

A Killer 4931

Chapter 4931: : Unconcealable ambition

Before coming to the metal world, if you don't have absolute strength, it is best to learn to keep a low profile.

After all, this place is different from the Nether Realm, it is more unreasonable than the Nether Realm, and there is no legal basis.

The law of the jungle where the weak eats the strong, is more vividly displayed in this world.

For example, in Wonderland, all kinds of people cannibalize people, and no one will feel surprised.

The reason why you were eaten by others is because your cultivation strength is low.

That's it.

However, not all people with low cultivation strength will be beheaded and eaten.

For example, in the hands of the Lingjin clan.

The vast majority of Lingjin tribes will not directly swallow the  creatures, but grab these  creatures, as slaves, let these slaves work for them!

For example, the former Tang Xiaolong and Youanrou almost became such characters.

However, later, because of Yuanyang Deshen-level Arrow, the fate of Tang Xiaolong and Youanrou was changed.

Especially dark and soft.

After the Yuanyang Destroying Arrow was subdued by You Yinrou, it became a powerful help for You Yinrou.

As long as the opponent's cultivation level has not reached the ninth level of the super domain master, then the arrow of You Yinrou, Yuanyang Mie Shen arrow, can definitely take his life!

What kind of feeling is this?

It was as if Li Tian could leapfrog and slaughter other strong men when he got the Red Slash. He is now in this state of Darkness and Softness.

Just open the plug-in, that's it!

With Yuanyang Desperate Arrow, the dark and soft Tang Xiaolong could finally stand in the metal world, and then the two of them began to look for the whereabouts of Li Tian, Situ Ningbing and Xingchen Xiaoyue.

In this search process, it was also the dark and soft Tang Xiaolong's cultivation process, and their cultivation bases were also steadily improving.

But in this way, the Lingjin clan is unlucky.

Youanrou seemed to be a powerful hunter. Seeing the Lingjin Clan, no matter what it was, kill it first.

And then... the Lingjin clan in the entire region is panicking and can't stay all day.

In this way, the strong people who support the Lingjin clan behind the scenes are not willing.

They support the Lingjin clan to complete their grand plan, but now, the entire Lingjin clan is in panic. These guys dare not go out to plunder slaves. This is of great significance to fulfilling their plan. influences. Therefore, these mysterious supporters discussed and decided to send a few super domain masters of level 9 or above to deal with the dark and soft!

then.....

You Yinrou found out with difficulty that the Yuanyang Destroying Arrow she had shot out could not deal with the powerhouses above the ninth level of the Transcendent Master. She and Tang Xiaolong could only flee with their tails between them.

The two of them became real wanderers in the metal world.

But those super domain masters at the ninth level are like tarsus maggots, following them tightly.

In this way, the gloomy and soft Tang Xiaolong had no chance to stop, so he could only escape! escape! escape!

This story tells us that in the metal world, we must learn to keep a low profile.

Just like the current Long Yin group of five.

They had just arrived in the metal world, it was normal to kill the spirit gold clan, but their killing skills were too gorgeous and too dazzling, and they were targeted by the ninth-level super domain master sent by the spirit gold clan. Up.

The question has already been raised, and the right to answer the question lies with Long Yin and others, but the decision-making power is in the hands of this superdomain master ninth-level powerhouse.

Long Yin's five-member group couldn't help feeling a trace of sadness in their hearts. The five people were suspended in the air in five different directions, staring straight at the guy who appeared in front of them!

This guy has green skin, a wolf-like head, and a human body, but this body looks like a horse downwards, with four horse hooves!

Wolf ride!

This species is somewhat similar to the legendary wolf ride in the western countries of the earth world.

At this time, the wolf rider intentionally or unintentionally released the spirit power fluctuations of the super domain master.

The five powerhouses of the dark organization glanced at each other, and then they instantly understood their decision from each other's eyes!

escape!

They are members of the dark organization of the Nether Realm, and they came to this world to cultivate and improve their cultivation.

However, if you follow the wolf riding in front of you, then their future fate is difficult to grasp.

These guys all crawled out of the dead, and they treated death very calmly, so they just glanced at each other and then made a decision in an instant.

Four of the five powerhouses, without the slightest sluggishness, turned around and fled into the endless darkness!

They have reached the fastest flight speed, just thinking of fleeing here as soon as possible.

They didn't even look back to see who the wolf rider would chase after.

Because any time of distraction, it may affect their flight speed, and then be captured by this wolf riding powerhouse.

Only Long Yin was suspended in mid-air and did not escape!

The wolf rider was very surprised.

He had clearly guessed that these guys might run away, but he did not expect that someone would give up running away and stay.

The wolf rider who had planned to kill all these escaping guys gave up the idea of chasing them, with a smile on his mouth, looking at Long Yin and said: "Oh, they all chose to escape, why didn't you escape? "

The expression on Long Yin's face didn't have the slightest panic, and he calmly looked at the wolf riding powerhouse, "If I also run away, will you catch up to the five of us and kill them all?"

"Yes!"

"In that case, why should I run away? I am willing to follow you, as long as it can make me stronger! But... no matter if it is three hundred years or five hundred years, as long as my cultivation realm reaches the seventh-level peak of Super Domain Lord, I will leave this world. If you agree, then I will follow you. If you disagree, then even if I am not your opponent now, I will fight you to the death!"

Long Yin said quite calmly, but his tone was full of firmness!

"Haha! It's kind of interesting, Super Domain Master 7 level cultivation realm is only, if you follow me, within 300 years, I can let you have this cultivation level, but... Is your ideal is Super Domain Master 7 Level pinnacle? I don't want to be a strong like me, or even... to reach a demigod, a quasi-god, or a god?"

Obviously, for this wolf rider, Long Yin is a strong foreign race, but this strong foreign race fits the temper of this strong wolf rider, so he is willing to give Long Yin this opportunity.

"miss you!"

Long Yin couldn't hide his ambition.

"But I know that once the metal world, the cultivation realm reaches the superdomain master's eighth level, then you will be trapped in this world forever, unable to leave this world!"

"Hey, it seems that you know a lot of things! This kind of thing may not be known to the strong men who have been in the metal world for a hundred years. But... Hey, come on, follow me, I will first find a way to get your cultivation strength Raise to a usable level, and then you will know how our wolf riders are going to change this metal world!"

Chapter 4932: : Dragon Demon

When Long Yin followed the wolf riding powerhouse, Li Tian was still doing his cleaning work!

This is an absolutely promising job, at least for the strong who want to cultivate supernatural powers, this job is absolutely attractive.

Of course, in the entire metal world, Li Tian is the only one in this job.

It's the only one for Xiezi Baba!

Li Tian didn't feel any hardship.

The hard life has not yet passed, and Li Tian's mentality has long been different now. He has learned to feel the joy of not hard work in this hard work!

Well, it's just self-deception.

On the whole, it is still very tough!

You think, a person is facing a boneless skeleton that can't be seen at a glance, and has to clean up this skeleton constantly, and there is not even a person talking beside him.

The whole world is quiet!

If Li Tian doesn't find something for himself to do, such as rap, say to himself, Li Tian doesn't know if his occurrence system will degenerate after the end of the two decades, and eventually become dumb.

Therefore, at this point, Li Tian should not admire those old monsters who have been in retreat for decades, hundreds, or even thousands of years.

You said that they have been in retreat for so long, how can they still talk after they come out?

When he was in the world on earth, Li Tian once watched certain news on TV, that is, someone who lives in the deep mountains, because he did not speak for a long time, and when he was discovered, he had lost the human language. , Even his fingers degenerate to look like chicken claws.

Gee, if you become like this...

That's terrible!

Li Tian's heart began to miss Situ Ningbing and others.

He wants to chat with Situ Ningbing, to go for a walk with You Anrou, to drink with Liu Jimeng, and to wander about with Ye Meijing...

In Xianxia novels, many ascetics will cut off the emotions, and even eliminate the seven emotions and six desires.

They think that only in this way can they be single-minded!

It's just that Li Tian can't do it, and Li Tian is unwilling to do it!

Cut off the seven emotions and six desires, even if you cultivate to become a god, it is just a stone to become a god.

Hard, no human touch!

Li Tian has relatives, friends, brothers, lovers, and children in his heart!

