

A Killer 5991

Chapter 5991: select

"What you mean by this sentence seems to be that the two of us have made some conspiracy and tricks to calculate the two of you in advance. You must know that the two of us have shown our determination to cooperate with you, otherwise you Think the two of us will go ahead?"

"Who knows this kind of thing, you should also understand that before this fork in the road, we will not attack you at all, so we are so anxious to seize the opportunity, in order to make such a negotiation with us here. "The white-clothed man stared at Li Tian in front of him. He was already a little upset now. The young man actually started to count them before.

Now although they do have some insufficient reasons, if they don't want to cooperate, what can these two young people do to them?

fighting?

You can give it a try. Although the two of them have always been worried about the strength of this young man and the Li Tian, who claims to be constantly creating miracles, they would still not retreat if they were to fight.

Now I just want to give myself one more choice. If possible, try not to contact the young man in front of me as much as possible.

"Look at the nervous expressions on your faces. It seems that there is something wrong with our action this time, but everything is very normal to me. You just don't understand it." Li Tian Shrugging his shoulders, there was still that kind of weird-looking smile on his face, which made the two people in front of him look uncomfortable: "You say it like this, as if we have been calculating you all the time, this is just like a villain. The heart of the gentleman has saved the belly of a gentleman. We give you trust, but you treat us like this, which is really chilling."

"Forget it, this young man is a witty tooth. I have arranged and planned all this long ago. It makes no sense what we say." The man in black smiled helplessly, and now he believes that this young man can pass. The previous two tests were no problem at all. Now it seems that this young man is really like an old fox.

He can always grasp your lifeline at many critical times, and then leave you with no choice.

It's like the situation right now.

In fact, there is no room for the choice between the white clothed person and the black clothed person. They know that there are still many powerful opponents in front of them, and they also know that there are still many guys who have not kept up behind them. Some cannon fodder.

These two young people are probably the most suitable.

"Are we going to let them manipulate like this? This is completely different from our previous thoughts. I never thought that one day I would be dealt with by a young man like this." The white-clothed man was still very unconvinced, what he was. Such an existence, what kind of existence Li Tian is in front of him, now he has become a plaything in the hands of the young man in front of him.

"Give up, we have no choice now. This young man is able to make his own reputation in the God Realm. He does have his own very powerful means. At this point, we don't need to doubt. , I thought that the two of us would have no problem dealing with the two of them. Now it seems that it's not like this at all. This kid is much smarter than we thought. Now let's proceed carefully. We don't know what this kid will do next. How to set off for us." The man in black shrugged helplessly, and now he has no choice.

Before, they let others have no choice and left them desperate.

Unexpectedly, after such a long time has passed, this kind of thing will happen to them. Such a young man will leave them no choice or retreat.

"Well, it seems that you have discussed it in this way. In fact, there is no serious problem. It is just to let you walk in front of us for a period of time. When we are sure that you are real companions, let After you believe us, so that we can devote ourselves to doing other things next, which is good for both of us. Do you really think that we doubt each other and can make us go further? "Li Tian smiled and looked at the two people in front of him. They whispered before, naturally they were all in his eyes.

In fact, all of this was already under Li Tian's control. He knew very well what methods he should use to deal with the two men in front of him.

I also know that the emotions of the two men in front of them should be very tense now.

Let these two young people walk behind them, it means that they need to face the danger in the next journey by themselves, and naturally there is no way to frame the two of them.

It was really a very smart choice. It made the enemy very difficult, and at the same time made myself very safe.

"You are really a very cunning kid. It seems that we underestimated the two of you before. We didn't take everything you did seriously. I believe that this will not happen next time, but As you said, the problems we will encounter will only become more and more dangerous. If our two sides cannot cooperate well, then no one knows what will happen next, since it is like this , I promised to cooperate with you this time, we are ahead, you follow us, there may be other means at this fork in the road, you may lose your way if you are not careful." The man in black He sighed and said helplessly: "But we don't know a lot, and there is no guarantee that you will be safe."

"This is enough. Anyway, you are ahead of us. If you encounter any danger, I believe you can tell us as soon as possible. Then we will work together to deal with it. I believe that we can deal with anything according to our current strength. There should be no problem with the emergency situation." Li Tian smiled confidently, then patted the shoulder of the man in black: "I don't worry if you say that. Now we are still partners, right?"

"It is indeed like this. From now on, we are real partners. No matter what kind of danger we encounter, we hope that we can cooperate with each other." The man in black smiled awkwardly, and then faintly Said.

Chapter 5992: Rebirth

Work with this young man in front of you?

For them, there is nothing more disgusting than this. They originally wanted to count the two young people in front of them.

When they left Shen Longyuan and saw this maelstrom, they knew that there were already very powerful masters in front of them, and these two masters might grab them everywhere in the next time. front,

Therefore, the actions of the two people afterwards are regarded as using all their strength, in order to catch up with them before these two powerful masters.

As long as they figure out their details, kill these two people, everything can be over.

Who knows, when they caught up, they saw two young men.

And one of them turned out to be a young man who had been raging in the rumors of the entire God Realm before. This is a true popular young man in the God Realm. Regarding Li Tian's affairs, many of them even if they did not personally participate, they did not see I have heard of it, and there are even many details in these things, which are described quite carefully.

What is certain is that this young man may even become an omnipotent true  in the minds of many people in the God Realm.

When they saw Li Tian in front of them, they didn't immediately regard this young man as a very dangerous enemy, but secretly told themselves in their hearts that this young man was not easy, so be careful.

But it's just like this.

It is obviously impossible for the two of them to match a terrible opponent among such a young man.

At Li Tian's age, in front of the two of them, it was really like a baby. The two adults, looking at such a baby, really didn't know why they should take such an opponent so important.

Until now, they realized that they had underestimated the enemy before, and if they could recognize this earlier, perhaps this would not happen at all.

