

A Killer 4421

Chapter 4421: : Who is the hunter (6)

"Trust your sister!"

"Do you believe it or not, it's my fault?"

"Why are you so shameless as a woman? That wine is obviously my Li Tian's good or not!" Li Tian thought dissatisfiedly.

That woman should be ashamed of herself without drinking other people's wine.

Seeing Li Tian, Tang Xiaolong and He Feng staring at her dumbfounded, the woman took the opportunity to drink up the wine in front of Tang Xiaolong and He Feng.

"I believe it! Don't you believe it?" The woman turned around, looked at the other drunkards, and said viciously, "Believe it or not, anyway, I believe it!"

Seeing that other people didn't give her enough enthusiastic responses, the woman chuckled and continued: "This is awesome. I give ten points. I deserve to be rewarded with free wine!"

As she said that, the woman added a few more lips, as if she was still unfinished.

The woman turned to look at Li Tian again, and said: "I believe you all that bragging, I'm so hot to join in, can't you give me another glass of wine?"

Li Tian was speechless for a while.

"First of all, I didn't say that just now, so you love to believe it or not, and it doesn't matter to me whether you believe it or not."

"Secondly, what you drank just now was our wine. Although this wine is not delicious, it belongs to us, so you should pay for the wine yourself!"

This woman is wild and wild.

Especially when both eyes are staring at Li Tian, Li Tian will have the feeling of being stared at by a large female cat.

This kind of woman has a charm in her bones, a charm that is full of seduction for men.

If it were in the earth world, it would definitely be no problem for this woman to find a few big men to be godfathers just by virtue of this good looks.

Li Tian appreciates beauty, but Li Tian also has integrity and bottom line.

Since entering the kingdom of the Venerable Youhua Yaozun, Li Tian can't help but think of hermaphrodite species when seeing all beautiful women.

Of course, the woman in front of her was a beautiful woman, and was naturally classified into this category by Li Tian.

In addition to the faint things, Li Tian would not show this woman a good face.

Li Tian was not willing to waste the money for a few glasses of wine.

The man who was bragging just now stood up.

He buckled and buckled a few metal coins from the skin, slapped them on the table hard, and said loudly, "Isn't it just a few glasses of wine? The money master gave it!"

"It's not the demeanor of our men!"

The original intention of this product was to show his masculinity as much as possible, but it was a pity that this product was ugly and didn't have a few metal coins in his hands. The action of slapped on the table was not only not atmospheric, but rather stupid.

Seeing the appearance of this product, the image of Kong Yiji appeared in Li Tian's mind.

If there is another dish of fennel beans, it will be even more pictorial.

The bragging man didn't feel that way at all.

At this moment, he felt that he was possessed by the emperor. The eyes of all drinkers in the entire tavern were watching him, and he felt that his image had been magnified invisibly.

Seeing the stunned expression of that brother woman, this guy's heart is even more refreshed.

"If you don't die in a catastrophe, you will have a blessing. I can escape from the claws of the eighth-level ghost beast of the Venerable. It seems that God feels unfair to me. Now I have finally sent a chick to compensate me!" The man's face showed a trace of sorrow, and he felt that he was already a human being.

Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong glanced at him like a fool, and then said in unison: "Let's go!"

A trace of disdain appeared at the corner of the woman's mouth, her gaze retracted from the bragging man, she looked at Li Tian and said, "I will go with you!"

"Why? I made the money for your wine! How could you treat me like this, you must follow me today!" The bragging man rushed to the woman in a desperate voice, almost shouting in a roar.

This is completely * Netherworld version of six dollars Mala Tang!

"Idiot! I drank their wine. I have a relationship with you!"

"Besides, you don't take pictures of yourself with soaking urine. You want to use these two and a half glasses of inferior wine to get your old lady hooked? You are not worthy! If this handsome guy is willing to let me follow you, it's another matter!" Women are not good stubbles, and said with a sneer.

This woman's words seemed to be thousands of feather arrows, which instantly pierced the glass heart of the bragging man, and the bragging man stared at Li Tian viciously, wishing to eat Li Tian in one bite.

Li Tian couldn't help frowning slightly.

"Nima's, this has something to do with Lao Tzu! I will never interfere with your various appointments!" Li Tian thought in his heart.

"Well, you are ruthless, so don't blame me for being unjust. In that case, no matter who you are, you must spit out Lao Tzu's money!" said the bragging man.

The bartender immediately took away the goods after the money was sold!

The bartender doesn't care who pays the money, as long as he has the money to collect it.

As for the bragging man who wants to get the money back from the bartender, that is absolutely wishful thinking.

Dare to open a tavern on the edge of the dark forest, even if there is no backing force to support, the strength of the tavern itself is definitely not weak.

Li Tian has no time to take care of this idiot. It's getting too early now. If he doesn't enter the dark forest as soon as possible, and doesn't want to expose the space, Li Tian can only spend the night in this small village tonight.

Li Tiangang turned to leave, but was stretched out by the bragging man's shoulders.

"I didn't take out the money, don't even think about leaving today!" the bragging man said grimly.

"Yes! No one wants to leave!" The woman even echoed the bragging man.

The bragging man's eyes lit up, and a little beautiful fantasy suddenly appeared in his heart, and his attitude became tough.

Even the other venerables who were sitting with the bragging man just now stood up one after another, seeming to want to cheer for the bragging man.

"I drank your wine, why should you give him money? How old is he?" the woman said again after a turn.

Li Tian could see that this female cat-like woman was definitely picking things on purpose.

Li Tian looked at this woman carefully, and he was certain that he didn't know this woman, and had never even met.

After the faint things, Li Tian was fully alert to danger.

It is clearly an unwise choice to continue entanglement for several of the lowest-level metal currencies!

Click!

Li Tian took out a few metal coins and threw them on the table, and said, "Forget it, I'm afraid of you, I will come out the money for the wine!"

"let's go!"

Li Tian, Tang Xiaolong and He Feng turned around and left.

The bragging man picked up the coin on the table with a smug expression on his face, and then deliberately shook it in front of the woman. Then he put it in his skin and said triumphantly: "How about it, do you want me to buy you another drink ?"

"Idiot! He obviously looks down on you and dismisses you as a beggar. What can you be proud of! If you want me to accompany you, you must at least show some masculinity!" said the woman.

Chapter 4422: : Who is the hunter (7)

The bragging man seemed to be beaten up immediately, excited, and his expression when looking at the woman had also changed.

"Okay, it's a deal!"

The bragging man drank a little wine, coupled with the fact that the worms were on his head, he didn't even consider the cultivation strength of Li Tian and the others, so he turned to chase Li Tian and the others.

A weird smile appeared on the woman's face, and she walked out.

After Li Tian, Tang Xiaolong, and He Feng left the tavern, they did not stop and rushed toward the dark forest at a faster speed.

But in half a minute, the small village had disappeared behind Li Tian and others.

The bragging man and the woman are in hot pursuit.

Although Li Tian and the others were not fleeing, in the eyes of the bragging man, he thought that Li Tian and the others were at large.

"Damn, don't run if you have the ability! Lao Tzu will let you know how good I am for women who dare to molest Lao Tzu!" The bragging man shouted to Li Tian and others.

Li Tian shook his head helplessly.

There are idiots every year, especially this year.

Doesn't this bragging man even have the most basic judgment?

