

A Killer 4481

Chapter 4481: : Breakthrough again

Li Tian was almost crying with laughter!

There are always such stupid things around, so Li Tian's life feels boundless.

"So fighting? Do you still want me to swallow your flames?" Li Tian said with a smile.

The black smoke group's face was flushed by the flames, and he was suffocated and said nothing.

Huh!

Li Tian summoned all three small Yasha!

Seeing the three Xiaoyachas, the black smoke group showed a surprised expression, and pointed his finger at Xukong Yacha for a long time and could not speak.

"Black smoke group, we meet again!"

"It's really a narrow road!"

"Today, without that dead monkey supporting you, where do I see you flee?"

Three little Yashas, you said every word.

Hei Yan Tuan turned around and fled, but he just ran a few steps, then turned around, and said with a smile: "The defeated generals, what are your teeth! None of your Yasha Eight Gods are our opponents, let alone yours. A little thing, if at first..."

"Hey! You guys? Who are you with? Are you with the dead monkey?" Feitian Yasha flew up and said with a sneer.

Hei Yan Tuan'er realized again that the dead monkey was dead, and now he was helpless, like a rootless weed.

"Hmph, even if there are no dead monkeys, do you think that your little Yasha will be my opponent? Come, let your dog owners follow you! Let you see and see me!"

The black smoke group let out a few ruthless words, then put his hand in front of his mouth and blew hard against his hand, and then a thick black smoke flew out of his palm.

Then...The black smoke ball turned around and ran away...

No one was chasing him, and the three small Yashas crawled on Li Tian's body separately, watching him escape as if they looked.

You dark soft looked at Li Tian suspiciously, and asked, "Do you really want to chase? If he escapes..."

"No need to chase, he will come back again when Tang Xiaolong breaks through again!" Li Tian said.

Li Tian and the three Xiaoyacha began to study the square box.

The three little Yashas circled the box a few times, and then reached out to stroke the lower box a few times, then the three little Yashas glanced at each other and nodded slightly.

"Master Li Tian, this metal box may be a flying machine!"

"Aircraft?" Li Tian couldn't help being surprised.

"That's right, you look at the texture and pattern on the metal box, it's probably because the metal box was ground like this during the long flight!" Dixing Yasha said.

"Even the domain master-level powerhouse cannot surpass time and space teleport, while the god-level powerhouse can teleport toward time and space, but there are also distance limitations, and each time it teleports over time, it will modify itself. For there is great loss!"

"Compared with the super-temporal teleportation of the god-level powerhouse, the loss of this metal aircraft is much smaller. This metal aircraft can experience long-term ultra-high temperature friction, and there is no need to worry about being involved in the time-space rotation."

"It's just that this metal box aircraft is the lowest level aircraft and can only take one-way flight. After flying once, this metal box becomes waste!" Void Yasha added.

Feitian Yasha rushed and said: "No, although the metal aircraft can no longer perform flying missions, at least this metal is still quite precious. If the metal can be melted and forged, it can at least be forged into a good weapon. If there is a god-level skill If you come to forge, you can even forge a space ring!"

No wonder this metal box is so hard!

Li Tian tried to destroy this box with a purple electric dragon, but failed.

"Yes, it's also a good treasure, then put it away first!" Li Tian backhanded the metal box into the space of Void Yasha!

Because the little hot pot is devouring the magma, the little hot pot will keep moving, and Li Tian and others will follow the little hot pot.

Everyone said as they walked.

"Little Yasha, how do you plan to deal with the black smoke group? Do you have a way to control him?" Li Tian asked.

Feitian Yasha flapped its wings a few times and said, "All things are born, and one thing drops one thing. The nine flavors of this black smoke group are really powerful, but my dark cage happens to counteract each other!"

"Damn, why didn't you say it earlier, if we knew that your dark cage was so good, we wouldn't have been so worried!" Li Tian said with some dissatisfaction.

"Woo, wrong! This kind of time must be when Young Master Void is performing, how can it be our turn? Besides, Young Master Void's Void Blade can also throw him into the Void Turbulence!" Feitian Yecha said.

Well, Li Tian didn't expect that the two Xiaoyachas of Jiuwei Real Fire, which caused his headache, could have a way!

"Since you can restrain the black smoke group, why did you exterminate the clan? Oh, come to think of it, there is a dead monkey next to the black smoke group!"

Li Tian wanted to find a few paintings of Monkey King, and asked the three Xiaoyachas to recognize them and confirm whether the dead monkey in the legend was Monkey King. Unfortunately, there were no such things in Li Tian's space.

While talking, the little hot pot product began to groan happily again. It seems that the cultivation base of this product has reached the highest level of Venerable Level 3, and if it continues to swallow it, it will soon break through to Venerable Level 4. realm.

To be honest, Li Tian is really envious of the small hot pot.

His Li Tian has blue clouds and he has won the source of blood spirit. This is a continuous breakthrough. Now it is only the early stage of the fourth level of the Venerable. What about the small hot pot?

This foodie can break through by swallowing some magma. There is no reason for this.

Of course, the higher the cultivation base of the small hot pot, the better for Li Tian.

If the small hot pot can really break through to the ninth-level peak realm of the venerable, and reach the cultivation base of the emperor, plus the small blue tile two years later, although Li Tian dare not say that he can walk sideways in the nether world, at least he can pick up Situ Ning Ice shouldn't be a problem anymore!

boom!

Sure enough, the small hot pot broke through again!

Venerable's fourth-level early stage.

Li Tian and others are already a little numb!

This time, the energy fluctuation of the small hot pot breakthrough was more than the previous few times. The crimson spiritual power rushed out of the small hot pot, forming a huge aperture, and even lifted the magma in the distance.

There was a gratified smile on Li Tian's face.

"Little hot pot, continue! Don't stop! I'm waiting for you to break through to the realm of the emperor!" Li Tian shouted to the little hot pot.

However, the ideal is perfect, and the reality is the backbone!

Although this magma is of great benefit to the small hot pot, the small hot pot is still swallowed too much and cannot be digested temporarily. It stops continuing to swallow, and instead sits on the ground and begins to refine the magma and spiritual power that has been consumed by him.

Chapter 4482: : Speak and conquer

The black smoke group is back!

This time, the black smoke group lost the arrogance that he had just now, and went down ten meters away from Li Tian to stop, like a defeated general!

"Let's make peace!" said the black smoke group.

The life essence of the black smoke group is the real fire of Jiuwei, which is the fire of Wujin!

If the black smoke group wants to restore his brilliance in the past, he must raise the fire with fire, and use magma and flames to warm the flames in his body.

For this plan of raising fire with fire, the black smoke ball has consumed part of his body's energy.

However, before raising the fire with fire, a small part of this magma has been swallowed by the small hot pot.

If he is swallowed by the small hot pot again, then he would have lost all of his work!

Moreover, as long as Li Tian, Youanrou, Little Hotpot and Three Little Yashas are here, he won't even think about continuing to practice here.

The black smoke group can also choose to leave here.

However, he doesn't think that his current cultivation base can go too far, if he encounters a powerful existence, he may directly absorb his little flame!

Seeing that Li Tian didn't respond to him, the black smoke group was a little aggrieved, and took a few steps forward, looking at Li Tian and said, "Let's make peace!"

Li Tian glanced at the black smoke ball, a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth and said, "How do you tell?"

Heiyan Tuaner took a few steps forward again, pointed to the small hot pot, and said, "Tell him to stop first, don't swallow my magma anymore, he will consume all my magma!"

Li Tian glanced at the small hot pot and saw that the small hot pot was still sitting on a cross-legged seat and said, "What then?"

The black smoke group then said: "You and I have no grievances, there is no need for you to die and live. If you have any requirements, you can tell me, if I can, I can make appropriate concessions. But the premise is that you can't destroy my world. !"