"Well, now that the words have been said clearly, obviously the contradiction between our two sides has been solved in this way. I hope that we can help each other during the next journey and pass this  place together. I am now I don't know what is going on in this  place. Since the two of you know that this is the Devil Dragon Skeleton Cavern, you obviously have a better understanding of this place than ours. I hope you don't let us down. "Li Tian said shamelessly. His serious appearance really doesn't seem to be a joke.

The man in black and the man in white glanced at Li Tian, then laughed awkwardly, because they couldn't see their faces, so they couldn't see what their expressions looked like now.

But what is certain is that these two people must be in a much worse mood than they thought.

Originally, this time I wanted to calculate Li Tian and let this young man know that the sky is so great, but he didn't expect that they would be calculated by the young man in the end.

This is to tell them a truth, no matter how young your opponent is in the end, you should never underestimate your opponent in this critical matter.

Once they commit such a mistake, the consequences are really unexpected.

In the two forks in front of me, one looked like the entrance to a very luxurious palace, and the other looked more like a tattered cave with nothing. ,

"But this kind of entrance seems to be easy to distinguish, right"

"Is it easy to distinguish? Of course it's not easy to distinguish. This seems like a blind trick. In fact, many people will make some wrong decisions when choosing here. This is what we should follow." When speaking, the man in black It was pointing to the fork in the road in front that seemed to lead to the palace.

"According to normal logic, it is certainly not possible for Tiansheng to tell us this secret, so should we choose this cave that seems to have nothing at this time?" Ximen Yechou asked, his tone very cold, look. It seemed to be a little doubtful about the choice of the two people in front of him.

"I will know that you will definitely doubt it, and I also believe that there are many people who have the same idea as you, but Tian Sheng is such a weird guy. The road he arranged for us is without any pretense. If you can't beat your own heart, it's difficult to make a choice on this kind of road. This is just a place that confuses people. It looks more like a strange illusion. Although it is an illusion, it has the same effect. Wonder, there are always many ways to make you make a wrong choice."

"Since it is like this, we don't have to waste any time now. Let me see what level of opponent we can see in this kind of place."

As they spoke, they began to move towards this place leading to a hall.

It looks very luxurious here, and it gives people a feeling that they can go through here to a very tall place. Of course, what kind of tall place it is, I believe that many people also don't know at all. Things.

Li Tian and Ximen Yechou walked behind, and in front were the man in black and the man in white.

"Don't the two of them hold a grudge against us because of this incident? This time, you can be regarded as letting the two of them eaten up, and you managed to get it done, but you made it like this." Ximen Yeshou cautiously Looking at Li Tian in front of him, he asked in a low voice, and at the same time, his eyes were constantly staring at the two people in front of him, as if worried that they would hear him.

"Even if we don't do this, we will still have to fight with them soon. You are really naive to think that these two people are really ready to cooperate with us and go all the way?" Li Tian hummed coldly. After a while, if these two people really cooperated with them, it would not become the current situation.

Just as they walked like this for an unknown period of time, a very strange place suddenly appeared in front of them. It looked like a cave, but all around was a black void, and in this black void, There is a flower that has not bloomed, and on the outside of this cave, there are three characters of "Departure Hall".

Chapter 5993: Road to reincarnation

"Wang Sheng Hall? What is this place?" Li Tian squinted his eyes. There was no danger on the way, and there was something unsafe in their hearts.

"Wang Sheng Hall, this should also be a place created by Heavenly Sage. It is said that there should be a lot of elixir that grows here. Previously, Bai Caomen was rumored to like to pick the elixir herbs in the Northern Cold Land, but the elixir herbs in this palace, It's more precious and more effective than the northern cold land." The white-clothed man turned around and explained impatiently: "It's just rumored that no one can pass through the Palace of Death for so many years."

"It's really like this, it's just because the road to the Palace of Death seems too difficult. If we want to pass, it's like walking between life and death, and one mistake will die." The man in black turned. After turning around, he reluctantly said: "Since it is the Hall of Resurrection, it must be the hall where the dead go to the place of the living. This kind of hall is usually called reincarnation."

There was a legend on the earth before that after death, a person would go to * or heaven, and then reincarnate as a person in the world.

And in this process, there is a way to go, which is the rumored road of reincarnation.

Could it be that they have to go through this road of reincarnation before they can be regarded as passing?

"In other words, we are now at the door of death. What will happen next depends on what we can do in the process. Is it like this?" Li Tian Glancing at the man in black and the man in white, and at the same time looking at the void in front of him, the flower that hasn't bloomed yet, it seems that there is something crucial.

"The other side flower is rumored to be a flower that grows in the living world and the underworld. Once it opens, it connects the world of the dead and the living, and the rumored road of reincarnation appears. If we want to go on the road of reincarnation, Let the other shore flowers bloom." The white-clothed man explained impatiently. His attitude towards these two young men has always been poor, and he looks like a man with a very straightforward personality.

Not as good as the man in black. Although the man in black was calculated by Li Tian, he had always hidden his emotions well, and he had not been able to expose his anger.

If he could not guess it, Li Tian might even suspect that this man in black didn't take these things happening here seriously.

"Since we need the flowers of the other side to bloom through here, why should we wait so long here?" Ximen Yechou asked, squinting his eyes, looking at the two people in front of him.

"Of course it takes time for the blossoms of the other side to bloom. We have to wait here for a while. The two of us have prepared a spell here before, and now we can just try to see if the flowers of the other side can be opened." The man in black He said calmly, and it seemed that there really wasn't much to me in his tone.

Li Tian couldn't see this guy's connection, so he could only judge by the tone of this guy's speech, how credible this matter was.

After hearing this, he whispered to Ximen Yeshou: "It seems that they should have nothing to do with this Bianhua now. It is very likely that this is the first time they came here, and then they saw this thing for the first time, so some Feeling at a loss."