For a vain woman, he went after Li Tian and others.

"Little boss, or kill that * with the woman!" Tang Xiaolong said angrily.

Without Tang Xiaolong's intentional explanation, Li Tian stopped and turned to look at the bragging man.

"Hey, I finally stopped running? In this dark forest near the Venerable You Hua Yao Venerable Kingdom, the name of my Niu Buu is also famous. You provoke me Niu Buu, just like running away so easily and dreaming. !" said the bragging man.

"It turns out that you are the Lord Niu! I have admired you for a long time!" The cat-like woman pretended to be surprised and said, "I heard that your cultivation base can also be ranked among the bounty hunters. Yes, you must want me to see your strength today!"

Niu Buer became more excited and smiled triumphantly, and said, "Hahaha, I am so famous! Okay, since you admire me, then I will let you see my strength! You will follow me in the future. The best..."

Niu Buer hadn't finished speaking yet, he suddenly felt a pressure drop from the sky and fell on him.

This coercion is not very powerful, but it is stronger than the coercion exerted by the second-level cultivation base of Venerable Niu Bu'er, Niu Bu'er can't help being a little flustered.

"Venerable...Venerable three-level powerhouse..." Niu Buer yelled in horror.

At this time, Niu Buer's alcohol strength disappeared, and the worm in his head disappeared instantly.

"Damn, I drank some wine, why did I forget the cultivation strength of these guys in front of me? This is troublesome!" Niu Buer thought in his heart.

Huh!

A dark shadow appeared in front of him instantly, and a dark guy threw an iron fist and slammed a punch at his head.

Niu Buer's reaction was not unpleasant, he blasted Tang Xiaolong's iron fist in a hurry.

boom!

A loud noise came between the two.

Tang Xiaolong's body flew out backwards, his body whirled in mid-air a few times, and then used a teleport before hitting a big tree.

Click!

The big tree that was still hugging the thick was broken by Tang Xiaolong's body.

The big tree fell to the ground with a bang, startled a flock of birds.

Niu is not easy but not easy.

His body was controlled by the coercive force exerted by Li Tian, and Tang Xiaolong's iron fist hit his arm. His body did not fly out, but dragged his legs backwards for several tens of meters, leaving two on the ground. A long pit half a foot deep.

As for his arm, the moment he was hit by Tang Xiaolong, there was a slight noise, presumably the bones of his arm had inadvertently cracked.

"It's a powerful attack. This black dwarf should only have the appearance of the first-level peak of the Venerable. To possess such a powerful attack, it is... it is really frightening!" Niu Buer's body trembled slightly. Thinking in panic.

"Don't follow us anymore, otherwise..."

Pop!

Pop!

The female cat-like woman leaned on the tree trunk, watching Niu Buer and Li Tian with interest, watching the scene where Tang Xiaolong and Niu Buer fisted against each other. She couldn't help clapping her hands, as if all this it has nothing to do with her, she just watched the show.

"Wow, Niubu Duo, you are so strong, you have the slightest tribal disadvantage in one-on-three, you are so strong, you are awesome, my favorite is a hunk like you!" A little star appeared in the woman's eyes and continued Said to Niu Fuji.

When the woman was talking, she flicked her finger, and a rice-sized object was ejected into Niu Buer's body.

This action was quick and hidden, and Li Tian and others did not see it.

Niu Buer had already planned to give up. When he heard this woman's words, he suddenly felt that the spiritual power in the veins that brought him was running uncontrollably.

Suddenly a majestic standing collar appeared in the veins that were originally like a stream.

"Is this the power of love? Maybe today, Niu Buer can use this power of love to break through to the third level of the Venerable!" Niu Buer said with a flush on his face.

drink!

Niu Buer yelled angrily.

With this roar, light yellow spiritual power continuously flowed from him.

The spiritual power was apparent, which was originally possessed by the Venerable Level 2, but Niu Buer had never seen him release such a huge spiritual power.

"Sure enough, my spiritual power cultivation has already reached the second-level peak state of the Venerable. I haven't broken through to the third level of the Venerable. It is a lack of opportunities. I did not expect that the encouragement this woman gave me today would give me the opportunity to break through to the Venerable. The third level!"

"It feels...hahaha..."

Niu Buer laughed wildly.

The surging spiritual power continued to wave back and forth in his veins.

Niu Buer burst into unprecedented potential in an instant, and he kept exerting pressure to break Li Tian's pressure attack.

"Venerable Level 3...I'm here!" Niu Buer gritted his teeth, step by step, slowly walking towards Li Tian.

Li Tian frowned slightly.

It's not that Li Tian had never seen such a breakthrough during the battle, but now Niu Buer is exposed to all kinds of weirdness.

"No, this is not a breakthrough, Niu Buer's cultivation is still maintained at the Venerable Level 2 realm."

"Is it the Demon Blood Yijing Pill? It's not right. If Niu Buer takes the Demon Blood Yijing Pill, even though his cultivation base is not stable at this time, he should have broken through to the third level of the Venerable!"

Li Tian suddenly thought of a word: Exhaust Ze and fish!

Although the energy released from Niu Bu'er is powerful, Li Tian felt that Niu Bu'er would die in this state at any time.

"Haha, Black Monkey, roll over to Grandpa! Take Grandpa's punch again!" Niu Buer exclaimed excitedly.

However, at this moment, Niu Buer suddenly felt that his veins hesitated and couldn't bear the surging spiritual impact and were bursting continuously.

"How...how could it..." Niu Buer called out in horror.

Finally, Niu Fujie still couldn't bear this instant increase in energy, and his body exploded.

boom!

Chapter 4423: : Who is the hunter (8)

The violent explosion is as powerful as the explosion of a medium missile.

Taking Niu Buer's body as the radius, all giant trees, stones, flowers and plants within a radius of 2,000 square meters were wiped out by the blast, and a large pit with a diameter of more than 500 meters appeared on the ground.

Li Tian and the others, who came out of the void of Yasha again, were amazed when they saw this big hole.

"Brain disability is not a disease, it will kill you when you get sick!" Li Tian said, shaking his head.

Niu Bu'er blew himself up because he took the blame, and it has little to do with Li Tian.

For this kind of guy who blew himself up for a woman, Li Tian just wanted to say one thing: good job.

As for guilt, ha ha, that is absolutely impossible!

Li Tian didn't kill him personally, it was already Li Tian's magnanimity.

"Little boss, where is that woman? Did he die when Niu Buer blew himself up?" Tang Xiaolong looked left and right. Seeing that there was no trace of the woman around, he asked suspiciously.

"That woman's cultivation base is not weak, although I can't see through her cultivation base, I am afraid it has reached the seventh level of the Venerable at least! So, that woman must have avoided before the explosion!" He The wind said.

"You said it's almost the same as your cultivation base? How could this be possible? Why do I feel that the woman's cultivation base is probably only about the third level of Venerable?" Li Tian doubted.

Tang Xiaolong shook his head and said, "No, it's impossible. I feel that the woman's cultivation is the first-level peak of the sage, and maybe it hasn't reached the first-level peak of the sage!"

"This is the horrible thing about that woman! And, don't you feel strange? How could this Niu Fujii also be a strong man in the Venerable's second peak realm, how could he be so mindless and blew himself to death? I doubt this I am afraid there is also the woman in it!" He Feng said.