This is Li Tian's faith that keeps getting stronger!

Li Tian wants to find his parents!

Li Tian wants to protect his family!

I want to protect my brother!

It is precisely because of this that when the enemies appearing around Li Tian become stronger, Li Tian will gradually become stronger.

Then defeat all enemies, even beheaded!

What a positive energy this is.

However, now Li Tian is practicing in the bones of the great dragon.

He can unwittingly absorb the power of the great dragon in his cultivation!

Then, certain uncertain factors in this dragon will affect Li Tian and become a trouble for Li Tian!

Huh!

Li Tian was cleaning the keel, and a graceful figure suddenly appeared in front of him: Tang Feifei!

Seeing this figure, Li Tian couldn't help but slow down a bit.

Li Tian rubbed his eyes vigorously, and he wanted to confirm whether Tang Feifei in front of him really appeared.

Tang Feifei did not disappear, still standing in place.

It was the same Li Tian looked like when he first saw Tang Feifei, she still looked so cute.

Li Tian stopped the action of cleaning the keel in his hand and looked at Tang Feifei faintly, then slid down from the keel and walked towards Tang Feifei slowly!

There is a kind of guilt in Tang Feifei Li Tian's heart!

In the last days, if Li Tian did not leave Tang Feifei, but brought Tang Feifei with him, then it is possible that the following things would not happen.

Three corpses, with Li Tian's cultivation base, it seems that the corpse is like garbage, but...but...Tang Feifei was killed!

Li Tian felt that he did not protect Tang Feifei!

To bury Tang Feifei thickly, and even to bury Tang Feifei with a red cut, this is all Li Tian wants to express his apology in this way.

The end of the end!

Li Tian came to the Netherworld and killed the corpse!

Later, Hong Zhan destroyed the entire corpse clan.

Li Tian thought he had forgotten Tang Feifei, but now Tang Feifei appeared in front of Li Tian again.

The feeling of guilt towards her remains!

After walking seven or eight steps, Li Tian stopped.

Li Tian became entangled!

When he came to the dragon bones of the great dragon, Li Tian already possessed dragon power in the spiritual power of his body when he was practicing.

And this Longwei has already begun to have a little influence on Li Tian!

There are positive effects. For example, Li Tian's body and cultivation level have been greatly improved, but...Li Tian felt that Longwei was also affecting his mood.

In the beginning, Li Tian only needed to meditate and adjust to get rid of this bad feeling. Li Tian didn't care, but now, Tang Feifei has appeared in front of Li Tian.

Is this an illusion?

Or the demon?

It's all possible, but more should try Longwei to release Li Tian's guilt, let this guilt change become Tang Feifei to torture Li Tian.

call!

Li Tian sat cross-legged on the ground, adjusting his breathing, trying to dispel the demons!

That Tang Feifei did not disappear because of this, but slowly walked towards Li Tian with a smile on her face.

Gurgle!

Gurgle!

Li Tian felt a lot of clear springs suddenly appearing around his body, which wet his body.

Tang Feifei jumped into the water, bit her lip, stretched out her hand to pour water on Li Tian, and then looked at Li Tian with a smirk.

A voice appeared in Li Tian's mind, "Little handsome guy, come and play with me?"

This sound is actually not made by Tang Feifei, but the sound of shaking music placed in front of some shops before the end of the earth world. You only need to put one dollar in and you can ride it to your heart's content!

This was not Tang Feifei's voice, but Li Tian felt that it was Tang Feifei teasing him!

Suddenly, Li Tian felt that Tang Feifei did not know when he had embraced him from behind.

Really, even Li Tian could feel the protruding points of Tang Feifei's body after being soaked in spring water.

So soft!

Li Tian wanted to turn to the host, Tang Feifei, and confide in her his pain!

Passionate but annoyed ruthlessly!

But Li Tian knows that this is an illusion, this is a demon!

call!

Li Tian let out two breaths and closed his eyes tightly!

Use your spiritual power, don't think about Don Feifei next to you!

But at this moment, Li Tian's suddenly felt another pair of arms hugging him from behind.

"Li Tian, haven't seen me for so long, do you miss me?"

This voice came from behind Li Tian, and the owner of the voice was still blowing Li Tian's ears teasingly!

Xue Ji!

This sound turned out to be from Xue Ji!

"Li Tian, am I just a passerby in your heart? Have you forgotten the me who once appeared in your world?"

It's another woman's voice!

Han Yun!

Chapter 4933: : Heart Slayer

Li Tian felt that the figures around him gradually increased.

At first there were only a few women, women who had died for various reasons, these women more or less had a close relationship with Li Tian.

Gradually, the people who appeared next to Li Tian were no longer confined to women. Those who had followed Li Tian and the brothers who died on the top of Tianshan also appeared one by one.

"Li Tian..."

"Li Tian..."

"Li Tian..."

Figures of people continued to appear around Li Tian and others, and many of the people who appeared next died in Li Tian's hands, including the dead in the earth world, the dead in other worlds, and the dead in the nether world.

These figures, no, they should be ghosts to be precise.

These ghost images are different from Li Tian's woman who wants to linger with Li Tian, and different from Li Tian's brother who wants to be with Li Tian.

These ghosts are here to kill them. They pounced on Li Tian with their teeth and claws, each of them constantly walking through Li Tian's body.

As soon as Li Tian opened his eyes, he could see these ghosts staring at him savagely and rushing towards him.

But the women and brothers of Li Tian seemed to be unable to see these ghosts at all. They were still entwining Li Tian, and they were still telling their stories to Li Tian.

Whenever a ghost passed through his body, Li Tian would instantly feel that his body became a bit cold.

The veins of the whole body seemed to condense into ice in this quarter of an hour, the spiritual power could not work, the cultivation could not continue, and even the breathing seemed to have become rapid.

Huh!

Huh!

Huh!

Li Tian closed his eyes tightly and let these ghosts do evil.

"This is not true, none of this is true!" Li Tian kept admonishing himself in his heart!

Suddenly, Li Tian felt a pain in his body veins.

I took a look with my spiritual sense, but found that I don't know when, there were cracks in the veins of his body. The spiritual power condensed into ice in the veins began to spike outwards, which had penetrated the veins and began to hurt. And Li Tian's body, hurting Li Tian's internal organs.

The pain is not very severe.

But the picture is really shocking.

Li Tian even saw his body as if it had become a colander, bleeding everywhere.

The blood ran down the body, turning into a pool of blood in the body.

Not only that, but Li Tian's body was also dripping with blood.

The eyes, ears, nostrils, mouth and the seven orifices bleed at the same time, like a waterfall of blood.

This is not true!

Li Tian can be sure that this is definitely not true!

If a person really bleeds like this, he might already be here.

"Li Tian..."

"Li Tian..."

Li Tian's woman was calling his name, and Li Tian's brother was calling his name.

There are weird and sweet smiles on their faces.

"Li Tian, take fate!"

"Li Tian, die!"

Thousands of ghosts completely surrounded the keel around Li Tian's body.

These ghosts seem to have turned into ghosts, grabbing Li Tian's body, devouring Li Tian's skin, and sucking Li Tian's blood.

Their faces are filled with a kind of fanaticism that is hard to conceal, and pleasure that is hard to conceal!

At this moment, Li Tian saw the skin of his body, and began to grow scales continuously!

That's right, it's like a snake... No, it's scales like a dragon to be precise!

This is dragon scale!

It's just that these scales are much smaller than the dragon scales, but they are densely packed and everywhere.

Such scales began to grow on almost all the skin of cheeks, arms, chest, abdomen, thighs, and Li Tian's head suddenly felt painful.

puff!

puff!

Two sharp dragon horns grew from Li Tian's forehead.

I fuck!

Although I, Li Tian, is a descendant of the dragon, do I really want to become the dragon man now?

Hallucinations!

Demon!

None of this is true!

Great dragon, you let me clean your keel, so that I can feel the dragon's might, and let my cultivation strength be improved. For this, I am very grateful to Li Tian.

However, if you use my body and my soul as the price to make me your puppet, then your wishful thinking is wrong!

And it was so wrong!

The dead are gone, the living are like this!

Regardless of these women, these brothers, they have already gone to another world, they may have entered the cycle of reincarnation and started a new life.