"Hahaha!"

Li Tian suddenly laughed and said, "Or let's talk about the betting thing first!"

"There is no competition at all!" said the black face of the black smoke group.

"Yes, there is no competition! However, you made a request for the competition, and I have already verbally agreed, and we have reached a verbal contract. Because of your withdrawal, the competition did not proceed. This is your surrender! So, according to the contract, now you are Already my little follower! Why are you talking to me?"

"Besides, who said that we have no grievances and no grudges? You should recognize these little Yashas! You and them have an extermination hatred, and I am their master now, which means you and I have an extermination hatred. So not Sharing the hatred of the sky, why do you talk to me about peace?"

When Li Tian said this, his body suddenly released a murderous aura. Seven or seven forty-nine purple electric dragons appeared instantly, wandering around the body of Li Tian, and Li Tian's body was unexpectedly overlord. .

The black smoke group was shocked by the powerful murderous aura suddenly released by Li Tian, and involuntarily stepped back.

"Want to make peace with me, yes! Let me make it clear first! Don't you think your Jiuwei is really awesome? Then you release it, let me see, let me see Xiaoyasha's Void Blade and Dark Cage are powerful or your Jiuwei is so powerful!" Li Tian said with a sneer from the corner of his mouth.

The three Xiaoyashas were holding weapons and staring at the black smoke group in a stern look. As long as Li Tian gave an order, they could take the black smoke group down at any time!

The black smoke group was frightened and backed away again.

At this moment, the black smoke group saw the hostility of a dead monkey on Li Tian's body!

Dead monkey, is this what you call my new master?

but?

He really looks so inferior!

If I follow him in the future, I am afraid I will never be able to restore our past glory!

However, if you do not agree to him now, the result may be even worse!

Thinking of this, the black smoke group let out a sigh, and said in a trembling voice: "I... let's talk about the betting!"

As early as today, why bother!

"Okay, let's talk about the bet! I bet you and I, you lose, from now on, you are my little follower, but you also know that I am the master of the three small Yashas, and they are with you again With this  hatred, if you don't want to be thrown into the void turbulence by the three of them, I mind you better recognize me as the master!" Li Tian said.

The black smoke group nodded.

Since he saw Li Tian's hostility as a dead monkey, he has already identified Li Tian as the master.

Now that he has decided to recognize the Lord, the Black Smoke Group will consider the problem for Li Tian. He wants to help Li Tian become like a dead monkey, no, a stronger  than a dead monkey!

The next thing is much simpler!

According to Li Tian's master identification process with the Three Little Yachas, Hei Yan Tuan'er recognizes the master again, so that Li Tian and Hei Yan Tuan'er will have a feeling of mind!

You Yinrou looked at Li Tian, her heart could not be calm for a long time.

Originally, Youanrou's goal was to become the domain master and the highest existence in the Netherworld, but now compared with Li Tianyi, she feels that her ideal is so humble.

That's right, Li Tian is currently only in the early stage of the fourth level of Venerable, but these helpers of Li Tian are not weak.

The three Xiaoyashas have the blood of a demigod!

The black smoke group, the former owner is a god!

Vicious dog, the only existence that surpassed the domain owner in the Underworld!

The Qiong Spear of the Sky is an artifact used by that powerful woman who slays the domain master like a bag!

In this way, the little blue tile, the Nether Beast that can grow into the ninth rank of Venerable in the future, is not enough!

You Yinrou secretly clenched her fists tightly.

"Li Tian, I will become stronger with you! Domain Lord, this is only our initial goal, and then I will follow you to become an existence beyond the Domain Lord!" You Yinrou thought to herself.

After the black smoke group recognized the master, Li Tian brought the black smoke group into the space of the Qiong Spear of the sky.

After recognizing the magical artifact of the Qiong Lance of Heaven in Li Tian's hands, the black smoke group also knew that Li Tian was the most suitable person to pretend to be a pig and eat a tiger. This artifact was almost the same as that of a monkey.

And the dead monkey got the artifact after becoming a god!

Where is Li Tian?

The future is limitless!

"Dead monkey, I have found a new owner. He is a tough guy like you! After he becomes a god, I will look for your regrets and inherit your will!" Heiyan Tuaner thought to himself.

In the space of the Qiong Spear of the Sky, Li Tian helped the black smoke group to find a volcano and turned the area around the flame into a forbidden area for thousands of kilometers.

Only for the black smoke group to practice around the volcano!

mission completed!

As for the magma underground, I will leave it to the small hot pot!

"I really don't know what kind of height the little hot pot can reach by absorbing all the magma! I really want to wait and see!" Li Tian thought in his heart.

Chapter 4483: : Ants move mountains

Li Tian and You Anrou did not continue to stay underground.

Because the magma needs to be slowly digested in a small hot pot, Li Tian must rush back to the tree elves to continue to help the tree elves to irrigate!

However, Li Tian has clearly told the small hot pot to let the small hot pot go under the towering giant tree of the emperor tree first, and swallow the magma over there first, so that at least the towering giant tree can come alive as soon as possible.

It was the third day since I came out of the cave.

Oolong Fire Ant's ant emperor flew back and forth at the entrance of the cave.

The ant emperor has wings. He can choose to fly, crawl, or drill underground.

However, although the ant king has wings, he does not fly high. He cannot soar in the sky like a bird, let alone roam in the void like a Venerable second-level powerhouse.

All the Oolong Fire Ants looked up at the Emperor!

Ant King does not fly under normal circumstances!

Tired of flying!

He will choose to fly only when he is angry!

The king of ants is very angry now!

He felt he was so embarrassed!

In order to give the elf face to the emperor, he sent a hundred soldiers and ants to follow Elf Li into the cave, in order to let them protect Elf Li and Elf Rou, but now it's good, Elf Li and Elf Rou are nowhere to be seen, so he sent a lot The soldier ant has sneaked back!

This is a deserter!

Those tree elves kept giving Ant King a complicated look and let him experience it. This feeling was really shameful.

kill!

The king of ants was angry and gave an order. He ordered all the forty-eight soldier ants that had escaped from the cave to be executed!

The corpses of these soldier ants were nailed to the trunk of the giant tree. After they were dried into dried meat, they could be distributed to the workers for food!

However, even if these deserters were killed, Ant King still felt uncomfortable!

Being despised by the general tree elves, this feeling is too bad!

"Follow me, let's go into the cave, and I will find Elf Li and Elf Rou personally, and try to ensure that the two of them return safe and sound!"

There was a message in the minds of many oolong fire ants and tree elves, and then they saw the ant king suddenly fall to the ground and crawled into the cave without looking back!

The other oolong fire ants no longer need to deliberately give orders, chasing after the ant king one after another.

"What do we do? Are we going in too?" asked a general tree elf.

"Go in! The emperor tree elves let us follow Li Tian to complete this mission. If the mission is completed by Li Tian, then it doesn't matter if we don't go in, but if the mission is not completed, then the responsibility will definitely fall on this time. On us."

"That's right, once the elves Li and the elves have a long and two short words, then we must be in the dark. Maybe the ant emperor will sue us on the emperor's side!"

"Die and die! The glory of death, the glory of death!" These elves shouted passionately.

However, at this moment, the Oolong Fire Ants who had just entered the cave retreated.

"Antsky, thank you very much for your great contribution to the Oolong Fire Ant tribe. In order to commend you for your contribution to the Oolong Fire Ant tribe, I now officially give you this crown!"

A piece of information appeared in Li Tianhe's mind.

"This is not so good! Why not have something practical!"

Li Tian is a pragmatist. The crown looks at least made of gold and gems, but now this thing is useless for Li Tian!

