business matters? Come back this time and see how Lao Tzu cleans up you!"

"Forget it, they can be regarded as going out for me to do errands, since that's the case, let them indulge once! Only this time, not as an example!" Gao Liang imagined his expression of teaching the **** team leaders, thinking of this he couldn't help but smile.

A pot of water wine was drunk by Gao Liang, and Gao Liang couldn't help but pour the bottle up and drip the last two drops of water wine on his lips, which was satisfied.

Often working underground here, the biological clocks in these guys like Gao Liang allow them to accurately determine when it should be until now.

"Asshole, I haven't come back yet, do you really think I won't be angry?"

Gao Liang immediately called a team leader and asked the team leader to go to Chen Peng's mine to call the other team leaders back to him.

The team leader knew that Gao Liang was worried about the news there, and immediately walked towards Chen Peng's mine after taking the order.

But the team leader went quickly and returned quickly.

"What's the matter? Didn't I ask you to call someone? Are they **** reluctant to come back? If they are reluctant to come back, they will never **** come back!" Gao Liang said angrily.

"Team... Captain, Chen Peng said that our team leader has never been to their mine, nor has he seen them!" said the team leader.

"Chen Peng, what **** is he talking about? Isn't this the date that I have agreed with him?" Gao Liang said dissatisfiedly.

"Captain, Captain Chen Peng seems to be very angry. He said that he had made an appointment with you today. He had arranged everything, but he did not see our team leader. He also said that if he does not come today, he will not send in the future. People are coming, and his face is not casually used to hit!" the team leader said.

"This bastard! Now you bring a few more people to me and look for them in the mines of the nearby brigade. If you let me find these bastards, I won't peel them off!" Gao Liang said.

Chapter 4393: : Incident of missing persons in mines (5)

Ko Liang was hurt!

It has been three days, and there is still no news from those team leaders. ...,

The captains of several nearby mines looked at Gao Liang's eyes all wrong.

Gao Liang knew that they probably already knew the disappearance of these small captains.

Gao Liang felt that his face became more swollen this time!

Gao Liang wanted to ask Chen Peng and Li Tian personally, so that these two **** could speak clearly in person.

But at this time, the two great guardians of the Skeleton Race suddenly spoke to make all the captains converge a little, otherwise, don't blame them for being rude.

Gao Liang sent someone to investigate Chen Peng secretly. The result of the investigation said: Li Tian sent Chen Peng a half-skinned earth on the day the team leaders disappeared, and also said some words of thanks. The next day, Li Tianyou gave Chen Peng two bottles of divine wine. The fragrance of the wine was much more fragrant than the so-called divine wine in the Netherworld. That day, all the mines under Chen Peng's jurisdiction could smell the wine. On the third day, today, Li Tian gave Chen Peng three more spiritual sources.

"Chen Peng accepted all?" Gao Liang asked.

"Yes! Chen Peng also said that he had never drunk such good wine before, saying that all the wine he drank before was horse urine, and that he was going to invite other stewards and old men when he went to Tucheng to send spiritual soil this month. The lame drink together!"

"He didn't say to invite me?" Gao Liang asked.

"No... I haven't heard of it!"

"This bastard, I know that I want to make those multi-Venerable powerhouses disappear out of thin air. Without the strength of the Venerable's third-level peak and the early-stage Venerable's fourth-level strength, I am afraid it will be difficult to achieve. !"

...

After several sugar-coated shells by Li Tian, Chen Peng knew that he was completely framed by Li Tian, but he could not show evidence that Li Tian framed him, nor could he show evidence that Gao Liang's team leader disappeared from Li Tian. .

Chen Peng was helpless.

Fortunately, this guy Li Tian is like a treasure chest. From time to time, he will come up with some good things to honor Chen Peng. This made Chen Peng the first time he felt that being a captain was such a nourishing thing.

Especially after tasting the Niulanshan Erguotou divine wine delivered by Li Tian, Chen Peng felt that the so-called divine wine he had drunk over the years was really horse urine.

Li Tian's small movements also made Chen Peng's eyes suddenly shine.

In the past, Chen Peng also thought about going into the upper-level relationship, and wanted to remove the first two words as soon as possible, but he was poor, and he really couldn't get anything good.

Not to mention spiritual soil, although spiritual soil is scarce, as long as you are willing to dig hard, you will always be able to dig out more every month, and that spiritual soil can be exchanged in Tucheng, which is also a task in this Laika mine. And elements.

But now it's different, Chen Peng suddenly transformed into a big tyrant in the mine of the Lycra Desert.

Chen Peng loved Li Tian's Niulanshan Erguotou divine wine and those spiritual sources. Chen Peng felt that he was not too long before he became a formal steward.

Chen Peng first gave a bottle of wine to the two skeletons.

These two guys can control the distribution of miners. If you offend these two guys, then all you can get is the old, weak, sick, pregnant and child-carrying miners... Uh, well, both Some incompetent miners.

No pregnant women, no miners holding babies!

The two Skull Race guys were disdainful of Chen Peng's wine performance at first. Even if Chen Peng opened the bottle, the two guys couldn't smell the wine, and naturally Chen Peng didn't look good.

But when Chen Peng dropped a drop of wine on the bones of the skeleton guy, the skeleton's eyes... Uh, the two skeletons without eyes were straight, holding the bottle without letting go, holding one. Withered grass, you drop by drop and I drop wine on each other's mouth and gums.

The picture is really beautiful.

When Chen Peng told them that there was only one bottle of this sacred wine, the two guys had their eyes straight when they saw the bottle that had been dropped by them by accident!

"Asshole, why didn't you say it earlier!"

"But you did a good job, and we will take care of you in the future. If anyone dares to trouble you, you can hold our name and see if we don't beat him to death! But if you can exchange this kind of wine in the future, you must give it. Leave it to us!"

...

Li Tian's position in the mine was virtually elevated.

The captains of Chen Peng Mine, they saw Gao Liang's captain walk into Li Tian's mine, and then disappeared strangely. From then on, these team leaders are respectful and respectful to Li Tian, they will not dare to speak loudly to Li Tian, and they will be polite to Li Tian.

The two Hei Dachu brothers knelt in front of Li Tian, smoking their mouths, begging for Li Tian's forgiveness, and voluntarily asked the team leader to give Li Tian the position.

But Li Tian refused.

"Hei Dacu, I said that you don't want things that are not mine, but you don't want them. Even if you want them, you can't take them away!" Li Tian said.

"Yes, yes, yes! Brother Tian, you are right!" Brother Hei Dazu said.

"Is Captain Chen Peng satisfied with the wine I sent over?" Li Tian asked.

"That's quite satisfying, Brother Tian, don't you know that Brother Peng has praised you many times in private, and he secretly asked me to ask you, which wines can I trade for? How much spiritual soil?" Hei Big thick brother said.

Li Tian smiled coquettishly. With Chen Peng here to shelter him from the wind and rain, Li Tian can carry out his own small actions.

However, you have to eat one bite at a time. If you eat too fast, you may choke. You have to walk step by step. If you step too far, you can easily choke.

Li Tianyu said earnestly: "Hei Dazuo, my wine is limited in quantity. Do you say that my wine should be exchanged for our brothers in the mine, or should all the mine brothers of Chen Peng's brigade change it? "

"We can't eat alone, of course we have to get the mines of the brigade to exchange them!"