How could it appear here?

As for the dead who were killed by me?

Hahaha!

You died in my hands for various reasons during your lifetime. If you really want revenge, then you should reincarnate as soon as possible and become a stronger existence, and then deal with me instead of changing into a ghost to haunt me! Since you have appeared in front of me now and want to pester me, then you must be prepared to be beheaded by me again!

Thinking of this, Li Tian suddenly opened his eyes!

A trace of determination flashed in his eyes!

A dozen purple electric dragons were released from the swallowing of the left and right arms!

Hey!

Hey!

Perhaps it was because Li Tian practiced and realized the existence of Longwei. At this time, these purple electric dragons were like living creatures, more realistic than before.

And the abilities released by these purple electric dragons fluctuate more violently, and their attack power is naturally stronger!

boom!

boom!

boom!

In just an instant, at least dozens of ghosts disappeared in front of Li Tian with a scream!

"Li Tian, you dare to hurt us again, you...cannot die!"

"Li Tian, you have slaughtered so many souls, you will definitely go to * after you die!"

"Li Tian..."

Li Tian's heart moved, and once again released a few electric dragons to slam the most powerful guys!

"Fuck you! Even if I go to hell, I will kill you eighteen times! Let your souls be destroyed, and you will never be born again!"

In just two or three minutes, the dead souls were bombarded and killed by the purple electric dragon released by Li Tian.

Only the few remaining souls, with fear on their faces, turned and fled from Li Tian like crazy.

Li Tian's women, Li Tian's brothers, they stood around Li Tian's body, their eyes kept staring at Li Tian, but there was a happy smile on their faces.

"Sorry....."

"You shouldn't be here, you shouldn't disturb my mind, you shouldn't be my demon!"

A painful expression flashed across Li Tian's face, but this painful expression quickly changed into a decision!

They are dead!

They are dead!

These knowledge demons are only!

If you want to improve your cultivation base, you want to break through and improve, then you must kill the demons!

no matter who!

Li Tian controls the purple electric dragons, so that every purple electric dragon surrounds one of his relatives and brothers...

"Sorry....."

As Li Tian said sorry, all purple electric dragons attacked at the same time...

Hey!

The heart demon has been cut, Li Tian is shrewd instantly.

Everything around is the same, but Li Tian saw that from the bone-capped dragon bone mountains, some cyan silk threads were flying out like small prehistoric dragons into his body!

boom!

Chapter 4934: : Forced breakthrough!

As these dragon-like spiritual power poured into Li Tian's body veins, Li Tian clearly felt that his body veins began to undergo crazy changes.

These spiritual powers are different from all the spiritual powers Li Tian cultivated before.

If the spiritual power that Li Tian cultivated in the past was fire, water, and lightning, then the spiritual power that is pouring into Li Tian's body veins is a living thing, and every strand, every thread, and every group of spiritual power is alive. They all seem to have their own lives.

These spiritual powers penetrated into Li Tian's body veins, and the spiritual power that followed Li Tian revolved in the veins, then rushed into Li Tian's atrium, and then began to converge!

A strand, a strand gathered together.

From the beginning, the size of the needle was left and right, and gradually these spiritual powers converged to the size of a fingernail.

But this did not stop.

As a steady stream of spiritual power poured into Li Tian's body veins, the converged objects became larger and larger.

Soon, the size of these cyan spiritual powers surpassed the black beads that originally existed in Li Tian's heart.

Li Tian could feel it, the black beads seemed quite dissatisfied with the cyan spiritual power that suddenly appeared in his heart.

If Li Tian watched carefully, he would find that a tiny whirlpool had already appeared on the black beads.

The black beads began to revolve around the cyan spiritual power, and from time to time, cyan spiritual power floated out of the newly gathered object and was sucked in by the vortex of the black beads.

Hong Zhan seemed unwilling to be lonely, and wanted to come over and get a share.

However, in front of Hong Zhan, with the golden dragon figure blocking it, Hong Zhan didn't dare to overstep the slightest!

Li Tian felt very novel and speechless!

There are already red cuts, black beads, and golden dragons in his heart, and now there is another blue thing.

What made Li Tian uncomfortable was that these things could not unite sincerely, but competed with each other, treating Li Tian's heart as an amphitheater.

What Li Tian had no choice but to do was whether it was the red cut, the black beads, or the golden dragon picture he got from the miraculous mountain, these things belonged to Li Tian but did not completely belong to him.

In this regard, Li Tian can only adopt a tolerant attitude, allowing these things to exist in his heart first, and then slowly drawing on them.

Take Hong Zhan, for example. In the past three years or so, Li Tian has never given up on refining Hong Zhan. He has also achieved certain results, but there is still a certain gap before Hong Zhan is completely refined by him!

It's better to talk about black beads. Li Tian can feel the spiritual power contained in the black beads. He also wants to refine the black beads, just like he used to refine the blood spirit source. It's a pity... this black bead is more than red. More tenacious, Li Tian not only failed to refining, on the contrary, the spiritual power he used to refine the beads was swallowed by the black beads.

Relatively speaking, the golden dragon picture is much more well-behaved.

Li Tian's spiritual power is centered on the golden dragon map, and he can feel that the golden dragon map does not reject him.

However, Li Tian's current cultivation base wanted to open this golden dragon picture, but he couldn't do it at all.

Only the cyan spiritual power absorbed now, the spiritual power released from the bones of these wild dragons, has a certain connection with Li Tian. It can be said that although these spiritual powers are not completely owned by Li Tian, they can be controlled by Li Tian. use.

A steady stream of the spirit power of the prehistoric dragon surged into Li Tian's body and veins, and soon Li Tian's body and veins were completely filled with his spiritual power!

At this moment, Li Tian's body veins are like full-filled tires, which have been charged to the limit. If they continue to rush, the body veins are likely to burst.

If this is the case, then Li Tian will definitely reach out and take a hit.

However, if he gave up absorbing spiritual power, Li Tian was reluctant.

At this time, Li Tian didn't dare to neglect the slightest, he could only accelerate the guiding of these spiritual powers into his atrium.

Don't these spiritual powers condense things in the atrium?

Then condense it first, as long as you enter Li Tian's heart, sooner or later it will completely belong to him!

In the atrium, the more these blue spiritual powers converge!

At this time, these cyan spiritual powers have the size of a basketball.

At this moment, these cyan spiritual powers did not converge in a fixed original shape, but began to change into a curved serpentine shape... No, it was not a snake to be precise, but a dragon!

As these spiritual powers continue to converge, at this time, the blue spiritual power in the atrium has taken the shape of a dragon.

"This...Is this going to converge to become a prehistoric dragon?" Li Tian suddenly had a hunch in his heart.

There was so much excitement and excitement in Li Tian's heart.

If... if all the spiritual power of the great dragon can be used by Li Tian, even if Li Tian's cultivation level is still at the peak of the ninth level of the domain master, he can still leapfrog and kill other super domain master level experts. .

Super domain master level one, level two?

Haha, if you don't kill it, you can kill the superdomain masters at the eighth level or even the ninth level.

Only in this way can we show the domineering of the prehistoric dragon!

Li Tian did not consider a problem.

After his atrium exploded after the beast crystals of the demigod state of the white light old man, the current atrium was completely different, and the overall capacity simply could not accommodate the entire prehistoric dragon!

Sure enough, after practicing and absorbing for ten minutes, Li Tian discovered this problem!

However, when Li Tian stopped absorbing the spiritual power released by the bones of these wild dragons, he found that it was too late!

In Li Tian's heart, the red sword and the golden dragon figure were squeezed to one side. The black beads had absorbed these cyan spiritual powers, and their body size became several times larger, and the blue dragon formed by the cyan spiritual power had already coiled around and occupied the whole Atrium!

It's a god!

Right now, the blue spiritual power in Li Tian's heart was actually several times richer than before.

This is the rhythm to break through to the super domain master realm, right?

Although Li Tian is suffering, he is really happy!

it is good!

If you don't do it or not, then take this opportunity to hit the super domain master realm once!

Li Tian didn't stop because the blue dragon was coiling in his heart, and there was no more space for him to continue to absorb spiritual power.

Even if there is more pain, Li Tian must persist!