"Okay! I have a wooden sign here. I will give it to you! If you encounter any difficulties or dangers in the future, as long as you crush this wooden sign, I can sense it. At that time, our Oolong Fire Ants will arrive as quickly as possible! Come to help you!"

A piece of information appeared in Li Tianhe's mind.

Li Tian is a little upset!

Li Tian will definitely not stay in the core area of the dark forest for a long time. Who knows where he will encounter danger in the future, even if he smashes the wooden sign at that time, these ants don't know when and how long they can climb over.

Seeing the red spar behind the ant king's tail flashed red again, Li Tian could only reluctantly accept the wooden sign! Put it into the skin casually, the expression on his face is not very good!

The Emperor Ant laughed happily.

"Little ones, why don't you bring up the prepared thank you gift?"

Another piece of information appeared in the minds of everyone, the tree elves, and the Oolong Fire Ant.

A smile appeared on Li Tian's face.

Thousands of Oolong fire ants entered the tree hole. After less than five or six minutes, Oolong fire ants crawled out one after another. Each fire ant had a thumb-sized crystal on its head. stone.

The spar is not big, but the victory lies in the majority.

In the blink of an eye, at least a few thousand spars were lifted out.

When the ants move the mountain, Li Tian only now realizes the power of the word.

"Haha, are these all mine? How embarrassing is this!" Li Tian's happy mouth almost couldn't close!

Chapter 4484: : Another wooden sign

"Hey! That... that... I heard that you have a better wine than Shuqing, can you exchange some for me!"

Another series of information appeared in Li Tian's mind!

Li Tian's face froze instantly.

"This Nima is a thank you gift?"

"Well, this is thanks!"

Seeing the red flint on the tail behind the queen ant shining red, Li Tian quickly explained.

Li Tian didn't dare to think about it.

The King of Ants is so amazing, even if Li Tian just thinks about it in his head, he can feel it.

Li Tian entered the space of Void Yacha and took out a box of Niulanshan Erguotou.

Seeing this box of fine wine, the king of ants became more and more happy!

"Yes, not bad! Come on more. I have hundreds of thousands of Oolong Fire Ants here. Who can drink this wine?" The Emperor Ant sent a message to Li Tian's mind.

Li Tian was initially unhappy, but then he thought that the space of Qiong Spear of Heaven had already begun to produce fine wine, and these boxes of wine were really nothing.

Li Tian once again entered the space of Void Yacha, and took out four or five boxes of Niulanshan Erguotou.

Seeing so much wine fell into the hands of Oolong Fire Ant, the thousand tree elves thought of Li Tian's wine involuntarily swallowed.

"Elves day, shouldn't these wines be half of our tree elves! Our tree elves are ready to exchange them with tree greens. If you give all the wine to the Oolong Fire Ants, we won't be good to go back. Crossing!" said a general tree spirit.

The King of Ants is a majestic man. How could this wine be easily released after it had fallen into his hands? When the King of Ants gave an order, hundreds of oolong fire ants immediately surrounded a few boxes of wine!

These general tree elves were a little anxious immediately.

But here is the land of Oolong Fire Ants, and there is also the Emperor Ant Emperor. They, the tree elves, dare not be rude, and can only fly around Li Tian non-stop.

"Don't worry, there are some fine wines! These are not in exchange, but as a gift of my gratitude to the Oolong Fire Ant tribe. I will give the tree elves as much wine as I give to the Oolong Fire Ant tribe! I will treat them the same. Lean!"

The tree elves breathed a sigh of relief!

Li Tian went on to say: "Oolong fire ants and tree elves like my wine. I am honored. In order to allow more powerful people in the dark forest to drink this wine, I plan to be in the tree in a week. The elves hold a wine tasting session, and I will bring out more delicious wines for everyone to taste. I want to invite you to participate, and I hope that you will not refuse."

"Wine tasting meeting? There are more delicious wines? Hahaha, don't worry, I will definitely participate in that time! But if there is a wine I like, I hope that you will not be stingy and bring some wine. Supply us!" The Emperor Ant said in a message from Li Tian's mind.

"This is natural. At that time, there will be an exquisite wine auction that symbolizes this status and status. I am the first to tell you about this news!" Li Tian said with a smile.

The Emperor is completely satisfied.

The matter has been settled, but these thousand general tree elves have not played their role at all.

For wine tasting, tree elves and oolong fire ants can not only participate.

There are thousands of ghost beasts in this dark forest, as well as various strange races. If the kings of these races can participate in the wine tasting, Li Tian will definitely be able to make a lot of money by then. .

The invitation to other strong people to participate in the wine tasting was left to the thousand tree spirits. The ant emperor took the initiative to invite Ying, so that his soldiers can also take on the task of inviting other strong men.

Collecting all the oolong fire ants like the spar like a hill, Li Tian walked towards the tree elf clan to leave the ant emperor with the dark and soft.

Back to the tree elves, the magma beneath the towering giant tree has been swallowed up by the small hot pot, and the towering giant tree has been restored to life after irrigation. Li once again told the emperor tree elves a vivid and colorful story of his underground adventure.

The Emperor Tree Elf was very moved. After hearing that the Emperor Ant had given Li Tian a small wooden plaque, the Emperor Tree Elf was unwilling to fall behind and showed Li Tian a light green wooden plaque.

"Elf day, thank you very much for your outstanding contribution to the tree elves. This small wooden card is regarded as our tree elves' reward for you. You know how to use it, and I won't repeat it."

Li Tian saw that the wooden sign was carved with a strangely shaped spiritual character. Li Tian took out the small wooden sign given by the Emperor Ant, and saw that the small wooden sign was written with the word "fire".

By now, if Li Tian doesn't understand the preciousness of this small wooden sign, then he will live in vain!

Li Tian carefully collected the small wooden sign, and then told the elf about his idea of holding a wine tasting meeting.

"Yes, yes! The wine tasting meeting, this is a great idea! The wine you took out, after we drank the tree elves, is still a bit drunk now, it is really a sacred wine! Our tree elves are willing to cooperate with the elves. This wine tasting held in the sky! It's just...cough cough..."The elf deliberately didn't finish the sentence.

Li Tian knew the old guy's thoughts, and he was not stingy, and took out a few boxes of Niulanshan from the space of Void Yasha.

The emperor tree elves were like a treasure, and asked the tree elves to collect these wines. In return, the emperor tree elves gave the same green tree to Li Tian.

Looking at Shuqing, Li Tian's eyes were almost green!

For the tree elves, the green tree is a good wine, but for outsiders such as Li Tian, it is definitely a good medicine for healing!

Shuqing Litian will be arranged by Liu Yihui and Windsor!

Then Li Tian had to start preparing for the wine tasting. The Emperor Tree Elf and Youanrou took the initiative to ask Li Tian for advice.

In the core area of the dark forest, there are many ghost beasts with the level of domain masters, and there are even more ghost beasts in the emperor realm.

According to the emperor tree elves, the ghost beasts only invite those who reach the realm of the domain master.

The reason is very simple, because the ghost beast that has reached the realm of the domain master can transform into a human form, and is proficient in human language and can communicate well.

As for those ghost beasts in the realm of the emperor, sorry, there is no place for you here!

Li Tian finally understood why the core area of the dark forest was forbidden by the domain master and the emperor.

The venue is here for the tree elves. To hold a wine tasting meeting, it must undergo a certain transformation.

Li Tian brought the Void Spirit Race out of the Qiong Spear Space of the Sky.

An Ran asked the Ethereal Race to transform the site according to his design.

Around the tasting venue, there is also a huge, fully enclosed wooden venue. The temporary function of this wooden house is auction!

There are a lot of precious wines in Li Tian's Void Yasha Space. The number of these wines is limited, and tasting is of course impossible. They can be auctioned.

Everything was arranged properly, Li Tian once again entered the space of Void Yasha.