"You are right, how about we adopt a bidding model? For example, I divide this bottle of wine into dozens of glasses, and then whoever pays the higher price can drink a glass of fine wine. If the price is low, Then there is no alcohol to drink! Of course, you can also pack and exchange the whole bottle, what do you think?" Li Tian said.

"Brother, let's start to change in our mine, or just like what you said, the steps are too big and easy to pull the eggs, if this wine is taken out, it will basically not be our brother. What's the matter!" said Big Brother Hei.

After Hei Dazu secretly reported that he could use spiritual soil to exchange sacred wine and drink here, Li Tian's mine went crazy.

These guys smelled the tempting aroma of wine a few days ago, and they felt as if there were worms crawling in their hearts. Now which guys immediately turned out the spiritual soil they had hidden in the mine, one after another. Use it to exchange drinks with Li Tian.

Li Tian did not expect that these unremarkable guys are actually local tyrants, one by one hidden, and Li Tian's Niulanshan Erguotou began to be popular in the mine, and accordingly the spiritual soil hidden in the mine was also destroyed. Li Tian swept away.

After drinking the Niulanshan Divine Wine, some miners were in pain, and secretly confessed that they should listen to Li Tian's advice and shouldn't take the money to exchange horse urine.

Happy days are always fast, and in an instant it is the day to go to Tucheng.

Chapter 4394: : The corpse is coming (1)

After a long journey, hundreds of miners fell under the siege of the Nether Sand Wolf.

The blood penetrated the yellow sand, sitting in the Tucheng, Li Tianneng smelled a ***** smell in the wind blowing from the northwest.

Until now, Li Tian knew that when the old lame took him and Tang Xiaolong to the mine, he smelled this ***** smell to find the mine!

The sand dunes in the desert can walk and move continuously with the wind, but after thousands of years of blood soaking on this road, no matter how the sand dunes walk, the ***** smell of the underground is not clear.

This time he entered Tucheng, Li Tian was still the focus of everyone's eyes, because this time Li Tian was invited by Chen Peng to live in the Tuwu.

Although Li Tian felt that this earthen house was not necessarily better than the open-air flat beach, Li Tian knew that this earthen house was a symbol of status. The fact that Li Tianneng entered the earthen house meant that Chen Peng regarded Li Tian as his confidant.

Li Tian will not reject Chen Peng's kindness, this is exactly his original plan!

Gao Liang's face was glowing red by the setting sun, as if he had been slapped severely.

Half of Ko Liang's captains disappeared out of thin air, and the remaining captains did not dare to get too close to Gao Liang. They felt that if they were too close to Gao Liang, they might be touched by Gao Liang's mold. When that happens, it will be them.

Chen Peng really went for a drink. Half of the other dozen captains were invited by Chen Peng. The old lame and blanket were also invited.

The smell of wine permeated the entire Tucheng, and seven or eight miners leaned against the door of the old lame's soil house, enjoying the smell of wine with intoxication.

After three glasses of wine, the old lame felt that today was the most moisturizing day for him in the past few months. This wine is really wine. In Chen Peng's words, the wine he drank before was horse urine.

Chen Peng put three more spiritual sources on the wine table at an appropriate time, deliberately thinking that the old lame pushed a few inches in the direction, and the old lame took away the spiritual sources without being polite and threw them on the blanket again, saying "Damn it, don't drink it, get the spiritual soil soon, go to practice early!"

The blanket was very happy, his eyes became a little straight when he saw the spiritual sources.

Nothing is good in the Lycra Desert. Even if you have a precious thing like spiritual soil, you can't be used as money, you can only exchange for wine, food, and beauty.

These things are all one-time consumption.

The old lame drank alcohol, but didn't say anything when he received the things. The captains on the scene were all human beings. Naturally knowing that the old lame received the things, it was equivalent to removing the two words before Chen Peng's in charge. .

For a while, everyone talked about the wine and drank a bottle of wine cleanly. This left some regrets.

Chen Peng returned to the earthen hut and said some bold words to Li Tian, nothing more than letting Li Tian follow him well, as long as he can hang on here, he can guarantee Li Tian's safety for five hundred years.

In this regard, Li Tian replied several times in a row: Ha ha.

It's a pity that Chen Peng didn't know what he meant, and he became more happy.

In the end, Li Tian made an excuse to come out and hush, which was a relief.

Before going out, Li Tian told Chen Peng that the Sixiang old man had disappeared for some reason. He found four more people wearing the code-named Sixiang old man and continued to fight for this team's mining business.

Chen Peng also closed one eye to this.

The words Chen Peng said just now were to test Li Tian by taking advantage of Jiujin.

Since Gao Liang's team leaders disappeared, Chen Peng's heart was very disturbed. He felt that Li Tian was a vicious dog that might pounce on him at any time, and Chen Peng also had a sense of crisis in his heart.

If Li Tian said that he would follow Chen Peng, Chen Peng would definitely choose another opportunity to find Gao Liang in the near future and let Gao Liang solve Li Tian.

But Li Tian hehe, Chen Peng could see Li Tian's disdain and perfunctory, Chen Peng knew that Li Tian was Longkun Shoal, and sooner or later he would leave here, and the danger to him Chen Peng would be much smaller.

Therefore, Chen Peng showed a smug smile on his mouth when he looked at Li Tian's leaving back.

When he came out of the soil house, Li Tian was immediately surrounded by the captains of Chen Peng's brigade.

The guys in the Hei Dazu team didn't have a door on their lips, and they still went out to exchange the spirit soil for wine. These team leaders all came to Li Tian for confirmation. After getting the affirmative answer, these The team leaders can't wait to exchange drinks with Li Tian.

But they are not idiots, they naturally know that these things still have to be hidden, so these small team leaders have paid the spiritual soil before as an advance payment.

Good things do not go out, bad things spread for thousands of miles.

What made Li Tian feel depressed was that this incident slowly spread between the captains and small captains.

The captains and small captains of other brigade came to Li Tian constantly.

Although Li Tian had clearly told them that this was a rumor, these big captains and small captains did not hesitate to throw the spiritual soil to Li Tian.

They are not afraid of Li Tian dare to lie to them anyway.

As a result, the two ghosts, the two guys from the Skull Race also came to Li Tian for a drink.

These two **** were completely robbing and snatching, grabbing a handful of sand from the ground and stuffing it into Li Tian's hands, and said, "This is spiritual soil, you collect it, and when you return to the mine, you will bring the wine to Lao Tzu. Otherwise...or I will let you eat this spiritual soil!"

Well, it is definitely not a wise choice to reason with an unreasonable bastard, Li Tian silently chose to shut up.

"Brother Tian, your business is really good. Today's trip to Tucheng is completely a market for you, Brother Tian. If you look at it, we probably went out with 15 bottles of wine in one day! Forty-seven small bottles of wine."

"As for the number of glasses, I probably counted that there are almost 20 bottles of wine. But... do we have that much wine? If we don't get so much wine, we might be in danger. Things are scarce. Because it is expensive, the price of our divine wine should be increased, so that the team leaders can save enough spiritual soil for ten years to exchange for a bottle of wine, and it is still a small bottle!" Hei Dachu brother did not know when he appeared behind Li Tian. Said very politely.

