Chapter 191

WYATT: I wake entangled with Lexi, I am so looking forward to next month, then I will feel the tingles from the bond, and I am going to so take my time with her and feel every inch of her and I know that it will be amazing when I take her. But right now, we need to get up and head downstairs, now that Jessie has her mate, who knows what's going to happen, or when they will leave. I know the prince will be thrilled to get her gone so he can have his mate back. I truly am surprised that Trever has kept it together this long, considering he can't mark and mater yet as she is underage, but I suppose the same could be said for Dutch, as my sister is underage, but at least he can see her, and touch her, where the prince can't. "Come love, we need to get up and be about our day." I say to Lexi. "I suppose, and now with Jessie leaving, things will be able to get back to a new normal." "Yes, and what that will be, is anybody's guess, but with Jessie gone, I got to believe that it will be a lot calmer." I tell her. She nods. We both get up and make our way to the ensuite, we save time and shower together, get dressed and head downstairs for breakfast. Entering the marquee, I look around to see if and where James and Janica are. I see them sitting with Colton Janica's brother, so I maneuver us in that direction. "May we join you?" I asked as we get to the table. "Sure." Colton answers. So, we pull up a couple more chairs and join them. The introductions get made around. Then James and I go get plates for both us and the girls, come back and start breakfast.

APOLLO: I enter the marquee, looking around for my sister, and see her with her mate, my mate's brother and two others I haven't met yet. But seeing that their table is full I find a table close, so that I can speak to my sister and let her know that we will be leaving shortly after breakfast is over. I need to know where to send her things to, as well. I get in line, grab a plate, and take it to a nearby table to theirs. "Hello, please excuse my interruption but I need to let my sister know that we will be heading out after breakfast." "Why?" "We have a long drive back Krystal, and I want to get Jessie settled and inducted before we have to deal with everything that will be coming down the pipeline for this impending war, not to mention our own rogue issues." I tell her. "Yeah, I guess, I was just hoping to get to have a little more time with my big brother." "It's not like you won't ever see me again squirt, plus I need to know where I need to send your things." I say teasingly to her. "Hey, if you need any help with rogues let us know and we can always send people your way." James says. "Thanks, I will keep that in mind."

“You can send her things to Dutch Wood.” Her mate says. “Let me introduce you to everyone here.” My sister says. I nod my consent. “James’s mate Janica, is my mate Colton’s sister, and this is Wyatt, he is Gamma here at Blue Crescent, and his mate Lexi.” She introduces us and I shake hands with them all. And then I see my mate and wave her over. I introduce her to my sister and then have her go get in line to go get her food. When she gets back, we take our seats at the table I got and sit and eat. “Do you have a preference on which vehicle you ride or drive in?” I asked Jessie. “I prefer my SUV.” “OK, then I will have one of my men drive your truck and you and I will be in your SUV.” I tell her. “Can I bring my bike?” “If it’s more of a mountain type of bike yes, but if it’s more like a regular 10 speed or something like that it won’t be much good, but you can bring it if you want.” I tell her. I watch as her eyes glaze over. “Done.” She says. “What’s that?” I ask her. “They will have both my SUV, and my truck brought to the front of the Pack house and my things can get loaded.” She tells me. “Good, and while you finish with that, I will go speak with your father.” I tell her. She nods. After we finish eating, she returns to her room to finish her packing, and I go in search of Alpha Drake.

Chapter 192

DRAKE: I had just sat down with my food and Alpha Apollo approaches me. “Please forgive the intrusion Alpha, but I want to let you know that I am going to be taking Jessie now, we will not be staying for the dance, we have a long drive: ahead of us and when we get there, we will still have to get her unpacked and settled, and I know my mother will want to start planning her luna ceremony and start teaching her our Pack history.” “Very well Alpha Apollo, I look forward to getting the invitation for her ceremony. I know my mate will be sad that you can’t stay for the dance, but I understand the need to be on the road.” “If there is anything that Jessie might need, or forgets to pack, please just ship it to us, you have our contact information.” “Will do and Thank you for coming.” “Thank you for hosting and please keep us informed about the issue with Stone Claw. I will also ask for a couple of volunteers when we reach home to come back and participate in the communication experiment.” “Thank you, that will be a great help to us all.” He nods his head and leaves to go and get his people in order and take stock of who he has gained and who he has lost, to ensure that the right paperwork gets to the right Alpha’s, and that he get the correct bio info on all of the new people he has coming in. I link my people and tell them to make sure that everyone is out front to see Jessie off in 15-20 minutes. I close the link and finish my meal.