It has been more than a year since I came to the Netherworld, and I should deal with Liu Yihui and Windsor!

Chapter 4485: : Attack on Windsor

Windsor hasn't seen the sun for a long time!

When bored, Windsor imagines the outside world.

The flowers are red and willow green, birds and flowers are fragrant, and the clouds are light and breezy.

It is best to hold Li Tian's hand and step on the grass barefoot, feeling the softness and sweetness of the grass.

However, Windsor knew that this was only her own wishful thinking.

Windsor likes Li Tian. Since Li Tian rescued Windsor from the wedding twelve years ago, Windsor has fallen in love with Li Tian.

But Windsor is not Bai Jing, nor is it dark and soft. Like Xin Rui, she will hide this kind of love for someone in her heart.

But Windsor is different from Xinrui.

Knowing the gap between her and Li Tian, Xin Rui gradually cut off the thoughts in her heart, and then went to like other men.

Windsor will not. She knows the gap between her and Li Tian, and Windsor will try to make up for the gap.

It's a pity that Li Tian treats her more as a younger sister, and never thinks about it anywhere.

Windsor sighed involuntarily.

Following Li Tian to the Netherworld, Windsor did not see Li Tian many times.

On the few occasions to meet, Li Tian would also be entangled by Xueji, Tang Xiaolong, Li Letian, etc. Windsor could not even say a word to Li Tian, and Li Tian disappeared again.

Windsor got used to it.

There is hope for such a life.

Eleven years ago, Li Tian suddenly disappeared. No one knew the life and death of Li Tian. It was a difficult day!

Windsor looked into the mirror and started makeup!

A woman is a confidant, and Windsor usually wears makeup, so that she can show her the most beautiful herself in front of Li Tian.

However, when the Windsor makeup is halfway through, it can't be painted anymore.

Windsor is crying!

When I first met Li Tian, Windsor was just a teenage girl, she was slim at the time.

Windsor is now a mature girl of twenty-seven or eighteen years old, with more delicate skin and fuller breasts, like a mature peach.

Unfortunately, no one came to pick it!

Sometimes Windsor will ask herself: Is it worth it?

For such a man, Windsor gave up the whole world!

This is really giving up the whole world!

But when Windsor saw Li Tian's whole body covered in blood and wounded into the space, Windsor would become extremely firm again!

As long as Li Tian is still fighting, as long as Li Tian is still injured, and as long as Windsor can continue to help Li Tian heal his wounds, then Windsor will feel that all this is worth it!

Windsor stopped crying, wiped her tears and continued to make up!

After putting on makeup, Windsor sat in the room and started practicing.

In this space, Windsor has a lot of leisure time, and when he is bored, Windsor will also practice.

Perhaps because of the medical abilities, Windsor's cultivation talent is not very good, and until now, Windsor has not broken through the realm of cultivation.

But Windsor was not in a hurry.

For Windsor, practice is a way to resolve loneliness!

Whether you can break through or not!

Boom!咚咚!

Someone knocked on the door, it should be Liu Yihui!

Now in the space of Void Yasha, only Liu Yihui and Windsor are ordinary people, and only the two of them have more time.

But Liu Yihui is more moisturized than Windsor.

Liu Yihui used to be a technical house. As long as he doesn't die of starvation, Liu Yihui can stay in the room for ten and a half months to do research.

Now Liu Yihui doesn't need to do research, because his research basically doesn't work for Li Tian and other strong cultivators.

So Liu Yihui became a pure otaku.

Otaku has the benefits of otaku.

Before entering the Netherworld, Li Tian collected tens of thousands of cartoons and tens of thousands of networks according to Liu Yihui's needs.

These are enough for Liu Yihui to see in his next life.

What Liu Yihui likes the most now is written by a rusher named Huachai 1913 before the end of the world: Raising a ghost as a wife, picking a killer as a wife, and tricking a young lady into a wife.

When Windsor saw these names, he was thinking about how short of a wife this thorn is. The lady will not let it go, the killer will not let it go, even the female ghost.

What Liu Yihui likes most is picking up a killer to be his wife, because the protagonist in this book is also called Li Tian, which makes Liu Yihui more substituting.

Unfortunately, the collection of Li Tian was not complete, only the urban chapters were collected. Since the pig's feet Li Tian crossed, the latter have not been found.

Windsor stood up, walked through the living room, opened the door, and Li Tian stood outside the door.

Windsor was a little hard to believe.

Am I already idiot to the point of hopelessly?

Windsor closed the door and opened it again.

The person standing outside the door has not changed, it is still Li Tian.

"Why? Don't you welcome me in?" Li Tian said with a slight smile.

Windsor's big eyes flickered a few times before reaching out and twisting Li Tian's face.

Li Tian did not cry out in pain.

"It really is a dream!"

A sad expression appeared on Windsor's face involuntarily.

But soon there was a smile on her face.

It's not bad to see Li Tian in a dream.

Since it is in my Windsor dream, then I Windsor is the master, I can do whatever Windsor wants, and no one can stop me!

Windsor leaped forward and fell into Li Tian's arms, put his arms around Li Tian's neck, closed his eyes and kissed him.

Li Tian blocked Windsor several times, but Windsor was not discouraged.

"My dream is in charge!"

Windsor's small universe suddenly exploded, and he stretched out his hand and slammed Li Tian in, pulled directly on the sofa, and then took advantage of the trend to pounce on Li Tian.

"Windsor...Be sober, I have something to tell you!" Li Tian said.

"Shut up! In my dream, I am the queen. I don't allow you to resist! You don't allow you to speak without my permission!" Windsor stretched out his hand to block Li Tian's mouth and said sturdily.

hiss!

Windsor tore off Li Tian's clothes, revealing Li Tianjian's figure.

This is the body of a mature man, a man that Windsor is thinking about

Windsor's eyes are a little moist!

Could it be that in my life in Windsor, I can only get Li Tian in a dream?

Thinking of this, Windsor couldn't help crying!

Just dream in the dream, just hope this dream can last a little longer, and it's best to never wake up!

Windsor looked at Li Tian's surprised expression, with a smile on his lips.

"Be obedient, sister will love you well!" After Windsor said this, he directly blocked Li Tianzheng's mouth with his mouth!

Boom!

Boom...

Liu Yihui stood at the door, and just knocked on the door, he couldn't knock anymore!

"Why don't you continue, I'll come back after a while!" Liu Yihui said while blocking a copy in front of him.

"This... Isn't this a dream?"

"It's a dream! It's a beautiful dream! But it's time to wake up now! Windsor, thank you!" Li Tian said.

Chapter 4486: :Thank you! Sorry!

Windsor was crying very much!

"Sorry!"

"Who wants you to apologize? This is my voluntary!" Windsor said angrily, crying.

"Windsor, you are a good girl, I always treat you as my sister..."

"Li Tian, stop being affectionate. Who wants you to treat me as a sister? I tell you, I don't need it!"

Li Tian didn't know how to continue communicating with Windsor.

Windsor stopped crying soon.

She knew that the twisted melon was not sweet and barely happy. Li Tian really didn't regard her as a lover, so she took the initiative to send it to the door and Li Tian would reject her.

Thinking of this, Windsor was a little sad involuntarily!

"Thank you Li Tian! Thank you for telling me the truth! I should know that I am satisfied!" Windsor said.

"I'm sorry!" Li Tian said.

Because of the episode of Windsor's incident, Li Tian originally wanted to match Liu Yihui with Windsor, but it didn't end.

Li Tian approached Liu Yihui and told Liu Yihui that he would hold a wine tasting meeting in the tree elves of the dark forest in a week, and many racial powers in the dark forest would attend.

Li Tian wanted to bring Liu Yihui, Windsor and others to help, and take a look at the outside world.

