

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 141 - Tips

0 10 minutes read

He Shu and Jiang Tianyu how to meet, the criminal investigation detachment of other people is not particularly clear, naturally did not feel much surprise.

He Shu had vaguely heard that the Bureau's special police detachment had sent people to support a secret operation in the province, but she didn't know exactly what had happened.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The two are indeed acquainted, but only a sympathy between the same good people, the relationship is not close, otherwise it would not be more than a year without contact.

This is how Jiang Tianyu stayed in the criminal investigation detachment without fear.

The work of the internal affairs compared to the previous kind of daily to go up the mountain of knives, down the sea of fire days, indeed not tired, she is also very fast, but day after day to repeat those boring reports and various reports, let people feel mentally exhausted.

This day, Jiang Tianyu finished the work at hand, got up and stretched while walking to the window, looking out to relax her eyes.

The older sister in the same office was fiddling with a few pots of flowers and plants, glanced at her and opened her mouth with a smile: "Jiang, I heard that you are transferred from the special police detachment? Did you work there as an internal security officer before?"

"Well." Jiang Tianyu gave a vague response.

The good thing is that the elder sister also did not dwell on this matter, twisted back to continue to take a small spray can to a few small pot of succulent spray water, at the end of the sudden 'Huh': "He team they are back from the field!"

Jiang Tianyu heard the words, slightly lifted the eyelids, just in time to see He Shu got out of the car, throwing up the car door action is sharp and dashing.

However, the big belly protruding under the ordinary style black T-shirt, how to look how a bit alarming.

The first sister followed with a worried sigh: "He team's husband used to be the head of our city's old case team, promoted some time ago, went to the following district bureau as a leader."

"The good thing is that the discipline group is not in, otherwise every day watching his wife with such a large belly in and out, must be worried bad?"

"The director has long advised her to just stay in the office and sit at the rear, responsible for giving orders, but the He team can not stay idle, I heard that last month also in an accidental arrest operation chased the suspect ran a street."

Hearing these words, Jiang Tianyu scratched his forehead in a slightly embarrassed manner.

He Shu's toughness was known in the national public security competition, physical quality is naturally different from ordinary people, which mother will be joking about their children, but in the eyes of outsiders has become incomprehensible.

"By the way, Xiao Jiang ah, I heard that you are still single?" The elder sister is already nearing retirement age, usually once she is free from work, she loves to take care of the flowers and plants, and by the way, express her warm concern for her colleagues.

"Ah sort of." The embarrassment on Jiang Tianyu's face grew a few shades heavier, and for some reason, a figure even flashed quickly in his mind.

The big sister got a positive response, looks very happy: "Then you are the right place, our criminal investigation detachment is the largest monk temple in the city's public security system."

Saying that, she also rushed downstairs and stretched out his hand, pointing in one direction: "followed behind the He team, that Zeng Yongjia, big and tall, good-looking, business ability is also strong, the future may be the next criminal investigation detachment leader miles!"

"I see you two are quite suitable, similar age"

Jiang Tianyu pursed his lips hard, and immediately found an excuse for not finishing the work, and returned to his position.

The same afternoon, near the end of the day, He Shu wandered into this office and invited her to go out for a meal together in the evening.

A slight hesitation of two seconds, Jiang Tianyu nodded and agreed.

The criminal investigation detachment's dinner spot was chosen in a food street only ten minutes away from the city's public security, the people in the spirit of exercise, after work in groups to go there.

Although the sun has begun to gradually sink, but the sky is still bright, 34 or 35 degrees above zero temperature, so Jiang Tianyu feel that they are a fish out of water.

Walking in the shade of the trees, feeling the warm, sticky sea breeze that is unique to the seaside city around her, she suddenly missed the season in Jiangcheng.

It is estimated that the wind is still cool, especially in early summer, when the night falls a blowing river breeze, simply to be able to comfortable to the bone.

Noticing that he had wandered off, Jiang Tianyu blinked and forcibly stripped himself from the memories of that scene of light.

In the end, by the criminal investigation detachment of a few old men, selected a popular seafood barbecue stalls. Even if everyone is not drinking, the atmosphere at the table is still very lively.

I don't know if it's because the drinks are a little too much, Jiang Tianyu got up in the middle of the time to go to the bathroom.

When the person turned around and could not see the shadow, the first male police officer who received her that day barred his mouth: "Comrade Jiang is serious and responsible in his work, but his personality is a bit high and cold, too introverted."

The bearded Zeng Yongjia immediately took over, the tone is very agreeable: "Comrade women, we have to take extra care."

At these words, He Shu's expression instantly became smiling and non-smiling.

Zeng Yongjia saw the situation hastily looking for a complement: "Of course, He team you are different, you are a woman of greatness, big sister, is my lifelong idol"

"He team, this small abalone I specially ordered for you, eat more is good for the child."

The corners of He Shu's lips curled up slightly, looking at the crowd with more or less meaningful gaze, but also did not say anything more, just lowered his head to eat abalone.

The male police officer who just opened his mouth spoke up again: "I heard that Comrade Jiang was transferred from the special police brigade side? Zeng, do not you have a classmate over there? I did not inquire to find out what happened?"

“Asking a fart, you can not respect the privacy of others?” Zeng Yongjia laughed and scolded.

The actual situation is, the special police brigade side one than one strict mouth, asked also asked in vain.

“Little Jiang is good-looking, work well, we just need to take good care of her, do not ask extra!” At the end, he added.

About see really no one knows anything, the male police shrugged his shoulders, turned around and colleagues around to go and who can be the first to show off a bottle of gas Coke.

At that moment, two screams suddenly came out of the stall room, accompanied by a crackling, meaning the sound of dishes falling to the ground.

In the next second, many customers who were originally eating indoors rushed out with panicked faces.

He Shu and other people looked astonished, followed by successively stood up, one after another walked to the front door of the stall, looking in.

I saw two groups of people vaguely confronting each other inside, both male and female, each with red heads and swollen faces, and it looked like they had had too much to drink.

The two groups of people pointing at each other, cursing and swearing, there is no substantive action, but the broken bottles and dishes on the ground, enough to prove how tense the atmosphere is.

The waiters were all huddled in the corner with a frightened face, not daring to go forward, each of them knows a truth, that is, do not reason with the wine monks.

And at this time standing behind the bar of that good-looking middle-aged woman should be the boss's wife, she can only waving her hands with force, helplessly out of the words of persuasion.

The first thing is to carefully block He Shu behind himself: “He team, this is more than a dozen people, in case of a fight is too dangerous, or we should call the police, right?”

Without waiting for He Shu to reply, the previous male police officer quickly said, “I just saw that the waiter seems to have called 110, it is estimated that the district police station will be able to arrive in a few minutes.”

It's not that they don't want to help, but the situation is still relatively stable, after all, the number of people on both sides, the distribution of men and women and what is not much difference, Xu is mutually scrupulous, so there is no intention to do anything for the time being.

Seeing the two groups of people cursing more and more ferocious, the words gradually unpleasant to the ears, He Shu silently shake his head and sigh.

It just so happens that at this time, Jiang Tianyu came out from the back of the bathroom, while shaking the water droplets on her hands, while looking at the scene in front of her with some surprise.

Suddenly, one of the group, probably to increase their momentum, lifted their hands and smashed another plate.

A small part of the porcelain splattered everywhere straight at her, back two steps to look at the pieces landing on the ground in front of their toes, Jiang Tianyu face is not any special expression.

I don't know if it was a fall out of the fire, another group of people in a tall, bald brother took two steps forward, holding a bottle in his hand, the mouth is a continuous stream of national curses.

The first group of people saw the situation, also sent a flower-armed brother, the same than the gesture, not willing to show weakness.

Watching two men getting closer and closer, the atmosphere has been baked up to this, it seems not to do it are sorry for their own like.

The next second, the bald brother raised the empty bottle in his hand, the flower-armed brother also did not lag behind, swinging the small wooden bench next to the force to swing over!

The store's waiters even subconsciously let out a shattered and frightened scream, two timid even reflexively held their heads with their arms.