Li Tian suddenly raised his head and looked towards the small village in the distance.

"I am afraid that Niu Buer's self-destruction has already attracted the attention of others. In order to avoid trouble, let's leave here soon!" Li Tian said.

After that, Li Tian took Tang Xiaolong and He Feng around and galloped toward the deeper part of the dark forest.

...

In less than thirty seconds, seven or eight figures teleported and appeared around the huge pit.

Among these people are not only the drinkers in the tavern, but also the other powerful people in the small village, and even the Venerable Nanlan Peak.

"Do you think it's Niubuer?" asked several alcoholics in the tavern.

"Probably not, the three guys who appeared in the tavern just now have average cultivation bases. Niu Fujie is a strong man who escaped from the claws of the eighth-level ghost beasts, how could he be in those three? A guy blew himself up in front of him?" someone said.

"By the way, where did that woman go? How do I feel that woman is full of weirdness!..."

Venerable Nanlan Peak carefully felt the energy fluctuations around him. He was sure that the information source he had been tracking just appeared here, but now the information source was suddenly cut off.

"Blode? Could it be that the guy I was tracking blew himself up? This...it shouldn't be possible! By the way, these alcoholics are talking about three people, are they three people together? If that's the case, then I was one step closer to catching them."

"Team of three, hehe!"

Nanlan Peak took a skin pouch from her waist, and then took out a spiritual source from the pouch, and said to the crowds around: "Do you know the appearance and appearance of the three people just now? If anyone can accurately Tell them what they look like, I am willing to reward a bag of money. If anyone can accurately draw their looks, then this spiritual source in my hand can be his reward!"

"Spirit source?"

Seeing Lingyuan, the eyes of these drinkers were a little straight.

The value of the spirit source in the death battlefield is Phoebe ordinary, and the value of the spirit source is even higher when it is taken from the death battlefield back to the nether world.

Although the spiritual source is no longer useful for the venerable-level powerhouses, it is still worth a lot to exchange the spiritual source for the spiritual soil.

"I...I'm willing, one of the three guys is dark..." a drinker said first.

"This lord, I can draw all of them..." another drinker said.

Suddenly, the few drinkers who just appeared rushed to provide Venerable Nanlan Peak with information about Li Tian and others, and some even took the time to draw a portrait of Tang Xiaolong.

At this moment, the female cat-like woman appeared in the distance silently, and she could not help but frown slightly when she heard the words of these drinkers.

"court death!"

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

A few consecutive rice grains catapulted into the bodies of these six or seven nobles in an instant.

Venerable Nanlan Peak felt that there seemed to be energy fluctuations behind him, and suddenly turned his head, but found that there was nothing behind him.

"Is it my illusion?" Nan Lanfeng shook his head and said.

At this time, the drinkers were unconscious and still described Li Tian and the others to Nan Lan Feng. Unfortunately, there were many people and only Tang Xiaolong's appearance could be heard by Nan Lan Feng.

It's no wonder that He Feng has a face like a passerby, and no one cares about him when he is lost in the crowd.

Li Tian was devastated by a hundred flowers and thousands of insects, and washed his cheeks with spring water. His appearance has not fully recovered for the time being, and his appearance is good.

Only Tang Xiaolong had the highest degree of recognition, short and black, and almost the same as a black monkey, these drinkers had a deeper impression of Tang Xiaolong.

The wine guest who was painting Li Tian and others just now has finished painting Tang Xiaolong, and is racking his brains to paint Li Tian and He Feng.

Suddenly, this venerable man felt the spirit power surging continuously in his veins. These spiritual powers were completely out of his control. The black charcoal pen in his hand was instantly shattered by the spiritual power flowing out, and the spiritual power in his hand The animal skin canvas was also shattered in half.

"This guy is not sick, right?" the other drinkers asked questioningly.

Immediately afterwards, other drinkers felt the same way.

The veins seemed to be on fire, and the severe pain made them scream.

Venerable Nanlan Peak has realized something, his eyes are like gods, and he looks around.

But at this moment, one of the venerable's body veins had begun to burst, and as the veins burst, this venerable screamed.

boom!

boom!

boom!

Several Venerable Drinkers exploded one after another.

At the moment of the explosion, Venerable Nanlan Peak had teleported several kilometers away.

Huh!

Another figure appeared here.

It was Venerable Youhua Yao who chased Venerable Nanlan Peak all the way to here.

"It's you?"

"Hey! It's me!"

"You are the prey that I am fond of, Venerable You Flower Demon, even if you escape to the end of the world, I will chase you after you!" Venerable You Flower Demon said with various gestures.

Chapter 4424: : The tough old lame (1)

Venerable Nanlan Peak was depressed.

How come you get entangled by this dead pervert accidentally?

Youhua Yaozun, the cultivation base of this product is not weak, at least it can rank in the top 100 in the entire Netherworld.

However, with the exception of the twenty domain masters and eighteen emperors, even the other ninth-level powerhouses were unwilling to provoke this guy.

Had it not been for the purpose of tracing the mysterious signal source, Venerable Nanlan Peak would not have come to this deadly perverted Venerable Kingdom!

Venerable Nanlan Peak was a powerful ninth-level Venerable, and he was also a powerful figure who could barely squeeze into the Netherworld Realm.

escape!

Huh!

Venerable Nanlan Peak teleported and disappeared.

"Hey, no matter how cunning the fox is, it can't beat the old hunter, and it will be vain to be stared at by my Venerable You Hua Yao, and escape to the end of the world!"

Huh!

Youhua Yaozun also disappeared.

...

When Venerable Nanlan Peak was chased by Venerable Youhua Yao, Li Tian and others had already entered the outermost layer of the gloomy forest.

There are no roads here and there are few people.

The figures of Li Tian and others swiftly shuttled among the ancient trees.

The red sun is sinking, and the sky has gradually dimmed.

Li Tian took Tang Xiaolong and He Feng onto a giant tree, looking left and right, seeing that there were no other people around, then Li Tian sent Tang Xiaolong and He Feng into the space of Void Yasha.

Li Tian disappeared immediately.

At night, even if the sky is completely dark, for a strong man like Li Tian, there is not much difference from the day.

It's just that Li Tian and others have entered the gloomy forest for the first time today. They don't have enough understanding of the gloomy forest, so it is better to enter the space first, rest first, and wait until tomorrow to fight again.

Entering the space of Void Yasha, the three little Yachas are cultivating, and Li Tian did not disturb the three little Yachas.

After ten years of cultivation on the battlefield of death, the three little Yashas have now grown greatly.

However, Li Tian felt that the cultivation of the Three Little Yashas was more reflected in their abilities than fighting.

In other words, the cultivation level of the three Xiaoyachas cannot be measured according to the cultivation level of the Netherworld.

For example, Void Yasha.

Void Yasha said that his Void Blade has been in the second stage of cultivation, which would definitely surprise Li Tian.

However, as of the current position, Li Tian did not see how powerful the second stage of Void Yasha's Void Blade was. On the contrary, Void Yasha expanded the space of the three small Yashas by dozens of times, which made Li Tian quite surprised.

Therefore, the space of Void Yaksha is now a huge palace. The entire space area has exceeded more than 5,000 square meters, which is divided into three parts: living area, training area, and storage area.

Among them, the area of the living area is close to two thousand square meters, and there are almost forty rooms of various sizes.