JESSIE: I link Dedi and Marla and see if they want to help me pack. There comes a knock on my door shortly thereafter and they both come in. "It's going to be very strange not having you two around." I say as I am folding my clothes to pack them in the boxes. "Yes, and we will all be in different packs going forward." Dedi says. "I think that more than anything is going to be the hardest thing, the not knowing anyone but your mate." Marla adds in. "We will all be fine. But I will miss you." I tell them. "We will miss you to." We get to work packing my things for the trip south and east. "We probably won't be able to make it for your Luna ceremony, but please send pictures of you in your dress." Marla says. "Yes." Dedi adds. "I will do my best to make sure that I send them your way. We need to make sure to keep up with each other." I say. And they nod. With the three of us working on my room we get things sorted and packed, the things that I think I will need, versus the things that I may not need. We get all the boxes packed and I link some of the omegas to help get things downstairs, and loaded into the back of the truck, and the SUV. I then go grab my bike and place it sideways over top of the boxes in the back of the truck, to help hold everything down. I wonder if this is what it feels like in the human world when someone leaves for collage? But we are wolves, this is what we do.

LILLY: I get the pack wide link from Drake, and I let out a sigh of relief, finally Jessie is leaving, now maybe Kes can live in peace. I will definitely be there to see her off. It will be good to get things back to somewhat of a normal function around here with her gone.

DRAKE: I get a link from the front gate; my mother is here. WHAT! Goddess not now, why now. I link them to let her in, and I link both my uncle and my mate "Mother is here." "Why?" I get from both of them. "I don't have a clue." I head to the front of the Pack house as mother and father are getting out of the limo. "Mother, Father, what brings you here?" "Well, you didn't expect that we would just let our girl go without seeing her off, did you?" Mother says to me. "I could hope." I say. "DRAKE!" My mother scolds. I shake my head at her.

Chapter 193

DRAKE: I link Jessie. "Did you tell your grandmother that you found your mate?" "Yes, daddy I sent her a text this morning." "Well come greet her and bring your mate with you." "Yes daddy." "Jessie will be here shortly with her mate. You will be able to see them off. They aren't staying for the dance tonight as they have a very long drive ahead of them." I say to my parents. Then as if on cue, Carson, Carla, and the rest of the kids come to the front of the Pack house. "Mimi!" Lissa comes and gives my mother a hug. "Papa!" and she gives my father a hug. Uncle Carson just nods at her and shakes hands with his brother. "Charles." Dad shakes his hand and nods to him. James steps forward and introduces Janica in a formal introduction. "Mimi, Papa!" Jessie squeals, as she comes running over to hug both of my parents. "This is Apollo my mate. He is the Alpha of Dark Forest Pack." I watch as Apollo shakes hands with my parents. "Mr. Mrs. Sutter nice to meet the both of you." He says. "Thank you for coming all this way just to see us off, but it truly wasn't necessary, we will be sending out invitations for her Luna ceremony for the month after next." He tell them. "But of course we had to come and see our girl off." My mother gushes at him. "And call us Mimi, and Papa, after all you are mated to our grand pup." Mother says. Again, as if on cue the rest of the Ranked members show up to see Jessie off. Including the Princes, and Lilly, along with a few others, I see Colton and his mate here as well, she goes up to Apollo and hugs him. That must be his sister. This is going to be a shit show. "Do you have everything in order?" I asked Alpha Apollo "Yes as far as I can tell, but if there is a hick up somewhere, I will be in touch to get the appropriate pack information." "Very good. Mother it's time to let them be going." I say. I watch as she hugs Jessie and Apollo and they climb into the SUV and a warrior and his mate get into the truck, we all wave them goodbye as they head out and down to the gates.

TREVER: I see Lilly in the crowd and make my way towards her. "What is she doing here?" I whisper to Lilly. "Didn't you pay attention? She came just to see Jessie off, because they weren't staying for the dance tonight." She whispers back to me. "I was hoping that Kes could come back, I want to dance with her tonight at the dance." I whisper to her. "There is nothing that says that she can't come back." Lilly says to me. "True but with her here it will be hard for Kes." I say. "Amanda won't stay long, maybe a day or two at the most, but warn your brothers, she is a leech, and she will try almost anything to get in with the royal pack, or family, plus it would be best that you being Kes's mate stays quiet." "I will let them know." She nods her head. "How is my grand pup by the way?" "She is doing as good as can be expected, and now that Jessie is gone, I think she will be even better, I know she misses you, and being able to run the course, and the archery range, but she is making do." "I miss her to." I see her looking around. "Is something wrong?" I ask her "Adrian is not out here; I wonder if Kina is doing ok. I must go check on them." She says. "I will come with you, if I may, I would like to get to know him a bit better, just for Kes's sake, plus he seem to be a decent guy." I say. She nods her head. And we both head into the Pack house and up to Adrian's suite.