After talking about this matter, Li Tian explained to Xukong Yasha again, and asked the three little Yashas to accompany Windsor more recently. If Windsor wants to come out, let Xukong Yasha take Windsor outside.

There is no guarantee for other areas, at least now in the area controlled by the tree elves, Li Tian and others are absolutely safe.

Li Tian did not continue to stay in the space of Void Yasha, and entered the space of the Qiong Lance of the Sky.

Li Tian summoned He Feng, Tang Xiaolong, Xue Ji, and Liu You to ask them about the progress of the selection of members of the Tianshou, because the small hot pot is now practicing, and Li Letian participated in the meeting on his behalf.

Adhering to the principle of Ningque not overrun, they are not recruiting many people now. He Feng is anxious to come in three Sky Assassins. The cultivation bases of these three Sky Assassins are high and low, and the highest is the one who has reached the Venerable Level 5. Venerable, the lowest is the Venerable at the first level.

Both Tang Xiaolong and Xue Ji only recruited one person, and the two recruited had the same cultivation base, and both were at the first level of the venerable state.

The number of recruits for Liu You is slightly larger. The five tentative recruits are all full. All of them came out of the Supreme Mansion with Liu You. The cultivation base is not high, only the first level of the Supreme Realm, but there is absolutely no problem with their loyalty. . Two of them have a relationship with Li Tian.

The little hot pot is not there and no one is recruited.

The number of recruits for Li Letian's reserve service is not too large, because Li Letian recruits personnel completely in accordance with the requirements of the sky thorn, and the little blanket and the little lame have entered the reserve.

Both Little Blanket and Little Cripple have good talents. After getting ample supply of spiritual sources, the cultivation base of the two has improved very quickly. If nothing else, within a year, both can reach the ninth level of cultivator. realm.

How many people are recruited and how many people are used.

These days thorn members will be taken by Li Tian to the wine tasting meeting, and Li Tian also plans to select five people to take out together in the reserve.

The first is to let them see the Nether Beast of the domain master level, hoping that they can gain something, and the second is that Li Tianxiang officially began to practice the sky thorn.

Li Tian also worried about the cultivation of Tang Xiaolong and Xue Ji.

The two of them actually practiced quite hard, but if there is no great chance, there is no shortcut in cultivation. Even if Li Tian can provide them with spiritual soil and spiritual stones, the improvement of the two of them will be quite slow.

Li Tian suddenly thought of Lingjing Snow Lotus.

According to You Yinrou, the spiritual power contained in this spirit crystal snow lotus is extremely pure. Anyone can absorb the spiritual power in the spirit crystal snow lotus, which is of great benefit to the cultivator.

There are even powerful emperors who come to the mountains of the gloomy forest to look for the snow lotus.

And this Lingjing Snow Lotus is definitely priceless in the Nether Realm.

Any crystal snow lotus that appears in the auction will be auctioned for a sky-high price!

"I hope they can absorb the spiritual power in the snow lotus of the spirit crystal to make them break through soon!" Li Tian thought in his heart.

Li Tian handed his only two spirit crystals, Snow Lotus, to Xue Ji and Tang Xiaolong, and asked them to hurry up to practice.

Li Tian even wondered if he should let Meng Guang go back and forth a few more times to see if he could steal this thing again.

After that, Li Tian met the third son of You Ming again.

If the cultivation base of Li Tian and others cannot be improved temporarily, enough to reach the self-protection ability, the third son of the Nether will not be able to appear in the Nether Realm.

Li Tian thought about using black mud to change their appearance and let them return to the Nether Realm for a while, at least to see their Huangzun father first, but was rejected by the Third Young Master.

However, if they have been in the space of the Heavenly Qiong Spear, it will not be easy to improve their cultivation level. Therefore, Li Tian plans to let the Third Young Master stay in the dark forest in the future and let them take care of Li Tian's work in the dark forest Fine wine business.

Of course, Li Tian also hopes that they can often contact domain masters and emperor-level powerhouses, so that they can quickly improve their cultivation.

In fact, their cultivation speed is not slow, it can even be said that they are already quite fast.

But Li Tian was anxious, and Li Tian could not demand them from the Netherworld.

After listening to Li Tian's words, the three sons of You Ming looked at each other and were extremely excited.

This is the core layer of the Dark Forest, an area that even the emperor and the realm masters dare not enter without authorization. I did not expect that the three of them who only have the first level of the venerable can come in, and the future will be very For a long time, he could still stay in this place.

"Brother Li Tian, please feel free to leave it to us!"

"Yes, you are to make the best judgment and choice in life!"

"Yes, yes! Our third son of Netherworld is famous in the Netherworld. If we have such a good opportunity, we can also practice better, so that the three of us will not drag the Li Tian brothers back!"

Li Tian nodded and said, "I believe you. It is estimated that I will stay in the dark forest for two years at most. Once the little blue tile breaks through the ninth level of the venerable, I will definitely leave the dark forest. I hope that your cultivation base will at least break through to the Venerable Level 3. Otherwise, you really even...cough!"

Li Tian suddenly thought that he might not have broken through the ninth level of the Venerable within two years, so he didn't say anything.

"This... is a bit difficult, right? We broke through to the Venerable's third-level realm within two years. If this is the case, aren't we the few geniuses in the Nether Realm?"

"Yeah, you know..."

"Guaranteed to complete the task, if we can't break through to the three-level realm of Venerable within two years, our brother is willing to swallow manure and kill himself!" Ye Liangchen said.

...

After nearly a week of preparation and planning, the first dark forest wine tasting event officially kicked off!

But no one thought that this tasting event would not go smoothly!

Chapter 4487: : Wine tasting

The area of the tree elves is already a sea of joy.

Hundreds of soldier tree elves are like red scarves, forming a variety of squares. Under the accompaniment of blowing tree elves, they dance in the air and dance cheerfully.

In front of the towering giant trees, there are rows of one-meter-high white stone platforms. The stone platforms are arched. Starting from the first row of stone platforms, they want to expand, and they have widened for nearly twenty rows!

Looking down from high to high, these white stone platforms seem to be wifi signals.

The invited ghost beasts are all powerhouses above the domain owner, and special species like tree elves only invite the emperor.

As for the entourage, they are not within the scope of Li Tian's invitation, they can play happily outside by themselves!

There are a large number of people, and Li Tian did not specify the seating position. He just stipulated that all the strong who arrived at the venue could be seated in the order of arrival.

The day before the wine tasting, the Emperor Ant arrived, and Li Tian could only accompany him.

The Emperor of Ant was full of praise for Li Tian's wine, claiming that Li Tian's wine was definitely the best wine in his life.

The frog at the bottom of the well is really sad.

The Emperor Ant probably drank Shuqing, even the ordinary Niulanshan was enough to make him intoxicated.

The Emperor Ant was accustomed to this kind of thought in Li Tian's heart, and he did not remind Li Tian to pay attention to it from time to time, but Li Tian still paid a bottle of Niulanshan for this to make Ant Emperor happy.

A little bit later than the ant emperor is a handsome young man who is dressed in a suit and embroidered with birds and phoenixes? No, it should be a gown with a peacock pattern to be exact.

According to what Li Tian could guess, this guy must be the human form of the Green-eyed Territory Nine Ling in the dark forest.

The Emperor Ant and the Emperor Tree Elf confirmed Li Tian's conjecture.

For this kind of domain master-level powerhouse, Li Tian maintained the respect he wanted.

The visitor was the guest, and the Green-eyed Terminator of Jiuling had arrived early, so Li Tian invited him to drink and have fun. However, to Li Tian's surprise, the Territory of the Green-eyed Bird of Jiuling just glanced at Li Tian proudly. At a glance, he didn't pay attention to Li Tian.

Li Tian can only give up!