At this time, Li Tian absorbed the cyan spiritual power released from the bones of the prehistoric giant dragons at a much slower rate. Li Tian seemed to be a person who was full, and he didn't want to eat anymore, but he was still absorbing the spirit mechanically. force.

The body began to swell, the body veins were fully stretched, and the cyan dragon in the heart had already begun to yin!

Hold on, hold on, hold on!

Li Tian's face flushed, and he was almost out of breath!

"Break it for me!"

boom!

Li Tian felt all the spiritual power in his body veins instantly change into a cloud of smoke.

Immediately the body loosened, and the spiritual power in all the body veins seemed to be compressed again, the veins became wider, and the atrium became wider.

Super domain master realm!

Li Tian finally became a super domain master!

Chapter 4935: : Control the dragon

"at last....."

"at last....."

"My Li Tian's cultivation level has finally reached the super domain master advanced stage!"

Stretching out his right hand, a purple electric dragon with a finger length appeared in Li Tian's palm, swimming back and forth in the center of his palm like a small fish in a bathtub!

Look carefully. Although this purple electric dragon is only one finger long, the spiritual power that this electric dragon can release is only possessed by the out-and-out super domain master.

What is even more incredible is that such a small electric dragon also possesses Longwei!

This is the dragon power only possessed by the strong above the demigod level.

Li Tian believes that even if there is a superdomain master three-level powerhouse in front of him, he can easily solve this level of superdomain master-level powerhouse by relying on the electric dragon he can release now.

The heart demon was cut, and his cultivation level broke through.

It's just that the Spiritual Power was continuously released from the bones of the great dragon, and it was still pouring into Li Tian's body, and stopped abruptly when Li Tian broke through to the realm of the superdomain master.

It's as if none of this has happened!

Li Tian didn't care about the bones of the great dragon, first used his spiritual consciousness to check the changes in the veins of the body.

At this time, Li Tian's body veins were like a rolling river. The body veins did not change much from before the breakthrough, but his spiritual power was completely different.

In the past, although Li Tian's body and veins were also like the big river, the water spirit in the river surface was gentle, but now, the middle water on the river surface is turbulent. More importantly, the little fishes trained by Li Tian have now completely transformed into dragons. A young dragon with a short head is swimming in the veins.

Look at the atrium again!

As soon as Li Tian's consciousness entered his heart, he was immediately shocked!

"I...I'll go..."

The atrium was indeed enlarged several times than before, but a giant dragon... a giant dragon whose head Li Tian could not see at a glance was coiled in this atrium, looking at Li Tian's divine consciousness with contempt of everything.

On this giant dragon, Li Tian could feel the dragon's strength!

That is to say, although the great dragon has fallen, his dragon power has been reborn in Li Tian's heart in another form!

Li Tian could feel that the cultivation base of this giant dragon was the same as him, and his cultivation level was only the first level of the super domain master.

But... But why is this giant dragon and Li Tian's cultivation realm the same, but this giant dragon has a feeling of looking at the world?

Li Tian could feel that if he were to fight against this giant dragon, he would most likely be turned into a scum!

This is not scientific!

"This dragon is the product of my cultivation, and logically speaking, this dragon should be available to me!" Li Tian thought in his heart.

Although not sure, Li Tian still wanted to control the dragon.

Li Tian released a few more divine consciousnesses into his heart.

As these divine senses surrounded the dragon's body one by one, Li Tian could feel a touch of discomfort flashing in the dragon's eyes.

But... the dragon is still slowly dropping its head!

"It's done?"

Li Tian did not expect that this dragon would surrender to him!

Uh, although this dragon was indeed cultivated by Li Tian, with the red cut and the lessons learned from the black beads, Li Tian actually didn't hold much hope in his heart!

Now that the dragon is surrendered, it means that Li Tian completely controls the spiritual power of the dragon.

This guy, at least is a powerful existence that can kill the superdomain master's fifth-level early powerhouse!

Li Tianzhen wanted to use the "Eighteen Palms of the Dragon Dropping" now to release the dragon from his heart and display it well.

But Li Tian chose to keep a low profile in the end.

After all, the cyan dragon cultivated by Li Tian came from the wild dragon. Now Li Tian is still trapped in the bones of the wild dragon. He still needs to continue to clean the bones. If it is so high-profile that it will anger the wild dragon at the time, it is not beautiful. Up.

Thinking of this, Li Tian circulated the spiritual power in his body for several weeks, dispelling all the distracting thoughts in his heart, and then began to clean up the bones of the great dragon again!

The early stage of the super domain master first level!

This is just a new beginning!

"Continue to clean up!" Li Tian shouted confidently.

The cultivation level is improved, and the speed of cleaning the keel is obviously much faster.

Now Li Tian's body and veins already have Dragon Power, which makes Li Tian resonate with the dragon bones of the prehistoric dragon when he cleans the keel!

In this way, even if Li Tian does not need to deliberately cultivate, the dragon's power of the dragon bone will be integrated into Li Tian's body vein with the spiritual power released by Li Tian.

It's so easy to become stronger!

"Now I can finally squeeze out more energy to refine Hongzhang!"

"Hong Zhan, when my Li Tian leaves Miracle Mountain, I must refine you!"

...

When Li Tian broke through to the first level of the super domain master realm, Long Yin followed the wolf rider to the Yin Continent.

Here is the 'Old Lair' of the Lingjin Clan, but now the actual controller here is not the Lingjin Clan, but a strong wolf rider!

When he came to the Yin Continent and flew across the continent with the wolf-riding powerhouse, Long Yin discovered that the entire Yin Continent is now a super giant mine!

There are caves everywhere, and you can see all kinds of powerful people driving away from the spiritual gold clan powerhouses and entering the caves to dig for metal!

"Does it feel spectacular to see this scene? As long as our plan can be achieved, the twelve regions will become such a spectacular sight by then!" said Wolf Qi Chengzhe.

When he flew to Yin Continent with this powerful wolf rider, Long Yin had already learned that this powerful wolf rider was named Chengzhe!

Their race came from another world different from the underworld.

In that world, all humans are four-legged animals, and the race of wolf riders is the master of that world.

In that world where the wolf ride is strengthened, the super domain master level cultivation base is common, but among the wolf riders, there are few demi-god-level powerhouses, let alone quasi-god, god-level powerhouses. .

All the passages leading to the metal world are forbidden to enter the super domain master-level powerhouses, and only these super domain master-level powerhouses in the wolf riding world can enter the metal world.

However, once their cultivation base reaches the super domain master's eighth level or above, they will also be trapped in the metal world.

But... the ancestors of these powerful wolf riders have entered the metal world for generations, studied the metal world, explored the metal world, and they have really discovered the secret of the existence of the metal world!

As long as they can unlock this secret, they will have a great chance of breaking through the limit of the ninth-level peak of the superdomain master and becoming a demigod-level powerhouse.

And as long as they unlock this secret, they can leave the metal world at any time!

"It's very spectacular!" Long Yin nodded and sighed!

Only when he got here did Long Yin know that domain master level powerhouses like him could be seen everywhere on this continent.

It's just that those strong are slaves!

Long Yin felt fortunate for his decision!

What a blessing!

"Do you know why I fancy you?" Wolf Qi Chengzhe turned his head and asked.

Long Yin nodded, then shook his head slightly!

"Hey, what I think is the execution power of you strong men! The Lingjin tribe is just a metal race, without human brains and courage. They obey our orders like machines, but they cannot let these slaves obey ours. Order! So, I want you to train all the slaves in this region to become a strong executive like you. Only in this way will our progress be accelerated and our goal will be further! "

"I am very willing to serve you, but... my cultivation level is really too weak, and there are even super-domain master-level powerhouses among these slaves..."

"Hey, I will let you reach the super domain master level as soon as possible! You first see what this is... I'm giving you it!" Wolf Qi Chengzhe turned out a crystal in his hand and stuffed it to Long Yin!

As soon as this crystal arrived in Long Yin's hands, Long Yin's expression suddenly changed.

"This...this turned out to be the...crystal of a demigod powerhouse?"

Chapter 4936: : Bloodthirsty King

This crystal in Long Yin's hands is exactly the crystal of a demigod-level powerhouse!