Chapter 194

ADRIAN: I have pretty much kept a low profile during this whole thing, I already have my mate, and now Rex has his as well, and now that the twins have shifted and Jessie will be leaving, I believe that we will leave tomorrow as well, so that everyone can take tonight and say goodbye to friends, and enjoy one last night. Plus, with this impending war, with Stone Claw, I think it best that we get home, not to mention Kina being so uncomfortable because of the pup I just want to get her home. I hear a knock on our suite door. I go answer it. Opening it up I am surprised to see Lilly and Trever. "Hello, please come in." I say to them as I open the door wider. "Is everything ok with Kes?" I ask as they enter. "All is well, you don't need to worry on that front." Lilly answers. I nod, "What can I do for you then?" I ask. "I just noticed that you were not down front to see Jessie off, so I was wondering about Kina. By the way, your grandmother is here." Lilly drops the bomb. "What! Why?" "I guess Jessie told her that she found her mate and that they were leaving and not staying for the dance tonight." "I had figured on leaving tomorrow as well, Kina is doing ok, but uncomfortable, so I just figured that I would give everyone tonight and we would head out tomorrow after lunch." "Can I see her?" "Of course." I lead Lilly to the bedroom and knock on the door. "Babe, Lilly is here she would like to come in and see you." "Yes Please!" I open the door and usher Lilly in and then close it again. And head back out to the other room. Just as I was going to ask if Trever wanted anything I get a link from my Gamma. "Your grandmother is here and is demanding your presents." "Tell the old bat she can wait; Lilly is here looking in on Kina." "I will tell her." "Trouble?" "Just grandmother, and I am used to her. Lilly said that Jessie left?" "Yeah, your grandmother showed up, then about 5 maybe 10 minutes later Jessie and Apollo come walking up. Then about another 10 minutes of them chit chatting and then Apollo and Jessie left. Do you mind if I link my brother's, and have them come here?" "No go right ahead, the more the merrier." I tell him and he chuckles. I see his eyes glaze over. "Done. They will be here shortly." I just nod. "Can I get you anything?" "Just water thanks." I go into the kitchen area and get several bottles of water and bring them back out, with me so that when the rest of them get here they will be ready for them if they want them. "Do you have any idea who you might get to volunteer for the whole communication issue?" "No, I will just ask for a volunteer." "What about the royal pack, do you have anyone in mind?" "Usually, it's the youngest one in the royal family, for something this important, and because we don't inherit anything, they usually say we are disposable." He deadpans. "Don't misunderstand, my parents love me, they love all of us, it's just the traditions of the royal house, the heir, spare, and any more are disposable. Keeps things simple, and it pretty much keeps expectations in check." He tells me. "But what did you want to do?" I asked him. "Well Jbefore I found my mate in Kes, I wanted to travel, see the world, see and taste the flavors have the experiences, that was, what I wanted to do." He says. "And now?" I asked him. "Now I just want to be with Kes, whatever she wants is what I want.” “I know her, almost better than anyone besides Mackie, I know that she wouldn’t want you to give up your dream of traveling for her, she still has two years to go, maybe travel, those two years.” I tell him. Before he can answer there is a knock on the door, I go answer it and see the rest of the princes and their mates are standing there. I open the door for them to enter.