"Since so many people here want to come in, there must be a lot of unclear enemies behind us. They don't know when they will show up. We don't have much time left. We really have to. Wait for it?" Ximen Yeshou was very anxious. If the flowers of the other side didn't bloom, they would obviously not be able to embark on this road of reincarnation.

"I don't know how to open this Bigan Flower, now I can only see if these two guys can find any way." Li Tian shrugged, and now they don't have much certainty that this Bian Flower can open, but these two people. Now that I know so much, maybe I really know a little bit about the process of the blooming of the other shore flower.

"Although we are now in a cooperative relationship with them, they should also need us very much, but at this time we still have to be careful. If we are framed by them, we will be over. The terrible part of this place should be It has already surpassed our imagination. A carelessness may cause the two of us to fall to death." Looking at the man in black and the man in white, Li Tian was still very nervous at this time.

They didn't know what happened to Bianhua, but what they knew was that the man in black and the man in white needed their two to continue to help them go, so here should let them go on unscathed.

So, although I am nervous, I still don't worry too much about these two people.

At this time, the men in black and white were all sitting cross-legged on the ground. The man in black glanced at the man in white on the left and asked, "Are you ready?"

"Don't worry, I'm ready. The next step is to see the two of us join forces to let these ignorant young people know that we are great." The white-clothed man's tone was full of excitement, and it seemed that something would happen next. What they really want to see is the same: "Since the road of reincarnation is the path of the living and the dead, it is naturally not so easy to pass. It is time for them to see the power of God.

"Don't be too anxious now, we must be calm, and we must not let these two young people see what we have in our hearts. If we can really pass the road of reincarnation this time, it will not count our preparation for so long. Now, as long as you pass the road of reincarnation, you can get the treasure of God. With that thing, the day when we dominate the entire God Realm will slowly come." The man in black still speaks so calmly. .

The person in white also knew that his emotions seemed a little overly excited, so he was anxious to calm himself down.

Li Tian looked at these two men from a distance, frowning, but he was not very clear in his heart what exactly the two men were doing now. Why could their mentality be so normal at this critical time?

Don't they even realize what kind of dangerous place they are in now?

"Let's just wait like this." Ximen Yechou said awkwardly, and then sat on the ground, ready to start practicing like this.

Chapter 5994: Sacrifice

As time went by little by little, Li Tian didn't know why, and his mood began to become heavy.

He always felt that there seemed to be something very crucial in this matter that he had not been able to grasp.

He tried to communicate with the remnant soul of the ancient gods. After all, this is a real senior who has existed in the gods for so many years, and the ancient gods are constantly absorbing the current knowledge of the entire gods. It's a real old antique. You should have a deep understanding of the other side flower in front of you, what the road to life is.

But I don't know why, I can't communicate with the remnants of the ancient gods now.

Even Canglong had no way to communicate.

After discovering this, Li Tian's whole person's emotions began to become tense. If something is really going to happen, this situation should be a sign.

He stood up anxiously, holding the sword in his hand, trying to communicate with Hong Zhan, but found that it had no effect.

"What's going on, why I have cut off contact with everything, as if restricted by something, do you know what's going on?" He widened his eyes and looked at the man in black and white in the distance Two of them asked loudly.

When Ximen Yechou heard this, he opened his eyes and asked, "What's the matter?"

"I don't know what's going on anymore. My sword can no longer communicate with me. This is something that has never happened before. After so long, whenever I want to communicate with the sword in my hand At the time, it can always clearly convey its will to me, but now there is no way to do such a thing. I suspect that there is a great connection with the two people in front of me." Li Tian squinted his eyes. Murderous aura has slowly penetrated from his body.

At this time, the man in black stood up.

The man in white also stood up.

Both of them looked at Li Tian in front of him from a distance, unable to see what their eyes looked like, but Li Tian could also feel that his body was very cold, like being caught by something. Keep sweeping.

"How about it. Now we are very helpless about the situation of our own body. We should have thought about it. There should be some powerful creature in your body that is constantly guiding you as a young man. Otherwise, how could you rely on it? I walked to this kind of place and cultivated to this level with my own body like a fairy." The man in black chuckled, looking at Li Tian in front of him, and said.

"What do you two mean? Are you going to tear your face in such a hurry and fight with us?" Li Tian held the sword in his hand tightly, and the immortal power inside his body began to flow rapidly at this time. Just like being stimulated by something, the speed is getting faster and faster, and the power is getting more and more terrifying.

If he really wants to kill the two enemies in front of him now, there is nothing he can't do.

But he didn't know why, he didn't dare to do it easily now.

"See, you can't control yourself anymore. You already have this trembling feeling in your body. If you are a smart person, you should know that the ritual for the two of us has been completed. Now it's your turn to be unlucky." The man in black gave a faint smile, looked at Li Tian in front of him and said.

"You have been lying before?"

"That's not true. Although the two of us are not good people, we rarely do things like lying. At least we didn't lie to you just now, because I am also very worried that the thing in your body knows the other side flower. In this way, if we deceive you, it may cause us a lot of trouble." The man in black gave a wry smile, his tone seemed to be proud of what he had done.

This is reasonable.

The two of them had been waiting for this opportunity before, and now they have finally waited.

"What the * does this happen?"

"Indeed, this is the other side flower, the palace of rebirth. We need the road of reincarnation. Only in this way can we continue on." The white-clothed man proudly said: "All of this is true. We did not cheat at all, but you What I don't know is that if the Higan Flower wants to bloom, it must be sacrificed with the life of a living person. Only when it is baptized with blood, will it open up, and the real path of reincarnation will appear."