Li Tian looked at Brother Hei Dacu in doubt, and said with a sneer at the corner of his mouth: "Did you spread this news?"

"Not me! I swear! I am loyal to Brother Tian!"

"It's a shame, I thought you were going to spread out to reward you!"

"My god, I may have mistaken my memory, this news should have been spread out by me, what reward do you give me? Hey, don't give me a good reward, just a small bottle of wine!" said Brother Heida.

As he spoke, the black flying vehicle flew back to Tucheng like a Kirov airship.

Enchanting women and strong men kept coming down from the airship.

Everyone is here to do business. Enchanting women bring happiness to men. Although those strong men do not have this ability, the wine and food they bring can also bring happiness to people.

It's a pity that these miners today don't seem to be enthusiastic, even the women yelling are not passionate.

At this moment, Li Tian saw a short corpse man with scabies coming down from the transport vehicle!

"The corpse... this guy came so fast!"

Chapter 4395: : The corpse is coming (2)

The cultivation base of the corpse is not high, only the three-level initial realm of Venerable.

But because the corpse belongs to Emperor Frost, coming to Tucheng is equivalent to staying in Tucheng by the central inspection team of the earth world, and his status is higher than that of the old lame.

Li Tian knew the trouble was coming!

Gao Liang's troubles have not been completely resolved, but the corpse is here again!

This Netherworld wants to play the rhythm of Li Tian.

"Brother Tian, what's wrong with you? Did I say something wrong? No, you can say me, don't scare me like this!" Hei Dachu said with some worry.

"It's okay, Hei Daru, I'm a little uncomfortable, I want to go to the squad crowd to rest for a while, you go call Tang Xiaolong to me!" Li Tian said.

Hei Da roughly helped Li Tian into the crowd.

It's a pity that Li Tian is like a firefly in the dark, so dazzling, so dazzling, no matter where Li Tian goes, the attention of those **** miners is focused.

Soon Shipei noticed Li Tian in the crowd. Shipei's scabetic face showed a sneer: "Hey, it really is Li Tian! I haven't seen you in ten years, and I haven't gone to the earth to trouble you, but you are I came to the Netherworld to die by myself!"

"But don't worry, since you have come to my place, I won't let you die so happy. I want to avenge the ghoul and avenge the corpse! I want to play with you slowly and let you die I regret coming to the Netherworld!"

After seeing Li Tian, the corpse did not look for Li Tian, but went straight to the old cripple's earthen house. Seeing the old **** was dozing off on the shabby table, the corpse's face involuntarily showed a trace of discomfort.

The corpse kicked the dilapidated table leg with a kick. As a result, he didn't know whether the strength was not well controlled, or the table leg was what it was originally. The four legs became three legs, and the table fell to the ground with a bang.

The old lame opened his eyes and glanced at the corpse. A trace of anger flashed across the old lame's face, and he said in an unpleasant manner: "I don't know how much the corpse-sama has come to Tucheng. But all completed the task!"

What kind of person the old lame man is, even if he has a lame leg, he will not put the corpse in his heart.

The corpse kicked the old lame's table down, which was already quite rude, and he didn't dare to make a mistake.

The corpse supported the table with the broken leg with the broken leg, reached out and picked up the animal skin roll on the table, patted the sand on the animal skin again, turned the animal skin roll casually, and said, "Don't get me wrong, old lame Recently, you have been mining a lot of spiritual soil and you have worked hard, so this time I am here to reward you on behalf of Emperor Frost!"

As soon as the corpse was turned to Li Tian's name in the animal skin scroll, the animal skin scroll was snatched by the lame man.

"I don't dare to work hard. Now the old lame doesn't ask for merit, but asks for nothing. Why do you want to hurt someone? Is it Li Tian? Or the old man of the four elephants who have a feast with you?" said the old lame.

Since Zipao contributed to the Red Slash, he was very favored in front of the Frost Emperor. Therefore, Zipao has become more arrogant and domineering. In recent years, those who have offended Zipao will hardly end up well.

The old lame man knew that the corpse was once trapped in the door of the forbidden area, and later heard that the three corpses were making trouble in the earth world, almost upsetting the earth world.

But this kind of story is to be heard as a fantasy for Emperor Frost, neither Emperor Yu nor the lame man would believe the plan of the Three Corpses.

The earth world, the world that used to be full of strong people, even if it is down, it is impossible to be upset by a few small monks that have been sealed for thousands of years.

Therefore, the old lame has never had a good impression of the corpse.

A trace of embarrassment flashed across the face of the corpse, but he quickly concealed the embarrassment, and said, "Don't talk secretly in front of the real person. Since you brought up the old lame, then I will tell the truth, Li Tian killed my corpse Ghouls, corpses, he owes me a few lives and I must take them back!"

"Hey, this Tucheng is the Tucheng of my old lame, you try to move him in this Tucheng?" The old lame said with a sneer.

"Old lame man, I know this Tucheng is your Tucheng. I won't be disrespectful to you in Tucheng. As for the mine, it shouldn't be a place where you can intervene, right? I'm also putting the ugly words on the front today, this Li Heaven must die! Li Tian is not dead, I will not return to the Frost Emperor's Venerable Mansion! I just hope that the lame man will not interfere in this matter!"

Speaking of the corpse, took out a spiritual source from the skin and slowly placed it on the table, and then said: "I know that blanket cultivation requires spiritual sources, so I will bring a few spiritual sources. Cultivation, after I use it up, I will send other spiritual sources again!"

The old lame took a look at the spiritual source. If it hadn't been for Chen Peng's three spiritual sources that he had received today, the old lame might really be tempted by the spiritual source, but now he can do so.

"I only care about this Tucheng! As long as Li Tian doesn't leave Tucheng for a day, you can't do anything to him, otherwise don't blame my old lame for turning your face!" said the old lame.

"That's natural!" Zombie smiled slightly, and said with a disgusting smile.

That night, the atmosphere of Tucheng was very wrong.

Several captains secretly met with the corpse, thinking of trying to get a relationship with the corpse, but the corpse is not resisting, and in the conversation intentionally or unconsciously said that he and Li Tian's festival, and his Want Li Tian to die.

At that time, several captains expressed their willingness to cooperate with the corpse and behead Li Tian in the mine. Among them, Gao Liang was the most active.

"Very well, I am willing to say a few words to you in front of the Frost Emperor. The Frost Emperor's Venerable Mansion is indeed lacking some powerful Venerables now!" The corpse promised a blank check.

...

That night the blanket came to Li Tian, told Li Tian that the corpse wanted to deal with him, and relayed the old lame's words to Li Tian, telling Li Tian that if Li Tian is willing to stay in Tucheng, the old lame can guarantee Li Tian's safety.

Li Tian thought for a while and rejected the old cripple's kindness.

Li Tian knew that the strength of the old lame might far surpass that of the Venerable fifth-level powerhouse. Li Tian still had no way of guessing how high the old lame's cultivation base was, so if he stayed in Tucheng, Li Tian's should be Can be guaranteed.