In addition to living in these rooms, there are also several laboratories for Liu Yihui. Of course, there are also surgical treatment rooms for Liu Yihui and Windsor.

The area of the training area is relatively small. There are only five training rooms, and the area of each training room is no more than 30 square meters. Between the training room and the training room is more than one meter thick steel plate plus void. The special craftsmanship of the clan is separated, which can satisfy the cultivation of people below the nobleman.

Of course, if you are a powerful person at the venerable level, you can also use these training rooms, but the powerful person at the venerable level is definitely not allowed to swing a fist wantonly.

Besides, a powerful person at the venerable level can completely enter the space of the heavenly spear and practice freely in that vast world.

As for the storage area, this is only a part. Before entering the Netherworld, Li Tian asked Void Yasha to build the space of Dixing Yasha and Feitian Yasha into a storage room.

The space of Dixing Yasha and Feitian Yasha is smaller than that of Void Yasha. Each space is about 3,000 square meters, which is enough for Li Tian to store a lot of things.

According to the lifespan of people on earth, Li Tian will not be able to eat everything stored here in a few lifetimes.

Of course, Li Tian knew that after he entered the Netherworld, he couldn't return to the earth world for the time being, so he arranged the space of the Heavenly Qiong Spear accordingly.

Now the space of the Sky Spear is more or less like the earth world.

Li Tian brought part of the crops of the earth world into the space of the Qiong Spear of the sky, and of course also sent some animals into the space according to the food chain.

Most importantly, Li Tian brought light to the night of the Qiong Spear Space of the Sky.

A huge photovoltaic power plant was built in the Qiongluo space of the sky, and a large winery was also built near the power plant.

According to Li Tian's request, the refugees of the Qiong Spear of the Sky are to be used as farmers. They want to grow crops from the earth, such as corn, rice, and sorghum.

According to Li Tian's plan, after entering the Netherworld, he and the third son of Netherworld said goodbye, and Li Tian followed the little hot pot to find her sister.

Then the Venerable Kingdom of Little Hot Pot sister settled down first, and then opened a tavern, by the way, monopolizing the high-end wine market in the Underworld, so as to obtain abundant resources for cultivation.

Who knows, the plan couldn't keep up with the changes. As soon as he entered the Netherworld, he was captured by the Frost Emperor's people into the Laika Desert, and even his wife Situ Ningbing was taken away by the hostess.

Li Tian didn't dare to take time off. As soon as he was free, he would think of Situ Ningbing, and he would feel more useless. So in the past six months, Li Tian has been cultivating with one heart and two minds, even if he is mining and on the road.

Xue Ji had been silent a lot since Situ Ningbing was taken away by the female domain master, and devoted more energy to cultivation.

Now Xue Ji's cultivation has reached the first-level mid-level of the Venerable, and it is only a line away from the first-level peak of the Venerable.

Back in the Nether Realm, the Little Hot Pot was a lot low-key. He knew that his cultivation realm was completely unavailable in the Nether Realm, let alone help Li Tian, so he was more attentive in his cultivation, and now he has reached the Ninth Cultivator. The early stage of the level.

Breaking into the realm of the Venerable is just around the corner.

Li Letian's cultivation base is now slightly stronger than that of the small hot pot, so Li Letian is under a lot of pressure. Even if Li Tian enters the space of Void Yasha, he will not come out to meet, and seize the time to practice.

As for Xiao Baimao and others, they are now integrated with other refugees, and are now mainly responsible for organizing the food production of those refugees.

Li Tian's other two wives, Ye Meijing and Liu Jimeng, have not had much idea about the Netherworld since they have seen the prosperity of the earth world, and now they want to build the space of the heavenly spear into another earth world.

The two of them are now in charge of Li Tian's photovoltaic power plant and winery.

Of course, the workers in these two places are mainly from the earth world.

Yu Shuangzun's Venerable Kingdom.

Three days ago, Lao Laozi, the head of the human resources department who was responsible for the management of the miners in the Laika Desert, walked into the headquarters of the group and the Venerable National City of the Frost Emperor.

After the old lame used two bottles of Wuliangye to commemorate his love, he has now come to the palace of Emperor Yushuang.

"Emperor Yu Shuang, my lame man is back..."

Chapter 4425: : The tough old cripple (2)

Huangzun Mansion, covering an area of more than several hundred hectares, is the most magnificent building in the main city of Venerable Yu Frost. ,

As the saying goes, five steps on the first floor, ten steps and one pavilion; the porch waist is back, the eaves and teeth are high; each holding the terrain, fighting each other.

Even the most magnificent Afang Palace in the history of China on the earth world is nothing more than that.

The imperial palace is surrounded by a city wall that is more than three feet tall, and the vermilion gate is tightly closed. On weekdays, this magnificent gate is also tightly used as decoration. Only rarely, when there are other imperial lords or domain owners visiting , Emperor Yu Shuang will symbolically let the door open.

Of course, other emperors or domain masters will not pass through the main entrance here, they will teleport into the palace instantly.

In addition, other people who want to enter the imperial palace must enter through the side door next to the main entrance. If there is no backing of the main entrance, this side door is not small, at least even more magnificent than ordinary people's doors.

At this time, the eight Venerable Sixth-level powerhouses acted as guards of the Imperial Mansion, and six of them stood at the main entrance of the Imperial Mansion to drive away ordinary people who were curious about the Imperial Mansion.

Of course, even if ordinary people are curious, they dare not approach the main entrance of Huangzun Mansion a hundred steps away. They will stand a hundred steps away, crane their necks, and look at Huangzun Mansion from a distance, otherwise they will be forced by these guards. The person crushed his head instantly.

Venerable kingdoms like Yushuang Huangzun's land area has surpassed the land area of Huaxia in the earth world. This imperial palace is equivalent to the core and most mysterious place in a Venerable kingdom. Regardless of whether the Venerable Kingdom is ordinary The people, or ordinary cultivators, are proud of being able to enter the imperial palace.

Even if they can't enter the imperial palace and can look at the imperial palace from a distance, they will feel quite satisfied in their hearts.

This feeling is like before the end of the world, ordinary Chinese people rushed to the capital of Kyoto to watch the flag raising. This is a spiritual pilgrimage.

There are a lot of people on the pilgrimage, but the lame is not included.

Seeing that the lame man had walked within a hundred steps, the faces of the pilgrims who were watching immediately showed surprised expressions. There were loudly discouraging people, some who watched the excitement on the wall, and even some people shouted to the guards, let Them went to kill the old lame man.

When the guards of Emperor Yu Shuang saw the old lame man, his expression changed slightly.

As long as they are not the recent newcomers, they have heard of the old lame's name, and of course, many people have seen the portrait of the old lame.

After all, Emperor Yu Shuang does not have many sons-in-laws, but the only one who can possess the eighth-level peak cultivation base of the Venerable is the old lame man.

These guards even a little envious of the old lame, if the old lame is not a  miner, perhaps the old lame must be an important core figure in the imperial palace now.

Unfortunately, there are not so many ifs.

The name of the old lame is full of irony, he will never become the core figure in the imperial palace, and even the Frost Emperor will not allow him to take a step out of the Lycra Desert.

However, now the old lame man appeared here.

The guards couldn't help being a little flustered.

The name of today's guard captain is Zhao Xing. He is a 6th-level powerhouse with a great temperament. He once had a relationship with the old lame, and he naturally recognized the old lame.

