

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - UNTITLED

The first holiday after the start of the school year, Saturday night Zhou Junxing invited everyone to have a meal together, and then told everyone officially that he and Ji Yiyao were together, sort of swearing sovereignty as well as taking names.

Then on Sunday An Xingyue and Night Xiu Chen went to the library together. The two of them spent a day in the library and when they left, An Xingyue borrowed a few books.

After all, she had learned almost everything in high school, and now she had to start thinking about what she wanted to study in college, and then learn about that major in advance.

Before An Xingyue thought that night Xiu Chen would go to the military, but then he denied it, An Xingyue thought that he probably went back to read computers and so on, after all, he recently read all those books related to programming.

But An Xingyue also did not ask him, maybe he was just curious so to understand, now is only the second year of high school, even now is interested, but no one knows how long this interest can last, and An Xingyue think that no matter what major night Xiu Chen will choose, it is certainly his reasoning.

But Sunday night, An Guo Ting did go home, then had dinner with An Xingyue, then hurried back to the Institute, although it was only a few hours, but more than before, so An Xingyue gave a rare good face, and even admonished him not to work too hard.

So it is actually still very easy to meet, before so disgusted and dissatisfied, but now there is a little recognition, may also be related to the New Year period, after all, Guan Yaxin in order to accompany her to push a lot of work.

So when she saw Night Xiu Chen on Monday, An Xingyue was still in a very good mood, and when she returned to class 7, she was even more delighted to see a disheveled look, and every time she saw this look she would find it very funny.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Zhou Junxing originally wanted to ask night Xiu Chen how he felt about this exam, and then go to sell misery, after all, he had a feeling that he must have done poorly this time, even if Ji Yiyao began to help him cram, but it has only just begun, so .....

But just as he was about to go over, Ji Yiyao happened to come in through the door. After transferring to class 7, because there was no requirement to arrive early in the morning for morning study, Ji Yiyao now slept in the dormitory for some more time before coming to class.

Just sitting down, Ji Yiyao hadn't even packed her things when someone stood in front of her, raising her head, Ji Yiyao was surprised to see Zhou Junxing standing in front of her with an aggrieved face, "What's going on here?"

"Yan Yan, if I fail the exam this time, then what can I do?" Zhou Junxing said with a smile in his eyes, but his mouth was very aggrieved.

"It's okay, it's just the opening exam, right? You will definitely do well in the next monthly exam." The new boyfriend's honeyed confidence.

And it is estimated to find a time to let Chen brother they take him to play stocks those.

The man who has a girlfriend, Zhou Gongzi, has the motivation to make money.

And seven classes of people expressionless look at Zhou Junxing in front of Ji Yiyao play nice, play aggrieved, md, so easy to have a single beauty bully to, who knows Zhou dog son down so fast, actually directly on the hand.

How can we do in the future na, so many couples in the class, after the dog food tube enough, tube full.

An Xingyue while eating the night Xiu Chen brought her love breakfast while watching Ji Yiyao and Zhou Junxing get along, and what underground love, Zhou Gongzi so one stop, everyone knows is together, tsk, tsk, might as well be directly open it.

But also right, she and night Xiu Chen so bright and open because of the parents side of the enlightenment and both of their grades have been maintained, but Zhou Junxing and Ji Yiyao estimated that soon will be found to talk.

After all, this kind of thing according to the custom is the teacher chat, and then invite the parents, Zhou Junxing side of the parents are afraid of nothing, night Xiu Chen said before and her, Zhou Junxing's parents are still very open-minded, although said Meow Meow side of the aunt they are also very open-minded, but with Zhou Junxing such grades and the prestige in the school, I'm afraid it's difficult to get.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

During the morning reading class, Wang Ya came in, then looked at them sadly, turned around and left.

Everyone was still stuck in his sad eyes, so how bad was the test this time that old Wang had to look at them like this?

"Crap, class president do you want to go to the office to see the results of the group first? Lest we be caught off guard in class later ah." Some people muttered, really the old king just so look at them, this opening exam is estimated to be hanging.

"Shit, we can't be blamed for the failure of this test, right? Look at the physics questions are difficult to the sky, who can test well ah?" The physical committee said helplessly.

"The school bully and his girlfriend can." Someone replied in a whisper.

"Roll, is dad on the same level as us?"

"That's right, that's right, not on the same level, what's there to say?"

An Xingyue heard their chat and silently lowered her head, can she say that she didn't do well in physics this time either? It was really a bit hard, and her physics was originally weaker than other subjects.

The first one this time is estimated to be night Xiu Chen's.

An Xingyue propped up her chin and looked thoughtfully at night Xiu Chen, her eyes blinking as if she was considering something.

Night Xiu Chen was already paying attention to her, as soon as she put her eyes on him, he noticed, but waited for a while and did not hear her speak, but really .....

"Bao, what are you thinking about? Can you stop staring at me like that? Boyfriend heart a little panic."

"A Chen this time if the physics than my high score will help me tutoring, OK? I'm dragging my feet a bit in physics." An Xingyue said nonchalantly, anyway, he is sure to score higher than her, tutoring is fixed.

"Yes, just this point, Bao first shouted night teacher to hear?"

"No." An Xingyue rolled her eyes, she did not want to face the oh.