"Is it unexpected? Haha, as long as you can help me train people well, we will become gods just around the corner, and you, want to become a super domain master power, that is just a sentence! This crystal is for you Collect it, hurry up and use it for cultivation. The time I can give you is limited. Don't let me down!"

Long Yin's eyes flashed with greedy sex!

Demigod-level crystals, if this thing appeared in the Nether Realm, it would definitely cause a looting by the Super God family, and it would even be a * storm.

But, now in this metal world, this wolf riding a stinging powerhouse can reward him with a demigod crystal at hand!

This shock made Long Yin unable to return to his senses for a long time.

"Sir Chengzhe, don't worry, I will refine this crystal of the demigod to the strong soon!" Long Yin said vowedly.

How can this metal world have demigod crystals?

This is a problem that bothers Long Yin, but he dared not ask the strong wolf rider, lest he worry that the strong wolf rider will think he has different intentions!

Holding this extract tightly, Long Yin felt that he was holding the whole world tightly!

The cultivation base of the super domain master realm is already at your fingertips!

"Li Tian, when I return to the Netherworld from the metal world, I will show you a different dragon Yin!"

...

Long Yin's cultivation is very hard!

For a cultivation genius like Long Yin, his talent is not bad, he is only worse by chance and luck than Li Tian.

Now, when luck and chance come, Long Yin will firmly grasp this opportunity!

The demigod crystal, Hong Zhan had been refined in Li Tian's heart for nearly half a year, and it was less than half of it.

But where is Long Yin?

This crazy guy only spent less than two months refining this demigod crystal by more than half, and his cultivation level also smoothly broke through to the super domain master realm.

The only pity is that in the process of refining this crystal, a lot of spiritual power in the crystal was lost.

The crystal is very spiritual, less than one-tenth absorbed by Long Yin.

But even so, his current cultivation base, the cultivation base of the initial stage of the super domain master's first realm, is actually real!

The wolf rider became a strong sting, and he was not in a hurry, but waited until Long Yin completely refined this crystal, and Long Yin's cultivation level reached the second-level peak of the super domain master. At this time, the strong wolf rider took out another one. The demigod crystal tempted Long Yin, letting Long Yin take over the slaves one by one.

In the process of cultivating, Long Yin gradually realized that these powerful wolf riders used these slaves to dig out the metal minerals in the metal continent, and then refine the metal minerals to achieve a certain amount of metal in these metals. There are elements.

This is a chemical science.

Long Yin didn't expect these animal-like creatures to understand this technique.

In terms of refining the elements, Long Yin could not help them, but if you want to increase the mining production of these slaves, this Long Yin is still good at it!

After all, Long Yin is a human being in the earth world. He was one of the commanders of the ten legions at the end of the earth world.

How to motivate these slaves and how to effectively enhance the enthusiasm of these slaves for mining, Long Yin still has some means!

After taking over these slaves, Long Yin organized every 100 slaves into a small team, and evaluated the output of these slaves for mining metal on a one-year basis.

The last 5 in each team, kill!

The top 5 in each team can be free!

Every 20 teams form a squadron.

The last squad, all beheaded.

The team with the first place, the overall score reaches the top 50%, get freedom!

Don't you want to die?

Then I'll dig desperately for Lao Tzu, and pray that your team will not drop the last place.

Want to be free?

Dig desperately for Lao Tzu, as long as your ranking can be ranked in the top 5, and your team is not the last, give you freedom!

As for the beheaded too many slaves? Too many slaves freed?

This is not a question that Long Yin should consider at all!

In the metal world, I don't know how many powerful people have poured into it. The powerful people of the Lingjin tribe are plundering and catching slaves everywhere, and the slaves they can catch are only a small part of the total number of people in the metal world.

Once Long Yin's policy was promulgated, it immediately aroused the welcome of many slaves!

Instead of dying in a dark metal mine, it is better to desperately exchange for freedom.

Similarly, there was also a small group of slaves who fought hard!

However, they don't know the reason why people use a knife to make me a fish.

With the knife in Long Yin's hands, where would they give them a chance to make sense!

When a slave started making trouble, Long Yin raised his butcher knife without hesitation!

kill!

kill!

kill!

For a moment, blood was flowing into the river in the metal cave that caused the trouble, and the slaves with metal shackles, even if they were the super master-level masters, had no power to fight back.

Long Yin dug out the crystals from the corpses of the slaves, and then sent the corpses to all the mines for exhibition, so as to deter the slaves who wanted to make trouble!

Long Yin was frantically suppressed before the riot started!

Long Yin has more time for cultivation. He only needs to go to the mine occasionally to inspect, and when necessary, he can kill two slaves whose progress is far behind.

...

In a blink of an eye, Long Yin has been in the metal world for more than a year.

In the past year or so, a group of powerful slaves have been sent away from the mines of Yin Continent, and more and more powerful slaves have also been welcomed.

Long Yin has completely adapted to this new living environment.

The cultivation base has been steadily improved, and in Yin Continent, his Long Yin is the most powerful officer of the wolf riders.

Even the Lingjin clan did not dare to neglect Long Yin in the slightest.

Therefore, whenever a new slave was sent over, Long Yin would personally select a few slaves!

Find a few people who are similar to the humans in the earth world to serve him!

If the service is comfortable, Long Yin can even give these slaves their freedom.

Of course, more slaves were sent into the mine by Long Yin after serving Long Yin!

Don't ask why, this is power!

dislike? What can you do?

In this year's time, Long Yin and even the wolf riding powerhouse learned to eat foreign powerhouses from other worlds!

For these powerful aliens, they think they are human.

However, for these powerful wolf riders, as long as it is not their race, all other humanoid races can be their food!

From the initial psychological barrier, Long Yin gradually accepted, and even he would take the initiative to choose thin-skinned and tender ones to devour!

In the eyes of the slaves, Long Yin is the Demon King, a bloodthirsty demon who is stronger than a wolf rider!

On this day, the spiritual gold clan powerhouses looted a batch of slaves, and these spiritual gold clan powerhouses notified Long Yin the first time!

In the metal cage, those strong men who came to the secret realm to test, did not expect them to become prisoners, did not expect them to become slaves, and did not expect that they would become the food of choice!

Long Yin slowly walked past a metal cage, then suddenly turned around and walked back, with an unexpected look on his face.

"En? I thought I was looking at Huayan, let me see it, I seem to see a familiar face! Come, look up, let me see..."

Chapter 4937: :Nether News

In the metal cage in front of Long Yin, it was the stars and the vicissitudes of life being imprisoned!

The two of them entered the metal world, and together with Tang Xiaolong and others, the Lingjin tribe captives. Fortunately, the space battleship they were on was attacked by the tiger robber bandits, and then the spirit gold tribe of the space battleship was killed. Space battleships become unowned and drift in the endless darkness of the metal world.

However, the space battleship where Xing Chen Xiaoyue and Cang Hai Tang Tian were not crashed, and the metal cage that held them was not damaged. Then, many slaves such as Xing Chen Xiao Yue and Cang Hai Tang Tian drifted along with the space battleship. .

However, in the metal world, there are strong foreigners everywhere, and the metal cubes of the spirit gold are everywhere!

Then, the space battleships of Xingchen, Xiaoyue and Cang Hai Sang Tian were recognized by a foreign race!

In the metal world, there is absolutely no fine tradition that is left untouched.

Therefore, this space battleship has become the personal belongings of this alien race.

But the stars, the moon and the vicissitudes of life, almost became the food in the mouths of these alien races.

Fortunately, these alien races are not too powerful. Stars, Xiaoyue, and the vicissitudes of life have spent a lot of fortunes before they escaped from the hands of this alien race.

After these series of tribulations, Xing Chen Xiaoyue and the vicissitudes of life gradually gained a preliminary understanding of the metal world.

At this time, the story of Li Tian's red wing  outfit has been circulated in the twelve regions of the metal world at the same time, especially the story of Li Tian opening the killing in Wonderland, which has been processed and processed by other strong men. Decorate and advertise everywhere.

Hearing the news of Li Tian, Xingchen Xiaoyue and the vicissitudes of life decided to go to Wonderland to find Li Tian.

It's a pity that the two weak women... well, according to ordinary people's standards, the cultivation strength of these two beauties is already high against the sky.

However, if you look at the entire metal world, their cultivation is not strong, and can even be described as weak.