Huh!

Venerable Zhao Xing teleported to the old lame man and shouted at the old lame man: "Back! Please step back a hundred steps away!"

This is where his duty lies, and if he can't perform his duty, then it is him who loses his head.

Seeing the old lame man looking up at the tall imperial palace, he didn't even have him in his eyes, and the face of Venerable Zhao Xing was a little unbearable.

"Old lame man, you shouldn't come here. Please don't embarrass me brothers. After stepping back a hundred steps, if you ask to see the Frost Emperor, I will report it!" said Zhao Xing.

"Okay, I'm not embarrassing you! You can report to Yushuang now, just say that my old lame came to him!" said the old lame.

But the old lame didn't take a step back, his face was as usual, still staring at the imperial palace in front of him.

Although Venerable Zhao Xing's face was ugly, he did not dare to provoke the lame man.

Venerable's eighth-level peak cultivation base is not a squad leader who can match his mid-level sixth-level cultivation base. This kind of thing is still left to the Frost Emperor.

Venerable Zhao Xing immediately asked other Venerables to replace him in the imperial palace and report to Emperor Yushuang, while he stayed by the old lame man, not letting the old lame go any further.

A venerable man turned around and entered through the side door, galloping towards the hall where the Frost Emperor was in the Imperial Palace.

"Hey, there is a lot of fun here! I didn't expect that we would come to the national city a thousand miles to see such a rare scene in a century. Haha, it's worth spending so much money!"

"That is, although some of us live in the national city of the Venerable Kingdom, we have never seen such a scene. The last time someone was beheaded by those guards was more than 30 years ago!"

"Have you heard that, what did the guardian call the lame old fellow just now?"

"It seems... the old lame..."

"Is this old lame son the son-in-law in the legend of Emperor Frost?"

"Who knows, anyway, there is our excitement to watch!"

The Nether realm does not have the prosperous entertainment culture of the earth world. Appreciating singing and dancing in the Nether realm is an entertainment that can only be enjoyed by the upper class. For ordinary people, it is a very rare thing to watch a fight. .

If a few people can die, they can discuss these topics for months.

Of course, if Huangzun Mansion is involved, the topic is even more interesting!

The old lame man was nothing but the discussion behind him.

His thoughts have gone back a thousand years ago, back to the years when he was a guard in this imperial palace.

At that time, the old cripple was young.

Ahem... at least outwardly, yes.

At that time, the old lame had been a miner in the Laika Desert for five hundred years. Among them were small captains and squad captains. With good practice, the old lame was already an eighth-level peak powerhouse.

It can be said to be handsome, handsome and proud, and it can definitely be regarded as a long-legged Obama!

Huangzun Yu Shuang's youngest daughter was fancy the old lame man at that time.

Although the old lame also knew that Emperor Yu Shuang's daughter was Jinzhiyue, but love made people blind, and he was quite confident in his own cultivation, and he felt a little lucky in his heart.

I also hope that this opportunity can be used to allow him to gain a firm foothold in the mansion of the Frost Emperor.

who knows.....

Thinking back to the past, the old lame couldn't help tearing.

At this moment, a loud shout came from the imperial palace: "Go! If you don't want to die, go back to the Lycra Desert!"

Chapter 4426: : The tough old cripple (3)

"Yes... Is it... Emperor Shuangzun?"

"Have you heard, it was Emperor Yu Frost who spoke!"

Behind him, the group of people who didn't know the truth couldn't hide the excitement on their faces, and they talked a lot.

"Old lame man, it seems that he doesn't want to see you, so don't embarrass us!" said Venerable Zhao Xing.

"Haha...hahahaha!" The old cripple couldn't help laughing when he heard this slamming.

Sure enough, there is no way to communicate, and there is no need to communicate!

For Emperor Yu Shuang, there were a lot of women and more daughters.

In his eyes, his little daughter was just a little more flesh-and-blood than ordinary people. He can ignore the life and death of the little daughter, but he can't help but consider his face to the Frost Emperor.

However, to the lame man, that woman is his lover, his wife, and the lame mother.

That being the case, what else is there to say?

The old lame was angry in an instant, stretched out his hand, and instantly pushed Venerable Zhao Xing away from him.

A azure blue energy burst out from the old lame man's arm. The moment Venerable Zhao Xing was pushed away, he stopped blasting out, and his body hit the ground more than ten feet away.

"Move... Let's do it..."

"Venerable...Venerable-level battle, we still better avoid it!"

The onlookers who ate the melons immediately retreated.

When the other six Venerable Guardians saw Venerable Zhao Xing being blasted into the air, all the six Venerables released powerful energy fluctuations. The six of them teleported to the old lame man in an instant, while swinging their fists, knives, and attacks. Xiang Lao Laozi.

A sneer appeared at the corner of the old lame's mouth. While performing a gravity attack, his lame leg kicked the bodies of the six venerables.

boom!

boom!

boom!

The fists of these six venerables and the swords in their hands were blown out by the old lame before the old lame's clothes were hit.

One of them slammed into the side door and hit the wooden door behind the side door with sawdust flying around.

"Ok... so powerful!"

"This is the old * in the legend, he is so tough after a long absence."

"These are Venerable Guards. I heard that the cultivation level of these Venerable Guards has reached at least the fifth level of the Venerable, but I didn't expect them to be completely vulnerable to the old lame."

The onlookers kicked in and retreated hundreds of steps, but they were still shocked by the energy released from the old lame. At this time, these onlookers looked at the old lame dumbfounded or sighed in a low voice.

"You said, will Emperor Yu Shuang make the shot himself?"

"Probably...no, in the mansion of the Sovereign Frost Sovereign, there seem to be several experts with cultivation bases above the eighth level!"

"Look, someone has come out!"

Huh!

Huh!

Huh!

Several figures appeared in front of the old lame man in a row.

Five people appeared in front of the old lame man, and the weakest in cultivation was the corpse.

"Old lame, there is a way to heaven, you don't want to go, there is no way to hell, you break in, Lord Yu has a lot to forgive you, let you stay in the Laika Desert, you don't know what to do, but you dare to break into the Frost King. , I think you are really impatient!" Zipao said with a sneer.

The old lame glanced at the corpse, then sneered and said, "The clown jumping beam..."

Regarding the old lame man's evaluation of the corpse, several other venerables who appeared while teleporting with the corpse unexpectedly nodded at the same time.

The corpse is nothing more than a "Red Slash" dedicated to the Frost Emperor. Its status in the Frost Emperor's Mansion has risen, and it has become a figure like the Frost Emperor's right arm.

And what this guy loves to do is to fake the tiger's power and bully his colleagues. This makes the other people who have worked for the Frost Emperor quite uncomfortable. If it were not for the Frost Emperor, they would have long wanted to kill this bastard!

Seeing these venerables nod their heads, the corpse felt angry.

"Fuck, is there still Yu Frost Emperor himself giving orders? Immediately kill this old thing for me, immediately!" The corpse roared angrily at the venerables.

These venerables are not weak in the Frost Emperor's Mansion, and their status is also used to fight back their cultivation base.

Venerable White Book, Venerable Seventh-level peak powerhouse.

Venerable Xin Dao, Venerable eighth-level mid-level strong.

Venerable Tibetan, a strong person in the early eighth level.