Then the Green-eyed Territory Jiu Ling sat proudly in his seat all night.

There are domain master level ghost beasts and emperors arriving to the president one after another.

These domain masters and emperors are rare to meet together, eating the fruits prepared by the tree elves and drinking the green trees, just like a tea party, and talk freely.

It is estimated that these domain owners and emperors have been coveting the tasting meeting for a long time, so no one was late within the stipulated time.

First, the host, the elf of the emperor tree, gave a welcome speech, and talked a lot about it. Finally, the elf of the emperor tree saw that some domain owners were already impatient, and it ended hastily.

Then Li Tian came to the stage.

"Dear domain owners and emperors, you are welcome to take time out of your busy schedule to participate in the first dark forest wine tasting conference. My name is Li Tian, a businessman and the organizer of this wine tasting conference. Please forgive me for any lack of hospitality!"

"Today we are mainly divided into several processes. The first is the wine tasting conference. At the wine tasting conference, I will bring out the various fine wines I still treasure for you to taste and you can speak freely."

"Secondly, if you are interested in the wines I provide, you can go to the building next to the giant tree on my left after the tasting meeting to order the venue! The ordering venue accepts orders for all types of tasting wines, the quantity is per person. The quantity stipulated by the domain owner and the emperor does not exceed twenty bottles!"

"We accept all kinds of exotic treasures. The prices of all exotic treasures are assessed by our jury! Our jury consists of the ant king of the Oolong fire ant family, the emperor tree elves of the tree elves, and the dark Territory Lord, Dark and Soft, is in charge!"

"Let's get started, we are all impatient!"

"That's right, be careful that this domain dominates your drinking!"

"Shut up all the * to Lao Tzu, didn't you hear that he was the organizer of this tasting meeting? Kill him and drink your pee!"

At the beginning, several domain masters and emperors quarreled impatiently.

Li Tian smiled slightly, and did not mind.

His goal was also to exchange fine wine for the treasures in the dark forest that both the emperor and the domain master looked at. It was not that the welfare agency gave away white wine. If Li Tian could not finish what he wanted to say, this wine tasting party would not be possible.

Li Tian smiled slightly, and continued: "If the wine at the wine tasting does not make you heart-stricken, we will have a huge auction at the end. The wines auctioned at the auction are all limited-edition wines, and the quantity is limited. It is really a bottle of drink. One less bottle!" Li Tian said with a smile.

"The domain owners and emperors participating in the auction need to register with our staff first to receive the auction number plate. Because the dark forest does not have a unified currency, I dare to use the ordinary Niulanshan Erguotou wine tasting this time. Virtual currency, our staff have detailed auction systems and regulations, and every applicant will receive one at that time!"

"If it is extra, I won't repeat it. Now we have the tree elves from our tree elves clan to give us the first wine we tasted..."

Following Li Tian's order, nearly two thousand Laishi carried the tree spirits to the wine container, flashing their wings and slowly flying in front of everyone present.

"The first fine wine is the white bottled Niulanshan Erguotou 42%, 500ml, aged and aromatic. It is your best companion for home travel and resolving loneliness!" Li Tian shouted.

All the wine containers are sealed with leaves, so although the wine smell can evaporate, it is not very obvious!

When the tree elves opened the leaves at the same time, the whole venue was immediately filled with the aroma of wine.

Those domain masters and emperors picked up their wine glasses and started tasting.

Those who know how to taste smell first, taste later, and then slowly drink into their mouths, closing their eyes and savoring.

And those domain masters who don't know how to taste, the emperors took up their wine glasses and drank them, then patted the table vigorously and shouted, "Good wine, another glass!"

Of course no one will really serve him another glass of wine.

These guys had finished drinking, smelling the scent of the wine in other people's glasses, with a greedy expression on their faces, and even some domain owners kept licking their tongues, and they didn't look like a domain owner at all.

After waiting for less than a minute, Li Tian once again let the general tree elves continue to serve the second wine.

"The second wine is Niulanshan Huanglong, a classic 52%, 500ml yellow porcelain bottle Erguotou liquor. This wine is beautifully packaged and is a symbol of your noble status. The mellow taste is a must-have for visiting relatives and friends!" Li Tian continued to shout.

As soon as Li Tian finished shouting, the Jiu Ling Green-eyed Peacock Domain Master suddenly stood up.

Since it's a tasting session, we should bring the wines happily, let us drink them one at a time, do you play with us like monkeys when you drink the wine one by one? "

Chapter 4488: : Wine tasting

Li Tian's brows frowned.

He doesn't remember when he offended the Nine Ling Green-eyed Sparrow Territory. Even yesterday, Li Tian took the initiative to invite him to a gathering between Li Tian and the Emperor of Ants and the Emperor Tree Elves.

But who would call others the powerhouse at the domain master level?

Li Tian could not afford to provoke and hide, he could only laugh with him, and said, "This domain master, I am afraid you have misunderstood! Because the wine tasting party has different aromas and spirits, in order to let everyone You can taste all these wines in the original flavor. This is the setting. There is absolutely no meaning to play with you!

"Furthermore, I, Li Tian, is just a businessman. I can see it from the ant emperor of the Oolong fire ant tribe and the emperor tree elves of the tree elves. It's not far away to enter the dark forest and do wine business with everyone. How dare you? Playing with you!"

"Of course, if it's because I didn't entertain you well, then you can bring it up, but this has been formulated. It must not be changed because of you alone, otherwise it would be unfair to other domain owners and emperors. Besides, you can't ruin the wine tasting of thousands of domain masters and emperors just because of your own emotions, right?"

"Everyone, do you think this is true?"

Li Tian took advantage of the situation to lead the Jiuling Green-eyed Sparrow's dissatisfaction with him to other domain owners and emperors, so that even the Jiuling Green-eyed Sparrow would have to weigh it carefully!

"Yes, being a human being, oh, sorry, it should be said that being a beast cannot be too selfish, you are delaying everyone's wine tasting time!"

"Fuck, if you don't want to taste the wine and leave Laozi far away, I still have to wait to order the wine!"

"Yes, that's right, this wine is really great! It's really stronger than the tree elves of the tree elves!"

"Shut up, old stuff, we are now in the place of the tree elves, you drink the tree elves of the tree elves, and you are so disrespectful to the tree elves, and you drink the green furry guy the same!"

In the venue, none of these domain masters and emperors are ordinary characters, so how can they fear domain master-level powerhouses like Li Tian? When they speak, they are naturally rude.

Jiuling Green-eyed Bird Territory's face was very ugly, and his eyebrows jumped several times.

He really wanted to pat the table and leave, but he was a little reluctant to bear Li Tian's wine. After thinking twice, the Green-eyed Territory Jiuling still sat down slowly.

But he was already killing Li Tian!

...

The wine tasting party continued, and ten wines were served in a row in the order Li Tian originally planned.

Niulanshan Erguotou, Xinghuacun, and Luzhou Laojiao each have three courses, and one is a self-brewed white wine in the Qiongluo space of Tianzhi.

It's not that these wines are not good, but the storage capacity of these wines is larger. Naturally, if you want to change it, it must be the main recommendation.

After the tasting of the ten wines, almost all the domain masters and emperors were dissatisfied, and grumbled and complained about Li Tiantai.

Li Tian quickly came out to explain.

"My lords, lords and lords, ten glasses of wine don't look like all, but I'm going to entertain you nearly two thousand as lords and emperors. This number is quite a lot! Lord, emperor, rich and powerful, I am just a small businessman, please forgive me! If you are not satisfied, you can go and order wine now!" Li Tian said.

Jiuling Green-eyed Sparrow Domain Master did not stand up this time, but still snorted coldly, and said in a weird manner: "Huh, since you don't have the ability, don't hold any wine tasting meetings!"

Li Tian can only pretend not to hear.