Stars and Xiaoyue entered the metal world, and after various hardships and cultivation, finally reached the rank of domain master, and the vicissitudes of life was slightly weaker, and it had also reached the realm of emperor.

If you are in the Nether Realm, if the Super God Family and the Ancient Family cannot ask about mundane matters, their cultivation realms can already walk across the Nether Realm.

However, if you want to live in the metal world, then the two of them must be careful and then careful, and then be careful and careful.

After nearly two years, the two women overcame various difficulties, beheaded many powerful men of the same level, and finally arrived near the fairyland.

However, what is waiting for them is another shot of the Lingjin clan!

Hard to force?

Too hard!

After being caught by the Lingjin Clan again, Xingchen Xiaoyue and Canghai Sangtian felt that the whole world had become gray...Although there was almost no sunlight in the metal world, the two of them felt that the world now became darker. The two were thrown into the metal cage again as slaves by the Lingjin tribe, and once again sent them to the place where slaves were needed with a transport warship.

Then, Xingchen Xiaoyue and Cang Hai Sang Tian met Long Yin!

"Long...Long Yin! Why are you here?"

Xingchen Xiaoyue and the vicissitudes of life's sweet eyes involuntarily zoomed in at the same time, looking at Long Yin in surprise and asked.

It was too much beyond their expectations.

Isn't Long Yin surprised!

He killed hundreds of strong men of the dark organization, and tried his best to enter this secret realm.

Although this secret realm was far from what he had imagined, this was an opportunity he had obtained through desperate efforts.

But seeing the stars and the moon, and seeing the sweetness of the sea, Long Yin felt that God was unfair to him.

He Long Yin needed the chance to get desperately, and Li Tian could easily lead his women into this secret realm.

This one, Long Yin's heart was full of strong jealousy.

Li Tian!

Damn Li Tian!

This guy must be in this metal world now!

But... seeing the stars, Xiaoyue and Canghai Sangtian, their bodies were tattered, almost to the point where they were barely clothed.

Long Yin felt a lot of balance in his heart!

It seems that Li Tian didn't choose a powerful organization to seek refuge like his Long Yin, otherwise he would not abandon his own woman and put his own woman in danger.

Maybe Li Tian has already been killed by a super domain master-level powerhouse, and dried into dried meat!

Hahaha!

Thinking of this, Long Yin couldn't help but laughed wildly.

His face flashed with pride.

Long Yin didn't answer the questions of these two women. He turned to the powerful spiritual gold clan who escorted the stars, Xiaoyue and the vicissitudes of life and said every year: "Send these two human women to my residence!"

After saying this, Long Yin laughed wildly and turned and left!

"Li Tian, Li Tian, didn't expect you to have today?"

"When you are in the Netherworld, don't you like the woman who robs me of Long Yin?"

"Hahaha, Feng Shui turns around, but now your two women have fallen into my hands!"

...

Long Yin's residence is a magnificent metal palace!

The palace covers an extremely large area, and there are hundreds of acres of land.

Unlike other palaces in the earth world, this metal palace is like a death hell!

The entire palace is covered by wheels in a huge metal shell. After entering this metal palace, it is almost impossible to get out of it.

There is only one such metal palace in the entire Yin Continent.

Originally, this metal palace belonged to the powerful wolf riding clan, but in the last six months, because of Long Yin's outstanding performance, the wolf riding strong have left the Yin Continent to go to a new area and open up a new area.

Therefore, this metal palace, and even the entire Yin Continent, is now in charge of Long Yin.

Long Yin was cultivating in this metal palace, playing unscrupulously with women of other races in this metal palace, and even unscrupulously beheading strong men of other races as the wrong food.

And today, Long Yin is ready to attack the stars and the moon and the vicissitudes of life here!

Li Tian is Long Yin's brother?

Do not!

Perhaps at a certain time, Long Yin and Li Tian had already turned their fights into jade silk, but...Since Hai Qin followed Li Tian, Long Yin had already regarded Li Tian as his opponent.

Li Tian is Long Yin's brother?

Haha,

In fact, the same can be said!

Brothers are like brothers, women are like clothes!

Since the Li Tian brothers came with clothes belonging to my Long Yin, then my Long Yin doubled to wear two clothes belonging to Li Tian, which seemed not bad...

Thinking of this, Long Yin's face showed another lewd smile.

Cang Dang, Dang Dang!

The stars, Xiaoyue and the vicissitudes of life with metal shackles were sent into the palace by the strong of the Lingjin clan!

Rumble!

The gate of the palace was closed by the strong of the Lingjin clan.

Only Long Yin, Stars and Xiaoyue, and the vicissitudes of life are left in the entire metal palace!

"Long Yin, let us go..."

"Hey, let go of you? What's the point? Why don't we play some interesting games, such as...!
Hahaha!" Long Yin rushed towards the sweetness of the sea like a wolf!

Chapter 4938: : Li Tian is still alive

The vicissitudes of life are sweet, the stars and the moon are all wearing metal shackles.

This metal shackle is a change from a certain metal creature unique to the metal world. Even if it is a super domain master junior strong, once he wears this metal shackle, his whole body's cultivation will be at least half locked.

It is almost impossible to break free of this kind of metal shackles!

"Long Yin, what do you want to do!"

When Xingchen Xiaoyue saw Long Yin, she thought that Long Yin would save them, and they could finally see hope.

However, when the gate of the metal palace was closed and Long Yin showed his fangs and pounced on the sweetness of the sea, Xing Chen Xiaoyue knew that he was still thinking too naively.

Long Yin has changed!

Maybe the guy in front of you is not Long Yin at all!

Therefore, when Long Yin pounced on the sweetness of the vicissitudes of life, Xingchen Xiaoyue's feet were a little on the ground, and the whole body slammed into Long Yin!

A sneer appeared at the corner of Long Yin's mouth, and then lifted up a palm, took the stars and Xiaoyue back more than ten steps, and fell to the ground.

"Don't be too anxious, today you two, neither of you can run, I will play with you slowly, and promise that you can all reach an unprecedented climax...!"

Long Yin had already fallen over the vicissitudes of life, riding the vicissitudes of life under him, tearing at the already tattered clothes with his hands!

hiss!

A large piece of the clothes on Cang Hai Sang Tian was torn off, and as the clothes were torn off, Cang Hai Sang Tian let out a miserable cry!

"Long Yin! Do you dare to treat me like this?"

"Long Yin, I am Tang Xiaolong's woman...you..."

hiss!

The vicissitudes of life was torn off again, revealing his snow-white skin and plump...

"You bastard...you beast!"

Long Yin has a hideous face!

Tang Xiaolong's woman?

so what?

Today I will play Tang Xiaolong's woman first, and then Li Tian's woman!

Hahaha!

Scream, scream to your heart's content!

The more you screamed back, the more pleasure in my Long Yin's heart!

wife?

Less...women?

Why does Long Yin feel inexplicably excited when he thinks of these two terms?

Long Yin's palm has captured the vicissitudes of life!

So full!

So flexible!

Tsk tsks, this figure feels quite seductive even if you just look at it, let alone measure the fullness of the double peaks with both hands!

The vicissitudes of life made a miserable cry under Long Yin, she wanted to break free of Long Yin's demon, but... this * metal shackles made the vicissitudes of life unable to attack at all, and could not release spiritual power!

Besides, this Long Yin's cultivation has reached the realm of Super Domain Master, even if she loosened her metal shackles and let her join forces with Xing Chen Xiaoyue, she would definitely not be Long Yin's opponent!

Xingchen Xiaoyue got up from the ground, exhausted her whole body to get rid of the metal shackles.

But... all this is in vain!

"Long Yin! You beast..."

Xingchen Xiaoyue roared and rushed towards Long Yin!

She wanted to knock Long Yin away from the vicissitudes of life, and wanted to smash Long Yin, a beast devil, directly!

It's just that the stars and the moon are too weak!

As soon as she rushed to Long Yin's side, Long Yin let go of the vicissitudes of life, put her finger on the vicissitudes of the sea, and the whole person flew up in an instant, then turned around and patted the shoulder of the stars and Xiaoyue with a palm.