Venerable Wenzu, a strong man in the early eighth level.

Although these four venerables were not angry with the corpse, they had to do it now.

"Old lame man, offended!" Venerable Bai Shu roared, and the spiritual power on his body instantly poured out, and hundreds of small yellow books appeared around his body instantly, revolving around his body.

If Li Tian were here, he would definitely laugh at Venerable Bai Shu for writing Xiaohuangwen. But in fact, there is no text on these Xiaohuang books. These books are all gathered by spiritual power, and the pages are yellowed. .

boom!

boom!

A small yellow book, pouring out from the body of the white book, slammed heavily on the lame man.

Don't read these little yellow books, they dance like yellow butterflies, but the old lame man is not careless, because he can feel the power of the White Book!

"Good coming!"

The old lame figure dodged, avoiding the attack of the basic little yellow book, and turning his arms, dozens of azure blue ice swords that were an inch long flew out of his arms.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

These azure blue ice swords flew towards the little yellow book, instantly like those little yellow books chopped into pieces.

Venerable White Book's face changed slightly, but he did not dare to continue the attack, but moved back several dozen meters.

"Haha, you deserve to be an old lame man. I have been trapped in the Laika Desert for thousands of years, and my cultivation has not regressed, but has improved. It is really gratifying. Then I will grow my strength!" Venerable Wenzu said with a wild laugh. .

The old man Wenzu waved his hand, and a three-foot-long gray-black animal skin flew out. The animal skin was flying in the air like his arm, constantly rushing towards the lame man.

"Huh! Little bugs!" The old lame sneered, controlling dozens of blue ice swords to slash towards the animal skin.

However, at this moment, thousands of words suddenly appeared on those animal skins, and these words were shining with golden light.

Venerable Wenzu shook his wrist and completely wrapped the blue ice sword released by the old lame with animal skins.

"Old lame man, now I know that Venerable Wenzu is amazing, hahaha..."

Venerable Wenzu just laughed a few times, but the smile on his face suddenly froze. The ice swords he held in his pocket turned into water and leaked out of the animal skins, and once again condensed into ice swords, from behind the animal skin Cut to the hide!

"Damn it, don't you help?" Venerable Wenzu shouted in shock.

Chapter 4428: :arrow!

Li Tian and others didn't know what happened in the country of Venerable Frost Emperor, so Li Tian didn't know that the old lame had died in Venerable Frost Emperor's country.

He didn't know that the corpse had already betrayed him, and he had already told Emperor Yu Shuang that only Li Tian knew the secret of Hong Zhan.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Several black shadows flashed.

Li Tian has entered the outermost layer of the dark forest, and now his figure is flying through the dark forest quickly.

Li Tian is chasing a ghost beast in the three-level pinnacle realm of Venerable: the fire-faced needle fox.

Tang Xiaolong, Xue Ji, and Meng Guang were closely following Li Tian.

He Feng and others, they continue to stay in the space of Void Yasha, ready to stand by at any time.

If He Feng existed, the energy released by He Feng unconsciously would frighten those low-level ghost beasts in the dark forest and flee, so that Li Tian would not even want to get experience in the dark forest.

As for why there is Meng Guang.

Because this guy will have empty skills!

According to rumors, there is a magical creature in this dark forest, called a tree spirit.

It is said that this kind of magical creatures live in the trunks of big trees, but if you want to see them by cutting down trees, then it is estimated that you need to cut down the entire dark forest, or you may see them.

The legendary tree elves come and go, but the tree elves are the guardians of the dark forest.

Otherwise, even if such a huge forest is not cut down or destroyed artificially, once it encounters mountain fires, lightning strikes, etc., this dark forest may be difficult to preserve.

Since history, there has been no fire in the dark forest, and it is said that this magical species is protecting.

Of course, magical species also possess magical treasures, which are the essence of ancient trees collected by the tree elves, and are called "green trees".

That's right, that's the name.

Remember the little green bottle Li Tian grabbed from Venerable Heartbroken when he was on the battlefield of death?

Of course, the content in the small green bottle is not tree green, but the liquid flowing out of some unique tree species. After this liquid is processed, it will become the medicine in the small green bottle.

There are some people in this dark forest who specialize in collecting the liquid flowing from the trunk.

Just like the rubber tapping workers in the earth world.

However, these liquids must be liquids excreted by a special tree species, otherwise there is no such effect at all.

The green tree is the essence of this liquid, and it is said that this substance has the effect of turning decay into a miracle.

It can make the dead wood come in spring, and even bring back the dead.

Even for humans and other species, this green tree can make dry bones grow flesh!

Of course, this is just a legend, but Li Tian knows that legends are often fabricated by following up certain things.

What if it is true?

Li Tian even thought wickedly in his heart, if he really got this kind of thing, he would like to experiment with withered crane and withered stork.

Ideals are plump and reality is the backbone. Since entering the dark forest, Li Tian and others have not only killed a few nether beasts at the first level, but even the nether beasts at the second level. Don't say it is a magical species like tree elves.

When encountering these ghost beasts, Li Tian didn't use Qingyun Qi Jue.

Li Tian felt that his spiritual power cultivation was not weak, but he lacked some fighting skills to effectively guide spiritual power.

According to He Feng, what Li Tian lacks now is martial arts!

That is, the fighting skills that can guide the spiritual power and make the spiritual power play the most role.

It's a pity that martial arts are extremely rare in the Nether Realm. Even the eighth-level masters of the Venerable may not have martial arts. These Venerables are more like beasts, using their own spiritual advantages, and being tired all year. Some skills acquired in actual combat.

Without martial arts, Li Tian could only improve his control of spiritual power through this most primitive fighting method.

These days, Li Tian and others have used the most primitive fighting methods to fight these ghost beasts.

Don't tell me, Li Tian's cultivation has improved during this kind of battle.

Of course, the Venerable Nether Beast looked like a child in Li Tian's eyes, and couldn't stand Li Tianwan at all.

In a few rounds, he was disabled by Li Tian.

Therefore, Li Tian finally encountered this Venerable Third Level Peak Nether Beast, so naturally he didn't want to miss it like this.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

The figures of Li Tian and others shuttled continuously.

The nether beast in front was called the Fire-faced Needle Fox. It had a sharp mouth. Two teeth spit out from the mouth and barbed like two sharp hooks.

The fire-faced needle fox is covered with a layer of spikes. It is because of these spikes that the fire-faced needle fox looks somewhat similar to a hedgehog, but if you think of the fire-faced needle fox as a hedgehog, Then you are typing wrong.

These spikes on the Fox's body can be launched, like a feather arrow, like a bullet, but they can be shot out.

Moreover, when firing these needles, the fire-faced needle fox is often infused with spiritual power. Therefore, the power of this spike is much stronger than that of a bullet. The needle is fired and can pierce more than seven or eight trees in a row. Enclose thick old trees.

You must know that these ancient trees are not ordinary goods. The bark hardness of ancient trees far exceeds that of masonry and even steel.

If it is an ordinary person, such as the bald lumberjack in an animation, even if he uses a chainsaw, he may not be able to cut the bark of an ancient tree.

"Be careful, that flaming needle fox is about to shoot again!"

Li Tian always felt that what he said was a bit wretched, but this is true.

The acupuncture needles on the fire-faced needle fox are life-saving magic weapons. They will never be launched easily at one time, so it is calculated that the fire-faced needle fox was chased by Li Tian and others. So far, the fire-faced needle fox Only a dozen needles were fired.