"So the lives of the two of us are actually doomed from the beginning. It is to come here to be your offerings, so that you can successfully open the flowers of the other side, so that you can leave through the road of reincarnation, and we will stay here. , I will die here forever, is it like this?" Li Tian clenched his fist, really didn't expect that one day he would fall to this point.

These two guys were hidden deep in front of them, and they didn't reveal the slightest flaw before.

Even if she has always been cautious, she never thought that she would actually capsize in the gutter. These two people are really wonderful calculations.

"It is indeed like this. We have already made a decision before. If the two of us are waiting here, we don't know how long it will take to pass. Although you two have passed the first two levels, in fact, for this There should be very little understanding of it. It's really hard for your luck to get to this point along the way, but unfortunately, after meeting us, your luck ended like this."

"It seems that the two of you were doing this kind of sacrifice ceremony just now, and I have become your sacrifice."

"You are very smart. I think Bianhua also needs a smart young man like you as its sacrifice. Of course, you don't need to be so discouraged. As a Sanxian, you are really proud to have such an achievement, even if you are If you die, we will keep you in our hearts. After all, without you as a young man, there would be no where we are today, right?" The man in black smiled and looked at Li in front of him. God, say.

"You are shameless, and did such a thing behind your back. Do you still have a little bit of dignity? You are two shameful villains."

"Thank you for the compliment. We are really such shameless villains. Only in this way can we survive in this world. As the saying goes, shameless is invincible. Haven't you heard of it?"

Chapter 5995: Calculate

"I should have thought that the two of you would definitely not be so friendly to us, and I didn't expect that the other side flower would need this to be able to open up. If not, you can't deceive me, right?" Being drawn out, it feels like this is to make Li Tian slowly become sleepy. He still doesn't know how long he can hold on.

The power of the other side flower is evident, this flower is now absorbing his vitality little by little.

No matter how powerful you are, even if you are already sufficiently proud of the heroes, once you lose the vitality in your body, even the king of heaven and Laozi will only have a dead end, not to mention that he is not as strong as that.

Facing such an enemy in front of them, the environment they are now in is simply unspeakable.

"Look at what you look like now. Once you were a strong man in the minds of many people. They all regarded you as a young man who was not easy to deal with, known as the creator of miracles. But look at what you are like now. An idiot, I saw a lot of things that I hate in your body." The man in black looked at Li Tian in front of him, his tone also completely looked down on Li Tian in front of him.

In his eyes, the young man in front of him seemed to be worthless at all.

"These have nothing to do with me. What I have to do now is very simple. It is enough to kill the  in front of you. Anything that happens after that is no problem for me." Li Tian sneered, and squinted at the guy in front of him, his tone was full of unscrupulous feelings: "Since we have reached the point where we are now, why don't we try to see who is the final winner." "

"Why, now you have reached this point, do you still naively think that you can survive? I don't think you, a young man, can't see what's going on on the court at all, you are in your current state, you Do you think you can change anything? Now you have no fighting power for us. Don't you know this?" The man in black squinted at Li Tian, the young man. Perhaps it was indeed a great threat to them before, but at this point, they don't think this young man can still exert what kind of combat effectiveness.

Once the sacrificial ritual of Higan Flower begins, it is impossible to stop.

It seems that Li Tian's face looks very natural now, but this young man should also be very clear about what his current state is like, and it is also very difficult to survive.

Many things in his body have already begun to be out of his control. If this state continues, it will not take long for him to completely lose his combat effectiveness. ,

In this state, who can defeat the two people in front of you?

Ximen Yeshou didn't seem to be affected. At this time, his spirit and spirit were still quite intact. The whole person was also very cold looking at the two people in front of him, and said: "You really think I will watch you. After completing this ritual, will Li Tian die in your hands like this? If I can tolerate even such things, I will no longer be me."

"Hehe, Shuiyuezhong really deserves to be such a daring fellow who often appears with such a talented person. You may think that you can change something by yourself, but I can tell you very clearly that you don't have anything in front of us. The odds are good. If we are ready to deal with you, now you have fallen on this ground. The reason why you are not in a hurry to attack you is that it will take some time for Bianhua to digest the enemy in front of you. You stay here honestly It's good for you and us." The man in black slowly took off the hat from his face.

A hideous-looking face appeared in front of them. The man looked as if he had crawled out of hell, his face was extremely hideous and terrifying.

Looking at the guy in front of him, Ximen Yechou squinted his eyes and said to Li Tian beside him faintly: "What are we going to do now? It seems that they are ready to count us from the beginning."

"This is a matter of course. I never think that my enemy is an idiot. I will not be surprised what kind of decision they can make. {" With a slight smile, he looked at the two people in front of him, and then very Indifferently said: "But you really miscalculated this time, even without the help of others, I want to get out of the situation like this, it is also very simple."

"If this is the case, let us see what excels you as a young man in the end. At this time, I really want to know what else you can do to change this. The situation." With a disdainful smile, looking at Li Tian, who is still confident in front of him, the expression on the face of the white-clothed man slowly began to stiffen, and his tone was still the same as before.

He slowly pulled out the sword in his hand: "It's better to be faster. If you are slow, you may die in the hands of Bianhua before you do it."

"I will kill the two of you right now, and let you know what the end of the fight against me is, why so many people still dare not do it with me easily after so long." When Li Tian spoke, Hong Zhan focused on a lot of immortal power, and a sword aura was released directly from his sword, like a silver-white dragon, which looked very obvious in the black void.

All this looks like a long time, but in fact it was completed in a flash.

When he saw that he could still release his sword qi, his emotions were still very stable. At least it proved that his body has not been completely controlled. When he was completely controlled, he wanted to It is not so easy to continue to change the ending of the battle like this.

But seeing the sword qi approaching, the people in black and white did not move.

These two people seemed to have made all the preparations before this, and they waited quietly, waiting for this move to quickly approach them.

Watching the sword qi getting closer and closer, the sword in his hand began to tremble slowly.