Outside the door, Zeng Yongjia and other people at the sight of this scene, but also took a step to rush in.

However, everyone expected blood splattered scene did not appear, the original is Jiang Tianyu somehow intervened in the middle of the two big brothers, two not quite tender, because of years of training left calluses hands, steadily clutching the two people that tried to use the wrists of violence.

"Let's talk, violence doesn't solve any problems." She opened her mouth in a soft voice, and winked at the two men after she spoke.

Both the bald-headed brother and the flower-armed brother, apparently none of them are stupid, they were the wrist of the huge force from the grimace, almost at the same time felt a tingling pain, the bottle and the wooden bench just one after the other fell to the ground.

The big brother with flowery arms lips twitched slightly twice, as if he was holding back some kind of emotion, and finally did not hold back, sucked in a breath of cold air: "Sister sister, you stepped on my foot!"

"Also stepped on my feet!"

"Ah" Jiang Tianyu moved her feet, smoothly released the clamp on the wrists of the two, very politely bowed slightly at them: "Sorry."

The two big brothers saw this, busy to follow the bow back: "Sorry, sorry!"

The two groups even took the initiative to clean up the mess on the ground, and when the police arrived at the scene, they actively apologized to the store and shared all the losses.

A conflict that could have been a bloodshed was thus dissolved into nothingness.

Jiang Tianyu, who had returned to sit at the table outside, topped several colleagues' astonished gazes and moved a little uncomfortably in He Shu's direction.

In order to relieve the wonderful atmosphere that was almost stagnant, she opened her mouth deliberately: "Team He, you guys have been leaving early and coming back late in the last two days, are you working on any important cases?"

He Shu was generous: "The whole city is searching for people, the other party is suspected of human trafficking."

Human trafficking? Jiang Tianyu's eyebrows jumped and he nodded thoughtfully.

"By the way, the suspect looks like this, in case you bump into it one day while walking down the road." He Shu scratched the phone screen, flipped out a photo and showed it to her, "I've already contacted all the major media in Jing Huai City, and intend to use the power of the masses"

Just when the two of them were whispering and studying, a male voice suddenly came from behind them: "Eh? This person I know ah!"

Jiang Tianyu and He Shu instantly turned back, carrying a bottle of wine and two glasses in his hand, the flower-armed brother was startled by their harsh eyes, the fat of the body followed two trembling.

“Sister, brother just came over to toast you a glass of wine

Responding to him was the phone screen that appeared fiercely under his eyes, and He Shu confirmed with a serious expression, “You know him?”

This time to the flower-armed big brother whole will not, helpless eyes drifting around, immediately after seeing the big-bellied woman in front of the light up the police officer card, but also directly rounded a pair of green bean eyes.

“Jing Huai City Public Security Bureau, Criminal Investigation Detachment.” He Shu patiently repeated the question, “You just said that you know the person in the photo?”

Gulped a mouthful of saliva, originally just want to find a common topic to get close to the flower-armed big brother trembling response: “I think so, look strange familiar.”

“I think I’ve seen it somewhere.”

The big brother with the flowery arm recalled a little, a look up to see is full of people at the table are not too good eyes staring at themselves, immediately out of a head of sweat.

The identity of the rest of the people seems to be self-evident.

It seems to have lived forty years, was so many police surrounded by the experience or the first encounter, flower arm brother again swallowed a mouthful of saliva, only to feel tight throat, tongue stiff.

“That

“Just now

He Shu’s left hand gently stroked his stomach twice, slightly frowning to feel the fetal movement of the fetus in his belly, and then took a deep breath and interrupted the other side: “This gentleman, please think carefully, whether you recognize him or not.”

The big brother with the flower arm looked at the photo again, and then the whole person showed a tearless expression: “really look familiar, but you want me to say exactly where I ran into, I really forget.”

“Frequent bars, nightclubs, or restaurants like this one today?” He Shu tried to give him some hints.

The man lowered his eyelids and swirled and shook his head slowly.

“The neighborhood where you live?” Jiang Tianyu followed by giving another few scenarios: “Workplace and tattoo parlors and the like?”

Speaking, she also raised her finger to point to the place behind the other person’s ear, where there is obviously a small pattern is just tattooed not long ago, and then combined with the other person’s upper body skin is almost covered by seventy to eighty percent of the situation, the tattoo store is a very suspicious target.

“Home? Should not be.” Flower-armed big brother followed the two people’s thoughts one by one to rule out, after the bottle in his arms, with a fat hand scratching the back of the head, looks like an Iron Bean.

“As for the work unit” said this, he also quite vainly swept the crowd some.

It is clear that the job of the big brother with the flower arm should not be something that can be taken, but He Shu and others do not dwell on this, just wait patiently for his answer, during which no one spoke out to urge.

“The work unit is also not, if he were my client or something, I would be able to call out the name!” The man continued to deny.

“As for the tattoo store is so two heads of people, I can still forget? is not right!” Fiercely, the flower-armed brother rounded his eyes: “I remember! Before is near the tattoo store ran into this person twice, can not be wrong!”

Across the table, Zeng Yongjia was about to go next to He Shu to play support for his captain, but before he could take the first step, he heard Jiang Tianyu’s voice: “Brother, you are so sure ah? You can’t be too sure that your memory is confused because too much time has passed, take your time and think it over, we are not in a hurry.”

“I’m sure! Tattoo store upstairs is a normal residential building, he should be living there.”

After the flower-armed brother and intermittently said a lot of words, the original reason why he was impressed by the photo of the person, or because once went to the tattoo store, this person and the boss of the barber store next to the wife argued.

“I was also at that time with just half of the tattoo of the God of Wealth out to see the lively come.”

Hearing this, Jiang Tianyu with He Shu glanced at each other, He Shu from the backpack he carried took out a pen and paper handed to the big brother opposite: "Please write down the specific address of the tattoo store."

The flower-armed brother responded.

Criminal investigation detachment of this group can not be described as a success, a group of people in the checkout, quickly in groups took a taxi back to the bureau.

Office, Zeng Yongjia shaking his head while waiting for the tattoo store is located in the district police station back, while saying, "Comrade Jiang is really the team's blessing!"

"He team, we have driven a few full of Jing Huai City wandering around for many days, right? There has been little progress, who would have thought ah!"

"Because to welcome Xiao Jiang decided to go to dinner, right? Not to eat and not meet the two groups of people clashed, right? If Jiang did not have the decisive and responsible words to discourage her, the flower-armed brother would not have come to give her a toast, right?"

No toast, naturally, will not be involved in the police are hunting for suspects of possible hiding places, everything can be said to be very good.

"That's right." Zeng Yongjia said, slightly sideways to look at the woman who is leaning against the window at this time, hands around the chest dazed, curiously asked: "Xiao Jiang ah, you seem to be good at hand, not civilian before?"

Special police detachment of the gang simply, a talk about 'Jiang Tianyu' the three words, a group of big old men as if they were cut off the tongue.

Work for many years old criminal police intuition tells him things must not be simple, but deeper but nothing to ask, straight let him scratch his heart and scratch his liver hard.

"Well special police detachment's physical fitness assessment is the most stringent of all police types, civilian jobs also can not touch the fish." Jiang Tianyu did not respond positively to this question, at first glance it seems to say something, a careful taste but it seems to say nothing.

"Okay." He Shu interrupted still want to talk Zeng Yongjia, with a hand against the back of the waist walked to the conference table, lending a large display called out the map near the tattoo store address: "Let's now determine the point when the action begins."

"This is the No. 1 position, guarded by me and Lao Chang."

“Over there

At this point, Zeng Yongjia had a different opinion: “He team, I analyze this No. 1 spot is the easiest place for suspects to pass through when they are escaping, why don't I take someone to guard it?”

He Shu briefly silent for a moment, then nodded slightly and agreed: “It's fine.”

She did not want to try to be a hero at this time, with the month gradually increasing, their own body is also slowly heavy, then in case something really happens, for the whole capture operation is more than worth the loss.

Then, she continued to allocate manpower: “As for the sixth position

He Shu frowned slightly: “Xiao Wang was hospitalized the day before yesterday with acute stomach bleeding, Wei is still on annual leave and is said to be back home, definitely not back in time.”