Moreover, all of his acupuncture points were directed at Li Tian, the most dangerous person.

However, the needles it shot were all easily picked up by Li Tian with the Heavenly Qiong Spear.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

A few consecutive gleaming needles flew out of the fire-faced needle fox's body, and these needles all shot towards Li Tian as if they were equipped with a guidance system.

Li Tian shook his body, turned the Qiong Spear of Heaven in his hand, and picked up the needles again.

After this pause, the flaming needle fox fled away again.

Don't ask Li Tian why he didn't use teleporting, he went to block the fire-faced fox in front, because Li Tian found that many areas in the Netherworld had restrictions on the teleportation of the venerable.

For example, the Laika Desert in the clubhouse, such as the dark forest in front of you.

It's just like you play on the Internet. Not all areas can be used to cast the city scroll.

Li Tian's teleportation in such a place can also move a distance of five or six meters.

Why not use it.

Li Tian speeded up again and chased the Fire-faced Needle Fox.

However, at this moment, a powerful wave of spiritual power flew out of the woods, and that spiritual power seemed to be a crimson red light that instantly shot through the fire-faced needle fox.

The inertia made the fire-faced needle fox run a few steps forward, and then bumped its head against the tree and died.

But Li Tian's attention was focused on the red light.

After the red light shot through the fire-faced needle fox, it shot through seven or eight giant trees, and then stuck on the trunk of a giant tree.

That red light turned out to be: Arrow!

Chapter 4429: : Bitch

More than a dozen figures flashed out of the woods quickly and landed next to the dead fox. ,

Tang Xiaolong, Xue Ji and Meng Guang chased up from behind and stood behind Li Tian.

"Little boss! Who are these people? Why do you want to * our prey!" Tang Xiaolong said with a little bit of irritation.

Li Tian's heart was also a little outrageous, but Li Tian could feel that the cultivation bases of these guys in front of him were not weak, and the cultivation bases of a few of them might have reached the fifth or sixth rank of Venerable.

When Tang Xiaolong said this, the dozen figures also noticed Li Tian and others.

Their eyes were full of arrogance, and they didn't seem to put Li Tian and others in their eyes at all.

"Let's go!" Li Tian said.

"Just leave? They robbed our prey!" Tang Xiaolong said angrily.

"A few words, there are so many prey in this dark forest, we can continue to chase other prey! Remember, what is the purpose of our coming to the dark forest? There is no need to waste time and experience in fighting for strength." Li Tian said.

Li Tian had already planned to leave, and at this moment, two of the dozen figures actually picked up their bows and arrows and aimed their arrows at Tang Xiaolong.

"Boy, are you repeating what you just said? In this dark forest, everyone can be a hunter, but everyone is also a prey. You are not as skilled as people. You chase a third-level venerable fox. If you can't catch it, what right do you have to complain? Believe it or not, Grandpa now shoots you with an arrow?" One of the archers sneered.

Li Tian had already turned around to leave. Seeing the archer's provocative movements and words, he could no longer bear the anger in his heart and stopped.

What did Tang Xiaolong say?

He was just dissatisfied that these people snatched away and shot and killed the fire-faced fox they had been chasing for a long time. Although his tone was dissatisfied, there was no disrespect.

But what did Li Tian's concession pay for?

In exchange for the arrogance of those bitches.

What kind of person Li Tian is in the earth world, even if he comes to the Underworld, Li Tian can not cause trouble, but Li Tian is absolutely not afraid of trouble.

Seeing Li Tian stopped, a leader-like man of the pair of archers stretched out his arms and pressed down the bows of the two archers, and then his mouth showed a smile that he believed to be a shining sun, facing the person behind him Said: "Bring the fire-faced needle fox!"

Behind him, someone immediately lifted the Fire Face Needle Fox and handed it to the man.

"Young Master Mu Yun, do you want to give this flaming needle fox to them?" the entourage said.

The man who was called Young Master Mu Yun smiled slightly, staring at Xue Ji, and said, "What this Young Master likes to do most is to buy a smile..."

As Mr. Mu Yun spoke, his figure flickered, and he appeared in front of Xue Ji.

His gaze swept across Li Tian, Tang Xiaolong and Meng Guang slowly, and after seeing the cultivation of Li Tian and the others, he couldn't help but sneered with disdain.

"Venerable Level 3, Venerable Level 1, and Venerable Level 1, such a weak team dare to enter the dark forest, even the outermost layer of the dark forest, the danger is not small."

Young Master Mu Yun's eyes finally fell back to Xue Ji. Looking at Xue Ji up close, his eyes couldn't help but brighten, and the smile between his brows became stronger.

Master Mu Yun handed the fire-faced needle fox in his hand to Xue Ji, and said, "My son didn't know that this fire-faced needle fox was the girl's prey, so he took it rashly. , So, let this flaming fox give it back to the girl!"

"Fortunately, my son's archery skills are acceptable, and it didn't damage the most precious head of the fire-faced needle fox. Otherwise, this son is really sinful. Unfortunately, girl you only have this fire-faced needle fox. If the girl doesn't If you dislike it, there are a few fire-faced needle fox heads on my side. By that time, just the fur on the head of the fire-faced needle fox can make a good cloak for the girl!"

"Will the girl go with me?" Young Master Mu Yun asked very gentlemanly.

Master Mu Yun was preconceived and regarded Li Tian, Tang Xiaolong, and Meng Guang as Xue Ji's followers, so his words were not blocked.

"Thank you for your kindness, but we still have other things to do! You should keep this fire-faced fox for fun!" Li Tian said, hiding Xue Ji behind him.

"Get out of here, what are you? Our son has no turn to talk like you to interrupt!" Behind Mr. Mu Yun, a fifth-level expert of the Venerable pushed forward and pushed Li Tian aside. Said with a sneer.

"Rude! How could you be so rude in front of this young man?" Young Master Mu Yun pretended to be displeased and said to his entourage, and then Young Master Mu Yun returned time to Xue Ji, smiled slightly, and continued: "I'm really sorry, I'm not strict with my subordinates. My son is Mu Yun, the eldest son of Venerable Mu Wu, I don't know what the girl is called?"

Li Tian's lungs were about to explode.

Originally, he saw Young Master Mu Yun persuading the two archers to put down their bows and arrows, and saw Young Master Mu Yun personally sending the Fire-faced Needle Fox over. The anger in his heart had disappeared and he was already trying to calm down.

However, Li Tian did not expect that this Young Master Mu Yun would be a weasel giving New Year greetings to the rooster, and he was not at ease.

This * dare someone to tease his woman in front of Li Tian, this kind of thing can't stand a man.

Li Tian once again stood in front of Xue Ji and Tang Xiaolong, stretched out his hand to push away the powerful bow of the Venerable fifth-level powerhouse behind Young Master Mu Yun, and said angrily: "This woman is my Li Tian's wife, so ..."

"It's okay, my son doesn't care! Now my son likes your... woman, it's your honor, you make a price, my son can afford it!" said the sacred man with a fat body.

Young Master Mu Yun showed a slight smile on his face, nodded slightly, and even looked at his followers approvingly, and said with a smile: "Yes, this son doesn't care. This son fell in love with the girl at first sight and didn't care. ..."