However, in this way, Li Tian is like a tiger in a cage in a zoo. He has lost his freedom, his spirit, and the opportunity to become king of the mountain!

Instead of this, Li Tian might as well hide in the space of Void Yasha, or hide in the space of the Qiong Lance of the sky.

"Li Tian, you can do it yourself! This is the first time I have seen the old lame value a person so much. If you really encounter a problem that is difficult to solve, tell the old lame, the old lame might help you solve it." Pauses the blanket Continued: "Including the immediate trouble!"

"No! I'll solve my own troubles by myself!" Li Tian looked at the direction where the corpse was talking with Gao Liang and others, and said firmly.

Chapter 4396: : Undercurrent

At night, the undercurrent of Tucheng was surging.

Li Tian knew that because of the arrival of the corpse, he became a target again.

It seems that Gao Liang and several other team leaders got some promise from the corpse, and in the evening they secretly mobilized the miners of their team to surround the miners of Chen Peng's team.

Li Tian probably counted them, and there were only five strong leaders at the captain level, and these were all the top three, even the four strong.

If these guys move their fingers, they might have Li Tianming!

In these brigades, there are more small captains who have the strength of the venerable level. Each team has about a dozen or twenty people. For the number of these venerables, Li Tian conservatively estimates that there are almost a hundred people.

Even if Li Tian brought out the venerables of the Qiong Lance of the Sky, he would lose even if he couldn't wear his pants.

Thirty years in Hedong and Thirty years in Hexi, Li Tian went from being sought after by others to being stared at and wanted to die. It was only half a day.

Seeing Li Tian being watched by so many people, those big captains and small captains who were still chasing Li Tian to buy wine in the afternoon couldn't help shaking their heads and sighing.

"Li Tian is dead this time!"

"Yeah, if you say that you have offended Gao Liang, Chen Peng is supporting him, and the old lame and skeleton people have a good impression of Li Tian. Gao Liang really dare not do it himself, but what do you say about him? Will you provoke Lord Corpse?"

"Who knows? It's a pity that those fine wines are there. I'm afraid we won't have a chance to drink that kind of wine again!"

"At the wine table today, did you see the spiritual source that Chen Peng took out? It is said that Li Tian took it out, and the old lame had already accepted the spiritual source and handed it to the blanket. You said that the old lame was involved in this matter. , Help Li Tian?"

"Even if the strength of the old lame is strong, he cannot be better than the Frost Emperor! The corpse is a person of the Frost Emperor. Does he really dare to fight against Li Tian and Yu Shuangzun? Haven't you heard of Lao? How did the lame leg break?"

Having said this, everyone suddenly shut up.

Although the matter is cryptic, the rumors are seamless wind, which can be heard more or less in the Laika Desert.

And this rumor is that the old lame is unwilling to listen, and Emperor Yu Shuang is not allowed to say it.

The old lame man, this guy is definitely a cultivator.

When Emperor Frost fell from the realm of the domain master to the seventh-level realm of the Lord, Emperor Yu Frost reluctantly stood firm in the Laika Desert. At that time, the old lame was just a small captain in the mine of Emperor Frost.

However, this old lame man has become the most powerful miner in the pit of Emperor Shuangzun by absorbing the spiritual power in the spiritual soil, and after practicing three years ago.

If it is not, the old lame man can leave the Lycra Desert according to the agreement of Emperor Yushuang and enter the residence of Emperor Yushuang to serve for Emperor Yushuang.

Perhaps the old lame man was suave and suave, perhaps because the daughter of Emperor Yu Frost was blinded by the dog's eyes, and the two had secretly hooked up together, and the daughter of Emperor Yu Frost was pregnant with a child of the old lame.

The humblest miner who had just received an amnesty, and the other was a young lady in the Venerable Mansion, this kind of love affair was also not blessed in the Underworld.

Emperor Yu Shuang broke one of the old lame's legs in a rage, and sent the old lame in the Laika Desert forever, not allowing the old lame to take a half step out of the Laika Desert.

The old lame man broke his leg and his cultivation level fell. He was frustrated. He painted a prison in the Laika Desert, and broke off his relationship with Emperor Yu Shuang's daughter.

However, Emperor Yu Shuang never expected that his daughter would leave the Lord's Mansion for the lame man and walk into the Laika Desert alone.

Unfortunately, the daughter of Emperor Yu Frost was spotted by the Nether Sand Wolf after entering the Laika Desert.

After several desperate fights, she killed dozens of Nether Sand Wolf, only then escaped from the claws of the Nether Sand Wolf, dragging the remains to continue to the Tucheng.

However, the sky does not fulfill everyone's wish.

The woman who was struggling was about 20 to 30 kilometers away from Tucheng, but she was attacked by a sandstorm. This woman was completely lost and walked into the Tucheng of a group of spiritual robbers.

As a result, the woman still passed away without seeing the old cripple.

I heard that in order to avoid letting the child die with him, the woman cruelly removed the seven or eight-month-old child from her belly.

The magic is that the child survived.

According to the gossip, the child was sent to Tucheng where the old lame was by a nearby spiritual robber.

Many people guess that the blanket is the child.

But no one dared to say or ask such things, and the old **** didn't admit it.

Li Tian also heard a little about these things. They were all told to Li Tian in order to hear Li Tian tell his legendary adventures.

However, since Li Tian had rejected the old lame's kindness, he did not pull the old lame on him.

Moreover, Li Tian always believed in one thing, that is, the truth of unprovoked diligence and crime.

Li Tian didn't think that his two bottles of wine and a few spiritual sources could make the lame man agree to work for him, and he was not the son of the lame man!

I got the corpse from the blanket and didn't dare to do it on him in Tucheng, but waited for Li Tianxia mine to do it. Li Tian's heart had already made up his mind. As long as he entered the mine, Li Tian would immediately take his people to hide. Into the space of the Qiong Lance of Heaven.

It is impossible for the corpse to stay in the pit with his eyes, but Li Tian can use this advantage to fight guerrilla warfare with the corpse, and even use Hei Dachu and others to continue to exchange spiritual soil for him.

These are just some ideas, who knows how reliable Hei Dachu and others are!

Of course, Li Tian has not been idle for the past month. The miners in the Hei Dazu team have accumulated for decades, and even hundreds of years of spiritual soil are now in Li Tian's hands.

Li Tian intends to use the spiritual soil he now possesses at all costs to cultivate the vicious dog into a powerful existence that exceeds the third level of Venerable, and even the fourth level of Venerable.

With this, it is possible for Li Tian to survive, and then it is possible to take the third son of the Nether and escape from the area under the jurisdiction of the Frost Emperor in the Laika Desert.

The dawn of dawn shone on the Tucheng, and after a night of indulgence, these miners returned to the dim underground mine to live a dark day.

Leaving Tucheng, Li Tian felt dozens of icy eyes staring at him, and most importantly, there were several coercive wheels covering Li Tian's body.

To these cold eyes, Li Tian stared back with cold eyes, but Li Tian seemed helpless to the coercion!

"Damn, if you want to use this coercion to control Lao Tzu, dreaming, just let Lao Tzu escape into the space of the Qiong Lance of the sky, then I will..."

"Idiots, they are already dead, and they are still dying!"

At the end of the miners team, the corpse's pace was full of confidence, and his face always had the triumphant smile on his face.