The words fell, her eyes fell naturally on the body of Jiang Tianyu, who was standing far away from the window to hide from the quiet: “Tianyu, this sixth position is just responsible for monitoring the surrounding environment, if you can, with Xie brother squatting?”

Hmm?

The people at the conference table instantly became different, but because He Shu's prestige in the team had reached a fairly high level, no one raised any objections in the first place.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

This matter, only Zeng Yongjia after the meeting privately found He Shu, said that let the internal staff out in the field should not be in line with the rules and procedures.

In response, He Shu just squeezed a light laugh out of her nose.

Although Zeng Yongjia did not understand the hidden meaning of the smile of his leader, but also understood her meaning, coupled with the previous incident in the stall can be seen Jiang Tianyu is a little bit of skill in, so this matter is settled.

When the action plan was finalized, several police cars without police lights and body markings left the compound of Jing Huai City Bureau.

Jiang Tianyu and the male police officer named Xie Zihao rode together in a silver gray car, after about half an hour or so, the car smoothly parked in the parking space on the side of the road.

Xie Zihao took the binoculars and looked, after which he raised his chin in the direction of the diagonal opposite side of the road: "The tattoo store is there."

Raised his eyes and looked over, Jiang Tianyu really saw a solid black photo hanging on the second floor three or four hundred meters away, with 'neo tattoo' written on it in big white letters.

The first floor of this neighborhood are stores, but the location of the tattoo store is on the second floor, along the outside of the building's external concrete stairs up to reach.

"Before the police station people have come over this neighborhood stepped on the spot, according to the big stall that brother provided clues, especially to go and barber store owner to confirm the suspect should be living in the tattoo store is located in the building's third unit."

"Our task is to keep an eye on the surrounding movement here, you don't have to be too nervous." Xie Zihao even unprecedented words of comfort.

If placed in the year, in the face of this scenario he is bound to sarcastic taunt, but since that year by He Shu ruthlessly cleaned up two times, he has now simply become the most loyal believers of He team.

He Shu has a reason for what she does, and he is convinced of it.

Jiang Tianyu smiled, raised a polite smile at the man, after which he did not say a word and focused on observing the pedestrians and vehicles coming and going outside the car, his eyes sharp as a hawk.

A few minutes later, the walkie-talkie hanging in front of the car went off, and it was the people in turn reporting the location.

Only Xie Zihao pressed the button of the intercom: "No. 6 is in place, everything is normal."

Finally, He Shu's voice came from inside: "After confirmation from the district police station, the suspect is currently renting 501 in unit 3. About an hour ago, plainclothesmen from the police station with community workers mapped the entire building on the pretext of entering the house to check gas safety, and determined that the suspect is at home."

"It is now 9:03 p.m., there are still many pedestrians on the road, Zeng Yongjia, Lao Chang waiting for my instructions, when the time comes, the two of you with a few colleagues from the police station together to go up to the suspect to implement the arrest!"

The walkie-talkie is the sound of the people firmly answered.

The night is getting thicker, the number of pedestrians on the road is obviously less, most of the merchants on this street have also turned off their lights one after another, the sound of rolling shutters falling down is incessant.

"By the way, the He team said this suspect human trafficking? What exactly is the situation?"

The roadside sedan, the two only left a small gap in the passenger side of the window, the car flowed calm light music, Jiang Tianyu suddenly remembered the matter then opened his mouth.

Xie Zihao mouth is still chewing gum, one hand on the chin, one hand the binoculars raised to the eyes: "three or four months ago, that is, at the beginning of the year, the city has received two reported cases of missing persons."

"Between the two missing persons, the main common denominator is that they are foreign population, alone over the city of Jing Huai travel to relax."

"Two people missing time, probably less than two months between it!" The man said this, the tone of voice more or less with a little sigh: "Because this kind of case once burst out, very affect our city's image, when the time to ensure that the tourism industry will be a heavy blow, so the government attaches great importance."

"After an in-depth investigation of the two missing persons in the missing before the travel trajectory, we reasonably suspect that the two were abducted and sold, at the same time, He team also in the process of liaison with the police in the surrounding cities, and found a number of missing persons."

"These missing persons, although age, gender, occupation vary, but all have one thing in common, that is, social relations simple, there is no relatives and friends."

"After our team mastered a certain amount of evidence, many clues show that the missing population in the surrounding cities are most likely to have come to Jing Huai City before they disappeared. As for why they did not inform the people around them have a trip plan, or because of what other reasons suddenly came to the city, it is unknown."

"This year we received the two missing person's alarm, or because last year in order to further improve the tourism market environment, the government of large and small hotels, hostels have issued a notice requiring companies to assume the responsibility and obligation to verify the identity of guests and protect their personal safety. So in the absence of check-out procedures, after the two victims suddenly disappeared, it was the hotel contacted the police to prepare the case.”

Jiang Tianyu nodded thoughtfully, “Most likely multiple cases of premeditated serial disappearances?”

Xie Zihao ‘um’, the two of them still have a task, the car is not a suitable place to discuss the details of the case, then they have a tacit agreement to shut up.

Finally, at half past eleven, a ‘move’ came over the intercom!

Not far away several ‘bang bang’ muffled sound of closing the car door resounded throughout the silent street, by the dim light of the overhead street lamp, vaguely visible two teams of people along the two sides of the building in an encircling position up to the second floor.

Because the platform to enter the building and the door of the unit are on the back, Jiang Tianyu could only watch the figures of his colleagues disappear into the night.

A few breaths later, Jiang Tianyu but suddenly narrowed his eyes, raised his hand uncertainly towards the front and pointed: “Brother Xie, look outside the building body on the sewer pipe is there a person?”

Xie Zihao gave a jolt and took a look with the binoculars that had night vision.

Fvck!

He immediately picked up the intercom: “Not good, the suspect is trying to escape along the pipe outside the building, and has now descended to the second floor! Attention to all points remaining on guard! Please pay attention!”

After saying that, he threw the walkie-talkie, and the next second was surprised to find that the person originally sitting on the passenger side had disappeared!

Only the open door of the car was left there shaking and trembling slightly.

“Holy sh!t! Shit!” Xie Zihao heart a cold, hurried also rushed down, finally in the darkness to catch the slender figure a hundred meters away in front.

Although there are people left behind at all points, the closest to the suspect’s escape location is actually He Shu’s No. 3 position.

The suspect’s eyes turned and he did not hesitate to rush over to the big-bellied He Shu.

The man's height is about one meter eight, strong body type, waving a bowl of fists, the target is surprisingly He Shu's pregnant belly!

The criminal investigation team that was about to arrive after seeing this scene, almost everyone was jealous, all subconsciously yelled out.

He Shu, however, was not moved at all, standing calmly in place, seemingly without even the intention of taking half a step back to avoid the frontier.

"Team He! Watch out!" Xie Zihao saw the object hidden in the suspect's hand, which reflected a metallic glow under the streetlight: "He has a knife in his hand!"

However, before his words fell, Jiang Tianyu accelerated his pace, followed by a flying spin kick!

The heavy kick not only staggered the huge body of the other party, she then dwarfed her body and slid in front of the suspect's body, squeezing the thick wrist with force.

Bam.

It was the sound of metal hitting the ground.

Jiang Tianyu wrenched the man's arm backward again with force, tightened her other arm around his throat, and dragged it backward again!

Poof!

This time it was the sound of a man being lowered to the ground.

The whole process was just a few seconds, so fast that it was unbelievable.

Late arrival of all the male comrades of the criminal investigation detachment:

The newest member of the team has some skills, but I didn't expect it to be so powerful.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The first thing you need to do is to get your hands on the suspect.

The person's hand movements a beat, staring at the location of the person's collarbone below the eyes of suspicion, and then untraceable raised an eyebrow.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 143 - Tips

At this time, it so happened that Zeng Yongjia and Xie Zihao and others came back to their senses and rushed up in a rush. In the confusion, Jiang Tianyu loosened her grip on the suspect and got up and walked to He Shu's side.