Tang Xiaolong gritted his teeth angrily, his fists were squeezed and rattled.

Meng Guang also looked at these * in front of him angrily.

If it weren't for these guys, Tang Xiaolong and Meng Guang would have already rushed to kill all these bastards.

"Li Tian, let's go!" Xue Ji pulled Li Tian's arm and said in a low voice.

"I haven't seen it, this girl is so loyal to you. I like this little lady more and more, what kind of brother, you can make a price! How about using the beast crystals of the ghost beast in the dark forest? If you are not satisfied , Spiritual soil and spiritual source are also possible!"

"You make a price, my son will never bargain..." Young Master Mu Yun said with a calm expression on Li Tian.

Chapter 4430: : Bitch's Arrow

"Don't do it, don't do it!" Xue Ji said in a low voice when seeing Li Tian's arm violently violently because of the clenched fist, knowing that Li Tian was now on the verge of running away.

Every husband is not guilty of guilt!

If the news that Li Tian possesses a space artifact is exposed, then Li Tian will become a situation where everyone shouts and beats in the Underworld. I am afraid that many people will find ways to hunt down Li Tian and * Li Tian's space artifact.

This is why Xue Ji didn't let Li Tian do it easily.

Young Master Mu Yun actually blew a kiss to Xue Ji in front of Li Tian, and said with a smile on his face: "Don't worry, Young Master Mu Yun is not one of those stuffy boys who bully men and women."

"If this brother is willing, then we will pay with one hand and deliver the goods. If this brother is unwilling, then the business will not be righteous, and we can still discuss it!"

Li Tian is actually very sensible.

He knew that if he did it now, with the strength of his Venerable He Feng's seventh-level cultivation base in the Void Yasha Space, and the strength of the other five Venerables' sixth-level cultivation bases, Master Mu Yun would definitely lose the pants he could not wear. .

Of course, Li Tian didn't want to forgive Young Master Mu Yun so easily, he must beat Young Master Mu Yun to his knees and call him Grandpa, so that Li Tian would not be angry.

Also, Li Tian can't do it rashly, otherwise the safety of Tang Xiaolong, Xue Ji and Meng Guang will be difficult to guarantee!

Before making a move, we must ensure their safety.

Of course, Li Tian could also send Tang Xiaolong and others into the space of Void Yasha right now.

But if this is the case, Li Tian's secrets will be exposed, so Li Tian must ensure that he kills all the young master Mu Yun and the dozen guys around him, otherwise, there will be endless troubles.

Li Tian stretched out his hand to put Xue Ji, Tang Xiaolong, and Meng Guang behind him, and cursed angrily: "I'll discuss your uncle! Is your mother selling it? Spirit soil or spirit source, you just make a price, I will buy your mother!"

"It's not the style of my generation to bully others, grandson, dare you to stand alone with your grandfather, grandpa won't beat your * out today, grandpa has your last name!"

Li Tian was full of swear words and vulgar.

"What dog stuff, what dog stuff."

"Damn, I'm low-key enough in the Netherworld. Grandpa gives way again and again, really thinking that Grandpa is afraid of you."

"If Grandpa weren't afraid of the powerful beings such as the emperor and the domain master, and didn't want to cause trouble, grandpa would definitely personally demonstrate what it means to be a low-key person and do something high-profile!"

"At the time of the death battle, many of the descendants of the emperor and the descendants of the domain master died in the hands of grandpa. If grandpa is really urgent, grandpa will kill all of your dozen dogs in the dark forest today. Middle." Li Tian thought angrily in his heart.

Huh!

Huh!

More than a dozen strong bows were pointed at Li Tian at the same time.

Young Master Mu Yun's face was very ugly.

In the home of Venerable Mu Wu, Young Master Mu Yun is definitely a domineering tyrant. As long as he is the beautiful daughter of ordinary people, his doglegs will try their best to treat those beautiful women. Delivered to his bed is called fair trade.

Over time, Master Mu Yun also did these things in Venerable Mu Wu's country.

Everyone knew that he was the son of Venerable Mu Wu, and they did not dare to resist. As long as the son of Mu Yun spoke, there was absolutely no woman who could not buy it back.

This bad habit is hard to change, even if it comes to the gloomy forest to try, this guy has brought this habit, and still wants to buy Xue Ji with the spiritual soil and spiritual source.

Unfortunately, he chose the wrong person.

Speaking of possessing the amount of spiritual source and spiritual soil, Li Tian is his grandfather of Mu Yun.

"One-on-one? You are looking for death!"

"My son tells you the truth, this son is an early powerhouse at the fifth level of the Lord! This son originally didn't bother to use force with you, but since I don't know what is good or bad, and speak badly, then this son must let you see the strength of this son today. ."

"However, if you lose, as long as you teach this girl obediently, this young man can save your life." Young Master Mu Yun said with a sneer.

Li Tian is now the Venerable's third-level peak cultivation base.

So far, although Li Tian has not played against the Venerable fifth-level powerhouse, he does not know how much his cultivation will win against the Venerable fifth-level young master Mu Yun.

However, based on his past experience, Li Tian feels that it should not be too difficult to deal with this Young Master Mu Yun!

Li Tian sneered and said: "Single-to-play! It means you and Laozi one-on-one, and your trash followers can't intervene at will!"

"Ok, no problem!"

"If you lose, Lao Tzu won't want your dog's life, and half of your entourage will be left for Lao Tzu. And you, immediately leave Lao Tzu away, and you will bark once when you see Lao Tzu!" Li Tian said .

"Okay! You all retreat!" Young Master Mu Yun sneered a few times before turning to face his entourage.

"Master, be careful of this kid's deception..."

"The son is mighty and domineering!"

"The son will definitely win, then this little lady...hahaha"

Master Mu Yun's entourage retreated a few hundred meters back, but instead of gathering together, they formed an encircling circle intentionally or unintentionally, encircling Li Tian and others.

"Little boss, you send us away and kill all these * people!" Tang Xiaolong said angrily.

"Lord Li Tian, kill it! As long as the war starts, I can steal the quiver of the four nobles in the shortest time!" Meng Guang said.

"Li Tian be careful, I will let Xiaolong protect us in a while!" Xue Ji said.

"Don't worry, I have already let the earth travel and earth travel Yaksha into the ground, although she is far from being able to exert her strength in the earth world in this dark forest, at least it can delay time, at least temporarily protect your safety!" Li Tian said.

"Little boss, would you really let them go?" Tang Xiaolong asked.

"Guess..." Li Tian gave a weird smile.

...

Young Master Mu Yun stood behind a huge tree that was unexpectedly a few hundred meters away. When this guy decided to fight Li Tian head-up, the original arrogance of this guy disappeared.

Li Tian could even feel the chill unintentionally released from this guy.

Calm, cold, and focused, this is definitely a powerful opponent, and it's no wonder that the descendants of an ordinary Venerable even possess the Venerable's fifth-level cultivation base.

Li Tian held the spear of heaven in his hand and stood upright.

call!

Li Tian let out a sigh of relief and cleared all the messy emotions such as anger from his heart.

Venerable five-level powerhouse, even if it is a junior powerhouse, this strength is definitely not to be underestimated.

Li Tian must go all out.

Whoosh!

Did not say hello!

Seeing the opportunity, Mu Yun suddenly cast a cold arrow.

What a bitch, even archery is so cheap!