He knew that his time was running out.

Chapter 5996: despair

‘Hiss’

The moment Jian Qi approached the two people, it was suddenly swallowed by a mysterious black hole, and then disappeared like this, as if it had never existed in this world.

No matter how smart people are, they don't know what happened between them.

Li Tian also didn't know what was going on, he just felt the power in his body as if he hadn't been controlled, and then just disappeared.

Looking at the guy in front of him, the expression on his face also became serious.

"See, there is no way your power can hurt the two of us here. You have now become our sacrifice, and you are destined to have only a dead end. If you do it before the ceremony, you might still have a slight chance of winning, but now you want to defeat the two of us, it is just a pipe dream, let me teach you today, what is the gap." The white clothed person saw Li Tian a long time ago and it was not pleasing to his eyes, and this is also the time He drew his sword directly and rushed over.

Ximen Yeshou saw Li Tian taking action before, and he really thought that this young man might have to tell them again what a real miracle was. ,

However, I found that Li Tian in front of him seemed to be not as powerful as she had imagined. Obviously faced with this sacrificial power, his personal level could not be displayed here.

Bi Anhua's current powerful force has completely restrained Li Tian.

He now wants to make himself better face the enemy in front of him, he must get rid of this restraint.

But it is a pity that there seems to be no way at all now, and there is also no chance that Li Tian can get rid of the power of sacrifice.

It's too late to say, then fast.

Seeing that the white-clothed man had already rushed over, the sword in Ximen Yechou's hand flickered for an instant, and then countless sword auras were released, abruptly causing the white-clothed man's body to stop.

"It seems that you, a woman, really don't know at all. We don't want to do anything to you, but it's just because you are from the Shuiyue Sect and you are still a woman. We have always been more tolerant to women. I wanted to make you die later, so that you can better prepare yourself, but looking at you like this, it seems that you didn't take everything we said before." After stepping back a few steps, although the attitude towards these two young people in the words is very bad, it can even be said that they do not regard these two young people as their opponents at all.

But in any case, Ximen Yeshou was always a strong man in the realm of gods, and naturally he was not to the point where they could just ignore it.

"I said, no matter what your purpose is, don't think about becoming an enemy with us, otherwise I will let you know what the fate of opposing us is. Now that Li Tian is my companion, I cannot allow it. You continue to hurt my companion." At this moment, Ximen Yechou held the sword in his hand tightly and stared at the two people in front of him, all in a positive tone.

She knew what she was doing now, and she watched her companion die in front of her like this, and never returned.

This incident has always become a very deep memory in her heart, and even so many years have passed, everything that has happened has been vividly remembered.

He didn't know how he could forget these things.

I just understand that what I need to do now is to procrastinate the two men in front of me.

Since Li Tian is a young man who can perform miracles, there must be a lot of secrets that they don't even know about him. Maybe this secret can only play out its original meaning at this time.

"It sounds like a very meaningful thing, but what you don't know is that this kind of behavior seems to us to be powerless. If you can change these things so easily, it won't let you come to the point where you are now. The ritual of Bianhua has already begun. Even if we don't do it, this kid will not be long before he will die here because of his own life, which means no matter what you do. You can't save her with such hard work." The man in black stood in the distance, looking at this side, and said calmly.

He knew that something must have happened to this woman, so that she was so serious about protecting Li Tian.

But this is meaningless.

Even if it really delays them now, it will only delay Li Tian's death for a short while. They have never heard of anyone who can survive on this road to death.

Once you become the sacrifice of Bianhua, no matter what kind of strong you are, you will eventually be a dead end.

This young man still has too little understanding of these things, and they have always thought that the people in black and white will need them to continue to help on this road for a period of time, and they won't be so early.

So there was not too much doubt at the beginning, just a little more careful.

But if you want to fully discover the difference here, if you are only so careful, you can't do anything.

The situation in front of them is because they have not been able to discover these problems very early, so that even if they have discovered these things now, it has also become very difficult to change these things. The choices in front of them have disappeared. Gone, the only thing they can do is to wait for death to come.

"Ximen Yeshou, don't be foolish for nothing. Leave here now and tell the sovereign about the passionate thing. This is the most important thing you should do. As for these two people, you just leave it to me." Li Tianman slowly stepped forward, stood in front of Ximen Yechou, and said, "Let everyone know what the purpose of these two people is. I don't believe that the two of them can live like this."

"Impossible. Since I'm standing here today, it's absolutely impossible for me to watch you in front of me and be killed by others like this. I will protect you, even if I bet on my life. , And I absolutely must ensure that you can leave here alive." Ximen Yechou shook his head, and said firmly.

At this time, she was like iron-hearted, I was afraid it would be useless to say anything, she didn't notice at all, now Li Tian is desperate.

Chapter 5997: death

The shadow of death was getting closer and closer to him. He knew this very well. He knew very well that his current body was slowly disappearing its original vitality, and his own fairy power was slowly disappearing.

In this process, anyone will feel very suffering.

Li Tian now feels the same way, feeling that he is in an endless torment.

"Haha, don't push away the two of you here. Do you think you can leave from here? It's just a joke. Even if your current strength is exactly the same as when you were at your peak, you want to leave here. Extravagantly, let alone your current state, you actually want to leave here." Shaking his head with a mockery, the man in white raised his sword: "Since you two are ready to die here, I will now fulfill both of you."

"boom."

A sword aura was released and came directly towards the two of them, Li Tian hurriedly blocked it. But this powerful impact also made him fly upside down, vomiting out a mouthful of blood.

Seeing this scene, Ximen Yeshou rushed forward and held his shaky body: "How are you? It's okay, you must not have an accident. As you said before, you must live with me this time. Leaving here, if you die, I still..."