Li Tian pretended not to hear, but the other domain masters and emperors were a little dissatisfied, and they accused the Jiuling green-eyed domain master.

"What the  are you? Li Tianqin said it was reasonable, ten glasses of wine per person, this number may not be small, if you have a lot of money, you can order some wine for everyone to taste! I guarantee all People will praise you!"

"Yes, what!"

"I don't know where the bang came out of the stuff. It's a thing that cannibalize people and even beasts understand. This stuff doesn't even understand it. It targets a small businessman everywhere. What kind of ability is this? Have the ability to come to Grandpa! "

Well, these hot-tempered domain masters and emperors don't have a fuel-efficient lamp. If they are not in a hurry to order fine wines and participate in auctions later, these guys may be doing it now.

Li Tian came out again and quickly apologized, and asked the tree elves to guide the domain masters and emperors to order wine, or go to the auction to wait for the auction!

Under the towering giant tree, the ant emperor flapped his wings and flew to the emperor tree elves, and said in a low voice: "Old man, Ant Heaven is our most respected friend of Oolong Fire Ants. If that  little sparrow has to look for Li Tian The trouble, our Oolong Fire Ant is definitely going to help Li Tian! Then old fellow, don't stop it!"

"Old thing, when did the fairy sky become the ant sky? This is the area of our tree elves. If the little sparrow dares to trouble Li Tian here, it is to hit our tree elves in the face. Then I will be the first Won't forgive him!" the elf said.

"Hehe, the old guy really has a good understanding with me! But old guy, don't participate in this muddy water. The little sparrow and our oolong fire ant clan already have grievances, even if our oolong fire ant generals He was slaughtered, as long as we hide in the ground, the Jiu Ling Green-eyed Sparrow Clan can't be like us!" said the Emperor Ant.

The Emperor Tree Elf laughed a few times, and then whispered: "Old thing, are you the kind of bug that can live underground for a long time? If you are caught by the sparrows, it will be a problem! What's the matter? Let's take the matter together!"

Li Tian is not too far away from the Emperor Ant and the Emperor Tree Elf. Hearing the words of the two old guys, Li Tian couldn't help but feel a little moved.

In this dark forest, Li Tian is the weakest existence.

Doing business here is definitely taking a very big risk. If there is the support of these two races, then Li Tian is full of confidence.

Make money with harmony, if he can't conflict with the Green-eyed Territory Jiuling, Li Tian is absolutely unwilling to conflict with him!

...

"Come on! Make a note of Niulanshan, Ten Bottles of Green-eyed Golden Toad Region, and Ten Bottles of Xinghua Village in Xinghua Village. If you are right, Laojiao will also come to Ten Bottles!" said a domain owner with a lumpy face.

"Only thirty bottles? I think you shouldn't be called the blue-eyed Jin Chan, you should be called Lao Kou! The domain owner of the dignified blue-eyed Jin Chan clan only orders such a little wine, I think you let it go!"

"Come on, order me fifty bottles of all kinds of wine! I am..."

Inside and outside the room where you ordered fine wine, there were those domain masters and emperors everywhere.

The venerables that Li Tian arranged to maintain the order here are the opponents of these domain masters and emperors, they have already been squeezed and crooked.

The scene is too hot!

Chapter 4489: : Wine tasting

The popularity of fine wine ordering continues. .,

"What? Old stuff, I am the scale of the fire dragon. I pulled it off from the mid-level ninth-level strongman of the dragon clan. You can see clearly that there is blood on it! It is a genuine dragon scale! Although it is not the domain master I was unplugged from the powerhouse, but this thing represents my glory! It is precisely because of this battle that Laozi broke through to the realm of the emperor, and laid a solid foundation for later becoming the domain master!" The domain master stared and said.

The Emperor Tree Elf threw back the fire dragon scale that was still covered with dragon blood, and said disdainfully: "This is your personal glory. What does it have to do with us? What role can this fire dragon scale do besides decoration?"

"Nonsense, this scale has such strong defensive power that it can be made into scale armor..."

"Can you resist the full blow of the strong master of the domain?"

"No!"

"Can't you talk nonsense? All the people who participated in the wine tasting meeting this time are all powerful people at the domain master level. You can't even stop you with a single blow. Are you embarrassed to take it out? I think you are sincere, and I do Don't pretend to be with you. With this fire dragon scale and this fire sprite, you can exchange for a bottle of Niulanshan Erguotou at the lowest end. If you agree, you can change it, and if you don't agree, you can unsubscribe! What the fuck!" Hehe smiled and said.

The ant emperor and the emperor tree elves are sincerely towards Li Tian. All kinds of treasures have been shining with stars in Li Tian's eyes, but in their eyes they are ordinary.

If this is the case, then they must not let the price of treasures exceed the price of fine wine, otherwise there will be no way to show the noble value of fine wine.

Of course, Li Tian has promised to send a few boxes of wine after the wine tasting is over. The reason is that the Emperor Ant and the emperor are the co-organizers of the wine tasting. The wine is a labor fee.

For nearly ten thousand years in the dark forest, Li Tian was the first to let the emperor and the strongest work for him!

"What? Niulan Mountain at the lowest end? I won't change it!" The domain owner said angrily.

"No, go slowly!" The elf said with a slight smile.

The domain owner is a little bit reluctant!

Just now, the domain owner ordered fifty bottles of various wines.

Li Tian played hunger marketing again, and announced loudly that because the order was not paid for the deposit, the order can only be regarded as an intention. If the transaction cannot be completed as quickly as possible, then if the wine is sold out, the remaining orders will be needed. Wait a long time.

As for how long it will take, Li Tian didn't say clearly, but those domain owners were anxious, absolutely not allowing the ordered wine to wait any longer.

So after the order was successful, those domain owners who wanted to take the wine away as soon as possible rushed to the jury, took out their treasures, and let the jury judge.

Originally, these domain owners thought that if they took out a treasure at will, they could exchange a few bottles of wine for him, but who would have thought that what they thought was a treasure in the eyes of the jury was almost  and ordinary, even though the number of fine products is very small, not to mention being assessed as a treasure!

"This is not fair, we have to protest!" Some domain owners clamored loudly with dissatisfaction!

"What are you protesting against? These are all ordinary things, how much wine do you want to change?" You Yinrou said.

"It's normal? If it's normal, how much can you get out? Don't play with us as fools. We are all domain masters. How many domain masters are there in this Netherworld human world? If a treasure is obtained from a human being, it will be looted, but it is classified as  and ordinary goods here! Is this suitable?" The green-eyed sparrow master Jiu Ling jumped out again and said with a sneer.

"Then how much wine do you want to change for such a piece of spirit stone?" The dark and soft complexion said as usual.

"At least one box is needed, not two boxes!" said the domain master Jiuling Green-eyed Bird.

Youanrou smiled suddenly, turned it over, and immediately poured out a small pile of treasures on the table in front of her. These treasures were obtained from the Nether Snow Beast!

"Then if, as you said, open your eyes and see clearly, can these things in my place be able to replace all the fine wines? If this is the case, then you don't need to line up! Because of this fine wine it can be done by me alone!" You Anrou said.

Upon hearing what You Yinrou said, the other domain masters immediately became a little unhappy.

"No, no! You must strictly follow the rules laid down before! You are all commonplace. You can change at most ten bottles of wine, um, yes, no more!" said the domain owners.

"Yes, things are rare! These wines are more delicious than the tree spirits, and the quantity is limited. If you don't want to change it, you quit. Li Tian didn't force you to change it!"

"Yes, that's right! The wine we drank at the wine tasting was less than a thousand bottles. Isn't there any cost for these fine wines? It's right to sell this fine wine a bit more expensive!"