Chapter 195

ADRIAN: “Hello, come on in.” I greet them. “Did you know that your grandmother is here?” Barrett asked. “I am aware.” I say. “She is throwing a bit of a fit because she wants to see you.” Trent says. “She can wait, and if she can’t they can send her up, I am not running all over to cater to her, I am not her mate.” I say to them. And they chuckle. “How is Kina? I hope she is doing ok.” Barrett’s mate asked. “She is doing well enough, Lilly is with her now, and if she is up to it, I will let her know that you are here Alisha.” I say. She nods. “I have a feeling that we interrupted a conversation?” Barrett asked. “Yes, Trever and I were just discussing what he would like to do.” I said. “Especially since he will have to wait for two years for Kes.” “Ah, yes, did he tell you that he would have to be the one to volunteer, to be our go between for the communication issue.” “Yes, that was part of our conversation.” I say. But before we can get into any more of the conversation, two things happen at the same time, Kina and Lilly come into the sitting room, and my grandmother slams the door to our suite open. “ADRIAN how dare you keep me waiting!” Amanda Sutter screeches at me. “HOW DARE YOU! Come break into someone else’s suite?” Lilly barks back at her in a tone that even makes the princes stand to attention, WOW! “HE IS MY GRANDSON! I can enter here if I choose.” “Really. This is not your, nor his Pack House. This is Drake and Carla’s Pack House, and I believe that they hold a person’s privacy to be private. You just broke that privacy, you broke a door, which could have been to a different Alpha’s suite, now you will either fix it or you will pay to have it fixed.” I watch as Lilly crosses her arms in front of her chest and glares at my grandmother. “I don’t have to, Drake is my son, he won’t make me have to anything of the kind.” “Now Adrian why did you keep me waiting?” My grandmother asked me as she turned her back on Lilly.

TREVER: Amanda Sutter just doesn’t know when to quit. I watch as Lilly’s eyes glaze over.

LILLY: I am so over this gold-digging bitch. I linked Carla. “Amanda just broke the door to Adrian’s quarters, and all three princes are here, if their people get wind of it, they could deem it a security breach, and there will be no saving grace for her, she will do time in the royal cells.” I close the link before she has a chance to respond. “Amanda! I hope that you can handle time in the cells.” I tell her. “Oh please, Drake isn’t going to put me in the cells for a broken door, or latch.” She snipped. “You are right he may not, but the royal guard are not so forgiving as your son, they don’t care who you are related to, look around you Amanda.” I say. I can hear some heavy footsteps in the hallway outside.

CARLA: I got the link from my mother, and I knew there was going to be trouble. I linked Drake. “Your mother is causing trouble, and this time I don’t think that there is anything that can be done to stop what may happen, I guess the princes were visiting Adrian and she literally broke the door.” “Goddess, I am on my way there.” I close the link and shake my head, to bad Jessie wasn’t here to catch all this, just to show her how bad her grandmother can be.

Chapter 196

BARRETT: I am not going to lie, when Lilly used that tone all three of us froze, I guess it has to do with years of training with Marsh, I swear that they sound so much alike it’s scary. I can hear the heavy foot falls outside in the hallway. “Your Highnesses is everything alright?” Our head guard asked as he got to the door. “Yes, everything is just fine Clark, a misunderstanding between Alpha cousin Adrian and his grandmother.” I tell him. “Where is the princess sir?” “She is fine Clark, she didn’t accompany us to visit her cousin this time, princess Alisha wanted to visit her beta friend and Luna of Moon Rise Pack.” I tell him. He nods. Shall we remove her sir?” “Yes, but only remove her, let Alpha Drake take care of his mother.” I tell Clark. “Very good Sir.” I watch as he and another guard step over to Amanda, and each take an arm and escort her out of the room. Once they were out of the suite, Lilly burst out laughing, as does Kina, and Adrian. Then the rest of us follow suit, until we were all laughing so hard we are in tears.

DRAKE: I get to my nephew’s suite as they are bringing my mother out. “Let me go, how dare you put your hands on me!” I hear my mother screech at the royal guard.

