

SUPER ABILITY STUDENT

Chapter 4 : Betting

Lin Tian didn't know the comments of the classmates behind him, and even if he knew it, he wouldn't pay attention. At this time, Lin Tianzheng was walking side by side with He Qianqian in the corridor.

Lin Tian and He Qianqian were very close, and there was only a small gap between their shoulders. As he approached He Qianqian, a faint fragrance flowed into Lin Tian's nostrils.

That is the fragrance of women!

Fresh, faint, just like He Qianqian's person.

"Good smell!" Lin Tian closed his eyes slightly and said in intoxication.

"What did you say?" He Qianqian turned her head slightly and looked at Lin Tian, her eyes a little puzzled.

"I said the smell on the teacher's body is very good, very fragrant!" Lin Tian opened his eyes and said with a hippy smile.

Hearing this, He Qianqian was stunned, and then laughed and scolded: "What are you talking about, kids!"

Lin Tian curled his lips and didn't reply.

After teaching Lin Tian, He Qianqian began to look at Lin Tian sternly: "Lin Tian, I heard that you quarreled with Teacher Lin last class? Did you run her off?"

"You know?" Lin Tian looked at He Qianqian in a daze, and then saw the math book in her arms, a little surprised, apparently Li Min asked her to help with the book.

Seeing that He Qianqian already knew, Lin Tian stopped covering up, curled his lips and said, "It's not my fault. She scolded me first, and said that if I answered the question, she would apologize to me. Haven't apologized to me yet!"

Lin Tian's expression was a little disapproving, he didn't think he had anything wrong.

Hearing this, He Qianqian was somewhat silent.

He Qianqian knew that what Lin Tian said was basically the truth, because this kid had never lied to herself despite his poor grades.

waste, apology!

Based on what He Qianqian knew about Li Min, she fully believed that Li Min could say these things.

Because Li Min has always hated the poor students in the class, he thinks it is a mouse * that has broken a pot of soup.

But He Qianqian doesn't think so. She thinks the poor students are very smart, but they are not guided properly.

is like Lin Tian. Since becoming a class representative, his biological performance has been pretty good. This is obviously an educational problem.

But to other teachers, she can't say anything. After being silent for a while, after understanding the facts, He Qianqian turned her head slightly to Lin Tiandao: "Even if it is your fault, don't speak so aggressively, she is your teacher after all."

"I didn't say anything. I just said that I am not a trash. I need her apology. Is this also wrong? Can the teacher only be right?" Lin Tian retorted a little angrily.

Hearing these words, He Qianqian did not reply. In her heart, she agreed with Lin Tian's words even more, but He Qianqian could not say these words.

So there was silence for a while, He Qianqian raised her head and smiled: "Okay, let's do this first, you go back first."

But when Lin Tian heard He Qianqian's words, Lin Tian didn't go back. Instead, he smiled and said, "Teacher He, what are your wishes?"

"Wish?" He Qianqian was taken aback, then pointed Lin Tian's forehead with green jade and smiled and cursed: "My, my wish is that you can study hard!"

study well!

Hearing this wish, Lin Tian focused his attention on the power system in his mind.

But there is no response!

Obviously He Qianqian's wish is not enough!

It's not just a wish that you just want.

This wish didn't work. Lin Tian rolled his eyes and said with a grin: "Change a wish, um..." Lin Tian tilted his head slightly, pondered for a while, and smiled: "You said a wish, if I Give me a kiss if you realize it!"

kiss!

Hearing this, He Qianqian was stunned, and then she understood what was going on.

He Qianqian looked at Lin Tian and shook her head helplessly: "What do you think, little devil!"

"Well, is it possible!" Lin Tian didn't give up.

He Qianqian shook her head helplessly: "Okay, as long as you can get the first year in the next monthly exam, I will kiss you!"

"Really?"

"Really!"

After finishing speaking, He Qianqian shook her head helplessly again, ignored Lin Tian, and walked forward quickly.

While walking, He Qianqian muttered: "What does this little guy think! Am I too kind to him..."

Seeing He Qianqian walking quickly, Lin Tian did not catch up, but stayed where she was.

At this time, Lin Tian's attention was already focused on the power system in his mind.

An electronically synthesized sound rang in Lin Tian's mind: "He Qianqian's first wish: to get the first year in the monthly exam.

Task completion reward: get 3 power points. "