"Are you all right?" She sounded concerned.

He Shu smiled brightly: "With you here, what can happen to me? It's much more reassuring than this group of stinky men."

Jiang Tianyu's body has a lot of merits, if it is only about physical skills, she He Shu may not be a rival, but I do not know what is the situation of the special police detachment, how can they be willing to put out such a precious pimple.

The company is also a civilian.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

In addition to the sudden appearance of this person was transferred to the bureau to do civilian work, all signs indicate that the woman may not be related to the operation to assist the province.

Tsk.

He Shu gently skimmed his mouth, also do not know what the above those old stubborn in the end is a meaning, just look at the scene, the other side of the body reaction is still stronger than ordinary police do not know how many times.

The special police detachment does not dare to stay with it? Just cheap her criminal investigation detachment.

The child in the belly seems to have sensed because of the momentary heart rate spike of the mother, not light or heavy kicked two times. The actual fact is that the actual person is not a person who is not a person.

She used to be undercover for many years, this is the wild way, other people care she is never snubbed.

It is estimated that soon she will have to go on maternity leave, now the team came a Jiang Tianyu, these months she can also stay at home a lot of peace of mind.

When the suspect was handcuffed and handcuffed and put into the police car to be escorted back to the bureau, He Shu wandered over to Jiang Tianyu's side, and the tone was like a casual conversation: "What? Have you ever thought about switching to a field post?"

"....."

The shocked eyes of Zeng Yongjia and the others responded to her, although it was reasonable that He Shu would say such a thing, it still didn't stop them from showing their astonishment.

Jiang Tianyu shook her head, "The psychologist recommended that I recuperate for at least another year, even though I looked normal from the psychological tests."

"She said it's possible that I've had professional training in this area and I'm too guarded, just because it looks normal doesn't mean it's really okay, and it's better to stay out of the front line as much as possible to be safe."

"Bullsh!t." He Shu sneered a cold hum, but did not continue to mention this matter, turned with a hand against the back of the waist and walked away.

Only the people who were left staring at each other, after a short silence of two seconds, also quickly dispersed each.

Jing Huai City Public Security Bureau.

The observation room next to the interrogation room.

He Shu comfortably sat there, allowing several people next to her to discuss the way of interrogation later on.

"First of all, we have to ask clearly, what exactly did he use to lure those missing people, right? It's not a simple matter to get an adult to voluntarily walk out of a hotel or home." Xie Zihao frowned at the analysis.

Zeng Yongjia but holds a different opinion: "What's not simple, as long as you catch the flaws in human nature, I think sometimes it's easier to lure adults than teenagers."

After all, adults have desires that children do not.

"It is more important to understand his criteria for selecting victims, the suspect and the two missing people from the beginning of this year to date can be said to be unknown, and how he is sure that the two even if they are missing, a moment will not have relatives and friends to the police?"

Xie Zihao: "First ask the modus operandi!"

Zeng Yongjia: "First ask the criteria for screening targets!"

Two people at work, nothing will put on such a show, He Shu look calmly with a hand to support the chin, watching with great interest.

They are like two fighting chickens, no one will give way, looking to be pinched to a place, has been standing in front of the wall of the visual glass to observe the suspect Jiang Tianyu suddenly opened his mouth.

"In the first two minutes of the start of the interrogation, of course, to choose a question that can instantly break his psychological defenses."

As long as a person has a mental breakdown, then the police can ask whatever they want next, because the other party has completely lost the ability to resist.

Zeng Yongjia blinked and sounded strange: "This we definitely know"

"Want to bet?" Jiang Tianyu twisted his head, and his voice was low with a hint of compulsion.

What?

The criminal investigation detachment of all people were aroused curiosity, completely unable to guess what kind of advice this just came to the detachment not two days of internal affairs will give.

"Ask him if he knows Gao Xiaoyan of Jiangcheng City."

Zeng Yongjia and Xie Zihao were puzzled by this, but He Shu showed great interest, and in the end, the two of them could only obey the leadership arrangement.

After they walked into the interrogation room across the street, they first asked for some basic personal information.

"Name?"

"Han Chang."

"Age?"

“37.”

“ID number?”

“3600

Seeing that the suspect Han Chang was quite cooperative, Zeng Yongjia turned his head and Xie Zihao looked at each other, then the two gave a small nod, and he asked again, “Tell me, what exactly is your relationship with Gao Xiaoyan of Jiangcheng City?”

Boom!

Han Chang, who had expected the police to ask some missing person-related questions, lost control of his expression because he was caught off guard, shock covered that dark brown face, and couldn't even think of covering it up at all.

Zeng Yongjia and Xie Zihao also confused, this fvcking still really became?

A few hours later the criminal investigation detachment office.

He Shu is sitting opposite Jiang Tianyu, she is gnawing on the fried chicken leg in her hand, while raising her chin at the opposite side, asking vaguely, “Tell me, how are you sure that Han Chang and Jiangcheng City side have contact?”

“Also, who the hell is that Gao Xiaoyan? If I remember correctly, you should be a native of Jing Huai City, how can you still be involved with Jiangcheng?”

Did you go to the police academy there before? Either that or he had been to this city in the north for work reasons?

Jiang Tianyu uncomfortably raised her hand and lightly rubbed her nails against the end of her eyebrows twice, she did not mind telling the truth, but the problem was who would believe it?

“Gao Xiaoyan, is a criminal case in Jiangcheng City some time ago, He team, why don't you contact Jiangcheng police and ask?” In the end, she still chose to avoid the seriousness of the matter.

It is not expected that the case experienced in someone else's body could one day have a connection with this side of Jing Huai City, anyone who comes not have to exclaim a 'meditation'.

At this moment, Jiang Tianyu can't help but be a little glad that his memory is good enough, when in the hands of Wu Limin saved Gao Xiaoyan after a casual glance, but really came in handy.

Sunflower

She slowly frowned, always feel also seen elsewhere like, or else at the time of seeing Gao Xiaoyan's tattoo pattern, they would not have asked so abruptly.

Thinking for a long time, did not get any results of Jiang Tianyu back to the soul.

Since waking up in the hospital, she always felt that certain memories in her mind were covered with a fine veil, not knowing if it was the after-effects of the injury.

Raising her eyes to look across again, Jiang Tianyu was surprised to find that He Shu had returned to her workstation at some point.

The woman was holding up her cell phone, quietly waiting for the opposite side to connect, because the speakerphone button was pressed, so the entire office echoed with 'beep beep beep... ..' sound.

Before Jiang Tianyu could react to what was going on, a low and familiar male voice came from the phone's speaker.

"Hello."

Even though she knew that the other party could not tell a person's identity from their breath, she still subconsciously held her breath, and even the action she just tried to get up from the chair froze there, the whole person looked very ridiculous.

He Shu noticed her abnormality, and the expression on her face became more and more meaningful: "Hello, is this the Qi team of the Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau's Major Crime Unit? I am He Shu, the head of the Criminal Investigation Branch of the Jing Huai City Public Security Bureau, I am sorry to disturb you so late."

I don't know if it was Jiang Tianyu's illusion, but she felt that the opposite side's tone obviously changed a bit when she heard the words 'Jing Huai City'.

"Team He." The man's voice is still clear, from the background sound can also faintly hear Lu Li that loud yelling voice.

It is true that the world's criminal investigation is a family, it is impossible not to work overtime, it is impossible in this life.

"It's like this, our city recently had two missing persons cases one after another, after three or four months long investigation, finally succeeded in arresting the suspects." He

Shu organized the language and said deliberately, "After interrogating the suspect, we found out that he has inextricable ties with a citizen of your city, Gao Xiaoyan, and I thought maybe we can cooperate with each other."

This inter-provincial mode of handling cases is still relatively common in daily work, and at first glance it seems to be no problem.

The other side of the phone was silent for several seconds, and then Qi Ziang's voice rang out again: "Team He, I take the liberty of asking, how did you know that I knew Gao Xiaoyan?"

The normal need for case coordination, fellow officers who come to the door will take the initiative to report the details of the person involved in the case to facilitate the follow-up, while the Jing Huai City police just provided a simple, overlapping name, obviously not right.