“MOTHER! Will you please fore once in your life just shut up!” I seethe at her through clenched teeth, and I let a bit of my Alpha aura out. “Drake!” She tries to scold me. “Enough!”. “Where would you like us to take her Alpha?” The guard asked me. “Just give me a minute to consult with my nephew.” I tell them. They nod. I tap on the door as I enter into the suite. I see everyone in a fit of laughter. I do have to admit it is a bit funny seeing my mother in custody. I clear my throat. “Adrian, what would you like me to do with mother?” I asked him. He starts to calm down. “Put her to work in the kitchen helping the omegas with the food prep, and service, that should help to offset the damage she did to your door.” He says. Now I have to laugh, to see mother in the omega’s uniform is going to be justice in and of itself. “Plus, I would have her spend the night in the cells, to make her understand that she can’t get away with disrespecting the royal house, like she did.” He states straight faced. He is pissed at her, and I can’t blame him. “I will have someone up here to get this door fixed.” I say. He nods and I leave. I step back over to the guards, “I assume that you heard the conversation?” I asked them. “Yes Alpha we did.” “Follow me please.” I lead them downstairs to where we keep the uniforms for the kitchen staff. “Sarah” I call out. “Yes Alpha?” Sarah answers as she comes from the kitchen. “You have a new helper for the rest of the day, and if she doesn’t do as you instruct her to do link me immediately understood?” “Yes Alpha. But may I inquire as to why we have your mother joining us in the kitchen sir?” “Yes Sarah, punishment, by ROYAL decree.” I tell her. Looking straight at my mother. “Drake! I shouldn’t have to do any such thing, I did nothing wrong, I was visiting my grandson, I have a right to see my grandson.” “Yes, mother, but you do not have the right to break into his suite, and considering the royal princes’ were there, you are lucky this, and a night in the cells here is all you are getting, they could by rights take you back to the palace and hold you in the royal dungeon, and brand you a terrorist.” I tell her. If I sounded a bit harsh I didn’t much care, she needs to understand that she can’t get away with everything she pulls. I link our maintenance crew to get them to work on Adrian’s door.

Chapter 197

TREVER: “I want to go get Keska.” I state to the room at large, “I miss her here.” I say. “and now with Jessie gone it should be safe to bring her back.” I look around the room and see that they are all nodding in agreement. I link Dutch.

“I am going to go bring Kes home, and I am sure that Mackie would want to have her friend back.” “You aren’t kidding on that one, Mackie is getting sick of the traveling back and forth between the cabin and the Pack house.” “We’ll ask her if she wants to come along, I know that we will also be making a stop at the orphanage when we get back, so that the food we bought doesn’t go to waste.” “When will you leave?” “I will give you guy 10 minutes, then I am going to head out.” “Ok.” I close the link. “We will pick up our conversation from earlier, when you get back from bringing Kes home.” Adrian says to me. I nod at him. I link Kes. “Hello love, it’s time for you to come home, Jessie is gone, so get things packed up, Dutch Mackie and I will be there in about a half hour or so.” “What happened? I thought that they weren’t going to leave until tomorrow morning?” “Alpha Apollo said that they have a long drive, and then they still have to unload her stuff when they get there, plus she needs to start her luna history training.” “Makes sense. I will be ready.” I close the link. “I will see all of you at lunch with Kes.” I tell them. They all just nod their heads.

KESKA: After getting the link from Trever I start to get my things together, I didn’t bring much in the way of clothes with me, it’s more the food that I didn’t want to go to waste. I get the insulated bags out and start cleaning the fridge. Making sure that lids were tight, condiments I left where they were, they will last, and if it gets to the point where the cabin isn’t ready, to rent out, by the time the stated, as the good by date then I will come back and pack them to take them to the orphanage. I pack up the laptop, and all the information that we found on Stone Claw, and all the rest of the information that Father sent and put it all together in the carrying case for the laptop. Grabbed my bow and arrows, and had everything by the door waiting for when they came. I was surprised when they showed up there were two guards with them. “Did something happen?” I asked as they came into the cabin. “You could say that, but I also knew there would be a bit more to take back then what we brought with us, with the shopping that James had done as well.” Trever says, “So I decided to bring some extra help to bring stuff back.” “Ok. But what happened?” I asked. “You will just have to wait until we get back to find out.” He says with a big grin on his face. “Ok. Are you shifting when we head back?” I asked. “We will be.” He links me “but not you, I will carry you, and Dutch will carry Mackie.” I nod my head in understanding of his meaning. I turn to Mackie “Do you know what happened?” I asked her. “I know some stuff that happened with Jessie, but I think that you need to wait until we get back before we tell you what we all missed, anything else I have no clue about.” She says eyeing the guards. I nod. I pick up my bow and the arrows Mackie picks up the laptop, then the guards each picks up my backpack and the insulated bags and we head over to the tree line where they shift, Mackie and I fold up all their clothes and pack them with mine and then Dutch’s Lycan picks up Mackie and Havoc picks me up, he rubs his nose in my neck, “Mine” I get linked from him. “Yes Havoc I’m yours.” I tell him and kiss his nose. And we take off.