Xingchen Xiaoyue suddenly let out a scream, she only felt that the spiritual power in her body's veins suddenly began to reverse uncontrollably, and her whole body felt hot, and even... Feel the feeling of exploding body.

With a sneer at the corner of Long Yin's mouth, he pulled off a piece of the clothes that Xing Chen Xiaoyue was wearing, and then directly pressed Xing Chen Xiaoyue horizontally on the vicissitudes of life!

"Hey, since you are so urgent, how am I embarrassed to refuse you?"

"Come on! Let the three of us have fun together!"

"As long as you can take care of Lao Tzu, Long Yin, and serve him comfortably, in this metal world, my pillow can let you live, and even let you live with me back to the Nether Realm!"

"Hahahaha!"

Long Yin's palms groped unscrupulously on the stars, Xiaoyue, and the vicissitudes of life.

The vicissitudes of life and the stars and Xiaoyue struggled desperately, but...the more they struggled, the more they aroused Long Yin's animal desires!

The vicissitudes of life are so sweet!

She felt her life was full of gloom!

At this moment, her mind was full of Tang Xiaolong's voice and smile.

If... if... if there is no way to escape today, you are destined to be raped by the animal Long Yin.

So... so... so vicissitudes of life would rather imagine Long Yin as Tang Xiaolong, only in this way can she have a reason to live.

Only in this way can the vicissitudes of life tell Tang Xiaolong of her misfortune, and let Tang Xiaolong avenge her!

The vicissitudes of life are no longer struggling, letting Long Yin's paws touch her body, tears flow down the corner of her eyes!

"Hey, let's give up resisting now? This is meaningless!"

"I like you to resist, otherwise I really can't be interested! Come on, pretend to resist, so that I can get more refreshment!"

spit!

Xingchen Xiaoyue tried to turn around, and spit on Long Yin's fierce face!

Saliva flowed from the corner of Long Yin's eyes and slipped on his face!

Long Yin stopped the movement in his hand, and the corners of his mouth bounced slightly, and his backhand gave Xingchen Xiaoyue a slap in the face!

"Ugly woman, do you still think of Li Tian to protect you?"

"Hahaha! Li Tian, that territorial master-level junior trash? Even if his cultivation is already very strong in the Netherworld, but in this metal world, even a super-domain master junior powerhouse may die at any time, he can Has he saved you? If he can save you, you won't be able to become slaves, and become  slaves who serve me Long Yin!"

"Now it's best to cooperate with Lao Tzu obediently, otherwise, when Lao Tzu finishes enjoying you, I will give you to the empty Naxi alien race, so that you can feel the real beast!"

hiss!

Long Yin once again tore off a piece of cloth from Xingchen Xiaoyue's shirt, revealing the magnificent twin peaks of Xingchen Xiaoyue.

This guy.....

Long Yin's eyes almost straightened, and the corners of his eyes twitched slightly, trying to reach out and catch the twin peaks of the stars and the moon!

The corner of Xingchen Xiaoyue's mouth was sneered, but she didn't avoid Long Yin's devil's grasp. Instead, she deliberately stood up and said with a sneer: "Long Yin, Li Tian hasn't died yet! You are nothing but a metal world. It's just a dog for the Lingjin tribe, but what about Li Tian? He can kill a super master of the ninth level!"

"You want to play with me and the vicissitudes of life today, then you are free, but I advise you, it is best that you kill both of us, otherwise..."

Chapter 4939: :Qingyun Conjecture

It was not the news that Li Tian was still alive that made Long Yin feel shocked, but... Li Tian was able to kill the ninth-level super domain master!

What is this concept?

Does this mean that Li Tian's current cultivation base has reached the ninth level of the super domain master, or is it...

Impossible, there is no demigod in the metal world!

Therefore, Li Tian's cultivation realm could not reach his realm at all.

Could it be that Li Tian's current cultivation level has really reached the ninth level of the super domain master pinnacle realm?

From the last time I saw Li Tian in the Netherworld, it has not been more than seven or eight years at most.

In just less than seven or eight years, how could the trash in the initial stage of the domain master reach the ninth level of the super domain master?

This is equally impossible!

This is Long Yin's judgment on Li Tian.

But when he made this judgment, he had forgotten that it took him less than a year to break through from the seventh level of the domain master to the first level of the superdomain master!

"You lied to me!"

"Lie to you, hahaha, why should I lie to you? If you don't believe me, you can go out and ask, oh, I forgot to tell you, Li Tianneng killed the super domain master ninth-level powerhouse four years ago. The matter, now Li Tian's cultivation base may be stronger!" Xingchen Xiaoyue raised her head, her eyes fixed on Long Yin.

Long Yin wanted to find some clues from the face of Xing Chen Xiaoyue, and wanted to prove that Xing Chen Xiaoyue was just lying, but Long Yin failed.

Xingchen Xiaoyue's face was as usual, without the slightest panic, and even a sense of righteousness and resolute death.

People are about to die, the words are good, if Xing Chen Xiaoyue is really ready to die, she seems to have no need to lie to Long Yin!

"All of this you said is true?"

Although Long Yin believed Xingchen Xiaoyue's words seven or eight points, he still asked subconsciously.

"Hahaha, are you scared?"

Xingchen Xiaoyue obviously hadn't studied criminal psychology, she didn't know that she shouldn't deliberately anger criminals at this time.

So when she had just finished saying these words, she heard a slap in the face again.

"Afraid? I will be afraid of Li Tian? Hahaha, do you know who I am? I am Long Yin, the man who is Li Tian's opponent in his life! I will be afraid of him?" While saying this, Long Yin once again He began to tear Xing Chen Xiaoyue's clothes, stretched out his hand to grab the towering breast of Xing Chen Xiaoyue, and then twisted it fiercely.

"I'll be afraid of him... I'll be afraid of him... Today I will let you know the fate of Long Yin that angered me..."

Long Yin is still riding on the vicissitudes of life, but both hands are touching, twisting, pinching, twisting, and pulling the stars and the moon.

His face was still hideous, and even Long Yin vacated a hand, trying to untie his pants.

"I will be afraid of him..."

"I will... save your dog's life for now! Li Tian is still alive, and I will beat Li Tian in front of you at that time, and beat Li Tian like a dog to kneel in front of me and lick me. Foot, and then... hey, I'll be cleaning up your two * in front of Li Tian!"

Long Yin's voice trembled a little.

He didn't know when there was such a trace of fear in his heart.

This is the fear of Li Tian.

Long Yin's psychology is very clear, he must overcome the fear in his heart.

If he can't overcome the fear in his heart, then it will be extremely difficult to take over his practice.

And the best way to overcome the fear in my heart is to defeat Li Tian!

Defeating Li Tian uprightly, as he said, let Li Tian kneel down in front of him and lick his feet!

Long Yin was no longer caring about the stars, the moon, and the sweetness of the sea, he turned around and walked deeper towards the metal palace in stride!

And in his hand, I don't know when there was another crystal of a demigod-level powerhouse.

Long Yin needs to practice, he needs to hurry up to practice!

In the past, Long Yin would still worry because he could not leave the metal world after breaking through to the eighth-level realm of the super domain master.

Now, Long Yin no longer has such worries about cultivation.

As long as Li Tian can be defeated, as long as Li Tian can be killed, what about Long Yin being trapped in the metal world?

Besides, Long Yin has reason to believe in those strong wolf riders.

Thirty-two super domain masters at the ninth level of wolf riding powerhouses, they will never make fun of being trapped in the metal world, so Long Yin decided to hesitate, as long as he closely follows the pace of wolf riding powerhouses, as long as He continued to work hard for the wolf-riding powerhouses and continue to work for them. When the wolf-riding powerhouses break through and become the demigod-level powerhouses, they will naturally have a place in him.

At that time, Long Yin could leave the metal world with these wolf riders.

As for the Netherworld, the assassins are organizing?

Fuck it, if my Long Yin's cultivation level has reached a demigod, would I still be dying for the assassin organization?

Long Yin has made a decision!

Cultivate, become stronger, reach the ninth level of Super Domain Lord, and then go to find Li Tian, defeat Li Tian, and kill Li Tian!

...

Sneeze!

Li Tian sneezed!

"I don't know if this sneeze is Xiaolong or my wife is missing me!" Li Tian said to himself.