"Li Tian, it's only ten kilometers away from your death date! Enjoy this last journey!" Zuipao said to himself with a sneer.

...

Tucheng, dilapidated city wall.

The blanket looked at the back of the miners who had disappeared in the desert, and said to the old lame man: "You really don't plan to help him? Maybe he is the one you are waiting for!"

"How do you still want Lao Tzu to help him? Lao Tzu has already revealed all of Lao Tzu's hole cards!" Lao Tzu said with some irritation.

"This is to burn your body, burn your body..." The old lame man turned and walked down to Tucheng, and said to himself.

After a while, the old lame man turned around and looked outside Tucheng, and said, "I hope this kid can be worthy of my contribution, and let... the blanket, you should leave here too. If you can leave, you will never come back. Go! Take the **** and follow him!"

"Old lame man, have you decided?" the blanket asked.

"Looking at you and the little lame can leave the Laika Desert alive, and I will leave too..." the old lame said.

Chapter 4397: : The Robber Strikes (1)

Several nether sand wolves followed the miner team slowly.

However, these Nether Sandwolves just followed the team forward, they did not take the initiative to attack the miners as they did yesterday.

Yesterday's carnival has given most of the Nether Sandwolves a feast, and when they hunted the miners, they had also received spiritual supplements from the miners.

If these ghost sand wolves attack these miners again today, then the old lame man in Tucheng will not sit idly by, and the two strong bones in the mine will not sit idly by.

For thousands of years, humans in the Laika Desert and the Nether Sand Wolf have reached a consensus.

Today these nether sand wolves seem to have not caught up with yesterday's carnival feast, but they dare not rashly attack the miners, but they are reluctant to leave.

These nether sand wolves are hoping that some of these miners will be left behind, or that there will be some accidents among the miners, so that they can hunt down the miners in a legitimate way.

The sun has climbed into the air, and the temperature in the desert has been increasing since the moment the sun came out.

The speed of the miners has begun to accelerate, and these miners must rush back to the pit as soon as possible, otherwise their danger in the desert will increase when the temperature rises completely.

Suddenly, these nether sand wolves stopped and looked into the distance suspiciously.

The danger consciousness of animals is definitely much stronger than that of humans, and soon these nether sand wolves turned and left.

In the distance, there was a gust of wind in the desert where the sky was still clear just now.

The violent wind convolved sand and gravel, forming a huge yellow salon wind, blowing towards the team of miners with an overwhelming breath.

There is still a long way to go. From the naked eye, the tornado formed by the gravel of the wind is at least thousands of meters away. If these miners move forward quickly, it seems that it is not difficult to avoid this tornado.

However, seeing this tornado, there was already a trace of panic in the miners team, and the fast-moving team suddenly stopped.

These miners seemed to be waiting for the area where the yellow salon cyclone would finally rush to, and almost everyone's body was trembling slightly.

Li Tian saw a trace of horror on the faces of the group captains closest to him.

"Brother Tian, prepare to escape!" Brother Hei Dachu said to Li Tian with a trembling voice.

Li Tian asked incomprehensibly: "What's the matter? Could it be that the Yellow Salon Tornado can still make the master miners at the level of cultivators suffer? It depends on the direction of the tornado. As long as all of us speed up, we can avoid it. What?"

"Brother Tian, that... it's not a tornado, but a spirit soil bandit! Seeing that momentum, the number of spirit soil bandits may be no less than three thousand!" When Hei Dachu said here, his voice trembled even more.

Three thousand?

so much?

Li Tian did not expect that he would encounter the legendary spiritual soil bandit within two months after entering the Lycra Desert.

Spiritual soil bandits, with strong cultivation base, come and go like the wind, are named for robbing spiritual soil.

The spiritual soil bandits in the Laika Desert have the lowest level of cultivation level, and those with higher cultivation levels may have reached the 4th and 5th grades. According to legend, there is a spiritual soil bandit leader in the Laika Desert. It is above the eighth level of the Venerable.

The miners became more and more disturbed.

Regardless of the fact that this miner team has one hundred thousand people, but among these one hundred thousand miners, there are only a few hundred people who really have cultivation bases above the Venerable level.

These hundreds of sacred venerables fought against the 3,000 tiger-wolf divisions' spiritual thieves, and the result would be annihilated and horrible.

Can not be the enemy, can only escape.

However, to escape, you also need to listen to the orders of the two skeleton clan powerhouses. Only by hearing their orders can they be considered a famous evacuation.

Otherwise, even those who escaped without permission, even if they survived by chance, it is inevitable that they will settle their accounts in the end and have no way to escape.

"Brother Tian, don't leave the big army. This Laika Desert is the place of death. Once you leave the big army, you will almost never survive in the desert! Unless you have enough water and strong enough to deal with the Nether Sand Wolf As long as we follow the big army, with the strength of our venerable, we can definitely escape back alive!" said Big Brother Hei.

Li Tian nodded slightly and asked, "Why don't you run away now? Are you still waiting for those spiritual soil robbers to rush in front of us?"

"If you escape now, do you know where to escape? The cultivation bases of these spirit soil bandits have reached the realm of the venerable, but why didn't they suddenly teleport and sneak attack?"

Li Tian was not talking, Hei Dachu was not talking, and a whole hundred thousand miners were not talking.

But the air is getting heavier and heavier.

The wind of Huang Sharon was getting closer, and all the venerable faces including the captain were solemn.

Suddenly, the desert near the front end of the 100,000 miners team sank suddenly.

Immediately after that area, hundreds of powerful coercion fell from the sky, and hundreds of powerful men wrapped in shabby black blankets jumped from the ground.

As these powerful men leaped from the ground, hundreds of giant sand scorpions crawled out of the desert and attacked the panicked miners.

Every sand scorpion is about one-fifth the size of a vicious dog. The black sand scorpion has a poisonous needle at least as large as an adult's fist. The sand scorpion's poisonous needle flashes with a black lightning, and it penetrates quickly. Among the miners who had time to escape.

The bodies of the stabbed miners turned blood red in an instant, and their bodies seemed to be blown out, growing rapidly, as if they were flying hydrogen balloons.

When these people fly more than ten meters in height, their clothes have been completely broken, and their bodies have become at least seven or eight times larger than before. The entire body is already transparent, but their bodies are still constantly changing. Get bigger.

At this moment, the miners finally couldn't bear this change and exploded in mid-air.

boom!

boom!

In a few seconds, hundreds of monks and miners in that area had not had time to scream, they had turned into a rain of blood, falling from the sky.

The Huang Sharon cyclone finally approached the miners, and Li Tian saw a black sand scorpion galloping on the desert like a flat ground, and on each sand scorpion there was a spiritual robber covered in a black blanket.

"Withdraw! Toward the direction of Tucheng, withdraw!" The two strong bones cried almost simultaneously.

Hearing this sound, the cultivators and miners threw away their digging tools, turned around and fled, all wishing to have two more legs out, so that they could escape faster.

Li Tian has already made a decision that he will not escape back to Tucheng, maybe the corpse will attack him on the way back to Tucheng.

Li Tian has decided to take advantage of the chaos and hide in the space of Void Yasha!

Huh!

Huh!