LIAM: I was in my room when I hear the commotion coming from down the hall, I have to peak just to see what is going on. And I see grandmother being taken away under guard, but they are not cur guards, so I go over to Adrian’s suite, I see the door is broke. “What happened?” “Your grandmother happened, is what.” Adrian says. “Wait, I want to hear this story, but I think Lissa needs to hear it to, or I have a feeling that we are going to end up with another Jessie on our hands, but if she hears this maybe she will understand that Mimi isn't all she thinks she is." I tell him. He nods. And I link Lissa. "Come to Adrian's suite." "Why?" "Just come, there is something you need to see and hear, I think." "Fine, I'm on my way." "She is on her way." I tell them. I come into the suite and see Nana there, I go give her a hug, and she hugs me back. I say hi to the princes, wondering why they are here, but I don't see Trever. "Where's Trever?" I asked. "He went to go get your sister." Barrett says

LISSA: I head over to our cousin's suite after getting Liam's link. I see the busted door when I get there. "Hello?" I call out. "Come on in Lissa." Adrian calls. "What happened to the door?" I asked. And then I noticed 2 of the 3 princes there. "Oh, I am sorry your majesties." I say with a bow of my head. "No need to apologize to us, you have done nothing wrong, and it's your highnesses, our parents are (your majesties.)" Prince Barrett says. "Have a seat." Adrian says to me. "Why am I here exactly?" "To show and prove to you that Mimi Sutter is not the end all and be all that Jessie makes her out to be." Liam says, and I hear the others snicker. "What are you talking about?" I asked, not liking the fact that they are making fun of Mimi. "Your Mimi broke the door. Lissa, because I wasn't catering to her. But I had company that came to see Kina, who was feeling a bit unwell. Your Nana came to see her, and as she and your Mimi don't exactly get along, I wasn't going to have a scene in the suite, and then the princes and their mates also came to see Kina, your grandmother Mimi got impatient and decided to come and break the door, no she did not knock, she just broke the door." Adrian says. "Wait what?" I stammer. Looking around at everybody confused.

Chapter 198

ADRIAN: Poor Lissa. "Yes Lissa, that (I point at the door) was caused because your grandmother thinks she is entitled, and because the princes were here, she is now in some very serious trouble, the royal guard take the security of the heir to the throne very seriously, and because what she did could be considered an attack on them she is very lucky that prince Barrett was kind enough to let your dad handle your grandmother, or she could have been taken to the palace and placed in custody of the royal palace and spend time in their dungeon." I tell her. "Oh gosh, oh no Adrian I'm so sorry." "It's ok Lissa it wasn't you that did anything wrong, it was your Mimi, but I hope that this teaches her that she just can't go around being rude and mean to people all the time, and think that she is entitled because she is not, and there are people out there that will not take her bullying." I tell her. "I also hope that this helps teach you to not be like your Mimi, and maybe more like your Nana." I say to her. She nods her head. I then turn to my mate. "How are you feeling love." I asked her. "I am better thanks to Lilly, and the good laugh we all just had. But I must apologize to our guest, I am sorry that you all had to witness Amanda's antics." She says to the group at large.

BARRETT: "You don't need to apologize Kina, your grandmother-in-law is the one that would need to apologize to us, and I am not using the third person due to rank, I mean to all of us that were present when she decided to barge in without knocking first. But somehow I get the feeling that that is something foreign to her." "Oh yes, Amanda Sutter rarely apologizes for anything, she believes she is always right." Adrian states. "Well I for one am going to enjoy her reaction when she finally come to the realization that Keska is going to be a princess, and that she will have to bow down to her, considering that Amanda rejected her, and now Kes has excepted it, I have a feeling she is going to try every trick she possibly can to take it back, and gossip that it's her grand pup that's a royal princess." Kina says. "Ha, don't let Marsh hear that." Lilly says. "exactly, that is why I left her punishment up to Drake, if she would have gone back to the castle, Marsh would have her in chains for all the shit she has pulled, and I think more for Keska than for us." I state with a chuckle. Again, the room is having a laugh. We hear footsteps and the sound of tools jangling outside the door. Then a knock comes.

ADRIAN: "Yes" I call out at the knock. "Maintenance, I'm here to fix the door." "Of course, go ahead." I state. I look to Kina. "Are you up to going downstairs?" "I think I can handle that for a bit, let them fix the door, and we can maybe go to the pool." She says. I nod to her. "Shall we?" I say to everybody. We all get up and file out of the suite, and head down to the pool.