"Go away, what are you still doing here? You are not the opponent of the two of them. If no one else knows what happened here today, even if the two of us are dead, we will die." Li Tian clutched himself. At this time, the blood was constantly surging up, like a fountain, even if he wanted to swallow it, it started to become very difficult.

Looking at Simon Yeshou who was still in front of him, he wondered if this woman was going crazy.

The situation in front of us, but any normal person can see that the two of them have deeply reached a desperate situation. Under such circumstances, if they want to leave here alive, there must be no way to do it. Something up.

And even if they can leave here alive, it is impossible for two people to leave here.

The two enemies in front of them are still staring at them here, there is not much time left for them, and they must hurry up to make a choice.

"I won't leave, how could I let you stay alone and deal with these enemies in front of you? If you really want to deal with them, let me..."

"Don't be stupid, you know what your strength looks like, and you know what my current state is like. Although the two enemies in front of you are not very powerful, they can't be changed by you alone. I can already feel the danger coming. I can only kill these two guys with tricks that I dare not use easily. As long as I can kill these two guys, I believe that Higan Flower will have no interest in us. Up."

"This is true. If you can kill any of us here, you won't continue to be the target of Biganhua. We will die on your behalf, but unfortunately, you think you two. How many possibilities are there now to achieve this? We are here to watch your every move, what you want to do, what is thinking in your mind, we all know clearly." Hear Li Tian After speaking like this, the expressions on the faces of the people in black and white all flashed a touch of tension.

Knowing that this young man can constantly create a miracle, now none of them dare to say that they can control the situation in front of them.

If this young man suddenly thinks of a solution at this critical time, then they will feel really helpless.

"Hehe, look at how nervous you are, you should be very worried, but you don't need to worry, what you want to see next is my true state, even in front of the people I know most. Dare to use this trick easily, because once this trick is used, I will become a real demon. No matter what kind of powerhouse you are, there will be only a dead end." Li Tian vowed to look at himself. Simon Yeshou in front of him: "If you believe me, you will leave here immediately and wait for me outside. I will leave here alive."

"Don't think I don't know that you want me to leave here, and then you can face these two enemies by yourself. I won't do this. I will never leave my companion again. of."

"I know that you are still worried about what happened before, and I really want to change your mind. Therefore, I think you must leave here now. If my strength is very strong, even you I really abandoned me in this kind of place, and I can also leave here on my own ability. If I can't do such a thing, it can only prove that I am not strong enough. Isn't it like this?" Li Tian stared at the two people in front of him, and the smiles on his faces became more gloomy at this time.

"Don't think that your expression can scare the two of us. We all know what your background is. The situation is like you, a young man who can create miracles. I am afraid that there is no solution. The way, unless you can make your strength stronger in this short moment, strong enough to get rid of the power of the other side flower, only you can do this, and today can you defeat the two of us. "

"Quickly leave here, the rest will be left to me." Li Tian pushed Ximen Yechou away, and then slowly stood up. At this time, his eyes began to slowly close, and he was also very natural. Earth entered the realm of Xinruzhishui. At this moment, he felt that the whole world had begun to become clearer, and he seemed to know his current situation at this moment.

Around him are all black death breaths, these breaths are constantly approaching Li Tian, swallowing his vitality.

When all the vitality in Li Tian's body disappeared, what was left would naturally be a dead end. No matter how powerful you are, it is impossible for you to continue to live under such circumstances.

Chapter 5998: humiliation

Ximen Yeshou wanted to stay, but seeing Li Tian's serious look before, the unwavering feeling in his eyes, and the fact that so many things happened between them, let her really start. I am a little bit convinced that this young man might really make something that changes everything. If he is still doubting the young man's ability at this time, it is indeed something that cannot be said.

So he stood up and wanted to leave like this.

But at this moment, the man in white started his hand, the sword in his hand turned into countless phantoms, and he passed towards Simon Yeshou: "Want to leave here? I should have told you before, you two are going to die today. Here, even if you are superb, don't want to slip away from our hands. We won't give you the slightest chance."

The moment he spoke, Jian Qi had passed.

When it was, the Red Zhan in Li Tian's hand made a dragon chant, and then he saw a huge cyan shadow suddenly released from above, and then all of them passed towards the white-clothed man in a flash.

A solemn color flashed across the face of the man in black, and he rushed forward to help.

In this way, the man in white could not stop Simon Yeshou, and watched the woman disappear from his front.

"Damn, what on earth is there on this kid that we don't know about? Obviously, he has reached the point where he is now. He can still display his fighting power perfectly. I don't believe that the power of the other side flower is already Has it become what it is now?" The white-clothed man looked at Li Tian from a distance, and said very uncomfortably.

"We knew the difficulty of this young man a long time ago, didn't we? What is unfolding in front of us now is exactly the difficulty of this young man, just like a Xiaoqiang who can't be killed. You never Knowing what he is doing can make this guy lose his fighting power completely, as if he will always be like this, he will always live and fight more than ever." The man in black looked at Li Tian and said calmly.

"You only need to know this. Even if the conspiracy you are displaying now really puts me in a dangerous situation, it does not mean that you can defeat us in this way. I cannot be defeated so easily. I will use my strength to tell you how huge the gap between us is." Li Tian smiled, looked at the two people in front of him, and said.

"Is it like this? Although you resisted an attack just now, you might not have noticed it yourself. Your current state has begun to become very unstable. In other words, the other side flower still has a great effect. Yes, it's just that this effect won't be revealed for a while, that's all." At this time, the man in black squinted at Li Tian and said with a sneer.

"What do you mean?"

"He was just spending his own efforts to hold on. He knows very well himself. After being targeted by Higan Hua, everything in your body will begin to be out of control. In this state, you will only It's getting worse and worse." At this time, the man in black slowly walked forward, and then suddenly his body appeared in front of Li Tian, and his fist hit Li Tian directly in front of him.

Li Tian fell directly to the ground.