Li Tian continuously sent Venerable Four Mountains in the Southeast and Northwest into the space of the Qiong Spear of the Sky. Just as Li Tian was about to reach out to Tang Xiaolong, Li Tian suddenly felt that there were two powerful forces at the same time. Body.

Li Tian's figure softened, and half of his body was actually plunged into quicksand.

Huh!

Huh!

The figures of Gao Liang and Zipao appeared around Li Tian.

"I wanted to kill you again in the mine, but unfortunately you didn't even have the chance to get to the mine!" Gao Liang said.

"Go to **** Li Tian!" The corpse shouted grimly.

Chapter 4398: : The Robber Strikes (2)

At the moment of his death, Tang Xiaolong teleported to Li Tian, using his body to block the double attack of Gao Liang and Zipao. .

boom!

There was a loud noise, and Li Tian only heard a crackling bone breaking sound from Tang Xiaolong's steel-like body, and Li Tian's face became hot, but Tang Xiaolong could not withstand the powerful bombardment. A mouthful of blood sprayed on Li Tian's cheek.

"Little...little boss, go!" Tang Xiaolong spouted blood again, his voice trembling.

A **** smell ran wildly in Li Tian's nasal cavity, and Li Tian only felt that the anger in his chest was about to burn him.

"Little Dragon!" Li Tian screamed Tang Xiaolong's name, but his body was confined in place by two powerful coercion, and he continued to sink into the sand.

Puff!

Tang Xiaolong knelt down in front of Li Tian, blood dripping down the broken bead at the corner of his mouth, but there was no anger or pain on his face, instead a smile appeared.

"Little Dragon!"

Li Tian's heart is full of self-blame!

Even if Tang Xiaolong's ten-fold body refining had reached the realm of Great Perfection, how could his body withstand the attacks of powerful men above the third level of Venerable.

Too careless.

Li Tian only thought that the corpse would go to the mine before he would do anything to him, but he didn't expect that he would encounter a spiritual land bandit on the way, so that the corpse and Gao Liang would be the first to start!

Miners constantly galloped away from the bodies of Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong, and scattered yellow sand splashed from their running legs and fell on Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong, covering the blood that Tang Xiaolong squirted.

Brother Hei Dachu flashed by Li Tian, Chen Peng flashed by Li Tian, and the two strong bones also flashed by Li Tian, but no one chose to stand up to help Li Tian.

In the face of strong men like Gao Liang and Zuipao, the strength of Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong is so insignificant.

A blow on Tang Xiaolong made Li Tian escape the catastrophe, but there was a trace of sarcasm on the face of the corpse. The people who were together didn't end well, hahaha, Tang Feifei, and Tang Xiaolong, too, now let me send you on the road together!"

Li Tian saw the light yellow aura shining on the fist of the corpse, and the corpse had indeed reached the strength of the release of spiritual power.

Are you going to die here?

Li Tian's heart is full of unwillingness!

What he is unwilling to do is not that his deity falls here, after all, he Li Tian still has a clone in the earth world, and he Li Tian still has a chance to come back again.

But what about Tang Xiaolong?

If his deity falls, even if Tang Xiaolong is only injured, he will definitely die in the Lycra desert.

Tang Xiaolong is a person who has already died once, how could Li Tian let him die again?

Tang Xiaolong is right in front of Li Tian, and Li Tian only needs to reach out and touch Tang Xiaolong, and he can let Void Yasha send Tang Xiaolong into the space, but...now Li Tian's body is completely under the pressure of two powerful forces. Controlling, let alone moving your body, even if you want to move your fingers, it is so difficult!

The fist of the corpse has been blasted again!

Getting closer!

Getting closer!

In the next second, the fist will fall on Li Tian's head, and even Li Tian can already imagine the picture of the fist falling on his head and the head being blasted open.

Unwillingness, anger, and pain spread in Li Tian's heart.

At this moment, a powerful force that made people feel desperate fell from the sky.

The two coercion exerted on Li Tian's body were instantly shattered by this coercion, and Li Tian's body was pressed into the desert for more than a foot, leaving only one head exposed outside.

The same is true for Tang Xiaolong. More than half of his body was pressed into the quicksand by this coercion, blood and yellow sand were stained together, looking terrible.

The fist blasted out of the corpse slammed down and landed in the sand. The splashed gravel slammed on Tang Xiaolong's back, making a crackling sound.

"who is it?"

Suddenly a flash of shock flashed across the face of the corpse, and immediately after the corpse's body seemed to have been struck by lightning, trembling suddenly, and then fell to the ground with a thump, as if kneeling in front of Li Tian atonement. .

By the side of the corpse, Gao Liang's cultivation base is one level higher than that of the corpse, and his ability to resist this pressure is slightly stronger, but his situation is also uncomfortable, and this pressure also makes him feel fear at the third level of the Venerable.

At least four to five hundred monks and miners around Li Tian just now were like radishes planted in the desert. They were all pressed into the quicksand instantly, leaving only one head exposed outside.

The other cultivator miners are like torrents encountering stubborn rocks, automatically split into two strands, and continue to flee towards Tucheng.

"It's such a powerful coercion. If I had such strength, I wouldn't let the corpse threaten me!" Li Tian thought in his heart.

Huh!

A figure wearing a black blanket flashed and appeared behind the dumbfounded corpse.

The corpse's eyes glanced back, trying to see clearly who the dark shadow appeared behind him, but the person was standing in a blind corner of his sight, and he could only see the shadow of the person falling on the ground.

"Who are you, don't you know that this is the control area of Emperor Yu Frost?" The corpse can feel that the black shadow behind him has a much higher level of cultivation than him. At this time, the corpse Po immediately moved from the Frost Emperor and wanted to use the Emperor to scare his opponent away.

"Heh, there are many areas belonging to the emperor in the Lycra Desert. If these areas are under the control of the emperor, if we see the area of the emperor and we have to go around, then what do we spirit soil bandits eat? Besides... When did we spirit soil bandits fear the emperor," said the black shadow.

This Laika Desert is the cursed area. No matter how powerful the cultivation base of the Frost Emperor is, he cannot control the Laika Desert. Unless the Frost Emperor comes in person, these spiritual land bandits are really not afraid of the Emperor.

However, everything in the world, one thing drops one thing.

Suddenly, the corpse remembered the legend of the old **** in the Lycra Desert, a legend that all the robbers fear the old **** and dare not provoke the old cripple.

The dead horse was treated as a living horse doctor, and the corpse decided to withdraw from the lame man to save his life.

"I...I am the old lame's best friend. If you move me, the old lame will be very angry. Then...the old lame will definitely not let you go..." said the corpse.

After the voice of the corpse fell, the coercion that the dark shadow exerted on the corpse suddenly decreased.

After a pause, the black shadow said, "Today I will give the old lame a face and give you a few seconds to get out of the Lycra Desert, otherwise even the old lame will blame me for turning my face and ruthlessly!"

The purpose of Zipao came to the Lycra Desert was to eradicate Li Tian, but Zipao did not want to lose his life.

"Li Tian, you are considered lucky this time, but now that you have met the bandits from the spiritual soil, your life is almost accounted for here!" Zipuo thought in his heart.