CAMRON: After breakfast and my meeting with Josh, and the interest in getting into the medical aspect of applications for my metals, it has given me more to think about. My mate and I are currently by the pool discussing this possibility and what it could mean for my pack, when I see Adrian and the princes, their mates, the youngest set of twins and Lilly enter the pool area. "That's an interesting grouping." I mention to my mate. She turns and looks, and nods her head. I watch as Adrian helps his mate ease down into a lounge chair. Remembering, she is with pup. I smile. "Do you mind if we join them?" I asked my mate. "Not at all if they don't mind." She says. I get up and go to ask them if we could join them. "I don't mind, if the princes don't mind." Adrian says. "Please do." Prince Barrett says. So, I wave my mate over to come join the group.

Chapter 199

KESKA: We stop just before the tree line where the guys will have to shift back, they put us down, I unpack their clothes from the backpack, so they can redress, once they are done, "I want to head over to the orphanage to get rid of this food, and then maybe we can go hang out at the pool before we have to start lunch" I say to them. They nod. "And then maybe you can tell me what the heck is going on." I say. "Yes lets go deliver the food, and then we will catch you up on everything you missed, but be, fore warned You are going to probably end up in a fit of laughter." Trever says. I look at Mackie and she just nods. Ok now they have me curious. We head over to the orphanage to drop off the food. Then we head back to the Pack house, Mackie and I go change into our suits and we meet up with the guys on the 2nd floor then head downstairs and out to the Pool. When we get down to the pool there are a lot of people out here, now I'm debating where this was such a good idea or not. But before I can change my mind about it, I hear Liam call out to me, which in turn draws everybody's attention my way, so now I am stuck. He get up from where he was sitting with Trever's brothers, and their mates, and comes to hug me. I then notice Adrian, Kina, and Alpha Camron and Lissa is over with them too. "Hey." I hug Liam back. "What's going on? Is there some sort of big powwow going on?" I asked my little brother as I was hugging him. "No not really, but you missed a whole bunch of stuff, Mimi has to help in the kitchen, and if she doesn't do what Sarah tells her to do I think dad has to put her in the cells." I am shocked, I look between the rest of the group that came in with me for confirmation. Trever nods, and Mackie shrugs. "Ok, I need to hear this story from the beginning." I say. Liam takes my hand and pulls me towards Adrian, Kina, and Trever's brothers. The others follow behind me as Liam pulls me forward. "Kes is back." He calls out to the group again drawing everyone's attention. "Liam, please stop shouting, and yelling, I think they can see I am here." I tell him.

ADRIAN: I get up to greet Kes. I pull her into a bear hug. I am happy now that she will be able to go about her life without the worry of Jessie around every corner. Once I release her, Lilly takes my place. "It's good to have you home, sweet one, but I am going to take my leave of you all for now." She then turns to look at me, and my mate. "You know my number call me if you have any more issues." She says sternly. And leaves us. "What was Nana talking about?" Kes asked, worry written all over her face. "No need to worry Kes, it's just a little upset stomach, your Nana gave me some tea to help with it." Kina answered. I watch as the rest of the group make room for them to join us. "So, ok, tell me what I've missed." She says. "Oh gosh where to start," Rachel "Start at the shift last night." Kes says. "Well, I can't help you there, I didn't go down for it, Kina was feeling unwell, so I stayed with her." I say and look around the group.

Chapter 200

BARRETT: I look at my brother. “You didn’t tell her?” I asked him. “No, I told her she would have to wait until we got back.” He says. “Ok, then, I guess I will tell what happened last night. After the run, before your siblings could even shift back, Jessie’s mate claimed her.” “Well, that’s a good thing right.” Kes makes it more a statement than a question. “Oh yes! It defiantly is a good thing. He marked and mated her right then and there in front of all of us present, he rubbed his body all over hers, then mounted her and preceded to mate her, he ensured that everyone present knew that he was laying claims to what was his.” “Oh. Umm, well Jessie has always followed in ELDER DAME SUTTER’S footsteps.” She says. I watch her face but there is no hint or sign of regret for her sister, just a stoic reality that Jessie got what she deserves, and after everything I’ve seen and heard about her past, I can’t blame her.

KESKA: “Well that takes care of Jessie, and the shift, now what else did I miss?” I asked.