Seeing this scene, the white-clothed man understood a little bit.

Before, he thought that the power of this young man had not completely dissipated. The two of them wanted to completely defeat the young man in front of him. It seemed that it was not that simple at all. Only now did he realize that his own affairs seemed not as complicated as they thought. what.

The young man in front of him is obviously not so powerful in combat.

After such a long time of consumption, there may be no fighting power at all now. It only takes a little bit of ease to defeat the boy in front of them. They can now see hope.

As long as you kill this kid, the Higan Flower behind you can start.

"Hehe, even if it's like this, if you two kill me, there's no way to open Hibiscus, because the number requirement has not been met. You can only pass here alone. So what are you going to do next? Those who don't know? Or should you start fighting with each other to decide who can enter?" Li Tian smiled happily, even in the current situation, he still didn't get it all right. Desperate.

As a human being, if you just treat yourself like this and you will never be able to live, you definitely can't have such an idea.

Although the situation at hand does seem to be a bit tricky, even a truly powerful player can't say that he can stick to it forever, so Li Tian also knows that he doesn't have much time.

But since it was like this, it absolutely couldn't make these two enemies feel better.

Even if he was really going to die in this ghost place, he would definitely drag one person into the water now, and the death of either of them would be a huge loss for the other person.

But there must be a lot of powerful masters behind, and they want to take advantage of these masters, which is also an impossible thing.

In this way, there are actually only a few choices before them. If they make a mistake, then naturally there will be no way to pass safely.

And since they are already ahead, now they definitely don't want to fall behind others.

When the two people heard Li Tian speaking like this, they both snorted: "You kid, at this time, you still want to provoke the relationship between the two of us. Today we kill you kid first, and then talk about the next thing. , The road to heaven is inexhaustible, even if we can't make the other shore flowers bloom, we can still find other ways."

The black-clothed man and the white-clothed man said, and the two began to attack wildly.

They didn't use their own celestial power. It is certainly not wrong to retain a little of their own strength here, and the next two people may really want to fight. At this time, they naturally want to preserve their strength.

They all used their fists, smashing them down one by one.

Each of these fists looked like a heavy stone hammer, as if it could cause Li Tian's whole body to collapse like this at any time, and no one knew how long he could hold on.

Chapter 5999: Devilish

‘Boom boom boom’

Inside the cave, you can hear this dull voice coming from.

At this time, Li Tian was already covered in blood, and his chest was slowly sinking in. It can be seen what kind of terrible fighting power his body bears. These two people really want to make the young man in front of him. If he was killed in this way, he didn't have any seriousness in his attack, and he did it according to Li Tian's idea of such a death.

Feeling the condition of his body, coupled with the fact that Bi Anhua continued to devour his own vitality, Li Tian also slowly began to lose the strength to resist.

"Hmph, I thought it was a great genius, but it's just like this. After you really meet a master, even if you are a real genius, there is still only a dead end. Look at what you are like now. You have no chance of winning in front of him, right?" At this moment, the white-clothed man stepped on Li Tian's head and sneered.

"Don't be so anxious that this young man has lost the power to resist."

"His body has collapsed. Looking at this sunken chest, it is obvious that the internal organs have been broken. Even Da Luo Jinxian can't make this kid resurrect, right?"

"There are many rumors in the God Realm. We still don't waste time. Waste a little time, it may make our problems worse."

What neither of them noticed is that Hianiwa is slowly releasing some black gas at this time. These gases are perfectly integrated with the surrounding environment. Therefore, if you are not too focused, you should look at it. clearly.

At this time, Li Tian's body began to fragment, and was gradually turning into debris in this dark space.

But the small world in his dantian didn't mean to collapse like this, it actually meant to constantly swallow these black gases.

The white-clothed men and the black-clothed men attacked more and more frequently. Both of them had even begun to insult Li Tian with their swords. They were going to use this torture method to kill this young man.

This also let him know what the fate of offending them is.

They have walked the rivers and lakes for so many years, and they have never met any kind of young people who rushed to face them with this kind of attitude. Since they are like this, of course they also have the right to let this young man know that the relationship between them Where is the gap.

It is even easier for them to kill this young man.

Li Tian had completely lost his consciousness at this time, feeling that his brain had begun to swell, and all the contents in it had disappeared. Even if he wanted to figure out something, there was no way.

This feeling has appeared before.

This is a real situation that is about to die. This body can no longer continue to hold on, and his soul is also starting to find a new destination at this time.

But at this moment, black gas invaded his body. Many cells in his body began to decompose slowly. This process was very slow, but once it succeeded, he disappeared completely. In this world, no trace will be left. ,

But at this moment of life and death, the small world in his body began to absorb all the black gas on the other side of the flower.

These black gases intruded into Li Tian's body, slowly constructing a stranger body.

"Hehe, I think this kid is dead, there is no breath anymore." The man in white bent over and probed Li Tian's breath with his fingers. It was completely gone, and he touched it afterwards. A glance at the young man's neck and said: "Dead, dead, dead already."

"Since they are all dead, there is no movement on the other side of the flower. What's the matter?" The man in black turned around at this time and looked at the other side of the flower behind him, even if he was not open enough by himself, then At least it has to show a little difference. The other side flower in front of me looks exactly the same as before. Could this be what it looked like after sacrificing a person?

Obviously it can't be like this. In that case, they must have something left to complete.

"Could it be that we made a mistake? Such a thing must not happen. When we came here, we had already figured out many things here clearly. It is absolutely impossible for anything to happen. Wrong, there must be some factors in this matter that we don't know." The person in white is also full of doubts, I don't know why Bi An Hua, there is no movement at this time.

At this time, the man in black squatted down, looked at Li Tian, and said suspiciously: "That's right, this young man is dead now, and all the lives in his body have been lost, why..."