When He Shu heard this, she showed a smirk.

It is true that the criminal investigation is dry, just a simple sentence gave birth to vigilance.

She pursed her lips, her eyes just met with Jiang Tianyu's in mid-air, looking at the pair of vaguely supplicating eyes, she shook her head and lost her smile: "Of course the suspect explained."

"If it is convenient for the Qi team, later I will send you the relevant information, also trouble your side to provide us with some information conducive to the advancement of the case."

Qi Ziang on the other side of the phone seemed to be muddled, did not show any intention to continue to pursue, just a simple 'hmm'.

When Jiang Tianyu saw this, she breathed a long sigh of relief, and her limbs finally returned to normal function, tiptoeing with a slight bow, ready to slip out along the doorway.

However, just as she was about to reach the door, He Shu's questioning voice suddenly came from behind her, "Tian Yu, where are you going?"

"!!!" At this moment, Jiang Tianyu had the feeling that she didn't know how to place her hands and feet.

Sure enough, the next second the voice of Qi Ziang once again came out from the phone, "Tianyu?"

"Team He, such a coincidence, your colleague's surname wouldn't be Jiang, right?"

Damn it!

Jiang Tianyu slumped her shoulders, wanting to cry without tears.

This is like being caught in bed with a weak heart feeling what the hell is going on ah hey!

“Yo? Does Team Qi even know our Tian Yu?” He Shu pretended to be surprised.

However, her poor acting skills directly made Jiang Tianyu by the door and Qi Ziang across the phone fall into an enigmatic silence.

Because of the awkwardness, the air was slightly stagnant.

But Jiang Tianyu expected the scene did not appear, after a few breaths of work, Qi Ziang only lightly responded: “He team to your city that the missing person case involved in Jiangcheng side of the relevant materials to me after finishing, then we will contact.”

Not even facing that question.

He Shu, like a human being, with the satisfaction of having achieved her goal in her eyes, hung up the phone after exchanging a couple of pleasantries with false sentiments.

After that, she looked sideways at Jiang Tianyu, who was still standing at the door, wondering what she was thinking about with her head hanging down, and opened her mouth with a smile: “Tianyu, don’t you want to go out?”

Jiang Tianyu raised her head, looked at the woman’s hidden smugness, speechlessly rolled her eyes and left.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

While waiting for her coffee, she stood in front of the clear glass door of the convenience store, looking at the street where few cars passed, and rubbed her right hand unconsciously against the phone in her hand.

The string of numbers had long been familiar to her as she traveled through different shells.

When she was still in the hospital, she woke up not long after the number was stored in the address book, but as a result, she was not able to dial it.

It's not that I don't want to use my own voice to say hello to the other side, but every time I think of men, my chest feels sore and swollen.

This is familiar to her, her soul is in the body of the live-in nanny Zhang Baozhu, the two once shared a room in the home of a missing child one night.

At that time, her heart was like being clutched twice, so that one could not breathe well.

This feeling represents what, of course, she knows, because of this, she returned to the body after she did not dare to contact with it.

I always feel like I've tarnished the firmness between the two people, who have fought together many times side by side, the invaluable comradeship.

And

"Madam, your coffee is ready."

With the gentle call of the convenience store clerk ringing in her ears, she hurriedly returned to her senses, took the coffee and politely thanked her, wandering off in the direction of the Public Security Bureau.

Even if the sky is not yet completely bright, the heat in the air is already very uncomplicated, with a thin sweat, Jiang Tianyu went upstairs and pushed open the door of the criminal investigation branch office.

The next second, she slightly rounded her eyes and looked at the several people gathered neatly at the conference table.

"In a meeting?" As an internal staff, although not yet a few days into the job, but the self-consciousness still has, she raised the bag in her hand: "Either have some coffee before continuing?"

"Thank you Comrade Jiang for saving my dog's life!" Zeng Yongjia cheered and went forward to receive several bags of coffee, and after placing them on the conference table, they were divided up by the crowd in just one second.

Jiang Tianyu, on the other hand, went around behind He Shu and very naturally drew away the iced Americano from the other party's hand and replaced it with a delicious and tasty cup of pure juice.

"The night has stayed up like this, you pregnant women or abstain a little, juice is good, nutritious and healthy, to ensure that the baby is born white and tender."

“.....” He Shu heartbreakingly looked at the cup of coffee that originally belonged to her in the other party’s hand, indignantly pouted, and reasonably suspected that the woman was taking revenge for what she had just done.

But on second thought, her expression immediately began to look beautiful again, after sucking a large mouthful of refreshingly sweet juice, she shook her head and asked, “Tian Yu, after you left I passed on all the relevant personnel information to the Jiangcheng City police.”

“After that and the opposite serious crime team Qi team in-depth exchange, it turns out that that Gao Xiaoyan Jiangcheng City police have long felt that something is not right, has been placed on its control for some time.”

Hmm?

Jiang Tianyu blinked, this point is new news to her.

After all, she was the first to be blown out of the water after the successful detection of Be Qi’s murder case, and she was completely unaware of what the subsequent situation was.

“After the past few months of investigation, our side also has good reason to suspect that this Han Chang, after controlling the missing tourists, transported the people out of the city by certain means.” He Shu gently tapped the plastic cup in her hand with her finger, her flamboyant pretty face all serious.

“If this Gao Xiaoyan is really Han Chang’s handler, then those missing tourists were probably all sent to Jiangcheng or the surrounding cities of Jiangcheng.”

“I discussed with Qi team, because we caught Han Chang also obtained part of his confession, Jiangcheng side agreed to send two people over here to participate in the investigation of Gao Xiaoyan.”

Zeng Yongjia and others immediately showed a heartfelt expression.

Then, He Shu added: “Time is short, the last known victim has probably been missing for a month or so, but the internal structure of their organization is quite complex, so that does not rule out the possibility that the missing person is still alive so the people who went to Jiangcheng City, the first light of day will have to leave to the airport.”

“Respected and beautiful Ms. He Shu, please let me go out to let off some steam! The child has not been out of the city for two years! Old Chang and Xie can at least take advantage of their vacation to go back home, but me? Since my grandfather’s generation, my family is from Jing Huai City! Zeng Yongjia's entire body is lying on the conference table, the posture is pitiful and humble.

In response, Old Chang and Xie Zihao both snickered.

He Shu observed a circle of people's expressions around, rubbed his chin and agreed: "It's okay, but my side is looking at the months getting older, not suitable for long-distance bumps, so another person"

Old Chang and Xie Zihao's face are looking forward to it.

"Have to find a can control you, otherwise out of the light to me trouble!" He Shu barred his mouth for a moment.

Hearing this, the original two men who were still a little heartbroken suddenly turned their heads to the side.

Obviously for them, the lure of being able to go to Jiangcheng City was far from being able to resist the shadow of going with Zeng Yongjia.

He Shu finally landed his eyes on the woman whose features were wrinkled together by the Bing Mei style of suffering, "Tian Yu, then you follow."

"Huh?" The surprised voice belonged to Zeng Yongjia.

Jiang Tianyu on the other side was also confused: "Team He, I'm an inside man, this is not in line with the rules, right?"

"In the criminal investigation detachment, I am the rule." He Shu domineeringly put down this sentence, then some heart shrinking neck: "big deal later when the director went to work I stomach over to talk to him properly, not a big problem."

After the words, she comfortably patted her pregnant belly, as if holding what the gold medal of freedom from death.

"Go, you two quickly go back and pack your luggage, nine o'clock to the bureau assembly, I sent someone to send you to the airport!"

Jiang Tianyu !ps moved, but in the end did not say anything to refute the words, turned and left.

The rest of the people see nothing lively, they are scattered to go busy with their own things, only Zeng Yongjia still stick behind He Shu, mouth broken: "He team, I am not discriminating against Jiang, she just came to the criminal investigation detachment how long ah, the two police collaborative case this matter is very serious, you can not" "

"I can't what?" He Shu turned around with a raised eyebrow: "On your point of ability are not enough to let people cut up to do the dishes, to Jiangcheng City you will be grateful to me!"