ADRIAN: Considering the fact that grandmother rejected Kes at my swearing in ceremony, I use her terminology for Amanda. “Well, as it just so happens the ELDER GARAND DAME SUTTER is here, right now as we speak she is in the kitchen.” I tell the group. “What?” I hear from Camron “Yes, we were just contemplating whether or not to get breakfast served in the suite or if Kina would be able to make it down for breakfast, when Lilly and Trever showed up, I told Lilly that Kina was not feeling the greatest, so she went to check in on her, and Trever had asked if he could invite his brothers and their mates, I told him I didn’t mind, as I also knew that Alisha was Kina’s friend, so he linked them, Trever and I were in the middle of a conversation, when his brothers came in, and Trent informed me that Amanda was being her demanding entitled self, wanting to see me. And when I did not show up johnny on the spot to her beck and call, she made it a point to come and break the door to our suite to come talk to me, more to probably scold me for not being there to see Jessie off, but still. And just at that same moment Lilly and Kina came out of the bedroom, and Lilly let Amanda have it. Because all three princes were in my suite when she broke the door, she is now under house arrest, she has to work in the kitchen for both lunch and dinner and spend a night in the cell, and if she doesn’t comply then it will be up to the prince’s head of security to do with her as they deem fit.” I retell the events of the morning. Pretty much every one present is smiling trying not to laugh all over again.

KESKA: Oh, wow I guess I did miss a lot, but I also noted in the telling that Kina didn’t eat. “Kina are you hungry?” I asked her. “I am starting to be a little now.” She says. “I will go see if we have any fruit, and I will bring it out for you.” I tell her. “I will come with you.” Mackie says, “we can get refreshments for everyone.” I nod at her. “Kes, let one of the omega's bring out the refreshments, it's not a good idea for you to go to the kitchen, especially if Amanda is in there." Rachel says. "I appreciate the warning and the sentiment behind it, but this is my home, I am not going to hide because she is here, I hid because Jessie was trying to deliberately hurt me, I am not going to hide any more now that she is gone." I tell the group as a whole. I see some of them nodding. Mackie and I head into the kitchen. "Sarah." I call out to our cook. "Yes dear" I hear coming from the back storage area where the extra dry goods are kept. I head in that direction. "Is there any fruit, and cheese left from breakfast?" I asked her "Yes dear, but why?" "Well, I just found out that with all the commotion from this morning Kina didn't eat, although she said that she had an unsettled stomach." I tell her. "Oh my, we can't have that, I will make up some tea for her as well to help settle her tummy. The fruit is in the main fridge." Sarah says. So, Mackie and I head back into the main part of the kitchen to get things set up to take out to the pool. When I feel a sharp pain at the back of my head. "OWW" I semi yell as my head get pulled backwards. "What do you think you're doing?" Amanda's condescending voice screeches in my ear. Before I have a chance to answer I hear a loud growl coming from the back door that leads out to the pool area, I can't turn my head to see who it is, but I can feel Trever. "If you do not let go of the princess immediately you will be transferred to the castle dungeon without so much as a by your leave!" I hear Trever say, and I feel his aura slam into us.

AMANDA: "Princess? Her? You must be joking." "SHE IS MY MATE! I SAID LET HER GO!" I feel his aura hit me like a ton of bricks that puts me on my knees. I let go of the little twit. And watch as she goes to soothe him. "Trever, hey, look at me, it's ok, I wouldn't care if whole kitchen staff on their knees, love." She speaks softly to him. Just who is he? He has power that's for sure. I watch as he looks around then he pulls back his aura.

were just her, but you have the TREVER: I love that she is getting more confident in herself, but I also don't trust that her grandmother won't try something, so I follow them in I just watch them work, Amanda came into the kitchen and made a beeline right for her, and grabbed her hair from behind and pulled, it all happened fast, Amanda must have used like to watch her, she seem to be at home in the kitchen, no waisted movements. Just like at the cabin when she made us breakfast. Then her wolf's speed she move makes since, she is the matriarch of the current Sutter regime. "IF YOU EVER TOUCH MY MATE AGAIN, IT WON'T BE THE CELLS FOR YOU, IT WILL fast. All I could do was, throughout my aura to get her to stop, but she is also strong, stronger than I gave her credit for, but it BE DEATH. DO I MAKE MYSELF CLEAR!" I seethe at her getting in her face. "I don't even know who you are." She states. I link Barrett. "I think you and Trent need to come into the kitchen." "Why?" "This bitch says she doesn't know who I am, I think she need a lesson in the royal family." "On our way little brother, don't kill anyone." " make no promises." I close the link, and I hear movement behind me, and I step to the side to let them in. Both my brothers and Adrian come into the kitchen. I have Kes wrapped in my arms, keeping her as far away from Amanda as possible.