"Wait, I didn't expect that this woman who didn't know how to live or die would dare to run back. Since she looks like this, we will kill her. If this happens, the other shore flower will bloom anyway.

"You don't need you to catch me. I said that I won't run away this time, so I will never run away." Ximen Yeshou, who had already left, returned here again, with a solemn expression on his face. Li Tian was lying on the ground, his body was completely distorted, and one could imagine how tortured him before he died.

She looked at the two people in front of her indifferently, even with murderous Ling Ran in her tone.

"Hehehe, this is really surprising to us. You were not our opponent just now. Could it be that this moment made you feel something epiphany? That's why you came to us and talked to us like this. Are you really not worried that you will die here like this?" The white-clothed man sneered, looking at Ximen Yeshou, and asked,

Neither of them knew where the courage of this woman came from. They weren't their opponents before, so why suddenly, as if they were a different person, they dared to say such brazen words in front of them, you know, this Women are not their opponents at all, if they really do, this woman will be killed in an instant.

"It's ridiculous, I just want to come here today to see your strengths, don't think that our Shuiyuezong disciple is really such a bully!"

Chapter 6000: Overweight

The people in black and white were looking at the woman standing in front of them. They had an emotion in their hearts that they wanted to release. They really wanted to laugh out loud like this. They even thought the woman in front of them was crazy. Up.

It's okay, I ran away from their hands before. Everything that happened here has nothing to do with her, but this woman just didn't know good or bad, and came to this place by herself.

That being the case, it was time for them to teach this woman a lesson.

The white-clothed man glanced at the black-clothed man, and said, "This woman is not strong enough, just leave it to me. After this woman is killed, the otheran flower should be able to fully open up, and at that time we can go straight to the reincarnation. The road, I also want to see what is wrong in this place, so that I have not let the other side flowers bloom."

"Don't you want to find any way to the front in us, the two of us won't let you succeed like this."

"Although Shuiyuezhong has always cultivated a group of difficult disciples, their strength is unquestionable. We have not dealt with Shuiyuezhong less for so many years, and we know that their people are very difficult, but no. Thinking of letting me meet such an innocent woman today, do you really think you can protect him now? What's more, he is dead, and what is left now is just a body that may rot at any time." Squinting his eyes and looking at Ximen Yeshou in front of him, he said coldly.

"Even so, I will make you unable to accomplish your goals. If we can destroy Bianhua, then you naturally want to leave here, and it will not be so easy to achieve." Ximen Yeshou knew that he was leaving. It might make their plan fail here, but if it looks like this, she feels sorry.

For so many years, countless times I have emphasized that I cannot make such a choice again. No matter how powerful an opponent is, I must ensure inner peace and really show courage to fight their opponents.

Now, they did encounter a terrible opponent once, and it is also difficult to deal with such a role.

At this time, if she continues to leave like this, then she may not be able to get out of this endless abyss in her entire life.

So, even if she knew that she might not be able to do anything when she came back, she still chose to come back, just wanting to stand here and help the man in front of her to do something.

Even if he is dead now, he still has to stand here.

"Hmph, really a woman who knows nothing about life and death. I thought you guys in Shuiyue Sect were very smart and knew when to do something. Now it seems that my previous ideas were simply wrong. After making such a decision here, you can only say that you are a very stupid woman. You could leave alive, but you want to kill yourself."

"Don't talk nonsense, I don't have time to waste here with you. If you really want to kill me, just give it a try, but don't blame me for not telling you in advance, you're in this state, yes. It's impossible to kill me at all." Ximen Yeshou knows very well that his current situation is indeed very embarrassing. If he leaves, there may be nothing.

But life is like this, you always have to make decisions that are hard for you to figure out under some compelling circumstances.

The same is true at this time.

Of course she knew that if she left here like this, she could treat the things here as if nothing had happened before, and even if the sky fell in the future, it would have nothing to do with her.

But she can't, can't think about it like this.

She can only force herself to stand here, even if there is really no way to prevent these things from happening, she absolutely cannot choose to retreat like this now.

"Damn it, this woman is really the other side flower, is he really crazy?" The man in black was stunned at this time, because he saw that Ximen Yeshou actually used a Shuiyuezhong sword to attract him. Shuiyuezhong has always been a master of swords, and their sword skills are even more bizarre. Of course, they all have a very good common point, that is, it is difficult to figure out.

Shuiyuezhong's founder of the mountain back then was also a strong woman, and the terrifying combat power that she showed for a while after this could not be described in pale words.

It feels like a  above, and the way of fighting is also extremely terrifying.

Although Ximen Yeshou hadn't reached that point now, the use of the sword move in his hand also made them stunned for a while. Originally, he thought that the previous state might be to attack the white-clothed man.

But he didn't expect that Ximen Yeshou's original purpose was Bi An Hua.

They thought that this woman was just talking about it. After all, after so many years, no one thought about starting to attack Higan Flower. After this kind of flower is attacked, what kind of terrible reaction will it have? Who is this? Don't know something.

But any normal person should know what kind of decision is correct at this time. ,

There was a word in her mouth. At this moment, she looked like she was chanting a very long spell, and her eyes were filled with unwavering expressions: "Even if you die, I will drag you two down to Go to the real hell!"

At this moment, everyone's attention was focused on Bi Anhua and Ximen Yechou.

The key at this time is in them. If Bianhua really starts to react strongly in this way, these people here may really have nowhere to survive.

Naturally, no one noticed at this time. Li Tian, who should have lost his breath, was slowly moving his fingers at this time.

Although it looks very faint, if you look closely, you can still find it.

And the aura around him has also begun to change a lot. As long as you notice this in advance, you can know that at this time, Li Tian is undergoing a transformation that they can't imagine.

What kind of terrible ending this change will bring, I am afraid that no one can say clearly yet.

And they don't even know that this transformation is in the process of going on.