The corpse's figure flickered a few times, continuously teleporting, and soon disappeared at the end of the desert.

"Big...sir, I also know the lame man, I am..." Gao Liang begged for mercy.

But before he could finish his words, Li Tian saw the dark shadow suddenly lift his foot and stepped Gao Liang into the quicksand.

"Don't tell me you know the old lame man? Believe it or not I will crush your head?"

Li Tian originally wanted to use this reason, but seeing Gao Liang's tragic end, Li Tian shut up immediately.

Li Tian shut up, but the dark shadow seemed to have no meaning to let Li Tian go. He slammed his hand into the quicksand, pulled Li Tian out of the quicksand like a carrot, and then threw Li Tian like a cargo. On a huge Nether Sand Scorpion.

The coercion that fell on Li Tian has completely disappeared, but Li Tian did not dare to move rashly.

Tang Xiaolong is still kneeling in the quicksand!

It took only four or five minutes, but the battle was over.

This group of spirit soil bandits riding sand scorpions killed less than a thousand monks and miners, but at least seven or eight thousand miners were captured.

The other miners, captains, and small captains had already escaped without a trace.

"Clean the battlefield and leave immediately!" the dark shadow shouted.

Chapter 4399: : The Robber Strikes (3)

Li Tian was sitting on the back of a huge Nether Sand Scorpion. He saw that Tang Xiaolong was also dragged out of the quicksand by the black shadow, and then handed it over to two other spirit soil bandits riding on the Sand Scorpion.

When Li Tian saw that the robbers in the spiritual soil seemed to be carrying out simple medical treatment on Tang Xiaolong, this gave Li Tian some comfort.

That black shadow is probably the leader of these spirit soil robbers. Li Tian wanted to find that black shadow and asked him to give Tang Xiaolong to Li Tian to take care of him, but that black shadow was very busy.

The corpses of the monks and miners who had been beheaded were piled up in pits in the desert by the bandits of the spirit soil, and then they were buried in quicksand.

The living monks and miners who were planted in the quicksand like radishes were pulled out one by one by the bandits from the earth, and then all the coded metal circles on their arms were removed, and they used a few beast tendons. One by one trapped his arms.

As for Gao Liang, he has no such good luck.

His cultivation base is very powerful, even stronger than ordinary spiritual soil bandits.

Probably for this reason, after Gao Liang was pulled out of the quicksand, he was immediately attacked by the bandits of the spiritual land. The punching and kicking scenes were really beautiful.

Li Tian also wanted to participate, but the sand scorpion's tail was always facing Li Tian.

Looking at the shimmering sand scorpion hook, Li Tian could only give up with interest.

Less than another month after coming to the Netherworld, Li Tian could understand that these guys in the Netherworld are rascals. Their favorite thing is to fight in groups. If a group of people gather together, they will never fight alone.

Especially the group fights, they are always happy.

But Li Tian still didn't understand, aren't these spiritual soil bandits robbing the spiritual soil? Didn't they do the act of killing people and getting rid of goods? But today, why do they want them to rob so many monks and miners?

Soon the monks and miners were almost tied up, and then like cargo, they were thrown on the back of the sand scorpion in twos and threes.

Li Tian was also thrown over by two apprentice miners. Although one of them was not a miner from Chen Peng's brigade, he had a relationship with Li Tian because he wanted to buy Li Tian's wine.

Li Tian threw out the doubts in his heart, and the miner said with a weeping face: "This Laika Desert is vast, and more than half of the area is beyond the reach of the emperors, and these areas have become spiritual bandits. Our home."

"Spirit bandits plunder the spirit soil of other forces, but they are more willing to plunder the miners, so that they can mine the spirit soil by themselves and get more spirit soil!"

"In that case, we should be safe? In that case, why are you crying? Anyway, when you are a miner, where are you not the same?" Li Tian asked.

The miner sighed and said: "Being miners under the emperors, we still have a hope. As long as we are not dead for 500 years, we still have a chance to open the Laika Desert, and then we can save some spiritual soil in our hands. , Even if we leave the Laika Desert, we will at least live more moisturized than ordinary people!"

"However, once you become the miners of the spiritual soil bandits, then we are basically a dead end, unless your cultivation base can break through to the realm of the nobleman and become a part of the spiritual soil bandits, then it is possible to leave the Laika Desert!"

Li Tian's heart gradually calmed down.

For these monks and miners, their fate is sad, but for Li Tian, because of the appearance of these spirit soil bandits, he avoided fighting with the corpses.

"Miners are miners, as long as we cultivate to the realm of the venerable, everything is possible!" Li Tian said.

"Hey, the realm of the venerable? How easy is it..."

...

Within a few minutes, the battlefield has been cleaned.

A young man wrapped in a black blanket jumped on the back of the Nether Sand Scorpion where Li Tian was.

From the young man's skill, Li Tian can see that this guy's cultivation has never reached the realm of the venerable, and it is even possible that he has not even reached the fifth or sixth level of cultivation.

Li Tian guessed in his mind that the robbers of the spiritual soil must not be as powerful as those from the outside world.

The young man was wrapped in a black blanket with only one pair of eyes exposed. He squatted in front of Li Tian and looked at Li Tian curiously.

Li Tian simply closed his eyes and played dead.

The boy was not discouraged, so he pulled out a piece of thatch from his blanket and stroked Li Tian's cheek from time to time to tease Li Tian.

"You are paralyzed. You play with Lao Tzu as a toy, don't you? If not...well, you go on!"

Li Tian decided not to pay attention to the boy, lying on the sand scorpion and pretending to be dead.

The teenager teased for a long time, and when he saw Li Tian pretending to ignore him, he didn't get angry, and asked, "Why are they killing you?"

What the **** is this **** question, then why are you killing those monks and miners? In the Laika Desert, do people without strength still have human rights? Didn't you just kill as you want?

Li Tian continued to play dead.

"That black monkey seems to be the Venerable, who is he?"

Li Tian did not speak.

"You have the right to remain silent, if you don't want that black monkey to be stung by a sand scorpion and turn into a meat ball and explode!" the boy said.

"Dare you!" Li Tian did it abruptly and said angrily.

"Do you say I dare? Would you like us to make a bet?" the boy said.

Li Tian has no temper.

The man made the knife and I was the fish.

Now that Tang Xiaolong is in the hands of these spiritual land bandits, Li Tianzhen dare not gamble.

"What do you want to know? I told you that!" Li Tian asked helplessly.

"I suddenly lose interest! When I get back to the camp, you will beg to tell me!" The boy inserted the thatch in the blanket and said disdainfully.

...

Thousands of black sand scorpions began to move quickly in the desert.

Li Tian and other monks and miners who had been restrained with their hands and feet fell on the sand scorpion's back, trying to keep themselves in the center of the sand scorpion's back. If they were thrown down, then in the Laika Desert In the middle, what they get is not freedom, but death!

The Nether Sand Wolf will suddenly appear like a ghost, tearing these cultivators and miners to pieces.

Because another cultivator miner next to Li Tian was accidentally kicked off by the blanket-wrapped teenager, and...there was no more.

This boy is definitely a hungry wolf!

Paralyzed, the miner didn't provoke him, from the beginning to the end, he didn't even dare to let out the atmosphere. How could he incur such a murder for no reason.