A city's police to another city off-site case, encounter some obstacles that are very normal things, but well this time it is not necessarily.

The idea that Jiang Tianyu and the Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau of the Qi team between the fishy, He Shu smile more and more happy.

"He team, you smile I a little hairy." Zeng Yongjia uncomfortably raised his hand and touched the back of his neck.

He Shu cut to the chase and said, "This time you and Tian Yu go over to Jiangcheng City, if the process doesn't go well, you come back and screw my head!"

When coming out of the airport in Jiangcheng City, Jiang Tianyu's expression was still somewhat dazed, looking down at the suitcase she was carrying in her hands, it was clear that people were still in Jing Huai City in the early morning, but towards evening they had landed at the other end of the country.

The wind in Jiangcheng City is still as cool as it is remembered, although it is already early summer now.

Zeng Yongjia has even piled things at the feet, standing at the airport exit place full of deep feelings open arms embraced the air, it seems to really take this off-site collaborative case as a tourist.

Jiangcheng City Bureau sent over to pick up the plane is a young male police, the three silent all the way, finally before the sky is completely dark, arrived at the riverside Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau.

Zeng Yongjia while admiring the lights on the bridge spanning the river not far away, while lamenting, "Jiang, ah, you say that both are coastal cities, how come this natural environment is so much different?"

"At night, sitting by the river, eating a little barbecue and drinking a little drink, this day of beauty panic."

Can't bear to break the other party's beautiful fantasy for this city, Jiang Tianyu just raised the corners of his lips and smiled, then followed the male police officer quickly into the familiar office building.

In fact, at the beginning of her awakening in her own body, she often wondered if what had happened before was a long and bizarre dream, but whenever she was in a trance, there were always details of reality to remind her that it was not.

Pa.ssing through the glass door, Jiang Tianyu turned her face sideways to the right and coincidentally locked eyes with Uncle Sun sitting in the doorman's office.

With a polite nod and a smile, she walked quickly to the elevator, and after making sure that Zeng Yongjia had followed her, she pressed the floor where the Major Crime Unit's office was located with a very natural movement.

This action caused the male police officer in charge of the pickup to just extend his hand just froze in mid-air, and then scratched the back of his head somewhat strangely: "Has Officer Jiang been to our bureau before? How do you know"

"Used to it, my original team is this floor, the original you serious crime unit is also?" Jiang Tianyu controlled the muscle groups in his cheeks, widened a pair of eyes, looking very innocent.

"That's quite a coincidence." The male police officer responded with a smile.

As for Zeng Yongjia, he didn't care too much about this little tidbit, he just thought she was talking about what happened when she was originally in the special police detachment, and didn't take it to heart at all.

With a 'ding' beep, the elevator stopped and the doors slowly slid open to both sides.

The male police officer took the lead out of the elevator, rushed to the corridor at this time is smoking by the window chatting a few people greeted: "Qi team, I brought you back!"

Qiziang raised his chin towards this side, signaling his men to put out their cigarettes, and only then greeted him with two long legs.

"Welcome the two comrades of Jing Huai City Bureau!"

A low voice rang out in Jiang Tianyu's ears, and the next second a pair of black casual leather shoes broke into her line of sight, before a familiar hand reached out to her eyes.

"Hello, Qiziang."

The hand holding the trolley case loosened and tightened, and finally Jiang Tianyu tried to calmly lift her head and shook hands with the other party: "Hello, Jiang Tianyu."

The moment the two hands touched together, they both had a little out of breath.

“Hello, Jing Huai City Bureau Zeng Yongjia!” At that moment, an abrupt self-introduction called back their thoughts.

Only to see Zeng Yongjia with an unfriendly face walked between the two people and forcefully used his hand to squeeze Jiang Tianyu’s hand out.

Although his height is half a head shorter than Qi Ziang, but even slightly on tiptoe, the momentum can not lose.

The first side is thinking about their criminal investigation detachment of small internal affairs?

The hell, look at the look is not a good thing, Zeng Yongjia thought of this, but also nonchalantly bared his teeth.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 145 - Tips

Faced with Zeng Yongjia’s provocation, Qi Ziang seemed to find it quite interesting, but did not waste too much time on it.

After a brief exchange of pleasantries and introductions, he led the group into the office of the Major Crime Unit.

The meeting table in the corner of the office was already set up with a thick pile of information, Qi Ziang asked in a deep voice: “Listen to your team He said that the suspect caught by the police in Jing Huai City is called Han Chang? It’s just a pity that the interrogation-related stuff has not been sent to us yet, so.....”

Speaking of business, Zeng Yongjia’s expression suddenly became serious: “Because the interrogation is still in progress, so the written materials such as transcripts have not yet been formed.”

“Han Chang is a native of Jing Huai City, he has been ostensibly engaged in the industry of unlicensed tour guides for many years, taking advantage of the low prices to attract a lot of tourists greedy for small bargains.”

“In the process of contact with tourists, he will naturally figure out the details of those people, and then choose the right background in the victim to do it.”

“Han Chang also hangs out in many tourist groups online, some victims were tricked into coming to Jing Huai City by his flowery words online.”

The first thing you need to do is to make friends with the victim. This is a relatively safe way of picking your target, and if you do it right, it's no wonder you've been free from crime for so many years.

At almost the same time, he lifted his eyelids and glanced in the direction of the woman.

It just so happens that Jiang Tianyu also looked over and both of them saw some fragments of information from each other's eyes: Zhu Henry and Fei Jianming.

The boss and landlord she had dealt with when she was in Niu Xiaoting's body.

One is now in custody awaiting trial, the other was pronounced dead when the case progressed to the end.

The two cities, Jiangcheng and JingHuai, one in the south and one in the north, have such a high degree of similarity, the timeline of the two cases so coincidental, what are the chances of coincidence?

Without traces of retraction, Qiziang pondered for two seconds and then asked: "That Han Chang account, his specific relationship with this Gao Xiaoyan of our city is"?

"Han Chang said Gao Xiaoyan is his line, but he only met with each other once, the rest of the time is basically a telephone contact." Zeng Yongjia said this, a frown: "In the latter part of last night after the He team contacted you, we have taken the photos you provided Gao Xiaoyan let him identify, the results he simply can not identify!"

So that's how it is.

Qi Ziang's face showed a look of understanding, no wonder Jing Huai City Bureau had to send two people over to participate in the case.

The suspect Han Chang could not identify Gao Xiaoyan, then the authenticity of his statement is open to question.

"Then why did Jiangcheng City Police investigate Gao Xiaoyan?" Jiang Tianyu took advantage of the silence to ask a question.

When the initial case of Be Qi's death, the evidence and witnesses were complete, and the police subsequently found evidence related to Be Bei's mind control of Wu Limin.

During this period, Gao Xiaoyan is more like an invisible person, how can it still attract the special attention of the police?

"More than two months ago, an explosion occurred in a farmers' market in our city, resulting in the injury of 16 people present and the death of two people." Qiziang said and glanced at her, his expression was very meaningful.

Jiang Tianyu subconsciously twisted her body in a small way, even still can feel the explosion occurred, from the back of the heart-breaking pain.

“That explosion had something to do with Gao Xiaoyan?” She blinked and asked uncertainly.

“Not directly related to her, we found out that the source of the farmers’ market bomb overlapped with the channel through which Wu Limin purchased the explosives before.” Qiziang sword eyebrows slightly raised.

The legendary and Wu Limin’s mother’s family live in the same village, that dumping contraband?

“Isn’t he under your control?” Jiang Tianyu was puzzled.

“So afterwards we arraigned this dumping explosives, the other party said that the explosives were sold long ago, but he could not provide the valid information of the buyer.” Qiziang took two steps forward and picked up the information from the conference table and distributed it to the two of them.

“Because this illegal transaction would have strived for secrecy, he could only determine that the buyer was a woman.”

This is a big scope, a brick fell from a height and killed five people, at least two of them are women, how to find the culprit of the market bombing?

Zeng Yongjia shook his head and sighed, feelings of this Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau is not much better than their progress in Jing Huai City, it is inevitable that he felt the future is bleak.