"Haha, stand behind you! Don't buy wine in front of the uncles! Lord has treasures, but he doesn't have fine wine, so I am happy to spend more treasures in exchange for fine wine!"

Some domain owners who didn't lack money immediately yelled excitedly, saying that they didn't lack money.

Jiuling Green-eyed Bird Territory Master had a blue face, and he could only crawl in the crowd dingy, not dare to talk nonsense.

"I'll add a fire spirit spar, so I can change a bottle of advanced Niulanshan?" The domain master just took out a flexible spar and said.

Emperor Ant, Emperor Tree Elf, and Youanrou looked at each other and nodded at the same time.

"Yes! Then you only change a bottle of high-level Niulanshan? This is not something that the domain master does!" The ant emperor added fuel to the fire and said with contempt.

"A bottle? Are you kidding me? The ninth-level strongman of the Dragon Clan of Lao Tzu fought with Lao Tzu for three days and three nights before he was killed by Lao Tzu. The scales on his body were stripped by Lao Tzu. Dragon Warrior!"

Speaking of the domain owner, he flipped through, and poured a pile of blood-stained fire dragon scales and fire sprites on the table, and said with a smile: "Fortunately, I kept my hand. These things are enough to pay for the wine I ordered. Right? There should be a little surplus. These wines are used as tips for Li Tian, don't ask why, rich and willful!"

The eyes of Venerable Xishan from the southeast, northwest and west who helped around the assessment meeting were straight.

"This is the scale of the fire dragon! Except for the dragon king, there are so many hardest scales on the strongest dragon? How many wines did we drink? On weekdays, how many dragons do we drink? !"

Thinking of this, the four mountains, southeast, northwest, and the four mountains are so cruel that he can't make a few mouthfuls!

Chapter 4490: : Auction starts

After the first domain owner confirms the order, the rest is much simpler.

In a short while, thousands of bottles of fine wine were taken away by those domain owners!

All kinds of treasures have filled a room in the blink of an eye.

The four mountains in the southeast and northwest were still transporting back, and the corners of Li Tian's mouth were almost smiling to the eyebrows, and the three little Yashas kept sending the treasures into the space of the Void Yasha!

This is really a fortune!

Among so many treasures, many are spars that can improve spiritual power cultivation.

If these spars are used on the Skystab team, Li Tian believes that within ten years, at least a powerful combat force with an average level of six or seven of the Venerable can be cultivated.

In addition to the scales made of the scales of the fire dragon, and the swords made of the iron of the profound crystal, the sky thorn after ten years can definitely shake the entire Netherworld!

Here it was handed over to the three Xiaoyachas, and Li Tian rushed to the auction again.

The auction has already begun. Almost all the wines auctioned at the auction are the relatively high-end wines such as Wuliangye and Moutai in the world, and there are also a few bottles of foreign wines.

These wines are auctioned on a group basis, and one group is six bottles!

There are two groups in Wuliangye, two groups in Moutai and one group in foreign wine!

The quantity is limited, and the price of this auction will never be too low!

The old man of the four elephants presided over the auction!

After receiving Li Tian's meticulous care, the four elders have been completely freed from the hardship of being a spiritual miner. Coupled with the constant supply of Li Tianling, the four elders have reached the ninth level of cultivation. At the peak, the distance to break through to the realm of the venerable is only a bit of luck and fortune.

The four beauties who assisted the four elephants in the auction were Windsor, Ye Jingjing, Liu Jimeng, and Xue Ji.

Beauty and wine complement each other!

At this time, the auction site with a thousand people seated is full of seats, even those shy domain masters and emperors should enter the trade fair to feel the atmosphere.

The old man Qinglong came to the very center of the rostrum, looking at the darkened area lord and emperor in front of him, he couldn't help feeling a little excited.

Territory Lord and Emperor, this is the top existence in the Netherworld, but they are now sitting there obediently like a good baby, waiting for the start of this auction!

The old man Qinglong took a sigh of relief, adjusted his mentality, and slowly said: "Domains and emperors, welcome to participate in this auction in your busy schedule! The auction lot has a total of 30 bottles of God-level. There are six wines in one group, and there are five groups in total. Everyone has a brief introduction of our lot!"

"Before, Li Tian said at the wine tasting meeting that the unified currency unit of this auction is a bottle of the lowest Niulanshan wine. Therefore, all auction prices are in units. Of course, if you have For high-quality goods, or even treasures...treasures, you can also take them out in advance to find out and assess the price!"

"If the treasures you bring out can be approved by Li Tian of our Chamber of Commerce, Li Tian can immediately terminate the auction and trade on the spot! This time the lot is limited, please don't miss the opportunity!"

As soon as the voice of the old man Qinglong fell, several domain masters turned around and walked out to find the evaluation committee to evaluate the treasures in their hands.

Seeing this scene, Li Tian couldn't help showing another smile on his face.

Mother, hold a wine tasting meeting. If you don't peel off your old fellows in the dark forest, I won't be Li Tian.

"Now, let's take a break and the auction will begin immediately!"

...

"First please take out our first group of lots! This group of lots, this group of lots is 50% Wuliangye, 3000 vintage wine, each bottle has a capacity of 500ml! There are a total of six bottles in one group!" Qinglong said slowly .

Following the words of the old man Qinglong, Xue Ji walked up with a tray. The tray was neatly arranged according to the shape of the sixth product Wuliangye. After turning around the front desk, he placed the tray on the display table.

The so-called 3000-year-old wine is actually only 30 years old. The 30-year wine in Earth time is already considered good, and the price is extremely expensive, especially after the end of the crisis, the stock of this fine wine was originally small.

However, if you tell these domain owners a 30-year vintage, it is obviously not in line with their status. Therefore, the wine has changed, and it has become 3000 years.

As for the packaging, sorry, this wine is not packaged.

The number on the bottle is very simple. As a powerful person, if you can't even change these numbers, it's nothing.

Upon hearing about the 3000 year old wine, the venue really caused a commotion.

Several domain masters are ready to move, the old man Qinglong has not yet begun to announce the start of the auction, these domain masters can't wait to raise their cards.

The old man Qinglong sighed in his heart.

This guy Li Tian is really fooling around. This is to treat these domain owners as monkeys!

Of course, the old man Qinglong didn't dare to pass through his mind or even think about these ideas.

There are countless strong people in the dark forest, who knows if there are any abnormalities like the ant king.

The old man Qinglong smiled slightly and continued: "Wuliangye divine wine is made from five mysterious grains, fermented and brewed for hundreds of years, and after three thousand years of cave storage, the current divine wine is available! Legend has it that when the divine wine was made, It has attracted the vision of heaven and earth, causing the wine to be destroyed by the vision. There are no more than one hundred such divine wines in the Nether Realm!"

"It is said that these divine wines are hidden in various miracles in the Nether Realm. Our Chamber of Commerce obtained these fine wines by chance and coincidence. In order to obtain these fine wines, our Chamber of Commerce paid a heavy price. I will not repeat them here. Blood and tears!"

"The starting price of this group of wines is 20, and each time the price increase is not less than five, now the auction starts!

"fifty....."

"hundred....."

"One hundred and five....."

"one hundred twenty....."

The auction has entered a fierce bidding right from the beginning.

The quantity of this fine wine is really too small. The most hateful thing is that Li Tian turned out to be auctioned by An Group, which invisibly seems that the quantity of fine wine has decreased.

These domain masters and emperors have been alive in the core area of the dark forest for at least five to six thousand years. They have accumulated a lot of wealth, and now is the time for them to show off their wealth.

The treasure of genius, for ordinary cultivators and venerables, is a legendary existence, and for those emperors and domain masters of the Netherworld, it is equally precious.

But for these domain owners and emperors, it is almost at hand.

On the contrary, what about these fine wines? The number is really limited. If they miss this opportunity, they may regret it for life!