After the young man kicked the miner down, he gave Li Tian a majestic look, as if to tell Li Tian again, let's wait and see!

...

The sand scorpion runs very fast, definitely much faster than the high-speed rail in the earth world.

The sand scorpion ran for nearly five hours, and when the sun moved westward, it stopped.

What appeared in front of Li Tian was another Tucheng. The scale of this Tucheng was much smaller than the Tucheng where the lame was. It was about one-tenth the size of the Tucheng where the lame was. But this Tucheng was even bigger. bustling.

"Here! I'll kick you off if I pretend to be dead!" the boy said.

As a result, Li Tian was really kicked.

Nima, I'm all standing up, okay? I didn't pretend to be dead, okay? Don't let Lao Tzu have a chance to catch you in the future, or you will definitely become a missing person!

Chapter 4400: : Guess right and wrong (1)

The cultivators and miners were kicked off one by one. The spirit soil bandits standing on the back of the sand scorpion took out a whistle and blew a weird whistle. The sand scorpions seemed to have received some kind of order. Moving, one after another got into the quicksand and disappeared.

"Stand up for Lao Tzu who don't want to die! From today, you are the miners of our Spirit Earth City! As long as you perform well, our Spirit Earth City is definitely not worse than you used to be, but... if anyone wants to escape for Lao Tzu, then This is your end!"

While speaking, a spirit soil robber pulled a miner next to him from the ground, kicked out abruptly, and directly kicked off the two legs of the monk.

The friar miner kept rolling on the ground, making heart-piercing screams.

All the other miners were silent.

In fact, there is no need for these spirit soil robbers to kill the miner, because even if they are allowed to escape, these miners dare not escape. After all, there seems to be no other emperor within a few thousand kilometers outside the spirit soil city. There is only a dead end in the sphere of influence of the Venerables.

From beginning to end, the black shadow man who had saved Li Tian had no time to say a word, as if he had completely acquiesced to this kind of thing.

"Boy don't **** scream, because your leg is broken, you don't need to go to the mine for the time being, first work in the spiritual soil warehouse of the spiritual soil city, if you do well, you will stay in the warehouse later!" The spirit soil robber kicked the broken leg miner again.

No one thought that this broken leg miner would be a blessing in disguise. The eyes of the other miners immediately showed a trace of envy, and they wished that they were kicked and broken.

"Don't look at this, get ready to go to the mine! Yang Chuan, take a few people and send them into the mine!" said the spiritual soil robber.

These looted miners followed the spirit soil robber named Yang Chuan around the spirit city and continued to go north.

Li Tian always worried about Tang Xiaolong in his heart, but because of the noisy people, Li Tian never saw Tang Xiaolong's figure. Li Tian was about to follow the miners, but was pulled by the young spirit robber.

"You stay, you don't need to be a miner, wait a while and follow us into the Spirit Earth City!" said the boy.

Li Tian didn't dare to refuse, so he could only stay where he was.

After a few minutes, the miners were all taken away.

These miners are to be taken to a place that can't walk north of Lingtu City a kilometer.

There are four mines lined up here, and these monks and miners were sent into these four mines. From today on, they will start working in the dark.

But the good news is that this mine is only a kilometer away from Lingtu City, so don't worry about the attack of the Nether Sand Wolf.

In addition to Li Tian, Tang Xiaolong, Gao Liang, and two other team leaders who had a relationship with Li Tian were left behind.

These people all have the cultivation base of the Venerable, except for Li Tian.

Tang Xiaolong looked a little miserable. Although these spirit soil robbers had given Tang Xiaolong a simple treatment, after several hours of bumps, Tang Xiaolong's face was still ugly.

Li Tian knew that Tang Xiaolong had to be sent into the space of Void Yasha as soon as possible, so that Windsor could treat Tang Xiaolong.

But before Li Tian walked to Tang Xiaolong's side, a powerful pressure fell on Li Tian, and Li Tian suddenly felt abnormally uncomfortable in his body, making it difficult to move.

The bandit leader came slowly, wrapped in a thick black blanket.

Every step he takes is very light, looks light and light,

"Good birds choose wood to live, since you are now in the hands of our Spirit Earth City, then you must know how to do it?" said the bandit leader.

Puff!

Puff!

Gao Liang and the two captains knelt before the bandit leader.

"My lord, we are willing to join Soul Earth City and do our best for Soul Earth City!" Gao Liang said.

The other two captains beamed with joy and echoed.

"Very good, but for the time being I can't believe you, so I will wrong you for a while, Jiang Quan, take them down!" said the bandit leader.

A spirit soil robber walked out of the crowd.

Jiang Quan seemed to have deliberately or unintentionally demonstrated his strength. A pressure instantly fell on Gao Liang, the strongest cultivation base, and Gao Liang's body under the pressure was slightly bent. If it weren't for Gao Liang to support him, I'm afraid he is going to throw a dog and eat shit!

"It's so strong! The robber in this city is indeed Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon!" Gao Liang was shocked and said in a cold sweat.

Jiang Quan seemed to be very satisfied with Gao Liang's expression, and said disdainfully: "Don't think that reaching the state of the nobleman is really a personal thing. Tell you, your cultivation has just begun. If you perform well, you can gradually acquire us. Trust, then you can also get a lot of spiritual soil for cultivation, otherwise...huh!"

Jiang Quan's words were not finished, but the meaning could not be more obvious.

"Don't dare! Don't dare!" Gao Liang and the other two team leaders said.

Jiang Quan took Gao Liang and the other two team leaders into Tucheng, and then temporarily arranged the three of them in a dilapidated soil house in Tucheng. Jiang Quan was fully responsible for monitoring them secretly.

"What about you? We spent so much effort to rescue you, shouldn't you two speak up too?" The robber leader said coldly.

"Save us?"

Li Tian keenly caught the point of the bandit leader's sentence. No wonder these spiritual soil bandits would give Tang Xiaolong first aid, so that the people in this spiritual soil city should not be enemies at least temporarily.

But, who on earth let these robbers from Spirit Earth City come to rescue him?

Is it the old lame man?

Only the old lame knew the danger Li Tian encountered, and only the old lame wanted to save Li Tian.

"Kindness without saying thanks!"

"Oh, it's a great kind of thank you, don't you want to know who asked us to save you?" said the bandit leader.

"I don't know many people in the Laika Desert. The old lame man is one of them. If he can save me, he will be the only one," Li Tian said.

The bandit leader nodded slightly and said, "Yes, the Earth City is too far away from the Old Lame's Tucheng. If it weren't for the old lame's continuous teleportation, we would be powerless to save you. Then you don't want to know the old Why should the **** save you?"

Li Tian can definitely not be the old lame man who likes his appearance.

Since it is not for this reason, it means that his existence is of use value to the old cripple, or the old cripple wants him.

"I don't need to know. I only know that I owe the lame man a kindness. If the lame man has anything I can do, I will find a way to do it!" Li Tian said.

The bandit leader nodded slightly and said: "You are from the earth world, your name is Li Tian, and you still have the spiritual source that you only have in the death battlefield in your hands, so the old cripple guesses that you are the one we are waiting for!"

"Now tell me, did the old lame guess right or wrong?"