Jiang Tianyu flipped through the information in her hand, which happens to have a few is the explosives sales of the criminal’s statement, read carefully line by line, really let her see something from it.

“The person who purchased the farmers’ market explosives, paid a large price for him to make the two time bombs Wu Limin bought a dud, one less material?”

Qiziang nodded slightly without denying it.

Jiang Tianyu immediately sucked in a breath of cold air.

Zeng Yongjia is a dumbfounded look between the two of them to play a mute exchange, because do not understand the previous case of the Bay family, can not understand what the two are saying, can only stand on the side of dry anxious.

But he did not dare to make a sound, afraid to interrupt their thoughts, a moment to look at this, a moment to look at that, the busy muscles around the eyes are going to cramp up.

“Where is Bebe now?” Jiang Tianyu suddenly asked.

“The women’s detention center is in custody.” Qiziang responded briefly.

The two fathers and sons of the Bei family are dead, the mistress Wu Limin admitted to the murder and is waiting for the trial, the daughter Bebe is also behind bars, and a small nanny is left well out of the picture.

So it seems that even if Jiang Tianyu had not possessed Jiang Nanlu’s body, she Gao Xiaoyan would still not have died.

After all, the bomb strapped to her body is a dummy, but anyone who can dodge in time properly, at most suffer a minor injury.

Now Jiang Tianyu reasonable suspicion, the day of the crime Bebe ran to the Public Security Bureau also in Gao Xiaoyan expected, as long as the police noticed fast enough, Wu Limin sooner or later is a turtle in a jar, only to be arrested.

Thinking of this, Jiang Tianyu face became a little ugly, apparently Gao Xiaoyan think highly of themselves, including the police, everyone is playing in the palm of the hand.

So it can also explain why Jiangcheng City police have been watching Gao Xiaoyan for so long, but delayed in taking action.

The reason is that there is no conclusive evidence, treating this kind of big fish really needs to be cautious and cautious, rashly get the other party back to the police station in addition to alarm the snake, there is no other meaning.

Qiziang smiled at the two people standing there looking at the information in their hands, at the end of pacing to Jiang Tianyu’s side, lowered his voice and said, “Under the police surveillance for such a long time, this Gao Xiaoyan did not show any abnormalities, the investigation can be said to be at a deadlock.”

“Now that you’re here, it’s good.”

Hmm?

Jiang Tianyu j.erked her head up, but only saw a back of the man.

Only to see Qi Ziang has walked to the opposite Zeng Yongjia’s body, raised his head to confirm a glance at the time, after a gentle tone suggested: “busy is not bad for these two hours, Jing Huai City, two comrades have come a long way, let's go out for a meal together?"

Zeng Yongjia had no reason to disagree, so after sending the luggage back to the reserved hotel, he and Jiang Tianyu got into Qi Ziang's car.

By the time they arrived at the hotel, it was already dark outside.

Qi Ziang should have booked the room in advance, and took the two of them up the stairs to the second floor.

As soon as she pushed open the door of the private room, Jiang Tianyu saw several familiar faces sitting around the table in a good manner.

After Qiziang introduced the people to each other, Zeng Yongjia's seat was arranged at the innermost.

She naturally sat down next to the only female police officer in the Major Crime Unit, Officer Xiao Wang.

Qiziang first walked across the room and instructed the team to take good care of Zeng Yongjia, then I don't know if it was intentional or unintentional, but he sat down on the empty seat next to Jiang Tianyu.

After a glance at the two people in the middle of a not too small serving mouth, Jiang Tianyu retracted her eyes, picked up chopsticks and began to eat in silence.

After the first few minutes of restraint, as time passed, the atmosphere at the table soon began to warm up.

Even if you can't drink, but this group of men can still eat this meal is very lively, but from the spelling of wine to spell drinks.

I don't know if there is a slight geographical difference in, Zeng Yongjia usually in Jing Huai City Bureau, counted as the most stirring, but now looks slightly shy, can only let Lu Li and other people press him to sit there tilting his head to pour coke.

Officer Wang was across a few people that noisy do 'pfft' amused, and then turned his head very friendly voice: "Officer Jiang, right? Hello, my name is Wang."

"Little Officer Wang." Jiang Tianyu similarly raised a smile of goodwill.

"Jing Huai City eh I've always wanted to travel there, it's just a pity that I'm usually too busy with work and don't have much time." Officer Xiao Wang said also showed a longing expression, then as if suddenly thought of something, eyes bright: "Right, I used to hear about the glorious deeds of a police officer in your city miles!"

The unpleasant memories instantly flooded into his mind like a tidal wave, and Jiang Tianyu chose to respond perfunctorily while chucking vegetables in order to hide the twitching of his mouth muscles: “Really?”

“Mm-hmm!” On the contrary, Officer Xiao Wang next to him was all excited: “Unfortunately I don’t know her name, otherwise maybe Officer Jiang would still know her!”

“I only know that she has a relative on our side named Zhang Baozhu.”

Speaking of which, Officer Wang spoke with admiration: “Officer Jiang you may not understand, a while ago I was a little desperate about my career, all because Sister Zhang told me a lot about their relatives, I regained my enthusiasm for life little by little!”

“But according to what the other side has experienced, she should be very famous in your Jing Huai City Bureau, you must have heard of it!”

Jiang Tianyu right now can not taste just put into the mouth of the bamboo shoots in the end is a taste, can only barely maintain the face of that smile.

At this time, a curious male voice came from the left hand side, only to see Qi Ziang is pinching a can of cola, a pair of black eyes slightly narrowed open mouth asked: “Oh? I’m curious to know what the relatives of Zhang Baozhu have done,” Wang said.

Xiao Wang was about to speak, but was violently interrupted by Jiang Tianyu: “What a coincidence, Sister Zhang is my a distant cousin, so you know each other ah huh huh... ..”

She admitted that she spoke a little louder before by virtue of being a soul state.

But but how can let Qiziang know that she just joined the police when she was blown up all over the poop ah!

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 146 (The End) - Tips

0 9 minutes read

After Jiang Tianyu took the initiative to claim the identity of ‘Zhang Baozhu’s relatives’, Xiao Wang’s excitement aside, she only felt that the meal could be described as ‘tasteless’.

The good thing is that this torture did not last too long, after all, there is not a lot of time to squander in this line of criminal investigation.

The final Zeng Yongjia is Lu Li and other people mixed in the car, Jiang Tianyu and he still sit in the back seat of the jeep Qi Ziang, except for the car fluttering soothing music, Jiang Tianyu's ears are all around the man that slightly urgent ragged panting.

"Not so much, right? How can you get drunk drinking Coke?" She held back for a while, still couldn't hold back, put the upper body slightly over the whispered question.

"Dog days vomit, " Zeng Yongjia opened his mouth, his stomach gas is a strong upward, line to the throat but he swallowed: "They are not just based on people vomit "The company's main goal is to provide a good solution to the problem. I am vomit"

"I will not admit defeat! Can not give He team shame!"

Jiang Tianyu powerless forehead, no wonder the criminal investigation detachment of people in hearing to go with this goods, are eager to dig the ground three feet to bury themselves, now she has some understanding.

"A long journey, I'll send you back to the hotel first, have a good night's rest, tomorrow morning we will see you at the bureau?" The Qiziang who had not spoken out suggested at this time, looking in the rearview mirror at the two figures in the back seat in a somewhat intimate position, eyes flickering slightly.

"We have rested on the plane on the way here." Jiang Tianyu smiled, sat up straight and quickly responded.

From Jing Huai City to Jiangcheng City, it took nearly four hours to fly in the sky. I don't know if it's a habit of police officers, as soon as the plane took off, they both slept through, in order to retain their strength and recover their energy.

Because of professional reasons, you never know what you will face after getting off the plane.

She said this pause, and then said: "time is short, I and Zeng Yongjia is not quite understand the specific circumstances of Gao Xiaoyan, do not waste time."

Hearing these words, Zeng Yongjia subconsciously took the word 'good' out of his mouth and swallowed it back into his stomach, followed by a nod of approval.