It has been almost four years since entering the miraculous mountain.

At present, Li Tian's cultivation level is still in the early stage of the super domain master level. In these six months, Li Tian's cultivation level has not improved, but Li Tian has consolidated his cultivation level, and his spiritual power is also weak in his body. More vigorous than before, and the dragon picture in Li Tian's heart, Li Tian can now open half an inch!

Don't underestimate this half-inch dragon map, this is an affirmation of Li Tian's strength!

Li Tian is sure that even a strong person with a super domain master second-level realm, using spiritual power may not be able to open the dragon map at all!

The most important thing is that Li Tian saw the long-lost text "Qingyun" on this half inch of the unfolding dragon map.

Can you imagine Li Tian's excitement when he saw the word 'Qingyun'?

The earth world has blue clouds.

But no blue clouds appeared in the Netherworld.

Now, in this metal world, Li Tian received Qingyun's information again, which was really exciting.

"It seems that this dragon picture is probably the treasure map of the prehistoric dragon! Qingyun, what is the scroll of Qingyun? And, where did the prehistoric dragon find Qingyun?" Li Tian's heart Thinking about it.

The great dragon died here hundreds of watts ago.

And millions of years ago, the earth world was still in the process of human evolution!

"It seems that Qingyun should not belong to the cultivation technique of the earth world!" Li Tian guessed in his heart.

However, any guesses are in vain. The most important thing for Li Tian right now is to practice, practice, and practice again!

"I have to increase my cultivation level at least every three years. Only in this way, when I leave the miraculous mountain, I can reach the seventh-level pinnacle realm of the superdomain master. I will be refining the red sword and control The red wing  outfit is enough to sweep the entire metal world!"

Chapter 4940: : The Super God Family has started

When Li Tian concentrated on his cultivation, several major events happened in the Netherworld!

A few super events that can shake the balance of the entire Netherworld!

First of all, the domain master of the star domain master and the empire of Canghai the Great were destroyed, and the whereabouts of the star domain master and Canghai the Great are unknown.

From the perspective of appearance, the destruction of the country seems to be just an ordinary contradiction between the domain master country and the domain master country, the empire and the empire, and the wars in these countries did not involve other neighboring kingdoms, but many mysterious families But from this seemingly most normal war, I smelled an unusual smell.

You must know that the star domain master was one of the twenty domain master level powerhouses in the nether world, and the Great Emperor Canghai was also one of the newly emerging domain masters.

These two great nations still have very powerful strength in the entire Nether Realm.

If it were under normal circumstances, between these domain masters and empires, there would not be such a large-scale conflict until the country was destroyed. Even if there was an endless conflict, it would be a direct battle between the domain master and the domain master.

These mysterious families have discovered that in the process of destroying the kingdom of the star domain master country and the Canghai Empire, there are more or less the shadow of the super * family.

Followed by the Donggong Super God Family and the Sanlu Super God Family, they announced their alliance to enter the dark forest, explore the ancient civilization in the dark forest, and discover the cultivation methods of the ghost beasts in the dark forest.

This is just under the guise of exploring civilization to eradicate the dark and soft forces in the dark forest.

For a while, the core area of the dark forest jumped.

The strength of the nether beasts in the dark forest is very powerful, if these nether beasts unite, they can make many domain master-level powerhouses, even if they are the domain master ninth-level mid-level powerhouse, there will be no return.

However, the super * family dispatched super domain master level powerhouses, and even the two Patriarchs personally dispatched.

In the gloomy forest, the dark and soft forces were uprooted.

Many ghost beasts in the dark forest such as the tree elves have to migrate to the more core area of the dark forest.

However, the goal of the Donggong Super God Family and the San Lu Super God Family is not just Dark and Soft, their goal is the Holy Peak, the Purple Flame Thunder Bear who is cultivating on the Holy Peak and the son of Li Tian!

Holy Peak, for the domain master-level powerhouse, this ray of power is enough to stop many powerhouses.

But for the super domain master-level powerhouse, this ray of power is almost negligible!

"Li Tian has been in the Nether Cry Sea for many years. It seems that they are practicing secretly. They must wait for Li Tian to get out of the Nether Cry Sea and uproot all the foundations of Li Tian in the Nether Realm!" Donggong Zhentian looked at the towering clouds. Shengfeng said with a cold flash on his face.

Beside Donggong Zhentian is Sanlu Taibao.

For the decision of the Donggong Super God Family, the Sanlu Super God Family is now cooperating.

The hatred with Li Tian has reached the point of disharmony. Once Li Tian comes out of the sea of crying, once Li Tian's cultivation strength reaches the super domain master or even a higher realm, then the entire super * family will have to face it. Counterattack against Li Tianjun regiment.

Of course, the current Super God family is not afraid of Li Tian. If Li Tian breaks openly with the Super God family, then as long as Li Tian has not become a god, his legion will be united by the four super God families and all annihilated.

The super * family feared that Li Tian didn't follow the rules. Of course, Li Tian was also the kind of people who didn't follow the rules.

It's as if the Super God family doesn't rule Li Tian.

At that time, if the Super God family does not want to lose too much, it seems that they can only shrink in the territory where the family is located.

Otherwise, Li Tian will definitely keep attacking the super domain masters of the super * family, and then cut off the heads of these super domain masters.

The Super God Family is the highest being in the entire Netherworld. They are not afraid of Li Tian, but they can't afford to lose such a person.

Therefore, the Super God Family is now going to eradicate Li Tian's wings one by one.

After they pulled the holy peak from the dark forest, the next goal was the Nether Academy!

That's right, it's Nether Academy!

Nether Academy is also considered the most powerful existence in the Nether Realm, but unfortunately, there is no demigod powerhouse in Nether Academy.

In the competition with other super * families, Netherworld Academy has fallen behind.

Of course, if you want to attack the Netherworld Academy, these super * families still need to make a good total and find a fair and honest reason to do it.

Otherwise, the Super God Family would not be able to block the world's leisurely crowd.

Otherwise, other mysterious families, ancient families, and mysterious races in the Underworld are likely to intervene in this matter.

If it can be removed smoothly, no, even if it is to control the Nether Academy, the next goal of the Super God Family is Nether Cry Sea, Sea-Monster Clan!

The Sea-Monster Clan in the Nether Cry Sea is not easy to deal with, after all, the Sea-Monster Clan has a semi-god powerhouse.

However, if the Super God Clan wants to continue to maintain their position in the Nether Realm, the Sea-Monster Clan must be completely eliminated.

Of course, the ultimate goal of the four super * families is still that of Wanshen Mountain!

The strength in Wanshen Mountain is far stronger than the goddess they cultivated!

One mountain cannot tolerate two tigers, there are already demigods in the Netherworld, how can other demigods from outside the sky be allowed to * their territory?

This woman from the Pantheon Mountain is like the sword of Damocles hanging over the heads of the four super * families, who knows when it will fall.

The super * family seems likely to be annihilated by this mysterious woman at any time.

This is not the result that the four super * families want to see.

As for peaceful coexistence with this mysterious woman?

Do not joke.

In the battle of Wanshenshan ten thousand years ago, the Super God family and this woman had already had an antagonism.

Both sides only live and die.

It's just that, in the first few thousand years, this woman needed to heal her injuries, and the four super * families also needed to recuperate and continue to practice, improve the strength of the four super * families, and have more semi-god powerhouses.

Therefore, they can coexist peacefully for a short time.

But as the woman's injuries gradually recovered, the four super * families felt that their necks had been pinched by this woman, and this woman could kill them at any time.

This feeling is not what the four super * families want!

So, come back sooner or later after a battle with Wanshen Mountain!

"Then let's start! Kill the Purple Flame Thunder Bear and others as soon as possible, so as not to have many dreams at night!"

With an order, the super domain masters of the Donggong Super God Family and the Sanlu Super God Family, like apes, began to climb the Holy Peak with ease!

As for the Donggong Zhentian of the Super God family, he is a semi-god powerhouse, just dealing with two super domain master powerhouses, this kind of thing shouldn't need him to intervene!

The figure is getting smaller and smaller, but in less than a minute, more than a dozen super domain master-level powerhouses have already climbed halfway up the holy peak!

Purple flame thunder bear is dangerous!

Li Mu is dangerous!