If not, it must be their comrade Jiang, look at the awareness of others, he could not help but feel ashamed for his own just a few moments of lazy thoughts!

In this regard, Qi Ziang's reaction is quite indifferent, comfortable fiddling with the steering wheel in his hands, he said in a deep voice: "Well, our bureau's logistical support is still in place, there are lounges, there are refrigerators, the two of you tired and hungry can always go over."

In this way, the three returned to the Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau.

Because there is really no extra position in the office of the serious crime unit, so Jiang Tianyu and Zeng Yongjia can only settle down next to the conference table.

But this also has its advantages, the two people to the Jiangcheng City Police provided them with information spread over a whole desktop, the heart wants to find something, just a glance over, quite convenient.

So Zeng Yongjia sat there, while patting his cola belly, while spitting bubbles, conscientiously understanding the causes and consequences of the case involving Gao Xiaoyan.

The complexity of the case is smacking, even he is such an old detective also spent a few hours of time to barely put the context a clear understanding.

However, when he raised his head again, the office became quiet, only two of his colleagues in the Major Crime Unit were lying at their stations snoring.

Zeng Yongjia stood up and looked out the window twice, and found that the sky seemed to be almost dawn, and there were more cars on the road outside.

Following the faint sound of conversation coming from his ears, he wandered to the door with his arms crossed, and from the half-open doorway just saw the two people who were standing in the corridor talking at this moment.

Although he had only been in Jiangcheng City for a dozen hours, but he felt that his original inflated self-confidence had been strongly impacted.

Just say that people Comrade Jiang, before the special police detachment, just a few days to the mouth of the criminal investigation, ah, or an internal post, the results of people just landed on the ground and Qi team you can infer the case.

He? The pile of things to hold and chew all night, until now the brain is still confused.

“What are you looking at?” In his dazed kung fu, Lu Li scurried to his back from nowhere, raised his hand to rub his hazy sleepy eyes and looked in the direction of his sight: “It’s the Qi team and your female comrade ah what are the two of them talking about?”

Slowly shook his head, Zeng Yongjia some disgusted shake his shoulders, the other side of the hand on the shoulder to get down: “Probably the case.”

“Ho, can brainstorm with our Qi team to a piece of people” Lu Li said this, and put his arm on: “This female comrade of yours, is not simple well!”

Zeng Yongjia full of black lines, obediently withdrew a large step to the side: “Talk on talk, you can not move your hands and feet?”

Saying that, turned around and walked in the direction of the conference table.

Lu Li followed behind him and thought: “You Jing Huai City Bureau comrades how to be so bad-tempered? Hey? Hey? Do not ignore people ah!”

And in the corridor of Jiang Tianyu naturally is already heard the office out of the commotion, some helplessly raised a hand pinched brow, she continued the previous topic: “So you have not been able to fully investigate the farmers market explosion case is what happened?”

Qiziang took a deep breath of the morning air with the fishy sweetness of the river, and raised his chin slightly with his hands around his chest: “On the surface, the case is closed.”

“At the time of the explosion, the police, fire and medical teams rushed to the scene, it was confirmed that two people were dead.”

“One of the deceased is the owner of the farmers market selling cold products, the other deceased is the ‘originator’ of the bombing, the other party called Lin Hai, his whole body is tied with explosives before going to the farmers market to commit the murder.”

“Follow-up we found in the investigation, the murderer Lin Hai and the dead boss of the cold fresh two people do not know each other, their activities before they were born track also did not have any overlap.”

“That Lin Hai, usually life is not as good, it seems that just because of the pressure to produce the psychology of revenge society. This is the largest flow of people into the home near the farmers market, randomly selected a place to detonate the explosives, and the cold food store owner is a not very lucky unlucky egg.”

“Indeed, at the end of the announcement to the community, the police announcement shows that this is a simple case of vicious revenge against society.”

Pursing his lips, Jiang Tianyu shook his head twice: “But it happened that the source of the explosives in the farmers’ market explosion case and the case of the Bei family were linked together, so it was destined to be not simple.”

“What about Jiang Nanlu?” Jiang Tianyu tilted her head to inquire.

Could it be that it really was just her bad luck? Appeared in the incorrect place at the incorrect time.

To be honest, Jiang Tianyu felt that Jiang Nanlu was really the most unlucky one among the many bodies she had crossed.

The company has been kidnapped because of its ex-boyfriend, who was still in love with her one second ago.

It is not easy to feel that everything is over, but to go home and be threatened with a bomb by the mother of your best friend, and think that you can finally breathe a sigh of relief, but is to go out to buy a grocery also because of the God behind a stroke was washed up in the sky.

It's a level of emotion that will be felt no matter how many times you think back.

"Maybe." The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on a lot of things.

The two of them seem to have a common tacit understanding at the moment they met, and every sentence is not away from the common experience once, but every sentence is not mentioned once.

This naturally eliminates many awkward topics that cannot be explained, and it is good to focus on the case at hand.

"Hm?" Jiang Tianyu slightly side face, the corner of the eye eyebrows with a little bit of doubt.

"After the farmers' market bombing, during Jiang Nanlu's hospitalization, Gao Xiaoyan also visited her 'life saver', and the two interacted quite friendly." Qi Ziang deliberately spoke out, not fast: "Under the police surveillance, Gao Xiaoyan has not had any abnormal behavior, this is not the way to drag on."

Jiang Tianyu's face flashed with clarity: "You don't want to"

The man nodded: "You know, the suspect perspective is indeed sometimes very useful."

"Privately, we have been trying to persuade Jiang Nanlu to go and make a little contact with Gao Xiaoyan again while having the full protection of our police. But she refused our request even though she didn't clearly know Gao Xiaoyan's real situation."

This is understandable to the police, that is an ordinary person's intuitive self-protective behavior when they perceive danger.

“But if you were there, perhaps Jiang Nanlu would have given it some thought.” Saying these words, Qi Ziang is also after deep consideration.

Jiang Tianyu is a brand new face within the city of Jiangcheng, Gao Xiaoyan has not seen it, so the chances of making her suspicious are definitely much smaller.

“You want me to accompany Jiang Nanlu to meet the suspect?”

To be honest, at the thought of meeting with the body she had previously crossed, Jiang Tianyu was going to refuse, but on second thought, there didn't seem to be any better way.

After a short hesitation of a few seconds, she still answered in a low voice.

The first time she faced the person with whom she had shared a brain, she was a little panicked.

At the end, she lifted her eyes and tilted her head high to look at the excessively tall figure in front of her: “When?”

The answer was immediately.

The day dawned just after the time to go to work, Jiang Tianyu stood in the compound under the Jiangcheng City Bureau, and hurried to Jiang Nanlu face confused.

The process of recognizing the two is easier than she thought, and even without her opening her mouth to say a word, the opposite person has opened his mouth wide, stuttering and incredulous: “You I you would not”

Silent nodded, if not too many people around, she wanted to hold her forehead with her hands.

It is probably the familiar smell emanating from the soul, Jiang Tianyu can only use such esoteric and metaphysical reasons to explain this phenomenon that is beyond the comprehension of ordinary people.

The woman got an affirmative response, but is very sensible and tightly closed his mouth, a pair of beautiful eyes bright as a light bulb, which is full of joy and thanks.

Next, to everyone's surprise, Jiang Nanlu for the police request again, but a bite agreed.

She stepped forward and took Jiang Tianyu's arm, and the smile on her pretty face seemed to be soaked in honey: “Officer Jiang, let's go! I'll take you to see Gao Xiaoyan!”

The words have just fallen, no matter what, Jiang Nanlu directly dragged people away and stuffed them into his car.

Is this so hasty? The people of the serious crime unit did not even have time to explain some notes.

The scene in front of you immediately let everyone present in the wind, Zeng Yongjia even have not been able to figure out what the situation is in front of you, he bared his teeth at the side of Lu Li: "How do I feel you find this case involved personnel phase small Jiang?"

"Is this something that can be said?" Lu Li stared round in dismay, then muttered, "Although I also have this illusion."

The two people were exchanging words in front, and no one noticed that Qi Ziang's handsome face in the back quickly darkened half because of these two words.
